CONDE MCGINLEY

Reference is made to the telephonic request of Mr. Vanech, Deputy Attorney General, on January 3, 1952, in which he stated that you desired to have a memorandum reflecting any information available in the Bureau files concerning Conde McGinley of New Jersey.

A memorandum was furnished Mr. Vanech under date of January 20, 1951, enclosing a copy of a summary from Bureau files regarding Conde McGinley and the publication "Common Sense," which he edits. A similar summary is attached which includes subsequent pertinent information. There is set forth therein information relating to McGinley and his activities in connection with "Common Sense" and the Nationalist Action League. It is noted that the Nationalist Action League has been cited by the Attorney General as a Fascist organization coming within the purview of Executive Order No. 9835.

More specific information concerning McGinley's activities with respect to the Nationalist Action League is contained in the following reports of investigation in the case entitled, "Nationalist Action League, Internal Security - X," copies of which have been previously furnished the Records Administration Branch:

Report of Special Agent [redacted] dated November 4, 1949, at Philadelphia.

Report of Special Agent [redacted] dated July 7, 1950, at Philadelphia.

Report of Special Agent [redacted] dated June 29, 1951, at Newark.

Report of Special Agent [redacted]
dated October 19, 1951, at Newark.
(105-9621-48; 105-11214-24, 33, 42, 47 and 50)

Additional information relative to McGinley's connection with the Nationalist Action League is set forth in reports of Special Agent [redacted] dated March 15, 1950, at Philadelphia, and Special Agent [redacted] dated August 8, 1951, at Philadelphia, in the case entitled, [redacted] was.; Internal Security - X, copies of which were likewise furnished the Records Administration Branch. (105-7857-9 and 17)

It is also noted that in the memorandum furnished Mr. Vanech on January 20, 1951, reference is made to McGinley's activity in publishing data concerning Anna M. Rosenberg, who was being considered for the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. In the course of investigation by this Bureau in the matter entitled, "Allegation of Alleged Membership of Anna M. Rosenberg in the John Reed Club, Perjury," McGinley was interviewed. Results of that interview, which are summarized in the attached memorandum, are set forth in the report of Special Agent [redacted] dated April 13, 1951, at New York, in the aforementioned matter, a copy of which was furnished Assistant Attorney General James M. McInerney. (126-486-426)

You will note that in the attached summary reference is made to an interview had with McGinley, who was the victim in an extortion case in 1949. More complete information concerning the extortion matters has been previously furnished the Criminal Division in the course of investigation in the matter entitled, "Unknown Subject, was., Sons of Israel, [redacted] Conde McGinley, was., Victim, Extortion."

CONDE MCGINLEY

Conde McGinley was born on October 13, 1890, at Norman, Oklahoma, of Irish-American parents. He resided in Oklahoma until 1930, at which time he moved with his family to Dallas, Texas. From Texas, he moved with his family to Belmar, New Jersey, [REDACTED] (105-9621-3; 9-16748-8)

[REDACTED] b7C
Conde McGinley and [REDACTED] came to the Bureau's attention in May, 1942, when [REDACTED] Monmouth, New Jersey, reported that [REDACTED] was making a donation of [REDACTED] to Camp Nordland, New Jersey and was active in the German American Bund. b7C

The German American Bund has been cited by the Attorney General as a Fascist and subversive organization.

Investigation by the New Jersey State Police in January, 1944, failed to develop any information regarding McGinley or [REDACTED] association with the German American Bund or sympathy with the German cause. (9-16748-8) * b7C

McGinley is the editor of "Common Sense," a newspaper published semi-monthly at 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, New Jersey. The publication describes itself as "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper." No investigation has been conducted by this Bureau concerning that paper.

ENCLOSURE

SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL

In December, 1944, a reliable informant advised that Conde McGinley was violently anti-Semitic, was a political agitator and has been known to state that he believed Hitler to be one of the greatest men on earth. Informant quoted McGinley as saying that "Hitler had been sent by God to deliver the world from Jews and Communism."

"Common Sense" was published under the name "Think Weekly," prior to June, 1947. There is no indication of the original publication date of that periodical. This Bureau initiated a security investigation of "Think Weekly" and Conde McGinley in August, 1946, on the basis of information received from a reliable confidential informant who stated that "Think Weekly" was a Fascist newspaper serving under the guise of being anti-Communist. Investigation at that time failed to reflect that the paper was Fascist although it was strongly anti-Communist. The investigation was closed in October, 1946, but the informant has continued to furnish information concerning "Think Weekly", now known as "Common Sense."

It is noted that a number of complaints have been received at this Bureau concerning "Common Sense" during the past two years with particular attention being called to its anti-Semitic attitude.

On subsequent interviews with the informant prior to January, 1949, he stated that McGinley's "reason for living" was to hate the Jews. He advised that "Common Sense," formerly known as "Think Weekly," was primarily anti-Semitic and that McGinley's opinion that "all Communists are Jews" was the basis for the existence of this publication. McGinley reportedly achieved a fair publication for this paper and operated it on subscriptions and donations received from various individuals interested in fighting Communism. Informant advised that McGinley's fanaticism bordered on insanity.

McGinley was interviewed by Bureau Agents on January 18, 1949, as a victim in an extortion case. He advised the Agents that

SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL

Anna M. Rosenberg before the Senate Armed Services Committee during December, 1950, advanced the funds to cover the cost of printing and mailing 50,000 copies of the November 1, issue of "Common Sense." "Know The Truth" also points out that Freedman had advanced a small fortune to "Common Sense" since 1948 in order to increase its circulation because he was interested in "Common Sense" as one of the most aggressive publications fighting Communism. It is further stated that opposition to Anna M. Rosenberg was motivated exclusively by consideration of national security and was not weighted by any other consideration despite the cry of "anti-Semitism."

Subsequent attacks against Freedman prompted McGinley and Freedman to arrange for the publication of an issue of "Common Sense" giving the complete story of Freedman's participation in the "Anna M. Rosenberg affair." However, shortly after a few copies of this issue of "Common Sense" (No. 128) were distributed McGinley refused to allow the issue to be put out. Thereafter, according to "Know The Truth", Freedman decided to publish his story in the January 2, 1951, issue of "Know The Truth" which was published for that purpose.

Conde McGinley was interviewed in March, 1951, by Agents of this Bureau in the course of the investigation in the case "Allegation of Alleged Membership of Anna M. Rosenberg in the John Reed Club; Perjury." He stated he was then the editor of "Common Sense," published semi-monthly at Union, New Jersey, and through which he had for many years been attempting to oppose Communism in this country. The interview concerned principally his relations and dealings with Benjamin H. Freedman in connection with issuing the above-mentioned publications about Anna M. Rosenberg.

REDS TRY MAIL CONTROL

The Jewish Examiner of Brooklyn, New York, Rabbi Louis D. Gross, editor, in issue of December 28, carries bold headlines over an article which states that Common Sense flooded New York and Brooklyn with issue No. 148, evoking angry demands by Jews to demand of Congress that the mails be denied to Common Sense.

The article also states that McGinley, editor of Common Sense, "played a leading role in the attempt to smear Mrs. Anna Rosenberg when she was appointed to the post of assistant defense mobilizer."

The Examiner article mentions further that some Congressmen publicly stated: those responsible for the attempted character assassination, "including the convert to Christianity, Benjamin Freedman, Gerald L. K. Smith and McGinley," would be probed by a committee, but "nothing has happened so far."

Common Sense, according to the Examiner, "equated" Judaism with Communism. Actually, Common Sense stated positively that they are the same, and will gladly prove it.

In closing the article the Examiner says: "Whether or not the bills could be introduced at the coming session may depend on the force of public opinion."

The Jewish Examiner takes the same position Judaism always takes—it refuses to answer the charges made by Christian people who are alarmed at the control of key positions, in principal governments of the world, by Jews.

The reason no committee of Congress called for a hearing of those who exposed Anna Rosenberg for what she really is should be plain to those informed. Common Sense knows, and the Jewish Examiner knows, that if a fair, open hearing was held Anna Rosenberg would not have been allowed to retain the position she has which gives her control of hiring thousands every month—approximately a million people since December 6, 1950.

When evidence of Red affiliations began to mount, Zionist friends of Anna M. Rosenberg arranged for a release stating that the Red Anna Rosenberg was located in California. It is a year since, but no amount of prodding or accusing has been sufficient to bring forth the supposed "California" Anna Rosenberg. No one to whom we have talked believes the concocted story which took the heat off the Anna M. Rosenberg named to a top government position. Why was it of such importance that the Jews have Red Anna placed in this position? Before the end of 1952, everyone will know.

The Jewish Examiner calls for Jewish organizations to bring pressure on Congress soon after it convenes to prevent Common Sense from using the mails—just because they do not like the exposures. They say Common Sense is guilty of grave libel. Common Sense gladly takes them up on this accusation. If it is proven that we are libeling them, we will voluntarily discontinue.

How simple to get rid of Common Sense: Congress arranges an OPEN hearing and, if we do not prove our charges against Judaism, then we are libeling them. If it is proven that we are libeling the Jews, we will apologize and turn Common Sense over to the Red, American Jewish Congress.

Rabbi Gross, just think how ridiculous you would make us look—discredited before the whole Country.

As soon as you Jews have complete control here, as you have in Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Rumania and the Soviet Union, you can close Common Sense WITHOUT A HEARING. If you try it now, you will meet plenty of opposition. Thousands of people would welcome an OPEN hearing. The following are a few things we will prove:

You Jews are entirely responsible for the United States' entering World War II which cost our taxpayers 500 BILLION, took countless American lives, and placed Europe almost entirely under Jewish control.

You Jews were, and are, the power behind Roosevelt and Truman.

You Jews have eaten the heart out of the Republican and Democratic parties. You own the two principal candidates in the Republican Party as well as the Black Horses—

JEWS HONOR TRAITOR

Paul Ginsburg, national commander of the Jewish War Veterans, presents the organization's 57th annual gold medal to Secretary of State Acheson. Albert M. Greenfield, Philadelphia, dinner chairman (right), looks on.

The Country has been screaming for the firing of Acheson. The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion passed resolutions asking that Acheson be fired. The Jewish War Vets, on December 30, 1951, at the Waldorf in New York, presented Acheson with their top annual award, a gold medal as one of the most valuable Americans of 1951! Yes, valuable to the Jews.

Acheson has been giving all possible aid to Reds by the slipshod methods employed by the State Department. It has been necessary to ransom American fliers; newspaper reporters have been imprisoned. This grew so bad the American Legion was finally forced to comment, through its national leader, Donald R. Wilson, that the American Legion would, if necessary, pay the $120,000 ransom demanded by "Communist Hungary" for the release of four American airmen.

The statement issued, after condemning the imprisonment of the four American fliers, commented on the Otis and Vogeler cases. It said:

"In this case, the Bill Otis case, the Vogeler case and all the others, stand as monuments to the muddle-headedness and bankruptcy of the foreign policy of our government. They show the open contempt which other governments have for us. They reflect the ultimate price which will have to be paid for the continuation of indecision, defeatism, incompetency, and lack of firmness in the conduct of our foreign affairs. This demonstrates the need for an immediate change in the leadership of the State Department beginning with the present Secretary of State. We must have leadership with courage enough, confidence enough and boldness enough to proclaim an end to the indignities heaped upon this nation and its citizens by other governments by demanding and getting the respect which the greatness and power of America merits. Let those who would insult us be clearly and firmly told that we are sensitive to our honor and will fight to defend it."

Those who have wondered what mysterious power has kept Acheson in office, despite all opposition from loyal Americans and demands for Acheson's removal, NOW have the answer.

With the blood of 150,000 casualties on his shoulders Acheson accepts the Gold Medal for his service to America. What a hypocrite—what a cover-up!

CHRIST versus ANTICHRIST

"Let no man deceive you by any means, for unless there come a revolt first, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and is lifted up above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he sitteth in the Temple of God, showing himself as if he were God. Remember . . . I told you these things? And now you know . . . that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity already worketh . . . and the wicked one shall be revealed . . . Whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders. And in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish; because they receive not the love of the truth." (2nd Epistle St. Paul, 2:1-16)

THE GREAT APOSTASY

The reigning Pontiff of the Church, Pope Pius XII, describes our times as the darkest days since the Deluge and speaks of punishment such as humankind has never known before. The Most Rev. Andrew Joseph MacDonald, O.S.B., Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, said: "At the present moment the world is trembling on the brink of the greatest catastrophe that the human race has ever known and yet Catholics remain sunk in apathetic complacency . . . Some twelve months ago the present Holy Father pronounced perhaps the most solemn warning ever given to the Church by the Vicar of Christ. He said that the hour had struck; the battle, the most widespread, bitter and ferocious the world has ever known, has been joined. It must be fought to a finish."

A world which still pretends to belief in Almighty God, yet denies the very existence of Lucifer, is the saddest commentary on our modern times. It is the greatest paradox in an age of paradoxes. In this era of brilliant lights and black shadows, we have "great" theologians who dismiss Satan as one mythological beast resembling the dragon of our childhood fairy tales and even relegate their Creator to the category of mythology. Ours is an "enlightened" era, of social security from womb to tomb; an age of science, but even the scientists can't provide security against their contribution to civilization of bigger and better atom and hydrogen bombs! Indeed our age is so progressive that we are even formulating a "new" religion based upon scientific knowledge which will prove far more dangerous than any atom or H-bomb! This new weapon of the scientific and social-minded theologians is designed to destroy men's souls, not merely their minds and bodies. The present struggle is not a mere political battle to defraud the minds and bodies of mankind but to destroy their souls and is in very fact a religious war.

This "new" religion, which has the support of the United Nations organization, is no doubt the "religion" Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick refers to in his article in the December, 1951, issue of the United Nations world, entitled "Tomorrow's Religion." Dr. Fosdick is one of those National Council of Churches of Christ (formerly Federal Council of Churches of Christ of America) atheists who neither believes in the Divinity of Christ nor His Virgin Birth: "Of course," he says, "I do not believe in the Virgin Birth or in that old-fashioned substitutionary doctrine of the Atonement and I do not know any intelligent Christian Minister who does." Neither does Fosdick believe in the life hereafter; in the course of his Ingersoll Lectures at Harvard, he ridiculed heaven as "a perpetual religious serenade." The only basis for belief in immortality is the futility of the present world if no other world follows, and Fosdick's belief in immortality is not based upon Christian theology but the Naturalistic views of Ralph Waldo Emerson, the Agnostic poet. "My belief in life eternal," wrote Fosdick, "springs out of the haunting faith which Ralph Waldo Emerson put into words characteristically compressed, 'What is excellent, as God lives, is permanent.'" (see New Faith For Old, pp. 36, 13, etc.).

Fosdick and his fellow apostates in the NCC subscribe to the belief that the contributions of Buddha, Mohammed, Brahma, Karma-Krishna, Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i cult and its present prophet, Abdul Baha, to religion are just as important as those of Christ, Whom they ignore as the Redeemer of mankind from the bondage of hell. Fosdick's fellow apostate in the NCC, Dr. J. W. Nixon of the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School and Chairman of the FCC Department of Research and Education, tells us that if a prophet should arise who can make man's life more rich and abundant than Jesus did, he will inaugurate a revolution comparable to that of Jesus Christ. In his work, An Emerging Christian Faith, Nixon writes:

"We shall not bandy words about the finality of Christ nor attempt to prejudge the future. The field is open for anyone at any time to mean more to men than Jesus has meant. If anyone can give us a vision of God more satisfying than that of Jesus, if he can make God more real and accessible, man's life more rich and abundant, fellowship with God more intense and expansive than Jesus made it, if he can meet the needs of the humblest and illumine the dark hours as Jesus could not: then he will inaugurate a revolution in religion comparable to that associated with the Nazarene." (p. 200)

"The great religious traditions within which we were reared as children is breaking up," says Dr. Nixon on p. 21 of this same work, "and a new framework of religious thought" must be developed to replace the religion of Christ, but he adds: "we cannot be sure that it will even be recognized as Christian." (p. 20) As for the "new" god (apparently Nixon and his associates overlook the fact he is none other than old Lucifer, the Prince and god of this world), whom Nixon tells us "will inaugurate a revolution in religion comparable to that associated with the Nazarene," he will actually be a human being, and under this great "religious" reign, Nixon adds:

"The wolf will need to dwell with the lamb, the calf, the young lion and the falling together . . . only the Agent of that regeneration will be no Messianic King endowed with miraculous powers but man . . . Nature's Insurgent Son" leading the urges and the strivings of Nature to their larger fulfillment . . ."

One is led to believe that Dr. Nixon only copied the works of philosophers of Karma-Krishna, the Vedantas, Theosophists and find them duplicated in the works of Swami Vivekananda, Baha'u'llah, and other atheists of the Orient. For instance, he teaches that Christ was only a man and on p. 90 insists that modern Christians "are not turning to the formulated doctrines of the Church concerning Christ nor are they turning to the supernatural or miraculous investiture which accompanies the presentation of his figure in the Gospels," for the Gospels, says Nixon, "may be traced for their origin to the religious fancy" of Jesus (p. 175), who was "unreservedly a human being. As a demi-god he is not an object of imitation. And if he walked among us on spiritual stilts, exhorting us to come up higher, there is an unreality in his message which is ultimately unescapable . . . He was the child of his people and of his time." Therefore, Dr. Nixon insists, we must turn to comparative religion, the Natural religions of the Oriental prophets, those other faiths besides Christianity which had their special revelations, their inspired books, their miracles, saviours, and salvation (p. 17) and discard our inherited conceptions such as those concerning hell, the Second Coming, and even "the Virgin Birth" (now) traced to non-Christian origins.

We shall discuss the Fosdicks, Nixons, Caverts, and other helmsmen of the rudderless ship of the atheistic FCC, otherwise known as the National Council of Churches, in a subsequent chapter entitled The Apostles of Atheology. For the present the eulogy given Fosdick and his fellow monsters of apostasy by the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism should suffice to convince the reader that these Faithless leaders of the faithful are the Agents of Lucifer and devoted to the task of establishing the Synagogue of Satan. In its Fifth Annual Report, the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism praised the efforts of Fosdick and his fellow atheists as follows:

"They are saving the ship of Christianity by throwing her cargo overboard. With what zeal the Fosdicks and Shailer Mathews and the crew of rescuers toss out . . . the Virgin Birth, Atonement, and the Resurrection. How long will men sail the seas in an empty ship? They will go ashore and enjoy life with the atheists. We welcome the aid of the modernists and pledge them our fullest support in ridding the world of any serious acceptance of Christian theology."

Bishop Griffin of Springfield, Ill., who, in the course of a sermon delivered in his cathedral January 8, 1948, and reported in the Catholic Worker and other publications, said:

"It will not be by Doctrine that reconciliation will be effected. People are not drawn to Christ by theological filibustering. Does the zealot of the picket line give a snap of his fingers about Purgatory? Does the millionaire worry about the Virgin Birth or the Immaculate Conception? How many Catholics embrace the Faith because of Dogma? . . ."

The present writer embraces the Faith because of Dogma and we sincerely believe that the vast majority of Catholics do likewise. Perhaps the Bishop can explain just what Christ meant when He exhorted His Apostles to go forth and teach His Doctrine to all nations? Their theological filibustering brought them eventual Martyrdom, but it also planted the seeds of a new civilization. One is also tempted to doubt that either of these members of the Catholic Hierarchy ever heard of the SYLLABUS OF MODERN ERRORS of Pope Pius IX, which forbids just such errors as these men are perpetrating, let alone the "MONITUM" of the present Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, of June 5, 1948, which forbids Catholic participation in Inter-Faith societies, including the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Rev. John La Farge, S.J., of the editorial staff of the Jesuit's National Catholic Weekly Magazine, America, would have the public believe that the Church intends to eliminate Her prayer in the Good Friday Liturgy which refers to "perfidis Judaeis," as reported in the New York Times, Oct. 1, 1948. But an inquiry directed to the Liturgical Commission, headed by Clemente Cardinal Micara, revealed that Rev. La Farge's public statement was a baseless invention of his own imagination and he made a public retraction of his statement which appeared in the New York Times of Oct. 6, 1948. Father La Farge, together with his Clerico-Liberal associates on the editorial staff of America, have been peddling a diluted Catholicity which is in absolute violation of the SYLLABUS of Pius IX, which seeks to soften up the "hard" doctrines of Christ, in favor of the "new" Christianity whose central doctrine is Socialism and racial equality. Brotherhood with International Jewry is more important to the editorial staff of the America than Brotherhood in Christ. The entire theme of International Jewry's doctrine of hatred of all things Christian for the past two thousand years is: "If you can't lick 'em, join 'em." Thus, Jewry's sole purpose in having Christians "join" up with the National Conference of Christians and Jews is to destroy Christianity by promoting atheism. Pope Leo XIII made this explicitly clear in his Letter of Dec. 8, 1892, wherein he warned Catholics:

"... familiar intercourse should be cut off, not only with the openly wicked but with those who hide their real character under the mask of universal toleration, of respect for all religions, of the mania of reconciling the maxims of the Gospel with those of the Revolution, Christ with Belial, the Church of God with the State without God. . . . Besides, as it is a question of a sect which has invaded all domains, it is not enough to remain on the defensive; Catholics must descend courageously into the arena and combat it face to face. This you shall do, dear Sons, by opposing publications to publications, schools to schools, associations to associations, congresses to congresses, action to action. . . . Above all, Catholic parents should not confine their children to schools that are not safe. . . . With your persons and your money help the Catholic Press. . . ." (Trans. of Orig. pub. by Le Bonne Presse, Paris)

WHAT CATHOLIC PRESS? How many Catholic publications today, with the exception of the Brooklyn Tablet, London Tablet, and a few journals of minor circulation, are actually "Catholic" publications? How many of them remind their readers of His promise uttered from Calvary's height: "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all things to Myself." (John XII:32)? On the contrary, many of them would drag Catholics down to the same secular level as the Public Press, which was described by An American Agnostic, in his work, Rebuilding A Lost Faith, as follows:

"A considerable portion of the Press is now an ominous danger to public morals, since it has shown itself to be both vile and venal and willing to deceive and brutalize mankind. . . . What adds to the peril of this capitalized Press, which is, of course, not confined to any country—is the deplorable fact that millions of the peoples of all lands find in their newspapers their only mental food, and form their opinions on practically all subjects by reading insincerely-written editorials. Some even have time only for the headlines!"

Newspaper men "are intellectual prostitutes," the author says, and quotes "Phillip Francis, for years an editorial writer of great influence in America, and who had had for forty years an intimate connection with journalism," as stating: "With a few honorable exceptions, the big papers and magazines of the United States are the most ignorant and glibble, as well as the most cowardly and controlled Press, printed in any country in the world. The majority of their owners are mere financiers, who look upon their magazines and newspapers simply as money-making mills, and who, whenever it is a question between more coin and good, honest, patriotic public service, will take the coin every time." (The Poison in America's Cup, p. 31). And, the author continues: "... It is the duty of the New York journalist," quoting John Swinton, New York Editor, during an annual dinner of the New York Press Association, whereat he said: "It is the duty of a New York journalist..." (mark the words well) "to lie, to distort, to revile, to toudy at the feet of Mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread, or what amounts to the same thing, his salary. We are marionettes. These men pull the strings, and we dance. Our time, our talents, our lives, our capacities are all the property of these men; we are intellectual prostitutes." (3rd Ed., p. 28).

The only differences we can distinguish between some of our so-called "Catholic" publications, such as America, Commonweal, Catholic Worker, Integrity, etc., is that they write lukewarmly, indifferently, and do not attempt to form a convinced partisan for or against Christ. While on the other hand, the contrast between Zionist, Socialist, Communist and Jewish publications in general, and those purportedly controlled by Catholics, is astonishing indeed! From the first to the last line, the Naturalists, who are anti-Christian, aim at forming a convinced partisan of their readers, and their columns are written with vigor and profound conviction, even though they are the "rag pickers" of hate, ill will, falsehood and misery and propagate the doctrine of the Antichrist!

The only articles we've seen in America and other so-called "Catholic" journals that are written with conviction are those eulogizing Irish "Catholic" politicians of the New-Deal-Fair-Deal Social Revolution or articles in defense of the Communists and fellow travelers harbored by the Administration in the State Department, or the Social Revolutionaries in the ranks of Labor organizations. These so-called "Catholic" publications are also vehement when they attack such patriots as Westbrook Pegler, Senator McCarthy, Joe Kamp, Conde McGinley, Major Williams, Merwin K. Hart, Gerald L. K. Smith, and other Christian defenders of God and nation. We might summarize the publications purportedly controlled by Catholics, that is to say, if they are actually controlled by Catholics or a newspaper syndicate wielding outside financial influence, in the language employed by the author of the article "Catholic Journals?" which appeared in La Vie Intellectuelle, April 25 to May 10, 1933, from which we quote the following reference to Catholic journals which:

"... only too often shares in that cold and indifferent outlook on religious matters, with which the pupils of Catholic schools are reproached. They (the pupils of Catholic schools) have been brought up in a Catholic atmosphere they have breathed naturally, but they do not feel the healthy, life-giving purity of it. They are 'fed up' with religion as they are with Latin and Greek. The joy of possessing a treasure and the ambition to increase it seem to be dead within them. ... All these young Catholics seem to be unaware of the fact that they hold in their hands the torch which is meant to illumine the world. They carry it along lifelessly and without interest, just as they would a candle in a procession. Our Catholic paper does the same. Its attitude towards religion is the stereotyped one of discharging a duty that has to be performed." (Dr. Eberle, director of Vieillesse Catholique Weekly)

We might remind the editorial staff of America magazine and the owners, editors or directors of other Catholic publications of the admonition of Pope Pius X, when he established fundamental rules for Catholic Action, and which advice he repeated in his Encyclical Letter, SINGULARI QUADAM, Sept. 24, 1912:

"Whatever a Catholic does, even in temporal matters, he has not the right to neglect his supernatural interests, nay more, the prescriptions of Catholic teaching oblige him to direct everything toward the Sovereign Good as towards the last end of all things. All his actions, inasmuch as they are either morally good or bad, that is to say, in agreement or disagreement with natural and divine law, come under the judgment and jurisdiction of the Church. All those, therefore, who glory in the name of Catholic, whether considered individually or as members of an association, if they are mindful of their duty as Catholics, should endeavor to promote peace and charity and not hostility and jealousy between different classes of citizens. ... the social question is above all a moral and religious question, and for that reason must be settled by the principles of morality and according to the dictates of religion (Encyclical, Graves de Communi)."

To all apparent evidences, the editorial staff of the America has never heard of the MOTU PROPRIO, "Fin Dalla Prima," of Pope Pius X, issued December 18th, 1903, a collection of rules of Christian action traced out by Pope Leo XIII in his Encyclicals. To quote those dealing with Economics, utilizing the English Catholic Truth Society's translation:

"I. Human society, as God established it, is composed of unequal elements, just as members of the human body are unequal; to make them all equal is impossible, and would be the destruction of society itself (Encyclical QUOD APOSTOLICI MUNERIS).

"II. The equality of the different members of society consists solely in this: that all men come from the hands of their Creator; that they have been redeemed by Jesus Christ; and that they will be judged, rewarded, or punished by God ACCORDING TO THE EXACT MEASURE OF THEIR MERITS AND OF THEIR DEMERITS (Encyclical QUOD APOSTOLICI MUNERIS).

"III. Consequently, it is conformable to the order established by God that in human society there should be princes and subjects, masters and men, rich and poor, learned and ignorant, nobles and plebeians, who, united by the bond of love, should help one another to attain their final end in Heaven, and their material and moral well-being on earth. (Encyclical, QUOD APOSTOLICI MUNERIS).

"IV. With regard to the goods of the earth, man has not only, like the animals, the use of them, but also the right of permanent ownership; and this, not only with reference to those goods which are consumed in being used, but also with reference to others. (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"V. Private property is an indisputable natural right, whether it be the fruit of labor or industry, or transfer or gift on the part of another, and each one may reasonably dispose of it at will (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"VI. To calm the strife between rich and poor, it is necessary to distinguish between justice and charity. Only when justice has been violated is there a right to make a claim (Encyclical RERUM NOVARUM).

"VII. The obligations of the poor and of the workman are these: to perform wholly and faithfully the work which has been freely and equitably agreed upon; not to injure masters in their property or person; to abstain from acts of violence, even in defense of their own rights; and never to turn their demands into disturbances (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"VIII. The obligations of justice for capitalists and masters are as follows: to pay a just wage for workmen; not to injure their lawful savings by violence, fraud, nor by open or hidden usury; to allow them freely to fulfill their religious duties; not to expose them to corrupting allurements, nor to the danger of scandal; not to entice them from a love of their family; and from careful thrift; not to impose on them work unsuited to their strength, age, and sex (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"IX. It is an obligation of charity for the rich and for those who have means to help the poor and needy, according to the precept of the Gospel. This precept is of such binding force that, at the day of judgment, as our Lord Himself tells us, a special account of its fulfillment will be required (Matt. xxv.) (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"X. The poor, on their part, ought not to blush for their poverty, nor disdain the charity of the rich, above all when they think of Jesus, our Redeemer, Who, though He could have been born in wealth, made Himself poor to ennoble poverty and enrich it with incomparable merit for Heaven (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"XI. Capitalists and workmen may themselves largely help toward the solution of the labor question, by institutions formed to give timely aid to those who are in need, as also to draw together and unite the two classes. Such are societies of mutual help, numerous private insurance societies, what are called 'patronages' for the young, and above all, workmen's unions (Encyclical, RERUM NOVARUM).

"XII. Finally, let Catholic writers, while upholding the cause of the people and of the poor, beware of using language which may inspire the masses with hatred of the upper classes of society. Let them not talk of claims and of justice, when it is a question of pure charity, as has already been explained. Let them bear in mind that Christ wishes to unite all men by the mutual bond of love which is the perfection of justice, and implies the duty of working for each other's good (Instruction of Sacred Congregation of Ecclesiastical Affairs)." (*Note: In a Letter of Cardinal Gasparri, Secretary of State, 9-10-1926, to Mgr. Otto Miller, President of International League of Catholic Workmen's Associations, this point is also touched upon: "A dangerous tendency is showing itself even amongst some Catholics, who, under pretense of favoring the rights of workmen—a matter in itself assuredly very just and praiseworthy—do not seem to take as much account of their duties."

WE WERE WARNED

"Your so-called 'progressive' politics in the United States were 'made in Germany.'"

"Your 'progressive' politics are the reflection of the sort of state socialism which Bismarck established as a concession to the great number of followers of Karl Marx, then existing, when he was molding the German Empire in 1870.

"Your educators do undergraduate work in our German Universities and come back chock full of conceptions of social justice, the beauties of bureaucracy, the efficiency of our system of government, and the high social and official positions accorded the pedagogues.

"As a matter of fact, our government is not nearly as efficient as most people think. No government ever is. It gets by because the German people are an obedient people, accustomed to regimentation. Are you Americans obedient?

"You have adopted an income tax law in Congress. That is the beginning. You will have many more and more burdensome ones. Now you don't know a thing about the burdens of taxes. We in Europe know. But what amazes me is that your people seem so intent on following our example instead of developing the system provided by your constitution. Wait a few years and see the results!"

ISRAEL'S NEW PIONEERS

Samuel Rolbant, a Jew of Tel Aviv, writing in the New Statesman & Nation of August 18th, has this to say about recent immigration to Israel:

"It brought into the country thousands of black marketeers from post-war Germany, smugglers from Turkey, professional Rumanians, toughs from Casablanca, currency dealers from Shanghai, British subjects who could not solve their differences with H. M. Inspector of Taxes, embezzlers from all countries to which they cannot be extradited, estate property dealers, contraband men, peddlers, gamblers, speculators and bona fide shopkeepers, and thousands of others who simply embody the age-old Jewish tradition of living by avoiding unproductive labor."

Harold Stassen and Governor Warren—whom you intend to use at the convention to jockey their following as you Jews direct.

No one questions that you own Truman. Hence again, you intend to let the dumb people go through the motions of an election, and you win either way. You fear one man, General MacArthur, because you cannot buy or bluff him.

Still, no decent Jew need fear MacArthur.

Left-wing papers, edited by Jews, called for the dismissal of General MacArthur for years before the General was recalled from Asja.

You Jews are responsible for China (500 MILLION) going over to Communism. There our manpower will be depleted until we are helpless to defend ourselves against organized world Communism which is directed, and was created, 100% by Jews.

It is common knowledge that our State Department, directed by Zionist-loving Dean Acheson, with the help of the mental midget General Marshall, broke down Chiang Kai-Shek and established Communism in China. Who put Dean Acheson in office and keeps him there against the will of the majority of Americans? Felix Frankfurter directs the State Department through Acheson.

Acheson was taught by Felix Frankfurter at Harvard, then went into the office of Louis D. Brandeis (Frankfurter's uncle) for the final touches which prepared him for the important post the Jews could place him in.

The Jews already boast in print that Christianity is through. Jews, Dr. Emil Well and one Gerson, engineered the persecution of Cardinal Mindszenty.

The Jews who have been maneuvered into important positions in all governments, started immediately after Germany was crushed to put the heat on for trouble between the Soviet Union and the U. S., so as to bring about complete Jewish rule in the United States, as exists in all Europe and the Soviet Union as a result of the last war.

No one knows this better than the Rabbis.

The Jewish network, designed for Jewish control of the world, is very shrewd and places great value on its "secrecy." It is to maintain this "undercover" work that the Jews wish Common Sense silenced. Jews do not deny that the government officials of the so-called "Communist" countries are Jews. They just do not want it publicly known.

Further, Jews dislike having any light put on their Talmud, for it is not a holy book. It is the most filthy, vulgar writing ever put before the eyes of man, and it is required study for Jewish youths for 10 hours a week, for six years. It is the Talmud which boasts that the Jews crucified Jesus Christ, and contains such filth as: "A woman who has intercourse with a beast is eligible to marry a high priest." (Soncino edition, page 397).

Let's have an OPEN hearing and settle, once and for all, whether or not the Jews are being libeled, or whether they are guilty as accused. No one is opposed to them because of their race or religion. "By their fruits you shall know them." (Matt. 7:16)

Why is it necessary for the Anti-Defamation League alone (there are many other Jewish organizations) to spend an average of ten MILLION a year in the U. S. to prevent the public from believing charges against the Jews? This A.D.L. organization alone has 17 offices in the U. S. Their literature boasts that they have 2000 "investigators" (snoopers) and use movies, speakers, many booklets, furnish two sizes of movie films, use billboards, magazine and newspaper writers, comic books. Is there any other group—race or religion—which has to do this—keep a permanent "defense arm" to defend themselves?

All the Jew leaders need do is quit being devils and there will be peace on earth.

WE ARE GRATEFUL

This Christmas we received many beautiful cards. We are very grateful. Inasmuch as we are so covered with work, may we ask that each of you accept this as an acknowledgment for your kindness.

We send, through these lines, our appreciation and best wishes for your Health and Happiness in the New Year.

Emil Well

Emil Well, recently appointed Hungarian Minister to the U. S., is shown above as he left the White House after presenting his credentials. A Jew, he joins the already-long list of Jews presently ruling "Communist" Hungary.

It is reported that President Truman, when accepting Well's papers, spoke of America's "deep friendly interest in the welfare of the Hungarian people." Perhaps Truman, if he gives the matter any thought at all, can ask Hungary about the "deep friendly interest" recently shown four American Air Corpamen, for whom the U. S. Government had to pay a $120,000 ransom. Perhaps even the Hungarian-born Jewess, Annie M. Rosenberg, will ask her native nation to return the U. S. airplane which the Hungarian "government" confiscated and has not, as yet, released despite the ransom money paid for the U. S. airmen.

The President of the United States does not, obviously, read Common Sense. If he did, he would know that his Assistant Secretary of Defense, Annie Rosenberg, is a relative in "faith" of the following rulers of Jew-ruled Hungary:

Matyas Rakosi, Deputy Prime Minister (Jew); Peter Gabor (Benno Aushitz), Chief of Political Police (Jew); Erno Gero (Singer), Minister of State (Jew); Zoltan Vas (Weinberger), Chief of Planning (Jew); Joseph Reval (Roth), Minister of People's Culture and Editor of official Communist Party organ SZABAD NEP. (Jew); Ivan Boldizsar (Blum), Chief of Press for Foreign Affairs (Jew); Mihaly Farkas, Minister of Defense (Jew); Dr. Ferenc Erdei, Minister of Agriculture (Jew); Andor Berey, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs (Jew); P. I. Sebestyen, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs (Jew); Joseph Meeser, President of the Hungarian High Court (Jew).

In 1934 the Communist Doctor Well, a Jew, was arrested in Budapest and sentenced to 15 years in jail. Now, sixteen years later, he has become Hungarian minister to Washington.

It was Doctor Well who administered drugs to Cardinal Mindszenty after the Cardinal had fainted after seeing his secretary, Andrew Zakar, led into the Cardinal's presence. Zakar, covered with blood from harsh beatings, was hysterical and shouting wild answers to questions.

Such NICE people there are in Washington today!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I greatly admire your faith and courage. It is a great tragedy that we have so very few men like you. Yourself and Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin are, in my opinion, the two most outstanding men that I know of doing a great patriotic work without any fear or reward.

Enclosed is payment for five new subscriptions. F. O., So. Carolina

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Please accept the enclosed $100 towards financing the new printing plant. May many more be magnetized in your direction. Best regards.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON NATION'S SECURITY AND CIVILIZATION THREATENED BY MARXIST CONSPIRATORS Camouflaged traitors high in government are secretly sabotaging U.S.A. plans for defense

"Anti-Semitism" is the "smoke screen" behind which the enemies of this nation and Christianity aim to win their "cold" war. Their "creeping conquest" must be stopped or the international Marxists' conspiracy for world rule will become a reality very soon. It is well known that their "cold" war-plans rely upon "anti-

Patriotic citizens should be "sound off" with "from whence it comes" and "sound off" with a "line drive" attack against this Marxist conspiracy for world conquest. The cry "anti-Semitism" by the Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund has become the political, economic, and social "A-bomb" in the arsenal of the invisible agents of the international Marxist war. They have given "anti-Semitism" the power of any bomb that is devastating.

The existence of a conspiracy to conquer the world is well established. The American people are not sufficiently informed about it. The facts which follow will go far in convincing the most skeptical person that this nation is in immediate danger. NOW is the time to act. The FIRST step to take is to LEARN the "SCORE."

UNSEEN DISEASE DESTROYING NATION'S LIFE

In this crisis it becomes necessary to treat the DISEASE. Americans have been treating SYMPTOMS. This nation is the victim of a malignant malady. Like all malignant maladies the danger is invisible. Its existence is only evidenced by its symptoms. To treat the SYMPTOMS but not the DISEASE will quickly prove fatal.

In order to survive it becomes vital to discover the disease BEFORE it reaches the stage where it is TOO LATE to save the patient. When many patients finally reach the operating table it is discovered that it is TOO LATE. The case is HOPELESS. The patient is sewed-up and sent home to wait for the inevitable. IT IS TOO LATE THEN TO START "REVERSING THE TREND."

This nation and Christianity are now in that stage. IS IT TOO LATE TO REVERSE THE TREND? That is the ONLY important issue. WE THINK IT IS NOT TOO LATE! But the condition is critical. There must not be an instant's delay in ATTACKING THE DISEASE. The nation's patriots must not allow themselves to be misled by their enemies into treating SYMPTOMS, and ignoring the existence of the DISEASE producing the symptoms.

Common sense teaches us to follow this logical course to SAVE OUR LIVES. Common sense should tell us also to use that same logic to SAVE OUR NATION. There is not a moment to be lost in making a CORRECT DIAGNOSIS. Until that is done it is not possible to give the CORRECT TREATMENT. Unless the CORRECT TREATMENT is given without much loss of time the DISEASE will soon reach the HOPELESS stage. Years will not then be able to wash away these mistakes.

MARXIST UNDERGROUND ENDANGERS NATION

Julius Rosenberg, Ethel Rosenberg, Judith Coplon, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Gerhard Eisler, Irving Fetscher, Alexander Bittelman, Gilbert Green (Greenberg), Jacob Golos, "J. Peters" Goldberger, Jacob Stachel, Sidney Weinbaum, Hanna Eisler, Israel Regenstein, Philip Bart, Ephraim Elzer, Elmer (Michael Lee), Philip Jaffe, Mark Julius Ginzburg (Mark Gays), Andrew Roth, Dorn Weiss (Harry Dexter White), Avre Gus Halberg (Gus Hall), are only SYMPTOMS. The DISEASE itself is the international Marxist conspiracy for world conquest. IT IS NECESSARY TO PAY ATTENTION TO THE SYMPTOMS BECAUSE THEY INDICATE THE NATURE AND THE LOCATION OF THE DISEASE. THE DISEASE, HOWEVER, MUST BE ATTACKED AND DESTROYED.

The anti-Christ atheist Marxist aggression is under the direct leadership of Yiddish Marxists. The Yiddish Marxists claim Marxism as their offspring. Apart from the political, social and economic implications of Marxism it also harbors a very definite anti-Christ implication.

TALMUDIC PRAYER MAKING TRAITORS PRAYER PROMOTES TREASON Loyalty oaths valueless at time taken, a prayer nullifies oaths before taking.

A prayer recited in synagogues preceding the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies makes traitors of everyone participating in these ceremonies. The threat contained in that prayer to the security of this nation and to the survival of civilization commands the immediate consideration of all patriotic Americans.

The recitation of that prayer in synagogues prior to the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies renders valueless the loyalty oath of all who participate in the ceremony.

RUSSIA DEFEATS THE JUDAIZED KHAZARS

When in the 11th Century A.D. the Russians conquered the Judaized Khazars an important alteration was introduced by Yiddish communities, the former Judaized Khazars, in their ceremonies on the Day of Atonement.

Bloch and Mandelstam, the two foremost Judaic authorities on matters relating to the historic evolution of Judaism, both state that this significant alteration was the premeditated consequence of "a definite historical event."

The "definite historical event" referred to by Bloch and Mandelstam was the final conquest of the Judaized Khazars, called since then Yiddish communities, in eastern Europe, by the Russians in the 11th Century. That conquest wiped from the face of the map of Europe the 1000 year old Khazar Kingdom which during its last 500 years flourished as a sovereign Judaic theocracy under Talmudic law, the totalitarian rule over civilians by rabbis.

The interpretations made during the past 500 years by leading Judaic authorities upon the alteration made in that prayer confirm that its effect is to make null and void for the coming year all oaths, vows and pledges. As a consequence of that alteration in the prayer all oaths, vows and pledges made in the coming year become inoperative, ineffective and invalid even before they are made.

The immunity thereby obtained from responsibilities or obligations assumed under oaths, vows and pledges to be taken during the coming year is renewed each year by the "Kol Nidre" ceremony on the Day of Atonement.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA EXPLAINS PRAYER

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 539, the following prayer is recited three times at the opening of the Day of Atonement services. That prayer is called "Kol Nidre" (All Vows). The text of that prayer is reproduced here exactly as it appears in the official translation in the Jewish Encyclopedia:

"All vows, obligations, oaths and anathemas, whether called 'konam,' 'kenas,' or by any other name, which we may vow, or swear, or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this Day of Atonement unto the next (whose happy coming we await), we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled and void and made of no effect; they shall not bind us nor have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths be oaths."

TALMUDIC PRAYER MAKING TRAITORS

PRAYER'S PURPOSE PURELY POLITICAL

Notwithstanding the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is recited three times at the opening of the Day of Atonement services, the Jewish Encyclopedia emphasizes that this prayer has no connection with the Day of Atonement religious services which follow its recitation. The political nature of the alteration made in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century A.D. is confirmed by the complete lack of any spiritual significance. The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 441, arrives at the same conclusion, stating:

"The Kol Nidre has nothing whatever to do with the actual idea of the Day of Atonement . . . It attained to extraordinary solemnity and popularity by reason of the fact that it was the first of the prayers recited on this holiest of days."

MYSTERY FOR MODIFICATION OBSCURE

The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 440, describes the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in a most concise and correct description of its implications, stating:

"An important alteration in the wording of the 'Kol Nidre' was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel, who changed the original phrase 'from the last Day of Atonement until this one' to 'from this Day of Atonement until the next.' Thus the dispensation of the 'Kol Nidre' was not as formerly a posteriori and concerned with the unfulfilled obligations of the past year, but a priori and having reference to vows which one might not be able to fulfill or might forget to observe during the coming year. Meir ben Samuel likewise added the words 'we do depend on them all.'"

The leading authority on rituals, including the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, is Professor Theodor Reik, the famous pupil of Dr. Sigmund Freud, renowned psychoanalyst. Professor Reik wrote a classic text book in German, his native language, called "The Ritual, Psycho-Analytical Studies," the greatest work on this subject.

Professor Reik's analysis of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was translated into the English language and published in the United States by Farrar, Straus & Company in 1946. The Marxist "anti-Semitic" messianist cannot accuse the author, his teacher, or his publisher of being "anti-Semitic." They are interested only in determining the truth and communicating it to as many who are interested in this subject as can be reached.

Professor Reik states his conclusions which must be accepted as the analysis of the leading authority on this subject. With regard to the consequences resulting from the alteration in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, Professor Reik on page 168 in his famous book, states:

"The text was to the effect that all oaths which believers take between one Day of Atonement and the next Day of Atonement are declared invalid."

TALMUDIC LAW SANCTIONS CHANGE

The intent and the purpose of the alteration introduced by Meir ben Samuel in the text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century, and which was established long before support of his argument Nedarim 32a-b in English in The Talmudic Treatise on Oaths: "whoever wishes all the vows he may make throughout the year to be null and void shall come at the beginning of year and say 'May all the vows that I shall vow be annulled.'"

Professor Reik brings out the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer has no spiritual significance. Attention is called by him to the absence of spiritual meaning in the version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer with the alterations introduced by Meir ben Samuel, and to prove this point, on page 175, he states:

"... we become more and more astonished that a religion which attached an almost exaggerated importance to oaths and promises should by a single special formula cancel all oaths, and, moreover, those which are to be taken in the coming year."

JUSTIFICATION FOR ORANGE INVALID

The sinister Yiddish defenders of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer offer as their justification for its retention in the liturgy on the Day of Atonement the plea that the prayer refers "only to one's obligations to one's self," according to the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VI, page 441. They offer half-splitting arguments and "double-talk" as their basis for retaining this prayer in their ritual. Professor Reik differs and destroys the force of their reasoning. With his statement on page 176, as follows, which completely disproves their only defense:

"The whole weight of the argument that the immunity only applies to the oath sworn and taken upon himself by a believer rests on the subordinate sentence, 'all asuras al nafshahana,' ('which we have taken upon our souls,' or expressed in more modern language 'which we have taken upon ourselves'). The significance of the words is clear. The defenders of the Kol Nidre state that the formula does not concern oaths valid at law regarding other persons, but it concerns one's oaths, vows, pledges, etc., which impose upon one's self therefore a contract with one's ego."

Professor Reik exposes the fraudulence of this absurd contention by the defenders of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. It insults the intelligence to listen to the justification of the defenders. Professor Reik conceives that leading authorities that the justification offered cannot be acceptable on that basis as vindication. In his treatise on this subject, Professor Reik, on page 178, summarizes:

"Does the phrase 'which we have imposed on our souls' (or 'upon ourselves') exclude the participation of a second person? Oaths, apparently, we think. Apart from philological doubts, it is quite possible that oaths as well as vows which we impose upon ourselves concern a second person. I answer to myself, for instance, I will support a poor relation. Of course in such a case it is not a matter of a contract between two persons. BUT FULFILLMENT OR NON-FULFILLMENT OF THIS VOW AFFECTS THE OTHER PERSON."

LOYALTY OATHS SACRED CONTRACTS

A loyalty oath is an oath with "one's self." A loyalty oath is not a contract between two persons. The loyalty oath to defend the nation and to support its Constitution is a pledge made with one's self exactly like the pledge to support a poor relation. The fulfillment or non-fulfillment of a pledge to defend the nation and to support its Constitution affects other persons exactly as fulfillment or non-fulfillment of a pledge to support poor relations affects the poor relations. LOYALTY is our promise given to GOD.

A person taking a loyalty oath makes a vow or pledge with "one's self" to be loyal to his country. A loyalty oath is never a "contract between two persons," according to Professor Reik. A "contract between two persons" is a "meeting of the minds" whereby the parties mutually promise to perform an understanding between the parties. In many cases such understandings are strengthened with an oath, vow or pledge. Loyalty oaths by their very nature are oaths made "with one's self," and by their very nature cannot be with "second parties."

Professor Reik is an authority on the subject of oaths. The operation of the mind plays an important part in the making of oaths, vows and pledges. Professor Reik emphasizes the fact that an oath is a promise made by a person to himself. He stresses that an oath is a promise given to God by the person who takes the oath. He cites that there is never a second person to the contract entered into between anyone taking an oath and God. Professor Reik corroborates the interpretation by other leading authorities of the phrase, "which we have taken upon our souls," or as expressed in more modern language, "which we have taken upon ourselves," on page 184, as follows:

"We can say that an oath is a promise WHICH THE PERSON IMPOSES UPON HIMSELF" and, "The vow, therefore, would be A PROMISE GIVEN TO GOD."

Professor Reik lays great stress upon the intentions of Meir ben Samuel when he introduced the alteration in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century. He brings out the fact that it was after the final conquest of the Judaized Khazars by the Russians in the 11th Century, and the loss of their independence and sovereignty, that the Yiddish communities, the Judaized former Khazars, introduced this alteration in the liturgy of the Yiddish congregations in eastern Europe. Meir ben Samuel was inspired to introduce the alteration for a very obvious reason. Professor Reik referred to this on page 170, calling attention to the threat to our security, thus:

"An important alteration in wording of Kol Nidre was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel; hitherto released from the vows from the last year had been that he had the vows of the coming year declared void."

PRAYER LOSTS RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE

The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the manner in which the alteration introduced by Meir ben Samuel deprived the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer of its former religious character. The alteration in the original text by Meir ben Samuel in the 12th Century which robbed "Kol Nidre" of its former spiritual significance is referred to by the Jewish Encyclopedia in Volume VII, page 441, which establishes its non-religious character:

"The words 'as it is written in the teachings of Moses, Thy Servant' which were said in the old form before R. Meir, X.V. 38, were cancelled (Abraham, p. 189)."

Professor Reik calls attention to the fact, as described by the Jewish Encyclopedia, as a violent departure from the sacred character of oaths in the time of Old Testament Bible history, indicated by "Kol Nidre" of today:

"The purport of the formula is in complete contrast with the high esteem in which obligations, whether taken on oath or otherwise, are held in biblical and Talmudic Judaism."

The Jewish Encyclopedia in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in its long history. The congregations participating in the Day of Atonement ceremonies regarded the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer as an important part of these holiest of services, according to the Jewish Encyclopedia, which emphasizes that point thus:

"Despite that the petitioners, who were seeking reconciliation with God, solemnly refrained in His presence all vows and oaths . . . and made them all null and void from the beginning, entreating in their stead pardon and forgiveness from the Heavenly Father."

RELIGIOUS LEADERS CHALLENGE CHANGE

The Jewish Encyclopedia points out that the alteration made in the liturgy was opposed at the time by rabbinic authorities. The political considerations entering into the introduction of the alteration of the text caused considerable opposition from sincere and devout religious leaders. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 440, makes mention of this opposition to the alteration thus:

"Kol Nidre. Prayer recited in the synagogues at the beginning of the evening services on the Day of Atonement; the name is taken from the opening words. The 'Kol Nidre' has had a very eventful history, both in itself and as a result of the Jewish Encyclopedia, which in the history despite the opposition of the rabbinate authorities, repeatedly attacked in the course of time by many halakists, and in the 19th Century A.D. EXPUNGED FROM THE PRAYER BOOKS OF MANY COMMUNITIES OF WESTERN EUROPE."

The alteration introduced in the 12th Century by Meir ben Samuel in the text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is found only in the ritual of Yiddish congregations. Of the 14,000,000 Yiddish persons in the world today about one-half are at the present time in the United States. Approximately 88% of the total Jewish American population are members of this Yiddish community, all 1st and 2nd generation eastern European, all first and second generation eastern European.

REBELLION BY LEGITIMATE RELIGIOUS

The efforts of Yiddish communities to compel the introduction of the altered text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer into the ritual of non-Yiddish communities met with strong opposition. This opposition began shortly after the introduction of the altered text in the 12th Century. Before the 18th Century the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" had created so much conflict between the Yiddish and non-Yiddish Jewish populations of the world that it produced a historic crisis. In 1844, at a rabbinical conference called in Brunswick, Germany, IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY DECIDED THAT THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER WAS NOT ESSENTIAL TO JUDAISM AND THAT MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION SHOULD EXERT THEIR INFLUENCE TOWARD SECURING ITS SPEEDY ABOLITION. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 442, reports this eventful occurrence as follows:

"Yiddish to the numerous accusations and complaints brought against 'Kol Nidre' in the course of centuries, the rabbinical conference held at Brunswick in 1844 decided unanimously that the formula was not essential and that members of the convention should exert their influence toward securing its speedy abolition. The decision of the conference was accepted by many congregations in western Europe, AND IN ALL THE AMERICAN REFORM CONGREGATIONS." ("Protocols of the Berlin Rabbinical Verammlung," pp. 42, Brunswick, 1844)

NON-YIDDISH DENOUNCE PRAYER

The Reform congregations in the United States make up less than 12% of the total Jewish American population, and consist almost in their entirety of non-Yiddish communities. The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the rupture resulting from opposing views between world-wide Reform and Yiddish (Orthodox) communities as an indication of the growing rebellion against "Kol Nidre":

"The decision of the conference was accepted by the congregations of western Europe AND IN ALL THE AMERICAN REFORM CONGREGATIONS, which, while retaining the melody SUBSTITUTED FOR THE FORMULA a German or a Hebrew psalm."

NON-YIDDISH DENOUNCE YIDDISH

The Jewish Encyclopedia supplies an abundance of evidence to indicate the extent of the opposition by the non-Yiddish Jewish communities throughout Europe to the altered text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. Reference is made in the Jewish Encyclopedia to the instances of opposition which arose from the time the alteration in the text was made. These protests were most articulate in the non-Yiddish communities of Italy, France, Spain, North Africa and elsewhere in western Europe and North Africa, as the Jewish Encyclopedia points out, very briefly noted here for lack of space:

"It has never been adopted in the Catalonia (Spanish) or in the Algeria (North Africa) ritual . . . There were always many congregations in lands where the Provencal and Spanish ritual was used which did not recite it." ("Orlitz Marim," p. 184). . . The change was bitterly opposed by the rabbis Rashi de Tread (1158 A.D.) and for the same reason Jeremiah ben Meshullam, who lived in Provence about the middle of the 14th Century, inveighed against those fools who, trusting the 'Kol Nidre' made vows recklessly, and he declared them incapable of giving testimony. . . Judah ben Bassiliat, a Spanish author of the 15th Century in his halakic work 'Sefer ha-Ritum' declares the custom of reciting the 'Kol Nidre' was unjustifiable and misleading, since many ignorant persons believe that all their vows and oaths are annulled and consequently they take such obligations upon themselves carelessly."

In non-Yiddish communities in other areas of Europe the same condition existed. The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 441, cites the cases of Judah Hadassi, who in 1145 in Constantinople, wrote the "Eshkal-ha-Kofer" protesting vigorously against the "Kol Nidre" prayer. Other opposition in the Middle Ages included Yon-Iob ben Abraham Ischli, who died in 1259, and Isaac ben Sheeshet, Rabbi in Saragosa, who died in 1405.

MELODY SOLE JUSTIFICATION

Yiddish communities throughout the world have retained the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the Day of Atonement liturgy in spite of the unfavorable reactions which resulted. They justify their continued use of the altered version upon the ground that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is changed to a melody which is pleasing to the ear. The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 442, justifies this:

"The principal factor which preserves the great religious authority of the 'Kol Nidre' . . . is doubtless its plaintive and appealing melody."

Professor Reik comments upon the importance placed in a manner which indicates that he also is unable to reconcile the serious nature of the prayer with the beautiful melody to which it is chanted. Professor Reik, on page 180, expresses his doubts about their justification:

"This . . . almost juridical formula is accompanied by a deeply affecting melody that is quite foreign to the text."

The Jewish Encyclopedia reaches the same conclusion regarding the melody to which "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is intoned. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 442, suggests the melody may be the answer to it:

"Even more famous than the formula itself is the melody traditionally attached to its rendition. This is deservedly so much prized that even WHERE REFORM HAS ABOLISHED THE RECITAL OF THE TEXT, the air is often preserved, either in association with some other passage . . . or as an independent piece to attract the mind of the congregation to the solemnity of the evening."

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 440, states that in the time of Old Testament Bible history there was a tendency of the population to take vows and oaths carried to extremes. They state that in the ancient days it was necessary to include in the code of laws Pentateuch prohibitions which prevented placing an exaggerated value upon the religious value of oaths and vows (Deut. XXIII, 23.) In those days vows were taken too frivolously and too frequently and inevitably involved the populations in difficulties over broken oaths and vows.

In ancient times, as a consequence of taking oaths recklessly, people were compelled to seek a method by which disposition might be obtained from obligations and responsibilities of oaths assumed by them Chaitarim Nedarim. In this connection the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 440, describes the origin of "Kol Nidre":

"In view of their addition to making vows it might easily happen that these obligations would be wholly forgotten and either not kept or be violated intentionally . . . religious law . . . as an expedient a general and comprehensive formula of dispensation which was repeated . . . at the beginning of the fast of Atonement."

DESTROY RESPECT FOR OATHS

In many countries of the world better acquainted with the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer recited on the Day of Atonement by Yiddish congregations, there is still a question regarding the value of oaths taken by members of Yiddish communities. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 441, cites several instances indicating that this suspicion was first aroused at the time the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was adopted in the 12th Century by Yiddish communities:

"As early as 1348 Jodiel was obliged to defend the 'Kol Nidre' against these charges . . . already in 1328 Nicholas Demina accused the Jews of annulling their oaths by means of the Kol Nidre. Since that time the necessity of Jewish oaths . . . has always been questioned."

"Religious freedom" and "anti-Semitism" are the slogans offered for the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Yiddish communities. When the question of Jewish entry into the discussion of this matter, Talmudic rabbis defend Yiddish communities on the grounds of their Constitutional right to worship God according to one's personal beliefs, even though a question of loyalty is involved.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON

Talmudic rabbis seek to impress upon doubting Christian Americans that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is a harmless religious ritual. They do not go into the basic factors. They refuse to doubt and suspicion by reminding Christian Americans their Saviour was a Jew.

REFORM JUDAISM FIGHTS YIDDISH

There is no basis in Judaism for accepting the "Kol Nidre" prayer as a spiritual ritual, according to spokesmen for Reform congregations. Reform congregations are composed almost entirely of Jewish Americans whose European origin can be traced back to non-Yiddish western European communities. Reform congregations as a rule consist of Jewish Americans of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh generations. They do not command the respect of their Christian American fellow Americans despite rumors regarding "Kol Nidre."

CRIMINAL ASPECTS OF PRAYER

The fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is recited in a synagogue can alter neither its character, its purpose, nor its effects. The recitation of the Communist oath to "overthrow the government by force and violence" inside a synagogue is not acceptable as a valid defense against criminal prosecution. Religious freedom cannot become a defense for crimes seeking our overthrow.

The Mormon religion permits the practice of polygamy. The laws of this country make polygamy a crime. If Mormons practice polygamy inside their churches, it is still a crime. The mere fact that an act occurs inside a place of worship is no defense for a crime or the recital of prayers like "Kol Nidre" in synagogues.

Religious beliefs practiced in other areas of the world contain ceremonies of a character which constitute crimes under the laws of this country. Foreigners visiting the United States cannot practice these ceremonies with immunity from criminal prosecution on the grounds of "religious freedom" and "tolerance." When living in a country it is obligatory to abide by the letter and the spirit of the written and the unwritten laws of that land.

Recitation of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in synagogues on the Day of Atonement constitutes a form of "subornation of perjury." The fact that "subornation of perjury" takes place within the walls of a synagogue does not lessen its hazard as a threat to the nation's security.

REFORM JUDAISM REJECTS PRAYER

The non-Yiddish Reform congregations in the United States and throughout the world have "purged" their Day of Atonement ceremony of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. Reform congregations have gone on record that (1) THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER IS A CRIME, (2) NO CONNECTION WITH THE IDEA OF THE DAY OF ATONEMENT, AND (3) THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER IS NOT "ESSENTIAL TO THE EXISTENCE OF JUDAISM."

In an effort to lessen the suspicions of Christians among whom the Yiddish communities live, Talmudic rabbis have from time to time very slightly varied recitation into English, French, Aramaic and Hebrew texts of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. The original, Aramaic and Hebrew texts continue, however, as the texts recited in synagogues wherever it has been retained in the Day of Atonement ceremonies. The English slanted versions have been made for the consumption of doubting Christians. The translations in all English versions of the official Aramaic and Hebrew texts do not alter an iota the intentions, the purposes or the results effected by the "Kol Nidre" prayer.

VALUE OF LOYALTY OATHS

How many persons holding high government positions participate on each Day of Atonement in the ceremony of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer? Has the Assistant Secretary of Defense, Anna M. Rosenberg, participated in this ceremony each year since her childhood?

CASE OF ANNA M. ROSENBERG

Anna M. Rosenberg was reared in the Yiddish tradition in her homeland, Hungary, in the heart of the Yiddish communities in eastern Europe. Since immigrating to the United States her associations have been primarily within Yiddish communities until recent years, both in her private and public life, and are largely as today.

The qualifications of Anna M. Rosenberg for the most important position in the Department of Defense, in these critical times are questionable if she presents herself each year in the synagogue on the Day of Atonement for the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. The Senate Armed Services Committee which recently "whitewashed" Anna M. Rosenberg did not touch upon the "Kol Nidre" impact upon her fitness for that high position.

WHAT IS SENATOR LEHMAN'S GAME?

Senator Herbert H. Lehman is not a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee. However, Senator Herbert H. Lehman spent the better part of four days, with evening sessions, in the meetings of the Senate Armed Services Committee which was at that time considering Anna M. Rosenberg's fitness for the position. Didn't Senator Lehman trust the members of the Senate Armed Services Committee? Are they "anti-Semites" too?

Any Senator who dared to touch upon the "Kol Nidre" question at those hearings might just as well then and there have signed his own political death warrant. Senator Lehman injected himself into these hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee as the "bird-dog" for the undisclosed contacts responsible for Anna M. Rosenberg's mysterious rise to unprecedented power.

XIONISTS CANNOT BE LOYAL

Since the creation by the United States of a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine, many Christian Americans have raised the question of the "dual allegiance" and "divided loyalty" of Jewish Americans who are also Zionists. The analysis of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Professor Theodore Reik, and other leading Jewish American authorities on the subject, indicates the possibility that it may be a question of "dual allegiance" and "divided loyalty." With very few exceptions Yiddish communities are the source from which political Zionism obtains its support.

"MARXISM" BASIC FOR ALL "MOVEMENTS"

Marxism is the yew and the weeping pig are called Communism, Socialism, Socialism, Fabianism, Liberalism, Progressivism, and World Federalism. Newspapers are filled with the name Communism when in fact they should be shouting about Marxism. The same applies to those other Marxist sucking pigs. All are equally evil.

Marxism is fundamental. Marxism is a creed. Marxism establish many organizations to reach all classes in all fields of activity. Marxism is to these organizations what Christianity is to the Christian organizations established to bring Christianity to all people by the quickest and easiest route, the network of Christian denominations.

YIDDISH MARXISTS ANTI-CHRIST LEADERS

Marxism is committed to the destruction of Christianity. Marxists have scored that the last trace of Christianity is to be destroyed. Marxists plan to leave no trace of Christianity in the world. Marxists plan for world rule do not include the future existence of Christianity.

Marxism and Christianity cannot both exist in the same world at the same time. Newton's law has established that no two objects can occupy the same space at the same time. If Marxism lives, Christianity dies.

There is even less possibility that Marxism and Christianity can occupy the same world at the same time for long, one or the other must go, and quickly too.

Marxists realize that Christianity is the only "road-block" which can prevent their conquest of the world. Marxists are conspiring against the destruction of Christianity at the earliest possible date to facilitate the realization of their program to de-Christianize the world.

"MARXISM" DISGUISE FOR ANTI-CHRIST

Christianity is Enemy No. 1 of Marxism. Christianity is the spearhead of organized opposition to Marxist world rule. Marxists will rule the world very shortly after the fall of Christianity from the leadership from which it continues so much to world progress for almost 2000 years. Marxists plan to move in as Christianity moves out.

Marxism is not a manifestation of political, social or economic discontent or unrest. Marxists tell the world that Marxism is the index of this unrest and discontent.

But Marxism is something quite different. Marxism is a religion to those who follow it. Marxism is a cult to those who believe in its teachings. Marxists are fanatics.

Marxism is a crusade sailing under false colors. Marxists say one thing and think something entirely opposite. Marxists would have the world believe that Marxism is an organized effort to improve the conditions of the underprivileged. That is the bait in the trap. That is how they lure millions of disoriented fools to join.

FREEDOMS CANNOT BE RECAPTURED EVER

By the grace of God this nation has been destined to become the freest nation on earth of all God-given rights, the freedoms and liberties synonymous with human dignity. This nation is today the only road-block against complete world control by the Marxist international conspirators in Moscow. They realize this better than we do.

When our God-given rights disappear here for anyone they will disappear for everyone. When the liberties and freedoms synonymous with human dignity disappeared in these other countries they disappeared there for everyone. In the countries which have already fallen under the Marxist steam-roller all God-given rights have ceased to exist. "IT CAN happen here." Those who KNOW say so!

UNTRUTHS CAMOUFLAGED AS REALITIES

"Anti-Semitism" is based upon untruths. "Anti-Semitism" is made a religious issue without any justification. "Anti-Semitism" is fabricated "from stem to stern" out of a tissue of lies. "Anti-Semitism" from start to finish is completely a "state of mind" instilled by false propaganda. "Anti-Semitism" is made a political issue solely for the purpose of "stealing" elections which cannot otherwise be won. "Anti-Semitism" is a mental infection intended to poison the thinking of American people. "Anti-Semitism" is eating away the cultural foundations of our national life like a cancer eats away the vital organs of a human being.

"Anti-Semitism" exists in name only. "Anti-Semitism" is non-existent outside the "state of mind." "Anti-Semitism" is the first device of the atheist enemies of humanity who are seeking to destroy this nation and Christianity. "Anti-Semitism" is truly a "living lie."

SMEAR-BUND LEADER OF UNDERGROUND

The war against Marxist world conquest will be half won when Americans learn the truth about the Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund. Unless Americans learn that very soon they may never have the opportunity of fighting and winning another war, the last as free men.

Unless that war is won the American Way of Life is doomed. The American Way of Life may soon suffer the fate of other victims of the Marxist creeping conquest. The Marxists appear to be rolling along smoothly towards the early realization of their conspiracy for world rule.

In every case it has always been a Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund which spearheaded the invisible Marxist underground armies which were responsible for the final overthrow of all the governments which "fell."

It is a fatal mistake for Christian Americans to say, "It cannot happen here." These infamous words are treason to the trust which God has seemingly now imposed upon this nation. Those who said it lived to regret it.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" BECOMES "SMEAR" WORD

The international Marxist conspirators have created a vile and vicious implication for the word "anti-Semitism" with the powerful propaganda machine and the unlimited funds placed at their disposal. They have "sold" this vile and vicious implication 100% to the American people by the expenditure of countless millions of dollars over a long period of years. They have succeeded far better than their most optimistic expectations anticipated.

The international Marxist conspirators have succeeded in converting the American people to the belief that "anti-Semitism" is a vicious hatred by Christians towards persons professing Judaism as their religious faith, towards persons who worship God in synagogues instead of churches and solely for that reason. There is hardly an American today who does not now regard "anti-Semitism" as exactly just that, and nothing else.

Christian Americans collectively challenge the implication that men and women who are both Christians and Americans bear ill-will toward fellow Americans for the reason that they attend synagogues instead of churches for the worship of God and solely for that reason only.

CHRISTIAN AMERICANS BECOME VICTIMS

This vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" is a libel against Christianity and against every Christian American. This vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" accuses Christians of a most in-Christian offense. It accuses Christianity of breeding a vicious hatred amongst Christians towards that small, that less than 1% of the world's population which allegedly professes Judaism as its religious faith and solely for that reason.

Christian Americans make it a practice to judge fellow Americans upon the basis of their character and conduct as Americans, upon their attitudes and activities as Americans. It is not true that anyone who is both a Christian and an American ignores the conduct and character, ignores the attitudes and activities when judging fellow Americans, and hence consideration upon religious belief instead, an untruth which must not survive.

The Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund are spending countless millions to make the world believe otherwise about Christian Americans. The Marxist international conspirators have created this vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" to insure and hasten "all out" success.

The Marxist international conspirators have developed "anti-Semitism" into a sinister diabolical political weapon. The "anti-Semitism" smear is the device used by the international Marxist conspirators to instill and to keep their invisible secret agents in high government positions and in important positions in all sections of our national life. Have you been reading the papers lately?

PRESERVE CONSTITUTION AND CHRISTIANITY

Any ill-will by men and women who are both Christians and Americans towards the fellow Americans is based upon a variety of other reasons. The religious affiliation of an offender is only a matter of coincidence. Christian Americans are interested primarily in protecting and preserving the culture, the customs and the conventions inherent in the American Way of Life. Christian Americans also aim to protect and preserve the Constitution and Christianity. That is every American's first duty.

The shadow as well as the substance of the American Way of Life is primarily based upon the principles embodied in Christian civilization. Any form of aggression against these principles quickly brings upon the aggressor condemnation from Christian Americans regardless of the religious affiliation of the aggressor. Christian Americans look upon the offense as something separate and apart from the religious affiliation of the American offender.

SMEAR-BUND TERRORIZES ANTAGONISTS

In order to guarantee success for the OFFENSIVE of Christian Americans against the Marxist conspiracy for world conquest, it is necessary to deprive the international Marxist conspirators of the advantages they now enjoy by the destruction of power of their "anti-Semitism" smear.

Christian Americans live in mortal fear of being branded "anti-Semitic." This fear is accelerating the ultimate accomplishment of the Marxist plans for world conquest. Christian Americans have learned from experience or observation that it becomes very difficult, or impossible, to earn a normal livelihood in the United States since they have been smeared "anti-Semitic."

The underground grapevine of the invisible agents of the international Marxist conspirators in this country has infiltrated into the political, economic and social structure of this nation to an extent little understood by the average Christian American. By means of political, social or economic boycotts which they are able to impose they can make it impossible to remain in business and prosper, or to hold their former positions in spite of reliability.

TIME TO THINK IN TERMS OF AN OFFENSIVE

It has been proven time and again, on and off the battle field, that the best DEFENSIVE is an OFFENSIVE. Christian Americans must take the OFFENSIVE if they hope to win the war against Marxist world conquest. It is folly to continue an OFFENSIVE unless provided with weapons which make complete victory a possibility.

Off the battlefield the international Marxist conspirators only succeed exclusively upon their "anti-Semitism" smear-bund. It is their most effective weapon. "Anti-Semitism" has fully demonstrated its deadly destructive power. In the "cold war" they need no other device unless and until the "cold war" reaches the "hot war" stage. Only a "cold war" victory can prevent the "hot war."

The conspiracy for world conquest first, last, and always is constantly working to erase from the face of this earth every trace of Christianity. They have already succeeded in accomplishing this result in one half the world. One half the world today is being taught that Christianity is a menace to the progress of mankind.

The international Marxist conspirators label resistance to their creeping conquest as "anti-Semitism." They represent themselves to Christian Americans as "Semites." They represent that the "Semites" are the "Chosen People." They represent to Christian Americans that "anti-Semitism" is Christian malice towards "Jews," as they call themselves and invite others to call them.

SAVIOUR MALICIOUSLY CALLED "JEW"

They represent that they are "Jews" and that the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was a "Jew" and a member of their "race." But these are all untruths as the facts which follow will disclose. The international Marxist conspirators have hypnotized Christian Americans into believing that these untruths are actually the "Gospel" truth.

Linking up the Saviour as a "Jew" with the Jewish population of the world vests in "Jews" a tremendous power over Christian Americans. That power is too obvious to require explanation. Christian Americans are constantly "reminded" from pulpits of the 10,000 churches, 100,000 synagogues, and from the lips of the Saviour to the world. These statements from the pulpits give "official approval" to all who hear as well as to humbers "reminders" from and/or other sources that the Saviour was a "Jew" and a member of that "race."

Christian Americans have been taught since their Sunday School days that "Semites" were God's "Chosen People."

Read and pass on!

CONSPIRACY! REMEMBER!

REMEMBER Franklin D. Roosevelt and his dangerous wife were DIRECTED to put the U.S. into World War II BY ZIONIST MARXISTS. The Yiddish international Marxist CONSPIRATORS who knew that Marxism would receive its death-blow if Germany and Japan put the Soviet Union in the "nut cracker," Germany and Japan a next-door neighbors of the Soviet Union at that time "knew the score" much better than we know it today. Roosevelt knew that the triumph of the Soviet Union meant a victory for atheism over Christianity but that did not stop him from working for the destruction of the two most Christian countries in Europe, the only ones then strong enough to keep all Europe from going communist.

REMEMBER Roosevelt was directed to appoint incompetent Stettinius and the traitor Alger Hiss to draw up the charter for United Nations Organization, which they did in such a way that UNO CANNOT TAKE ACTION AGAINST AN AGGRESSOR OVER THE SOVIET UNION VETO. This rendered the UNO impotent to act AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION! Alger Hiss wrote the Charter with Molotov. Stettinius was the "showpiece" of the State Department. Molotov is married to sister of a Bridgeport man named Carp who has not accounted for $200,000,000 which has passed through his PERSONAL bank accounts since his sister married Molotov. UNO Charter is a camouflaged version of the one-world plans of the group making up the Zionist world-wide organizations working to establish a single government for all the world WHICH THEY PLAN TO HAVE UNDER THEIR CONTROL.

REMEMBER Zionists keep prating about "democracy" as though that were the solution to all the problems of the world. Their form of "democracy" is a totalitarian dictatorship of the proletariat with Zionists in the driver's seat. Thomas Jefferson and other leading American statesmen have spoken upon the nation that the United States was founded as a "REPUBLIC" AND MUST STAY SO IF WE ARE TO RETAIN THE LIBERTIES AND FREEDOMS GUARANTEED BY THE CONSTITUTION. "Democracy" comes from the Greek word "demos" meaning "mob" which means mob rule. "Democracy" means mob rule. A democracy is a very different form of government from a republic. Red Zionists plug "democracy" which appeals to the emotions of the masses by its implication of equal division of power and wealth rather than the present system based upon "free enterprise" and Christianity.

REMEMBER weak General Marshall could not remember where he was the night before Pearl Harbor although he arose the morning of Pearl Harbor and went to the National Airport in Washington to meet Zionist LITVINOV who arrived that morning by plane from MOSCOW. Who was Marshall with the night before? A group discussing the agenda for dangerous Litvinov? The Zionists "invisible government" took Marshall out of camp for a front so their men could run the "Marshall Plan." After the great scandals of the UNRRA under Senator Lehman, they could not afford to have another out-and-out Zionist head of the UNRRA organization although it was completely staffed with selections made by Zionists headed by Senator Lehman.

REMEMBER able General MacArthur wanted the nation that the "ENEMIES WITHIN THE COUNTRY" are the real danger, not the enemies outside its borders, particularly the kept-press of the Zionist groups WHICH DISTORT THE NEWS to give it the "slant" desired by the counterfeit Americans who are Marxists in their hearts.

REMEMBER Eisenhower is the "back door" of Zionists, Truman being their first choice. At taxpayers' expense, Eisenhower took Kay Summersby, red-headed English girl, to Africa and back to England and France after first making her a Captain in the WACS. Eisenhower is the "straw man" for the gang that wants to reelect Truman in 1952. If they can get Eisenhower on the Republican ticket they intend to have Eisenhower make a campaign like Dewey made, intentionally planning to go easy enough to let Truman win. That is the present strategy. Dewey is in on the deal. Senator Lehman when he was governor of New York gave Dewey his start. Dewey will take any order from Senator Lehman. Eisenhower's nomination on the Republican ticket means odds of 500 to 1 that Truman will be reelected for another four years.

REMEMBER CONGRESS SHOULD INVESTIGATE Senator Lehman's scandalous conduct of UNRRA. BILLIONS of UNRRA materials were sneaked into the Soviet Union and her communist satellites which supplied our potential enemies with the financial aid badly needed by them to establish themselves solidly. There are many WILLING witnesses able to testify that the Soviet Union "bribe" BILLIONS in materials intended for relief work among war refugees and ANTI-COMMUNIST groups. Instead, more than one BILLION of UNRRA materials went to fill the coffers of the REDS WHO ARE NOW KILLING OUR SONS. "Dr." Frank Meyer, of Red China "builder-upper" fame, now being groomed for appointment as United States Ambassador to the United Nations, was Senator Lehman's right hand man in this fraud upon the American taxpayers and the SECURITY OF THE NATION. Fulton Lewis Jr. exposed this treachery in his COLUMN on October 9, 1951. We will be happy to supply reprints.

REMEMBER Charles Wilson (supposed to be head of the defense preparations of this nation, although Anna Rosenberg and Sidney Weinberg really are the heads) stated in writing that David Niles, "leg-man" for the international Marxist-Zionists (Gore David Nephew), PERSONALLY SELECTED the members of the National Civil Rights Committee which prepared the report which would have precipitated a revolution if put into effect. David Niles is not a man of MYSTERY to those who know his background: in Boston with the Marxist Ford Forum and his ambition which landed him in the White House. He is the MOST pro-Soviet Union person in the United States.

REMEMBER our courageous General F. A. del Valle wrote on May 4, 1951, that, "Zionists will arrest MacArthur. They arrested Marshall Feltus, and MacArthur is doing them more harm than Feltus. ANNA ROSENBERG IS THE DIRECT AUTHOR OF ALL THIS STRATEGY," and, "that THIS IS A FIGHT BETWEEN CHRISTIANITY AND THE TALMUDIC MANIACS WHO WISH TO DESTROY IT." A stitch in time saves NINE.

REMEMBER Lenin decided upon the formula for the destruction of the United States in the following words, "We shall defeat America by spending it into bankruptcy." Marxists' "Charley McCarthy" called Harry Truman, is "aiding and abetting" the enemies of this country by arguing the spending of $400,000,000 in the near future in "backward countries" not "backward" when it comes to asking for money, which the heavily loaded American taxpayers will pay. This also deprives Americans of materials which are badly needed in the United States.

REMEMBER the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith (bad breath) (Brothers of the Covenant) is the most Gestapo-like organization ever conceived. It has more direct and indirect agencies and individuals working for it than any secret service force in the world. They are completely controlled by Yiddish Marxists who are interested in silencing, opposition and exposure of the CONSPIRACY OF THE YIDDISH MARXISTS FOR WORLD RULE AND WORLD CONTROL. With all the investigations by Congress about "lobbying" groups they have never dared to teach the Zionists. Congress has been instructed to have an investigation of this organization and that is why they have been set killing him. Crusade for Freedom being run by same "invisible group" who put us on rocks. Freedom House one of their FRONT. After a ship has been wrecked by the crew's CARELESSNESS (?!), only as insurance persons will hire that same crew to salvage the ship which the same "gang" has just finished "wrecking."

REMEMBER the victorious and venerable General MacArthur warned the nation recently that THERE IS AN "I-N-V-I-S-I-B-L-E GOVERNMENT" running this country which was not elected to do so by the people of the country. General MacArthur expresses the conclusions of competent Americans who have done considerable research to get to the bottom of this dangerous state of affairs.

REMEMBER Chicago Tribune printed that Felix Frankfurter, Henry L. Morganthau Jr., and Senator Herbert Lehman constituted an "invisible government." Cohen (the Charley McCarthy of Zionists who frenzied them as Secretary of War in Zionist World War II) was paid off at the end of war with $250,000 fee from the Zionist-controlled (Schenk) Fox Films and, guess?

REMEMBER the secret motive of the Zionists who instigated the Nuremberg "trials" was to stimulate the hatred of the Germans for Americans beyond its post-war intensity. The Zionists expected this to drive the Germans into the Soviet Union "camp" and result in a Red Germany, another Soviet Union communist satellite in Europe. Zionists kept Soviet Union out of the picture and, in the eyes of Germans, made the United States appear as the enemy of the German people. Dr. George Simons told Senate Committee, "... IN 1918, OUT OF 388 MEMBERS OF THE CONTROLLING GROUP IN RUSSIA, ONLY SIXTEEN WERE CHRISTIANS AND ALL THE REST WERE JEWS. AND THAT 255 OF THE JEWS CAME FROM THE LOWER EAST SIDE IN NEW YORK CITY." Today Zionists hold 93% of the top key positions in the Soviet Union's Marxist government. Names of Zionists who run Russia and her satellites, England and the United States mentioned by names in the KGB. Copies of the directory of the secret services sent on secret.

REMEMBER "JEWISH LIFE," a magazine printed in the United States, the Jewish Yiddish magazines here for their Marxist co-religionists in Moscow, in the June issue, featured news items of Christians sentenced to long prison terms in Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary, Czech-Slovakia and Roumania for having made REMARKS which Yiddish Marxists CONSIDER TO BE "ANTI-SEMITIC." Recently the Zionist "kept press" in United States has attempted to "convince" Christian Americans that Soviet Union has turned "anti-Semitic." This is a genuine "RED HEREING" to take the "heat" off the guilty Yiddish Marxists in the United States who have been passing themselves off as the "VICTIMS" of COMMUNISM as well as "HIMSELF NEXT." It is not so long ago that Yiddish Marxists in the United States were CLAIMING credit for the conception, creation and conduct of the Marxist world-wide revolution of the "proletariat." Rabbi Stephen Wise said, "Some call it Marxism, I call it Judaism." What he meant was that he was an active secret Marxist agent.

REMEMBER Felix Frankfurter and Dean Acheson walk to their offices together every morning they are in Washington. Frankfurter originally planted Acheson in Washington. Frankfurter is the nephew of Brandeis and was put into the Marxist "court" after their June 1951 Supreme Court bench. Brandeis placed himself on the Supreme Court bench by blackmailing President Truman with the "Peck" letters. Frankfurter's brother has been in prison several times and on the payroll of the government under assumed names, most recently in Paris with the ECA. Frankfurter put 123 "agents" in key positions.

REMEMBER the Founding Fathers pledged their LIVES and FORTUNES to PROTECT and PRESERVE this REPUBLIC, the precious, priceless, irreplaceable heritage with which they provided every American FREE OF CHARGE. YOU MAY SOON FIND IT ALSO NECESSARY TO PROTECT YOUR LIFE AS WELL, including YOUR FAMILY, so provide yourself WITHOUT DELAY with the RIGHT KIND OF TOOLS FOR THE "JOB." It may be too late to get them if you wait. UNTIL YOU WHEE THEM "in time of peace prepare for war." OBEY THAT IMPULSE! (and tell your friends). You owe it to them.

REMEMBER Zionists coin words to confuse the public. "Genocide," "isolationism," "assimilationism," "One world," "pluralistic culture," and other words without definite meaning are given interpretations which appeal to the average mentality but upon examination ARE POISON TO THE NATION and will prove the death of it.

REMEMBER Zionists use every artifice to further INFLATION, their interests being in the fields where inflation creates added WEALTH for them at the sacrifice of the average American who is not engaged in industries where inventories play such a big part. In addition, by creating a false prosperity they can keep their gang in power and hide Americans. (Bumby corporatism in various countries hide profits and stock loans, how about it, Mr. Baruch?)

REMEMBER international Zionist financial dynasty wants to control the $5,000,000,000 (five THOUSAND billion) mineral wealth of the Dead Sea in Palestine. (Report of British Government in 1925 proof of this unbelievable wealth, and is reason Jews would not accept tracts of South Africa (Uganda), Australia, South America, Canada, and elsewhere, offered to them free for colonization.) The control of this wealth, (twenty times the national debt of the United States) will make the Zionists the RULERS

OF THE WORLD. The mineral wealth of the Dead Sea is what first interested the Rothschilds in the Zionist movement. It is what interests Baruch, Lehman and the Warburgs today. They privately in their Harmonic Club on 80th Street and 5th Avenue call the Zionists "kikes" a thousand times a day and will not allow one "kike" in their club at any price. They have prostituted their pride and "mixed" with them as the "pride" of getting the Dead Sea into their hands. It now appears that the big shot "heimers" have been double-crossed by their Yiddish Marxist co-religionists who intend to keep the Dead Sea as their "mint" to get the money to "buy" the world.

REMEMBER Zionists cried hot tears, pleading that if phony "Israel" was recognized as a NATION (?) and admitted to the United Nations as a member that they would live up to the letter and the spirit of United Nations Charter. THEY HAVE NOT RESPECTED ONE OF THE SEVERAL RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL DEMANDING INTERNATIONALIZATION OF JERUSALEM UNDER THE TERMS OF THE PALESTINE PARTITION PLAN AND THE RETURN OF THE ONE MILLION NATIVE CHRISTIAN AND NOBLE PALESTINIAN TO THEIR ANCIENT HOMELAND WITHOUT INTERUPTION FOR 1700 YEARS. The Zionist controlled Administration in Washington is 100% responsible for this situation which has resulted in converting the world's 400,000,000 Moslems from friends to enemies of this country. Troubles today in Iran, Egypt, Iraq, and elsewhere, are the result of this dastardly decision Zionists forced on United States through Baruch, Lehman and Warburg.

REMEMBER the President of the American Bar Association made a public declaration that because our Constitution provides that treaties supersede all Federal, State and local laws in this country, THAT RESOLUTIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS BECOME THE "LAW OF THE LAND" IN UNITED STATES with the force and effect as though passed by Congress or our State Legislatures. The next to the highest court in the country recently decided that a law on the books of the state of California was invalid because it was rendered null and void by an opposite provision contained in the CHARTER OF UNITED NATIONS. America should take the jokers out of UNO or promptly get out of it. (Besides our paying 60% of cost of operating United Nations and Soviet Union ONLY 5%, in addition at a great cost to our taxpayers our F.B.I. must "shadow" Soviet Union and their satellite delegates who include many spies smuggled into the country that way.)

REMEMBER Harriman is now top Administration "trouble shooter," after years as chief "trouble maker," because his wife is a "red hot" Zionist, and because he is dumb enough to do the dirty work of carrying his Zionist boss' orders. Harriman helped "Jockey" his partner in Wall Street, Levitt, into Marshall's job because Levitt will obediently take his orders from the "right" boys. Senator Lehman's long Wall Street associations with Levitt keep Anna M. Rosenberg in her present job, the most important position in the entire country of this nation and the world, as chief of revenue and soil survey of life. Another Harriman Wall Street partner, by name Bush, was put up as the Republican "straw man" candidate to insure the reelection of Democratic Senator MacMahon in the last Connecticut election. Bush's campaign was financed by Zionists in New York. Zionist standard practice is finance "weak sides" as candidates to insure election of their "strong" candidate running on the other ticket.

REMEMBER "Protocols of the Elders of Zion" are called "forgery" in the defense of them. "Forgery" means an unauthorized copy of an original. Zionists scream "forgery" at the mention of the word "Protocol." Exercising Constitutional rights to express his views, able Henry Ford called the attention of the world to Protocols. (We can supply you with copies.) They were drawn up in Hebrew, now published in English are the "official" plank of the platform of the Yiddish Marxists in THEIR BID FOR WORLD RULE but they will hardly admit it.

REMEMBER ask your Senator to send you a copy of Censorship Bulletin No. 7004 of the Naval Intelligence. MANY YEARS AGO it listed the names of the communists convicted in past two years because they were communists. This bulletin exposes today the control exercised for many years by communists in high government positions to conceal from Americans the existence of communist infiltration into government and the names of known dangerous communists working to destroy us.

REMEMBER American Mercury Magazine published two articles exposing the shocking dishonesty of Harry Truman. These two articles expose lack of Presidential character in Fendergast gang-buster Truman better than any exposures reported elsewhere to date. (We can supply copies.)

REMEMBER international Yiddish Marxist CONSPIRING to give U.S.A. another Pearl Harbor. They have PROMISED and are PLANNING TO GIVE Formosa to Communist China (to slacken Japan who would help us if permitted) and raising our ability to defend Alaska. Virgin Islands within rowing distance of Panama Canal, has a Zionist governor planted there "awaiting orders."

REMEMBER Major George Racey Jordan testified under oath that MOLOTOV lived at the White House under the name of "Brown" during World War II, and that Zionist controlled administration permitted and assisted in giving secret information to Soviet Union agents, and flew atom-bomb manufacturing secrets and blue-prints to Soviet Union 1943-1946 together with heavy "water" (Major Jordan was in charge of Great Falls, Montana airbase, where planes from Washington stopped before their next stop, Moscow, to deliver our A-bomb secrets there.)

REMEMBER ZIONISTS active in bringing into U.S.A. hundreds of thousands of blacks and browns from Cuba, Puerto Rico, Mexico, etc. etc. and settling them in states where their votes give them the "balance of power" in elections, insuring New Deal Fair Deal-Raw Deal continuance in power. Already effective in five states where Administration was alone elections with these votes which are "owned" by Administration for their "kindness" in bringing them into the country and their "generosity" in placing them on relief rolls immediately upon arrival here. Zionist-panderer LaGuardia and Communist-month-piece Vito Marcantonio were ringleaders in this conspiracy. Zionists have planned to get favorable election in the South's test segregation case with a "packed" court.

CONSPIRACY! REMEMBER!

How long before Southerners and Westerners open their eyes to the slaughter planned for THEM? Never forget, "Give me ten courageous men and I'll get you 10,000 more."

REMEMBER Zionists have 100% control of our Department of Immigration, at home and abroad. Passports are issued to those whom Zionists wish to enter country. That is made a prerequisite to entering this country. No anti-Zionist has been known to have entered this country in many years although millions of them exist in Europe and have wanted to come to this country since 1939. An ex-Immigration Department man who was taken out of the department in 1933 and has been a slogger for the Zionists since then was made the first American Ambassador to phony "Israel." Soviet Union sent into U.S.A. thousands of secret agents as DPs. They were sent into DP camps and then with collusion by department agents brought into U.S.A. with Eleanor Roosevelt's big help.

REMEMBER the Catholic Church investigated and found out that it was General Curtis LeMay, a Zionist, who selected the Japanese cities upon which to drop the first A-bombs. He selected Hiroshima and Nagasaki, unimportant as military objectives, BECAUSE THEY WERE THE TWO CITIES IN WHICH CHRISTIANITY FIRST STARTED IN THE ORIENT. Zionist General LeMay was in charge of our entire air-force, and Truman recommended this month that General LeMay be "raised" to a Four Star General. Wake up, Christians, LAST STOP!

REMEMBER CIO is a Zionist tool. Leo Pressman was its CHIEF counsel for many years WHILE HE WAS A MEMBER OF A COMMUNIST CELL OPERATING IN WASHINGTON, as testified under oath before a Congressional committee. Leo Pressman never denied it or took steps to compel retraction. CIO was ruined through all important developments by Communist (?) Leo Pressman and several other admitted communists - Empack and Maties of the United Electrical workers CIO UNION ARE OUT-AND-OUT AGENTS FOR STALIN HERE. ABOUT 90% OF THE GUIDING MINDS IN THE CIO ARE YIDDISH MARXISTS OR CHRISTIAN "FRONTS."

REMEMBER Judge George Armstrong of Fort Worth, Texas, recently published a booklet called "Third Zionist War." It presents some very interesting facts not generally known until now on this subject. (We can send you copies, or write to Judge Armstrong, Fort Worth, Texas.)

REMEMBER Senator Malone stated in the Congressional Record, in an address delivered before the Senate, that "This Administration has stolen 60% of the people's funds in savings accounts, life insurance, government bonds and plans to steal very much more," if it is left to steal.

REMEMBER Zionist sponsors of Anna M. Rosenberg expect her to become the "Anna Parker" of the U.S.A. She is being groomed for that job when "Mr Tax" arrives. She will become the mistress of all manpower, from the womb to the tomb, by her "police state" legislation. Under this phony "military training bill" Anna M. Rosenberg would have the power to induce for a price every person in the U.S.A. into a "police state" and a kind of manual labor there, unchained chains-gangs. A husband could be sent to Alaska and his wife to the heart of darkest Africa, under the terms in that bill interpreted to the Senate who then voted 78 to 5 for it. Aroused Congressmen killed it. WATCH FOR PHONE "MILITARY TRAINING BILL." Anna M. Rosenberg is the "big brain" executing the plan of the "conspiracy" to straight-jacket the electorate of the country by "deceit" lured by the "Mistress of Manpower," Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, U.S.A.

REMEMBER the Sorge spy case will never be told in full. Sorge was a German communist who fooled Hitler into letting him represent Germany in Japan during the war years. Japan paid attention to Sorge as Hitler's trusted agent. Japan was preparing to attack the Soviet Union in Asia while Hitler attacked them in Europe. Had Japan done this the Soviet Union would have gone out like a candle. But Sorge was at all times an agent for the Soviet Union, a dyed-in-the-wool 100% Marxist. Sorge influenced Japan NOT to attack the Soviet Union in Asia but to attack the U.S.A. in the Pacific and England in Southern Asia. Japan followed Sorge's advice. That is what brought us into the war. MEMBERS OF OUR GOVERNMENT WERE FRIENDLY WITH SORGE AND AIDED HIM IN PULLING US INTO WAR.

REMEMBER Judith Coplon was a Yiddish Marxist installed in a high government position to pass on to her Yiddish Marxist CO-CONSPIRATORS in Moscow the secrets which could make us a "sitting duck" for the Soviet Union when she chose to start a war. Who put her there? Who kept her there when staffs were reduced? Who is paying for her defense? And how many more "Judith Coplons" are there in strategic spots to this very day? WAKE UP, YOU PATRIOTS, BEFORE COUNTRY-LESS BONS, BROTHERS, AND HUSBANDS PERISH!

REMEMBER in the United States the murder of one man will send him to the electric chair. TREASON MAY MEAN THE LOSS OF MILLIONS OF LIVES. Zionist judges allowed the convicted communists to go free under $10,000 bail. Many of them shipped their bail. Gerhard Eisler, Klaus Fuchs, Julius Rosenberg and others are illustrating how these traitors may bring death to tens of millions when the A-bombs begin to fall all over the U.S.A. Yet the men who organized these traitors and made it possible for them to operate are allowed to go free under small bail so that they can organize more spy work in the United States if the top agents of the Soviet Union were effectively restrained, not encouraged to continue their operations by setting them free under bail which they ship whenever it pleases them to do so.

REMEMBER Benjamin Buttenweiser, a Zionist, partner in Kuhn Loeb & Co., was the Zionist in Berlin calling the shots for McCloy and General Clay in Germany. Buttenweiser was interested in keeping Germany weak (AGAINST THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES WHICH SHOULD WANT A STRONG GERMANY TO ACT AS A BUFFER AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION'S PRESSURE TO THE WEST.) The Germans wanted no part of the United States at any price if Germany was to be under the control of a Zionist. Buttenweiser's wife turned her home over to Alger Hiss and his wife during their stay in New York for their treason trial, and made a contribution to the fund with which to pay the lawyers. (In addition to Mrs. Buttenweiser who is a lawyer and related to Senator Lehman.) We set Russia rearm East Germans and we refuse to rearm West Germans to offer real resistance to Europe's conquest.

REMEMBER three of the five Atomic Energy Commission were Zionists, Lillenthal, Strass, and Bacher. Lillenthal was only RESIGNED (?) as Chairman 12 days after the arrest of Klaus Fuchs, protégé of Professor Albert Einstein, who gave our atom bomb secrets to the Soviet Union. They will be dropped on as any day now, thanks to the "kindness" shown to Klaus Fuchs by Professor Albert Einstein. When Congressmen threatened EXPOSURE Lillenthal RESIGNED (took a powder). During the critical years (1945-1950) the Zionist controlled the Atomic Energy Commission delayed U.S. development on the H-bomb (hydrogen) and the cosmic ray bomb while other Zionists, having easy access to all our data, gave the secrets for production of atom bombs, and samples of the materials, to our enemy.

REMEMBER Rothschilds made their great fortune by forging and dishonestly reporting a Napoleon victory at Waterloo - meanwhile buying from the English their securities for one to three cents on the dollar. A week later the truth of the Wellington victory reached England and the Rothschilds sold a small percentage of their total holdings at a tremendous profit, retaining control of England's financial structure FREE OF COST. By another conspiracy Germans and Austrians were pauperized after World War I by Yiddish profiteers from Russia and Poland who bought securities and properties with small cash payments and large mortgages which became worthless by their planned inflation of the German mark. Proof exists of the conspiracy by Zionists to deliberately destroy the British Empire, which today is 98% accomplished.

REMEMBER in the U. S. there is now another conspiracy - a plan through confusion and inflation to rob Americans not only of their material assets - but their God given freedoms and their Bill of Rights. To top it off they plan destroying the American Christian way of life. De-plan destroying the American Christian way of life. De-plan Department under Assistant Anna M. Rosenberg recently ordered removal of the Cross of Christ from the graves of soldiers. See Congressional Record, page 675, for protest of Senator Langer. WAKE UP, CHRISTIAN AMERICANS! DON'T BE CAUGHT NAPPING NOW!

REMEMBER expose the Zionist HELP DEFEAT THEIR SINISTER UN-AMERICAN AND ANTI-CHRISTIAN PLANS! U. S. NEEDS A GREAT SPIRITUAL REVIVAL. CHRIST IS THE ANSWER TO OUR EVERY NEED! WHAT SACRIFICES ARE YOU MAKING TO HELP?

REMEMBER Edmund Burke said, "THE ONLY thing necessary for the triumph of EVIL is that good people do nothing." Lip service and hesitancy to make material and personal sacrifices insure victory for the sinister forces at work for centuries to obtain control of the world.

The ordained of every Christian denomination are taught and they should teach the truth about their Saviour. They know that the Lord Jesus Christ was not a "Jew" in any of the "secondary" meanings given to the word "Jew" in the last two centuries by Yiddish propagandists. They must always remember John VIII, 33: "Know ye the truth and the truth shall make you free."

These anti-Christ atheists call themselves "Jews." Marxists are anti-Christ atheists. A short study of their fundamental beliefs and objectives will convince the most skeptical of this fact. Marxists do not deny it when charged with it. They cannot. They are damned by the words spoken by them publicly on the subject.

These anti-Christ Marxist atheists protest to the Christian Americans that they are "Jews" and devout followers of "Judaism." They appear before the Christian world wearing "Judaism," a shining suit of armor. That shining suit of armor, "Judaism," dangles Christianity who incorrectly associate "Jew," "Jewish" and "Judaism" with their Saviour. That shining suit of armor, "Judaism," also provides the anti-Christ atheists with an outer covering which Christians cannot penetrate. They cannot "X-ray" armorplate to read their evil minds.

"CHOSEN PEOPLE" MYTH CHRISTIAN TRAP

Christian Americans have had dinned into their ears since their Sunday School days the fabulous action that "Jews," as they describe themselves, are God's "Chosen People." The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators leaves no stone unturned to infect the minds of Christian Americans with the untruth that "Jews," as they insistently depict themselves, actually are God's "Chosen People" and God's real favorites.

The fabulous fable that the ancestors of the Judaized Khazars migrated from Palestine to eastern Europe is the greatest hoax ever inflicted upon the credulous Christian world. The belief in that fabulous fable by Christian Americans was utilized by "Jews," as they are to be called, to conscript the power and the prestige of the United States for the fraudulent "reparation" of the counterfeit "Chosen People" to their embittered "American Land." The Administration betrayed the American Land.

They claim to have been temporarily dispossessed from Palestine and scattered around the world by the same God who promised to give them back Palestine someday as their "Promised Land," presuming that Palestine had been their "homeland." They appear to have been delayed 2000 years in eastern Europe en route back.

"SECONDARY" MEANINGS FOR WORDS CREATED

The United States Supreme Court recognizes the existence of "secondary" meanings for words. The highest courts in the country today base their decisions upon recognition of the fact that "secondary" meanings have been given to many dictionary words which bear no relationship to their original meaning. Litigation over the use of dictionary words as trade-marks has won recognition for the preeminence of the "secondary" meaning over the original and correct meanings for words.

By the expenditure of huge sums of money for advertising "secondary" meanings are created for words. The expenditure of countless millions for many years has created "secondary" meanings for such dictionary words as "camel" and "ivory." Reference today to a "camel" is regarded as reference to a brand of cigarettes. Reference today to "ivory" is regarded as reference to a brand of soap. A request for a "camel" is not intended as a request for an animal by that name. A request for "ivory" is not intended as a request for the tusks of an elephant.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" GETS SECONDARY MEANING

A "secondary" meaning has been created for "anti-Semitism" by the concealed expenditure of enormous sums for publicity. Direct and indirect control of all the mediums for influencing public thinking are available for this purpose to the international Marxist conspirators, including the pulpits of approximately 100,000 churches.

"Anti-Semitism" today means a violent hatred by persons professing Christianity as their religious faith toward persons professing Judaism as their religious faith solely for that reason. There is hardly a person in the world who does not regard "anti-Semitism" as meaning just that, and nothing else. The "secondary" meaning created for "anti-Semitism" has been a greater success than any attempt ever made to create a "secondary" meaning for a word in all the history of this art.

"Anti-Semitism" has been given a "secondary" meaning in modern history by the expenditure of countless millions by the international Marxist conspirators. They have been eminently successful in this respect. Their original meaning has been totally eclipsed by their efforts to establish the "secondary" meaning as the generally accepted and the only meaning today for "anti-Semitism."

SECONDARY MEANING FOR "ANTI-SEMITISM"

According to its correct meaning "anti-Semitism" indicates a dislike for the CULTURE of the "Semite" population which consisted 95% of "Semites" who had embraced either Christianity or Mohammedanism and 5% of "Semites" who had embraced a form of religious worship which is today regarded as incorrectly as "Judaism."

HISTORY EXPLODES "SEMITIC" MYTH

The "Semite" peoples are assumed to have been the descendants of Shem, one of the sons of Noah. "Sem" is the Latin and Greek equivalent for "Shem." Thus the "Shemites" of the Old Testament have become the "Semites" of modern history. For the same reasons the "Shemite" languages have become the "Semite" languages in modern history, and known as such only since 1781.

From all the evidences which have been discovered by leading authorities it is now certain that the "Semites" were the inhabitants described in the ancient histories of Arabia, Syria, Palestine, Egypt, Mesopotamia, Abyssinia and the extensive areas adjacent to these territories.

SEMITIC "RACE" DELIBERATE UNTRUTH

The "Semites" are known to have included the numerous racial groups inhabiting the geographic area generally referred to as Asia Minor and the territories adjacent to Asia Minor. The leading anthropologists unanimously assert that there never was a "Semite" race in all the recorded history of mankind.

The leading anthropologists submit abundant evidence to support their unanimous conclusion that the many "Semite" nations were composed of segments of the numerous racial groups known to inhabit that area at that time. Reference in modern history to this mixed racial population by the term "Semite" is no evidence that the term "Semite" ever CORRECTLY described a RACE.

It is also the unanimous conclusion of the leading authorities on the subject that at no time in history has there ever existed a "Semite" RELIGIOUS BELIEF.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA REVEALS TRUTH

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. XI, dispels any doubt on this question in the words of Christian Americans. The Jewish Encyclopedia defines "Semites" as a regional group composed of many races. Thus: "Semites (originally Shemites): term used in a general way to designate those people who are said in Gen. X, 21-30 to be the descendants of the patriarch Shem... Included the North-Arabsians, South-Arabsians (Minaeans, Sabaeans, etc.), the Abyssinians, Babylonians, Assyrians, Aramaeans (consisting of many widely scattered tribes extending from the Persian Gulf to Lebanon and the Hauran), the Phoenicians, Canaanites, and Hebrews, together with the kindred of the last named, the Mosabites and the Edomites."

There is no authority better qualified to speak on the subject of "Semites" than Professor Allen H. Godbey, Professor of Old Testament at Duke University. Professor Godbey accumulated his knowledge of the history of the "Semites" during the sixty years he devoted to this subject, a more intensive study of this subject than any other authority, and recognized as the outstanding authority.

In the most important work of reference on this subject, his "The Lost Tribes Myth; Suggestions Towards

People. Masquerading as "Semites" the international Marxist conspirators have been able to prevent the suspicion of Christian Americans from interfering with their plans for world conquest and the end of Christianity.

YIDDISH MISREPRESENT SAVIOUR AS "JEW"

The great advantage obtained by calling themselves "Jews" and members of a "race" by that name is obvious. The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators leans no opportunity to "remind" Christian Americans that their Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was also a "Jew," and a member of their "race." They use countless mediums of publicity to impress this fraudulent distortion of a historic fact upon Christian Americans.

Christian Americans have walked into a trap. It may well be a booby-trap. It has not gone off yet. But it may go off soon, much sooner than anyone expects. Christian Americans must have their eyes opened. It is urgent that they see the danger which threatens them. If they do not, they may soon see the trap snap shut.

The trap is a double-acting trap. It has two actions. The first is, the Yiddish method of referring to themselves as "Jews." The second is, the emphasis given to the notion that the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was a "Jew."

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON

Rewriting Hebrew History," on page 155, Professor Allen H. Godbey states the following:

"THERE IS NO SUCH THING AS A SEMITIC RACE."
In his outstanding classic, "The Lost Tribes A Myth; Suggestions Toward Rewriting Hebrew History," Professor Godbey, on page 155, states this simple fact:
"WE USE THE TERM SEMITIC TO DESCRIBE A TYPE OF LANGUAGE AND A SORT OF CULTURE WHICH WE CAN TRACE BY MEANS OF THAT TYPE OF LANGUAGE THROUGH MANY MILLENNIUMS PAST."

SEMITIC REFERS ONLY TO LANGUAGES

Dr. Lewis Bayles Paton, Ph.D., D.D., Nettleton Professor of Old Testament Exegesis and Criticism in the Hartford Theological Seminary, in his authoritative classic, "The Early Religion of Israel," published by Houghton Mifflin Co. in 1910, defines "Semites" as follows:

"In language, customs, and beliefs, the Hebrews were closely akin to the Canaanites, Aramaeans, Assyrians, Babylonians, Arabs, Ethiopians, and OTHER RACES THAT ARE ORIGINALLY BY THE MOUTH OF THE RED SEA UNDER THE GENERAL NAME OF 'SEMITIC'."

The Oxford English Dictionary in Vol. IX, 1933 edition, in its authoritative opinion as other leading authorities on this question, and defines the "Semites" as follows:

"Semite: A person belonging to the race of mankind which includes most of the peoples mentioned in Gen. X as descended from Shem, son of Noah, as the Hebrews, Arabs, Assyrians, and the Aramaeans. ALSO A PERSON SPEAKING A SEMITIC LANGUAGE AS HIS NATIVE TONGUE."

The Encyclopedia Britannica, in Vol. 20, 1947 edition, publishes the unanimous opinion of leading authorities on the subject of "Semites." The Encyclopedia Britannica calls the "Semites" a regional group:

"The 'Semite' or 'Semitic' language, so named in 1781 by scholars because most of those who spoke them were descended from Shem (Gen. X-XI), were spoken in Arabia, Mesopotamia, Syria and Palestine, whence they spread into Abyssinia, Egypt, Northern Africa and elsewhere. All are closely related in structure and vocabulary."

"SEMITIC" COINED IN THE YEAR 1781

It was only in 1781 A.D. that the word "Semite" was coined by a Swiss professor named Schlozer in 1781 as a matter of necessity. In all the 6000 years during which "Semites" inhabited the Near and Middle East prior to 1781, no word existed to name the group of languages spoken by "Semites." Professor Schlozer was compelled to create such a word to meet his existing needs in the absence of any such word.

Since its creation by Professor Schlozer in 1781, the word "Semite" has been used throughout the world to describe the group of languages spoken by "Semites." "Semite" is the adjective form of "Semitic." The word "Semitic" cannot correctly be applied to denote "Semite." It is as incorrect to apply "Semitic" as a designation for a "race" as it is to apply, as explained "Semite." Historic and scientific fact confirm that there has never been a "Semitic" RACE, nor has there ever been a "Semitic" RELIGION in all mankind's recorded history.

"SEMITISM" REFERS TO CULTURE NOT "RACE"

The best qualified and most competent authorities on the subject unanimously agree that "Semite" defines the CULTURE of the populations speaking the group of languages called "Semitic" languages in modern history. These authorities exclude any possibility that "Semites" defines racial origin, religious worship, or political revolution of all or any part of the "Semitic" populations.

The Oxford English Dictionary, Vol. IX, 1933 edition, expresses the unanimous opinion of leading authorities on this question. The Oxford English Dictionary defines "Semite" as the CULTURE of ALL the people there:
"SEMITISM. THE ATTRIBUTES CHARACTERISTIC OF THE SEMITIC PEOPLE. ALSO THE FACT OF BEING A SEMITE."

CHRISTIANS AND MOHAMMEDAN SEMITES

In the period of Old Testament history, from the time of Abraham, about 1900 B.C., to the birth of Christ, less than 5% of the "Semite" people embraced the form of religious worship today incorrectly referred to as "Judaism," and not called by that name in Palestine or anywhere during that entire period. The remaining 95% of the "Semite" people embraced either Christianity or Mohammedanism but very little is ever said about it.

The propaganda machine of the International Marxist conspirators spends countless millions to drive into the heads of Christian Americans the untruth that "Semite" is just another name for "Jew" and that "Jew" is just another name for "Semite." As a result of relentless repetition of this untruth Christian Americans today regard "Jews" as "Semites" and "Semites" as "Jews."

Nothing is at greater variance with historic and scientific fact. The truth is concluded from Christian Americans. The International Marxist conspirators realize that once Christian Americans know the truth "anti-Semitism" will then lose its power as their deadly secret weapon.

It is as equally incorrect to regard "Semite" a synonym for "Jew" as it is to regard "North American" a synonym for "Protestant," "African" a synonym for "Moslem," or "Asiatic" a synonym for "Hindu." The former denote inhabitants of specific geographic areas. The latter denote forms of religious worship practiced by parts of the total populations which inhabit these areas.

NO CHRISTIAN AND NO MOHAMMEDAN "RACES"

The "Jews," as we are always reminded to refer to them, are no different in this respect than the adherents of other religious beliefs which have been spread by missionary effort throughout the world. There is no Christian "RACE." There are Christians of every race. There is no Mohammedan "RACE." There are Mohammedans of many races. There is no Buddhist "RACE." There are Buddhists of many races. Nor is there a Judean "RACE." There are also Judean segments of many races.

The "Jews," as they represent themselves to the world, are not "racial" descendants of the 5% of that

"Semite" population in Asia Minor which embraced the form of religious worship in Old Testament Bible history today referred to incorrectly as "Judaism." The facts which follow convince the most skeptical that this propaganda to that effect is a deep-rooted plot.

Christian Americans are NOT told that of the total "Jewish" population of the world more than 85% are the direct lineal descendants of the Asiatic Mongoloid, Turk-Finn barbarian tribal nations which was converted to "Judaism" in the 7th Century. This Asiatic barbarian tribal nation invaded eastern Europe about the 1st Century B.C. and resided there the Khazar kingdom of approximately 800,000 square miles prior to their conversion to "Judaism" and the creation of a Talmudic theocracy.

"SEMITIC" MISREPRESENTED AS "JEWISH"

Countless millions are spent annually to impress Christian Americans that things referred to as "Semite" are also in fact "Jewish," and vice versa. Christian Americans are NOT told that less than 4% of the "Jewish" population of the world are legitimately "Semites." Christian Americans are NOT told that 96% of the "Jewish" population of the world never at any time in their history had a racial or historic connection with the "Semites" in Palestine. HISTORY PROVES THAT.

The "Jews," as they wish to be called, are not a "RACE" as by the word "Jew" they wish to designate all people of the world who profess "Judaism" as their religious belief. It is impossible for all these people to be members of a "RACE." Religion never determines "RACE."

"JUDAISM" NOT WHAT IT IS REPRESENTED

During the period of Old Testament Bible history a form of religious worship was introduced in Palestine from outside that area. At that time this religious belief was known as "Torah Yehve," meaning the instruction as revealed by Yahve, or Jehovah. In the period during which the Saviour was born on earth this religious belief was known as "The Traditions of the Pharisees." The form of "Judaism" practiced in synagogues today are modernized versions of the ancient worship based on the invisible, eternal and omnipotent Deity concept.

As previously explained, a part of the population of every nation bordering on the Mediterranean in ancient times embraced the form of religious worship today incorrectly referred to as "Judaism." These nations were composed of all the races of mankind known to inhabit that tremendous area in Europe, North Africa and Asia Minor.

Christianity, Mohammedanism and what is incorrectly today referred to as "Judaism," that period, were first introduced into the areas beyond the borders of their birthplace by missionary effort. These three modern religious beliefs were introduced into all parts of the outside world through activities of missionaries.

"Judaism" was a name coined by the Roman historian Josephus Flavius many years after the Crucifixion of Christ. Josephus Flavius coined the term "Judaism" not as the name for any particular form of religious worship. Josephus Flavius coined the word "Judaism" as the word for the CULTURE of the "Semites" who inhabited the Palestine area during the period about which he was writing in the Greek language for his fellow Romans.

A part of every population of the many nations bordering on all the shores of the Mediterranean were converted to this form of religious worship during the 2000 year period prior to the conversion to "Judaism" of the Asiatic barbarians who invaded eastern Europe. The Asiatic barbarians are known to history as the Khazars.

The populations of the many nations on the shores of the Mediterranean consisted of various races. It is a historic and scientific fact that this new religious belief was adopted by peoples of every race known to exist in that area of the world. The descendants of these original converts to this religious belief today practice the same form of worship in their native ancient "homelands."

Josephus Flavius coined the word "Judaism" in order to be able to make a comparison between the CULTURE which existed at that time in the Palestine area and "Hellenism," the name used to describe the CULTURE identified at that time with the people of Greece.

"JUDAISM" A LABEL FOR YAHVISM CULT

"Judaism" is the name applied in modern history to this ancient form of religious worship. It was not known by that name by people who practiced it at that time, as explained above. "Judaism" was only applied in modern history as its name to the form of religious worship now practiced in synagogues exclusively under that name.

RABBI MOSES TELLS THE TRUE STORY

The eminent and greatly respected Rabbi Adolph Moses, in his classic essay on the origin of the name "Judaism," calls attention to the fact that "Judaism" has only been applied in modern times as the name for the religious worship known by that name today. Rabbi Adolph Moses, in this classic work, "Yahvism and Other Discourses," edited and with an introduction by Rabbi H. G. Enlow, D.D., and published by the Louisville Section of the Council of Jewish Women in 1903, on page 1, reveals the origin of the modern term "Judaism":

"Among the innumerable misfortunes which have befallen the Israelites since they ceased to form a state and nation, one of the most fatal in its consequences, is the name 'Judaism'... the Bible speaks of the religion of Israel as 'Torah Yehve,' the instruction, or the moral law, revealed by Yahve... these and other kindred appellations continued for many ages to stand for the religion of Israel among adherents... It was Josephus Flavius, writing for the instruction of Greeks and Romans, who coined the term 'Judaism,' in order to pit it against 'Hellenism'... By Hellenism he understood the (Greek) civilization comprising language, poetry, religion, art, science, manners, customs, and institutions, which... had spread over Europe, Asia and Africa. The Christian writers eagerly seized upon the name thus furnished them, in order to distinguish Christianity... The Jews... detested... and adopting... his theological ideas. HENCE, THE TERM 'JUDAISM' COINED BY JOSEPHUS REMAINED ABSOLUTELY UNKNOWN TO THEM. IT WAS ONLY IN COMPARATIVELY RECENT TIMES, AFTER THE JEWS BECAME FAMILIAR WITH MODERN CHRISTIAN LITERATURE, THAT THEY BEGAN TO NAME THEIR RELIGION 'JUDAISM'."

HISTORIC ORIGIN OF EASTERN EUROPEAN JEWS

The Khazars were part of the Turk-Finn population which inhabited a large area in that section of Central Asia which now includes Sinkiang, the most westerly province of China. The descendants of these Asiatic barbarians conceived, organized, and are now directing the world-wide, atheist, anti-Christ Marxist crusade.

The origin of the Jewish population of eastern Europe is one of the most successfully suppressed historic facts. Until very recently this information was not called to the attention of the public. Despite the fact that in the New York Public Library alone there are more than 300 volumes dealing with this subject, nothing has ever been taught in our schools or colleges about this significant development which is accountable for much of our woe.

KHAZARS INVASION OF EASTERN EUROPE

The Khazars were driven out of Asia about the 1st Century B.C. after a succession of defeats suffered by them in wars they waged against their Asiatic neighbors. The Khazars thereupon invaded eastern Europe by way of the land passage lying between the Caspian Sea and the Ural Mountains affording easy entry into Europe.

The Khazars waged relentless war against their new neighbors. The Khazars rapidly annexed to their kingdom by conquest more than 800,000 square miles. At the height of its power in the 8th Century A.D. the Khazar kingdom occupied more territory and had the largest population of any of the nations in Western and Eastern Europe.

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume 4, page 1, devotes considerable space to the invasion of eastern Europe by the Khazars. The Jewish Encyclopedia reconstructs the entire invasion of eastern Europe by the Khazars. The history of the Asiatic Mongoloid Turk-Finn and their Khazar kingdom appears at great length, from which the following quotation about the Khazars is taken:

"Khazars: A people of Turkish (Turki-Finn) origin whose life and history are interwoven with the very beginnings of the history of the Jews of Russia. The Kingdom of the Khazars was firmly established in the west of South Russia long before the foundation of the Russian Monarchy by the Varangians (855)... Historical evidence points to the regions of the Ural as the home of the Khazars. Among the classical writers of the middle ages they were known as Khazars... driven onward... by their own desire for plunder and revenge... they made frequent invasions... until the final conquest of the Khazars by the Russians."

JUDAISM AUTHORITY TELLS OF KHAZARS

The dean of Jewish historians, Professor H. Graetz, in his "History of the Jews," published in 1894 by the Jewish Publication Society of America, in Philadelphia, states in Vol. 3, page 133, these historic facts:

"The Khazars... settled on the frontier between Europe and Asia... they founded a kingdom... their Kings... led these warlike sons of the steppes from victory to victory... the Byzantine emperors trembled at the name of the Khazars, flattered them, and paid them tribute in order to restrain their land after the booty of Constantinople... other tribes were the vassals of the Khazars and... were obliged to pay them as an annual tax a sword and a fine skin for every household. WITH THE ARABS, WHOSE NEIGHBORS THEY GRADUALLY BECAME, THEY CARRIED ON TERRIBLE WARS."

The Khazars were a war-like people. Within a short time after their invasion of eastern Europe the Khazars conquered the twenty-five tribal nations occupying the territory lying between the north shore of the Black Sea and the Gulf of Finland, and extending from the Ural Mountains to the middle of Europe. These primitive and peaceful agricultural peoples had inhabited this area from a time so remote that history shows no record of it.

KHAZARS CONVERSION TO "JUDAISM"

The Khazars were CONVERTED to "Judaism" in the 7th Century A.D. The conversion of the Khazar nation to "Judaism" explains the sudden appearance of the large Jewish Population in eastern Europe in the 7th Century A.D. The "homelands" of these Judaized Khazars was NOT in Palestine. The ancestors of the Judaized Khazars had never set foot in Palestine. The "homelands" of the Khazars had always been "deep in the heart of Asia."

The direct descendants of these Asiatic barbarians now form the "hard-core" of the Marxist creeping conquest of the world. From its very inception down to the present moment the descendants of these Asiatic barbarians have been the driving force behind the Christianity, atheist, Marxist, devastating assaults upon Christianity.

The Jewish population of eastern Europe at no time in its history was composed of "Semites." At no time in its history did the Jewish population of eastern Europe have a historic or racial connection with the ancient population in Palestine, in the period of Old Testament Bible history, who today are incorrectly referred to as "Jews."

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA EXPLAINS CONVERSION

The Jewish Encyclopedia in Volume 4, page 2, supports Professor Graetz with an official account of the conversion of the Khazar nation to "Judaism" prepared by leading Judaic authorities on the subject. A short quotation indicates the completeness of the conversion:

"It was probably about this time that the Chagan (king) of the Khazars and his grandson, together with a large number of his heathen people, embraced the Jewish religion... the conversion took place in 635; according to others in 748... It was one of the successors of Bulan, named Obadiah, who regenerated and strengthened the Jewish religion. He invited Jewish scholars to settle in his dominions and founded synagogues and schools. The people were instructed in the Bible, Mishnah, and Talmud, and in the 'divine service of the bazarim.' In their writing the Khazars used the Hebrew letters... It appears as if all the Khazars were Jews and that they had been converted to Judaism only a short time before that book was written (8th Century)."

JUDAISM HISTORIAN TELLS OF CONVERSION

Professor H. Graetz, in his "History of the Jews," supplies important historic data about the conversion of the Khazar nation to "Judaism." It will be rather difficult for anyone to contradict these historic facts. Professor Graetz, in Volume 3, page 139, emphasizes as follows:

"Like their neighbors... the Khazars professed a coarse religion, which was combined with sensuality and lawlessness... One of the Chagans (Kings) who the following account of their conversion: The King Bulan conceived a horror of the foul idolatry of his ancestors, and prohibited the exercises within his dominions, without, however, adopting any other form of religion . . . It is possible that the circumstances under which the Khazars embraced Judaism have been embellished, but the fact itself has been definitely proved on all sides to allow no doubt as to its reality . . . the nobles of the kingdom numbering nearly 4,000 adopted the Jewish religion . . . and made it the way among the people, so that most of the inhabitants were Jews . . . invited Jewish sages to settle in his dominions, rewarded them royally, founded synagogues and schools, caused instruction to be given to himself and his people in the Bible and the Talmud and introduced a divine service MODELLED ON THAT OF THE ANCIENT COMMUNITIES."

KHAZAR KINGDOM BECOMES JUDAIC THEOCRACY

The existence for over 500 years of a "Jewish" state, a Judaic theocracy, in eastern Europe, known as the Khazar kingdom, is substantiated by the authoritative Judaic historian, Professor H. Graetz in his "History of the Jews," Volume III, page 141, where Professor Graetz calls to our attention the great Judaic theocracy: "AFTER (KING) ORADIAN CAME A LONG SERIES OF CHAGANS (KINGS), FOR ACCORDING TO A FUNDAMENTAL LAW OF THE STATE ONLY JEWISH RULERS WERE PERMITTED TO ASCEND THE THRONE."

After his conversion to Judaism in the 7th Century A. D., King Bulter established Judaism as the state religion for the Khazar kingdom. Thereafter none but a Judaic king could occupy the Khazar throne. Thousands of Talmudic rabbis were brought into the Khazar kingdom by him from Babylonia. These Talmudic rabbis ruled the communities under their jurisdiction as totalitarian dictators with the authority vested in them by Talmudic law.

The Khazar kingdom continued as the most powerful nation in all Europe from the 7th to the 11th Century A. D. During these centuries the Judaic Khazar theocracy was governed like theocracies in that stage of civilization when political authority was exercised by a priestly power. This form of government continued until the final conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians in the 11th Century when they "junked" the Judaic theocracy.

BIRTH OF THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE 855 A. D.

In 855 A. D., a small number of Scandinavians known to history as Varangians, sailed across the Baltic Sea to the north of the Khazar kingdom near the Gulf of Finland. They settled there permanently. They found the area inhabited by a very primitive Slavic people. These Slavic nomads had inhabited that area as peaceful pastoral people from prehistoric times.

The Varangians organized these Slavic nomads into a nation in the year 855 A. D. This tiny, new-born nation is designated by historians as the Principality of Ror.

The Principality of Ror became the nucleus of the Russian Empire, which became the Soviet Union of today.

It was this infant political subdivision which grew since its birth in 855 A. D. into the great Russian state, conqueror of 190 sovereign nations in Europe and Asia.

RUSSIANS CONQUER KHAZAR KINGDOM

The Russians (Russians), the Slavs of the Principality of Ror, soon made war against their Khazar neighbors to the south. After a long war lasting many decades the Russians (Russians) finally conquered the Khazar kingdom. The complete conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians (Russians) in the 11th Century extended the borders of the Principality of Ror (Russia) to include the entire 800,000 square miles of the former Khazar kingdom.

The Judaized former Khazars became subjects of Russia as the result of that historic conquest. The word "Khazar" disappeared entirely from the history and the maps of Europe after the 11th Century. The historic maps of Europe made prior to the 11th Century indicate to the eye the rise and fall of the Khazar kingdom and the birth of the Russian Empire in the 9th Century as a tiny state.

Disturbances having their origin in religious differences between Judaized former Khazars and their pagan Russian conquerors did not assume serious proportions until the conversion to Christianity of the Russian ruler, Vladimir III, in 988 A. D. The conversion of Vladimir III to Christianity resulted in the Greek Catholic Church becoming the "national church" of the Russian state.

TALMUDIC RABBIS RESIST ASSIMILATION

The attempts by the Christian rulers of Russia to convert their Judaized former Khazar subjects to Christianity met with militant opposition from the Talmudic rabbis. They fought furiously to maintain a status of "state within a state" for the Judaized former Khazar communities. The Talmudic rabbis insulted and isolated the Judaized former Khazar communities from contact with the Russian government and the Russian people.

The Talmudic rabbis ordered the Judaized former Khazars to resist the efforts of the Russian government to absorb them into the Russian nation. The Russian government failed in its attempt to substitute the Russian language for the ancient mother-tongue spoken by the Judaized former Khazars (Yiddish), or to substitute the Russian alphabet for the (Hebrew) alphabet adopted by the Khazars at the time of their conversion to "Judaism" as the alphabet for their language, which had none.

The totalitarian authority of the Talmudic rabbis over the communities under their jurisdiction was challenged for the first time in 800 years by the conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians. The Talmudic rabbis struggled to retain the authority vested in them by the 15,000 "ordinances" of their Talmudic "law."

The struggle by the Talmudic rabbis to retain their totalitarian authority resulted in the disorders which developed between the Judaized former Khazars and the governments in eastern Europe among which they were divided when Russia surrendered territory to them.

After their final conquest by Russia an almost perpetual state of civil war existed between the Judaized former Khazars and the Christian population of the countries of which they thereafter became subjects.

RUSSIA DEFEATED BY EUROPEAN NEIGHBORS

After the final conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by Russia in the 11th Century, Russia was constantly engaged in wars with her neighbors in Europe. During the following centuries many of the small nations on Russia's European border grew into large powerful nations. These included Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary and Roumania, each in its turn dominating eastern Europe.

Russia was defeated in these wars by each of these countries and compelled to surrender territory to them. The territory surrendered by Russia to all her victorious neighbors formed a large part of the territory annexed by Russia through the conquest of the Khazar kingdom.

This territory had been the "homeland" of the Khazars for more than 1000 years. They continued to remain there throughout the frequent shifting of boundaries which occurred due to the recurring wars.

As a result of Russia's surrender of this territory to her victorious neighbors millions of Russia's Judaized former Khazar subjects were no longer Russian subjects. With the transfer of territory they became subjects of Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary and Roumania.

It must be observed also that Russia did not surrender all the territory acquired by the conquest of the Khazar kingdom. Russia retained a large part of it. The part which Russia retained was inhabited by many millions of Judaized former Khazars. The Russian provinces of the Ukraine and Byelo (White) Russia retained the greatest proportion of the total original number of Judaized former Khazars conquered by the Russians.

JUDAIZED KHAZARS CHANGE NATIONALITY

The large Judaic (Yiddish) communities in Poland, Lithuania, Galicia (Austria), Hungary and Roumania are the result of the surrender to these countries by Russia of territory inhabited by the Judaized former Khazars. They are not the result of mass migrations into these countries of Judaized former Khazars, but of course not from Palestine.

The surrender by Russia of territory inhabited by Judaized former Khazars to the nations mentioned above accounts for the presence in these countries in modern history of populations, (1) possessing physical characteristics indicating common racial origin, (2) speaking a common language (Yiddish) foreign to the native languages of the people among whom they live, and (3) with a culture identical in every respect to each of the Judaic (Yiddish) communities in each country with a Yiddish community.

KHAZAR REFUGEES FLEE BEFORE RUSSIANS

During the Russian invasions in the 8th and 10th centuries the pogroms and the resulting Judaized Khazar families fled from the Khazar Kingdom. They escaped before the invading Russian armies like the French families which fled from France during the recent invasion of France by the German armies during World War II.

The Judaized Khazar refugees made their way to Egypt, Italy, Spain, France and other countries in Western Europe and North Africa. The Judaized Khazar refugees there came into contact for the first time with co-religionists of the many races converted to "Judaism" long ago.

When the Judaized Khazar refugees fled before the invading Russian armies they scattered to the countries bordering on the Mediterranean and in western Europe. The co-religionists of the Judaized Khazar refugees in these countries were amazed upon their arrival. The Judaic communities of the nations bordering on the Mediterranean and in western Europe had never seen co-religionists like these which suddenly appeared in great numbers and attempted to dominate the scene.

The Judaized Khazar refugees did not receive a warm welcome from their co-religionists in the Mediterranean countries and western Europe. For some unexplained reason the Judaized Khazar refugees were not accepted by their co-religionists the legendary hospitality for which they were famous. They were quite unfriendly to each other at that time. That same feeling still exists.

EXPLODES "LOST TEN TRIBES" PROPAGANDA

Professor H. Graetz in his "Popular History of the Jews" translated from the Russian by Rabbi A. B. Rhine, edited by the great Judaic authority Alexander Harkavy, and published by Hebrew Publishing Company in 1910, confirms the historic fact that the "Yiddish" communities in eastern Europe were not connected with the "Semitic" population in Palestine . . . say this in all history. Professor Graetz demolishes the fabulous fiction that the "Yiddish" communities in eastern Europe were the progeny of the "lost ten tribes." In Vol. III page 47, Professor Graetz makes that point very clear, stating:

"THE JEWS ABROAD HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONVERSION TO JUDAISM OF A DISTANT KINGDOM, AND WHEN VAGUE RUMORS CONCERNING THIS FINALLY REACHED THEM, THEY BELIEVED THE KHAZARS WERE A REMNANT OF THE 'LOST TEN TRIBES'."

KHAZAR REFUGEES SELF-STYLED "YIDS"

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia Vol. VII Page 175 the Judaized Khazar refugees made a distinction between themselves and their newly-discovered co-religionists in the Mediterranean and western European countries. The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the fact that the Judaized former Khazars thereafter designated themselves as "Yid" to distinguish between themselves and their co-religionists in other parts of the world. The Jewish Encyclopedia states:

"AMONG JEWS A DISTINCTION IS MADE BETWEEN YHUDI AND YID, ONE OF RUSSIAN OR LITHUANIAN EXTRACTION."

The adoption by the Judaized former Khazars, after the conquest of the Khazar kingdom by Russia, of the word "Yid" as the term by which they thereafter designated themselves, explains the sudden appearance of the "Yiddish" population in eastern Europe in the 11th Century. After that date they were self-styled "Yids."

YIDDISH "HOMELAND" PSYCHOSIS

"Yiddish" was a regional word. It described a homogeneous population occupying the territory in eastern Europe the former "homeland" of the Khazar kingdom.

"Yiddish" is strictly a regional word. "Yiddish" is regional in the same sense also happens that the "Irish" are regional words. It does not mean that the "Irish" are "Catholics" and that the "Turks" are "Mohammedans." But it does not necessarily make a man "Irish" because he is a "Catholic," nor does it necessarily make a man "Turkish" because he is a "Mohammedan." For the same reason, it does not necessarily make a man "Yiddish" because he professes "Judaism" as his religious faith.

All people who profess Judaism as their religious belief are not "Yiddish." Not all people who are "Yiddish" necessarily profess Judaism as their religious belief, subject to the limitations of their atheist Marxist convictions.

YIDDISH INVADERS KICKLE PALESTINE

The psychosis of the "Yiddish" communities that Palestine is their "homeland" should not influence Christian Americans to become psychopathic on that subject.

The "Yiddish" communities of the world are the descendants of the Judaized Khazars. The Judaized Khazars were CONVERTED to "Judaism" in the 7th Century A. D., as previously explained. THE CONVERSION to "Judaism" of the ancestors of the "Yiddish" communities throughout the world gives NO right to them to legitimately lay claim to Palestine as their homeland!

If the "Yiddish" communities throughout the world have a valid right to invade and occupy Palestine as their ancestral "homeland" under international law, why have not the descendants of all the converts to CHRISTIANITY and to MOHAMMEDANISM the very same privilege?

Palestine was the birthplace of CHRISTIANITY and MOHAMMEDANISM as well as JUDAISM. All three religions are variations and developments of the ancient belief in "Yahve," or "Yehovah," as "Yahve" is known to modern theologians who do not tell this to the public.

If Palestine is the "homeland" for all descendants of the first CONVERTS of all the religions which had their origin in the worship of "Yahve," then Palestine is the "homeland" of at least 1,500,000,000 inhabitants of the world today who have embraced all three religions.

"YIDDISH" SUDDENLY APPEAR ON SCENE

The sudden appearance in the 12th Century of the large "Yiddish" population in eastern Europe was not easily understood or explained. It soon developed, however, that the "Yiddish" population was composed of the Judaized former Khazars. The "mystery" was solved.

Prior to the 12th Century there was not a "Yiddish" population anywhere in Europe, or anywhere in the world. There was no "nation" by that name anywhere. There was no "race" by that name anywhere. There was no "religion" by that name nor had there ever been one.

The large percentage of atheist Marxists in the "Yiddish" communities is confirmation of the fact that Marxist dogma and doctrine have made their greatest progress in that group which purports to profess "Judaism" as their religious belief but prefer to practice atheism.

YIDDISH KHAZAR'S MOTHER-TONGUE

The Jewish Encyclopedia states the fact that when the Khazars invaded eastern Europe they spoke "Khazar languages." The Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. IV, pages 1-4, among other things regarding this question, states: "THE KHAZAR LANGUAGES FREEDOMINATED"

When the Khazars invaded eastern Europe in the first century B. C. they spoke the mother-tongue which they brought with them from their "homeland" in Asia. It is quite impossible that the mother-tongue which the Khazars spoke when they invaded eastern Europe was a language in which there was not one German word.

The language spoken today by the "Yiddish" people "borrowed" the greater part of its vocabulary from the cultured populations with whom they came in contact. That is also the history of all the languages of modern nations. They all "adopted" words from neighbors.

YIDDISH NOT A GERMAN "DIALECT"

The claim is made by both factions that "Yiddish" is a German "dialect." This is completely untrue. The Jewish Encyclopedia in one volume confirms the fact that the Judaized Khazars spoke an eastern European language which could have no possible relationship to German.

The Jewish Encyclopedia states the facts as they existed in this connection at the time of the Russian conquest of the Judaized Khazars. The Jewish Encyclopedia explains that prior to the 11th Century the only language spoken by the Judaized Khazars was a "Slavic" language. The "Slavic" languages were the languages of eastern Europeans for thousands of years. They state:

"THERE WERE JEWS IN SLAVIC COUNTRIES BEFORE THE 11th CENTURY BUT IT SEEMS THEY SPOKE SLAVIC."

The outstanding Judaic historian, Professor Dubnow, in his, "History of the Jews in Russia and in Poland," gives his version of the reason there are so many "borrowed" German words in the "Yiddish" language. Professor Dubnow, in Vol. I, page 143, states:

"Rabbi Eliezer, informs us that the Jews of Poland, Russia and Hungary, having no scholars of their own, invited their spiritual leaders from other countries, probably Germany. These foreign scholars occupied the posts of rabbis, cantors, and school teachers among them and were remunerated for their services. At the same time Polish Jews were in the habit of going abroad to perfect themselves in the sciences, as was also the case with the settlers in Russia."

Christian Americans are not glib enough to believe that the ancestors of existing "Yiddish" communities throughout the world inhabited a territory of 800,000 square miles in eastern Europe for more than 1000 years without a mother-tongue with which to orally communicate their thoughts to each other. Whatever language they "spoke" to each other, it could not possibly have been a "dialect" of the western European German language.

Prior to the 12th Century the "Yiddish" communities in eastern Europe were scarcely aware of the existence of the German speaking nations in western Europe. The first contact of any consequence occurred in 1255 A. D. In that year there occurred the first migration in all history of German speaking people from western Europe to eastern Europe. This migration included a small number of Germans converted to "Judaism" in the 2nd Century.

Upon their arrival in eastern Europe the primitive Asiatic Khazar mother-tongue added to its vocabulary from time to time from the languages of the people they had conquered. In the course of the next ten centuries the Khazars expanded into a kingdom of 800,000 square miles and incorporated into their kingdom many Slavic tribes inhabiting this area. The ancient, primitive, Asiatic mother-tongue spoken by the Khazars when they invaded Europe acquired many words from the vocabularies of their captives but more civilized Slav subjects.

WESTERN EUROPEAN EARLY CONVERSION

When the Romans invaded Western Europe and introduced their culture to the uncivilized nations there, they added many Latin words to the vocabularies of the very limited vocabularies of these uncivilized barbarians.

A great many of the words in the languages of western Europe are derived from the Latin words introduced there by the Romans. The fact that English, French, Spanish, Belgian, and other languages "borrowed" words from the Romans, does not make these languages Latin "dialects." Yiddish cannot be a German "dialect."

NO CONSPIRACY? THEN WHY—

WHY did the Zionist controlled Administration send this nation into a full-scale war in Korea, and fail to provide our soldiers with equipment to defend their lives?

WHY is there no realistic foreign policy which will win or end the war now in full swing despite "cease fire" TALK? (Read J. T. Flynn's new ROAD TO KOREA.)

WHY were General MacArthur's hands tied so that he was not able to end the war and save all those lives?

WHY permit phony truce negotiations to drag for months giving the enemies the time they need to plan their regrouping of their forces to kill more of our sons and brothers in the bad weather of winter months ahead?

WHY permit the communist strategy to hold the French military forces in Indo-China and the British military forces in Malaya while they wait in Iran and help themselves to the $80,000 barrels per day petroleum production? (Oil is Russia's shortest item, and will decide the winner in the new seemingly inevitable World War III.)

WHY did General Bradley in MAY testify that the U.S. Korean casualties were 149,000 while at that very time the pro-Soviet Zionist's kept-press reported only 70,000?

WHY was Secretary of Defense James E. Forrestal pushed to death from the 16th floor of a Government hospital? (By request, his priest made six trips to the hospital to see him and was refused each time.) (He warned of Zionist anti-American plot and attempted to warn us.)

WHY after the end of World War II (and each year since) did we turn over to the Soviet Union to be massacred hundreds of thousands of Soviet Union officers and soldiers who have had enough of Communism and who deserted to the U.S.A. and British to be of aid to us?

WHY did the pro-Soviet Union representatives of the U.S.A. enter into an arrangement for the occupation of Berlin which requires entrance and egress by airlift at the whim of the Soviet Union for whom we withdrew as that they could march in? (Similarly our "invisible government" struck a lever into the recent Japanese constitution which outlaws war so that Japan now say that it is impossible for them to enter new war as our ally.)

WHY do we let Russia arm East Germany and our "invisible government" prevents us from arming West Germany which will ultimately save millions of American lives?

WHY did Franklin D. Roosevelt start and Truman follow the Marxist doctrine of creating discontent based upon fomented class hatred and synthetic "misleading" gripes?

WHY do Zionist dominated organizations incite negro and labor groups to agitate for the passage of the FEPC legislation giving "radical" control of a "national police"?

WHY did pro-Soviet Union Zionists manipulate themselves into control directly or indirectly of the labor unions in the industries most vital to our defense program and their Zionist kept-press withhold the facts from the American people in time to prevent war-time sabotage?

WHY did Henry L. Morgenthau sponsor the plan written by Communist-Zionist Harry Dexter White, Assistant Secretary of Treasury under him, to make Germany a goat pasture and the future battlefield on which the Soviet Union would be able to fight the next war in Europe under conditions which guarantee Soviet Union victory?

WHY did Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau, and his assistant Communist-Zionist Harry Dexter White (born Weiss) give our plates, special paper and secret links to the Soviet Union with which the Soviet Union printed its MOSCOW $8 billions in U.S.A. Federal Reserve which our Federal Reserve Bank and U.S.A. Post Office were compelled to redeem with genuine U.S.A. currency?

WHY was the treasonable Amerasia case flagrantly whitewashed? (The people repudiated Tydings for it by throwing him out of the Senate, Tydings being the son-in-law of U.S.A.'s "pink" Joseph "submission to Moscow" Davies?)

WHY did pro-Soviet Zionists groups concentrate upon control of our radio, television, newspaper and other fields and now control the thinking processes of this nation?

WHY were patriots like ex-President Hoover, the late Secretary of Defense Forrestal, General Patton, General MacArthur, General Wedemeyer, Congressman Martin Dies, and others like them smeared and made the victims for Zionist mouthpieces Winchell and Pearson who rent their anatomy from the neck up like "male prostitutes"?

WHY did the "Hidden Hand" put the finger on thirty-six air-generals like Wedemeyer, Kenny, our top air-general, MacArthur, etc., and twenty-five admirals, all recently FORCED into retirement by THE I-N-V-I-S-I-B-L-E G-O-V-E-R-N-M-E-N-T at the time that our country faces daily danger of an A-bomb attack on our leading cities?

WHY did Zionists put up the money and supply the management to create the National Conference of Christians and Jews for the explicit purpose of getting Christian leaders to re-write the New Testament, and recently the first million of the re-written versions of the New Testament have started rolling off the Thomas Nelson presses?

WHY were orders sent to General Eisenhower and General George Patton at the direction of leading pro-Soviet Zionists to pull back fifty miles from their advanced positions before Berlin to permit the armies of Joseph Stalin to make the vicious entry into Berlin first for its political effect, and to then "freeze" us out?

WHY did David Lilienthal, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission resign 12 days after the Klaus Fuchs atomic-bomb spy scandal broke? (Recently, September 1951, he joined Lazard Freres, as a FINANCIAL ADVISER?) (Lazard Freres are the Rothschilds of France and hardly need David Lilienthal as a "financial adviser" — this is just a pay-off to the Warburg-Lehman-Baruch "group," U.S.A. agents of Rothschild financial dynasty.)

WHY did NOT the Zionist controlled administration between 1945 and the outbreak of war in Korea stockpile critical materials as authorized by Congress with funds for that purpose, but instead waited for the crisis to develop to allow the Zionists and Rothschild dynasty to take $4 billions unnecessarily out of the American taxpayers' pockets for the "equinox" in rubber, tin and wool on which they pay an Capital Gains Tax in England, and the "freepart" (tax-free) of Tangiers, (Congress should investigate), while law-abiding decent Englishmen are unable to retain more than $15,000 out of all earnings?

WHY did the three pro-Soviet Zionists hold back the Atomic Energy Commission from developing the hydrogen and cosmic-ray bombs so that the Soviet Union could catch up with us with developments which may make the betrayal of our A-bomb secrets to the Soviet Union by Zionist-Marxist traitors the most gruesome betrayal in history and make our stockpile of A-bombs worthless?

WHY can the Soviet Union today put more bombers and fighter planes into the air than the United States after our spending billions of the taxpayers' money to develop an air-force to protect our homes and to preserve peace?

WHY did the United States Government prostitute its professions of "self-determination for all peoples" and give the necessary aid to the Zionists to expel from their ancient homeland in Palestine 950,000 Christians and Moslems, 77% of the total population at the time, thereby alienating the former friendship of 400,000,000 Moslems, a religious group the numerical equivalent of the 400,000,000 Christians outside the Iron curtain, with whom the Christians should form a "united front" against the 400,000,000 Moslems occupy territory along the underbelly of the Soviet Union in Europe and in Asia and could be the vital factor in determining victory in a war with the Soviet Union which they will win if they can keep the 400,000,000 indignant against the U.S.A. That is why the Soviet Union permitted the U.S.A. to act as the "lead horse" in driving 650,000 Moslems out of the country which has been their legitimate homeland for 1700 years and setting up a sovereign state of their ancient enemies disguised as a "Jewish" restoration?

WHY has the Soviet Union at this very moment a full division in "Israel" in uniforms of "Israel" soldiers?

WHY do the saps yak-yak that counterfeit "Israel" is a bastion of democracy when it is actually an ideological and military "beach-head" for the Soviet Union in an area of vital strategic importance to our national security, under direct control of Moscow's top agents?

WHY did Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna M. Rosenberg, "Mistress of Manpower, U.S.A.," General Guinburg, "Public Relations" executive officer of the Department of Defense, and General Feldman, Quartermaster General of the Department of Defense, in charge of PURCHASES, arrange for the removal of the Crosses of Christ from the graves of Christian Americans who paid the supreme sacrifice for Christ and country, to "ECONOMIZE" because climatic conditions made replacements "TOO COSTLY"? Were orders also given to remove the Stars of David?

WHY did the late Secretary of Defense Forrestal in his diary, which is now being published, supplying solution to many mysteries, state, "Leveti (present Secretary of Defense) reported he was never under such pressure as was put upon him to prostitute the prestige and power of the United States in bringing into existence a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine, and that, the Democratic Party sold out the American people for the 'contributions' and the 'votes' of the 'Jews' to keep the Democratic Party in the White House, although the Administration knew that this action would cost the United States the friendship of the 'underbelly' of the Soviet Union. The Democratic Party 'high command,' according to Forrestal, 'sold out' to the Zionists to 'save' the electoral votes of New York, Pennsylvania and California. Forrestal stated he urged that, 'it was about time that somebody should pay some consideration to whether we might not LOSE the United States.' Obtain a Forrestal diary today!

WHY did Senator Lehman and his "old buddy" the quasi-pope "Dr." Philip Jessup "learn up" to actually DONATE more than ONE BILLION in UNRRA materials to the Soviet Union and her satellites for which American taxpayers had to dig down into their pockets, materials INTENDED for war refugees, at the same time staffing COMMUNIST FOREIGNERS? WE SEE WE TURN WE FEEL RED, WHITE & BLUE

RED! We see red before our eyes wherever we turn. The red blood of our sons, our brothers and our husbands is soaking the earth beneath them in Korea. The red flag is waving over half the population of the world. Reds have infiltrated into high positions in our government and the institutions vital to our national existence. And the people only "yak-yak" about it!

WHITE! We turn white at the thought of what is going to happen to millions of innocent Christian Americans on the day the I-N-V-I-S-I-B-L-E Marxist u-n-d-e-r-g-r-o-u-n-d in this country, waiting for the "whistle to blow," takes over the government in this country as they did in Russia in 1917 and thirteen other countries since! God have mercy on us!

BLUE! We feel blue that this paper might go out of existence for the want of a few thousand dollars. We were the first to fearlessly jump into the fight to protect our Constitution and preserve Christianity. The editor put the last dollar of his life's savings into this medium to inform and alert America. The bottom of the barrel is scraped clean, but he keeps going!

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON

German words were introduced into the vocabulary of the "Yiddish" people in eastern Europe through circumstances which are historic collections. Before the conquest of the Khazar kingdom by Russia in the 11th Century, the Khazar kingdom had little contact, if any, with the Germans whose interests were solely in the west.

What is today incorrectly referred to as "Judaism" was introduced into western Germany in the 2nd Century by Roman soldiers. Inasmuch as 10% of the 40,000,000 Roman population practiced that faith, this religion was introduced into Germany by the Romans. The Jewish Encyclopedia in Vol. 7, page 393, states:

"After the devastation of Galilee (Polish-Austria) by the Tartars, however, (King) David of Galilee (1316-1326) invited strangers, among them German Jews, to settle in his wasted province."

YIDDISH "JARGON" IN DICTIONARIES

In the Russian language the definition of "Yiddish" is "Jargon." In the English language the definition given in English dictionaries for the Russian word "Jargon" is: "THE DIALECT RESULTING FROM THE MIXTURE OF DISCORDANT LANGUAGES."

The English language "borrowed" the word "Jargon" from the Russian language to describe, according to English dictionaries, what they all describe as: "CONFUSED, UNINTELLIGIBLE TALK OR LANGUAGE; GABBLE; GIBBERISH."

"Yiddish" is the mother-tongue of the Judaized former Khazar nation just as Gaelic is the mother-tongue of the former Irish Kingdoms. "Yiddish" has exactly the same relationship to Judaism that Gaelic has to Roman Catholicism, and that Turkish has to Mohammedanism, and German has to Lutheranism and Russian has to Greek Catholicism, as must be evident to everyone.

YIDDISH LANGUAGE WITHOUT GRAMMAR

The "Yiddish" language has no grammar. There is no established grammar for the "Yiddish" language. The several "Yiddish" communities each "manufacture" their own individual grammar for the Yiddish language.

The German "dialects" follow the German grammar exactly as the "dialects" in other languages follow the grammar of those languages. The Scotch "dialect" can be understood only with the greatest difficulty by an Englishman even though spelling and grammar are one.

If the "Yiddish" language is a German "dialect" as the "Yiddish" communities contend, the "Yiddish" language would follow the German grammar. There is no more certain evidence that "Yiddish" is not a German "dialect."

YIDDISH ADOPT "HEBREW" ALPHABET

The Jewish Encyclopedia refers to the adoption of the characters of the "Hebrew" alphabet by the Judaized Khazars as an alphabet for the language spoken by them in Volume IV, pages 1-4, where among other facts dealing with how Hebrew became the Yiddish alphabet, states:

"IN THEIR WRITINGS THE KHAZARS (KHAZARS) USED THE HEBREW LETTERS."

King Bulan learned that a spoken language could also make permanent records in writing by the use of an alphabet for the language. There was no written form for the Khazar mother-tongue because there never was an alphabet ever for the spoken language which the Khazars spoke.

King Bulan ordered the alphabet for the Khazar mother-tongue. The Hebrew alphabet was used thereafter by the Khazars as the alphabet for their mother-tongue.

English, French, Spanish, Italian, Swedish, Portuguese, Dutch and many other languages use the characters of the Roman alphabet. The languages are not the same although the characters of the alphabet which they use are identical with each other in every respect.

The "Yiddish" language and the "Hebrew" language use the same characters for their alphabet. The use of the same characters for the alphabet of a language does not mean that languages using one alphabet are all alike.

If you want to be a big help in the fight to save your country and to preserve your own liberty and freedoms, your best bet at this critical moment is to get on the job and help to boost the circulation of Common Sense up to a million copies. When the Americans are correctly and completely informed on any subject they will always do the right thing at the right time. Circulation of a million copies now will win YOUR fight for YOU. So take off your coat and go to work. MORE distribution and MORE subscriptions in your community may be the "straw that breaks the camel's back". YOU owe this cooperation to YOURSELF and to YOUR CHILDREN. They did not ask to come into this world. You brought them into it. It is your DUTY TO THEM to do your best to keep the world a fit place to live in. This is the one and only ANTI-COMMUNIST publication to give the true story to the American people. But enough Americans are not yet aware of the conspiracy or the conspirator. Until and unless EVERY American knows the "score" this nation is in grave danger of defeat and destruction by the enemy.

America's Dictator in Germany

The Assistant Editor of the Sunday New York Times, whose five pointed Red-Star of Zion was adopted as the insignia of the Jewish Soviets, AND HAS SINCE BEEN MADE THE NATIONAL EMBLEM, has been loaned to Germany to direct the re-education and corruption of West Germany. A number of Jewish books boast how they maneuvered us into this lost war and take full credit for crushing Germany. Of course, the Jews, in place of staying over and fighting against Hitler, jumped on boats and thousands of them poured into the United States and then our Christian boys were put on boats and sent over there to fight. The Jews were placed in every point possible to keep them out of danger just as Anna Rosenberg is placing hundreds of thousands now.

JEWS CANNOT STAND CRITICISM

No doubt many of our readers wonder about the reaction of Jews to the facts Common Sense prints proving that Communism and all revolutionary movements are created and set in motion by Jews. Hence we give you an outline of their reactions.

Many Jews who do not take an active part in the campaign to destroy the Government and wipe out Christianity are only partly informed and their part is to raise millions to support the many Jewish and Communist organizations. This type of Jew runs to his organizations, principally the Anti-Defamation League or American Jewish Congress which is as red as can be.

You would think that these organizations would take the personal charges we make and come see us and try to show us that we were wrong or run page ads in leading papers listing our charges and showing how ridiculous they are and in that way discredit us before all the public or would it not be practical to select a few of their smarter Rabbis to meet us in debate on a public platform and discredit us before the whole country so that no one would ever read our paper again or would be able to believe a thing that we print. That could be done quickly at very little expense and they would be through with Common Sense and every other Nationalist Group. At one stroke they would end Anti-Semitism. They would show the people how clean the Jews are and how they have been misrepresented, but in the writer's experience he knows that during the last twenty years, with the hundreds of thousands of accusations against the Jews, in not one instance have they ever denied the charges.

Of course the reason they do not is that every charge is true. They don't do what you would expect of honest people, because they don't dare to. They spend at least ten million dollars a year snooping around corners influencing Christian people to fight for the Jew. Why doesn't the Jew go out and fight for himself? The Anti-Defamation League and the American Jewish Congress will go to the American Legion, where they have maneuvered Jews into positions of the Americanism Committee and have the American Legion pass resolutions against those who criticize Jews. They will go to Christian Societies and Non-Jewish publications just passing resolutions against us without analyzing what we have written. We know of a case where the Board had passed such a resolution and we

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE OF THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

Bernard M. Baruch has been so munificent in bestowing his advice upon the American people, it is pertinent to ask why he has remained silent on the evils undermining this nation.

Exposures of theft of top government secrets by Soviet agents operating within the government, as revealed in the Elizabeth Bentley case, followed by Major Racey Jordan's testimony that plane loads of confidential material was stolen by Soviet spies during World War II, drew only silence from Baruch.

This is the era of influence peddling, deep freezers, minks, pinks and stenchies—loan fixers, Internal Revenue scandals. The government is harboring thousands of known homosexuals; General MacArthur has been fired; Marshall has been exposed as a tool for Reds in the State Department, which is still shaking hands with Red China while American boys are dying from her Red bullets; a new Russian spy ring has recently been uncovered; the State Department admits that dozens of passports have been issued to known Communists to go behind the Iron Curtain. Pro-Communist happenings have staggered our nation, and almost paralyzed it. The country waits. One would assume that the foregoing would be the very evils concerning which a "venerable" and "learned" elder Statesman would advise the nation. Instead, Baruch—so willing to "advise" concerning the national economy—remains discreetly silent.

Samuel Klaus

When the four fliers, Sgt. James Eiam of Kingsland, Arkansas; Capt. John Swift of Glenn Falls, New York; Capt. Dave Henderson of Shawnee, Oklahoma and T/Sgt. Jess Duff of Spokane, Washington, left Germany and were forced down in Hungary, our State Department of course did the very wrong thing by paying a ransom of $120,000 to these Hungarian Jew murderers.

When these young fellows finally landed back in Germany on December 31st, 1951 the natural thing to expect would be that they report at once to their own superior officers and give them any information that they may have secured and would be of value to us in our defense against Communism, but our Government does not work things that way.

Our State Department, whom few people realize is the United States Government, and who gives orders to the Army, Navy and Justice Department and all other Departments, sent a cable to our top military officers in Germany ordering that these four young fellows not be allowed to speak to anyone until Samuel Klaus, a Jew, described as a legal and intelligence expert of the State Department arrived by plane for an interview. When Klaus got there, he didn't do anything but pose with the fliers for Photographers. He then returned to the State Department after warning these boys that they must not tell what happened.

The State Department in describing Klaus now as its legal and intelligence expert is guilty of a short memory. It wasn't very long ago that the State Department was looking for a way to grease him back to private law practice. That was after he had gotten the Department's official propagandists in an awful jam when they were trying to duck the charges leveled by Senator Joseph R. McCarthy.

Klaus has led a charmed life on the Government payroll. He got in a jam when he tried to force an examination of all FBI information on Communism. He apparently wanted to dip in the secret FBI files, although nobody knew just why. He then tried to capture all State Department intelligence work, including jurisdiction over the Central Intelligence Agency and even some FBI operations.

Klaus is a pal of Max Lowenthal, the mental marvel who advises President Truman on such things as why the FBI should be investigated. He once worked for a law firm that employed ex-Communist Lee Pressman and Carol Weiss King former top Communist lawyer. He also visited Russia in the early 30's. Several times Klaus has been accused of being a communist, but the State Department has always cleared him.

The Jews, who are in the State Department through Frankfurter, who is really President, would not dare to allow these christian boys to come back from Hungary, which is completely ruled by Jews, and tell what they learned. They would have probably told that all of the important people with whom they came in contact with were Jews and the Jews are doing everything possible to make people in the United States believe that the Jews are being persecuted in every communist country in Europe. However, all Communist countries are ruled entirely by Jews. "Common Sense" has published all of their names.

Baruch

Baruch, press-agented as a great American, was quick to wire the Senate that he felt Hungarian-born, Red, Zionist Anna M. Rosenberg was "thoroughly capable" and "best possible choice" to fill the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. But, has Baruch ever said a good word for Senator Joe McCarthy? Has Baruch condemned the atomic spies? Has he denounced Alger Hiss, or demanded that Judith Coplon pay the penalty for betraying America? No!

And why not? Baruch as one of the leaders (if not the head) of the Invisible Government, and a top man in the Jewish Kehillah has spent the past 36 years preparing the way for the decline and fall of the American Republic. Baruch is a member of world Jewry which is seeking to reach its goal of world domination. As such, Baruch must follow the rules so aptly expressed in "Jewish Fraternities" (Vilna, 1888) and the "Book of the Kehillah" (Vilna, 1769).

"Jews must obey the orders of the Kehillah and of the Beth-Din in contradistinction to the law of the land."

There is the key to Baruch's double-talk, his babblings as to what is best for America! The Beth-Din is Jewry's own court; for Jews, its rules and regulations are above those of the nation in which Jews may reside.

Baruch — "A Speculator"

By his own admission, the "elder Statesman" is "a speculator." Time magazine of July 2, 1934, is further authority for the information that one of Baruch's first "killings" was when he manipulated a deal to give control of Liggett & Myers to Ryan, tobacco trust magnate. He made another "killing" with Jim Keene infamous as a "bear trader" and cleaned up neatly in Amalgamated Copper, the deal which Thomas W. Lawson labeled a seventy million dollar swindle.

According to Time again, Baruch netted a cool million in the arrangement whereby he bought Tacoma and Selby Smelters for the Guggenheims, and acquired one-half million profit on U. S. Steel.

Baruch and Eugene Meyer (Jew) control the Alaska Juneau Gold Mines, having obtained them before Roosevelt raised the price of gold to $35.00 an ounce. He maintains a one-third interest in the Pardon's Corporation which controls gold, silver and copper mines in Nevada and California.

Henry Klein of New York City, who writes authoritatively on Baruch, has stated in his 1935 article, "Baruch Over Congress":

"Those early lush days in Wall Street were revived after the first World War and Baruch as a 'speculator' was again in the market, which wound up with a crash in 1929, that was heard and felt around the world. All persons that had any wealth, large or small, suffered except the handful whose agents rigged the market to 'draw the suckers' in. Baruch cashed in before the crash. Any expert in Wall Street trading knows that when the hot pool is in the market with both feet, that's the time for the insiders to get out. Baruch followed that maxim. The purpose of that debacle was to begin the impoverishment of the people of the United States and the world as the first step toward making them amenable to regimentation and enslavement. A people with money cannot be enslaved and enslavement was necessary so that those who ruled through wealth-power could continue to stay on top . . . These groups are interested in world cartels that will control all minerals after the war, while the people will be regimented and squeezed in their own domestic affairs by government-owned corporations controlled or managed by Frankfurter underlings . . . Incidentally, Baruch received $150,000 from the government as Woodrow Wilson's economic advisor during the peace negotiations in France in 1919."

Baruch's Power in World War I

When America finally became involved in World War I, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, boosted Baruch for Chairman of the War Purchasing Commission. McAdoo tells us in his autobiography, "Crowded Years," (page 401) that President Wilson demurred to Baruch's appointment on the ground that the Secretary of War objected, and that Robert S. Lovett, slated for the commission, did not want to serve under Baruch. Both Baker and Lovett, McAdoo states the President told him, considered Baruch a "Wall Street speculator."

However, Baruch got the chairmanship. Later, President Wilson appointed him Chairman of the War Industries Board, undoubtedly the biggest job of World War I. Speaking of the dictatorial powers he had in that position, Baruch testified before a Joint Congressional Committee: "The final determination, as the President said, rested with me; the determination of whether the Army or Navy should have supplies rested with me; the determination of whether the railroad administration could have it, or whether General Allenby should have locomotives, or whether they should be used in Russia, or in France." Baruch continued: "I probably had more power than perhaps any other man in the war; doubtless that is true."

Elaborating, Baruch went on: "No building costing more than $2,500. could be erected in the United States without the approval of the War Industries Board. Nobody could get a barrel of cement without its approval. You could not get a piece of zinc for your kitchen tables without the approval of the War Industries Board."

Since the Board held such sweeping powers, it is interesting to note Baruch's assistants on it. They included:

1. Clarence Dillon (real name Lapowski) listed in "Who's Who in American Jewry" for 1938 as a Jew, and head of Dillon, Reed & Co. It has been stated that Baruch holds a large interest in Dillon, Reed & Co.

2. Eugene Meyer, publisher of the Washington Post, and member of the executive committee of the powerful, secretive New York Jewish Kehillah. (Other members of the Kehillah, along with Eugene Meyer, were Red Herbert Lehman of UNRRA infamy; Jacob Schiff of Kuhn Loeb & Co., who helped finance the Russian Revolution; Felix Warburg, known as the "Prince of Israel"; and Louis Marshall, who is shown in the Sisson Documents as meddling in the Russian Revolution.)

Four Jews running the War Industries Board, while Christians fought!

The armistice was declared; the Versailles Peace Conference held. Of all the Jews present at that conference—Felix Frankfurter, Louis Brandeis, and others—none was more firmly placed than Bernard Mannes Baruch. Baruch has admitted that he sat in council with the men who were negotiating the Peace Treaty and that he participated in the meeting of the "Big Five" Premiers.

"Whenever he (Wilson) asked my advice, I gave it," Baruch stated. "I had something to do with the reparations clauses. I was the American Commissioner in charge of what they called the 'Economic Section.' I was a member of the Supreme Economic Council in charge of raw materials."

Jews were so conspicuous in the American Mission that they excited comment everywhere. Frenchmen called Versailles the "Kosher Conference." Dr. E. J. Dillon, in his book, "The Inside Story of the Peace Conference," states, on page 496:

"It may seem amazing to some readers, but it is none the less a fact, that a considerable number of delegates believed that the real influences behind the Anglo-Saxon peoples were Semitic."

And again:

"... the sequence of expedients framed and enforced in this direction were inspired by the Jews, assembled in Paris for the purpose of realizing their carefully thought-out programme, which they succeeded in having substantially executed . . . The formula into which this policy was thrown by the members of the Conference, whose countries it affected, and who regarded it as fatal to the peace of Eastern Europe, was this:

Lemnitzer, director of the Office of Foreign Military Assistance, is the Jew who blocked arms shipments to South Korea.

Congress appropriated ten million dollars to send the South Koreans arms with which they could be prepared to stand against the expected attack by Communists in North Korea. Ten months later, Lemnitzer had allowed only $200 worth of barbed wire to get through to the anti-Communist Koreans.

It is a late hour for some people to learn that Judaism is a world-wide conspiracy to end Christianity. Communism is just one of the "tools" being used for the eradication of Christianity. Does any living person challenge Common Sense to prove this in public?

The following quote is from the "Jewish Voice" of New York and is taken from an article headed: "Lenin's Heritage."

"The Jewish people will never forget that the Soviet Union was the first country — and as yet the only country in the world — in which anti-Semitism is a crime. . . ."

OUDENDYKE REPORT SAYS JEWS LED REVOLUTION

During the bloody Russian Revolution, when embassies were being besieged and entered by Bolsheviks, the Netherlands Minister, M. Oudendyke, took full charge of British affairs in Russia. Among his other duties, Mr. Oudendyke sent a complete report to England.

The fact most often commented upon in regard to the Oudendyke report is that the British government deleted the section concerning Jewry. Here it is:

"The danger is now so great that I feel it my duty to call attention of the British and all other governments to the fact that if an end is not put to Bolshevism in Russia at once the civilization of the whole world will be threatened. . . . I consider that the immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world, not even excluding the war which is still raging, and unless as above stated Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality, and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things. . . . I can also of the opinion that no support whatever should be given to any other socialistic party in Russia, least of all to Social Revolutionaries."

Is Communism Jewish? What Do The Jews Themselves Say About It? Many Jewish Organs and Organizations Today Are Trying To Disavow Communism. What Have These Same Organizations and Papers Said About Communism In The Past?

Here are their own words:

Speaking before the Jewish Institute of Religion in New York, October 3, 1934, Professor Reinhold Niebur, a Jew said: "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy."

M. Cohan, a Jew, wrote in "The Communist", Kharkov, April 12, 1919: "Without exaggeration, it may be said that the great Russian social revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of Jews. . . ."

According to Angelo S. Rappaport in "The Pioneers of the Russian Revolution" (London, 1918, Stanley Paul & Co. — page 250) "The Jews in Russia in their total mass, were responsible for the Revolution."

The columns of the London Jewish Chronicle for April 4, 1919, carried the following statement: "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks. The ideals of Bolshevism are consonant with many of the highest ideals of Judaism."

The American Hebrew stated (Sept. 10, 1920): "What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to accomplish in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries. . . ."

The following is from the pen of Alfred Nossig, a Jew; in his book "Integrations Judentum", Berlin, 1922:

"Socialism and the Mosaic code are not at all in opposition. . . . all Jewish groups. . . have a vital interest in the victory of Socialism; they must exact it not only in principle, not only because of its identity with the Mosaic doctrine, but also on tactical grounds. . . . The Jewish socialist is reproached with playing a leading part in the Communist terrorist party."

According to the New York American of April 4th, 1936, quoting a Jewish Telegraph Agency cable from Paris:

"International Jewry is definitely siding with the Spanish Government."

Otto Weininger, a Jew states in his book: "Sex and Character", Vienna, 1921, Page 413: "The Jew is a Communist."

Bernard Lazare, a Jew, in his book "Anti-Semitism and its causes", Paris 1894, wrote:

"The spirit of the Jew is essentially a revolutionary spirit and, consciously or otherwise, THE JEW IS A REVOLUTIONARY."

According to the London Jewish Chronicle, January 6th, 1933:

"More than one third of all Jews in Russia have become Soviet Officials."

The Jew, Louis Fisher, wrote the following in the "New York Jewish Tribune", January 18th, 1924:

"If Bolsheviks are to be judged from what the Jews have gained with them in the realm of instruction, the verdict is certainly in their favor."

The London "Jewish World" of August 18th 1922, carried this statement:

"Business is gaining in Russia, and with new regime Jews are promptly becoming the captains of industry. There are now 100,000 Jews in Moscow and Kosher butcher signs are seen in all street. . . . however, anti-Semitism is growing in the city parallel with the increase of the Jewish population."

The "L'Univers Israélite" (Sept. 5th, 1927, Paris) carried the following: "Revolution with its Equality and Fraternity, is the star of Israel."

PLOTTERS WHO COULD NOT BE

LT GEN CURTIS E LEMAY

"Major George A. Davis, Jr., 31, America's greatest jet ace, was shot down over Korea MIG alley and presumably killed Sunday, February 10th after shooting down two more Communist MIG 155 in his last air battle, Far East Air Forces announced."

Another one of our boys goes down as a result of the carefully laid plans of the Invisible Government which is out to bankrupt us through debt and expenditures and to engage our boys all over the face of the earth so that the Communists and Jews who are carefully placed in Departments in Washington by Anna Rosenberg will be in position to take this country over "hands down."

Compare the statement by the New Deal outfit with the information sent home in letters by this young fellow to his wife. Keep in mind that the man who has complete charge of all bombing missions is Lt. General Curtis E. Lemay, a Jew.

We have heard many reports from boys in Korea who state that it is very plain that over-all planners are making no effort to win the war, but just prolong it.

Mrs. Doris A. Davis charged that the air force lied when it said her husband, the world's leading jet ace, didn't want to come home after he shot down his fifth enemy fighter plane in Korea. She stated that The Public Information Office of the Air Force released information that said her husband did not want to come home. She charged "That is an outright lie insofar as my husband was concerned. I had a letter from G. A. after that and he said the decision rested with the air force." She further stated: "If I could feel he lost his life for some good reason, I could feel better about it, but this is a war without reason. I would like to ask for a fullscale investigation of why he was left in Korea." Mrs. Davis said her husband recently wrote her that "something must be done . . . things can't go on like they are . . . we are losing so many planes and so many men. The war is censured and no one knows what's going on over here. They are not trying to win the war. All they want to do is hold and let people get killed."

DID JEWS FINANCE THE COMMUNIST REVOLUTION?

The following are excerpts from The United States Secret Service Report given the embassies of all the Allied Powers, by the Second Army Bureau. The source is the "Mystical Body of Christ in the Modern World" by Dennis Fahey. This document was also published by the "Documentation

Anna Rosenberg was the most important appointment for the Jews since they forced David Lillenthal in as Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission with three other Jews on the same board. Many of us could not understand why every Jewish and Communist publication in the United States were using every breath for Lillenthal. In fact immediately after the election Henry Wallace's paper in New York stated "We can now take a breath." After the Atomic bomb secrets had been given out and uranium sent over to the Soviet Union by the 1/2 ton free, the Jews resigned twelve days after Klaus Fuch, top Atomic Energy spy, confessed he had access to all secrets on the atomic bomb and had given them out. We now see why it was so important for the Jews to put Lillenthal in. Anna Rosenberg is a far more important appointment for she is going to have complete charge of all manpower, including men and women.

William S. Paley, Jew, Board Chairman of the Columbia Broadcasting System, is such a great mental genius that there isn't any doubt that no other man in the 155,000,000 population could be found to have charge of the Materials Policy Commission that will study the nation's vast supply problems, hence this is given to Mr. Paley.

tion Catholique" of Paris on March 1920. covered that a revolution was being formed in "Section L: In February 1916, it was first discussed. It was found out that the following per-

Felix Frankfurter, close pal of Harry Lasky top Communist of Europe and Head of the Fabian Society, promoted communism at Harvard and educated many young students he was to call on later and place in key positions under FDR. In fact nearly every key position was filled by a Frankfurter man. He has been the real ruler of the State Department and the real President for many years.

Frankfurter has been active with the radical element since 1918 when he introduced Sidney Hillman to the then President Woodrow Wilson. He was Hillman's attorney in 1920 when he appeared before the supreme court in Rochester, N. Y. in defense of Hillman and his Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union in an injunction suit against them, which they lost and he was later defended communists arrested by the F.B.I. in Massachusetts about the same time and co-defended J. Edgar Hoover. He was active on behalf of communist strikers in Passaic, N. J. in 1927 and on behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti, two anarchists, who were twice convicted of murder in Massachusetts. He tried to show in an analysis of the testimony at the trials, that they were unfairly convicted. Before that time, Frankfurter took up the cudgels for Mooney and Billings who were convicted of the killing of several persons by bombing during a preparedness day parade in San Francisco in 1916 and he was roundly scored by the late Theodore Roosevelt for this and for his defense of the L.W.V. strikers who were evicted from mass from Bisbee, Arizona, during a strike. During most of this time and since about 1920, Frankfurter was part of the organization known as the American Civil Liberties Union.

Alaska

The uninformed may wonder about the power which prevented Alaska from being given Statehood. If they would just consider that Alaska has an island the name of which is Little Diomed. It is only three miles and in sight of an island belonging to the Soviet Union. This island is Big Diomed. The Soviet Union is understood to have more than 200,000 men garrisoned opposite Nome, Alaska. Then consider that the Governor of Alaska is a Jew, Ernest Gruening. As it is, this Jew no doubt is arranging for open arms to the Soviet Union. If Alaska became a State, he would cease to run it as a one man ruler.

ELECTED RUN OUR GOVERNMENT

MANLY FLEISCHMANN

Why is it with 155,000,000 population in the United States, with not over six to seven percent Jews, that with war coming up, all the key positions are held by members of this minority group? In England and France the Jews have complete control of the War Department, the Minister of War in England being John Strachey, Jew and the Minister of Defense being Emanuel Shimmell, Jew. The Defense Minister of France is Jules Moch, Jew, and the Secretary of the French Armed Forces is Admiral Louis Kahn, Jew.

Upon the resignation of his administrative assistant, George M. Elsey, Truman signed over to Manly Fleischmann, a young Jew, the power to approve, borrowing up to $150,000,000 by Government Agencies, carrying on defense programs. Fleischmann now has two way control, for his position as Defense Production Administrator already has placed in his hands the rationing of metals as well as building supplies for which all companies are compelled to file for allotments through his office.

He has been placed in charge of every pound of steel in the United States. No one can get even a quarter pound without an o.k. from his office. He was placed there, of course, not by Truman, but by the Invisible Government and Bernard Baruch's o.k. This, Truman would not dare to contest.

Who Said This?

(Matt. 23)

"Behold, I will bring of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie. Behold, I will make them to come and adore before thy feet. And they shall know that I have loved thee.

"You serpents, generation of vipers, how will you flee from the judgment of hell?"

"Therefore behold I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them you will put to death and crucify, and some you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city."

"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered together the children, as the hen doth gather her chickens under her wings, and thou wouldest not?"

"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; that build the sepulchres of the prophets, and adorn the monuments of the just."

"But woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because you shut the kingdom of heaven against men, for you yourselves do not enter in."

General Mark Clark, Jew, has charge of all ground forces of the Army. He is the only man in the entire army qualified for such responsibility.

LEON KEYSERLING

The Universities are turning out graduates every year, but in the whole United States there is no man who could qualify as Economic Advisor to President Truman but this Leon Keyserling, a Jew. Of course it is a very important spot to secure information. Think of the important secret matters that come before him and think how necessary it is for the Jews to have him there so they can continually push bankruptcy on Truman. It would not do to have a real American in that position any more than it would to have General MacArthur in the Pacific. The Jew plan would just stop at that point.

and those that are going in, you suffer not to enter."

"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because you devour the houses of widows, praying long prayers. For this ye shall receive the greater judgment."

"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because you go round about the sea and the land to make one proselyte; and when he is made you make him the child of hell twofold more than yourselves."

(St. John: 8:44)

"You are of your father the devil, and the desire of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and he stood not in the truth; because truth is not in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father thereof."

Major General Herman Feldman, a Jew, Quartermaster General Technical Services Division, U.S. Army. In the entire United States there is not another man qualified to oversee the purchasing of the billions of dollars worth of goods and the one thousand and one commodities, but it works out very nicely to have a Jew in this position with all of the young Jews coming out of New York wanting to get a start in business. To these he can be very helpful and of course the Jew is not likely to have any money so they call on that red blooded American Manly Fleischmann, who has charge of loans up to $150,000,000 for war contracts.

This worked out very nicely during the last war for thousands of Jews like Henry Ganson who admitted in court that he did not have a dollar but that he borrowed $5,000 from Elmer Walker of Kuhn Loeb & Company. By securing both loans and contracts from the Government, he ended up $50,000,000 to the good. There were thousands of similar cases, but the New Deal Communist set-up was strong enough to prevent any other case coming up and these two Ganson boys, brothers, stated in court that they were being persecuted because they were Jews.

U. S. MAJOR REPORTS FROM SIBERIA

U. S. Major M. Schuyler made a report on Jewry's connection with organized revolutionists, subsequent to his return from the American Expedition to Siberia in 1920. A. S. Leese's "Bolshevism is Jewish" on page 7, quotes the Major as follows:

"The government of Russia is almost entirely Jewish, and our United States Army in Siberia was full of Bolshevik Jews straight from Moscow. They had entered the United States and enlisted in the U. S. Army going to Siberia. General Graves the commander had a staff that was almost entirely Jewish. . . . Owing to the Bolshevik Jews in our army, all the information that should have reached Kolchak went straight to Moscow."

eth a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father thereof."

Israel Amter wrote as follows in the Jewish Voice, New York, May, 1941:

"For the Jews this May Day must be a day of determined struggle. . . . They (The Jewish workers) realize as never before that only on the basis of the peace policy of the Soviet Union . . .

Black Paper On Korea

WHY DO THE "MAGICIANS"

NEED OUR BOYS IN KOREA?

Beverly Smith, Washington editor of the Saturday Evening Post, publishes in its issue of November 10, 1951, what we may take as the official propaganda version of "Why We Went To War In Korea." Oddly enough, Beverly Smith has the same educational background as Alger Hiss; an A.B. degree from John Hopkins University and a law degree from Harvard Law School. Smith has the further advantage of being a Rhodes Scholar (Cecil Rhodes' South African Empire was financed by the English Rothschilds, and in gratitude he set up his fortune to educate Americans in the Zionist plan of world empire). As a Rhodes Scholar, Beverly Smith became an adept at the art of betraying America, and became a Wall Street lawyer with the firm of Chadbourne, Hunt, Jaekel, and Brown, representing some of the more notorious international bankers. With his education, however, he decided to employ his talents as a professional propagandist, and became a foreign correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune, noted for the number of Communist sympathizers in its employ.

Smith's account of our commitment to Korea does give the names of the U. S. Government officials involved, but he fails to give their background, an omission which we wish to correct here. Our Ambassador to Korea preceding and during the outbreak of war was John Muccio, an alien born in Italy who became a naturalized American citizen when he was well past his maturity. According to Smith, on June 24th, 1950, Muccio wired the U. S. State Department of the crisis, and the officials directly concerned assembled to discuss the moves of the United States. They were Dean Rusk, Assistant Secretary for Far Eastern Affairs, John Dewey Hickerson, the Assistant Secretary for United Nations Affairs, and Philip C. Jessup, our Ambassador-at-large.

Rhodes Scholar Dean Rusk had been in charge of United Nations Affairs in the State Department until the matter of settling up the Korean War demanded a good man, when he was put in charge of Far Eastern Affairs. John Dewey Hickerson had been a member of the infamous United States Delegation to the United Nations at San Francisco in 1945. The Secretary-General of that Delegation, the Communist spy and traitor Alger Hiss, is now in prison. Hickerson was also on the advisory committee on international law for Harvard Law School.

Philip C. Jessup has such a well-known record of activity for pro-Communist front groups that not a single Senator dared vote for his confirmation as U. S. Representative to the United Nations in October, 1951, but President Truman sent him on as an alternate. Jessup had been a Professor of International Law at Harvard; he was in 1929 assistant to Kuhn, Loeb, lawyer Elihu Root at the Hague Court of International Justice; he was Herbert Lehman's Assistant Secretary-General in the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, whose deputy, Laurence Duggan, died mysteriously; Jessup represented the United States at the Bretton Woods International Conference, and he was with Alger Hiss at San Francisco as Hiss, Assistant in Charge of Judicial Organization, that is, how to make the betrayal of America legal.

Jessup was Chairman of the Pacific Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations, now exposed by a Senate Committee as a Communist organization. The International Secretariat of the Institute published a book in 1950 entitled "Korea Today," by George McCune which says on page 180:

"The Soviet civil administration kept well in the background and gave the Koreans maximum experience in self-government. Most observers agreed that the Soviet system quite readily adapted itself to the Korean scene, or at least that it was much more easily adopted by the Koreans than was the Western system sponsored by the American command."

This is typical of the Communist propaganda put out by the Institute.

Philip C. Jessup is a member of the Statesbury family (Edward Statesbury was a J. P. Morgan partner), he is a trustee of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace of which Alger Hiss was President, and his brother, John Jessup, is a wealthy banker, President of the Equitable Trust Co. of Wilmington, director of Coca Cola of Atlanta and the Diamond State Telephone Co. (American Telephone & Telegraph).

This was the group which gathered at the crisis. America was in good hands. They needed only to call Hiss from prison to make the fraternity meeting complete.

Smith says that this group then conferred with Secretary of State Acheson by telephone. At his farm in Maryland, Acheson, who had been law clerk for Supreme Court Justice Louis D. Brandeis when Brandeis was head of the Zionist Organization of America, qualified for the State Department by becoming an international lawyer for J. P. Morgan Co.

The next day, says Smith, a telegram came from John Foster Dulles, who had returned to Tokyo a few days earlier. The telegram said, "If it appears that South Koreans cannot repulse the attack, then we believe that United States force should be used." This telegram makes certain Dulles' prosecution as a war criminal. He had no official standing with the United States Government, and no one has ever explained the mysterious missions he made to Korea in May and June of 1950, nor why he should order American troops to die in Korea. It is noteworthy that whenever Dulles went to Japan or Korea, the Wall Street Journal noted that lagging Japanese bond issues being promoted on Wall Street by international Jewish bankers were disposed of at a good profit. Dulles is the senior partner of the international law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, which represents these Jewish bankers. Dulles ordered our soldiers into Korea to protect the interests of the clients of Sullivan and Cromwell.

There is a 736 page volume entitled The Story of Panama, The U. S. House Hearings on Panama in 1913, with hundreds of pages of documentation proving Congressman Henry T. Rainey's charge that William Nelson Cromwell, then Dulles' senior partner in Sullivan & Cromwell, instigated and promoted the Panama Revolution for J. P. Morgan and J. & W. Seligman, international bankers, who received forty million dollars in gold from the U. S. Treasury for the Panama Canal, of which thirty-five million dollars was profit. President Theodore Roosevelt sued the New York World for libel for printing a few of the facts about himself and Cromwell, and the case was unanimously thrown out of court by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Congressman Rainey called Cromwell the most dangerous man in the United States, a title which John Foster Dulles has inherited. The House obtained a copy of Cromwell's brief which he submitted to the New Panama Canal Co., detailing his activities. In it, on page 206, is this definition: "The law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell occupies a recognized position among the great legal corporations of the Nation. In the course of a very active thirty years the firm of Sullivan & Cromwell had found itself placed in intimate relations, susceptible of being used to advantage, with men possessing influence and power everywhere in the United States; they have also come to know, and be in a position to influence, a considerable number of public men in political life, in financial circles, and in the press."

This is the firm of which John Foster Dulles is the senior partner. He married Janet Pomeroy Avery, of the Rockefeller family, whose interests are now tied up in the General Reinsurance Corporation and the North-Star Reinsurance Corporation. Federal law requires insurance companies to be reinsured, so these firms have access to all insurance business statistics and consequently the entire business activity in America. They are headed by David Milton, who also married a Rockefeller, and Ellery C. Huntington, Chief of the Military Mission to Yugoslavia which betrayed Mihailovich to the Communist Tito. Huntington is a director of the Yugoslav-American Electric Co. which may explain why Hamilton Fish Armstrong of the Council on Foreign Relations wrote a book favorable to Tito entitled "Tito and Goliath." Yugoslavia may be the site of the next war.

Dulles was secretary to Robert Lansing, our Secretary of State at the Versailles Peace Conference of 1919. Lansing was characterized by Rabbi Stephen Wise, in his book "Challenging Years" as an ardent sympathizer of the Zionist cause at the Conference. Thomas Lamont, senior partner of J. P. Morgan Co., who with Albert Strauss of J. & W. Seligman protected the interests of international bankers at that conference, writes in his "Across World Frontiers," "All of us placed great reliance upon John Foster Dulles."

later learned that not one Member of the Board had even seen Common Sense. They were influenced by a Jew on the Board who got up and told what an awful paper Common Sense was. They never came out in the open or oppose us themselves.

The Jews have made at least twenty-five visits to the Post Office demanding that they stop handling the receiving of our paper. A Committee called on the Bank and tried to get them to throw out our account. They have been to the Post Office in Washington time and time again. They made several calls on the Catholic Church to get them to turn against us. They kept up a two year fight with the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Union trying to prevent us from using their Hall. We beat them twice but they waited a long time and caught a meeting with few in attendance and voted to deny us the hall.

During the six years that Common Sense was growing, they searched out eleven printers and threatened them with boycott if they did not quit printing our paper. When we were forced to buy our own press, their snoopers, who are always on the job, methodically checked all the newsprint jobbers in the East who are all Jews, and gave them orders not to let any paper go to us. We were forced to order newsprint under different peoples names in other cities. One man, who had been ordering paper for forty years, had put through an order for us and as this was in excess of his accustomed order, they became suspicious and checked on him and would not let him have the paper. For weeks we could not publish, but we finally overcame that situation.

On March 4th, 1952 they crashed in the front end of our office during the night. This is the way Jews have answered criticism down through the years.

When Count Bernadotte was appointed by the United Nations to arbitrate between the Jews and the Arabs, who had been "pushed" 900,000 out on the desert, the Jews were not satisfied, hence Jews in Israeli uniform stopped Count Bernadotte's car and killed him and his aides in the car. When the English were not turning over Palestine quickly enough to the Jews, they set off a large bomb in the Hotel David and killed many people. They then took two English officers and opened their stomachs, put bombs inside and hung them to trees so that when they would be removed, many others would be killed.

These are the people who cannot stand criticism and never answer criticism but spend millions of dollars pushing brotherly love and tolerance so that people will not mention the word "Jew". The Jew does not care how much you talk against Communism just so the public does not learn that the Jew is Communism. The Jews have been run out of every country but the United States and still the Jewish Encyclopedia tells you that they were never persecuted one time in their history because of their religion.

Why were they driven out from all these countries? Are all the people wrong and the Jews right? Any informed person in the United States knows why they were driven out.

Baruch

"Henceforth the world will be governed by the Anglo-Saxon peoples, who, in turn, are swayed by their Jewish elements." (page 497)

Baruch and the New Deal

Baruch contributed liberally of money, personal services, and advice to the Roosevelt campaign. In fact, Raymond Moley, original Roosevelt "Brain Trust," in his "After Seven Years," tells that even before Roosevelt arrived in Chicago to deliver his 1932 acceptance speech to the Democratic Convention, Baruch (with General Johnson) arrived at the apartment of Louis Howe, Roosevelt's handyman. Jesse Strause was already there and asked: "Can we let Baruch see the acceptance speech? We want to be nice to him because he can contribute so much to the campaign."

After reading and approving the speech, Baruch asked that his friend Herbert Bayard Swope also be allowed to see it before delivery. Thus, the "elder Statesman" and Swope saw the acceptance speech before the Democratic Convention ever heard it.

Following Roosevelt's election, Baruch assumed extraordinary powers and word went out over the nation that, during the President's absence from Washington, Baruch would serve as "acting President."

An office in the State Department was provided for him, and dispatches from Washington declared: "Bernard M. Baruch, war-time head of the Industries Board, was announced as super advisor to the administration on business, finance and foreign relations. He will seek to coordinate the recovery program."

When the N.R.A. was set up, it was Baruch's man, General Hugh Johnson, who headed it. Another Baruch man, George Nelson Peek, was placed in the powerful position of Administrator of the Agricultural Act of 1933.

Although the United States Supreme Court eventually declared Baruch's N.R.A. to be unconstitutional, that was not the end of Baruch. He continued on at Washington, working for regimentation of American citizens, and was highly publicized as a trusted advisor, devoted to the Roosevelt Administration.

It is interesting to note here that Baruch's interests in the 30's were not confined to America alone. Two things give a side glance on the deadliness of Baruch. First, there is the visit of Trotsky to Paris in 1933. Stalin had supposedly exiled Trotsky because the latter insisted upon 100 percent Jewish control of Russia, and Trotsky took up residence in France, at the spa Royat near Paris in the fall of 1933. He was visited there by Litvinoff (Finkelstein) then on his way to the United States to have Soviet Russia recognized by Roosevelt. Mysteriously enough, Bernard M. Baruch was then reported in the American press as taking a "water treatment" at the French spa Vichy, nearby. Coincidence? Perhaps.

Baruch's second "international" concern was the war in Spain. Time Magazine of January 2, 1939, reported the disbanding of the Communist-sponsored Abraham Lincoln Brigade and the return of several hundred of the 4,000 recruited by the Communist Party in the U. S. A., and stated: "ONE WHO PUT UP $10,000 TO HELP REPATRIATE LINCOLN BRIGADIERS WAS FINANCIER BERNARD MANNES BARUCH . . . Typical of the brigades personnel was the roll of last week's homecomers. Among them: 25-year-old Brigade Commissar political instructor John Gates from Youngstown, Ohio . . ."

Time did not state that Gates' real name is Isragel Rogenstrich, alias Solreigen Sireif. Gates (Rogenstrich), editor for the Communist Daily Worker, is one of the eleven top Communists convicted of conspiracy to seek forcible overthrow of the U. S. Government. He recently went to jail under a five-year sentence.

World War II — Baruch's Advice Again Needed

America's involvement in the second, Jew-inspired European mess, World War II, again gave Baruch the opportunity to flaunt his role as "adviser." Rubber was a vital necessity. Congress took action to promote an adequate rubber supply for military and civilian needs. Roosevelt, however, set the Congress plan aside; vetoed the bill and then named Baruch chairman of a committee to study the rubber situation.

As evidence of his simplicity and democracy, Baruch arranged to have his committee—Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard, and Dr. Karl T. Compton, President of Massachusetts Institute of Technology—meet on a park bench. It was, of course, a big surprise when an army of reporters, newspaper photographers and radio commentators "discovered" the committee — Baruch in the middle of it, looking profound and learned.

Soon, however, it leaked out into the news that the patriotic (?) Chairman, Baruch, had spent $50,000 of his own money to make the committee's work a success. A "success" whereby Baruch and his Zionist henchmen could reap huge profits!

All during World War II, Baruch had his fingers in the Washington "pie," and the ever-willing ear of F. D. R. When Baruch had urged "Centralization of Defense Power—Would Give All to President," he knew what he wanted; it was unquestioned power for Baruch.

Under a headline "Holds Big Stick," an AP dispatch from London on April 5, 1945, quoted Baruch as saying: "And one reason I am over here is to hold the big stick over the big boys to make damn sure they're not going to foul up the peace." Baruch returned to Washington and attempted to club Congress. Headlines in June, 1945, stated: "Destroy Nazi Industry," Baruch Urges Senate."

German industry was, of course, destroyed. The United States was forced to spend billions of dollars for "Relief," to war torn nations which could have gotten more rapidly back on their feet if they had had the means of giving their own people employment.

After the death of Roosevelt, Mr. Baruch, with checkbook, park bench philosophy, and elder statesmanship, moved into the Truman inner circle.

President Truman named him to head the United States delegation for international consideration of atomic energy. What is more, the President authorized Baruch to name the American delegates to be associated with him. Thus Baruch is seen as the power behind the Atomic Energy Commission which consisted of four Jews and one "New Deal" Republican: Straus, Lillenthal, Bacher, Weymack, and Pike. At least two—Lillenthal and Bacher—were Communist-front members.

Communism is Jewish, and for three years these Marxist Jews had dictatorial control over the atom bomb. Baruch fought to have the control of the atom bomb taken from the military and placed in the hands of "civilians." Baruch also wanted the A-bomb plans given to all the nations of the earth, just as soon as those nations promised to be "good." But, why? Red Jews such as Oppenheimer, Fuchs, Greenglass, and Einstein had had complete access to our atomic laboratories for years. Everyone now knows that, of the ten members of the Fuchs spy ring, eight of the spies were Jewish!

Baruch Supports U. N.

Recently, upon the celebration of his 80th birthday, Baruch—a self-confessed dictator of America—stated that he was getting up in years, but is "still not too old to tell those fellows in Washington what to do, and this I propose to keep on doing."

One of the things Baruch intends to keep on doing is his work for an international government, of which the U. N. is the base structure. Names are often deceiving. Few people realize that the majority of delegates to the U. N. (whether from France, England, Poland or the U. S.) are Jews. International Jewry is the actual governing body of the U. N. And, naturally, therefore, Baruch is 100 percent for the U. N.

The League of Nations, on which the Jews had pinned their hopes, collapsed. They do not want a similar fate to befall the U. N.

Baruch, speaking before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, July 26, 1950, as reported in Vital Speeches, August 15, 1950, commented:

"The League of Nations, already dealt a near fatal blow by the defection of the U. S., was actually wrecked in 1931 when Japan invaded China and the world stood by. Had the effort to over-run Korea been ignored, the United Nations would have been wrecked. All of us, in this country and abroad, would have had to live at the point of a gun. America has taken its stand against aggression and international blackmail. Whatever the cost, I feel sure the American people will see it through." (Bold face ours.—Ed.)

Baruch is not reluctant to have Christian blood spilled all over the globe if the spilling of that blood will depopulate the Christian nations while International Jewry (through its offices in the U. N.) gains more power.

It is time for the American people to take a long look at Baruch. People may well ask why, since he began giving his "advice" this Republic has been involved in two major wars and is presently entered upon "police activities" which may involve us in a third.

People may well inquire of Baruch where he stands on Jewish Communism and the filth of the Talmud.

The radical Professor Reinhold Niebuhr, speaking before the Jewish Institute of Religion, New York, on October 3, 1934, stated that "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy." The Talmud teaches that the Lord, Jesus Christ, was illegitimate . . . a conjurer, a seducer; that he was crucified, buried in hell and set up as an idol ever since by his followers. (Tract Kallah, 1b (18B) and Toldath Jesu are cited on this.)

Baruch cannot be a Talmudist, working with International Jewry and Communist frontiers without being tainted by their evil brush.

Ask, Americans! If Baruch will answer, Common Sense will give him all the space he requires.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Milw. 10, Wisc.
February 10, 1952

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Last week I was visited by two agents of this un-American "Anti-Defamation League" outfit. The reason was that I had been distributing Common Sense. In a manner that was so aptly described in Issue No. 144 of Common Sense. I was told in so many words that if I did not change my belief in 100% Christian Americanism and stop distributing Common Sense, I might find myself in trouble. No such tactics, repulsive to every decent American, will intimidate me and I'm going to go right on circulating Common Sense!

Yours sincerely,
A Reader

WASHINGTON WELCOMES SOVIET SPIES

How Communists Got The Atomic Bomb

By: Maj. George Racey Jordan U.S.A. Retired

FULTON LEWIS JR. and MAJ. GEORGE RACEY JORDAN

Here is a patriot who tried to stand up for his country and was fired and attacked by the New Deal Marxist plotters who were determined to set up Communism in the World.

An article in LIFE last year concerns itself chiefly with a recital of the facts in regard to the Fuchs - Gold - Greenglass - Rosenberg espionage ring which stole our atomic secrets and transmitted them to Russia, and as a consequence of which Fuchs is now in jail in England, Gold is under sentence of thirty years, Greenglass received a lighter sentence because he testified against his conspirators, and for which Julius and Ethel Rosenberg have been sentenced to the electric chair and are now waiting in Sing Sing.

LIFE begins by telling how, at the Potsdam Conference, President Truman walked around the table and confided to "Good Old Joe" Stalin that we had perfected a terrible new bomb. Stalin, the article said, did not seem greatly surprised, and other Americans in attendance concluded that Stalin did not appreciate the magnitude of President Truman's disclosure. The truth is, that, at the time, Marshal Stalin probably knew more about the atom bomb than President Truman did.

LIFE was telling the truth — but not the whole truth. I can tell you that in March, 1943, a full year before the Red spy ring got into operation, I sent a shipment of 420 pounds of Uranium to Soviet Russia. And in THAT next year, before the Red spies got to work, I sent along three more shipments of Uranium, plus large quantities of cobalt, thorium, cadmium and heavy water, all critical materials in the manufacture of the atom bomb.

More than that, I sent along the technical information and know-how on how to make the bomb, blue prints for the construction of plants to produce it, and the very scarce materials with which to build the plants.

I did all this as an Air Force officer, under orders.

My part in giving away our atom bomb was purely functional. I knew nothing about atomic energy at the time, in 1943 and '44, when I was inspecting and expediting these shipments to Russia. I had no idea what "Uranium 92" was used for when I found a memorandum about it in one of the hundreds of patent leather suitcases full of documents which were being flown to Russia in a steady

EISENHOWER FRAUD

"I Would not accept a nomination unless it were by both parties, and it would have to be unanimous, and you know that's impossible."

—An Eisenhower statement as quoted by Harry C. Butcher, author of "My Three Years With Eisenhower," Look magazine, June 5, 1951.

BUT IS IT IMPOSSIBLE?

The following is reprinted from "U.S.A. Confidential," a best seller by the nationally known team of newspapermen, Jack Lait and Lee Mortimer, also authors of "Washington Confidential," "Chicago Confidential," and "New York Confidential," all best sellers. ("U.S.A. Confidential" is not currently to be found on the shelves of many bookstores—excerpts are from pages 353-354).

"Another group of Democrat dissidents were sitting on the most complicated political scheme ever hatched in our history.

"Briefly the plan, which grew more sinister with every refinement, was this:

"To plug Ike Eisenhower for the GOP nomination. If he got in, then, when the Democrats met, two weeks later, to move that Ike's nomination be made unanimous. The fine scheming presumes that if Eisenhower were the "national unity" candidate of both parties he would appoint a coalition cabinet, retaining many Democrat spoilsmen. In the event of such a "nonpolitical" administration, the new President probably would not fire the hold-over bureaucrats. Even more frightening was the carefully thought-up plan that, with no contest for the Presidency, few voters would go to the polls, leaving the incumbent Senators and Congressmen in, thus assuring Democratic control of the next Congress. And Harry would be the elder statesman, the strong man to whom all winners would be beholden.

"Democrats believed Ike would look favorably on such a double nomination. . . . His bi-party nomination would be an endorsement of Harry's foreign policies. Ike would be expected to retain the Acheson axis in State and the Marshall mummies in Defense.

"Many Eastern Republican backers of Eisenhower were conversant with the deal.

"The plan was hatching in Washington and throughout the country all winter . . . As the year progressed other feelers went out to see whether the road was clear for the greatest political steal since Napoleon became First Consul.

"As the presidential year dawned, there was broad indecision and defeatism in the GOP, sparked by Democrats who have been infiltrated into the enemy camp."

PRESIDENTIAL PROMISE

"Crusade in Europe," by Gen. Eisenhower (ghosted by Joseph F. Barnes, in 1948, publisher of the New York Star, successor to "P.M."), discloses Truman promise of 1945.

"General, there is nothing that you may want that I won't try to help you get. That definitely and specifically includes the Presidency."—Harry Truman.

✓ fight communism with common sense (morality)

Admonition For Protestants and Catholics

by Kenneth Goff

Our leaders declared that what happened in Spain was only a preliminary skirmish compared to blows scheduled to fall upon America. No member of the Party is ever left in doubt as to the Communist program for the United States.

The Story of Captain Antonius Raab comes to my mind.

Captain Raab was a Spanish patriot, aviator and an aircraft manufacturer of international reputation. He passed through the terrors of civil war in Spain, escaped from prison and finally came to the United States. Here is his statement:

"This is a story of 17 months of horror in Spanish prisons—a story of incredible injustice, a story of women ravished, a story of men tortured to death. This is the story of Russia's seizure of the Spanish government and the reign of terror that followed.

"I am not a politician, but merely a reasonably successful business man. I am the head of an aircraft corporation which manufactures planes of my own design.

"The Communists threw 300,000 Spanish people into jail and 10,000 foreigners, whom they accused of being spies. I was arrested and thrown into prison. Three times I risked my life to escape and finally by sheer luck, I succeeded . . .

"Red soldiers went into burial places and emptied coffins in search of gold and precious stones. Why they believed jewels should be there, I do not know. While in prison I met a former acquaintance named Kuhn.

"Kuhn was called before the board to confess himself a spy. He could not confess any more than I could. They beat me with a rubber club until my right leg and side were paralyzed for days. But poor Kuhn—this is what they did to him.

"They opened a coffin and dragged out the body of a dead nun, a body that had reposed there for many years and was quite mummified. They disrobed and carried it to the corner of the prison where Kuhn was held. They tied the corpse of the nun to him, his face to the skeleton bones of her face. They tied his hands around the corpse with wire and left the living and the dead together.

"But not for long were they living and dead. It was the dead and the dead. For no man could survive such a fiendish act. Kuhn must have been glad to die."

What many people do not understand is that Communism has come to fruition as the ripened fruit of the Jewish Talmud.

No amount of juggling facts can separate red internationalism from Jewish internationalism. We are indebted to Talmudism in the last analysis for the breakdown of civilization.

We read in the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 289: "On both paternal and maternal sides, Karl Marx was descended from rabbinical families."

This may also be said of most of the leaders who furnish the intellectual and financial driving power of the Communist conspiracy. I, like millions of others, was simply one of their dupes.

The current issue of a leading Jewish magazine, THE JEWISH FORUM, contains an article attacking Christianity exactly like the material that I was fed while a member of the Party. I shall quote a few paragraphs from this violent, blasphemous tirade. Let Defender Readers note that the charge of GOD COMMITTING ADULTERY WITH MARY is as old as the Talmud. Communism and Zionism get their "inspiration" from this Satanic source.

THE JEWISH FORUM is a gaudy publication, now in its thirty-fourth year, printed in colors on high grade enamel paper, edited by Isaac Rosengarten. It is advertised as "A Leading Literary Monthly" of American Jewry. Its avowed purpose is to "Clarify the great ideals of Judaism for the modern mind."

The following quotations are lifted at random from the January 1952 edition:

Common Sense

"The Talmudic sage, Simon ben Gamaliel, said there must be truth and justice before there can be peace.

"Judaism, the religion of the earliest Christians, taught, 'thou shalt have no other gods before me.' Christianity, particularly Roman Catholicism, while calling itself a monotheistic religion, added a man-made god and, for all practical purposes, turned it into a family of gods . . .

"The law says, 'the seventh day shall be the Sabbath.' Christianity, by its duplicity, substituted the first day, inventing the fiction of the resurrection of Jesus to hallow that day.

"Bishop Edward W. Barnes of England has long advocated the conviction that the fictional dogmas concerning the birth of Jesus, the Virgin Birth and the Resurrection are unfounded in fact; saying, among other things, that Christianity looks upon the birth of Jesus not like the birth of a human being but like that of an insect.

"The story in the Christian Gospels relates that, when God called the Holy Ghost, had intercourse with Mary, called a Virgin, there was a conception resulting in the birth of Jesus. There is the factual statement in the Gospels that, at the time of such intercourse, the Virgin Mary had already been married and her husband was Joseph, son of Jacob.

"God who, in His Seventh Commandment of the Ten Commandments, had set forth 'Thou shalt not commit adultery,' had done what He had forbidden mankind to do, in contravention of this Commandment. What an inglorious imputation! What an example even unto the thousandth generation yet unborn!

"When the totalitarian Catholic Church, in order to control every child from the cradle to grave in consecrated ground, adopted the dogmatic fiction that every child is born in sin, in order to overcome the naturally disturbing logical conclusion that sin also tainted the birth of Jesus, the second dogmatic fiction was superimposed on the first fiction; namely, that Jesus was born by being conceived by God, Who, in the form of the Holy Ghost (another fiction), had intercourse with Mary (another fiction) who, though married, was a virgin—another fiction.

"In the entire shadowy story there is not a single absolutely convincing historical fact."

The foregoing is only a fraction of THE JEWISH FORUM editorial now being considered. It represents but a trickle from the vast Talmudic reservoir, out of which the filthy streams of Zionism and Communism pour forth.

Here in America, we can scarcely realize the suffering endured by followers of Christ living behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains.

We cannot accurately visualize the bloody sea in which 21-million professed Christians have been baptized. In the year 1951 alone, there were more martyrs to the faith than in all the previous centuries of Church history combined.

This suffering of the saints in other parts of the world should serve as a warning to US, regarding the strategy of the anti-Christ. Unless the growth of this same strategy is arrested by mobilized Christian action, the noose will some day tighten around the neck of every Protestant clergyman in the United States.

Being a minister, I am naturally and unalterably opposed to certain dogmas in the Catholic system of teaching. And being an evangelical, I am opposed to left-wing Modernism in our Protestant denominations.

The leftist theologian opposes the Catholic Church for its opposition to Communism. But for the life or me, I cannot understand loyal Gospel preachers joining in the attack. THEY NEED TO GET THEIR FACTS STRAIGHT.

Communism is the avowed enemy of all Christianity. Communism has declared war on all Christian faiths. Communism is anti-Christ. It can be successfully opposed only by the power of Christ. This calls for united action on the part of all who bear His Name.

General MacArthur Says Moral Decay Has Led To Disaster

General of the Army, Douglas MacArthur, in a recent address before the Salvation Army Association of New York, called for a revival of religious motivations in our national household to stem a rising moral deterioration in its political management. He warned against indifference to baseness and weakness in public stewardships.

The third annual citation of the Salvation Army Association of New York was bestowed on General MacArthur. Read before the 1,200 assembled guests the citation declared that: "General of the Army MacArthur, by his personal integrity, adherence to the principles of Christianity and devotion to duty, has served as an inspiration to his fellow-countrymen and has set a stirring example to a conquered people making their first strides along the path toward true democracy."

THE GENERAL'S ADDRESS

General MacArthur spoke as follows:

"In this day of gathering storms, as the moral deterioration of political power spreads its growing infection, it is essential that every spiritual force be mobilized to defend and preserve the religious base upon which this nation was founded. That base has been the motivating impulse to our moral and national growth.

"History fails to record a single precedent in which nations subject to moral decay have not passed into political and economic decline. There has been either a spiritual reawakening to overcome the moral lapse or a progressive deterioration leading to ultimate national disaster.

"In the modern world the evil forces of Communism which seek to remove religion as the most formidable barrier to their advance have adopted the technique of infiltration. They strive to undermine public and private morals as a means of weakening and rendering indefensible areas of intended absorption.

No Compromise Urged

"There can be no compromise in the fight to preserve the sanctity of our religious base. We must condemn those who would corrupt the principles of individual liberty, freedom's mighty instrument of spiritual power. We must not view with indifference men of base or weak character who do not fulfill their public stewardship.

"We must refuse to indulge those who are so blind they will not see the moral dangers now threatening the engulfment of our people.

"Moral decay and political irresponsibility have penetrated the roots of our cherished institutions.

"Powerful forces bent upon further entrenching political power at the expense of spiritual values resist public disclosures which question the moral integrity underlying public affairs."

JEW S AND STEEL

THOSE WHO FINANCE COMMUNISM ARE WELL REWARDED

Marxist Jew plotters maneuver the steel industry under Socialist New Deal control. The Closed Shop means that no person can work and earn a livelihood unless he joins a union.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff

The first Judge, before whom the Steel Seizure Case was taken was Zionist Judge Alexander Holtzoff born in Russia. He ruled in favor of the Marxist New Deal.

Judaism, which is nothing more than a cult dedicated to wiping Christianity from the face of the earth, learned long ago, that in order to do this, it must gain control of all governments—and this had to be done through inflation, war and bankruptcy. Sixteen million Jews cannot openly gain world control, with a world population of two-and one-quarter billion people. Jews must be clever enough to cause Christians to break themselves down. Therefore, Rabbis train them from childhood on the best way to get into certain professions and to place themselves where they can direct without being detected. (Such as the Jewish Nationalist Revolutionary Leon Keyserling, President Truman's economic advisor.)

The Jewish plan is very clearly foretold in the Protocols, from which we quote. The Protocols is the undeniable Jewish Plan for World Control, first introduced by the Immortal Henry Ford. Remember that the Jew is a Socialist as much as he is a Communist. This is as much a part of his Talmudic heritage, as

Phillip Perlman

Solicitor General and acting Attorney General. He in fact has been the real head of the Department of Justice right along. McGrath, was only the front to divert attention from the fact, that the Department is run by the Invisible Government.

his hatred for Christianity. Socialism can only be achieved through obtaining control of Unions. The Pioneer Jew in this regard was Sam Gompers. His modern prototypes are the late Sidney Hillman and David Dubinsky. All foreign born Jews who have been conditioning us for Socialism under Jewish rule.

Jews must be able to direct masses, in order to be able to use them as pressure groups on Governments. Hence you see Jews directing Unions. All big Unions have Jewish lawyers who direct them. Jews are not interested in the gentiles working shorter hours and receiving more money. This, however, is a great appeal to the worker, and enables the crafty Jews to keep the latter regimented as a weapon to force through bigger plans for Jewish world Rule. The closed Shop gives the Jew full control over all who labor. Once the employer agrees to the Closed Shop, he is helpless in the hands of the Jews behind the scenes—very likely he will be forced to sell out to a Jew who will be able to deal with the Masterminds of the Union. Communism is camouflaged Judaism. When Communism is established in a country—commerce, mining, everything in fact is taken over by Jews who financed the Revolution. NEW YORK JEWS, WHO HELPED FINANCE COMMUNISM IN COUNTRIES THAT HAVE BEEN TAKEN OVER, NOW OWN THE MAIN INDUSTRIES IN THOSE COUNTRIES.

For example, there are Manganese mines in Yugoslavia, worth millions, whose owners have fled that country (and are now in the U. S.), to avoid being killed like their relatives had been. TODAY, A JEW IN BROOKLYN OWNS THOSE MINES. To get control of the steel industry, Marxist Jews direct Harry Solomon Truman to appoint a War Stabilization Board which is supposed to be an impartial group—representing Labor, Steel, and the Public—BUT SEVEN OF THE BOARD ARE LINKED WITH COMMUNIST FRONTS. Nathan Feinsinger is a member of the National Lawyers Guild, a Communist-Front. It is he of course who directed the other Reds into developing a stalemate, and thus throwing the matter into the hands of the Government, which of course the Jews control. This Jew dominated Board is careful to recommend a Closed Shop. Truman must listen to Felix Frankfurter, Max Lowenthal, Leon Keyserling, David Niles and Morris Ernst. THESE JEWS HAVE MORE INFLUENCE IN WASHINGTON THAN ALL THE VETERAN GROUPS AND CHRISTIAN GROUPS COMBINED.

We hope Harry won't write us a dirty letter, or call us an S. O. B. for this.

NATHAN FEINSINGER; CHAIRMAN WAR STABILIZATION BOARD.

WE SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING SUPPORTING TESTIMONY FROM JEWISH SOURCES.

Alfred Nossig, a Jew, in his book: "Integrallless Judentum", Berlin, 1922, states:

"Socialism and the Mosaic Code, are not at all in opposition, ... all Jewish groups ... have a vital interest in the victory of Socialism ..."

According to Dr. Oscar Levy, London Jewish Savant:

"Jewish elements form the driving power for both Capitalism and Communism."

Disreali, Jewish Premier of England, in his book "Lord George Bentinck," states: "The most skillful accumulators of property ally themselves with the Communists."

Theodore Herzl, World Zionist Leader, wrote in the "Jewish State": "When we Jews sink, we become a revolutionary proletariat (communistic); when we rise, there also arises our terrible power of the purse" (capitalistic).

The Jewish writer, Walter Brody, wrote in the New Masses, May 12th, 1936, page 14: "The undeniable problem of the Jew can only be solved in a socialist society."

THE PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

cordance with an alleged Brotherly rule Protocol 7.

"This hatred will be still further magnified by the effects of an economic crisis, which will stop dealings on the exchanges, and bring industry to a standstill Protocol 11.

stream. The words "Manhattan Engineering District — Oak Ridge" were meaningless when I found them on a blueprint.

The Radio Disclosures

My appearance on the Fulton Lewis, Jr. radio broadcasts, and my testimony before the House Committee on Un-American Activities were almost accidental. Even as late as the Fall of 1949, I had no real comprehension as to the important part I had unknowingly played in this base betrayal of American interests. It was only after President Truman had announced that Soviet Russia had had an atomic explosion that I began to think about the possible connection between my experience as a Lend-Lease expeditor at Great Falls, Montana, and this world-shaking development.

I was having lunch at the Army and Navy Club in Washington with a friend, and the President's announcement came up for discussion. I said casually, "here we are getting all excited about Russia having the atom bomb. A lot of people in Washington have known for years that Russia must have the bomb. Why, I shipped the Russians hundreds of pounds of uranium."

My friend phoned Senator Bridges and I was invited to see the Senator that very afternoon. The Senator heard what I had to say, but was not altogether convinced. In fact he asked my friend if I had ever been in a hospital for the mentally ill. The following week-end he told my story to Fulton Lewis, who asked to see the documents I had to substantiate my story.

After questioning me for six hours, Fulton Lewis said he was going to check what I had told him, and, if the facts stood up, that he would tell the story to his radio public. Then he informed the FBI and for the next several weeks I told my story over and over again to several FBI agents.

Six weeks later, after the FBI had verified the facts, I appeared on the Fulton Lewis broadcasts.

I found to my amazement, that even after my story was proved beyond any shadow of doubt, some leading writers and commentators distorted the facts, and convinced the public that my disclosures were a gigantic hoax. All sorts of charges were made against me. I was vilified, abused and smeared, even accused of anti-semitism, a subject I have never discussed.

Enter Harry Hopkins

The only part of my story which has not had definite verification is my telephone conversation with Harry Hopkins, in which he ordered me to send through a shipment of Uranium ahead of a half million pounds of high-priority Lend-lease freight which had piled up at the Great Falls depot. It had been my policy to send shipments through in the order in which they arrived at Great Falls. In this case the Russian colonel in charge asked me to put this Uranium shipment at the head of the list. I declined, saying we were already choked with special priorities and that it would have to wait its turn. Then Col. Kotikov phoned to Washington and pretty soon he turned to me and said: "Mr. Hopkins — big boss — wants to talk to you." Hopkins began his conversation by asking if I was "his" expeditor "out there". I said I was. He also brought up a subject of which only Mr. Hopkins and myself could have known. He asked, "Did you get those extra pilots I sent you"? I said that I had. Then he requested that I put this special shipment of atomic chemicals on the next plane to Moscow. I followed his instructions, for Mr. Hopkins, as Chairman of the President's Russian Protocol Committee on Lend-Lease was my superior. When the chemicals came, they proved to be 500 pounds of black Uranium oxide, and 500 pounds of Uranium nitrate, from the Eldorado Mining and Refining Company's Uranium mines at Great Bear Lake.

Prior to this shipment, General Leslie R. Groves, who was in charge of our atom bomb project, had issued a blockade order banning all exports of Uranium, and did not learn of this shipment until he appeared before the Committee on Un-American Activities.

PROTESTANTISM AND CATHOLICISM? By Gerald B. Winrod, D. D., A Defender of the Faith publication. That the world is divided into two camps, the forces of Christ and those of Anti-Christ is well known. For the first time (in a compact thirty-page booklet) Dr. Winrod shows that the forces of ANTI-CHRIST, EXTREMISTS OF A SINGLE RACE are driving a wedge between the two great Christian bodies, as represented by Catholics and Protestants, and making them fight

In order to make sure that our Communist friends would not be delayed in producing her own Uranium, we shipped by boat — the complete paper work passing through my office in Great Falls — $25,000,000 worth of ore dredging, screening and pulverizing machinery, heavy rock crushers, and earth boring and quarrying equipment. I had no idea at that time what this machinery was for, but it is now only too clear that it was to be used to dig raw Uranium ore from the captured Czechoslovakian mines.

We also shipped hundreds of Geiger counters — registers which are universally used to locate Uranium. They were loaded aboard the Russian S. S. SURIKOV at Long View, Washington, bound for Vladivostok.

The Norden Bomb-Sight Too

And just to make sure the Russians would know how to drop the Atom Bomb, we sent our most precious secret, the Norden bomb-sight by a Major Warren C. Williams, who headed a group of four experts, who reached Moscow October 15th, 1944. They proceeded to give courses of instruction to Soviet flyers, 25 to each class, for a 72-hour course, flying them over Moscow in a large plane for actual dry-run practice.

Of course, it takes more than rare chemical ores to make an atom bomb; the necessary industrial plant and chemical equipment is enormous.

One big item is pipe. We sent pipe to Russia when General Groves was without sufficient pipe for our own atom bomb needs.

Another essential is power. We shipped Russia 17 stationary steam and hydro-electric plants, costing $263 million dollars.

A lot of copper goes into an atom bomb plant. Donald Nelson refused to release any copper to the Russians because in those days the United States was faced with a very critical shortage. But Harry Hopkins over-ruled him and Russia got 254,923 tons, costing the taxpayers more than 90 million dollars, and, in addition, enough copper wire to girdle the globe 50 times.

A good part of an atom bomb plant is made up of scientific chemical equipment. We sent the Russians $85 million dollars worth of this very critical material.

"Lend-Lease" Utilized Illegally

The atom bomb was only one of many things that Moscow's friends in Washington sent along to Russia via Lend-Lease in open violation of the spirit and letter of the law . . . in complete disregard of the cost to the American taxpayers . . . and in utter defiance of our country's security and safety.

Under the Lend-Lease Law the President had full power to decide what DEFENSE assistance the Russians were to get. He delegated that power to Harry Hopkins, whose fame as a relief administrator was well known in the Soviet Union, so one day the Russians applied to Hopkins for a relief project for the city of Leningrad, and they got it—even though it was in violation of the Lend-Lease Act.

Although I was unaware of the treachery regarding the atom bomb, that was going on right under my nose in 1943 and '44, other developments caused me to be concerned. Once every three weeks a plane came through from Washington loaded with 50 patent leather suitcases, guarded by two Russian couriers. Each time I was told that these were "diplomatic" shipments and that I could not inspect the contents. Each time I insisted that before the plane could be cleared I would have to see what the suitcases contained. I found some of them bulging with copies of patents from the U. S. Patent Office.

Maj. Jordan Gets the "Brush-Off"

I flew to Washington. Because of the claim of "diplomatic" immunity I went directly to the State Department. After telling my story a half dozen times I finally reached the functionary in charge of Lend-Lease relations with Russia. He heard my story and assured me that "everything is alright," that I should not interfere, that I was being too "officious," and that if I continued, I might find myself in the Fiji Islands.

But as I was not satisfied that "everything was alright," on my return from Washington I reported the whole matter to the Army's Counter Intelligence Corps. An agent was sent to interview me. He agreed that something was wrong, and that immediate action should be taken. Five years later, I learned from testimony before the Committee on Un-American Activities that the CIC agent did try to do something about it, and that a meeting was called to consider my charges. In attendance were representatives of the FBI, Customs, Immigration, Air Force, the Army and the State Department. But, after a lot of talk, action on my report was blocked by our Ambassador to Russia, Averill Harriman, who said he wanted nothing to interfere with the warm friendship between the Russians and ourselves.

JEWISH WORLD HOAX

THE HOAX ABOUT SIX MILLION JEWS

W. D. HERRSTROM, Editor of BIBLE
NEWS FLASHES — Faribault, Minnesota, answers an inquiry by one of his readers.
Republished from "Bible News Flashs."

Dear Editor:

"Can you give me some information on the Jewish question? A man from Denver, Colorado who has been in Palestine several times and taking pictures, was here last week showing his pictures and making speeches about the Jews; telling the people that Hitler killed 6,000,000 Jews and rendered soap from their bodies."

"The speaker said that the reason God has prospered our nation so much is because we have always been good to Jews; and the reason England is losing out and going down, is because she sold guns and ammunition to the Arabs in their fight with the Jews; and Germany has been crushed because she persecuted the Jews."

The story about the Germans making soap out of 6,000,000 Jews is one of the biggest lies in history.

Personally, I don't see how anyone with common sense would give credence to such a claim in the beginning. That a so-called minister of the Gospel of Christ should stand behind the sacred desk and pass such a hoax on to the people—as the truth—seems inconceivable. Yet, I guess there are all kinds of "things" running around the country posing as ministers, evangelists, and missionaries.

I have had German neighbors all my life and I haven't seen any of them putting Jews in their soap kettles and making soap out of them. The Germans aren't that kind of people, but the propagandists have tried hard to make the public believe that Germans do not belong to the human race. Jewish leaders have the same contempt for all Gentiles as they do for the Germans, but they do not publicly express themselves concerning the rest of the Gentiles. However, a reading of Jewish literature reveals the fact that they class all Gentiles with "dogs" and "swine."

If the aforementioned preacher had any brains he could see right through the hoax about the 6,000,000 Jews. For instance, if the Germans hated the Jews enough to murder 6,000,000 of them, common sense tells us that the Germans wouldn't want to smear themselves with soap made from the bodies of those Jews.

Again, soap is made from "fats", and if the Germans "starved" the Jews to death, it doesn't appear that there would be enough fats left in their bodies to make soap.

Another story is that the Germans incinerated these Jews in ovens. The "barbecued Jew" hoax is as ridiculous as the others.

UN DELEGATE TRYGVE LIE and ERNEST GROSS

THE RUSSIAN RAT TRAP

by Congressman John T. Wood, Idaho

I ran across some interesting facts concerning the past history of Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the United Nations, the other day.

He is a man brought forward by Stalin for this job, and despite the fact that a Canadian member had received 8 out of the 11 votes necessary to elect him, Gromyko threatened to use the veto if the voting continued.

John T. Wood He demanded the election of Lie by acclamation, despite the fact that such elections could only be conducted by secret ballot. Trygve was so elected.

Trygve was a member of the Norwegian Labor Party, which was one of the first to affiliate with Lenin's 3rd Internationale, though they afterwards withdrew from membership.

He also essayed the role of Benedict Arnold to his own country, by proposing on April 9th, 1945, the joint defense of Spitzbergen by Russia and Norway. This would have given Russia an ice-free bastion, within easy striking distance of Britain and this country; it would have dominated our pathway to Europe and Russia, and would have subjected Sweden to a cross-fire between Spitzbergen and Russia.

Lie spent a long time at Moscow with his

AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS DEFENDS MARY MCLEOD BETHUNE

ENGLEWOOD, N. J.

BOARD ACTS TO STOP RED ADDRESS

We are not surprised to find the American Jewish Congress condemning the action of the Englewood Board of Education for the part it played in the postponement of the address that was to be delivered in Englewood School by Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune. RED MARY MCLEOD BETHUNE HAS A RED RECORD A MILE LONG! Why is the American Jewish Congress, an official Jewish body, so anxious to defend this Red? Why did Rabbi Ahron Opher of Paterson, New Jersey, step so vigorously into the picture and rally to the side of this Red? Are you beginning to catch on?

It may come as a surprise to some, who want to believe in their Jewish neighbors, and who want to believe that Communism is not a Jewish movement, to witness official Jewish bodies and leaders defending Mary McLeod Bethune. However, those who keep up with things and are informed know that the American Jewish Congress is one of the big powers behind Com-

SIX MILLION JEWS

The Jews themselves, laugh, when they find gullible Gentiles swallowing that balderdash, but no Jew believes it. The Jews might use the story to raise money among gullible Gentiles, but the Jews would never use this story in their own ranks because no Jew believes it.

Where are the 6,000,000 Jews who disappeared from Germany? Senator Pat McCarran says there are more than 5,000,000 aliens in this country who got in "illegally." He doesn't say who they are but most "informed" people believe that most of them are Jews.

Since the Jews have exercised almost complete "control" over the New Deal since the day FDR took office it is easy to see how 5,000,000 Jews could come into this country illegally and escape publicity and prosecution, not to mention expulsion.

It would be impossible to name any country in Europe (other than Germany) that has had that many people who left without a forwarding address.

No use looking in Shickelgruber's ovens for them. Walk down the streets of any American city. There they are.

A "BLESSING" OR A "CURSE"

The second part of the aforementioned letter is the question of whether the Lord will "prosper" a nation that takes the Jews into its embrace.

There are Bible Institutes that have been cramming down the throats of their students the falsehood that God will bless any nation or individual that takes into its embrace, the Jews.

Anyone who has studied the Scriptures will readily discern two glaring errors in the Bible Institute philosophy:

(1) The Scriptures forbid the Jews to fraternize with Gentiles or to intermarry. They were told that if they disobeyed God's clear command in this matter they would come under "a curse" and be scattered among all the nations. This has been fulfilled. If they are under a curse for disobeying God and for their rejection of the Lord Jesus Christ, how can they be a blessing?

The Jews are the only people in the world who rejected Christ as an entire racial group. Are they, then a blessing? Let's see what the Scriptures say:

Speaking of their return to Palestine from among all the nations of the world, the Scriptures plainly say—

"YE WERE A CURSE AMONG THE NATIONS, O HOUSE OF JUDAH AND HOUSE OF ISRAEL" (Zech. 8:13, R. V.)

The Bible plainly says that the Jews are to be "a curse among the nations." How, then, can anyone go so far as to change the truth into a lie and say that the Jews are a blessing?

Apparently some preachers know very little about the Bible or else there are hundreds like the evangelist who recently said to us, "You have the truth on the Jewish question and the Scriptures back you up. I agree with you 100 per cent, but if I go out and preach the TRUTH most of the Fundamentalist churches will close their doors to me and I'll be out of business."

Well, it's too bad, brother, that you've got to preach lies in order to get into so many Fundamentalist pulpits. Why don't you do like a few of us do—preach the TRUTH and take the consequence. Sure, the other fellow will lie about us in order to save his compromising, guilty conscience, but let him lie. His sermons are lies too. We are out to please God—not man.

And why don't you profit by the example of one who, 1900 years ago heard the jingle of 30 pieces of silver, and loved that more than the Friend of all Friends?

Well, that evangelist is "prospering" financially, but spiritually his meetings are a "fake" as are all meetings where shekels come first and the Saviour last. Unfortunately, there are hundreds—doubtless thousands, like him. That is what is wrong with the Church today. That is what is wrong with America.

The Lord prospered America, not because it catered to the Jews or adopted the principles of Talmudism. This nation was blessed because it founders were believers in the Lord Jesus Christ and because they incorporated Christian principles into our Constitution.

This blessing upon America continued until 1933 when the part-Jewish FDR got into power. Since that time Communist Jews have exercised almost complete control over the New Deal government. The blessing of God left this country in 1933 and it has been on the skids ever since. We have been plunged into two wars; our "American" form of government has been virtually destroyed and a Socialist system of government ownership or "control" of business has been substituted. The wealth produced since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock has been squandered through political insanity; unborn babes are "mortgaged" for more than this country is worth and they can look forward to nothing but enslavement to the government in order to pay a crushing indebtedness—enslavement during all their life time.

The entering wedge for the destruction of our country was injected during the Woodrow Wilson administration when the Jewish Bernard Baruch exercised Jargon "control" over the nation's economy. During that administration the Jewish Karl Marx's Communist platform plank—the graduated income tax, was adopted. It was calculated to liquidate all of the large fortunes and to eventually siphon off all the earnings of all citizens—except their bare living expenses. It is doing that now. The purpose of the measure, in the mind of Karl Marx was to enable the government to take over all property and then own the people as slaves—slaves working for the government all the time. (Americans are already working for the government from one-half to nine-tenths of the time through confiscatory taxes.) It will not be long until the Karl Marx idea will come to fulfillment. The seeds of destruction have been sown in our government. They are now coming to fruition.

The Federal Reserve Banking system was also a product of the Wilson administration. The Jewish Federal Reserve bankers largely control America's money. They manipulated affairs to cause the depression for which they blamed Herbert Hoover. Their objective was to destroy the influence of a Christian patriot who was loyal to America's Constitution and replace him with a Marxist who would ridicule our Constitution and incorporate Marxist principles as a substitute for the "American" form of government. They succeeded.

With our country at an all time low morally; with the government seething with corruption; with our boys dying in Korea because New Deal officials and appointees played footsie with the Chinese Communists—who will dare to say that this country—under its present, largely Jewish control—is being blessed more greatly than it was under Gentile control, prior to 1932?

Nearly all of our atomic spies, who gave our secrets to Bolshevik Russia, were Jews.

Has our country improved since our government took Jews into its embrace and followed their advice? Or have we discovered that God knew what He was talking about when He said,

"YE WERE A CURSE AMONG THE NATIONS, O HOUSE OF JUDAH AND HOUSE OF ISRAEL" (Zech. 8:13).

With so many preachers following the Marxist philosophy—that taking the Jews into your embrace will bring great blessing—no wonder thousands of church members are thoroughly disgusted and are asking—What shall we do? Where can we go to church? Where are the preachers who preach the truth instead of lies?

All this brings us face to face with the fact that there is a crying need for an organization of ministers who will preach the truth—even when it is unpopular to do so: There are many such ministers but they need to be organized and cataloged so church members who are tired of listening to the Marxist attitude toward the Jewish problem can find a church where the worship is centered around Christ instead of around a Marxist-minded group of Asiatics.

IS RUSSIA BLESSED BY GOD?

If friendship for the Jews brings God's blessing, then Soviet Russia should be the nearest thing to Heaven on earth, because 76 per cent of the Bolshevik leaders who set up the Communist government were Jews. On the contrary, Russia is the nearest thing to hell that the world has ever seen, (proving again, the truth of Zech. 8:13).

The most outstanding Jewish weekly in America, the American Hebrew, said on Sept. 10, 1920—

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality ALL OVER THE WORLD."

Those mosquito-brained preachers who think that the way to blessing is through catering to the Marxist Talmudists, should go to Russia where that crowd exercises almost complete control. But be prepared for a one-way trip. And the blessing you will receive will be a small piece of lead. An excavating machine will dig your grave and a bulldozer will cover you up.

THE COLLAPSE OF BRITAIN

The preacher was wrong again when he said Britain is collapsing because she is against the Jews. The opposite is the truth. The Socialist regime has caused the disintegration of the British Empire and behind the Socialist regime has been Jewish influence. Britain, therefore, collapses—not because of opposition to the Jews, but because she gave them power.

WHY GERMANY COLLAPSED

Germany came under dictatorship because she failed to deal with Jewish Communists until they had gained enough power to overthrow Germany. Thirty-six hours before the scheduled Communist revolution, Hitler rose up to oppose the Reds. The German people had no choice. It was either dictatorship under Hitler or dictatorship under Communist Talmudists—as in Soviet Russia.

Believing that nothing could possibly be worse than the bloody record of Bolshevism, they chose to be under Hitler's dictatorship.

The Jewish boycott of Germany set the stage for World War II. Since the war, Germany has been under the Morgenthau Plan (falsely called the Marshall Plan) and now the Germans are tiring of the Jewish Morgenthau Plan of permanent enslavement or annihilation—and anti-Semitism is rising with a greater vengeance than under Hitler's regime.

An observer of the present German enslavement says—

"Anti-Semitism is NOT persecution of or a hatred for the Jews.

"Anti-Semitism is SELF-DEFENSE of the individual and of the people."

Thus, there is still no blessing under the Jewish regime in Germany.

America has no business to be aligned in the UN with godless Russia and the other pagan countries. The UN is setting the stage for world dictatorship under the prophesied coming Jewish antichrist.

AN OPEN LETTER TO GENERAL MacARTHUR:

Dear General:

Before writing this humble letter, I asked Almighty God to strengthen my mind and guide my hand so that I may put into writing what millions of Americans are hoping and praying for today.

It is needless to relate to you the conditions of the world and the great danger that our country is in, as I for one, am aware of the fact that you know everything that has taken place in the great "sell-out" of America. You have stood back silently and watched the hundreds of good American leaders disappear while the Internationalists moved on Washington. You watched the great secret agreement at Yalta and the turning over of 400,000,000 Chinese to the Communists. You have seen thousands of immigrants pour into this country and take over key positions like they did in Poland, Hungary and other countries. Yes, you saw all of this and now you see America about to take her last breath of freedom. What can you do about it?

The important thing to remember is that God gave you all of the wonderful qualities you have. He made you a strong and just leader of men. Besides this, He gave you the ability of being a strategist and diplomat at the same time. Very few men possess such qualities and for some reason Almighty God has given them to you and placed you in the position you are in today.

This position, of course, is a difficult one, but since the beginning of the world Almighty God has created good Christian leaders to match the difficulties of such situations for His sake. Perhaps many times you have thought that of all the great trials and battles you have been through, that this was the greatest and maybe the final one. Yes, you have most likely thought of what would happen if you tried to oppose this powerful force of atheism. You might have to give up your life.

This, of course, would not affect you in making up your mind to stand up and fight, as you have proven over and over again that you have no fear of death. I would like to mention, as one who has served under you, that there are millions who would stand up and die with you if it meant that America would be saved. America needs a leader who loves her above all other countries and organizations. America needs a man who has watched thousands of Mothers' sons die needlessly in the battle fronts. America needs a leader who has conquered a hostile oriental nation and became its friend in a few years. America needs a leader who will run a country according to the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. Yes, America needs a leader. AMERICA NEEDS YOU.

General, it is going to be very difficult for you to stand by and watch a totalitarian Government take over 160,000,000 people whom you love very much, particularly when the above qualities fit you perfectly. All of the battles you have won in the past and all the lives of the boys you have saved through your strategy will have been in vain if you do not come NOW to the call of America. We, the American people, are depending upon you to lead us through this tremendous crises. We know you will not fail us. We know you will be there at the strategic time. Sincerely,

A former Marine who served three and one-half years in the Pacific.

SIX MILLION JEWS

"I WILL CURSE HIM THAT CURSETH THEE"

In the time of Christ the apostate Rabbis interpreted this verse to mean that anyone who opposed the Jews would be under a curse. They attempted to "frighten" people into subjection.

Christ publicly exposed their hypocrisy when He said:

"I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you . . . If ye were Abraham's children ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that told you the truth, which I have heard of God; this did not Abraham . . .

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him . . . And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not" (John 8:37-45).

Christ defied their threatened "curse" by openly exposing their hypocrisy. The verses, in Gen. 12:1-3, refer to Christ and His seed, not to the Jews and their posterity. The Rabbis, rejecting Christ, perverted the Scriptures (as some do today) and applied it to themselves. They said Christ was under a curse and was under the influence of a demon, because he publicly exposed the hypocrisy of the Rabbis.

Blessing is to come to those who bless Christ and the curse is upon those who curse Christ.

This makes sense, and is confirmed throughout the Scriptures. Strange then, that any professing Christian should adopt the interpretation given by the Rabbis who crucified Christ and who claimed that the curse was upon Him because He opposed and exposed the Jewish leaders.

We can't blame church members for losing patience when they hear ministers interpreting the Scriptures according to the Talmud—in the same way it was interpreted by the Jewish leaders who conspired to crucify Christ.

Ministers should study the Scriptures and preach the truth instead of giving Talmud interpretations—"the traditions of the elders," which Christ so vigorously condemned.

MYSTERY BABYLON

Another interpretation that delights the Communists is the idea that "mystery Babylon"—the figurative Babylon of prophecy, is the Roman Catholic Church. As a Baptist, I have no brief for the Roman Church, but I think a corrupt Protestant Church, denying the deity of Christ, His virgin birth, His bodily resurrection, the efficacy of His atoning blood, and all the other precious truths of the Scriptures, has stooped pretty low.

Christ Himself also identified the slayers of the prophets—

"Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to His disciples,

"Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat . . . and the chief seats in the synagogues . . . But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ . . .

"Woe unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous . . . Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets . . . Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

"Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city.

"That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar . . .

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee . . . Behold, your house is left unto you desolate" (Matt. 23:1-38).

Speaking of the slayers of the prophets, Christ does not say, "O, Rome, Rome." He says, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem."

The Scriptures are so clear on this that it is difficult to see how anyone could confuse this clear reference to Jewish leaders and Judaism, with the Roman Catholic Church.

The Babylon of the end of time is doubtless the coming world dictatorship under the prophesied Jewish anti-Christ. There is today, an increasing hatred toward Christians who are sufficiently sincere to proclaim the truth without compromise. When the Jewish antichrist rules the world, Christianity will be outlawed and all will be under death sentence. Straws in the wind indicate that we are heading that way today.

The United Nations, which had its birth in the San Francisco conference—set up by a group of which Alger Hiss was secretary, is no doubt a forerunner of the coming "one world" dictatorship by "one man"—the anti-Christ. The UN has ruled out Christ entirely and its headquarters are a convenient spy nest for the Reds.

It would require several thousand pages to adequately present the above subjects, and we have plenty of material to prove our case beyond a shadow of doubt. But enough has been said to set in motion some serious thinking on the subject.

I have attended dozens of religious conventions, and conferences. All I ever hear is a rehashing of the kindergarten teachings that everybody has heard over and over again, a thousand times. I have often wondered why full-grown men do not tackle some of these subjects and get "straightened out" on them, instead of taking the attitude that they have "arrived" after merely covering the subjects of the primary department in the spiritual realm.

Well, Mr. sincere preacher and layman, suppose you bring up these subjects at the next conference or convention. Anyway, it'll be interesting to watch the pussy-footers scramble for cover. Lots of preachers know these truths but they are afraid of losing their jobs.

MARY McLEOD BETHUNE

munist in the United States. Since they are the "bosses" of gentle fronts like Mary McLeod Bethune, their Red record is much more extensive and important.

The Board of Education and cooperating groups that effected the postponement of the Bethune talk are to be highly congratulated. THERE IS NOT THE SLIGHTEST DOUBT ABOUT HER RED RECORD. IT IS FURNISHED IN DETAIL BELOW. WE CHALLENGE HER TO DEFEND THAT RED RECORD ON THE PUBLIC PLATFORM WITH A REPRESENTATIVE OF COMMON SENSE.

Before reviewing Dr. Bethune's coat of crimson, however, let us turn our attention to the Red record of the American Jewish Congress, which is far more important. The record of the American Jewish Congress was reviewed in our issue No. 104 dated November 1st, 1949, a copy of which may be had for the asking. Briefly, we would like to point out here, that the American Jewish Congress, a branch of the World Jewish Congress, was headed for years by the late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, with whose long Red record even a school child should be familiar. Dr. Wise's son, James Waterman Wise, Russian born Rabbi Solomon Goldman, Representative Emanuel Celler, Julian W. Mack, Judge Ben Rosenthal, Louis Lipsky (writer for Communist papers) Rabbi Max Nussbaum and Henry L. Silberman; all with Red records, hold very prominent positions in the American Jewish Congress. Red Rabbi Dr. Joachim Prinz of Newark, New Jersey, who, not unlike Albert Einstein was expelled from Germany for Revolutionary Communist activities, is the honorary Vice-President of the American Jewish Congress.

It is likewise noteworthy that in the California Committee on the Un-American Activities' Report for 1948, pp 145-149, the American Jewish Congress is cited as Communist infiltrated in its California Division whose convention in 1948 went on record against loyalty checks, and called for the abolition of the Congressional Committee and the Tenney State Legislative Committee. (Bold), Yes, along with the American Jewish Labor Council, the American Committee of Jewish writers, artists and scientists (Chelsea) Jewish Children's School, Massachusetts, Jewish Black Book Committee of Los Angeles, Jewish Peoples' Committee, Jewish Peoples' Fraternal Order and the School of Jewish Studies, New York City, the American Jewish Congress is listed as a Communist Front. Who should be surprised then at finding a Communist Front backing up a Communist?

Here are a few of the American, tolerant activities in which the American Jewish Congress figured. It was several years ago that this un-American Gestapo, upheld the ban placed on Brooklyn, New York, schools by Isaac Bildersleeve against "any" reference in dramatization, songs or otherwise to the religious significance of Christmas. It was the American Jewish Congress who promoted and backed the notorious Red fraud John Roy Carlson. It was the American Jewish Congress (Rabbi Prinz presiding) who demanded that "RED CHANNELS," perhaps the most thorough expose of the Communist element dominating radio and television ever published, be banned from the Newark, New Jersey, public schools. It was the American Jewish Congress who vigorously opposed the ban by the New York Regents of the un-moral anti-Christian and anti-Catholic Play, "The Miracle." The shoe was on the other foot then. These tolerant Jews! And so on Ad Infinitum.

Is Communism Jewish? Well, the American Jewish Congress is certainly Jewish and it is certainly Communist. The American Jewish Congress is an official Jewish body. Have you heard of one recognized Jewish organization in New Jersey that has condemned the American Jewish Congress? If not, why not? The Jews can't have it both ways. If some one will furnish us the name of one, we will be happy to print it on the front page of COMMON SENSE.

To Return to Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune:

Dr. Bethune is a negress who writes for the Daily Worker. She serves on the National Committee of the "Friends of Democracy." She is a member and an officer in the two following Communist Fronts: American Soviet Friendship and National Federation Constitutional Liberties. Dr. Bethune has been honored in 39 other instances with Communist Front citations. The most infamous part of Dr. Bethune's record is her membership in the initiating Committee of the Civil Rights Congress. The American Civil Rights Congress was fathered by the Communist Party; International Labor Defense and the notorious Communist Front "National Federation for Constitutional Liberties." The American Civil Rights Congress is a most notorious Communist Front. House Report No. 1,115, September 2nd, 1947, Committee on Un-American Activities, speaks as follows of the Civil Rights Congress:

"Having adopted a line of militant skulduggery against the United States, with the close of World War II, the Communist Party has set up the Civil Rights Congress for the purpose of protecting those of its members who run afoul of the law."

"... A maze of organizations have been spawned for the alleged purpose of defeating civil liberties in general but actually intended to protect Communist subversion from any penalties under the law." MARY McLEOD BETHUNE IS PERHAPS THE MOST NOTORIOUS NEGRO FEMALE ALIGNED WITH THE COMMUNISTS WITH WHICH THE UNITED STATES IS AFFLICTED.

Let's bring the case of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune and that of any other Red to a showdown.

WE REPEAT:

More power to the Board of Education in Englewood for their determination to protect our schools from Marxist influence. We hope they will not back down and let these Marxists influence or intimidate them in any way.

QUO VADIS

We urge those who have not seen this wonderful picture, saga of the persecution of the Early Christians, to let nothing prevent them from doing so, as our christian brothers in Communist controlled countries today are living through a similar period. If you want to know what you and your children face in this country as Christians, you will find the answer in this picture, so make arrangements to see QUO VADIS and urge your friends to do likewise.

WILL JAPAN GO COMMUNIST?

When General MacArthur took control of Japan, it was a nation of beaten, hopeless people who had anything but admiration for the United States and its military leaders.

General MacArthur brought the Japanese people hope, the use of a free ballot and free press. He secured their cooperation and their friendship and guarded them from Communism. Now that the Communists, who direct the Washington gang, have MacArthur out of the way, it becomes more apparent each month that the plan is working to push Japan into Communism as was done to China.

General Mark Clark, Jew, has been placed in charge of the phoney war in Korea and Robert Murphy named Ambassador to Japan. This is the same Robert Murphy who had been advisor to General Clay and John J. McCloy, the two Commissioners in Germany. Murphy certainly could not have held so important a position in Germany unless his services were entirely satisfactory to the Jewish directed State Department,—the same State Department that maneuvered China into Communism. Hence we must assume Murphy will help turn Japan over to Marxism.

THE RUSSIAN RAT-TRAP

pals, Stalin, Molotov and Vishinsky. He appoints all his Secretaries-General, of whom there are eight. Three of the eight are either Communists or Russian sympathizers.

Arkady A. Sobolev, next in line to Lie, is the Minister for War, Communications, and Information. All military and diplomatic affairs go to him first. Every movement of troops to Korea, or of guns and materiel, are reported to him. Sobolev is a Russian Communist, was brought up in Moscow under Stalin, and you should know what that means. I can't think of any better possible set-up for Stalin, who after all, is our real enemy in Korea. Can you?

Don't you see under what impossible odds your boys in Korea are placed? How can they win under such circumstances? This gives a ready explanation of the comic opera farces which our forces in Korea have staged at Kojé, and Panmunjom.

Perhaps it will give you an inkling of what the Top Army Brass must think of waging a Police Action under such circumstances, when they must report all their movements to Sobolev, and accept the dictation of non-military men in the United Nations, as to how the war shall be conducted, how the armistice shall be planned, and how the prison camps are conducted. And this in spite of the fact that OUR captured boys have been murdered and tortured, and that no report has ever been made of thousands who have disappeared. Beefsteaks and pie for Kojé, but bullets, knives and fire for our own boys. Maybe you can take this sort of treason. I can't, at least not quietly.

I have many friends in Congress who have sons on the firing line in Korea, and yet they support the United Nations. I appreciate their heart-break as they watch the casualty lists, and wonder if their boy shall be next. I am not sarcastic in this, but I do sometimes wonder what is the matter with their heads, for they also know what a farce the whole thing is.

You have all seen a cat playing with a mouse before it administers the final coup de grace. Well, in this instance, a once great and proud nation, the strongest militarily upon earth, representing the finest minds in the whole world, and at the very peak of governmental excellence, permits itself to be sold down the river to a bunch of nomad rats, living in their loathsome den of thieves and traitors, laughing at us, as Vishinsky said they did at Paris, as they see to what loathsome depths we have sunk into the pit of mongrelized and alien infamy. How much lower can we get before we are ready to cry with a mighty roar: "You have done enough; Now get out, OUT, OUT!"

There is so little we can do about it, except to put in a President this fall who WILL get us out of the mess, and a bunch of Congressmen who will help him to do it. There is no other way. The United Nations is a rat-trap with only a way in, but no way out, except to kick out the rats with their trap. It is YOUR JOB this Fall. Get busy on it. NOW.

At a "Union Now" luncheon Feb. 11, 1942 in New York, Frederick L. Schuman, Department of Government, Williams College, said: "The first World War was for the League of Nations. We lost it. This war is for World Government."

Testimony Before Senate Committee Brands UN As Hotbed For Traitors

CHARTER FOR UN DRAFTED BY ZIONIST UNITED NATIONS ENEMY OF AMERICAN REPUBLIC PURPOSE OF UN FRAMEWORK FOR WORLD GOVERNMENT, IS TO ABOLISH U.S.

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National

Economic Council, Inc., From Letter No. 297

A very clear appreciation of the U. N. O. is to be found in Victors Beware!—a work by Professor de Madariaga. An exile from Spain, having held office in the Moscow-sponsored Spanish Republican government, de Madariaga should be a qualified judge of Soviet tactics. He writes:

"The (UNO) Charter is in the main a translation of the Russian system into an international idiom and its adoption to an international community The overwhelming mass of Russia's political influence has weighed down the evolution of world affairs and is now taking us back to an unholy alliance of big Powers, resting upon force and very little else."

"UNO," de Madariaga tells us, "bore upon its brow from the very beginning the mark of Moscow." (Page 270)

That this should be so must appear inexplicable to all who have been deceived by the false propaganda spread about UNO. But many who have heard so much have never been told Dr. Leo Pasvolksky. "Special U.S. Assistant Secretary of State," drew up the UN Charter with the assistance of Hiss the traitor who was then in the State Dept. surrounded by Communists and homosex-

UN A MARXIST SETUP

The last few days the daily papers have been featuring information with reference to the United States being saturated with Communists. This is not news to readers of COMMON SENSE as they have been familiarized with this for the past two years obtaining their information from this fighting paper. We have republished in this issue an article which appeared in our pap-

There is danger, of course, that sooner or later Soviet Russia will attack the United States Militarily. This could be avoided its effects mitigated if the United States would give more attention to her own security and drastically reduce the scattering of her energies and savings and her irreplaceable natural resources, all over the earth.

Nevertheless, Soviet Russia means some day to have a try at us, for she believes that Capitalism and a belief in God cannot live in the same world with godless Communism.

Soviet Russia has the immense advantage of low cost production. This is due not only to her great natural resources, but to what is practically slave labor. Her military strength today is due even more to the immense quantities of materiel we have shipped her, and to the military and industrial secrets that the Roosevelt and Truman Administrations permitted her to steal from us or gave her outright.

Recently the newsmen of foreign countries, includ-

Newspapers carrying reports of Communist infiltration wouldn't dare report this in a way the public would understand that ing Iron Curtain countries, were invited aboard U. S. permitted to make notes, take photographs, and other warships, to the consternation of naval authorities, and wise observe our most secret devices. Such incidents happen when the policy of the State Department is to fraternize with all other nations, even to an extent, with Soviet Russia which is fighting us in Korea.

Greatest Danger is From Within

But the greatest danger to America is not from without, but from within. It's right here at home. The clever, far-seeing Communists would rather not destroy our cities. Wouldn't anybody prefer to come into possession of something valuable, intact and undamaged?

And the greatest factor in this danger here is the existence in our midst of the United Nations. Based as it is upon theories of collectivism, it is itself a funnel through which Communists come freely into the United States. On June 16, 1948, Robert C. Alexander of the State Department testified under oath to this effect.

We believe the infiltration and subsequent taking over of the United States was the real purpose of those who thought up the UN. It was not for nothing that Alger Hiss (long since in prison for lying about his Communist activities) and Harry D. White, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury (who died suddenly and mysteriously in 1949 while evidence of his Communist connections was coming out), were among the leaders in the drafting of the United Nations Charter and in piloting it through the San Francisco Conference in 1945.

The danger of locating the UN on the East Coast, and especially near New York, was officially condemned, according to the New York Sunday Mirror of March 24, 1946, by the Army and Navy Intelligence and the FBI as a definite threat to national security. This dispatch said in part that "if war should come, it was pointed out, enemy spies and saboteurs could find asylum within the internationalist borders of UN."

It is not surprising therefore that a UP dispatch from Salt Lake City October 8, quoted Senator Pat McCarran, Chairman of the Senate Internal Security Committee, as saying investigation would commence October 13 "of the American members of the United Nations for subversive activities."

"United Nations Day"

October 24 has become "United Nations Day." The Chairman of the "National Citizens Committee for United Nations Day" has said that "the UN Day Committee was set up by the U. S. government in 1948 in response to a General Assembly Resolution." Apparently it was set up by the State Department—not by the Congress. In the last few years a great ballyhoo has taken place every Fall in celebration of United Nations Day—a ballyhoo greater than in the celebration of even our own Independence Day! We will say something about this United Nations Day Committee later on in this Letter.

United Nations Day is a synthetic affair. There is nothing spontaneous about it. Among the names of its promoters we find a heavy sprinkling of those who were most active in 1940 and 1941 in trying to get the United States into World War II.

We have before us a 12-page pamphlet put out by the National Citizens' Committee for United Nations Day. It is entitled "Leaders Guide for Individual and Community Action." On page 3 is "A Message from the National Chairman, Frank L. Weil," in which we read:

"The Committee's concept of its objective is that such observances (of United Nations Day) are a means to an end, and that the end is increasing knowledge about and understanding of the United Nations by the American public."

We have not detected anything in the United States, excepting in the State Department and here and there about the country among a scattering of "liberals," the slightest emotional feeling in favor of the UN. Efforts have been made to persuade people to fly the UN flag. Yet in all midtown Manhattan, (and we get about quite a good deal) we know of only two buildings that fly it. But on any patriotic occasion, and frequently when there is no patriotic occasion, there are countless places where one sees the American flag.

While we have traveled in eight or nine European countries a good many times since the UN was formed, we have yet to see a UN flag on display. We casually asked a younger member of the British Parliament two or three years ago what Britain would do if the UN told Britain to take a certain course which Britain did not think to be in her interest. He calmly replied, "We would tell the UN to go to hell." Of course they would. And so would any other self-respecting nation.

There is not only no confidence in the UN among the people of other countries, outside, of course, of a few enthusiasts in and out of official circles—there is not even any interest in it. Britain is going to decide—in fact seems already to have decided—not to take any part in collective security for the Continent of Europe. According to the New York Herald Tribune of October 8 the French Government had "decided to fight with every weapon at its disposal any interference by the United Nations in the Tunisian and Moroccan questions."

The Real Purpose

Anyone who has ordered Christmas cards and has not received them please notify the office of Common Sense and the boxes requested.

Of the UN

Now, as said above, it will be through the United Nations and its ever more complicated subdivisions that the United States will be taken over, if it is to happen. And that, we repeat, is precisely what it was designed to do.

We told in Letter 295 of the "seizure" of cities in 1951 and 1952, and the feigned declaring of martial law, notably in eight small California cities. In every one of those cities the officer commanding the troops and issuing "proclamations," announced he was acting for the United Nations.

A casual visitor to the strange United Nations Building, constructed without regard to cost, on the East River shore of Manhattan, will probably observe nothing but sweetness and light. We sat in recently at a meeting of a sub-committee of the Economic and Social Council. It was late in starting, and as the perhaps 200 visitors gathered, a personable young woman representing, we found afterwards, the American Association for the United Nations, glibly answered all questions. She explained that the sub-committee merely made a report to the Economic and Social Council on the question before it; and the question it had been debating for the past two or three weeks had to do with racial discrimination in various countries. One man pressed his question as to what action the Economic and Social Council would take. The young woman explained that it would take none because the UN has no power. "Public opinion must handle it then."

But her reply was disingenuous. For the UN has power—power for unlimited mischief; and if she did not know that, she was deceiving herself. In addition to some useful work that the UN has done, such as in collecting and disseminating statistics, it has exercised very great power—just as it was meant to do.

UN's Wars

For instance, it fomented a bitter and savage war in Palestine. On November 29, 1947, the Assembly of the UN adopted a resolution recommending the partition of Palestine. Drew Pearson, in his column of December 3, 1947, said that President Truman had "cracked down harder on his State Department than ever before to swing UN votes for the partition of Palestine."

This "recommendation" was seized upon by the Zionists, who were able, through their influence with the press and with other means of communication, to represent to the American people that the recommendation was really a binding decision of the UN.

As a result, the Zionists invaded Palestine and drove out roughly a million Arabs, many of them Christians and the ancestors of most of whom had lived in Palestine for a thousand years or more. Most of these are still homeless and living in refugee camps. Few acts in history have been as heartless. Few are likely to be so costly to the United States. And it was a UN accomplishment.

By this war the Arabs, whose goodwill towards the United States had been established over a hundred years by missionaries, educators and businessmen, became, and have remained, exceedingly hostile to the United States who, they feel, was, through the UN, the prime factor in the partition of Palestine.

And not only are the Arabs alienated from us, but the entire Moslem world, numbering as high as 300 million people, has become predisposed against us.

Then the UN, under the prodding of President Truman, precipitated the war in Korea, which has become a graveyard of nearly 20,000 Americans. And the end is not yet. In fact, the State Department, as at present set up, seems to contemplate a ten-year war. Since we are losing from 8 to 10 thousand in killed each year (the casualty report in The New York Times of October 9 listed 137 dead for the week—about 20 per day)—in addition to other casualties, a little arithmetic will show us what the cost will be to American youth in the future. American mothers and fathers ought to take quite an interest in this particular UN achievement.

Recently it was announced that the UN will rebuild Korea. If the American share is comparable with her share of the killed and wounded, American taxpayers may well hold their hats.

The United Nations clearly will bring us, not collective security, but collective insecurity. That insecurity will continue, till American, exhausted, is taken over by a world government. Their own security will then become like security in Russia today—or in any American prison.

The "Peace" Organization

Dangerous as is this "peace" organization to the real peace of the world, its even greater danger lies in its attempt hopelessly to involve the United States in the affairs and hostilities of all other nations. The UN is the spearhead of Socialism and Communism.

A striking thing about the UN is that our own State Department is 100 per cent back of it. What shall we think of a government, the leading department of which is out to promote an organization whose aim is the overthrow of that government?

We have before us a pamphlet entitled "Teaching about The United Nations in the Schools and Colleges of the United States." It is published by the Department of the State, and if you will send 10 cents to the U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., you will receive a copy. It is Department of State Publication 4849, International Organization and Conference Series III, 681.

This pamphlet discloses the tremendous effort, and indicates the amount of your money, spent by the State Department in propagandizing the United Nations in the schools, colleges and universities of the country.

DEMOCRACY! DEMOCRACY!
THE CLOAK FOR HYPOCRISY

We read, on page 28, under "CONCLUSION" in part as follows:

"Looking back over the past 2 years, we have seen a steady growing concern to expand and improve education for international understanding, and specifically teaching about the United Nations, at all levels from pre-kindergarten through college and university to the general adult population, throughout the United States." (italics ours)

The writer of this does not say where "we" have seen this "steady growing concern." In our opinion there has been no concern whatever about it on the part of the people. It is just eyewash—subtle propaganda by the State Department. But multitudes of people are deceived.

"Winning the Peace"

We live in an age of slogans. One of the commonest is the talk about "winning the peace." Paul G. Hoffman wrote a book a year and a half ago entitled "Peace Can Be Won."

Until these last 30 years we have never seen this phrase. We usually think of winning wars—not winning peace. Peace is merely a matter of a return to a Christian, friendly, charitable attitude toward other nations. That was the attitude adopted at the Congress of Vienna in 1815, and the general peace made there lasted in Europe nearly 100 years.

"Winning the peace" is sheer camouflage, a smoke-screen for other more subtle activities. All peoples want peace. Only scheming politicians, unwilling to do their task the simple, natural way, stir up wars.

High Pressure Promotion

A chief factor in promoting the UN is the American Association for the United Nations. That organization in each of the last few years has appointed a "Business and Industry Committee for United Nations Week and Day."

In preparation for their campaign for 1951, a communication was sent to a large list of businessmen throughout the United States asking each to contribute $100 toward the expenses of the Committee, and to lend his name as a member. About 900 fell for the appeal, or at least their names were published by the Association.

We wrote last year to all the men on this Committee, mentioning their listed membership and sending a copy of Council Letter 276 entitled "The Menace of the U.U.—The Road to Socialism and Communism." We asked each for his comment on this Letter.

Some replied they had contributed to the fund but had not authorized membership on the Committee.

A large manufacturer wrote, "Let me add that your Council Letter 276 dated December 1, 1951, seems to the writer to be quite an accurate picture of the United Nations and its effect on this country."

A prominent Californian said, "I feel they (the UN) are a complete failure, and I will probably withdraw my support and ask them to take my name off the Business and Industry Committee."

The President of a large Chicago concern said, "I have read Council Letter 276 with considerable interest and can find no fault with the conclusions arrived at. I feel that the sooner we can get rid of this 'super' government the better it will be for the administration."

A Minnesota manufacturer said, "I am not in favor of the United Nations, at least as it is drawn up, and I question the possibility of it ever working. We as usual will be the goats and the American people will be the losers."

One Pacific Coast manufacturer said, "Two years ago or so I permitted my name to be used as sponsor of United Nations Week, as I recall. But when approached this year I definitely declined."

Yet the names of all these men and many more who expressed similar views were used by the Association to propagandize the American people.

It is apparent from our correspondence that many of the persons listed by the American Association for the United Nations as members of the Committee to promote "United Nations Week and Day" are half-hearted in their interest; joined only because they saw some big names on the list; had become convinced to a greater or less extent that the UN boded no good for the United States, or had actually forbidden their names to be used. In other words, high pressure promotion was a great factor in ballyhooing the UN.

Trygve Lie, Secretary of the U.N., smiles amiably while talking to Zionist Ernest A. Gross, Jew, U.S. Representative. As Norway's Minister of Justice in 1936, Lie performed a great service for Stalin: he was instrumental in deporting Stalin's arch-enemy, Leon Trotsky, from Norway.

Trotsky, one of the founders of the Communist International, in 1937 referred to Lie as "the Minister of Justice who is a member of the Communist International." As Secretary-General, Trygve Lie is authorized to select all U.N. employees.

MARXIST JEWS RUN UNITED NATIONS

(Editor's note:

The following article appeared in COMMON SENSE, issue No. 146, September 1, 1951. Note that more than a year ago COMMON SENSE published the name of David Zablodowsky, Director of Publications, as an enemy to America. This article is republished now so that thousands of new readers may be informed and learn that the United Nations, like the League of Nations is a Jewish creation just as is Communism to bring about slavery of Christians who do not cooperate in their Talmudic plan.)

The Jewish plan for world conquest and for ruling the entire world is now well underway. There is every likelihood that the future "World Government" will be the organization presently known as the United Nations. Already the world has been divided into two concentrations of power—one controlled by the Jews of Moscow under the Jewish Seal of Solomon (Five pointed Star) and the other by American Jewry of Wall Street under the U. N. O. banner of pale blue and white, the same blue and white used for the Israeli flag.

The arch hypocrite of all times, Bernard Baruch, Dictator of the U. N. Atomic Commission, has called for economic conscription in the United States which will mean further and even tighter concentrations of economic power into the hands of American Wall Street Jewry. The internationalization of raw materials, the European Army, the European Parliament at Strasbourg, the Schuman Plan (originated by the Jew, David LILIENTHAL, not—of course—by the French Foreign Minister Mr. Schuman) all tend to weld together the non-Communist world more firmly in the clutch of American Jewry.

All that is now required is for the two giant power mechanisms, one operated by American Jewry under the pale blue and white Israeli colors, and the other by the Moscow Jewry under the five pointed star, to merge into one giant "Super State."

It is reported that the target date is 1955—hence the "World Government by 1955" Movement. If the five pointed star of the Soviet block be added to the pale blue and white U. N. O. flag by, say, 1955 all that will then be required for the "World Flag" to be identical with that of the new State of Israel will be to add one point, i.e., change it to the six pointed Star of David.

Plans call for giving to the U. N. O. all atom, hydrogen bombs—armies—navies—air forces, for they are "too dangerous to be left in the control of any power or group of powers." Ultimately the U. N. O. Army and atom bomb force, operating from Jerusalem, will be used to stamp out any Gentile revolt. The Jewish U. N. O. will be supreme and anything which can be interpreted as "anti-Semitism" (U. N. O. Genocide Convention, drafted by the Polish Jew Professor Raphael Lemkin, now on the staff of Yale University will cover the "crime") will be punishable by prison or death.

Because the rule of the U. S. S. R., as outlined in COMMON SENSE'S issue No. 143 which listed Jews in key spots in Communist countries, so neatly interlocks with the United Nations Organization, a partial listing of Jews in the U. N. O. is now being published.

FROM MAJOR JORDAN'S DIARIES

Major Racey Jordan Ret.-has done an excellent job in writing his diaries of the great Russian Lend Lease swindle. As an expeditor, Major Jordan forwarded almost 10 billion dollars worth of planes, guns, ammunition, machinery, supplies, Atom bomb ingredients, etc. from American bases to Russia. As these preciously needed supplies were being sent to Russia our U.S. forces lacked the necessary means of fighting the war.

Major Jordan calls his book "The Greatest Catalogue in History". The list which he made of the items going to Russia includes everything from Atom bomb chemicals to dolls: from engineering material to lipstick: from manganese to antique furniture. There was even an order for one curved tobacco pipe. (Most likely for pal Joey).

Every American who wishes to know how the traitors in high places have given our resources and top secrets to Communist Soviet Union should read Major Jordan's Diaries. Price $3.50 Order from COMMON SENSE.

MULLINS ON THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM, COMPILED BY EUSTACE ...MULLINS WHILE ON THE STAFF, ...OF THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS.

"Mullins on the Federal Reserve" tells us how International Jewish bankers gained control of our monetary system by electing Marrano Jew Woodrow Wilson (Wolfson) President of the United States, to sign the Federal Reserve Act on Dec. 23, 1913. Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb Co., wrote the Act, with Baron Alfred de Rothschild of London helping him.

This book compiled from hitherto suppressed Congressional reports and archives, tells how three Jews, Bernard Baruch, Eugene Meyer, and Paul Warburg, ruled the United States during the First World War, while Warburg's brother, Max Warburg, was head of the German Secret Service and personal banker to the Kaiser. Price $2.00. Order from COMMON SENSE.

CHARTER FOR UN DRAFTED BY ZIONIST

uals. Concerning Pasvolovsky, a Russian-born Jew who has become one of the leading advisors of the U. S. government, the Chicago Daily Tribune stated:

"Leo Pasvolovsky, Russian-born ardent internationalist, knows more about the new League of Nations to preserve peace than any other person in the world. That's because he wrote the first draft of the charter of the world peace league and attended its revision and amplification all the way from the first day of the Dunbarton Oaks Conference to the last day of the San Francisco Conference. He bids for fame as the father of the Charter. . . President Truman has appointed Stettinius the United States Representative in the world peace league. And Pasvolovsky is to go right with Stettinius to the capital of the league, when it is selected, to guide the American delegate through the maze of the Charter and provide him with the answers to the questions that will arise. For Pasvolovsky knows all the answers, can give them before the questions are asked. . . He was brought into the department as an economist . . . and successively advanced to the highest rank outside of those positions filled by Presidential appointment subject to Senate confirmation. Pasvolovsky, now a naturalized American citizen, was born in Pavlograd, Russia, 1893, and came to this country with his parents in 1905. . . He has published several works on Russia including the 'Economics of Communism.'"

THE ELECTION

At least the people have awakened. The New Deal received a blow in the solarplexus. Our Lord has seen fit, to give America a little more time. This was not a 100 per cent victory against Marxism, but it is very encouraging to those of us who have been fighting like COMMON SENSE for seven years exposing the Un-American pro-Communist, anti-Christian plan of the masterminds of the New Deal which were calculated to confuse and bankrupt this country.

The big percentage of the vote for the Republican party was not a vote for Eisenhower, but a vote against the corrupt Marxist New Deal. The same powerful Zionist International group which has been in complete control of the New Deal for twenty years also has used Eisenhower to do an important part in this plan to break down European countries for communism and used our State and Treasury Departments to pay thousands of communist government employees who have been spending most of their time in building up communism. We have very little confidence in Eisenhower personally as he stands for a number of dangerous movements the same as Stevenson does, but it can not be denied that this election will upset the Marxist in this country. They will now try to align themselves with this new administration and work in so as to carry on their plan for Jewish control. Millions of Americans will be watching Eisenhower who will be under terrific pressure from evil forces for which Thomas Dewey, John Foster Dulles, H. Cabot Lodge, Wayne Morse and Harold Stassen are fronting. Informed Americans will support Senators Joseph McCarthy, William E. Jenner, Everett M. Dirksen, Pat McCarran, John W. Bricker and George Malone as the pro-American forces in this new administration. Real Americans have had enough of the New Deal and will not tolerate the New Deal under a Republican administration.

COMMON SENSE is opposed to World Government; the U.N.; the United World Federalists; Americans for Democratic Action; FEPC and NATO and supports the McCarran-Walters Immigration Bill; advocates the outlawing of communism, and the firing of Dean Acheson and Anna Rosenberg.

Few people realize that officeholders in the U. S. are not free to do what they think is best for our country. The U. S. is run by pressure groups which have formed blocks of voters, and this is held over the heads of politicians. Pressure groups use publications, arrange lavish dinners, present plaques and feature speakers to popularize those who carry out their plan. To defeat these evil pressure groups, there must be an awakened patriotic citizenry organized under trustworthy leaders who understand the enemy and have the courage to back the enemy down. Is this country worth saving? The enemy is organized and financed. Millions of Americans have been awakened during the last few years. Let's double that number and organize to fight for freedom.

the United Nations is a Jewish setup. Should any of these papers even mention the word Jew in this connection, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (Invisible Government) would have a committee at the Editor's office the same day and the Editor would get on his knees, if necessary, to prevent the withdrawal of all Jewish advertising. This would mean practically all his advertising as the Jews now control almost all of the merchandising establishments which advertise. We are presenting some facts to the reader so that he may see when this Communist jigsaw puzzle is put together, it spells Jewnited Nations.

The United Nations Charter was written by Leo Pasvolovsky, a Russian born Jew with the assistance of Alger Hiss, the 1952 Benedict Arnold.

Trygve Lie, Stalin's personal choice as head of U.N. is a gentile (who they think can be trusted). The gentile is almost always used as a window dressing.

Benjamin Cohen, a Jew from Chile, is just under Lie, and his job is to see that Lie follows the Jew plan.

Ernest A. Gross, Jew, is U.S. Representative.

Pick up your papers of the last few days and read where David Zablodowsky, also a Jew and head of publications, is tagged as a Communist by Whittaker Chambers, and he ties Zablodowsky up with Donald L. Robinson and his wife Ruth, who were important underground operators. Robin-

Isador Boorstein and Carol Weiss King Top Communist Lawyer, Both Jews

son's right name is Rubens

In the midst of all these communist exposures in the United Nations appears the name of J. Peters, alias Alexander Stevens who for twelve years was boss of the Communists who operated underground in the United States. The papers wouldn't dare publish his correct name, Isador Boorstein, as the Anti-Defamation League would promptly pay a visit to the editors.

Isador Boorstein, after directing Communist espionage for twelve years in the United States, was allowed to deport himself with all the information he had gathered same as Gehardt Eisler, Jew. Eisler was Moscow's director from the U. S. and was assisted in escaping on the Polish Communist ship Battery. He is now Director of Propaganda for East Germany.

Of the 2,000 U. S. employees in the U. N., we would estimate at least 85 per cent of all but janitors are Marxists. The U. S. Senators have no authority to investigate employees from other countries employed in the U. N. However, our estimate of Communists among them would be 100 per cent. If the United States was not hopelessly ruled by Jews, all of these foreign spies would be put on ships and sent home.

Many employed citizens of the United States have refused to state whether or not they are Communists. The Senators who are active in removing this nest of spies are Senator O'Connor of Maryland, Senator James Eastland of Mississippi, Senator Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin and Congressman John Wood of North Dakota. These patriotic lawmakers deserve our courageous support as they will be smeared.

Let's get the U. S. out of the U. N. and the U. N. out of the U. S.

A RABBI SPEAKS! FORETELLS GENTILE DOOM

END OF WHITE RACE PLANNED WITH MONGRELIZATION, END OF CHRISTIANITY DECREED

By RABBI EMANUEL RABINOVICH — REPUBLISHED BY REQUEST

The following is a speech of Rabbi Emanuel Rabinovich before a special meeting of the Emergency Council of European Rabbis in Budapest, Hungary, January 12, 1952:

"Greetings, My children! You have been called here to recapitulate the principal steps of our new program. As you know, we had hoped to have twenty years between wars to consolidate the great gains which we made from World War II. But our American friends have decided that we must now move with every means at our disposal to precipitate World War III within five years.

The goal for which we have striven so concertedly for three thousand years is at last within our reach, and because its fulfillment is so apparent, it behooves us to increase our efforts and our caution tenfold. I can safely promise you that before ten years have passed, our race will take its rightful place in the world, with every Jew a King and every Gentile a slave! (applause from the gathering). You remember the success of our propaganda campaign during the 1930's, which aroused anti-American passions in Germany at the same time we were arousing anti-German passions in America, a campaign which culminated in the Second World War. A similar propaganda campaign is now being waged intensively throughout the world. A war fever is being worked up in Russia by an incessant anti-American barrage, while a nation wide anti-Communist scare is sweeping America. This campaign is forcing all of the smaller nations to choose between the partnership of Russia or an alliance with the United States.

Our most pressing problem at the moment is to inflame the lagging militaristic spirit of the Americans. (The failure of the Universal Military Training Act was a great setback to our plans, but we are assured that a suitable measure will be rushed through Congress immediately after the 1952 elections). The Russian, as well as the Asiatic peoples, are well under control, and offer no objections to war, but we must wait to secure the Americans. This we hope to do with the issue of anti-Semitism, which worked so well in uniting the Americans against Germany.

(We are counting heavily on reports of anti-Semitic outrages in Russia to whip up indignation in the United States and produce a front of solidarity against the Soviet power. Simultaneously, to demonstrate to Americans the reality of anti-Semitism, we will advance through new sources large sums of money to outspokenly anti-Semitic elements in America to increase their effectiveness, and we shall stage anti-Semitic outbreaks in several of their largest cities. This will serve the double purpose of exposing reactionary sectors in America, which then can be silenced, and of widening the rift between the American people and their government.)

Within five years, this program will achieve its objective, the Third World War, which will assure us domination and permanent control. Issues, of course, will remain neutral, and when both sides are devastated and exhausted, we will arbitrate, sending our Control Commission into all of the wrecked countries. This war will end for all time our struggle against the Gentiles. We will openly reveal our identity with the races of Asia and Africa. I can state with assurance that the last generation of white children is now being born. Our Control Commissions will, in the interests of peace and wiping out inter-racial tensions, forbid the whites to mate with whites. The white women must cohabit with members of the dark races, and the white men with black women. Thus the white race will disappear, for mixing the dark with the white means the end of the white man, and our most dangerous enemy will become only a memory. We shall embark upon an era of ten thousand years of peace and plenty, the Pax Judaica, and our race will rule undisputed over the earth. Our superior intelligence will easily enable us to retain mastery over a world of dark peoples.

(Question from gathering): 'Rabbi Rabinovich, what about the various religions after the Third World War?'

No More Religions

RABINOVICH: There will be no more religions. Not only would the existence of a priest class remain a constant danger to our rule, but belief in an after-life would give spiritual strength to irreconcilable elements in many countries, and enable them to resist us. We will, however, retain the rituals and customs of Judaism as the mark of our hereditary ruling caste, strengthening our racial laws so that no Jew will be allowed to marry outside our race, nor will any stranger be accepted by us.

Will Sacrifice Their Own People

We may have to repeat the grim days of World War II when we were forced to let the Hitlerite bandits sacrifice some of our people, in order that we may have adequate documentation and witnesses to legally justify our trial and execution of the leaders of America and Russia as war criminals. These men have dictated the peace, and we must now prepare for the next phase of our plan.

Within five years, our people, and the Gentiles, will exchange Jews in exchange for world leadership at a small price to each.

To convince you of the certainty of that leadership, let me point out to you how we have turned all of the inventions of the white man into weapons against him. His printing presses and radios are the mouth pieces of our desires, and his heavy industry manufactures the instruments which he sends out to arm Asia and Africa against him. Our interests in Washington are greatly extending the Point Four program for developing industry in backward areas of the world so that after the industrial plants and cities of Europe and America are destroyed by atomic warfare, the whites can offer no resistance against the larger masses of the dark races, who will maintain an unchallenged technological superiority.

And so, with the vision of world victory before you, go back to your countries and intensify your good work, until that approaching day when Israel will reveal herself in all her glorious destiny as the Light of the World."

(This transcription of Rabinovich's speech was given me by a former Bulgarian diplomat who broke with the Communist regime and reached Budapest, Hungary, where he hid out with anti-Communist friends until March. While there, he obtained a copy of this speech, and was then smuggled to Hamburg, Germany, finally making his way to this country. A gentleman in Hamburg gave him my name, and he met me and urged me to distribute this speech at once. I sincerely hope that it will give the American people a better picture of the force arrayed against them.)

BROTHERHOOD

"The best among the Gentiles deserves to be killed" (Ex. 273). The 100 and 125 "benedictions" of the Shemaiah Kereh, recited three daily by the Orthodox, curse the Christians ("talmud") to hell (Ex. 252, 266 continued, 284).

JESUS

The Balaam passages refer to Jesus, as cited by Ex. 275: "the pensioner Balaam given to Jesus in Sanhedrin 106b and Gittin 57a. 'The Sanhedrin passage, from 106b, appears in Ex. 106-11 and Gittin 57a, Ex. 178-80. Every foul charge is made. DAY. Christ is given four 'heavily' (Ex. 274, 114) then crucified as a 'blasphemer' (Exh. 51, 276). His trial by the Sanhedrin, Ex. 56, 73-6, 276. He is also charged with being a bastard, poisoner, seducer, guilty of bestiality with animals, a fool, sorcerer and idolater. His mother a harlot and adulteress. In general, He is portrayed as a 'Balaam' enticing people to commit the sex abominations of Baal worship (Ex. 274-80, of the Jewish Encyclopedia, summarize these charges. For His whore house, see Ex. 112.

The method of strangling Him is "dug up to his armpits" (Ex. 53) of burning Him in "dug up to his armpits" (Ex. 52, 53; note, Ex. 151); of stoning Him to death (Ex. 45, 48, 50). Under false names, the Apostles are executed (Ex. 47), the real names given (Ex. 277). He is crucified (Ex. 51, 276). In the Gittin 57a passage, referred to above and described in part by Ex. 278, Christians are all in Hell where "boiling semen" on Christ (Ex. 201-2). The obscene teaching attributed to Him is that the "fure of a harlot" may be used to build a prayer for the High Priest, and that even talking to a Christian is like going to a harlot's house (Ex. 177-8). If a woman's smallest sin is incest, then her greatest sin must be Christianity. "The party of incest or of visiting all the harlots in the world, like Rabbi Dordia, is allowed to live in peace, but never one guilty of 'talmud' (Ex. 178-80). Christians are 'idolaters'. Actual idolatry such as Baal worship, however, is not 'moral depravity' (Ex. 294, 61). Burning children to the demon Molech—all of them—is permitted despite the terrific exhortations of this ancient crime by the Bible: Lev. 18:21; 20:2-5; II Ki. 23:10; II Chron. 33:6; Isa. 57:5; Jer. 32:35; Eze. 16:20-2, 36.

"PURITY"

A mother's incestuous relations with her son do not blemish her purity, if his age is right (Ex. 82), nor does bestiality mar her virtue (Ex. 157-8); sex relations with small boys is sanctioned (Ex. 185). The general law is that a baby girl is "sexually mature" at 3 years and 1 day, a boy at 9 years and 1 day. With children under these ages anything is permitted and the adult held blameless. Sodomy with children: "no guilt is incurred...for the adult" (Ex. 54). Grown men may rape babies under 3 and marry them at 1 day over 3: Ex. 54-5, 81, 133-35-36, 156-59-60, 189. Killing, or committing sodomy with, and incurably sick person, "terefah", sodomy with a dead body or incest with a dead woman is authorized (Ex. 83-9, 163).

"BROTHERHOOD"

Rev. Carson is welcome to his cherished "bond of BROTHERHOOD" with those whose supreme religious authority is the BABYLONIAN TALMUD. St. Paul said: "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you" (II Cor. 6:17). Judaism's "reprobate mind" is like the dog "turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to its wallowing in the mire" (II Peter 2:22).

RABBI VERIFIES TALMUD

Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer in the article "WHAT IS A JEW?" in Look Magazine issue dated June 17th, 1952, stated the following:

The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical and historical writings of the ancient rabbis. It is the legal code which forms the basis of Jewish religious law and it is the textbook used in the training of rabbis.

R-U-A REGISTERED VOTER?

Unless you are a registered voter and unless you cast your vote on election day, you must write yourself down as a bad citizen.

To be free to vote as you will and express your own opinion of candidates and measures is a privilege enjoyed by few people of the world.

The citizens of many nations are denied the right to vote, or, if they are permitted to vote, are compelled to vote as directed by a dictator.

Here in the United States we are not only free to vote but we are urged to vote.

The governments we have in city, county, state and nation are our own creations. They are what they are because of what we do with our votes.

This nation will be what you want it to be only if you vote.

The coming November election is one of the most important in the long history of our nation. Line up with the voters—the only true citizens of the country.

By George Thomas Adams

On January 29th, 1922, the General Staff of the Norwegian Intelligence Service wrote an official report to the then Norwegian Minister of Justice with the following revelations, which were the result of months of painstaking counterespionage work by their agents;

"1. The Norwegian Labor Party and the Soviet Union had signed a secret and binding agreement.

2. The Norwegian Labor Party placed itself at the disposal of a foreign power by unconditionally pledging to obey any order issued by the Politburo from Moscow. Thus, the Norwegian Labor Party and its members could henceforth be considered only as Soviet spies and Communist revolutionaries.

3. This agreement called for the establishment of an independent Soviet Republic in the Northern region of Norway, similar to the People's Republic of North Korea. This independent republic, of course, would be governed by Soviet Commissars who would not be responsible to the Norwegian inhabitants, but only to Moscow.

4. The Soviet Union officially pledged itself to support the Norwegian Labor Party with financial, political, and military aid. This aid was to be focused in the preparations for a Communist revolution and bloodbath in Norway."

Subsequent to this agreement, the Norwegian Labor Party organized an armed force of 11,600 men, equipped with the latest weapons and highly-trained in the newest techniques of sabotage and revolution. Five thousand of these men were stationed in Oslo, the capital of Norway, 3,000 were stationed in Akerhus County, 2,000 men were in Trondhjem and the remaining 1,600 revolutionaries in Bergen.

This revolutionary army had unlimited funds placed at its disposal for its military operations. The money came from the same international Jewish bankers who sent Trotsky and Lenin across a war-torn world in 1917 to precipitate the wholesale slaughter of Russian Gentiles. The money for the Norwegian Labor Party's task force came from the Nya Banken in Stockholm, via Mr. Ashberg, the banking expert from Moscow who met Paul Warburg in Stockholm in July of 1917 to receive the funds

Time To Speak Plain

By Merwin K. Hart,

From Council Letter No. 300
President, National Economic Council

In the fall of 1928 several Americans were preparing to launch what later became the New York State Economic Council, now the National Economic Council, Inc.

At a dinner meeting at the Harvard Club in New York, attended by 15 or 18 business men, the plan for a state-wide organization was presented by me as the dinner host.

The purpose was to keep down public spending and taxes, and to discourage government regimentation of individuals and their business enterprises.

Immediately the plan had been outlined, Mr. Louis Marshall, distinguished Jewish lawyer, jumped to his feet and in an impassioned manner denounced the whole idea. One other prominent Jew joined in the denouncing.

The other guests, taken by surprise at the intensity of the attack, withheld the organizing resolutions which had been prepared, and the meeting broke up with nothing accomplished. It took another meeting a few months later, to which these two gentlemen were not invited, to launch the organization.

All of us wondered at the time why these two opposed it. When Robert Marshall, son of Louis Marshall, died some years ago, he left his entire fortune to a foundation much of whose income has since aided Communist causes.

Robert H. Best, Patriot, Dies

Robert H. Best, a patriot and courageous, sterling American, died Tuesday, Dec. 16th, in the Federal Prison at Springfield, Missouri.

Mr. Best was known as a traitor by his enemies and the enemies of free America. He was known as a Paul Revere, a true Christian American by informed citizens who believe in America first, not last.

For twenty years Robert Best was United Press representative in Europe. John Gunther and William Shirer, Jewish journalists, were trained under Mr. Best in London. When the Jews instituted their world-wide propaganda for war on Germany in order to stop that nation in its campaign to free Europe of communism, Mr. Best, as one of the best informed Americans in Europe, named F. D. R. and the Jews as the principal forces in pushing the United States into war. This statement has been made by the editor of COMMON SENSE many times and this is now known and openly stated by all who are informed. But for these statements, Mr. Best and Mr. Douglas Chandler, both top journalists, incurred the wrath of the Jews who have had complete control of our Justice Department under the New Deal.

Mr. Best's life savings, consisting of twenty thousand dollars, as well as Douglas Chandler's savings, were confiscated. Both men were returned to this country; a farce of a trial was held in Boston and both sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mr. Best, having no funds, was assigned a Jew attorney by the New Deal Judge and it took ten months of constant protest to have a new attorney assigned to him. This new attorney offered a half-hearted defense.

The Jewish-ruled Justice Department, with unlimited funds, brought fifty-two witnesses from Germany to testify against him. They were brought by airplane and some of them were kept waiting for a year at the best hotels. In addition to having their hotel bills paid, they received afterwards toward Germany is at last apparent. Part of the purpose of the Morgenthau Plan (that scheme to reduce Germany to a pastoral level, thereby rendering impotent the only force that could have served as a barrier between Communism and Western Europe) was to wreck vengeance on Germany for atrocities committed by the Hitler regime against Jews. This fury is understandable, although the cruelty that had been shown Jews was fully matched by that perpetrated on Gentiles. Whatever its motive the scheme has worked to strengthen Soviet Russia and to weaken the West. The Morgenthau Plan was inspired by Communist agencies, and likewise by prominent Jews.

The so-called October revolution in Russia in 1917 whereby Kerensky was thrown out and the Bolshevik government set up, was essentially a Jewish movement. A large part of its leaders were Jews of different countries. Some of them included New York Jews such as Trotsky. It has been widely stated, and we have not seen it denied that the revolution was financed heavily by certain New York Jewish bankers.

The Soviet Government throughout the 35 years of its existence has generally been favorable toward Jews. They were not only prominent in Soviet Russia proper, but in many cases, as that of Ana Pauker, the Soviet leader in Roumania, they were prominent in the satellite countries. At the present moment the Soviet purpose is served by persecuting Jews, particularly in Czechoslovakia; but the "line" could quickly change.

Roosevelt Aid to Stalin Throughout World War II

When Hitler turned on his supposed ally, Soviet Russia, in June 1941, President Roosevelt, even though he had been maligned by American Communists, immediately went all out to aid Soviet Russia. He sent Harry Hopkins to Moscow to beg Stalin to permit the United States to send him unlimited "lend-lease" supplies. And before lend-lease expired in 1945, 11 billion dollars of material had been sent him. Nothing was asked of Soviet Russia in return. Never in history has the head of a great country been so precipitate in giving away the best of everything his country produced.

Major George Racey Jordan, lend-lease expeditor at the Great Falls, Montana air base, tells in his book From Major Jordan's Diaries, how, under Roosevelt's orders, materials were surreptitiously shipped out by plane: two large consignments of uranium chemicals, weighing many hundred pounds; literally tons of blueprints; vital secrets almost without limit! Soviet Russia was in fact given preference even above our own American troops on the firing line.

Why did Roosevelt do this?

Main Fleet to Singapore

Captain Russell Grenfell, R.N., Retired, distinguished British author and naval critic, published last January Main Fleet to Singapore. This book should be interesting reading to any American. It was brought out in America by Macmillan, though we first saw an English edition.

Captain Grenfell sketches the history of Britain's activities in the Far East from 1918 to the beginning of the Second World War. He then relates in detail (and this is his real subject) the attempt to defend Singapore and the loss of that British Far East stronghold in 1942. He states in substance that for many years the settled policy of the British Admiralty, in event of general war, was to base the main British fleet on Singapore. Singapore was fortified only against attack from the sea. It seems never to have occurred to the Admiralty that attack might come, as it did, from the North.

After Pearl Harbor, and as the Japanese were making their way down the Malayan Peninsula, Captain Grenfell tells how the long-standing defense plan of the British fell through completely. First, the commanding officer at Singapore was notified that only a minor fleet could be sent. Eventually only two major ships, the Prince of Wales and the Repulse, arrived. The Singapore commander called for 556 planes. The British government replied that 336 would be sufficient. But even at the high point Singapore had only 141 planes, many of them obsolete. So Japanese planes quickly sank both British battleships, and a few days later Singapore fell.

Captain Grenfell's inquest on the Singapore disaster discloses that Mr. Churchill, who had failed to send the necessary ships and planes, was at the same time sending huge numbers of planes and tanks to Soviet Russia. In 1941 alone, 645 planes were sent Russia, together with munitions. Captain Grenfell thinks that, especially in view of the repeated promises of a huge fleet and plenty of planes, Britain's first duty was to her own vital post in Singapore—to her own officers and men in the Far East.

Why did Churchill fail Britain at this critical point?

The New York Times of April 30, 1952, said:

"Winston Churchill, as an early Zionist, sent greetings to last night's Carnegie Hall celebration of Israel's fourth year of independence."

Roosevelt's frenzied eagerness to send Soviet Russia everything she wanted ran parallel to Churchill's doing the same, even though Russia's strongest base in the Far East was sure to fall as a result.

The Forcible Partition of Palestine

"On November 29, after political log-rolling such as one might expect in a boss-ridden county convention, the Assembly adopted, by a vote of 33 to 13 (with 10 abstaining), the scheme to partition Palestine. It was adopted in the face of the bitterest opposition from all Arab countries....

"At a mass meeting at Manhattan Center, New York City, on December 2, 1947 Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, Chairman of the American Section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, 'told his audience,' according to The New York Times of December 3, 'that the decision of the United Nations was traceable to the everlasting will and determination of the Jewish people.'"

In other words, the UN was dominated, in this vital matter, by Zionists.

Drew Pearson, who claims to be on the inside of many things, asserted in his column of December 3, 1947 that President Truman had "cracked down harder on his State Department than ever before to swing UN votes for the partition of Palestine."

What caused Truman to do this?

As a result of the UN's action, which in fact was only a "recommendation," but which the Zionists successfully convinced the general public was a final decision, there followed a prolonged and bitter war during which the UN forces (meaning the Zionist) forcibly ejected nearly a million Arabs from Palestine. Many of these still homeless Arabs are Christians and most of their ancestors had lived in Palestine for 1500 years.

For over a hundred years or more American colleges like that in Beirut, as well as American missionaries and businessmen, had been building up a great aggregate of good will toward America among the Arabs. After it became known that President Truman was a chief factor in forcing through this bloody partition, the good will of the Arabs was lost, perhaps irretrievably. There are upwards of 40 million Mohammedans scattered from Morocco across Northern Africa and eastward as far as the Pacific.

Before the partition of Palestine the United States might have depended upon the Arabs as allies in the event of war with Communist Russia. If they go over to Russia, they could tip the scale between victory and defeat.

The crime of the partition of Palestine was all the greater because, largely through the work of "Lawrence of Arabia," the Arabs abandoned the Turks with whom they were allied and came over to the side of England, France and the West in World War I—on the promise that the Arabs would become independent after the conclusion of the war. Britain's failure at Versailles to stand firmly by that promise broke Lawrence's heart. Had he lived to witness the further humiliation of the Arabs through their being driven out of Palestine, his protest would again be heard throughout the world.

Financing Israel

After the State of Israel was set up, the United States became the spearhead for financing the new State. A bond issue of 500 million dollars was authorized in 1950, though down to September 30, 1952, only 140 million dollars of these had been sold. These bonds are neither transferable nor redeemable, though in event of the death of a holder the State of Israel will take them back at par plus interest. After May, 1954, they will be exchangeable for bearer bonds.

The unit of Israeli currency is the pound, the par of which like the English pound is $2.80. On November 20, 1952 the Israeli pound was quoted in New York at 45 cents.

Israel has also had the benefit of other financing. The Export-Import Bank granted it a loan of 100 million dollars and later a loan of 35 million. This is in addition to charitable funds estimated since 1948 to have been about 150 million dollars, raised by Zionists each year in this country. In their fund-raising it is obvious that every form of pressure has been brought to bear on Jews at nearly all economic levels, and likewise on many Gentiles, to contribute.

A few months ago in Europe we encountered an American who had spent much of the last two or three years in the Near East. He told us that Israel is not a nation but a contraption held together by funds received in one way or another from America; and he added that many of the Jews were getting rather tired of contributing.

One of many indications of financial strain in Israel was Israel's compulsory "loan" of ten per cent, announced on June 8, 1952. The government was to take ten per cent of all bank deposits and all currency except single pound and half-pound notes.

David Dubinsky, head of the Garment Workers Union, has loaned Israel one million dollars of his union's funds. On August 10, 1952 an agreement was signed in Jerusalem by which the United States is to guarantee American investors against loss in the agricultural and industrial development of Israel. This arrangement, made under Point 4 of President Truman's program, so long as it remains in effect, will enable Zionists and other Americans to invest in Israel and be sure to get their money back, regardless of the instability of the Israeli pound (now 45c). One more commitment of the savings of the American taxpayer.

for Lenin, according to the U. S. Naval Intelligence Report on Warburg. The rest of the funds for the Norwegian Labor Party came from the Jewish bankers Hambros Bank in Norway, whose headquarters are in London. It was these Jewish bankers who controlled Norway before the outbreak of the Second World War; a Hambro was Finance Minister of Norway until Hitler's occupation forces came into the country. The Hambros in London put so much pressure on their great friend and family relation whom they had placed in charge of wartime England, the Right Hon. Winston Churchill, who vies with Roosevelt as the greatest war criminal in the history of the world, that Churchill sent the English task force to Norway which was beaten back with such stunning losses by the German forces.

With the conclusion of the Second World War, the international Jewish bankers resumed their game of Communism in Norway. The leader of the Norwegian Labor Party's armed forces was none other than the present Prime Minister of Norway, Oscar Torp. The negotiations for this secret agreement between the Norwegian Labor Party and the Soviet Government were found by the Norwegian Intelligence Service to be carried on by a man whom they had watched closely for many years. This was Trygve Lie, the present Secretary General of the United Nations world government in Jewish headquarters at New York.

Written evidence of this was produced by the Norwegian Intelligence Service, a receipt for funds as follows:

Received for Grepp Norw., Kronen 5,800,000; July 2, 1921. Signed Trygve Lie.

A great amount of evidence exists to bear out the close relationship between Trygve Lie and the Soviet Government. From time to time, he receives a perfunctory criticism in the Soviet press, in a laughable attempt to conceal the fact that he is Stalin's man. As Minister of Justice of Norway, Trygve Lie obeyed Stalin's injunction that his great rival, Leon Trotsky, be exiled from Norway after Stalin had chased him out of Russia. Trotsky, with his bevy of lispng Yiddish agitators, embarked for Mexico, after exposing Trygve Lie as a member of the Communist International.

As Foreign Secretary of the Norwegian Government with wartime headquarters in London, Trygve Lie went to Moscow and on April 9, 1945 signed an agreement with the Soviet government binding the Norwegian nation to let the Islands of Spitzbergen be defended jointly by Norwegian and was the pushing through in early September 1952, under Zionist pressure, of a "reparations" agreement between the West German Government and the Government of Israel and World Jewish organizations, whereby Germany agreed to pay them over a period of 14 years the sum of 822 million dollars in goods. This "agreement" has still to be ratified by the West German Parliament.

Only a relatively small part of the Jews who are in Palestine came from Germany. The payment to the State of Israel therefore cannot compensate the Jews who have found refuge elsewhere. With all the indignities to which the conquered German people have been subjected, the Nuremberg trials, the dismantling of German plants (many of them sent to Soviet Russia), Germany has had about as much punishment as she can stand if Germany is to be strong enough to help in the defense of Europe.

$10.00 a day. They were greatly obligated to the New Deal. In a similar trial it was exposed that German witnesses were told that if they failed to testify as expected they and their relatives in Germany would have food rations withdrawn. Mr. Best insisted on seventeen witnesses, including Cardinal Initzer from Austria, but the New Deal Justice Department refused. He had no witnesses nor was he given any opportunity in this hurried trial to defend himself. The strictest restraints were placed upon him. He was permitted no newspapers nor any mail. With the exception of a monthly visit from his wife, no visitors were allowed. He was moved from Boston to Danbury, Conn., then to Lewisburg, Pa., and finally to Springfield, Mo. Compare this treatment with that accorded Alger Hiss, who will not serve five years.

After he was railroaded in his trial at Boston, Robert Best had a brain hemorrhage and was placed in a hospital. The circumstances surrounding his removal and the lack of any privileges in following years points out the fact that he was deliberately and systematically murdered according to the instructions of the Jews in the Department of Justice. The criminals will be paid off with interest.

He died with a clear conscience, knowing that he had held firmly to his convictions when the U. S. had been lied into war by F. D. R., and the Marxist Jews were screaming to stop Germany. Robert Henry Best had the courage to say then what real anti-Communists say now.

This great patriot's wife is one of which he was justly proud. Somewhat younger than he, attractive, well educated and possessing a warm personality, Mrs. Best was prevented for two years from coming from Austria to be with her husband in Boston. She eventually arrived as he was being moved to Connecticut and then followed him to Pennsylvania and from there to Missouri. Mrs. Best stands out as a strong Christian character. She visited him at every possible opportunity and followed him to the burial in South Carolina.

Mr. Best's sisters and brothers, who are held in high esteem in their community, may well be proud in having such a brother. His courage may be compared to that of the early patriots who gave their lives because they loved their country so dearly. Fearlessly he exposed F. D. R. and the communists who surrounded him as the real traitors to America, Christianity and civilization. F. D. R. turned millions over to communist slavery in Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Manchuria and Korea and nearly succeeded in putting the United States under Red domination. South Carolina may well be proud of Robert H. Best.

The son of a Methodist minister, Robert Best lived a good, Christian life. His record is clean. He refused to compromise at a time when it was extremely unpopular to hold out against the communist New Deal which was willing to sacrifice our Christian youth to save the communist Soviet Union.

Such Marxist fronts as the Anti-Defamation League have often tried to smear COMMON SENSE for our defense of Mr. Best. We are proud of what little we have done in years past to show our trust and confidence in this great individual. I love Robert H. Best, the American patriot, who loved his country so much that he defied the Marxist Plotters even though he knew he would pay a severe price.

May I ask our friends of freedom to offer up their prayers for this silenced hero who gave his life so that we may be better informed.

Red Highlights

Maxwell M. Rabb, Zionist Jew, to be special assistant in the White House to take David Niles' place as B'nai B'rith informer. Rabb and Niles were very close friends . . .

Ruth Montgomery, in her column in the New York News of December 13th, 1952 stated that Anna M. Rosenberg wanted to hold her job in the Pentagon. The next day on "Meet the Press" television program, Anna Rosenberg, when asked the question by Lawrence Spivak, Jew, replied that she was through after January 20th. Anna was apparently rushed on the television show to announce her retirement before Charles Wilson announced she was out. Otherwise it would have embarrassed Eisenhower . . . Jewish leaders, throughout the world have given the word to start the drums rolling for World III as they did prior to World War II. From now on we will hear that the Communists are persecuting the Jews. The Jews will have to sacrifice some of their own before the third and last great war will be fought. When the battle is over, you will see Zionists standing in their "glory" over the bodies of American and Russian Christians who died because of stupidity or for fear of being anti-Semitic . . . The American people have indicted Owen Lattimore as they did Alger Hiss. The next one on the agenda should be the Hungarian Jewess Anna M. Rosenberg who lied under oath before the Senate Armed Service Committee when she said there was another Anna Rosenberg. The other Anna Rosenberg the F. B. I. found would have been only 13 years at the time Anna M. Rosenberg was in the Communist Party. Now we know why the other Anna Rosenberg was not produced for the public . . . Remember that John Foster Dulles, the next Secretary of State, belongs to the same Institute of Pacific Relations to which Alger Hiss and Owen Lattimore belong. In fact, Dulles has been one of the guiding lights for the present New Deal State Department for years, and top for the Rockefeller dynasty . . . In the recent issue of the Jewish Examiner, the Loft Candies ad made the following statement: "All Loft's candies have been under Rabbinical supervision since 1936 and are certified kosher by Rabbi J. M. Charlop and Rabbi S. Reichman . . . We often hear the remark from the intelligentsia, as well as Communists and Zionists, that the way McCarthy and Common Sense fight Communism is not the right approach. What we would like to know is: what is the RIGHT way to fight an enemy that believes in mass slaughter, treason, and hypocrisy? . . . Walter Reuther, the new President of the C. I. O., attended the Lenin University in Moscow with his brother, Victor, and has been an advocate for Communism . . . Bernard Baruch, the man who has advised every President from Wilson to Truman, and directed the country from behind the scenes for three decades, is now mapping out Eisenhower's rule. As usual, it will not be Eisenhower running the government from the White House, but Baruch running the country from a park bench. Incidentally Baruch prefers the park bench since it is difficult to place a tape recorder in the trees . . . One of the greatest little books to be printed in modern times is "The Nameless War" by Capt. A. H. M. Ramsay of England which sells for $2.00 . . . It is apparent that those who dictate the policies of the "America" Magazine (run by Jesuits) are knowingly or unknowingly helping Marxism . . . It reads like the B'nai B'rith Messenger or the Daily Worker at times. It attacks Senator McCarthy, attacks the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law, and supports the Marxist New Deal.

July 10, 1950

President Harry S. Truman,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President,

As one who has been battling against Soviet Communism unrelentingly for almost thirty years with every possible means, and often at the peril of life itself, I beg herewith to offer my services in any desired capacity to you as our Chief Executive in general and as ex-officio Commander-in-Chief of our armed forces in particular.

To me questions of rank, risk, and-or rate of compensation, are of no importance whatever. For Christ and Country Against Soviet Communism as Civilization's Enemy Number One For More Than Three Decades—such has been not only one of the most important of my life mottoes but also the motivation of my most important programs of action for almost a quarter-century.

That God, in His Grace, and in His Omniscience, would ultimately lead you to a timely realization of the many errors in your past estimation of Soviet Communism's menacing potentialities and schemes has long been my hope and my prayer. And, now that the Korean action of The Comintern, alias Cominform, has at last awakened you to at least a partial appreciation of the fact that The Soviet Union has been a war-to-the-death enemy of our country since the day of its creation in 1917, Mr. President, may you never again "backslide" into the errors of misunderstanding such fiends as Stalin, and-or of misinterpreting him and his machinations to our fellow citizens.

And, insofar as possible, please try to do something to help our news men and radio commentators to cease identifying the enslaved inhabitants of The Soviet Union with the U.S.S.R. itself. It is not "Russia" anymore; nor does it claim to be. It is improper and incorrect, therefore, to speak of "Russia" and "Russians" when one really means the Soviet Union and-or Soviet citizens.

On Marxism in general, and on The Soviet-Communism in particular, I am a rather highly qualified expert; and these qualifications are yours to command. In the fight against this world-menacing conspiracy I have never considered any risk too great or any sacrifice too dear.

Faithfully and respectfully yours,
Robert H. Best.

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I hold no grudge with respect to the circumstances of my conviction; and, as ever, am ready to risk my all if I can but help destroy The Marxist Monster, Soviet Communism.

Editors Note:

Cardinal Mindzenty in the hands of Communist Jews was tried as a traitor—so it was with Mr Best a Pulitzer winner. Had we listened to Mr. Best when he urged us to stay out of war and allow Germany to clean up Communism in Europe we would have saved a million casualties and today not living in fear for a healthy Patriotic America we need more "traitors" like Robert Best.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Another year has slipped by and we again celebrate the birthday of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

My staff joins with me in wishing all our readers a Blessed Merry Christmas, Good Health, Peace and Contentment in the coming year.

I am very grateful to our Lord for my good health and grateful to those who trust in me and are a part of this crusade for Christ and Country.

Russian forces. These islands are part of Norwegian territory. Why should Russia defend them, and against whom? In April of 1945, Germany was already defeated. Russia and the Jews were looking forward to the Third World War, which would bring to a successful conclusion their fifty-year-old campaign against the Christian nations which opposed the Jewish Anti-Christ of Communism. Now we have a binding military treaty with Norway, as a co-signer of the North Atlantic Treaty defense pact, according to which we are spending millions of dollars to arm those islands of Spitzbergen which Norway is bound to let Russia defend. This is only one more instance of Jewish treachery, by which the American people are being taxed beyond sufferance in order to re-arm Russia to attack the United States. This is being done through the Marshall Plan, by Point Four which Truman claims but which was actually authored by Earl Browder in his book "Teheran, Road to Peace or War", and by the Economic Co-operation Administration, which functioned so well under Milton Katz in Europe that whole power plants went through West Germany to the Russian Zone and straight into Russia, all paid for by American taxpayers. Mr. Katz was rewarded by being made a director of the Ford Foundation which is headed by the self-proclaimed revolutionary Robert Hutchins, who has $500,000,000 to spend to promote his revolution in the United States.

How much of this information is known to the Federal Bureau of Investigation? Probably all of it. Their files on United Nations officials, of whom at least 60 percent are publicly recognized as members of the Communist espionage apparatus, have hundreds of pages of material bearing out these points, but their hands are tied. They have no jurisdiction over the United Nations, which is an armed camp of revolutionaries encamped on hallowed ground in New York City, with their own armed military force on their bit of international territory. American laws do not bind these determined revolutionaries. We have no power over them, until that day when the American people will cry out with one voice, "Get out, you scum!" and these scroungy misfits, the outcasts and ne'er-do-wells from every part of the world will go back to rag-picking outside the wailing walls of their respective nations, if they can get back in.

Many of them will take the easy way out, as Abraham Feller did, when he either leaped from his apartment in New York to his death, or was pushed. Who else was in the apartment has not been determined. Many high Communist officials have gone out of windows "suicides" such as the late Laurence Duggan because dead men tell no tales to Congressional Committees. Abraham Feller was a happy, successful Jew in the Jewish hierarchy of the United Nations, earning $18,000 a year, which is considerably more than we pay our own government department heads in Washington. Feller was legal counsel to Trygve Lie and the person who knew more about the big Lie than anybody else in New York. Feller was due to be interrogated by the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security. If he had been so questioned, what might have slipped out about Trygve Lie?

Abraham Feller, suicide or not, is dead, and Trygve Lie is still head of the United Nations, a living insult to every American citizen who believes in the American Republic. From his plush offices he issues his sneering communiques from "World Government Headquarters" and waits for the day when the Americans will be lying in their own blood in the streets of our cities. This is the only purpose of the Jewrified Nations.

BEN FREEDMAN, PATRIOT

There are many unknown heroes who are quietly doing valuable work to save our country from slavery under Marxism. Some of these Patriots will never be known—they help in keeping us on the front line in good health and supplied with ammunition—others help in various ways. The only pay they ever receive is the satisfaction in their own conscience knowing they have helped on the right side in this battle so that their loved ones may enjoy freedom.

Mr. Ben Freedman is one who is known to the enemy and has been smeared, attacked and persecuted and called a traitor to the Jewish people. No more trustworthy patriot ever lived in America, where he was born, and for which he has sacrificed so much.

Years ago he began watching Communism worming itself like a slimy snake through the educational and government institutions like a giant termite. Mr. Freedman did not wait until the house was nearly burned down to oppose it with his money and energy. He spent his fortune—all he could lay hands on—to awaken the sleeping public.

Not many men in the U. S. have sacrificed more in trying to save our country. He is a man who cannot be bought or intimidated. A real American who stands against Marxism in all forms, and is the best informed man living on several phases of Marxism.

3 Eisenhowers & Conspiracy

This is the story of three brothers, Dwight, Milton and Arthur, and a Marxist conspiracy. Dwight was elected to the Presidency of the United States. Not because the people wanted him as their President but because he had been picked by the Invisible Government to succeed Truman as the man most apt to do as he was told.

Milton and Arthur, like their brother Dwight, were veterans of political intrigue and confidential associates of the Jewish Gestapo in America for years. Is this the reason why their brother was placed in such a prominent position? Could it be that these two brothers who are working with the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith knew that their brother, with his limited intelligence, would do the bidding of the Invisible Government?

The pattern is plain to anyone who desires to know the true facts. The "Jews" forced Eisenhower to run for President. The Invisible Government is consistently handing him names of Zionist "Jews" for appointment to key positions such as Rabb, Strauss, Abrams, Jackson, etc. This conspiracy, started with Roosevelt and has been carried down through the Truman Administration and into the present administration.

If our memory serves us correctly Dwight Eisenhower was placed over 260 high ranking officers when he received the European command of U. S. forces? Why? The "Jews" had reason to believe that Eisenhower was the man to carry out their plan of extermination of Germany and crush all anti-Communist forces. He proved worthy of their expectations, thus he was their choice for the Presidency of the United States. The election was November 4, 1952 but the A. D. L. was arranging matters from November 2nd to the 7th at the Waldorf Hotel in New York City. Meetings were being held at swanky top floor apartment of wealthy "Jew" Arthur J. Goldsmith. And who was at these meetings? Milton Eisenhower, who for ten years was a very close political pal of Henry Wallace, who is known as a political front for Communism, and his brother Arthur.

Milton and Arthur Team Up With A Criminal Conspiracy

The ex-convict, Henry Greenspun, and co-worker of Arthur Goldsmith, who bought the Las Vegas Morning Sun also plays a prominent role in this Marxist conspiracy. Like Barry Gray (Boris Yaroslav), "Jew", Greenspun specializes in smearing such American leaders as Senators McCarthy and McCarran. On July 24, 1953 Greenspun arranged a press release with Arthur Eisenhower, a banker of Kansas City, who was in Las Vegas, which reads as follows: "Arthur Eisenhower accused Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R., Wis.) of doing the United States harm at home and abroad.

"It is a shame that he (McCarthy) is a member of the GOP because he has done the party no good," declared the chief executive's brother, who said he was speaking only as a private citizen interested in good government.

Our Enemies

By MARILYN R. ALLEN,
Salt Lake City, Utah

It was good to finally get the Rosenberg traitors (and their pictures) off the front pages and on the hot seat where they belonged. Our Bible tells us to "gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to BURN them." (St. Matthew 13:30). These are our internal enemies, concerning whom the Lord Himself gave instructions. Yet much more fuss, agitation, legal maneuvering, picketing, and vast sums of money were spent by other enemies in behalf of these traitors than patriots have ever accorded to the hundreds of thousands of our finest youth who perish in an UNCONSTITUTIONAL war in Korea—presumably fighting Communism in behalf of a foreign nation.

The Rosenberg attorney, Bloch, hurled the most despicable lies and insults at the Supreme Court, the President, our courts in general and our Country. I understand he is in process of being disbarred from the legal profession; he should also be barred from America. According to newspapers, "a howling, savagely angry crowd of Rosenberg sympathizers . . . stormed a police barricade . . ." These bloodthirsty Communists threatened to riot and were only held in check by drawn guns, at the Rosenberg funeral—which should have been private and secret for these executed traitors. All of which shows the thanks we get when we bend over backward to coddle our enemies.

Associate Justice William O. Douglas of our Supreme Court, is an example of the sort of crackpot thinking abroad in our land today. He, of all people, should have upheld law and order and the just decisions of our courts, instead of trying to abrogate and nullify them. Just several days before, the whole Supreme Court had ruled against another hearing on the Rosenberg appeal; then Douglas takes it upon himself (at behest of Minority pressure) to attempt to give the Rosenbergs another respite. Men like this in high places is what's wrong with our Country today. What do we have courts of law and justice? Aren't the lives of upright, innocent, loyal American citizens of more value, and deserving of protection from proven traitors? The fact that a certain Minority spent tons of money; organized picket lines around the Supreme Court and the White House; bought pages in the newspapers; and used every legal trick and device for over two years to evade justice and save the guilty pair, proves that they did not believe that it would benefit the Communist cause for these traitors to die for their treason.

Another "fare" is this highly-louted so-called "scientist," Albert Einstein, who has 38 citations by the Un-American Activities Committee. He was chased out of his own country because of his activities; he was suggested as President of Israel because of his close association with this foreign nation; so he arrogantly tells our citizens that they should refuse to answer questions put to them by the official authorities designated by Congress to investigate subversion in America. For my money, he is in the same class with the Rosenbergs and the Chaplins (Thonstein) and should be sent back where he came from.

THE PLOT AGAINST OUR SCHOOLS

By Arthur Legation Andrews

A rapid barrage of orders from Eisenhower ordering an end to discrimination in the United States has culminated in a dastardly attempt to pervert the minds of our young school children. First, there was Eisenhower's announced intention to appoint a Negro cabinet minister, from which he was dissuaded by the late Senator Robert Taft, who pointed out that there were no Negroes in this country qualified to hold such a crucial position. Then Eisenhower ordered an end to discrimination in our armed forces, putting Negroes into White combat units. Was this a deliberate attempt, spawned by Anna Rosenberg, to undermine the efficiency of our army in the face of the threat of Communism?

Soon after taking office, Eisenhower ended segregation in the restaurants in the District of Columbia. His next stroke in his plan was the order to cancel government contracts with any manufacturer who refused to hire Negroes in preference to white workers regardless of the ef-

THE LINDBERGH BETRAYAL

By Colonel E. N. Sanctuary

Recently, Charles A. Lindbergh's story of his flight across the Atlantic was published in the Saturday Evening Post. Why was this allowed? We know that this great hero and patriot of America had his career ruined, his reputation blighted, his enormous value as a leader in aviation destroyed for one reason; his opposition to our entry into a war inspired by the British, the Jews, and Roosevelt and his cabal. To our knowledge the details and proof of this vile plot to destroy Lindbergh have never been published before.

The mere fact that Lindbergh's story has been published is to be regarded with suspicion. Those Jews who control the press and publishing outlets in America cannot have forgiven Lindbergh. They are incapable of it. Rather they must think that he can be used by them in one of their unending plots against Christianity. Therefore, we must be on guard against the motives behind this sudden favorable publicity for Lindbergh. We believe that, just as the Alger Hiss story was hidden for ten years so this story has been hidden by the same people who protected Hiss. It starts a long way back, to the first World War.

In "Your Country at War", by Charles A. Lindbergh Sr., republished in 1934, there is a statement on page 7: "On a spring day in 1918 several government agents entered a print-shop at Washington, D. C., where the original of this book was being printed. 'Destroy all the Lindbergh plates in your plant,' they told the head of the institution. He was forced to comply. The hysteria of

NEGRO PRAISES SEGREGATION

Reprint from Orlando Morning Sentinel

There is one Negro leader brave enough to stand up and say that segregation has benefited his race.

It took courage for this man to boldly make known his judgment of this highly controversial and inflammable racial subject.

He knew that by so doing he would be the target of the noisy politicians who ride into office on the votes they garner from at least publicly giving lip service to the idea of abolishing segregation.

There are others who are able to make good paying jobs for themselves by keeping the fires of racial discord burning brightly and obtaining contributions from the sincere but often misguided believers in the "cause".

Undoubtedly some conscientiously want to end all racial barriers, social and otherwise:

But the voice of Sidney J. Phillips is fresh and calming in the midst of the outpourings we have been deluged with since the Supreme Court has been given the responsibility of deciding whether or not all separation of white and Negro public schools should end.

Phillips is President of the Booker T. Washington Birthday Memorial in Franklin County, Va. The State of Virginia had named a highway in honor of the great Negro leader who became world famous as head of Tuskegee Institute, the Negro school in Alabama.

The segregation system has produced an overall benefit to the Negro, said Phillips. He said the system had afforded the Negro an opportunity to work out his own destiny, "to find himself, to grow to man's estate without the competition with which he could not have coped had the circumstances been otherwise."

The Negro's economic progress, said Phillips, was "due in large measure, if not practically entirely, to the pattern of segregation."

Striking and emphatic words at this time from a member of the race whose self-appointed leaders have made the avenues of information run over with their demands that segregation at all levels be abolished instantly.

The proposal to end segregation in the public schools is to be re-argued in October when the Supreme Court reconvenes after its summer recess. The estimate of what segregation has meant to the Negro race should be placed before the court by those lawyers representing the Southern states that want the high tribunal to reaffirm its ruling that segregation is OK provided equal facilities are furnished for each race. We have lived and advanced for years under that plan, bringing the Negro's schools and pay for their teachers to an equality with the whites.

Negroes can continue their economic and other progress under the system in this section where the races will live in peace and harmony if the "outsiders" will let us alone.

There is similar opinion from Davis Lee, publisher of the Newark (N. J.) Telegram, a Negro newspaper.

He says the efforts of "certain paid agitators and pressure groups" to have segregation in public schools declared unconstitutional would be a big set-back for Negroes.

This Negro editor says now—segregation in the North is "not a howling success". While a Negro can attend any school, few get jobs as school teachers.

The State of Connecticut employs less than 25 Negro school teachers. In contrast segregated Georgia has 7,313 Negro teachers and paid them close to 15 million dollars last year; North Carolina Negro teachers earned over 22 million dollars in salaries. Florida is another state which ranks high in the number of Negro teachers and the amount they draw in salaries.

He says if segregation is wiped out 75 per cent of the Negro teachers in the South would lose their jobs.

In plain words this man says the North preaches integration of the races but the Negro finds few jobs as teachers and most of the economic doors are closed against him. In the South which practices segregation thousands of Negro teachers draw millions of dollars in salaries and there is no door which bars the Negro in his economic field. Segregation has taught him self reliance.

Says the New Jersey Negro editor: "Right now the Southern Negro is in a better spot educationally and economically than the Negroes in he is a member, denounced the Wisconsin Senator this morning shortly before boarding a plane for his home in Kansas City.

"The President's brother said McCarthy was to blame for damaging United States prestige in Europe.

"After this latest book-burning episode," he said, "I imagine our prestige has hit a new low. 'Although I can't say when, I am sure that McCarthy's popularity has to wane.'"

The Jewish Gestapo at Work

In all states, where honest-to-goodness Americans are running for Congress, the natives are aware of a mysterious flood of money coming into their districts from unknown sources. Those who are informed know where this money is coming from, and have learned that the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith (The Jewish Gestapo) is the machine which distributes this money. Arthur J. Goldsmith, lounging in his lavish apartment in New York City, is the mastermind who deals out this Jewish money. This combination of criminal conspirators have one thought in mind—DEFEAT EVERY AMERICAN THAT DARES TO OPPOSE THE MARXIST PROGRAM. Their most important targets at this time are Senators McCarran, McCarthy, and Jenner.

The all-American writer, Westbrook Pegler, has been rendering a service to his country by looking into the activities of the Marxist, Goldsmith. In Mr. Pegler's column of November 13, 1952, he writes: (Quote)

"Dwight D. Eisenhower had better get on the ball right now and ride off any of his relatives who may be making honest dumb mistakes or yielding to the Rooseveltian instincts which made a racket of the Presidency.

From November 2 to November 7, inclusive, when he checked out about noon, Arthur B. Eisenhower, of Kansas City, a banker, one of Ike's brothers, occupied suite 30-D in the Waldorf Towers. The next suite, 30-C, is the residence and political powerhouse or boiler-room of the mysterious and sinister Arthur J. Goldsmith. This man manufactures sparkplugs.

He is described also as a retired broker. His numerous synthetic, letter-head political organizations, secretly or very quietly, solicit money from wealthy persons in the East and secretly spend it to sway elections in States where Goldsmith and his political cohorts do not reside. They have no legitimate civic reason to use money to thwart the political will of any of the voting citizens thereof although they have a legal right to do so, with restrictions.

I have dealt in some detail with Goldsmith's activities and dwell upon the fact that his letter-head groups give their address as 100 E. 50th Street, which to most individuals, even in New York, would not depict the luxurious Waldorf Towers.

Milton Eisenhower, the President of Penn State College, made one visit to the suite of his brother, Arthur, and conferred there with Arthur and Goldsmith.

I telephoned Arthur B. Eisenhower in Kansas City. He went on the defensive immediately. He said I was snooping.

"What do you mean 'snooping'?" I demanded. "My name is Pegler. I told you that. I am a newspaper reporter. I told you that. And I am asking you direct questions and you say I am snooping."

"I am not afraid of any disclosure," he said. "All right," I said. "Who introduced you to Goldsmith?"

He said a mutual friend introduced them and, later in the conversation, said other persons took part in their conversations. I asked him who introduced them. He refused to say. He refused to name any of the others who joined them in their discussions.

"I don't want to be a party to any of your news," he said.

He also said:

"I am not afraid of any disclosure."

All right, then, I insisted, why all the mystery? What were they afraid of? I said it was strange that a group of honest men engaged in legitimate activities could be embarrassed by mention of these meetings in print.

any other place in the world. Race relations are continually improving. Every day more Southerners are recognizing the Negro as a man and according him the respect that he merits, but the Southern Negro himself can do more about improving conditions than can courts, legislation or pressure group.

He also predicts: "This movement in the South is loaded with more racial dynamite than appears on the surface, and the Negro will be the one who is blown away."

The South knows how to handle its racial problems and is doing a good job.

Let the professional do-gooders keep hands off.

iciency or qualification of the white applicants.

Now the Department of Commerce has produced a film called "Don't Discriminate," which is to be shown in every schoolroom in America. Written by a Jewish protégé of the late Marxist Harold Ickes, who was trained by the Jewish Communist David Niles, this film is especially designed to encourage white girls to have Negro lovers and husbands. It is a tear-jerking story of a Negro who falls in love with a white girl, a high school student of fifteen years named Anna.

The scene is a small Midwestern city, Midrowia, where there are only a few Negro families. The town is populated mostly by stock of Northern European origin, who are portrayed throughout the picture as dull, beast-like people who live only to eat and commit adultery.

Samuel, the young Negro who is the hero of this picture, is a tall, slender, handsome black boy who has just completed his first year of medical school, where he has been sent by the Rosenwald Fund. He returns to Midrowia for the summer, where he lives with his mother, a stately black woman who speaks perfect English and has beautiful manners. She is a washerwoman who lives in a shack by the railroad tracks.

Samuel meets Anna at a baseball game. She is immediately fascinated and confides to him that he is so witty, not at all like the dull boys in her high school class. That first night, he walks her home and kisses her tenderly. Almost every scene in this movie shows the Negro boy kissing Anna at some point, in order to impress upon the minds of our school children that it is fine for Negroes to kiss and fondle white girls.

Anna, overcome by her new love, invites Samuel to dinner to meet her parents. She does not tell them that he is a Negro, and when he comes to the door, Anna's father, who is portrayed as a burly, ungrammatical worker, in contrast to the lordly young Samuel, orders the Negro from his house. Samuel, the perfect gentleman, bows politely, and departs.

So far the film has done nothing but point out to our impressionable children that Negroes are a fine, cultured people, and that whites are crude, ignorant people filled with hate against their black betters. This film, produced by our government and paid for by taxpayers' money, ignores the fact that Negroes lived for thousands of years in mudhuts in Africa, but own automobiles here which were invented by white people.

The real message is yet to come. The Negro Samuel carries out a campaign to win over Anna's parents. He helps Anna's mother with the washing, remarking that he has helped his own mother since he was three years old. He becomes the outstanding member of the Midrowia baseball team and wins the admiration of Anna's father. Now they are happy to have him marry their daughter, saying over and over like a lesson which they have learned by heart, that they only wish other people could live with Negroes and learn what nice people they are.

When the Negro Samuel returns to college with his white child bride he discovers that it is not only the uneducated whites who are prejudiced, but also the educated. The college students shun him and Anna, and after each snub, she throws herself into his arms. He comforts her with intimate caresses driving home the point to our young children's minds that Negroes should embrace white girls.

Samuel wins all honors at college, and he and Anna give intellectual parties which become the talk of the campus. He is invited to join an all-white fraternity which had previously snubbed him, and the film ends with young Negro Samuel receiving his doctor's degree and embracing Anna.

One of the most sinister pieces of propaganda ever devised by the mind of the Jew, "Don't Discriminate" must not be allowed to pervert the minds of our school children. Write to your Congressman today demanding that "Don't Discriminate" be withdrawn, and an investigation started of its Department of Commerce producers.

"Don't Discriminate" is only part of the Eisenhower Plan to mongrelize America and make us easy prey for the Asiatic hordes of Communism. One Jewish sociologist, who is now Eisenhower's adviser, has publicly advocated "planned marriages" between whites and Negroes as a way to stop racial prejudice. In other words, the government will force white girls to marry Negroes. Is this what white Americans want? Is it what the Negroes want? No, but it is what the Jewish Communists want, and they will fight to get it. We must fight to stop them.

NOW IS THE TIME TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT THIS DIABOLICAL SCHEME TO INFEST OUR YOUTH WITH THE SPIRIT OF COMMUNISM IN ITS SUBTLE FORM. NOT AFTER THE HARM HAS BEEN DONE. PICK UP YOUR PAPER AND PEN AND LET YOUR REPRESENTATIVES KNOW THAT AS AN AMERICAN YOU OBJECT. DON'T WAIT FOR GEORGE TO DO IT BECAUSE IT WILL NEVER BE DONE. ACT NOW!

RED HIGHLIGHTS

Every week the "Jewish" newspapers throughout the land display screaming headlines of new Arab violations in Palestine. Long articles of false charges and fabrications against the Arabs stream out over the world from these professional liars with the same accuracy which has accompanied every Jewish invasion in history. The "Jews" who have instigated every border violation and agreement in Palestine use the same method of deception and intimidation they have been using for the past 35 years in putting over Communism. With malice and forethought they deliberately deprive others of their homes and rights, and then, like the devils they are, blame the innocent for their own crimes. How long is it going to take the world to realize that these people who masquerade as the "Chosen People" are the disciples of Judas Iscariot . . . Stuart Rothman, "Jew", just hired by the Department of Labor as a solicitor . . . Mrs. Adele Segall Faske, "Jew", newly appointed aide to Florida State Attorney . . . Isadore Jack Martin, "Jew", is Ike's new liaison man between the White House and Congress . . . Louis Rothchild, "Jew", appointed Chairman of Maritime Board in charge of all shipping.

In a secret ballot the faculties of Frankfurt University and West Berlin University each elected a "Jew" rector. "Jews" direct the policy in West Germany via the State Department . . . J. D. Zellarback, "Jew", from California, appointed by Ike to U. N. General Assembly as alternate member . . . Five of the Six Communists captured in the Sierra mountains are "Jews". Thompson is a front man . . . Ben Gold, arrested for falsely swearing that he was not a Communist, and his lawyer, Harold Cramer, both "Jews" . . . Mrs. Sophie Gerson, whose husband is Chairman of the New York State Communist Party, and who is up for deportation, is a "Jew" . . . New rules set down for writers in the Polish Communist press call for spelling God with a small "g" . . . Yugoslavia delegation flying here to be dined and wined in Washington. Later to make an inspection tour of U. S. military installations. Boy, how dumb can Americans get . . . Jewish power losing out with the people behind the Iron Curtain. President Eisenhower interrupted his vacation in Colorado to fly to New York and wish Bernard Baruch a happy birthday . . . The Catholic Church in America is being told by the "Jews" to keep neutral regarding the Arab-Israel dispute. Although hundreds of Arabs, Catholics and Christians are being murdered and their churches destroyed, the "Jews" are pleading with such religious leaders as Cardinal Spellman not to interfere in politics. This is a good one for the morons. Since when is the destroying of the birthplace of Christianity a political affair? What these "Jews won't think up next . . . Ernest A. Gross, "Jew", former U. N. Representative, elected Freedom House president . . . The United States Taxpayer will give Israel $70,000,000 this year. THE LINDBERGH BETRAYAL war time brooked no delays. Not only the plates of this book were destroyed, but also the plates of Congressman Lindbergh's book, "Banking and Currency", written in 1913 and attacking the big bankers and the Federal Reserve Law." On page 50: "We have been bamboozled, and a majority of us do not know how it was done. It was the 'invisible organizers' who did it. They employ many agencies for the purpose; besides most of the great city press are maintained by them for that purpose. Their work is even stealthily being introduced into the public schools, colleges and universities." Finally, on page 165: "The plain truth is that neither of these great parties, as at present led and manipulated by an 'invisible government,' is fit to manage the destinies of a great people." These few quotes should serve to illustrate the fact that the Jewish warfare against the Lindbergh family was not a recent occurrence. The son was the product of the father and fought the same battle.

In Lindbergh's story of his flight across the Atlantic, in the Apr. 18 1953 issue of the Saturday Evening Post, is his account of how Charles Levine, a Jew, tried to get Lindbergh to buy his company's plane, the Bellanca, so that he, Levine, and not Lindbergh, could fly it across the Atlantic. This sounds fantastic. Since Levine did fly the Atlantic a month after Lindbergh in that very plane, it is obvious that his desire to have a Jew fly the Atlantic first was thwarted because he waited too long—waiting for a Gentile to pay for the plane and trip.

On Sept. 11, 1941, in Des Moines, Iowa, Charles A. Lindbergh gave a speech before an America First rally in which he charged "the three most important groups which have been pressing this country toward war are the British, the Jewish, and the Roosevelt administration." He advised, "that instead of agitating for war, the Jewish groups in this country should be opposing it in every possible way. . . . Their greatest danger to this country lies in their ownership and influence in our motion pictures, our press, our radio, and our government."

This speech evoked a storm of vilification, abuse, vile lies by Jews and their fellow travelers, such as was expressed in "The American Hebrew" of Oct. 24, 1941: "The most dangerous man in the United States of America today is Charles Augustus Lindbergh . . . One shudders at his act . . . He is America's No. 1 Nazi."

But more significant was the dissemination of a leaflet by the National Council of Jewish Communists, dated 9-18-41, one week after his speech, published over the name of Max Steinberg, Secretary of the Council, at 35 East 12th Street. What address is this? Why, that of the Daily Worker, of course. Has the National Council of Jewish Communists ever been cited by the Dies Committee or the Attorney General? Of course not. We do find though, in the suppressed Appendix IX of the Dies Committee on page 1431 the fact that "Jewish Voice" was published by this same Council and with Max Steinberg as the Editor. We find further that Steinberg was a sponsor of the Committee for the celebration of 15 years of Biro Bidjan (the Jewish Communist homeland in the USSR). See page 603. He is listed as the Organization Secretary of the New York District of the Communist Party and as a member of the IWO. See page 832. On this same page may be seen reference to the "Jewish Bureau of the Central Committee of the Communist Party." On page 1129 we find him as a member of the Jewish Peoples Committee for United Action Against Fascism and Anti-Semitism. On page 1130 as a member of the Executive Committee of the Morning Freiheit, Jewish Communist organ.

Why have we belabored this point? Because this key Jew, an open Communist executive, set the key for the entire Jewish community from that date on. Careful examination of all subsequent publications or stories issued from Jewish or Jewish controlled sources bears out the fact that he laid down the party line not only for openly Communist Jews but for all Jews.

The leaflet was entitled "Lindbergh—the Un-American Way!" It called Lindbergh and his cohorts "Hitler's advance guard in America. The enemies of the Jewish people are the enemies of America . . . Defeat the anti-Semites—betrayers of American democracy!" And so on.

The American Jewish Committee, silent until this party line edict was published a week after Lindbergh's speech, immediately issued a joint statement with the Jewish Labor Bund against Lindbergh on the very same day: September 18, 1941.

Two days later the pacifist "Keep America Out of War Congress" knuckled under and attacked Lindbergh.

One week after this the Communist "Christian" clergy and educators "rebuffed Lindbergh's insult to Christ" in Kenneth Leslie's Red "Protestant Digest". Seven hundred signed this statement.

President Roosevelt called him a "Copperhead". Secretary Ickes called him "a knight of the German eagle." But it was left to the Friends of Democracy to handle the details of the destruction of Lindbergh. That organization, headed by L. M. Birkhead, probably one of the most loathsome individuals that ever lived, published a pamphlet "Is Lindbergh a Nazi?", expensively produced, utterly vicious in its content. Among those quoted as attacking Lindbergh were Wendell L. Willkie, and Thomas E. Dewey.

Among the members of the national committee of the "Friends of Democracy" were the Communists or pro-Communists: Mary McLeod Bethune, Van Wyck Brooks, Arthur J. Goldsmith, Edward C. Lindeman, and Thomas Mann. John Roy Carlson, alias of Derounian, worked for this outfit and wrote for "Soviet Russia Today".

On Dec. 6, 1941, Rex Stout, President of "Friends of Democracy," sent out a personal letter and report to a select group of people whom he thought would aid him financially against Lindbergh. One of those letters, plus a report marked "Not for Publication" is in our possession. He wrote in part, "It will take time and money to discredit Lindbergh and destroy him politically . . . A check or money order to 'Friends of Democracy' will be a nail in Lindbergh's coffin." In the report which accompanied this letter are these statements. "However, it was in the Winrod project—the model for our present plan to beat Lindbergh (that) this pamphlet (against Winrod) was distributed to all key men in the Republican Party organization. John M. Hamilton, then Republican National Chairman, intervened and repudiated Winrod." Further details are given of the "Father Coughlin" and "Joe McWilliams" projects, then: "We are making every effort to stop the Ku Klux Klan from distributing a new edition of his publication, 'The International Jew'. Reference was made to 'The Negro project to curb the dangerous and little publicized growth of anti-semitism in Harlem'. Finally, 'The Lindbergh project will require at least $15,000.'"

In conclusion we refer to the sworn statement of Thomas F. Rice, Special Agent for the Department of Justice, and Special Assistant to the Attorney-General.

Rice stated: "That on Feb. 24, 1932, he made direct contact with Gaston B. Means and two of Means's confederates. That the contact was made in the Imperial Hotel in the City of New York, where Gaston B. Means was registered.

That the deponent learned on that date, through one of Gaston B. Means's confederates that PLANS WERE BEING MADE TO KIDNAP THE LINDBERGH CHILD . . . That on Saturday, Feb. 27, 1932, deponent had a conference in Boston with James Roosevelt. At that conference deponent told James Roosevelt the story that had been told to him by Gaston B. Means's confederate—James Roosevelt told deponent that he would go at once to New York and have a talk with Governor Roosevelt, and meet deponent again on Monday, Feb. 29, 1932.

That on Monday, Feb. 29, 1932, at 3 P. M., deponent had another conference with James Roosevelt in the Park Square Building in Boston. James Roosevelt told deponent that he had talked with his father and THAT THE GOVERNOR DID NOT WANT TO HAVE ANYTHING WHATEVER TO DO WITH THE MATTER. That ON THE FOLLOWING NIGHT THE LINDBERGH CHILD WAS KIDNAPPED."

Franklin Delano Roosevelt KNEW that Lindbergh's baby was going to be kidnapped and refused to set up any precautions. Was this because he himself already had foreknowledge of the impending kidnap and murder?

At the present time newspaper reports have stated that Lindbergh has been the confidential advisor to General Hoyt Vandenberg. The Air Force has been cut to the bone by the Eisenhower administration. Could this be a part of the same great fight between Lindbergh and the enemies of the United States?

OPEN LETTER TO IKE

Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower,
President of the United States,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

With deep respect, but in a matter of grave concern I write this letter to you.

As an American, and being one who will fight to uphold every God-giving blessing that has been bestowed upon this Nation, I, and thousands like me, are becoming quite alarmed at the evil net that is being thrown around Congress and at the same time the deplorable censorship that is politely being crammed down the throats of we the American citizen.

In that real American newspaper, the Los Angeles Herald Express of June 24th, there was an article stating: FINANCIER STRAUSS IS IKE'S CHOICE AS CHAIRMAN FOR ATOMIC BOARD. This article goes further to state: that Strauss has been serving since March as the President's UNSALARIED ADVISOR. . . . MR. BERNARD MANNUS BARUCH, the most powerful man in America, has also been serving as your advisor. Has he not? Is this nomination of Strauss your idea or his?

Mr. Lewis Strauss, as you know, is a partner of THE KUHN, LOEB COMPANY. . . . This is the New York Banking House that financed the BOLSHEVIK REVOLUTION in 1917. Remember? Strauss has also been one of those hidden "influences" that has had voice in the Atomic Energy Program since its conception. He was on the Interim Committee in 1945 and was appointed to the Atomic Energy Commission in 1946. The powerful grip that the INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT has over the American people is becoming more obvious with each passing day.

One by one, Mr. President, you are appointing your personal "friends" into important and critical positions of our Government. Since I voted for you last November, I would be all for it, except the individuals in question have had many interests that have been definitely contrary to American principles and ideals.

When you were head of the Armed Forces in Europe, your "associates" in London were: James Paul Warburg, Edward M. Warburg, and John Schiff. All of these "powers" were related, or they are partners, of THE KUHN, LOEB COMPANY. . . . Your selection of Lewis Strauss is an insult to the intelligence of the American people. Do you honestly think for one moment that we can forget the black pages of history? The Kuhn, Loeb Company has PROVEN by their OWN ACTIONS WHAT THEY WILL DO FOR GOLD. Is this the kind of power that is going to govern our American policies, both at home and abroad?

Mr. Lewis Strauss is, or was, President of the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton. This institution has also the Albert Einstein (the intellectual gift to Communism), who a few days ago advised that one should not testify before ANY Congressional Committee. I disagree with the statement completely. The New York Times tells us that Strauss will take leave of his present position as consultant and financial advisor to Rockefeller Brothers Inc., and International Basic Economy Corporation, which Nelson Rockefeller founded with his staff from the Department of State. The press has also reminded us that Nelson Rockefeller is to be the President's civilian advisor on Defense, while his business friend Straus advises on the Atomic Energy Commission.

The partnership between Kuhn, Loeb Company and the Rockefellers is not new by any means. It goes back to the founding of the Rockefeller fortunes, when old John D. Rockefeller made the deal with Jacob Schiff to get rebates on his oil, which was carried on railroads controlled by the Kuhn Loeb Company. Schiff then guided John D. into a monopoly on the oil resources and distribution in America. . . . The Rockefellers are reminded of the debt they owe to the Kuhn, Loeb Company. . . . and what is the result? —The "hidden influence" calls in Strauss to advise them on their affairs. . . . How stupid can we get?

Owen Lattimore, with the aid of the State Department sold out Nationalist China. . . . PLEASE don't let THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT sell out our America.

Yours for Christ and Country
ROBERT HUGHES

AS IF WE DIDN'T KNOW IT ALREADY

A gentleman in San Francisco sends us some valuable material but which, unfortunately we cannot use as it deals with a certain subject which we do not discuss editorially.

In sending it in, he writes: "If you should use this, don't mention my name for there are people who will retaliate by ruining your business if you try to expose their activities against this country."

Brother, are you telling us?

3 EISENHOWERS & CONSPIRACY

I told Eisenhower that the family name now had a new importance. When the brother of the President-elect had meetings with a man of Goldsmith's mysterious political character, the facts might be of interest to the public.

Frankly, Elliott and Jimmy Roosevelt and their mother had put me on warning not to take pure, unselfish motives for granted in the dealings of relatives of a President.

I don't know what Arthur and Milton Eisenhower were up to with Goldsmith but I do know enough about Goldsmith and his political machinations to insist on facts and to reject this stuffy indignation that Arthur Eisenhower displayed. That reaction makes me suspicious. I sent Goldsmith a telegram about all this but got no reaction at all.

Arthur Eisenhower did admit that he and Goldsmith had conferred every day of the six days that they were neighbors in the Towers.

There are a hell of a lot of people in the Tower at least as interesting as Goldsmith, Herbert Hoover, for example. But of all the residents and transient inmates, Goldsmith was the one who was in and out of his place and vice versa every day for almost a week. (End Quote)

FUNNY FOLKS THOSE JEWS

by Kurt Mertig

Dr. Nahum Goldmann, acting president of the World Jewish Congress meeting at Geneva (Switzerland) advocated making the Jews of the world an "annex" to the state of Israel.

The same assembly also presented a strongly worded resolution to the German government at Bonn, demanding that effective measures be taken immediately "to suppress and eradicate any attempt to revive 'Nazis' doctrines that menace democracy, adding that the West German agreement on restitution for Jewish losses "does not and cannot imply that Germany has thereby fully discharged its obligations toward the Jewish people during the Hitler regime."

(According to the Jewish author, Paul Goodman, in his book, "A History of the Jews," page 133, there were around 540,000 Jews in Germany just prior to the advent of Hitler. On page 163, Goodman states that about 500,000 Jews came to the United States during 1931-1940, of whom approximately 43 per cent were from Germany.)

In contrast, when a demand was made to the Bonn regime by millions of former German soldiers for payments for the time they had to spend in Allied internment camps after World War II similar to the compensation granted recently by West Germany to hundreds of thousands of Jewish and other alleged victims of persecution by the Hitler regime—the petition of the former German soldiers was flatly denied by Chancellor Adenauer.

And another thing: All of the former German military men, still imprisoned by the U. S. High Command of West Germany, had their teeth kicked out by Jewish "avenging angels" sent to Germany from America after Germany's unconditional surrender in 1945. But you hear only of German atrocities against the Jews and compensation for such alleged acts.

KENNETH GOFF'S LATEST BOOK

One World a Red World

IN THIS BOOK, THE AUTHOR, A FORMER COMMUNIST LEADER, EXPOSES THE INNER WORKINGS OF THE RED PLOT TO CONQUER THE WORLD THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS

KENNETH GOFF

Americans need to know the inside facts about this — the greatest conspiracy in the history of mankind. Never before has anyone completely unmasked the super plot to install Antichrist on the throne of the world. There are prophetic movements in the background which only discerning Christians may hope to understand.

This book names leading reds, internationalists and spies who are being sheltered and protected by the United Nations in their sinister work of destroying America. It shows what is in store for Christian civilization if the One Worlders are successful.

SEVENTH YEAR

OCTOBER 1, 1933

$1.00 PER YEAR

I. YOU WILL BE SHOT!

II. OR AT BEST CONFINED TO THE CONCENTRATION CAMPS they have built for you at Ayon Park, Fla.; Alcatraz, Pa.; Florence, Ariz.; Tule Lake, Cal.; and El Reno, Okla.

III. UNLESS YOU ACT AT ONCE to stop this plot which has been steadily progressing for many years, and especially the last 20 years, and now has its key men in the desired positions of power, ready to pull the strings which will submerge Gentile humanity forever.

IV. Every Senator and Congressman is constantly voting on questions concerning the means of propaganda, sneaking all newspapers and publications who do not bow down to their wishes, and also shutting off all foreign news they do not wish a nation's people to hear. Every regular newspaper in the land talks of the world crisis, but not one dares to inform the public of the Jew plot behind the crisis. They might lose advertising.

XV. The International Jewish Council met at Basel, Switzerland, in 1905 and drew up the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" as the formula for their plan to capture control of the world.

XVI. Jews claim the Protocols are forgeries. A forgery is an unauthorized copy power lies? By their control of gold the Jewish international bankers get richer while Gentile America gets poorer and poorer. In the "Protocols" they say they will drain the entire product of material and labor off the land into their treasuries.

XXI. The Congress "dedicated" in 1913 when it passed the Federal Reserve Act. The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Bank met behind closed doors and has more power than the Congress of the United States. Said Board of Governors is not responsible to the public nor to Congress and has repeatedly shown that it is under the control of the international banker. By raising the rediscount rate (a deliberate act) in 1921 and 1922, they brought on the depression. (The Jewish plan—see the Protocols).

Protocol XX, 26. "Economic crises have been produced by us for the Egoism (Gentile) by no other means than the withdrawal of money from circulation."

This was written in 1905 and referred to the panic of 1903 which was caused by simply and suddenly withdrawing a large amount of gold from the New York Stock Exchange and sending it to Montreal. "Mullins on Federal Reserve" documents the details of this operation from economic XXVII. World War III is being arranged by the Jews in order to bring the entire world into Communism, which is Jewish super capitalism, with the Jews controlling the government as they do now in the Soviet Union and all other Communist countries — Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania (Ratonia), Latvia and Lithuania have been digested by the Communist Jewry—with a few Gentile stooges to front for them. Two and a half million Jews in Russia occupy nearly all government positions and live in luxury with the finest cars and milk coats while the Gentile population lives in slavery and squalor as their slaves. LAZAR KAGANOVICH, Jewish father-in-law of STALIN, is the head man of the Soviet Union behind the scenes.

World War III is to exhaust the nations so that they will agree to a Jewish world government. The Jew-controlled United Nations is to be the world government; the flag of the United Nations is taken from the flag of Israel and Russia.

XXVIII. The world crisis is made by BERNARD BARUCH, FELIX FRANKFURTER, LEHMAN, JAMES PAUL WALTER, LEWIS L. STAUSS (of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.) and has recently been appointed Chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy

115 different U. S. government agencies concerned with manpower." Mr. FIELDS quotes Mrs. ROSENBERG: "Today we are in for a long pull... I would not dare estimate how long. Nobody would believe me. But it's going to last a good many years." ANNA knows the plan of the Protocols. She supervised the hiring of more than a million while she was in that job. It will take ten years to unscramble the Red net-work she set up if America does not pass out before.

XXIX. She was backed by BERNARD BARUCH for her position. She is a friend of EISENHOWER. BARUCH is the secret President of the United States. EISENHOWER is his mouthpiece. EISENHOWER, on BARUCH's advice, opposes the BRICKER amendment so our Constitution can be set aside and world government set up, and the White Race destroyed.

XXXV. Jew EISENHOWER caused the Atomic Energy traitor, KLAUS FUCHS, to be released from jail in Canada and brought to the U. S., where he acted as the world's leading atomic energy spy. EISENHOWER was a strong supporter of traitors JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG. EISENHOWER in a letter to Jew WILLIAM FRAUDENGLASS, New York teacher, advised all witnesses to refuse to answer the world crisis yet few have the guts to tell the people what is back of the entire world crisis and to advocate measures to counteract it.

V. Rather than endure the smear that would come that way many members of Congress are willing to sell their own fuof an original. The Jews never question the authenticity of the original Protocols which were written in Hebrew. The important fact is that the Jews are carrying the plot out to the letter.

XVII. The Russian revolution was financed by Jews, Jacob Schiff, Otto Kahn & Co.

XXII. THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD, Jewish banking house, loaned money to questions before Congressional committees. XXXVII. Jewish international bankers forced that backed EISENHOWER for President also backed STEVENSON. TEUBMAN followed the Jewish instructions. The Jewish international bankers promoting Communism in accordance with the Jewish plan to control the world as outure generations into slavery. Spillages

New York bankers. They advanced at mil-the importance of their positions and thinking they are the all-wise mentors of the nation passing on its vital questions, whereas they are guilty of the grossest hypocrisy of all times in evading the one and all important issue which is the foundation of the Jewish question. They are presiding over the dissolution of the white race.

VI. Many members of Congress desire to lead a life of hypocrisy and escape the real issue, leaving it for others, who, in like manner, leave it for others, and all touch it not. Thus the internal enemy has a free and untrammelled field in which he is moving rapidly forward to the climax.

VII. Needed is a simultaneous effort of a large group of Senators and Congressmen to expose this plot because there is protection in numbers. The public could thus be aroused, and once aroused, would give them its support, and smear of individuals both sides in World War I (the line with the Protocolists plot). Without such loans there would have been no war as either side could afford war. But the Jews wanted war in order to have Gentile destroy Gentile, and to bring on world chaos and to seize power in the interim due to the emergencies created.

XXIII. WILSON put the U. S. into the war to bail out the Jewish banking interests which had elected him, and he put three Jews in complete charge of the United States — BERNARD BARUCH as head of War Industries Board, PAUL WARBURG as head of banking interests, and EUGENE MEYER who now owns the controls Allied Chemical and Dye, head of the Liberty Loan drive. BARUCH spent 10 billion dollars of allied money, giving his own companies the choicest contracts, on which he also could fix prices, and made own making, brought about by them in order to put us in a military straitjacket to them.

XXX. Why did Truman in 1945, in appointing a five-man civilian board Atomic Energy Commission, appoint four Jews as members? Chairman DAVID LILLEN-THAL, then shown to be a member of two Communist fronts, yet backed by BARUCH for the position. Other Jew members, W.
W. WAXMAKER, LEWIS L. STRAUSS and
R. F. BACHER.

XXXI. Why does EISENHOWER now appoint LEWIS L. STRAUSS, Jewish KUHN
Loeb banker, as Chairman of the U. S.
Atomic Energy Commission? Hearst newspapers acclaim STRAUSS because he urged TRUMAN to build the H bomb. Of course he did. He would know that Russia would then obtain the secrets and build it. This will bring on the world crisis faster.

XXXII. Why did Eisenhower appoint Jewish Austrian-born Professor ARTHUR
F. BURNS his Economic Adviser? (The Protocolists say the Jews must occupy the positions of economic advisers).

XXXIII. Why did EISENHOWER appoint James FREDERICK HENNOCK Federal Communications Commissioner, and Jew SAMUEL B. GRONER her assistant?
The Protocolists say they must control all communications.

XXXIV. ANNA M. ROSENBERG, member of the Communist Party, according to her sworn testimony by RALPH DE SOLA, bired 10,000 people for the Manhattan (Atomic Energy) project. (The New Yorker, September 15, 1945). This included the spies JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG, GREENGLASS, SOBEL, GOLD, KLAUS
FUCHS and others. SIDNEY FIELDS, writing in the New York Mirror November 15, 1950, describes the power ANNA had while in charge of the nation's manpower. "Tomorrow MRS. ANNA M.
ROSENBERG assumes her duties as Assistant Secretary of Defense in charge of gold — which is all in our hands — we shall create universal economic crises which will bring industry to a standstill.

Protocol IV, 4. To give the Gentiles no time to think, their minds must be diverted — thus all nations will take no note of their common foe.

XXXVIII. The U. S. is already captured. Its government is under the control of its eleven million Jews headed by the BARUCH, FRANKFURTER, LEHMAN, MORGENTAU, WARBURG gang.
155 million American Gentiles could not take place when a goodly number act simultaneously.

VIII. Communism is a Jewish world mastery plot.

IX. It is the Jewish plot to enslave the Gentiles and to rule over them as kings over slaves.

X. The Jews consider this their destiny as "the chosen people."

XI. To accomplish this they create wars, revolutions, and depressions in order to seize the power during the resulting chaos.

XII. For hundreds of years this has been the Jewish plan on the instructions of their Sanhedrin of Constantinople in its "Finance Protocol of 1492."

XIII. To do so, they have cornered the world's gold supply and have sold the world the fiction that gold is wealth, instead of the land and commodities being recognized as wealth. By their control of gold, they have enslaved all nations to them through loans. They hold the world in an economic straitjacket.

XIV. By their control of gold, they con-reserves of the United States under the control of the Jewish international bankers, ROTHSCHILD, KUHN, LOEB, and LEHMAN, etc.

serve banks are government owned, but all are dependent on the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which is under control himself a multi-millionaire by fleecing the people of the United States.

XXIV. BARUCH has spent his life carrying out the plot of the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" while representing himself to the public as "Elder Statesman" and "Adviser to Presidents." He pretends to be a patriot by advising America what it should do for protection against war crises which he and his gang has fostered on America in their plot.

BARUCH spent $10,000 to bring the Communist church burners back from Spain where they burned religious leaders alive after covering them with kerosene. (Time Magazine, Jan. 2, 1939)

XXV. World War II was forced on Germany by the Jewish international bankers who squeezed Germany financially for this purpose. Jew, SAMUEL UNTERSMEYER, brought about the boycott of Germany in 1933 for this purpose.

XXVI. World War II was for the purpose of the Jews doing to Germany what they did to Russia in World War I, causing revolution and establishing Communism.

ruled by eleven million Jews. A nation within a nation. And in the world billions of Gentiles are ruled by 16 million world Jews.

XXXIX. DAVID SENTER, political writer for the Hearst papers on July 6, 1953, states that the man behind the guns in the EISENHOWER administration is SIDNEY JAMES WEINBERG.
Wall Street investment banker of GOIT-MAN, SACHS & COMPANY. It is clear that the Eisenhower cabinet was hand-picked by WEINBERG's man, General
LUCIUS CLAY, whom WEINBERG made

BERG and BARUCH rule EISENHOWER that is definite.

XL. While focusing our attention on the enemy from without, the enemy from within has captured the United States government. The power passed from the people to the state about twenty years ago. No longer are the three divisions of government, Legislative, Executive, Judicial of equal power as was intended by the founding fathers. (SEE OTHER AIDS)

JESUS NOT A "JEW"!

CONSPIRATORS CAPITALIZING CHRISTIAN CONFUSION

Red-led, anti-Christ, world-wide, creeping-conquest winning cold-war with strategy based on confusion of free-world

Jesus was not a "Jew"!

The "Big Lie" to the contrary is the pivotal point about which rotate the anti-Christ forces so energetically exerted throughout the world for the total destruction of Christianity and all it represents.

Countless devious methods are subtly employed for this purpose by the anti-Christ conspirators. The multiplicity of the schemes employed for this purpose, by the anti-Christ conspirators in their war against Christianity sounds incredible, but not to Christians who have investigated the subject to the extent justified.

The anti-Christ conspirators are making capital of the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew" as the catalyst with which to transform their age-old dream into stark reality. Their aim for centuries was focused upon erasing Christianity from the mind of man and eradicating from the face of the earth every spiritual and cultural Christian landmark, without any exceptions.

The anti-Christ conspirators are dedicating their lives and material resources to the achievement of their ambition. Their policies and programs in every walk in life are committed to accomplishing that aim, and at the first opportunity within their power to do so.

The desecration and the ultimate destruction of the milestones in the march of Christianity is the purpose closest to the hearts of the anti-Christ conspirators. They justify the sacrifices they make as contributions towards the early attainment of their unholy aspiration.

The anti-Christ conspirators appear to be winning the war they are waging against Christianity. Christians appear unaware of the danger which hovers over them. Christianity does not appear able to withstand the disintegrating action of this corrosive influence. How long before it is too late to thwart their plan?

Christians must institute at once a more intensive and aggressive ideological counter-offensive. The feeble but courageous defense by the few Christians making the attempt invites defeat. The trend must not only be arrested, it must also be reversed. Progress in the wrong direction must end, before it ends Christianity.

The anti-Christ conspirators are the master-minds and the main-springs of the critical developments throughout the world which portend such disaster for all mankind, excepting only themselves. The similar pattern of each one serves only to confirm the common origin of all. There can no longer be any mistake about that.

The anti-Christ conspirators are now feeding the fuel to the flames which now threaten to consume all mankind's progress since the birth of Christ. Under their rule the liberty, freedom and dignity of the human individual is destined to disappear from the face of the earth. A society of slaves to the state will replace our Christian civilization founded upon the God-given inherent and inalienable rights of mankind.

The subtle methods employed by the anti-Christ conspirators are so cleverly camouflaged that Christians today are totally ignorant of what is actually taking place in the world. Unless Christians wake up soon it may shortly be too late to avert the fate which is being arranged for them by the anti-Christ conspirators. It is a very positive program and a definite timetable.

The Christian clergy, at the high and low levels, and Christian laymen occupying positions of great strategic importance in political, social and economic circles, have long sensed the existence of this anti-Christ conspiracy. They appear to be well supplied with the facts which disprove the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew".

It is now growing very late. Christians still have time to speak up in the defense of Christianity, if they elect to do so soon. The shadows which coming events cast before them make it look as though this will be their last opportunity to do so. This opportunity may soon disappear, never to ever make its reappearance.

Abraham Lincoln uttered words of great wisdom when he said that those who remain silent when they should speak are cowards. The fate of Christianity must not be allowed to remain exclusively in the hands of cowards. The fear of political, social or economic sacrifice must be removed as the psychological road-block which now threatens the survival of Christianity.

To a far greater extent than realized, the Christian clergy has become the host-age of the anti-Christ conspirators. The Christian clergy fear the renewed smear of Christianity. They know their penalty for publicly airing the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew". Their fears are founded on fact. Public discussion by Christian clergy of the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew" would automatically set into motion a renewed smear campaign against all Christianity.

The anti-Christ conspirators have in fact decreed a "taboo" on discussion of the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew". This prohibition inhibits Christian clergy with the force of an edict by the church hierarchies. From a practical point of view, their discretion may display better judgment than valor might at this moment.

The facts which follow are the result of the lifetime research by the world's most competent authorities on this subject. The facts which are stated here may be disputed, they may also be denied, but they can never be disproved. The following facts are all accepted universally without question by every leading historian, theologian, archaeologist, philologist, and anthropologist today, as self-evident truths.

The facts which follow will disprove the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew". These same facts are the foundation upon which Christianity erected the structure which has exerted the most vital civilizing force ever to impress its influence upon mankind. Christian civilization is the application of the teachings of Jesus to all. Modern civilization dates from the advent of Jesus.

Christians search their souls in vain to find the answer why the anti-Christ conspirators insist that Jesus was a "Jew" in the "Big Lie" which they lay so much stress. Christians have queried themselves without success to discover the answer. The answer will be found in an understanding of their sinister conspiracy.

The anti-Christ conspirators have come to the conclusion that the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew" is their most effective secret-weapon in the war they are waging to destroy Christianity. This fact is confirmed by an abundance of evidence. Their attitudes and activities supply the proof which establishes their guilt.

Jesus was not a "Jew." Jesus was a Judean. During the lifetime of Jesus here on earth, there were never persons described as "Jews" anywhere. That fact is supported by theology, history, and science. That fact is incontestable. "Jews", by any name, did not exist.

The distinction and the difference between Judean and "Jew" may not be apparent or evident at first glance. But the distinction and the difference are very important. In the time of Jesus, it is certain that "Jews" did not exist anywhere, either in the sense that "Jew" is now applied to the period at that time, or in the sense that "Jew" is now applied to persons who have conspired to style themselves "Jews".

Jesus dwelt in Judea. At that time in its hectic history, Judea was a province of the Roman Empire. During the five preceding centuries, Judea had been, first a province of the Babylonian Empire, and thereafter a like province in the Persian Empire. During this 500 year period, the persons who made Judea their domicile were correctly called Judeans. "Jews" were neither a sect nor a cult in Judea.

During the five hundred years prior to the birth of Christ, Judeans were not described, or referred to as "Jews". This applied to the entire population of Judea, and to all the sects and cults in Judea in this period in its history. Contemporary literature offers proof of the fact Judeans saw not nor heard the word "Jew".

Contrary to the traditions and to the legends believed by all Christians, with a few exceptions, at the time Jesus made His home in Judea, Judea was not the "homeland" of the ancestors of the persons throughout the world today who style themselves "Jews". That myth existed for centuries. It has been completely exposed and exploded in recent years. The ancestors of the persons who today style themselves "Jews" never set a foot in Judea. They existed at that time deep in the heart of Asia, their "homeland", and were known as Khazars.

JESUS NOT A "JEW"!

This historic fact applies also to Judea prior to the time when Jesus dwelt there. None of the provinces of the same name which occupied that area under the rule of other empires, nor any of the kingdoms or sovereign states which occupied that area before it became a province of the Babylonian Empire, including the short-lived kingdom of Judah, were the "homeland" of the ancestors of those persons throughout the world who style themselves "Jews" today, only to camouflage their conspiracy.

Jesus was a Judean. Like all others who dwelt in Judea, Jesus was also a Judean. Through the ages, "Judean" has always, explicitly and implicitly, been a geographic or topographic term. By the widest stretch of the imagination, the term Judean could never signify racial origin or form of religious worship. It could only designate one thing, geographic place of residence.

Exactly as the term Texan signifies a person making his home in Texas, the term Judean signifies a person making his home in Judea. Like the term Texan, the term Judean is a geographic or topographic term. There can be no doubt of it in the mind of a sane person.

There are Texans in Texas today of all leading religious beliefs, and all principal racial origins. The designation "Texan" signifies neither the racial origin nor the religious belief of any Texan. Besides being a Texan however, every Texan is also a member of an organized religious belief, or an atheist, and a Caucasian, Redskin Indian, Negro, or a Mongolian, racially.

When Jesus dwelt in Judea, the term Judean then was an exclusively geographic and topographic as the term Texan is today for those who dwell in Texas. Racial origin or form of religious worship was not instituted then by the term "Judean", nor now by the term "Texan".

The racial origin and the form of religious worship practiced by Jesus can be established just as definitely as His Judean nationality is established. But beyond the peradventure of any doubt, Jesus in Judea was not a member of the "race", the "religion" or the "nation" of the ancestors of those persons throughout the world who today style themselves "Jews", and thereby claim a kinship with Jesus.

The manuscripts of the New Testament which today form the New Testament, were written in the Greek language. In these original manuscripts of the New Testament Jesus is described and referred to exclusively as a Judean. Scripts of the New Testament were written by contemporaries of Jesus. They spoke and wrote of Jesus as a Judean, never once as a "Jew".

In the 4th Century the New Testament was translated from the Greek into the Latin by Saint Jerome, for the first time. This version of the New Testament in Latin is referred to as the Vulgate Edition. This version of the New Testament was adopted by the Christian Church as its official version. In the Vulgate Edition of the New Testament Jesus is likewise described and referred to exclusively as a Judean.

In neither the manuscripts of the original New Testament in the Greek language, written by the contemporaries of Jesus, nor in the translation into Latin by Saint Jerome, adopted by the Christian Church as its official version, was Jesus described or referred to as a "Jew". Jesus was a Judean to them, never a "Jew".

In all the recorded history of mankind prior to that period, there is no record of a race, religion or nationality described or referred to by the word "Jew". In spite of the powerful propaganda effort to prove otherwise, self-styled "Jews" were not able to do this.

In the year 1380 a translation of the New Testament from the Latin appeared for the first time in the English language. That translation is known today as the Wycliff Edition. In the year 1534 another translation into the English language appeared, known today as the Tyndal Edition. In them Jesus is not a "Jew".

In the year 1539 another translation into the English language appeared, known today as the Cranmer Edition. In the year 1557 another translation into the English language known today as the Geneva Edition appeared, followed in the year 1582 by the Rheims Edition, and then in 1611 by the Authorized Edition.

These translations into the English language were made from the translation into Latin by Saint Jerome in the 4th Century. In these first translations into the English language, in each instance, the editors used the word then in current use in the English language for the word indicating Judean in Latin in the Vulgate Edition of the New Testament. But in no case did any of them use the word "Jew", which as a consequence, does not appear in any of these first translations ever to be made of the New Testament into the English language, as noted.

In the more recent versions of the New Testament in the English language, the word "Jew" was substituted for the first time for the versions previously used in the English language for the word "Judean". Jesus was described and referred to then as a "Jew" for the first time. The first use of the word "Jew" in this manner only occurred in the 17th Century.

The word "Jew" was first coined in the 17th Century. Prior to that late century, "Jew" did not exist in the English language. William Shakespeare never used the word "Jew" in any of his works, contrary to what is otherwise understood. William Shakespeare never saw or heard the word "Jew". It was coined after he had gone to another world; strange but true.

The introduction of the word "Jew" into the English vocabulary demands and deserves an explanation. The word "Jew" in the English language came into existence as a contracted and corrupted form for the earlier Old English word "Iudean". "Iudean" was the earliest form of the word in the English language to convey the meaning of the corresponding word in Latin, in the Vulgate Edition, for "Judean".

The Latin "Iudean" comes from the Greek "Ioudaios". The Greek "Ioudaios" also means Judean. Over a period of many centuries the early Old English "Iudean" developed into the 17th Century "Jew", a long road as will now be seen, from Greek "Ioudaios" to English "Jew".

From the "Iudean" in early Old English to the 17th Century "Jew" of modern English, many other versions of the word came into use and were discarded. The "Jew" there came into use successively Gru, Ghu, Gru, Ju, Iou, Iuw, Ieu, Ieuu, Iruy, Iru, Iow, Iew, Ieuu, Iue, Iru, Iow, and then finally in the 17th Century, Jew. For "Jews", there came into use successively Olwis, Glwis, Glus, Gryus, Gywes, Olwes, Gous, Iows, Iowu, Iews, and finally in the 17th Century, Jews, with no changes after that date.

The vocabulary of the English language reveals many other words which the English language has acquired from foreign languages by the same process. The English language creates its own shortened form, or its more easily pronounced form, or a form which is both, for foreign words which are long and difficult to pronounce in their foreign spelling. The English vocabulary was expanded from less than 1,000 words to more than 26,000 words in this manner. "Jew" thus became an English word.

The facts set forth here explain how it came to pass that in the 17th Century, for the first time, Jesus was described and referred to as a "Jew". Then with the use of the new printing press in the 17th Century, the version of the New Testament in the English language was widely introduced among the English-speaking homes, for the first time in history. And so to the English-speaking people, Jesus became a "Jew". Self-styled "Jews" then adopted the word.

Since the 17th Century, the word "Jew" has been given a few misleading secondary meanings as the result of powerful propaganda. These misleading secondary meanings for the word "Jew" are totally inconsistent with the original intent and correct meaning of the word. These uses did not occur as a matter of accident. They were the product of the most powerful propaganda effort in all modern history.

This powerful propaganda effort had a single and simple purpose. It aimed to associate in the minds of Christians a common origin for persons throughout the world who styled themselves "Jews", and Jesus Christ whom they also styled a "Jew". That became their theme song.

The powerful propaganda effort of self-styled "Jews" throughout the world today is directed towards creating the belief in the minds of Christians that, (1) self-styled "Jews" throughout the world are members of a "race" and "nation" which worships according to an ancient religious belief common to all "Jews", and (2) Jesus Christ was a member of the same "race" and "nation", known today as "Jews", and that Jesus also practiced that same religious worship!

A by-product of the powerful propaganda efforts of self-styled "Jews" throughout the world is the belief, generally held by Christians, of an alleged historic connection with Palestine, in ancient history, of the ancestors of self-styled "Jews" today. All credible evidence points to the fact that the ancestors of self-styled "Jews" today were not a "race" which occupied Palestine as a "nation" in ancient history, and while temporarily resident there, created a new "religion", unknown to any before them.

The anti-Christ conspirators swarming over the world today, aiming at the total destruction of Christianity, overlook no opportunity to circulate the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew". As stated, they also aim to convince Christians that Jesus was a member of the same "race", the same "nation", and the same "religion" from which self-styled "Jews" today claim common origin for every self-styled "Jew" since.

Self-styled "Jews" today are tremendously happy with their secret-weapon. They never hesitate an instant to use it upon Christians to "remind" them that, "Jesus was a Jew too", or "Jesus was one of our race", or "You made a Jew your God", or "You worship a Jew in your church", or any of the many other standardized similar senseless statements. Why do self-styled "Jews" today make such statements when they know the facts to be otherwise? Ask them, why?

Self-styled "Jews" today find no difficulty in alienating Christians with their secret-weapon, "The Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew". It acts as a most effective gag when one is desired. As a consequence, Christians find it difficult to discuss with self-styled "Jews" today many topics of the greatest importance to our world peace. Self-styled "Jews" appear offended when the topic of communism brings in religion.

At the first hint of any intention to discuss a subject which has been declared "taboo" by self-styled "Jews", they quickly trot out the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew". Christians are immediately "reminded" that "Jesus was a Jew too", and etc., etc., etc., ad nauseum. Unless Christians refrain from further discussion of the subject, just as sure as night follows day, they find themselves targets for vicious smears.

Regardless of which way a Christian turns today, he is reminded constantly that Jesus was a "Jew". Christians read it, see it, and hear it nowadays wherever they go. It sounds incredible but it is nevertheless true. Christians are the target for this sinister propaganda from Christian leaders, as well as from self-styled "Jews". Self-styled "Jews" today subsidize two leading Christian organizations for this work.

Is it any wonder that today Christians swallow the "Big Lie", Jesus was a "Jew"? Where is the source of this unseen power which secretly underwrites Christian effort to infect Christian thinking with this un-Christian, non-Christian, and anti-Christian "satanic untruth"?

Because the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew" is fraught with danger to Christianity, Christian leaders should tell Christians the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth on this subject in all haste. The following are a few examples of what is taking place. If space permitted, thousands of other examples are available. This would only serve to multiply untruth.

The "holy of holies" of the Christian publications, of the Protestant churches, is "Episcopal Church News". It is the oldest and most respected of Protestant publications. It was founded in the year 1835. When its editors express an opinion on any topic, their utterances are regarded as the "facts of life" on that subject by one of the largest and most important segments of Christianity in the United States, and maybe the world. The editorial comments of its renowned editors, the Reverends C. Edward Berger, W. Leigh Ribble and Chad Walsh, are the signposts indicating the direction of Christian thinking on any topic in the year 1953.

The Reverends Berger, Ribble, and Walsh, in the December 28, 1952 issue of "Episcopal Church News" featured an editorial under the title, "The Circumcision of Christ". Those three eminent Reverends can hardly be charged with ignorance of the facts stated in this publication, or with indifference to the truth. Every fact stated here is Gospel truth with which they must be familiar, and with which they can neither express doubt nor disagreement. But in spite of all proof to the contrary, this statement appeared in the aforementioned recent editorial:

"CHRIST WAS A JEW . . . IN A VERY REAL SENSE ALL CHRISTIANS ARE JEWS."

The very eminent Reverends, John Haynes Holmes, Minister Emeritus, and Donald Harrington, the present Minister of the Community Church in New York City, are two outstanding Protestant Churchmen, with a large nationwide acceptance for their points of view.

The New York Times, of December 22, 1952, gives prominence, as a news item, to the eighth "Christmas-Hanukkah" celebration held jointly by the Reverends Holmes and Harrington, in Community Church on December 21, 1952. This highly publicized annual event attracts a large attendance, and is given very effective publicity from coast-to-coast by self-styled "Jews".

Consistent with the pattern of the propaganda effort of Christian clergymen today, Reverend Holmes stressed the point that "Jesus was a Jew", as he so often does in his public statements. The New York Times confirms Reverend Holmes' emphasis on the "Big Lie" that Jesus was a "Jew" with the following reference to his remarks to that effect, at the celebration:

"CITING THE FACT THAT JESUS WAS A JEW, HE (Reverend Holmes) SAID . . ."

The sermon delivered in the Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago, by the Reverend Thomas A. Meehan, editor of "The New World", Chicago archdiocese newspaper, was quoted and commented upon in the May 24, 1952 issue of "The Parish Calendar", a periodical published by Saint Stephens Church in Philadelphia, Penn.

The entire back-page of "The Parish Calendar" was devoted to quotations from that sermon, and comments of the editor. Space here will only permit a short extract from it. The entire page is filled throughout with sentiments like the following out of that sermon:

"REV. THOMAS A. MEEHAN . . . REMINDS (HIS CONGREGATION) THAT THE 'DEAREST AND MOST INTIMATE FRIEND OF EVERY TRUE CATHOLIC IS A JEW—AND HIS NAME IS JESUS CHRIST' . . . AND 'IF IT WASN'T FOR THE JEWS WE WOULD NOT HAVE JESUS CHRIST SINCE IN A SENSE THEY GAVE HIM TO US' . . ."

What defense can they plead for giving "aid and comfort to the enemy", as they are doing. It is rightfully said, "half the truth is more dangerous than a lie". If they know only half the truth, it behooves them to reserve making public utterances until they know all the facts, regardless of the subject. The world expects from them "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth", but does not get it.

When questioned in private, Reverend Birkhead acknowledges that Jesus was not a "Jew". But in his "column" in a December issue of "Exposure", Reverend Birkhead's first line is the direct opposite of what he knows to be the truth:

"JESUS WAS A JEW. CHRISTIANS GO TO CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY AND WORSHIP JESUS THE JEW."

The Christians who accept Reverend Birkhead as a Christian minister will be surprised to learn that Reverend Birkhead has for many years been an undercover propagandist for the anti-Christ conspirators. The anti-Christ conspirators have contributed millions of dollars to Reverend Birkhead's anti-Christ organization called, "Friends of Democracy", which is in fact one of the many "fronts" for the anti-Christ B'nai B'rith's Anti-defamation League "gestapo".

To an equal degree with other deceptions, the anti-Christ conspirators succeeded in deceiving Christians concerning the form of religious worship practiced by Jesus. The anti-Christ conspirators knowingly, wilfully and maliciously represent "Judaism" as the form of religious worship practiced and approved by Jesus.

Christians at grass-root levels understand neither the origin of, nor the ideology of, "Judaism". What Christians today know concerning "Judaism" is the product of powerful propaganda. It is not a true picture of its origin or ideology. Christians are told about "Judaism" only what self-styled "Jews" today wish them to believe. Other facts are kept from Christians.

However, the Christian clergy know the "facts of life" concerning "Judaism". That subject is thoroughly aired in Christian theological seminaries. The Christian clergy cannot with grace plead ignorance like the Christian layman.

Self-styled "Jews" now exert a form of ideological duress upon Christians. They have decreed a "taboo" upon public discussion of the alleged confraternity of Jesus and "Judaism". A prohibition by self-styled "Jews" inhibits the Christian clergy or laity from public discussion of what Jesus thought and said about "Judaism".

The Christian hierarchies realize that violation of this "taboo" by them will invite a smear campaign against them. They have witnessed, and in many cases fisted, the havoc wrought by the smear campaigns of the anti-Christ conspirators. They are not unaware of the countless mediums owned or controlled by them, and in constant readiness to go to work on Christians who dare to ignore their "taboo".

The fear of this smear is the factor which operates to keep this subject "under wraps". Will the fear of this smear keep this subject "under wraps" forever? It is often true that discretion is the better part of valor. Under the circumstances it may be wiser to display a little more valor and a little less discretion.

The anti-Christ conspirators have nothing to fear but the truth. They can vanquish anything but the truth. Truth is indivisible and indestructible. They are powerless against it. They fear the truth worse than the devil fears holy water. The truth must be told!

The anti-Christ conspirators will stop at nothing to prevent Christians from learning the truth about Jesus and His alleged confraternity with "Judaism". When Christians learn the truth about that form of religious worship self-styled "Jews" today refer to as "Judaism" in the time of Jesus, they will not believe the fiction of an alleged confraternity between Jesus and "Judaism". The truth will end all doubt.

Different origins distinguish "Jew" and "Judaism". They sound alike to the ear, but that is all. "Jew" sounds like the first syllable of "Judaism". But it is not. Christians have been an easy prey for self-styled "Jews" because "Jew" and "Judaism" have similar sounds. But this synthetic confusion must not eclipse truth.

The powerful propaganda effort of self-styled "Jews" in modern history has taken two totally unrelated words and made them mean almost the same thing. Christians must leave no stone unturned to find out the facts about "Judaism". Is it to be a case of "too little and too late" in the case of Christianity also?

This is "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth" about the origin and theological content of "Judaism". The facts recited here upon this subject could not be more authentic. The authority for any fact stated here is reliable. The sources of information are the most highly regarded textbooks on the subject by the most respected authorities among self-styled "Jews", specialists in this very subject.

For many centuries, Christians have been fed powerful propaganda reiterating that in the time of Jesus in Judea a form of religious worship was practiced there known as "Judaism". This powerful propaganda also alleged that "Judaism" was the form of religious worship practiced by Jesus, and by His family, prior to His birth. They call the Holy Mother a "Jewess".

Christians for centuries have assumed Judeans were really "Jews" and that that "Judaism" was the form of religious worship practiced by Jesus. Christians for centuries have also assumed that Judeans were "Jews" and that "Judaism" was the form of religious worship practiced by "Jews" wherever they happened to exist, or drift, during the past 2,000 year period.

However, "Judaism" was not a form of religious worship practiced in Judea in the time of Jesus. "Judaism" was not a form of religious worship practiced in Judea at that time. Then, or prior to that time, "Judaism" was unknown in Judea to the sect whom self-styled "Jews" today refer to as the "Jews" in Judea in the time of Jesus. There was no "Judaism" then.

The word "Judaism" did not yet exist in the time of Jesus. The word "Judaism" was only coined after the Crucifixion. And when the word "Judaism" was coined it did not refer to a form of religious worship. It referred to the civilization of Judea, meaning its language, poetry, art, science, manners, customs, and its institutions among which were widely differing forms of religious worship practiced in Judea at that time.

Flavius Josephus, a historian writing in the Greek language, coined the word "Judaism". Flavius Josephus, searching in the Greek language for the Greek word to express Judean civilization, found no such word in the Greek language. Flavius Josephus was seeking a word for the civilization, not for any religion.

Flavius Josephus was writing for the instruction of the Greeks and Romans at the time. Flavius Josephus sought in vain for the word which indicated the civilization of Judea, to be able to contrast it in his writings then with the civilization of Greece, or "Hellenism" as it was known. Necessity for such a word compelled Flavius Josephus to coin one. "Judaism" is the word Flavius Josephus thereupon coined to describe the civilization of Judea. There was no corresponding word in any other language to specifically identify the civilization of Judea.

"Judaism" was not the name of a form of religious worship practiced anywhere on the face of this earth in the time of Jesus. How could "Judaism" then have been the form of religious worship practiced by Jesus in Judea? None of the many religious sects in Judea in the time of Jesus practiced a form of religious worship known as "Judaism", including the sect whom self-styled "Jews" today refer to as "Jews".

During his lifetime, Flavius Josephus was regarded as a "traitor to his race", by the sect in Judea referred to by self-styled "Jews" today as "Jews" then, but he was not that at all. His historical works accurately exposed and explained the part played in the politics of the nation by this sect conspiring to become its rulers.

The religious sect in Judea, in the time of Jesus, which all self-styled "Jews" today refer to as "Jews" then, was the religious sect known as "Pharisees". "Judaism" today and the "Phariseism" in the time of Jesus are the same.

The "Pharisees", the sect in Judea in the time of Jesus, referred to by self-styled "Jews" today as "Jews" in Judea, in the time of Jesus, were forbidden under severe penalties from reading any of the works of Flavius Josephus, or from adopting any of his theological, practical, or historical ideas. Hence, the term "Judaism" remained absolutely unknown to them all.

It was only in comparatively recent times, after self-styled "Jews" in modern history became familiar with Christian literature, that they began to name their form of religious worship "Judaism". It is a modern innovation that confuses Christians who are not told the facts.

The Christian writers had seized upon the name "Judaism" to distinguish Christianity from all other forms of religious worship practiced prior to Christianity. Christian writers preserved the word "Judaism" by mere accident, and, it was only in comparatively recent times that self-styled "Jews" discovered the word in Christian literature, and commenced to use it as the name for their form of religious worship.

The word in the Greek language coined by Flavius Josephus to describe the civilization of Judea was "Ioudaismos". From the Greek "Ioudaismos" came the Latin "Judaismus". From the Latin "Judaismus" came the English "Judaism", now the official title for the form of religious worship of self-styled "Jews" today.

The first appearance in the English language of a word from the Latin "Judaismus" appeared in the year 1494. That word was "Judaisme". The first recorded appearance in the English language of the word "Judaism" was in the year 1725. It is of modern vintage.

The English used the word "Judaism" in its most limited sense. They used it to describe the form of religious worship practiced by self-styled "Jews". As explained earlier, the Christian writers had seized upon the word "Judaism" for that purpose only very recently.

In the time of Jesus there were no words in any of the Semitic languages corresponding with the Greek "Ioudaismos". If such a word did exist in any of the nineteen Semitic languages, it would have appeared in Aramaic or Syriac, the two Semitic languages then chiefly spoken in that area in the time of Jesus. There was no word for the civilization of Judea in any language, requiring that such a word be coined.

The form of religious worship practiced in Judea in the time of Jesus, referred to by self-styled "Jews" today as "Judaism", was known at that time to the people in Judea as "The Traditions of the Pharisees". Historians and theologians have shortened it to "Phariseism", the discarded ancient name for "Judaism".

The religious form of worship in Judea in the day of Jesus, known as "Phariseism", has emerged in modern history under its new name, "Judaism". The world's outstanding authority on the subject is Professor Louis Finkelstein of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, who supplies proof of this fact.

Professor Finkelstein, in his classic work on the subject, "The Pharisees, The Sociological Background of Their Faith", published in 1946 by The Jewish Publication Society of America, in Philadelphia, states his findings thus:

"Phariseism became Talmudism. Talmudism became . . . Modern Rabbinism . . . But throughout these changes in name . . . the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered . . . When the Jew studies the Talmud, he is accurately repeating the arguments used in the Palestinian academies . . . from Palestine to Babylon; from Babylonia to North Africa, Italy, Spain, France, Germany; from these to Poland, Russian and eastern Europe generally, ancient Phariseism has wandered . . . eighteenth and nineteenth centuries produced spirited and diverse types, yet united in their loyalty to their ancient teaching . . . As recently as the latter half of the nineteenth century, there were rabbis who . . . were the equals of the greatest of the Pharisee or Talmudic sages . . . demonstrates the enduring importance which attaches to Phariseism as a religious movement".

Self-styled "Jews" today, throughout the world, regard Michael L. Rodkinson as the best qualified expert in all history on the origin of self-styled "Jews", and their form of religious worship, called "Judaism". An international conference of his co-religionists unanimously selected Rodkinson to make the "official" translation of the Talmud into English from its original texts in the languages they call Hebrew.

Rodkinson's translation of the Talmud into English appeared under the title, "New Edition of the Babylonian Talmud". Rodkinson's translation of the Talmud is recognized and accepted by foremost theologians of all leading religious beliefs throughout the world as the most authoritative translation of the original text of the Talmud. Its reliability is never questioned.

Rodkinson's "New Edition of the Babylonian Talmud" is today the "official" text of self-styled "Jews", and their religious leaders. As stated on its title page, The Reverend Isaac M. Wise, the famous president of The Hebrew Union College of Cincinnati, Ohio, "revised and corrected" the first edition, with his endorsement.

In the Editor's Preface, in Volume I, of Rodkinson's "New Edition of the Babylonian Talmud", in the chapters under the title, "The History of the Talmud", appears this very significant statement, which tells the whole story:

"THE MODERN JEW IS THE PRODUCT OF THE TALMUD."

In LOOK Magazine for June 17, 1932, a feature appeared under the title, "What Is a Jew?". This propaganda was put into LOOK Magazine by its sponsors because it has a circulation of over 4,500,000 copies, a very virile medium for powerful propaganda. But this propaganda is reacting against them like a boomerang.

The author's name of "What Is a Jew?" appears as Rabbi Morris N. Kertzer. Rabbi Kertzer is represented as the president of the "Jewish Chaplains Association of the Armed Forces", and "director of Interreligious Activities for the American Jewish Committee". Rabbi Kertzer has distinguished himself among his co-religionists, and Christians, as an outstanding authority on the subject about which this article however does not at all present a true picture.

The article, "What Is a Jew?", consists of questions asked of Rabbi Kertzer, and his answers to the questions. The question with the most important implications is the question, "What is the Talmud?". Rabbi Kertzer, the "noted authority", as LOOK Magazine describes him, gives the following answer to that question, to "help set the record straight", as LOOK Magazine describes Rabbi Kertzer's explanation:

"The Talmud consists of 63 books of legal, ethical, and historical writings of the ancient rabbis. It was edited five centuries after the birth of Jesus. It is a compendium of law and lore. IT IS THE LEGAL CODE WHICH FORMS THE BASIS OF JEWISH RELIGIOUS LAW AND IS THE TEXTBOOK USED IN THE TRAINING OF RABBIS."

As stated by Professor Finkelstein, in "The Pharisees, The Sociological Background of Their Faith", quoted earlier, and confirmed by every leading authority among self-styled "Jews", and Christians, the form of religious worship practiced by self-styled "Jews" today under the name "Judaism", is the 20th Century version of "Pharissism", under its different name.

Self-styled "Jews" leave no choice to Christians. Christians henceforth must regard "Judaism" as the new name for the ancient form of religious worship practiced in the time of Jesus under the name "Pharissism". Christians must try to learn the answers to these two questions. Firstly, what composed the theological content of "Pharissism", and secondly, what was the attitude of Jesus towards the beliefs and the practices of the Pharisees, as He told it.

Jesus despised, detested, and denounced the beliefs and practices of the "Pharisees" with all the vehemence and vigor He could command. As that "great warrior", the Honorable Alfred E. Smith, said, in no doubt "take a look at the record". The New Testament is the best evidence that Jesus was the implacable enemy of the theological tenets and civic concept of the "Pharisees". The New Testament is the most authentic source of evidence on this.

The attitude of Jesus and His followers, towards the Talmud, has never been a mystery to self-styled "Jews". Referring to "the persecutors" of the Talmud, "during twenty centuries", Rodkinson in his "History of the Talmud" confirms the belligerence of Jesus towards the Talmud, with a fact which dispels any doubt:

"THE PERSECUTORS OF THE TALMUD (were) . . . THE FOLLOWERS OF JESUS"

Rabbi Kertzer, in the article "What Is a Jew?", bearing his name, explains that the Talmud contains, "thousands of wonderful parables, biographical sketches, historical notes, humorous anecdotes, and epigrams". Rabbi Kertzer failed to mention that the Talmud also contains statements, of a very different character, far in excess of the number of "moral maxims" in Rabbi Kertzer's remark. Was it only oversight?

Rabbi Kertzer emphasizes the "moral maxims of the Talmud", and supplies as examples, "Give every man the benefit of the doubt, 'An ignorant man cannot be a pious one', and, 'Don't look at the flask but at what it contains'". Accepting the timely invitation extended by the spirit expressed in the "moral maxim", cited above by Rabbi Kertzer, to take a "look" at what the "flask" contains, it will not be out of place to take a "look" into the Talmud, to see what it "contains", which might enlighten Christians about what the Talmud says of them.

Rabbi Kertzer omitted from the "moral maxims" quoted by him, in "What Is a Jew?", any reference to the passages in the Talmud which refer to Christians, Christianity or to Jesus Christ. Rabbi Kertzer completely omits any "moral maxims" of the Talmud on those three topics, although the Talmud abounds with them. The omission may have been intentional or accidental. The references in the Talmud to these three topics symbolize the pattern of the anti-Christ conspiracy. The mouthings of self-styled "Jews" on the subject of "brotherhood", are a mockery of the word while the Talmud remains the "textbook" used to "train rabbis".

Translations from the original texts of the Talmud by Hebraist scholars reveals the following references in the Talmud to Christians, Christianity, and to Jesus Christ; the one object of all the actions and prayers of the Jews should be to destroy the Christian religion; Jews must never leave Christians in peace; Jews must never submit to Christians; all Christians, including the best, are to be killed; those who kill Christians shall have a high place in heaven; no festival, no matter how solemn, must prevent the beheading of a Christian; in their prayers the Jews sigh for the coming of a revengeful Messiah; a Jew who kills a Christian commits no sin, but offers an acceptable sacrifice to God; the only sacrifice necessary is the extermination of the Christians; Christians are to be killed because they are tyrants; baptized Jews are to be put to death; a Christian who is found studying the Talmud merits death; Jews are obliged to unite together to destroy traitors amongst them; a Christian in danger of death must not be helped; a sick Christian must not be aided; a Christian woman in childbirth must not be helped; a Jew must always try to deceive Christians; a Jew may lie and perjure himself to condemn a Christian; a Jew is allowed to practice perjury on Christians; Christians may be defrauded; lost property of Christians must not be returned to them; Christians must not be told if they pay too much to a Jew; a Jew is forbidden to teach a trade to Christians; a Jew is forbidden to sell his farm to Christians; Christian "idols" must be spoken of with contempt; a Jew is not allowed to mention the things which Christians use for their idolatrous worship; it is not permitted to praise a Christian; good is not to be done to Christians; avoid Christians as nurses; avoid Christians as teachers; avoid Christians as doctors; avoid Christians as barbers; avoid Christians as obstetricians; avoid Christians because they are idolaters; a Christian cannot be used as a witness; a Jew must not go before a Christian judge; the souls of Christians are unclean; Christians propagate like beasts; Christians are worse than animals; Christians differ only in form from beasts; Jesus Christ was illegitimate, and was conceived during menstruation; Jesus Christ had the soul of Esau; Jesus Christ was a fool, a conjurer, a seducer; Jesus Christ was crucified, buried in hell, and set up as an idol ever since by His followers.

The Talmud contains very complete data on such subjects as, sodomy with children; cohabitation with children three years of age; unnatural intercourse; incest; uses of semen; seduction; rape; sexual intercourse between mother and son; puberty; bestiality; virginity; menstruation; bridal obligation; intercourse on Sabbath days; conjugal duty according to class; compensation for various forms of violation; contraceptives; sex relations with animals; adultery; coition; and many more subjects too vile to mention here and now. Its obscenity is too degenerate.

In view of the startling information given here, much of it for the first time, serious doubt may arise whether the Talmud in use by self-styled "Jews" today, and the Talmud of the "Pharisees", contain the same material. The great authority on that subject, Michael L. Rodkinson, answers that question in his, "The Talmud at Stake", in which he states as follows:

"AT THE BEGINNING OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY THE TALMUD . . . WAS SO SAVED THAT NOT EVEN A SINGLE LETTER IS MISSING; AND NOW IT IS FLOURISHING TO SUCH A DEGREE AS CANNOT BE FOUND IN ITS PAST HISTORY, AS WILL BE SEEN FURTHER ON." (emphasis supplied)

The unchanging texts of the Talmud over a period of 2000 years, and its influence upon self-styled "Jews" throughout the world, is best expressed by the eminent Rodkinson in his "Introduction" to his "The History of the Talmud", wherein he further states as follows:

"DURING THE TWENTY CENTURIES OF ITS EXISTENCE . . . IT SURVIVED IN ITS ENTIRETY, AND NOT ONLY HAS THE POWER OF ITS FOES FAILED TO DESTROY EVEN A SINGLE LINE, BUT IT HAS NOT BEEN ABLE MATERIALLY TO WEAKEN ITS INFLUENCE FOR ANY LENGTH OF TIME. IT DOMINATES THE MINDS OF A WHOLE PEOPLE, WHO VENERATE ITS CONTENTS AS THE DIVINE TRUTH." (emphasis supplied)

Self-styled "Jews" now, as for ages, concentrate upon deceiving Christians into the belief that self-styled "Jews" today, throughout the world, are rightly claiming a common origin with Jesus. This fraudulent allegation can now be exposed and exploded by enlightened history.

Self-styled "Jews" are a very mixed group of races and nationalities, whose ancestors were converted to "Judaism", over long spans of time, exactly as Christians, Moslems, Hindus, and other mixed racial and national groups, in remote areas of the world, were also converted, during this same span of time, to other leading religious beliefs. Self-styled "Jews" today are not members of a "race", which gave Jesus to us.

Self-styled "Jews" who profess "Judaism" should not be called "Jews" by Christians. Self-styled "Jews", to be correctly described, are "Judaists". "Judaist" is the correct term. Those who profess "Judaism" are "Judaists" by the same rule which applies to Catholics, Protestants, or any other religious group. The names of religious beliefs, and those who profess these beliefs, are derived from the names of the religious belief.

Self-styled "Jews" reject "Judaist", and insist upon "Jew", since Jesus is called "Jew" in English translations of the New Testament. The extent of the fraud is apparent, at once, when the fact is revealed that "Jew", as applied to Jesus in the English translation of the New Testament, actually was intended to signify "Judean". Surely the self-styled "Jews" throughout the world, do not claim that they are "Jews", in the sense that they are Judeans, or even the descendants of Judeans. Or do they?

"Jew" and "Judaism" only sound alike. That is the only basis upon which their claim of common origin rests. There is no more basis for alleged common origin of "Jew" and "Judaism" than there is for "rab" and "rubbish", for "fan" and "fanatic", for "sum" or "summer", or for any two words, only because they sound alike. The word "Jew" is not a part of "Judaism".

"Jewish" is also a much misused, and a little understood word. What is really meant by "Jewish", is "Judaic". Self-styled "Jews" prefer "Jewish" to "Judaic", because "Jewish" ties them up a little closer with Jesus, whom they always call "Jew". Wherever "Jewish" is used, "Judaic" is the correct word to use, and it should be used as the correct substitute for "Jewish", always, without fear of contradiction.

Finally, Jesus was not a "Jew", and "Judaism" was not the form of religious worship practiced by Jesus. Let him who can prove otherwise hasten to come forward with the proof.

If you want to be a big help in the fight to save your country and to preserve your own liberty and freedom, your best bet at this critical moment is to get on the job and help to boost the circulation of Common Sense up to a million copies. When the Americans are correctly and completely informed on any subject they will always do the right thing at the right time. Circulation of a million copies now will win YOUR fight for YOU. So take off your coat and go to work. MORE distribution and MORE subscriptions in your community may be the "straw that broke the camel's back". YOU owe this cooperation to YOURSELF and to YOUR CHILDREN. They did not ask to come into this world. You brought them into it. It is your DUTY TO THEM to do your best to keep the world a fit place to live in. But enough Americans are not yet aware of the conspiracy or the conspirators. Until and unless EVERY American knows the "score" this nation is in grave danger of defeat and destruction by the enemy.

MR. SMITH RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

A SENSATIONAL REPORT ON THE NATION'S CAPITAL

●
By Gerald L. K. Smith

105-9621-112

Gerald L. K. Smith

Washington, D. C., is ruled, manipulated, brow-beaten, coerced, blackmailed, bribed and corrupted by the Jews and financiers of New York City and their collaborating henchmen in 48 states and in every nation on earth.

On the 29th of May, 1950, Mr. Walter Trohan, one of the most discerning and intelligent reporters in the world, wrote a feature article which appeared on page one of the Chicago Daily Tribune. The article filled one column on page one and was carried over to the second page where it filled another two columns. Mr. Trohan said he wrote the article after returning from a highly confidential visit with a career man in the State Department who begged and implored him never to use his name.

Based on this sensational interview and Mr. Trohan's great knowledge of Washington affairs, he wrote the article, which in substance, said:

"The elected representatives of the people of the United States are not running our government. They are not determining our domestic or foreign policy. It is determined by a secret, undercover, organized political machine, headed by Senator Herbert Lehman of New York; Henry Morgenthau, Treasurer of the World Zionist organization, and former Secretary of

These men are all Zionist Jews. Their power has not diminished. If anything, it has increased since Dwight David Eisenhower became President of the United States.

The white Christian Americans of this nation can overthrow these hidden hand tyrants and can take control of their own America any time they desire or as soon as they learn some elementary lessons in what it takes to get results in Washington, D. C. The tradition of America is white, and the tradition of America is Christian, but the fact remains that black minorities, manipulated by the Jew minority, constitute the most determining factor in the affairs of our Government.

The American Negro, when dealt with kindly and realistically, is no serious problem. There is nothing subtle, Machiavellian or conspiratorial in the makeup of Negroes. They respond, however, as the suckers and jail bait for the Jew city slicker and internationalist, who is determined by the manipulation of the Negro vote and the Jewish vote and the Communist vote and the moron vote to unseat and enslave the great white Christian majority.

standpoint of political leadership, who is head of the organization founded by the Jew Rosenwald family fortune, boasts without abashment or reserve that no President can be named without the Negro vote, and that he and his organization control this vote. We know who controls Walter White, and we know who controls his organization. It is the highly financed Jew-Zionist machine.

These ballot manipulators, who now boast of their tyranny over us, depend upon just one elementary circumstance: they count on the white Christians being divided to the point where less than 3% of the vote will tip the scales, and to the point where the Negro Jew-manipulated vote in 17 states will determine the results.

Added to the domestic problem, victories won on the battlefield by White Americans have been used to enthrone the manipulators and the politicians of color around the world.

Jew-made propaganda, through controlled newspapers, captive columnists and commentators, caused America to fatten the forces which have brought the Orient under the Red flag, made India pro-Russian and which now threatens to overrun all Africa with revolts, led by cannibals and head-hunters determined to slaughter every civilized human being between Cairo and Johannesburg. With Europe chaotic and with Britain softened and stupefied by Marxist and depraved leadership, this great white Christian civilization of ours stands with its back to the wall. It can only be saved by the reserve force which Christianity itself makes available to fearless men whose courage and valour draws for its supply upon their faith in Christ—which faith causes men to love liberty more than life and makes them prefer death in self-respect rather than to remain living, fat, compromisers and cowards.

Formula for Power

God forbid that I should oversimplify, but here is the formula for power. Let the Christians unite and establish an effective, forceful contact with Washington, D. C. The reason the Jews are running Washington is because every time a Congressman or a Senator or a Cabinet member or a bureaucrat does something contrary to a Jew-scheme, he is pounced upon by anywhere from 1000 to one million Jews; but when this individual proceeds to respond to the Jew-made scheme which would de-throne the great white Christian majority, nothing happens. There are 125 million of us, but compared to our numbers, we do nothing. From one to ten personal letters, carefully written to a Congressman concerning a given issue, have been known to change a Congressman's vote. Practically no Congressman can stand up under the pressure of 200 letters from his district on a given issue.

Telegrams, sincerely written, with no appearance of being copied or worded by professional propagandists, have an unbelievable effect. The visit of a committee, representing constituents willing to pay their expenses all the way to the Nation's Capital from a Congressman's district, can have great influence.

The Big Problem

Here sits John Brown, who is Mr. Average Citizen of Indiana or Oklahoma. He is a white Christian. He is an old-fashioned American. He is intelligent enough to be worth while to his community. He wants to save America and he wants to protect America, but . . . but . . . but he is too busy to know what is going on. He can't keep up with the trickery of this hidden hand political machine. He would be glad to write a letter or send a telegram or even go to Washington, but he does not know what to do or what to write about. To use the vernacular of the man on the street, "he doesn't know where the body is hid."

Suppose a little resolution with a number is dropped into the hopper of the House of Representatives which would destroy the Immigration Act and admit another ten million Jews, Orientals and whatnots to the United States. Our typical citizen John Brown does not even know that the resolution has been introduced, and if he did have a copy of the resolution, his not being a professional in such matters might prevent him from understanding what it was all about.

Therefore, the super problem is to devise ways and means for teaching the plain self-respecting Christian American citizen how to do his own lobbying in defense of the principles he wants to support and the conspiracies he wants to oppose. If this can be done we can save America from minority tyranny. If it cannot be done, we are doomed along with the Roman Empire, the Egyptian Empire, the Grecian Empire, and the now descending British Empire.

I happen to be one American who believes we can turn the trick, we can awaken the people, and we can teach them how to elect good Congressmen and keep the good Congressmen in line.

Washington Is On My Beat

I try to visit the Nation's Capital once or twice each year. Recently I made one such visit accompanied by members of my staff. Associated with me in this visit beyond my immediate staff was Dr. Wesley Swift of California, a brilliant, able and eloquent patriot, who in his grasp of the national and world crisis, personifies the type of understanding which must eventually be characteristic of our population if we are to survive as a nation.

We referred to this visit as a Pilgrimage, and we invited people to meet us there. For one person to come to Washington and stay a week, regardless of how humble that person might be or how humble the accommodations he might secure, represents a cost of from $200.00 to $1000.00, according to how far he had to come and the circumstances under which he lived while in the Nation's Capital. Recognizing this cost, it was sensational to see people from all over the United States who had come to the Nation's Capital to meet me and to follow through under my direction and the direction of Dr. Swift with a campaign to visit in groups, and singly, members of Congress, including both Houses. These people not only visited the offices of Congressmen and Senators, but they visited with a purpose. One man who came all the way from the West Coast, paying his own expenses, had never been in the Nation's Capital before and although he was anxious to see the various monuments and historic points of interest, he did not attempt to gratify his desires in this respect until we had assured him that the project which we had undertaken with his help was complete. The office of every Congressman and every Senator was visited not only once but in many instances, many, many times, each time by different committees and different people under our direction.

The Enemy Flattered Us

One of the oldest and most historic hotels in Washington, D. C., is the Hotel Willard. We chose this hotel as a gathering headquarters for the pilgrims. It was in this hotel years before it was modernized, of course, that the Star Spangled Banner was written. Patriotic organizations have used the Willard Hotel as a gathering place through the years. It is half-way between the White House and the Capitol Building. Located on streetcar and bus lines, it seemed ideal. The reservations were made in the name of the Citizens Congressional Committee, which is an operating committee functioning under the complete control of the Christian Nationalist Crusade and financed by the Christian Nationalist Crusade. As soon as our notices reached the people concerning the Willard, we received an airmail registered letter saying that all our arrangements had been cancelled. We turned the matter over to our attorney, Mr. James J. Laughlin, only to discover that the managers of the Willard, all Gentiles, had been threatened with removal if they permitted our conferences to be held. Behind this fact was the dismal circumstance that the hotel had recently been purchased by a Jew syndicate in Chicago and that this syndicate of Jews had given the order. It was necessary for us at great expense to notify again everyone whom we thought was coming to the Nation's Capital. Our meetings then were shifted to the Hotel Congressional and the Hotel Statler (both superior in service and comfort to the Willard). Other meetings were held in the offices of certain Congressmen.

This confirmed Mr. Trohan's article that there is a secret machine operating which is determined that information concerning events in Washington shall not be permitted to reach the people, and that the true desires of the people shall not be permitted to reach the Congressmen.

Data of Interest

On the theory that it will make this statement more practical and easier to read, I will now classify the data which I have obtained through the years, some of which was received during my most recent visit to the Nation's Capital.

1. Danger Signals

General Douglas MacArthur, speaking in Texas shortly after his return from the Orient, said: "Since my return to the United States I have discovered that there is a secret force governing the affairs of our Nation."

Did General MacArthur say that?

Walter Trohan, one of the three highest paid reporters in the Nation's Capital, said: "A secret machine is determining the domestic and foreign policy of our Nation, headed by Lehman, Morgenthau, and Frankfurter."

Theodor Herzl, founder of Zionism and one of the outstanding 'kings of the Jews,' said: "When we are down, we are revolutionists. When we are up, then it is the dreadful power of our purse."

2. Press, Radio and Television

The Nation depends very largely on the following sources for its information out of the Nation's Capital: Associated Press; United Press; International News Service; Mutual Radio Network; National Broadcasting Co.; Columbia Broadcasting Co., and television outlets.

A Jew organization known as the Anti-Defamation League, as well as another one known as the American Jewish Committee, maintain high-salaried, full-time representatives who concentrate on the individuals and the forces which control these sources of information. Occasionally some alarming truth leaks out, but by and large, it is well controlled by one of the following methods: smear or silence. Here are some examples: The silent treatment has been used on General Douglas MacArthur, Senator John Bricker and Gerald L. K. Smith, and of course, many others. Smear has been used on McCarthy, Velde and J. B. Matthews, and many others. In 99 cases out of 100, the technique for producing smear or silence is devised and pre-digested in the central secret manipulating headquarters of the Anti-Defamation League or the American Jewish Committee. On the other hand, internationalists like Senator Wiley of Wisconsin are glamorized. Advocates, such as Senator Humphrey of Minnesota, who favor breaking down our immigration walls are given lavish amounts of publicity space.

3. Treason

World War II could have been avoided. Jesse Jones, who held the biggest job under Roosevelt, said "Roosevelt was a total politician. He brought on World War II in order to be elected for a third term." That is a lie.

Among Roosevelt's chief advisors were: (a) His wife, who entertained Communists in the White House; (b) Harry Hopkins, Stalin's friend; (c) Alger Hiss, now in the Federal Penitentiary.

The treason clique inherited power when Roosevelt died, and the most powerful segment in the Truman regime were the left wingers and the Jew Zionists. The personal friend of Alger Hiss, whose wife collect ed defense funds for Alger Hiss, became Secretary of State. Acheson, Frankfurter, General Marshall, Anna Rosenberg and their ilk started the phoney war while secret orders were given to lose the war, fire MacArthur, and betray American self-respect. It is gratifying to know that Senator Joseph McCarthy has announced his intention of investigating this matter.

In the fall of 1952 the American people voted for a change. A "thing" which called itself the Republican Party was victorious. The great MacArthur was silenced, the sincere Taft deceived, and Harry Truman's original choice, approved by Barney Baruch, became the President of the United States. There has been no change in Washington. There are a few new faces. (A sample of what has happened, or has not happened, whichever way you want to put it, is in the fact that one of the top men in the CIA (our most secret investigating service) is the son-in-law of Dean Acheson.) When Senator McCarthy wanted to investigate this individual who had given $400.00 to the Alger Hiss Defense Fund, President Eisenhower forbade the individual to honor the subpoena. A new Cabinet post was created and given to a Democrat woman from Texas who held important jobs under Roosevelt, thus insulting and ignoring every outstanding Republican woman in the United States. The same clique of internationalists and Communists are still in power. Those that have been fired have been taken on by the United Nations.

4. World Government

We now have a world government. The Korea debacle has demonstrated that the United Nations by trickery can appropriate our money and the blood of our sons. Any organization which has the power to take blood out of our veins and money out of our purses is a world government. The United Nations Charter is a treaty. Federal courts have ruled that it supersedes in authority the statute of any state and any Federal act with which it is in conflict. For instance, California passed a law to prevent the yellow race from buying land. Recently Federal judges decided that this act was in conflict with the United Nations Charter, and therefore could no longer be enforced even though it had the approval of the citizens of California. This means that Russians and East Indians and foreigners of all varieties have been able to vote us out of our laws and vote us out of our sovereignty. Shame! Shame!

We saw a ray of hope in the recent Senatorial sessions when United States Senator John Bricker of Ohio presented legislation designed to bring about an amendment to the Constitution that would correct this evil trick that had been worked on our people by the international manipulators. Every Jew organization fought the Bricker amendment. All the captive columnists and Zionist approved internationals fought it. Mr. Baruch fought it, and President Eisenhower issued a statement against it. Consequently, it was killed, and for all practical purposes, America is today under the heel of a world government, which is called a United Nations. Literalists will insist that certain steps are still required in order to make it a world government, but as long as we have a regime in Washington which accords itself to the will of the secret cabal, figureheaded by Dwight David Eisenhower, we are under a world government. As this was written nations that did not furnish one boy for the Korean war and did not spend one dollar in Korea are sitting in on the negotiations to determine the destiny of America.

5. Blackmail

Treacherous forces which represent the hidden hand government specialize in blackmailing Congressmen and other high Government officials who happen to be overtaken in a wide variety of inconsistencies and blunders. If women are involved, pictures are taken. If some mistake in the handling of finance was made, photostats are assembled. If there is a skeleton in the family closet, all the details and facts are assembled and put into safekeeping. Vile Jews and their stooges hold these scandalous revelations in reserve to make sure that certain men do not get out of hand. Not long ago it was reported that a woman living in one of the leading hotels in Washington, who specialized in procuring lewd women for certain members of Congress—it was estimated that she controlled 17 votes in Congress among men who dared not say "No." She sells this influence to special interests and powerful manipulators for a price. The very person reading this article may be represented by a Congressman who went to Washington intent upon being on the right side, only to discover that the enemies of America had learned some dark secret concerning his past, which for the sake of his family and neighbors he dared not permit to be revealed. The Jew Zionist machine, the American Jewish Committee, the Anti-Defamation League and a score of blackmailing outfits specialize in this type of filthy practice designed to destroy the people's representation in Washington.

6. Negro Problem in Washington

Traditionally Washington is a Southern city. It is surrounded by Virginia and Maryland, both Southern states. The Negro population is heavy, heavy heavy. Worse still, many of these Negroes are impudent and uncontrollable because they have been spoiled by political demagogues who, unconcerned with abuses in Washington, play up to their Negro constituents in the states from which they come. Washington, D. C., is governed by the Congress, but President Eisenhower has promised that it will be given self-government, which is a demagogic promise of the lowest order. Self-government in Washington, D. C., means Negro rule, Negro mayors, Negro city officers, black tyranny. The Jew racketeers who control the numbers racket and the liquor business as well as the New York manipulators, would rule a so-called self-governing Washington, D. C. Today twice as much liquor per person is consumed in Washington as the national average. The streets of Washington are more dangerous than the streets of any other large city in America, and 90% of the crimes are committed by blacks.

The writer does not condemn the blacks. They have done as well as could be expected in the light of their brief sojourn in a whiteman's civilization. The black man is not difficult to discipline or govern except when spoiled, taunted and mis-led by demagogues and political manipulators. In fact, many Christian Negroes are standing out against Communism in a commendable manner, but wherever the Jew politician controls the Negro vote, the Negro is belligerent, unreasonable and dangerous. Unfortunately, this situation exists in most of the big Northern cities and in some of the Southern cities and in many of the West Coast cities. Portland, Oregon, and San Francisco are facing almost impossible situations.

7. The Secret Issue

One Senator told me that the World Zionist organization, of which the American Zionist organization is a part, sets aside every year large sums running as high as $75 million for the corruption and control of public officials favorable to the Jew-Zionist scheme for world power. Inasmuch as the molders of public opinion which control the press, radio and television never mention this issue, the great bulk of Christian Americans are ignorant concerning this dreadful scheme. Here's where the money comes from. Here's where the power originates. Here's where the conspiracy exercises itself. This political machine with unlimited funds has bribed Congressmen, preachers, educators, journalists and commentators. Literally thousands of people in position of influence have been given free trips to Palestine for purposes of propaganda, but they have not been permitted to see the one million Arabs that are at this very moment being crucified by Jew tyranny through its control over the British and American governments. Press reports out of the Near East have been silenced and nearly one-half billion human beings have been turned against the United States at a time when we need friends as we have never needed them before. The Senate is afraid of this Zionist machine. The House of Representatives is afraid of the Zionist machine. The President of the United States is being manipulated by this Zionist machine. It rules America. (It is believed by experts that it has now captured completely the Russian Government.) Tito is a Zionist product, and he has made up with Russia. Israeli is again on good terms with Russia. The Zionist machine has opposed MacArthur, Van Fleet, McCarthy, McCarran, Velde and all similar symbols of patriotism. It has favored the United Nations, Acheson and appeasement in the Orient. If the American people can come into possession of this truth, these secret tyrants can be unseated. If not, we go down into bondage where the Jew is the master, and the Gentile is the slave. We are too near that already to be comfortable. Any Congressman or Senator who lifts his voice against this secret manipulating force faces smear, ridicule and character assassination directed by the most evil men that ever lived, comparable only to those who devised and manipulated the crucifixion of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Example: Shortly before this was written a resolution was introduced into the Senate asking that Israeli be accepted by treaty as a most favored nation. One man voted against it. His name was Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada. Others wanted to vote against it, but they were afraid. For this show of courage, McCarran knows that he faces the vilest attacks within reach of the imagination and deviltry of this Jew gang that rules America.

8. Political Humidity

In matters pertaining to weather, it never rains until it rains. Even if the humidity is 95, there is still a drouth. Umbrellas are unnecessary and there is still no rain. Rain only comes when the humidity hits the point of complete saturation, and lo and behold a field that was dust-dry five minutes ago is now being soaked down to the rocks. This figure illustrates what could happen in Washington almost at any time.

Our literature, including The Cross and the Flag, goes to every member of Congress. Great numbers of them respect the principles for which we stand but are timid in their knowledge of the danger entailed when these principles are enunciated. Among experienced observers, there is a conviction that a large number of Congressmen are sickened by these Jew controls and might stampede at any moment. In fact, we have encouraging signs of an improving situation among the members of both parties. It is becoming increasingly difficult for the Jews to shake the confidence of the Nation and the Congress in the committee investigating Communism. Whenever there has been

THE MOST DANGEROUS BOOK IN THE WORLD

WHAT IS IT?

1. Henry Ford Sr., published a review of this book, and mysterious forces threatened to kidnap his grandchildren.
2. Mrs. Henry Ford, Sr., begged her husband to stop publishing this book because of thousands of anonymous threats she received through the mail and over the telephone from people who threatened to murder her illustrious husband.
3. One man in Canada, an outstanding patriot, served five years in prison because he published the facts contained in this book.
4. In 1942 numerous individuals were indicted, and but for a miracle would have been framed up and sentenced to the Federal Penitentiary because they circulated the information contained in this book.
5. The Christian Nationalist Crusade, directed by Gerald L. K. Smith, is the only organization in America now publishing and circulating this deadly document.
6. Behind the 'Iron curtain' all the publishers and journalists who published this book have been shot or sentenced to lifetime enslavement.

RARE CHANCE TO OBTAIN FREE COPY

One of the three most important members of the United States Senate recently said concerning The Cross and the Flag:
 "It is the most correct periodical in America because it deals fearlessly and intelligently with the real issues of this terrific moment."

The Cross and the Flag is noted for its courage to deal with subjects which strike fear and terror in the hearts of most editors and publishers. Every member of the United States Senate and every member of the House of Representatives receives every issue of this magazine. Truth contained in The Cross and the Flag finds its way into the thinking and speeches of many members of Congress. No American citizen who wants to know the full score can afford to be without this fearless crusading periodical.

If you subscribe at $2.00 per year immediately, you may have a copy of the above-mentioned book FREE.

The Title of the Book Is:

This is the mysterious bound volume of the secret minutes of the International Jewish Council which met in 1905 and planned to capture control of the world. Over half of what they committed themselves to do has already been accomplished. It is the most amazing document ever to be put in print.

If you already have a copy you owe it to your best friend to get a copy for him, and this is your chance to get it free. We know of no other place in America where you can obtain it. Bookstores are afraid to sell it. Printers are afraid to publish it. Every intelligent American citizen should know why certain forces fear the terrific truth contained in this dynamic document.

The recent act to permit the admission of 70,000 people per year for three years extra and above the regular immigration quota was passed with great difficulty, and then only because a large percentage of the members of Congress were persuaded that the people admitted would be Christians escaping torture. insured

9. Six Political Parties

The idea that America is governed by the two-party system is ridiculous. There are at least six political groups in the Congress. They are as follows:

A. The machine Republicans. This is the Republican who is not interested in anything except staying in office. He obeys Eisenhower. He is interested in patronage. He has no deep convictions on anything. Halleck of Indiana is the type.

B. New Deal Republicans. Men in this group are Marxists, Socialists and philosophically in harmony with the New Deal. Wayne Morse of Oregon is the type.

C. Real Republicans. These men actually represent the overwhelming majority of the American people, but they cannot recruit a majority because of the sabotage from the White House and the interference of the Jew-Zionist international political machine. Typical of this group and by no stretch of the imagination extreme in his viewpoints is Senator John Bricker of Ohio.

D. New Deal Democrats. These men are Socialists, near Socialists, mild Marxists and extreme Marxists. Typical of this group is Humphrey of Minnesota.

E. Machine Democrats. They don't care what happens. They don't care if taxes go up or down, just so they can win elections. They will support the reactionaries if they can win, or they will support the radicals if they can win. McCormick of Massachusetts is the type.

F. Real honest-to-God Democrats. These men, in fact, represent the overwhelming majority of the Democratic Party, but they cannot win national victories because they are sabotaged and interfered with by the propaganda machine and the Jew manipulators. They love the Constitution, they believe in American tradition, they put America first. If they would unite their forces with the real Republicans the combined group could name the next President of the United States. Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada is the type.

10. Silly Society

European chiselers and other foreigners who have been sent to the United States on a gold diggers mission never fail to overlook the society angle. They play upon the inferiority complexities of American 'climbers' who become easy prey when they hear a continental accent or get invited to the palatial home of some extravert who specializes in extravagant drunken orgies.

Arrogant women who have inherited crudely gotten fortunes vie with each other for acceptances from Supreme Court Judges, Europeans with a touch of royalty in their blood, and international confidence men who have spent a lifetime learning their way around in Washington, D. C.

To illustrate: Some Congressman's wife, who did her own housework barefooted fifteen years ago, finds herself in Washington, D. C., with her husband, who in many instances turns out to be a hard-headed, sincere patriot on the right side. The wife, however, loses balance when invited to one of these 'phoney shindigs' and finds herself softened up on the subject of internationalism when some heel-clicking continental presses a kiss on the back of her hand.

The next morning during the serving of a late breakfast, the wife looks across at her old-fashioned American Congressman husband and concludes that he is too much of a Nationalist and proceeds to tell him that the time has come for him to take a broader outlook on world affairs.

In many of these big parties, which come under the false heading of 'high society,' it isn't uncommon to spend $50,000.00 for liquors, wines and champagnes. This kind of money is never laid out just for the fun of spending it. Somebody, some place always has an angle. Supreme Court decisions are involved, or it may be a vote in the U. S. Senate, or how many billions are to be spent on foreign countries. Whatever the case may be, liquor, vanity, flattery, play a big part in the decisions which effect the American people. Frequently a Congressman or Senator staggers out of one of these drinking affairs and is 'poured' into a car with the wrong woman. Later pictures are taken and the foundation for blackmail has been laid.

11. Shades of Sodom

The historic community referred to in the Bible as Sodom and Gomorrah was completely destroyed. It was burned up and shaken down. It was wiped off the face of the earth. God said that He would have spared Sodom and Gomorrah if it had contained ten just men. Written into the statutes of Anglo-Saxon law is a crime known as sodomy. The crime is named after the sin of Sodom, which means: men seeking men for sex satisfaction, and as Paul says: "Having lost their natural affection."

Europe has given America something besides war, military casualties and financial burdens. She has introduced sex perversion into our Nation's Capital, until today there are hundreds and thousands, believe it or not, of men and women in the Nation's Capital who seek only people of their own sex for the perverted satisfaction which was characteristic of the citizens of Sodom and Gomorrah.

One U. S. Senator was recently quoted as insisting that there are between 6,000 and 10,000 sex perverts on the payroll of the Government. One investigative official of high authority told me that this figure included only those that had been picked up for certain offenses and that the actual figure would be more like 100,000 plus.

Communists, lobbyists and conspirators of a wide variety specialize in overtaking these people in their scandalous behavior; then seeing to it that they are promoted to positions of importance in various departments of the Government. In this way the conspirators always 'have something on' the individual which he fears to have reported. This gives the villains involved the pressure they need in order to produce the performance they want, whether the desired performance is to come from a Congressman, a high placed bureaucrat, or someone in the diplomatic service.

Sumner Welles, who was the top man in the State Department throughout the Roosevelt regime was notorious for his inconsistencies in his personal life. It is believed that by way of Welles and Dean Acheson that a staff of perverts, both national and international, developed in the State Department. These men and women have been used by Communist black mailers and Jew Zionist villains who, of course, always have selfish designs on our Government officials.

Thanks to Senator Joseph McCarthy there has been an attempt at housecleaning, but the attempt has been very feeble. There are nearly three million jobs in the Government and there have been less than 5,000 changes. Although the American people voted for a change, the Eisenhower cabal has changed only one out of every 600 jobholders, which leaves 599 out of every 600 that were there with Roosevelt and Truman still on the payroll. Not much change in a city where the 'shades of Sodom and Gomorrah' are descending upon a community whose tradition has been made sacred by the spirit of Washington and Jefferson.

12. The Jobholders

Government jobs do not represent a patriotic challenge. People who work for the Government or under Civil Service are answerable to no one on the basis of policy or production. It is literally a case of holding a job and then throat-cutting one's way into a promotion. When a policymaker is appointed by the President, or a member of his Cabinet, he cannot bring into his department old friends and people who understand his temperament and his way of life. He must draw for his help upon mechanically trained robots who worked for his predecessors or other executives that preceded him. Thus, a man of character and conservative principle may be compelled to use as his secretary or chief assistant someone brought into the Government by Harry Hopkins, Harold Ickes, or Dean Acheson. Many conscientious young men and women have come to Washington, D. C., for employment only to quit in disgust by saying: "My conscience won't permit me to draw money without giving a day's work in return." When an ambitious youngster, who has been raised in a conscientious Christian home, shows signs of real production he is likely to be ridiculed and slowed down by his fellow workers.

Made-work, scientific idleness and trainloads of red tape have made of our jobholding machine in Washington a Frankenstein monster. In some departments as many as 32 carbons are made of correspondence, each carbon is filed in a different department which requires a special staff of filing clerks for each of the 32 duplications. It must be remembered that almost millions of these people were brought into the Government as political jobholders because they were New Dealers, Socialists and downright Communists. Roosevelt and Truman by legislative and executive ruling, 'froze' these people into the Civil Service. As the reader doubtless knows, a Civil Service employe cannot be fired because of his politics. Unless new laws are passed America is stuck with two million New Dealers frozen on the payroll, who will be there until they die, and whose children right now are taking their jobs. Any student of human nature knows that these two million jobholders can sabotage and make ineffective any reform measures which a genuine anti-New Deal administration might desire to enforce.

13. Lobbyists and Fixers

Every hotel lobby and hundreds of hotel rooms are filled with 'leg men,' fixers and lobbyists. These men specialize in creating trouble for citizens and then offering to get the same citizen out of trouble for a price. Some of them work with members of Congress. A citizen comes to the city, calls on his Congressman and confesses that he is in trouble with some department of the Government. If the man is one of means, he may find himself introduced to an individual who is represented as a prominent attorney. He may be prominent and he is very likely to be an attorney. The next night the citizen and attorney have dinner alone. The fixer-lawyer persuades the citizen that he must tell all. The fixer then proceeds to brag about his personal friends in some certain department. By the time the evening is over, the citizen, if he is green enough (and most citizens are) believes what he has been told, and among the things he has been told is how much money it will take to fix the situation. His trouble may end up in any one of the following ways:

(a) The lawyer may fulfill some legal technicality and solve the problem legitimately even though the client thinks that more is required.

(b) The lawyer may have a personal fixed friend in a department who is told to take the problem out of the file for a price.

(c) The third and frequently the most likely thing to happen is that the fixer will increase the trouble, bungle it, and deepen the problem of the sad citizen.

(d) Occasionally in the 'big time' where much is involved, the fixer may have enough influence to go into the Department where the citizen has trouble and increase the trouble so that the victim will pay off more in order to get relief from his worries.

The above is a very brief thumbnail sketch of a typical situation, but it follows a wide variety shapes and forms. Low-grade fixers who cannot afford even a room in an expensive hotel, loaf hotel lobbies. They trump up acquaintances with prosperous looking citizens, make false claims concerning their identity. These phonies are usually willing to settle for a good meal and $100.00. Frequently they are procurers who are willing to introduce strangers to 'beautiful' women. Such men and women, whether they maintain expensive suites in hotels or loaf in lobbies have always existed, but recently they have been virtually a part of the Government itself. Their henchmen are willing to hold low salaried jobs in important departments in order to cooperate for a price with smugglers, Communist blackmailers, shake-down artists, racketeers, gangsters, traitors, tax dodgers and criminals of a wide variety. The world is going to be won by those who are not of the people.

14. Degeneracy and Occupation, the Bride of Treason

Anyone who has read The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion knows that when the super-world plan was hatched and put into written form fifty years ago by the Zionist leaders—anyone who has read the Protocols knows that in referring to the Gentiles as goyim, they announced that one of their techniques for developing world power would be the corruption and degeneration of the goyim. They announce that they would accomplish this purpose with liquor, amusement, Communism, and a wide variety of techniques designed to stupefy, be-numb and weaken the Gentile citizenry which now makes up what we call our Christian civilization. The Jew Zionist machine, which Mr. Trohan reveals as the hidden hand government of our Nation, has discovered the formula for power manipulation. The formula is made up of the following fundamentals:

(a) Money; (b) Re-election; (c) Popularity.

If a man goes to Washington and obeys the Jew-Zionist machine or does not get in their way, or helps them to defeat an independent patriot who has gotten in their way, he can be assured of the following: Plenty of money, plenty of liquor, plenty of women, plenty of favorable publicity, and a generous campaign fund for re-election. Topping this he will receive plenty of invitations to the most 'important' drunken brawls in the Nation's Capital.

Warning! Warning! It is important that the reader know that there are many members of both houses of Congress and many, many people in the Government departments who have not 'bowed the knee to Baal.' They cannot be corrupted, they cannot be intimidated, and they love their self-respect and character more than anything that the corrupters offer.

I am glad Mr. Smith concealed his name in Washington

Sad to say, this remnant represents only a segment. It does not represent a majority.

15. Is There Hope?

I have been flattered by the more cynical and the less believing who insist that I have too much hope and too much faith. I do not believe that I am a wild-eyed dreamer; neither am I of the opinion that my hopes are based on unrealistic thinking. Naturally, I have a deep Christian faith. That is why my compatriots accepted my challenge some years ago to make this a Christian nationalist crusade. Yes, we are a political committee, and we do not offer ourselves as any substitute for the Church; but as a young man some years ago, I came into a shocking and almost killing knowledge of the treason and corruption in our Government. It appeared so stupendous and so impossible and so far beyond the curative hand of man that I refused to cooperate with my fellow patriots in a fearless fight for the right unless the name of Christ be introduced. The Christ who said: "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me." By introducing Christ and the word Christian into our campaign, we have discouraged atheists, Jews and Communists who might have sought more aggressively to exploit this movement.

Why do I believe in the future? Because the overwhelming majority of our people are sober-minded.

decent patriots. They have been betrayed, manhandled and mis-governed merely because the publicity controls representing press, radio and television have kept them in the dark.

Paradoxically, those of us who have made up the crusading handful—yes, the fearless minority—stand to profit by the extreme practices of the enemy. I am a great believer in the law of action and reaction. If the enemy had been less brazen and less corrupt and less violent and more tolerant, he might have continued for a greater period of time than he will be permitted to continue.

The American people have been lied to—scientifically lied to—under the pressure of Jew Zionist manipulators. Here are a few of the big lies that our people have accepted.

We were lied to about World War I.

We were lied to about the peace settlement.

We were lied to about World War II.

We were lied to about Russia.

We were lied to about Germany.

We were lied to about Lindbergh, Father Coughlin, General MacArthur, and nearly all of our national heroes and courageous patriots.

We were lied to about all investigating Committees in Congress, which have exposed Communism.

We were lied to about Communism itself.

We were lied to about China.

We were lied to about the Japanese Peace Treaty.

We were lied to about Japan.

We were lied to about Korea.

We were lied to about the United Nations.

We have been lied to about all patriots who attempted to substitute truth for lies.

The writer, who grew up in a Christian home and developed an unimpeachable reputation for character and kindness to his family and obedience of law and civic consciousness, found himself represented to the Nation as a 'rabble-rouser' and as a 'dangerous character' by the same elements that promoted and underwrote thirty years of scientific falsehoods.

Even though the czars of journalism and the king of the publishing interests and the political network in Washington are attempting to whitewash and cover up twenty years of scientific falsehood, the seams in their garments are beginning to break. Every time they bend forward or backward ripping sounds are heard.

This is the day of the pamphleteer. We are entering upon an era where a penny's worth of truth will overcome a dollar's worth of lying. Millions of Americans have reached the place where they listen to radio comment and read commercial publications with their fingers crossed. They throw newspapers and magazines into the wastebasket after reading only the advertisements, but they hasten to read cheaply printed pamphlets and circulars put out by crusading publishers who have risked their lives in order to print and speak the truth.

More and more people are reading the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion.

The subscription list of The Cross and the Flag, the only national magazine which deals fearlessly with these issues and declines all forms of commercial advertising, is increasing its subscription list every day. Tiny tracts which can be printed for a few cents per thousand are being distributed on an ever-widening horizon, and new areas are developing where truth which has been crushed to the earth is rising now to claim its throne.

16. The Challenge

Shortly before this was written, Dr. Wesley Swift of California and I addressed the pilgrim delegates who assembled in the Federal Ballroom of the Statler

— 40 —

Hotel in Washington, D. C. We had been there a week. As mentioned earlier in this statement, we had visited not only every office in Congress, but many of the offices were visited many times. We were conscious of the fact that there were hundreds of thousands—yes, millions of people who wanted to be there with us, but they could not afford the time and they could not afford the money. Every pilgrim delegate who came to Washington, D. C., with the exception of those of us who served as leaders, paid their own personal expenses, and it was their desire that we take steps to pass on to the millions who are unable to visit Washington challenges and recommendations as to what they can do as loyal patriots seeking to free this Christian land from Christ-hating bondage, from the hidden hand government, from diplomatic treason, and from the vile corruption which now plague us.

Here are some recommendations:

(a) Let every citizen be committed to the high principles of this Crusade. (See summary of principles of the Christian Nationalist Crusade as they appear elsewhere in this article.)

(b) Emphasize the importance of letter-writing and telegrams in relationship to concerted effort. Citizens should keep in touch with headquarters of the Christian Nationalist Crusade so that we can act in concert and increase our effectiveness.

— 41 —

Is this genuine or a?
Constitutional?

(c) Be alert to the major projects being undertaken at a given time. Do not underestimate the influence of the average citizen when he contacts members of Congress and Senate.

During the Pilgrimage Dr. Wesley Swift was invited to address members of the U. S. Senate who made up the Judiciary Committee. One of the most prominent members of the committee told Dr. Swift at the conclusion of his remarks that if the whole Senate could have heard what he said, the McCarran-Walter Act would never be in danger.

17. Present Dangers

No man knows what the morrow will bring forth, but as of the moment, these are issues which every patriot should deal with and concerning which every person should act with intelligent courage, consistency and sacrifice.

(a) The threat of invasion by immigration. We can be invaded and our land can be captured without the firing of a shot if we allow anything to happen to our magnificent immigration laws which are summarized in the McCarran-Walter Act.

Note: Bundles of circulars are available FREE to patriots desiring more information as to how they can serve. Donations to cover cost of printing and mailing will be appreciated. Address all orders to Christian Nationalist Crusade, P. O. Box 27895, Los Angeles 27, California.

(b) Bernard Baruch and his ilk have been successfully prevented thus far by the patriots from giving us an 'emergency act' which would conscript all men and women between 17 and 70 and subject us to the regimentation of a militarized bureaucracy. We must continue to make our pressure felt in the defeat of all such measures.

(c) The Bricker Amendment was defeated as of the day this article went to press. Senator Bricker with the cooperation of intelligent patriots introduced a measure seeking to give us a Constitutional Amendment that would make it impossible for the President of the United States to execute a treaty which would be in conflict with our laws. President Eisenhower opposed the Bricker Amendment and caused its temporary defeat. We must continue to insist that this Amendment be adopted, first by the Congress, and, second, by the several states.

(d) We must abolish the United Nations. This can be done by taking the United States out of the United Nations and taking the United Nations out of the United States. It is a conspiracy. It is a world government. It is a menace. It is responsible for the Korean defeat. Between 30,000 and 50,000 precious American boys were slaughtered on the altar of United Nations tyranny.

Note: A small tract entitled Abolish the United Nations is available in bundles, free. A donation to cover printing and mailing cost will be appreciated, although not necessary. Address all orders to Christian Nationalist Crusade, P. O. Box 27895, Los Angeles 27, California.

Congressman Usher Burdick has introduced a bill which has the support of more than 100 Congressmen seeking to Abolish the United Nations. We must support this bill.

(e) Investigate OGPU supervision. There are organizations in America, chief of which is the Jewish Anti-Defamation League, which have set up at the cost of millions and millions of dollars secret files for the purpose of intimidating American citizens and boycotting patriots. They control publicity; they coerce radio stations; they cause commentators to be fired; they carry on a constant campaign of malicious mischief and underground villainy. This, of course, should be investigated by the Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, and we must support such an investigation.

(f) Fight poison water. Rena M. Vale, former Communist Party member, who has been an active anti-Communist for over 20 years, aiding various governmental investigating agencies with her knowledge, including the House Un-American Activities, has stated that fluoridation of drinking water is known in Communist circles as a vehicle of Red warfare, to be used for outright poisoning of the population and/or reducing the mentality and will of the population so it will not resist Communist domination. She states this is planned for America. The method to be employed to put fluoridation over on the people is to beat the drum for the fraudulent reason of protection of the children's teeth, and to see to it that the public does not learn that fluorides affect the brain and nerve cells to such an extent that initiative is reduced and the personality becomes docile and cowl-like.

In big cities where effective committees have been formed, the scheme has been turned down flat. In smaller and more innocent communities, it has been put over with little resistance. God save America from the risk of such a plot.

(g) Those gathered in Washington recommended to the patriots of the nation that an extra energetic campaign be carried on to increase the subscriptions of The Cross and the Flag, now in its 12th year of publication. Price . . . $2.00 per year — $1.00 for six months. Address all subscription orders to The Cross and the Flag, P. O. Box 27895, Los Angeles 27, California.

PREFACE

Victor E. Marsden

The author of this translation of the famous Protocols was himself a victim of the Revolution. He had lived for many years in Russia and was married to a Russian lady. Among his other activities in Russia he had been for a number of years Russian Correspondent of the Morning Post, a position which he occupied when the Revolution broke out, and his vivid descriptions of events in Russia will still be in the recollection of many of the readers of that Journal. Naturally he was singled out for the anger of the Soviet. On the day that Captain Cromie was murdered by Jews Victor Marsden was arrested and thrown into the Peter-Paul Prison, expecting every day to have his name called out for execution. This, however, he escaped, and eventually he was allowed to return to England very much of a wreck in bodily health. However, he recovered under treatment and the devoted care of his wife and friends. One of the first things he undertook as soon as he was able was this translation of the Protocols. Mr. Marsden was eminently well qualified for the work. His intimate acquaintance with Russia, Russian life and the Russian language on the one hand, and his mastery of a terse literary English style on the other, placed him in a position of advantage which few others could claim. The consequence is that we have in his version an eminently readable work, and though the subject-matter is somewhat formless, Mr. Marsden's literary touch reveals the thread running through the twenty-four Protocols.

It may be said with truth that this work was carried out at the cost of Mr. Marsden's own life's blood. He stated that he could not stand more than an hour at a time of his work on it in the British Museum, as the diabolical spirit of the matter which he was obliged to turn into English made him positively ill.

Mr. Marsden's connection with the Morning Post was not severed by his return to England, and he was well enough to accept the post of special correspondent of that journal in the suite of H.R.H. the Prince of Wales on his Empire tour. From this he returned with the Prince, apparently in much better health, but within a few days of his landing he was taken suddenly ill, and died after a very brief illness.

May this work be his crowning monument! In it he has performed an immense service to the English-speaking world, and there can be little doubt that it will take its place in the first rank of the English versions of "The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion."

No alteration in the text of this translation has been made since it was first published.

BE SURE TO READ APPENDIX 1
AND APPENDIX 2 IN THE REAR OF THIS BOOK.

INTRODUCTION

Of the Protocols themselves little need be said in the way of introduction. The book in which they are embodied was published by Sergei Nilus in Russia in 1905. A copy of this is in the British Museum bearing the date of its reception August 10th, 1906. The Jewish journals, of course, say that they are a forgery, leaving it to be understood that Professor Nilus, who embodied them in a work of his own, had concocted them for his own purposes.

Proof that no claim by the Jews that the Protocols document is a forgery can offset the fact that the Jews are actively carrying out its provisions on a world-wide scale. It is not a question of whether it is a forgery or not. It is a situation whereby the Jews are carrying it out with steadfast purpose, creating wars and revolutions, to place Gentile against Gentile, to destroy the white Gentile race, that the Jews may seize the power during the resulting chaos and rule with their claimed superior intelligence over the remaining races of the world, as kings over slaves. They did this to the Russian Gentiles by creating the Russian Revolution; they tried to do it to the rest of Europe by creating World War II; they are going to try to do it to the whole world by creating World War III. The United Nations, World Government, the Human Rights Covenant, Genocide, F.E.P.C., and Universal Military Training are all part of the Jewish enslavement plan.

Mr. Henry Ford, in an interview published in the New York World, February 17th, 1921, put the case for Nilus tersely and convincingly thus:

The only statement I care to make about the PROTOCOLS is that they fit in with what is going on. They are sixteen years old, and they have fitted the world situation up to this time. THEY FIT IT NOW.

Indeed they do! They reveal the concerted plan of action of the Jewish Nation developed through the ages and edited by the Elders themselves up to date. Parts and summaries of the plan have been published from time to time during the centuries as the secrets of the Elders have leaked out.

There has been recently published a volume of Theodor Herzl's

* Parts since deleted or amended.

"Diaries," a translation of some passages of which appeared in the Jewish Chronicle of July 14, 1922. Herzl gives an account of his first visit to England in 1895, and his conversation with Colonel Goldsmid, a Jew brought up as a Christian, an officer in the English Army, and at heart a Jew Nationalist. Goldsmid suggested to Herzl that the best way of expropriating the English aristocracy and so destroying their power to protect the people of England against Jewish domination, was to put excessive taxes on the land. Herzl thought this an excellent idea. Compare Protocol VI.

The above extract from Herzl's Diary is an extremely significant bit of evidence bearing on the existence of the Jew World Plot and authenticity of the Protocols, but any reader of intelligence will be able from his own knowledge of recent history and from his own experience to confirm the genuineness of every line of them, and it is in the light of this living comment that all readers are invited to study Mr. Marsden's translation of this terribly inhuman document.

Dr. Weizmann, President of the Zionist Organization, was quoted in The Jewish Guardian, 8 October, 1920, as saying at the farewell banquet to the Chief Rabbi (prior to the latter's Empire tour): "A beneficent protection which God has instituted in the life of the Jew is that He has dispersed him all over the world." Compare end of Protocol XI.

Who are the Elders?

This is a secret which has not been revealed. The late Walter Rathenau has thrown a little light on the subject. Writing in the Wiener Freie Presse, December 24th, 1912, he said:

Three hundred men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of the European continent, and they elect their successors from their entourage.

In the year 1844, on the eve of the Jewish Revolution of 1848, Benjamin Disraeli, whose real name was Israel, and who was a "damped," or baptised Jew, published his novel, Coningsby, in which occurs this ominous passage:—

"So you see, my dear Coningsby, the world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

His hero, Sidonia (a character said to have had its original in a Rothschild) uttered these words. He had just made it clear that the personages in question were all Jews.

Now that Providence has brought to the light of day these secret Protocols all men may clearly see the hidden personages specified by Disraeli at work "behind the scenes" of all the Governments. This revolution entails on all white peoples the grave responsibility of examining and revising ou fond their attitude towards the Race and Nation which boasts of its survival over all Empires.

NOTES

I.—“Agentur” and “The Political.”

There are two words in this translation which are unusual, the word “Agentur” and “political” used as a substantive, Agentur appears to be a word adopted from the original and it means the whole body of agents and agencies made use of by the Elders, whether members of the tribe or their Gentile tools.

By “the Political” Mr. Marsden means, not exactly the “body politic” but the entire machinery of politics.

II.—The Symbolic Snake of Judaism.

Protocol III opens with a reference to the Symbolic Snake of Judaism. In his Epilogue to the 1905 Edition of the Protocols Nitius gives the following interesting account of this symbol:—

According to the records of secret Jewish Zionism, Solomon and other Jewish learned men already, in 929 B.C., thought out a scheme in theory for a peaceful conquest of the whole universe by Zion.

As history developed, this scheme was worked out in detail and completed by men who were subsequently initiated in this question. These learned men decided by peaceful means to conquer the world for Zion with the slyness of the Symbolic Snake, whose head was to represent those who have been initiated into the plans of the Jewish administration, and the body of the Snake to represent the Jewish people—the administration was always kept secret, even from the Jewish nation itself. As this Snake penetrated into the hearts of the nations which it encountered it undetermined and devoured all the non-Jewish power of these States. It is foretold that the Snake has still to finish its work, strictly adhering to the designed plan, until the course which it has to run is closed by the return of its head to Zion and until, by this means, the Snake has completed its round of Europe and has encircled it—and until, by dint of enchainng Europe, it has encompassed the whole world. This it is to accomplish by using every endeavour to subdue the other countries by an economical conquest.

The return of the head of the Snake to Zion can only be accomplished after the power of all the Sovereigns of Europe has been laid low, that is to say, when by means of economic crises and wholesale destruction effected everywhere, there shall have been brought about a spiritual demoralisation and a moral corruption, chiefly with the assistance of Jewish women masquerading as French, Italians, etc. These are the surest spreaders of licentiousness into the lives of the leading men at the heads of nations.

A map of the course of the Symbolic Snake is shown as follows:—Its first stage in Europe was in 429 B.C. in Greece, where, about the time of Pericles, the Snake first started eating into the power of that country. The second stage was in Rome in the time of Augustus, about 69 B.C. The third in Madrid in the time of Charles V, in A.D. 1552. The fourth in Paris about 1790, in the time of Louis XVI. The fifth in London from 1814 onwards (after the downfall of Napoleon). The sixth in Berlin in 1871 after the Franco-Prussian war. The seventh in St. Petersburg, over which is drawn the head of the Snake under the date of 1881.

All these states which the Snake traversed have had the foundations of their constitutions shaken, Germany, with its apparent power, forming no exception to the rule. In economic conditions England and Germany are spared, but only till the conquest of Russia is accomplished by the Snake, on which at present [i.e., 1905] all its efforts are concentrated. The further course of the Snake is not shown on this map, but arrows indicate its next movement towards Moscow, Kieft and Odessa.

It is now well known to us to what extent the latter cities form the centres of the militant Jewish race. Constantinople is shown as the last stage of the Snake's course before it reaches Jerusalem. (This map was drawn years before the occurrence of the “Young Turk”—i.e., Jewish—Revolution in Turkey).

III.—The term “Goyim,” meaning Gentile or non-Jews, is used throughout the Protocols and is retained by Mr. Marsden.

Note (1936). The late Lord Sydenham's remarks on the question of “forgery” are at the back of this book.

Jews and others who denounce the “Protocols” as a forgery should be asked to give the inner history of such incidents and events as, for instance

(1) The release of Trotsky (Bronstein) from arrest in Halifax, Nova Scotia, when on his way to butcher millions of helpless Russians.

(2) The suppression by our Foreign Office of the vital passage in the report on Bolshevism of Netherlands Minister Oudendyk.

(3) The Belfour Declaration.

Note (1941). The truth of the Protocols is proved by Disraeli in his “Lord George Bentinck” ch. 24. He there states categorically that the Jews wish to destroy Christendom, and the methods of accomplishing this, as described by him, coincide with the Protocols.

In the view of the writer of this note the presence of Bolshevik clerics in the churches and of Bolshevik professors in the universities and elsewhere would be impossible if the Protocols were not true. Other examples leading to the same conclusion may occur to the reader.

PROTOCOLS OF THE MEETINGS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION

1. . . . Putting aside fine phrases we shall speak of the significance of each thought: by comparisons and deductions we shall throw light upon surrounding facts.

2. What I am about to set forth, then, is our system from the two points of view, that of ourselves and that of the goyim [i.e., non-Jews].

3. It must be noted that men with bad instincts are more in number than the good, and therefore the best results in governing them are attained by violence and terrorisation, and not by academic discussions. Every man aims at power, everyone would like to become a dictator if only he could, and rare indeed are the men who would not be willing to sacrifice the welfare of all for the sake of securing their own welfare.

4. What has restrained the beasts of prey who are called men? What has served for their guidance hitherto?

5. In the beginnings of the structure of society they were subjected to brutal and blind force; afterwards—to law, which is the same force, only disguised. I draw the conclusion that by the law of nature right lies in force.

6. Political freedom is an idea but not a fact. This idea one must know how to apply whenever it appears necessary with this bait of an idea to attract the masses of the people to one's party for the purpose of crushing another who is in authority. This task is rendered easier if the opponent has himself been infected with the idea of freedom, so-called liberalism, and, for the sake of an idea, is willing to yield some of his power. It is precisely here that the triumph of our theory appears; the slackened reins of government are immediately, by the law of life, caught up and gathered together by a new hand, because the blind might of the nation cannot for one single day exist without guidance, and the new authority merely fits into the place of the old already weakened by liberalism.

7. In our day the power which has replaced that of the rulers who were liberal is the power of Gold. Time was when Faith ruled. The idea of freedom is impossible of realisation because no one knows how to use it with moderation. It is enough to hand over a people to self-government for a certain length of time for that people to be turned into a disorganized mob. From that moment on we get internecine strife which soon develops into battles between classes, in the midst of which States burn down and their importance is reduced to that of a heap of ashes.

8. Whether a State exhausts itself in its own convulsions, whether its internal discord brings it under the power of external foes—in any case it can be accounted irretrievably lost: it is in our power.⁸ The despotism of Capital, which is entirely in our hands, reaches out to it a straw that the State, willy-nilly, must take hold of; if not—it goes to the bottom.

9. Should anyone of a liberal mind say that such reflections as the above are immoral I would put the following questions:—If every State has two foes and if in regard to the external foe it is allowed and not considered immoral to use every manner and art of conflict, as for example to keep the enemy in ignorance of plans of attack and defense, to attack him by night or in superior numbers, then in what way can the same means in regard to a worse foe, the destroyer of the structure of society and the commonweal, be called immoral and not permissible?

10. Is it possible for any sound logical mind to hope with any success to guide crowds by the aid of reasonable counsels and arguments, when any objection or contradiction, senseless though it may be, can be made and when such objection may find more favour with the people, whose powers of reasoning are superficial? Men in masses and the men of the masses, being guided solely by petty passions, paltry beliefs, traditions and sentimental theorism, fall a prey to party dissension, which hinders any kind of agreement even on the basis of a perfectly reasonable argument. Every resolution of a crowd depends upon a chance or packed majority, which, in its ignorance of political secrets, puts forth some ridiculous resolution that lays in the administration a seed of anarchy.

11. The political has nothing in common with the moral. The ruler who is governed by the moral is not a skilled politician, and is therefore unstable on his throne. He who wishes to rule must have recourse both to cunning and to make-believe. Great national qualities, like frankness and honesty, are vices in politics, for they bring down rulers from their thrones more effectively and more certainly than the most powerful enemy. Such qualities must be the attributes of the kingdoms of the goyim, but we must in no wise be guided by them.

12. Our right lies in force. The word "right" is an abstract thought and proved by nothing. The word means no more than:—Give me what I want in order that thereby I may have a proof that I am stronger than you.

13. Where does right begin? Where does it end?

14. In any State in which there is a bad organisation of authority, an impersonality of laws and of the rulers who have lost their personality amid the flood of rights ever multiplying out of liberalism, I find a new right—to attack by the right of the strong, and to scatter to the winds all existing forces of order and regulation, to reconstruct all institutions and to become the sovereign lord of those who have left to us the rights of their power by laying them down voluntarily in their liberalism.

15. Our power in the present tottering condition of all forms of power will be more invincible than any other, because it will remain invisible until the moment when it has gained such strength that no cunning can any longer undermine it.

16. Out of the temporary evil we are now compelled to commit will emerge the good of an unshakable rule, which will restore the regular course of the machinery of the national life, brought to naught by liberalism. The result justifies the means. Let us, however, in our plans, direct our attention not so much to what is good and moral as to what is necessary and useful.

17. Before us is a plan in which is laid down strategically the line from which we cannot deviate without running the risk of seeing the labour of many centuries brought to naught.

18. In order to elaborate satisfactory forms of action it is necessary to have regard to the rascality, the slackness, the instability of the mob, its lack of capacity to understand and respect the conditions of its own life, or its own welfare. It must be understood that the might of a mob is blind, senseless and, reasoning force ever at the mercy of a suggestion from any side. The blind cannot lead the blind without bringing them into the abyss; consequently, members of the mob, upstarts from the people even though they should be as a genius for wisdom, yet having no understanding of the political, cannot come forward as leaders of the mob without bringing the whole nation to ruin.

19. Only one trained from childhood for independent rule can have understanding of the words that can be made up of the political alphabet.

20. A people left to itself, i.e., to upstarts from its midst, brings itself to ruin by party dissensions excited by the pursuit of power and honours and the disorders arising therefrom. Is it possible for the masses of the people calmly and without petty jealousies to form judgment, to deal with the affairs of the country, which cannot be mixed up with personal interests? Can they defend themselves from an external foe? It is unthinkable; for a plan broken up into as many parts as there are heads in the mob, loses all homogeneity, and thereby becomes unintelligible and impossible of execution.

21. It is only with a despotic ruler that plans can be elaborated extensively and clearly in such a way as to distribute the whole property among the several parts of the machinery of the State: from this the conclusion is inevitable that a satisfactory form of government for any country is one that concentrates in the hands of one responsible person. Without an absolute despotism there can be no existence for civilisation which is carried on not by the masses but by their guide, whosever that person may be. The mob is savage, and displays its savagery at every opportunity. The moment the mob seizes freedom in its hands it quickly turns to anarchy, which in itself is the highest degree of savagery.

22. Behold the alcoholised animals, bemused with drink, the right to an immoderate use of which comes along with freedom. It is not for us and ours to walk that road. The peoples of the goyim are bemused with alcoholic liquors; their youth has grown stupid on classicism and from early immorality, into which it has been inducted by our special agents—by tutors, lackeys, governesses in the houses of the wealthy, by clerks and others, by our women in the places of dissipation frequented by the goyim. In the number of these last I count also the so-called "society ladies," voluntary followers of the others in corruption and luxury.

23. Our countersign is—Force and Make-believe. Only force conquers in political affairs, especially if it be concealed in the talents essential to statesmen. Violence must be the principle, and cunning and make-believe the rule for governments which do not want to lay down their crowns at the feet of agents of some new power. This evil is the one and only means to attain the end, the good. Therefore we must not stop at bribery, deceit and treachery when they should serve towards the attainment of our end. In politics one must know how to seize the property of others without hesitation if by it we secure submission and sovereignty.

24. Our State, marching along the path of peaceful conquest, has the right to replace the horrors of war by less noticeable and more satisfactory sentences of death, necessary to maintain the terror which tends to produce blind submission. Just but merciless severity is the greatest factor of strength in the State: not only for the sake of gain but also in the name of duty, for the sake of victory, we must keep to the programme of violence and make-believe. The doctrine of squaring accounts is precisely as strong as the means of which it makes use. Therefore it is not so much by the means themselves as by the doctrine of severity that we shall triumph and bring all governments into subjection to our super-government. It is enough for them to know that we are too merciless for all disobedience to cease.

25. Far back in ancient times we were the first to cry among the masses of the people the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," words many times repeated since those days by stupid poll-parrots who from all sides round flew down upon these bats and with them carried away the well-being of the world, true freedom of the individual, formerly so well guarded against the pressure of the mob. The would-be wise men of the goyim, the intellectuals, could not make anything out of the uttered words in their abstractness; did not note the contradiction of their meaning and inter-relation: did not see that in nature there is no equality, cannot be freedom: that Nature herself has established inequality of minds, of characters, and capacities, just as immutably as she has established subordination to her laws: never stopped to think that the mob is a blind thing, that upstarts elected from among it to bear rule are, in regard to the political, the same blind men as the mob itself, that the adept, though he be a fool, can yet rule, whereas the non-adept, even if he were a genius, understands nothing in the political—to all those things the goyim paid no regard; yet all the time it was based upon these things that dynastic rule rested: the father passed on to the son a knowledge of the course of political affairs in such wise that none should know it but members of the dynasty and none could betray it to the governed. As time went on the meaning of the dynastic transference of the true position of affairs in the political was lost, and this aided the success of our cause.

26. In all corners of the earth the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," brought to our ranks, thanks to our blind agents, whole legions who bore our banners with enthusiasm. And all the time these words were canker-worms at work boring into the well-being of the goyim, putting an end everywhere to peace, quiet, solidarity and destroying all the foundations of the goyim States. As you will see later, this helped us to our triumph: it gave us the possibility, among other things, of getting into our hands the master card—the destruction of the privileges, or in other words of the very existence of the aristocracy of the goyim, that class which was the only defense peoples and countries had against us. On the ruins of the eternal and genealogical aristocracy of the goyim we have set up the aristocracy of our educated class headed by the aristocracy of money. The qualifications for this aristocracy we have established in wealth, which is dependent upon us, and in knowledge, for which our learned elders provide the motive force.

27. Our triumph has been rendered easier by the fact that in our relations with the men whom we wanted we have always worked upon the most sensitive chords of the human mind, upon the cash account, upon the cupidity, upon the insatiability for material needs of man; and each one of these human weaknesses, taken alone, is sufficient to paralyse initiative, for it hands over the will of men to the disposition of him who has bought their activities.

28. The abstraction of freedom has enabled us to persuade the mob in all countries that their government is nothing but the steward of the people who are the owners of the country, and that the steward may be replaced like a worn-out glove.

29. It is this possibility of replacing the representatives of the people which has placed them at our disposal, and, as it were, given us the power of appointment.

II

1. It is indispensable for our purpose that wars, so far as possible, should not result in territorial gains: war will thus be brought on to the economic ground, where the nations will not fail to perceive in the assistance we give the strength of our predominance, and this state of things will put both sides at the mercy of our international agentur; which possesses millions of eyes ever on the watch and unhampered by any limitations whatsoever. Our international rights will then wipe out national rights, in the proper sense of right, and will rule the nations precisely as the civil law of States rules the relations of their subjects among themselves.

2. The administrators, whom we shall choose from among the public, with strict regard to their capacities for servile obedience, will not be persons trained in the arts of government, and will therefore easily become pawns in our game in the hands of men of learning and genius who will be their advisers, specialists bred and reared from early childhood to rule the affairs of the whole world. As is well known to you, these specialists of ours have been drawing to fit them for rule the information they need from our political plans from the lessons of history, from observations made of the events of every moment as it passes. The goyim are not guided by practical use of unprejudiced historical observation, but by theoretical routine without any critical regard for consequent results. We need not, therefore, take any account of them—let them amuse themselves until the hour strikes, or live on hopes of new forms of enterprising pastime, or on the memories of all they have enjoyed. For them let that play the principal part which we have persuaded them to accept as the dictates of science (theory). It is with this object in view that we are constantly, by means of our press, arousing a blind confidence in these theories. The intellectuals of the goyim will puff themselves up with their knowledge and without any logical verification of them will put into effect all the information available from science, which our agentur specialists have cunningly pieced together for the purpose of educating their minds in the direction we want.

3. Do not suppose for a moment that these statements are empty words: think carefully of the successes we arranged for Darwinism, Marxism, Nietzscheism. To us Jews, at any rate, it should be plain to see what a disintegrating importance these directives have had upon the minds of the goyim.

4. It is indispensable for us to take account of the thoughts, characters, tendencies of the nations in order to avoid making slips in the political and in the direction of administrative affairs. The triumph of our system, of which the component parts of the machinery may be variously disposed according to the temperament of the peoples met on our way, will fail of success if the practical application of it be not based upon a summing up of the lessons of the past in the light of the present.

5. In the hands of the States of to-day there is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the Press. The part played by the Press is to keep pointing out the requirements supposed to be indispensable, to give voice to the complaints of the people, to express and to create discontent. It is in the Press that the triumph of freedom of speech finds its incarnation. But the goyim States have not known how to 'make use of this force; and it has fallen into our hands. Through the Press we have gained the power to influence while remaining ourselves in the shade; thanks to the Press we have got the gold in our hands, notwithstanding that we have had to gather it out of the oceans of blood and tears. But it has paid us, though we have sacrificed many of our people. Each victim on our side is worth in the sight of God a thousand goyim.

III

1. To-day I may tell you that our goal is now only a few steps off. There remains a small space to cross and the whole long path we have trodden is ready now to close its cycle of the Symbolic Snake, by which we symbolise our people. When this ring closes, all the States of Europe will be locked in its coil as in a powerful vice.

2. The constitution scales of these days will shortly break down, for we have established them with a certain lack of accurate balance in order that they may oscillate incessantly until they wear through the pivot on which they turn. The goyim are under the impression that they have wielded them sufficiently strong and they have all along kept on expecting that the scales would come into equilibrium. But the pivots—the kings on their thrones—are hemmed in by their representatives, who play the fool, distraught with their own uncontrolled and irresponsible power. This power they owe to the terror which has been breathed into the palaces. As they have no means of getting at their people, into their very midst, the kings on their thrones are no longer able to come to terms with them and so strengthen themselves against seekers after power. We have made a gulf between the far-seeing Sovereign Power and the blind force of the people so that both have lost all meaning, for like the blind man and his stick, both are powerless apart.

3. In order to incite seekers after power to a misuse of power we have set all forces in opposition one to another, breaking up their liberal tendencies towards independence. To this end we have stirred up every form of enterprise, we have armed all parties, we have set up authority as a target for every ambition. Of States we have made gladiatorial arenas where a lot of confused issues contend... A little more, and disorders and bankruptcy will be universal...

4. Babblers inextinguishable have turned into oratorical contests the sittings of Parliament and Administrative Boards. Bold journalists and unscrupulous pamphleteers daily fall upon executive officials. Abuses of power will put the final touch in preparing all institutions for their overthrow and everything will fly skyward under the blows of the maddened mob.

5. All people are chained down to heavy toil by poverty more firmly than ever they were chained by slavery and serfdom; from these, one way and another, they might free themselves, these could be settled with, but from want they will never get away. We have included in the constitution such rights as to the masses appear fictitious and not actual rights. All these so-called "People's Rights" can exist only in idea, an idea which can never be realised in practical life. What is it to the proletariat labourer, bowed double over his heavy toil, crushed by his lot in life, if talkers get the right to babble, if journalists get the right to scribble any nonsense side by side with good stuff, once the proletariat has no other profit out of the constitution save only those pitiful crumbs which we fling them from our table in return for their voting in favor of what we dictate, in favour of the men we place in power, the servants of our agentur.... Re-publican rights for a poor man are no more than a bitter piece of irony, for the necessity he is under of toiling almost all day gives him no present use of them, but the other hand robs him of all guarantee of regular and certain earnings by making him dependent on strikes by his comrades or lockouts by his masters.

6. The people under our guidance have annihilated the aristocracy, who were their one and only defense and foster-mother for the sake of their own advantage which is inseparably bound up with the well-being of the people. Nowadays, with the destruction of the aristocracy, the people have fallen into the grips of merciless money-grinding scoundrels who have laid a pitiless and cruel yoke upon the necks of the workers.

7. We appear on the scene as alleged saviours of the worker from this oppression when we propose to him to enter the ranks of our fighting forces—Socialists, Anarchists, Communists—to whom we always give support in accordance with an alleged brotherly rule (of the solidarity of all humanity) of our social masonry. The aristocracy, which enjoyed by law the labour of the workers, was interested in seeing that the workers were well fed, healthy and strong. We are interested in just the opposite—in the diminution, the killing out of the GOYIM. Our power, is in the chronic shortness of food and physical weakness of the worker because by all that this implies he is made the slave of our will, and he will not find in his own authorities either strength or energy to set against our will. Hunger creates the right of capital to rule the worker more surely than it was given to the aristocracy by the legal authority of kings.

8. By want and the envy and hatred which it engenders we shall move the mobs and with their hands we shall wipe out all those who hinder us on our way.

9. When the hour strikes for our Sovereign Lord of all the World to be crowned it is these same hands which will sweep away everything that might be a hindrance thereto.

10. The goyim have lost the habit of thinking unless prompted by the suggestions of our specialists. Therefore they do not see the urgent necessity of what we, when our kingdom comes, shall adopt at once, namely this, that it is essential to teach in national schools one simple, true piece of knowledge, the basis of all knowledge—the knowledge of the structure of human life, of social existence, which requires division of labour, and, consequently, the division of men into classes and conditions. It is essential for all to know that owing to difference in the objects of human activity there cannot be any equality, that he who by any act of his compromises a whole class cannot be equally responsible before the law with him who affects no one but only his own honour. The true knowledge of the structure of society; into the secrets of which we do not admit the goyim, would demonstrate to all men that the positions and work must be kept within a certain circle, that they may not become a source of human suffering, arising from an education which does not correspond with the work which individuals are called upon to do. After a thorough study of this knowledge the peoples will voluntarily submit to authority and accept such position as is appointed them in the State. In the present state of knowledge and the direction we have given to its development the people, blindly believing things in print—cherishes—thanks to promptings intended to mislead and to its own ignorance—a blind hatred towards all conditions which it considers above itself, for it has no understanding of the meaning of class and condition.

11. This hatred will be still further magnified by the effects of an economic crisis, which will stop dealing on the exchanges and bring industry to a standstill. We shall create by all the secret subterranean methods open to us and with the aid of gold, which is all in our hands, a universal economic crisis whereby we shall throw upon the streets whole mobs of workers simultaneously in all the countries of Europe. These mobs will rush delightfully to shed the blood of those whom, in the simplicity of their ignorance, they have envied from their cradles, and whose property they will then be able to loot.

12. "Ours" they will not touch, because the moment of attack will be known to us and we shall take measures to protect our own.

13. We have demonstrated that progress will bring all the goyim to the sovereignty of reason. Our despotism will be precisely that; for it will know how by wise severities to pacify all unrest, to cauterise liberalism out of all institutions.

14. When the populace has seen that all sorts of concessions and indulgences are yielded it, in the same name of freedom it has imagined itself to be sovereign lord and has stormed its way to power, but, naturally, like every other blind man it has come upon a host of stumbling blocks, it has rushed to find a guide, it has laid down its plenipotentiary powers at our feet. Remember the French Revolution, to which it was we who gave the name of "Great": the secrets of its preparations are well known to us for it was wholly the work of our hands.

15. Ever since that time we have been leading the peoples from one disenchantment to another, so that in the end they should turn also from us in favour of that King-Despot of the blood of Zion, whom we are preparing for the world.

16. At the present day we are, as an international force, invincible, because if attacked by some we are supported by other States. It is the bottomless rascality of the goyim peoples, who crawl on their bellies to force, but are merciless towards weakness, unsparing to faults and indulgent to crimes, unwilling to bear the contradictions of a free social system but patient unto martyrdom under the violence of a bold despotism—it is those qualities which are aiding us to independence. From the premier-dictators of the present day the goyim peoples suffer patiently and bear such abuses as for the least of them they would have beheld twenty kings.

17. What is the explanation of this phenomenon, this curious inconsequence of the masses of the peoples in their attitude towards what would appear to be events of the same order?

18. It is explained by the fact that these dictators whisper to the peoples through their agents that through these abuses they are inflicting injury on the States with the highest purpose—to secure the welfare of the peoples, the international brotherhood of them all, their solidarity and equality of rights. Naturally they do not tell the peoples that this unification must be accomplished only under our sovereign rule.

19. And thus the people condemn the upright and acquit the guilty, persuaded ever more and more that it can do whatsoever it wishes. Thanks to this state of things the people are destroying every kind of stability and creating disorders at every step.

20. The word "freedom" brings out the communities of men to fight against every kind of force, against every kind of authority even against God and the laws of nature. For this reason we, when we come into our kingdom, shall have to erase this word from the lexicon of life as implying a principle of brute force which turns mobs into bloodthirsty beasts.

21. These beasts, it is true, fall asleep again every time when they have drunk their fill of blood, and at such times can easily be riveted into their chains. But if they be not given blood they will not sleep and continue to struggle.

IV

1. Every republic passes through several stages. The first of these is comprised in the early days of mad raging by the blind mob, tossed hither and thither, right and left: the second is demagoguery from which is born anarchy, and that leads inevitably to despotism—not any longer legal and overt, and therefore responsible despotism, but to unseen and secretly hidden, yet nevertheless sensibly felt despotism in the hands of some secret organisation or other, whose acts are the more unscrupulous inasmuch as it works behind a screen, behind the backs of all sorts of agents, the changing of whom not only does not injuriously affect but actually aids the secret force by saving it, thanks to continual changes, from the necessity of expanding its resources on the rewarding of long services.

2. Who and what is in a position to overthrow an invisible force? And this is precisely what our force is. Gentile masonry blindly serves as a screen for us and our objects, but the plan of action of our force, even its very abiding-place, remains for the whole people an unknown mystery.

3. But even freedom might be harmless and have its place in the State economy without injury to the well-being of the peoples if it rested upon the foundation of faith in God, upon the brotherhood of humanity, unconnected with the conception of equality, which is negatived by the very laws of creation, for they have established subordination. With such a faith as this a people might be governed by a wardship of parishes, and would walk contentedly and humbly under the guiding hand of its spiritual pastor submitting to the dispositions of God upon earth. This is the reason why it is indispensable for us to undermine all faith, to tear out of the mind of the GOYIM the very principle of God-head and the spirit, and to put in its place arithmetical calculations and material needs.

4. In order to give the goyim no time to think and take note, their minds must be diverted towards industry and trade. Thus, all the nations will be swallowed up in the pursuit of gain and in the race for it will not take note of their common foe. But again, in order that freedom may once for all disintegrate and ruin the communities of the goyim, we must put industry on a speculative basis: the result of this will be that what is withdrawn from the land by industry will slip through the hands and pass into speculation, that is, to our classes.

5. The intensified struggle for superiority and shocks delivered to economic life will create, nay, have already created, disenchanting, cold and heartless communities. Such communities will foster a strong aversion towards the higher political and towards religion. Their only guide is gain, that is Gold, which they will erect into a veritable cult, for the sake of those material delights which it can give. Then will the hour strike when, not for the sake of attaining the good, not even to win wealth, but solely out of hatred towards the privileged, the lower classes of the goyim will follow our lead against our rivals for power, the intellectuals of the goyim.

1. What form of administrative rule can be given to communities in which corruption has penetrated everywhere, communities where riches are attained only by the clever surprise tactics of semi-swindling tricks; where looseness reigns; where morality is maintained by penal measures and harsh laws but not by voluntarily accepted principles: where the feelings towards faith and country are obligated by cosmopolitan convictions? What form of rule is to be given to these communities if not that despotism which I shall describe to you later? We shall create an intensified centralisation of government in order to grip in our hands all the forces of the community. We shall regulate mechanically all the actions of the political life of our subjects by new laws. These laws will withdraw one by one all the indulgences and liberties which have been permitted by the goyim, and our kingdom will be distinguished by a despotism of such magnificent proportions as to be at any moment and in every place in a position to wipe out any goyim who oppose us by deed or word.

2. We shall be told that such a despotism as I speak of is not consistent with the progress of these days, but I will prove to you that it is.

3. In the times when the peoples looked upon kings on their thrones as on a pure manifestation of the will of God, they submitted without a murmur to the despotic power of kings: but from the day when we insinuated into their minds the conception of their own rights they began to regard the occupants of thrones as mere ordinary mortals. The holy unction of the Lord's Anointed has fallen from the heads of kings in the eyes of the people, and when we also robbed them of their faith in God the might of power was flung upon the streets into the place of public proprietorship and was seized by us.

4. Moreover, the art of directing masses and individuals by means of cleverly manipulated theory and verbiage, by regulations of life in common and all sorts of other quirkies, in all which the goyim understand nothing, belongs likewise to the specialists of our administrative brain. Reared on analysis, observation, on delicacies of fine calculation, in this species of skill we have no rivals, any more than we have either in the drawing up of plans of political actions and solidarity. In this respect the Jesuits alone might have compared with us, but we have contrived to discredit them in the eyes of the unthinking mob as an overt organisation, while we ourselves all the while have kept our secret organisation in the shade. However, it is probably all the same to the world who is its sovereign lord, whether the head of Catholicism or our despot of the blood of Zion! But to us, the Chosen People, it is very far from being a matter of indifference.

5. For a time perhaps we might be successfully dealt with by a coalition of the GOYIM of all the world: but from this danger we are secured by the discord existing among them whose roots are so deeply seated that they can never now be plucked up. We have set one against another the personal and national reckonings of the goyim, religious and race hatreds, which we have fostered into a huge growth in the course of the past twenty centuries. This is the reason why there is not one State which would anywhere receive support if it were to raise its arm, for every one of them must bear in mind that any agreement against us would be unprofitable to itself. We are too strong—there is no evading our power. The nations cannot come to even an inconsiderable private agreement without our secretly having a hand in it.

6. Per Me reges regunt. "It is through me that Kings reign." And it was said by the prophets that we were chosen by God Himself to rule over the whole earth. God has endowed us with genius that we may be equal to our task. Were genius in the opposite camp it would still struggle against us, but even so a newcomer is no match for the old-established settler: the struggle would be merciless between us, such a fight as the world has never seen. Aye, and the genius on their side would have arrived too late. All the wheels of the machinery of all States go by the force of the engine, which is in our hands, and that engine of the machinery of States is—Gold. The science of political economy invented by our learned elders has for long past been giving royal prestige to capital.

7. Capital, if it is to co-operate untrammelled, must be free to establish a monopoly of industry and trade: this is already being put in execution by an unseen hand in all quarters of the world. This freedom will give political force to those engaged in industry, and that will help to oppress the people. Nowadays it is more important to disarm the peoples than to lead them into war: more important to use for our advantage the passions which have burst into flames than to quench their fire; more important to catch up and interpret the ideas of others to suit ourselves than to eradicate them. The principle object of our directorate consists in this: to debilitate the public mind by criticism; to lead it away from serious reflections calculated to arouse resistance; to distract the forces of the mind towards a sham fight of empty eloquence.

8. In all ages the people of the world, equally with individuals, have accepted words for deeds, for they are content with a show, and rarely pause to note, in the public arena, whether promises are followed by performance. Therefore we shall establish lish show institutions which will give eloquent proof of their benefit to progress.

9. We shall assume to ourselves the liberal physiognomy of all parties, of all directions, and we shall give that physiognomy a voice in orators who will speak so much that they will exhaust the patience of their hearers and produce an abhorrence of oratory.

10. In order to put public opinion into our hands we must bring it into a state of bewilderment by giving expression from all sides to so many contradictory opinions and for such length of time as will suffice to make the GOYIM lose their heads in the labyrinth and come to see that the best thing is to have no opinion of any kind in matters political, which it is not given to the public to understand, because they are understood only by him who guides the public. This is the first secret.

11. The second secret requisite for the success of our government is comprised in the following: To multiply to such an extent national failings, habits, passions, conditions of civil life, that it will be impossible for anyone to know where he is in the resulting chaos, so that the people in consequence will fail to understand one another. This measure will also serve us in another way, namely, to sow discord in all parties, to dislocate all collective forces which are still unwilling to submit to us, and to discourage any kind of personal initiative which might in any degree hinder our affair. There is nothing more dangerous than personal initiative; if it has genius behind it, such initiative can do more than can be done by millions of people among whom we have sown discord. We must so direct the education of the goyim communities that whenever they come upon a matter requiring initiative they may drop their hands in despairing impotence. The strain which results from freedom of action saps the forces when it meets with the freedom of another. From this collision arise grave moral shocks, disenchantments, failures. By all these means we shall so wear down the GOYIM that they will be compelled to offer us international power of a nature that by its position will enable us without any violence gradually to absorb all the State forces of the world and to form a Super-Government. In place of the rulers of to-day we shall set up a bogey which will be called the Super-Government Administration. Its hands will reach out in all directions like nippers and its organisation will be of such colossal dimensions that it cannot fail to subdue all the nations of the world.

VI

1. We shall soon begin to establish huge monopolies, reservoirs of colossal riches, upon which even large fortunes of the goyim will depend to such an extent that they will go to the bottom together with the credit of the States on the day after the political smash

2. You gentlemen here present who are economists, just strike an estimate of the significance of this combination!

3. In every possible way we must develop the significance of our Super-Government by representing it as the Protector and Benefactor of all those who voluntarily submit to us.

4. The aristocracy of the goyim as a political force, is dead—We need not take it into account; but as landed proprietors they can still be harmful to us from the fact that they are self-sufficient in the resources upon which they live. It is essential therefore for us at whatever cost to deprive them of their land. This object will be best attained by increasing the burdens upon landed property—in loading lands with debts. These measures will check land-holding and keep it in a state of humble and unconditional submission.

5. The aristocrats of the goyim, being hereditarily incapable of contenting themselves with little, will rapidly burn up and fizzle out.

6. At the same time we must intensively patronise trade and industry, but, first and foremost, speculation, the part played by which is to provide a counterpoise to industry: the absence of speculative industry will multiply capital in private hands and will serve to restore agriculture by freeing the land from indebtedness to the land banks. What we want is that industry should drain off from the land both labour and capital and by means of speculation transfer into our hands all the money of the world, and thereby throw all the goyim into the ranks of the proletariat. Then the goyim will bow down before us, if for no other reason but to get the right to exist.

7. To complete the ruin of the industry of the goyim we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the goyim, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything. We shall raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it arises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding: we shall further undermine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate from the face of the earth all the educated forces of the GOYIM.

8. In order that the true meaning of things may not strike the GOYIM before the proper time we shall mask it under an alleged ardent desire to serve the working classes and the great principles of political economy about which our economic theories are carrying on an energetic propaganda.

1. The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces—are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans. What we have to get at is that there should be in all the States of the world, besides ourselves, only the masses of the proletariat, a few millionaires devoted to our interests, police and soldiers.

2. Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferment, disorders and hostility. Therein we gain a double advantage. In the first place we keep in check all countries, for they will know that we have the power whenever we like to create disorders or to restore order. All these countries are accustomed to see in us an indispensable force of coercion. In the second place, by our intrigues we shall tangle up all the threads which we have stretched into the cabinets of all States by means of the political, by economic treaties, or loan obligations. In order to succeed in this we must use great cunning and penetration during negotiations and agreements, but, as regards what is called the "official language," we shall keep to the opposite tactics and assume the mask of honesty and complacency. In this way the peoples and governments of the goyim, whom we have taught to look only at the outside whatever we present to their notice, will still continue to accept us as the benefactors and saviours of the human race.

3. We must be in a position to respond to every act of opposition by war with the neighbours of that country which dares to oppose us: but if these neighbors should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war.

4. The principal factor of success in the political is the secrecy of its undertakings: the word should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat.

5. We must compel the governments of the goyim to take action in the direction favored by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly promoted by us through the means of that so-called "Great Power"—the Press, which, with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands.

6. In a word, to sum up our system of keeping the governments of the goyim in Europe in check, we shall show our strength to one of them by terrorist attempts and to all, if we allow the possibility of a general rising against us, we shall respond with the guns of America or China or Japan.

VIII

1. We must arm ourselves with all the weapons which our opponents might employ against us. We must search out in the very finest shades of expression and the knotty points of the lexicon of law justification for those cases where we shall have to pronounce judgments that might appear abnormally audacious and unjust, for it is important that these resolutions should be set forth in expressions that shall seem to be the most exalted moral principles cast into legal form. Our directorate must surround itself with all these forces of civilisation among which it will have to work. It will surround itself with publicists, practical jurists, administrators, diplomats and, finally, with persons prepared by a special super-educational training in our special schools. These persons will have cognisance of all the secrets of the social structure, they will know all the languages that can be made up by political alphabets and words; they will be made acquainted with the whole underside of human nature, with all its sensitive chords on which they will have to play. These chords are the cast of mind of the goyim, their tendencies, shortcomings, vices and qualities, the particularities of classes and conditions. Needless to say that the talented assistants of authority, of whom I speak, will be taken not from among the goyim, who are accustomed to perform their administrative work without giving themselves the trouble to think what its aim is, and never consider what it is needed for. The administrators of the goyim sign papers without reading them, and they serve either for mercenary reasons or from ambition.

2. We shall surround our government with a whole world of economists. That is the reason why economic sciences form the principal subject of the teaching given to the Jews. Around us again will be a whole constellation of bankers, industrialists, capitalists and—the main thing—millionaires, because in substance everything will be settled by the question of figures.

3. For a time, until there will no longer be any risk in entrusting responsible posts in our State to our brother-Jews, we shall put them in the hands of persons whose past and reputation are such that between them and the people lies an abyss, persons who, in case of disobedience to our instructions, must face criminal charges or disappear—this in order to make them defend our interests to their last gasp.

IX

1. In applying our principles let attention be paid to the character of the people in whose country you live and act; a general, identical application of them, until such time as the people shall have been re-educated to our pattern, cannot have success. But by approaching their application cautiously you will see that not a decade will pass before the most stubborn character will change and we shall add a new people to the ranks of those already subdued by us.

2. The words of the liberal, which are in effect the words of our masonic watchword, namely, "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," will, when we come into our kingdom, be changed by us into words no longer of a watchword, but only an expression of idealism, namely, into "The right of liberty, the duty of equality, the ideal of brotherhood." That is how we shall put it,—and so we shall catch the bull by the horns... De facto we have already wiped out every kind of rule except our own, although de jure there still remain a good many of them. Nowadays, if any States raise a protest against us it is only pro forma at our discretion and by our direction, for their anti-Semitism is indispensable to us for the management of our lesser brethren. I will not enter into further explanations, for this matter has formed the subject of repeated discussions amongst us.

3. For us there are no checks to limit the range of our activity. Our Super-Government subsists in extra-legal conditions which are described in the accepted terminology by the energetic and forcible word—Dictatorship. I am in a position to tell you with a clear conscience that at the proper time we, the law-givers, shall execute judgment and sentence, we shall slay and we shall spare, we, as head of all our troops, are mounted on the speed of the leader. We rule by force of will, because in our hands are the fragments of a once powerful party, now vanquished by us. And the weapons in our hands are limitless ambitions, burning greediness, merciless vengeance, hatreds and malice.

4. It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, of all doctrines, restoring monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harnessed them all to the task: each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority, is striving to overthrow all established form of order. By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquility, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace: but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super-Government, and with submissive-ness.

5. The people have raised a howl about the necessity of settling the question of Socialism by way of an international agreement. Division into fractional parties has given them into our hands, for, in order to carry on a contested struggle one must have money, and the money is all in our hands.

6. We might have reason to apprehend a union between the "clear-sighted" force of the goyim kings on their thrones and the "blind" force of the goy mobs, but we have taken all the needful measure against any such possibility: between the one and the other force we have erected a bulwark in the shape of a mutual terror between them. In this way the blind force of the people remains our support and we, and we only, shall provide them with a leader and, of course, direct them along the road that leads to our goal.

7. In order that the hand of the blind mob may not free itself from our guiding hand, we must every now and then enter into close communion with it, if not actually in person, at any rate through some of the most trusty of our brethren. When we are acknowledged as the only authority we shall discuss with the people personally on the market, places, and we shall instruct them on questions of the political in such wise as may turn them in the direction that suits us.

8. Who is going to verify what is taught in the village schools? But what an envoy of the government or a king on his throne himself may say cannot but become immediately known to the whole State, for it will be spread abroad by the voice of the people.

9. In order not to annihilate the institutions of the goyim before it is time we have touched them with craft and delicacy, and have taken hold of the ends of the springs which move their mechanism. These springs lay in a strict but just sense of order; we have replaced them by the chaotic license of liberalism. We have got our hands into the administration of the law, into the conduct of elections, into the press, into liberty of the person, but principally into education and training as being the corner-stones of a free existence.

10. We have fooled, bemused and corrupted the youth of the goyim by rearing them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false although it is by us that they have been inculcated.

11. Above the existing laws without substantially altering them, and by merely twisting them into contradictions of interpretations, we have erected something grandiose in the way of results. These results found expression in the fact that the interpretations masked the law: afterwards they entirely hid them from the eyes of the governments owing to the impossibility of making anything out of the tangled web of legislation.

12. This is the origin of the theory of course of arbitration.

13. You may say that the goyim will rise upon us, arms in hand, if they guess what is going on before the time comes; but in the West we have against this manoeuvre of such appalling terror that the very stoutest hearts quail—the undergrounds, metropolitains, those subterranean corridors which, before the time comes, will be driven under all the capitals and from whence those capitals will be blown into the air with all their organisations and archives.

X

1. To-day I begin with a repetition of what I said before, and I beg you to bear in mind that governments and peoples are content in the political with outside appearances. And how, indeed, are the goyim to perceive the underlying meaning of things when their representatives give the best of their energies to enjoying themselves? For our policy it is of the greatest importance to take cognisance of this detail; it will be of assistance to us when we come to consider the division of authority, freedom of speech, of the press, of religion (faith), of the law of association, of equality before the law, of the inviolability of property, of the dwelling, of taxation (the idea of concealed taxes), of the reflex force of the laws. All these questions are such as ought not to be touched upon directly and openly before the people. In cases where it is indispensable to touch upon them they must not be categorically named, it must merely be declared without detailed exposition that the principles of contemporary law are acknowledged by us. The reason of keeping silence in this respect is that by not naming a principle we leave ourselves freedom of action, to drop this or that out of it without attracting notice; if they were all categorically named they would all appear to have been already given.

2. The mob cherishes a special affection and respect for the geniuses of political power and accepts all their deeds of violence with the admiring response: "rascally, well, yes, it is rascally, but it's clever! . . . a trick, if you like, but how craftily played, how magnificently done, what impudent audacity!"

3. We count upon attracting all nations to the task of erecting the new fundamental structure, the project for which has been drawn up by us. This is why, before everything, it is indispensable for us to arm ourselves and to store up in ourselves that absolutely reckless audacity and irresistible might of the spirit which in the person of our active workers will break down all hindrances on our way.

4. When we have accomplished our coup d'état we shall say then to the various peoples: "Everything has gone terribly badly, all have been worn out with suffering. We are destroying the causes of your torment—nationalities, frontiers, differences of coinages. You are at liberty, of course, to pronounce sentence upon us, but can it possibly be a just one if it is confirmed by you before you make any trial of what we are offering you." . . . Then will the mob exult us and bear us up in their hands in a unanimous triumph of hopes and expectations. Voting, which we have made the instrument which will set us on the throne of the world by teaching even the very smallest units of members of the human race to vote by means of meetings and agreements by groups, will then have served its purposes and will play its part then for the last time by a unanimity of desire to make close acquaintance with us before condemning us.

5. *To secure this we must have everybody vote without distinction of classes and qualifications, in order to establish an absolute majority, which cannot be got from the educated propertied classes. In this way, by inculcating in all a sense of self-importance, we shall destroy among the goyim the importance of the family and its educational value and remove the possibility of individual minds splitting off, for the mob, handled by us, will not let them come to the front nor even give them a hearing; it is accustomed to listen to us only who pay it for obedience and attention. In this way we shall create a blind, mighty force which will never be in a position to move in any direction without the guidance of our agents set at its head by us as leaders of the mob. The people will submit to this regime because it will know that upon these leaders will depend its earnings, gratifications and the receipt of all kinds of benefits.*

6. A scheme of government should come ready made from one brain, because it will never be clinched firmly if it is allowed to be split into fractional parts in the minds of many. It is allowable, therefore, for us to have cognisance of the scheme of action but not to discuss it lest we disturb its artfulness, the interdependence of its component parts, the practical force of the secret meaning of each clause. To discuss and make alterations in a labour of this kind by means of numerous votings is to impress upon it the stamp of all ratiocinations and misunderstandings which have failed to penetrate the depth and nexus of its plottings. We want our schemes to be forcible and suitably concocted. Therefore WE OUGHT NOT TO FLING THE WORK OF GENIUS OF OUR GUIDE to the fangs of the mob or even of a select company.

7. These schemes will not turn existing institutions upside down just yet. They will only affect changes in their economy and consequently in the whole combined movement of their progress, which will thus be directed along the paths laid down in our schemes.

8. Under various names there exists in all countries approximately one and the same thing. Representation, Ministry, Senate, State Council, Legislative and Executive Corps. I need not explain to you the mechanism of the relation of these institutions to one another, because you are aware of all that; only take note of the fact that each of the above-named institutions corresponds to some important function of the State, and I would beg you to remark that the word "important" I apply not to the institution but to the function, consequently it is not the institutions which are important but their functions. These institutions have divided up among themselves all the functions of government—administrative, legislative, executive, wherefore they have come to operate as do the organs in the human body. If we injure one part in the machinery of State, the State falls sick, like a human body, and . . . will die.

9. When we introduced into the State organism the poison of Liberalism its whole political complexion underwent a change. States have been seized with a mortal illness—blood-poisoning. All that remains is to await the end of their death agony.

10. *Liberalism produced Constitutional States, which took the place of what was the only safeguard of the goyim, namely, Despotism; and a constitution, as you well know, is nothing else but a school of discords, misunderstandings, quarrels, disagreements, fruitless party agitations, party whims—in a word, a school of everything that serves to destroy the personality of State activity. The tribune of the "talker's" has, no less effectively than the Press, condemned the rulers to inactivity and impotence, and thereby rendered them useless and superfluous, for which reason indeed they have been in many countries deposed. Then it was that the era of republics became possible of realisation; and then it was that we replaced the ruler by a caricature of a government—by a president, taken from the mob, from the midst of our puppet creatures, our slaves. This was the foundation of the mine which we have laid under the goy people, I should rather say, under the goy peoples.*

11. In the near future we shall establish the responsibility of presidents.

12. By that time we shall be in a position to disregard forms in carrying through matters for which our impersonal puppet will be responsible. What do we care if the ranks of those striving for power should be thinned, if there should arise a deadlock from the impossibility of finding presidents, a deadlock which will finally disorganise the country?

13. In order that our scheme may produce this result we shall arrange elections in favor of such presidents as have in their past some dark, undiscovered stain, some "Panama" or other—then they will be trustworthy agents for the accomplishment of our plans out of fear of revelations and from the natural desire of everyone who has attained power, namely, the retention of the privileges, advantages and honour connected with the office of president. The chamber of deputies will provide cover for, will protect, will elect presidents, but we shall take from it the right to propose new, or make changes in existing laws, for this right will be given by us to the responsible president, a puppet in our hands. Naturally, the authority of the presidents will then become a target for every possible form of attack, but we shall provide him with a means of self-defense in the right of an appeal to the people, for the decision of the people over the heads of their representatives, that is to say, an appeal to that same blind slave of ours—the majority of the mob. Independently of this we shall invest the president with the right of declaring a state of war. We shall justify this last right on the ground that the president as chief of the whole army of the country must have it at his disposal, in case of need for the defense of the new republican constitution, the right to defend which will belong to him as the responsible representative of this constitution.

14. It is easy to understand that in these conditions the key of the shrine will be in our hands, and no one outside ourselves will any longer direct the force of legislation.

15. Besides this we shall, with the introduction of the new republican constitution, take from the Chamber the right of interpellation on government measures, on the pretext of preserving political secrecy, and, further, we shall by the new constitution reduce the number of representatives to a minimum, thereby proportionately reducing political passions and the passion for politics. If, however, they should, which is hardly to be expected, burst into flame, even in this minimum, we shall nullify them by a stirring appeal and a reference to the majority of the whole people Upon the president will depend the appointment of presidents and vice-presidents of the Chamber and the Senate. Instead of constant sessions of Parliaments we shall reduce their sittings to a few months. Moreover, the president, as chief of the executive power, will have the right to summon and dissolve Parliament, and, in the latter case, to prolong the time for the appointment of a new parliamentary assembly. But in order that the consequences of all these acts which in substance are illegal, should not, prematurely for our plans, upon the responsibility established by use of the president, we shall waltzate ministers and other officials of the higher administration about the president to evade his dispositions by taking measures of their own, for doing which they will be made the scapegoats in his place This part we especially recommend to be given to be played by the Senate, the Council of State, or the Council of Ministers, but not to an individual official.

16. The president will, at our discretion, interpret the sense of such of the existing laws as admit of various interpretation; he will further annul them when we indicate to him the necessity to do so, besides this, he will have the right to propose temporary laws, and even new departures in the government constitutional working, the pretext both for the one and the other being the requirements for the supreme welfare of the State.

17. By such measures we shall obtain the power of destroying little by little, step by step, all that at the outset when we enter on our rights, we are compelled to introduce into the constitutions of States to prepare for the transition to an imperceptible abolition of every kind of constitution, and then the time is come to turn every form of government into our despotism. }

18. The recognition of our despot may also come before the destruction of the constitution; the moment for this recognition will come when the peoples, utterly wearied by the irregularities and incompetence—a matter which we shall arrange for—of their rulers, will clamour: "Away with them and give us one king over all the earth who will unite us and annihilate the causes of disorders—frontiers, nationalities, religions, State debts—who will give us peace and quiet which we cannot find under our rulers and representatives."

19. But you yourselves perfectly well know that to produce the possibility of the expression of such wishes by all the nations it is indispensable to trouble in all countries the people's relations with their governments so as to utterly exhaust humanity with dissension, hatred, struggle, envy and even by the use of torture, by starvation, BY THE INOCULATION OF DISEASES, by want, so that the GOYIM see no other issue than to take refuge in our complete sovereignty in money and in all else.

20. But if we give the nations of the world a breathing space the moment we long for is hardly likely ever to arrive.

XI

1. The State Council has been, as it were, the emphatic expression of the authority of the ruler: it will be, as the "show" part of the Legislative Corps, what may be called the editorial committee of the laws and decrees of the ruler.

2. This, then, is the programme of the new constitution. We shall make Law, Right and Justice (1) in the guise of proposals to the Legislative Corps, (2) by decrees of the president under the guise of general regulations, of orders of the Senate and of resolutions of the State Council in the guise of ministerial orders, (3) and in case a suitable occasion should arise—in the form of a revolution in the State.

3. Having established approximately the modus agendi we will occupy ourselves with details of those combinations by which we have still to complete the revolution in the course of the machinery of State in the direction already indicated. By these combinations I mean the freedom of the Press, the right of association, freedom of conscience, the voting principle, and many another that must disappear for ever from the memory of man, or undergo a radical alteration the day after the promulgation of the new constitution. It is only at that moment that we shall be able at once to announce all our orders, for, afterwards, every noticeable alteration will be dangerous, for the following reasons: if this alteration be brought in with harsh severity and in a sense of severity and limitations, it may lead to a feeling of despair caused by fear of new alterations in the same direction; if, on the other hand, it be brought in in a sense of further indulgence it will be said that we have recognised our own wrongdoing and this will destroy the prestige of the infallibility of our authority, or else it will be said that we have become alarmed and are compelled to show a yielding disposition, for which we shall get no thanks because it will be supposed to be compulsory. . . . Both the one and the other are injurious to the prestige of the new constitution. What we want is that from the first moment of its promulgation, while the peoples of the world are still stunned by the accomplished fact of the revolution, still in a condition of terror and uncertainty, they should recognise once for all that we are so strong, so inexorable, so super-abundantly filled with power, that in no case shall we take any account of them, and so far from paying any attention to their opinions or wishes, we are ready and able to crush with irresistible power all expression or manifestation thereof at every moment and in every place, that we have seized at once everything we wanted and shall in no case divide our power with them. . . . Then in fear and trembling they will close their eyes to everything, and be content to await what will be the end of it all.

4. The goyim are a flock of sheep, and we are their wolves.

And you know what happens when the wolves get hold of the flock? . . .

5. There is another reason also why they will close their eyes: for we shall keep promising them to give back all the liberties we have taken away as soon as we have quelled the enemies of peace and tamed all parties. . . .

6. It is not worth while to say anything about how long a time they will be kept waiting for this return of their liberties. . . .

7. For what purpose then have we invented this whole policy and insinuated it into the minds of the goy without giving them any chance to examine its underlying meaning? For what, indeed, if not in order to obtain in a roundabout way what is for our scattered tribe unattainable by the direct road? It is this which has served as the basis for our organisation of SECRET MASONRY WHICH IS NOT KNOWN TO, AND AIMS WHICH ARE NOT EVEN SO MUCH AS SUSPECTED BY, THESE GOY CATTLE, ATTRACTED BY US INTO THE "SHOW" ARMY OF MASONIC LODGES IN ORDER TO THROW DUST IN THE EYES OF THEIR FELLOWS.

8. God has granted to us, His Chosen People, the gift of the dispersion, and in this which appears in all eyes to be our weakness, has come forth all our strength, which has now brought us to the threshold of sovereignty over all the world.

9. There now remains not much more for us to build up upon the foundation we have laid.

XII

1. The word "freedom," which can be interpreted in various ways, is defined by us as follows:—

2. Freedom is the right to do that which the law allows. This interpretation of the word will at the proper time be of service to us, because all freedom will thus be in our hands, since the laws will abolish or create only that which is desirable for us according to the aforesaid programme.

3. We shall deal with the press in the following way: what is the part played by the press to-day? It serves to excite and inflame those passions which are needed for our purpose or else it serves selfish ends of parties. It is often vapid, unjust, mendacious, and the majority of the public have not the slightest idea what ends the press really serves. We shall saddle and bridle it with a tight curb: we shall do the same also with all productions of the printing press, for where would be the sense of getting rid of the attacks of the press if we remain targets for pamphlets and books? The produce of publicity, which now-days is a source of heavy expense owing to the necessity of censoring it, will be turned by us into a very lucrative source of income to our State: we shall law on it a special stamp tax and require deposits of caution-money before permitting the establishment of any organ of the press or of printing offices; these will then have to guarantee our government against any kind of attack on the part of the press. For any attempt to attack us, if such still be possible, we shall inflict fines without mercy. Such measures as stamp tax, deposit of caution-money and fines secured by these deposits, will bring in a huge income to the government. It is true that party organs might not spare money for the sake of publicity, but these we shall shut up at the second attack upon us. No one shall with impunity lay a finger on the aureole of our government infallibility. The pretext for stopping any publication will be the alleged plea that it is agitating the public mind without occasion or justification. I beg you to note that among those making attacks upon us will also be organs established by us, but they will attack exclusively points that we have pre-determined to attack.

4. Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control. Even now this is already being attained by us inasmuch as all news items are received by a few agencies, in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already entirely ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them.

5. If already now we have contrived to possess ourselves of the minds of the goy communities to such an extent that they all come near looking upon the events of the world through the coloured glasses of those spectacles we are setting astride their noses; if already now there is not a single State where there exist for us any barriers to admittance into what goy stupidity calls State secrets: what will our position be then, when we shall be acknowledged supreme lords of the world in the person of our king of all the world....

6. Let us turn again to the future of the printing press. Every one desirous of being a publisher, librarian, or printer, will be obliged to provide himself with the diploma instituted therefor, which, in case of any fault, will be immediately impounded. With such measures the instrument of thought will become an educative means in the hands of our government, which will no longer allow the mass of the nation to be led astray in by-ways and fantasies about the blessings of progress. Is there any one of us who does not know that these phantom blessings are the direct roads to foolish imaginings which give birth to anarchical relations of men among themselves and towards authority, because progress, or rather the idea of progress, has introduced the conception of every kind of emancipation, but has failed to establish its limits.... All the so-called liberals are anarchists, if not in fact, at any rate in thought. Every one of them is hunting after phantoms of freedom, and falling exclusively into license, that is, into the anarchy of protest for the sake of protest....

7. We turn to the periodical press. We shall impose on it, as on all printed matter, stamp taxes per sheet and deposits of caution-money, and books of less than 30 sheets will pay double. We shall reckon them as pamphlets in order, on the one hand, to reduce the number of magazines, which are the worst form of printed poison, and, on the other, in order that this measure may force writers into such lengthy productions that they will be little read, especially as they will be costly. At the same time what we shall publish ourselves to influence mental development in the direction laid down for our profit will be cheap and will be read voraciously. The tax will bring vapid literary ambitions within bounds and the liability to penalties will make literary men dependent upon us. And if there should be any found who are desirous of writing against us, they will not find any person eager to print their productions. Before accepting any production for publication in print the publisher or printer will have to apply to the authorities for permission to do so. Thus we shall know beforehand of all tricks preparing against us and shall nullify them by getting ahead with explanations on the subject treated of.

8. Literature and journalism are two of the most important educative forces, and therefore our government will become proprietor of the majority of the journals. This will neutralise the injurious influence of the privately-owned press and will put us in possession of a tremendous influence upon the public mind.... If we give permits for ten journals, we shall ourselves found thirty, and so on in the same proportion. This, however, must in no wise be suspected by the public. For which reason all journals published by us will be of the most opposite, in appearance, tendencies and opinions, thereby creating confidence in us and bringing over to us quite unsuspecting opponents, who will thus fall into our trap and be rendered harmless.

9. In the front rank will stand organs of an official character. They will always stand guard over our interests, and therefore their influence will be comparatively insignificant.

10. In the second rank will be the semi-official organs, whose part it will be to attack the tepid and indifferent.

11. In the third rank we shall set up our own, to all appearance, opposition, which, in at least one of its organs, will present what looks like the very antipodes to us. Our real opponents at heart will accept this simulated opposition as their own and will show us their cards.

12. All our newspapers will be of all possible complexions—aristocratic, republican, revolutionary, even anarchical—for so long, of course, as the constitution exists. . . . Like the Indian idol Vishnu they will have a hundred hands, and every one of them will have a finger on any one of the public opinions as required. When a pulse quickens these hands will lead opinion in the direction of our aims, for an excited patient loses all power of judgment and easily yields to suggestion. Those fools who will think they are repeating the opinion of a newspaper of their own camp will be repeating our opinion or any opinion that seems desirable for us. In the vain belief that they are following the organ of their party they will in fact follow the flag which we hang out for them.

13. In order to direct our newspaper militia in this sense we must take especial and minute care in organising this matter. Under the title of central department of the press we shall institute literary gatherings at which our agents will without attracting attention issue the orders and watchwords of the day. By discussing and controverting, but always superficially, without touching the essence of the matter, our organs will carry on a sham fight fusillade with the official newspapers solely for the purpose of giving occasion for us to express ourselves more fully than could well be done from the outset in official announcements, whenever, of course, that is to our advantage.

14. These attacks upon us will also serve another purpose, namely, that our subjects will be convinced of the existence of full freedom of speech and so give our agents an occasion to affirm that all organs which oppose us are empty babblers, since they are incapable of finding any substantial objections to our orders.

15. Methods of organisation like these, imperceptible to the public eye but absolutely sure, are the best calculated to succeed in bringing the attention and the confidence of the public to the side of our government. Thanks to such methods we shall be in a position as from time to time may be required, to excite or to tranquillise the public mind on political questions, to persuade or to confuse, printing now truth, now lies, facts or their contradictions, according as they may be well or ill received, always very cautiously feeling our ground before stepping upon it. . . . We shall have a sure triumph over our opponents since they will not have at their disposition organs of the press in which they can give full and final expression to their views owing to the aforesaid methods of dealing with the press. We shall not even need to refute them except very superficially.

16. Trial shots like these, fired by us in the third rank of our press, in case of need, will be energetically refuted by us in our semi-official organs.

17. Even nowadays, already, to take only the French press, there are forms which reveal masonic solidarity in acting on the watchword: all organs of the press are bound together by professional secrecy; like the augurs of old, not one of their numbers will give away the secret of his sources of information unless it be resolved to make announcement of them. Not one journalist will venture to betray this secret, for not one of them is ever admitted to practise literature unless his whole past has some disgracedful sore or other. . . . These sores would be immediately revealed. So long as they remain the secret of a few the prestige of the journalist attacks the majority of the country—the mob follow after him with enthusiasm.

18. Our calculations are especially extended to the provinces. It is indispensable for us to inflame there those hopes and impulses with which we could at any moment fall upon the capital, and we shall represent to the capitals that these expressions are the independent hopes and impulses of the provinces. Naturally, the source of them will be always one and the same—ours. What we need is that, until such time as we are in the plenitude power, the capitals should find themselves stifled by the provincial opinion of the nation, i.e., of a majority arranged by our agentur. What we need is that at the psychological moment the capitals should not be in a position to discuss an accomplished fact for the simple reason, if for no other, that it has been accepted by the public opinion of a majority in the provinces. . . .

19. When we are in the period of the new regime transitional to that of our assumption of full sovereignty we must not admit any revelation by the press of any form of public dishonesty; it is necessary that the new regime should be thought to have so perfectly contended everybody that even criminality has disappeared. . . . Cases of the manifestation of criminality should remain known only to their victims and to chance witnesses—no more.

1. The need for daily bread forces the goyim to keep silence and be our humble servants. Agents taken on to our press from among the goyim will at our orders discuss anything which it is inconvenient for us to issue directly in official documents, and we meanwhile, quietly amid the din of the discussion so raised, shall simply take and carry through such measures as we wish and then offer them to the public as an accomplished fact. No one will dare to demand the abrogation of a matter once settled, all the more so as it will be represented as an improvement . . . And immediately the press will distract the current of thought towards, new questions, (have we not trained people always to be seeking something new?) Into the discussions of these new questions will throw themselves those of the brainless dispensers of fortunes who are not able even now to understand that they have not the remotest conception about the matters which they undertake to discuss. Questions of the political are unattainable for any save those who have guided it already for many ages, the creators.

2. From all this you will see that in securing the opinion of the mob we are only facilitating the working of our machinery, and you may remark that it is not for actions but for words issued by us on this or that question that we seem to seek approval. We are constantly making public declaration that we are guided in all our undertakings by the hope, joined to the conviction, that we are serving the common weal.

3. In order to distract people who may be too troublesome from discussions of questions of the political we are now putting forward what we allege to be new questions of the political, namely, questions of industry. In this sphere let them discuss themselves silly! The masses are agreed to remain inactive, to take a rest from what they suppose to be political (which we trained them to in order to use them as a means of combating the goyim governments) only on condition of being found new employments, in which we are prescribing them something that looks like the same political object. In order that the masses themselves may not guess what they are about we further distract them with amusements, games, pastimes, passions, people's palaces . . . Soon we shall begin through the press to propose competitions in art, in sport in all kinds: these interests will finally distract their minds from questions in which we should find ourselves compelled to oppose them. Growing more and more disaccustomed to reflect and form any opinions of their own, people will begin to talk in the same tone as we, because we alone shall be offering them new directions for thought . . . of course through such persons as will not be suspected of solidarity with us.

4. The part played by the liberals, utopian dreamers, will be finally played out when our government is acknowledged. Till such time they will continue to do us good service. Therefore we shall continue to direct their minds to all sorts of vain conceptions of fantastic theories, new and apparently progressive: for have we not with complete success turned the brainless heads of the goyim with progress, till there is not among the goyim one mind able to perceive that under this word lies a departure from truth in all cases where it is not a question of material inventions, for truth is one, and in it there is no place for progress. Progress, like a fallacious idea, serves to obscure truth so that none may know it except us, the Chosen of God, its guardians.

5. When we come into our kingdom our orators will expound great problems which have turned humanity upside down. In order to bring it at the end under our beneficent rule.

6. Who will ever suspect then that ALL THESE PEOPLES WERE STAGE-MANAGED BY US ACCORDING TO A POLITICAL PLAN WHICH NO ONE HAS SO MUCH AS GUESSED AT IN THE COURSE OF MANY CENTURIES!

XIV

1. When we come into our kingdom it will be undesirable for us that there should exist any other religion than ours of the One God with whom our destiny is bound up by our position as the Chosen People and through whom our same destiny is united with the destinies of the world. We must therefore sweep away all other forms of belief. If this gives birth to the atheists whom we see to-day, it will not, being only a transitional stage, interfere with our views, but will serve as a warning for those generations which will hearken to our preaching of the religion of Moses, that, by its stable and thoroughly elaborated system has brought all the peoples of the world into subjection to us. Therein we shall emphasize its mystical right, on which, as we shall say, all its educative power is based . . . Then at every possible opportunity we shall publish articles in which we shall make comparisons between our beneficent rule and those of past ages. The blessings of tranquillity, though it be a tranquillity forcibly brought about by centuries of agitation, will throw into higher relief the benefits to which we shall point. The errors of the goyim governments will be depicted by us in the most vivid hues. We shall implant such an abhorrence of them that the peoples will prefer tranquillity in a state of serfdom to those rights of vain freedom which have tortured humanity and exhausted the very sources of human existence, sources which have been exploited by a mob of rascally adventurers who know not what they do . . . Useless changes of forms of government to which we instigated the GOYIM when we were undermining their state structures, will have so worried the peoples by that time that they will prefer to suffer anything under us rather than run the risk of enduring again all the agitations and miseries they have gone through.

2. At the same time we shall not omit to emphasise the historical mistakes of the goy governments which have tormented humanity for so many centuries by their lack of understanding of everything that constitutes the true good of humanity in their chase after fantastic schemes of social blessings, and have never noticed that these schemes kept on producing a worse and never a better state of the universal relations which are the basis of human life

3. The whole force of our principles and methods will lie in the fact that we shall present them and expound them as a splendid contrast to the dead and decomposed old order of things in social life.

4. Our philosophers will discuss all the shortcomings of the various beliefs of the goyim, BUT NO ONE WILL EVER BRING UNDER DISCUSSION OUR FAITH FROM ITS TRUE POINT OF VIEW SINCE THIS WILL BE FULLY LEARNED BY NONE SAVE OURS WHO WILL NEVER DARE TO BETRAY ITS SECRETS.

5. In countries known as progressive and enlightened we have created a senseless, filthy, abominable literature. For some time after our entrance to power we shall continue to encourage its existence in order to provide a telling relief by contrast to the speeches, party programme, which will be distributed from exalted quarters of ours Our wise men, trained to become leaders of the goyim, will compose speeches, projects, memoirs, articles, which will be used by us to influence the minds of the goyim, directing them towards such understanding and forms of knowledge as have been determined by us.

1. When we at last definitely come into our kingdom by the aid of coups d'etat prepared everywhere for one and the same day, after the worthlessness of all existing forms of government has been definitely acknowledged (and not a little time will pass before that comes about, perhaps even a whole century) we shall make it our task to see that against us such things as plots shall no longer exist. With this purpose we shall slay without mercy all who take arms (in hand) to oppose our coming into our kingdom. Every kind of new institution of anything like a secret society will also be punished with death; those of them which are now in existence, are known to us, serve us and have served us, we shall disband and send into exile to continents far removed from Europe. In this way we shall proceed with those GOY masons who know too much; such of these as we may for some reason spare will be kept in constant fear of exile. We shall promulgate a law making all former members of secret societies liable to exile from Europe as the centre of our rule.

2. Resolutions of our government will be final, without appeal.

3. In the goy societies, in which we have planted and deeply rooted discord and protestantism, the only possible way of restoring order is to employ merciless measures that prove the direct force of authority: no regard must be paid to the victims who fall, they suffer for the well-being of the future. The attainment of that well-being, even at the expense of sacrifices, is the duty of any kind of government that acknowledges as justification for its existence not only its privileges but its obligations. The principal guarantee of stability of rule is to confirm the aureole of power, and this aureole is attained only by such a majestic inflexibility of might as shall carry on its face the emblems of inviolability from mystical causes—from the choice of God. Such was, until recent times, the Russian autocracy, the one and only serious foe we had in the world, without counting the Papacy. Bear in mind the example when Italy, drenched with blood, never touched a hair of the head of Sulla who had poured forth that blood: Sulla enjoyed an apotheosis for his might in the eyes of the people, though they had been torn in pieces by him, but his intrepid return to Italy, ringed him round with inviolability. The people do not lay a finger on him who hypnotises them by his daring and strength of mind.

4. Meantime, however, until we come into our kingdom, we shall act in the contrary way: we shall create and multiply free masonic lodges in all the countries of the world, absorb into them all who may become or who are prominent in public activity, for these lodges we shall find our principal intelligence office and means of influence. All these lodges we shall bring under one central administration, known to us alone and to all others absolutely unknown, which will be composed of our learned elders. The lodges will have their representatives who will serve to screen the above-mentioned administration of masonry and from whom will issue the watchword and programme. In these lodges we shall tie together the knot which binds together all revolutionary and liberal elements. Their composition will be made up of all strata of society. The most secret political plots will be known to us and fall under our guiding hands on the very day of their conception. Among the members of these lodges will be almost all the agents of international and national police since their service is for us irreplaceable in the respect that the police is in a position not only to use its own particular measures with the insubordinate, but also to screen our activities and provide pretexts for discontents, et cetera.

5. The class of people who most willingly enter into secret societies are those who live by their wits, careerists, and in general people, mostly light-minded, with whom we shall have no difficulty in dealing and in using to wind up the mechanism of the machine devised by us. If this world grows agitated the meaning of that will be that we have had to stir up in order to break up its too great solidarity. But if there should arise in its midst a plot, then at the head of that plot will be no other than one of our most trusted servants. It is natural that we and no other should lead masonic activities, for we know whither we are leading, we know the final goal of every form of activity whereas the goyim have knowledge of nothing, not even of the immediate effect of action; they put before themselves, usually, the momentary reckoning of the satisfaction of their self-opinion in the accomplishment of their thought without even remarking that the very conception never belonged to their initiative but to our instigation of their thought . . .

6. The goyim enter the lodges out of curiosity or in the hope by their means to get a nibble at the public pie, and some of them in order to obtain a hearing before the public for their impracticable and groundless fantasies: they thirst for the emotion of success and applause, of which we are remarkably generous. And the reason why we give them this success is to make use of the high conceit of themselves to which it gives birth, for that insensibly disposes them to assimilate our suggestions without being on their guard against them in the fulness of their confidence that it is their own infallibility which is giving utterance to their own thoughts and that it is impossible for them to borrow those of others . . . You cannot imagine to what extent the wisest of the goyim can be brought to a state of unconscious naivete in the presence of this condition of high conceit of themselves, and at the same time how easy it is to take the heart out of them by the slightest ill-success, though it be nothing more than the stoppage of the applause they had, and to reduce them to a slavish submission for the sake of winning a renewal of success . . . By so much as ours disregard success if only they can carry through their plans, by so much the GOYIM are willing to sacrifice any plans only to have success. This psychology of theirs materially facilitates for us the task of setting them in the required direction. These tigers in appearance have the souls of sheep and the wind blows freely through their heads. We have set them on the hobby-horse of an idea about the absorption of individuality by the symbolic unit of collectivism . . . They have never yet and they never will have the sense to reflect that this hobby-horse is a manifest violation of the most important law of nature, which has established from the very creation of the world one unit unlike another and precisely for the purpose of instituting individuality . . .

7. If we have been able to bring them to such a pitch of stupid blindness is it not a proof, and an amazingly clear proof, of the degree to which the mind of the goyim is undeveloped in comparison with our mind? This it is, mainly, which guarantees our success.

8. And how far-seeing were our learned elders in ancient times when they said that to attain a serious end it behooves not to stop at any means or to count the victims sacrificed for the sake of that end . . . We have not counted the victims of the seed of the goy cattle, though we have sacrificed many of our own, but for that we have now already given them such a position on the earth as they could not even have dreamed of. The comparatively small numbers of the victims from the number of ours have preserved our nationality from destruction.

9. Death is the inevitable end for all. It is better to bring that end nearer to those who hinder our affairs than to ourselves, to the founders of this affair. We execute masons in such wise that none save the brotherhood can ever have a suspicion of it, not even the victims themselves of our death sentence, they all die when required as if from a normal kind of illness . . . Knowing this, even the brotherhood in its turn dare not protest. By such methods we have plucked out of the midst of masonry the very root of protest against our disposition. While preaching liberalism to the goy we at the same time keep our own people and our agents in a state of unquestioning submission.

10. Under our influence the execution of the laws of the goyim has been reduced to a minimum. The prestige of the law has been exploded by the liberal interpretations introduced into this sphere. In the most important and fundamental affairs and questions, judges decide as we dictate to them, see matters in the light wherever we enfold them for the administration of the goyim, of course, through persons who are our tools though we do not appear to have anything in common with them—by newspaper opinion or by other means . . . Even senators and the higher administration accept our counsels. The purely brute mind of the goyim is incapable of use for analysis and observation, and still more for the foreseeing whither a certain manner of setting a question may tend.

11. In this difference in capacity for thought between the goyim and ourselves may be clearly discerned the seal of our position as the Chosen People and of our higher quality of humanness, in contradistinction to the brute mind of the goyim. Their eyes are open, but see nothing before them and do not invent (unless, perhaps, material things). From this it is plain that nature herself has destined us to guide and rule the world.

12. When comes the time of our overt rule, the time to manifest its blessings, we shall remake all legislatures, all our laws will be brief, plain, stable, without any kind of interpretations, so that anyone will be in a position to know them perfectly. The main feature which will run right through them is submission to orders, and this principle will be carried to a grandiose height. Every abuse will then disappear in consequence of the responsibility of all down to the lowest unit before the higher authority of the representative of power. Abuses of power subordinate to this last instance will be so mercilessly punished that none will be found anxious to try experiments with their own powers. We shall follow up jealously every action of the administration on which depends the smooth running of the machinery of the State, for slackness in this produces slackness everywhere; not a single case of illegality or abuse of power will be left without exemplary punishment.

13. Concealment of guilt, connivance between those in the service of the administration—all this kind of evil will disappear after the very first examples of severe punishment. The awe of our power demands suitable, that is, cruel, punishments for the slightest infringement, for the sake of gain, of its supreme prestige. The sufferer, though his punishment may exceed his fault, will count as a soldier falling on the administrative field of battle in the interest of authority, principle and law, which do not permit that any of those who hold the reins of the public coach should turn aside from the public highway to their own private paths. For examples our judges will know that whenever they feel disposed to plume themselves on foolish clemency they are violating the law of justice which is instituted for the exemplary edification of men by penalties for lapses and not for display of the spiritual qualities of the judge.... Such qualities it is proper to show in private life, but not in a public square which is the educational basis of human life.

14. Our legal staff will serve not beyond the age of 55, firstly because old men more obstinately hold to prejudiced opinions, and are less capable of submitting to new directions, and secondly because this will give us the possibility by this measure of securing elasticity in the changing of staff, which will thus the more easily bend under our pressure: he who wishes to keep his place will have to give blind obedience to deserve it. In general, our judges will be elected by us only from among those who thoroughly understand that the part they have to play is to punish and apply laws and not to dream about the manifestations of liberalism at the expense of the educational scheme of the State, as the goyim in these days imagine it to be.... This method of shuffling the staff will serve also to explode any collective solidarity of those in the same service and will bind all to the interests of the government upon which their fate will depend. The young generation of judges will be trained in certain views regarding the inadmissibility of any abuses that might disturb the established order of our subjects among themselves.

15. In these days the judges of the goyim create indulgences to every kind of crimes, not having a just understanding of their office, because the rulers of the present age in appointing judges to office take no care to inculcate in them a sense of duty and a consciousness of the matter which is demanded of them. As a brute beast lets out its young in search of prey, so do the goyim give their subjects places of profit without thinking to make clear to them for what purpose such place was created. This is the reason why their governments are being ruined by their own forces through the acts of their own administration.

16. Let us borrow from the example of the results of these actions yet another lesson for our government.

17. We shall root out liberalism from all the important strategic posts of our government on which depends the training of subordinates for our State structure. Such posts will fall exclusively to those who have been trained by us for administrative rule. To the possible objection that the retirement of old servants will cost the Treasury heavily, I reply, firstly, they will be provided with some private service in place of what they lose, and, secondly, I have to remark that all the money in the world will be concentrated in our hands, consequently it is not our government that has to fear expense.

18. Our absolutism will in all things be logically consecutive and therefore in each one of its decrees our supreme will will be respected and unquestionably fulfilled: it will ignore all murmurs, all discontents of every kind and will destroy to the root every kind of manifestation of them in act by punishment of an exemplary character.

19. We shall abolish the right of cassation, which will be transferred exclusively to our disposal—to the cognisance of him who rules, for we must not allow the conception among the people of a thought that there could be such a thing as a decision that is not right of judges set up by us. If, however, anything like this should occur, we shall ourselves cassate the decision, but inflict therewith such exemplary punishment on the judge for lack of understanding of his duty and the purpose of his appointment as will prevent a repetition of such cases . . . I repeat that it must be borne in mind that we shall know every step of our administration which only needs to be closely watched for the people to be content with us, for it has the right to demand from a good government a good official.

20. Our government will have the appearance of a patriarchal paternal guardianship on the part of our ruler. Our own nation and our subjects will discern in his person a father caring for their every need, their every act, their every inter-relation as subjects one with another, as well as their relations to the ruler. They will then be so thoroughly imbued with the thought that it is impossible for them to dispense with this wardship and guidance, if they wish to live in peace and quiet, that they will acknowledge the autocracy of our ruler with a devotion bordering on APOTHEOSIS, especially when they are convinced that those whom we set up do not put their own in place of authority, but only blindly execute his dictates. They will be rejoiced that we have regulated everything in their lives as is done by wise parents who desire to train their children in the cause of duty and submission. For the peoples of the world in regard to the secrets of our polity are ever through the ages only children under age, precisely as are also their governments.

21. As you see, I found our despotism on right and duty: the right to compel the execution of duty is the direct obligation of a government which is a father for its subjects. It has the right of the strong that it may use it for the benefit of directing humanity towards that order which is defined by nature, namely, submission. Everything in the world is in a state of submission, if not to man, then to circumstances or its own inner character, in all cases, to what is stronger. And so shall we be this something stronger for the sake of good.

22. We are obliged without hesitation to sacrifice individuals, who commit a breach of established order, for in the exemplary punishment of evil lies a great educational problem.

23. When the King of Israel sets upon his sacred head the crown offered him by Europe he will become patriarch of the world. The indispensable victims offered by him in consequence of their suitability will never reach the number of victims offered in the course of centuries by the mania of magnificence, the emulation between the goy governments.

24. Our King will be in constant communion with the peoples, making to them from the tribune speeches which fame will in that same hour distribute over all the world.

XVI

1. In order to effect the destruction of all collective forces except ours we shall enslave the first stage of collectivism—the universities, by re-educating them in a new direction. Their officials and professors will be prepared for their business by detailed secret programmes of action from which they will not with impunity diverge, not by one iota. They will be appointed with especial precaution, and will be so placed as to be wholly dependent upon the government.

2. We shall exclude from the course of instruction State Law as also all that concerns the political question. These subjects will be taught to a few dozens of persons chosen for their pre-eminent capacities from among the number of the initiated. The universities must no longer send out from their halls malleable concocting plans for a constitution, like a comedy or a tragedy, busying themselves with questions of policy in which even their own fathers never had any power of thought.

3. The ill-guided acquaintance of a large number of persons with questions of polity creates utopian dreamers and bad subjects, as you can see for yourselves from the example of the universal education in this direction of the goyim. We must introduce into their education all those principles which have so brilliantly broken up their order. But when we are in power we shall remove every kind of disturbing subject from the course of education and shall make out of the youth obedient children of authority, loving him who rules as the support and hope of peace and quiet.

4. Classicism, as also any form of study of ancient history, in which there are more bad than good examples, we shall replace with the study of the programme of the future. We shall erase from the memory of men all facts of previous centuries which are undesirable to us, and leave only those which depict all the errors of the government of the goyim. The study of practical life, of the obligations of order, of the relations of people one to another, of avoiding bad and selfish examples, which spread the infection of evil, and similar questions of an educative nature, will stand in the forefront of the teaching programme, which will be drawn up on a separate plan for each calling or state of life, in no wise generalising the teaching. This treatment of the question has special importance.

5. Each state of life must be trained within strict limits corresponding to its destination and work in life. The occasional genius has always managed and always will manage to slip through into other states of life, but it is the most perfect folly for the sake of this rare occasional genius to let through into ranks foreign to them the untalented who thus rob of their places who belong to those ranks by birth or employment. You know yourselves in what all this has ended for the goyim who allowed this crying absurdity.

6. In order that he who rules may be seated firmly in the hearts and minds of his subjects it is necessary for the time of his activity to instruct the whole nation in the schools and on the market places about this meaning and his acts and all his beneficent initiatives.

7. We shall abolish every kind of freedom of instruction. Learners of all ages have the right to assemble together with their parents in the educational establishments as it were in a club: during these assemblies, on holidays, teachers will read what will pass as free lectures on questions of human relations, of the laws of examples, of the limitations which are born of unconscious relations, and, finally, of the philosophy of new theories not yet declared to the world. These theories will be raised by us to the stage of a dogma of faith as a traditional stage towards our faith. On the completion of this exposition of our programme of action in the present and the future I will read you the principles of these theories.

8. In a word, knowing by the experience of many centuries that people live and are guided by ideas, that these ideas are imbibed by people only by the aid of education provided with equal success for all ages of growth, but of course by varying methods, we shall swallow up and confiscate to our own use the last scintilla of independence of thought, which we have for long past been directing towards subjects and ideas useful for us. The system of bridling thought is already at work in the so-called system of teaching by object lessons, the purpose of which is to turn the goyim into unthinking submissive brutes waiting for things to be presented before their eyes in order to form an idea of them. . . . In France, one of our best agents, Bourgeois, has already made public a new programme of teaching by object lessons.

1. The practice of advocacy produces men cold, cruel, persistent, unprincipled, who in all cases take up an impersonal, purely legal standpoint. They have the inveterate habit to refer everything to its value for the defence and not to the public welfare of its results. They do not usually decline to undertake any defence whatever, they strive for an acquittal at all costs, ceivling over every petty crux of jurisprudence and thereby they demoralise justice. For this reason we shall set this profession into narrow frames which will keep it inside this sphere of executive public service. Advocates, equally with judges, will be deprived of the right of communication with litigants; they will receive business only from the court and will study it by notes of report and documents, defending their clients after they have been interrogated in court on facts that have appeared.

They will receive an honorarium without regard to the quality of the defence. This will render them mere reporters on law-business in the interests of justice and as counterpoise to the proctor who will be the reporter in the interests of prosecution; this will shorten business before the courts. In this way will be established a practice of honest unprejudiced defence conducted not from personal interest but by conviction. This will also, by the way, remove the present practice of corrupt bargain between advocates to agree only to let that side win which pays most. . . .

2. We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth which in these days might still be a great hindrance to us. Day by day its influence on the peoples of the world is falling lower. Freedom of conscience has been declared everywhere, so that now only years divide us from the moment of the complete wrecking of that Christian religion: as to other religions we shall have still less difficulty in dealing with them, but it would be premature to speak of this now. We shall set clericalism and clericals into such narrow frames as to make their influence move in retrogressive proportion to its former progress.

3. When the time comes finally to destroy the papal court the finger of an invisible hand will point the nations towards this court. When, however, the nations fling themselves upon it, we shall come forward in the guise of its defenders as if to save excessive bloodshed. By this diversion we shall penetrate to its very bowels and be sure we shall never come out again until we have gnawed through the entire strength of this place.

4. The King of the Jews will be the real Pope of the Universe, the patriarch of the international Church.

5. But, in the meantime, while we are re-educating youth in new traditional religions and afterwards in ours, we shall not overtly lay a finger on existing churches, but we shall fight against them by criticism calculated to produce schism. . . .

6. In general, then, our contemporary press will continue to concoct State affairs, religions, ineapacities of the goyim, always using the most unprincipled expressions in order by every means to lower their prestige in the manner which can only be practised by the genius of our gifted tribe

7. Our kingdom will be an apology of the divinity Vishnu, in whom is found its personification—in our hundred hands will be, one in each, the springs of the machinery of social life. We shall see everything without the aid of official police which, in that scope of its rights which we elaborated for the use of the goyim, hinders governments from seeing. In our programme one-third of our subjects will keep the rest under observation from a sense of duty, on the principle of volunteer service to the State. It will then be no disgrace to be a spy and informer, but a merit: unfounded denunciations, however, will be cruelly punished that there may be development of abuses of this right.

8. Our agents will be taken from the higher as well as the lower ranks of society, from among the administrative class who spend their time in amusements, editors, printers and publishers, booksellers, clerks, and salesmen, workmen, coachmen, jackeys, et cetera. This body, having no rights and not being empowered to take any action on their own account, and consequently a police without any power, will only witness and report: verification of their reports and arrests will depend upon a responsible group of controllers of police affairs, while the actual act of arrest will be performed by the gendarmerie and the municipal police. Any person not denouncing anything seen or heard concerning questions of polity will also be charged with and made responsible for concealment, if it be proved that he is guilty of this crime.

9. Just as nowadays our brethren are obliged at their own risk to denounce to the kahal apostates of their own family or members who have been noticed doing anything in opposition to the kahal, so in our kingdom over all the world it will be obligatory for all our subjects to observe the duty of service to the State in this direction.

10. Such an organisation will extirpate abuses of authority, of force, of bribery, everything in fact which we by our counsels, by our theories of the superhuman rights of man, have introduced into the customs of the goyim. . . . But how else were we to procure that increase of causes predisposing to disorders in the midst of their administration? Among the number of those methods one of the most important is—agents for the restoration of order, so placed as to have the opportunity in their disintegrating activity of developing and displaying their evil inclinations—obstinate self-conceit, irresponsible exercise of authority, and, first and foremost, venality.

1. When it becomes necessary for us to strengthen the strict measures of secret defence (the most fatal poison for the prestige of authority) we shall arrange a simulation of disorders or some manifestation of discontents finding expression through the co-operation of good speakers. Round these speakers will assemble all who are sympathetic to his utterances. This will give us the pretext for domiciliary prerequisites and surveillance on the part of our servants from among the number of the goyim, police

2. As the majority of conspirators act out of love for the game, for the sake of talking, so, until they commit some overt act we shall not lay a finger on them but only introduce into their midst observation elements It must be remembered that the prestige of authority is lessened if it frequently discovers conspiracies against itself: this implies a presumption of consciousness of weakness, or, what is still worse, of injustice. You are aware that we have broken the prestige of the goy kings by frequent attempts upon their lives through our agents, blind sheep of our flock, who are easily moved by a few liberal phrases to crimes provided only they be painted in political colours. We have compelled the rulers to acknowledge their weakness in advertising overt measures of secret defence and thereby we shall bring the promise of authority to destruction.

3. Our ruler will be secretly protected only by the most insignificant guard, because we shall not admit so much as a thought that there could exist against him any sedition with which he is not strong enough to contend and is compelled to hide from it.

4. If we should admit this thought, as the goyim have done, and are doing, we should ipso facto be signing a death sentence, if not for our ruler, at any rate for his dynasty, at no distant date.

5. According to strictly enforced outward appearances our ruler will employ his power only for the advantage of the nation and in no wise for his own or dynastic profits. Therefore, with the observance of this decorum, his authority will be respected and guarded by the subjects themselves, it will receive an apotheosis in the admission that with it is bound up the well-being of every citizen of the State, for upon it will depend all order in the common life of the pack

6. Overt defence of the kind argues weakness in the organisation of his strength.

7. Our ruler will always among the people be surrounded by a mob of apparently curious men and women, who will occupy the front ranks about him, to all appearance by chance, and will restrain the ranks of the rest out of respect as it will appear for good order. This will sow an example of restraint also in others. If a petitioner appears among the people trying to hand a petition and forcing his way through the ranks, the first ranks must receive the petition and before the eyes of the petitioner pass it to the ruler, so that all may know that what is handed in reaches its destination, that, consequently, there exists a control of the ruler himself. The aureole of power requires for its existence that the people may be able to say: "If the king knew of this," or: "the king will hear it."

8. With the establishment of official defence the mystical prestige of authority disappears: given a certain audacity, and everyone counts himself master of it, the sedition-monger is conscious of his strength, and when occasion serves watches for the moment to make an attempt upon authority. . . . For the goyim we have been preaching something else, but by that very fact we are enabled to see what measures of overt defence have brought them to . . .

9. Criminals with us will be arrested at the first move or less well-grounded suspicion: it cannot be allowed that out of fear of a possible mistake an opportunity should be given of escape to persons suspected of a political lapse of crime, for in these matters we shall be literally merelless. If it is still possible, by stretching a point, to admit a reconsideration of the motive causes in simple crimes, there is no possibility of excuse for persons occupying themselves with questions in which nobody except the government can understand anything. . . . And it is not all governments that understand true policy.

1. If we do not permit any independent dabbling in the political we shall on the other hand encourage every kind of report or petition with proposals for the government to examine into all kinds of projects for the amelioration of the condition of the people; this will reveal to us the defects or else the fantasies of our subjects, to which we shall respond either by accomplishing them or by a wise rebutment to prove the shortsightedness of one who judges wrongly.

2. Seditious-mongering is nothing more than the yapping of a lap-dog at an elephant. For a government well organised, not from the police but from the public point of view, the lap-dog yaps at the elephant in entire unconsciousness of its strength and importance. It needs no more than to take a good example to show the relative importance of both and the lap-dogs will cease to yap and will wag their tails the moment they set eyes on an elephant.

3. In order to destroy the prestige of heroism for political crime we shall send it for trial in the category of thieving, murder, and every kind of abominable and filthy crime. Public opinion will then confuse in its conception of this category of crime with the disgrace attaching to every other and will brand it with the same contempt.

4. We have done our best, and I hope we have succeeded, to obtain that the goyim should not arrive at this means of contending with sedition. It was for this reason that through the Press and in speeches, indirectly—in cleverly compiled school-books on history, we have advertised the martyrdom alleged to have been accredited by sedition-mongers for the idea of the commonweal. This advertisement has increased the contingent of liberals and has brought thousands of goyim into the ranks of our livestock cattle.

XX

1. To-day we shall touch upon the financial programme, which I put off to the end of my report as being the most difficult, the crowning and the decisive point of our plans. Before entering upon it I will remind you that I have already spoken before by way of a hint when I said that the sum total of our actions is settled by the question of figures.

2. When we come into our kingdom our autocratic government will avoid, from a principle of self-preservation, sensibly burdening the masses of the people with taxes, remembering that it plays the part of father and protector. But as State organisation costs dear it is necessary nevertheless to obtain the funds required for it. It will, therefore, elaborate with particular precaution the question of equilibrium in this matter.

3. Our rule, in which the king will enjoy the legal fiction that everything in his State belongs to him (which may easily be translated into fact), will be enabled to resort to the lawful confiscation of all sums of every kind for the regulation of their circulation in the State. From this follows that taxation will best be covered by a progressive tax on property. In this manner the dues will be paid without straitening or ruining anybody in the form of a percentage of the amount of property. The rich must be aware that it is their duty to place a part of their sumptuaries at the disposal of the State since the State guarantees their security of possession of the rest of their property and the right of honest gains, I say honest, for the control over property will do away with robbery on a legal basis.

4. This social reform must come from above, for the time is ripe for it—it is indispensable as a pledge of peace.

5. The tax upon the poor man is a seed of revolution and works to the detriment of the State which in hunting after the trifling is missing the big. Quite apart from this, a tax on capitalists diminishes the growth of wealth in private hands in which we have in these days concentrated it as a counterpoise to the government strength of the goyim—their State finances.

6. A tax increasing in a percentage ratio to capital will give much larger revenue than the present individual or property tax, which is useful to us now for the sole reason that it excites trouble and discontent among the goyim.

7. The force upon which our king will rest consists in the equilibrium and the guarantee of peace, for the sake of which things it is indispensable that the capitalists should yield up a portion of their incomes for the sake of the secure working of the machinery of the State. State needs must be paid by those who will not feel the burden and have enough to take from.

8. Such a measure will destroy the hatred of the poor man for the rich, in whom he will see a necessary financial support for the State, will see in him the organiser of peace and well-being since he will see that it is the rich man who is paying the necessary means to attain these things.

9. In order that payers of the educated classes should not too much distress themselves over the new payments they will have full accounts given them of the destination of those payments, with the exception of such sums as will be appropriated for the needs of the throne and the administrative institutions.

10. He who reigns will not have any properties of his own once all in the State represented his patrimony, or else the one would be in contradiction to the other; the fact of holding private means would destroy the right of property in the common possessions of all.

11. Relatives of him who reigns, his heirs excepted, who will be maintained by the resources of the State, must enter the ranks of servants of the State or must work to obtain the right to property; the privilege of royal blood must not serve for the spoiling of the treasury.

12. Purchase, receipt of money or inheritance will be subject to the payment of a stamp progressive tax. Any transfer of property, whether money or other, without evidence of payment of this tax which will be strictly registered by names, will render the former holder liable to pay interest on the tax from the moment of transfer of these sums up to the discovery of his evasion of declaration of the transfer. Transfer documents must be presented weekly at the local treasury office with notifications of the name, surname and permanent place of residence of the former and the new holder of the property. This transfer with register of names must begin from a definite sum which exceeds the ordinary expenses of buying and selling necessities, and these will be subject to payment only by a stamp impost of a definite percentage of the unit.

13. Just strike an estimate of how many times such taxes as these will cover the revenue of the goyim States.

14. The State exchequer will have to maintain a definite complement of reserve sums, and all that is collected above that complement must be returned into circulation. On these sums will be organised public works. The initiative in works of this kind, proceeding from State sources, will blind the working class firmly to the interests of the State and to those who reign. From these same sums also a part will be set aside as rewards of inventiveness and productiveness.

15. On no account should so much as a single unit above the definite and freely estimated sums be retained in the State treasures, for money exists to be circulated and any kind of stagnation of money acts ruinously on the running of the State machinery, for which it is the lubricant; a stagnation of the lubricant may stop the regular working of the mechanism.

16. The substitution of interest-bearing paper for a part of the token of exchange has produced exactly this stagnation. The consequences of this circumstance are already sufficiently noticeable.

17. A court of account will also be instituted by us, and in it the ruler will find at any moment a full accounting for State income and expenditure, with the exception of the current monthly account, not yet made up, and that of the preceding month, which will not yet have been delivered.

18. The one and only person who will have no interest in robbing the State is its owner, the ruler. This is why his personal control will remove the possibility of leakages of extravagances.

19. The representative function of the ruler at receptions for the sake of etiquette, which absorbs so much invaluable time, will be abolished in order that the ruler may have time for control and control among time-serving favourites who surround the throne for its pomp and splendour, and are interested only in their own and not in the common interests of the State.

20. Economic crises have been produced by us for the goyim by no other means than the withdrawal of money from circulation. Huge capitals have stagnated, withdrawing money from States, which were constantly obliged to apply to those same stagnant capitals for loans. These loans burdened the finances of the State with the payment of interest and made them the bond slaves of these capitals. . . . The concentration of industry in the hands of capitalists out of the hands of small masters has drained away all the juices of the peoples and with them also the States. . . .

21. The present issue of money in general does not correspond with the requirements per head, and cannot therefore satisfy all the needs of the workers. The issue of money ought to correspond with the growth of population and thereby children also must absolutely be reckoned as consumers of currency from the day of their birth. The revision of issue is a material question for the whole world.

22. You are aware that the gold standard has been the ruin of the States which adopted it, for it has not been able to satisfy the demands for money, the more so that we have removed gold from circulation as far as possible.

23. With us the standard that must be introduced is the cost of working-man power, whether it be reckoned in paper or in wood. We shall make the issue of money in accordance with the normal requirements of each subject, adding to the quantity with every birth and subtracting with every death.

24. The accounts will be managed by each department (the French administrative division), each circle.

25. In order that there may be no delays in the paying out of money for State needs the sums and terms of such payments will be fixed by decree of the ruler; this will do away with the protection by a ministry of one institution to the detriment of others.

26. The budgets of income and expenditure will be carried out side by side that they may not be obscured by distance one to another.

27. The reforms projected by us in the financial institutions and principles of the goyim will be clothed by us in such forms as will alarm nobody. We shall point out the necessity of reforms in consequence of the disorderly darkness into which the goyim by their irregularities have plunged the finances. The first irregularity, as we shall point out, consists in their beginning with drawing up a single budget which year after year grows owing to the following cause: this budget is dragged out to half the year, then they demand a budget to put things right, and this they expend in three months, after which they ask for a supplementary budget, and all this ends with a liquidation budget. But, as the budget of the following year is drawn up in accordance with the sum of the total addition, the annual departure from the normal reaches as much as 50 per cent in a year, and so the annual budget is trebled in ten years. Thanks to such methods, allowed by the carelessness of the goy States, their treasuries are empty. The period of loans superevnes, and that has swallowed up remainders and brought all the goy States to bankruptcy.

28. You understand perfectly that economic arrangements of this kind, which have been suggested to the goyim by us, cannot be carried on by us.

29. Every kind of loan proves infirmity in the State and a want of understanding of the rights of the State. Loans hang like a sword of Damocles over the heads of rulers, who, instead of taking from their subjects by a temporary tax, come begging with outstretched palm of our bankers. Foreign loans are leeches which there is no possibility of removing from the body of the State until they fall off of themselves or the State flings them off. But the goy States do not tear them off; they go on in persisting in putting more on to themselves so that they must inevitably perish, drained by voluntary blood-letting.

30. What also indeed is, in substance, a loan, especially a foreign loan? A loan is—an issue of government bills of exchange containing a percentage obligation commensurate to the sum of the loan capital. If the loan bears a charge of 5 per cent, then in twenty years the State vainly pays away in interest a sum equal to the loan borrowed, in forty years it is paying a double sum, in sixty—treble, and all the while the debt remains an unpaid debt.

31. From this calculation it is obvious that with any form of taxation per head the State is bailing out the last coppers of the poor taxpayers in order to settle accounts with wealthy foreigners, from whom it has borrowed money instead of collecting these coppers for its own needs without the additional interest.

32. So long as loans were internal the goyim only shuffled their money from the pockets of the poor to those of the rich, but when we bought up the necessary person in order to transfer loans into the external sphere all the wealth of States flowed into our cash-boxes and all the goyim began to pay us the tribute of subjects.

33. If the superficiality of goy kings on their thrones in regard to State affairs and the venality of ministers or the want of understanding of financial matters on the part of other ruling persons have made their countries debtors to our treasuries to amounts quite impossible to pay it has not been accomplished

34. Stagnation of money will not be allowed by us and therefore there will be no State interest-bearing paper, except a one-per-cent series, so that there will be no payment of interest to leeches that suck all the strength out of the State. The right to issue interest-bearing paper will be given exclusively to industrial companies who will find no difficulty in paying interest out of profits, whereas the State does not make interest on borrowed money like these companies, for the State borrows to spend and not to use in operations.

35. Industrial papers will be bought also by the government which from being as now a paper of tribute by loan operations will be transformed into a lender of money at a profit. This measure will stop the stagnation of money, parasitic profits and idleness, all of which were useful for us among the goyim so long as they were independent but are not desirable under our rule.

36. How clear is the undeveloped power of thought of the purely brute brains of the goyim, as expressed in the fact that they have been borrowing from us with payment of interest without ever thinking that all the same these very moneys plus an addition for payment of interest must be got by them from their own State pockets in order to settle up with us. What could have been simpler than to take the money they wanted from their own people?

37. But it is a proof of the genius of our chosen mind that we have contrived to present the matter of loans to them in such a light that they have even seen in them an advantage for themselves.

38. Our accounts, which we shall present when the time comes, in the light of centuries of experience gained by experiments made by us on the goy States, will be distinguished by clearness and definiteness and will show at a glance to all men the advantage of our innovations. They will put an end to those abuses to which we owe our mastery over the goyim, but which cannot be allowed in our kingdom.

39. We shall so hedge about our system of accounting that neither the ruler nor the most insignificant public servant will be in a position to divert even the smallest sum from its destination without detection or to direct it in another direction except that which will be once fixed in a definite plan of action.

40. And without a definite plan it is impossible to rule. Marching along an undetermined road and with undetermined resources brings to ruin by the way heroes and demi-gods.

41. The goy rulers, whom we once upon a time advised should be distracted from State occupations by representative receptions, observances of etiquette, entertainments, were only screens for our rule. The accounts of favourite courtiers who replaced them in the sphere of affairs were drawn up for them by our agents, and every time gave satisfaction to short-sighted minds by promises that in the future economies and improvements were foreseen . . . Economies from what? From new taxes?—were questions that might have been but were not asked by those who read our accounts and projects.

42. You know to what they have been brought by this carelessness, to what a pitch of financial disorder they have arrived, notwithstanding the astonishing industry of their peoples . . .

1. To what I reported to you at the last meeting I shall now add a detailed explanation of internal loans. Of foreign loans I shall say nothing more, because they have fed us with national moneys of the goyim, but for our State there will be no foreign moneys, that is, nothing external.

2. We have taken advantage of the venality of administrators and slackness of rulers to get our moneys twice, thrice and more times over, by lending to the goy governments moneys which were not at all needed by the States. Could anyone do the like in regard to us? . . . Therefore, I shall only deal with the details of internal loans.

3. States announce that such a loan is to be concluded and open subscriptions for their own bills of exchange, that is, for their interest-bearing paper. That they may be within the reach of all the price is determined at from a hundred to a thousand, and a discount is made for the earliest subscribers. Next day by artificial means the price of them goes up, the alleged reason being that everyone is rushing to buy them. In a few days the treasury safes are as they say overflowing and there's more money than they can do with (why then take it?). The subscription, it is alleged, covers many times over the issue total of the loan; in this lies the whole stage effect—look you, they say, what confidence is shown in the government's bills of exchange.

4. But when the comedy is played out there emerges the fact that a debt and an exceedingly burdensome debt has been created. For the payment of interest it becomes necessary to have recourse to new loans, which do not swallow up but only add to the capital debt. And when this credit is exhausted it becomes necessary by new taxes to cover, not the loan, but only the interest on it. These taxes are a debt employed to cover a debt . . .

5. Later comes the time for conversions, but they diminish the payment of interest without covering the debt, and besides they cannot be made without the consent of the lenders; on announcing a conversion a proposal is made to return the money to those who are not willing to convert their paper. If everybody expressed his unwillingness and demanded his money back, the government would be hooked on their own files and would be found insolvent and unable to pay the proposed sums. By good luck the subjects of the goyim governments, knowing nothing about financial affairs, have always preferred losses on exchange and diminution of interest to the risk of new investments of their moneys, and have thereby many a time enabled these governments to throw off their shoulders a debt of several millions.

6. Nowadays, with external loans, these tricks cannot be played by the goyim for they know that we shall demand all our moneys back.

7. In this way an acknowledged bankruptcy will best prove to the various countries the absence of any means between the interests of the peoples and of those who rule them.

8. I beg you to concentrate your particular attention upon this point and upon the following: nowadays all internal loans are consolidated by so-called flying loans, that is, such as have terms of payment more or less near. These debts consist of moneys paid into the savings banks and reserve funds. If left for long at the disposition of a government these funds evaporate in the payment of interest on foreign loans, and are placed by the deposit of equivalent amount of renies.

9. And these last it is which patch up all the leaks in the State treasuries of the goyim.

10. When we ascend the throne of the world all these financial and similar shifts, as being not in accord with our interests, will be swept away so as not to leave a trace, as also will be destroyed all money markets, since we shall not allow the prestige of our power to be shaken by fluctuations of prices set upon our values, which we shall announce by law at the price which represents their full worth without any possibility of lowering or raising. (Raising gives the pretext for lowering, which indeed was where we made a beginning in relation to the values of the goyim.)

11. We shall replace the money markets by grandiose government credit institutions, the object of which will be to fix the price of industrial values in accordance with government views. These institutions will be in a position to fling upon the market five hundred millions of industrial paper in one day, or to buy up for the same amount. In this way all industrial undertakings will come into dependence upon us. You may imagine for yourselves what immense power we shall thereby secure for ourselves

1. In all that has so far been reported by me to you, I have endeavoured to depict with care the secret of what is coming, of what is past, and of what is going on now, rushing into the flood of the great events coming already in the near future, the secret of our relations to the goyim and of financial operations. On this subject there remains still a little for me to add.

2. In our hands is the greatest power of our day—gold; in two days we can procure from our storehouses any quantity we may please.

3. Surely there is no need to seek further proof that our rule is predestined by God! Surely we shall not fail with such wealth to prove that all that evil which for so many centuries we have had to commit has served at the end of ends the cause of true well-being—the bringing of everything into order! Though it be even by the exercise of some violence, yet all the same it will be established. We shall contrive to prove that we are benefactors who have restored to the rent and mangled earth the true good and also freedom of the person, and therewith we shall enable it to be enjoyed in peace and quiet, with proper dignity of the relations, on the condition, of course, of strict observance of the laws established by us. We shall make plain therewith that freedom does not consist in dissipation and in the right of unbridled licence any more than the dignity and force of a man do not consist in the right of everyone to promulgate destructive principles in the nature of freedom of conscience, equality and a like, that freedom of the person in no wise consists in the right to agitate oneself and others by abominable speeches before disorderly mobs, and that true freedom consists in the inviolability of the person who honourably and strictly observes all the laws of life in common, that human dignity is wrapped up in consciousness of the rights and also of the absence of rights of each, and not wholly and solely in fantastic imaginings about the subject of one's ego.

4. Our authority will be glorious because it will be all-powerful, will rule and guide, and not muddle along after leaders and orators shrieking themselves hoarse with senseless words which they call great principles and which are nothing else, to speak honestly, but utopian Our authority will be the crown of order, and in that is included the whole happiness of man. The aureole of this authority will inspire a mystical bowing of the knee before it and a reverent fear before it of all the peoples.

True force makes no terms with any right, not even with that of God: none dare come near to it so as to take so much as a span from it away.

1. That the peoples may become accustomed to obedience it is necessary to inculcate lessons of humility and therefore to reduce the production of articles of luxury. By this we shall improve morals which have been debased by emulation in the sphere of luxury. We shall re-establish small master production which will mean laying a mine under the private capital of manufacturers. This is indispensable also for the reason that manufacturers on the grand scale often move, though not always consciously, the thoughts of the masses in directions against the government. A people of small masters knows nothing of unemployment and this binds him closely with existing order, and consequently with the firmness of authority. Unemployment is a most perilous thing for a government. For us its part will have been played out the moment authority is transferred into our hands. Drunkenness also will be prohibited by law and punishable as a crime against humanness of man who is turned into a brute under the influence of alcohol.

2. Subjects, I repeat once more, give blind obedience only to the strong hand which is absolutely independent of them, for in it they feel the sword of defence and support against social scourges What do they want with an angelic spirit in a king? What they have to see in him is the personification of force and power.

3. The supreme lord who will replace all now existing rulers, dragging on their existence among societies demoralised by us, societies that have denied even the authority of God, from whose midst breaks out on all sides the fire of anarchy, must first of all proceed to quench this all-devouring flame. Therefore he will be obliged to kill off those existing societies, though he should drench them with his own blood, that he may resurrect them again in the form of regularly organised troops fighting consciously with every kind of infection that may cover the body of the State with sores.

4. This Chosen One of God is chosen from above to demolish the senseless forces moved by instinct and not reason, by brutishness and humanness. These forces now triumph in manifestations of robbery and every kind of violence under the mask of principles of freedom and rights. They have overthrown all forms of social order to erect on the ruins of the throne of the King of the Jews; but their part will be played out the moment he enters into his kingdom. Then it will be necessary to sweep them away from his path, on which must be left no knot, no splinter.

5. Then will it be possible for us to say to the peoples of the world: Give thanks to God and bow the knee before him who hears on his front the seal of the predestination of man, to which God himself has led his star that none other but Him might free us from all the before-mentioned forces and evils.

XXIV

1. I pass now to the method of confirming the dynastic roots of King David to the last strata of the earth.

2. This confirmation will first and foremost be included in that in which to this day has rested the force of conservatism by our learned elders of the conduct of the affairs of the world, in the directing of the education of thought of all humanity.

3. Certain members of the seed of David will prepare the kings and their heirs, selecting not by right of heritage but by eminent capacities, inducting them into the most secret mysteries of the political, into schemes of government, but providing always that none may come to knowledge of the secrets. The object of this mode of action is that all may know that government cannot be entrusted to those who have not been inducted into the secret places of its art

4. To these persons only will be taught the practical application of the aforementioned plans by comparison of the experiences of many centuries, all the observations on the politico-economic moves and social sciences—in a word, all the spirit of laws which have been unshakably established by nature herself for the regulation of the relations of humanity.

5. Direct heirs will often be set aside from ascending the throne if in their time of training they exhibit frivolity, softness and other qualities that are the ruin of authority, which render them incapable of governing and in themselves dangerous for kingly office.

6. Only those who are unconditionally capable for firm, even if it be to cruelty, direct rule will receive the reins of rule from our learned elders.

7. In case of falling sick with weakness of will or other form of incapacity, kings must by law hand over the reins of rule to new and capable hands.

8. The king's plan of action for the current moment, and all the more so for the future, will be unknown, even to those who are called his closest counsellors.

9. Only the king and the three who stood sponsor for him will know what is coming.

10. In the person of the king who with unbending will is master of himself and of humanity all will discern as it were fate with its mysterious ways. None will know what the king wishes to attain by his dispositions, and therefore none will dare to stand across an unknown path.

11. It is understood that the brain reservoir of the king must correspond in capacity to the plan of government it has to contain. It is for this reason that he will ascend the throne not otherwise than after examination of his mind by the aforesaid learned elders.

12. That the people may know and love their king it is indispensable for him to converse in the market-places with his people. This ensures the necessary clinching of the two forces which are now divided one from another by us by the terror.

13. This terror was indispensable for us till the time comes for both these forces separately to fall under our influence.

14. The king of the Jews must not be at the mercy of his passions, and especially of sensuality: on no side of his character must he give brute instincts power over his mind. Sensuality worse than all else disorganizes the capacities of the mind and clearness of views, distracting the thoughts to the worst and most brutal side of human activity.

15. The prop of humanity in the person of the supreme lord of all the world of the holy seed of David must sacrifice to his people all personal inclinations.

16. Our supreme lord must be of an exemplary irreproachability.

LORD SYDENHAM ON THE "PROTOCOLS."

(The following letter appeared in the Spectator of Aug. 27, 1921, and the late Lord Sydenham kindly consented to its reproduction as one of "The Britons' leaflets.")

Sir.—When the Protocols first appeared in English it was pointed out that they embodied a forgery perpetrated by the Tsar's police with the idea of promoting pogroms. It now appears that they are adapted from a "pamphlet of 1865 attacking the Second Empire." This is most interesting, but it explains nothing. As you point out, Mrs. Webster had shown the Protocols to be full of plagiarisms which she effectively explained by the use of parallel columns, before her most able book appeared. Mr. Lucien Wolke had traced other similarities. As the Protocols were obviously a compilation this was to be expected, and further resemblances may be discovered. The importance of the most sinister compilation that has ever appeared resides in the subject matter. The Protocols explain in almost laborious detail the objects of Bolshevism and the methods of carrying it into effect. Those methods were in operation in 1901, when Nilius said that he received the documents, but Bolshevism was then Marxian Communism, and the time had not come for applying it by military force. Nothing that was written in 1865 can have any bearing upon the deadly accuracy of the forecasts in the Protocols, most of which have since been fulfilled to the letter. Moreover the principles they enunciate correspond closely with the recorded statements of Jewish authorities. If you will read the American edition, with its valuable annexes, you will understand this, and the confirmatory quotations there given can be multiplied. Even the "Jewish world despotism," which you described as "a piece of malignant lunacy," is not obscurely hinted at. Take this one quotation from the Jewish State, by Theodore Herzl: "When we sink we become a revolutionary proletariat, the subordinate officers of the revolutionary party; when we rise, there rises also our terrible power of the purse." Compare this ominous statement with those of the Protocols, of which it is plainly an echo.

I note with thankfulness that you say that the discovery of the French pamphlet "does not clear up the whole mystery." Indeed it does not, and if you will carefully read Mr. Ford's amazing disclosures you will wish for more light. The main point is, of course, the source from which Nilius obtained the Protocols. The Russians who knew Nilius and his writings, cannot all have been exterminated by the Bolsheviks. His book, in which the Protocols only form one chapter, has not been translated; though it would give some idea of the man. He was, I have been told by a Russian lady, absolutely incapable either of writing any portion of the Protocols or of being a party to a fraud.

What is the most striking characteristic of the Protocols? The answer is knowledge of a rare kind, embracing the widest field. The solution of the "mystery," if it is one, is to be found by ascertaining where this uncanny knowledge, on which prophecies now literally fulfilled are based, can be shown to reside.—I am, Sir, &c.,

APPENDIX I

PARALLELS OF THE JEWISH WORLD MASTERY PLOT ACCORDING TO THE PROTOCOLS, AND THE FULFILL- MENT ACCORDING TO PLAN, AS SHOWN BY PAST, CUR- RENT AND PLANNED FUTURE EVENTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

WHY "THE PROTOCOLS" VITALLY CONCERN AMERICA

Americanism is unconcerned with the authenticity or the authorship of the famous so-called "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion," filed in the British Museum in 1906 via Russia; or whether, as alleged by Jewish writers, they are "racial libels," "forgeries" or "plagiarisms." Americanism is concerned with WHY such prophecy-plans, used to promote the bloody Jewish-Communist Conquest of Russia in 1917, have also been adopted and actually fulfilled in subversive Communistic laws and administration by the Jewish-Radical Roosevelt "New Deal" Regime (as paralleled herein).

A CLARIFICATION BRIEF

The author is not against Jews as Jews, as individuals or as to religion; but is anti-Jewish solely because their leadership is actively anti-American, and because the Jewish people refuse to repudiate it. Tolerant citizens who "don't want to indict a whole race" and would make exceptions in this patriotic crusade, are reminded: (1) That the comparatively few sufferers of the offending minority, whose leadership predatorily attacked the hospitable majority, have not yet publicly renounced such guidance; (2) that millions of innocent American victims thereof are crying for simple justice; and (3) That said multitude obviously deserves relief first, since "charity begins at home."

Never having been seriously injured specifically by a Jew, the author writes with no personal animus. While patriotically resenting the alien subversive activities which have prostrated America under a Great Predatory SUPPRESSION, he abstractly analyzes the record in this vital problem. He conceives the term "Jewish anti-Americanism" to include "Jewish" by ancestry, marriage, adoption or a "renegade association" defensive of and loyal to Jewishism before Americanism—therefore to be classified: "Public Enemies Class A and B." He hopes for a settlement of the Jewish question through the Whole Truth, Exact Justice and American Honor; and believes those who cannot subscribe to that effective platform must confess prejudice.

THE STORY OF "THE PROTOCOLS" IN BRIEVITY

Just what are "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion?" A book placed in the British Museum via Russia in 1906 containing a record of 24 alleged secret meetings of an International Sanhedrin called "The Kehillah." (Its New York headquarters listed in the telephone directory as located at 70 Fifth Avenue.) Asher Ginsberg of Russia, dubbed "King of the Jews" is credited with editing "The Protocols" which are now reported as having an European circulation larger than The Bible.

What is their purport?
A plot or organized conspiracy to establish a world Jewish super-government on the structure of United Nations.

Do they indicate how this is to be done?
Yes. The protocollie war-strategy is to promote Communistic revolution among Gentile nations and seize politico-economic control during the chaos through "the power of gold," which is declared to have been controlled by Jews through substitution of the press.

How are intelligent Gentiles to be duped?
By denuding publicity propaganda, making it appear that subsided political leaders are against the very subversive objectives they secretly promote; and by boring into key-positions of all parties so that Jews will rule whichever way sentiment prevails.

Is there any modern evidence to support the world super-government plot-theory?
In 1920 noted Jewish Author Israel Zangwill called "The League of Nations" "an essential Jewish aspiration." In 1922 Zionist Leader Nahum Sokolow referred to it thus: "The League of Nations is a Jewish idea. We created it after a fight of 25 years." The Imperial British Fascist League calls it "a Jewish Trap."

What is the origin of the profound philosophy behind the protocols?
Independent Gentile and Jewish writers trace back to destructive doctrines of the ancient books of the Talmud or Jewish bible, and then down through a brief "protocol of vengeance," signed "Prince of the Jews," in 1492 at Constantinople (quoted on page 75 heretof).

Are there any concrete illustrations of ruthless philosophy?
Theodor Herzl, "Father of Zionism," told a British Royal Commission in 1902, that the Jews regard Gentiles as "A Common Enemy"; the implication being that they make constant economic warfare on non-Jews.

But what could be more damning than this protocollie confession: "Anti-Semitism is indispensable to us for the management of our lesser brethren" (Protocol No. 9). Such a satanic disciplinary strategy, however, is dictated by the ruthless philosophy. Jewry's essential minority isolation-status amid all nations requires a merciless solidarity protective-policy since its leadership wages relentless economic warfare against Gentiles as "A Common Enemy."

The notorious "Kol Nidre" Day-of-Atonement-Prayer in the Talmudic Book "Sanchean Aruch, Edit. I, 136, reads: "All vows, oaths, promises, engagements and swearing which, beginning this very day of reconciliation until the next day of reconciliation, that we intend to vow, promise, swear and bind ourselves to fulfill, we repent of BEFOREHAND, let them be illegalized, acquitted, annihilated, abolished, valueless, unimportant. Our vows shall be NO VOWS, and our oaths NO OATHS."

Is there any other modern testimony as to this destructive anti-Gentile philosophy?
Rabbi Lewis Browne—who ridicules the "chosen claim"—in his 1924 book "How Odd of God," says: "We intend to REMAKE the Gentile—What the Communists are doing in Russia. Three generations may be required." Over 30 million Russian Gentiles have perished since the "remake" started in 1917.

"We Jews are the world's seducers, destroyers, incendiaries and executioners," says London Jewish Savant Dr. Oscar Levy in a preface to "The World-Significance of the Russian Revolution," published in Britain by George Pit-Rivers.

"There is an international super-capitalistic government supported wholly by the fiction that gold is wealth * * * a central financial force playing a vast and closely organized game with universal control as its stakes."—From Ford's "International Jew" of 1920.

DEADLY PARALLEL NO. 1

Extracts From the Protocol Plans, With Their Actual Fulfillments in American Politico-Economic Life, Under the Roosevelt Jewish-Radical Regime

POLITICS

Protocol Plans

Fulfillments

In European pamphlets Bismarck is being quoted as having said: "Abraham Lincoln read the plots of Jewish financiers. He decided to eliminate International Jewish Bankers by establishing a system allowing states to borrow directly from the people. His death was decided upon. Nothing was easier than to find a fanatic to strike. The death of Lincoln was a disaster to Christendom."

The following excerpt is from Congressional testimony in California when Communist activities were being investigated; having been taken from a book called "The Soul of Lincoln," and quoted from a statement made by him not long before his martyrdom:

"Until lately I have been in favor of unlimited liberty for every man, as our Constitution seems to provide.

"But is it not an act of folly to give absolute liberty of conscience to a set of men who are sworn to cut our throats the very day they have the opportunity for doing it?"

"Is it right to give the privilege of citizenship to men who are sworn enemies of our Constitution, our laws, our liberties and our very lives?"

"Is it not an absurdity to give to a man a thing which he has sworn to hate, curse and destroy?"

"Sooner or later the people of the Republic must put a restriction on the exercise of liberty turned toward the destruction of that from which it came."

Not many years afterward European bribery brought about the demonetization of silver in the U. S. and abroad, thereby giving International Bankers full manipulative control over the limited monetary gold supply of the world and the property value it represents and symbolizes in exchange.

Does there appear to be any powerful activating motive behind the diabolical antagonism manifested in protocol writings?

Revenge for ancient religious persecution (see 1692 Protocol on Page 75) is declared by some Jews to have been responsible for the economic and political program outlined therein against the Gentiles. Prominent Jews like James P. Warburg emphatically tell the writer that religion has nothing to do with the present situation; that it is really a political and economic problem.

What do modern Jewish leaders say about "The Protocols"?

They deny Jewish authorship, and brand them as racial libels, plagiarisms and forgeries, but have not indicated WHAT they forge. Proof has not been furnished that the Jews did not conceive and write them. Neither has the circumstantial evidence been disproved that Jewish-Radical "New Dealers" patterned the "economic death" NRA and other regimentation legislation after Israel Moses Steiff's subversive British "PEP" and Jewish Josephus ancient Egyptian paternal and communal "AAA"—prophetically outlined in the Old Testament's Genesis. Religious theology has held that actual fulfillment is the acid test of prophetic authenticity.

That "The Protocols," without known authorship, have achieved so enormous a circulation, alone bears eloquent testimony to "authenticity" per se—to say nothing of concordant desperate Jewish suppression of their publication everywhere, which of itself arouses widespread suspicions.

These Jews were prominent in the Roosevelt Regime: Justice Louis Dembitz Brandeis, "Father of New Deal Philosophy"; Prof. Felix Frankfurter, "New Deal Legislative Exponent"; Bernard M. Baruch, "Unofficial President"; Edward A. Filene, "NRA Financial Angel"; Judge Samuel I. Rosenman, "Brain-trust Founder"; Untermyer & Wise, "Nezi Boycott Twins"; Mordecai Ezekiel, Herbert H. Lehman, David E. Lilienthal, William C. Bullitt, Jesse I. Straus, Sidney Hillman, Rose Schneiderman, Benjamin Cohen, Jerome Frank, Nathan Margold, Samuel Dickstein, E. A. Goldenweiser, Gerard Swope, Prof. Leo Wolman—"Chosen invisible advisors" in a long list of "Political Key-Posters."

Far back in the ancient times we were the first to cry "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity!"

—1. When we introduced into modern times the poison of Liberty, we have been seized with a moral illness.—10.

The political has nothing in common with the moral; he who wishes to rule must have recourse to cunning and make-believe; frankness and honesty are vices in politics.—1.

In politics we must know how to seize the property of others without hesitation; we must not stop at bribery, deceit and treachery.—1.

A satisfactory government is one that concentrates in the hands of one person only.—10.

Throughout Europe and other continents we must produce ferment, discord and hostility. Intensification of armaments is essential to the completion of our plans.—7.

We shall appear as alleged saviors of the workers from oppression, and propose to force—Societies, Communists and Anarchists.—3.

We have got into our hands the administration of the law, conduct of elections, the press, and educational training. We have fooled, bamboozled and corrupted the youth of the Gentiles by teaching them in principles and theories which are known to us to be false, although it is by us that they have been introduced.—9.

Our power will be more invincible than any other because it will remain invisible until it has gained such strength that nothing can undermine it.—1.

The principal factor in politics is secrecy; the word should not agree with the deed of the diplomat.—7.

The United States of America is "sick" politically. Is this illness due to a poison, our propaganda flood of liberalism, Socialism, Communism—during the Jewish-Radical New Deal Regime?

Note a few broken pledges of the Jewish-Radical! Roosevelt Administration: "Sound money at all hazards!" "A tariff recovery must not be executive interference!" "We will cure government expenses!" "Bureaucracy has increased 25 per cent!" "After pledges to reduce it, the economic recovery has been blocked by wholesale 'experiments.' And others!

Were voters "bribe" with Santa Claus gifts, and deceived by the New Deal administration of Jewish-Radical "reforms" which have "transferred" much wealth?

Roosevelt was unquestionably given dictatorial powers by Jewish-Radical pressure on Congress.

Is there discord in Europe and America at present?

Jewish-Radical New Dealers have constantly posed as saviors of labor—now the American Federation of Labor—now reported to have been communally subverted. It supported the Jewish "Big Business" Boycott against Germany for expelling Jewish-Communists.

Are Jewish-Radical elements in prominent university professorships and columns of papers? Has American youth been misled by brain-twisting theories and false propaganda?

Have we "invisible government" by Jewish "unofficial" advisors, such as Brandeis, Frankfurter, Morgenthau, St. Bernard, Filene, et al?

Who knows the secret framers of the Securities Paralytic Act, Monetary Deflation Law, NRA, SEC and 5-Billion Relief

We have in our service persons of all doctrines—Communists, Socialists, demagogues, utopian dreamers.—9.

To sum up our system of keeping the Governments of the Gentiles of Europe in order, we shall have our research to one of them by terrorist attempts.—7.

We shall create an intensified centralization of government.—5.

We have set the people on the hobby-horse of an idea about the absorption of individuality by the symbolic unit of collectivism. This hobby-horse is a manifest violation of the most important law of individuality, which has established one man like, modern society for the purpose of maintaining individuality.—15.

We must discredit personal initiatives nothing is more dangerous to our cause.
—5.

The best results in governing are attained by violence.—1.

God has given to us, his Chosen People, the gift of dispersion, and in this, which appears to be our weakness, has come forth our strength—which has brought us to the threshold of sovereignty over all the world.

ECONOMICS

Protocol Plans

Wars should be brought on to the economic ground; our INTERNATIONAL RIGHTS—2; the despolism of capital is entirely in our hands.—1.

With the aid of gold—which is all in our hands—we shall create universal economic crises which will bring industry to standstill.—3.

We shall establish huge monopolies.—6.

Was NRA a "huge monopoly"? American credit and banking have been unpre-

Measuring? Communist propaganda increased after U. S. recognition of Jewish Soviet despite pledges by Moscow that it would stop.

Washington swarms with all those classes including members of the Jewish exploited
American Civil Liberties Union, protest
"main function is to attempt of force and violence to overthrow the U. S. Government," according to House of Representatives Report 2280 of Jan. 17, 1931.

The "Red Terror" in Russia has "figu-rated" 30 million Gentiles, NRA "economic death" policy terrorized and ruined
American small business men.

Political power has been centered as never before in Washington Jewish-Radical hands.

The youth of America, radical, socialists and demagogues, this hobby-horse roughened over all American Constitutional rights.

Restrictive regimentation laws in industry and agriculture have extensively curtailed individual liberties, Jewish-Radical publicity "smearingly" assails of "Jewsands" all individual criticism of policies.

Investigations report that there were more anti-Jewish violence during the Roosevelt Jewish-Radical Regime than in over 25 years previous.

How does this check up with super-government League of Nations "aspirations" voiced by Jewish Author Zangwill in 1920, Zionist Leader Sokolow in 1922 and Rabbi Wise at the 1934 Geneva Jewish Congress?

Fulfillments

Germany was subjected to Jewish Capitalist Boycott, pressure to expelling Jewish Communists, "Jewish Communist" caused by Baruch told a Senate Commitee March 27, 1935. President Brown of the "American Hebrew" in May, 1934, told the author in the presence of a witness that the Jews were going to "bring a war on" the Nazis.

Who is hoarding gold and silver but the Washington control?

To give the Gentiles no time to think, their minds must be diverted * * * thus all nations will take no note of their common foe.—4.

THE PRESS

Protocol Plans

We must compel governments to act as favored by our plans, secretly promoted through the great power of the press which, with but few exceptions which may be disregarded, is already in our hands.—7.

To put public opinion in our hands we must bring it to a state of bewilderment by giving expression on all sides to so many contradictory opinions as to cause the Gentles to lose their heads and make it impossible to know where they are in the resulting chaos.—5.

Are the American press, screen and radio Jews dominated through ownership and directing subordination? Read the answer in "directionships and great Jewish dependent store" "ed." "The Jewish banks are supreme," and one by one the Jews are capturing the principal newspapers," British Ambassador Spring Rice wrote the Government on Nov. 13, 1914, from Washington,
D. C.

This is a "key-strategy" of the protocol.
Have we been bewildered by the Jewish-Radical flood of propaganda? "The present over the air and 'The Muddle Age,'" said former Congressman James M. Beck, and Washington has been apply termed "The Kingdom of Confusion."

domedly monopolized by the Jewish-Radical Regime.
Is the American majority, due to diversions, its subverted press, and misleading propaganda, still blinded to the deadly peril of the Internationalist menace, slowly succumbing to cruddying attention?

DEADLY "PARALLEL" NO. 2

Exposing the Jewish Capitalistic Cause of Jewish Revolutionary Communism—2, "Solidarity" Alliance Between Two Apparently Conflicting Theories, Against the Gentile "Common Enemy,"

How can two conflicting theories such as Jewish Capitalism and Communism work together practically?

The answer to "Who finances Communism?" supplies the reconciliation of the apparent paradox. Knowledge of protocol strategy gives the key, viz.:
The Jewish Capitalism promotes revolutionary Communism and seizes control in the chaos. Unretried printed documents published in Europe and America declare that International Jewish Capitalists Schiff-Warburg-Bolschuld financed Jewish Communists Trotsky and Lenin in the "Red" Conquest of Russia, and established a Bolshevik Capitalistic Soviet.

Let Jewish and Gentile authorities give further testimony.
"Jewish elements provide the driving forces for both Communism and Capitalism"—Dr. Oscar Levy, London Jewish Savant.

"When we Jews sink we become a revolutionary (Communist) proletariat; when we rise there rises also the terrible (capitalist) power of the 'pure'— Theo. Herzl, "Father of Zionism," calling Gentiles "a common enemy."

* Figures are protocol numbers.

"The propaganda of Communism throughout the world, in organization and direction, is in the hands of Jewish agents."—Hilaire Belloc, French author.

"The Jews were the directors and strategists of the Marxist revolution in Germany."—British Journalist A. S. Leese.

"The ideas of Bolshevism are at many points consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism."—Jewish Chronicle in 1919.

"The Revolutionary Council which took over Russia was composed of 565, of whom 469 were Jews."—U. S. Congressional Record.

"We Communists say there is one way to abolish the capitalist state, and that is to smash it by force; this means civil war."—Russian-born Jewish Editor of the largest Communist newspapers in the U. S.

"The time has come when Jews of America should begin to feel the great responsibility for the evil deed (Communism) planned and hatched in the Camp of Israel."—B. A. M. Schapiro, a New York Jew by race, Christian by faith.

D'Israeli wrote: "The most skillful accumulators of property ally themselves with Communists."

"Two of the most prominent supporters of this institution (Mena, Ark., Commonwealth College) are Justice Louis D. Brandeis and Mrs. Brandeis," said the National Republic of November, 1930. Brandeis was a Jewish corporation lawyer. Arkansas legislators closed that college as "Communist."

Jewish Capitalist Filene of Boston is reported to have financed the Communist NRA until the Roosevelt Regime took it over.

"The two Internationals of Finance (Capitalism) and Revolution (Communism) work with ardor; they are the two fronts of the Jewish Internationalism. * * * There is a Jewish conspiracy against all nations."—Kene Groos, a Jewish writer in the Nouvelles of May, 1927.

"If my people do not mend their ways and be good citizens in fact, pretty soon the time is coming when America is going to see pogroms beside which the pogroms of Europe have been nothing!"—Late New York Jewish Philanthropist, Oscar Straus.

Prof. H. J. Laski, Jewish Director of the Socialist Fabian Society of England is reported in a London publication as prophesying on Dec. 2, 1934: "If the experiment for which Roosevelt is responsible were in any serious degree to break down, the first result, because of the association of a number of eminent American Jews with it, would be THE OUTBREAK IN THE U. S. OF ANTI-SEMITISM, MORE PROFOUND THAN ANYTHING ANGLO-SAXON CIVILIZATION HAS SO FAR KNOWN."

Civilization has so far known."

A SOLUTION OF THE JEWISH PROBLEM

This whole analysis now logically focuses toward a sound solution of the Jewish Problem. The author favors a verdict based on the Whole Truth, Exact Justice and Absolute Honor—enjoyed by politico-economic penalties.

But Jewry must first appear with "clean hands" before the Bar of America, to demonstrate good faith and allegiance to Americanism before loyalty to its own interests, by the establishment of the following prerequisites to a fair hearing:

Prerequisites

- (1) American publicity channels MUST BE FREED from Jewish advertising or other intimidation.
- (2) Political Jews MUST WITHDRAW from all "key" positions to permit restoration of American majority REPRESENTATIVE Constitutional Government in place of present centralized minority "invisible rule" energizing Roosevelt.

(3) MONOPOLIES of leadership of national and local political parties by Jewish "key controls" MUST BE ELIMINATED.

(4) Jewish Capital MUST RETIRE from its anti-social monopoly of screen, radio and other American NECESSITY ENTERPRISES.

(5) Jewish un-American professors and teachers MUST BE PUT OUT OF institutions of learning.

(6) Jewish monopoly of the judiciary of America's great metropolis MUST BE OUSTED.

DEFENSIVE COUNTER-STRATEGY

Through monopoly of press and radio there is now being conducted by organized Jewish leadership the most colossal high-pressure publicity campaign in history to "sell Jewry" to Americans as absolutely "pure"; but since that leadership, holding Gentiles to be "a common enemy" has for many centuries systematically deceived, exploited and boycotted us, why should we believe anything it says now, or look upon propaganda in the subsidized press as other than treachery, treachery and treason to America—until Jewish repudiates its present leadership and actually abandons the hostility that is spreading economic attrition-death through the U. S. Not by words, but "by their deeds shall ye know them."

Do Americans want their Avenue of Equal Opportunity closed to them and their children by an alien "growing out"—not on merit, but on money-power? Meantime, these practical self-protective individualistic measures seem imperative—

(1) A "Buy Gentile" patriotic crusade to defeat the active Jewish-Radical pogrom-boycotts on American politico-economic life, which is effectively destroying national resources.

(2) "Pitiless Publicity" by word-of-mouth, pamphleteering and otherwise, to enlighten and dissipate the deadly inertia of American citizens blinded by misleading protobiotic propaganda, energized and financed by Jewish-Radical elements in control of the press and radio.

THE "VENGEANCE" PROTOCOL OF 1492

No denial, as to the authenticity, authorship or otherwise seems to have been authoritatively made of the "Protocol of 1492," when Clemen, Chief Rabbi of Spain is reported as having written to the Grand Sanhedrin in Constantinople for advice when a Spanish law threatened expulsion of his people. The following "revenge-reply" is said to have been found in the Archives of Toledo, Spain: "Beloved Brethren of Moses. We have received your letter. The advice of the Grand Sanhedrin and Rabbis is the following:

(1) As for what you say, that the King of Spain obliges you to become Christians, do it, since you cannot do otherwise.

(2) As for what you say about the command to despoil you of your property, make your sons merchants, that they may despoil, little by little, the Christians of theirs.

(3) As for what you say about making attempts on your lives, make your sons doctors and apothecaries, that they may take away Christian lives.

(4) As for what you say of their destroying your synagogues, make your sons canons and clerics in order that they may destroy churches.

(5) As for the many other vexations you complain of, arrange that your sons become advocates and lawyers, and see that they always mix in the affairs of state, that by putting Christians under your yoke you may DOMINATE THE WORLD, and be AVENGED on them.

(6) Do not swerve from this order that we give you, because you will find by experience that, humiliated as you are, you will reach THE ACTUALITY OF POWER."

A SUMMONS TO MILITANT AMERICAN MANHOOD

(Only Truth, Justice and Honor Can Set Us Free)

To One Hundred Fifty Million American Freeman:
Now is the time to lend every possible financial and other support to a selfless PRO-American Crusade with no racket to serve or complex to nurse—(1) One that is consecrating directly to campaign expenses, every dollar received; (2) That KNOWS the great peril the nation is facing, and the real remedy therefor; (3) That has demonstrated capacity to face facts in the raw, without fear or favor; (4) That is attacking the Cancerous Cause instead of its radiating symptoms, and by a policy such has achieved widely important coast-to-coast results; (5) That has concrete practical constructive plans which, adequately financed, properly focused and boldly executed, cannot fail to overthrow an alien-admitted resistance, and restore representative Constitutional Government; (6) Whose crusade contemplates EXACT JUSTICE for Gentile and Jew.

Why longer dally with a danger that may at any time flame into civil war? Let us strike now like men, with the full, patriotic power of never-defeated America at the diabolical CAUSE of Marxism and its ballyhooing dupes and racketeering rals.

WARN your national and state representatives that their BLIND submission to secret sinister influences, in direct violation of their oaths to "preserve, protect and defend" American liberties, is now DRIVING the middle-class majority toward a defensive anti-minority CIVIL WAR.

If you can't afford to contribute cash, be a Paul Revere and personally broadcast the deadly peril—by spoken and written word.

The evangelical fervor of aroused American public opinion, in an invincible self-preservation crusade, will liberate the subsidized "great power of the press" and smash this "Cross of Gold."

IS COMMUNISM JEWISH? WHAT DO THE JEWS THEMSELVES SAY ABOUT IT? JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS TODAY ARE TRYING TO DISAVOW COMMUNISM. WHAT HAVE THESE SAME ORGANIZATIONS AND PAPERS SAID ABOUT COMMUNISM IN THE PAST?

For thirty-five years since 1917, Jewish papers including the B'nai B'rith official paper, have never uttered one word against Communism, but have smeared those who opposed Communism. Now that the world is becoming aware that Communism is Jewish, the Jews are changing their plan and are now using the anti-Communist line to further carry out their plans for world rule.

Quotations

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by "Kehillah (Jewish Community) of New York," 356 Second Ave., New York (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff head of Kuhn Loeb & Co. for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

Rabbi Stephen Wise said: "Some call it Marxism; I call it Judaism."

"Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews." Statement of the Jew, M. Cohen in "The Communist Charkov," April 12, 1919.

Valter Rathenau, Jew, late Financial Dictator of Germany, in "The Wiener Free Press," Dec. 25, 1909: "Only 300 men, each of whom knows all the others, govern the fate of Europe. They elect their successors from their own ranks. These Jews have the means in their hands of putting an end to the form of any State which they find unreasonable."

"Jewish World," London, Sept. 22, 1915: "No one pretends that a Japanese or Indian child is English because it was born in England. The same thing applies to the Jews."

Speaking before the Jewish Institute of Religion in New York, October 3, 1934, Professor Reinhold Niebuhr, a Jew, said, "Marxism is the modern form of Jewish prophecy."

"Nationalities must disappear, religion must be suppressed. But Israel must not disappear for this little people is the Chosen of God." Adolphe Cremieux, president of L'Alliance Israelite Universelle, in "Les Archives Israelites," Paris Nov. 25, 1861.

"What we Jews must do is to set our faces as flint against Fascism, against any form of it whatsoever. Our next step to be taken as soon as ever it is possible, must be to seize, in the interest of the workers, all the nations industries, and let nothing whatsoever stand in our way, even should we speak to use violence." James Waterman Wise (Son of Rabbi S. Wise, N. Y.) speaking from the pulpit of the Free Synagogue, in N. Y., Jan. 28, 1934 on "The Rising Tide—Will it Overwhelm Us?"

"The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history. It is a Jewish revolution because Russia is the home of about half the Jews of the world . . . but the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's empire." From the Zionist organ, "The Maccabean," New York, November 1905, p. 250, headline "A Jewish Revolution."

The Jewish writer, Walter Brody, wrote in the New Masses, May 12, 1936, page 14: "The undeniable problem of the Jew can only be solved in a socialist society."

The Jew, Louis Fisher, wrote the following in the "New York Jewish Tribune," January 18th, 1924: "If the Bolsheviks are to be judged from what the Jews have gained with them in the realm of instruction, the verdict is certainly in their favor."

Otto Weisinger, a Jew, states in his book: "Sex and Character," Vienna, 1921, Page 413: "The Jew is a Communist."

Clare Sheridan, traveler and lecturer, stated in an interview carried in the "New York World" of December 15th, 1923: "The Communists are Jews, and Russia is entirely administered by them."

The London Times for March 29th, 1919, reported as follows: "Of the leaders who provide the central machinery for the Bolshevik movement, not less than 75 per cent are Jews. Among the minor officials the number is legion."

The columns of the London Jewish Chronicle for April 4, 1919, carried the following statement: "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolshevists. The ideals of Bolshevism are consonant with many of the highest ideals of Judaism."

Theodore Herzl, World Zionist leader, wrote in the "Jewish State": "When the Jews sink, we become a revolutionary proletarian (communist); when we rise, there also arises our terrible power of the purse" (Capitalistic).

The periodical "Asia" carries the following in its February-March 1920 issue: "In all the Bolshevik institutions the heads are Jews."

From the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia "The Jewish Voice," New York City, for October 1941 carried the following statement by Dr. Chaim Weizmann, world Zionist leader: "We wholeheartedly respond to the appeal of the Jewish rally in Moscow . . . We are proud of the struggle put up by the Soviet armies whose successes evoke universal admiration and fortify confidence in ultimate victory."

Joseph Dunner, Zionist Jew, in "The Republic of Israel," page 10, October 1950 stated the following: "To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

The Manifesto signed by Chief Rabbi Meiselman Gluskin of Minsk, along with five other Rabbis, on Feb. 25, 1930, made the following declarations: "From a world standpoint, it is a fact of the greatest importance that the head of the Communist Party, and the head of the Soviet Government, Lenin, issued a decree in which the anti-Semites are denounced as the enemies of the different peoples, 'UNDER THE SOVIET REGIME, WE HAVE NEVER BEEN SUBJECTED TO ANY PERSECUTION FOR OUR RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS. WE CONSIDER IT OUR DUTY CATEGORICALLY TO DECLARE THAT IN THE USSR NO RABBI HAS EVER BEEN THREATENED WITH THE SENTENCE OF DEATH OR ANY OTHER SEVERE PUNISHMENT. NOR IS ANY AT THE MOMENT SO THREATENED. During the whole period of the soldiers and the workmen's councils in the USSR, not one single rabbi was shot."

"Lenin On The Jewish Question," booklet dated Aug. 9, 1918, by Dismantstein, Jew: "The Council of People's Commissars has instructed all Soviet Deputies to take uncompromising measures to tear out the anti-semitic movement by the roots; pogromists are to be placed outside of the law."

Scholem Asch, quoted by the "Jewish World," London, 29-6-22: "In Russia peasants, soldiers, everybody hates Jews . . . Jews of Russia are unanimous in believing that the fall of the Soviets and the grasping of power by OTHER HANDS would be the greatest calamity for Jews that could be imagined."

OUTSTING CHRISTMAS: The following quotation is from the New York Jewish newspaper "The Day," of Dec. 14, 1935: "WE WANT ALL THE CHRISTMAS PROPAGANDA STOPPED. The masses of the Jewish people in America HAVE A RIGHT TO DEMAND from the educational system in the United States that IT KEEP CHRISTMAS OUT OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS."

The London "Jewish World" of August 18th, 1922, carried this statement: "Business is gaining in Russia, and with new regime Jews are promptly becoming the captains in industry. There are now 100,000 Jews in Moscow and Kosher butcher signs are seen in all streets . . . however, anti-semitism is growing in the city parallel with the increase of the Jewish population."

The "American Hebrew," the Nation's most outstanding Jewish weekly, said on September 10, 1920: "The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfied of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and in Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world. What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to accomplish in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind and heart are tending to promote in other countries . . . "

"Fundamentally Judaism is Anti-Christian"—Jewish World, March 15, 1923.

In his Introduction to the Protocols Nilus wrote that a manuscript had been handed to him about four years before (1901) by a friend, since deceased, who vouched that it was a true translation of an original document stolen by a woman from one of the most influential and most highly initiated leaders of Freemasonry, at the end of a meeting of the initiated in France, "that nest of Jewish-Masonic conspiracy." Nilus added that he now revealed this manuscript under the title of "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion," which he says are not exactly minutes of meetings, but a report, with a part apparently missing, made by some powerful person. Nilus frankly admits the impossibility of producing written or oral proof of the authenticity of this document and says that we must be satisfied with the circumstantial evidence which abounds. He maintains that the contents of the document ought to suffice for "those who have ears to hear" as being obvious, and thus anticipates the outcries from Jews, and Gentile sycophants, that the document is a forgery.

The Times pamphlet "The Truth about the Protocols. A Literary Forgery" (1921) (containing parallel passages from the Protocols and from Maurice Joly's "Dialogue aux Enfers entre Machiavel et Montesquieu") (1865) proved nothing either way. It is this work of Joly's to which Lord Sydenham alludes in his letter.

The book by Mrs. Nesta Webster mentioned in that letter is World Revolution, now out of print. The subject is dealt with at some length in her Secret Societies and Subversive Movements (Appendix). (20/-).

The so-called Berne Trial which ended in 1937 was inconclusive. The Appeal Court reversed, in favor of the Swiss Fascists who had been distributing the Protocols, the judgment of the lower Court which was in favour of the Jewish plaintiffs. The Appeal Court laid it down that the question of forgery did not arise. Any newspaper in this country which led its readers to believe that the Protocols had by this Trial been proved a forgery, stated a deliberate falsehood.—B.P.S.

Newark is receiving an increasing number of letters from field offices throughout the United States advising of complaints received regarding the newspaper "Common Sense," which is being received in the mail by the complainants.

It is believed that the Bureau may wish to furnish, as part of an SAC Letter or Bureau Bulletin, all offices with a sketch on this publication and its editor, and to that end the following is being submitted:

CONDE J. MCGINLEY

Union, N. J.

CONDE J. MCGINLEY, who at one time used the pen name GEORGE SHELTON, was born October 13, 1890 in Norman, Oklahoma. He resided there until 1930 when he moved to Dallas, Texas. After his residence in Dallas, he moved to the New Jersey seashore resort town of Belmar and he assisted his wife in the establishment and operation of a small chain of curb service restaurants known as Celia Brown's. The restaurants operated successfully during the early 1930's up to 1941. In 1941, the enterprises failed and the MCGINLEYS opened a restaurant at Fort Dix, N. J. (a U. S. Army installation). This restaurant was also a failure as was another venture at Wrightstown, N. J.

In 1944, according to a report received at Newark by the State Police, MCGINLEY and his wife had separated. He was residing at 1259 Stuyvesant Ave., Union, N. J., where he operated a small lunchroom. His wife and unmarried child were residing at [REDACTED] Wall Township, [REDACTED] Sea Girt, N. J.

During World War II, McGINLEY was employed as an inspector at the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation of America, Union, N. J., where he was considered to be a hard worker, to be patriotic, with a son in the U. S. Marine Corps, and a follower of ~~ADOLF HITLER~~. b2 b7D

According to Confidential Informant ~~REDACTED~~ who met McGINLEY in 1944, CONDE J. McGINLEY was in no way un-American or anti-American, but was sympathetic with Germany on the grounds that the Germans were fighting Communism and that the portion of Nazi philosophy which dictated the extermination of all Jews was a correct one. The Informant has reported that McGINLEY and his associates are violently anti-Semitic, that they consider themselves "Nationalists," and that they are dedicated to the "saving of America from the invisible government or world government of Zionism." McGINLEY and his associates, according to the Informant, consider Communism as but a part of the plot of Zionism for world government and the defeat of Christianity.

"COMMON SENSE," FORMERLY "THINK WEEKLY"

According to the files of the Newark Office, CONDE J. McGINLEY started a modest publication known as "Think Weekly" in July, 1946. His paper was dedicated to the fight against the Communist threat to Christianity. It is reported that the paper met with some success with local religious groups and service clubs and McGINLEY was invited to speak before these religious groups and service organizations. He appears to have been particularly welcome at local Roman Catholic parish meetings at which his attack upon Communism was well received.

? #11 In June, 1946, the name of the publication was changed to "Common Sense." The size of the publication was increased from letter size to tabloid and was then captioned "The Nation's Anti-Communist Paper."

At first, the publication "Common Sense" used the theme of Christianity against Communism. Review of items appearing in the paper reflects that in these articles, McGINLEY invariably referred to Communists as "Zionist Marxists" which tends to bear out the report of the Informant that McGINLEY was militantly anti-Semitic, that he considered all Jews as Communists, and that he considered Communism as a part of the Zionist plot for world domination.

In the past several years, the articles appearing in "Common Sense" have become openly anti-Jewish and the editor has adopted the practice of placing the word "Jew" in brackets after the name of those he attacks.

In December, 1946, CONDE J. MCGINLEY organized an action group to aid in the distribution and sale of his newspaper. The group called itself the "Loyal American Group" and under the direction of MCGINLEY, held monthly meetings and sponsored open lectures on Communism. The Loyal American Group also set up a speakers' bureau, making available lecturers on Communism.

b7c One of the guest speakers at these lectures was [redacted] of the "Philadelphia Nationalist Action League." According to the Informant, [redacted] and MCGINLEY frequently conferred with each other and exchanged anti-Semitic articles and literature which are apparently received in large volume by both MCGINLEY and [redacted]

In the summer of 1949, an announcement appeared in "Common Sense" indicating that it, "Common Sense," was to become the official organ of the Nationalist Action League. The Loyal American Group was to become the New Jersey unit of the Nationalist Action League. It is noted that the Nationalist Action League was cited by the Attorney General as a Fascist organization coming within the purview of Executive Order 10450. According to the Informant, this merger did not last long either because of a misunderstanding between MCGINLEY or [redacted] or more likely because MCGINLEY had learned of the above citation in connection with the Nationalist Action League's efforts to have itself removed from the Attorney General's list.

Following the unannounced discontinuation of this alliance with the Nationalist Action League, meetings of the MCGINLEY group were held under no organizational sponsorship, but were held and announced as simply under the auspices of "Common Sense."

Until March, 1953, "Common Sense" was published from the address 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, N. J. Mail for MCGINLEY and "Common Sense" was received through Post Office Box 428, Union, N. J. The 2001 Pleasant Parkway address is a converted store which served as publication office and home of CONDE MCGINLEY.

According to the Informant, MCGINLEY lives on the bare necessities of life, devoting all his time, energy and the monies received for subscriptions and as donations to the publication of his newspaper "Common Sense."

The Informant has reported that MCGINLEY claims that his circulation is between 200,000 and 300,000 copies of each issue. He uses telephone books,

Fr. Coughlin: first public talk since '39

FR. CHARLES E. COUGHLIN made his first publicized appearance since his silencing by ecclesiastical superiors in 1939, addressing the First Friday Club in Detroit (Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel), December 4, 1953. Club is a Catholic group of business executives which meets first Friday of each month. The one-time controversial priest drew an attentive audience of 1,100 members and guests—second largest attendance in club's 13-year history. (Clare Booth Luce drew more.)

His speech dealt with conflict of communism and Christianity and emphasized the need for "love for our neighbors and belief in God." Addressing businessmen, Fr. Coughlin favored removal of tariff barriers and a guaranteed annual wage for labor.

Christian Nationalist Crusade: nine-month financial statement

FINANCIAL STATEMENT for first nine months of 1953 (Jan. 1-Aug. 31) of Gerald L. K. Smith's Christian Nationalist Crusade, recorded with Clerk of the House of Representatives, reports receipts of $128,210.82. Of this total, $22,561.87 represents contributions of $100 or more from 113 persons. The figures emphasize Smith's pull among "small givers." During the year he circulated several "urgent appeals" to his vast mailing list, pleading a desperate need for funds.

Receipts for prior years (round figures for full 12 months):

1952	202,000

For the 1953 nine-month period, total expenditures are listed as $119,178.42. Smith, noted for his high living, records himself as receiving $7,470.69 for the period. Another item—"Transportation and Expenses," $11,556.43—presumably represents some of the hotel expenses during his constant travels around the country. A breakdown of the listed expenditures:

Printing and paper	$ 24,919.31
Office expenditures	11,929.45
U. S. Post Office	14,930.40
Mailing and handling	23,353.45

PUBLISHED BY THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH

Conde McGinley and "Common Sense"

LAST month Richmond, Va.'s Retail Merchants Association warned its members about "the most obscenely anti-Semitic publication in the country." In Sioux City, Ia., civic leaders were "shocked" by it. The sheriff of Hillsborough County, Fla., resented its "defamatory tactics." . . . The Boston Post asked why "the Post Office Department hasn't issued a fraud order against those responsible for this campaign of hatred [Dec. 18, 1953]." . . . Rhode Island legislators condemned it on the floor of the House. . . . N. Y. State chairman Martin B. McKneally of the American Legion called it "dangerous rubbish . . . we stand for the exact opposite . . . do not have any truck or traffic with it [Jan. 23, 1954]."

This sudden rash of complaints—several scattered hundreds, some as far West as California, many from persons unaware of his existence—points up (a) the new affluence of Conde J. McGinley, hate publisher of Union, N. J., and (b) an attempt to repeat his 1948 notoriety when, subsidized by "meddling" Benjamin H. Freedman, McGinley circularized wholesale to members of Congress, the United Nations, newspaper editorial offices and similar public mailing lists, two issues of his inflammatory semi-monthly, Common Sense, recklessly accusing Zionism of being an international conspiracy.

McGinley's latest such performance is Common Sense's Oct. 1, 1953 issue, devoted entirely to a hyperbolic hate-inciting essay on THE COMING RED DICTATORSHIP. It repeats the idiotic, yet volatile, contention that the United States and Christianity are succumbing to an international Jewish plot, screaming [in a sub-head] ASIATIC MARXIST JEWS CONTROL ENTIRE WORLD AS LAST WORLD WAR COMMENCES—THOUSANDS OF PLOTTERS PLACED IN KEY POSITIONS BY INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT—FEW EVER ELECTED—THOUSANDS MORE ON THEIR WAY. McGinley's proof: He reassembles that hoary hoax, the forged protocols of the Elders of Zion.

This issue was distributed heavily last month and November as third class mail (but carried Oct. 1 date to conform with postal regulations for second class mail privilege). Presumably for "scare" emphasis, the customary tabloid size was converted to a single, standard-sized sheet, printed on both sides. The mailing was big, perhaps approaching the estimated 300,000 copies of the first Freedman-sponsored issues. This time, however, McGinley concentrated distribution among members of all 48 state legislatures, county sheriffs (who are often political powers in rural areas), police chiefs, post commanders of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, and assorted other groups. In most cases he supplemented this saturation mailing with a printed copy of the forged Protocols.

All this costs money—more than McGinley's personal resources can muster. He generally is forced to operate on a bare issue-to-issue basis and printing has sometimes been delayed for lack of funds. Significance of the Oct. 1 mailing: McGinley again has acquired secret subsidization.

Background of a Zealot. McGinley has become the biggest hate publisher in the East. This does not make him a challenge to better known, heavier-financed leaders of professional anti-Semitism, such as Joe Kamp and Gerald Smith, both of whom are more articulate, better organized. By contrast, McGinley has been a chronic sufferer from erratic finances—rarely solvent, persistently short—unable to whip into shape any group or movement to provide him with organizational support. His energies and funds are devoted almost exclusively to getting out Common Sense, two issues a month. McGinley does not have Kamp's business, political or fund-raising contacts. He does not share (nor could he afford) Smith's disposition for expensive living. McGinley lives with his work: he once made his home at 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, N. J.—which was also publishing headquarters for Common Sense. (His headquarters are now 530 Chestnut St.) He takes only such funds as his modest personal needs require. The rest—subscription income, contributions, secret subsidies—is diligently poured into Common Sense.

This points up a distinction that sets him apart from most of his contemporaries: McGinley is a zealot. Unlike the Gerald Smiths who calculate their keep from an unscrupulous racket, McGinley appears to be a dedicated, if distorted, propagandist, earnestly confident of his omniscience as an "authority on communism and Marxism." His emotional instability reveals itself in streaks of violence and his anti-Semitism is as intense as it is vituperative. To confidants, McGinley frequently speaks his mind about the need for exterminating all Jews.

Dollar-wise, in the hate movement, the zealot lags behind the cold professional. This has been McGinley's experience. But the fanaticism that has driven him to keep alive his journalistic activity when it meant scraping hard to meet expenses, may also explain the recent transfusion of money pumped into Common Sense. It is likely that one—or several—financiers of anti-Semitism, identity at this moment unknown, has made a substantial cash investment in McGinley's zeal. One immediate result was the widespread distribution of the Oct. 1 issue.

McGinley is now about 63 years old, stocky, graying, of undistinguished background. He migrated from Texas, where he operated a roadside stand, to work in a New Jersey war plant. Displaced when war ended, he tried a restaurant, then a furniture business. His recreation was to parade his "expertness" on the Communist menace. He wrote and distributed free a column called "Think"—the Unvarnished Truth—to 100 newspapers (his count). In July, 1946, "to educate people to what communism is," he began publication of a hate sheet called Think Weekly. With that, Conde McGinley became a full-time professional anti-Semite.

Think Weekly. The masthead of Think Weekly listed a Charles Shelton and Conde J. McGinley, Jr., as publishers. But McGinley senior was its malicious spirit, responsible for its demagogic tone, crackpot content. (His son often helps in publishing tasks but does not appear to share the elder McGinley's fanaticism.) Think Weekly's anti-communism was to hint broadly that communism is a Jewish movement. Anti-Semitism was immediately evident, although a trifle circumspect by comparison with McGinley's later crudeness in Common Sense. Justice Felix Frankfurter, the late Congressman Adolph Sabath, Judge Samuel Rosenman and other Jews in public life became McGinley's symbols of the "invisible government." "When will the White House be able to run without instructions from Felix Frankfurter, Samuel Rosenman and David Niles?" he demanded [Dec. 22, 1946].

Among Think Weekly's favored writers were: Upton Close ("simply pro-American . . . no more fascist or anti-Semitic than George Washington"), whose stuff appeared frequently; John J. Fleck (anti-Semitic writer of crank letters to congressmen); Dr. Austin J. App (pro-Nazi apologist); Joseph P. Kamp (Constitutional Educational League); Merwin Hart (National Economic Council). ASK CONGRESS TO PROVE ANTI-GENTILISM read a headline—McGinley reprinting Hart's complaint about "the hush-hush policy about Jews that has been encouraged at an accelerating rate in recent years" [Jan., 1947].

W. Armstrong, octogenarian millionaire, Texas, as top giver—$1,260. Forty on the list of 113 live in California—where Smith now makes his headquarters (Los Angeles).

Another well-known anti-Semite who gave: Forrest C. Sammons (Huntington, W. Va.), $140. Maximilian St. George (Chicago), attorney for many racists and bigots gave $120. Listed for $200 is the "Seattle Bible Class" (Seattle, Wash.).

Some contributors have consistently supported Smith's program for a decade and longer. Significant is the number of contributors of seemingly modest means: widows and elderly persons. Other givers are recognized pan-Germans. Some examples of Smith contributors:

MRS. M. CONAN, Phoenix, Ariz. Contribution: $200. Smith called her "the godmother of our cause in this beautiful community," a tribute to her zeal as writer and disseminator of hate periodicals. She is anti-Catholic.

MISS NANCY EKMARK, Chicago. $109. In 1951 she gave $169; in 1950, $159. Now in her seventies, she draws a monthly pension of about $100 from the Visiting Nurses Association.

EMMA and JANE WACKER, Garner, Ia. Contribution in Emma's name: $150. They participate in many "nationalist" conventions.

H. G. REINSCH, Tacoma, Wash. $109. Well-to-do lumber dealer, onetime member of the Silver Shirts, admirer of Hitler. Army ordered him to leave wartime Western military zone. His citizenship was revoked in 1943, restored two years later.

MRS. M. KASTNER, Chicago. $135. A widow, near 80, physically feeble. She lives with a son-in-law.

G. F. MESSER, Milwaukee. $210. Also listed in the past as a contributor to Merwin K. Hart's National Economic Council.

EMIL O. HENSLER, Detroit. $100. In his 80's. Vice-president of an engraving firm, he has been on Smith's special promotion list since at least 1944.

Smith is required by the Federal Corrupt Practices Act to file financial statements of the Christian Nationalist Crusade because he holds it out to be a "political party."

Think Weekly didn't like UNRRA, Hollywood, displaced persons or the men in government. It was bitter about the Nuremberg trials, loudly defending "German rights." "The Kangaroo Court at Nuremberg," McGinley wrote, "has tried Germans who were guilty of doing nothing else but allowing their rulers to do as they did" [Jan. 26, 1947]. He urged readers to protest the deportation of William Gerald Bishop, "a fearless American who refused to compromise with communism." (Bishop, interned Austrian alien, was convicted in 1940 of conspiracy to overthrow the government, deported in 1947.)

Think Weekly lingered for almost a year. Its circulation, including throwaways, rarely exceeded 5,000. It faded (co-publisher Charles Shelton with it) when McGinley introduced the first issue of Common Sense on June 29, 1947.

Failure with front groups. Lack of a personal organization isn't because McGinley has not tried. His first try, the Loyal American Group, held frequent meetings in Union, Irvington, and other northern New Jersey towns. Attendance ranged from 50 to 300. Speakers repeated each other with the single demagogic theme: communism is Jewish. John Henihan, "boy orator of the Christian Front," was a platform regular.

McGinley intended his organization to supply volunteers for selling subscriptions and otherwise disseminating Common Sense. Some Loyal Americans tried peddling it Sunday mornings, in front of churches; others organized an ineffective sales campaign in New York's Wall Street district.

In June, 1949, McGinley worked out a consolidation plan with W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., operator of the Nationalist Action League in Philadelphia, a group ruled "fascist and subversive" by the U. S. Attorney General [April, 1948]. MacFarland was to absorb the moribund Loyal Americans; in return, the Nationalist Action League would promote Common Sense. The merger lasted little more than a month; McGinley had few members to give MacFarland, MacFarland had few new subscribers for Common Sense. A proposed tie-up with mystic, street-orating James Madole, leader of a Yorkville gang of juvenile bigots called the National Renaissance Party, never made headway.

McGinley's next group, Americans Against Communism, has been inactive since he began it in late 1950. Worth noting is the fascist-like structure planned for it. AAC was to be subdivided into groups, each comprising four units, each guided by a group leader. Group leaders, in turn, were to be organized in units of five each, supervised by a lieutenant. Promotion was by a point system: 1,000 points entitled a member to group leader rank. Points awarded for enrolling a new member, 50; for picketing a "red" movie or meeting, 35; for writing letters to Congress, 25. A member's obligation was to attain 50 points a month.

"The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper." Common Sense, subtitled "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper," has yet to publish a legitimate, factual anti-Communist article. Editor McGinley is not addicted to subtleties or innuendoes: his anti-Semitism persists at gutter level. What keeps Common Sense a slight cut above the common filth of the hate press is (a) its typography and writing style—nothing to brag about, but cleaner looking than the usual hodge-podge sheets and lacking their passion for illiteracy, and (b) McGinley's competent, if not skillful, use of the Big Lie, pegging falsehoods and distortions to political issues and personalities.

Common Sense began with a press run of about 7,000. This now fluctuates between 25,000 and 300,000—the spread being the difference between routine circulation and those issues for which he gets special financing. In sworn statements to postal authorities McGinley declares the paid circulation to be slightly over 20,000. These are mailed second-class from the Union, N. J. post office. The excess is generally shipped in bulk to distribution contacts throughout the country; among them: Bill Hendrix, Ku Klux Klan leader in Florida; Texas millionaire George W. Armstrong, writer and financier of hate pamphlets; Prof. John O. Beatty (Southern Methodist University) whose off-campus writing and lecturing are on anti-Jewish themes; well-to-do Forrest C. Sammons of Huntington, W. Va.; retired contractor and one-man West Virginia Anti-Soviet Educational League; Edgar S. Waybright, Sr., of Jacksonville, Fla., county Democratic leader who denied charges by St. Louis Post Dispatch that he was a "behind-the-scenes" advisor to the KKK.

Both Elizabeth Dilling and Gerald Smith have been circulating to their mailing lists reprints of Common Sense's mammoth Oct. 1 issue.

In moments of financial plight, McGinley has written imploringly to Armstrong, a man fabulously wealthy from oil, mineral and cattle holdings. (Common Sense has serialized some of Armstrong's vicious pamphlets and published articles by long-retired Gen. George Van Horn Moseley, American fascism's one-time choice for "leader on horseback," who now manages Armstrong's hate activities.) For a time Armstrong stirred great excitement in Common Sense headquarters by hinting he would buy it a printing plant; but nothing yet has come of it. McGinley has also expressed hope that Forrest Sammons, another zealot, might help underwrite Common Sense. Sammons' bulk purchases of Common Sense include one issue which he mailed to all members of Congress. McGinley has depended on just such bulk orders for wide circulation. His Oct. 1, 1950 issue, headlined BRIEN MCMAHON, COMMUNIST DUPE, was subsidized by a wealthy opponent of the late senator; 200,000 copies were shipped into Connecticut a few days before the elections that year.

Subsidies from Benjamin H. Freedman. McGinley has welcomed and enjoyed the off-and-on financial support of Benjamin H. Freedman, retired business man, apostate Jew and instigator of Arab propaganda. Freedman has spent a fortune expounding a quack notion that present-day Jews are not descended from the Biblical Israelites, but from Khazars, a "mongrel, barbarian Tartar race that overran Europe."

Using his own front, the League for Peace With Justice In Palestine, Freedman paid for many full-page advertisements in New York newspapers to attack Zionism and support Arab claims ($100,000 worth he later admitted.)¹ His fanaticism led him to McGinley and he began by subsidizing two anti-Zionist issues. The first [ZIONISM THREATENS NATION'S SECURITY, Oct. 3, 1948] was a bitter, bigoted attack on the "Un-American, Zionist-dictated U. S. A. effort to effect the partition of Palestine which is converting into deadly enemies over one billion friends in Africa and Asia." The next [ARE

(H) "COMMON SENSE," FORMERLY "THINK WEEKLY" CONDE J. MC GINLEY, EDITOR INTERNAL SECURITY - X -- Numerous inquiries have been received by the Newark Office from other offices advising of complaints received regarding the newspaper "Common Sense," which is being sent through the mail to the complainants. It was reported in November, 1953, by a reliable informant of the Newark Office that Conde J. McGinley planned to circulate one million copies of his latest issue of "Common Sense."

In view of the above, a brief summary of McGinley's background as well as that of "Common Sense" is being set forth below for your information.

Conde J. McGinley has been described by a reliable informant as being sympathetic with Germany during World War II because Germany was fighting Communism and because he felt that portion of Nazi philosophy directed against the Jews was a correct one. The informant stated that McGinley and his associates are violently anti-Semitic, that they consider themselves "Nationalist," and that they are dedicated to the "saving of America from the invisible government or world government of Zionism."

McGinley started publishing "Think Weekly" in July, 1946. This newspaper was reported to be dedicated to the fight against the Communist threat to Christianity. Later in 1946, McGinley changed the title of his newspaper to "Common Sense." A review of the articles appearing in "Common Sense" reflects this newspaper to be anti-Semitic and anti-Communist.

b7c In December, 1946, McGinley organized a group in New Jersey for the purpose of aiding in the distribution and sale of his newspaper. This group, which was then known as the Loyal American Group, became affiliated in September, 1949, with the Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The informant reported that this merger was short-lived either because of a misunderstanding between McGinley and [redacted] or because McGinley learned that the Nationalist Action League had been cited as a Fascist organization by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 9835. It is noted that the Nationalist Action League was re-cited by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The informant has advised that McGinley claims the circulation of "Common Sense" is between 200,000 and 300,000 copies Jews Approve New Phoney Translation of the Bible: The following review of a book by an outstanding Jewish writer speaks for itself: "Two thousand years of conflict between Judaism and Christianity may be approaching a conclusion with the triumph of the Jewish version of Holy Writ, according to the Jewish scholar Chaim Lieberman, in his new book 'The Christianity of Sholem Asch'. Christianity, according to Mr. Lieberman, has always been based upon 'erroneous translations from the Bible'. Christian moderns, however, are 'slowly but surely yielding' to the Jewish translation and abandoning 'the notion that their saviour is virgin born', he says. Quoting from Mr. Lieberman's book: 'The Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible, sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ in the United States of America, and published in 1952, has changed the word "virgin" to "young woman" in the much disputed verse in Isaiah. Thus an eminent group of Christian scholars at long last have bowed to the truth and vielded to the Jewish point of view!'"

The Government Has Admitted: There are between three million and five million aliens in the United States illegally. They are crossing the Canadian border and the Mexican border by the hundreds and thousands. An illegal alien can bribe his way through for an average of about $1500.00 a head.

Benjamin Franklin Said: One of the most outstanding documents in American history is what is known as the Pinckney Papers. Some years ago there existed in the Franklin Museum in Philadelphia certain segments of the Pinckney Papers which carried a sensational quotation by Benjamin Franklin. At that time Mrs. Edward R. Dingley of Washington, D.C., was a young girl and her mother ordered her to copy Franklin's statement which since that time has been stolen out of the Museum. Here is what Mrs. Dingley copied: "In whatever country Jews have settled in any great numbers, they have lowered its moral tone, depreciated its commercial integrity, have segregated themselves and have not been assimilated, have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion, have built up a state within a state, and have, when opposed, tried to strangle that country to death financially. If you do not exclude them from the United States in the Constitution, in less than 200 years they will have swarmed in in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land and change our form of government. If you do not exclude them, in less than 200 years our descendants will be working in the fields to furnish the substance while they will be in the counting house rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews for all time, your children will curse you in your graves. Jews, gentlemen, are Asiatics; they will never be otherwise."

Jerusalem Menaced: Even according to the United Nations agreement, Jerusalem is supposed to remain an international city. The Jew Zionists are in a campaign to capture Jerusalem. They are opposed by the Catholic Church and large numbers of Protestant denominations. Christian opposition is weak, however, because many priests and preachers are so cowardly when it comes to criticizing Jews that they are afraid to speak out against this conspiracy to profane the shrines of Christianity. If the Jew-Zionists are allowed to get by with this devilish trick, they will destroy the shrines of Christianity and they will profane the altars which have been visited by millions of Christians in 11 of whom have deplored the circulation of this vile, un-

15 professional bigot and a supporter of such professional

16 hate-mongers as Gerald E. K. Smith and Robert H. Best

17 (who was convicted of treason against the United States 18 for aiding the nazi cause), who has demonstrated his

19 strong affinity for numerous anti-Catholic and anti-

20 Negro peddlers of prejudice; and

21 Whereas, Then-Senator Christopher H. Phillips; a

32 local police to investigate the periodical, which the 33 Veterans of Foreign Wars has said "calls itself anti-34 communist, but actually is opposed to most minority 35 groups"; and
36 Whereas, George E. Sokolsky, columnist of the Hearst 37 press, in branding the publication as un-American, 38 stated that McGinley "by his emphasis on racial and 39 religious hatred, paves the way for precisely the evils 40 which he claims to oppose"; and

46 Whereas, The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith 47 has exposed "Common Sense", and the fact that it is 48 frequently quoted by most of the hate press of the 49 nation; and

50 Whereas, An investigation by the United States post
51 office officials of the mailing privileges was urged on 52 the floor of the legislature of the state of Maine by 53 Representative David Fuller, prominent church man
54 and head of the Americanism committee of American 55 Legion; and similar action was urged on the floor of 56 the Massachusetts general court by Representative
57 Belden Bly, who has called the publication "anti-Ameri-
58 can propaganda published under the guise of anti-com-

59 munism"; and
60 Whereas, "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" 61 has been exposed time and time again as a forged and 62 fraudulent document by many qualified sources. All
63 human relations agencies report that this document, 64 which has been reprinted by "Common Sense" has been 65 a staple in the hatemongers' propaganda arsenal since 66 the turn of the century. It has been translated into 67 every European tongue, Arabic and Japanese, and has 68 been exploited, with consistent regularity, at almost 69 every political crisis. The nazis under Hitler used it as 70 a background for their attacks on Jews in Germany 71 and more recently the communists launched their anti-72 Jewish campaign in the iron curtain countries after 73 repeating the same false canards from the fraudulent 74 protocols; and

76 of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Planta-

78 first enunciated on these shores by its founder, Roger 79 Williams, and ever mindful of the inscription on the 80 very front of our state capitol, which reads "To hold 81 forth a lively experiment that a most flourishing civil 82 state may stand and best be maintained with full liberty
83 in religious concerns"; feel constrained to give ex-

NOTE: The American Jewish Congress has been subject of an intensive Bureau investigation, and numerous chapters of it are reported Communist dominated. The California Senate Committee on Un-American Activities has cited it as containing, in some sections, of Jews who have followed the Communist Party line. (100-120277) None in absence reply is, therefore, deemed advisable.

"Common Sense" is violently anti-Semitic and a number of complaints have been received concerning its distribution. It has not been investigated by the Bureau, but a summary of its background was furnished the Justice Department on 1-20-51 and again on 1-10-52 upon the request of the Deputy Attorney General. Dear Mr. Lazar:

I refer to your letter dated May 19, 2001 to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, requesting the release of certain material under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5 USC Section 552). Four of the relevant documents retrieved in response to your request originated with the Department of State (or contained Department of State information) and were therefore referred to us for appropriate action.

We have determined that all four documents may be released without excisions on our part.

Please note that the FBI has deleted material under several subsections of the Freedom of Information Act.

- It has deleted material it believes is related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency. As such, it is exempt from release under subsection (b)(2).
- It has deleted its marginalia under subsection (b)(7)(C). That provision exempts from release records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes which, if released, could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
- It has deleted its marginalia under subsection (b)(7)(D). That provision exempts from release records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes which, if released, could disclose the identity of a confidential source and information furnished by a confidential source.

If you wish to appeal those particular deletions, please write within 60 days to the Co-Director, Office of Information and Privacy, United States Department of American Anti-Semitic Publication addressed to a Berlin Returnee.

Two copies of the attached anti-semitic leaflet "The Coming Red Dictatorship" published by "Common Sense, the Nation's Anti-Communist paper, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, N.J." was mailed from Washington, D. C., to Herr Erich Mach, a professional youth worker employed by the Berlin headquarters of the Youth Office of the Evangelical Church. There was no indication as to the identity of the sender. An attached typewritten note on a filing card (the original is enclosed) voices similar anti-semitic statements in the German language (some words are misspelled). The translation below shows that its sentiments are not only anti-semitic, but also anti-democratic party, anti-Eisenhower and especially anti-U.S.A.

To our knowledge this is the first case in which anti-semitic literature has been sent to a former exchangee in Berlin. We are asking the Office of the Cultural Attache in Mehlem to find out whether other Cultural Officers in the field have heard of similar cases, in the belief that any such anti-semitic approach of German exchangees should be watched and guarded against from the beginning as it is bound to make a very bad impression in Germany. It should be noted that the writer of the note expresses very strong anti-American tendencies, stating that "the main goal of Russia as well as America (under the present Jewish guidance) is to keep Germany as small as possible. . . . If Germany wants to reunite and become a strong power again, it will have to do it alone and must not count upon the assistance of America."

Translation of the typed message: "Gradually people realize that the last war which resulted in the victory of Communism was an insidious pact between the Jews in the Federal Government and the Jews in the Soviet Government. Unfortunately the "democratic" party is still very strong and the power of the Jews in this country is just as great as in Russia. Eisenhower (sic) himself was the military right hand of Roosevelt and was promoted to the post of the top General by Roosevelt himself. He hates Germany. The main goal of Russia as well as America (under the present Jewish leadership) is to keep Germany as small as possible. It is very unlikely that the situation of Jewish supremacy in this country will change. They control radio, press, money and presidents. However, there are also very strong anti-Jewish elements, see this newspaper. Russia and America will postpone the re-unification of Germany as long as possible; see Berlin conferences. If Germany wants to reunite and become a strong power again she will have to do it alone and must not count on the assistance of America."

ATOMIC GIFT TO UN A DEATH STROKE TO OUR UNITED STATES -

DAILY WORKER LAUDS TELFORD TAYLOR

By EUSTACE MULLINS

The Sunday edition of the Communist Daily Worker on December 6, 1953, printed a feature article of fulsome praise of General Telford Taylor. General Taylor's speech at West Point denounced Senator McCarthy's exposure of Communist traitors. Naturally the Communist Daily Worker praised Taylor as a "genuine anti-fascist". The Daily Worker devotes at least half of each issue to denouncing Senator McCarthy. General Taylor denounces Senator McCarthy. Then the Daily Worker praises McCarthy, who has many times before received the wholehearted gratitude of the Communists. Then, whose side is General Taylor on? Why is he allowed to wear the United States Army uniform when he attacks American ideals and American patriots?

More important, this diatribe against the anti-Communist work of Senator McCarthy was delivered at West Point to the future officers of the United States Army. Why was this hero of the Communist Daily Worker, General Telford Taylor, invited to express his anti-American views to impressionable young Americans who will be in charge of our national security in a few years? In all fairness, the Administration at West Point should invite Senator Joseph McCarthy to come there and defend himself against this Communist-type smear, at which his enemies have proven themselves so adept. The American way is open debate on public issues, not this stabbing in the back, this Marxist treachery. Let Senator McCarthy explain to our young cadets why he has fought Communists in government.

Who is this General Telford Taylor? He is a partner in the multi-millionaire Wall Street law firm of Wells, Paul, and Rifkind, one of the richest corporation law firms in America, handling business for such families as the Guggenheims. But Taylor is a nice, clean-looking American type, like Alger Hiss. What is he doing in this Jewish law firm?

The answer is that Taylor is the Gentile out in front, to serve as a convenient mask for Jewish machinations. Judge Samuel Rifkind, Taylor's law partner, served as Special Assistant on Jewish Affairs with General Eisenhower in London during the Second World War. Rifkind was one of the horde of Jews surrounding Eisenhower during this critical period in American history. This is sufficient explanation of the fact that the Jewish Gestapo, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, started the ball rolling for Eisenhower's Presidential campaign.

This article deals with President Eisenhower's speech to the United Nations on Tuesday, December 8, 1953.

When it was first announced that the Big Three meeting would be held in Bermuda, papers stated that Bernard Baruch would accompany President Eisenhower. As we understand it, there was some criticism, and at this time we do not know if Baruch was in actual attendance, but it is generally known that Winston Churchill takes his orders from Baruch and certainly Lewis L. Strauss head of the Atomic Energy Commission is Baruch's man and part of the Invisible Government.

John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, as well as his brother, Allan Dulles, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, is a Gentile front or stooge for the Invisible Government. Dulles is more cunning, therefore more dangerous than Dean Acheson. Dulles, Strauss and Churchill were with Eisenhower and no doubt later it will be learned that the Invisible Government was represented by other sinister figures at this conference.

During Eisenhower's campaign for election during October 1952, he stated in a speech in California "for many years I have sat at the feet of Bernard Baruch, and listened to his words of wisdom" and there is no question but that he is still listening to these same words of wisdom that have been given to our Presidents starting with Woodrow Wilson and which resulted in two and a half wars, millions of American casualties, and an increased National debt from one billion dollars when Woodrow Wilson was elected to the present two hundred thirty billion dollars. These "words of wisdom" started flowing at a time that our country was really America and we had no fear. These "words of wisdom" have caused this country to start on a crusade to regulate the world. Today our boys are stationed in fifty countries, any one of which could be a powder keg. Thousands of others of our boys have been shot with their hands tied, burned alive, or are prisoners of Communists in Siberia.

When Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill, at the direction of Baruch, had conferences before and during the last world war, those of us who are informed knew that world-shaking events were about to take place. At one conference Churchill persuaded F. D. R. to force the Japs to attack us at Pearl Harbor at which time 3,000 of our boys were killed and we were in open war. Eisenhower has taken F. D. R.'s place and conferred with Churchill and announced from Bermuda that he would fly directly to the United Nations and deliver this speech.

For some time the United World Federalists and other World Government propagandists have been using the atomic bomb scare to drive fear into the people so that they would surrender to the

MY EXPERIENCE AT SCOTLAND YARD

From Basil Thomson's: "MY EXPERIENCES AT SCOTLAND YARD. Pp. 319-20: Garden City, N. Y., 1922.

Some months before the Bolsheviks came into power a curious document which has since received much attention in England was brought to the notice of the State Department in Washington. THE PROTOCOLS OF THE WISE MEN OF ZION, first published in Russian in 1897 by a Russian named Nilus, purported to set forth the details of a secret Jewish conspiracy for the domination of the world. A committee of Americans were preparing a report upon the document, and I was asked unofficially to give my opinion upon its authenticity. Besides the internal evidence there was very little to go upon, but I reported that the "protocols" were almost certainly fabricated by some anti-Semitic organization, and I heard afterwards that the American Committee had reported in the same sense.

It was quite natural that when the Bolsheviks came into power and it was seen that nearly all the people's commissaries were Jews, so obvious a fulfillment of the Protocols should not pass unnoticed. It was useless to point out that, protocols or no protocols, it was inevitable in a country like Russia, when the drag of the population had boiled up to the top, a preponderance of Jews would be found among the scum: people would have it that the first art of this sinister program had been realized, and that worse was still to come. No doubt, the famous PROTOCOLS did faithfully reflect the kind of talk that has been current among fanatically Nationalist Jews among themselves for more than a century.

How the Russians themselves regard their Jewish masters is shown of a popular story now current in Russia. At a Soviet meeting the list of elected delegates was read over. The secretary came to the name "Ivan Ivanovitch Petroff". "But what's his real name?" asked a delegate. "Ivan Ivanovitch Petroff. He has no other name."

"Bah!" said the Jewish delegate, "these Russians will push in everywhere."

rule of World Government by Jews rather than be burned to cinders, as they put it. This has been to prepare the people for just such an announcement as Eisenhower has made.

These Zionist Marxist Jews realize the people have become conscious of the fact that the whole Marxist plan is Jewish. They fear the consequences and are pushing us into war with the Russian people (not Communism) or trying to scare us into accepting World Government in order to save themselves.

The Zloph, Treteky, Fourth International Jews were behind Berlin to overthrow Malschew and take over the Stalin Communists. David Dubinsky, with the aid of the Central Intelligence Agency, was behind the strikes and uprisings in East Germany. When this uprising failed and Berlin and many of his men were arrested or killed, the Trotskyite Jews in the United States increased their efforts to get complete control of all atomic power in the world. Berlin had charge of the atomic program in the Soviet Union; Lewis L. Strauss has control of the Atomic Energy Commission (atomic bombs) in the United States; and Rear Admiral Hyman G. Rickover has recently been appointed by Eisenhower to control peace-time atomic energy. Bernard Baruch directs the overall atomic energy program.

Contemplate the powerful positions held by these three Jews. The plan is to put the entire world atomic bomb project into the hands of the Jews under the front of the United Nations.

Soon after the atom bomb is handed over to the Jewish-controlled U. N. all Federal, State, County and City Police along with the National Guard will be replaced with a World Government Police Force and we will wake up under World Government without a struggle. We understand the governing police forces for World Government in each country will be of a different nationality.

Read carefully the highlights in Eisenhower's speech and you will see how ridiculous and impossible a program this is. It is a sugar-coated speech designed to slip this over on our good people. If we are willing to live under this kind of government, let us keep quiet and not protest and go along as sheep to the slaughter.

If you want to be a big help in the fight to save your country and to preserve your own liberty and freedom, your best bet at this critical moment is to get on the job and help to boost the circulation of Common Sense up to a million copies. When the Americans are correctly and completely informed on any subject they will always do the right thing at the right time. Circulation of a million copies now will win YOUR fight for YOU. So take off your coat and go to work. MORE distribution and MORE subscriptions in your community may be the "straw that breaks the camel's back". YOU owe this cooperation to YOURSELF and to YOUR CHILDREN. They did not ask to come into this world. You brought them into it. It is your DUTY TO THEM to do your best to keep the world a fit place to live in. But enough Americans are not yet aware of the conspiracy or the conspirators. Until and unless EVERY American knows the "score" this nation is in grave danger of defeat and destruction by the enemy.

EINSTEIN MYTH MATH WIZARDS ARE BUGGY

By CUTHBERT RITTENHOUSE

The Reds brought Albert Einstein over from Germany. He is a Talmud Jew. He is supposed to be a wizard in math. His reputation by propaganda has been built up until most people think that he is the wisest man of our times. The alpha and omega of knowledge.

He is a Zionist. He gets by with murder and treason because propaganda has made him a "super-Solomon." I do not know what he is in math but I know he is a super fool in government and a plu-perfect ass in all that pertains to political science and social relations. The many antics he indulges in shows it. He spouts treason as glibly as a duck quacks, but all wizards in math have been buggy. They know only math and in everything else they are wacky. This is true since the world began. The math wizards in some sections were illiterate.

You can take a peek at these math prodigies outside of Albert, the wacky Thomas Fuller, born in Africa in 1710. He was kidnapped at the age of 14 and sold to a Virginia planter. He couldn't read nor write. He became known as the Virginia Calculator. At 20, he was asked "How many seconds in a year and a half?" In two seconds he replied "47,304,000." All through his life in matters of seconds and minutes he could answer questions like this "How many seconds has a man lived who is 70 years, 17 days and 12 hours old?" He had the power from a child until 80, when he died, but he never could learn to read or write and was pretty much of a fool. He was black.

There was Jeremiah Burton, a white man, born in Elinton, Derbyshire, England, in 1702. He could in a few seconds, tell how many barley, corn, peas, wheat, oats, rye, beans would fill a space 202,680,260 cubic miles and questions of a similar nature. In 1754 he was presented to the Royal Society of London and passed an astounding examination. He could do the impossible in math. He was a moron. His intelligence in everything except math could never rise above a child of 10. He couldn't make a living.

There was Zerah Colburn of Vermont, Truman Henry Gafford and many more. Now, there is Albert Einstein. Fools all in every field but math. The reputation of Einstein outside of math is purely phony. It is maintained by the Reds. The world wouldn't lose anything if he received the same medical treatment which the Rosenbergs received.

Every wife, perhaps, has said to her husband many times: "If it had been a snake it would have bitten you," when he has yelped at her for his socks, his tie or something else which was right before him.

It would seem in the last three decades that the American people have fallen prey to such a mass hallucination. They can't see the failures of Socialism, New Dealism, progressive education and all the fool tommyrot which the leftists have dug up from the graves of the past. A negative hallucination against all that made the United States great. Maybe we are showing some signs of recovery, but its slight.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL FLAG

By Mrs. M. Conan

The most beautiful flag to me,
In all the world — on land or sea,
Is my own, the red, white and blue,
With the stripes running through.

Though we search the world round,
No more beautiful flag can be found,
And only a fool would trade,
After the price we paid!

I think of those men so brave,
Sleeping now in a soldier's grave,
And I see the tears their women shed,
When I gaze on these bars of red.

The white stripes stand, I know,
For National Integrity, pure as snow;
While each star seems to shine
With sweet peace for me and mine.

In that field of navy blue,
Oh, my flag, so beautiful, so true,
Were it not for you we could not share,
Glorious freedom in this land so fair.

What an ungrateful coward I would be,
Did I not prize my costly liberty,
Or love my flag the more,
Because it was birthed in human gore.

So, now let us pledge ourselves anew,
To the most beautiful flag the world ever knew,
And to the Republic for which it stands,
May it never be wrested from our loving hands!

Shall we trade our beautiful flag which was paid for with the lives of our noble forefathers, for a dirty old UN rag. Not if I can prevent it, we won't!

Other Jews with Eisenhower in London were John Schiff, his naval attaché, grandson of the financier of the Russian Revolution, Jacob Schiff, and a partner of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.; Edward M. M. Warburg, who served as Eisenhower's Special Adviser on Political Affairs; James Paul Warburg, head of the London Office of War Information; Harry Dexter White, the Jew Communist traitor who advised Eisenhower on the Morgenthau Plan to starve the German people and render them helpless before the Communist hordes of Russia (yet Eisenhower says he never heard of White).

When it came time to prosecute the legal heads of the German Government for taking away some of the enormous wealth of the Jews, Judge Samuel Rifkind would have been the logical prosecutor. Yet he chose to put the Gentile out in front, General Telford Taylor, his law partner. Taylor served as Chief Allied Prosecutor at the criminal Nuremberg Trials which have been denounced by leading jurists all over the world as a mockery of justice and a flouting of international law.

The Nuremberg Trials was an excellent exhibition of Communist justice, characterized by forced confessions obtained by torture, falsified evidence, and perjured witnesses. They were run exactly like the famous Soviet Purge Trials of 1937-38. And who was in charge of this Soviet justice? General Telford Taylor. No wonder he is the hero of the Daily Worker! No wonder he is the patron saint of American Communists in uniform.

At the same time that the Communist Daily Worker was fulsomely praising General Telford Taylor Senator Joseph McCarthy was holding a press conference at which he exhibited a copy of Taylor's Civil Service form. That form showed a check in the "flag" square, and carried a notation "unresolved question of loyalty." (Newark Star-Ledger, December 6, 1953). The employee who obtained that evidence for McCarthy was fired from the service of the government for exposing Communism.

Millions of residents in New York City did not receive this information because the newspaper unions called a strike at the very moment when Congress was holding hearings on the slaughter of American boys by Communist butchers in Korea. Was not this a strange time for a newspaper strike to be called? Congress or the Supreme Court are not able to stop the publication of these papers and interfere with the freedom of the press, but some mysterious power behind these unions was able to accomplish what Congress and the Supreme Court could not do. This is rehearsal for the big strike when all newspapers will cease publication, when there will be no electric light, telephone service, transportation, and confusion will reign. By this well-timed strike New York residents would have no chance to be horrified and angered by the story of how the murderers of the Kremlin tied the hands of our American boys behind their backs, shot them in the head or made human bonfires out of them. Nor would they be informed of General Telford Taylor's sorry pro-Soviet record. All in all, it was a good chance to conceal the Communist crimes, while the Communist Daily Worker, UNAFFECTED BY THE STRIKE, went merrily on printing its vicious anti-American propaganda.

UNCONDITIONAL HATRED

By CAPTAIN RUSSELL GRENFELL
(Reviewed by Marilyn Allen)

If you wish to have a preview of what will eventuate from all the "foreign entanglements," pacts, agreements, covenants, conventions, etc., in which America's false leaders have involved her with the UN, NATO, with Europe, in the Pacific and all over the world, read the new book, "UNCONDITIONAL HATRED," by Captain Russell Grenfell, who served in the British Royal Navy for thirty years. This book is a fair, dispassionate analysis of the subject matter, with the British flair for understatement.

This honest Englishman really HATES WAR and desires "peace for as long as possible," even while admitting the inevitability of war so long as human nature remains what it is. He inveighs against the hypocrites (in all countries) who drag their peoples into war. As he says, it is NOT the nations or peoples who want war, but only a few individuals who, in their lust for power or other ulterior motives, drag the innocent into these senseless wars. If the people were more alert and understood these things, they could better judge, evaluate, and STOP their war-making lards.

Captain Grenfell delineates how war-mongering "Sir" Winston Churchill maneuvered and manipulated with our hypocrite, FDR, to bring the U. S. into World War II—while Mr. Roosevelt was assuring our mothers that their sons would not have to go to war. These two old war lards were inflexibly determined that Germany and her regime should be utterly exterminated—including her women and children by savage, ruthless bombing (and incidentally Britain practiced this sort of bombing on German civilians BEFORE Germany retaliated with similar bombings on London). Captain Grenfell quotes this scorching old war-horse, Churchill, speaking to Parliament on September 21st, 1943: "The twin roots of all our evils, Nazi tyranny and Prussian militarism, must be extirpated. Until this is achieved, there are no sacrifices we will not make and NO LENGTHS IN VIOLENCE to which we will not go." (Which statement as to the root of all evil was, of course, a figment of the imagination!) So-o-o war-monger, FDR (who ordered a million casquets for our boys, while publicly saying they would not be sent to foreign war) coined his vicious phrase, "Unconditional Surrender," with the hope of utterly annihilating the Germans—even as they sued for peace: just as we did similarly in Hiroshima. Both of these infamous politicians (who fancied themselves as great military strategists—which Captain Grenfell says they were not) were so dumb or else so purposely conniving that they shut their eyes to the threat of Communism-Bolshevism-Sovietism (of which there was already plenty of evidence): they refused to see or comprehend the vacuum they would thus intentionally create in Europe through the destruction of the ONLY fine fighting machine against the evil of Marxism-Bolshevism—Germany. Rather, each in his own country, took control of the Press and set the flame of UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER HATRED burning against Germany (which certain American commentators and newspapers keep fanning briskly to this day) with all sorts of contorted lies and false charges against her. Lord Vansittart in England together with his henchmen coined a slanderous epithet against Germany: "Butcher-bird," (meaning that she started all the wars), while FDR and his henchmen sought to blacken their record in America.

Even after Yalta, superannuated Mr. Churchill brusquely disposed of Parliamentary criticism by saying that the Soviet leaders were "honourable and trustworthy men" and that he "declined absolutely to embark here on a discussion about Russian good faith." (From London Times, Feb. 28, 1945). He told the House of Commons that, "The impression I brought back from the Crimea and from all other contacts is Marshal Stalin and the Soviet leaders wish to live in honourable friendship and equality with the western democracies. I KNOW OF NO GOVERNMENT WHICH STANDS TO ITS OBLIGATIONS EVEN IN ITS OWN DESPITE MORE SOLIDLY THAN THE RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT." Inasmuch as the Soviets were and are notorious for NEVER having honored their agreements or undertakings with the Western Nations, it is amazing how the astute Mr. Churchill arrived at this completely false conclusion. It is most peculiar that doddering Mr. Churchill should not have had access to information disproving this theory (just as some of the rest of us did), especially when, soon after World War I, British and American troops were endeavoring to put DOWN the Bolshevik-engineered revolution in Russia. There's no other answer, but that such men are dumb for a price!

With amazing candor and honesty, Captain Grenfell proceeds to show that anything which Germany may have done under provocation, has only been exceeded in violence and ferocity and torture by Britain and America, not only against Germany, but others as well. He documents the war-making score from 1815 to the year 1907, by the nations named, as follows:

Britain	10
Russia	7
France	5
Prussia-Germany	3

Captain Grenfell documents these endless wars in Europe, (and gives his reference works), showing how today's "friend" or ally is tomorrow's enemy, for greed and profit and ulterior motives. He proves how endless, malicious lies and propaganda have been circulated about Germany, falsely accusing her of being the "Butcher-bird" of Europe, even though Britain, France and Russia, as shown by the record, were more truly war-mongering than Germany. Other less virile and less intelligent peoples have always been jealous of the Germans. Virtually all this sort of lying propaganda emanates from the same International cabal, whether in Britain or America—merely because Hitler's Germany sought to throw off the Marxist yoke of slavery. Captain Grenfell claims that many thousands of innocent young Britishers have been uselessly slaughtered—just as have American youth. Why don't the fathers and mothers of these innocent massacred young men WAKE UP, and go after the REAL war criminals?

If it were not so tragic, it would be humorous the way the ignorant idolize and lionize these two "butcher-birds," Churchill and FDR, who caused so much death, destruction and torture of human beings. Willy old Churchill never did save US (nor his own people) FROM anything, because the true record proves that Hitler never intended to invade either Britain or America; in fact, he HELD BACK the victorious German Army from invading Britain, when France fell. All Churchill has ever done is to involve US in the catastrophes which he first created, through his own stupidity and serving of alien interests. You can't consort with Machiavellians without some of the pitch rubbing off onto you. This old discredited "butcher-bird" now turns and twists every which way to involve US AGAIN in one of those disastrous International Conferences with the Bolshevik Russians, because he thinks Britain will gain (and he himself will wear a halo as a "peace-maker") while WE pay the bills, as usual, and lose our shirt.

Because of his candor in writing this documented book against war and war-making politicians who knew nothing, actually, of the correct arts and strategy of war, Captain Grenfell was compelled to have his book published in America. Even then, he has not dared to expose the true war-making criminals or the International Conspiracy which seeks the destruction of the White Christian Race in every country, and pits them against each other.

Any decent, honest American who loves his own Country should read this book and WEEP that we have permitted our so-called leaders and internationalists to take America down this same road to hell; paved with smooth slogans, false propaganda, and half-truths which "tickle the ears" and deceive the minds of the unsuspecting and uninformed. America will continue to be bled of men and money and her natural resources so long as she follows this chimera of Foreignism, as represented by the International Interventionists, the false Liberals, the UN, NATO, the World Federalists, Union Now, and all the other One Worlders—who care nothing for America's welfare or interests, and who would destroy the CONSTITUTION, and thereby the very soul and Freedom of Americans.

Actually, anarchy, lawlessness, and every manner of horrible crime runs riot and rampant in America today. Women and children are no longer safe in their homes, their schools, or on the streets: our youngsters are criminals and dope addicts. Yet WE disperse our young men all over the globe, for the purpose of fighting wars for others: meddling with the governments of other nations, and presumably teaching THEM how to live, so as to prevent them from minding their own business—just as WE should be minding ours. We are infested with Crime, Communism and Corruption here at home. Why not concentrate on our OWN evils, for a change, and eradicate them, rather than encouraging this abomination of international meddling on a global scale? Through these senseless and worse than useless wars, we have not yet attained a single desirable objective. Are we Americans crazy, or just dumb beyond all imagination?

And that nice fire-breathing Communist, Comrade Tito of Yugoslavia, now threatens war with Italy over Trieste (perhaps sparking another worldwide conflict, such as jet bombers and stuff? None other than the good old war-mongering and meddling USA, who always believes in helping

Bernard M. Baruch, Louis L. Strauss and C. D. Jackson, three prominent members of the Invisible Government, after spending three weeks preparing President Eisenhower's Big Three talk sent Ike off to Bermuda. And since a Charlie McCarthy without an Edgar Bergen would have little results, Louis L. Strauss accompanied Ike to Bermuda where the Baruch, Strauss, Jackson plans were approved by England (the benefactor of Communist countries) and bankrupt France. After deciding what was to be done with the world Strauss and his mouthpiece flew to New York to tell the word before the UN what World Jewry had decided. The result is that we are to give our atomic works to the United Nations which is controlled by World Jewry and Communism. Eisenhower is not a dupe or dope for he represents the Invisible Government too often not to know what the motives and plans are he is representing. One of his last appearances was before the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith in Washington where he told the Learned Elders of Zion that he never knew how efficient his White House staff was until he was preparing for that talk. He stated that they briefed, briefed, and briefed him.

Hundreds of American boys have been abandoned in the miserable slave camps of China and Russia for the sake of a trumped-up political truce and nobody but the mothers and fathers are concerned... The "Jewish" organizations and institutions such as the Yeshiva University honors Anna M. Rosenberg, Harry Truman, Adlai Stevenson, and the like, but notice who they fight, McCarthy, McCarran, Jenner, Velde, and all patriots who are giving America healthy legislation... After many years of concealment news is breaking through the Iron Curtain of secrecy of what the "Jew"-infested State Department in Germany is doing to enhance the success of Communism. Appeals Judge William Clark, who has been fired by the State Department, gave the McCarthy Committee 125 names of Communists who have been working for the High Commissioner of Germany since General Lucius Clay became the first Commissioner of Germany. Further, Judge Clark's fight against the State Department brings out the news of orders for nonprosecution of Communist spies.

FROM BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN: Average day's pay for a peasant is a half loaf of bread and half-pound of potatoes, or bowl of soup. Nothing to take home to the family. People must rob to survive. Heavy penalty for crime of robbing food. Thousands die every day of famine... Many hundreds killed every day fighting for and against Communism. Isolated cases of "Jews" being killed by peasants and not getting caught. Every automobile is a temptation for the starved peasantry to attack, for only "Jews" own automobiles in the Soviet Union... Mountains of the Soviet Union contain thousands of run-away Russians who are thoroughly checked by guerrilla officers. Three big leaders command the vast army of anti Communists, Mr. Taras, Mr. Tehan, and the Black Cat. These three guerrilla commanders direct operations of their army from secret hideouts, and no one who is not thoroughly trusted knows even the vicinity of their headquarters. It has been estimated in 1947 that the Black Cat alone has over 70,000 men in the Ural's and Caucasian Mountains. The mountains in the Soviet Union are so dense that all the Communist armies combined could not penetrate them... Immigration out of Germany to the United States is majority "Jewish".

Communists, building them UP, and THEN fighting them — just as we did China. Yugoslavia shot down our fliers in cold blood—remember? And even now the Yugoslavs riot against us and beat up our nationals, and our newspaper headlines (10-12-53): "U. S. Warships Steam to Trieste Harbor," while "Yugoslavia Threatens Invasion of Zone A." Does anybody know which side we are on?

As Captain Grenfell rightly said, no nation (in its right mind) fights a war unless for ITS OWN VITAL INTERESTS and that of its people: it has no right to fight for "abstract things" or slogans or ideals impossible of realization. He speaks of the "splendid isolation" of America — which we obviously have not the sense to utilize or appreciate. The narrow English Channel has always protected England from invasion, he says, while we have 3,000 miles of ocean protecting us; yet the Americans are the most scared of being "attacked." Well, it serves us right if we are; if we had minded our own business and kept our fighting men at home, and built up a huge, impregnable AIR FORCE with all the billions we have squandered abroad, we would not now be sweating it out. Nobody would have dared to attack us. BUT — the "former strong American instinct for the strict avoidance of foreign entanglements" seems to have given place to the almost opposite urge for the United States to push its way into any outside trouble wherever in the world it may occur. Thus, although American troops are garrisoning Europe, and campaigning in Korea, there seems to be an anxiety in American governmental quarters for them to be fighting in Indo-China and Malaya as well. But it is hard to see what vital American interests require such action in the latter areas; or, for that matter, in Korea either." Is it tragic beyond words that America seems to have NO STATESMEN of clear vision to thus dispassionately analyze and assess these things with candor and courage, IN HER OWN INTERESTS — and thus help to "preserve, protect and defend the American CONSTITUTION," as well as the priceless lives of our youth?

The United States now has soldiers in fifty countries.

TO THE U S CONGRESS

Congress of the United States,
The House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressmen:

May we call to your attention one more evidence of the Jewish power which has received very little notice in the press or over the air.

It concerns the demand made by the Zionist State of Israel for $300,000,000 to be paid to it by West Germany as compensation for the alleged crimes committed against Jews under the Hitler regime.

Several points should not be overlooked: Regardless of the fact that there never were, at any time, six million Jews in or around Germany), notwithstanding the absurdly exaggerated numbers of so-called atrocities claimed by Jewish leaders how can the State of Israel claim the compensation from West Germany? Secondly, the Jewish population in Palestine under the Israel State is not made up of German Jews, in whose favor the claim is made but is a heteroclit and mongrel amalgamation of nondescript beings gathered from all corners of the earth.

How can it be claimed that Germany has any debt toward them or owes them reparations? . . . And is it to satisfy this false claim that the German people are being bled white . . . and with the sanction of the U. S. Government and former allies?

But in addition to this outrageous situation, there is yet another important consideration. Does the Zionist State of Israel claim anything from the population of East Germany as compensation for the murder of those six million Jews who never existed? If guilt is to be admitted, are only the Germans of West Germany to be held responsible? Were not the East Germans members of the Hitler regime? Were there two Nazi armies . . . one trained for persecution and hatred of the Jews, the other trained to love and respect the same Jews?

Then what is the difference between the East and west German people? . . . There is no difference in the national origin, none in the language, none in the climate or the dress. There is ONE difference, one . . . that is all, just one! OF COURSE COMMUNISM IS THE DIFFERENCE! West Germany does not have a Communist Government and therein lies the sole reason why West Germany must pay reparations to the Zionist State of Israel!

Let us assume Communism did not control EITHER of the two halves of Germany . . . by what stretch of imagination and by what degenerated mental process could Israel Zionist claim reparation from the East? Assuredly, reparations to the State of Israel would be demanded of ALL Germany!

How glorious must be the Communist State of East Germany (in the eyes of the Zionist State of Israel). Just think, for East Germany—no criticism, no animosity, no reparations! The Jews and the Germans surely love one another and all is forgiven . . . provided the Germans are saddled with Communism!

Is it not reasonable and logical to assume that what is asked from the Bonn Government of Adenauer should be requested from the Soviet Administration ruling East Germany? Why the difference in the treatment of German Nazis by the erstwhile Allies?

Who in the American Government ever condoned and still condones such a wicked and anomalous situation?

If ever evidence was required to show the "national tie" linking Zionism of the State of Israel and Communism of Soviet Russia, the existing policy of "reparations" being collected from West Germany only clearly demonstrates the inevitable conclusion, namely: very little difference between Zionism and Communism.

If any one can explain this situation, as well as the U. S. State Department's hand in this intolerable state of affairs, we will be grateful for any clarification that can be offered!

Sincerely,

CHARLES J. SCHREIBER, Director,
CHRISTIAN PATRIOTIC RALLY,
Reseda, California

U. S. MAJOR REPORTS FROM SIBERIA

U. S. Major M. Schuyler made a report on Jewry's connection with organized revolutionists, subsequent to his return from the American Expedition to Siberia in 1920. A. S. Leese's "Bolshevism Is Jewish, on page 7, quotes the Major as follows:

"The government of Russia is almost entirely Jewish, and our United States Army in Siberia was full of Bolshevik Jews straight from Moscow. They had entered the United States and enlisted in the U. S. Army going to Siberia. General Graves, the commander, had a staff that was almost entirely Jewish. Owing to the Bolshevik Jews in our army, all the information that should have reached Kolchak went straight to Moscow.

THERE IS A NEW PLAN

There's a new PLAN to HARNESS McCarthy, gently persuading him to investigate thoroughly, but to hold his fire until the case is tied up. Also to lay off Republicans, attack only Democrats. Top Republican leaders talking to him — very timidly. He hasn't said yes.

That's not the American way of doing things, and we'll bet that

Also, to provide the way for mass destruction of our people by means of turning in a lethal amount of the poisonous sodium fluoride by tampering with the machine.

7. United Nations—which deceived the people with promises of world harmony but is actually carrying on war under its own flag. Both Generals MacArthur and Ridgeway were forbidden to end the war. Would also destroy our national sovereignty by bringing our government under dictation by other nations.

8. State Socialism—to destroy freedom of choice by building up ever more and more power in the government.

9. Continued war to build up militarism and imperialism, destroying lives in mass numbers and debauching morality.

All these are part of the intention to destroy the freedoms guaranteed to us by our Federal Constitution and establish totalitarianism — the aim of the Marxists.

COMMUNISM HITS SOUTH WITH NON-SEGREGATION

Jewish Marxists Threaten Negro Revolt In America! Communists Plan Black Republic In South

By EUSTACE MULLINS

(Readers of Common Sense will be shocked to learn that the recent decision of the Supreme Court outlawing segregation in schools actually carried out a 1921 Resolution of the Communist International! Mr. Mullins spent weeks tracing the sinister origin of this un-American decision.)

Although millions of American citizens were stunned by the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States that segregation in public schools must be ended, few realized that this decision was the culmination of a vicious campaign to destroy American liberties. This campaign had its origin in a 1921 directive of the Communist International written by the Soviet Chief of Propaganda, Karl Radek, the alias of a Jewish revolutionary named Sobelsohn.

The Radek directive gave explicit orders to the Communist Party of America to stir up racial strife between white and black American citizens, to force the two groups together in order to create race riots, and to carry on relentless agitation for "Negro rights".

This directive was read at the Bridgman Michigan convention of the Communist Party of America on August 20, 1922. It laid down the basis for "civil rights" agitation and step by step outlined the methods which have been used since that date by the American Jewish Congress and its subsidiary, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Two days later, on August 22, 1922, the Bridgman Convention was raided by government agents and the Radek directive as well as hundreds of other Communist documents were seized. These documents are in the files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation today, but J. Edgar Hoover is under strict orders not to reveal the Radek directive at any cost, because it would brand the Supreme Court as a front or agent of the Communist International.

One of the great authorities on Communist infiltration, R. M. Whitney, wrote in his definitive work "Reds In America", published in 1924 by the Beckwith Press, on page 189.

"The Communists' earliest program in the United States included the use of the negro masses in its campaign to bring about the overthrow of the Government of this country by violence."

At the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International held in Moscow in 1928, the slogan for America "Self-Determination in the Black Belt" was devised. In 1930 the Communist Party published the official "Resolution of the Communist International on the Negro Question in the United States". We quote from this resolution.

"The main Communist slogan must be: The right of self-determination of the Negroes in the Black Belt. . . . If the slogan of self-determination of the Negroes is to be put into force it is necessary wherever possible to bring together into one governmental unit all districts of the South where the majority of the settled population consists of Negroes. . . . The right of the Negroes to governmental separation will be unconditionally realized by the Communist Party. . . . The Communist Party must stand up with all strength and courage for the struggle to win independence and for the establishment of a Negro Republic in the Black Belt."

PAUL ROBESON Negro Communist Leader

THE ANSWER!

Address by Tom Linder, Commissioner of Dept. of Agriculture Before the Georgia Education Commission, Senate Chamber, State Capitol, Atlanta, Georgia, June 25, 1954.

Your Excellency, Governor Tolmudge; Members of the Commission, and visitors:

There is no reason to abolish or discontinue our present public schools. The people of Georgia, I am sure, are determined to maintain segregation of the races in our public educational institutions. They are equally determined to maintain their system of public education. There is no reason why they should not be able to do both.

TOM LINDER.

Every white child and its parents shall have the opportunity to attend an all-white school. Every colored child and its parents shall have the opportunity to attend an all-colored school. No white child will be forced to attend a mixed school and no colored child will be forced to attend a mixed school. If there be those among us afflicted with a sociological complex or psychological complex, or that are suffering from some perverted instinct that makes it impossible for them to be happy and contented with their own race, the Legislature will make provisions to provide for such cases, either in public institutions or in private institutions. All these things are consistent with the Constitution, with the statutes and even with the latest decision of the Supreme Court.

In the future, the people of Georgia and the other states must see to it that the seats in the United States Senate and House of Representatives are filled with men who will use every right, prerogative and power at their command to erase from the government and the courts every individual guilty of usurpation of powers and exercising unauthorized use of constituted powers to destroy the rights of the states under the Constitution which is the real basis of our present problem which has been brought to us ready-made by outsiders and does not, in any way, originate among the people of Georgia.

VIEWS OF A NORTHERN NEGRO

During recent years, the press of the United States has reflected various opinions concerning segregation in our public schools — and the probable effect of integration on the pupils, and the community as a whole. The problem has reached the Supreme Court.

On January 25, 1953, Davis Lee, Negro Publisher and editor of the Newark, N. J., Telegram, expressed this sound and timely view of the repercussions we might expect if the forces of agitation prove victorious. It is the best argument we have read.

He said: "The efforts being made by certain paid agitators and pressure groups to have segregated schools in the South declared unconstitutional — may cause Southern Negroes to lose a lot more than they will gain."

"The trouble with this group, as with similar ones, is that the initiators don't count the overall cost to the race. The present effort is designed to destroy the whole pattern of segregation — and to establish an integrated social order in which there will be no distinction made in this country on the basis of race, religion, color or nationality."

"This is a laudable objective, but human nature just has not changed that much, and the achievement of such an objective could cause repercussions that might set the Negro back fifty years."

"Integration in the schools in the North and East — is not a howling success. A Negro can attend most of the schools up here — and get an education — but few of the states that educate him will hire him as a teacher. The State of Connecticut doesn't have twenty-five Negro teachers. . . ."

"Nowhere in these integrated states do Negroes get anywhere near proportionate representation. Every device is employed to keep qualified Negroes from being assigned. Recently a reputable New York labor union made a report on the employment of Negro teachers in New York City — and charged that a systematic scheme has been adopted to exclude Negroes as teachers."

"This is the South. The State of Georgia has 313 Negro teachers, and paid them $15,000,000 in salaries last year. North Carolina paid its teachers $15,000,000."

Communism Takes Over South Through Non Segregation Law

riat of the Executive Committee of the Communist International stated in a letter to the American Communist Party,

"Communists must unreservedly carry on a struggle for the self-determination of the Negro population in the Black Belt in accordance with the decisions of the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International."

This dictate has been periodically restated by the Communist Party, and in December, 1946 it was reissued as a "Resolution on Negro Rights and Self-Determination."

Felix Frankfurter

The anti-segregation decision of the Supreme Court was dictated by one of the most sinister men in America, an Austrian Jew named Felix Frankfurter, leader of the radical World Zionist movement and a lifelong advocate of Socialism and leftwing objectives. Felix Frankfurter was head of defense committee for Sacco and Vanzetti, anarchists who were electrocuted in Massachusetts in 1927. A law partner of Henry L. Stimson in the firm of Winthrop and Stimson, lawyers for Kuhn, Loeb Co., international Jewish bankers who financed the Communist Revolution in Russia, Frankfurter was first thrust upon the American people by President Woodrow Wilson, who brought a horde of alien Socialists to Washington and set up the Socialist hierarchy which was reinstated in power fifteen years later by his understudy Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Wilson appointed Frankfurter as counsel for the Presidential Mediation Commission in the Mooney Case. As the defender of a group of Communist bomb-throwers and terrorists, Frankfurter had the temerity to try to influence Theodore Roosevelt in the decision. Theodore Roosevelt replied in an open letter which has been publicized for years, as follows:

"You have taken and are taking an attitude which seems to me to be fundamentally that of Trotsky and the other Bolshevik leaders in Russia, an attitude which may be fraught with mischief to this country. . . . There again you have engaged in excusing men precisely like the Bolsheviks in Russia, who are murderers and encourages to murder, who are traitors to their allies, to democracy and civilization, as well as to the United States, and whose acts are nevertheless apologized for on grounds, my dear Mr. Frankfurter, substantially like those which you allege."

The official publication of the World Zionist Organization, the Zionist Bulletin, reported in the issue of September 2, 1919:

"A dinner in honor of the Hon. Justice Brandeis, prior to his return to America, was given by the Executive of the World Zionist Organization on August 26 at the Ritz Hotel. Prof. Frankfurter, in proposing the toast to his Majesty's Government, referred to the months of hard work in which he and the other Jewish delegates had been engaged in Paris. They often spoke in different tongues; but they were all animated by a single sentiment—the welfare of Israel and the good of Zion."

The welfare of Israel and the World Jewish conspiracy has always been the single sentiment of Frankfurter's life. One of the architects of the Versailles Peace Conference in 1920 which made the Second World War inevitable because of the impossible terms inflicted upon Germany, Frankfurter was instrumental in carving out the artificial state of Czechoslovakia by forcing together people of different nationalities, which made the Sudeten crisis inevitable. He also stirred up anti-Semitism all over Europe by including in the Treaty special privileges for Jewish residents of all European countries, with the threat that the United States would force the European nations to grant those special Jewish privileges.

American Civil Liberties Union National Committee

Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter has always been a close secret mate of some of the most dangerous radicals in America. He served on the National Committee of the

A. M. Rosenberg

Herbert Lehman

American Civil Liberties Union with William Z. Foster, an open and professed Communist and the active leader of the Communist Party of America. Also on this National Committee was Morris Hillquit, counsel for the American Communist Party, and many other leaders of the Communist conspiracy. Is this not strange company for a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States? When we realize that the anti-segregation decision of the Supreme Court followed a directive of the Communist International, we can understand why the decision was written by an associate of the leaders of the Communist Party, who is also the brother of a notorious convict.

Roger Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties Union, testified before the Lusk Committee Investigating Communism as follows:

"The advocacy of murder, unaccompanied by any act, is within the legitimate scope of free speech . . . I would say on behalf of the entire committee that all of them disbelieve the theory of constructive intent, and that all of them believe in the right of persons to advocate 'the overthrow of government by force and violence.'"

Thus Baldwin, speaking for Frankfurter and the other members of the American Civil Liberties Union, defended the right of individuals to advocate the overthrow of the American Government by violence. How can we keep a man on the Supreme Court who believes in such basic Communist theories?

Mr. Holaday of the ACLU asked Allen S. Olmstead of the ACLU:

"Did I understand you to say that an alien has a right to preach the overthrow of Government, and anarchy?"

Mr. Olmstead replied, "Yes." Thus, Frankfurter of Austria comes over here and because of the international political power of world Jewry, gets himself appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States despite his hatred of our free American institutions, and proceeds to undermine our country by forcing Negroes and whites together in our schools, to precipitate race riots, and fulfill the Radek directive of 1921. The Lusk Committee summed up as follows:

"The American Civil Liberties Union, in the last analysis, is a supporter of all subversive movements, and its propaganda is detrimental to the interests of the State."

Yet Frankfurter continued as an important official of this group. He was also a director of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People).

Our Worst Supreme Court

The present Supreme Court is a sorry gathering of political hacks, professional Jewish apologists, and democratic leftovers. Justice William Douglas is a prominent member of the United World Federalists, a group financed by the Communist apologist James Paul Warburg of the Soviet revolutionary banking family. United World Federalists actively seeks to subvert the legal government of the American people and substitute a world government in which our citizens will have no control over their own fate. On May 14, 1952, Douglas addressed the CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers at Atlantic City. As reported in The Daily Worker and other leftwing publications, he said, "Revolution is our business. We want United Nations recognition for China and American aid for Mao (leader of Communist China)."

Douglas was a classmate of radical Robert Hutchins at Yale. A darling of leftwing labor leaders and Jewish revolutionaries, Douglas has been advocated for the Presidency of the United States by these groups. He recently accepted a $1000 Sidney Hillman Award from Jewish labor leaders.

Chief Justice Earl Warren was appointed to that post by Eisenhower for the specific job of ratifying the anti-segregation decision. Warren as Governor of California spent so much time at Jewish banquets that it was said he lost his taste for Christian food.

Justice Tom Clark has cravenly refused to appear before Congressional Committees investigating the startling corruption of the Department of Justice during his term as Attorney General. He has been sharply criticized by many Congressmen investigating this corruption. A typical greedy, self-serving politician, he eagerly went along with the anti-segregation decision, although he is from Dallas, Texas, where he was unknown in the legal profession.

Jewish Revolutionaries Enlist Negro Supporters

The Jewish Communist Party of America has always envisioned arming the 15,000,000 American Negroes as an army with which to enslave the white population of America. For instance, when Senator Eastland of Mississippi protested against the recent anti-segregation decision of the Supreme Court, the New York Post of June 15, 1954 carried a letter by Harry Brice. The New York Post is edited by Dorothy Schiff, Jewess, and owned by the Schiff family. Jewish International bankers financed the 1917 Communist Revolution in Russia. The letter carried in the New York Post, of June 15, 1954, is as follows:

"Sen. Eastland (Dem., Miss.) says the government would have to send an army into the south to enforce non-segregation. That's no problem. You could raise ten divisions in Harlem alone."

This letter is typical of what the radical Jews want to do to the White Christian population of America. Our Congressmen were horrified to learn from many witnesses before the House Un-American Activities Committee that the wholesale slaughter of ministers, school teachers, and independent businessmen in the South has already been planned by the Yiddish revolutionaries, in the process of setting up a Black Republic under the leadership of the notorious Negro Communist Paul Robeson. Robeson was awarded the 1952 Stalin Peace Award. During the Hearing before Un-American Activities Committee he declared "he would go to jail before he would say whether he was a Communist." He educated his son in Soviet Union. Robeson, who made millions of dollars as an entertainer in America because he was publicized and given rave reviews by the little clique of Communist Jews who control radio, television, and the movies, has always hated America.

Every other Negro who has been brought into prominence by the Jews has somewhere in his background an affiliation with Communism and left-wing causes. Consider the case of Dr. Mordecai Johnson, President of Howard University, an All-Negro University in Washington, D. C. which year after year receives more federal aid funds than any other school in America, a school which is the apple of the eye of Franklin D. Roosevelt's sallow helpmate, Eleanor, and a school which has harbored many of the most dangerous radicals in America. Here are the sentiments of Dr. Johnson as reported in the Chicago Defender of June 10, 1933. Speaking before an audience of young Negro intellectuals who were being trained as the black elite of the Communist Party, Dr. Johnson was reported as follows:

"Dr. Johnson urged his hearers not to allow the words Communism and Socialism to blind their eyes to the reality that on Russian soil today — it makes no difference what mistakes are being made or what crimes are being committed — there is a movement for the first time in the history of the world to make available all their natural resources for the life of the common man."

With such speeches many thousands of Negroes were recruited for the Communist Party. Yet Dr. Mordecai Johnson continues today as the President of Howard University, supported by large grants of taxpayers' funds, and is constantly hailed as one of our most outstanding citizens.

Dr. Ralph Bunche
Another "great" Negro citizen is Ralph Bunche, who holds an honorary degree of Doctor. When Count Folke Bernadotte was assassinated by Jewish terrorists in Israel, one of the most shocking crimes in modern diplomatic history, Bunche was chosen to replace him as United Nations mediator in the theft of Palestine from its Arab inhabitants. The Jews were pleased with Bunche's handling of their affairs, so pleased that David Niles (Neyhus) offered him the position of Assistant Secretary of State in Truman's cabinet. Bunche sneeringly refused, claiming that Washington is a Jim Crow town. Since the population of metropolitan Washington is already predominantly Negro, it is difficult to see how this could be. Actually, Bunche was merely creating an artificial issue for Communists to publicize in Russia. He accepted a better-paying job with the United Nations.

Why is Bunche a favorite of Jewish revolutionaries? The Daily Worker of November 10, 1938 gives us a clue. On the front page is a picture of a Negro Communist, just back from slaughtering nuns and priests in Spain. And below is a telegram welcoming him back to America from his church-burning expedition overseas. The signer of the telegram is Ralph Bunche of Howard University. Thus Bunche reveals his real allegiance and explains his sudden rise to fame and fortune, backed by the Jewish Communist clique.

They Planned It That Way

American citizens, stunned by the unconstitutional anti-segregation of our leftwing Supreme Court, do not realize that this decision has its origins in Communist dictates of more than one hundred years ago. Like the income tax and the inheritance tax, the anti-segregation decision was demanded by the Communist Manifesto of 1848, which first used the phrase "without regard to race, creed, or color". This phrase identifies any organization which uses it as a group which follows the fundamental purposes of Communism. The American Jewish Congress and its colored subsidiary, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, use this phrase in all of their publications as a basic principle of their groups.

Mongrelization

The Jewish Communist Israel Cohen in 1912 wrote a "A Racial Program for the Twentieth Century", in which he declared:

"We must realize that our Party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By pounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party. The terms colonialism and imperialism must be featured in our propaganda. In America, we will aim for a subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavour to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise to prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negroes will be able to inter-marry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause."

In the leaflet "Your Family and the NAACP", the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People declares that "The NAACP supports the United Nations and opposes colonialism and racism wherever they appear." Thus the NAACP follows the Cohen directive.

In the pamphlet "Crusade for Freedom", the NAACP states that:

"The NAACP youth division is a constituent member of the World Assembly of Youth and has consistently opposed colonialism and imperialism in every form."

Note the similarity of this declaration with the Cohen directive.

NAACP Founded by Jewish Revolutionaries

The fact that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People so closely follows the aims and directives of the Communist Party is more understandable when we learn that it was not founded by Patriotic Negro American citizens. It was founded by Jewish Communist revolutionaries. An NAACP leaflet featuring congratulatory statements by prominent citizens quotes Rabbi Irving Miller, former President of the American Jewish Congress as follows:

"Our late President, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, was one of the founders of the NAACP. Throughout the years, our cooperation with the Association has been a source of deep gratification to us. The intimate working relationships which we have enjoyed, both in major undertakings and the day-to-day routine of the struggle for the extension of human rights in this country, have contributed significantly to the objectives we commonly seek."

The New York Times of March 24, 1917 revealed that Rabbi Stephen S. Wise had led an hysterical celebration of the Communist Revolution in Russia, and addressed a mass meeting of gleeful Jewish Communists in Carnegie Hall on the previous evening. His son James Waterman Wise has been active in many Communist fronts. His daughter, Justine Wise Polier, appointed a children's judge in New York City by the radical Marxist Fiorella LaGuardia, is married to Shad Folier, a director of the American Jewish Congress.

The American Jewish Congress itself, working with the NAACP for common objectives, was founded by Jewish revolutionaries who had been expelled from Russia and who found a haven in the New York ghetto.

The NAACP has never adequately represented the Negro citizens of America. Instead, it has represented the sinister aims of Jewish radicals. The NAACP has always been dominated by Jews. Mary White Ovington, in "How the NAACP Began", published in 1951, tells how she, W. E. Walling and Dr. Henry Moskowitz set up the NAACP in 1909. She relates that Walling's wife had been imprisoned for some years in Russia for her revolutionary activities in trying to overthrow the Czarist government. She and Moskowitz issued a call for aid in founding the NAACP, signed by 53 people. More than one-third of those listed have been cited by our Government as Communists or members of radical Communist fronts, Senator Herbert H. Lehman, elected Governor of New York with the active support of the Communist Party, has been a director of the NAACP for many years. Its President today is the Jew Arthur Spingarn. More than one-third of the present life members of the NAACP are Jews! Thus it can be seen that the NAACP, far from representing our loyal Negro population, is merely a tool of Jewish radicals.

What has the NAACP done for America's Negro population? What constructive accomplishments can it cite? The amazing rise in the living standard of the Negro was a result of the general prosperity of the United States in the past two decades. The NAACP has contributed nothing to our economy. Instead, it has continually sought to inflame the Negro citizens against whites and to stir up class warfare in the last tradition of Marxism. NAACP branches should be treated as Communist cells and its active members watched with suspicion until it changes its tone, shakes off its Jewish domination, and works for American principles of freedom and justice.

We could go on for many pages, citing the Communist-front affiliations of NAACP directors. A typical one is Dr. Channing H. Tobias, Assistant-Treasurer of the NAACP, with 28 listings, of which we mention a few as follows:

From Appendix IX, House Committee on Un-American Activities, 1944:

Channing H. Tobias, sponsor of American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, cited by the Committee as "founded by the Communist Party to exploit racial divisions in the United States for its own revolutionary purposes."

Channing H. Tobias, sponsor of American League for Peace and Democracy, cited by the Committee as "one of the most effective Communist front organizations ever operated in this country."

Channing H. Tobias, sponsor of People's Institute. Applied Religion, cited by the Committee as "one of the most vicious Communist organizations ever set up in this country."

These are only a few mentions of the 28 listings. Channing H. Tobias, Asst. Treasury of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People showing the kind of organization which it is.

NAACP Publications and Activities

In its booklet "Audio Visual Aids to Interracial Understanding, Teaching Democracy", the NAACP recommends the film "Achmet", narrated by the notorious atheist Dr. Julian Huxley, and the film "Brotherhood of Man" an animated cartoon based on the pamphlet "Race of Mankind", written by Drs. Ruth Benedict and Ge. Weidlich. Dr. Weidlich refused to answer a Congressional Committee as to whether she was a Communist and was later named as such. It also recommends the film "Democracy at Work in Rural Puerto Rico" made by U. S. Dept. of Agriculture. Common Sense was able to prevent the distribution of another leftwing film produced by Marxists in the Department of Commerce, the film "Don't Discriminate", which openly insults white Americans. When we informed our readers that this film was being produced, thousands of outraged Americans protested, with the result that the Department of Commerce now denies that this film was ever planned or produced.

NAACP also recommends in this booklet the film "Native Land", with songs and narration by the famous Negro Communist leader Paul Robeson, whom the Communist Party has selected as the Black Dictator of the Soviet Republic of the South to be set up after the revolution in America. NAACP often cooperates with Communists and Communist fronts in its struggle to Sovietize America, but this does not mean that we should resist.

Negro teachers over $22,000,000 last year. Florida is another state that ranks at the top on teachers pay.

"If these states that are now pouring millions of dollars annually into Negro pockets which provides our people with money that enables them to enjoy the dignity of man, to enjoy the prestige and respectability, to buy homes and the necessities of life — are forced to abandon the segregated school — 75 per cent of the Negro teachers in the South will lose the jobs. Not only that, but approximately 20,000 Negro principals will lose their jobs as well . . .

"This present movement to end segregation in the schools — is merely the beginning of a well laid plan to completely end segregation in everything in the South. If this happens, the Negro will be thrown into direct competition with the white race, and our business institutions will crumble.

"No place in the world do Negroes own and control as much as do those in the South. Atlanta is without question the Negro capital of the world. It is the center of Negro culture, education, business and finance. And both Negroes and whites live and operate business without either being conscious of the other's race.

"This movement to integrate the schools of the South, is loaded with more racial dynamite than appears on the surface — and the Negro will be the one who is blown away.

"During the past two years I have spent most time in the South than I have in my office; and have interviewed thousands of Negroes in all walks of life — and I have found very few who favor mixed schools. They want their own schools, but equal facilities. This being the situation, one questions the fairness of forcing these colored citizens to accept what they don't want. If a little group of paid agitators succeed in forcing their will upon these people, it appears to me that they should at least be given an opportunity to be heard.

white or colored.

The people should reward those public servants who, by their record, have demonstrated their courage and ability to carry on this fight, such as our own Governor. I shall lend all of my efforts and influence to this end.

I propose here today to present a definite plan to carry out these pledges. I am not unmindful of the fact that we are dealing with a momentous question involving many fields of constitutional law, I am not unmindful of the fact that as time goes by, other means and methods may present themselves, other angles may develop which will require the concerted effort of our best legal minds and our best school leaders. I am not, therefore, closing the book for any new ideas and new suggestions; but, as of now, the following plan is laid on the firm foundation, not only of our Federal and State Constitutions and our Federal and State Laws, but it is also laid on a firm foundation of laws more ancient than our Constitutions and more ancient than Magna Carta; and, it shall prevail.

With this preface, I will proceed to an analysis of our situation and an outline of the plan which I propose to preserve the rights, traditions, interests and welfare, of all the people of Georgia, whatever their race may be.

The Court's Decision

The Supreme Court held, in effect, that the State cannot, as a matter of Law, segregate school students merely on a basis of race or color. In doing so, in my opinion, the Court, by necessary implication, also ruled that the State cannot, as a matter of Law, force the mixing of students of different races and colors purely on a basis of race and color.

This, I think, gives us a real basis from which to work out a program where the people themselves can effectively segregate themselves without compulsion from the State.

Basis of Segregation

It is a well defined and recognized principle of constitutional law, as held by the Supreme Court in various cases, that no power resides in government, either Federal or State, to prevent discrimination by individual citizens. The prohibition against discrimination applies only to public action. This is firm ground on which to stand when the individuals choose to segregate themselves because of what they deem good and sufficient reasons.

Constitution, Bill of Rights, And Declaration of Independence

The people of Georgia, by and large, white and colored, and including other races, are people who believe in God. They are people who recognize the overruling providence that has made this country great. Most of them look upon marriage as a Holy God-ordained relationship. The rearing of their children, training them, protecting them during their minority from evil which the immature mind of children are not able to grasp or understand, is a part and parcel of the deep religious convictions of most people in this State. They believe in the ancient commandment "Thou shalt not remove the ancient land marks set by thy fathers." The most ancient landmark is the separation of the races and the maintaining of the purity of each race.

Since the Constitution guarantees everyone the unalienable right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, each individual, without State compulsion, has a right to pursue their happiness in their own way limited only by the supreme law of not interfering with the other fellow's right to the pursuit of happiness.

This again gives firm ground for the individual to practice, voluntarily, and of his own choice, whatever segregation is necessary for his own pursuit of happiness.

Ultimately, the people themselves are the court of last resort. This is true not only to the extent that they may change their government any time they see fit, that they may unseat and punish any and all officials who are guilty of usurpation of undelimited authority and that they may use whatever force is necessary for the accomplishment of that purpose. Therefore, in this extreme sense, the people are the court of last resort.

The people of Georgia have never exercised sanctions; but, on the other hand, they have paid taxes willingly, built churches, built schools, loaned money, extended credit, and in every way tried to help the colored people of the State. The people of Georgia will not, at this time, practice any sanctions against colored people except as a necessary last resort to protect their own human rights. But the people of Georgia can exercise sanctions under the ancient laws of private property, under the ancient law merchant, under the ancient laws of the right to hire and fire. In addition to this, the white people of Georgia can practice age old sanctions of social ostracism against these persons who are not members of the colored race, but who are engaged in the effort to breakdown and destroy the rights of the white citizens of the State.

In this sense, the people themselves are the court of last resort and from their decision there is no appeal.

Then again, the people themselves are the court of last resort at the ballot box, which is the machinery set up by civilized people to avoid the more severe remedy of sanctions and also to avoid the most extreme remedy of force and violence. It is, therefore, through this latter sense in which the people are the court of last resort that we intend first to approach a remedy for that evil thing which now besets us through the unconstitutional acts of our Supreme Court, aided and abetted by the Chief Executive and the legislative branch of our national government. Therefore, I propose at this time, to follow a plan through which the people can maintain segregation in our public schools. I am convinced that the people of Georgia are not willing to surrender their public school system without a fight; and I am convinced that they do not intend to lose that fight. I am convinced that the people of Georgia do not intend for their children to attend mixed schools; and I am convinced that they do not intend to resort to, I am convinced that no power on earth can force the white people of Georgia into mixed schools so long as they are unalterably determined to maintain the rights, they have to choose their own kind of school.

Proposal No. I

I propose, first, that the Legislature take appropriate action to provide for a full, thorough census of all children and parents who are now or may hereafter be patrons of public schools, requiring under oath a full statement as to the children and parents and stating definitely whether they choose to patronize an all-white school, an all-colored school or a mixed school. This census form also to be filled out by all teachers, other employees and officials connected with State or local education. When this census is completed, we will know who is who and where they are. This will force everyone to stand up and be counted.

Proposal No. II

I propose that the Legislature, by appropriate action, recognize and declare a State policy on education, recognizing that, under our present Constitution, it is impossible for the State to comply with the opinion of the Supreme Court, recognizing that no change can be made in that Constitution before the General Election in 1956; declaring a policy of working out a plan for public education that will not be in conflict with the ruling of the Supreme Court, but which will also, at the same time, maintain the rights of all individuals. I propose that the Legislature work out and submit to the voters of the State in the General Election of 1956, a complete plan and also necessary constitutional amendments to put such plan into effect. The Legislature should declare as a State policy that, in the meantime, our present school system can operate only on a segregated basis because there is no money, under our present Constitution and appropriation acts, to pay for any schools other than segregated schools.

Proposal No. III

I propose that by appropriate legislation and vote of the people we create a pool of all school pupils, both in our common schools and in institutions of higher learning; this pool to be made up without reference to or in consideration of any race, creed, color or previous condition of servitude; each student and its parents to have the privilege, at their own request and without compulsion of the State in any way, to ask to be assigned to a school of their choice. That is, if a colored parent wants his children to go to an all-colored school, he may ask, without compulsion from the State in any way, to be assigned to an all-colored school. If a white parent desires for his children to attend an all-white school, he may request, on his own initiative and without compulsion from the State, that his child or children be assigned to an all-white school.

Proposal No. IV

I propose the adoption of an amendment empowering the Legislature to subsidize those children who are not satisfied in either of the schools provided by the State so that they may use their pro rata share of school funds in attending private schools.

In this way, the State will not be compelling or requiring segregation of races but will be protecting all citizens in following their unalienable rights to a free choice. No white child will be required to go to an unsegregated school or to a segregated school. No unsegregated colored child will be required to go to an unsegregated or segregated school. No child will be required to go to a mixed school. Every child can go to the school of his choice without compulsion from the State.

Proposal No. V

Require all school teachers and others connected with education, both public and private schools, as a condition in their employment, to teach absolute respect for all State laws, State Constitutions, State Courts, State Legislatures and State officials. The immature mind of school children is no place to sow seeds of discord, disrespect and lack of patriotism.

Communism Takes Over

the Negroes as Communists. Most American Negroes are loyal, but many have fallen into the hands of Jewish radicals, and, dominated by such men as Arthur Spingarn, President of the NAACP, they become willing tools of Marxists in America.

Thus we find the Jew Theodore Rubin, Secretary of the Society for Racial Integration, stating in the Society's Annual Report of 1932:

"We are happy to report that thousands of happily married Negro and white couples are now residing in New York, Chicago, and other metropolitan areas. Thus our teachings of democracy are slowly taking root all over America, and each year we shall see thousands more Americans who have found that Negro-white marriages are living proof that the principles of liberalism are triumph. Educational programs and social legislation are breaking down the fascistic tendencies of white citizens, and our Society has every reason to believe that we shall see the Negro problem solved in our lifetime."

Government Forces Whites To Accept Negroes

In 1933, Franklin D. Roosevelt and a little group of Jewish revolutionaries, among them Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, founder of the NAACP, began a program of relentless assault against the white Christian traditions of America. This program has been continued by Truman and Eisenhower. Under Eisenhower, it has almost reached its completion.

During the Second World War, Eleanor Roosevelt forced the Navy to mix whites and Negroes. When Anna Rosenberg was confirmed as Assistant Secretary of Defense, after she had been identified as a Communist before a Senatorial Committee, she completed the process of racial integration in our armed forces. In Southern Army posts, white children were forced to go to Army schools with Negroes.

In 1918, the Supreme Court declared that racial provisions in Washington real estate agreements were illegal. Consequently, thousands of white home-owners lost their houses and were forced to move to the suburbs. Hundreds of blocks of our capital city became Negro slums.

What American Negroes Want

I recently returned from a trip through the Southern states. I talked to hundreds of white and Negro citizens about the Supreme Court anti-segregation decisions. Many Negroes were bitter against the NAACP and the leftwing politicians who had forced this decision to be enacted. One former official of the NAACP, a Negro educated in the North, had returned South because it was her home. She knew that the Jews and other Communists were using the Negro as a cat's paw in their struggle to Sovietize America. She was frightened at what lay ahead, and declared that the NAACP had done much of the goodwill which had been built up slowly between whites and Negroes in the South. "Now it will be just like in the North," she said. "I came back home because the North is the real Jim Crow. There the Negro is an alien, disliked and unwanted. Our friends are in the Southern states, and now the NAACP wants to take them from us."

I asked her if she knew about the Jewish control of NAACP. "That's why I quit" she said. "Our officials were always speaking before Jewish groups, appearing at Jewish fund-raising rallies, and conferring with officials of the American Jewish Congress. They have no sympathy with Negroes and they don't associate with Negroes. Walter White, the Executive Secretary of the NAACP, married a white woman and associated almost exclusively with Jewish millionaires. I wish the Negroes had an organization which did represent them."

National Association For Advancement of Colored People

The official Report of the Communist Party's 4th national convention stated that the party had penetrated the NAACP. Socialist Florence Kelley (formerly of Hull House), the personal friend of Engels and Lenin, with Jane Addams, a founder and "for twenty years a member of the board of directors" was very active in the NAACP. The field secretary, Wm. Pickens, is a Socialist Party member, active as well in Communist affairs and organizations. (See Who's Who?) James Weldon Johnson, Clarence Darrow, John Haynes Holmes, Oswald Garrison Villard and other executives have similar Red affiliations.

Mulattoes In Germany

Jewish Communists in Eisenhower's headquarters in London during the Second World War sent in thousands of Negro troops behind the combat forces in Germany. These Negro troops were encouraged to rape white German girls, with the result that there are now 30,000 mulatto children in Germany. These mulattoes predict the wave of the future. Either the white race must draw the line now and begin to fight for its survival, or it will disappear. The Jews want to arm Negroes during the planned Communist revolution in America. They look upon Negroes as their principal weapon against white American citizens. We should outlaw the NAACP because it is completely dominated by Jewish radicals who are working for a Marxist America. If the Negroes were not corrupted by the Jews, they would be as good American citizens as anyone. Many of them realize that the Jews do not want to help the Negroes, and that they are trying to use the Negroes in their Communist war against us.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

The July 1, 1954, issue of "Common Sense," an anti-Semitic newspaper published in Union, New Jersey, by Conde J. McGinley, carried an article by one Eustace Mullins developing the theme that the United States Supreme Court decision banning segregation in schools is the culmination of a Communist International directive to the Communist Party, USA, to use the Negro racial issue and the issue of civil rights as a method to weaken the United States. This article indicates that the document to prove this contention was seized by Government Agents who raided the Bridgeman, Michigan, Convention of the Communist Party on August 22, 1922. The article stated that the document is a directive written by Soviet Chief of Propaganda Karl Radek, "the alias of a Jewish revolutionary named Sobelsohn" which document is in the files of the FBI today; however, the Director of the FBI is under strict orders not to reveal the Radek directive at any cost because it would brand the United States Supreme Court as a front or agent of the Communist International.

In an effort to locate this document Bureau indices and records of the Department were searched with negative results.

The Detroit Office is instructed to review its indices in an effort to determine the specific location of the document referred to above.

AMERICAN PATRIOTS DISCHARGED - U.S. GENERALS FIRED-GOVERNMENT LEADERS REFUSE TO TALK-WHAT IS THIS POWER?

General Douglas MacArthur

Clarence Manion, recent victim of the Invisible Government clears his desk in Washington. See Photos on pages 3 and 4.

When General MacArthur was fired everyone was puzzled as to where the order came from. It was understood that Truman signed the order in the early hours of the morning while drinking. It is known that Gen. George Marshall and Dean Acheson were important factors in this disgraceful act but like Truman were only stooges of the Invisible Government, taking orders which were given them by Davis Niles, close associate of Harry Dexter White. These two, like thousands of other Marxist Jews placed in key spots by the Invisible Government to watch and guide gullible non-Jews in the plot to abolish the United States and establish World Government.

Now comes another disgraceful act under another administration, but both ruled by the Invisible Government. Both Democrat and Republican parties have been taken over. Eisenhower is as much a Democrat as he is a Republican. He is neither. He is a One Worlder, captured and directed by the ruthless Invisible Government. Clarence Manion, former Dean of Notre Dame University was fired as Chairman of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations because he supported the Bricker Amendment. Again, as in the firing of General MacArthur, everyone wants to know who was responsible. No one is talking—it is a mystery.

Sherman Adams, Assistant to the President, was the front man. Behind him was President Eisenhower, but the man who relayed the order from the Invisible Government was the Marxist Jew, Maxwell Rabb of Boston. And as David Niles under F. D. R. and Truman was placed in the White House to watch every move, Maxwell Rabb was placed there just as Kuhn Loeb Co. place one of their men on the Board of Directors of the many corporations they control. Who are the important men in the Invisible Government? No gentile knows but unquestionably Felix Frankfurter, Bernard Baruch, Edward M. M. Warburg and Sen. Herbert Lehman are at the top.

DOES BUDENZ KNOW THE FACTS?

TO : Louis Francis Budenz
SUBJECT : Questions regarding the Marxist Movement in America
FROM : R. P. Hughes
Dear Mr. Budenz:

With deep respect and sincerity, I am writing this letter as a direct appeal to you. As the Communist and "One-World" program is increasing in vigor and ugliness, it is imperative that all men who call themselves Christian, awaken from their deplorable and apathetic state of mind and fight this anti-Christ doctrine with every weapon at his disposal. Mainly — prayer and militant Christian

ILLINOIS PAPER GIVES CORRECT VERSION OF OXNAM HEARING

When Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam appeared before the House Committee on un-American Activities some time ago with a lot of fanfare and bringing along his own cheering squad, the incident was distorted in practically all press reports of the affair.

An exception is an editorial appearing in the Peoria, Illinois, Star, which gives these plain, unvarnished facts in the matter:

"The hearing of Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam before the House Committee on un-American Activities rated a front page spot in most American newspapers and therefore may be considered important news. As such, it is important that it be conveyed honestly and intelligently to newspaper readers.

"But apparently reporters for both United Press and Associated Press fell short of the qualifications necessary to tell the story straight. Whether they neglected to get all the facts or preferred to 'slam' the story, we don't know. But we do know that the Oxnam affair has been as badly distorted in the news as was the Robeson affair in Peoria six years ago.

"One AP story stated: 'Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam won a concession from the House un-American Activities Committee Wednesday. The committee declared that it had no record of any Communist Party membership or affiliation by the Bishop'.

"Another AP story led off with this paragraph: 'The House Committee on un-American Activities voted Bishop G. Oxnam a clean bill of health early today so far

Jewish Leaders Are Crazy For Power

(Copyright 1950 by Henry H. Kiefo)

They aim at world rulership. For this reason they started the Zionist movement and used it as a political weapon to conquer Palestine. The protocol says the world of the law will go forth from Palestine. One of the steps toward world rulership, was to obtain possession of the chemical wealth in the Dead Sea. This was accomplished through Chaim Weizmann and Lord Melchett, heads of the British chemical trust.

Most Jews have been in the dark as to the real purpose of Zionism. Some Jews thought its purpose was beneficent. Intelligent Jews have awakened to the fact that its purpose was political and they have begun to realize that Jews as well as Christians financed Hitler. They knew that Hitler was driving Jews out of Europe. Did they want Jews driven to Palestine to protect the chemical and oil concessions there? One of the Jewish leaders in Israel recently declared that he wanted two million people in Israel. He didn't talk of refugees; he talked of population. Two million persons could provide an army of more than half a million.

Jewish leaders want world power; nothing less will do. They have many Jews believing that they are the "chosen" people. Jews were chosen for destruction after their leaders caused Jesus to be executed. All Jews have suffered since. A large part of the so called persecution is artificially created to keep Jews scared and to stimulate cash contributions. Hundreds of millions of dollars have been extracted from them in the past 25 years.

What will be the windup. Jews occupy part of Palestine and part of the city of Jerusalem. Judaism is being spread in every direction while Christians, Moslems, Buddhists and other religions look on. How much further will Judaism be permitted to advance before resentment sets in? This always followed previous attempts at Jewish leadership. All that the Jew really wants is to be permitted to live in peace, but their leaders won't let them.

Jews have been exploited by their leaders since Moses's time. So-called leading rabbis have misled them. Jewish financiers have absorbed their substance. Labor leaders have misused them; racketeers have robbed them. They should be helped to escape from their mad leaders.

PUSSYFOOTING WITH ISRAEL

By RICHARD PATTER
Reprinted from "The Florida Catholic"
November 20, 1953.

I suppose there is no real possibility in our country today to say anything about Israel—unless it is gushingly complimentary—and get a hearing. In all probability, the slightest word of mental reservation about Israel and its mission in the world will bring down the charge of anti-Semitism on the writer and he will be permanently chalked up as a partisan of gas chambers, Nazi horror chambers and a return to the ghetto.

Public reaction to the recent slaughter of fifty Arabs by the Israeli Army is a melancholy commentary on the bias, prejudice and total surrealism with which public opinion views these matters. The only expression of shock that we hear is from prominent citizens of every variety who are screaming bloody murder because the American government with extreme good sense suspends economic aid to a nation that does not live up to its commitments and provokes an act of extraordinary violence.

New York Politics

It was to be expected that a New York mayoral candidate and Franklin Roosevelt, Jr. would lead the chorus of denunciation of State Department action. But rare indeed is the slightest hint that even a minority is courageous enough to speak out against this incredible coddling and favoritism for Israel.

And to top it all off, dark hints appear in the press now that the Arabs have enormous sums of money to spend for propaganda and something should be done to stop this at once. Were the whole thing not tragic in its implications, it would be laughable. If money in vast, mountainous sums has been spent to sell a cause, it has definitely not been on the Arab side. Or, if the Arab states have devoted a substantial part of their budgets to propaganda abroad, they have certainly gotten precious little for their effort.

There have been encouraging signs that the present administration has begun to take a more realistic view of the Israeli-Arab controversy and to recognize that Israel is not, ipso facto and by definition, always right no matter what happens. The Arabs are not, by the same logic, always wrong—even when their people are killed in attacks on village communities by Israeli.

I have always wondered what waves of outrage and denunciation would have gone up over the world if, by chance, it had been an Arab—no matter how irresponsible—who assassinated Count Bernadotte. We would quite definitely not have heard the last of that for the next dozen generations.

Irish Parallel

Is there something intrinsically good and moral and sound in every thing that Israel does, as though it belonged to a species apart from the ordinary human race? I am not arguing in the least that this all-out policy of aid and support of Israel is obviously losing us the entire Arab world and probably the whole Islamic one. I am simply raising a proper question as to the inherent character of Israel, the state, that places it outside the framework of ordinary conduct.

In previous articles, I have tried to suggest what disastrous effects a policy based on total favoritism for a single European country would produce in the relations with all of them. Suppose the Catholics, many of them with Irish blood, undertook to make Ireland the darling of special American solicitude and the recipient of vast handouts from this country. Suppose they treated Ireland as though it belonged to the category of angels and not of men, and poured in on it every conceivable form of assistance. Suppose the highest officials of our land went up and down the country selling Irish bonds. I can well imagine the howl of rage that would go up from all sectors of opinion against discrimination and special favors, not to mention aid to a people of a particular religious persuasion.

There is no need to criticize just and proper assistance to a nation like Israel that needs outside assistance to get under way. But Israel itself is certainly not going to benefit from the blatant, blind and unreasoning devotion to its interests of so many people, most of whom have no stake in Israel anyway. It is a unique situation in American diplomatic history, one for which there is certainly no historical precedent.

ILLINOIS PAPER GIVES CORRECT VERSION

as any record of Communist Party affiliation is concerned." "A United Press story stated: 'The House un-American Activities Committee today cleared Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of Communist ties...'

"Newspapermen who wrote headlines naturally composed heads that corresponded with the lead paragraphs of these stories and we saw in large type such lines as: 'Bishop Oxnam cleared of Red Party membership charge. Oxnam cleared of Party ties. No evidence is found of Oxnam-Red linkup.'

"We submit to the thoughtful consideration of any open-minded person this belief: that most readers would get the impression from those stories and headlines that the House Committee on un-American Activities had accused Bishop Oxnam of having been a member of the Communist Party, but, on being challenged by him, had repudiated the charges and admitted that there was no evidence of party membership.

"People who reached that conclusion were grossly deceived because, in the words of one committee member, Representative Jackson of California, 'No accusation of Communist party membership had ever been leveled against him (Oxnam) by any member of the committee or its staff.'

"The story that Bishop Oxnam had been cleared of party membership charges was not only a false statement, but it served to obscure the more important fact that he had been accused of membership in Communist front organizations but denied that he knew the character and purpose of the front groups when he joined.

"The significance of Bishop Oxnam's appearance before the committee is not in the committee's statement that there was no evidence of party membership. The real story is summed up in these words by Democratic Representative Walter of Pennsylvania, ranking minority member of the committee: 'I think we demonstrated very clearly that the Communists are using well-known and highly-placed people, willing or otherwise, as dupes and that the bigger the name, the better for their cause. I place Bishop Oxnam in that category.'

"Many persons will have missed that important point. Why? Because they read news stories that were pernicious half-truths."

POISON IN YOUR WATER

Above you see an actual photograph of a man placing fluorine in the water supply of some unsuspecting community. Fluorine is such a deadly poison that it would be fatal to come in contact with it. There is a plan to put it in your drinking water if it is not already there. Are you aware of this? If not, you had better investigate and do something about it immediately.

David Niles (Neykus) Left, White House member of the Invisible Government during the Democratic Administration, shakes hands with the man he kept under supervision. Niles also supervised the White House under Franklin Roosevelt.

LINDBERGH'S GREATEST DISCOVERY

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

HON. LAWRENCE H. SMITH

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, January 11, 1954

Mr. SMITH of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, under leave to extend my remarks, I am including an article by Charles A. Lindbergh entitled "My Greatest Discovery." It is very pertinent at this time, it seems to me.

The article follows:

MY GREATEST DISCOVERY
(By Charles A. Lindbergh)

To me in youth, science was more important than either man or God. I worshiped science. I am awed by its knowledge. Its advances had surpassed man's wildest dreams. In its learning seemed to lie the key to all mysteries of life.

It took many years for me to discover that science, with all its brilliance, lights only a middle chapter of creation. I saw the science I worshiped, and the aircraft I loved, destroying the civilization I expected them to serve, and which I thought as permanent as earth itself.

Now I realize that to survive, one must look beyond the speed and power of aircraft—beyond the material strength of science. And, though God cannot be seen as tangibly as I had demanded as a child, His presence can be sensed in every sight and act and incident. Now I know that when man loses this sense, he misses the true quality of life—the beauty of earth, its seasons, and its skies; the brotherhood of men; the joy of wife and children. He loses the infinite strength without which no people can survive—the element which war cannot defeat or peace corrupt.

Now I understand that spiritual truth is more essential to a nation than the mortar in its cities' walls. For when the actions of a people are unguided by these truths, it is only a matter of time before the walls themselves collapse.

The most urgent mission of our time is to understand these truths, and to apply them to our way of modern life. We must draw strength from the almost forgotten virtues of simplicity, humility, contemplation, prayer. It requires a dedication beyond science, beyond self—but the rewards are great and it is our only hope.

WARNING ALL PARENTS!

The following item appeared in our morning paper of February 14th: "U. N. CLASSES URGED. Atlantic City, N. J. The National School Boards Association went on record yesterday favoring teaching U. S. public school children about the United Nations and its 'principles and objectives.'"

"It recommended that 'at appropriate maturity and grade levels, adequate instruction be given about the United Nations . . . as a part of the instruction in civics, U. S. history, and related subjects:'"

"Taylor T. Hicks, member of the Prescott, Arizona, senior high school board, was one of the four directors elected. New NSBA president is Jesse G. Stratton of Clinton, Okla."

Hardly one danger is under control when another springs up. The above item means that poisonous propaganda will be poured into the ears of our children concerning the United Nations, which informed and thinking persons know to be the greatest hoax ever put over on any people in all history. The idea of the NSBA is undoubtedly to prepare the mind of our young people for WORLD GOVERNMENT. The sowing of evil seed in fertile ground.

We, who love America and want to continue as a free people must now work the harder to counteract the effect of these lies and bring out the truth concerning the United Nations. That it is a gigantic plot to destroy America and hand the world over to Communism with Jewish Dictatorship.

The objective of the U. N. is One World Government, which would mean the end of America. The U. N. was formed by Communists Leo Pasvol-sky, Harry Dexter White, and promoted by Alger Hiss. It is ridiculous to think such an unGodly organization would protect this nation against Soviet Union or benefit us in any way. The United Nations is treason; those who work to promote such a project are traitors, innocently, perhaps because they are not informed as to the true purpose of the U. N. but traitors nevertheless.

The United Nations means death to the United States. Our forefathers paid too dear a price for our liberty for us to surrender it to One World Government, and become slaves of a cruel dictator. Parents, in the name of God, who created us FREE, stop this poison from being poured into the minds of your children.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

One who understands the subtle, "highly respectable," "intelligent" propaganda system of the Marxist radio program cannot overlook the Hallmark Playhouse with its Sunday night performance over WCBS at 9 P. M. One night it was the cruel son of a starving Catholic mother whose name was Kelly, who beat his mother, kicked his crippled brother, let his wife, whom he was forced to marry, and their baby starve to death. He was living with a prostitute and hated everything decent. As all this was going on poor Mrs. Kelly was calling on Almighty God, the Blessed Mother, and the Saints. Another Sunday night it was Bernard Baruch, the "great statesman" who rattled through a port, talking of his life, that he abhorred Communism and verbally castigated the Ambassador of Russia for not knowing what the great ideals of "we" Americans stood for. Apparently Baruch knows that the American people are catching on to his hypocritical position as the great benefactor of humanity. The following Sunday it was the life of Edith Cartrell, the nurse who attended to the sick and wounded during World War I. Any other program would have given the life of Edith Cartrell without stopping it all up with German beasts, butcher-birds, etc. But not the Hallmark Playhouse, it had to pick the life of Miss Cartrell and then push her in the background with hate for the German people. It was obvious that there had to be "Jew" brains behind the Hallmark Playhouse, and what do you think we came up with in our first inquiry? The Executive Producer of this program is none other than Raymond Katz, "Jew." And where one finds a snake there is usually a nest of them somewhere in the thicket.

The legal battle against Rabbi Prinz and the American Jewish Congress is in full swing. Just recently Mr. McClellan filed a counter claim against the Rabbi for libel and it looks like there is going to be a long, hard fight ahead. This suit is part of the eight year effort by the American Jewish Congress to destroy Common Sense. The expense in this connection is high. With the loyal support of our friends, a plan on winning in a way that will help the cause of freedom in the United States. Any financial help at this time will be appreciated.

BLOEMFONTEIN (S. Africa) Prime Minister C. F. Malan told the Orange Free State Nationalist Party Congress that the United Nations is a failure: "A cancer eating at the peace and tranquillity of the world. Unless the U. N. is radically reformed," he stated, "it should disappear from the face of the earth." Malan was speaking on a motion that South America withdraw from the U. N. . . . Quote from the "JEWISH CHRONICLE" (June 23, 1950): "Einstein urged that both America and Russia should hand over their Atom Bombs to an International Authority under the control of the U. N. . . . Rabbi Nathan A. Perlmutter has just returned from Germany where he was on a State Department mission to acquaint German leaders with the role of religion in American life. How come? . . . Howard Rushmore, who has written for the Times, Daily Worker, Sunday Worker, New Masses, and every other kind of Communist publication and who was instrumental in inducing hundreds of workers into the Communist Party attacks Common Sense in his Journal American column. Did the 'naive' little boy who helped establish Communism in America really break with the Party, or was he elevated up into the higher echelon of subversion? . . ."

Pres. Eisenhower addressed the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People recently. Although this organization has not as yet been cited by the Un-American Activities Committee, its name shows up so often throughout the Congressional Record that one wonders why it has not been cited. What kind of a President do we have anyway? Some weeks ago he addressed the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith, the largest and strongest League in the world. In a statement describing the principles which will guide Congress in the coming session Eisenhower said, (See Human Events Dec. 23, 1953) "Present a domestic program that will give our people a guarantee that they can depend on the Administration to protect the security, the welfare and the economic stability of each individual citizen." It can't happen here they say. May Almighty God open our eyes before it is too late, for it is happening here . . .

COMMON SENSE wishes to thank all those who have been so kind as to send in valuable material from every corner of the country. In the future please mark date and source of information . . . Martin Dies isn't the same Martin Dies who was in Congress before. For some reason he has lost what McCarthy has . . . Now Bill up before Congress to give the Postmaster General complete censorship power over the U. S. Mails . . . McCarthy spent 40 minutes with Bernard Baruch. Wonder what the head of the Invisible Government had to say to Joe.

A GHOST WALKS IN GERMANY

Republished from Jacksonville Chronicle

Harry Dexter White died in August, 1948. Worried Americans are just beginning to realize that his pro-Soviet leanings still influence American foreign policy.

While an outraged Congress condemns those who promoted White to important Treasury posts, the United States government nevertheless continues to follow a policy laid down in 1945 by White and his group — such men as V. Frank Coe and Harold Glasier, who have been named as Soviet agents by Elizabeth Bentley.

In the light of what we now know about Harry White, it seems criminal fully not to re-examine this policy very carefully indeed.

Here are the facts. In 1945, under the urgings of White, Coe, Glasier and Co., the United States made a remarkable decision. Enemy-owned property which had been seized was not to be returned to its former owners at the war's end. This decision directly reversed the U. S. policy following World War I, and ran contrary to every principle of international law and tradition.

In 1947, Italian national property was returned, but to this very day we have not returned the property of German nationals — nor, it appears, do we intend to do so.

This behavior seems inexplicable when we consider that the West German nation has become one of our most valuable allies in Continental Europe. Yet, while we pour billions of dollars into the German economy, we are treating their nations more shabbily than we have treated any former enemy.

The reason for this seeming paradox may be clearer if we think back to the so-called Morgenthau Plan, now revealed to have been the brain-child of White and his friends. The purpose of this plan, fortunately never adopted in whole, was to reduce Germany to the weakest country in Europe, a course which would have played directly into Soviet hands. One provision, however, which was adopted, called for confiscating all German assets abroad, and that is the essence of our Alien Property policy today.

It appears that the ghost of Harry Dexter White still haunts over West German recovery. The Administration has a clear-cut duty to re-draft this inequitable law, in justice to a country struggling to rebuild itself as our ally.

UNESCO ALL BAD

By CUTHEBERT RITTENHOUSE

UNESCO, which like all Communist, Socialist New Deal lingo, are the first letters of an abominable organization of the equally abominable United Nations.

This UNESCO floods the elementary, high schools and colleges like the dew. Everywhere you turn there is a book, pamphlet or speaker from UNESCO. One of the writers for it is Bertrand Russell. The renegade. He deplores the teaching of history so as to "serve to keep alive a bigoted nationalism," which to him and his tribe—may they decrease—means anything which glorifies the great events and great men of any nation. All national anthems are taboo. Everything must glorify a great Socialist one world with harn yard morals. This was the Russell, remember him now, who advocated young men and women in college living sexually without benefit of clergy. He was once about to be a professor in New York University when Justice McGeehan said he was to head a chair of indecency.

The only thing is for us to get the U.N. out of the United States and get the United States out of the U.N. Everything about it is bad. It's a pest hole of evil. It's a stewing center of treason.

The UNESCO is not only going to color and distort the present and the future, but do over all the things which happened in the past. They have been granted $600,000 to do it. It is called the "History of Mankind." The men doing it are Julian Sorell Huxley, Socialist to the core, Ralph E. Turner, Infidel of Yale, A. L. Kroeber, Infidel of University of California, and Bertrand Russell.

What is going to be the history of mankind when done by these men? It is the UNESCO history; it will have no appeal to bigoted nationalism. Free enterprise will be a monster. A world government, Socialist-Communist dictatorship will be the ideal. The UNESCO will place it in all the schools, unless you cut the throat of UNESCO immediately. Unless you get this thing out of the schools.

The people who founded the Republic of the United States, and guided its destiny for 150 years, just had a lot more sense than those of today. F. D. R. was a failure at law and a failure in business. He was a rich man's son. Truman was a failure in business and sold his soul to the most corrupt political machine in the U. S. He proved his loyalty to the Boss and went places by those who wished to use the government. He was without success, but grabbed up by Harry Hopkins and promoted over the heads of able but not too kissing generals.

The day of ability has died in high office. When the Republic was virile and growing under men like Chief Justice John Marshall, not to be confused with that General George Marshall of infamous memory.

Chief Justice John Marshall said "When our people are free from poverty and want and malnutrition, it will be time enough to permanently settle the world at the expense of the American taxpayer." In the days of these men there was no public debt.

action. The Godless ideologies of Communism, Liberalism, Socialism, Free-thinkers, Leftists, and "One-Worlders," must be exposed and destroyed. The welfare of our children rightly depends upon us. We, as Americans, should offer no compromise for evil. There can be no compromise for they who claim to be Catholic. Either we openly defend our most sacred convictions now, or forever remain silent as Cowards.

You, Mr. Budenz, have found your faith once more. From your past experiences, it is quite obvious that you are informed of many explosive and important facts. May I urge you to give forth in full the energies of your present convictions by answering the following questions.

1. Who in America is the most influential person siding the Communists? also — what organization?

2. Do you believe the United Nations will aid or infringe upon the Civil Liberties of the Catholic Church?

3. Regarding the powerful International Banking Combine of the Schiff Loeb-Warburg — What aid have they given towards the Marxist program and the "One-World Government" ideology now attempting to be instituted before the world?

4. What contributions have the Ford Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation, and the Rosenberg Foundation made toward the "Communist" and "One-World" program?

5. What organization in California contributed towards "The Communist Youth Movement"?

6. Who were the groups, or organizations, that instigated the UNESCO program? — in the United Nations — and also in California?

7. Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, along with Sidney Hillman and Louis Brandeis, were the chief promoters in influencing Roosevelt to "recognize" the government of Red Russia — the question: What powerful influence prevents Congressional Committee from forcing Henry Morgenthau, Albert Einstein and Felix Frankfurter to testify?

8. Did Anna Rosenberg write for the "New Masses" in 1947? Was she a member of the Communist front "John Reed Club"?

9. The "Cosplan" in Soviet Union and the "New Deal" here in America were instituted around the same year — Who were the international financiers that aided and financed both programs?

10. Sam Karp, the brother-in-law of Molotov lives in Bridgeport, Connecticut — Has he ever been involved with the Marxists in America or Europe?

11. How many agents of the OGPU do you believe may be in the U.S.A.?

12. What subversive connections were there between Dr. Achsah and Harold Glasier? (When Glasier was employed in the Treasury Dept.)

13. Who in government positions sided Alger Hiss in his traitorous acts?

14. What International Banking Combine is in control of the treasury of the Soviet Union — also of the Federal Reserve Board in the U.S.A.?

15. Of the 175 leaders of Russia and her satellites, 170 of these "happen" to be non-Gentile. Of the card-carrying Communist in the U.S.A., over 70% "happen" to be non-Gentile. In the United Nations, of the 1800 executives, over 1500 "happen" to be non-Gentile. In the bloody revolution of 1917 — when its leaders were instituted in 1920 — of the important 600 — there were 543 non-Gentile. The non-Gentile has butchered over 40,000 priests since 1917. The non-Gentile International Bankers have consistently financed this program. The question: How in the name of our Catholic faith, can we constantly ignore such important and proven facts?

16. The Church has two distinct enemies — The Communist and the Zionist plan for "one centralized government." Both of these diabolic schemes are aimed at the destruction of the Catholic Church and the entire Christian World. Both are backed by the International Bankers. May I state here, that in no manner does this imply that all non-Gentiles are involved in this program conceived by Satan, but nevertheless, this plot is an established fact and can be proven as such. The question: How can one expose this menace without being called Anti-Semitic?

17. When the Potsdam and Yalta agreements were instituted, this traitorous act enabled the Soviet Union to move across Europe, which in turn put over 80 million Catholics under the heel of the anti-Christ. It further placed all church property, investments, and assets into the treasury of the Communist-Internationalists. What were could not accomplish, the Yalta and Potsdam society did. They have burned our churches, slaughtered our priests, robbed the assets from the church—the question: When do we commence defending our Faith???

18. The American Jewish Committee and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith have many times openly sided the Communist and the Zionist "one-world" program — the question: How do you account for the fact that "The American Jewish Committee" has been able to institute their "educational ideologies" into the Catholic University of Washington, D.C. — which in turn has gone into over 135 parochial schools?

In closing may I state, I intend malice or false statements to no one. My convictions are clear and open. I, and thousands like myself have but one purpose. That objective being to openly defend our Beloved Church and Faith, regardless of the circumstances involved, and to declare further that under no condition will we remain silent while the Internationalists of the United Nations attempt to fly any flag but "Old Glory" gloriously and freely as it should be. Not since the Advent of Christ has the truth been so necessary as it is today. To our faithful priests we beg for leadership and guidance, to the Archbishops and Cardinals of the Church, we beg PLEASE remove the order of silence that has been imposed upon them.

Yours for a better Christian World, I remain,

The Canadian / Friendship League

The following is a copy of a resolution of the Canadian Arab Friendship League sent to the President of United Nations General Assembly.

Mdm. Vijayalakshmi Pandit, President,
United Nations General Assembly,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mdm. Pandit,

I wish to submit respectfully to your attention the following resolution passed by the Canadian Arab Friendship League on October 14th, 1953 at the Windsor Hotel, Montreal which reads as follows:

"For five long years the United Nations have dodged reality and allowed an unanimous decision on the resettlement of the Palestine Arab refugees of December 11th, 1948 to be conveniently forgotten and buried under diplomatic intrigues, which so far has resulted only in lessening the confidence of peoples in the mission of the U.N."

The Canadian Arab Friendship League finds this an opportune time to suggest that in order to restore faith in the world organization by the millions of Asiatics and Africans, an immediate end to oppression and exploitation of all colonial peoples must be made and above all, the Palestine Arab refugees must be allowed to return to their rightful homes.

We believe it advisable that the U.N. Assembly should delegate power to such governments as India, Pakistan, Sweden, Turkey and Greece to enforce the U.N. decision, if necessary by arms or punitive measures against the so-called state of Israel, the all criminal author of indescribable misery to nearly a million innocent human beings.

It is our opinion that the irresolute action of the U.N. on the Palestine problem has only contributed to strengthen other aggressors in their belief that international crimes can be a profitable business, because the U.N. either does not want or has not got the courage to fulfil a mission entrusted to you by all freedom-loving people.

We believe, that if the U.N. are to fulfil their historic mission, world diplomacy should be directed by moral principles of justice to big and small nations alike and not by political expedients resulting from cheap intrigues.

We know that the U.N. have not been true to the conscience of truth and justice in the past, but we have not yet lost faith that past errors can be corrected under new leadership. We believe, Dear Mdm. President that you will not allow the law of the jungle to prevail in the Holy Land, from where once Divine hope of a better world dawned on nations."

Hoping that this resolution, voicing the sentiments of thousands of Canadian citizens advocating justice to helpless Palestine Arabs will receive your attention and will result in appropriate action.

Respectfully yours,
M. S. Massoud, President,

If you want to be a big help in the fight to save your country and to preserve your own liberty and freedom, your best bet at this critical moment is to get on the job and help to boost the circulation of Common Sense up to a million copies. When the Americans are correctly and completely informed on any subject they will always do the right thing at the right time. Circulation of a million copies now will win YOUR fight for YOU. So take off your coat and go to work. MORE distribution and MORE subscriptions in your community may be the "arrow that breaks the camel's back". YOU owe this cooperation to YOURSELF and to YOUR CHILDREN. They did not ask to come into this world. You brought them into it. It is your DUTY TO THEM to do your best to keep the world a fit place to live in. But enough Americans are not yet aware of the conspiracy or the conspirators. Until and unless EVERY American knows the "score" this nation is in grave danger of defeat and destruction by the enemy.

race problem and that now the "Yankees" can solve their difficulties by themselves, and that the South will take care of matters in their own way without interference or advice from the North. In response to this [REDACTED] of the NCPA, and [REDACTED] bragged about their accomplishments from a standpoint of the growth of their organization.

The only decisions reached as a result of this conference was that [REDACTED] insisted that he could not get the members of the Southern Knights of the KKK to organize units of the NCPA in the South, and that all he could do would be to continue to furnish the "White Sentinel", publication of the NCPA, with all memberships that [REDACTED] sells to the American Confederate Army.

For the benefit of offices who may not be familiar with the American Confederate Army, this is an organization [REDACTED] to be used as a front for the Southern Knights of the KKK and the purpose [REDACTED] was to contact [REDACTED] for [REDACTED] of the American Confederate Army, and also to contact [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] the above mentioned group [REDACTED]

The group was warmly received by [REDACTED] who appeared to be [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] and exhibited considerable interest in his work with the American Confederate Army. She explained to [REDACTED] and the others that [REDACTED] had [REDACTED] and was [REDACTED] the group, but that he would be keenly disappointed to learn that [REDACTED] had been there and [REDACTED] was unable to see him. [REDACTED] discussed in detail with [REDACTED] the plans for the American Confederate Army and received her assurance that if she could in any way help, she would be glad to do so. [REDACTED]

MM 100-11349

During a subsequent conversation within this group not in the presence of [REDACTED] both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] of McGENEY and his publication, "Common Sense". This information was subsequently verified by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was identified by [REDACTED] the American Confederate Army and "The White Brotherhood" in Texas. The "White Brotherhood" is a mythical organization, also known as the "White Brotherhood of Bethel", which [REDACTED] is accepting membership to, but which, according to information available at the present time, has not yet been organized. [REDACTED] was further identified by informant as an old Klan organizer and a former organizer for the AF of L.

[REDACTED] failed to keep his appointment [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and on [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] where [REDACTED] explained his idea of the American Confederate Army to two women attendants, who displayed a keen interest in his plans. He promised to send them Colonels' commissions in the American Confederate Army, and they in turn promised to get others to join this organization. [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] and [REDACTED] found that [REDACTED] who was the party they were interested in contacting, was at work and they were unable to contact him.

MM 100-11349

Informant identified [REDACTED] as an [REDACTED] employed by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] of "The Southerners", [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had contacted him on the previous Sunday, but they looked like a pair of "Jews" to him and that he did not want anything to do with them.

[REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that he had been a member of the Klan [REDACTED] from [REDACTED] to [REDACTED]. He also advised them that he has a membership as of that date of 430 paid members in "The Southerners", and that of these 430 paid members, 100 are ex-Klansmen. He also stated that his organization had joined with "The American States Rights Association" of Birmingham, Alabama, and that his contact with this organization was through a [REDACTED] who lives at [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] also stated that the Southerners were going to organize in Meridian, Mississippi, within the next 30 days. [REDACTED] stated, too, that "Macon, Georgia, was hot" and that someone should organize there in the immediate future. He also stated that he had received a letter from a [REDACTED] and that she was very interested in the segregation question at the present time.

[REDACTED] explained that The Southerners were charging $2 for membership, but that this fee was not sufficient to carry on the expenses of the organization, and that they are now approximately $450 in the hole. In this regard, he explained that the American States Rights Association of Birmingham have two types of membership, one which carries the privilege of voting with the membership dues of $25 a year, and a non-voting membership with dues of only $2 a year.

[REDACTED] also assured [REDACTED] that he would suggest to all of his members that they join the American Confederate Army.

b7D

According to [REDACTED] plans a big public meeting within the next few weeks and hopes to secure a politician as speaker. [REDACTED] explained that he expected to greatly increase the membership of his organization from such a meeting.

After their conference with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] they met [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was very enthusiastic about the forming of the American Confederate Army and had previously sent to [REDACTED] a check in the amount of $15 to cover membership fees for the first five members that he had recruited.

Informant identified [REDACTED] also as a member of [REDACTED] where [REDACTED] stated to [REDACTED] that he believed that this Klan was still operating though there had been little activity of late. [REDACTED] stated that he was confident that he would be able to solicit membership for at least 2,000 Colonels in the American Confederate Army by [REDACTED] and that he would be able to secure from this group a "safe" inner group with which to form a Klan unit. b7C b7D

[REDACTED] also explained to [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] American Confederate Army float in the Labor Day Parade [REDACTED] the men on the float dressed in Confederate army uniform, and the girls dressed in ante-bellum costumes. After the parade, [REDACTED] the float in a motorcade from Mobile to New Orleans stopping enroute to solicit membership in the American Confederate Army.

It is through this method that [REDACTED] intended to launch the membership drive in that area for the American Confederate Army. [REDACTED] also requested [REDACTED] to send him a Confederate flag approximately four by five feet. Informant stated that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] an [REDACTED] were unable to contact [REDACTED] On the following day, [REDACTED] learned from [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] would be in [REDACTED] and intended to go from [REDACTED]

Accordingly, [redacted] and [redacted] but there, too, failed to contact [redacted] while in [redacted] wanted to meet [redacted] of the National Association for the Advancement and Protection of the Majority of the White People. [redacted] and [redacted] located [redacted] at his office and spent approximately three or four hours discussing the old time Klansmen.

[redacted] supplied [redacted] with a copy of a handbill entitled, "TO THE WHITE PEOPLE OF AMERICA", which was issued by the NAAPMWP, Inc., Post Office Box 527, Griffin, Georgia. This read as follows:

"On June 9th, 1954 a corporation was formed and chartered by the state of Georgia, under the name of THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT AND PROTECTION OF THE MAJORITY OF THE WHITE PEOPLE, INC.

"This organization was chartered as a non-profit sharing organization, to render a service to the white race of the United States. The sole purpose under the charter of this organization is, to defend or prosecute any cases in any court, which is necessary, to protect and uphold any or all civil rights pertaining to segregation, and protecting the white race against the aggression of such minority groups as the NAACP.

"The organization was chartered and dedicated to get the white people of America to unite in one common cause against any further aggression by the NAACP or any other minority group, which are now attempting to destroy the white race. The white people of America

"We have received thousands of letters, long distance telephone calls and telegrams, from every part of the United States, as a result of the news items published by the newspapers of America which was released to them by the Associated Press from its branch office in Atlanta, Georgia. This demonstrates to us beyond a reasonable doubt, that the white people of America are now determined to join hands and put up a fight for our existence and for which our fore-fathers dedicated their lives for, fought, bled and died to give the white people of America their freedom.

"The organization has set the membership fee at $7.00 per member, and $7.00 per year per member thereafter. There are no other assessments or dues against any member other than the $7.00 per year. In the charter granted to our organization it was provided; that the organization in addition to the membership fee, could receive contributions and donations to help carry on the great work of this organization. Upon receipt of any membership fee, it entitles the person to receive a membership card in which he or she becomes a part of the organization in helping us in any way possible to carry on the work in getting new members.

"The present officers of the organization are, Mr. William D. Derickson, President. Mr. Derickson is a business man who has been engaged as a photographer and has operated in the states of South Carolina and Georgia for the past 22 years. Mrs. Derickson now owns and operates the largest commercial studio, in Griffin, Georgia.

Informant also made available a copy of the platform of the National Patrick Henry Organization, Inc., which purported to be an outline and objectives for action strategy. It was captioned, "TO RESTORE CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT AND KEEP AMERICA AMERICAN". This platform reads as follows:

"Whereas, the inalienable rights of our Declaration of Independence are being tramped under foot and our Constitution - the wise and time tested formula for our REPRESENTATIVE Republican Government with its checks and balances; its safeguards of individual liberty - has become a doorway for unscrupulous, avaricious men:

"Whereas, the Constitution provides for punishment of those who violate it, or who prove disloyal, and the declaration provides the remedy when men show more love for their 'jobs' than for their country, in the following clear and unmistakable language: - 'That whenever any form of Government (or administration?) becomes destructive of these rights, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it;'

"Whereas, thru a series of Marxist inspired legislative sets, beginning with the 14th and 15th amendments of the tragic sixties, resulting from a 'foreign' instigated Civil War, and an abortive Congress of bribed prostitutes, under the direction of usurper, Thad Stevens;

"Whereas, only 55 years later, and only a few years after the second influx of 'Russianite' revolutionist in 1881, paralleling the influx of 'refugees' purportedly fleeing Karl Marx' revolution in Germany, allegedly, the same sinister forces rammed thru Congress over bitter protest the greatest swindle ever perpetrated against a free action - The Rothschild-Warburg Federal Reserve Act of 1913, by which the this continuing world 'communist' conspiracy obtained control of our money system--hence our Gov't;

"Whereas, this was implemented in 1916 by the unconstitutional, Marxist 16th amendment - the graduated income tax to fleece our people of their earnings for what we now know as schemes for communizing the whole world;

"Whereas, this was followed by the further unconstitutional 17th amendment, making Senatorial aspirants subject to bribery in the general elections, the same as Presidential candidates - hand picked - can be seated against the wishes of the people in violations of the provision for appointments by state legislatures;

"Whereas, the Wagner Act; the institution of the so-called 'Bi-partisan' (One party) 'foreign' policy, which is in fact a totalitarian trend, and other schemes and devices for circumventing that sacred document - the Supreme Law of our land, PROVES BEYOND DOUBT that lawless racketeers control our government, and it becomes our sacred duty to oust the offenders;

"Therefore, be it resolved that by the Board of Directors of the Nat'l Patrick Henry Org'n. Inc., in conference assembled, at Museegee Court House, this the 10th day of July, 1954:

"That this and all affiliated organizations and groups, wage an intensive campaign from the local to the state levels, to abolish all four iniquitous amendments, procured thru political chicanery and fraud, at the instigation of 'foreigners' we must now reorganize as ENEMIES for self-defense;

"That these self same enemies, having infiltrated all our educational institutions, including religious, to poison the minds of our people for subversive purposes; also, all civic groups, radio and television to spread their subversive propaganda, have forfeited their privilege of living among us, as a peace loving, Christian nation, desirous of maintaining a proper atmosphere for the development of our children;

3. "That since our American way and traditions seem so obnoxious to those paganistic old world 'liberals', we solemnly declare that as has been forced on other governments in the past, that they be reorganized as ENEMIES constantly warring against us and drafting us into 'foreign' wars, our only hope for survival and peace requires that we EXPEL them to Madagascar where they can build the kind of 'culture' they want for themselves;

4. "That we bring sufficient pressure to this end upon our Representatives who have taken an oath to uphold the constitution, and demand the resignation of all who show opposition to our offers to SAVE OUR HOME LAND; to RESCUE our money system; to STOP this impending Asian war, and END this foreign instigated wars that official Washington ILLEGALLY draft our sons to fight and appropriate our money to finance.

5. "That we oppose with all our right UN, NATO, and UMT for such purposes and demand the return of our troops from foreign soil, to defend our own land, now swarming with an estimated 5 million illegal entrants, with nobody knows how many revolutionists, while we have less than 1 full division on our own soil. . which obviously is planned TREASON;

6. "That we demand severance of diplomatic relations with Russia, whose masters aspire to World government thru their UN and who now control half the world, with their bloody hands at our threats, which makes it encumbent upon us to drive UN from American soil, with all its treasonable agencies and commitments;

7."That we likewise repudiate NATO, another 'communist' been doggling scheme, wherein traitorous persons collaborating with Communists, build up their power while expressing other peace loving people, and likewise with all its secret, treasonable treaties, commitments, by disloyal men;

8."That we demand an end to labor unionism except on a local level for personal improvement and civic betterment, disallowing pressure tac ties which amount to duress:

9."Repudiate both the Bolshevik controlled political parties; let 'Republicans' be proud to join the Constitution Party, and 'Democrats' should do their children the honor of joining the Liberty Party - to perpetuate the Liberty for which our fathers pledged their lives their fortunes their sacred honor;

10."Last but most important: Clean out all our Educational Institutions to try to undo some of the mischief of the past half century - to restore the old time religion of our fathers to our pulpits, and the principles which have ours the greatest nation on earth - our duty to posterity.

"Your comments and suggestions are solicited."

A review of the Detroit Indices was negative in attempting to locate document alleged to have been seized by Government Agents at Bridgeman, Michigan on August 22, 1922.

The above referenced teletype reflects that the Michigan Supreme Court records show Agents of Chicago participated in the raid at Bridgeman, Michigan.

For the information of the Chicago Office, the July 1, 1954 issue of "Common Sense," an anti-Semitic newspaper published in Union, New Jersey, by Conda J. McGinley, carried an article by one Eustace Mullins developing the theme that the United States Supreme Court decision banning segregation in schools is the culmination of a Communist International directive to the Communist Party, USA, to use the Negro-racial issue and the issue of civil rights as a method to weaken the United States. This article indicates that the document to prove this contention was seized by Government Agents who raided the Bridgeman, Michigan, Convention of the Communist Party on August 22, 1922. The article stated that the document is a directive written by Soviet Chief of Propaganda Karl Radek, "the alias of a Jewish revolutionary named Sobelsohn" which document is in the files of the FBI today; however, the Director of the FBI is under strict orders not to reveal the Radek directive at any cost because it would brand the United States Supreme Court as a front or agent of the Communist International.

The Chicago Office is requested to review its Indices in an effort to determine the specific location of the document referred to above.

SYNOPSIS:

Reference is made to my memorandum dated December 15, 1954, wherein you were advised that a detailed memorandum would be submitted regarding the National Renaissance Party (NRP) and "Common Sense" concerning which the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) has prepared a report, according to an article appearing in the final edition of the "Washington Evening Star" for December 14, 1954. According to the article the HCUA will refer the NRP to the Department for consideration under the Smith Act of 1940.

The NRP was formerly known as the Anlist Party which was headed by James H. Madole. In 1948 the NRP was formed by Madole. Activities of NRP are confined to the New York City area. The NRP is described as a neo-Nazi organization which is pro-German and violently anti-Semitic. Official organ of NRP is the "National Renaissance Bulletin" which described the NRP as devoted to the restoration of the American Republic, preservation of American sovereignty and establishment of an American regime based on principles of racial nationalism. "National Renaissance Bulletin" not published in recent months due to lack of funds.

A summary report dated August 26, 1953, on the NRP was forwarded to the Department for consideration under provisions of Executive Order 10450. Copies of reports on NRP are disseminated to Department, intelligence agencies of the Armed Services, State Department and Bureau's Liaison Representative in Heidelberg, Germany. Headquarters of NRP located at 10 West 90th Street, New York City, the residence of Madole. Weekly meetings of NRP held in Madole's apartment and are attended by approximately 10 individuals. Several public meetings held by NRP in recent months under guise of Patriots for McCarthy. Madole's speeches at these meetings reportedly violently anti-Semitic. No recent indication NRP attempting to establish branches in other cities or that NRP is attempting to affiliate with other nationalists groups.

"Common Sense" is anti-Semitic and anti-Communist newspaper which is published semi-monthly by Conde J. McGinley in Union, New Jersey. Publication originally instituted in July, 1946, under name of "Think Weekly" which was subject of Bureau investigation instituted in August, 1946, on basis of allegation it was Fascist. Investigation closed in October, 1946, and failed to substantiate Fascist allegation. Name changed to "Common Sense" in June, 1947. Summaries of available information on "Common Sense" and McGinley furnished Department under dates of January 20, 1951, and January 10, 1952. McGinley claims circulation of 200,000 to 300,000 copies of each issue although informant advises McGinley obtains mailing list from telephone directories and organization lists. Investigation instituted in October, 1954, upon receipt of information by Newark Office that McGinley and supporters were forming organization called "Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey," to promote publication of "Common Sense."

OBSERVATIONS:

Mr. Nichols is obtaining a copy of the HCUA report and upon receipt thereof it will be carefully analyzed and recommendations will be made based thereon.

It is believed we should advise the Department relative to the newspaper article appearing in the "Washington Evening Star" for December 14, 1954, regarding HCUA report prepared on NRP and "Common Sense," referring the Department to all reports furnished by the Bureau on the NRP and requesting the Department to advise whether activities of NRP constitute violation of Smith Act of 1940. Letter in this regard is attached.

The Newark Office was telephonically contacted on the morning of December 15, 1954, relative to the investigation of the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey. Newark advised that a report on this organization would be submitted to reach the Bureau by December 17, 1954. Upon receipt of this report, it will be promptly furnished to the Department.

RECOMMENDATION:

You will be kept advised of all developments regarding this matter.

If you approve, it is recommended that the attached letter be sent to the Department.

DETAILS:

The "Washington Evening Star" on December 14, 1954, carried an article stating that the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) in a report on neo-Fascist and hate groups in America will call on the Department of Justice to invoke the Smith Act (of 1940) against the National Renaissance Party (NRP).

There is set forth below a summary of information appearing in Bureau files relative to the NRP and "Common Sense" which is a publication also referred to in the HCUA report.

National Renaissance Party (NRP)

b7c The NRP was formerly known as the Animist Party which was headed by James H. Madole. The Bureau initiated an investigation of the Animist Party in May, 1947, and information relative to this organization was furnished to the Department on September 25, 1947. In October, 1947, the New York Office advised that the Animist Party had no active membership and that Madole communicated with other nationalist groups in the United States hoping to incorporate all nationalist groups into one with himself as the leader. In this connection it is noted Madole corresponded with [REDACTED] of the Nationalist Action League and Gerald L. K. Smith of the Christian Nationalist Crusade. The case on the Animist Party was closed by the New York Office on December 22, 1947. Reports on the Animist Party were furnished to the Department.

This case was reopened on July 22, 1953, when it was determined that Madole had renewed his pro-Fascist activities under the banner of the NRP. A summary report dated August 26, 1953, was submitted by the New York Office reflecting that in 1948 shortly after Madole got out of high school he started the NRP. The activities of the NRP are confined to the New York City area, particularly the section known as Yorkville. The NRP is described by informants as neo-Nazi, pro-German and violently anti-Semitic. The official organ of the NRP is known as the "National Renaissance Bulletin" which describes the NRP as "devoted to a restoration of the American Republic, the preservation of American sovereignty and the establishment of an American regime based on the principles of racial nationalism and social justice." A review of this organ reflects it to be neo-Nazi, pro-German and violently anti-Semitic. It has attacked various leaders of the Government as well as the United Nations and the Government of the Western Republic of Germany.

In August, 1949, a reliable informant made available a pamphlet describing the aims of the NRP as follows:

1. Nationalization of our people through an educational campaign among college, church and labor groups.
2. Termination of political bureaucracy and establishment of rule by the intellectual elite.
3. Private enterprise and equality of opportunity for the ambitious.
4. Repeal of all bureaucratic red tape involving private enterprise and industrial evolution through monopoly.
5. Fast rearmament program for defense; atomic energy to be governed by the military.
6. Ten year reconstruction project for complete slum clearance.
7. Right to work in "open shops" free of labor exor tyranny.
8. To free politics and culture from domination by racial minorities.
9. Acceptance and reindustrialization of Germany and Japan as Allies in the Western coalition against Communism.
10. To cease squandering American wealth and resources abroad while many Americans remain poorly housed, clothed and fed.
11. Free college education for all American youth.

12. To create a united national community wherein workers and management can work, hand in hand, toward our great national destiny envisioned by the founders of our American Republic.

13. To replace cowardice and the glorification of weakness with a national community based on courage, strength and loyalty.

A copy of the New York Summary report on the NRP dated August 26, 1953, was sent to the Department for its consideration in connection with the provisions of Executive Order 10450. Copies of this summary report were also disseminated to the intelligence agencies of the Armed Services, the Central Intelligence Agency, Department of State and the Bureau's Liaison Representatives in Salzburg and Heidelberg, German. Subsequent reports received regarding the NRP are disseminated regularly to the Department, intelligence agencies of the Armed Services, Department of State and the Bureau's Liaison Representative in Heidelberg, Germany. *

The headquarters of the NRP is currently located at Madole's apartment located at 10 West 90th Street, New York City. Current activities of the NRP according to New York report of November 6, 1954, consist of weekly meetings in Madole's apartment which are attended by approximately 10 individuals. A public meeting of the NRP was held on July 1, 1954, under the name of Patriots for McCarthy which was attended by about 17 individuals. Subsequent meetings under the guise of Patriots for McCarthy were held by the NRP on October 2 and 25, 1954, which were attended by about 30 to 50 people. It is reported that some of the people attending a Patriots for McCarthy meeting on August 27, 1954, believed they were actually attending a McCarthy (Senator Joseph R. McCarthy) rally and that there was a great deal of furor over Madole's anti-Semitic remarks and because very little was said about McCarthy.

The official organ of the NRP, the "National Renaissance Bulletin" has not been published in recent months due to a lack of funds. A reliable informant has advised that there is no indication the NRP has established any branches in other parts of the United States and that there is no indication the NRP has presently attempted to affiliate with other neo-Nazi groups.

All reports since the summary of 8-26-53, the last report being dated 11-5-54.

"Common Sense":

"Common Sense" is a semi-monthly newspaper which is published at the residence of its editor, Conde J. McGinley, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey, and is self-described as "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper."

McGinley has been described by a reliable informant who was acquainted with him in 1944 as being sympathetic with Germany during World War II because Germany was fighting Communism and because he felt that portion of Nazi philosophy directed against the Jews was a correct one. This informant stated that McGinley and his associates are violently anti-Semitic, that they consider themselves "Nationalists" and that they are dedicated to the saving of America from the invisible government or world government of Zionism.

This publication was originally instituted by McGinley in July, 1946, under the name "Think Weekly." The Bureau initiated a security investigation of "Think Weekly" and McGinley in August, 1946, on the basis of information received from a reliable informant who stated that "Think Weekly" was a Fascist newspaper serving under the guise of being anti-Communist. Investigation at that time failed to reflect that the paper was Fascist, although it was strongly anti-Communist. This investigation was closed in October, 1946.

In June, 1947, the name of the paper was changed to "Common Sense," although its violent anti-Semitic and anti-Communist policy has remained unchanged to the present date. Copies of this publication were furnished the Department on several occasions and by memorandum dated December 7, 1950, the Criminal Division of the Department was furnished the October 15, 1950, issue and was requested to advise the Bureau as to any investigation desired. By memorandum dated January 11, 1951, the Department requested additional information concerning this publication which was furnished by our memorandum dated February 1, 1951. In addition, under date of January 30, 1951, and again on January 10, 1952, at the request of then Assistant Attorney General Vaneek, a summary of information in our files relative to this publication and McGinley was furnished to the Department.

In November, 1953, it was reliably reported that McGinley planned to circulate 1,000,000 copies of the latest issue of "Common Sense" with his objective being to get this paper into the hands of law enforcement officials and legislators. In order to acquaint the field with this matter SAC letter 54-4 was issued under date of January 19, 1954, and furnished a brief sketch of the publication and McGinley.

According to a reliable informant who is personally acquainted with McGinley, McGinley claims the circulation of "Common Sense" is between 200,000 and 300,000 copies of each issue. This same informant advised, however, that McGinley uses telephone directories and organization lists to make up his mailing list with the result that this publication frequently is received unsolicited by many people throughout the country.

By letter dated October 15, 1954, the Newark Office advised that McGinley and his supporters are planning to form an organization under the name "Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey" to promote the publication of "Common Sense." As a result of this information investigation of this matter was immediately instituted by the Newark Office on the above date. Advice was telephonically received from the Newark Office on December 15, 1954, that a report regarding the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, will be submitted to reach the Bureau by December 17, 1954. A copy of this report will be promptly forwarded to the Department.

DETAILS:

This investigation has been initiated to develop information on the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, which is now the publisher of "Common Sense" -- "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper." It has been reported to be the name used by CONDE J. MC GINLEY, editor of "Common Sense" for the publication of so-called "hate leaflets" fostering intolerance of Jews. There is an indication that the name may be used in the future for a group of associates of CONDE MC GINLEY who assist in the dissemination of the publication and participate in periodic meetings organized and directed by MC GINLEY.

The origin of the name CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION is not known to Newark Confidential Informant [REDACTED] who has furnished reliable information in the past and who has been associated with CONDE J. MC GINLEY, and the publication "Common Sense" [REDACTED]. The informant believes that the name, which is a new one, has probably been adopted by MC GINLEY to avoid further legal entanglements which have beset him in the past as a result of the publication of "Common Sense", which was owned, edited and published by MC GINLEY.

On September 27, 1954, Newark [REDACTED] furnished information indicating that CONDE J. MC GINLEY, editor of "Common Sense", was planning a meeting which was to be held in mid October, 1954 and that there was some indication that MC GINLEY would use as sponsor of this meeting the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION. The informant also advised that MC GINLEY had published a leaflet which was an appeal for funds to support the publication "Common Sense" and which was identified at the end of the leaflet as having been issued by the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF NEW JERSEY.

A leaflet in the form of a letter, captioned "Fight Or Enslavement", issued by the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION--publishers of "Common Sense"--described MC GINLEY's fight against Jewish organizations who were attempting to drive him out of the publishing business. This leaflet was received in the mail by the Newark Office in an envelope postmarked October 2, 1954, bearing the return address Box 807, Union, New Jersey. This is the Post Office Box maintained by CONDE J. MC GINLEY for "Common Sense." A return envelope enclosed with the letter was addressed to "Common Sense", "The Anti-Communist Newspaper, Union, New Jersey."

Recent copies of "Common Sense" have been mailed in a white envelope bearing the return address CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION, Union, New Jersey.

In the September, 1954 issue of "Common Sense", Number 214, there is set forth a statement of ownership and management of "Common Sense", published semi-monthly at Union, New Jersey. In this statement there appears the following paragraph:

"The name and address of the publisher is Christian Educational Association, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey. The owner is: Christian Educational Association, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey; stockholders, Conde McGinley, C. J. McGinley and A. Jefimau, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey. The known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: none. Signed, Conde J. McGinley."

The newspaper continues to print its identification as "Common Sense, Union, New Jersey; Conde McGinley, editor, address 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey.

Previous statement of ownership appearing in Issue #193, September 15, 1953 was as follows:

(1) The name and address of the publisher and editor is CONDE MC GINLEY, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey;

(2) The owner is CONDE MC GINLEY, 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey;

(3) The known bondholders, mortgagees and other security holders owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages or other securities are: None. Signed, CONDE MC GINLEY, Publisher.

This statement was sworn to before a Notary Public, October 1, 1953, in the State of New Jersey, in the County of Union, as required by law.

OFFICERS

In the statement of ownership appearing in the September 15, 1954 issue, the following individuals are listed as stockholders in the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION of 530 Chestnut Street, Union, New Jersey: CONDE MC GINLEY, C. J. MC GINLEY, A. JEFIMAU.

CONDE J. MC GINLEY

The following background on CONDE J. MC GINLEY has been obtained from employment records and from Newark [REDACTED] b2 b7D

MC GINLEY was born October 13, 1890 in Norman, Texas. He resided there until 1930 when he moved to Dallas, Texas. In the late 1920's he moved to the New Jersey Seashore resort town of Belmar, where he assisted his wife in the establishment and operation of a small chain of curb restaurants known as Celia Browns. The restaurants operated successfully during the early 1930's up to 1941. Following 1941, MC GINLEY and his wife suffered a series of failures.

During World War II, MC GINLEY was employed as an inspector at the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation of America, Union, New Jersey, where he was considered to have been a hard worker, patriotic, and with a son in the United States Marine Corps. b2 b7D

According to Newark [REDACTED] MC GINLEY and his associates were in no way un-American or anti-American but were sympathetic with Germany during the war on the grounds that the Germans were fighting Communism and that portion of Nazi philosophy which dictated the extermination of all Jews was a correct one. The informant reported that MC GINLEY and his associates were, and, has reported, they continue to be, violently anti-Semitic. MC GINLEY and his associates consider themselves Nationalists in that they are dedicated to the "saving of America from the invisible government, world Zionism." MC GINLEY and his associates, according to the informant, consider Communism as but a part of the plot of Zionism for world government and the defeat of Christianity.

CONDE MC GINLEY has been editor and publisher of what he considers to be an anti-Communist newspaper since July, 1946. He launched his crusade against world Zionism with a modest publication known as "Think Weekly." His first paper was dedicated to the fight against the Communist threat to Christianity. Shortly after the appearance of "Think Weekly", the publication's name was changed to "Common Sense". The size of the paper increased from letter size to tabloid size and the masthead proclaimed it as "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper."

b2 b7D

According to Newark [REDACTED] MC GINLEY continues to be the moving force in the publication of the paper and has only a few individuals who assist in the editing, publishing, printing, and dissemination of his newspaper. MC GINLEY also continues to be the moving force behind various meetings held under the sponsorship of "Common Sense", designed primarily for the dissemination of his paper.

b2 b7D b7C

AIMS AND PURPOSES

According to the informant, the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION is only a device for the publishing of "Common Sense" and has no aims and purposes other than the publication of the newspaper.

ACTIVITIES

According to the informant, the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION has issued several leaflets appealing for support of the publication "Common Sense." It has also issued a leaflet captioned, "These Marxist Systems; Stalin Communism or Trotsky Communism?" The leaflet indicates that "Jews set up Communism in Russia during 1917, financed mainly from New York, and supported it for 35 years. No Jewish leader dares try to refute this. During this period the Zionists were protected in Russia."

This leaflet indicates "If Washington thinks and acts as the Jews want it to then Washington has become a Jewish government and is no longer an American Government. What do we mean by Washington? We mean our administration and our elected senators and congressmen. They can and will stop Communism if we elect strong Christian men. It is necessary for every good American to take an interest in seeing that the pro-American Americans are nominated on both tickets in primary elections, for if the organized Marxists succeed in placing their men on both tickets at the election it makes little difference who is elected."

According to the informant, two meetings of MC GINLEY's associates have been held since the name of the publisher was changed to CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION. No information has been developed indicating that the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION was listed as sponsor of these meetings. b2 b7D

Newark [redacted] attended a meeting of "Common Sense" group held December 12, 1954, at which no mention of the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION was made.

A [redacted] New Jersey, attended a meeting held by "Common Sense" at 530 Chestnut Street, Union, on November 14, 1954. She reported that she had attended the meeting as a pro-Senator Joseph McCarthy rally and no mention of the CHRISTIAN EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION was reported by her. [redacted] furnished the information on November 15, 1954 after having attended the meeting upon invitation, not knowing the nature of the affair. She reported that the meeting had nothing to do with Senator MC CARTHY and appeared to be devoted to vicious outspoken anti-Semitism. b7C

"COMMON SENSE"

The publication "Common Sense", "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper", first appeared in the summer of 1946. Its theme was Christianity against Communism. A review of articles appearing in the early editions of the newspaper reflect that Communists were invariably referred to as "Zionist Marxists."

In the early editions MC GINLEY's fear of the United States being taken over by the world government of the Zionists was veiled. Recently the paper has been openly anti-Jewish.

A sampling of article headlines appearing in the publication "Common Sense" during the past year is being set forth:

Issue No. 193 9/15/53

"The Jewish Peril of the Catholic Church" As Revealed By the Catholic Gazette (London, England).

"Jews Beat Drums of Victory Before Battle Commences."

An ad for the Protocols of the learned elders of Zion translated from the Russian by VICTOR E. MARSDEN was advertised for sale through "Common Sense" under the heading, "We Dare You to Read the Protocols."

Issue No. 195 10/15/53

"Jews Defy UN and Get U.S. Dollar."

"Who Owns the Jews?", by Henry H. Klein (Attorney and former Jew.)

Issue No. 197 11/30/53

Ad for publication "Why Testify-- American Invisible Government Unmasked", available through "Common Sense", author ROBERT E. EDMONDSON.

NK 105-1910

Issue 199	2/1/54	"Zionist Leaders Attack Oil Industry" by EUSTACE MULLINS. "Coffee--A Jewish Monopoly" by EUSTACE MULLINS.
Issue 200	2/15/54	"We are Under World Dictatorship" by ELIZABETH DILLING.
Issue 202	3/15/54	"World Crucifixion of the Master Race", by ELIZABETH DILLING.
Issue 204	4/15/54	Feature story with headline, "Invisible Government Controls the Washington Press," by EUSTACE MULLINS. Article "Congress Knows the Facts But Afraid to Oppose the Invisible Government."
Issue 210	7/15/54	Feature Headline "155,000,000 Gentile Americans Eat Kosher Foods Under Forced Jewish Monopoly."
Issue 212	8/15/54	Feature headline "Arabs Victims of Zionism--World Jewry Destroys Nations With American Finances and Power."

According to Newark [REDACTED] the circulation of "Common Sense" runs approximately 20,000 to 50,000 copies per issue, depending upon donations and subscriptions received by MC GINLEY, who lives on the bare necessities of life and uses all funds collected for the publication and dissemination of his newspaper. b2 b7D

On special occasions the circulation figure is increased for a specialized mailing to legislators or city officials and has reached as high as 200,000.

Jesus Christ — The Master Whom Everyone May Know

HERE IS A MAN who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty, and then for three years He was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put His foot inside a big city. . . .

. . . He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but Himself. He had nothing to do with this world except the naked power of His divine manhood. While still a young man, the tide of popular opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. He was turned over to His enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth while He was dying — and that was His coat. When He was dead He was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone and today He is the centerpiece of the human race and the leader of the column of progress.

I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that ever were built, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together have not affected the life of man upon this earth as powerfully as has the One solitary life.

was editor and Bartley Krum, publisher, both left wingers. Barnes is credited with having written or edited Eisenhower's book "Crusade in Europe." Krum recently renounced communism.

The Weiss family has been active in Zionist-communist matters. Weiss's sister Carol Weiss King, was a leading communist lawyer. The Weiss law firm defended Marshall Field and the defunct P. M. in my libel suit. Of course, I couldn't win.

One member of Weiss's firm is a trustee of the Institute of Advanced Study at Princeton, headed by Albert Einstein and J. Robert Oppenheimer. One of the trustees of that institute testified as the only character witness for Carlo Marzanni of the State Department and O. S. S., convicted of perjury in denying he was a communist.

Zionists actively oppose investigation of communists in government, like the late F. D. R. did, and they own newspapers and control radio and television commentators. Baruch has many press agents; so has Frankfurter. All of which winds up in the answer given by Waldo Frank in the February, 1944 issue of the Contemporary Jewish Record published by the American Jewish Committee, leading Jewish authority, where he says:

"There is a 'great Jew conspiracy.'"

Based on the "dream for messianic world power" and that "Political Zionism is the instrument for its fulfillment."

The protocols have been fulfilled. Zionism rules the world. It created the second world war because Hitler double crossed the Jewish and Christian money gang

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT MAN

(Editor's Note: Due to unavoidable interference with our printing schedule, it has been impossible to publish this article heretofore. Although late view of the fact that Father Brophy had many friends all over the United States, we feel we should publish this in his memory.)

On June 18, 1954, Rev. Edward F. Brophy, pastor of Precious Blood Church, Long Island City, N. Y. died of a cerebral hemorrhage. His death saddened all of us and ended the earthly career of a courageous man of God.

Father Brophy had been a priest for fifty years and had just celebrated his 77th birthday. He was the author of "The Brotherhood Religion—Is it Anti-Christianism?" and was keenly aware of the Zionist-Marxist threat to destroy Christianity. Alert to the many subtle anti-Christian trends which have permeated various segments of society, Father Brophy's protests were vehement, constant and fearless. His life was devoted to Christ's work and the furtherance and preservation of Christian ideals. All his actions were motivated by this dominant philosophy. Compromise was an unknown quality to this truly great man.

In the past Father Brophy had contributed material for Common Sense. His frequent letters to us were a source of encouragement and moral strength. Shortly before his death, arrangements had been made for Father Brophy to address a group of Common Sense supporters on June 27th.

The eulogy, preached by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis P. Connelly at the Requiem Mass, included a reference to an event on the occasion of the ordination of Father Brophy. On this day, Msgr. Connelly relates, Father Brophy turned to a few of his classmates and said: "Don't forget the message sent by Jesus through St. John to the Church at Smyrna, 'Be thou faithful until death and I will give you the crown of life'".

Continuing, he spoke of Father Brophy as follows: "He was always a zealous priest and ambassador of Christ. He was an authority on Canon Law and kept before his mind the words of the great St. Augustine, 'Every dweller in the city of God must be a worker, and every voyager in the bark of Peter must bend to the oars'".

"... From his earliest years like another Samuel he answered God's call 'Speak Lord for thy servant heareth.' Like another St. Paul he cried out, 'Lord, what wilt Thou have me do,' and the answer was 'come follow me'; become another Christ; accept the highest honor that man can receive."

"He loved above all his priesthood, and in trial and sorrow had his consolation when he considered his dignity and power as an ambassador of the Most High—a power and dignity far superior in glory and magnificence to the highest offices and powers within the gift of man to bestow."

"... This dignity and power of the priesthood was realized by our departed friend for over 50 years and he exercised it with fidelity and zeal, and in so doing gave comfort to others and consolation to himself. He preached the Word of God forcibly and clearly and was a real ambassador of Christ."

Christ's promise to "those who acknowledge Him before men", must surely apply to the life and works of Rev. Edward F. Brophy. We have lost a very dear friend but we are confident that he has earned an honored place in the Kingdom of Him whom he served so faithfully.

that gave him one hundred million dollars and it will start a third world war if necessary to completely enslave the people as stated in the protocols.

Stalin turned on Zionism and died. Russian delegates to the Zionist super government, continue to hobnob and fraternize with American delegates and Russia still dominates the United Nations with its veto power. The Nuremberg trials killed off German leaders and the Morgenthau plan buried Germany and gave Russia our money plates. Baruch wants Russia to share the A and H bombs.

Zionism is not Judaism. It is a terroristic political program. Palestine is not a refuge for poor Jews. It is an investment for about 1500 American stockholders in the Palestine Economic Corporation and the chemical trust of England, that owns nearly everything of value there. A million Jews were driven there to protect these properties.

Zionism doesn't mean Palestine alone. It means the United States and the world to set up TITO and other Communist groups.

SCHOTTLAND MADE

Another piece falls into place in the pattern for the proposed Jewish police-state. Quote from Human Events, August 4, 1954: "— Assistant Secretary of Defense (in charge of manpower) John Hammah discloses that the Administration will propose what is in effect a Universal Military Training program. — Also, there is expert opinion that the proposed program will in substance federalize the National Guard and take control of local militia out of the hands of the state."

Add the above to the urgency of the efforts of the Jews in Washington to get EVERYBODY under Social Security and the analogy between our situation and that of the Russians before Lenin and Trotsky took over, becomes clear.

During World War II, all American civilians connected with the war effort were policed by the War Manpower Commission under the chairmanship of Anna Rosenberg, by means of their compulsory Social Security cards. Labor was controlled by United States Employment Service, both employer and employee were disciplined through the police system called Social Security.

Since the war Social Security has been extended to cover most of the American population, it was the plan of the Eisenhower palace guard that no one should be free from the Ubiquitous Eye of B'nai B'rith (in the person of Schottland presiding over the United States Secret Police Headquarters), Social Security, in Baltimore, Md.

There, in S. S. Headquarters in Baltimore, everyone under Social Security, has recorded on microfilm all data on his personal, business and family life. The perfect police state setup. What are they waiting for? The final passage of the extended Social Security program, federal control and disarmament of all local militia and the MADE EMERGENCY. With the emergency will come martial law, disarmament of all civilians, and then like the Russians, we can fight the enemy in control of the police state with bare fists and stones.

OPPENHEIMER REPLACED BY RABI

Recently, the 982 page volume of the security board hearings in the Oppenheimer case has been released. Much of the testimony given under oath is undeniably damaging to the scientist—and alarming to Americans when one realizes his position on the Atomic Energy Commission and its vital importance to our national security.

William L. Borden, former executive secretary of the Senate-House Atomic Committee, testified that Oppenheimer "had no close friends except Communists", "had at least one Communist mistress" and that "he belonged to Communist organizations, apart from professional affiliations." He also stated that Oppenheimer "was in frequent contact with Soviet espionage agents."

Another witness, Dr. Edward Teller, a leading nuclear physicist, stated that the development of the H-Bomb was delayed four years because of Oppenheimer and others. In this connection, it must be noted that Oppenheimer headed a group of scientists who unanimously advised the AEC in 1949 against proceeding with a full-scale effort to develop the H-Bomb.

Dr. Oppenheimer himself testified that he had been informed by an associate that a George Eltenton "had means of getting technical information to Soviet scientists." However, instead of bringing this to the attention of the authorities, he said that he felt reluctant to mention the name of his informer, Haakon Chevalier, a close friend of his. A rather misplaced sense of loyalty!

This scientist, whose wife was a Communist, whose brother was a Communist, and whose closest friends were Communists, and who aided the Loyalists in Spain and several Red-front organizations in America, has all the secrets of the Atom Bomb and Hydrogen Bomb! And who is appointed to succeed this Communist Jew? None other than another Jew, Prof. Isidore Rabi from Columbia University.

Entered as Second Class Matter January 27, 1948 at the Post Office at Union, N. J., under the act of March 3, 1879.

NAACP COMMUNIST FRONT SPLITS U.S. - DIVIDE & RULE

INTEGRATION IN MILFORD

The success achieved thus far by those who strive for the culmination of the Jewish-Marxist plan for world domination has been due to several factors. Not the least of these is the use that has been made of individuals or groups as effective tools in the furtherance of their atheistic scheme. A striking example is the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. This organization, supposedly set up for the benefit of the Negro, is, in reality, hastening the final attainment of the Marxists' goal. Running true to form, they offer empty promises of better living conditions and higher social standards (a la, the so-called "Workers' Paradise" in Soviet Union) to the Negro population.

The secret behind the effectiveness of the methods employed is the fact that the real purpose is always cleverly camouflaged. The "front" organizations always set up a facade of endeavoring to accomplish a particular ideal. In this way, there is the assurance of support from that group of people which the organization allegedly helps; as well as from many unsuspecting individuals who, because of their innate goodness, are actively interested in the welfare of others. Another by-product of this kind of devious planning is the dilemma one faces when exposing such organizations and attempting to reveal the underlying purposes. So ingenious are these perpetrators of evil that they are still able to baffle the issue despite exposure. For example, when one points out the Jewish-Marxist influence in the NAACP, he is branded "anti-Negro". Obviously, this is not necessarily so. These anti-Christian elements are not adverse to using anyone or anything to speed their progress and they are as dangerous to the colored person as they are to the white man. Their boasts of freedom, security, peace and what-have-you are tempting and are aimed at inciting

When the U. S. Supreme Court handed down its decision that the white and colored races will be forced to integrate, very few Americans realized the vast importance of the decision. The Court's ruling did not constitute the sentiments of the majority of the American citizens, nor was it, as some thought it to be, a decision giving equal rights to a minority race. It is true these are the reasons given by the controlled press, radio, and television. However, let us examine the problem on a local basis and determine for ourselves what the real purpose is for this radical change in tradition.

In the clean moderate sized combination farming and commercial town of Milford, Delaware, with its small population composed mainly of farmers there reigned a period of peace and tranquility for years. There was always a harmonious relationship among the populace and because of the seasonal farming requirements for labor, several negro families lived in this small community for years. Yes, there were difficulties, but the citizens of Milford always managed to straighten out their own problems. The colored population was peaceful and contented. This was the picture that existed prior to the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court on non-segregation.

From then on there was unrest in Milford. A whispering campaign began among the residents of Milford and soon it developed into a meeting of the people. The question in everyone's mind was, "What is going to happen?" For the first time, the colored man and the white man looked at each other with suspicion. Neither one considered the other his enemy, but some unknown third party had set into motion an idea which both believed was to his respective detriment. It was quite obvious that there was going to be trouble, trouble that neither group wished nor had instigated. But it was happening and something had to be done to protect the rights of both white and colored.

The result was a public mass meeting on September 17, 1954 in the American Legion Home in Milford. This meeting was attended by more than 2,000 people, many more than could get inside the building. A resolution was drawn and signed by 1,500 persons, and addressed to the Milford School Board, petitioning them to immediately withdraw from attendance at the previously all white high school, the 10 or 11 negro students who had received admittance to the high school on the opening day of the present school term. It was decided that everyone would meet in a body at the high school the following Monday morning, September 20, for the purpose of orderly presenting the petition to the Milford School Board.

The above action was carried out with 1,500 persons present, and also present was an out-of-state pressure representative of the NAACP, who tried to aggravate violence, even though it had been emphatically stated by all other leaders present that the first consideration was to prevent violence. The result of this meeting was the closing of all schools in Milford (White and Colored).

The relationship between the white and colored races was no problem until a certain faction, known among the informed as Jewish Communism, came upon the scene. Thirty years ago, the organization from New York City, the National Association for the Advancement of colored People fanned out throughout the South. From its inception it was tagged as a Communist front with Jewish leadership, Jewish direction and Jewish money. Now, why should Jews be interested in fostering the cause of the Negro, the average person may ask. To have a clearer picture of the situation, we must digress for a specific groups. But one look at the "peace, security and freedom" in Marxist-dominated countries invalidates their alleged program.

Marxist "Interest" In Negro Welfare

It is an established fact that the Reds have used others to do a major share of their revolutionary work for them. And it is not likely that they would overlook the potential value of the vast Negro population in this country. Innumerable schemes have been carried out to lure the colored person into the Communist Party. But, the Communist Party, as such, could not achieve its avowed purpose. Point Two in the program, would have to be the formation and direction of an organization allegedly set up for the "welfare" of the Negro — hence, the NAACP.

Ample evidence can be found in Communist literature. In "A Racial Program for the Twentieth Century", written in 1912 by the Jewish Communist, Israel Cohen, the following is stated: "We must realize that our Party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By pounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party. . . . In America, we will aim for a subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavour to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise to prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negroes will be able to inter-marry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause."

A 1921 directive of the Communist International makes unmistakably clear the Party's "interest" in the welfare of the Negro. Written by Karl Radek (a Jewish revolutionary whose real name was Sobelsohn), the directive gave explicit orders to the Communist Party of America to stir up racial strife between white and black American citizens, to force the two groups together in order to create race riots and to carry on relentless agitation for "Negro rights".

The Communist program regarding the Negro question was stated by Benjamin J. Davis, at the Party's 15th National Convention, Dec. 1950, in New York City. Speaking of the Negro liberation movement, Mr. Davis said: "The unique contribution of Communists in movement is to imbue it with a revolutionary perspective, as against a reformist perspective."

And on pages 16 and 17 of "Marxism and Negro Liberation" by the National Secretary of the Communist Party, Gus Hall, we read: "... who can deny that it is partially because of the influence of Marxism that the Negro people today see more clearly than ever the road ahead?" Also, "... the very existence of our Party, and especially the outstanding role of our Negro comrades . . . is a powerful influence on the course of the struggle for Negro liberation." And, "Finally, I think it is correct to say that the growing appreciation of the need to study the history of the Negro people, including the celebration of Negro History Week, reflects the influence of Marxist thinking within our country."

The Congressional Report of the testimony of Manning Johnson (Un-American Activities Committee Hearings, July 14, 1949) reproduces a map which was compiled by the Communist party in the 1930's. It shows an area, covering 11 Southern States which would constitute a separate Negro Soviet Republic. This program, useful in stirring up racial hatred, was officially termed, "Self-determination for the Black Belt." The map was originally published in 1938 in an official Communist pamphlet, "Negro Liberation", by James S. Allen.

The NAACP

A brief summary of the origin, officers, affiliations and activities of the NAACP will more than substantiate the charges that the organization was and is under Jewish-Marxist influence.

Among the founders and early supporters of the NAACP were William E. Walling (schooled in revolution in Russia and whose wife had spent time in a Russian prison for her part in the Bolshevik uprising of 1905), Dr. Henry Moskowitz, Mary Ovington White, Oswald G. Villard (a parlor-pink of the Norman Thomas school), Rabbi Stephen S. Wise (known for his Red activities), Jane Addams (active in Red-Front organizations), Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch, Lillian D. Wald, Florence Kelley (real name, Weshnewetsky. Six Communist-front citations — was a personal friend of Engels and Lenin) and W. E. B. DuBois (cited as having belonged to a dozen or so Communist-front organizations, was one of the few Negroes of note in the organization at the time). And the NAACP was supposedly formed for the benefit of the Negro!

When the NAACP was originated, a special appeal, signed by 53 individuals, was sent out, calling for aid. Of these 53, more than a third have been cited by the U. S. Government as Communists or members of Communist-front groups! Who does the NAACP really represent?

Walter A. White, executive secretary of the NAACP has 12 Communist front citations to his credit, and Dr. Channing Tobias, Chairman of the Board of Directors, has a record of at least 50 COMMUNIST-front affiliations. In the official minutes of the organization (Nov. 10, '52 and Dec. 8, '52) a listing of the National Board of Directors of the NAACP included several individuals with Marxist affiliations. Among them were: Senator Herbert Lehman (10 Communist front citations); Arthur B. Spingarn (1 Communist-front); Alfred Baker Lewis (6 Communist fronts); Benjamin E. Mays (1 Communist-front); Allan K. Chalmers (2 Communist fronts); Mary McLeod Bethune (50 Communist fronts); Algernon Black (20 Communist fronts); Wayne L. Morse (1 Communist Front); Hubert T. Delaney (10 Communist fronts); Eleanor Roosevelt (53 Communist fronts); Dr. Ralph Bunche (7 Communist fronts) and Walter Reuther (listed 45 times in Index V of the Un-American Activities Committee).

It is not surprising to note that an Official Report of the Communist Party's 4th National Convention stated that the Party had penetrated the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Nor is it surprising to learn of the financial assistance given the NAACP by the Red outfit, the Garland Fund. From 1923 to 1930, the Garland Fund appropriated almost $44,000 for the organization.

For those who may think that the Garland Fund has some association with horticulture, a brief sketch of the organization will dispel that misconception. Originally called the "Free Love Fund", it was founded in 1922 by Charles Garland who served a prison term for running a free love farm. At a later date, the title was changed from the Garland Fund to the "American Fund for Public Service". The fund was considered the life stream of the red revolution in the United States and included among its officers and members such luminaries as William Z. Foster, (head of the Communist Party in America), Elizabeth Gurley Flynn (ranking member of the Communist Party's second string Politburo), Robert W. Dunne (with many Marxist affiliations to his credit) and others.

When a number of Reds were seized in Bridgman, Michigan along with documentary evidence of plans to overthrow the U. S. Government, the Fund went to their defense with contributions totalling over $13,000. The Fund also donated $12,622 to the Communist "Workers' School" (an institution set up for the purpose of training revolutionary leaders); and the Daily Worker received financial support to the tune of $57,660. An organization that was obviously set up primarily to financially assist Marxist activities would hardly consider donating a large sum of money to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People if the NAACP was not being used to further the Party's objectives.

The Jew And The NAACP

Jewish influence, interest and participation in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has been obvious since its inception. One of its founders was Rabbi Stephen S. Wise; another founder was Rabbi Hirsch. Felix Frankfurter was a member of its legal staff in 1931; Herbert Lehman has been a director of the NAACP for many years; Rabbi Judah Cahn and Andrew Weinberger were listed as members of the Board of Directors in 1952 and its president is the Jew, Arthur Spingarn, whose father played a prominent role in the formation of the Association. More than one third of the present life members of the organization are Jews! Again we ask, who does the NAACP really represent?

There are innumerable instances of close cooperation between the NAACP and Jewish organizations and in 1951, a Rabbi Stephen S. Wise award was presented to the NAACP.

In a leaflet issued by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, we find the following quote by Rabbi Irving Miller, former President of the American Jewish Congress:

"Our late President, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, was one of the founders of the NAACP. Throughout the years, our cooperation with the Association has been a source of deep gratification to us. The intimate working relationships which we have enjoyed, both in major undertakings and the day-to-day routine for the struggle for the extension of human rights in this country, have contributed significantly to the objectives we commonly seek."

The Newark (N. J.) Evening News of Oct. 11, 1954, reporting on the segregation battle being waged in Delaware, quoted Rev. Claude Lynch as saying: "Jews are backing the colored people 100 per cent in this thing."

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has often followed the Marxist lead on controversial issues. Along with the Daily Worker and the Communist Party, the organization condemns the Smith Act and the McCarran Immigration Act. They have recommended the film, "Brotherhood of Man", a cartoon based on the pamphlet, "Races of Mankind", written by Drs. Ruth Benedict and Gene Weltfish. Dr. Weltfish refused to answer a Congress-sional Committee as to whether she was a Communist and was later named as such. Another recommendation was the film, "Native Land" with songs and narration by the Negro Communist, Paul Robeson. A ballad written by Communist Langston Hughes was presented by the NAACP at a Madison Square Garden benefit, Mar. 6, 1952.

It appears that should local branches of the NAACP wish to remain comparatively free of Marxist infiltration, they are prevented from doing so by the National Board. An example of this is clearly illustrated by an incident occurring in the Long Branch, N. J. chapter of the Association. After refusing membership to two individuals because of Communist background, the decision of the Long Branch chapter was reversed by the National Board and membership was granted. In a letter dated May 14, 1952, the Long Branch NAACP voiced its opinion: "We do not feel happy about the fact that the National office gave membership to these two persons."

It is a vicious exploitation of the Negro people to have an organization which has supposedly been formed for their benefit actually ruled, for the most part, by Jewish-Communists to whom the Negro means nothing more than a stepping-stone. We appeal to the loyal Negro population to thoroughly denounce this phoney Marxist association. Until something more truly and sincerely representative of the colored person is organized, Americans—both white and colored—can expect nothing more than what is intended by these people, racial tension and agitation.

The Supreme Court ruling on segregation can be considered a notable achievement of Jewish-Marxist influence and the result of much work on the part of those who know well the advantages of the slogan, "Divide and Conquer." This decision by our Supreme Court can benefit neither Negro nor White. The solution to the problem must come from the fostering and application of Christian ideals and attitudes on the part of each individual. No legal ruling can effectively accomplish this. No result can be greater than its cause. The underlying causes in this instance are completely alien to everything for which our country stands, and wholly inimicable to the welfare of all loyal Americans, no matter what his color might be.

moment. In 1917, 276 Jews left New York City, passed across Europe in a sealed train and finally ended their journey in Russia where they started the revolution which killed or enslaved 180,000,000 people. In 1937, the Abraham Lincoln Bridge, composed of thousands of Jews from New York City, aided the revolution in Spain which resulted in the death of over 140,000 Christians. Between 1918 and 1919, Bela Kuhn (Benjamin Cohen) with the help of New York Jews killed over 30,000 Christians in an abortive attempt to take over Hungary. A few years ago, thousands of Jews left New York City and sailed to Israel where they murdered or made homeless 850,000 Arabs. Now here in America, we have N. Y. Jews heading the NAACP, starting trouble between the White race and the Negro race which may end in another revolution.

The Communist Manifesto states very clearly that the methods by which the world will be conquered will be by matching race against race and class against class, and when the two have been broken down the Communists will rule. Does the reader really believe that an organization like the NAACP under the control and direction of Jews, most of whom have Communist citations, is out to help the colored race or any other race? Is it not commonly known that one of the basic theories of Communism is to create dissension between the various component parts in order to destroy the whole? Then if this is understood, why do Americans allow Communism to move into their communities under the guise of brotherhood, etc. and take over? Is it because we are afraid of this minority race? Are we afraid that we will lose our jobs or be criticized? We are going to lose all of these valuable assets if the Communists take over, are we not? And they are taking over, of that there is no doubt. Then we have nothing to lose by showing our patriotism and courage now, for by the records of the Jewish Communist calendar you are already victims.

Non-Segregation Humor

Three negroes were discussing the recently passed segregation law on a Texas street corner. They were talking about what they were going to do. One of the young fellows said he was going to dress up in his best suit of clothes and go to the Hilton Hotel in the main dining room; another said he was going to the big ballroom and dance with the white women; the other, an old negro, when asked what he was going to do, replied: "Well, I tells you what Ise all goin' to do. Ise gonna put on my best suit of clothes and go to you alls funeral."

Read and pass on!

Mongrelization Of Races

What is behind the Movement to mongrelize the races?
Significant facts:

- 1.) Julius Rosenwald, a Jew, spent $30 million financing organizations and writers that promote mongrelization. A race once mongrelized is mongrelized forever.
- 2.) It has surprised some people to find out that the president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is not a negro but the Jew, Arthur Spingarn.
- 3.) "The Jewish World" Feb. 9, 1933, contained the following programme:
"The great ideal of Judaism is . . . that the whole world should be imbued with Jewish teachings, and that in a universal Brotherhood of nations—a greater Judaism in fact—all the separate races and religions shall disappear."
- 4.) "Jerusalem Calling" written by Pierre Van Pussen, a Dutch Jew, in 1947:
"And then comes the Prophetic apothecosis of the distant horizon. He sees the City of God arising. All Peoples will find a home there, whatever their color, their language or origin. At last men will discover their essential unity. They will be all of the 'race of Zion'."
- 5.) "Jewish Life", official organ of the Jewish section of the Communist party, June 1950, page 8:
"Isaiah sees the dawn of 'Yahweh's Day' break. Our job as Jewish Communists is to take the lead in educating the Jewish masses on the meaning of White supremacy and to enroll the Jewish community in an all-out fight against it. This is paramount in our work in the struggle for negro rights. This is vital to the struggle of the Jewish people for their own security and future."
- 6.) "Time" for Sept. 9, 1953 mentioned that the State of Israel passed a law forbidding Jews to marry non-Jews.

Conclusion: In the light thrown upon the subject of mongrelization by these facts would it not be interesting and informative for you to study the origin, aim, policy, formation, finances, officers, and progress of NAACP?

Brotherly Love Deception

The move to abolish segregation is done under the deception of brotherly love. It is through deception by clever Marxists directing from behind that Communism is taking one country after another. If our own United States is to be saved, people must understand what is causing the alarming situation the last twenty years. Political parties ruined—schools, colleges, unions and our government agencies packed with Communists. Fires of distrust between employees and employer being fanned by invisible forces with unlimited funds. We are being disorganized, confused and conditioned for Communism. There are not enough Marxist Jews in the United States to take over alone; they organize blocks of voters, control unions, etc.

For years Marxist Jew lawyers from New York have been working among the unsuspecting negroes in the South in their plan to organize the fourteen million negroes into a block so they may be used as a voters block and in the revolution. Clever minds are turning black against white. Sworn testimony shows Anna Rosenberg as a Communist, but in 1950 the Invisible Government forced her into the position as Assistant Secretary of Defense where she packed that department with Marxists and abolished segregation in the army.

This does not sound bad, but scrape off the frosting and examine the whole question. What is taking place in the army? Where are we headed? Who are the trouble makers who want trouble in the south? When will these Communist masterminds come out in the open and declare officially that we are under Jewish Communist rule?

Paul Robeson, Negro Communist Leader addresses the Soviet Friendship Meeting (Notice the hammer and sickle in background).

New Proof That Communism Is Still As Jewish As Ever

A case comes before the Swedish courts this month in which for the second time since the war an attempt will be made to prevent the publicist, Einer Aberg, from continuing to write and distribute his very informative little leaflets which have been so valuable to patriots of every country in studying the Jewish question.

The theme of Aberg's pamphlets is also that of FREE BRITAIN, namely, that Communism is a Jewish swindle, involving Jews in every walk of life in every country of the world.

There could be no clearer proof of the simple truth of the statement that Communism is Jewish than the remarkable fact that the only answer to this charge, whether east or west of the Iron Curtain, is and has always been repressive action against the accusers, but never a word of contradiction that would give the slightest publicity to the question. You cannot make this accusation in Soviet countries and live, and you cannot make this same accusation in the West and live comfortably.

San Salvador To Stockholm

Einer Aberg is being brought to trial in Stockholm because a Jew in San Salvador took exception to certain of his leaflets and complained to the Swedish Government through the Swedish Embassy in Mexico City. So the stage is once more set, as in 1947, for an attempt to prove Aberg insane.

After his release in 1948 Aberg published a document revealing "the Jewish method of trying to silence those who expose Judaism". Para. 1 of the document reads:

"Sent by the AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE of New York, the Jew David Bernstein came to Stockholm in June, 1947, in order to stop my information service and work on the Jewish Question. He had an interview with Herr Quensel, the acting Minister of Justice, and reported to the American Jewish Committee as follows: 'The Swedish Government has explicitly promised to do their utmost to stop Aberg's activity as a distributor of anti-Jewish literature throughout the world.'"

Now we hear from Sweden that the Jew Dr. Siegfried Roth, general secretary of the World Jewish Congress, has recently been in that country where he was interviewed on July 13th by the Jew-owned newspaper Goteborgs Handelsstidning. The interview, headed "Is The Government Unable To Stop Einer Aberg?" declared that "The anti-Jewish propaganda which the Swede Einer Aberg sends out all over the world is one of the greatest problems of the Jews today. The Swedish Government must find a way to stop this activity."

A Previous Attempt

"In court session, July 21st, 1947.

The Public Prosecutor immediately let the cat out of the bag by demanding that I should be mentally examined. (See notes in Para. 1.) My solicitor objected at once, on the ground that in a case of alleged infringement of the Press Law there is no provision for mental examination within the Act. The Court took no heed of this important plea and after discussion for one hour it was pronounced that I should be mentally examined—as a preliminary! The Court then adjourned until August 18th."

These silencing tactics were maintained up to March, 1948, the farce ending when Aberg was declared sane, but Sweden, placed so uncomfortably near the Soviet border, has no

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION

Back in 1931 the Un-American Activities Committee, with Hamilton Fish as chairman, reported after an extensive investigation, that 90% of the activities of the American Civil Liberties Union were in behalf of Communists.

The percentage of such activities may have varied from time to time since then, but the American Civil Liberties Union has not changed much and its leaders are still vigilant in the service of Communism. One of the most outrageous examples of its activities took place at Harvard University in connection with the Communist John Reed Club, then a student organization. The John Reed Club at Harvard "invited" Earl Browder, General Secretary of the Communist Party and a member of the Communist International to speak at Harvard on university premises. The invitation had hardly been issued when Browder was indicted by a Federal Grand Jury, and the Secretary of the Harvard Corporation "suggested" to the John Reed Society that its Browder meeting be abandoned lest some question of propriety be raised. Instead of complying with the request, this Communist outfit publicly protested that "Browder's freedom of speech had been infringed, etc., etc." It was at this time the Civil Liberties Committee of Mass., a State branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, sent a protest message to Harvard University, and the American Civil Liberties Union itself sent from its New York Office to President Conant of Harvard, a telegram of protest in Browder's behalf, all of which were printed in the Daily Worker of November 10, 1939, the official Communist organ. The telegram to Dr. Conant bore the name of five men, including Corliss Lamont, known Communist, Roger N. Baldwin who once proclaimed in a Year Book of his Harvard class "Communism is the goal," and Dr. Harry F. Ward who also has a long list of Communist activities. THIS IS THE SAME AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION THAT IS FURNISHING LAWYERS TO BACK NAACP IN ITS DRIVE TO ABANDON SEGREGATION IN DELAWARE.

doubt been reminded of her vulnerable position, open to armed attack by the Soviet, and advised by her Jewish visitor not to be too difficult over Einer Aberg—or else. . . . This is a poor excuse for the injustice this patriotic Swede is likely to receive at the hands of his own countrymen. The bringing of the case is, of course, an injustice in itself, quite apart from the outcome.

In the Spring of 1934 the Anti Defamation League of B'nai B'rith (Jewish Gestapo) sent three of their officers to Germany where they spent a month in efforts to retard the spread of anti-Jewish sentiment (antisemitism). The three were Benjamin R. Epstein, National Director of the A. D. L., Jacob Abson, Treasurer, and Nathan C. Belth, Public Relations Director. While in Germany they brought pressure on Conrad Adenauer to arrest and prosecute Mr. Wolfgang Sorg, a German and former army officer of sterling character. This was an easy matter for the "Jews" now running Germany from behind anti-Jewish shogors. What was Mr. Sorg's offense? He was circulating factual literature exposing "Jewish" Marxist activities. The "Jews" made no effort to discredit or prove him wrong, but demanded he stop. Republished from FREE BRITAIN, London, England.

By airtel dated December 14, 1954, Baltimore forwarded a questionnaire regarding integration of the races which was issued by "Common Sense," a violently anti-Semitic newspaper published by Conde J. McGinley in Union, New Jersey. Two pertinent questions in this questionnaire are "Is it true J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, has in his files information, that if made public, would connect our Supreme Court directly with the Communist conspiracy?" and "Is Mr. Hoover under strict orders from his superiors not to make this information public?"

These questions are undoubtedly based on an article which appeared in the July 1, 1954, issue of "Common Sense" by one Eustice Mullins developing the theory that the United States Supreme Court decision banning segregation in schools is the culmination of a Communist International directive to the Communist Party, USA, to use the Negro-racial issue and the issue of civil rights as a method to weaken the United States. This article indicates that the document to prove this contention was seized by Government agents who raided the Bridgeman, Michigan, Convention of the Communist Party on August 22, 1922. The article stated that the document is a directive written by Soviet Chief of Propaganda, Karl Radek, "the alias of a Jewish revolutionary named Sobelsohn" which document is in the files of the FBI today; however, the Director of the FBI is under strict orders not to reveal the Radek directive at any cost because it would brand the Supreme Court as a front or agent of the Communist International. (100-3-75-900)

As a result of this article, we caused an extensive search to be made to determine whether the documents allegedly seized at Bridgeman, Michigan, are in the files of the FBI or the Department. In an effort to locate the documents the following sources were checked with negative results: Bureau indices; 7th floor, Identification Division, obsolete files and exhibits which are not indexed, 7th floor, Identification Division Y files of the Publications Unit; publications under the caption of Civil Rights, Negro Rights, Bridgeman Convention, Karl Radek, Propaganda and Racial issues.

Through liaison our Records Section caused a search to be made in the Records Administration Branch of the Department; however, no record of the documents could be located.

In addition two books written by former Communist, Benjamin Gitlow, were reviewed relative to the Bridgeman, Michigan, Communist Party Convention which Gitlow attended. These books merely state that documents were seized at the convention by Government agents.

In view of the negative results obtained from the afore-mentioned sources we requested the Detroit Office to check its indices relative to these documents. The indices of the Detroit Office were negative and Detroit set out a lead for Chicago to check its indices since the files of the Detroit Office reflected that agents of the Chicago Office participated in the raid on the Bridgeman, Michigan, Communist Party Convention of August 22, 1922. The Chicago Office advised that its indices were also negative. (100-3-75-915, 918)

PRELIMINARY REPORT ON NEO-FASCIST AND HATE GROUPS

FOREWORD

Communism's present threat to the very survival of the United States and the rest of the free world has placed heavy burdens on the defenders of human freedom and dignity. The Committee on Un-American Activities is concerned to observe that this burden is being aggravated by certain individuals and organizations unscrupulously exploiting the menace of communism to promote other activities equally subversive and equally un-American. Such activities would destroy the very foundation work of the American Republic, if permitted to operate unnoticed or unchallenged.

Committee investigations disclose that this organized activity falls into two patterns:

(1) The neo-fascist¹ organization which openly espouses a fascist regime for the United States; and

(2) The organized hate group, which masquerades as a defender of our republican form of government yet conducts hate campaigns against racial and religious minorities in the infamous tradition of the fascist dictatorships.

Under Public Law 601 (79th Cong.), the committee is instructed to investigate and report on "the extent, character, and objects of un-American propaganda activities in the United States," and specifically the diffusion of "subversive and un-American propaganda" which "attacks the principle of the form of government as guaranteed by our Constitution."

Advocates of both fascism and communism are therefore of grave concern to the committee.

Both totalitarian doctrines are basically incompatible with the principles of our Republic. Both seek to destroy our constitutional government and supplant it with a godless dictatorship in which the individual is deprived of his rights and liberties to become an abject slave of the state. Both derive strength by dividing their opposition—communism choosing to set class against class, while facism incites racial and religious discord.²

Despite the similarities between communism and fascism—so dramatically demonstrated to the world during the infamous Hitler-Stalin pact of 1939-41—their propaganda to the effect that each is the foremost opponent of the other is undoubtedly a major contributor to whatever support each has been able to muster in our population.

¹ The committee uses the word "fascism" to describe the philosophy and movement as a whole, and not in the narrower sense which refers to the actual operation of fascist regimes such as Nazi Germany or Fascist Italy. The adjective "fascist" can be applied to any organization or individual espousing the fascist philosophy. However, the committee will also use the term "neo-fascist" as a convenient method of designating organizations and individuals whose espousal of fascism is recent in nature—i. e., occurring after the military defeat of the Axis aggressors in World War II.

² See exhibit 1, appendix, p. 20 for a more detailed comparison of the similarities between fascism and communism.

The Special Committee on Un-American Activities warned in 1940 that the danger to American democracy lay not so much in a possible frontal attack by Fascists and Communists in our midst, as in—the much greater chance that each extreme totalitarian group seeking by deception to advance its own cause and pad its ranks will succeed in convincing a really substantial number of people that their only defense against violence from the opposite extreme is to accept the violence of the one they find least objectionable.

This committee is agreed that subversion cannot be combated by subversion. Those who would support the extreme right today do as great a violence to our national institutions as do those on the extreme left. Furthermore, the appearance of neo-fascist organizations and methods in the postwar period serve only to impede the intelligent, united effort necessary in the current life and death struggle with communism.

The committee does not claim to have made an exhaustive investigation into all demagogic groups in the United States now exploiting religious and racial hatred. The committee's preliminary studies show, however, that such groups employ the Hitlerian technique of the "big lie" in their platforms and literature. Their vicious falsehoods are often clothed in seeming discussions of grave issues such as the Communist menace.

The hate group appeals to the unwary by a cynical use of concepts having a deep emotional appeal to the majority of decent citizens—love of God, country, home; or antipathy to communism. Amid protestations of patriotism and religious devotion, these groups propagate hoaxes and smears aimed at setting creed against creed and race against race. They use the divisive tactics of the Communists whom they allegedly deplore. Depending upon the type of audience to be reached, this propaganda is couched in language ranging from violent vituperation to subtle innuendoes.

The committee believes that, in its preliminary report, the Congress and the American public may best be alerted to this demagogic menace by the selection of two specific groups. One is an avowed neo-fascist organization, and the other is an allegedly patriotic organization which can best be characterized as a hate group. They represent the major methods of approach used today by the exploiters of racial and religious bigotry.

THE FASCIST PROBLEM IN THE PAST

The greatest activity by un-American propagandists of the extreme right occurred in the United States in the late 1930's, under the inspiration and often with the direct aid of Fascist and Nazi regimes abroad.

The first investigation conducted by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities after its creation in 1938 dealt with the German-American Bund. The special committee reported that the bund, which claimed 25,000 members in this country, including 5,000 storm troops, operated in fact as an agent of a foreign power. Special committee investigations also revealed the existence of hundreds of other fascist organizations ranging from groups openly advocating totalitarianism of the Hitler, Mussolini, or Imperialist Japanese variety, to groups posing as patriotic Americans but invariably marked by antiracial and pro-Nazi characteristics.

All of these organizations exploited racial and religious hatreds to enlist members and gain financial support. They frequently cooperated with each other in exchanging speakers and literature. Efforts at closer coordination failed, however, due to rivalries between the groups' petty "fuehrers" and jealousy over sources of income. It was discovered that many of the organizations were led by "racketeers" who operated primarily for the purpose of reaping financial profit from racial and religious "hate" propaganda. The special committee condemned such hate propaganda as "un-American per se," and as being particularly vicious in a period when it was a favorite weapon of the Axis Powers.

Unrelenting investigation and exposure, followed by legal prosecution prior to and during World War II, defeated the effort to organize fascism in the United States. The military defeat of the Axis wiped out any remaining hopes of the fascists. Even the hate-peddling racketeers were largely silenced in the face of an aroused public opinion.

NEO-FASCISM IN THE UNITED STATES

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

The reappearance of the avowedly fascist organization on the American scene was marked by the formation in January 1949 of the National Renaissance Party, headed by a young fanatic, James H. Madole, of Beacon, N. Y.

The party's official organ, the four-page monthly National Renaissance Bulletin, is frankly billed as "the only Fascist publication in America."

"What Hitler accomplished in Europe, the National Renaissance Party shall yet accomplish in America," is Madole's fatuous boast in the issue of his Bulletin dated May 1953.

National Renaissance Party activities center on the dissemination of fascist propaganda through the Bulletin, other printed literature, and through street-corner oratory. The Bulletin has been published in Beacon, N. Y., where Madole's home at 224 East Main Street has served as national headquarters of the organization until the spring of 1954. At that time, Madole took up residence at 10 West 90th Street, New York City, and announced the new national headquarters address as Box 238, 208 East 86th Street, New York City. Street meetings have long been held at the corner of 88th Street and York Avenue in the Yorkville section of Manhattan. There, in seasonable weather, Madole may be seen haranguing some two-dozen followers with a mixture of praises for Hitler and Mussolini and vituperation against minority groups. Hecklers at times swell the audience to almost 100 persons, and the meeting occasionally ends in a stone-throwing bout.

A serio-comic yet repugnant feature of this neo-fascist organization is its attempt to maintain a uniformed "elite guard" in the Nazi style. Madole is at times accompanied by a handful of young fanatics wearing dark caps and trousers and brassards on which a lightning bolt replaces the swastika. The elite guard takes an oath of unconditional obedience to the NRP leaders, whom it allegedly

ADOLF HITLER

20 APRIL 1889

International Jewish-Communism has always been a threat to Aryan Civilization and that Great German Statesman ADOLF HITLER was the FIRST to combat this deadly enemy before the world. What Adolf Hitler gave to the German Nation cannot be denied, What National Socialism bestowed upon the German people stands before the world as a monument to all of the Western World. No one can change the deep intense nationalistic feeling that Adolf Hitler taught them to feel toward the State. Nationalism is the only antidote to the poison of Jewish-World-Communism. The Western World will never forget the struggle of the N.S.D.A.P. in the early twenties, nor will they forget how foolish some of them were to oppose Adolf Hitler's New Order. Now we see that. Only NATIONALISM CAN NEUTRALIZE AND DEFEAT JEWISH-INTERNATIONAL COMMUNISM.!! serves as honor guard as well as protector.³ The guard admittedly held secret meetings in New York City on Thursday evenings during 1953 under the joint command of Matt Koehl, Jr., and Hans Schmidt.

NATURE OF PROPAGANDA

The program and propaganda of the National Renaissance Party is virtually borrowed wholesale from the Fascist and Nazi dictators.

Its nine-point program advocates abolition of parliamentary government in the United States in favor of government by a "trained elite"; establishment of a Fascist corporate economy; encouragement of "racial" pride; preservation of the "white Aryan" race by gradual deportation of the "Porto [sic] Ricans, Negroes, Jews and Asiatics"; and the denial to Jewish people of citizenship, professional and political posts, and the right of "intermarriage."⁴

NRP propaganda contains extensive rehashes of Hitler's speeches. Typical are National Renaissance Bulletin articles, "Adolf Hitler Explains Nazi Anti-Semitism," appearing in the February 1953 issue, and "Adolf Hitler, the George Washington of Europe," which appeared in the issue of May 1953.⁵

NRP's own leaders imitate the Hitler line. Eustace Mullins, who has joined Madole in his street-corner propagandizing, is the contributor of an article entitled "Adolf Hitler: An Appreciation," in the Bulletin of October 1952.⁶ John M. Lundoff, Brooklyn chairman of the NRP, extolled the features of the Fascist corporate state in the April 1952 Bulletin and asked the youth of America to choose between "parliamentary democracy with its empty promises and discord or the clear, brave, and youthful Fascist principles outlined here." Chief source of propaganda for the NRP, however, is Frederick Charles F. Weiss, of Middletown, N. Y., who is portrayed as a graduate of the University of Heidelberg and the Sorbonne. His prolific writings in the Bulletin and in separate leaflets are mainly racist diatribes.

The NRP has also circulated literature received from Einar Aberg, of Norrviken, Sweden. For example, an anti-Semitic pamphlet by Aberg entitled "The War Criminals" was distributed in this country under the NRP's stamp. An "overseas office" is maintained by the NRP under the direction of Mana Truhill, of 54 Audubon Avenue, New York City.

Madole's group offers its fascist program as the "antidote" to communism. The falsity of its anti-Communist role is immediately exposed by NRP's insistence that a Communist is synonymous with "Jew." The NRP not only violates our constitutional principles by making this minority its target; it also frequently supports the position of the very Communists it allegedly opposes.

For example, the NRP accuses the United States Government, whether under Democratic or Republican control, of seeking to promote a new world war to "carry out the economic and political ambitions of a small coterie of international Wall Street bankers."⁷

TO ALL MEMBERS AND POTENTIAL HELPERS OF THE ELITE GUARD:

The uniformed Elite Guard of the National Renaissance Party was founded as a semi-military formation for the purpose of protecting indoor and outdoor meetings of the Party, providing an honor guard for Party Leaders and participating in uniformed parades and mass demonstrations.

Your motto is: "Loyalty, Service, Obedience".

Your enemies consist of International Jewry on the Left and International Finance on the Right. Both of these international forces seek to exploit the nation as a whole for their own selfish purposes.

As a member of the Elite Guard, the 9-point program of the National Renaissance Party must serve as your political Bible. Your individualism must be replaced by your duty and devotion to the national community. The Aryan Race, consisting of the; Slavic, Nordic, Celtic, Latin, and Anglo-Saxon peoples must remain the dominant culture creating force in America if Western Civilization is to survive.

As Aryans be proud both of your RACE and NATION. Extreme individualism and internationalism enable JEWS and others animated by selfish and anti-racial ideas to dominate the intellectual and political life of the nation. Just as extreme individualism must be subordinated to the welfare of the national community so must the interests of LABOR and MANAGEMENT be subordinated to the needs of the NATION as a unit.

Our RACE and our NATION must be of paramount importance to all members of the National Renaissance Party.

You may consider your enlistment in the Elite Guard as similar to an enlistment in a private army, whose sworn purpose is the establishment of an American regime based on the principles of RACIAL NATIONALISM and SOCIAL JUSTICE.

FIGHT JEWISH COMMUNISM  AMERICA FOR AMERICANS  AMERICA FIRST

This attack is identical with the propaganda line of the Communist Party, despite the different motives behind Communist and fascist attempts to disaffect Americans from their Government.

In a leaflet entitled, "Asiatic Barbarism Versus Western Civilization," Madole proclaimed that—

Only the superbly efficient totalitarian economic systems of Fascists, National Socialist, and Communist regimes are adaptable [sic] to the strain of TOTAL WAR as practiced in the 20th century * * * The spirit of democracy is a glorification of weakness and cowardly conduct. It glorifies the coward instead of the fighter, it raises feeble weaklings to leadership rather than a trained, iron-hard, and youthful elite * * *

At the time of the Prague trials in 1952 and other anti-Semitic purges behind the Iron Curtain, the NRP defended the action of the Soviet leadership and implied that the example should be followed in Europe and America.

Such an appeal to violence exposes the most vicious and dangerous aspect of the National Renaissance Party. In its printed literature, NRP has attempted to disguise such appeals, although the implications are clear in headlines such as the following:

In Russia They Execute Them the Prague and Beria Way! In U. S. A. They Promote Them the Dexter White Way!⁵

In his speeches, however, Madole has discarded caution on a number of occasions and boldly advocated "6 inches of steel" for America's Jewish minority.

NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American. The committee is further of the opinion that this neo-fascist organization, by its advocacy of force and violence, contravenes the Smith Act. The committee urges the Department of Justice to consider taking immediate steps to convene a Federal grand jury for the purpose of prosecuting the leaders of the National Renaissance Party under the act.

EXTENT OF NRP OPERATIONS

The National Renaissance Party has frequently appealed for support from crackpot elements which were active in bund and other fascist activities in the 1930's. Madole stated on one occasion that the NRP was formed to "carry on the work of the Christian Front."⁶ The Christian Front had cooperated with the German-American Bund in pre-Pearl Harbor days and bund leader Fritz Kuhn had declared the ideas of the two organizations were 100 percent in agreement.

Daniel Kurts, self-proclaimed leader of the Christian Front in Queens, N. Y., in 1939, became an active worker in the National Renaissance Party.

Another veteran propagandist, Kurt Mertig, became New York City chairman of the NRP, and his office at 317 East 54th Street, New York City, served as the NRP's city headquarters. From this same office, Mertig has operated as chairman of two of his own organizations—the Citizens Protective League and the German-American Republican League of Greater New York. Mertig's letterheads state the leagues were formed in 1936; the Attorney General cited both leagues as fascist organizations in 1948. Mertig himself served a

6-month workhouse term in 1946 on unlawful assembly charges growing out of his participation in a Christian Front rally in Queens, N. Y., in 1945.

In the summer of 1953, the NRP announced plans to run a candidate for Congress from the Yorkville district. Nothing further was heard of the scheme, however. The would-be candidate was H. Keith Thompson, Jr., who was identified in the National Renaissance Bulletin as a former registered agent for Maj. Gen. Otto Remer's Socialist Reich Party—a neo-Nazi group in West Germany now banned by the German Government.

The NRP had previously publicized Thompson as the national director of a newly formed American Committee for the Advancement of Western Culture. James Madole, Kurt Mertig, Frederick Charles F. Weiss, and other "officers and members" of the NRP also were represented on this committee, which had the grandiose role of serving as "a high policy planning group for the coordination of racial nationalist activities in America, Europe, Africa, and Asia."¹⁰

Last year, the NRP tried to extend its activities into other sections of the country.

A guest speaker at one of the NRP meetings in Yorkville on June 26, 1953, was one James R. White, who was billed as an "organizer" from Los Angeles. Madole claimed that White had "already organized a fully uniformed group in his city and distributed thousands of copies of National Renaissance Bulletins."¹¹ Committee inquiries disclose that James White's activities in Los Angeles have been confined to a small group and that no effective efforts in organizing the NRP in that city have materialized.

A youth in his early twenties, White was the publisher of his own newsletter, Reason, in 1952. Committee information shows that several years prior to his involvement in neo-fascist activities, White had been a member of the Spartacus Club of the American Youth for Democracy—a front organization of the Communist Party. It might be noted at this point that Mana Truhill, previously mentioned as head of the NRP overseas bureau, has admitted having attended the Communist-operated Jefferson School of Social Science in New York. This is another illustration of the common ground often reached by fascists on the extreme right and Communists on the extreme left.

Madole announced in his June 1953 Bulletin that a local NRP headquarters had also been set up at 2627 Hale Avenue in Louisville, Ky., under the leadership of J. W. Mitchell, a high-school student. Subsequent inquiry by the committee revealed that the branch in Louisville never attained any significant success and that it has since been dissolved.

In December 1953 the party's Bulletin stated that an NRP branch was being formed in Pennsylvania under the direction of E. R. Barron and Frederick Polzin, and that another branch was being created in New Jersey by Lawrence Sestito.

The numerical strength of an organization such as the NRP is difficult to measure. Such fanatics exaggerate their influence, and the committee would do no service in overestimating the importance of an element which will undoubtedly take pride in being publicized as a "menace." Membership of the NRP has been estimated at anywhere from 200 to 700 persons. All indications point to a diminished following in 1954.

The NRP charges a nominal $1 membership fee, and its monthly Bulletin, which has a $2 yearly subscription rate, is often distributed gratis.

The NRP has stated it held 22 street meetings in 1952, and regular Friday meetings during the seasonable weather in 1953, its most active year. The combined total of indoor and outdoor meetings of the NRP in 1952-53 has been estimated at 70.

A certain decline in the organization's activities was evidenced in 1954. Investigation reveals that the new headquarters address adopted by the NRP early this year is the address of a commercial firm. It is apparent that the NRP is largely a nomadic group, meeting in hotels and private homes, at times under the cover of another name, and using privately operated mail boxes as mailing addresses. Its Bulletin is being issued sporadically, and in mimeographed rather than in its usual printed form.

The committee is encouraged by the relatively restricted nature of National Renaissance Party influence. The committee believes, however, that such organizations have no place in the American scene and that the full force of exposure and prosecution must be employed to eradicate them.

THE HATE GROUP

"COMMON SENSE"

Growth of the hate group in recent years is exemplified by the publishing endeavors of Conde J. McGinley and his son, C. J. McGinley, in Union, N. J. The McGinleys, senior and junior, operate as the Christian Educational Association, for the purpose of publishing a semimonthly paper, Common Sense, as well as a mass of individual printed matter.

Common Sense represents itself as "the Nation's anti-Communist paper." Subscriptions are sought from "loyal and patriotic Americans" in order to "help save our Republic."

Such patriotic claims provide poor disguise, however, for some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the committee. Common Sense defines communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish and to a lesser extent the Negro minorities in our Nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi regime in Germany also is injected into this propaganda, which is hardly distinguishable from that of the National Renaissance Party except for the latter's open appeal for a fascist government in the United States.

Despite its patriotic claims, Common Sense has in fact employed and/or carried the writings of a number of individuals associated with the National Renaissance Party. Through the columns of Common Sense and innumerable booklets printed and offered for sale, the McGinleys appear to serve as a clearinghouse for hate propagandists throughout the country. Among these are many of the native fascists and hate racketeers who were active in the 1930's.

In contrast to the limited appeal of the openly fascist National Renaissance Party, the McGinley enterprise appears to be a shrewd and going business.

THE ORGANIZATION OF "COMMON SENSE"

Conde J. McGinley, Sr., began editing a miniature weekly paper in Newark, N. J., in 1946, under the various titles of Think, The Think, and Think Weekly. In June 1947 the paper was issued under the name, Common Sense, and in November 1947 it was expanded to its present tabloid size and the headquarters transferred from Newark to Union, N. J. It became a semimonthly publication in 1948. McGinley remained the sole owner and publisher until early this year, when the so-called Christian Educational Association was created to serve as owner and publisher. Officers of the new association are Conde J. McGinley, Sr., president; Conde J. McGinley, Jr., secretary and treasurer; and Alex Jefimow, vice president. Jefimow is employed by the McGinleys in a subordinate capacity; only the McGinleys are authorized to handle association funds.

Headquarters of the newspaper and its publishing association are located in a 14-room stone building at 530 Chestnut Street in Union, N. J. The building is owned by Miss Katherine Littig, of Newark, N. J., who has worked for Common Sense on a voluntary basis almost from the inception of the publication.

The building also houses the press which prints Common Sense and other hate literature sold through Common Sense. This mechanical equipment is owned by the Union Patriotic Press, which gives the Chestnut Street building as its headquarters. A corporation resolution of the Union Patriotic Press lists its officers as president, Charles Kane, of Tampa, Fla.; secretary, John J. Reynolds; and treasurer, Edward J. Byrne, Hightstown, N. J., farmer. Byrne is known to have been a volunteer worker in the Common Sense enterprise. Both Byrne and Reynolds have attended rallies held by McGinley for his followers; Kane has also been in attendance prior to his removal to Florida.

McGinley was forced to rely on other presses prior to 1953 and he admittedly encountered difficulties in assuring continuous printing of his propaganda. After Common Sense moved into its headquarters on Chestnut Street in the spring of 1953, an addition was built for a press later acquired by the Union Patriotic Press. McGinley announced to his readers that the press had been set up "for our use" and would insure prompt service in the future. Technically, however, McGinley leases the press from the Union Patriotic Press for a $75 monthly rental.

During 1946 and 1947, McGinley's allegedly anti-Communist publication gave little indication of its subsequent level of propaganda. At the outset, its columns carried a certain amount of factual information on communism. Beginning in 1948, however, Common Sense became increasingly outspoken in its statements of a pro-Nazi and anti-Semitic nature. It was soon almost exclusively a vehicle for the exploitation of ignorance, prejudice, and fear.

The paper devoted considerable space in 1948 to the support of the late Robert H. Best, American newsman who was convicted of treason and sentenced to life imprisonment in that year as a result of his broadcasts for the Nazis in World War II. A eulogy of Best appearing in Common Sense for December 15, 1952, described him as a "patriot," "Paul Revere," and "true Christian American."

An arrogant letter written by Herman Goering to Winston Churchill just before the Nazi leader poisoned himself, appeared in Common Sense for July 1, 1950. An editorial note recommended that the letter be "read carefully by Members of Congress and all others who are shaping the destiny of America."

Common Sense adopted the National Renaissance Party line which alleges the United States Government is plotting a new world war:

* * * Now that the matchless German army is destroyed, Germany laid in ruins, and Europe helpless, Eisenhower asks the German people to help him prepare for another war purporting to be a war against communism, while he protects and coddles in Washington the same people who prevented Germany from wiping out communism. This is to be a war against the Russian people—not communism. * * *¹²

In this statement, McGinley's "anti-Communist" and "patriotic" publication apparently is not averse to serving the Communist propaganda cause. Indeed, McGinley has even printed such statements as the following, which he identified as being from a "European" correspondent:

* * * if your paper is to continue its excellent work of opposing the policy of the Jew, please do not fight Russia also, for we in Europe look upon it as the only hope to prevent Jewish world domination by means of its stupid, willing, technically clever American slaves, the destroyers of Europe's cities, the hatemongers of the vile occupation and the hangmen of Nurnberg.¹³

Anti-Semitism is the chief stock in trade of Common Sense, which now distortedly defines communism as "a false face for Judaism." Typical of headlines which appear in the publication are: "Jewish Leaders Are Crazy For Power," "Zionists Threaten Russia With War," "Brotherhood"—Jew Trap For Christianity," and "Invisible Government Rules Both Parties; Adlai and Ike Marxist Stooges." Articles in Common Sense have even attacked water fluoridation as a Red plot by "the invisible rulers" aimed at mass destruction of the American people.

The violent nature of this propaganda is illustrated by an article written by George Thomas Adams in the issue of Common Sense for December 1, 1952. In the course of a discussion of anti-Semitic pogroms in Communist countries, Adams stated:

* * * If the Russian people wish to throw off their Jewish yoke, what right have we to criticize them? * * * We should be doing the same.

Conde McGinley, Sr., uses the oblique method in an article in the issue dated June 15, 1952:

* * * The German Government, facing the same situation as the United States does today, put these Red Jews in concentration camps. * * * [Italics supplied].

A survey of Common Sense propaganda fails to reveal any outright advocacy of a fascist government for the United States. The solution customarily offered by Conde McGinley, Sr., to "save America" is an increase in the circulation of Common Sense. It is apparent that this publication represents a modern example of the racketeers who made a business out of un-American hate propaganda during the 1930's.

COOPERATION WITH OTHER PROPAGANDISTS

Information in the possession of the Committee reveals a significant interchangeability of propagandists working for the allegedly patriotic Common Sense and the avowedly fascist National Renaissance Party.

A good example is provided by Eustace Mullins, who frankly eulogizes Hitler in the pages of the National Renaissance Party's Bulletin and who has been observed at an NRP street session in New York City last year. Articles written by Mullins have been appearing in Common Sense since at least September 1951 and, last year, he became a writer on the staff of Common Sense.

W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., is another individual who has been simultaneously active in both the National Renaissance Party and Common Sense. A resident of Philadelphia, MacFarland in 1948 had organized a Nationalist Action League which was promptly cited as a fascist organization by the United States Attorney General. In 1949, MacFarland spoke at a number of meetings of the National Renaissance Party in New York. He presided at a branch meeting of the NRP held in Philadelphia in October 1949. Meanwhile, his name also appeared as "associate editor" of Common Sense in the issues which appeared during July and August of 1949.

At that time, Conde McGinley, Sr., was planning to combine forces with MacFarland and his cited Nationalist Action League, and with another organization, the Loyal American Group, headed by William J. O'Brien. The scheme, as announced in Common Sense, called for McGinley's publication to serve as official organ of the Nationalist Action League, with O'Brien disbanding his group to serve as national secretary of the new combination. The plan fell through, however, and McGinley resumed sole editorship of Common Sense. O'Brien, a printer from Montclair, N. J., was later taken on the staff of Common Sense.

The interlocking of Common Sense and the National Renaissance Party is further demonstrated by the fact that Common Sense has carried articles by Frederick Charles F. Weiss, chief propagandist for the NRP, and by Kurt Mertig, New York City chairman of the NRP.

Common Sense is also a channel for hate propaganda being issued by numerous other individuals and organizations scattered throughout the country. The literature of these fellow hatemongers is disseminated either through reprints in the columns of Common Sense or in booklets published and sold by Common Sense.

One of the most frequently reprinted "authors" is Robert H. Williams, of Santa Ana, Calif., who issues the Williams Intelligence Summary, a monthly newsletter. Common Sense also sells his writings in pamphlet form. Williams advertises himself as the possessor of vast intelligence information which he gained as a member of Army Intelligence during World War II. The deception is evident from the fact that Williams' intelligence duty comprised less than a year as an administrative officer for the intelligence section of a bomber wing. In this position, he would have received no intelligence information dealing with the Communist conspiracy. His assignment to the military intelligence was merely in the Reserves, from which commission he was relieved by official action of the Army, effective December 21, 1950.

Conde McGinley, Sr., has maintained a particularly cooperative relationship with two disseminators of anti-Semitic literature from Chicago: Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling and Mrs. Lyril Clark Van Hyning. Mrs. Dilling's writings have been circulating since the 1930's. Mrs. Van Hyning is the head of an organization known as We, The Mothers, Mobilize For America, Inc., and is editor of the publication, Women's Voice.

Messages have been sent to Members of Congress over the joint signatures of Mrs. Dilling, Mrs. Van Hyning, and McGinley.¹⁴

Mrs. Dilling is a constant source of violent articles for Common Sense which prints them under such headlines as "Brotherhood—Jew Trap for Christianity" and "World Crucifixion and the Master Race." Mrs. Dilling has also authored appeals in Common Sense for support of the propaganda activities of McGinley and Mrs. Van Hyning. McGinley in turn has recommended Mrs. Dilling's "Bulletins" to his readers and has offered for sale reprints of her book, The Plot Against Christianity. He has also appealed for financial contributions for Mrs. Van Hyning and occasionally carried in Common Sense statements either credited to her or to her publication, Women's Voice.

A number of individuals notorious for their efforts to create a nationwide fascist organization in the United States in the 1930's are also propagandizing again through Common Sense. McGinley has printed articles and letters from Gen. George Van Horn Moseley (Ret.), Col. Eugene N. Sanctuary, and Charles B. Hudson. He has advertised for sale a new book by Robert Edward Edmondson. The Special Committee on Un-American Activities reported in 1940 that General Moseley was being seriously considered as a national leader of an attempted union of fascist and hate groups in the United States until the plans were exposed and Moseley was called as a witness before the committee. The special committee named Sanctuary, Hudson, and Edmondson as being among the individuals who took part in this unsuccessful attempt to create a united fascist movement.

Preliminary committee investigations have thus far failed to reveal any indication that present-day fascist and hate groups are seeking national organizational unity.

The cooperative efforts of the hate groups, however, have actually extended to the point of national conventions. Common Sense reported the proceedings of one such convention held in Chicago, July 4-6, 1952. Conde McGinley, Sr., and William J. O'Brien spoke as representatives of Common Sense at this gathering, which was referred to by McGinley as an "annual convention" of "nationalists." Mrs. Lyril Clark Van Hyning served as moderator of the convention, which was chaired by one George Foster. The 200 delegates, from all sections of the country, heard speeches and adopted resolutions following the lines of the propaganda which they issue. The most significant statement was in a speech by O'Brien of Common Sense. He urged the delegates to back each other "to the limit" whenever any one of them is "under attack."¹⁵ committee's investigation. Volunteer workers perform many duties in connection with the publication. The committee has learned, however, that Conde McGinley, Sr., has no employment or income outside of the Common Sense operation. He has for a short period in the past served as caretaker of property in Union, but his payment did not exceed $1,000 a year. Conde McGinley, Jr., supplements his Common Sense activities by serving as a free lance salesman of aluminum windows and siding for houses. Conde McGinley, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Conde McGinley, Jr., reside in the headquarters building of Common Sense at 530 Chestnut Street in Union.

Since contributions form an admittedly important part of Common Sense income, the true state of its finances is difficult to determine. The committee has been denied access to Federal income tax information on the principals involved. A minimum income of approximately $30,000 annually is evident from a study of bank deposits made in the name of Common Sense or its new corporate cloak, the Christian Educational Association. A total of $25,965.97 was deposited in the publication's account in a Union, N. J., bank during the 10-month period from January 1 to October 29, 1954. During the 12 months of 1953, deposits totaled $29,320.78.

It is regrettable that any American may have contributed to the perpetuation of a hate factory such as that operated by the McGinleys. If loyal Americans seek to play an active part in protecting their country from subversion, they would do well to lend their support to legitimate patriotic organizations rather than to those whose real objective is another form of subversion.

CONCLUSION

In this preliminary report, the committee has concentrated on a few examples of subversive propaganda activity currently to be found in the United States. The committee is well aware that this report conveys only a small part of the total picture of such activities in this country today.

The committee believes, however, that this preliminary report will provide useful information to the Congress. Both the National Renaissance Party and Common Sense have made unsolicited distributions of their un-American propaganda to Members of the Congress, and the Members have consequently made frequent inquiry of the committee regarding the nature of these organizations.

The committee further hopes that this report will alert both the Congress and the American public to dangers which must not be ignored. The National Renaissance Party and the operators of Common Sense illustrate two types of subversion from the extreme right. The committee condemns any such resurgence of pro-fascist and hate activity.

The committee is continuing its investigation and exposure of Communist conspirators wherever they may be found. The committee is convinced, however, that there is a concurrent need for continuous investigation, exposure, and, where necessary, prosecution, to the end that no activity of a pro-fascist nature will ever be permitted to gain substantial stature or influence in the United States.

Some of the many similarities between fascism and communism are outlined as follows in Fascism In Action, a documented study and analysis prepared by the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress in 1947:

"1. The wiping out of all independent trade-unionism with the result that those trade-unions which are permitted, exist only under the tolerance of the totalitarian state, to serve as its servile adjuncts.

"2. The elimination of political parties except the ruling Nazi, Fascist, or Communist Party.

"3. The subordination of all economic and social life to the strict control of the ruling, single-party bureaucracy.

"4. The suppression of individual initiative, and the liquidation of the system of free enterprise, and a tendency toward government control of supercartels.

"5. The abolition of the right to freedom of speech, press, assembly, and religious worship.

"6. The reduction of wages and, in the case of communism, living standards.

"7. The use of slave labor on a vast scale and the establishment of concentration camps.

"8. The abolition of the right to trial by jury, habeas corpus, the right to independent defense counsel, and the innocence of the defendant until proven guilty.

"9. The glorification of a single Leader or Fuehrer or Duce, who is all-powerful and subject neither to criticism nor removal through the ballot.

"10. The utilization of a special form of social demagoguery—for example, incitement of race against race and class against class—the elimination of all opposition, and the concentration of power into the hands of the ruling dictatorship.

"11. The subordination of all economic and social life and the everyday needs of the population to the requirements of an expanding military machine seeking world conquest.

"12. The establishment of a system of Nation-wide espionage to which the entire population is subject.

"13. The severance of social, cultural, and economic contact between the people of the totalitarian state and those of other countries, through a rigorous press and radio censorship, travel restrictions, etc.

"14. The open disregard for the rights of other nations and the sanctity of treaties.

"15. The maintenance and encouragement of fifth columns abroad.

"16. The reduction of parliamentary bodies to a rubber-stamp status automatically approving all decisions of the one-party dictatorship and the omnipotent Leader."

vastly increase the Aryan birth rate in America and open up many jobs now held by married women to unemployed men.

Thus the National Renaissance Party is primarily concerned with the welfare of the national community as a whole and with the supreme task of the national community which is the protection and preservation of our most valuable Aryan racial elements. As opposed to this, the worthless Democratic and Republican Parties are solely concerned with the accumulation of gold and votes. The Republican Party serves the interests of International Finance, the Democratic Party serves International Jewry; but neither serves the interests of the American people as a whole. To clarify the issues we will outline the complete 9-point political, racial and economic program of the National Renaissance Party.

(1) To encourage racial nationalism among the peoples of Europe, Africa and Asia as an antidote to the spread of International Communism. We must disassociate American foreign policy from the decadent British and French colonial empires against which the entire land mass of Africa and Asia is in revolt. We must also repudiate the operetta-state of Israel unless we wish to drive the entire Middle East into the open arms of Soviet Russia in order that our political windbags in Washington may appease a howling pack of New York kikes, whose sole contributions to American culture have been syphilis and usury.

(2) To enforce a strict policy of racial segregation in America in order to preserve and advance the culturally dominant White Aryan Race which brought the cultural and social benefits of Western Civilization to our shores in 1492. (By the "Aryan Race" we refer to the Nordic, Celtic, Anglo-Saxon, Latin and Slavic peoples.)

(3) To bring about a gradual deportation of those racial elements which cannot be assimilated with the culturally predominant White Race. Laws must be passed to rigidly prohibit racial intermarriage. (Those racial elements which cannot be assimilated in an Aryan racial community are the Porto Ricans, Negroes, Jews and Asiatics.)

(4) The Jewish Race, which constitutes the motivating financial and intellectual force behind Communism, shall be deprived of their American citizenship and hence barred from all political and professional posts. Marriage between Jews and members of the dominant White Race shall be forbidden. (During the past 20 years the Jews have managed to obtain a tremendous hold on American politics, art, culture and commerce. No people on earth with a vestige of pride in itself and its national honor will tolerate such a domination of the KEY professions by members of a completely ALIEN race. At the same time, the Jews are a determining factor in those political parties which have sought to undermine the last vestiges of racial and national pride in America. The Jew constitutes an alien virus in our national blood stream and as such he must be purged from our cultural, economic and political life.)

(5) To bring about the withdrawal of the United States from the United Nations in order to prevent further exploitation of American resources and manpower by foreign parasites. (In regard to foreign trade, America must develop a policy of preserving the American market for the American farmer and manufacturer. America must "Buy American" and subsidize, if necessary, American scientific ingenuity toward the end of producing chemically many of those products which are not found here in America but upon which this nation is dependent.)

(6) The alliance of German scientific and military genius combined with American technology, mass production technique and manpower could dominate both the American and European continents. Therefore our foreign policy must have the three-fold objective of realizing a German-American alliance in Europe; a Moslem-American alliance in the Middle East; and a Japanese-American alliance in Asia.

(7) The creation of an American Corporate Economy wherein labor and management will be equally represented in an Economic Dept. of the Federal Government. All disputes will be settled by impartial labor tribunals. (Labor and management exist to serve the interests of the State, which represents the totality of the American people. Class warfare and inflationary prices create universal economic chaos hence prices and wages must be stabilized by the State in order to meet the needs of the American people as a whole.)

(8) The abolition of parliamentary government national-minded elite.

(9) The use of all educational facilities to imbue the American youth with an intense feeling of racial and national pride as a sure antidote to the international poison of World Communism.

"More than thirty years have now passed since in 1914 I made my modest contribution as a volunteer in the First World War, which was forced upon the Reich."

In these three decades I have been actuated solely by love and loyalty to my people. It is untrue that I, or anyone else in Germany, wanted the war in 1939. It was desired and instigated solely by those international statesmen who were either of Jewish descent or worked for Jewish interests. I have made too many offers for the control and limitation of armaments, which posterity will not for all time be able to disregard, for the responsibility for the outbreak of this war to be laid on me. I have further never wished that, after the fatal First World War, a second against England or against America, should break out. Centuries will pass away, but out of the ruins of our towns and monuments hatred will grow against those finally responsible for everything, international Jewry, and its helpers. I have also made it plain that, if the nations of Europe are again to be regarded as mere shares to be bought and sold by those international conspirators in money and finance, then that race, Jewry, which is the real criminal of this murderous struggle, will be saddled with the responsibility." Adolf Hitler's Last Political Testament—April 29, 1945.

ADOLF HITLER, THE GEORGE WASHINGTON OF EUROPE

James H. Madole

In May, 1945 the Jewish vultures plunged low over the prostrate ruins of Nazi Germany as hordes of Jewish bureaucrats from Washington fought for the cultural and military spoils of Central Europe. Beautiful cultural centers like Berlin, Cologne and Dresden had been reduced to smoking ash heaps, their civilian population converted into screaming human torches as a result of the phosphorus bombs dropped from the bombing squadrons of Jewry's American errand boys in Europe. Our Twentieth Century liberal democrats and apostles of brotherly love laughed when thousands of lovely German and Austrian girls were dragged from their mother's arms by lustful Red savages from the steppes of Asia and by panting Senegalese Negroes, hired as mercenaries by our French Allies. Captured German soldiers were used for homosexual purposes by these same Senegalese savages during the North African campaign. A wave of suicides syphilis and illegitimate mulatto children swept Central Europe while the Jewish Occupational Officers led by Eisenhower gloated with the report of each new outrage.

In a final burst of savagery and hatred the Jews manipulated the legalized torture and murder of Germany's top military, political and economic leadership at the infamous Nuremberg Trials. This trumped up infamy will live in history as a black smirch on the records of American justice. Despite the inhuman hardships and cruelties inflicted upon them, the German people remained loyal to the memory of their heroic Chancellor, Adolf Hitler. Only a few cowards and traitors joined hands with Jewry's political puppet, Konrad Adenauer.

We have on record the last words of seven German soldiers hung at Landsberg Prison by the Jewish Occupational Authorities. They were guilty of two great crimes, love of country and racial pride. The young hero of the American Revolution, Nathan Hale, when captured by the British was offered his life in exchange for vital military information. His immortal reply was: "I regret that I have but one life to give for my country." Compare this statement with the final words of German soldier Werner Braune spoken at the foot of the gallows.

"German! Obedience and faithfulness to my supreme chief of state brought me under the gallows. I cannot regret my obedience. In place of being shot at the front by comrades, I deem it to be more honest to be killed at the gallows by the hands of the enemy. My love was devoted to my people. My struggle was for truth and justice. My last idea is Germany. My last greeting is for my brave wife, my children, my old parents, my beloved brother and all my relations and friends. My last prayer is: God, forgive my murderers."

Despite the horrors of rape, famine and legalized murder the German people dug out from the ruins and commenced the hard and arduous task of reconstruction. The militant Fascist spirit awaited only the exit of Allied occupational forces before taking the reins of power from the feeble puppets of Western Democracy known as Konrad Adenauer in Germany and Alcide de Gasperi in Italy. To understand the revival of European Fascism in post-war Europe requires a basic understanding of the beauty and glory essentially inherent in Fascist philosophy as compared to the decadent democracy of Western Europe which serves as a media for the economic and political exploitation of the Gentile masses by the Jewish Race.

The two political titans of Twentieth Century Fascism were Benito Mussolini and Adolf Hitler. These two men created a political and economic philosophy which swept the mental shackles of Jewish Bolshevism from the minds of untold millions of European workers, intellectuals and shopkeepers. These two men created order out of chaos and prevented the final extinction of Western Civilization at the hands of a barbarian Asiatic horde led by the Jewish Commissars of the Kremlin. When his liberal critics referred to him as "a ruthless totalitarian dictator," Mussolini replied as follows:

"In what consists the Liberalism which today inspires all the enemies of Fascism? Does Liberalism stand for universal suffrage and such conceptions? Does it mean keeping Parliament permanently sitting so that it may continue to present the ignoble spectacle which has evoked general disgust? Does it, in the name of Liberty, allow the minority to destroy the freedom of the majority? Does it mean making way for those who declare their hostility to the State and who are working actively to destroy it? Is this Liberalism? Well, if this be Liberalism, it is a theory and practice of surrender and ruin. Liberty is not an end, it is a means. As a means it needs to be controlled and dominated. Here we come to the question of force!"

"I beg my friends the Liberals to tell me if ever in all history there was a Government which was based exclusively upon the consent of the people and which was ready to dispense altogether with the use of force. There has never been and never will be such a Government. The consent of the people is as mutable as the sands of the seashore. The consent of the people is never permanent. There never was a Government that made all the governed happy. And granted this fact, however far-seeing the Government may be, there must always be malcontents, how shall you prevent their feelings from growing and from becoming a danger to the State? You must have recourse to force."

"Now Fascism throws the noxious theories of so-called Liberalism upon the rubbish heap. The truth, manifest to all whose eyes are not blinded by dogmatism, is that men are tired of liberty. They have had an orgy of it. Liberty today is no longer the chaste and severe virgin for whom fought and died the soldiers of World War I. For the youths of today, intrepid, eager, stern, who envisage the dawn of a new era, there are words which exercise a more potent fascination and these words are: Order, Hierarchy, Discipline..."

The collapse of the Imperial German Army in 1918 was brought about by the great munitions strike fomented by Communist Jews in control of the well organized German Trade Union Movement. The most prominent of these Jewish leaders were Rosa Luxemburg and Kurt Eisner. These Jewish labor leaders, assisted by a host of "liberal" Jewish journalists and professional Red revolutionists, were seeking to create a Soviet Germany to act as a buffer state for Lenin's newly created Soviet Russia which had been established in 1917. The attempted Red Revolution in Germany failed due to the heroic efforts of Adolf Hitler and the National Socialist Party.

In September, 1928, Adolf Hitler spoke to his party leaders in Munich. The problems confronting Germany in 1928 were similar to the problems facing America in 1953. In order to save Germany from financial and moral collapse, Hitler postulated the following program:

"In the first place our people must be delivered from the hopeless confusion of international convictions and educated consciously and systematically to fanatical Nationalism . . . Second, in so far as we educate the people to fight against the delirium of democracy and bring it again to the recognition of the necessity of authority and leadership, we tear it away from the nonsense of parliamentarianism. Third, insofar as we deliver the people from the atmosphere of pitiable belief in possibilities which lie outside the bounds of one's own strength—such as the belief in reconciliation, understanding, world peace, the League Of Nations, and international solidarity—we destroy these ideas. There is only one right in the world and that right is one's own strength."

Thus Hitler explained to his people the futility of seeking international cooperation with those nations which were bent on exploiting a defeated and occupied Reich. How could there be reconciliation and friendship with a French government whose troops occupied the key German industrial areas of the Saar Basin and Rhineland? Could there be international solidarity with an England who had jealously stripped Germany of her African colonies and overseas trade? Only strong nations can afford to bargain in the great game of power politics. Hence Hitler's primary goal was the creation of a strong, independent, self confident Germany.

The racial philosophy of the Nazi Movement was completely at variance with the doctrines of liberal democracy, which had emerged from the Red ghettos of Eastern Europe and the Masonic Lodges of France at the time of the bloody French Revolution. Liberal democracy was based on the mythical claims of racial, individual and economic equality laid down by such Jewish intellectuals as Adam Weishaupt, founder of the semi-mystical Illuminati Society and spiritual mentor of the French Revolution and Karl Marx, the author of the Red Bible, "Das Kapital, and founder of World Communism. This democratic doctrine of universal equality was used by its spiritual founders, the Jewish Race, to break down the racial and national pride of the culturally dominant Aryan Race. The Jew, like the Biblical serpent tempting Eve in the Garden Of Eden, seeks to lure the Aryan Race into polluting its pure blood and creative ingenuity by mixing sexually with Zulu Hottentots and Asiatic ancestor worshippers. Hitler spoke as follows concerning the National Socialist conception of race:

"National Socialism takes as the starting point of its views and its decisions neither the individual nor humanity. It puts consciously into the central point of its whole thinking the Race. This Race is for us a blood-conditioned entity in which we see the God-willed building stone of human society. The individual is transitory, the Race is permanent. If the Liberal viewpoint in its deification of the single individual must lead to the destruction of the racial community, National Socialism, on the other hand, desires to safeguard the Race, if necessary even at the expense of the individual. It is essential that the individual should slowly come to realize that his own ego is unimportant when compared with the existence of the whole people . . . Above all we must realize that the freedom of the mind and will of a whole nation are to be valued more highly than the individual's freedom of mind and will."

The National Socialist Party took power in 1933 and inaugurated the most rapid economic recovery program in European history. Vast public housing and road building projects were undertaken successfully. American soldiers returning from occupied Germany have remarked about the high standard of living and cleanliness prevalent in German towns and cities under the Hitler regime. How was it possible for the Nazi Party to raise Germany from the depths of financial ruin to the heights of economic prosperity in three short years? This problem was solved by substituting the productive capacity of the German worker for the Capitalist inspired Gold Standard. Hitler explained it to the German workers of Berlin on December 10, 1940, as follows:

"The German capacity for work is our gold and our capital, and with this gold I can compete successfully with any power in the world . . . My whole economic system has been built upon the conception of work. We have solved our problems while, amazingly enough, the capitalist countries and their currencies have suffered bankruptcy. Sterling can find no market today . . . But our Reichsmark, which is backed by no gold, has remained stable. Why? It has no gold cover, it is backed by you and your work . . . German currency, with no

ADOLF HITLER: AN APPRECIATION

Eustace Mullins

Eventually America must admit her debt to Adolf Hitler for it was Hitler who first called upon all Aryan people to unite and challenge Jewish economic and political power. It was Hitler who first enunciated the doctrine of national self-determination and led the armies of Christian Europe in a great crusade against the godless Jews of the Kremlin. Hitler, like Christ before him, was crucified on a Cross Of Gold through the duplicity of his own Christian people.

America will never forget that the Jewish International bankers, together with Franklin D. Roosevelt, their tool, led us into World War II. Why? Because Hitler drove the economic leeches of the Rothschild and Warburg families out of Germany. The Jewish "refugees" poured into America and enlisted us as their cannon fodder and errand boys in Europe. Hitler warned America in 1945, that we would have to face the ultimate battle against the Jewish Frankenstein Monster of Communism alone. America had helped create the monster, now it would destroy her.

It is no longer a question of defending America's independence. It is a question of defending the remainder of Western Civilization from the colored hordes of Asia and Africa led by Jewish Communists toward the ultimate goal of Jewish World Domination. The Jew plays for high stakes, world domination or the extermination of their race. America is the last obstacle in the path of Jewish conquest. Either the Aryan or the Jew must yield in the world struggle. The goal of our National Renaissance Movement becomes clear.

Ever since April, 1952, the National Renaissance Party has been holding mass outdoor meetings on a weekly basis. From 70 to 200 people have attended each meeting, the greatest outdoor Nationalist demonstration since Charles Lindbergh, Joe McWilliams and Father Coughlin ceased operations in 1942. Next year we shall extend our outdoor mass rallies into Queens and Brooklyn.

BROTHERHOOD?

THEY EXECUTE THEM THE PRAGUE AND BERIA WAY!

Fellow American, ask your Senator and Congressman for a list of those who under examination by our various committees refused to state whether or not they ever belonged to a Communist organization. You then, will readily find that of these 1873 "Amendment Reds", no less than 93% belong to those "Brotherhood" and "One World" apostles who at any time will sell us down the river — lock, stock, and barrel; to those brethren of ours who will sell us out because these aliens in our midst — in the realm of their cult enjoy quite a unique privilege — the privilege, namely, to have God, himself, as their lawmaker! (Compare Pentateuch, especially Part 3 and Part 5)

IN U.S.A.
THEY PROMOTE
THEM THE DEXTER - WHITE WAY!

Do you comprehend now, why every effort is being made by our "Republican", administration to do away with the McCarthy and Jenner "Inquisition"? A poetry found asleep at his post, before the enemy, is EXECUTED, even if no spy has sneaked past. Shall we, now, execute Muss. Truman, Acheson, Morgenthau et al, who — asleep at their posts of trust — promoted, aided, recommended and praised these spies bent on our destruction? Certainly not! We, again, will elect them to their posts in 1956!

A year ago we wrote in our December 1952 Bulletin:

"... It is simple to catch Jewish leaders in a maze of contradictions during those times when they are frantically beginning to realize that their atomic weapons ultimatum, their United Nations front against Russia, and the Korean War are gigantic blunders which may seal the final doom of World Jewry and bring an end to their vicious intrigues both in America and Russia. Up to now the Jewish objective within Russia has been to replace the pan-Slavic Stalin regime, which the Jews consider as having deviated from the international principles of Karl Marx, by a new Jewish dictator of the Trotsky (Bronstein) type. (In all probability Beria is designated by the Baruchs to fill Trotsky's place in the near future). Just as they constantly hoped for an internal revolution in Germany, so they have hoped for a revolution against Stalin, a revolution which would sweep away the old Czarist dream of a pan-Slavic Russian Empire with Nationalist tendencies and return to the fundamental theme of world Jewish domination over the Gentile masses as envisioned in Talmudic prophecy. This revolution against pan-Slavic Stalinism would embrace the United Nations and bring about the proverbial Jewish millennium, the reunion of Baruch and Beria of Lippmann and Ehrenburg, of Bittencourt and Eisner, of Anna Pauker and Anna Rosenberg. But now, this hope has vanished. It is possible to record the developments which have been rendered inevitable by the clear break signified by the Prague Trials."

"... The Prague Trials have gone off with an explosive roar to waken the European Fascist elite to active resistance against the death plans being hatched for European Culture in Washington by American Jewry. The fact is: the Russian leadership is killing Jews for treason to Russia, for service to the Jewish entity. Nothing can gainstay, or reverse this fact. The European elite will perforce note this fact and act accordingly."

"... An inevitable development of the Prague Trials is the intensification of the American diplomatic offensive against Russia, the "cold war." The press campaign will intensify both in America and Europe; Russia will appear morally blacker and blacker; the American armament drive will be accelerated; all potential Soviet agents will be liquidated. Russia will naturally retaliate; today "Pravda" says "Zionism is a tool of American imperialism." Tomorrow it will say "American imperialism is the tool of Zionism."

And now, gentle reader, compare with these statements of ours the events over the last twelve months, now, that Trotsky the second — Beria, that is — has been executed.

Ever since 1945 we demanded the resurrection — with our help — of a powerful, German Fourth Reich, within the frame of a Federated Europe. BUT, the planned E.D.C. instrument — a "Babylonisches Durcheinander" without parallel in history — will end in disaster. For the Jewish consensus, however, it will be THE instrument par excellence to bring into reality the Jewish Imperium.

Madole has discarded caution on a number of occasions and boldly advocated "six inches of steel" for America's Jewish minority.

The HCUA report then states NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American and that it is the HCUA's opinion that the NRP, by its advocacy of force and violence, contravenes the Smith Act. From a review of the report it is apparent the NRP's advocacy of violence is directed at minority groups and not against the Government of the United States; therefore, it appears no violation of the Smith Act is evident and that the NRP would more properly fall within the purview of Executive Order 10450 whereby the Attorney General may designate organizations which have "adopted a policy of advocating the commission of acts of force and violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution of the United States."

The HCUA report sets forth some background data on the NRP and mentions Frederick Charles J. Weiss as its chief source of propaganda. Anna Truhill, according to the report, heads the NRP "overseas office." Bureau reports in this case reflect that Weiss, a former World War I Prussian Army officer, has been affiliated with the NRP and has contributed funds as well as articles which have appeared in the "National Renaissance Bulletin," official organ of the NRP. b7C

Bureau reports on the NRP contain all pertinent data appearing in the HCUA report and the NRP/CSS² referred to the Department on September 15, 1953, for its consideration under the provisions of Executive Order 10450.

Concerning "Common Sense," the HCUA report merely sets forth background data on its editor, Conde J. McInley, of Union, New Jersey, and reviews the nature of the anti-Semitic articles which appear in this paper, pointing out that it is this type of hate propaganda that is being used by McInley for a shrewd and going business. The report says "Common Sense" is used almost entirely as a vehicle for exploitation of ignorance, prejudice and fear and that this paper has indicated some of our Government leaders are being controlled by the "Invisible Government," i.e., Zionism. Report also states that associate editor of "Common Sense" in August, 1949, was Henry McFarland, head of the Nationalist Action League (cited by Attorney General under Executive Order 10450). Reference is made to my memorandum dated December 15, 1954, advising that upon receipt of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) report on "Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups" it would be analyzed and recommendations made based thereon.

The HCUA report dated December 17, 1954, has been reviewed and it does not appear that the HCUA has made a prima facie case against the NRP insofar as a violation of the Smith Act is concerned. The data contained in the HCUA report appears to have been obtained from NRP publications and literature. No hearings were held by the HCUA regarding the NRP.

The HCUA report states that the NRP program advocates abolition of Parliamentary Government in the United States in favor of a government by a "trained elite"; establishment of a Fascist corporate economy; encouragement of a "racial" pride; preservation of the "white Aryan" race by gradual deportation of Puerto Ricans, Negroes, Jews and Asiatics; and the denial to Jewish people of citizenship, professional and political posts, and the right of "inter-marriage."

Report states that the NRP headed by James H. Madole, a fanatic, offers its fascist program as an antidote to Communism and then points out the fallacy of the anti-Communist role by showing that it is exposed by NRP insistence that a Communist is synonymous with a "Jew" and in this regard violates the Constitution by making a minority group its target. The HCUA report also states that at the time of the Prague trials in 1952 and other anti-Semitic purges behind the Iron Curtain, the NRP defended the action of the Soviets and implied that the example should be followed in Europe and America. According to the HCUA report, "such an appeal to violence exposes the most vicious and dangerous aspect of the NRP. In its printed literature the NRP has attempted to disguise such appeals, although the implications are clear in headlines such as the following: 'In Russia They execute Them the Prague and Berlin Way! In the U.S.A They Promote Them the Dexter White Way!'" The report states of "Williams Intelligence Summary" also appeared in "Common Sense." Williams was released of his reserve commission by the Air Force in 1950. No investigation of "Williams Intelligence Summary" conducted by Bureau. Another contributor to "Common Sense" is Mrs. Lyril Clark Van Hyning, head of We, The Mothers Mobilize for America (referred to Department by Bureau on September 4, 1953, for consideration under Executive Order 10450). Report states Benjamin Harrison Freeman has contributed financial support to "Common Sense." Other pertinent data re McGinley and "Common Sense" furnished to Department by memoranda dated January 20, 1951, and February 1, 1951.

On October 15, 1954, Newark advised that McGinley and his supporters formed the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, to promote publication of "Common Sense." Investigation was immediately initiated by Newark and on December 15, 1954, Newark advised that report on this matter would reach Bureau by December 17, 1954. A stop was placed at the incoming mail desk which was negative and Newark telephonically contacted December 17, 1954, and advised report mailed night of December 16, 1954.

According to records office of Secretary of State, Trenton, New Jersey, The Christian Educational Association of Union, N. J. is a corporation doing business as a stationer, printer, publisher and vendor of books, newspapers and magazines. The principal officer of the corporation is CONDE MC GINLEY, editor of "Common Sense." Certificate of Incorporation filed at Trenton, 3/11/54.

Last statement of ownership, appearing in September 1954 issue of "Common Sense", sets forth same information. Previous statement of ownership, appearing in issue number 193 of September 15, 1953, indicated CONDE MC GINLEY was owner, publisher and editor. "Common Sense", formerly known as "Think Weekly" is a bi-monthly, tabloid size newspaper published in New Jersey.

Under date of December 17, 1954, the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U. S. House of Representatives published a "preliminary report on Neo-Fascist and Hate groups" in which the growth objectives and the editor of "Common Sense" are discussed at length. The report indicates the publication has a fluctuating circulation of between 30,000 and 100,000 copies.

In the HCUA report, "Common Sense" is described as a "hate group" vehicle publishing "some of the most vitriolic hate propaganda ever to come to the attention of the Committee." According to the report, "Common Sense" depicts Communism as "Judaism" and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish, and to a lesser extent, the Negro minorities in our nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi Regime in Germany is also injected into this propaganda.

Hon. Herbert Brownell, Jr.
Attorney General of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

In this period when unjust attacks are being made on Mr. Conde McGinley, editor and publisher of COMMON SENSE, I ask you to permit me to record officially a brief of what I know of this outstanding American patriot.

My record of 43 years active service in the Army is available to you. ~~In my closing years I served as~~ Deputy Chief of Staff for General Douglas MacArthur, in the War Department. Thereafter, ~~I commanded the~~ 4th Corps Area and the 3rd Army. ~~During a part of this period,~~ the President was ~~my Assistant~~ in the War Department. I do not forget for a second the oath I took upon entering West Point, an oath repeated with every promotion, to support and protect the Constitution of the United States. I shall continue to obey that oath as long as I am permitted to live. I am well and strong, still active in my work.

The Constitution guarantees a free press and freedom of speech. In this tragic period of our national history, when well-known organizations operating within our borders openly, threaten our destruction, Mr. McGinley has had the courage and character to inform the American people of the facts and the truth. In his work he has made every effort to avoid error or any statement that could be interpreted as untrue even in the slightest degree.

Quite naturally Mr. McGinley, in fighting communism, has been attacked by the Jews who have been seriously involved in that conspiracy, as the record shows. I went through all this myself. They began their attack on me when I appealed to them openly to join us in fighting communism. In fact, communism could be crushed in a week if the Jews generally were sincere in their efforts opposing communism.

Mr. McGinley has opened the eyes of our people to the dangers of the present situation in a manner no publication or individual in public life has dared to do, although they know the truth of McGinley's evidence. The political and financial power of the Jews is so great that no politician dares criticise them or even refer to them by name. The few who have been courageous enough to do so have generally been thoroughly smeared and defeated.

3-17-00 SP5 JC/mc

In a pamphlet of "FACTS" about the American Jewish Committee, printed several months ago, some of their accomplishments are listed. It is explained how they apply the "Quarantine Treatment" to anyone opposed to their interests and plans. Such an individual is blacklisted throughout the news and his or her name and activities are never mentioned, so great is their power over the press and radio.

I have known Mr. McGinley well for several years. I marvel at the punishment he has taken without it defeating his aims and purposes in the least. He is a Christian of the finest type and highest character. If our Republic is finally saved, Mr. McGinley should be called before the assembled Congress and given a medal of honor for his heroism. That heroism has not been limited to a single act, but it has stood out every day and every night throughout the years while the enemy planned his destruction.

If you permit Conde McGinley to be destroyed, it is positive proof that our nation will be destroyed in the same way - and by the same gang. To show how far these conditions have developed, I was recently in conference with one of our greatest living Americans (a civilian). I said to him - "You and I will never see again the Republic that was in being when we left college." "No," he replied, "that Republic has gone for all time." From the evidence that reaches me, it appears that our whole system of jurisprudence has fallen to a low level. Too often it appears that justice is no longer available in the courts; but rather, it is for sale in the market place. Even the ethics of the individual lawyer have reached a new low, as all statistics show.

Faithfully and sincerely yours,

George Van Horn Moseley

NOTE: Conde McGinley is editor of "Common Sense, the Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper" which is subject of numerous inquiries made by citizens currently. This publication is violently anti-Semitic, and summaries of its material and a summary on McGinley have been furnished the Justice Department in the past. No investigation has been made by the Bureau. Bufiles reflect that Moseley has been closely allied with various Nationalist groups and has been known for years, since his retirement especially, to be anti-Communist and anti-Semitic. The Bureau was requested in 1946 by the Justice Department to investigate General Moseley's background. A representative of the Secret Service stated in 1940 his opinion that that agency's investigation being conducted by request of the White House was to secure facts for basis of removing Moseley from retirement pay in the U.S. Army due to his activities. Only main files on correspondent reviewed; numerous "See References" not called.

RE: "COMMON SENSE"

From: W. C. Sullivan

12-154

Freedom of the press and freedom of religion have always been two of the most closely guarded rights of the American citizen, yet many times individuals and organizations abuse and ignore these rights by their self-styled attempts in order to "help save our Republic." Throughout our history there have been groups who have clothed themselves in this alleged patriotic phrase in order to carry out their own selfish desires.

This type of activity has taken various forms including street corner speeches, formal addresses, leaflets, pamphlets, magazines, and newspapers. Probably the most dangerous of these forms is that involving printed matter because more people are exposed to it for a longer time since it is often passed on from one individual to another. Then too, there are many who tend to believe anything that is written and accept it as true fact. This, of course, is a dangerous practice because any set of given facts can be distorted to suit the purpose of the writer and, therefore, mislead and confuse the reader.

One newspaper which has been active in this type of propaganda is known as "Common Sense," which is published semimonthly in Union, New Jersey, and is self-described as "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper." Its editor is Conde J. McGinley who instituted this publication in July, 1946, under the name "Think Weekly." In June, 1947, its name was changed.

In the preliminary report entitled "Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups" dated December 17, 1954, which was prepared by the Committee on Un-American Activities of the U. S. House of Representatives, it was stated that "Common Sense" defines Communism as 'Judaism' and devotes its pages almost exclusively to attacks on the Jewish and to a lesser extent the Negro minorities in our Nation. Sympathy for the former Nazi regime in Germany also is injected into this propaganda, which is hardly distinguishable from that of the National Renaissance Party except for the latter's open appeal for a fascist government in the United States." (The National Renaissance Party is an avowedly fascist organization founded in 1949, according to the December 17, 1954, report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.)

The Congressional report continues by pointing out that "Common Sense" employed and/or carried the writings of a number of individuals associated with the National Renaissance Party. This report further states that the McGinley publication serves as a "clearinghouse for hate propagandists throughout the country." In contrasting the National Renaissance Party, which has a limited appeal, to "Common Sense" the report indicates "the McGinley enterprise appears to be a shrewd and going business."

McGinley was quick to leap to the defense following the report of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. In the issue of "Common Sense," dated December 1, 1954, a brief article appeared on the back page entitled "ARE WE A 'HATE' GROUP?" where it was stated, "Yes--we hate communism sufficient to cause us to expose those who cleverly promote it regardless of who they are or how they squirm or protest. Watch for next issue of Common Sense in which we will expose the Marxist plot to use the Un-American Activities Committee to smear Christian Americans who oppose communism. In the meantime, we thank our enemies for this flood of new subscribers."

Christian Education Association" (105-9621-182)
(Although this issue of "Common Sense" is dated December 11, 1954, it is noted that the House Committee Report was not released until December 17, 1954, indicating that "Common Sense" appeared at a later date.)

In recent months the Christian Educational Association was allegedly formed by McGinley as a fund raising group and also to avoid further legal entanglements which have beset him in the past. (105-9621-173)

One of the most vicious attacks on members of the Jewish faith occurred when "Common Sense" printed and distributed a single sheet, newspaper size, document entitled "THE COMING RED DICTATORSHIP." The headline is flanked by the symbol of the hammer and sickle and the sub-head reads, "ASIATIC MARXIST JEWS CONTROL ENTIRE WORLD AS LAST WORLD WAR COMMENCES---THOUSANDS OF PLOTTERS PLACED IN KEY POSITIONS BY INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT---FEW EVER ELECTED---THOUSANDS MORE ON THEIR WAY." This was comprised of 64 primary points regarding the opinions of the publishers of "Common Sense" on how the country is being controlled by an "invisible government" which is completely dominated by Jewish individuals. There were photographs of 36 nationally prominent Jewish persons included in this issue with allegations that they are responsible for the "plot" to rule the country and that they are following the "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion," as the formula for their plan to capture control of the world. (105-9621-124)

The distribution of "Common Sense" is handled through paid subscriptions, but it is also mailed to many individuals completely unsolicited. Copies have been received in almost every section of the country and in some instances the senders recommend that the copies be passed on in chain letter fashion.

The recipient is requested to read the copy he receives, order additional copies, send them on to friends and suggest that they repeat the action.

In one of our eastern states the circulation scheme took on a direct mail approach when copies of the November 1, 1954, issue of "Common Sense," the document entitled "The Coming Red Dictatorship," and a 20 question folder were addressed to "Residence, Business, Rural Route, Star Route, Boxholder, LOCAL." The major portion of the November 1, 1954, issue of "Common Sense" was devoted to an attack on the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and also the Supreme Court ruling regarding integration.

The lead story of the above mentioned issue was head-lined "NAACP COMMUNIST FRONT SPLITS U.S. - DIVIDE & RULE." In referring to the NAACP the article stated "This organization, supposedly set up for the benefit of the Negro, is, in reality, hastening the final attainment of the Marxists' goal." The article insists that the organization is under Jewish influence and states that "more than one third of the present life members of the organization are Jews! Again we ask, who does the NAACP really represent?"

"Common Sense" insists that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has often followed the Marxist lead on controversial issues. The article reads in part, "It is a vicious exploitation of the Negro people to have an organization which has supposedly been formed for their benefit actually ruled, for the most part, by Jewish-Communists to whom the Negro means nothing more than a stepping stone. We appeal to the loyal Negro population to thoroughly denounce this phoney Marxist association."

In striking at the Supreme Court ruling regarding segregation the article stated "it can be considered a notable achievement of Jewish-Marxist influence and the result of much work on the part of those who know well the advantages of the slogan, 'Divide and Conquer'. This decision by our Supreme Court can benefit neither Negro nor White. The solution to the problem must come from the fostering and application of Christian ideals and attitudes on the part of each individual."

The twenty question folder included in the package was confined to segregation ruling. Two of the questions were as follows:

- "8. Is it true J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F.B.I., has in his files information, that if made public, would connect our Supreme Court directly with the Communist movement?

"9. Is Mr. Hoover under strict orders from his superiors not to make this information public?" (105-9621-180)

These questions are undoubtedly based on an article which appeared in the July 1, 1954, issue of "Common Sense" written by Eustice Mullins, which developed the theory that the Supreme Court Decision banning segregation in schools was the culmination of a Communist International directive to the Communist Party, USA, to use the Negro-racial issue and the issue of civil rights as a method to weaken the United States. This article indicated that the document to prove this contention was seized by Government agents who raided the Bridgeman, Michigan, Convention of the Communist Party on August 22, 1922.

According to the article the document is a directive written by Soviet Chief of Propaganda, Karl Radek, "the alias of a Jewish revolutionary named Sobelsohn" which document is in the files of the FBI today, but added that the Director of the FBI is under strict orders not to reveal the Radek directive at any cost because it would brand the Supreme Court as a front or agent of the Communist International. (100-3-75-900)

This article points out the complete disregard for facts and the intentional publication of false and misleading information on the part of "Common Sense." The Director of the FBI is not under any orders which would permit him revealing the alleged document, and, in fact, such a document does not exist in the files of the FBI. (105-9621-181)

Although to many the Democratic system might seem cumbersome at times if we are to continue to enjoy our freedoms we must adhere to its principles. Obviously, if the beliefs advocated by publications such as "Common Sense" were followed in this country we would quickly fall into the type of government such publications proclaim to be protecting us from.

The A.D.L. B'nai B'rith Conspiracy In Action

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is often referred to as the "Jewish Gestapo." On the surface it operates as a good-will agency furthering brotherhood. This program is their entering wedge into schools, colleges, universities, libraries, unions, factories, and Christian Churches where they carry on a brain-washing program.

The A.D.L. agents force themselves into committees such as American Legion and anti-Communist movements where possible; they cleverly neutralize the committee so that nothing effective is accomplished. To cover up and make themselves acceptable in such groups, they have now, the last two years, published some milk-toast anti-Communist leaflets. For 35 years, while Communism directed by Jews swept the world, they did not print one word against it in their official publications, B'nai B'rith Messenger, but smeared everyone who fought Communism, and still do today. This includes such as Senator Jos. McCarthy whom they refer to as "fertilizer". The B'nai B'rith is the backbone of the Marxist plot in the United States.

The A.D.L. boast they have 25 regional offices in the United States, and A.D.L. Committee of snoopers in 2000 lodges. Under the name of Joint Defense Appeal, the ADL and American Jewish Committee are now conducting a campaign for six million dollars to finance these snoopers who oppose Congressional investigations of Communism. Each year they conduct a newspaper campaign in the cities for a fund from 5 to $7,000,000 under the head of "tolerance".

HUMAN TERMITES

by

Carl M. Adams

The fact Webster's dictionary says, "a termite is an insect allied to the ant in habits but not in structure, and the ant is a small social insect," gives us a good description of our human termites, the communists, who try to influence our teachers, labor unions, churches, and who have spy rings inside our government.

Our own Senate Internal Security Subcommittee has published a full report which informs us eighty-two educators refused to answer questions about their communist affiliations, forty of these had connections with sixteen universities.

On October 6, 1953, the Florida Supreme Court ruled that calling a man a communist in public is slanderous because it charges a man "with having a loathsome state of mind." The Court's opinion, written by Justice John E. Mathews, said it was not necessary to rule whether calling a man a communist charges him with a criminal offense, "but it certainly charges him with having a loathsome state of mind or loathsome ideas which are communicable."

In the report of the Internal Security Subcommittee we are told, "policies and programs laid down by members of this Soviet conspiracy are still in effect within our government and constitute a continuing hazard to our national security."

Admiral Robert B. Carney, U.S. Chief of Naval operations said, "The Soviet Union has been steadily building up her naval power throughout the world and in event of war, Soviet submarines could give the American fleet serious trouble."

We should double our military effort now or risk the program of simple annihilation, Soviet leaders have in store for any defeated America.

We find the Soviet Union's intentions in the writings of Lenin, Lenin said the two systems could not exist side by side and that eventually the communist state would have to attack and destroy the capitalist nations or be destroyed itself.

Stalin said the same thing and present leaders repeat it. We must remember the whole concept of war has changed with A-bombs and H-bombs. Now is the time for us to get ready by destroying all these

EGYPT'S MASONIC ORDER DISSOLVES JEWISH LODGES

This article is reproduced from the front page of the Calif. "Jewish Voice" Oct. 21st, 1955. The Egyptian & Arab Masons realize that the Jewish Masons are plotting to capture the Government.

Here in the U.S. the B'nai B'rith are the Jewish Masons.

LONDON (JTA)—The Grand Masonic Lodge of Egypt and the Arab countries has taken a decision to dissolve all local Jewish lodges "in conformity with the Arabs' aspirations," it was reported here by the Reuter news agency here.

The Grand Lodge also passed a resolution supporting the policy of the Egyptian Government for arming the country. The Grand Lodge condemned "Zionism, imperialism and their agents."

Communism In The Entertainment World

Controlling the vast media of propaganda and entertainment are the Jews, who use these media—radio, television, and the motion pictures—to practice an unceasing suppression and boycott of Anglo-Americans, as they do in all their business pursuits. These Jews in positions of high influence boycott Anglo-American musical groups, composers, concert artists, dance orchestras, and vocalists. Noteworthy are the boycotts of Vaughn Monroe and Bing Crosby. Only their Latin tempo's might be heard. In motion pictures, no Anglo-American, particularly blond, is given a leading role, unless that role is one of villainy or folly. Jews are masters of deception, and their techniques of casting Anglo-Americans particularly blonds, in radio, television, and the motion pictures, in unsavory, ridiculous, and subordinate roles, revealing a sinister intent in racial defamation, deserves study and exposure. (Note Dragnet, for one.) For Jews are the writers and producers of America's entertainment, the magnates of the great media of communication.

Taking Anglo-American names, these artists of duplicity and cunning veil the truth of their domination in entertainment, business, and finance. For Anglo-Americans they bear a secret and relentless hostility, especially toward the fair, blond type of us. In television we have the Jews in all their omnipresent superior and sensuous blatency, (there are few programs they do not monopolize); we have the boycott of Anglo-Americans in the purposeful scheming of the emboldened Jews who are well assured of their supremacy and power here. As they dominate in business and finance, so they have solidified their parasitic power in the profitable sphere of entertainment. Note them—relieved by no outstanding vital Anglo-American personality: Berle, Marx, Dave Garroway, Herb Shriner, Edward G. Robinson, the Goldbergs, Sid Caesar, Jack Benny, Coca, Gobel, Fisher, Buttons, Lawford, Zabach, George Jessel, Eddie Cantor, Larry Adler, Laurant Bacall, Leonard Bernstein, Humphrey Bogart, Millen Brand, J. Important

We have been informed that some persons feel the article by Benjamin H. Freedman which appeared in the Sept. 15th issue of this publication is an article which appeared previously in the New York Herald Tribune. We hasten to correct that impression. The article by Benjamin H. Freedman never appeared in the New York Herald Tribune. The facsimile masthead of the New York Herald Tribune of May 9, 1946 and the facsimile reproduction of the headline "Will American Blood Flow in Palestine?" in our Sept. 15th issue recalled Benjamin H. Freedman's full-page warning then, paid for by him.

The article appearing in the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense was written by Benjamin H. Freedman shortly prior to its publication in that issue of Common Sense, and expressly for publication in Common Sense. The article by Benjamin H. Freedman appearing in the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense never appeared in any issue of The New York Herald Tribune, and obviously could not have appeared in the May 9, 1946 issue of The New which is in addition to the millions spent by other aggressive Jewish groups. The American Jewish Yearbook states there are 300 Jewish organizations in the United States, they are the main supporters of the move to set up World Government.

We have printed material in which these Jews boast that they write the speeches for the Christian Chaplains of the American Legion. They also rejoice that they influence hundreds of Protestant and Catholic schools and colleges, and that ten thousand Christian ministers read their propaganda. The ADL is the fountain for Marxist brain-wash—it is they who cunningly select the presidential candidates of both parties and finance smear campaigns against state and county candidates who will not submit to their dictates. The ADL is the mysterious power behind the White House brain trust.

These three, Maxwell Rabb (Rabinowitz), secretary to the Cabinet, Isaac Jack Martin and Murry Snyder, have been placed in the White House to observe and report every move. The A.D.L. is the Invisible Government.

Those who wish to know what the ADL is, we urge them to read the 44-page booklet prepared by Major Robert H. Williams, former Counter Intelligence officer. The title of this book is, THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE AND ITS USE IN THE WORLD COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE.

Postpaid 35¢ each - 3 for $1.00

Why Are They Hiding?

In Legislative Index in New Jersey, Issue dated Friday June 17th, 1955 listing bills introduced in the Legislature on page 827 the following is listed:

Assembly 112 Newton Jan. 24 - Requires the State or local registrars, when furnishing birth or marriage certificates where a legal change of name has taken place, to show only the new name, unless a court of competent jurisdiction orders the issuance of a copy of the original.

April 4 - Passed in Assembly

May 16 - Passed in Senate.

Apparently this is the result of pressure by the American Jewish Congress and Anti-Defamation League which are a powerful, political force in New Jersey. During the Roosevelt Administration organized, political Jews caused the Immigration Department to change their ruling, where Immigrants were asked if they were Jewish or Hebrew. Hence, for a number of years, Immigrant Jews pouring in from Europe are listed as Polish, Hungarian, German, etc. Lately Jewish Organizations have filed protest with the Census Bureau against asking people's religious belief. In this way, due to the fact that the Jews practically control the Immigration machinery, Jews are preferred, and come in under the quota from the Country they are leaving and naturally use up a big percentage of the quota. Hence, non-Jews are at a disadvantage in coming to the United States. Jews apparently do not want it known that their are approximately twelve million Jews in the United States and not as they claim - "over five million". They do not want it known that the six million Jews they claim were killed in Germany are here in the United States, many of them in JEW YORK and JEW JERSEY.

It is likely that such a bill as passed by the New Jersey Legislature, has been or will be introduced in all States where the Jews have sufficient political pressure. Jews who have reason to change their names want to make it difficult to be identified as Jews.

"Common Sense" has a copy of a letter by the Anti-Defamation League to all Police Departments of the United States in which they protest the custom of stating the Nationality of wanted criminals. The Anti-Defamation League has stopped, almost entirely, newspapers from listing a Communist's real Jewish name where he now is using a non-Jewish name.

Mr. Henry E. Schultz.
National Chairman
Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith
205 East 42nd Street
New York 17, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Schultz:

Your letter of 4 October, 1955 with enclosures received and I want you and your organization to know that I forcefully resent what you have said or implied.

First, I want to make it clear that I am not, nor have I ever been, anti-Jewish. I have many Jewish friends throughout this country, who are loyal honest Americans.

As for your use of the meaningless expression "anti-Semitic" it makes no sense. According to the dictionary, the word Semitic pertains to the descendants of Shem which includes Assyrians, Hebrews, Phoenicians, Arabs, Abyssinians, etc. It also pertains to the Semitic languages collectively. Therefore, how any one person or group of persons could be anti-Semitic is beyond my understanding.

Who are you and your organization to tell me what I should read and what I should recommend other loyal American citizens to read? And, by the way, just what is the purpose of your organization?

Not until I read John Beaty's book "The Iron Curtain Over America" did I learn what was going on back in The United States of America while I was overseas fighting for my country.

I think every loyal citizen of our country whether he be Protestant, Jew, Catholic or Mohammedan should read "The Iron Curtain Over America". I do not consider that book anti-Jewish in any sense of the word. In fact, I consider it a defense of all loyal American Jews and every Jew that loves these United States of ours should read it.

What connection exists between Mr. John Beaty and Mr. Gerald K. Smith I have no knowledge as I do not know either gentlemen. I did authorize Mr. Beaty to use my letter to him and that is no one's business but my own.

When The United States of America reaches the point where a citizen cannot read what he desires to read and to recommend such reading to others then we will have reached the status that exists in Soviet Russia. But, THANK GOD, we are still free men in America. As I interpret your letter your organization would have the people read only what you think should be read and recommended to others. This I resent as a free American citizen.

I do not understand what you mean by your statement "We do not propose to burden you at this point, etc." Is this a veiled threat to my free expression and thoughts? If so, this I also resent.

Your letter is the most outrageous communication I have ever received in my life and I intend to give it the widest possible publicity, including my many Jewish friends.

Sincerely,

George E. Stratemeyer's record: Chief of Staff for Army Air Force, 1942; Commander Army Air Forces, India-Burma Sector 1943; Air Commander Eastern Air Command, 1944; Commanding

Gen. Army Air Forces China Theater 1945; Commanding Gen. Air Defense Com. 1945-48; Commanding Gen. Continental Air Com., 1948; Commander Far East Air Force in Korea 1950.

The IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA

Why are so many of our top government officials willing to send native American boys to fight Communism in Asia but are hostile to those who actively oppose Communism in this country? What close connection existed between Alger Hiss and our present Secretary of State?

Do you know why the strategically important and oil-rich Middle East, friendly for a hundred years, is now inflamed at our government?

The West is failing—not from the decline of material power but from the loss of a Spiritual unity based on the acceptance of some form of Christianity. Is there a relation between this loss of Spiritual unity and the infiltration of the governments of the West by members of a powerful international non-Christian minority?

After reading the IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA, you will know the answers to the above and hundreds of similar questions.

THE AUTHOR

A veteran of World War I, John Beaty served nearly five years in World War II with the War Department General Staff. He wrote military studies, edited the daily Intelligence summary, and headed important sections in the Military Intelligence Service. He left the service with the rank of Colonel.

With his established reputation as a scholar and an author, his familiarity with foreign lands and languages, and his work as a liaison officer between Army intelligence and other government departments and agencies, Colonel Beaty was uniquely prepared for the post-war research which led to the writing of the Iron Curtain Over America.

HUMAN TERMITES

human termites in the U.S. They can do too much harm if left to roam where ever they desire. These termites can be destroyed once they are detected, and this is why every freedom loving American should join hands in this fight.

The problem of discovering new methods to combat these human termites must be shouldered by each citizen, as well as our officials in government. If Congress will change the law so our officials can deal with some of these termites, we will get more convictions and not so many standing on the fifth amendment and refusing to testify.

The terror of communist police tactics was shown in Guatemala. Many citizens were arrested and taken to civil guard headquarters where they were tortured.

Slavery has in past history been overcome by mankind in an effort of mankind to better itself. Taxation without representation was a form of slavery our forefathers resented enough to sign the Declaration of Independence.

One of the reasons a ruthless police state like the Soviet Union is a failure, is because of the fact the peasant farmers cannot meet the heavy tax requisition of the Kremlin. They have no representation themselves as to what their taxation shall be.

The human termites in the Kremlin will not permit a collective farm to own tractors and other farm machines. The Kremlin then requisitions the collective farm for the use of the land, the tractors and the farm machines, the largest percentage of the crops. The peasants who are doing the work will get from $300 to $500 for their year's work, if it is a good year, but if it is a year of drought and the production is low, the Kremlin gets the amount specified in the requisition which is based on a crop year without drought and the peasants get practically nothing for their work.

This is taxation, without representation, by the human termites in the Kremlin and these some one hundred millions of peasants resent this. These peasants are the ones we can expect to help us, when they get the opportunity.

They resent these human termites, who are taking from their families the things they need and giving nothing but communist lectures for it. Very, very few of these one hundred millions of peasants are communists or even have been members of the communist party.

Mankind everywhere has shown in past history that they will fight for more to eat. It is the first law of nature. These peasants will be our friends if given a chance.

What shall we do to help them? We can spend some more dollars to advertise our way of life to them, the advantages of a Republic over the communist viewpoint. We can find ways, if we try hard, to show them a better life ahead and help them to throw off the yoke of the human termites in the Kremlin.

When we take into consideration that the Kremlin had to place members of the communist party, from the cities, to oversee the collective farms, we are assured our allies, the Russian peasants, are not members of the communist party. They are our strength behind the Iron curtain. These peasants are like our forefathers demanding in their hearts a correction of taxation without representation.

It is true that few can do or say anything at present for the reason they live in constant fear of the police, but we can be sure they are looking forward to the day when they can throw off the yoke of the Kremlin and be free, and farm in freedom instead of farming as slaves.

Of all the vast areas of the world that are plagued by hunger and misery, the Soviet Union and China have probably the most hunger and misery. For this reason the day will come before any A-bomb or H-bomb is used, when these millions of peasants, hungry for food, will assert the principle of fighting taxation without representation, just as our forefathers did. They will succeed because of their numbers and because they are right.

To help them to do this, we should let them know without any doubt, that we are their friends, that we fight their battle with them, that we will support them in every way possible.

We have spent billions fighting the cold War which continues and will continue until these peoples of the Soviet Union and China have freedom.

There will be purges and more purges in the Soviet Union and China, and at last the peasants will purge the termites, who have made them slaves to a police state, and replace with leaders who will benefit their country and mankind everywhere in the world by a representative form of government of the people, by the people, for the people.

But we cannot forget that some of these worthless termite leaders, in order to hold on to a falling police empire, may take us into WAR. Therefore we must be prepared. The new look into defense must take into consideration they may not use the A-bomb or the H-bomb because they are afraid of what we will do to retaliate.

Do we have trained manpower to defend ourselves? Do we have enough to whip them without using the A-bomb or the H-bomb?

The more we study this communist problem, the wider our scope of thought and the stronger our will. We must not back away from this problem in fear and misgiving, but face it in an active way. We must not forget the rank and file of Russian and Chinese People. They suffer because of these human termites, and when we ostracize the lawless regimes of Soviet Russia and Red China, we can help free these millions of people.

They will help us, as our allies, these enslaved peoples of Europe and Asia, and will assist us to make a real peace on earth and bring more good-will toward all mankind.

Communism In The Entertainment World

Benny Goodman, Ben Hecht, Danny Kaye, Oscar Hammerstein, Larry Parks, Sylvia Sidney, Gregory Peck, Arthur Schwartz, Artie Shaw, and many others, whose flamboyant talents are daily acclaimed by the Jewish columnists. Relieved by none but the Jew-directed Sullivan, Hope, and Godfrey, who dare not deviate from Jewish, Negro, and foreign preferences.

And how these Jews "plug" each other and play upon the sympathies and credulities of American audiences! To dissipate the prestige and influence of Anglo-Americans, and deny us the highly lucrative positions, to advance the prestige of Europeans, but their own above all, is the avowed aim of these Jews-in-power; power and riches they acquire by the practice of a close, un-American clannishness, the exploitation of human labor, and by business methods undeterred by Christian scruples. Herein is the menace of the Jews in Christian nations. Ours is a Jewish culture, and with a vengeance Jews set themselves against any manifestation of a modern Anglo-American culture. For they subscribe to and benefit little that is Anglo-American, and that little with calculation. In business we Anglo-Americans suffer the boycotts that Jews everywhere impose. Their crafty, calculated techniques are hate-and-greed-inspired. Using their control of radio, television, and the motion pictures to cry their tireless injunctions against what they term "racial hatred" and "religious prejudice," which they practice unashamed, they have well conditioned the American mind—the Christian mind—to be ashamed to criticize these reprehensible people and their irresistible inroads in America.

Jews, intensely race-conscious, think alike, are craftily and exactly retaliative, spurning Christian tenets, as Judaism sanctions. Jews everywhere act in an uncannily tacit unison against Anglo-Americans. We should know what Talmudic Judaism teaches regarding Christians; we should make common knowledge the perfidious Protocols of the Elders of Zion. These revelations are stunning! Christians cannot cope with a people so intuitively secretive and anti-Christian, and of so guardedly vengeful a spirit. Jews taint our Christian holidays with a cunning suppression of our Savior, whom they deride, and shamelessly commercialize these seasons of our worship.

To return, I ask you to make your own study of radio, television, and the motion pictures, also the increasingly Jewish-edited newspapers and magazines. Where Jews do not gain ownerships they get into key positions in every American enterprise and use their influence ever for Jewish ascendancy and, surely, Anglo-American adversity. For suppression and boycott are inherent in Jewish nature. No wonder history records a cyclic ostracism of Jews.

Now, I preach no wicked gospel of hate, a disabling emotion that impairs the vital functions of the body. I only want you to see what the Jews are doing in America, and to urge you to morally support and patronize ourselves in every sphere of American endeavor. Write your letters of encouragement. Inform others. The world of entertainment is so controlled by the Jews, who with their Jewish, and generally foreign preferences, seize the highly paid positions and the nationwide popularity to the deliberate exclusion of Anglo-Americans, for whom their secret contempt and hostility are undying.

Pursuing political power in New York State, their stronghold, Jews vote in unison. The Attorney General, head of the Department of Law, must be a Jew. Javits, who succeeded Goldstein, a Jew in office since 1946, is a devout practitioner of the cunning craft of the American Jew. All his appointees are Jews, and Jewish interests are readily furthered in the New York State Department of Law. Now, Jewish propaganda proclaimed Hitler a "monster," a "madman." That six million Jews were killed by him. There were half a million Jews in Germany, yet they control that country financially and culturally. No, ruthless though he was, Hitler was an acutely discerning leader, who knew that a Jew is basically a Jew, and that a Christian population is a fertile field for the expansion and power of Jewry. Today, a decade later, the Jews who control the playing of the classics as well as popular music in America, effectually boycott the immortal music of Bach and Mozart, German composers, sparing only Mozart's Latin titles, to lull the suspicion of boycott. Unfortunately, MacDowell, Anglo-American composer, wrote no Latin tempos, and his beautiful music is almost never heard. Not where Jews staff radio and TV stations anyway. But these Communist-minded Jews frequently play the Russian composers.

I advocate no hate, but Anglo-American unity. Unity is the only alternative to wrest a dictatorial power from the Jews in America. Remember, the acquisitive instinct, dominant in Jews, is not held in check by Christian scruples, because the Jew rejects Christianity. His creed is wholly selfish and retaliatory: "An eye for an eye."

Why have successive generations of men sustained the centuries-old condemnation of the Jews, that parasitic and Anti-Christian people. Is it not because the Jews' unchanging selfish deceitful, anti-Christian codes of behavior have brought upon them this universally deserved condemnation? Can you doubt that the Jews' influence in America is a remorseless influence against Christianity as well as Anglo-Americans?

Will you help restore Anglo-American prestige, influence, culture, and prosperity?

York Herald Tribune, the date on the facsimile masthead reproduced in the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense. We regret any readers of Common Sense or The New York Herald Tribune, were led to believe the article by Benjamin H. Freedman appearing in the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense, had at any time appeared in The New York Herald Tribune. That was never anyone's intention when arranging the layout.

The readers of Common Sense and The New York Herald Tribune, and Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid must realize the views of The New York Herald Tribune and Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid do not represent the views of Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley or Common Sense on the subject matter in question, and visa versa. If they do not realize that, Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley and Common Sense wish to go on record now to that effect. Prior to publication of this explanation, Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid complained that her name was mentioned in the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense without her consent, and contrary to her wishes, assuming that her consent to the use of her name had been requested in advance, which is correct. Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid did not feel this way about Benjamin H. Freedman during the years 1946-1948 when he was paying substantial amounts to her newspaper for full-page insertions explaining the equities of the Palestine situation to the readers of The New York Herald Tribune.

The full-page insertions in Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid's newspaper were made after personal consultations between Benjamin H. Freedman and Mrs. Reid, when reproduction proofs were submitted for approval to Mrs. Reid by Benjamin H. Freedman. Before publication in The New York Herald Tribune of these full-page insertions they were submitted to her attorney by Mrs. Reid for their consideration. They unquestionably indicated their approval for publication otherwise Mrs. Reid would not have published them at frequent intervals over a period of almost two years.

Unquestionably due to pressure by their important pro-Zionist large department-store advertisers, and other pro-Zionist pressure groups in a position to influence advertisers, according to Benjamin H. Freedman, who had close contacts with The New York Herald Tribune's executives during this period, Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid's newspaper in 1948 refused to published any further full-page insertions prepared by Benjamin H. Freedman dealing with the Palestine question. However, The New York Herald Tribune continued to publish full-page insertions. Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley and Common Sense take this occasion to express their regrets that her name appeared in Common Sense, and hope that it did not cause her too much embarrassment, or the loss of any advertising revenue from Zionist advertisers or loss of readers for her paper.

Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley and Common Sense did not seek or obtain the consent in advance of The New York Herald Tribune for the facsimile reproduction of their masthead. The masthead of The New York Herald Tribune is a registered trademark, as indicated on the facsimile reproduction which was published in Common Sense. The New York Herald Tribune complains that their consent was not obtained in advance, and that if requested they would not have granted permission to reproduce it. Leading newspapers do not object to reproduction of their mastheads under similar circumstances and where the copyright owner is clearly indicated. This occurs thousands of times each year throughout the nation in leading newspapers and magazines. Why today The New York Herald Tribune feels uncomfortable is that every Zionist department-store advertisers may feel the newspaper gave its consent, and they may retaliate in resentment when allocating their advertising appropriations among New York City newspapers. There was no desire or intention on the part of Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley or Common Sense to bring down the wrath of their Zionist advertisers upon The New York Herald Tribune. This same attitude by interested parties applies also to the reproduction in Common Sense of the headline "Will American Blood Flow in Palestine?" reproduced in the September 15th issue.

Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley and Common Sense ask the readers of Common Sense, the readers of The New York Herald Tribune, Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid, and any others who may have misunderstood, to now accept recital of this additional information as a complete disavowal and disclaimer of any implication that The New York Herald Tribune, or that Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid have associated themselves in any way with Benjamin H. Freedman, Conde McGinley or Common Sense in the preparation of the contents of the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense. We regret that any of our readers, or the readers of The New York Herald Tribune or any others, came to this incorrect conclusion as a result of the use of Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid's name, the facsimile masthead of The New York Herald Tribune, and the headline "Will American Blood Flow in Palestine?" line in the September 15, 1955 issue of Common Sense. We trust that this explanation will "keep the record straight", so far as all interested parties, or others, had any basis for criticism.

Do You Realize?

The following thoughts are from a foreign reader.

- 1- That only 6% or around thirteen million out of two hundred million in U.S.S.R. bear Communist party cards and for perhaps half of these it is involuntary;
- 2- That only about 3% of the population, the Jewish Khazar minority and a few Chinese and other Asiatics, control the Government and Civil Service of U.S.S.R.;
- 3- That between 80% and 90% of the Russian masses are Anti-Communist;
- 4- That the Russians fear the overlordship by millions of Chinese, who may be immigrated to various parts of Russia, and forced on Russian women;
- 5- That already there are large colonies of Chinese planted in S. E. Europe, and Chinese men have been forced on the German women and girls of one province in East Germany, while their husbands and sons were deported to slave labour, so the mongrelization scheme of Rabinovitch is not an "evil Fascist invention," or a "pipe-dream";
- 6- That in 1941-42 two million of the best trained, best equipped troops of the Soviet Union, — approximately 75% of the Russian Battalions — surrendered without fighting, and with all their equipment, to the Germans, in order that they could assist in overthrowing the Soviet Regime;
- 7- That no six weeks "official boss" of U.S.S.R., could permit anyone to really get to know Russian people, or really see conditions as they are.

Here we have a man, typical of many thousands in the over-run Countries of Eastern Europe. He is Lithuanian. He is a graduate Agriculturist and his wife is a graduate Pharmacist. His mother was 73 in 1940, but she was the widow of an M.D., and prominent as a lay worker in the Catholic Church, so she was sent to slave labour in Siberia, making roads—sixteen hours a day—with one meal, just a bowl of watered soup. The poor old soul lasted only fifteen days. Her son said that 50,000 aged Lithuanians alone were murdered in that way in 1940-41. How many red-blooded Americans would care for that treatment for their aged relatives?

Yet many might be so treated if a Soviet World Government is formed. Americans then would have no better chance than the Germans of Siberia in 1945 onwards, or the Lithuanian deportees.

8- That the Government of the U.S.S.R. has "liquidated" over thirty millions since 1917, and that there are nearly two millions, nearly all Russians, in penal servitude for life, for "crimes" that generally would not be indictable offenses in U.S.A.:

9- That the Government of the U.S.S.R. has flagrantly, openly and brazenly violated Sections 46, 47, 48 and 49 of the Hague Convention on War, and in our Law of Equity must stand convicted, as Equity cannot be pleaded by those who do not give equity; and, finally,

10- That politicians should be required to answer, and explain their position on the warning of Pope Pius XI:—"Communism is intrinsically perverse," etc. which we in this battle appreciate so well, and often use this quotation.

It is important to remember when referring to the "Government of the U.S.S.R." or the "Soviet Government," that in reality we are talking about the Jewish and Asiatic power, and not the Russian people.

I SEE RED as I vision the precious blood of the countless innocent millions drenching the sacred soil of our dearly beloved United States in World War III, staining it as red as the flag of those who spill it.

I TURN WHITE even at the thought of surrender by the United States to the Soviet Union, defeated by them with atomic and hydrogen bombs made from secrets stolen from us for them by traitors in our government.

I FEEL BLUE as I meditate that this fate may too soon overtake us because the nation is too busy making money and having fun to listen to those who still can tell them how they can save their country from ruin.

FIVE CENTS

NAACP Leaders And Their Communist-Front Citations!

Since the Supreme Court Decision on segregation has focused attention on the NAACP, and they have been exposed time and again as a Communist-front, at each important public meeting they cleverly state they must be careful to screen out any Communist influence. Then, why not start with themselves? All the important officers in the NAACP we know of, have been tied up with Communism for years. When the Communists are put in a corner they take the "Fifth Amendment" or "don't remember" or like Alger Hiss, in an effort to deceive the public, sued Whittaker Chambers for calling him a Communist. Major Jordan's Diary shows conclusive evidence that Sen. Herbert Lehman is a powerful man in the world Communist movement and certainly he is the most powerful man behind the NAACP.

The Marxist-controlled NAACP agitators hand-pick Negroes to force into schools of the South as an opening wedge to break down segregation. The Autherine Lucy case was an outstanding example of this type agitation, and anyone who has studied the NAACP and its questionable leaders should see right through their scheme. The master-minds in New York are directing this attack on segregation, fully realizing it is going to bring trouble between White and Black—that is why it is brought about. Few people realize this is only part of the plan to condition our country for Communism.

Part of the globe in which half the population of the world exists, has already been broken down and Marxist rule set up. All kinds of deception was used to bring this about, camouflaged with high-sounding purposes. Now these master-minds are bringing pressure on Washington to send troops into the South. Are they trying to bring about a revolution to coincide with the outbreak of war in the Middle-East, when our sons will be called on to shed their blood in Palestine to again protect the Jews. Jews of the South may join the Citizen's Councils, but every Jewish organization and publication is backing the fight against segregation. If Jewish influence were withdrawn from the de-segregation movement, it would die a sudden death.

Careful research has been done on the NAACP and the activities of each of its prominent leaders and this publication brings out the facts, regardless of where the chips may fall. With this information, it is hoped the subject of integration will be approached with a better knowledge of who controls the NAACP and the purposes behind it, and indirectly the Supreme Court.

A Negro Deplores The Segregation Decision

Miss Hurston is a distinguished novelist and playwright, graduate of Barnard College. The following comments by Zora Neale Hurston on, noted Negro author, appeared in a letter which she wrote to the Sentinel, of Orlando Florida.

I PROMISED GOD and some other responsible characters, including a bench of bishops, that I was not going to part my lips concerning the United States Supreme Court decision on ending segregation in the public schools of the South. But since a lot of time has passed and no one seems to touch on what to me appears to be the most important point in the hassle, I break my silence just this once. Consider me as just thinking out loud.

The whole matter revolves around the self-respect of my people. How much satisfaction can I get from a court order for somebody to associate with me who does not wish to be near them? The American Indian has never been spoken of as a minority and chiefly because there is no whine in the Indian. Certainly he fought, and valiantly for his lands, and rightfully so, but it is inconceivable of an Indian to seek forcible association with anyone. His well-known pride and self-respect would save him from that. I take the Indian position.

NOW A GREAT CLAMOR will arise in certain quarters, that I seek to deny the Negro children of the South their rights, and therefore I am one of those "handkerchief-head niggers" who bow low before the white man and sell out my own people, out of cowardice. However, an analytical glance will show that is not the case.

If there are not adequate Negro schools in Florida, and there is some residual, some inherent and unchangeable quality in white schools, impossible to duplicate anywhere else, then I am the first to insist that Negro children of Florida be allowed to share this boon. But if there are adequate Negro schools, and prepared instructors and instructions, then there is nothing different ~~except the presence of white people~~.

For this reason, I regard the ruling of the United States Supreme Court as insulting, rather than honoring my race. Since the days of the never-to-be-sufficiently-deplored Reconstruction, there has been current the belief that there is no greater delight to Negroes than physical association with whites. The doctrine of the white mare. Those familiar with the habits of mules are aware that any mule, if not restrained, will automatically follow a white mare. Dishonest mule-traders made money out of this knowledge in the old days.

LEAD A WHITE MARE along a country road and slyly open the gate and the mules in the lot would run out and follow this mare. This ruling being conceived and brought forth in a sly political medium with eyes on '56, and brought forth in the same spirit and for the same purpose, it is clear that they have taken the old notion to heart and acted upon it. It is a cunning opening of the barnyard gate with the white mare ambling past. We are expected to hasten pell-mell after her.

It is most astonishing that this should be tried just when the nation is exerting itself, to shake off the evils of Communist penetration. It is to be recalled that Moscow, being made aware of this folk belief, made it the main plank in their campaign to win the American Negro from the 1920's on. It was the come-on stuff. Join the party and get yourself a white wife or husband. To supply the expected demand, the party had scraped up this-and-that off of park benches and skid rows, and held them in stock for us. The highest types of Negroes were held to be just pawns to get hold of one of these objects. Seeing how flat that program fell, it is astonishing that it would be so soon revived. Politics does indeed make strange bedfellows.

BUT THE SOUTH had better beware in another direction. While it is being frantic over the segregation ruling, it had better keep its eyes open for more important things. One instance of government by fiat has been rammed down its throat. It is possible that the end of segregation is not here and never meant to be here at present, but the attention of the South directed on what was calculated to keep us busy, while more ominous things were brought to pass. The stubborn South and the Midwest, kept this nation from being dragged farther to the left than it was during the New Deal.

But what if it is contemplated to do away with the two-party system and arrive at government by administrative decree? No questions allowed and no information given out from the administrative department? We could get more rulings on the same subject and more far-reaching any day. It pays to weigh every saying and action, however trivial, as indicating a trend.

In the ruling on segregation, the unsuspecting nation might have witnessed a trial balloon. A relatively safe one, since it is sectional and on a matter not likely to arouse other sections of the nation to the support of the South. If it goes off fairly well, a precedent has been established. Government by fiat can replace the Constitution. You don't have to credit me with too much intelligence and penetration, just so you watch carefully and think.

MEANWHILE, PERSONALLY, I am not delighted. I am not persuaded and elevated by the white mare technique. Negro schools in the State are in very good shape and on the improve. We are fortunate in having Dr. D. E. Williams as head and driving force of Negro instruction. Dr. Williams is relentless in his drive to improve both physical equipment and teacher quality. He has accomplished wonders in the 20 years past and it is to be expected that he will double that in the future.

It is well known that I have no sympathy nor respect for the "tragedy of color" school of thought among us, whose fountain-head is the pressure group concerned in this court ruling. I can see no tragedy in being too dark to be invited to a white school social affair. The Supreme Court would have pleased me more if they had concerned themselves about enforcing the compulsory education provisions for Negroes in the South, as is done for white children. The next 10 years would be better spent in appointing truant officers and looking after conditions in the homes from which the children come. Use to the limit what we already have.

Them's my sentiments and I am sticking by them. Growth from within. Ethical and cultural desegregation. It is a contradiction in terms to scream race pride and equality, while at the same time spurning Negro teachers and self-association. That old white mare business can go racking on down the road for all I care.

All Quiet On The Emmett Till Front

The LIFE MAGAZINE, issue October 3rd, 1955 wept tears over Emmett Till as an innocent son of World War I soldier, Louis Till, who gave his life in defense of his Country.

This young Negro, Emmett Till, came down to Mississippi from Chicago, threw his arms around a young married woman and made indecent proposals. He forgot he was not in Chicago and after having been given a number of chances to repent by the husband and brother-in-law of the insulted young wife, it is believed that Till was killed.

When Senator James O. Eastland produced the Army records of Emmett Till's father, Louis, it showed that he did not give his life for his Country. He was hung in Italy for kidnapping three Italian girls, Miss Zenchi, Miss Lucretzia and Miss Mari. He choked Miss Zenchi to death with his bare hands after repeatedly raping all three.

This occurred in Civitavecchia, Italy, June 27, 1944.

Congratulations To Virginia

"The people of Virginia are in revolt against the Constitution of the United States." So declaim supporters of the celebrated Segregation Decision.

The number of those who cannot read is exceeded by the number of those who can read, but refuse to do so. Some of these are sincerely devoted to the Fifth Amendment, but refuse to read the highly important Tenth Amendment:

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

This is plain enough, and the action of the voters of Virginia is just as clear. By a vote of approximately two to one, the sovereign citizens of one of the original Thirteen Colonies, a State known as the mother of Presidents, took the first step looking toward "return of the Constitution to the people."

Persons able and willing to read, know that the Constitution was drafted, enacted and put into effect, by "We, the People." In recent decades a packed Supreme Court has seized the Constitution, taking it away from the people, and pretending that it says what it does not say, never was intended to say.

The people of Virginia can read. They read the Constitution, read it carefully. Nowhere could they find any language which gives power and authority to the federal government to take over supervision of the public schools.

The Virginians concluded, quite rationally, that since the Constitution does not give authority over the schools to the federal government, conduct of their schools must belong to them, despite the ruling of the Supreme Court.

In its decision in the matter of segregation in the schools, the Supreme Court ad-

Dr. Ralph Bunche

This report intends to prove, without a shadow of a doubt, that Dr. Ralph Bunche for a number of years had expressed himself in writings, speeches, and organizational activity in a manner which paralleled the communist line in its major aspects. Further evidence is hereby presented: to prove his expressions were of such a nature that they could only have been arrived at as a result of his going through a thorough indoctrination in communist methods and techniques. It will also be shown that his affiliations and activities were such as to fill the requirements necessary for a top level operative for the Kremlin apparatus.

It also presents authentic documentation to substantiate the following summation of Dr. Bunche's record of activities paralleling the communist line throughout the years which is so consistent that it seems impossible to interpret it as accidental:—

1. Travels in Africa, which coincided with the Kremlin's planting of agents in that part of the world, in order to lay the basis for racial explosions of the future. Bunche wrote from there (Journal of Negro Education) denouncing "Imperialist Capitalism" and advocated the elimination of the current social order in the mother countries. The fruits of the Kremlin infiltration in Africa can be seen today in the bloody Mau-Mau

massacres. (1935-1936)

2. Wrote a pamphlet which advocated a communistic program in respect to the Negro question and advocated class war throughout the world asking the non-white peoples to look to the Soviet Union for inspiration and leadership. (1936)

3. Wrote a clearly communistic line in respect to education. He voiced the red line that "American education" is "goose step education". And that "Capitalism own the colleges and universities by right of purchase". Bunche denounced "red riders", and "oath clauses". He complained that "in America...."we are living in an economy of capitalism and our educational system consistently harmonizes with the dominant capitalistic pattern". (1936)

4. Bunche was praised in the official theoretical red organ, THE COMMUNIST, published for upper echelon communists and supporters. One of the top communists, A. W. Berry, praised Bunche for "approaching the Marxist viewpoint" and "that Bunche realized the significance of the class struggle". Berry then described Bunche as an "active friend and supporter" of the working class, which in the communist aesopian manner means a friend of the Soviets, since they claim exclusive franchise as representing the "working class". (1937)

5. Contributed an article to the RACE MAGAZINE whereby he repeated the "class" position on the race question and considered those who called the National Negro Congress as "dominated by reds" and as "biased individuals". This magazine in its opening issue prominently announced that they are working for "a social upheaval which will plow up our institutions to their very roots and substitute a socialist order for the present capitalist imperialist order". (1936)

Actually the evidence of communistic writings and communistic organizational activity by Ralph Bunche is greater overall than the combined evidence that government agencies had when they first began to get interested in red activities of Alger Hiss, Remington, Harry Dexter White and the Rosenbergs. Bunche's communistic utterances and connections are there as a public printed record and it is a great puzzle as to why our Government officials have not taken appropriate action. Instead it seems, that there is an effort to hush up the entire matter.

It is impossible for a person accidentally to coincide in his own personal independent views so as to match the communist line in all of its major features. It is quite possible that one may accidentally coincide in viewpoint with some one part of the communist program, but, in respect to the overall line it is a mathematical impossibility for anyone to independently match the total red line in its various ramifications. Such impossibility is further compounded if the language used is strictly Marxist-Leninist.

This highly accurate report on Ralph Bunche consists of 49 pages and was prepared after careful research by Alliance, Incorporated—Archibald Roosevelt, President. Obviously space will not permit us to publish the entire report which covers excerpts from many writings in Communist publications by Ralph Bunche, who has been maneuvered into high positions by Marxist forces.

Ralph Bunche is national director of the NAACP and Deputy Secy—General of the United Nations.

Those who are sufficiently interested, may obtain this 49-page report on Ralph Bunche, by sending a dollar to Alliance Inc. 200 East 66th St. New York, N. Y.

mitted that it had deserted the Constitution and all legal precedent and procedure. Instead, it depended upon the maudlinisms of so-called experts in sociology, as authority for pretending that the federal government has power over conduct of public schools, established by the States and local governments within the States, and financed by the tax-payers of the States. When the records of these "sociologists" were examined, it was shown that they are top-notch Communist-liners.

The Virginians are not revolting against the Constitution. They are seeking relief from efforts to deny them the rights which are guaranteed by the Constitution. They are trying to return those protections of the people for the benefit of themselves and the citizens of all the other States. If they do not succeed, all our liberties will be continually in danger.

Lincoln Quoted

In a debate with Stephen Douglas at Charleston, Illinois, September 18, 1858, Abraham Lincoln expressed his views on the racial question.

"I am not nor never have been in favour of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races! I am not nor ever have been in favour of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people. I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races which I believe will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality; and inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together there must be the position of the inferior and superior, and I am, as much as any other man, in favour of having the superior position assigned to the white race."

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, reported on August 27, 1956, that copies of "Common Sense" which have been received by him have been in envelopes bearing the return address Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey.

On September 20, 1956, [redacted] Whitaker Court, Wayne Township, New Jersey, furnished an envelope addressed to him containing leaflets prepared by ALEXEY JEFIMOW, which were advertised as being available through the Christian Educational Association. These two leaflets were captioned, "The Secret Government of the Soviet Union" and "Who Are The Rulers of Russia?" b7C

On July 11, 1956, [redacted] Union, New Jersey, furnished the Newark Office copies of these two leaflets and a copy of "Common Sense", which had been received by her in the mail in an envelope bearing the return address, Post Office Box 926, Union, New Jersey.

Copies of these leaflets have been furnished to the Newark Office by the management of the Columbus Hotel, 1406 Pacific Avenue, Atlantic City, N.J. on October 8, 1956.

NK 105-1910

The following publications have been advertised in the pages of "Common Sense" as being available through the Christian Educational Association of Union, N.J.:

July 1, 1956 issue of "Common Sense", No. 256, contained an ad for "Federal Reserve Conspiracy," $1.00 a copy.

August 1, 1956 issue of "Common Sense", No. 257, contained an ad for "Communist Secret Manual on Brainwashing" by KENNETH GOFF, $1.00 a copy.

In the September 15, 1956 issue of "Common Sense", No. 260, there was an ad calling attention of Los Angeles, California, readers to the appearance of KENNETH GOFF, "former Communist," at the Assembly Room of the Embassy Auditorium, 9th and Grand Streets, Los Angeles, California.

In the October 1, 1956 issue of "Common Sense", No. 261, there was published a "New Party Directory for the Constitution Party and the States' Rights Party." All of the individuals listed as candidates under either party designation were given the endorsement of "Common Sense."

In the September 1, 1956 issue, there is an appeal made by "Common Sense" to help secure a million readers.

[REDACTED] who was in a position to furnish reliable information, reported on August 27, 1956, that the office of the Newark Clearing House Association, 10 Commerce Court, Newark, New Jersey, had been unable to locate a current or a recently closed bank account in the name of Christian Educational Association, "Common Sense," or CONDE MC GINLEY. PERIPHERAL: Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey,
Distributes Anti-Semitic Material to Russian Emigre

1/ Transmitted herewith are the contents of an envelope bearing the return address: P.O. Box 807, Union, New Jersey, which was delivered to this Consulate General by the local postal service after it had failed to locate the proper addressee. The contents of the envelope, which apparently originated with the Christian Educational Association of Union, New Jersey, consist of printed matter which seems anti-Semitic in character. (Contents of the envelope are a letter of June 15, 1956, photocopy of a map of the Middle East, a mimeographed sheet "A Solution of the Jewish Problem", and a leaflet "Patriotic Literature". The envelope was delivered to the Consul General in a very damaged condition and the contents were therefore examined for the purpose of identifying, if possible, the addressee.)

The Consulate General has received from the Bavarian Security Police (Verfassungsschutz) a report on Alexander White, aka Peter ROGOWITSCH, who is the addressee of the attached letter. A translation of this report, dated September 11, 1956, is transmitted herewith. (White-Rogowitsch was unknown to this Consulate General prior to receipt of this report.)

From the attached report it is apparent that Alexander White is associated with Evgeni ARTSIUK, alias DERZHAVIN, the leader of the Russian emigre organization BOMDD - Rossiyskoye Obshchestvenno-Narodnoye Derzhavnoye Dvisheniye (Russian All-National Popular State Movement) which has its headquarters in Munich. Basic information concerning BOMDD was transmitted to the Department in the despatch under reference. A recent evaluation of the organization, including information on the conviction of its leaders for anti-Semitism in a Munich court, was provided the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service by this Consulate General in a memorandum of September 14, 1956, a copy of which was transmitted to the Department (Office of Eastern European Affairs) by Transmittal Slip of September 17, 1956.

Action Suggested: The Department may wish to bring this matter to the attention of the Department of Justice.

SUBJECT: Alexander WHITE, residing at Eulenspiegelstr. 60, MUNICH-Waldperlach.

The investigation conducted revealed that SUBJECT is identical with Peter ROGOWITSCH, born on 3 February 1892 in MOSCOW, stateless, correspondent for foreign languages, who has been living on the first floor of the above mentioned house at Eulenspiegelstrasse 60, with his wife Olga nee ISVOLSKY (born on 27 April 1897 in KIEV), since 12 July 1948, and is registered with the police headquarters under this address.

ROGOWITSCH is the son of the Senator Alexis ROGOWITSCH and his wife Maria nee KATHOFF in MOSCOW. His father died in BRUSSELS in 1935 while his mother allegedly still lives there.

His wife is the niece of the former Russian Ambassador in PARIS and later Tsarist Foreign Minister ISWOLSKI. From ROGOWITSCH's parents died in PARIS.

Peter ROGOWITSCH attended from 1906 to 1914 the Imperial University (Faculty of Law) in PETERSBURG; from 1925 until 1941 he was the manager of the shipping depot of a chemical concern in PARIS. From 1941 until 1944 he worked as translator, and from 1945 to 1948 he was employed with the American Occupation Force, as chief of personnel on the NEUBIBERG air field, where he was responsible for the hiring and dismissal of civilian personnel. From 1948 to 1949 he again worked as translator, and from November 1949 until April 1951 he was employed with the "IRO" in MUNICH-Pasing. From 1951 until 1955 he worked at the US Military Post in MUNICH, Tegernseer Landstrasse.

Since 19 October 1955 he has been unemployed and has drawn unemployment benefits amounting to 42.60 DM a week since then.

ROGOWITSCH has perfect command of the German, English, French and Russian languages. He is an extremely uncommunicative person. In his home he never receives any visitors.

On 7 September 1955 he rented post office box no. 17 in the post office no. 56 at Aeusserer Rosenheimer Strasse 94, Perlach, jointly with his wife. At irregular intervals the couple picks up the mail from the box, usually in the afternoon. The incoming letters are addressed to "Alexander WHITE" and "OLGA" and "Russians outside Russia". (Frau ROGOWITSCH's first name is Olga.)

As has been determined, the letters usually do not show the names of the senders. When picking up their mail the two ROGOWITSCHs are behaving in a strangely shy manner. On 4 September there were again two letters, with the senders not indicated, in P.O. Box No. 17.

It is noteworthy that ROGOWITSCH rented the post office box on 7 September 1953, about four weeks before his employment with the US Military Post was terminated.

While working for American agencies ROGOWITSCH allegedly made extensive trips to foreign countries. He is said to have obtained his passport with the help of the US Military Government.

He is not known to have a criminal record.

With regard to his personal circumstances the following additional information has been received:

ROGOWITSCH originates from a Russian millionaire family; thanks to this wealth he was admitted (an exceptional case) to one of the noblest Guard Regiments in Tsarist Russia, in which he served as an officer and achieved the rank of Captain. During World War II ROGOWITSCH was the assistant of Georgij SCHEREBKOW, the representative of the Russian emigrants in France during the time of the German occupation (later "Foreign Minister" under General WLASSOW). Since ROGOWITSCH, unlike the other members of SCHEREBKOW's organization, withdrew from PARIS, when danger arose, in a way tantamount to desertion, he is held in very bad repute by most of the Russian emigrants, and this bad reputation has even been worsened by the fact that he has developed into an alcoholic during recent years.

ROGOWITSCH is a convinced, if not fanatic anti-Semite in his political views he sympathizes with the rightist-radical Russian emigrant ARZIUK.

During the first years after the end of the war ROGOWITSCH worked for MILRUD (alias THOMPSON) who was with MIS. From 1951 on, ROGOWITSCH worked as Military Intelligence Analyst for G-2, US Army Southern Area Command (McGraw Kaserne). There he, according to his own statements, met with numerous difficulties since an "American Jew" of that agency had determined that in France ROGOWITSCH had been sentenced to 20 years in prison at hard labor, for collaboration with the Germans. As he said, it was owing only to the CIC that he was able to continue in his work for the agency mentioned. However, as a result of the above mentioned fact his activity was highly restricted since he enjoyed only little confidence. In addition, his co-workers, among them Gerhard BUSCHMANN, constantly frustrated him.

ROGOWITSCH is said a few years ago to have in fact been hired by Gerhard ~~BUSCHMANN~~ (for a monthly compensation of 500.- DM) to establish, as informant, contact with ARZIUK and collect information on him. ROGOWITSCH allegedly drew the compensation for a long time, while in reality he cooperated with ARZIUK from whom he also got regular payments. All the secret reports made on ARZIUK by ROGOWITSCH were, in fact, dictated to ROGOWITSCH by ARZIUK himself.

Some time in 1955 ROGOWITSCH's activity for the American intelligence service was terminated. At present he is living in very poor circumstances.

- (1) CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense" Sued for $250,000.

According to the "Newark Evening News", Newark, N.J., on April 15, 1955, Rabbi JOACHIM PRINZ, of Temple B'NAI ABRAHAM, was awarded the verdict of $30,000 by a jury on March 31, 1955. The judgment included $5,000 in compensation damages and $25,000 in punitive damages against the editor of the semi-monthly four-page tabloid published in Union, N.J., of which CONDE MC GINLEY was the Editor.

CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense", had been sued for his characterization of Dr. PRINZ as a "Red Rabbi, who not unlike Albert Einstein was expelled from Germany for revolutionary, Communist activities". issue #193 of "Common Sense", dated September 15, 1953, so indicates.

On 9/27/54 Confidential Informant [REDACTED] reported that in a conversation with CONDE MC GINLEY, it was mentioned that MC GINLEY was considering the adoption of a new name under which he might publish his newspaper so that he might avoid being liable for statements which might appear in his paper.

The 9/19/54 issue of "Common Sense", issue #214, contains a statement of ownership indicating that the name and address of the publisher of "Common Sense" is the Christian Educational Association, 530 Chestnut St., Union, N.J., and the owner is the Christian Educational Association, same address. The stockholders are CONDE MC GINLEY, C.J. MC GINLEY and A. JEFIMAU. CONDE MC GINLEY, according to this and subsequent issues of the newspaper, is listed as Editor of "Common Sense".

(3) Establishment of Bank Account in Texas

In an airtel dated 5/2/56, in the case of "Jewish Cultural Federation, IS - C", Dallas 100-9970, Bufile 100-421376, it was reported that on May 1, 1956,

(4) Possible Reason for Establishment of Bank Account in Texas

In the most recent issue of "Common Sense", #263, dated November 1, 1956, there is an ad on page 4 captioned "A Reminder to Patriots". In this ad the following statement appears:

"May we remind anyone who is inclined to remember this work in their will to specify the Christian Educational Association, Union, New Jersey.

"If you mention Mr. MC GINLEY, the American Jewish Congress will have it attached for their Vice President,--Rabbi PRINZ, Zionist New Deal politician. Just as they did with respect to $1000.00 willed to Mr. MC GINLEY by a patriot".

(5) Tentative Conclusion

It would appear from the above that the reason for the establishment of a bank account in Sherman, Texas, far removed from the location of the publisher's residence, was that it was undertaken to conceal assets which might be attached in satisfaction of the $30,000 judgment obtained against MC GINLEY in March of 1955.

It is requested that Dallas recontact [REDACTED] and if possible or advisable, [REDACTED] for any information which would specifically establish CONDE MC GINLEY's reason for opening a bank account in the name of the Christian Educational Association of Union, N.J., in a Texas bank. This item is of specific interest to the Bureau.

(6) Establishment of Mail Cover

In referenced Bureau letter dated 11/14/56, the suggestion was made that a mail cover might be placed on the CEA and its principal officers to determine if similar accounts are maintained by the organization in other cities.

Essex County Clerk's Records Reflected Suit Against CONDE MC GINLEY

Records of County Clerk, Essex County, N.J., checked at Essex County Hall of Records, Newark, N.J., on 12/27/56 by SA [REDACTED] reflect that JOACHIM PRINZ instituted action against CONDE MC GINLEY, owner, publisher and editor of a newspaper (not mentioned), for publishing a false and defamatory libel about the plaintiff on March 22, 1953, in Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division. b7C

On April 6, 1955, the action resulted in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, MC GINLEY, in sum of $5,000 compensatory damage and $25,000 punitive damage for a total of $30,000 together with taxed costs.

According to the "Newark Evening News", Newark, N.J., on April 15, 1955, Rabbi JOACHIM PRINZ, of Temple B'NAI ABRAHAM, was awarded the verdict of $30,000 by a jury on March 31, 1955. The judgment included $5,000 in compensation damages and $25,000 in punitive damages against the editor of the semi-monthly four-page tabloid published in Union, N.J., of which CONDE MC GINLEY was the Editor.

CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense", had been sued for his characterization of Dr. PRINZ as a "Red Rabbi, who not unlike ALBERT EINSTEIN was expelled from Germany for revolutionary, Communist activities". This item, written by an associate of CONDE MC GINLEY, characterized in the Newark paper as a Clerk, WILLIAM J. O'BRIEN, appeared originally in the April 1, 1952 issue of "Common Sense".

The Essex County Clerk's records reflect that as of October 31, 1956, plaintiff JOACHIM PRINZ filed complaint indicating that the judgment remains unpaid and unsatisfied except for the sum of $1,000 collected by the plaintiff from other assets of MC GINLEY found in another jurisdiction.

This item regarding the unsatisfied judgment appears in a complaint filed by JOACHIM PRINZ with the Essex County Clerk on October 31, 1956, in which the defendants are listed as CONDE MC GINLEY, CELIA MC GINLEY, KATHERINE LITTIG, CONDE J. MC GINLEY, MARY MARARCHI, MURIAL WENZEL, ALEX JEFIMOW, aka. ALEXEY JEFIMAU, the Christian Educational Association, a New Jersey corporation, Muriel's Inc., a New Jersey corporation, Union Patriotic Press, a non-profit corporation of New Jersey, and unknown defendants JOHN DOE, JOHN ROE and JANE DOE. Docket No. AC-480-56.

This complaint alleges that on March 11, 1953, after being informed of the pending suit, MC GINLEY purchased property known as 530 Chestnut St., Union Township, N.J., from S. ROBERT ELTINGER and in order to conceal the property so purchased from creditors and to render himself judgment proof, MC GINLEY caused the title of said premises to be taken in the name of KATHERINE LITTIG, an unmarried woman having no appreciable assets of her own and who has worked and been associated with MC GINLEY for a number of years. NJ

The complaint further alleges that on March 17, 1954, during pendency of this action and after MC GINLEY had occupied the above premises with complete acquiescence of LITTIG, the defendant, Christian Education Association, a New Jersey corporation, was organized by MC GINLEY and defendants MC GINLEY, JR. and ALEXEY JEFIMAU to succeed MC GINLEY in the ownership and operation of the aforementioned newspaper published by MC GINLEY, all for the purpose of hindering, delaying and defrauding the plaintiff and other existing or future creditors of MC GINLEY.

The complaint continues by tracing property sold or purchased by MC GINLEY and his wife and son as far back as 1940 and indicates that the property had been transferred "without fair consideration" and indicates that MC GINLEY retained control and should be ordered to direct that these properties be conveyed in satisfaction of the judgment.

EUGENE J. KIRK, Newark, N.J., attorney for MC GINLEY, has filed a brief in answer to this complaint as of 11/26/56 citing no cause of action against defendants named in the complaint. Notation on file "no cause".

Reminder to Potential Benefactors of Christian Educational Association

The following item appears in the November 1 issue of "Common Sense":

"A Reminder to Patriots

"May we remind anyone who is inclined to remember this work in their will to specify the Christian Educational Association, Union, N.J.

"If you mention Mr. MC GINLEY, the American Jewish Congress will have it attached for their Vice President--Rabbi PRINZ, Zionist New Deal politician. Just as they did with respect to $1,000 willed to Mr. MC GINLEY by a patriot."

██████████ who has furnished reliable information in the past, ~~INDICATED~~ on September 24, 1956, that a source whom he termed reliable but whom he declined to identify, had indicated that the July 1956 issue of "Borba" was entitled: "The Conspiratorial Front." He stated this article concerned the general theme that Communism is Jewish controlled and that the Jewish race is planning the destruction of all non-Jewish people through the use of Communism. He added that this article, as usual, was printed in the Russian language and was written by ALEX EFIMOV. He stated this issue had been printed at the headquarters of "Common Sense" in New Jersey.

██████████ indicated on October 10, 1956, that the August 1956 issue of "Borba" was entitled: "Deadly Weapons Against Sheenie Communism, Proper Propaganda, Christian Moral and the Peoples Voice." He stated that this article was in Russian and was a vicious anti-Semitic article indicating the Jews controlled Russia and intended to enslave the world. He added that this article was signed "PETROV," the alias of ALEX EFIMOV. He stated that in this article EFIMOV advocated the election of T. COLEMAN ANDREWS for president.

██████████ advised on December 17, 1956, that issue Number 29 of "Borba" had just been issued by the subject organization. He stated that this piece was written by EFIMOV in the Russian language and was entitled: "Help Us To Expose the Sheenie Communist Crime Against Humanity." He stated this was a disorderly writing about the increase of the power of the Jews as a result of World War II and stated that the Jews now have 800 million non-Jewish slaves as a result of the war.

██████████ indicated on February 1, 1956, that EFIMOV indicated he is temporarily discontinuing publication of "Borba" but has recently issued a new sheet in the Russian language entitled: "Questions to the Political Workers and the Commissars." He indicated this sheet contains an anti-Semitic cartoon which had previously been used by CONDE MC GINLEY in his publications by the subject organization.

He indicated the tenor of this article is anti-Semitic and is more or less a translation of EFIMOV's 28 questions in English distributed by MC GINLEY from time to time.

b2
b7D [redacted] indicated on February 1, 1957, that the December 1956 "National Renaissance Bulletin" had been printed by MC GINLEY. He stated that 500 copies of this six-page bulletin were mimeographed by MC GINLEY, for which the charge was $30. This source noted that the previous printer which the National Renaissance Party (NRP) had utilized would have charged about $80 for the same amount of work.

[redacted] indicated on October 23, 1956, that JAMES MADOLE, leader of the NRP, indicated he had ordered 400 reprints of the July "National Renaissance Bulletin" which was being done by MC GINLEY.

[redacted] indicated on November 19, 1956, that the September - October 1956 issue of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" had been prepared with the help and advice of BENJAMIN FREEDMAN who also gave MADOLE $90 toward the cost of this publication. He stated this bulletin was printed by [redacted] at the office of the subject organization. b7C

[redacted] indicated on November 27, 1956, that BENJAMIN FREEDMAN continue to confer with MADOLE about future issues of the "National Renaissance Bulletin." FREEDMAN reportedly is anxious to maintain his contact with MADOLE in order to use this publication as a vehicle for his views and propaganda.

[redacted] indicated on December 28, 1956, that FREEDMAN, who for many years has been friendly with Arab officials in New York City, has recently been attending United Nations Committee meetings. He stated that at these meetings FREEDMAN would attempt to ingratiate himself with Arab officials and on other occasions he would indicate to people that he is backing several publications. This informant indicated that he is making a general nuisance of himself and most people regard him as a man with a disordered mind. This informant also indicated that for many years FREEDMAN had been associated with, and supported, "Common Sense" but that recently he had had an argument with MC GINLEY over certain material that FREEDMAN wanted published and consequently they have not met since that time.

[redacted] indicated on May 9, 1956, that the NRP at present is a neo-Nazi, anti-semitic, anti-Negro organization with activities generally confined to the New York area. He said that its principal activities consist of holding outdoor meetings and the distribution of literature throughout the United States and abroad where it is reprinted by similar organizations. This source stated that the NRP leader and founder is JAMES H. MADOLE and its [redacted] is [redacted]. He said that at present the party membership is very small. The April 1955 "National Renaissance Bulletin," official NRP publication, listed headquarters at 10 West 90th Street, New York City.

The NRP was the subject of a preliminary report on Neo-Fascist and Hate Groups published by the House Committee on Un-American Activities on December 17, 1954, which stated that this neo-Fascist group's activities are clearly subversive and un-American.

[redacted] indicated on January 9, 1957, that the subject firm recently had a large shipment of several hundred pounds packaged to be sent to [redacted] and [redacted] Knoxville, Tennessee. He indicated that this shipment consisted of 10,000 copies of "The Coming Red Dictatorship," an anti-Semitic article by MC GINLEY, Editor of "Common Sense" and also mixed copies of "Common Sense." This informant indicated he believed this material was to be used in connection with the segregation fight in Tennessee.

[redacted] indicated on January 9, 1957, that MC GINLEY had opened a bank account some time ago in Sherman, Texas, reportedly because a [redacted] which is located in Sherman, Texas, had given him a contribution and that MC GINLEY had deposited this contribution in a local bank in Sherman with which [redacted] was associated.

b7D

NY 105-6188

This informant stated he knows of no other reason for having opened this account in Sherman and he knows of no other bank accounts which MC GINLEY maintains outside the State of New Jersey. He added, however, that he has heard and he has reason to believe that MC GINLEY has been depositing large amounts of money for the past several years in safe deposit boxes in various banks throughout the South. He stated that he has no knowledge concerning the specific location of any of these banks and no definite knowledge that these safe deposit boxes actually exist.

He stated that he recalls that MC GINLEY has received many substantial contributions during the past years and he does not believe that all of this money was used by MC GINLEY in the operation of his newspaper. He stated that reportedly a LOUIS HANSMANN of Kenosha, Wisconsin, had given MC GINLEY between twenty to thirty thousand dollars about three years ago. He further indicated that he recalls that MC GINLEY reportedly had invested a "fortune" in oil in Texas and allegedly had lost all of the money which he invested.

b7C

This source also stated that recently MC GINLEY has been very cautious regarding his activities and has warned people against calling him at his home. He stated that whenever MC GINLEY has any business of importance to discuss, that he uses a telephone in a store which is across the street from his residence. He indicated that sometime prior to the time that MC GINLEY had lost the legal action brought by Rabbi PRINZ that MC GINLEY had anticipated losing this suit and had transferred all of his assets into a corporation for the purpose of protecting them from this legal action. He stated the the officers which MC GINLEY had placed in charge of this corporation had no control and that MC GINLEY, himself, maintains complete control of the Christian Educational Association. He added that

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] indicated on July 15, 1953, that LOUIS HANSMANN, 721 57th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin, had corresponded with both JAMES MADOLE and [REDACTED] recently in regard to a proposed tour for MADOLE throughout the Middle West which HANSMANN would finance.

[redacted] indicated on September 14, 1953, that [redacted] and MADOLE are no longer in contact with HANSMANN, who allegedly represents a wealthy group interested in furthering National Socialism. He stated that MADOLE had gone to Chicago in August and had conferred with HANSMANN regarding a proposed trip through the Midwest which HANSMANN would finance. However, upon MADOLE's return from that meeting it was apparent that HANSMANN had not been impressed by MADOLE and was no longer interested in utilizing him in this proposed tour. Informant stated that soon thereafter [redacted] had received a letter from HANSMANN stating that he was going to Canada and that [redacted] should destroy all correspondence received from him and forget that he had ever been in contact with [redacted] or MADOLE regarding these matters. The informant stated that so far as he knows there has been no further contact with HANSMANN and he believes that his group is no longer interested in the NRP.

[redacted] Kenosha Credit Bureau, Kenosha, Wisconsin, made available on September 25, 1953, to SA [redacted] the credit record of LOUIS HANSMAN, which reflected that he was born in 1877 and has engaged in the printing business for the past 60 years under the name Hansman Printing Company, 721 57th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin.

[redacted] Kenosha Police Department, who handles investigations of a subversive nature in the Kenosha area, advised SA [redacted] on September 25, 1953, that HANSMAN is an old-time printer in the Kenosha area, was born in Kenosha and has never been known to have engaged in any type of political activity and has never been regarded as being active in any type of subversive or pro-German matters.

[redacted] of the Hansman Printing Company, advised SA [redacted] on September 25, 1953, that he had worked for Mr. HANSMAN for approximately [redacted] years. He stated that HANSMAN is approximately 76 years of age and is somewhat senile. [redacted] stated he recalled having seen some correspondence from an organization which he believed was the NRP and recalls the name MADOLE as having been on an envelope or two received by HANSMAN. [redacted] stated he had no knowledge that HANSMAN was interested in giving money to the NRP and stated he was surprised that

Appeal Issued by CONDE MC GINLEY For Help

In Issue No. 269 of "Common Sense", dated 2/1/57, on page 4, under the heading "Help Us To Help You", CONDE MC GINLEY, the Editor, printed an open letter to his readers. The letter is as follows:

"Friends:

"Those who have studied the all-important question before the world today realize that the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is the back-bone of the Marxist program in the United States. The B'nai B'rith is a Jewish organization functioning on a world-wide scale.

NK 105-1910

"B'nai B'rith has 1750 lodges in the U.S. and Canada, with 400,000 members. According to the NY Times May 4, 1956, they have expended sixty million dollars in the last three years. The A.D.L. is the militant arm of the B'nai B'rith; it is the Invisible Government in the United States.

"In the Communist satellite states, the high government officials have been Jews almost without exception. Before the Jewish rule could be established officially, the leaders opposing Communism had to be broken down and destroyed. During the last three years the Russian Communists, having discovered that the Jews set up Communism to use it in advancing their own interests, have been successful in maneuvering some Jews out of top positions. The population of these countries did not realize what was going on until too late; then they were too helpless to stand behind their leaders.

"This is what is going on in the U.S. today. The Anti-Defamation League with the American Jewish Committee and the American Jewish Congress, using many unsuspecting non-Jews, prominent persons, and fifteen to twenty million dollars a year for propaganda in newspaper, radio and television, are trying to discredit and destroy our patriotic leaders just as they have done with Col. CHARLES LINDBERG, Sen. NYE, Sen. BERT WHEELER, Sen. MC CARTHY, JAMES FORRESTAL and many others.

"The A.D.L. has been pounding away at COMMON SENSE for 11 years, trying to drive its friends away so it will be left standing alone. However, as thinking people, examine the facts published only in one paper, COMMON SENSE,--and our paper has grown until it now reaches more awakened Americans than any publication in existence.

"My assets are in the form of factual information spread all over the United States. Eleven years ago, I quit business for a profit and have spent every dollar I could get my hands on in this Crusade. Some people told me then I was foolish, that Communism meant nothing. Today some of these same people tell me I am wasting my time, that Communism cannot be stopped.

"Long ago I realized I would use up my funds and not make a living promoting a paper which carries no advertising. Anyone who studies this subject as I have, realizes that profit means nothing compared to the importance of saving our Republic.

"COMMON SENSE, with no advertising, will never show a profit but must be subsidized by people who have sufficient patriotism to help make the truth available to many. If there are not enough people ready to sacrifice and help expose the enemies of our country, then freedom in the United States is near the end.

"I am the unpaid Editor of COMMON SENSE. Help me make this movement the decisive factor in turning the Marxist trend that is destroying our government. The need now is for a large number of informed people. Help us raise the number of our readers to a million. If you could visualize how hard we work and plan to increase our effectiveness, nothing could stop you from doing your very best to assist us. Those good people who are awake to the crisis but unable to help substantially can help by renewing their subscription, taking a lifetime subscription ($25.00), buying and distributing literature, securing subscriptions, passing out COMMON SENSE, and last but not least, praying for us. The prayers of any good Christian will not go unheeded.

"If you would like to help me strengthen COMMON SENSE so we can publish weekly and correctly inform millions of people, please do not hesitate to reach me.

NK 105-1910

"We hold such contacts in strict confidence.

"Our headquarters is conveniently located and we invite you to visit when you come to N.Y. or New Jersey.

"SEND US THE AMMUNITION AND WE WILL DO THE FIGHTING WITH THE PRINTED WORD! REMEMBER, THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD!

"For Christ and Country,

Judge Armstrong Foundation of Ft. Worth, Texas

In Issue No. 245 of "Common Sense", dated February 1, 1956, there is a story under the caption "Patriots Last Works Available". In this article, it was announced that the Judge Armstrong Foundation of Ft. Worth, Texas had turned over the entire inventory of books of the late Judge GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG to the CEA. The article indicated that the books were now available to readers of "Common Sense".

On August 17, 1956, [REDACTED] "Ft. Worth Star-Telegram", a daily newspaper, Ft. Worth, Texas, made available for review her file on GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG, SR., from which the following information was obtained:

[REDACTED] JAMES MC LEAN, of AP News Features, interviewed GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG, SR., at Natchez, Mississippi, on 11/12/49 and released the following information for publication in morning papers of November 13, 1949:

GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG, SR. was born in Jasper County, Texas, the son of an itinerant Methodist minister. He was 84 years old at time of above interview. He graduated from University of Texas School of Law in 1880, and began the practice of law at Ft. Worth, Texas, in 1890. He was elected County Judge of Tarrant County, Ft. Worth, in 1897, and became known as "JUDGE ARMSTRONG".

NK 105-1910

He resided during his latter years at Woodstock Plantation at Natchez, Mississippi, but maintained a residence at Ft. Worth, Texas, for voting purposes. He gained considerable wealth as a result of oil ventures, banking, cattle, utilities, steel manufacturing in Texas, and land buying in Mississippi. He is reported to have owned at least three oil fields in three counties consisting of 18 oil wells, and 38 plantations.

At the date of the interview on November 12, 1949, Mr. ARMSTRONG stated that three years previously, he had established at Ft. Worth, Texas, the "Judge Armstrong Foundation, which 'siphons off' about 15% of his income for tax exempt charitable and educational purposes". Judge ARMSTRONG was an exponent against what he termed "racial mongrelization" which in his view was the "intermingling of Jews, Gentiles and Negroes in the same schools", which he violently opposed.

Judge ARMSTRONG stated that among others, his organization had contributed to GERALD L.K. SMITH, of the Christian Nationalist Crusade with headquarters at St. Louis, Missouri, and to EMORY BURKE, leader of an Anti-Negro and Anti-Jewish group of Atlanta, Georgia, and to R.H. BEST, of Boston, Massachusetts, a former American newspaperman in Germany who was convicted of treason for Nazi propaganda work. Judge ARMSTRONG claimed that SMITH, BURKE and BEST were "persecuted persons".

The "Star-Telegram" file contains a news story which appeared in the "Star-Telegram" in evening edition of January 21, 1952, concerning a suit which ARMSTRONG had filed in Ft. Worth in U.S. District Court in which he sought refund from U.S. Treasury of $620.00 and $6,276.30 for alleged erroneous income tax assessments made in 1948. In this suit, Judge ARMSTRONG and his wife alleged that in 1948, they had contributed

Gentlemen:

We are submitting for your consideration a copy of Think Weekly. We consider this publication to be viciously subversive as especially evidenced by the marked paragraphs.

We consider that the nature of this publication calls for a thorough investigation of its publishers.

The citizens of New Jersey would benefit immensely if the facts behind this publication were brought to light.

We consider that this matter deserves your immediate attention.

Please advise the undersigned of any action taken.

Thank you.

Communism has reached its position by deception. Our purpose is to educate people to what Communism really is, written in plain words for plain people. Non-partisan, non-sectarian, and no axes to grind. We have reliable up-to-date sources of information.

Red Groups Support A.V.C.

TO HELP YOU THINK IT OUT

Communism and its program in the world and in the United States is such a vast and comprehensive plan involving so many activities that it is impossible for anyone to understand it completely unless he would devote his ENTIRE TIME to its study for at least a year. Consequently you must realize that we can give you here only a very abbreviated account of Communist activities in the U. S. We will try to outline the subject in such a way that you can think it out for yourself. Your existence depends on your understanding at least a part of the truth about the Red Fifth Column and upon the action you take there after.

Master minds in the Kremlin are continually hatching new ideas which are passed on to the underground Communist agents, in the United States for creating new fronts, new moves and attacks to weaken our government. The principle behind this is to have so many activities working at one time in the U. S. and in Europe that we are unable to organize to fight all of them at once. When we concentrate on one, three new ones appear to divert our attention; hence ninety percent of the Red moves are not even identified as such by drowsy Americans.

There are approximately five hundred fronts in this country. They are named so as to draw attention to the fact that they are Communist, but when they do attract attention and receive sufficient opposition from Congress or real American organizations the name of the front is changed. It is as simple as this. Many have been changed three or four times, so that it is hard to keep track of them. Then to make it more difficult, the Reds bring tremendous pressure to obstruct the Un-American Activities Committee of Congress and to cut their appropriations each year in order to cripple the committee so it cannot effectively oppose the Communist fronts.

This subject of Communism is so tremendous and so far reaching that even many of the people who talk intelligently against it and do effective work in trying to stop it do not know the full story — only a very few realize how far Communism has gone, who created it, and who is actually behind it.

WALDO MCNITT
Speaker at Red Rally in Asbury Park

FRANK KINGDON AND WALDO MCNITT, FAMOUS REDS, SUPPORT AMERICAN VETERANS COMMITTEE

Waldo McNitt, former organizer and secretary of the American League against War and Fascism (known Communist organization) and Frank Kingdon, well-known Red propagandist and writer, spoke before the American Veterans Committee's conducted Anti-Lynching meeting to refute charges that the Communists were not supporting the Anti-Lynching Rally at Asbury Park, N. J.

This proves how fanatical and determined the Communists in America are. They have no principles and are not afraid to use lies to promote lies. We quote from Lenin's "Left-Wing Communism":

"It is necessary to be able to agree to any and every sacrifice, and even — if need be — to resort to all sorts of devices, maneuvers, and illegal methods, to evasion and subterfuge, to remain in them, and to carry on Communist work in them at all cost."

This method is being carried out in every form of society for the coming revolution and dissolution of the American government.

AMERICAN VETERANS COMMITTEE FRONTS FOR RED ORGANIZATIONS IN FIGHT AGAINST AMERICAN LEGION AND VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars are again fighting the Communist, and the battle has been set in Asbury Park N. J.

Junior Vice-Commander of the State Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sheldon DeBian, and Alberto Stron, Chairman of American Legion Post 125, brought pressure upon the Board of Education of Asbury Park last week because Communist front organizations were using the Asbury Park High School auditorium to spread their doctrines.

Among the organizations represented were Eastern National Farmers Union (Red), American Youth for Democracy (Red), United Public Workers (Red), The National Tenants Association (Red), and the American Veterans Committee.

The first four organizations are recognized RED groups that concentrate on spreading Russian propaganda with subversive methods.

The fifth and very important organization that is involved in this smear campaign against the American Legion and V.F.W. is our old friend, the American Veterans Committee (A.V.C.). From all reports this is the organization that is doing all the real leg work being called Communist while the other groups keep quiet.

Of course some individuals would not call the A.V.C. a Communist group because of the few good American veterans who have been fooled into thinking that they joined a real American organization. We will say, though, that the A.V.C. is an organization that is being well used as a strong front for the rest of these Communist groups. And also that four out of the five groups that we named are so RED that a blind man would know their motives in starting a false Anti-Lynching Meeting.

Little do the colored people know that the Communists are using them, as they have used thousands of other peoples throughout the world, to overthrow the (continued on page 3, col. 2)

UNION MEN, attend your meetings and your union will not be run by Reds.

TITO SUPPORTED BY INFLUENTIAL FRIENDS IN MOSCOW AND U. S.

Why cannot all the protests from our American people stop shipments of much needed machinery and resources to Yugoslavia? Because Stalin's influence in Washington is stronger than the combined influence of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Catholic War Veterans, American Federation of Labor and many more thousands of our interested citizens.

Josef Stalin has more than 100,000 underground agents here in this country, not mentioning the thousands of fellow travelers, liberals, and paid Red Front workers. Thirty-five thousand paid organizers and many ministers (practically all Unitarians) have their hands in Stalin's pocket and will support Communist camouflaged movements. On the Supreme Court we have at least one man who does not dare protest against shipments to Yugoslavia.

The Kremlin has sent the word out to its agents to see that the U. S. sets Marshal Tito up in Yugoslavia to control the people. So it will be done — it HAS BEEN DONE in spite of all protests. Money from the U. S. originally set up in Yugoslavia Tito (Josip Broz), the Red who graduated in murder in Spain. The organization mainly responsible for this patronage is the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, headed by men like Rep. John Coffee, a Red crook in Congress who took $2500 bribe on a war contract, and good old Stalin Jr., James I usig, trained by Ben Kun in Hungary.

REDS ORGANIZING A SCREAM FOR CHINA

The Kremlin has given the word for all Reds in the United States to begin screaming on September 22 for the U. S. to withdraw our Marines from China so the Chinese Communist Army can drive out Chiang Kai-shek and deliver four hundred million Chinese to Communism. You will hear this propaganda from the mouths of the Redist agitators this side of Moscow, from the Red and fellow traveler radio commentators, movies, writers, and Red Fronts.

One of the foremost of these Red Fronts is the War Peace Movement (which should rightfully be called War the World for Stalin). This movement is headed by WERNER REIS, such as GEN. EVANS McLEOD, PAUL ROBESON (I educate my son in Russia), EDWARD G. ROBINSON, Rep. HATCH DELACY, Red Congressmen.

BY SOVIET COMMISSAR OF EDUCATION

We hate Christians. Even the best of them must be regarded as our enemies. They preach love to one's neighbor and pity, which is contrary to our principles.

Christian love is a hindrance to the development of the revolution. Down with love for one's neighbor; what we want is hatred. We must know how to hate, for only at this price can we conquer the Universe. We have done with the kings of the earth, let us now deal with the kings of the sky. All religions are poison and they intoxicate and deaden the mind, the will, and the conscience.

"A fight to the death must be declared on religion. Our task is to destroy all kinds of religion and all kinds of morality."

THE WORLD WON'T BE Happy Until THE REDS GET IT

We are grateful to Mr. Gale and the Los Angeles Examiner for the privilege of using this cartoon.

ARREST OR DEPORT THE REDS

The Communists who are foreigners should be deported and the home-grown Reds should be thrown into the Clink, or we should take this law off the books and adopt Communism completely.

"If two or more persons in any state or territory or at any place subject to the United States conspire to overthrow, put down or to destroy by force the Government of the United States, or to levy war against them, or to oppose by force the authority thereof, or by force to prevent, hinder, or delay the execution of any law of the United States, or by force to seize, take, or possess any property of the United States, they shall each be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than six years, or both."

HYMN OF THE SOVIET UNION OF NEW NATIONAL RUSSIAN ANTHEM

Following are the words of a "hymn" that is being taught to pupils in some of our high schools in the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA!!!

1st verse:

"Republic, however, the land of the free, joined in love and in labor for all men to see, long live mighty Russia, the union supreme, as the hope of the people, their work and their dream."

Chorus:

"Long may she live, our motherland, long may her flag fly over us. Our trust and our pride — all through the stormy years, lead us to glorious destinies — the flag of the people in friendship with all."

2nd verse:

"Tina Lenin and darkness, the sun shines today for Lenin and Stalin have lifted the way, we trod the invader, we hunted, we the foe — an army comes to triumph with song as they go."

BY LENIN

"GIVE US THE CHILD FOR EIGHT YEARS AND IT WILL BE A BOI SHEVIT FOREVER. WE HAVE STRUCK THE KINGS FROM THE EARTH — NOW LET US STRIKE THE KING FROM THE SKIES". (Lenin, Con. Rec. Vol. 77, p.1539; MKR p123)

HOW COULD WE FIGHT WARS AGAINST RUSSIA AND TRAITORS IN THE U. S. AT THE SAME TIME?

We could not today wage a defense war against Russia, because if the Red French would revolt against us—they would call a general strike, and close not only all the factories, plants, and power plants, but roads and shipping. Such a strike would be known as the working man's strike to equal the international red front Russia's peace line action—and thousands of well-to-do workers will support it when the time comes!

This country will be in an even weaker position to withstand war with Russia than France was when Germany conquered that country in thirty-nine days. Leon Blum, Communist President of France, allowed Communism to corrupt the country until it was only a shell. Later after France was "liberated" by the Allies, Leon Blum could see all the French leaders who formerly opposed Communism placed before a firing squad as collaborators, not as anti-Communists.

Just as it happened to Mikhailovich, his friends, and thousands of others in Poland, Austria, Hungary, Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Manchuria, Korea, and yes, Italy, and Germany, so it will be in the United States unless a sufficient number of people forget making money long enough to learn what is going on in their government.

In answer to the question, "Will the Reds in America revolt against us?" we submit the following:

Quotation from Chapter VI, Part 2, Program of the Communist International:

"Communist parties in imperialistic countries—must carry on a campaign and conduct propaganda in the Army and the Navy in defense of the oppressed countries fighting for their liberation, mobilize the masses to refuse to transport troops and munitions, and in connection with this, organize strikes and other forms of mass protest."

Quotations from the circular of general instructions issued by a committee of the Soviet Government of Russia during the Summer of 1919:

"Carry on intensive propaganda among the troops, cause misunderstandings between officers and soldiers, blow up arsenals, bridges, trucks, power magazines, the delivery of supplies of raw materials to factories and mills."

Quotation from the "Twenty-one conditions of admission into the Communist International" (Condition 4):

"The duty of spreading Communist ideas includes the special obligation to carry on a vigorous and systematic propaganda in the Army. Where this obligation is provided by exceptional laws it is to be carried on illegally."

government. The Communists are interested only in the votes of the thirteen million Negroes and nothing else.

In Russia today 94% of the Russian people are dominated by the Communists because of the same type of deception and subterfuge. The colored man is a capitalist now compared to what he will be if he listens to the Communists and fails for these anti-tying meetings.

American Youth for Democracy

The American Youth for Democracy is an infectious and subversive ring for American Youth United with American Aims and Ideals to conceal the poison of Communism. It is a continuation of the old American Youth Congress (they) and the Young Communist League, with many pink and red clubs and associations of youth added and all under Communist leadership. It was organized in October, 1943, and is a concrete example of the Marxist-Leninist-Stalinist principle in actual practice in places like Astoria Park, which provides that the Communist fight for the immediate aims of the movement of the monetary interest of the people with the future of the movement which is the conquest of the power, in mind as the real objective.

The National Farmers Union (with Walter McNair well represented as a Red), the United Public Workers and the Washington A. L. C. Teamsters are all cowboys in the great job of selling the American public the lies of Moscow.

Come On, Americans! Let's Not Be Complete Reds!

Don't let the VETERANS do all the work. Every citizen in Astoria Park, and every other citizen, should take action against these RED organizations that apply to them. In every city and town to safeguard the future of America and bring pressure upon these MOSCOW RENEGADES before it is too late.

FASCISTS - CAPITALISTS IMPERIALISTS

(Don't let such names frighten you. The Red Fifth Column pushes ahead with its evil program and aggressive propaganda in order to have hundreds of thousands of people and people, the propaganda that is introduced and scattered in various circles. These names are published in order to add to the confusion of the Red people, and to help to support a communist frontally by purchasing one of its products. Communists back with contempt upon most opposition because it is merely political, or possibly an argument showing that Communism is economically unsound. Red Fascism in the United States has turned in face of such opposition. As long as a country is organized and half informed American citizens the Communists, they go along with their plans for revolution, knowing that they are too strongly entrenched in our government and courts to be stopped by half measures.

But when some person or persons who knows the whole story—the ultimate plans of Communism and who is really behind it—when such a person combats them, these disguised Reds resort to every trick and propaganda to stop him.

The Communists are now trying to force the people to dignify their "position" by discussing them on a basis with Democrats and Republicans—and not, as they should be discussed, as a world-wide secret political organization thriving on wholesale murder, rape, and robbery on a scale never equaled in the history of the world.

A sugar coated discussion of Communism means nothing to the Reds, but when you know their weak spots and expose them in a way they cannot answer, and comes the secret battle—you are a Fascist, an Imperialist, for the Capitalists, or some other similar "name". The Communists use every trick to drive their enemies, to turn one against the other, to confuse them and the public as to the real issues at stake. They try to draw their opponents away from the subject of Communism, which the Reds do not dare defend openly, by accusing these opponents of other intentions so as to put them on the defensive. If there are any Fascists in America, we do not know who they are, but we do know that at the rate the Reds are taking over our government departments, they are causing many citizens to become intensely and sincerely American and to stand up for all the things that are part of our way of life. This is the only kind of Fascist we know of in these United States.

Due to limited space we are unable to continue in this week's issue the article, "Women Ravished by Former Vets", it will be continued next week.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

"There can be no blind allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but anything else also, but an American at all. We have room for but one flag, and that is the flag of the United States, which symbolizes all that stands against liberty and civilization, not to mention as it excludes any foreign flag or nation to which we are loyal."

any economic features but almost entirely in the fact that it is anti-Christian. That is the motive power which provides the unlimited funds for keeping down government, the world over, and substituting Communism. Remove Atheism and thereby remove all Christianity from Communism and it will be no more.

The idea many people have about Communism's wanting to divide the wealth is a fallacy. All the dividing of the wealth the Reds have done is demonstrated in Russia, where they have had a free hand in government for twenty-nine years. There the Communists have access to the wealth for fine homes, servants, cars and luxuries, while ninety-four percent of the people are in a more impoverished and down-trodden state than were our slaves before the Civil War. Over fifteen million Russians are in concentration camps for "non-cooperation."

Communism did away with religion and raised a crop of Godless ape-like men who have ravished girls in public in all European countries they have taken over since the opposition to Communism was crushed. Again they want us to provide a second front to help them crush that opposition in Spain so they may turn their ape-men onto the Christian women and wipe out religion in that country.

This week the United Electrical Radio & Machine Workers of America C.I.O. in convention at Milwaukee passed a resolution asking Congress to break relations with Spain. This union is controlled by Communists. All Red fronts in the U. S. are pushing for war on Spain. The high standard of the movie industry and the writers who contribute so heavily toward the interest the Red fronts in the U. S. are motivated by hatred of religion because religion opposes their atheist camps, free love, and animal sex like among the Communists, such as is enjoyed by Charles Chaplin.

We do not suggest that you accept our statements as fact simply because we present them to you. Reason it out for yourself. Observe and THINK. If you become interested in putting together this Red jigsaw puzzle, you will later see the picture quite clearly. You will discover your government is almost gone. It is very nearly too late.

Having spent many years looking for truth regarding Communism, we realized when we launched THINK WEEKLY as an effort to educate the people that in the event we fail and Stalin's forces take over we, among other enemies of Red slavery, will face a firing squad. In all European countries that were "liberated" with our help, thousands of people who were enemies of Communism have been shot as collaborators, fascists, or what not. The same conditions.

tion is steadily being created here - "fascist" is today the name for a patriotic American. Just as the Russians were too busy drinking vodka and enjoying social life the night before the German tanks rolled over them, seventy thousand Red slaves look over one hundred and eighty million drabbed Russians, so Americans are too busy making money to hand over to the Communists.

If the readers could see what passes over our desk every week, facts that we do not dare print, they would not think we are under any illusion. Americans all know there is something seriously wrong but they are too busy with other things to do anything about it, or even to try to learn the truth. A burglar is in the house to rob and kill them but they pull the covers over their heads so they do not see the horrible sight.

People cannot buy meat and many other needed items - 750 chain grocery stores are closed in New York - newspapers have not enough paper to run even warm ads - and the public thinks this just "happened". It did not just "happen". It was planned in Moscow. This is a feeder and rehearsal for the general strike and Communists' rule in the U. S.

Here are only a few of the completely Communist issues that confront us every day. We know they are Communist inspired, born in clever atheist minds in the Kremlin. (We also know that respected people in the U. S. support some of the Red fronts, publications, and legislations; they have been duped.)

O. P. A.

Some features of the O. P. A. convince the people that it is a good and necessary thing, but these people do not know the O. P. A. is Communist in action. Every Red front supports O. P. A., which creates the black market, which in turn is composed of at least ninety-five percent Reds and Russian fronts. Think that over. Let anyone try to deny it. O. P. A. has cost us billions and was created to disrupt and disgust us with our form of government so that we will agree to a change. It is one arm of the Red octopus to cause shortages and hold the prices down while another arm of the same octopus, Communist-dominated unions, pushes wages up and encourages men to do less work. In this way some manufacturers are squeezed in between so they cannot operate.

At this point comes the dinner from all five hundred fronts and Red papers like P. M. for the government to take over industry. You now have such a demand in regard to the pocket houses which the O. P. A. has closed, putting hundreds of thousands out of work. Government operation of industry would mean one step closer to Communism, as the Reds know they control our government.

Atom Bomb

It is a known fact that the crowd controlling Communism is - and has been - dying.

tating the appointment of the key men who are supposed to protect the atom bomb for the U. S. I Don't be too quick to tell us we are wrong -- think!

State Department

Anyone who watches the State Department function can see that it is Communist dominated, regardless of who is placed as Secretary as a blind. Have not the State Department officials acted as high pressure salesmen for Stalin all over the world for at least a year? Byrnes has been a puppet too long. Why did he waste all this time and money with Stalin when many of us warned a year ago exactly what Stalin was doing? What power forces Byrnes to have Humphreys V. Cohen by his side at every conference from Moscow to Paris? How does Cohen stand on Communism and to whom does he report? How does Dean Acheson, next in line to Byrnes, stand on questions regarding Russian policy all over the world from Argentina to Poland? He looks to us like one of Stalin's best salesmen. Spentille Braden -- is he anti-Communist? Yes, the same as Henry Wallace, Joseph Davies, Edward G. Robinson, Henry Morgenthau, and Charles Chaplin.

U. N.

Communism is using U. N. as their tool to lobby and confuse the world until they can get full production from the thousands of German skilled labor-technicians and scientists they hold as prisoners, and from the workers in German munitions plants which are being used to equip the titanic year old boys Russia has been drafting since the close of the German phase of this Russian war plan - which is only partly finished.

Our National Debt

We have known for years (and have learned from Communist writers themselves) that the raising of a national debt from forty billion to two hundred billion was a part of the Communist plan to bankrupt the U. S. and prepare for Stalin to take over. Our spending and printing all over the world, especially in Communist dominated countries, is certainly a doubly edged weapon for Stalin. It weakens us at home and feeds and finances Communism in Europe.

UNRRA

This is one of the biggest grafts in the history of the world, being used to set up Red slavery all over Europe and Asia. Food is distributed almost exclusively by Stalin's agents to those who accept Communism and in most countries people receiving it give entire credit to Russia as they think it is coming from there! (A similar case is that of the Russian soldiers who, upon seeing American soldiers riding in American-made trucks, demanded to know what the Americans were doing in their (Russian) trucks. The Russians themselves did not know that Uncle Sam was providing their very means of transportation to the front).

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Complainant alleges "Think Weekly," a paper published in Newark which claims to be anti-Communist, is a Fascist organ. Complainant also alleges editor of paper, CONDE J. MCGINLEY, is a former member of Christian Front and is violently anti-Semitic and was pro-Hitler. Investigation fails thus far to reflect paper as Fascist, although it is outspokenly anti-Communist. "Think Weekly" headquarters are at 2908 Pleasant Parkway, Reinhold Building, Elizabeth, New Jersey. MCGINLEY resides at 23 Beechwood Place, Irvington, New Jersey.

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated on reference Bureau letter advising that the Bureau had received information from [redacted] Summit, New Jersey that "Think Weekly" was a Fascist newspaper serving under the guise of being anti-Communist. The complainant's letter alleged that the editor of the publication was very active in the Christian Front and that MCGINLEY who is also known as Charles Shelton had a strong antipathy for the Jews. Reference letter also indicated that [redacted] of the above CONDE J. MCGINLEY, [redacted]

[redacted] in [redacted] Later [redacted] advised the [redacted]
[redacted] Union Register, a paper published at 930 Stuyvesant Avenue, Unionville, New Jersey. A check of the office indices reflects that [redacted] [redacted] has been investigated before.

b7C b7D
On May 25, 1942, this office received a complaint that [redacted] [redacted] and COLIN MCKINLEY trading under the name of [redacted] had a restaurant at Eighteenth Avenue in Belmar and a restaurant in Fort Dix and that they were alleged to have contributed [redacted] of [redacted] [redacted] to Camp Nordland of the German American Bund. This complaint was received from [redacted] sheriff, Monmouth County, Freehold, New Jersey. This matter was referred to the New Jersey State Police who furnished a report on January 31, 1944 in which they furnished the subjects names as [redacted] and CONDE MCKINLEY. Nothing derogatory was found by the State Police nor was the allegation in the original complaint substantiated by the State Police investigation. In December of 1944 this office received a nine page complaint on CONDE J. MCKINLEY which was written by [redacted] the present complainant. In this letter [redacted] stated that MCKINLEY was violently anti-Semitic, was a political agitator, that MCKINLEY told him that he believed Hitler to be one of the greatest men on earth, also "that Hitler had been sent by God to deliver the world from Jews and Communism." The complainant also alleges that MCKINLEY referred to President Roosevelt as President Rosenfeld and stated that America attacked Germany and Japan first. The complainant also alleged that MCKINLEY stated that the Jews control the Government in Washington and that if there was ever a war against the Jews he hoped he could kill all the Jews he could get hold of. The complainant also asserted that MCKINLEY attended the Sedition Trial against the Christian Front in Brooklyn. [redacted] also alleged that MCKINLEY was b7D active in Father Coughlin's organization, in America First, and that he distributed pamphlets and books of a Fascist nature. The complainant also said that he had in his possession the following publications which he had received from MCKINLEY.

The speech of Honorable HARLIN BUSHFIELD in the Senate April 21, 1944 entitled "The President's Foreign Policy stands on the record convicted of uncertainty and confusion."

A book about WALTER WINCHELL by JOSEPH P. KAMP; a book written by Reverend FRANK WOODRUFF JOHNSON entitled "The Octopus" and another b7C book "The Corruption of America." In this letter [redacted] requested that b7D Bureau agents contact him concerning MCKINLEY.

b7C b7D
On February 7 Special Agent [redacted] contacted [redacted] [redacted] at his home at which time [redacted] alleged that CONDE J. MCKINLEY was a fellow employee at the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation, Union, New Jersey.

He stated that McGINLEY had uttered pro-German and anti-Semitic remarks at the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation and that he believed McGINLEY was dangerous to the internal security of this country.

However, [redacted] contacted the [redacted] of the Elastic Stop Nut Corporation, [redacted] who stated that the employment records of the company indicated that McGINLEY was formerly in the wholesale grocery business for a period of seven years and that at one time he owned a chain of restaurants, all of which are now closed with the exception of one in Asbury Park, New Jersey. The records revealed a favorable report on McGINLEY as a result of a check made by the plant protection in the company. [redacted] in his personal appraisal of McGINLEY stated that McGINLEY was a likeable chap, sincere, conscientious and "works like a dog."

[redacted] Union, New Jersey was interviewed by Agent [redacted] and [redacted] characterized the subject as being very eccentric. [redacted] remarked that when he first knew McGINLEY he was an ardent follower of Father Coughlin and President Roosevelt but that after Father Coughlin was forced out of his weekly broadcast the subject blamed Roosevelt for this. [redacted] described the subject as an isolationist and based this on the fact that one time McGINLEY endeavored to get [redacted] to go to a peace rally in Madison Square Garden in New York at which Charles Lindberg spoke. [redacted] also told the agent that he had never heard the subject make any pro-German remarks nor had he ever appeared to be anti-Semitic. He also stated that in his opinion the subject was harmless and was not dangerous to the security of this country. He also advised that the subject had a son in the United States Marines and that the subject had stated to him that he hoped the United States would win the war and the peace that followed.

The records of the Union, New Jersey Police Department and of the Retail Merchants Credit Bureau were checked for derogatory information on McGINLEY by Agent [redacted] with negative results.

On April 9, 1945, the same complainant, [redacted] advised that he had additional information concerning the subject and requested that an agent again contact him.

Accordingly, on April 26 Special Agent [redacted] contacted [redacted] at which time the complainant advised that he had [redacted] with McGINLEY since McGINLEY thought that he was pro-Nazi. At this time [redacted] again alleged that the subject was violently anti-Semitic and violently anti-Roosevelt. [redacted] was unable to list any specific statements which would constitute a Federal violation.

After receipt of reference Bureau letter the writer interviewed the complainant in the Newark Field office. At this time [redacted] reiterated the same complaint about the subject being pro-Fascist and anti-Semitic as he had submitted heretofore. He also remarked that MCGINLEY appeared to have a high regard for him and that MCGINLEY [redacted] the publication of "Think Weekly." Because the complainant [redacted] MCGINLEY has on occasions asked him [redacted] "Think Weekly." The complainant stated that he did not wish to work for MCGINLEY unless it would be of use to the Bureau. [redacted] stated that he had known MCGINLEY since the [redacted] and that MCGINLEY [redacted] Fascist organizations. [redacted] stated that he had not talked with MCGINLEY since he had written his last complaint. [redacted] He did not know what type of position MCGINLEY would offer him on "Think Weekly" but agreed to contact MCGINLEY to see if he could obtain additional information concerning the publication of "Think Weekly."

On Friday, August 30, 1946, [redacted] subject at his place of business, 2003 Pleasant Parkway, Reinhold Building, Elizabeth, New Jersey. [redacted] stated that the above address was an empty store which he had noticed had a painted window and that MCGINLEY prepares "Think Weekly" there. He stated that MCGINLEY is in this office from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. every day. Present at the time that [redacted] MCGINLEY was an individual by the name of [redacted] who the complainant asserts writes under the name of [redacted] for "Think Weekly." During this meeting much discussion was held on the "protocols." [redacted] alleged that the whole setup of the government could only be understood if one knew the protocols which [redacted] described as a guide for world Jewry to destroy Christianity. In this same interview [redacted] alleged that the Jews were lined up with Moscow and because of the Jews and the government in Washington Communism will take over in this country. [redacted] also alleged that the recent war was declared by [redacted] in [redacted] At this same meeting MCGINLEY told [redacted] with ELIZABETH DELLING, author of the Red Network and the Roosevelt Red Record and its background. MCGINLEY also alleged that the paper now had a circulation of 60,000. According to the informant, the staff of "Think Weekly" consists of the editor CONDE J. MCGINLEY, also known as CHARLES SHELTON, [redacted] also known as [redacted] a secretary who was his stenographer and although the complainant was not certain he believed that [redacted] the subject [redacted] is presently a reporter on the Asbury Park News and that he too aids in the publication of the paper. The complainant also states that the paper is printed by the Essex Press of Newark, New Jersey. At the above meeting MCGINLEY told [redacted]

[redacted] At this interview MCGINLEY did not offer [redacted] any sort of a position, and [redacted] stated that he felt MCGINLEY was operating on a shoestring financially.

An examination of "Think Weekly" thus far fails to reflect that it is a Fascist paper, although the paper is strongly anti-Communist. On the occasions that [REDACTED] has contacted this office he has furnished agents with publications which he states he has obtained from CONDE J. MCGINLEY. These publications are being forwarded to the Bureau. This material may be disposed of. The complainant stated that he would continue to keep in contact with CONDE J. MCGINLEY and would advise this office of any further developments which would indicate a Fascist trend on the part of the editor of "Think Weekly."

Let us imagine that one day in the not far distant future you turn on your radio and hear the announcer state that at 8 p.m. there will be an important declaration by the President over all stations. At 8 p.m. everyone is anxiously waiting at the radio and you hear the President state that due to the unsettled conditions, all business of every kind is to cease operation until further notice, that no one is to go to work the next day but is to wait for announcement the day following. Everyone is confused and disorganization is widespread.

When the second announcement comes to the frightened public, it states that in order to stabilize conditions in the United States a temporary board of advisers has been appointed to take over the government, including the armed services. All factories, transportation, and city and state governments, including police, will take orders from this committee. The radio is placed under the control of Paul Robeson. All newspapers are to be ruled by the editors of The Daily Worker and by the editors, including those of THINK, in the U.S., will be shot to preserve "unity" in the country. Felix Frankfurter will be the only member of the Supreme Court who will not be imprisoned or shot.

Within a week, three or four million Americans (whose names are now listed) will be imprisoned in concentration camps. Soon every state will have at least one such camp, and the number imprisoned will reach fifteen or twenty million, including all intellectuals who are capable of leadership - lawyers, teachers, business men, police officers, and all of these church ministers. Several millions will be shot for being Fascists, imperialists, capitalists, or for "collaborating with the Germans" during World War II.

Among those who will be shot because they are no longer needed and are too soft for the future program, will be: Henry Wallace, Harold Ickes, Eleanor Roosevelt, James Roosevelt, Elliott Roosevelt, Justice Robert Jackson, Justice Frank Murphy, Dean Acheson, Henry J. Kaiser, and Red Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam. Harry Truman will

Conquest of America Long the Goal of Reds

Louis Budenz, for 10 years editor of the Daily Worker, official Communist newspaper, and also a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, says: "Before I left the Communist movement, Soviet Russia, I learned definitely while editing the official Communist daily organ, plans to dominate the world. Her chief objective is the destruction of America by a sweeping blitzkrieg which will finally result in World War III. The discussions within the secret councils of the Communist Party, at which I was present, were based definitely on Moscow's decision that the United States had to be annihilated."

Mr. Budenz stated that official Communist documents in his possession would show that this had always been the goal of the Soviet leaders, specifically citing the words of Stalin, Molotov and Manuksky that their aim was the setting up of "world proletarian dictatorship." That meant "simply and plainly, the imposition of the Soviet dictatorship over America by force of arms and the aid of a fifth column." The orders to intensify this attack along this line had been the occasion for the article in 1945 by Jacques Duclos of France to the American Communist organization, telling the Reds bare to establish the Communist Party once more on a "class war basis."

WRITER HELPS EXPLAIN CONFUSION CAUSED BY PRESIDENT WILSON'S FEAR OF EMBARRASSING ALLIES
DURING FIRST WORLD WAR

By Upton Close

The Constitution of the United States, Article IV, Clause 4: "The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a republican form of government." The official title of this union is "The Republic of the United States of America" — not "The Democracy of the United States of America." The use of the word "democracy" in this sense would be incorrect, and had England, The United States Army Manual, 20-45, page 91 (1928) gave to our soldiers the standard definition of a democracy as used by the ancient Greeks who invented the word: "A government of the masses. Authority derived through mass meetings for any form of direct expression." It was then explained, as Plato said, that attempt to govern by direct expression of the entire mass results in mobocracy, and in the elimination of property rights. The mass becomes a mob, swept by passion, prejudice and impulse, stimulated and taken advantage of by demagogues. It goes through extreme to dictatorship and ends in anarchy.

This nation and its form of government were never called "democracy" by any one. Wilson, who told that people first not by word alone, but by deed. He discovered the political potentialities of the word when he called upon us to make the world safe for democracy. You see, he "could" not attempt to make the world safe for the representative republican form of government, or for a democratic representative republic, because some of our allies at that time were monarchies. Therefore, Wilson, who was a good enough historian to know better, twisted and changed the old classical meaning of the word "democracy." Hitler carried it a step further when he called his type of elections "democracy." Marxists have carried it to the ultimate in calling the Communist "democracy," on the

LONG-TIME EMPLOYEE OF ALLIS-CHALMERS MOVES TO OUST REDS FROM UNION

Milwaukee, Wisconsin, UAW - CIO Union Local 248 on strike at Allis-Chalmers plant have some men in their Union who are setting an example for other real friends of Unions to follow. In this union at this large plant are 70 men who have organized under the head of Leon Venne to drive Communists from control of their union.

Our lists are off to Mr. Venne. He has the kind of courage to stop these Reds. We advise Union men all over U. S. to quit the pussy-footing and follow Leon Venne's lead or get ready for a revolution into which your Red leaders are taking you. When all plants in U.S. are closed, your children hungry, and wounded Americans are being in the streets of our cities, you will know what we are talking about. It will be too late for you to back out then. At least one hundred thousand of Stalin's underground agents have been slipped into the U. S. and are here now to be ready to give the orders.

Your Union will have not the least voice. Leon Venne, who has been an employee in this plant for 17 years, declared, "It has been a long time since the membership of Local 248 has had an opportunity to express an opinion at a membership meeting. Ten officers of Local 248 do not want us to express an opinion."

"We know that when meetings are held we are not given the opportunity to speak unless we are one of the favored few. Local 248 is one of the few local Unions where there is little or no rank and file participation in the functioning of the union."

"We of Allis-Chalmers know that we must have a union. A union to us is as important as foremen are to the management. We of Allis-Chalmers are going to have a union. We are going to have Local 248."

"We do not believe in Communism or Fascism. Our belief lies with Americanism. We live in a democracy, we believe in a Democracy and our Union is going to be run under the democratic system."

"This is a warning to the Communists in Local 248 — Get the hell out of our union and stay out. From now on there's an open season on Communists in Local 248. Your Communistic activity has cost us well over $2,000 per worker since 1939. You have taken us out on three strikes at great loss to us. You have had three strikes and you are out!"

WANT GOOD CONTRACT
"We of Allis-Chalmers are going to have a contract with the management of Allis-Chalmers, a good contract, a reasonable contract, a contract that we can work under and have harmonious relations with our fellow workers and with management."

"We are not going to call the boss a son-of-a-bitch and ask him for a raise the next day. The contract cannot and will not be negotiated by the present leadership of Local 248. We of Allis-Chalmers demand that they resign or we will kick them out."

"We are going to have a union run by responsible people working at Allis-Chalmers, men who hold no allegiance to any foreign 'ism'. We are going to have a union that will represent all of the workers at Allis-Chalmers all of the time."

"This is not an appeal for a back to work movement, but an appeal for a back to unionist movement. STRIKE UNPOPULAR
The committee secretary urged the end of "this unwanted strike". The Communist Party succeeds in the policy of 'rule or ruin' and there will be no union at Allis-Chalmers."

STALIN ASKED UNCLE SAMP TO OPEN A SECOND FRONT

In the "Communist" for November, 1935 at page 1058, is an article entitled "Thesis on the International and the War," it was published "for the purpose of information" to Communists and to the world.

"The Soviet Union will be forced, in case of war, to ally herself with capitalist powers. If the Soviet Government, even now, is forced to adapt its diplomatic methods to those of capitalist allies, if the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, even now, disapproves of the Communist Parties of the countries allied to the Soviet Union in order to please capitalist allies and asks them to submit to the demands of their capitalist war ministers — if this is happening now, there will be certainly, in the event of war, a still greater danger that the war policy of the Soviet Union may be influenced by the pressure of her capitalist allies, and that therefore her revolutionary working-class character may be obscured or diluted. In view of this danger, international Socialism must insist that the Soviet Government conduct the war as a revolutionary war, a war of propaganda with a view to bringing about the working-class revolution in Germany, and to facilitate in the other countries the use of the war for the overthrow of the capitalist regime. ... Socialism must not forget that the aims of the capitalist governments fighting on the side of the Soviet Union are entirely divergent from its own. It must therefore maintain, with regard to these governments, is complete independence. It must not accept political responsibility for their conduct of the war. It must not enter into a 'chill peace' with them."

From pages 1061 and 1062
If war should break out, it is strongly to the interest of international socialism that German fascism should be defeated and the working class revolution in Germany brought about ... a victory of the Soviet Union would greatly add to its reputation in Europe and Asia, severely strike the power of international capitalism and thus greatly facilitate the worldwide victory of socialism. Therefore, if there should be a war, the interests of international socialism demand that the Soviet Union should be victorious."

MONSIEUR FULTON J. SHEEN WARNS OF COMMUNIST DANGER

We would like to devote several pages to the this given by the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Fulton J. Sheen before some 1500 people at the Elks Hall in Elizabeth, N. J., on Friday, October 11. It was, as always, a masterpiece of oratory, which held the audience tense and interested every moment. It was, further, a clear presentation of the position, power, and influence of Communism in the world today.

We shall present to you here a very few of the points so eloquently made by Mgr. Sheen in his address:

1. Sixteen out of nineteen of the world civilizations have been destroyed from within, not from without. (This is most significant today, as we see the United States being devoured from within, as we see Communism boring into the corners of our American democracy—into the schools, into the government, into the churches.)

2. This is the time of the Anti-Christ, who, as Christ said, will deceive even the elect. (And are not the Communists, led by Josef Stalin, deceiving even the elect?) Are they not deceiving many sincere, good-living, Christian people with their talk of world peace, with their talk of a new life for the poor working man? Would they not have us believe that in Russia and other Communist-dominated countries the people are supremely happy in their "economic security"? If these people are so happy, why did so many of the Russian soldiers fight against going back to Russia after the war — after they had seen how the rest of the world lives?)

3. Molotov has stated that every so-called peace treaty is simply and solely a means of gaining time to prepare for aggression. (Here is a statement from one of the leading men in the Russian government today, who is most certainly expressing the policy of his government and not his own personal opinion, since no one in Russia can express an opinion contrary to the will of the government. In view of this statement, what is the worth of Stalin's recent "plan for world peace"? Is it not self-evident that Russia, under her present leadership, is not to be trusted? The following statement of Communist Molotov truly sums up Russia's policy in world affairs, "As long as there are fools to take our signature seriously, we will promise anything — provided we can get something tangible in exchange.")

4. On the occasion of his sixtieth birthday, Stalin, in an address to his people, said that he would not celebrate another birthday until he had succeeded in instigating world revolution. (We need no further discussion on this statement; it speaks the heart of the aims and purposes of the U.S.S.R. under the rule of Josef Stalin.)

ARE WE A REPUBLIC OR A DEMOCRACY

grounds that the majority of the people are driven to assent to pre-made decisions. The truly democratic spirit, meaning political equality to every member of the mass, can only be attained among a large population through the representative republican system of government. It might be possible for Iceland or a Swiss canton to be a pure democracy in which every citizen votes on every law and every office holder. Ancient Athens carried democracy even into the judicial field. Citizens voted en masse as to the guilt or innocence of persons on trial — the result being that justice was reduced to a popularity contest.

A READER WRITES:

Writes a correspondent: "Events of the past thirteen years and moves in the passing show indicate that we have all but changed from a republic to a democratic form of government. The rampant miseducation of what we may aptly call the 'Roosevelt youth' — who are taught to sneer at constitutional principles — indicate that we are on the borderline. Soon, now, we shall know if there is to be a turnback toward a free republic."

THE SCOPE OF SCOPE

On the newsstands you will see heaps of a pocket reprint monthly called Reader's Scope. It is the Left-wing's most expensive effort to compete with the Reader's Digest. The October issue under the title "England's Shame," accuses the British authorities in Palestine of torture to the point of crippling victims for life of concentration camp atrocities of outrageous actions and wholesale destruction of the reconstruction work of Jewish pioneers in Palestine. It poses the accusation that the British act in no way differently from the Nazis in occupied territory.

These charges are extreme — founded on excitement and rumor. Other extreme talk is on the contrary cold and calculated. Here, from Dr. Louis G. Reynolds, columnist for the California Jewish Voice, self-described as the leading Jewish paper in California — on Friday, March 22, Dr. Reynolds said: "I cannot conceive of any Jew in the role of an enemy of the Soviet Union. To me such a Jew is an unnatural monstrosity, a travesty on everything that is decent and right." In the issue of July 2, 1946, this editorialist said: "The word 'Americanism' is (one such) generalization. Have we succeeded in elaborating spiritual and intellectual characteristics which may be definitely identified as 'American' or are we just juggling through our hats? The American way of life is not different from any other way of life. Every nation, in order to live and survive, must have supreme control over its sources of food, clothing, shelter and medical care. Whether that nation calls itself American or by any other name is of no consequence."

There will be many Jews — American citizens — who will, I trust, rise up and tell this type of propagandist that he is the unnatural monstrosity, the travesty on everything decent and right!

I have asked Major Robert L. Williams of my staff, formerly of the Intelligence Division of the U. S. Air Corps, to give you the highlights of the largest gathering of veterans in most since the war, which was neglected in most of our papers.

MAJOR WILLIAMS TELLS HOW REDS PLAN TO CHANGE FBI TO GESTAPO

By Major Robert L. Williams

To Me, One of the Most Significant developments of the convention was J. Edgar Hoover's appearance there. Few Americans seem to understand that the FBI has been seriously threatened, and is now threatened with taking over by friends of Communism. Reds almost got Hoover's job last winter, and you may be sure they will make one more effort while the New Deal is still in the White House. I can hardly imagine anything that would be more terrible. Congressman Fred Bradley of Michigan in January made a speech on the floor of the House, exposing the plot. He said Paul Appleby, assistant director of the Bureau of the Budget, was maneuvering, doubtless with the aid of the PAC and affiliated fronts, to get Hoover ousted and George F. Schwarzwald, one of Appleby's underlings, appointed.

It was this man Schwarzwald who, under some such title as streamliner of the intelligence departments of the State, War and Navy Departments, got an order issued during the war directing Army, counter-intelligence officers to turn files of confidential informants which our staff had laboriously gathered on subversive officers and enlisted them. Most of such persons were Communists or Communist stooges, and it was Appleby who has for several years withheld funds so that applicants for Civil Service positions could not be investigated. Tens of thousands have been put on government payrolls without investigation. Appleby, you may recall, said he saw no reason why a member of the Communist Party should not have a government job if a member of the Republican or Democratic Party could have one.

You can see what Schwarzwald would do to the FBI if he got his hands on it. He not only would destroy all files against Communists, he would oust all personnel; replace them with the most vicious, highly trained partisan saboteurs, and gradually work into a campaign to smear all editors and speakers against Communism. Soon squads would shout down a rightist speaker and his bureau. We would all be branded "fascists", "reactionaries", "anti-Semites". Police heads would be pressured to replace their men with "recommended personnel". If they refused the whole power of the smear band and this bureau would be turned on them, and, if necessary, they, along with other key citizens, would be haled into court to face a stream of false witnesses.

By appropriate technique the courts themselves would be taken over. Did not Roosevelt himself smear the highest, most dignified tribunal of this nation and replace justice with politics?

Hoover knows all this. His government employees could not go before the Republican Party to ask help in saving the bureau, for he would go before the powerful Jackson and appeal to them to go all out in helping him fight Communism. There was never any doubt but that the majority of the Legionnaires were for Hoover and his program, but the fact accomplishes a bold and prolonged occasion by the might of action means that President Truman now would hardly dare lay hands on the FBI or its director.

WOMEN WARNED OF POSSIBLE RAIDS BY 'APE-MEN' INVADERS

Be considered too harmless to bother with.

Millions who are now enjoying their automobiles and conveniences will be fleeing through garbage cans behind hotels where the Commissars eat to get the crumbs left from their dinner. Men who now sit in clubs wondering how best to invest their money will be in slave labor camps. All churches will be closed and most of the ministers killed. Unions will be outlawed; labor leaders not Communists will be shot. John L. Lewis being the first in face the firing squad. The hiring man will be sent to any state or industry where he is needed. These judged too old for important work will be in slave labor gangs.

Children will be turned over to control by the State, will go to government-controlled schools. Women will be sent to factories to do a man's work. Farmers will no longer sell their own crops but will deliver everything to a government warehouse and will receive a slip of paper in a Communist as a reward for their long hours of toil. All who protest will be shot. Anybody wanting to go to another town or city will have to secure a permit to work in advance.

This sad picture is not as far removed from our American scene as you may think. There are many signs which indicate the day may not be far off. Communists have been very quiet and secretive, working like beavers—while Americans are so busy trying to make money they cannot take time to find out that the Reds are printing that green stuff just to keep you happy and content while they take over. What does it matter how much money they print? — Stalin's agents will take you and your assets away. What is your money worth today? What can you buy with a dollar? Print the green paper and keep the people happy, is the Communist motto.

The movie and amusement industry, controlled by Reds, are a big help in keeping the people's minds occupied and happy while the Red permits work through our schools, churches, labor unions, and government departments, poisoning the people and arranging the details for your slavery.

You are too busy to learn about Communism; it takes too much study; the situation must be exaggerated; there is nothing you can do about it; that is up to our leaders. These are some of the favorite alibis for indifference and cowardliness.

During the war you were told by radio commentators that they would be peace in the world as soon as Germany was crushed. Where is the world peace that was promised? — There can be no world peace while Communism stalks the world with its plans for revolution and ultimate conquest.

As Communism rules most of Europe, she will one day rule the United States unless our people rise up against this evil and drive all its members from our shores. If you look the other way, refuse to face the undeniable facts, and are content to sit and wait for something to happen, you will one day see armoured trucks ride down your street and noisy brute men run into the houses, looking to their lists of names. Your husband will be dragged into the truck, into a room upstairs by these brutes, and you will struggle with two ape-like men, who beat and assault you.

just as it has been in thirteen countries of Europe. Why should you expect treatment different from that of the millions of women and girls like you who have been raped and tortured? Such horrible things are going on today in Europe that there is a complete black-out of news by our Red-controlled government in Washington.

THINK WEEKLY knows of hundreds of sad cases. We see many letters from Europe, telling of conditions in Poland, Hungary, Rumania, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Yugoslavia, and Germany—conditions which make a living hell for those who will not accept Communism. We know the relatives of a nine-year-old girl who is now in a hospital after being raped by four apemen of the Red Army. Her father, who protested, was forced to be a witness to this brutality, after which he was shot.

Such will be the conditions in our United States unless our busy American people can find time to study this subject and devote their energies and their money, which will be worthless if we lose this fight, to backing up anti-Communist movements. This campaign must spread like wildfire throughout the country, for there is no time to lose. We must fight with every weapon at our command. We must fight hard and we must fight NOW!!

TEXAN QUOTES WRITER'S SHOCK AT WALLACE'S RED COMPLEX

By A. R. Mardock
Dallas, Texas

Russia's Democracy.
Listen to the words of Victor Kravchenko, former Soviet official and author of the best-seller "I Chose Freedom."

"In the Commission library I found several speeches of Henry A. Wallace. An interpreter read for me the marked portions about Russia. I could not believe my ears—the Vice President of a democracy in Stalin's police state! Secret and special departments in every Soviet factory, state-controlled trade unions, lack of true collective bargaining, the death penalty for strikes agitators, the Stakhanovite and piece-work systems, labor purges, laws punishing more than twenty minutes lateness in starting work and forced labor colonies—didn't Mr. Wallace know these commonplace facts or did he, by some lack of rationalization, really look on them as aspects of 'economic democracy'?"

Every American who would like to know what Stalin thinks of the United States, and about his plans for world revolution, should read "I Chose Freedom," authored by a high-ranking Russian official who escaped to the United States in order to tell the world of the miserable plight of his people under Stalin's Police State.

You may order "I Chose Freedom" from THINK WEEKLY, price $3.00.

A TEACHER JOINS US IN FIGHTING THE COMMUNISTIC MENACE

Hostings-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Editor Think Weekly,
P.O. Box 816, Newark 1, N. J.

My dear Sir:

Enclosed you will find two dollars in currency as payment for one year's subscription to your paper. I believe that your movement is excellent and should receive great support from those who really love their country and the things it stands for. It is unfortunate that so many fellow Americans, blinded by prosperity, are allowing an enemy to make its inroads within the nation. Prompt action is necessary now; complacency means only eventual subjugation to a cruel, heartless, irreligious police force which crushes the dignity of man. Failure to act now might result in a political Pearl Harbor from which this nation would never recover. All good Americans should enter into this battle with the zeal of Crusaders. My support is behind you.

Please send me five copies of your paper which I can distribute to individuals, who will help carry out this battle. I would appreciate that shall cover on your part. If you wish, you may make my humble opinion made known to others through your small but worthy paper.

I am just a teacher, but feel that it is time that the poisonous propaganda of the Kremlin and its agencies was exposed to the American people. I am sure that those individuals who love God and country will support the assault which you and your staff have so bravely launched against Communism, our greatest enemy at present.

Keep up your valiant fight; you cannot fail! All good Americans will fall behind you and support you.

Sincerely yours,
ADAM F. DOWNAR

In the State of New Jersey, we are now prepared to furnish speakers for meetings, such as Rotary, Kiwanis, veteran and fraternal organizations. Our speakers bureau now has six members, but we could use four more—men or women—who will give their services in this important crusade. We will gladly furnish material in handy form for a speaker, which will fortify you for any event. We will back you up.

A Paper to Educate People to the Danger of Communism
To Expose the Fifth Column — In Plain Words for Plain People

P. O. Box 816
Newark 1, New Jersey

November 15, 1946.

Dear Fellow American:

You have never read a letter like this before.

If you are one of the over six hundred people who have been receiving papers to pass out to your friends, this is an explanation of why the quantity has been so drastically reduced this week. Such a step is necessary due to a shortage of funds. We hope soon to be in a position to increase the amount of copies and to supply the many Americans who are volunteering to assist this campaign throughout the United States.

This is the twenty-seventh issue of THINK WEEKLY. We who started its publication knew only too well that it was not a money-making scheme, since we are not able to carry advertising, and the subscription rate is so low we lose money on each one. Donations are coming in, but they are small in amount. ✓

The paper is being enthusiastically received in all parts of the country, by people in all walks of life. Free papers are being distributed at veterans and union meetings, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, high schools and colleges. Eleven members of our speakers' bureau are equipped to talk on Communism before any group or organization. Our office has completed information on most of the five hundred Communist fronts and in general is supplied with material on Communism second only to the government. We now have six salaried employees.

A father and son have taken care of the loss each week which is now over seven thousand dollars. In addition to this the amount of $1800.00 is owed to the printers. All other bills are paid, the office being run on an efficient business-like basis.

One managing editor has devoted fifteen hours a day seven days a week for six months to this work; the other, working to his fullest capacity, has brought himself to the point of exhaustion; neither of these men receives one penny salary.

We are at this point "scraping the bottom of the barrel". Money is badly needed to carry on this all-important work. The enthusiasm and support of so many people has given us the courage to continue in the face of such tremendous and well-organized opposition. These people are giving of their time and their energies, helping in every way possible but most of them do not have money to donate. And that is what we need desperately at this moment.

So that this important work may continue, and to leave no doubt in the minds of those who would like to back THINK WEEKLY, we make this proposition. The managing editor will sign a contract to work as in the past for one year for one dollar if a committee of men will see that the printing bill is paid each week. Or we will turn the paper over entirely free to any man or committee who will convince us that an aggressive campaign to expose Communism and educate the people will be continued.

We leave this in the hands of Americans. May God's will be done.

Sincerely yours,

THINK WEEKLY

U.S. PERMITS RED CONTROL OF GERMANY

HAS OUR RED CROSS IN RUSSIA YIELDED TO THE COMMUNISTS?

Apparently under the New Deal, Communism has saturated every organization the Administration could influence. The Red Cross, long respected by everyone, began to slip when its President, Norman Davis, was known as F.D.R.'s roving ambassador. He was sent all over the world, building fences that were to put us into a war to clear the way for Communism in Europe.

But now we have indisputable evidence that in at least one country the Red Cross is used as a Communist agency. American citizens will be interested to learn that the twenty-seven million dollars in supplies they paid for and sent to Russia were taken by the GPU or NKVD, Stalin's Red Murderers, as these supplies were unloaded from the ships.

Mr. Hubble, our Red Cross agent in Moscow, who was to see that these supplies went to the needy, has never seen any of the supplies, so could not give any out. Not one agency exists in all of Russia where such supplies can be passed out to the needy... and the needy did not receive one dime's worth.

Mr. Hubble and his assistants could have been here in the U. S. all the time, in place of living in luxury at Red Cross expense. They had nothing to do. Judging from the close, quiet cooperation Mr. Hubble gave in surrendering all supplies to the Russian Gestapo, it is reasonable to assume that Mr. Hubble was hand-picked for the job by Reds in Washington.

Below we give you part of an expose by Father Leopold Braun, A.A., Administrator of Moscow, American Catholic Chaplain for eleven years in Russia, 1934-1945.

"When Mr. Hubble candidly explained his ignorance of the fate and destination of these supplies amounting to millions of American charity dollars, I told him where the supplies were going. I told him I knew for an absolute fact that these were being almost exclusively, but always secretly, handed out to the GPU (alias NKVD, now recently changed to the MVD) people who are the last to have any claim to the fruits of American charity contributions. These officially-protected bandits and torturers of human conscience and liberty are gorging themselves to this day in the greatest charity scandal the world has seen for a long time. It must be said, however, that in order to save their faces during some official visit or inspection, the authorities will take care to show some blankets, surgical instruments and a few spoons used in hospitals, nurseries, etc.

"The American public has never been told that in all of the USSR there is not one single distributing point open to the general needy public where these supplies are handed out as the American people surely must think they are. It is not at all in the interests of the Soviet Government to let it be known that the American nation is feeling for their war-ridden land to the extent of sending there the necessities of life so sorely needed. I told this to Mr. Hubble, who did not in the least appear to

GENERAL PATTON CRUSHED AND MORGAN FIRED BY LA GUARDIA WHEN THEY DIDN'T FOLLOW MORGENTHAU PLAN, WHICH WOULD FORCE CHRISTIANS TO ACCEPT COMMUNISM OR FACE EXTERMINATION — PASSION PLAYERS TO BE JAILED FOR TWENTY YEARS AS NAZIS.

If it is to be the purpose of the American people to help force the entire seventy million German people into Communism or exterminate them, our government should issue a statement that will make our position clear. Such is the program that is being carried on by the United States through the influence of a small but powerful group.

Immediately after the collapse of Germany, Communists entered that country as official agents appointed by the New Deal Administration. They soon began to set up Communism in the American Zone, which plan is being carried on energetically under cover of the claim of de-nazifying Germany. (The same plan was ready to be set up in all other countries that were liberated).

All who were pointed out by local Reds as Anti-Communists were promptly liquidated as Collaborators or Fascists (just as we anti-Communists will be pointed out by our Reds if Stalin takes over in the U.S.). In Germany the only ones safe from being branded Nazis are Communists. Our Army officers were guided by Civilian Reds sent from Washington and New York City. Army officers quickly learned that when these Red agents said a German was a Nazi there was White House pressure behind his statement.

General Patton learned this and was crushed and ruined for opposing Communist influence. (Soon THINK WEEKLY will give you all the particulars of General Patton's being ruined by Reds in the U. S.).

English General Morgan learned it when he was fired from UNRRA by LaGuardia for saying Communist Spies were using UNRRA as an umbrella for operations.

Now Lieutenant General Lucius Clay, Deputy American Military Governor of Germany, is receiving his orders from Max Lowenthal, who was appointed by the Red dominated New Deal administration as General Counsel to General Lucius Clay. Max

SUPPORT FOR ARCHBISHOP STEPINAC IN VAIN, AMERICAN BISHOPS ARE NEXT

Those who are sending in requests to Secretary Byrnes, asking that he bring pressure to relieve Archbishop Stepinac of Communist persecution should realize that in spite of the reception the Secretary gives the letters, Byrnes is tied.

Byrnes has been powerless to remove the hundreds of Reds from the State Department, including the leaders. While Byrnes is away, the Reds run the Department to suit Stalin's world-wide sales force. Before the State Department can sincerely exert its influence in Yugoslavia it must clean the Red Fascists out of its own house.

Gustave Duran recently resigned from our State Department after Argentina published a picture of him wearing a Spanish officer's uniform bearing the hammer and sickle. (Too bad they don't have a picture of Spruille Braden and Undersecretary Dean Acheson).

And what of the men in this Department who are against Communism? Former Undersecretary Grew and Ambassador Patrick Hurley were forced out because they were Anti-Communist.

So we see how in vain are the efforts of our people on behalf of Archbishop Stepinac. In this government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" the people are no longer heeded by their elected servants. Indeed the United States of America cannot hope to have any influence on Foreign affairs when its domestic affairs are in such a state of confusion.

BIT OF THIS & THAT

By David Goldstein, LL. D.

TRYGVE LIE is a Socialist who will bear watching on account of his sympathy for the Soviet regime, to whose delegates he owes his five year top job in the United Nations. General Secretary Lie expressed his fear to the General Assembly (Oct. 24) that "so long as the Franco regime remains in Spain, it will remain a constant cause of mistrust between the founders of the United Nations." The Spanish press rightly called this "one more Communist maneuver." Fear usually follows from ignorance, and of this Lie is not guilty. He well knows that there is but one "cause of mistrust between the founders of the United Nations," and it is not Franco. It is the man Trygve Lie conferred with in the Kremlin not long before "the attention of the General Assembly was called to the Spanish question." The Franco regime cannot be considered ideal by any lover of democracy. Yet its displacement by the so-called "Republicans," who, with the Communists, seek its overthrow, would inaugurate a reign of terror such as caused the Franco revolt, if not worse.

PAN SLAVISM seems to have taken the place of the Communist International as an out-in-the-open endeavor to further Stalinism. It was no longer necessary to have a Communist International made up of representatives of all nations, with a secretariat in Moscow, as its work of undermining "capitalist nations" is being carried on by Russian Firsters in all the lands they inhabit.

PAN-SLAVISM, long in the blood of the people of Eastern nations, has extended its threat to our western hemisphere. An American Slav Congress was formed "in response to the All-Slav Committee in Moscow," as the Daily Worker informed us (April 1943). Its anti-American meeting in Madison Square Garden (Sept. 22), at which ambassadors to Poland and Yugoslavia, aided by Secretary Wallace, Louis Adamic, the Vice-President of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union (Pres. of the A.S.C.), and others, had the effrontery, after reading Stalin's cabled greetings, to advocate Soviet foreign policies, and to hiss the name of our American Secretary of State. It is easy to imagine what would have happened to such a gathering in Moscow, if they dared to advocate our American foreign policies, and to hiss the name of Molotov.

THE EDITORS, writers and commentators, who wrote about this propaganda meeting in our daily papers and magazines, seemed to be unaware of the fact that Stalin's Pan-Slavism is Czarist and not Marxist. It was condemned by Karl Marx in 1855, during the Crimean War, for reasons that warrant its condemnation in 1946. One needs only to substitute the name of Generalissimo

Special subscription rate to business concerns or other organizations who wish to place subscriptions for a large group.

Stalin for Czar Alexander II, and increase the number of soldiers from 800,000 to 8,000,000, or more, in the N. Y. Tribune statement of Marx against Pan-Slavism, to see its present-day application. After warning the world that if Austria lines up with the West, "Alexander II will place himself at the head of the Pan-Slavist movement and change the title of Emperor of all the Russians into that of Emperor of all the Slavonians," Marx said: "Pan-Slavism is not a movement which merely strives after national independence; it is a movement which, thus acting upon Europe, would tend to undo what a thousand years of history have created; which could not realize itself without sweeping from the map Hungary, Turkey, and a large part of Germany. Moreover it must subjugate Europe in order to secure the stability of these results, if they are ever obtained. Pan-Slavism is now, from a creed, turned into a political menace, with 800,000 bayonets to support it."

COMMUNISM IN ACTION

THE O. P. A.

With the budget unbalanced
And the deficit growing,
With a veritable flood
Of new money outflowing,
We were told, in a tone
Both positive and knowing,
That O.P.A. would keep prices down.

Porter promised us glibly
That a way would be found
To push prices downward,
Yet make meat abound,
Result --- no fifty-cent
Beef or pork ground,
But plenty of turkey
At a dollar a pound.
That's how it kept prices down.

Yes, it stripped us of meat,
And it stripped us of soap,
But furnished us plenty of Untrustworthy dope.
Thank heaven, 'twas given
An abundance of rope,
Not long will it keep prices down.

When Truman, at last,
Let meat ceilings go,
Meat shortages faded
Like late spring-time snow
And black-market prices
Were dealt a great blow
He found how to bring prices down.

But sugar and housing
Still are tightly controlled
Hence both remain scarcer
Than silver or gold.
But O.P.A., dying,
Will loosen its hold,
Then houses and sweets will abound.

When the price tyrant passes,
No tears will be shed;
But we'll remember his blunders
Long after he's dead.
Let's make sure that it never Again can be said
That O.P.A. can trample us down.

—Willford I. King.

WILL WE NEED LAWYERS ?

A cheerful thought for lawyers in the United States who are too busy to look into Communism:

When the Russians took over Poland and the half of Germany they now occupy, they killed all the lawyers.

They don't need lawyers at their trials!

CONSTITUTION AND U. S. FLAG GO SIDE BY SIDE

By The Observer

How many Reds and Communists in the Administration should be thrown out of office --- hundreds of them, including some in Congress. And many should be put in the pen for sabotaging and almost bankrupting our country in their efforts to turn America over to Stalin.

When a citizen attaches himself to a public payroll, including officers in the Army and Navy, he takes an oath to: "support and defend the Constitution of the United States . . ." - Not the Administration. The Administration is not the Government --- not yet. The penalty which the Constitution provides for violation of that oath in the least particular is removal from office.

Violation of the oath to support the Constitution is disloyalty to the flag and therefore to the American people of the most dangerous kind, because it is the disloyalty of those who have sought and accepted a trust. Flag and Constitution have travelled side by side. They will stay up or go down together.

FOSTER SAYS RED ARMY WILL STAND BEHIND COMMUNIST CONTROL OF THIS COUNTRY

William Z. Foster, present head of the Communist Party U. S. A., has publicly declared:

"Our Party . . . creates no illusions amongst the workers that they can vote their way to emancipation . . . The working class must shatter the capitalist state. It must build a new state, a new Government, a workers' and farmers' Government, the Soviet Government in the United States --- and that day will come just as surely as the sun rises --- and that Government will not be a capitalist Government but a Soviet Government, and behind that Government will stand the Red Army to enforce the dictatorship of the proletariat. (Cong. Rec: Vol.75, p.2464; MDR. p.76)

" . . . to develop a revolutionary American political program and party, to set its feet firmly on the Marxian-Leninist path, and to lay the foundation for a revolutionary struggle that is now gradually mobilizing the . . . masses and that will one day put 'finish' to bankrupt American capitalism and establish a Soviet America." (The Communist, November, 1935, p.1057; MDR1, p.33: Am. Castle of Freedom, p.57).

GREEN WARNS VETERANS

President William Green, of the American Federation of Labor, warned the VFW encampment at Boston that Communism's menace today "looms more dangerous from within than from without". He charged that "Communist-led labor unions are seeking revolution".

WOULD AMERICANS LOVE LIBERTY MORE IF THEY LOST WHAT WE HAVE?

A Pittsburgh newspaper wrote the following concerning American Patriotism:

"Americans would love liberty more IF THEY LOST IT. Men of that unlucky generation will be glad to leave THEIR blood on some future battlefield TO WIN IT BACK.

"Why be so careless of it now, when it is ours for the mere safekeeping?

"Americans are LAZY again.

"We are raising a generation of American children by setting an example of patriotic carelessness for them.

"We are not passing the heritage of American freedom along to the oncoming generation, as it came to us, with full acceptance of the obligation for the defense that goes with it.

"If we keep this up, America will keep fighting for its liberty and perhaps LOSE IT.

"America would never have been free if it had not fought with Washington TO WIN FREEDOM.

"America would not have survived as a free nation if it had not fought with Lincoln TO PRESERVE FREEDOM.

"Our present task is infinitely easier, if we will make it so. We have not yet slept so long that we cannot arouse ourselves. Careless as we have been, we have not yet lost our liberties so irrevocably that they cannot be reclaimed.

"LAZY PATRIOTISM is a national menace we must not discount.

"Citizens who do not think it is important to protect inherited rights and liberties are DANGEROUSLY lazy.

"People who think veneration of the nation's traditions, pride in its history and confidence in its principles, are old-fashioned and backwoods are the LAZIEST KIND of patriots.

"But why should Americans, who still have these things, worry about them? Are they not ours, in perpetuity? Who is there to take them from us?

"Look across the ocean. There you will find other countries whose peoples once had the rights we now enjoy, and were careless of them.

"They do not have them now.

"They cannot worship God as they please, or speak according to conscience, or participate in the affairs of their own governments.

"These people can give Americans the answer to the question of what CAN happen to a nation that grows indifferent toward liberty, and refuses to fight to preserve it."

A LITERARY GEM

Langston Hughes of the Political Action Committee and a writer for "Daily Worker", gives us a Communist literary gem:

"GOODBY CHRIST:

"Listen, Christ. You did all right in your day, I reckon
But that day is gone now.
They ghosted you up a swell story, too,
Call it Bible, but it is dead now.
The popes and the preachers have made too much money from it;
You ain't no good no more; they've pawned you
Till you done worn out.

Goodby, Christ Jesus, Lord God Jehovah,
Beat it away from here now,
Make way for a new guy with no religion
at all,
A real guy named Marx, communist; Lenin, peasant; Stalin, worker; ME.
Go ahead on now and step on the gas, Christ.
The world is mine from now on; move,
don't be slow about movin',
And nobody's goin' to sell me to a king or a general or a millionaire."

Here you have Anti-Christ.

What kind of people are we, that Christ-haters are allowed to grow rich in the U. S.?

UNRRA GOODS GO TO MR. STALIN AND TITO

American Women's Volunteers Service workers who have spent many months service in Europe report upon their return that 30 per cent of UNRRA supplies to Yugoslavia go to Marshal Tito's Communists and 70 per cent go to the Russians.

UNRRA was set up to function this way by the Herbert Lehman regime, and LaGuardia was carefully picked to continue the work and not expose the arrangements for camouflaged support of Communism in Europe and Russia.

Criticism of Communist agents by English General Morgan brought about the removal by LaGuardia of this general from his post in UNRRA.

When will America wake up as - - - and where Communism is being almost entirely financed by America through many camouflaged agencies. In addition to our financing UNRRA, we sell them millions of dollars worth of army supplies for almost nothing.

ALONG WITH TRUTH, ZEAL IS NEEDED

We have no advertising to support the paper, no advertisers to tell us what we can and cannot print. Hence you get the unvarnished truth in THINK WEEKLY. And never was the truth needed as it is today.

But because of the absence of the financial support of advertising, we are forced to take a loss each week. And we now ask our friends to help us take care of this loss.

Each week up to this time we have been sending free papers to more than seven hundred people for distribution in many states. We depend solely upon subscriptions and small donations. If people with real money would back us we could increase our effectiveness three fold.

We welcome investigation and will gladly call to see anyone who is interested and is willing to back us.

Get behind us in this fight. Again we repeat --- Never was the truth needed as it is today.

WE HAVE THE TRUTH, BUT WE NEED YOUR ZEAL.

SHORTAGE OF PAPER CAUSES TEMPORARY REDUCTION IN SIZE OF THINK WEEKLY

The acute shortage of newsprint paper, being felt by publishers generally, (with the probable exception of PM and the Daily Worker) is the reason for the temporary reduction in size of THINK WEEKLY.

By using a comparatively smaller face of type, we are able to maintain the volume of reading matter and at the same time reach as many readers as usual.

We hope to resume our former size and format at an early date.

has been identified with Communism for many years in New York City, --- just the man to please Stalin.

After Samuel Lubin figured out the Morgenthau Plan for Morgenthau and Felix Frankfurter to push through, they had to be careful to get good men to see this starvation plan carried out. Colonel Bernard Bernstein, chief of Military Government Financial Division of Germany, works wholeheartedly for this plan. Now General Lucius Clay, on advice of Max Lowenthal, says Germans will be re-denazified --- some of those who were tried and sentenced to five years are to be resented to twenty years. What a wonderful court! The sentences are passed before the people are tried! And those who are not imprisoned are restricted to laboring jobs, regardless of their previous employment.

To realize the extent to which this plan is being carried out, consider that all the Oberammergau players, who patterned their lives as nearly as possible after the lives of the religious souls whom they portrayed in the Passion Play, have been in prison for some time and it has been officially stated that it will require ten years to de-nazify them. Here we see at work Stalin's system of education for religious people.

At the same time we read a humbug item in most of our papers last week of a Mr. Bauer, an American citizen in Germany, who is to be elected Mayor of Hamburg. He says he is so interested in helping to rebuild Germany he is giving up his U. S. citizenship. What he failed to tell us is that he was a Communist here in the U. S., like Oscar Lange, now Ambassador from Moscow-dominated Poland, who taught at the Chicago University (Red Incubator) and gave up his U. S. citizenship to work for Stalin. United States citizenship evidently means nothing when Stalin wants a job done.

Our Information Control Division, as well as our State Department, is saturated with Reds. Dana, the only News agency in the American Zone, is licensed to and operated by a Committee of Communists, headed by Dr. Rudolf Agricola, who is a Communist publisher of Heidelberg. This Communist Committee had been given the powerful radio transmitter of Frankfurt, since destroyed by fire, and they are now broadcasting news from Hamburg. News over this Communist station is broadcast to forty-two German newspapers in Berlin and the American Zone.

So we see the New Deal Administration has been busy not only building up Red Fascism here in the U. S., but also using the taxpayers' money to set up Communism in the American Zone of Germany. With Russia steadily liquidating everyone who will not accept Red Fascism in her half of Germany, we can expect at least these two zones to join under the Hammer and Sickle.

Those who wish to see what policy we are to carry out in Germany may do so by reading PM, the ultra Red paper in New York, which features LaGuardia and Max Lerner. Our State Department has followed the PM line completely.

It is plain to see why Stalin called so loudly for a second front while Germany had Communism bottled up in Russia. Now it is on the loose and Stalin smiles when he thinks of the eleven billion dollars lend lease he used to finance the Communist march over Europe. We paid in advance for Red Fascism in Europe. When Germany, in a similar but more serious position than is the U. S. today, realized she would soon be at war and the large number of Communists within her borders would revolt against her, had these Reds locked up but many escaped to Russia to be sent back by Stalin as soon as Germany collapsed.

The two Red Fascist leaders now giving orders for Stalin in Germany are famous as heartless butchers, Wilhelm Pieck and Walter Ulbricht. Pieck gained confidence with the Kremlin by sacrificing his friends of long standing to be liquidated. He now lives in a mansion near Berlin. Ulbricht worked his way to the top by atrocities in Spain with Josef Broz (Marshal Tito).

Those who were in touch with the Communist revolution put down by General Franco will remember the Santa Ursula Convent in Valencia, which was used by the Reds after they had killed the Sisters. Boxes were built along the walls and were used to obtain confessions from enemies of Communism. The OGPU, under Ulbricht, placed hundreds in these boxes for days, where they could neither stand nor sit down.

Such are the madmen who now rule Germany, thanks to our cooperation. This is the kind of sadists Trygve Lie, Secretary General of U.N. and Stalin's errand boy, demands be turned into Spain again to start World War III.

Is it time for people to think or is it too late??? The same Red crowd of PM followers who are pushing the "Make Germany Communist" plan are trying to force Morgenthau starvation and slavery on Germany.

The book GERMANY MUST PERISH, by Theodore N. Kaufman, illustrates the working of a plan similar to the Morgenthau plan. Let us quote part of the author's commentary: "This dynamic volume outlines a comprehensive plan for the extinction of the German nation and the total eradication from the earth, of all her people." In his book, Mr. Kaufman advocates a plan of German extinction by the sterilization of some 48,000,000 people, male and female, this being the approximate number now capable of procreation. Mr. Kaufman believes this plan could be carried out effectively within a period of three years or less, considering the number of surgeons available in the many nations which would participate in the plan. After the sterilization of the male and female population, there would of course be no births in Germany. The normal death rate is two percent a year --- is there more to be said?!!

The New Deal Administration blackout of news from Germany is almost as complete as Russia's Iron Curtain around the countries she occupies. This brazen crowd in the U. S. is today backing Russia and branding as Fascists all who oppose Communism in America. They try to keep our minds on Hitler, who is dead and harmless, and thus off Stalin, who is very much alive and definitely harmful.

be disturbed. My talk with him, which lasted about fifteen minutes, brought no results for those whose worthy cause I had gone to defend. What I had in mind was not only the appalling and crying need of help for the destitute Russians but the intentions of the American contributors to the formidable campaign launched by the American Red Cross. Instead, Mr. Hubble took pride in telling me that he had just given a 28-cover dinner party precisely at a time when food was scarce and worthy Russians were dying of malnutrition. He added he was about to install himself in a new house which he ultimately occupied.

"If, as Mr. Powers' denial says, Red Cross Headquarters in Washington never received word from their representative in Russia or anybody else who succeeded him, that supplies were not going to those for whom they were intended, then who is to blame for this outrageous scandal, and what about the inspection tours so ably conducted with roast chicken, caviar and vodka?"

"On April 12 of this year an Associated Press news item from Moscow announced that: "The Soviet Union will have received $27,000,000 worth of medical supplies and hospital equipment in contributions from the American Red Cross by the end of 1946, according to Elliott W. Shirk, director of Red Cross activities in Russia. Approximately 50 per cent of the donations consists of clothes, bedding and household supplies for orphanages, invalid homes and destitute individuals in war-ravaged areas, said Mr. Shirk."

"During the siege of Moscow I once visited a former well-to-do family whose father had been arrested by the G.P.U. at the age of 72 and arbitrarily condemned to ten years in a concentration camp on political grounds. The poor mother, in an effort of extreme traditional Russian hospitality, brought out of a hiding place a tin of A.R.A. hardtack which she had been storing away for an extraordinary occasion. We feasted on that and some boiled water with some leaves thrown in called tea for the occasion. This venerable lady asked, as many had done before her, what the American Red Cross was doing in the capital. Again I was ashamed of being an American. A short time after this I was again in this home, standing by the dead frozen body of this very same lady, who had died of starvation. A few weeks later it was her son's turn and I recited the burial service over these two bodies in a room which registered several degrees below zero Centigrade."

TO RELEASE F.B.I. FROM JUSTICE DEPT.

NATIONALISM by Samuel B. Pettengill

The word "nationalism" is now being associated with group hate, religious hate, race hate and class hate.

What does "nationalism" mean? I turn to Webster's Unabridged. It defines nationalism as "devotion to, or advocacy of, national interests, or national unity and independence".

Then I turn to the word "patriotism". It is "devotion to the welfare of one's country; the passion inspiring one to serve one's country".

Mighty little difference, so far as I can see, between "nationalism" and "patriotism".

But the effort is under way to smear the word "nationalism". When, and if that succeeds, we can expect the word "patriotism" to be next. And after that, the word "American".

Let this go on, and the time will come when it will be "unpatriotic" to be a patriot — un-American to be an American! You will have to abandon your love for America and its institutions, and embrace, with equal joy, an amorphous mass of two and a half billion people, speaking a thousand tongues and worshipping a hundred gods.

The rules call for placing the Stars and Stripes at the highest point of the flagstaff. According to this new teaching, you will have to quit that! The oath of allegiance to this nation taken by a naturalized immigrant has a mistake in it! The correctors of the "mistake", which is America, are at work. They are bearing false witness against an honorable word. Soon the lips of school children will be hushed when they are about to utter it.

"My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing." Pipe down, you nationalist! Hush your song!

Tear down the Statue of Liberty in the harbor of New York! Obliterate the carved figures in the Black Hills of Dakota of Washington, Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt! These men built a nation. They were nationalists! Let their names be forgotten!

I protest! No spreader of race or class hatred has any right to distort "nationalism" from its true meaning to their foul purposes. And equally so, no one who loves all countries but his own.

"I pledge allegiance to the FLAG of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands;

"One Nation, indivisible, with liberty and Justice for all."

What is wrong with that?

This nation. Was there ever another so tolerant of every faith and every race? So generous to distressed peoples of every land? That has done so much for peace, friendship, and commerce with every continent? That has poured out more blood and treasure to end wars which it did not start?

What is the subtle aim of those who would make Americans blush for their country?

Is it to cause us to abandon the control of our own affairs and surrender our sovereignty to a world government? Is it to break down the barriers to the spread of world communism?

I close with President Truman's Armistice Day words: "Only by the exercise of wisdom and restraint, and the constant determination to place the interests of our country above all other interests can we solve the problems before us."

REP. WOOD TO SPONSOR MOVE; URGES IMPRISONMENT OF RED AGENTS; CHANGE IN CONSTITUTION PROBABLE TO THWART SUPREME COURT TOLERANCE OF TREASON; NEXT WAR TO BE BETWEEN CIVILIANS

(By Upton Close)

Representative John S. Wood, fighting Democrat who is chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, in Hollywood to institute investigation, which will continue in January, will favor removal of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from the Justice Department when the 80th Congress convenes.

It has long been known that both the FBI and the Wood Committee have been virtually helpless against the growing Red underground because the Justice Department was not inclined to take legal action. Of course, if Burton K. Wheeler should soon become Attorney General, as I think he might, there would be no especial need for setting the FBI free of this department during his tenure. Wheeler knows a great deal about the danger which has grown lusty under the New Deal and would release the FBI to fight it.

Chairman Wood shares the opinion of many another member of Congress that we have no longer any alternative but to begin imprisoning Red agents. He expressed doubt that our present laws are adequate, in view of several rulings by the Supreme Court in recent years, and thinks a constitutional amendment may be necessary. Under (continued on page 2, col. 1) present laws, as interpreted by Supreme Court decisions, it would be impossible to convict the most revolutionary agent unless caught in some overt act, such as sabotage.

Civilians May Fight Next War.

Communist leaders understand fully this paralysis — as why shouldn't they when it was their own friends who brought it about? Sabotage need not be expected in isolated instances. Communism is too well organized and too smart to scatter its fire. The Red underground is planning, through its military arm, for the next serious depression or world crisis, when Americans again can — they hope — be regimented in the manner of 1932. If Russia is ready at that time, the American Fifth Column will strike secretly and suddenly from coast to coast.

Chairman Wood did not hesitate to say he expected the next war to be fought by civilians and against civilians — unless we manage to clean out the Fifth Column in time. He foresees industrial sabotage by strikes and by planted bombs, timed to detonate at a pre-determined hour. It will be no trick to smuggle A-bombs from Soviet Russia across our borders, which are so wide open that, by Attorney General Clark's own admission, 2000 aliens are crossing daily into the United States.

The Army has a poison so powerful that an ounce will kill a million people if properly distributed. A small squad of Reds, strategically placed as employees of the New York City Water system, could conceivably introduce quantities of this poison into the city's veins and in a few hours the skyscrapers of this mightiest center of shipping, communication, finance and industry, would stand empty and silent, no more than tombstones commemorating a city too tolerant to protect itself.

Who is Guilty of Sedition?

"No American wants to sacrifice one word of the Bill of Rights, which guarantees freedom of speech and freedom 'peaceably to assemble.'"

But the distinction between freedom and the freedom to incite revolution must be understood. Webster's dictionary defines sedition as "an insurrection against constituted authority," "conduct tending to treason but without an overt act."

Any court of justice can determine whether or not a defendant is guilty of conduct tending to treason; the innocent American, who simply airs a political opinion but does not promote or incite revolution, will not suffer.

Our present laws are adequate to handle the situation, but the Supreme Court has shown either a naive lack of understanding of the aims of Communism, or has itself accepted the concept of a dual loyalty. In a case about 1943 the Supreme Tribunal ruled that a refugee had not violated his allegiance to Old Glory by championing Communism. Apparently that Great Tribunal thinks the best thing for America is to become Communist, to accept allegiance to the Third International. Only by such false logic — the false logic of many of our native-born Communists — could the court close its eyes to the fact that allegiance to an outside power is "conduct tending to treason."

COMMUNISM CREEPS UP BECAUSE WE ARE TIMID

The Communist International in 1921 declared "Unions of transport workers ought to play an important part in the sabotage of capitalistic government and the eventual overthrow of so-called democratic government".

In 1917, in the fateful months while Russia was struggling toward freedom under Kerensky and a parliament (Duma) representative of all groups, Lenin and Trotsky came to St. Petersburg to engineer the revolution which overthrew the parliamentary government and established the Red dictatorship. An American newspaper correspondent met Lenin in the streets of St. Petersburg and asked, "How can you operate openly here under the eyes of the Kerensky government when everyone knows you are trying to destroy it and establish your rule?" Lenin answered:

"We have organized the transport workers, public utilities, banks, and some of the major industries. We can call a general strike whenever we wish. Kerensky knows this, and we have told him if he touches one of our men or me, an immediate general strike will follow."

The Red revolutionists had spent years in building a tightly organized position. The Kerensky government either believed it "couldn't happen there," or was powerless or too timid to deal with the menace. Thus Russia's struggle for democratic, parliamentary freedom was cut short and the Red dictatorship, which now threatens the peace of the world, was established.

LOW LEVEL OF BESTIALITY IS SHOWN BY 'COMMIES'

It is difficult for the average American to understand how thousands of humans could descend to the level of bestiality which has been reached by Godless members of the Red Army. These apemen, who, during the past year and a half, have been turned loose on the womanhood of eleven European countries to rape, rob, and murder, are the products of many years of Communist regulation of religion, education, and family life.

The following decree, published in a Russian town, illustrates this "regulation", which, the Communists tell us, is for the betterment and greater happiness of their people:

"In compliance with the decision of the Soviet Peasant, Soldiers and Workmen Deputies of the Kronstadt, the private possession of women is abolished.

"Social inequalities and legitimate marriage having been a condition in the past which served as an instrument in the hands of the bourgeoisie, thanks to which all the best species of the beautiful have been the property of the bourgeoisie, who have prevented the continuation of the human race. Such ponderous arguments have induced the organization to edit the following decrees:

"1. From March, 1918, the right to possess women having reached the age of 17 and not more than 32 is abolished.

"3. The decree does not affect women having five children.

"4. The former owners may retain the right of using their wives without waiting for their turn.

"5. In case the husbands resisting, they shall forfeit the rights given them in the last paragraph.

"6. All women from this decree are exempted from private ownership and proclaimed to be the property of the whole nation.

"14. All women proclaimed by the decree to be national property will receive from the funds an allowance of 238 rubles a month.

"15. All women who become pregnant are released from direct duties for four months before and one month after childbirth.

"16. Children born are given to an institution for training until they are 17 years old at the cost of the Public Funds.

"(Signed) Council of the City of Saratov."

BIT OF THIS & THAT

By David Goldstein, LL. D.

FRENCH ELECTIONS: The revolt of about a hundred Socialists in the British Parliament against Ernest Bevin's anti-Communist foreign policy; and the increased Communist vote in the recent French election at the expense of the Socialist vote, warrants the fear that the Socialists of Britain and of France, and in other parts of Europe, are heeding Laski's admonition that the Socialists unite with the Communists, as "their identities are more than their differences."

THE TENDENCY of many Socialists to move towards union with the Communists was seen last August at the French Socialist Congress where Leon Blum, who edges more toward the M. P. R. (Christian Democrats) than the Communists, was deprived of his leadership and the editorship of La Populaire, the Socialist daily. The last French election shows that what Francisque Gay, the senior leader of the M. P. R., said to Maurice Thorez, the Communist leader, is coming to pass:—"You and me, my friend, we shall eat the Socialist cake together. But you are wrong in thinking you'll get the bigger bite. We of the M.P.R. will get it." Evidently many French citizens have forgotten or forgiven the treasonable action of the Communists who bitterly opposed resistance of France to Germany, claiming it to be "an imperialist war," until Russia was attacked, when they became intense nationalists. Otherwise how account for the increase in the number of followers of Thorez, the military deserter, the fugitive from justice, who escaped to Moscow to avoid trial for treason, until Hitler broke with Stalin.

THOSE WHO console themselves with the fact that the Communists of France received only 28 per cent of the vote cast in the last election, are evidently unaware of the fact that the Communists had only 25 per cent of the vote in the Russian election when they revolted and overthrew the Democratic Constituent Assembly in Russia. This tactic, which may be followed in France, was in accord with "The Communist Manifesto" (the Marx-Engels Credo) that declares: "The Communists disdain to conceal their views and aims. They openly declare that their aims can be attained only by the forcible overthrow of existing social conditions. Let the ruling classes tremble at a Communist revolution."

THE NUMBER of members elected to the French Chamber of Deputies during the recent elections was as follows:

	Oct. 1945	June 1946	Nov. 1946
Communists	148	146	186
M. R. P.	141	160	162
Socialists	134	115	108
Radical Socialists ..	35	39	63
Right Groups	62	62	85

BY LENIN:

"We must take hold of all the culture left behind by Capitalism and build Socialism out of it. We must take hold of all science, technique, all knowledge, art. Otherwise we shall not be able to build up the life of the Communist society".

HIGH SCHOOL PUPIL TELLS OF RED PROPAGANDA IN CLASSES IN NEW YORK

The following is taken from the Voice of the People, New York Daily News. This statement, from the mouth of a student in one of our public high schools, will confirm what we have said time and time again regarding the positions held by Communists in the public school system of these United States.

RAPS RED TEACHERS

Brooklyn: I am a student at James Madison High School, and if anybody asked what I learn there I would tell them Communism. Many of the teachers are Communists through and through. We were told to bring in a Communist paper for English. We were also told to write a composition on why we liked Russia and its ideas. What has this got to do with English? I appeal to you people who pay taxes so that we may get decent educations to protest this farce and stop it. There should be no teachers' pay increase until the New York school system is cleaned out of Communists.

American Student.

WHAT STOPS EISENHOWER FROM CLEANING OUT REDS IN OUR ARMED FORCES?

On November 18, in Passaic, N. J., Mrs. Helen Kozłowska, a deputy of Polish Parliament, and Mrs. Stanesława conducted a meeting among the Polish people — a meeting which was sponsored by The International Workers Order.

Police were called to prevent violence.

The many Polish who protested that it was a Communist meeting were correct, for the International Workers Order is a powerful Communist Front. The first head of this front was Welwel Warszower (convicted of a passport fraud), alias Robert William Wever, treasurer of the Communist Party of the United States.

In the event of war with Russia, this would be one of the most important organizations to stop industry, tie up shipping and disorganize our Army and Navy.

This organization has more than 200 thousand members and maintains schools for training members in Sabotage and revolution in more than 120 cities of the United States.

The only reason the leaders of this organization are not in the penitentiary is that our American people are so absorbed in making money they do not know that powerful men prevent the F.B.I. from going after the traitors.

These powerful men prevented the Army from going after the Reds before we entered the war—and two Chiefs of Staff were removed by F.D.R. because they insisted on cleaning up the Reds.

F.D.R. is dead, but the men who gave him his orders for 14 years still give orders in Washington today.

This organization alone, the I.W.O., has placed thousands of Communists in our Army to paralyze us when the time comes. Is Dwight D. Eisenhower asleep? If not, who prevents him from cleaning out the Reds in our American Army?

Dear Friends:

I received your copies of THINK WEEKLY a few days ago but have been so busy as yet I have not had time to read them thoroughly. But by just reading a few of the articles I can already see that it is a fine paper. . . .

I will distribute the extra copies and I hope that you will receive some more subscriptions from this community in the near future.

An enclosing (in addition to subscription) an extra dollar as a little gift to help you get the paper out.

Midvale, O., Nov. 21, 1946

Dear Sirs:

I am a constant reader of THINK WEEKLY and believe in it. I am a victim of heart disease known as angina pectoris. Therefore I cannot work and can't afford to buy extra copies. But I would like to help in this and could do a lot if I had extra copies. I am willing to devote my time and efforts toward the fight against Communism. I have time that I could pass out THINK WEEKLY among the people of this community and talk with them.

Hillside, New Jersey

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a check for seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) to cover the cost of 150 papers of THINK WEEKLY. I would like to have the papers delivered to my home address before Tuesday, December 3, as I have a union meeting Wednesday evening and I would like to pass out the papers to the members.

Keep up your good work and I'll do my best to get more people to subscribe to your paper. May God bless the entire staff and help you to continue your good work.

LENIN'S FIGHT AGAINST RELIGION IS SUCCEEDING

Lenin's attitude toward religion can be seen most clearly in the programme of the Communist Party of Russia drawn up in March, 1919. Under the heading of "General Political Questions", section 13, we read:

"The fight against religion must not be limited nor reduced to abstract, ideological preaching. This struggle must be linked up with the concrete practical class movement; its aim must be to eliminate the social roots of religion. Why does religion retain its hold among the backward strata of the urban proletariat — among wide strata of the semi-proletariat and the masses of the peasantry? Because of the ignorance of the people! — answers the progressive bourgeois, the radical or bourgeois materialist. Hence — 'Down with religion!' 'Long live Atheism!' 'The dissemination of atheist views is our chief task!' " (p.14).

"A Marxist must place the success of the strike movement above all else, must definitely oppose the division of the workers in this struggle into atheists and Christians, must fight resolutely against such a division.

"In such circumstances the preaching of atheism is superfluous and harmful — not from the narrow-minded consideration of not frightening the backward elements, or of losing votes at elections, etc., but from the point of view of the actual progress of the class struggle, which, in the conditions of modern capitalist society, will convert Christian workers to Social-Democracy and to atheism a hundred times more effectively than any bald atheist sermons. To preach atheism at such a time, and in such circumstances, would only be playing into the hands of the church and the priests, who would desire nothing more than to have the workers participating in the strike movement divided in accordance with their religious beliefs."

'World Government' Means World Slavery

TWO KINDS OF ARITHMETIC

(By E. F. Hutton, an American Businessman who has the courage to "stand up and be counted" for America)

After 1776, a new kind of arithmetic provided the basis and foundation of American thinking. It was simple arithmetic — it posed the problem this way: Make more and more goods for less and less cost so that more and more people can buy them. It clearly recognized the goose that lays the golden egg, so it centered effort on cutting costs — making more — Selling for less — to more people. It was not long before the world took notice of this simple arithmetic and people flocked to our shores to take part in the great American adventure.

Along about 1932, out pops a different kind of arithmetic — collectivism. It posed the problem this way: "spend two or three times your income" — even if you have to borrow the money to do so — "spend and spend, tax and tax".

Let America examine these two kinds of arithmetic — the 1776 brand which recognized and preserved the goose which lays the golden egg or the 1932-1945 arithmetic which says "to heck with the eggs — eat the goose".

GOVERNMENT HAS NOTHING

Tax money constitutes all government income — all it spends must come from taxes, either today or tomorrow. Borrowing merely postpones. So if they are spending more than they take in from taxes, it does not worry the collectivists. They rely in the simple expedient of printing bonds and selling them to the people — it is all done on paper. But the paper part of government income merely postpones, and if it does not stop it shifts the burden from you to your children's children. So the collectivists do all the collecting. You don't.

They say "use your outmoded American Arithmetic to produce more wealth — we need it — so as to tax it away from those who produce it — to pay the interest on the bonds we sell to those who take them, so that we can continue to spend two or three times our income."

ATTACK ON COLUMBIANS SIMILAR TO EFFORT FOR INTERVENTION IN SPAIN

We do not know anything about The Columbians in Atlanta, Georgia, but we do know plenty about the Red crowd that is making such a big noise against The Columbians.

The Anti - Nazi, Non - Sectarian League, which is using Russian G.P.U. methods on the Columbians, is one thousand times more dangerous to America than the group in Atlanta.

Where did this organization of Russia Worshippers get the authority to act as secret police?

This is part of the Russia-First crowd that is continually drawing the public's attention to the Ku Klux Klan, demanding they be outlawed in an effort to keep our attention on the Klan and off their Communist activity.

The same strategy is being used to keep our attention on Spain and off Poland and ten other European countries where Red Fascists rule by murder, rape, and robbery.

Citizens in Spain have ten times more freedom than Polish or Russian citizens. Still, the United Nations is so completely dominated by Communists that our Red-dominated administration does not dare mention this fact while the United Nations is in session in New York (America's Moscow).

'AMERICAN' VETERANS GROUP, UNITED NATIONS, 'ROY CARLSON' AND WALTER WINCHELL TOOLS OF INSIDIOUS OPPORTUNISTS SEEKING POWER OVER ALL PEOPLES MADE POSSIBLE BY GULLIBILITY OF MR. CHURCHILL AND F.D.R.

In our September 1 issue we challenged the American Veterans Committee to clean out the Communist elements within their ranks so that they could honestly offer prospective members an opportunity to join a real American organization.

We presented some very important facts regarding their activities and associations, such as close cooperation with "In Fact," edited by George Selles, which paper constantly smears the American Legion and many outstanding patriots, but always manages to find praise for the American Veterans Committee and Communist Fronts and movements. We pointed out the close association of this so-called veterans' organization with Communist Fronts and their hostility to men who were combatting Communism. We have written proof in our possession.

Since September 1, there has been considerable agitation by some A.V.C. members to check the growth of Communism in their organization. In view of this, it was hoped that the election of officers last month would weaken the position of Communism in the A.V.C.

We are familiar with the recent anti-Communist statement published by the American Veterans Committee, which was no doubt forced by the anti-Communist group within the organization. But, in spite of this "lip service", their actions, judging from what we can hear and see, has not become more American, but less.

The President . . . and therefore the "chosen one" of the group . . . Charles Guy Bolte, in a review of the book "The Plotters" for the New York Times, says: "If anybody is passing out Americanism awards this year, here's one vote for John Roy Carlson" — the author of this book.

Page after page could be written on the subject of John Roy Carlson, although he is certainly not worth the amount of time and effort that would be involved. But, so that you may be able to identify this "noble character" who has been nominated for an Americanism award by the President of the American Veterans Committee, we would present these facts. The name, John Roy Carlson, is one of nine aliases used by this human scavenger who has been twice convicted, in court, of libel. In "Carlson's" latest court case in Chicago, in connection with his book of smear and lies, "Under Cover", Federal Judge Barnes made the following statement, which is in direct contrast to the complimentary statement of Mr. Bolte:

"The book is over five hundred pages of twaddle, just twaddle, with a few outrageous charges wholly unfounded. I think the book was written by a wholly irresponsible person who was willing to say anything for money. I wouldn't believe him on oath now, or at any time hereafter. I think that book was published by a publisher who was willing to publish anything for money . . . I don't think they made an adequate investigation of the author of that book. If they had, they would not publish it unless they cared more for the almighty dollar than they cared for human decency. So I say that had I been trying this case, there would have been substantial damages assessed against this defendant, because I think he is guilty — as guilty as any person who's ever been in this court."

Incidentally, Walter Winchell is awaiting trial for selling this book of smears and lies.

Now comes "The Plotters," smearing all who combat Communism as Fascists. This book is approved and backed by the Anti-Defamation League, pushed by Walter Winchell and advertised in PM.

To get back to the A.V.C., although we realize there are many good, well-meaning men who belong to the Committee, from the many facts we have been able to gather, we would suggest that this organization should now leave the word "American" out of its name!

On December 12, Charles G. Bolte talked on the Atomic Bomb at George Inness High School in Montclair, N. J. The writer, in the company of three other gentlemen, attended the meeting. We were jolted into the realization that our American form of government is in more immediate danger than we had believed possible.

Bolte proceeded to follow the Atomic Bomb problem with the help of written material obviously prepared by someone far more informed than he. Bolte made it very plain that the Atomic Bomb is such a terrible menace to all humanity that there is only one way to escape complete annihilation. That solution, according to Mr. Bolte, is World Government. Mr. Bolte stated that this was only the second time the A.V.C. had defined their position in this matter. A few nights previous in New York they had announced that their board had gone on record in favor of World Government.

The important points he made were that there must be a World Police Force; A World Supreme Court; that the World Government must have complete control of every citizen of the world for the "protection of these citizens against Atomic Bombs. Otherwise an inspection system would have to be set up to regularly examine every package in stores and homes all over the world to watch for Atomic Bombs.

The question was asked from the floor, "You are educating us here in Montclair, N. J., to the need of World Government. What is being done to educate the people in Podunk, Oklahoma, and all over the world?" Bolte's answer was to the effect that most of the world is not in a position to resist and that authorities held that the United States could be "converted" to the idea within a very short time, by means of effective propaganda, at a cost of twenty-five million dollars. He did not say whether the A.V.C. is receiving part of the twenty-five million.

One other questioner was informed that the A.V.C. has one-hundred thousand members and is drawing eight-thousand new ones each month.

It had been understood that the A.V.C. was having serious financial difficulties. Now we see them selling the World Government, which is backed by plenty of money. We trust A.V.C.'s difficulties are solved.

So, fellow Americans, you have lived to see the day that a so-called American veterans' organization is out to replace our American Form of Government so that you will no longer be a citizen of the United States, but an insignificant, unimportant, and voiceless member of a World Government. Space will not permit us to give you now the names of the main backers of World Government; later, when we have a larger paper, we will do so, and you will find most of these names associated with International Communism.

Like the general who has two plans of attack and uses one to force his enemy into submission to the other, these international Reds, who have been quietly pushing Communism, now come out in the open and use the Atomic Bomb to scare us into World Government. The United Nations is developing the preliminary framework or temporary organization to be handed over to the World Government.

The exact same crowd told us Hitler would come three thousand miles across the ocean to conquer us if we did not bankrupt ourselves and crush Germany. Their ulterior motive in defeating Germany, which they "neglected" to tell us, was the release of Communism and its unopposed spread throughout Europe.

Germany is defeated and Britain is weak and trembling before the onrush of atheistic Communism. This mad and hungry beast is running wild over the world . . . we are powerless to defend ourselves because the people "will not believe" until they see his fangs dripping with blood.

Winston Churchill realizes the horror that he helped bring into power. He and F.D.R. fell for the same crowd that is now trying to frighten us into abandoning America in favor of World Slavery. This "scare" routine should be a familiar pattern to Mr. Churchill, for didn't he tell Mr. Roosevelt at the Atlantic Conference to "scare the hell out of them"? Then we had Pearl Harbor!! Now they are to "scare hell" out of us with the atomic bomb.

Mr. Churchill has learned a great deal to his sorrow. We believe he would gladly pledge his country to fifty billion dollars . . . to keep Great Britain great . . . and to put things back together again as they were before the betrayal of the free peoples of the world. But all the King's horses and the comparatively few living anti-Communists cannot "put things back together again" and cannot stop the mighty hand of Stalin. No — no power on earth can put things back together again.

Would you like to know who we believe will be the first president, the first head of the Supreme Court, and the first treasurer of "World Government"? We will tell you in a later issue of THINK WEEKLY.

BIT OF THIS & THAT

By David Goldstein, LL. D.

TRADE UNIONS: The Communist danger in France, Italy, and the Latin American countries centers not so much in the increase in the number of votes that Communist candidates for public office received in recent elections as in Communist control of the trade unions in these countries. It is by virtue of control of the unions that the labor influence of the Communists is established, and the number of their votes thereby increased.

A. F. of L. AND C. I. O.—: Fear of Communist control of the trade unions in our country would not trouble students of the labor situation if the issue depended upon the American Federation of Labor. Its record of unequivocal opposition to Communist activity in the unions, and the Soviet Union foreign policy, noted in this column (Aug. 31, 1946), is admirable. Too bad we cannot bestow the same praise upon the C.I.O. Its president, Philip Murray, would no doubt like to deal with the Communists in his organization in the same manner. Evidently he fears to do so, as such straightforward action would be likely to split the C.I.O., as it ought to be split now, instead of when Communist influence therein is likely to have increased. What, save timidity, can account for his appointment of three Communists on the committee of six, to pass upon the Communism within the organization? What other reason can there be, save timidity, for President Murray's request that the weasel-worded resolution, reported by the Committee, be accepted by the delegates without debate or the presentation of counter-acting amendments? If the time comes when the C.I.O. stands up in its boots, as did the A. F. of L., and meets the Communists head on, the Daily Worker will not gloat over the action of the C. I. O. as it did over the appeasing resolution adopted in Atlantic City a few weeks ago.

HOW MORGENTHAU PLAN IS WORKING IN WUERZBERG

We have seen a letter from Wuerzburg, Germany. An educated, cultured lady writes that this city of churches and universities (no factories) was more than half destroyed by bombs during the war.

This lady lives with fourteen other women in one room. Only one or two may go on the street at a time due to lack of clothes. Each day they are loaned a pot, which must be returned in two hours, to cook what little they are able to secure under the Morgenthau starvation plan.

This plan is being enforced by hand-picked civilian Communists sent from Washington. The Communist manipulators of the New Deal sent these Reds over to enforce Samuel Lubin's creation, the Morgenthau Plan, even though it has been repudiated by Secretary Byrnes publicly in Stuttgart, Germany, and Morgenthau taken out of the Treasury, where he dished out millions in taxpayers' money to popularize O.P.A. and other Red movements.

When will the White House be able to run without instructions from Felix Frankfurter, Samuel Rosenman, and David Niles?

BY THE OBSERVER

The War Powers Acts are nothing more than contrivances to cheat the American people and their Government. They were designed and are being operated by ambitious and crooked politicians to run the Government to suit themselves at our expense. The War Powers Acts are un-Constitutional because they are repugnant to Article 1, Section 1, and other parts of our Constitution. And, according to "U. S. Constitutional Theory" by Chief Justice Marshall, they are binding on no one. The President and the Congress have sworn and paid to know these facts and certainly to know the Constitution.

"The basis of our political system is the right of the people to make and to alter their Constitutions of government; but the Constitution which at any time exists, 'til changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people, is sacredly obligatory upon all" . . . George Washington, President of the Constitutional Convention.

KARL MARX SAID:

"Christian brotherly love has been tried for eighteen centuries and found wanting. I will found my (Communist) movement on a more dynamic force — class antagonism and the dictatorship of the proletariat."

THE PATTERN WAS NOT "MADE IN AMERICA"

The pattern of the conspiring collectivists' arithmetic is already set. It wasn't set in America. It is "Divide and Conquer" — take everything — create a new kind of state that owns everything, including your Bill of Rights and the 1776 goose which laid the golden egg. This pattern is of foreign origin. You just exchange your liberty for a tin cup to use in begging for favors from your masters. The people are to be just serfs — panhandlers.

"Be fruitful and multiply" — that Biblical injunction cannot be carried out unless we hold inviolate the 1776 arithmetic of liberty. You cannot distribute wealth until you produce it, and the minute wealth production begins, wealth distribution begins. That kills incentive capital risks — Yes, "be fruitful and multiply," but industry cannot produce as fast as government can print bonds. If this paper wealth production is not stopped, the 1776 arithmetic will find itself in the financial hopper.

LESS OR MORE?

Today America stands at the crossroads — one signboard points to the left and reads "Less and less for more and more." It points the way of the collectivist's arithmetic. The other signboard points to the right. It is set upon a foundation of the Constitution, the Bill of Rights and the Declaration of Independence. It reads "This way for more and more for everybody."

THE SING SING BOYS HAVE "SECURITY"

True security comes from liberty, freedom and equality of opportunity. It does not come with being a ward of the State. The prisoners of Alcatraz, Sing Sing and Atlanta have security, but still none of them want to stay there and, once released, none want to go back. They seek real freedom and liberty.

HOUSING FOR VETERANS COULD BE MADE POSSIBLE BY POLICING U.S. BORDERS

The American Veterans Committee in Washington this week threatened that veterans may assert "squatter's rights" to get housing, as was done in London!

If the A.V.C. is sincere in trying to provide housing for veterans, we suggest they use their influence on the present Red-dominated Administration to stop sixty thousand monthly illegal entries into the United States. These refugees (at least 95% of them Reds) report to influential organizations upon entry and receive housing — regardless of what happens to native-born Americans. And if and when unemployment hits the U.S., these refugees will receive preference while former GIs walk the streets.

But since the A.V.C. is dominated by Reds, we can hardly expect this organization to get to the bottom of the housing problem — or any other problem — since 90% of our so-called problems today are being deliberately created by the Communists to cause confusion and discontent. So, in spite of their supposedly interested and militant attitude toward the veterans housing situation, we would not look for any helpful or constructive action on the part of the American Veterans Committee.

WHO IS RIGHT ?

"Let us stand by the Constitution as it is, and by our country as it is, one united and entire, let it be a truth engraved on our hearts; let it be under the flag under which we rally in every exigency, that we have one country, one Constitution, one destiny."

—Daniel Webster

"The Constitution is a relic of the horse and buggy days."

—Franklin D. Roosevelt

COMMUNISTS

(from American Legion Bulletin, North Shore Post 21, Chicago)

Legionnaires, never speak unkindly of Communists . . . never knock them because God made them the same as He made crabs, hornets, roaches, ants, centipedes, fleas, lice, snakes, skunks and other unpleasant things. In His inscrutable wisdom He made them. Why He made them only He knows. Some day He may enlighten us . . . but up to now . . . I'll be damned if I understand.

WOULD YOU RATHER BE A DEAD ELEPHANT THAN A LIVE MOUSE?

Why do we fight in the face of the overwhelming evidence that Communism is taking over the world, including the United States?

Because we would rather be a dead American than a live slave of Stalin!

THE ONLY WAY TO SAVE THE DAY—

By Horace Carlisle

We don't promote prosperity
When we discourage thrift—
We don't by weakening the strong
Give to the weak a lift.

We've never yet helped small men up

By tearing big men down—
It does not help the poor to break
The rich in any town.

We can't keep out of trouble if
We spend all our income—
We can't secure world brotherhood
By stirring strife at home.

We can't have sound security
On money that's a loan—
We can't in men build character
If we've none of our own.

We can't give courage, yet destroy Men's independence—nor Can anything but hope for peace
Make sane men turn to war.

We can't help men by helping them
To feed from public shelves—
The only way to help men is To help them help themselves.

We predict the slogan "Remember Pearl Harbor" will not be popular with the New Dealers after the New Congress is in session!

Revolution Hinged On Election

Thousands of Trained Guerrillas Smuggled In to Fight Under Russian Army Officers; Roosevelt a Stooze for International Reds Who Bankrupted U. S. Preparatory to World Government and Russia Control of Atomic Bomb.

If the Reds had gained control of Congress in the last election, the staff of THINK WEEKLY and other outspoken opponents of Communism would have been jailed soon after the first of the year.

It is our opinion that, had they won the election, after the new Congress was installed the Kremlin, in their world strategy, would have ordered revolution in and invasion of Spain by the Red Army. At this point England would have opposed Stalin's move to communize Spain and unrest in the United States would have been met by an uprising of the Reds here.

Considering the number of Reds in the U. S., and the key positions which they hold, such an uprising would be almost impossible to quell. In addition to the home-grown Reds, there are hundreds of thousands who have been allowed to enter by shiploads during the last four years. Besides this, an average of two thousand per day — sixty thousand per month — have been smuggled into the country over the Mexican and Canadian borders. Our Justice Department admits these facts. Many of these individuals have been trained as street fighters in European countries, where they helped to gain control for Red Fascism. Many are revolutionists who slaughtered thousands and burned churches under Josef Broz (Tito) in Spain.

These aliens, syphoned in by Stalin's underground Army, are enjoying our housing, jobs, and freedom, waiting for the call from Red squad leaders who will assemble them for "work" under the two thousand Red Army officers who have been here underground for four months.

Your first thought is that as soon as the new Congress meets they will undo all this and save the United States. We do not think so.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was a servant and stooze for the same crowd which is today giving orders in Washington. Harry Truman knows and understands practically nothing about Communism; he is putty in the hands of the Red Internationalists. The presidential advisors who pushed us into bankruptcy in their strategy for World Government have the same highly-financed

SEASON'S GREETINGS

This Christmas finds us engrossed in what we believe is the most urgent work in America. We have not taken the time to send out individual greeting cards.

We know the friends of THINK WEEKLY will accept this as our season's greetings. May we thank each and every one of you for your loyal support during the past seven months of publication.

God being willing, we will carry on this important work through many more holiday seasons. We ask His blessing upon each of you, that you may be able to continue along beside us until we may all see the accomplishment of our fine purpose.

AMERICAN BROADCASTING COMPANY SPONSORS CONVICTED THIEF AS COMMENTATOR; INCREASE IN SMEARING SHOWS DESPERATION OF REDS, AIDED BY SUPREME COURT; PUBLISHER CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO DEFAME.

By Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.

In recent months the National Economic Council had reason to believe that its work for the restoration of the American Republic, and for the rooting out of communistic influences in the United States, is bearing richer fruit.

One indication is the stepping up of the smears. Ever since the Council first recognized in 1935 that the forces that tended constantly to increase government spending — all for the good of the people, of course — and constantly to increase the regimentation of the American people — likewise for their own good, of course — were Marxist forces coming straight out of Moscow: ever since we first recognized this, we have been the target of vicious smears. These smears came from outright Communists and fellow travelers; likewise from a multitude of "liberal" organizations of various kinds which, however unconsciously, have been playing the Marxists' game. Lately they have reached a new high.

For a long time we were puzzled as to the source of these smears. The last year or two we have been less puzzled. Now we think we know. We think they are neither accidental nor by coincidence. And of course the smearing of the Council and its officers is merely part of the smearing of all groups and individuals whose aims are similar to the Council's.

✓ In our last Letter we suggested to the Congress of the United States that it investigate the Anti-Defamation League. A real investigation of this outfit, and of such allied outfits as Friends of Democracy, would let in a lot of daylight on a good many things that have been going on lately.

The National Economic Council is not going to keep silent any longer. For several years it has sat relatively still when the dirtiest and ugliest smears were poured out through such publications as the Daily Worker, PM, the New York Post, and through such radio talkers as Walter Winchell, Drew Pearson, "William C. Gailmor" and others.

We have mentioned before some of the grosser incidents, but they should be recalled now.

There was the Gailmor case. Gailmor, whose real name was William Margolies, had pleaded guilty a few years ago to the theft of six automobiles. He had influence enough (what was the influence?) to get himself committed to a mental institution, and to get out on parole within a year. The influence back of him was good enough then to get him a job as a radio commentator, believe it or not — while still on parole for theft — for station WHN, and also for the American Broadcasting Company. Such people have been helping to mold American opinion!

One of our many Jewish friends told us in August 1944 that he had attended a 100% Jewish meeting in the Catskills under the auspices of the Protestant (what influence is back of The Protestant?) and that one William S. Gailmor had there told the crowd, preparatory to taking up a collection of several hundred dollars, that the previous June, at a meeting in Chicago of the Resolutions Committee of the Republican National Convention, the President of the National Economic Council had consumed a full hour in a strongly anti-Semitic speech which was applauded by the Resolutions Committee under the chairmanship of Senator Taft!

Nothing about the story was true. Members of Congress and other persons who had been present readily asserted that no speaker had uttered a single word against the Semites at that meeting, nor had any speaker been permitted more than the ten minutes rigidly fixed by the chairman. As John T. Flynn said, it was a lie out of whole cloth.

Nevertheless, for many months after that story was published, the American Broadcasting Company continued Gailmor on its program. And a prominent lecture bureau sponsored him.

Then there was the case of the B G Corporation which cancelled a $20,000 per year insurance policy because the president of the National Economic Council was a member of the insurance company's board. Mr. Hart and two insurance associates called on Mr. Lawrence Goldsmith, the B G Company's president (whose brother Arthur G. Goldsmith is active in smear organizations). Goldsmith devoted two hours to reading off a list of persons he and his associates (he did not disclose who they were) accused Mr. Hart of "knowing" and whom he did not think he should know. He finally told us in the presence of witnesses that he knew Mr. Hart's statement that he (Hart) did not know Father Coughlin (of course he had a perfect right to know him if he wanted to, though it happened he did not) and had never communicated with him was a lie, because (said Goldsmith) "we have ways of finding out about things, and I can tell you now that we have checked and rechecked and are certain that during the past two years you have telephoned Father Coughlin every day from your office in New York."

Promptly Mr. Hart called the New York Telephone Company, instructing Goldsmith to listen in on a nearby extension, which he did. Mr. Hart ascertained over the 'phone that the company kept a record of its long distance calls for a year or more, and that it could and would report how many calls had been made during that period between his office and that of Father Coughlin in Michigan. The Company agreed to send a carbon copy of its report to Lawrence Goldsmith. A week later the Telephone Company reported it had checked its records and that no call had ever been made. Nevertheless, Goldsmith persisted in his cancellation of all his insurance policies with the company in question.

We said nothing for a couple of years about this intimidation and back-room, cowardly application of force. When we published it in a Council Letter some two years ago, one of our Jewish friends called up and asked the name of the insurance company, and said he would see that enough insurance was switched to this company to offset Goldsmith's cancellation. Which he did.

Space prohibits our going further into these cases of anti-Gentile persecution applied to the National Economic Council. For it has been our observation that of genuine anti-Semitism there is very little, while anti-Gentilism is rampant. And it is conducted behind raucous cries of anti-Semitism.

In the future we are going to expose any cowardly attack upon us, whether made at the instigation of Jews, Englishmen, Russians, Patagonians or Icelanders. We are going to treat 'em all alike.

We spoke in Letter 155 of "John Roy Carlson's new book, 'The Plotters.'" This book, somewhat more guarded than the book "Under Cover" published in 1943, is similar in its smearing. It lists a good many hundred individuals, and by mentioning names together employs the new art of smear by association. Among those smeared are John T. Flynn, Samuel B. Pettingill, Frank Gannett and many others who are unassailable except by false innuendo and outright libel.

There are many references to the president of the Council. Some of them are harmless lies as, for instance, the statement on page 344 that the "Friends of Frank Fay Rally" at Madison Square Garden in January 1946 "was financed in part through Hart, but Hart wanted his role to remain under cover." Hart had nothing whatever to do with the financing, though if he had been asked to help he probably would have responded, in which case he would have been perfectly willing to have the fact made known. The meeting was one of the most successful and inspiring ever held in New York.

Carlson (whose real Armenian name is Avedis Derounian) said on page 384:

"Hart sued the Friends of Democracy for $1,000,000. for alleged injury to his 'patriotism'. He withdrew the suit on the condition that the Friends of Democracy would not publicize his action."

The condition here assigned for terminating the suit was false. The facts are that the demands of time (let alone money) for the prosecution of the suit were so great that Hart found he would either have to give up his work with the Economic Council or give up the suit; and he chose the latter. He was all the more ready to give it up in view of the decision by the Supreme Court of the United States, written by Justice Frankfurter, to the effect that to call a man a "fascist" was merely to indulge in the ordinary ve and lake of every day conversation.

As a matter of fact, when Hart's counsel told counsel for the defendants that he would discontinue the suit without costs to either side, their counsel at once said they wanted costs. Hart's counsel said, "Look here, it would not take much to persuade Hart to go on with the suit. He has a good case. You better drop it without costs." And they promptly dropped it.

Now there is nothing a publisher shies at more than publishing a book or article that he has the slightest suspicion is libelous. Yet E. P. Dutton & Co. continued to distribute "Under Cover" after being warned that it contained indefensible smears if not outright libel. Some of those libeled did bring suit. Frank C. Waldrop, editor of the Washington Times-Herald, said in that newspaper on September 28, 1946:

"At Boston, on March 9, 1945, Conrad Chapman, the distinguished historian whom Derounian had smeared without mercy, had the satisfaction of receiving in the U. S. district court and the Massachusetts district court, abject and unqualified apologies from Master Derounian. 'Under Cover' wasn't the truth after all. It was just a lie."

And George W. Robnett of Chicago got a nominal verdict in the Federal Court there against Dutton (he also has a suit pending against Derounian) which carried costs estimated at $25,000. As we reported two weeks ago, Judge Barnes, who had listened to Derounian at length, stated in open court:

"I think this book was written by a wholly irresponsible person who would write anything for a dollar. I think the book was published by a publisher who would do anything for a dollar."

"I wouldn't believe this author if he was under oath and I think he and the publisher are as guilty as anyone who was ever in this court before."

Yet Dutton now brings out a new book by Derounian — "The Plotters"! The New York Times book review of November 17, written by Charles G. Bolte, Chairman of the very communistic American Veterans Committee, speaks of "the exhaustive accuracy of the volume."

The New York Herald Tribune, in its Sunday review of the same date, employing as a reviewer Arthur Meier Schlesinger, Jr., says that —

"To gather material for the book Carlson went through the same long process of personal investigation which gave 'Under Cover' its ring of authenticity . . . Its very lack of technical slickness increases the sense of stubpress agents to build them up as mental giants so that the Republicans and Democrats alike will be fooled or intimidated.

We predict that the Congressmen will make much noise, but the Red Internationalists will delay and their press will confuse the public so that they will continue to rule and dictate appointments for important posts.

Until we see Dean Acheson, Spruille Braden, and approximately three thousand Communists fired from the State Department, we will not believe there is hope of recovering our government from the Red Internationalists entrenched in Washington.

The Atomic Bomb has been taken from control of military men and placed in the hands of Reds and World Government civilians. The actual ex-horn honesty of the author."

Most people will be more impressed by Judge Barnes than by either Mr. Bolte or Mr. Schlesinger. And increasing numbers are wondering why these two newspapers are so willing to join up with this thoroughly left-wing book.

And how can it be that a publisher like Dutton dares publish so libelous a book on top of what the Chicago judge said?

There is only one "safe way." That is for the publisher, if not the author himself, to be guaranteed against any loss arising out of libel actions.

Investigation by the Congress of the United States would discover whether in this case such a guarantee is the defense-armor of smear. We respectfully suggest Congress begin by investigating the Anti-Defamation League and its far-flung private spy system; also the admitted responsibility, at least in part, for Derounian's activities, by the Friends of Democracy. And if any individual or organization has guaranteed author or publisher against loss by libel suits, what is that but criminal conspiracy to defame?

stence of 14 million Americans is placed in the hands of dangerous World Government promoters. Does any informed man believe this Atomic Bomb Commission is trying to prevent Russia from gaining complete control of this greatest and most powerful of all weapons to make war?

Real Communists and their publications, such as THE NEW REPUBLIC (Editor, Henry Wallace), apparently know the true story of this Commission and its members. This Communist-controlled Russia-First paper, New Republic, in its issue of November 11, 1946, says they were holding their breath until these hand-picked five men were named, but now they are rejoicing.

We challenge Congressmen to get on the floor of the House and of the Senate and outline the connections of these five men. If our elected leaders do not have the records, we do!

One of the members of the Atomic Bomb Commission, William Wesley Waymack, is Vice-President of Americans United for World Government!!

Among other connections, most of these men can be traced right into the International Bank that financed the Communist Revolution in Russia. They are part of the crowd who are gaining control of the United Nations to be the World Government . . . which Government is to have complete control of every living human.

Communists in the United States are today more active, more bold, more confident, than they were before election . . . strange as that may seem. They are arranging to use the expected opposition to spur their members to harder work and to convince thousands that Fascism is going to rob them of all their privileges.

IF YOU WANT AN AGGRESSIVE PAPER to EXPOSE COMMUNISM, BACK THINK WEEKLY

With your support, we will build a better, larger paper, to give you truth and facts — facts which have been kept from you for at least six years.

Promise yourself you will secure one subscriber this week. Surely you want to help this educational campaign.

If you will work half as hard as the Reds do, we will drive Communism out of the United States within three years.

I WAS A COMMUNIST IN THE U.S.A.

Taken from LIBERTY, July 15, 1939

We of the Communist faith had hoped for a little more time to complete our job of bankrupting the nation by Moscow-inspired "social" legislation. But we have done pretty well. We are ready. Within 24 hours we can paralyze the transportation and communications systems of this country. In a like period, if our members in the army and navy do their duty, we can blow up every American fort, scuttle every battleship. Between night-fall and nightfall we believe that we can deliver this country to Soviet Russia. And we will do it by the method counseled by Lenin and practiced by Stalin — the wholesale shedding of blood.

How do I know this? Because I myself am a Red who speaks from the innermost councils of the Communist Party in the United States. I have been a member of the party for four years. At first I believed it was what it purported to be. Then I began to see it in its true character. Instead of quitting, however, I determined to stay within the enemy's camp, learn what I could, and at the right time tell the world the whole truth.

I have the confidence of the twenty leading Communists of America, the men who receive Stalin's instructions and interpret those instructions to their sheeplike followers, the army of Russian spies in America who call themselves the Communist Party. I know the plans of these men. I know their orders from Moscow.

COMMUNISM IN THE CHURCHES

To: Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, President of Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America:

We confess our neglect in not presenting your Red record before the end of the year 1946. We had intended to enlighten the public on your connections with Communist fronts and your close association with Red atheistic movements.

Just at the time we had your "story" ready for publication, we were forced to reduce the size of THINK WEEKLY. Knowing that it would require much more space than that of the entire small edition to give half of your record, we postponed the revelations until a future date when we return to the larger paper. We want to inform the American people effectively as to what you really are!

We will also include in this expose many other Red ministers in various churches who are stooges and puppets for Stalin. "They shall deceive even the elect."

JANUARY IS TO BE OUR "EXPOSE TRAITORS MONTH!"

January will be a very interesting month for those who are alive to the danger our form of government faces. With the new Congress taking office soon, New Deal Moscowites in Washington are working far into the night to doctor the books and destroy evidence in offices they have reason to believe will be investigated.

These traitors will use every trick to stay in important positions. THINK WEEKLY wants to expose them effectively. In order to do a good job, we must obtain five thousand new subscribers and return to the larger size paper. To this end we will accept subscriptions at $2.00 per year during the month of January.

This is an opportunity for businessmen who want to spread Americanism to send in lists of subscribers. We will advise each person who is responsible for the gift; of course if you do not want your name mentioned, we will act according to your wishes.

We believe it is the duty of each subscriber to devote some time to soliciting for THINK WEEKLY . . . your own weapon against Communism. Use any method you wish to increase the number of readers — but work!

There has never before been a paper published on this basis. We make a proposition to any reader or group of readers who will publish this paper to effectively expose Communism. We will sign it over free, the editor signing a contract to continue full time work for one dollar per year.

We are growing but are only scratching the surface. If you are sincere, alive Americans, let's get going. Communists work and sacrifice — we must do the same or perish! Let's drive the Red rats out of Washington!

REDS USE DECOYS TO ATTRACT NEGRO

PRISONERS DRIVEN INSANE, KILLED BY COMMUNISTS

The so-called "Spanish problem" is being made much of these days by the United Nations and by the many Communist front organizations who are "horrified" by Franco's "tyrannical" form of government. Let us look back a few years to the time when the Communists were running wild in Spain. Do we, as a member of the United Nations, have the moral right to turn the Spanish people over to Communism, to submit them once more to the kind of terror expressed in the following article?

The San Francisco Examiner, Jan. 29, 1939
PRISONERS DRIVEN INSANE, MURDERED BY COMMUNISTS

Russian Controlled Jailors Put Captive Into "Death Crates"

By Captain Antonius Raab, famous
World War Aviator and International Aircraft Manufacturer.

New York, Jan. 28, 1939 — This is a story of seventeen months of horror in Spanish prisons — a story of incredible injustice, of unspeakable cruelty — a story of women wantonly ravished, of men tortured to death.

This is the story of Russia's seizure of the Spanish Government and the reign of terror that followed it up to Barcelona's fall.

I believe no other living person could tell it in detail. Those most familiar with the general outline of the frightful narrative are insane or dead.

What I will set down here shall be a simple straightaway account of what I heard and saw and suffered.

For, now that I am free, I have nothing to fear for myself or my family and I have no political purpose to serve. I am not a politician, but merely a reasonably successful business man, head of an aircraft corporation which manufactures planes of my own design. I have come to America to buy motors for the planes, which my company, the S. A. Aekkea, is making in Athens, Greece, for European use.

FIENDISH TORTURE WAS COMMON PENALTY

Yet those Russians threw 300,000 Spanish people into jail and 10,000 foreigners whom they accused as spies. And in February, 1937, I was arrested as a spy and flung into prison. In the

'PM' PUBLISHES CAMOUFLAGED ATHEISM LABELED A 'SURVEY'

If any of our readers think we are "hitting too hard", we would like them to see just a few of the hundreds of Communistic papers and magazines which spread disrespect for God and for country.

To get an idea of the filth that is featured in one of these publications, we refer you to PM, the daily newspaper. We mention in particular articles by Albert Deutsch of January 6 and 7, headed "Epic Survey of American Sex Life Will Shock Nation's Moral Concepts". The idea of the article apparently is to show that we are sex crazy beasts and hypocrites; it is actually camouflaged atheism to break down our morals and our Christian spirits and way of life.

Thirteen Million Colored People Being Urged to Forsake Religion and Demand "Equal Rights" While Reds Plan to Return Them to a Slavery Worse Than Before Civil War.

In New York City last week one of the many people who are enthusiastic for THINK WEEKLY approached a colored man passing out The Daily Worker in front of a public building. Our worker asked the man if he had ever read Think Weekly; the answer was he had never heard of it. Then to the question of what he thought about God, he said, "Man, don't talk about that — I am not superstitious. You tell me there is a $10.00 bill behind that telephone pole; I won't believe it until I see it. We colored folks are not superstitious any more; when we see God, we will believe in Him." Here we have Atheistic Communism at work.

Most people do not know that Communists are after the thirteen million colored people in a big way and are bringing them "into the fold" in droves. Some time ago, Stalin's agents succeeded in converting a number of negro writers, actors and newspapermen they have been using as decoys to trap the negro people of the United States. Among these converts are Langston Hughes, who writes Atheistic poetry; Paul Robeson, the actor; Muriel Draper; Mary McLeod Bethune; and Benjamin Davis, Councilman of New York City. There are, of course, some negroes, among them Joe Louis, who are opposing Communism.

Many Negro newspapers and magazines have been subsidized, hence they must sandwich in Communistic and Atheistic propaganda. The first approach to opening the way for Communism is to break down respect for religion, leaving the prospect's mind disarmed against Communism. This is done in many clever ways. The American Youth for Democracy, a Communist Front, makes a strong play for the colored youth and is meeting with success. Negro organizations such as The National Negro Congress, Max Yergan, President, have been taken over by well financed Communism.

STALIN'S AGENTS USING DECOYS TO DRAW NEGRO MILLIONS TO COMMUNISM

Communists, following their strategy of capitalizing on discontent of any group, have been working on the negro to fan the flames of his belief that the white man is mistreating him, that Communism is his only hope of becoming an equal. This will bring race war in the South, which is what the Reds want.

The unsuspecting colored man does not know that the prominent members of his race who are fronting for Stalin have been placed where they enjoy large incomes because they are valuable decoys for Atheistic Communism. The colored man does not realize that by his numbers and support he is helping to set up Red Slavery in the United States, which will be fifty times worse for him than his grandfather's experience before the Civil War. Nor does he realize that this organization of Communists, which is apparently interested to see that he may vote and prosper in the South is the exact organization ruled by Stalin which allows 180 million people in Russia to vote for only one ticket, and where six percent of the population (the Commissars) rule the 94% as slaves. He does not realize that this same organization has control of Poland and many other European countries, where it does not allow the people one tenth of the freedom colored people enjoy here in the United States.

Wealthy property owners and businessmen sit idle, allowing these thirteen million colored people to be misled and entrapped into a cruel organization that will first use these colored people to outvote, then slaughter, the "rich" white people they are being taught to hate. Then Red Slavery for the colored people will follow. That is the program.

THINK!! Think over these things, colored and white alike, and, from your own reasoning and conclusions, discover what the Communist program really is. Communism is not going to help the colored man, the laboring class, or any minority group, whose interests it supposedly has at heart. Communism is not going to bring about peace and prosperity, a worker's paradise, or the fulfillment of any such utopian daydream. It is, on the contrary, going to USE all groups — pitting one against the other until their strength, their fighting spirit, is destroyed. Then, when we are all relaxing after the helpless, pointless battle, which nobody won because nobody actually had a just cause . . . at that moment, impossible though it may seem, Communism will attain complete control of the government and the people of these United States!!

COMMUNISM

Injustice is protected, and Virtue is condemned

Where Communism lifts its ugly head.

Vice is now rewarded, while
Truth is at an end,

Deceit and falsehood take its place instead.

Weeds of Atheism choke Americanism's flowers,

Our soils contaminated where they grow;

We need our Independence to protect this land of ours,

And Religion to exterminate each foe.

"Sweet Land of Liberty" was ours, until the refugees

Marched in one day, and took us by surprise,

And now they come like termites
in ships from overseas,

In airplanes they float down from the skies;

Since they possess our country, they would destroy our "Bill of Rights",

Free speech is barred, Dictatorship holds sway;

They have stunned our Constitution since "might" has conquered "right",

And we're now reminded, "It was planned that way."

PRISONERS DRIVEN INSANE, MURDERED BY COMMUNISTS

seventeen months that followed I was dragged out of one prison and dumped in another so often that I am not sure of the number. But prisons of every variety I experienced, from regular jails to converted convents and churches and camps and ships. Three times I risked my life to escape and finally, by sheer luck, succeeded.

CRYPT LOOTED BY RUSSIANS

The Russian officers broke them open, emptied the coffins on the floor, searched the garments of the dead for gold and precious stones. Why they believed jewels should be there, I don't know. Almost all the bodies long ago had mummified and they were scattered about the floor of the crypt, amid the smashed coffins.

Now what happened to Kuhn must have happened to many others. He was called before the board to confess himself a spy.

PRISONER WAS GLAD TO DIE

Kuhn could not confess, no more than I could. They beat me with a rubber club until my right leg and side were paralyzed for days. But Kuhn — this is what they did to him:

They went into the crypt and dragged out the body of a dead nun, a body that had reposed there for many long years and it was quite mummified. They disrobed it and carried it to his box.

They tied the naked corpse of the nun to him, his face to her face. They tied his hands around with wire and left the living and dead together. But not for long were they living and dead. It was the dead and the dead, for no man could survive such a final fiendish act as was inflicted on Kuhn — and he must have been glad to die!

By EARL BROWDER:

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise on our part with religion as such. In going among the religious masses we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them."

ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY

Never was this so true as it is today. Everything you hold dear is at stake and it will take all of us workers and fighters to stop the Red Fanatics.

Don't let them throw you off the track with their clever tactics. Communists tell us they have only 100 thousand Red Card members but we believe the number is nearer to 500 thousand. In addition there are approximately one and one-half million fellow travelers, Red Front members, and dupes.

A number of important fronts upon which the heat has been turned lately, have either changed their names, announced a policy against Communism, or disorganized — all to deceive the public.

Stalin, wishing to throw us off guard during the War, dissolved the Third International — so he said. The Canadian Government now shows that Stalin actually ordered his Red murderers to work quietly, but more effectively.

When any Red-controlled organization really turns against Communism, you will read about it in THINK WEEKLY.

Last week 300 delegates from 21 states met in New York and disbanded ten prominent fronts — what they really did was to consolidate these groups into one strong organization, Progressive Citizens of America. This committee plans a bold campaign to prevent the new Congress from driving Communists from our government departments.

Another important group of Reds are under the Union for Democracy. Some of these mildly criticize Communists, so people will be confused as to which side they are on.

Now come the "International Parlor Reds", Americans United for World Government; and, last but not least, the Communist Party of the United States, which covers those Reds who boldly state they are going to take over America by force.

You now find all the Stalin Reds, Trotsky Reds, Fabian Reds, working under these four organizations — Union for Democracy, Progressive Citizens of America, Americans United for World Government and Communist Party of the United States; and you find the hundreds of leaders of these four organizations interlocked in the five hundred Red Fronts in the United States.

Many individuals belong to from 5 to 100 Red Fronts. Prominent front members include Representative Vito Marcantonio, Orson Welles, Edward G. Robinson, Charles Chaplin, Rabbi Stephen Wise family, Kenneth Leslie, Stanley M. Isaacs, Albert Einstein, Robert W. Kenney, Dr. Edward K. Barsky, Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Rep. John M. Coffee, Henry Morgenthau, Frank Kingdon, Felix Frankfurter, Jo Davidson, Herman Shumlin, Mrs. Marshal Field, former Mayor LaGuardia, Fredric March, Paul Robeson, and many more prominent who are more careful to hide their identity.

The important leaders of all four key organizations are on the end of strings leading from two International Banks in New York. One of these banks is featured in the United States Secret Intelligence Report of April, 1917 in "The Organization and Fomentation of Bolshevism in Russia".

The report states that in 1917, 48 million dollars was sent by Kuhn, Loeb & Company of New York, Jacob Schiff, President, to Trotsky (Bronstein) for carrying out the Communist revolution in Russia.

One point we must make here is that a large number of Communists (former Trotsky followers) do not like Stalin. Just before he died, Lenin arranged for Trotsky to take his place; Stalin double-crossed Trotsky, who then escaped from Russia to be followed to different countries by Stalin's agents, who finally murdered him in Mexico. However, despite differences within the party which are controlled by Stalin's famous purges, all Reds are loyal to the doctrine of Communism, and definitely are working tirelessly to confuse and bankrupt America so they may replace our form of government and enslave our citizens as 94% of the Russians are enslaved today.

A "Reactionary" is an American who believes in loyalty to the land of his birth and after having his intelligence insulted beyond endurance decides to strike back with everything God gives him and whatever else he can lay hold of.

BIT OF THIS & THAT

By David Goldstein, LL. D.

THE WAGE PRICE CONFLICT is on once more. The claim is made by the C.I.O. that the profits of industry and commerce, and the price of goods have soared so far above wages that employers are well able to grant their employees an increase of 25 per cent in wages without increasing the price of goods.

DURING the past four weeks of controversy, figures have been presented by defenders of the employers to show that wages have increased to a greater extent than has the cost of living, and that corporate earnings, after the payment of taxes, had not advanced as claimed by the Robert R. Nathan Associates, Inc., economic consultants of the C.I.O.

IT IS NOT the purpose of this columnist to get entangled into the statistical phase of this controversy. He is too well aware of the abuse of the use of statistics, having in mind his once-upon-a-time favorite actor, E. S. Willard, who said, in "The Middleman": "Just tell me what you want to prove, and I'll furnish you the statistics." While figures do not lie, they are, in the words of Li'l Abner, "more confoosin' than amoosin'." The story is told of a Jewish employer who remonstrated when one of his employees asked for a raise, on the ground that he worked too hard. "Why," protested the employer, "you have an easy time of it. You do not work at all. Look! There are 365 days in a year. Eight hours each day you sleep, that makes 122 days, leaving 243 days. Eight hours each day you have to yourself, that leaves 121 days. I give you an hour for lunch every day, that amounts to 15 days, leaving 106. You do not work on Sundays, take off 52 more days, leaving 54. You get Saturday afternoons off, therefore take off another 26 days, leaving 28 days. You have two weeks vacation every summer, and you take off a week for sickness. Only seven days a year are left for work, and they are holidays — New Year's Day, Washington's Birthday, Decoration Day, July Fourth, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas — Besides you take Yom Kippur off. I should give you a raise? Why, you owe me money!"

LEGIONNAIRES WOULD BAR LASKI, DEPORT CHAPLIN

We give you here below an article covering the entire back cover of The Bulletin, official organ of North Shore Post 21, American Legion, Chicago, Ill — Editor, James H. Feeley.

The Bulletin is a fine publication.

Compare this brand of fearless Americanism with the program of the American Veterans Committee, which gives close cooperation to Communist Fronts and to the rabid anti-Catholic, anti-American publication, In Fact. THINK WEEKLY has written proof of these facts.

HE'S HERE AGAIN

Why U. S. Immigration Authorities permitted him to get off the boat we don't know, but we can surmise. This Communist has been commuting between the United States and England for years and when he is unable to come over they pipe him across via radio to insult Christians. When Felix Frankfurter was named Supreme Court Justice and we quote The Associated Press, this man "let out a shout of joy." He is known as Stalin's Deputy in Britain." He has regarded our U. S. Supreme Court as "a problem" and carried on weekly correspondence for many years with a Supreme Court Justice who submitted the letters to the President for discussion. (The U. S. Criminal Code provides for the prosecution of citizens of the U. S. who correspond with aliens who promote revolutionary activities to overthrow our Constitutional government). He is a close friend of a convicted Hollywood moron, Charlie Chaplin. Chaplin made a fortune in this country, but never became a loyal citizen — he never applied for citizen papers. We may be able to deport Chaplin when Americans take over. Of The American Legion, Chaplin said, "the world is no longer shocked at the word communism, but there are still a few die-hards who are like The American Legion." (We quote Shakespeare, "he would have been a soldier if it hadn't been for the guns.") He is a good friend of a New York SMEAR BUNDER who sells hand lotion via radio; we don't buy the stuff he sells. He has the ear of numerous Red and Pink educators in America and no doubt sees eye to eye with M. J. Adler of the Chicago University who said, "We must do everything we can to abolish the United States."

J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation, recently addressed delegates to The National Convention of The American Legion and he said, "It is now time for all Americans to stand up and be counted." Do we Legionnaires need further warning?

Let us send the word to Washington that The American Legion is solidly supporting the Wood-Rankin Committee which is investigating un-American Activities within America, and all patriotic members of the Congress of the United States who are fighting to prevent alien agitators from destroying this "government of the people, and under God, give us a new birth of freedom."

Let us send the word to Washington that we are ready to call emergency sessions of our National Executive Committee to assist in suppressing alien pressure groups whenever they use the SMEAR BUND which is directed by David K. Niles (born Neyhus in Russia) administrative Asst. to the President, to slur patriotic American Senators.

Let us stand up and be counted as saying, "Put this fellow Laski, who is anti-Christian and anti-American, on the boat" and that we are ready to keep him out after we put him out!

Shall we send the word to Washington that The American Legion is ready?

OUR THANKS TO THE WONDERFUL THINK WEEKLY WORKERS

To the many enthusiastic subscribers who are so active in at least thirty states, soliciting subscriptions from their friends, we express our sincere appreciation.

You will be pleased to know that the number of readers is increasing rapidly. The hundreds of fine letters of cooperation we are receiving is a great encouragement in this undertaking.

You may be sure that you are doing the most important work in America today. When we consider that there are approximately six hundred papers and magazines in the United States in different languages, spreading the gospel of Marx, Lenin, and Stalin, it is apparent how badly we need a large, aggressive anti-Communist paper.

RELIGION — By V. I. Lenin

"Atheism is an integral part of Marxism. Consequently a class-conscious Marxist party must carry on propaganda in favour of atheism . . . The winning over of the proletariat is accomplished, principally by dealing with their every-day economic and political interests; consequently the propaganda in favour of atheism must grow out of, and be carefully related to, the defence of these interests."

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

To those who subscribed to THINK WEEKLY at the three dollar rate: Your subscription will be extended to eighteen months instead of a year. As we have reduced the price for the month of January, we feel that it is only fair to give you kind readers who sent an extra dollar the benefit of this opportunity. ASKS CONGRESS TO PROBE ANTI-GENTILISM

REDS PLAN WAR WHEN THEY GET ATOM BOMB

To all of us in the United States who have devoted years of careful study to the camouflaged and secretive Red fronts, it is apparent that D-Day for America is not far away. We realize that had it not been for the invention of the atomic bomb by the United States, Russian Communism would months ago have had complete control of every foot of European soil, including Spain. Russia would have controlled Manchuria, sending a Red Army to wipe out Chiang Kai Shek, thereby taking China.

The Red Army is by far the largest in the world, and it has by its side the armies of Russian controlled countries. This places Russia in such a powerful position that she need not respect us, but for the atomic bomb.

Molotov has been hedging in the United Nations, maneuvering and delaying to give the Fifth Column in the U. S. time to have the safety of the bomb placed in the hands of their intellectuals. Unbelievable and startling as it may be to the reader, this has apparently been done, regardless of the little sham battles Gromyko and Molotov have with these crusaders of the Atomic Bomb Commission. All that remains to be done now is to place the bomb secrets with an international committee, the majority of whose members will be named by the Communists.

From the strong Communist agitation for a third world war to start in Spain, the recent "kidnapping" of thousands of German officers and technicians, and bold activity on the part of the Red underground here in the U. S., it appears something important is in the making.

No doubt the Kremlin has made arrangements for a general strike and uprising in the United States if we start preparations to protect America from Russia. We believe it will be a miracle if we hold out against Communism for more than a year. If the takeover occurs in three months, we will not be surprised. We sincerely hope that next Christmas religious services will be held in the churches and free people will worship God in their own way. But, unless America has a terrific awakening, we fear that the United States will by that time be in the same condition as is Europe today.

The people of America will not be any more awake to the danger the day before we lose our freedom than they are at this moment, because they have closed their ears and their minds to what they consider to be the ravings of "fanatics". This shows how quietly but effectively the Communists are working. There will probably be no "revolution" for the Communists will control everything necessary to take over the entire 140 million free people. The public will be paralyzed when they see leaders they trusted hand over their departments.

There is only one way out — public sentiment caused by expose of these men. THINK WEEKLY is working to be big enough to take an active part in these expositions as soon as possible.

WRITER SAYS "DAILY WORKER" LIBELS PATRIOTS AS "REDS" SEEK CONTROL AND FINANCE ILLEGAL ENTRY OF REFUGEES WHO LIVE IN HIGH-COST NEW APARTMENTS — CONGRESS IS URGED TO INVESTIGATE.

By Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.

Here is another incident which calls for investigation and exposure:

On November 12, our radio commentator, Upton Close, was the guest of honor at a private subscription dinner of the National Economic Council at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York. About 160 men and women assembled to pay him honor. Those present were there by invitation, together with their friends. Through lying and misrepresentation, a man who proved to be from the Daily Worker gained entrance. A photographer appeared, saying he represented a reputable pictorial magazine and asked if he could take photographs. There being nothing secret about the dinner (Mr. Close was broadcasting from the speakers table), he was allowed to do so. This photographer, too, lied as to his connection.

Those in attendance were representative citizens, men and women, many well known. The speakers included, besides Mr. Close and the presiding officer, Mr. Phil Stewart of Chicago, former Congressman Samuel B.

CONGRESS URGED TO PROBE ANTI-GENTILES

Pettengill, and Mr. E. F. Tompkins, an official of the Hearst Press.

On November 14th the Communist smear sheet published a list of the guests, a facsimile of the dinner program, and an article about the dinner in true Daily Worker style. On November 17th it published the photographs.

This article (together with other articles published by the Daily Worker since the dinner) were, we are advised by our legal counsel, a libel on everybody present. It asserted that the fascist get-together was an all Gentile affair. No Jews were invited to the Jade Room. . . . This was false. Jews were both invited and were present. It described those present as "Big Business fascists and gutter anti-Semites."

The November 14th issue falsely stated that Hart "has been calling for firing squads for liberals"; and also referred to "the shootings Hart is inciting." This was false. Council Letter 149 said only, with respect to Communists, that "we should provide the death penalty for every card-holding Communist Party member who holds public office and does not resign from that office within ten days after the signing by the President of the act . . ." — which provision is needed to safeguard America by outlawing the Communist Party. No other penalty will get Communist Party members out of office and thus end the absurd and tragic situation where men whose oath of allegiance to Soviet Russia outweighs their oath to the United States, sit in places where they actually share in the making of American policy, or in carrying it out, or are able to block any policy they do not like.

No wonder this mouthpiece of Stalin attacks the National Economic Council. Nothing could prove more conclusively the truth of what the Council has been saying.

The Daily Worker regularly pursues policies that incite violence. The murder on election day of Scottoriggio, the precinct worker for Bryan, candidate for Congress against the Communists' idol Marcantonio, has aroused many who were asleep. Unless groups like the Economic Council expose and fight these desperate men, we Americans will find, as people in other countries have found, that only one step beyond the smear and defamation squad is the liquidation squad. And unless men and women all over the United States support — even more generously than heretofore — groups like the Economic Council, there will be no groups with knowledge and guts enough to fight.

So, in view of all of these things, let's think plainly and speak plainly. Nor will we be prevented by the hush-hush policy about Jews that has been encouraged at an accelerating rate in recent years at the instance of communistic and ultra-"liberal" Jews, to the irreparable harm of the great majority who are Americans before they are Jews.

In no country in the world have the Jews ever done as well for themselves as here. Most of them have accepted American principles, have been willing to match their very able wits and their resourceful personalities against non-Jews, and have asked no odds. They are Americans first, and Jews afterwards, just as Americans of Irish or French or Italian blood are Americans first and think only secondly of the race or country from which they came.

But, on the other hand, there are some Jews, a powerful vocal minority, that are not satisfied with taking their chances in competition. They have set themselves up as a caste to dictate to all other Americans. And it is no mere verbal dictation. They are not adverse to obtaining their way by intimidation. Their organized cry of anti-Semitism is but a smoke screen to conceal their own anti-Gentilism. They are loud-mouthed, selfish, egotistical, domineering Jews who lord it, not only over non-Jews, but over more reserved members of their own race.

It cannot be overlooked that a large number of the Communists in the United States are Jews, though it is not true that any considerable proportion of American Jews are Communists.

One had only to look around in the hearing room of the Ives Committee of the so-called Anti-Discrimination Law in New York to realize the backbone of the support of that bill was Jewish. One has only to note the populations of apartment houses and hotels in New York and many other big cities in the United States to realize that the enormous influx of Jewish refugees the past ten years is far greater than can be accounted for by the official immigration figures. For today, while the shrill vocal Jewish groups are advocating the letting down of the immigration bars, many refugees, mostly Jewish, have streamed in illegally.

All of this is not happening by chance or coincidence. It is planned.

THE STORY OF COMMUNISM IN ELIZABETH, NEW JERSEY

If we were asked today to name the most Anti-Communist city in the United States, we would say Elizabeth, N. J. For its size it is unquestionably entitled to that distinction.

Up until five months ago the Reds, not being identified as such, had easy sailing in this town and their ranks were growing rapidly. Elizabeth was gripped by an eight-months-old Communist-directed strike, costing two thousand Phelps-Dodge workers four million dollars in salaries.

Then the Communists were exposed by publicity. The Win the Peace movement, a Communist Front, was denied a meeting place in the Y.M.C.A. and all public buildings, including the high school halls.

Today, Communist Fronts in Elizabeth have been forced to go underground or to move on, looking for greener pastures. Vigilant activity by many cooperating organizations has made Elizabeth a safe place for Americans.

The following are some of the organizations responsible for placing Elizabeth in this enviable position: American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Elks, Knights of Columbus, Marine Corps, Catholic War Veterans, Police Department, Amvets, and the American Emergency Force — and, if we might be allowed a bit of self praise, THINK WEEKLY.

Huge sums of money have, we believe, been contributed by Jews, and some by deceived non-Jews, to bring this situation about. If anti-Semitism is on the increase here, it is mostly due to the activities of these over-aggressive Jews. In threatening the country as a whole, they are threatening most of all the members of their own race. For the great mass of Americans will not submit indefinitely to the arrogant plotting that has gone on — a plotting responsible alike, we suspect, for the John Roy Carlsons and the smears of the Daily Worker. Ruthless intimidation has too long influenced American policy.

Gentlemen of the Congress of the United States, this whole situation is too serious to be sidetracked. In justice to both Jews and Gentiles, it should be investigated and the facts laid before the American people. Life in the United States will be wholesomer and cleaner after this has been done. If any of our suspicions are wrong, we will readily admit it.

We do not believe they are wrong.

VOICE OF THE READER

New York, Dec. 17, 1946

I am sending herewith check for $2 just to help out in any way you deem necessary to apply it, and I propose to help out as best I can from time to time, as I do sincerely desire to help you to carry on. The stuff you are putting out every week in that little paper is splendid. I want to keep on your mailing list at any rate all the time your paper exists, which I hope and trust will be many years to come. I am suffering very much from arthritis, and do not get about much on account of my age (82 this month), but I recommend it to every one of my friends and neighbors that happen about to see me, and I have been mailing quite a number to outsiders with a letter to encourage them to help all possible. If I were forced to make a choice between THINK WEEKLY and all the dailies on the newsstand, I would take T-W and let them all pass up. What we need today more than anything else is the TRUTH, the whole TRUTH, and we cannot get that in any of the big dailies. They have to have the ads and they cannot live without them, so they must always hedge on Truth.

New York

To me it seems that you have done the most worthwhile work that has come out of the war. I have been a history teacher for over fifty years and as I now sit back and look on, it seems to me that this Communistic movement holds far worse threats than all the barbarian inroads and all the past wars combined, perhaps because of insidiousness and treachery! And America still sleeps, more or less, though not as deeply as when you started your THINK in May. . . .

RELIGION — By V. I. Lenin.

"The final emancipation of the toiling masses from religion will occur only after the proletarian revolution, only in a Communist society. This, however, is not a reason for postponing the propaganda for atheism. Rather does it emphasize its urgency in subordination to the general needs of the workers' class struggle."

REDS USE SLY METHODS TO MISLEAD

A worn and well-used trick of Communist strategy is coming back on the market these days. It is the familiar so-called "denunciation" of Communism by the many organizations who have faithfully followed the Party line . . . so faithfully, in fact, and for so long a time, that this publicly known association has now become somewhat of a drawback — a weight around their necks that is slowly but surely dragging them down into disrepute.

The Communist sympathizers in these organizations realize that public sentiment is turning against them. But they have no intention of losing control of their respective groups, which, because of clever camouflage, are able to carry on a most effective form of propaganda. No, these groups at all costs must be kept in line; their work is of the utmost importance to the Communist cause.

In these "front" and Communist-dominated organizations, Red propaganda is very neatly sandwiched in between cries of "tolerance", "peace", and promises of something better for the individual members of each group. Communist leaders, who are expertly trained in schools of propaganda from Newark, New Jersey, to Moscow, Russia, know well the value of the personal appeal; they need but touch on the problems closest to the heart of the individual, promise to help him — not the fellow next door, but him — and the Communist propaganda can be sold without an effort. The Communist has won the confidence of the individual by being interested in him personally and from that point on it is clear sailing to convince the unsuspecting innocent that we must have "World Government", that Spain is a threat to world peace, and that all who disagree with this line of reasoning are Fascists.

Beware of these false "denunciations" of Communism which are planned to trap the good sincere American citizen and fool him into believing that the Communist followers have realized their mistakes and that they, too, are to become good, sincere, American citizens.

Yes, some individuals and some groups honestly, fearlessly, and sincerely denounce Communist infiltration in their ranks; those people we will back up and we will give them credit for having the courage to weed out the bad from amongst the good. But, you will ask, "How can you tell whether these denunciations are honest or not?" There are a few ways to determine this. First, instead of reading just the headline of such an article, which says, for instance, (PM, December 16), "Left-Wing Union Rejects Communist Interference"; read on down the line 'til you come upon the "policy statement" issued by the CIO United Office and Professional Workers of America:

"In accordance with its established policy, it will firmly oppose any efforts to interfere in its affairs by any political party, whether it be the Communist Party, the Socialist Party, the Democratic Party, the Republican Party, or any other political party or fraternal society or religious organization or other outside organization."

This "resolution" gives quite a different story from the blaring headline, doesn't it? It certainly does reject the "Communist Party" as a party, but does it say one word about rejecting the doctrine of "Communism"? The very fact that the Communist Party is placed in the same category as the Democratic and Republican Parties — that it is considered "just another political party" — should betray the real policy of this Red union.

The second way in which we can determine whether these "denunciations" are honest is to observe the actions of the groups in question. We would advise you now to sit back and watch this CIO union; see who their playmates are going to be in the future; watch for their statements of policy on national and international affairs; and take particular notice of the union spokesmen and their connections. That will tell the tale!

Watch, also, the American Veterans Committee, who made public a denunciation of Communism — almost at the very moment their president, Charles G. Bolte, was pleading the cause of "World Government" at a meeting in Montclair, N. J.

"Actions speak louder than words" And while the American people are trustingly believing "words", the "actions" are crying aloud the betrayal of these very people.

UNION MEN: Attend your meetings and don't let the few noisy Reds wear you out with long meetings so they may pass important issues when you leave or if you don't attend at all. It takes work and sacrifice to drive these Reds from your unions.

HOW YOU CAN HELP SOLVE THE VETS' HOUSING PROBLEM

THERE ARE MORE COMMUNISTS IN THE UNITED STATES THAN IN RUSSIA

Are you willing to do half as much work to keep your freedom as the Communists are to take it from you?

Misguided Reds work tirelessly to increase the number of readers of their many papers and magazines.

To make it easier for you to help your Anti-Communist weapon, increase the number of readers. THINK WEEKLY will accept subscriptions during the month of January at the special rate of $2.00 for one year, $1.00 for six months. The only way to save America is to expose the Traitors. Build informed public sentiment.

Solicit your friends and send in a few subscriptions today. They will appreciate your interest.

The purpose of this paper is to turn the searchlight of exposure on these traitors to our country. At least 90% of Fifth Column activity in the United States is underground and quiet. Like a submarine, only the periscope shows.

There are more than three times as many Communists and active Red Front members in the United States than there are Communists in Russia. But those few Communists rule 180 million Russians with an iron hand.

Why get high blood pressure about government in Spain? If the United Nations want to liberate some people, why not liberate the millions of Russians? And how about the Polish people, slaves to Russian Communism?

But most important to us, right now, is to save 140 million Americans from slavery to Commissars who almost have their program completed. And they have been working right under our noses.

ADDRESSOGRAPH

If some business house has an extra Addressograph machine not in use and would like to give it to this important work, it would be greatly appreciated. Where could it render a better service for America?

Write your Congressman and United States Senator today, ask him in a courteous, forceful way to do all in his power to outlaw the Communist Party and deport all alien Communists and at least a million Red refugees who entered here illegally.

Then we will have housing for our own veterans. Why should Americans house those who are working tirelessly to destroy our government while boys who were born here and fought to preserve our government are denied housing?

Why are these refugees more powerful with this administration than native veterans? Because they are really organized and their spokesmen demand intimidate and threaten with a solid block of votes which is steadily being enlarged by arrival of refugees.

Call your newspaper, secure the address of your Representative and write him today, demanding that America be preserved for Americans.

What kind of government rules these fifteen countries listed? Russian Communist rule by bloody Stalin, who now wants Spain. Next will be the United States.

In accordance with Bureau instructions there are being forwarded herewith two copies of the January 26th issue of "Think Weekly". There are also being included the following three pamphlets:

"The Cross and the Flag" for August, 1946

"Patriotic Research Bureau" Letter dated Stormy March, 1946
 (Elizabeth Dilling, Director)

"Persecuted Preachers" - Defender Publication, Wichita, Kansas, Copyright 1946 by GERALD-B. WINROD.

These three publications were furnished to this office by [redacted] who has voluntarily offered to be an informant on "Think Weekly" and its publishers.

On January 27, 1947 [redacted] advised this office that he had learned from MCGINLEY, the Editor of "Think Weekly" that a regular contributor to MCGINLEY'S publication is [redacted] the Elastic Stop Nut. It was [redacted] MCGINLEY that several other individuals at the Elastic Stop Nut contributed to "Think Weekly". MCGINLEY at one time was employed at the Elastic Stop Nut Company. [redacted] MCGINLEY told him he was planning on holding social gatherings, auctions, rallies and other meetings to obtain money to aid him in publishing "Think Weekly". MCGINLEY also told informant that he was establishing a speaker's bureau which would furnish lecturers on the subject of Communism for meetings.

The above is being furnished for information purposes.

REDS CONTROL WHITE HOUSE IGNORANCE OUR GREAT THREAT

Baptist Minister Says Proof that the Majority of People Don't Want to Think is Proven by Re-election of Roosevelt, "World's Greatest Liar."

The Editors, THINK WEEKLY:

This acknowledges with thanks several copies of your publication which I have read and which furnishes the impulse to write the following:

THINK WEEKLY'S fight against Communism is magnificent; the Western Voice (Harvey Springer's publication) is doing a good job; needless to mention the Chicago Tribune and others whose mighty voices rock the nation. But have you or any of the others ever stopped for a moment to consider your fight amounts to no more than a boy waving his shirt tail at a cyclone? Why? Simply because of the fact the intelligence quotient of the people of the United States is equal to that of a child of thirteen years. How do you or the others expect children to heed your warnings? When you tell them they are thinking, they will worship you; but when you cause them to think, they will condemn you. It is not Communism, nor National Socialism, nor New Dealism, nor Fascism threatening the citizens of America nor any of the other peoples of the earth today — it is DAMNED IGNORANCE.

The American people (children) let the world's most famous liar, Roosevelt and his advisers, drag their sons from their homes to be slaughtered on foreign soil and elected him again, again, and again. Today his dupes and tools are reducing the American children from morons to imbeciles.

They have brought disgrace and

BYRNES AND MARSHALL "SECRETARIES OF STATE" BUT FRANKFURTER IS BOSS

We are thoroughly convinced that James Byrnes was not Secretary of State, and we do not believe General Marshall will be Secretary of State. These positions are "in name only".

We are convinced that Felix Frankfurter, although on the Supreme Court, has been and is Secretary of State.

We are also convinced that Dean Acheson, who makes daily trips to Frankfurter for instructions, and Benjamin V. Cohen have been running the State Department and will continue to run it for Felix Frankfurter. General Marshall will be only the front, just as Byrnes has been.

It is well to remember, in this connection, that Felix Frankfurter and Harold Laski, the London Communist and brains of the labor government, were pals at Harvard and have been working closely since.

All during the war, Felix Frankfurter not only named most of the heads of important departments, but was a member of the powerful group who gave F.D.R. his instructions.

To those who think this is a strange story and find the facts hard to believe, we would suggest that you paste it in your hat for one year; if we still have our freedom at that time, re-read this article and see how plausible it sounds then.

If you receive extra papers pass them along to your friends and ask them to subscribe.

WHEN IS TRUMAN GOING TO RECOGNIZE COMMUNISM AS NO. 1 ENEMY? — APPALLING INFILTRATION OF ENEMY AGENTS INTO ARMED FORCES EXPOSED

In past issues we have brought out the activity of Communists in unions, in professional groups, in government branches. We have also brought out and we state again now that important appointments made from the White House have been entirely dictated by International Reds.

When Harry Truman took over the White House, there was a flow of publicity leading people to believe that the Reds would move out at once. We believe that the President himself really meant to pry them loose from control of the Administration — but they are still there. And, since taking over the presidency, Mr. Truman has made statements against several groups, including the Ku Klux Klan, which the Reds are trying to keep alive as a straw man to detract from the Communist activities in the United States.

It is all well and good for Mr. Truman to oppose the Ku Klux, which is far from being an admirable organization, but at no time in his professional career has President Truman had the courage to condemn the No. 1 enemy of our country, Communism.

When is he going to do it?

Who or what has sufficient power to be able to intimidate the President, the highest official in this land? Who prevented James Byrnes, as Secretary of State, from firing the thousands of Communists in the State Department? Some day we are going to tell you.

In the meantime, we will turn to Communism in another group, the Army. For several weeks we have been waiting for some developments that would allow us to give our readers an idea of how far Communism has progressed in the Army. We are not yet free to give you the whole story, but, as so many readers are interested in this subject, we give a few of the facts which should provide food for thought.

Since Communists are active in our Army, we intend to smoke out not only the Communists, but also the non-Communist higher-ups who remain quiet because of strong pressure on them.

We have been reliably informed that top men who held the position of Chief of Staff of the Army previous to General Marshall were removed by F.D.R. because they insisted on going after the Reds. Hence we see there has been a power preventing Reds from being eliminated from the Army, the same power that protected the several thousand in the State Department.

From a War Department source comes the following information: The Army at the present time has no satisfactory means of checking on Communist infiltration. Communists during the war took advantage of the confused state of the country and of the wartime expansion to place themselves in positions of power and influence in the government. They placed agents in the War Department and other government agencies. Army intelligence officers fighting these Communists were stopped dead in their investigations by an order of December 30, 1943, not to take any further action to restrict Communists from "sensitive" duties. The counter-intelligence corps was eliminated as a central agency. When this corps was destroyed, all records of subversives were taken from it and dumped into the general records sections, where they are submerged in a maze of other records.

From Representative Hatton W. Summers of Dallas comes a report on a textbook which was used during this war in the armed forces of the United States — "Economics: Principles and Problems", selected and prepared by the editorial staff of the United States Armed Forces Institute.

Mr. Summers charges "The armed forces were using taxpayers' money to teach Communism. The authors of the textbook, which was in use among military personnel, present a program which, by their written statements, would result in the government taking over the privately owned real property of the American people."

* * *

The following material is taken from an editorial of the New York Journal-American:

"At the height of Red Fascist infiltration in the New Deal, a document called 'Economics: Principles and Problems,' written by Paul F. Gemmill and Ralph H. Blodgett, was issued as Educational Manual EM763 for use in the armed forces of the nation.

"It also became a standard economics textbook in NEARLY TWO HUNDRED AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES.

"This was a frankly Communist publication, openly disparaging the democratic American system of Government and productive enterprise, and lavishly eulogizing the totalitarian philosophies adhered to by Soviet Russia.

"It has now been 'eliminated' from the War Department's educational courses, in belated and embarrassed response to public protest.

"It still REMAINS in the curricula of most, if not all, of the colleges and universities.

"The whole purpose of the book is to destroy the American faith of American youth.

"It ridicules the American concept of great and equal opportunity for useful and productive life in a free democracy.

"It instills a philosophy of despair and discouragement and disillusionment into American youth concerning the historic values and merits of the principles and ideals of the founders of the country."

THINK WEEKLY has received several letters similar to the one which follows, which letters certainly illustrate the Communist infiltration into the Army by men who were victims of their technique:

"My check for two dollars is enclosed for a year's subscription to your paper. Now that I am out of the Army, I can again be anti-Red and pro-American. While at Fort Dix, N. J., this summer, the post intelligence officer took my anti-Red, pro-American literature and also had my mail censored — among other things."

And here is damaging evidence taken from a report of the Committee on Military Affairs, House of Representatives, 79th Congress, 1st Session:

"Army men high in authority denied that any Communists held commissions in the Army. The Chicago Tribune then gave the names of 10 Army officers 'about whose Communist connections there can be little question in the light of official records,' and several days later Earl Browder, in his new role as president of the Communist Political Association, issued two statements, to wit:

(a) There actually are 'some 13,000 Communists in the armed forces.'

(b) Of course there are Communists holding commissions in the United States Army.

"Browder amplified these statements with the declaration:

"It is time to bring Attorney General Biddle and the Department of Justice into line with the War Department and the State Department — as well as with the President, who has learned the value of rubbing elbows with Communists in friendly cooperation at least in other lands."

"Serious thought and some activity had long been given by the Communist parties to the advantages which would accrue to their cause through control of the armed forces of the non-Soviet nations.

"To quote from the Circular of General Instructions issued by a committee of the Soviet Government of Russia:

"The work of Bolshhevik organizations in foreign countries is regulated as follows:

"4. In the military sphere: (a) Carry on intensive propaganda among the troops. Cause misunderstandings between officers and soldiers. Incite the soldiers to assassination of the higher officers. (b) Blow up arsenals, bridges, tracks, powder magazines. Prevent the delivery of supplies of raw materials to factories and mills.

"Thus the complete destruction of the army will be accomplished and the soldiers will adopt the program of the social democratic workers."

"Comrade O. Plantitsky, in the Twenty-one Conditions of Admission into the Communist International, lays down number —

"4. The duty of spreading communistic ideas includes the special obligation to carry on a vigorous and systematic propaganda in the army. Where this agitation is prohibited by exceptional laws it is carried on illegally. Renunciation of such activities would be the same as treason to revolutionary duty and would be incompatible with membership in the Third International. (Quoted in vol. 1, hearings on H. Res. 282, August 16, 1938, p. 295.)"

The Communist sheet IN FACT, in its issue of January 13, 1947, states that an Army Colonel has sent them fifty dollars to start a fund for gift subscriptions to Congressmen, State and City legislators. We are willing to bet that this Colonel is a Russia-firster, that he is a Red placed in his position by powerful Red Internationalists, and that he knows more about the teaching of Lenin than he does about the teaching of George Washington.

Hon. John Lesinsky, head of a Congressional Investigating Committee, says that thousands of young Communists are continually being trained in Russia for entrance into the United States. They are schooled in the English language and prepared to enter our Army, Secret Service, and labor organizations. They are furnished with fake passports and enter mainly through Windsor, Canada.

Upon entry into the United States, they report to a Communist agent, who arranges with supporters in key positions in our government for these young Reds to fit into American life to await the day of revolution, when they will follow orders to disrupt our armed forces and industry.

Following are instructions of the Communist International to its members on how to bore from within:

(Quotations from "Thesis and Resolutions" adopted at the Third World Congress of the Communist International:

"The proletariat rejects in principle and combats with the utmost energy every kind of military institution of the bourgeois state, and of the bourgeois class in general. Nevertheless, it utilizes these institutions (army rifle clubs, citizens guard institutions, etc.) for the purpose of giving the workers military training for the revolutionary battles to come. Intensive agitation must therefore be directed not against the military training of the youth and workers, but against the militaristic regime, and the domination of the officers."

"A beginning has been made in practical work in the Navy. Here we note the fraternization of the young Communist League members with sailors in Philadelphia. We have already begun some work in the Army through sending in of some members.

"We no longer boycott the citizens military training camps. We send some selected members into it."

This is such a vast and extensive subject, and there is so much to be

TAKING GERMANS FROM THEIR NATIVE LAND BASE INJUSTICE

(From "History's Most Terrifying Peace" by Austin J. App, Ph. D.)

Quoting a recent news report, the following territorial shifts are being prepared without the consent of the peoples involved:

"Poland is sure to get in the west more than she loses to Soviet Russia east of the Curzon line. With Eastern Prussia, Pomerania and eastern part of Brandenburg, Silesia falls into the Polish share of German Spoils" (New York Times, June 26, 1945).

And as to the effect of these huge territorial robberies on the peoples involved, the report continues:

"Such huge transfers of territory from Polish to Russian, and from German to Polish, sovereignty must bring in their train corresponding shifts of population, either voluntary or compulsory . . . Warsaw will have to enforce drastic measures, to overrule individual preferences and choices."

This is the decision, according to report, that "was arrived at by President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill, and Premier Stalin" at Yalta. It was also at the tail end of the Yalta agreement that these Big Three affirmed the Atlantic Charter. In Point II this once crusadingly proclaimed Charter declares that there are to be " . . . no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the people concerned." This Charter was signed not only by Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin, but by over thirty other Allied governments. In the face of this clear, unmistakable, solemnly pledged principle, any attempt ruthlessly to rip ten million Germans from their native country and force their homelands under a radically alien sovereignty is so blasphemous a violation of God's justice that every American ought to cry out in anguish and so loud that the most gangster-minded statesmen would stop in their thug-like tracks.

said, that it is rather difficult to crowd sufficient information into the small space allotted to us to make a coherent, readable article.

But in future issues we will try to find space to give you more information on Communist infiltration into the Army and to keep you up-to-date on developments in this field.

We intend to show that someone at the top is either asleep or afraid to order a cleanup. In either case, it is the top men who bear the responsibility and they cannot sidestep. And the American people must make them face that responsibility.

IGNORANCE GREATEST THREAT

shame, and are still heaping it upon America. Warn the American people — children — against impending disaster; they'll join the mob and lynch you; we need mention only a few, Lindbergh, Burt Wheeler, Rush Holt, Nye, Hiram Johnson, Hamilton Fish, Father Coughlin — these men stood up for America and were counted out.

Communism versus Christianity — who is to blame for it? Christianity itself! Let us be honest with ourselves; let us face facts and recognize them. Our supposedly Christian ministers, with few exceptions, have in all wars stood forward to be counted with the war-mongers, blessed the sword and whooped it up for more gore; like faithful dogs they follow the politicians and to the abyss they lead their flocks. As Jesus Christ said, "These people praise me with their lips, but their hearts are far away from me." The Communists are judging Christian doctrine by its unworthy advocates and professors. No Communist will dare to question the spirit and conduct of Christ men and women; they cannot. Let's look at the record; we have in the world, 1,044,730,000 people professing the various faiths. 682,400,000 are supposedly Christians; with 16,240,000, we have committed more heinous crimes against humanity than all the others rolled together. (This writer happens to be an ordained Baptist minister.) This is a damning indictment. World War I Christians murdered 37,494,180 Christians — strange!!

Frankly, I am led to believe many — far too many — of our editors know where our trouble lies, but they are too timid to put their finger on it. I believe with all my soul, mind, and heart, that the Communists and their dupes and tools in America are going to destroy our beloved country just as they are destroying Germany. I may be wrong; I hope I am.

But I must admit I am without hope. The New Deal, the National Socialist, the Democrat and the Republican deals are all frauds; with the Communist, they are anti-Christ when it comes to choosing whom they will worship — Mammon, of course. Therefore, let us ask:

Did the message that Christ brought to us die on the Cross with Him, to our everlasting sorrow and disgrace?

H. P. RULOFF, St.

Ansted, West Virginia.

The Smear Terror

by JOHN T. FLYNN
Author and Economist

"This pamphlet shows you Communist smear in action. It tells the story of one of the strangest chapters in our history — the story of private gestapos formed to terrorize citizens who differ with the objectives of the operators. State secret police have harried Europe for years. Here private bureaus do the job. They maintain secret agents to spy in men's homes and offices; they maintain files on citizens after the fashion of European political police. They feed out carefully guarded smears through radio, press, bulletins to destroy the reputations of loyal Americans as traitors and fascists. The purpose is to frighten into silence all who dare question their plans at home and abroad. This story is told here for the first time."

VOICE OF THE READER

Convent Station, N. J.
Jan. 19, 1947

Gentlemen:

Your paper first came to my attention when I attended a forum on Communism held in Orange by three New York lawyers who, I think, are doing a marvelous job. They are three partners in the firm of Fahy, Walsh and Evers.

Your paper is really wonderful. It is by far one of the most concrete methods for actually fighting Communism that I have seen. I have been rather active in our college circles in fighting it, now, for two years, but I seem only to be knocking my head against a stone wall. It is my opinion that college students today have a duty to fully equip themselves against Communism.

I am a senior this year, and still being in college there is not much I can do for you personally, as far as finances are concerned. However, every chance I get, I will do everything in my power to publicize your paper, and bring it to the attention of as many people as I can.

Mass.

Enclosed please find my check for two hundred and sixteen dollars ($216.00) for one year's subscription each to those whose names are on the enclosed stickers, numbering seventy-two.

With all good wishes for your continued success and greater circulation for your paper, I am,

FACTS — THE TRUTH IN PLAIN WORDS FOR PLAIN PEOPLE

It is not easy to print the truth and give facts that are needed to expose the workings of Communism.

Hundreds of prominent people who enjoy the confidence of the majority of the public are active fellow travelers. Some are innocent dupes it is true, but they carry powerful influence to draw people into the Red organizations and make way for Red Fascism which will later liquidate the dupes.

The mention of prominent names in connection with Communism is startling to those who have not devoted sufficient study to enable them to know facts. The mention of a name does not necessarily mean the person is a Communist. But it is necessary to smoke out these fellow travelers, innocent or not; otherwise it is foolish to try to stop Communism.

Communists have bragged that for every Communist Party member they have ten others doing their work. Some have learned their mistake and have withdrawn their support. But, unfortunately, many others continue under the label of liberals.

The following is to report information coming to the attention of this office on the above publication.

On January 31, 1947, the Newark Field Division received a letter from the Editor of "Think Weekly", CONDE MC GINLEY, in which he stated that inasmuch as the "Think Weekly" letterhead and the paper itself bears only the post office box address he was sending to our office his telephone number, "believing you might at some time wish to contact us". He advised that the number was [REDACTED] and that it was a private number and that he would appreciate it being kept confidential.

[REDACTED] advised this office that he believed MC GINLEY was head of a group known as the Loyal American Club which represents itself as anti-Communist. [REDACTED] also said, as has been previously reported to the Bureau, that he is convinced that "Think Weekly" is a Fascist publication and that the persons heading the paper are Fascists and anti-Semitic. It should also be noted that [REDACTED]

This office received a letter from "Think Weekly" on January 27, 1947 which enclosed four tickets for a rally to be held at Moose Hall, 43 Washington Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey, and that this rally was being sponsored by the Loyal American Club in cooperation with "Think Weekly", the anti-Communist paper. Enclosed with the letter was a leaflet entitled, "Communism Exposed" which furnishes the program for the meeting.

The following is to report information coming to the attention of this office on the above publication and the Loyal American Group or Congress which is directed by MCGINLEY.

[REDACTED] who has agreed to aid this office in furnishing information about the above person, has furnished rather full information about the above person in his contacts with MCGINLEY and his group. For example: On March 18, 1947, [REDACTED] furnished this office with a letter in which he stated that he [REDACTED] to a meeting held by the Loyal American Congress. This meeting was held at the Moose Hall in Irvington, New Jersey. It should be noted that the Loyal American Congress has Post Office Box #265, Montclair, New Jersey, as its address. In the [REDACTED] which is signed by [REDACTED] it is stated, "This Group seeks to expose the paid agents, dupes, and witting or unwitting accomplices of America's and the world's #1 enemy - aesthetic Communism." The letter further states "Our group is at present campaigning for their story backing what we believe to be the most potent anti-Communist weapon this country boasts of - Think Weekly."

In his report of this meeting which was held on March 14, 1947, [REDACTED] said that the meeting was an organizational meeting for only a few selected people, who MCGINLEY explained could be trusted. MCGINLEY [REDACTED] to a [REDACTED] who is the [REDACTED] of the LAC (Loyal American Congress). All of those present appeared to be active members of the Group. MCGINLEY also [REDACTED] to a [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said spoke at the first Irvington meeting in February.

Another person present was the "Russian Captain", who also spoke at the meeting held at Irvington, on February 7, 1947. It is believed that [REDACTED] was referring to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who are mentioned in our letter of March 7, 1947. There was also present at the meeting held on March 14, 1947, a [REDACTED] and a Professor [REDACTED] who teaches at Fordham University. It is [REDACTED] impression that [REDACTED] is Russian.

The purpose of the meeting was for the members of the Loyal American Congress to keep in touch with each other and to begin a more active campaign against Communism. Throughout [REDACTED] report, he speaks of [REDACTED]

b7C b7D
Most of the people present at this meeting indicated that they had formerly been associated with [redacted]. In addition to the report on this meeting, [redacted] furnished short biographical sketches of the leaders present at this meeting. He said that [redacted] claimed to have gotten his education by attending night school at Fordham. [redacted] explained that he got the title [redacted] because he was working in a small court. He said that he believed that Communism had undermined American life and that he had dedicated his life to combat Communism. He complimented McGINLEY on his work and promised him cooperation. [redacted] mentioned that he was a former Coughlinite and a member of the Knights of Columbus. b7C

b7C b7D
[redacted] was described as a young man about [redacted] or [redacted] years of age, who is in [redacted] matters for the Loyal American Congress. [redacted] asked [redacted] and the others present to join the Loyal American Congress and passed out some membership forms. He also asked everyone present to subscribe to Think Weekly.

Another speaker was a [redacted] who had a heavy accent. He is about [redacted] b7C b7D to [redacted] of age and according to [redacted] was very much interested in Mrs. BALDWIN's ideas about "World Masonry and World Jewry".

[redacted] has agreed to keep in touch with the Loyal American Congress and to report to this office on any further information he receives on the individual b7D b7C members of this Group. He also said that he would endeavor to get full information about the officers, duties, and aims of the organization. [redacted] also enclosed a pamphlet which is being forwarded to the Bureau, entitled "A Jewish Friend Accuses Me of 'Anti-Semitism'". This was published by MARILYN R. ALLEN at P. O. There is also being forwarded with this letter, per Bureau instructions, copies of Think Weekly for March 2, 9, and 16, 1947. The Bureau will be advised of any additional information obtained on the above organization and on Think Weekly and its editor.

U.S. SHOULD DEPORT ALIENS

Many Illegal Entrants Complicate Housing Problem While Truman Assigns Four Ships to Bring "Immigrants" From Europe — Congressmen Denied Statistics.

With pressure groups trying to influence the President and Congress to relax our immigration laws, and several bills already introduced before the House which would, if passed accomplish this same end, it behooves all Americans to give serious consideration to this vital question.

In view of our national housing shortage, with veterans unable to locate suitable living quarters, it would be wiser for Congress to inquire into the whereabouts and activities of the estimated 3,500,000 to 5,000,000 aliens now in this country (under visitors visas and otherwise) and take steps to repatriate them — rather than consider legislation which would further complicate our housing problem.

All immigration should be suspended until every American veteran is properly housed.

Despite our acute housing shortage, the Washington Post for December 20, 1946, reports that President Truman had assigned four ships to "a special refugee run to ferry European immigrants to the United States."

It is impossible to get actual figures on the number of aliens in the United States, because the Immigration Service — which lets them in — won't tell. Order 3229 of the Department of Justice, issued May 2, 1939, by then Attorney General Frank Murphy (now a Supreme Court Justice) prohibits the disclosure of such information. Congress should be asked to get complete figures on all aliens here under visitors' visas, and steps should be taken to deport all refugees who have overstayed their time limit or have taken

Communist Persecution of Lutheran Church in Estonia

PART ONE

(Editor's Note: This is a document with which every pastor, teacher, and layman should be familiar. We have often heard it said that Lutherans need not fight Communism, because communism is only out to destroy the Roman Catholic Church and will thus be "helping" the Protestants. Atheistic communism is out to destroy all religion. If the particular country it is capturing is Catholic, that religious faith will be persecuted the most; if it is Lutheran, the communists will fight the Lutheran Church. Let this verbatim document quell forever the erroneous notion that communism is only out against one or two particular religious faiths. Communism is anti-religious! That is enough.)

GANDHI SAYS INDIA SHOULD REFUSE ANY REPARATIONS

All the world leaders might do well to ponder the reasoning of Mahatma Gandhi and follow the Christian example he is setting.

Gandhi, in his weekly paper Harihan, opposes India's accepting any part of "reparation booty" from Germany on the moral grounds that India is "free of blood guilt in the war."

It is argued that reparation cannot be accepted without assuming some of the "blood guilt" of the war, and Gandhi's paper says:

"If India stands for freedom of all suppressed nations — Germany being one such today — our national government should protest against such loot, and ban such tainted property."

From this and other indications, the deduction is being made that the Government of India, inspired by Mahatma Gandhi and Pandit Nehru, may try to launch an entirely new concept of the basis for world peace.

Formerly Professor and Vice-Rector of the Estonian University at Tartu, Chairman of the Estonian Congregation in Stockholm.

PREFACE

This has been written cooperatively by several members of the Estonian Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Stockholm. They have gathered information on the fate of Church and Religion in Estonia; they have done this out of their deep-felt interest in their native country in general, and in its religious life especially; and finally they have critically examined the gathered material. Thus, this document is really the result of collective work, and it is only at the request of my collaborators that I have assented to publish it in my name and under my responsibility.

This work describes the fate of the Christian Church and Faith in Estonia during the bitter and dark year when the country was occupied by the Soviet. (Editor's Note: This history covers the years 1940-41. It must be remembered that Estonia is again a Soviet-dominated country since the close of the second World War when Mr. Churchill's and Mr. Roosevelt's promises to small nations in the fake Atlantic Charter were forgotten.) The reader will no doubt admit that there is no exaggeration in talking about the martyrdom of the Estonian Church during that year. I want to point out that there are no exaggerations in this work with a purpose of propaganda or otherwise. This composition has nothing whatever to do with any kind of propaganda. Its purpose is solely to communicate facts in which all religiously inclined people in the world must be interested, as well as those to whom liberty of religion and conscience is of value. All the facts which are put forward have been as strictly verified as it has been possible, and therefore one can assert that the reality has been still darker and more sinister than the picture that will be obtained from reading this description.

* * *

ESTONIANS CANNOT SPEAK

A much more complete, and a better survey of the fate of Church and Religion in Estonia during the Soviet occupation could be written by the central administration of that Church — the Consistory. The Estonian Evangelical-Lutheran Church, however, is not in a position to speak openly to the world today. At the same moment as the Russian Red Army was driven out and the Soviet regime in Estonia broke down (Editor's Note: Now the Reds are again in control!) the country was put under a new occupation which prevents the Estonian people and the Estonian Church to speak freely and to express its wishes. The reigning national-socialistic doctrine in Germany, rejecting Christian love and equality of all men, stands in an intransigent opposition to the principles of the Christian Faith. It is certainly not an accident that all the faculties of the Estonian University in Tartu have been granted rights to continue their work by the German authorities, except the Faculty of Divinity, which was closed down by the Soviet authorities. Only those students of that faculty who were far advanced in their studies are allowed to complete them and to graduate.

On account of these conditions, the authors of this work, living in a neutral country, consider it a duty to their conscience to inform the Christian world of what Church and religion in Estonia have had to endure during the time of the occupation by the Soviet Union. Fully knowing that this survey is not without its faults and not so complete as the one the Consistory of the Estonian Evangelical-Lutheran Church would be able to give on the same subject, the authors are entirely convinced that everything is strictly true, and that it expresses the thoughts and sentiments of all the religious persons of the Estonian Evangelical-Lutheran Church.

THE FATE OF RELIGION AND CHURCH UNDER SOVIET RULE IN ESTONIA IN YEARS 1940-41

An Expose based on authentic information collected by the Consistory of the Evangelical-Lutheran Church of Estonia and on articles published in Soviet papers.

Very deep anxiety was felt by the Evangelical-Lutheran Church and all religious persons in Estonia, when on June 16th, 1940, they heard that the Russian Soviet Government under the threat of military attack forced the Estonian Government to consent to the military occupation of Estonia by the Red Army and to the formation of a new Estonian Government better suited to the Soviet Government's wishes. Only eight and a half months before, on the 29th of September 1939, the Soviet Government had concluded with the Estonian Government a pact of mutual assistance, in which the contracting parties confirmed the treaties previously concluded by them, and once more promised to respect one another's independence and sovereign rights as well as to abstain from any interference into the other's concerns. By the previously concluded treaties the contracting parties had "renounced war as an instrument of national policy in their relations with one another" and engaged themselves "to abstain from any aggression against one another," since "there are no reasons of political, military, economic, or of any other kind which could excuse or justify aggression"; they had engaged themselves "in any cases in which differences of any kind or origin should arise between them to endeavor to settle them in the spirit of justice and to have recourse exclusively to peaceful means for their adjustment, submitting them, if necessary, to the procedure of conciliation" (Kellogg Pact of the 28th of August, 1927, Litvinoff Pact of the 9th of February, 1929, Treaty of Non-aggression of the 4th of May, 1932, Convention Regarding the Definition of Aggression of the 3rd of July, 1933).

Brutally breaking all these treaties, mainly concluded on their own initiative, the Soviet Government proved that it neither respects its own signature on any treaty nor recognizes the principle of sanctity of treaties, which is one of the most essential cornerstones and the main foundation of the Christian civilization. This on the one hand, and universally known facts regarding the persecution of religion and Churches in Soviet Russia on the other, filled the hearts of pious people in Estonia with deep sorrow for the future.

FALSE HOPE

However, there were people in Estonia, too, who cherished the hope that religion and Church need not fear any special persecutions from Soviet authorities. The Communist Soviet regime is now considerably more consolidated and organized, reasoned optimists, than was the case in the chaotic and anarchic years of the Russian Civil War. The executive power has grown to be more regular and solid. Destructive tendencies, directed to the stirring up of world revolution, advocated by Trotsky, have been replaced by constructive schemes for the reconstruction of Russia, as embodied in the five-year plans, etc. Many things which were smashed to pieces in the first fury of demolition, are now being restored step by step. Religion and Church, too, are no more treated by communist authorities as mortal enemies to be annihilated and extirpated, since the so-called Stalin Constitution recognizes the existence of the Church, separating it from state and school, and guarantees to citizens freedom of conscience and the right of performing freely the rites of their religious cult. It is true that at the same time freedom of anti-religious propaganda is guaranteed to citizens. Recently Soviet Russian courts have even punished anti-religious zealots and young communists for offending religious feelings of pious citizens, for acts of hooliganism committed near churches on occasions of divine services at Easter and other holy days. Considering this it is to be hoped, said optimists, that ecclesiastical and religious life under Soviet regime may continue without any unendurable persecutions and difficulties.

REALITIES ARE PERSECUTION

Realities proved, however, very soon how deeply erroneous such reasonings and hopes had been. Persistent campaign against the Christian Church and religion began — it can be said — from the very first day, as soon as the "pro-Soviet" government was established in Estonia on the 21st of June by the threat of Russian tanks and bomb planes. On the sixth day of their administration the new authorities already issued an official statement to the effect that they were examining the question whether religious education in schools is to be continued, and six weeks later any form of religious education in the schools was discontinued. Series of decrees and orders, obviously directed against religion and Church, followed in a rapid succession, all of them having the same goal, curtailing the rights of the Church, putting obstacles in its way, and driving it out of the nation's life. Thus the broadcasting of divine services was discontinued a few days after the entering upon office of the new government. In the first days of July a decree was issued prohibiting Bible camps for first communicants and other gatherings of a religious character. The Salvation Army and all Christian youth associations were suppressed a few days later. A month later, the Faculty of Divinity of the University of Tartu was suppressed, every kind of religious education in all schools abolished, and morning-prayers and all other kinds of religious ceremonies in schools prohibited. At the same time a systematic and violent anti-religious campaign was started in the press. "The new socialistic school will sweep away religion, a merely bygone means for deceiving the people," declares the organ of the all powerful communist party, the "Kommunist," on August 11. All this, however, was but the beginning.

LENIN GAVE RELIGION CHOICE OF PASSING OUT QUIETLY OR BY VIOLENT EXTERMINATION

Lenin, who is so venerated by communists that his mummy is enclosed in an expensive coffin and rests in Red Square in Moscow where his "faithful" may worship, on Page 5 of his book, RELIGION, says: 'Atheism is an integral part of Marxism. Consequently, a class-conscious Marxist Party must carry on propaganda in favor of atheism.' On page 14 of the same book, he writes: "We must combat religion — this is the A.B.C. of all materialism, and consequently of Marxism. Hence, down with religion! Long live atheism! The dissemination of atheist views is our CHIEF task."

The Congressional Record, Vol. 77, pp. 1539-1540, also quotes Lenin, the 'Apostle Paul' of Communism, with the following: "Religion must be abolished. The best country is a godless country. If religion will pass out quietly our attitude will be one of benevolent tolerance. But if it resists, we will hasten its exit by violence proportionate to its resistance."

undue advantage of our hospitality by interfering with our internal affairs.

In this latter group would come such persons as have given moral or financial support to organizations designed to keep out undesirables. A person wishing to immigrate to the United States could apply to the U. S. Consul in his native country and, after a complete investigation, the consul would issue a visa only when the applicant met our requirements.

Under the dodge known as "pre-examination", aliens may enter the United States under a visitor's visa, then go to a neighboring country — such as Canada — and there apply to the U. S. Consul for a visa. Through this means, many aliens who undoubtedly could never have gotten past our consul in their own native land, have obtained citizenship in the United States. Congress should give immediate attention to this practice and bring it to an early end.

The "seventh proviso" (Sec. 3, Act of Feb. 5, 1917) confers upon the Attorney General the discretionary authority to admit, regardless of any grounds for exclusion, any alien "returning after a temporary absence to an unrelinquished domicile of seven consecutive years in the United States."

The Board of Immigration Appeals of the Department of Justice holds that "Domicile" in this connection does not have to be predicated upon lawful entry. It is understood that over two thousand aliens with criminal records, who could not have obtained immigration visas through the proper channels, have been permitted to enter the United States through the prevailing interpretation of this seventh proviso.

Congress should amend this section to provide the necessity for a lawful entry in connection with the unrelinquished domicile of seven consecutive years and further provide for the right to refuse re-admission to undesirables even though they have been here the required seven years.

H.R. 35 A bill to record the lawful admission to the United States for permanent residence of certain aliens who have lawfully entered the United States upon visitors' permits and are refugees from or unable to return to their country of origin by reason of the emergency created by the existing war in Europe.

H.R. 36 A bill to make available to certain European nationalities having small quotas the unused parts of the quotas of other European nationalities.

H.R. 37 A bill to authorize the admission to the United States of 250,000 displaced persons and refugees.

H.R. 3 A bill to amend the Immigration Act of 1924 so as to provide for the admission to the United States of displaced persons and refugees.

EMPLOYER SHOULD NOT OPPOSE UNIONS, ONLY COMMUNIST CONTROL

We address this to employers who are opposing Unions. Do not oppose Unions, which are right in themselves. Divert your energy and money to exposing Communism within the Unions.

Hit the nail on the head!

We know from years of study, that if Communist influence is removed from Unions, you will have little difficulty in settling your misunderstandings. Communist influence has been the strong factor in labor disputes for fifteen years — staying in the background, pushing well-meaning laboring men into difficulties which can never be permanently ironed out, for they are being deliberately created!!

We of THINK WEEKLY contact men in all walks of life. We understand their problems and know how to expose the Red Traitors in their particular sphere. We pull no punches — we are sure of our facts — We cannot be bought or intimidated.

If your employees who are not already Reds will read this paper, they will never become Communists. If you are wise and practical and want to implant real Americanism in the minds and hearts of the working men of the United States, you will find some way to arm them with facts to use against Communism.

This is the first step in the right direction. Have THINK WEEKLY sent to your employees. Help them to fight Communism within their ranks.

U. S. MUST OFFER GERMANS FREEDOM OF OPPORTUNITY OR RISK BOLSHEVISATION

Speaking on "The Coming Moscow Conference and the Peace Treaty for Germany" before the Scientific Society of San Antonio, Dr. Austin J. App, professor of English, said, on February 20, that if at the Moscow Conference America does not demand full territorial and economic justice for Germany, as pledged in the Atlantic Charter, the consequence will be a totally bolshevized Europe or an eventual Anglo-American war against Russia to check this bolshevizing.

To stress the seriousness of the situation, he quoted the Pope as saying recently that Christianity is facing its greatest crisis, and Senator Bridges of New Hampshire as declaring, "If Moscow succeeds in the great design of merging Russian manpower and German technical discipline, the last chance of saving democratic civilization will be lost."

"If at Moscow America does not make it clear for all the world and especially for the German people to hear that we want the right of self-determination for all German territories and access to raw materials for Germany uncompromisingly as much as we want them for any and all other nations of the world, then right-minded Germans will be helpless in preventing the bolshevizing of Germany, traditionally the central Christian bulwark of Europe," Dr. App declared.

America will then seem to offer Germans no hope at all, while Communist Russia will seem to offer starving Germans full economic equality if they become comrades, and more than that, can dangle before them the bribe of returning to them all the Eastern German provinces that will have been stolen with the American sanction given at Yalta and at Potsdam.

"If Germans are given the choice of democracy without East Prussia," Dr. App said, "or of Communism with East Prussia, the majority will want East Prussia back at the cost of whatever ideology. Every other nationality, including Americans, would do exactly the same thing. History teaches us that, if we want to preserve a Christian Germany, we must convince every German that Christian America is a more honest champion of full territorial and economic justice than communist Russia."

BIT OF THIS & THAT

By David Goldstein, LL. D.

DISARMAMENT: Of all the cants that are canted, the Stalin-Gromyko-Molotov cant echoed by our American Russian Firsters, is the most deceiving. The organized hypocrisy called "Russia" talks through them of disarmament, while it maintains a standing army of a million more men than are in the combined forces of the United States, France and Great Britain.

"RUSSIA" TALKS of disarmament while she is rallying her potential fighting force through compulsory military training of children in her schools, up to the age of 16 years; children whose training includes being inoculated with anti-capitalist, pro-Communist ideology. "Russia" talks disarmament while she enforces a compulsory military service law that compels all males between the ages of 16 and 50 to be in her army, navy or air force.

IN FACE OF THIS Elliott Roosevelt (Look Magazine) helped to keep Americans from seeing the militarism of Communism, by declaring war to be out of the question, as Stalin told him in the Kremlin, that "not a single great power could raise an army to fight." Surely this is not true of "Russia" where the armed forces have recently been consolidated (Feb. 1946), and the word "Defense" omitted from the title "People's Commissariat of Defense"; and Stalin elevated from membership in the Military Council to be the 'People's Commissar of the Armed Forces and Supreme Commander-in-Chief of the U.S.S.R."

FOLLOWING the clever Communist tactic of putting the other fellow, this time Uncle Sam, on the defensive, Pravda published a condemnation of President Truman's budget, holding it to have been framed to strengthen the rising power of American militarists. It quotes Henry A. Wallace, and other "progressive statesmen," as saying that the budget was "abnormal for peace time." If the U.N. disarmament is framed, let us hope it will include a limitation of compulsory military service laws and of armed forces of nations, especially the U.S.S.R.

IN EXAMINING President Truman's Report to Congress on Lend-Lease to the U.S.S.R. (June 14, 1946), figures were found, in dollars, that add to the story told two columns ago of what Uncle Sam did to keep Uncle Joe and his dominion from being driven into oblivion by his former pal, Hitler. Here they are:

PART TWO

After the puppet parliament, that emerged from farcical "elections," staged with complete disregard of the law under the pressure of the Russian Red Army's bayonets, had proclaimed Estonia a soviet republic and asked the Soviet Russian Supreme Council to consent to its entry into the Soviet Union, which demand was immediately agreed to, the anti-religious policy of the government became still further strengthened. All churches and religious communities lost at a stroke all their property without compensation. This act of robbery, by the new authorities euphemistically called "nationalization," was enforced in October, 1940. Not only houses, farm lands and other real estates, destined to maintain parsons and other officers of the Church, but also all funds, bonds and banking accounts, vehicles (e.g. motor-cars), old-age homes with their household establishments, and in some cases even churchyards were expropriated. At the same time the Church lost the status and the rights of a corporate body. "The church loses the support of the state and all privileges which it enjoyed under the government of Mr. Pats," writes the "Kommunist" on August 9th. "All property of the churches is declared the property of the people, all religious communities are converted into private companies and

ELEANOR'S PET GROUP IS HIT BY U. S. ATTORNEY

Denver Communists and the American Youth for Democracy group at Colorado University are the objects of a stinging attack by United States District Attorney Thomas J. Morrissey.

Branding Communism as "the major menace to American liberty," Morrissey says Denver Reds are among the best-organized groups in the country. And as for the American Youth for Democracy — which recently created a furore on the Colorado University campus — the district attorney says it's just another name for the young Communist league.

Morrissey says the Communist party is growing by gathering into its ranks young Negroes, Spanish-Americans, and Jews — and then convincing them that they are victims of discrimination.

WHY LINCOLN REFUSED TO ANSWER ATTACKERS

"If I were to try to read, much less answer, all the attacks made on me, this shop might as well be closed for any other business. I do the very best I can; and I mean to keep doing so until the end. If the end brings me out all right, what is said against me won't amount to anything. If the end brings me out wrong, ten angels swearing I was right would make no difference." — Abraham Lincoln.

U. S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TELLS OF AMERICAN - BORN GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES ENGAGED IN ESPIONAGE FOR COMMUNISTS

The following is taken from a report of the Committee on Socialism and Communism of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, entitled "Communists Within the Government" released January, 1947:

SIGNIFICANCE OF COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERSHIP

The presence of Communists in government has deep significance. At various times in the history of the Communist Party, USA, it has openly disclosed what is implied in party membership. In 1935 in New York City, two thousand new Communists took the following pledge:

I pledge myself to rally the masses to defend the Soviet Union, the land of victorious Socialism. I pledge myself to remain at all times a vigilant and firm defender of the Leninist line of the Party, the only line that insures the triumph of Soviet Power in the United States.

Each Communist Party application carried the following declaration:

The undersigned declares his adherence to the program and statutes of the C.I. (Communist International) and the Communist Party of the U.S.A. and agrees to submit to the discipline of the Party and to engage actively in its work.

Such pledges are not openly publicized during the present period but they are implicit in the teachings of Lenin and Stalin, to which the Communist Party, USA, fully subscribes at the present time.

tions and the Soviet Military Intelligence, the Soviet Secret Police (or OGPU), General Walter Krivitsky, former member of the Soviet Intelligence Service, declared in his testimony before the Special Committee on Un-American Activities on October 11, 1939, that such people:

Are recruited for the OGPU from the Communist Party and from organizations which are regarded as sympathetic with the Communist Party, and that often for a particular job it was more advantageous to use a person who was actually not a member of the party.

ESPIONAGE AND SEDITION

Americans do not normally think in terms of espionage and sedition. We reserve such "cloak and dagger" material for war time, or for mystery stories centering in the turbulent Balkan region. We would consider even occasional peaceful espionage as fantastic. Certainly we are not prepared for mass espionage, motivated not by thoughts of revenge or monetary gain, but merely by fanatical devotion to the interests of the Soviet Union. Yet the June 27, 1946, Report of the Canadian Royal Commission describes a startling pattern which is not confined to Canada:

Perhaps the most startling single aspect of the entire Fifth Column network is the uncanny success with which the Soviet agents were able to find Canadians who were willing to betray their country and to supply to agents of a foreign power secret information to which they had access in the course of their work, despite oaths of allegiance, of office, and of secrecy which they had taken.

An application of this idea to American conditions was made by Major General William J. Donovan, former Chief of the Office of Strategic Services. As late as March, 1945, General Donovan defended the employment in OSS of such well-known Communists as Irving Goff, Irving Fajans, Milton Wolff, and Vincent Lossowski. A number of pro-Communists in the OSS were subsequently blanketed into strategic intelligence posts in the State Department. Granting the General's thesis that, "no foreign policy can be stronger than the information upon which it is based," it can be seen how considerations of wartime expediency have endangered our safety.

In recommending the reorganization of our Intelligence system, he declared (LIFE Magazine, Sept. 30, 1946):

The N.K.V.D., the U.S.S.R.'s secret service, operates everywhere and in a highly distinctive manner. . . . N.K.V.D. depends characteristically on sheer mass. It has thousands of operators scattered throughout the world in countries friendly and not so friendly. It draws information from a vast number of sources — trained secret agents, agents provateurs, fellow travelers, Communists, as well as the customary diplomatic channels.

This statement is significant, since it reflects disillusionment with Communist professions of loyalty.

PEDIGREE OF HAMILTON FISH

By L. D. Staplin, Burlington, Wis.

Who is "Ham" Fish? His pedigree rivals that of a prize bull.

Nicholas Fish, (1758-1833) served in the Revolutionary War. His son Hamilton Fish (1808-1893) was governor of New York during 1849-1851, and United States Senator 1851-1857. He also was Secretary of State under President Grant, 1869-1877. "Ham" Fish is his son.

In 1930, Speaker Nicholas Longworth appointed him chairman of a House Committee to investigate Un-American Activities. And he did his job so well he became Stalin's Number One Enemy. No American knows more REAL COMMUNISM. He was slated by seniority for Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. Stalin could not afford to allow him to hold that seat, and after serving many years in the House, he was purged last election. He's THE PEOPLE.

"I know something of taxes. For three long years I have been going up and down the country preaching that Government — Federal and State and local — costs too much. I shall not stop that preaching." — Franklin D. Roosevelt, Chicago, July, 1932.

"The people in America demand a reduction of Federal expenditures. It can be accomplished by reducing the expenditures of existing departments; by abolishing many useless Commissions, Bureaus and functions; and by consolidating many activities of Government." — Franklin D. Roosevelt, Brooklyn, Nov., 1932.

lose the rights of corporate bodies." Especially high tariffs were applied to all clergymen and their families for school fees, electric current, rents, etc. (see particulars further on). Parallel to this the all powerful state authorities organized the "League of Anti-Religious Fighters" and started a systematic anti-religious campaign, using to this end schools, special courses, radio, theatre, cinema, books, magazines, newspapers and other devices and means.

AIM — ANNIHILATION OF RELIGION

It was not tried to make any secret of the aim to be attained by this policy. The aim was — annihilation of the Church and extirpation of religious feelings and convictions from the minds of the people as soon as possible. This was clearly stated on October 9th in the daily "Kommunist," which according to its headline is the official organ of the Communist party and of the highest state authority of the Estonian Soviet Republic, the "Supreme Council." The paper states:

"Religion is a reactionary social factor. During hundreds of years religion has served the purposes of exploiters and defended the capitalist society based on class divisions. It will defend this society in future too. Religion is an obstacle on the way of the working people, preventing it from becoming masters of their destinies. The communist party fights against every kind of religion. Making use of the freedom of anti-religious propaganda, we must develop an all-embracing scientific anti-religious propaganda." A great number of similar statements could be quoted from Estonian papers published under the Soviet rule. It will do, however, to add but the following tirade out of the leading article of the official paper "Rahva Haal" of the 7th of March, 1941, bearing the headline: "Anti-religious propaganda is to be conducted with knowledge and dexterity".

SOVIET-SPONSORED ATHEISM!

"All religions are hostile to communism. Religion is the adversary of every kind of progress and science. Religion will not by itself vanish from human consciousness. On the contrary, to overcome religion, patient and hard educational work must be carried out among the masses. It will take a long time to liquidate it from the human minds. It is our duty to explain systematically every day the perniciousness of religion and to help the working people to get rid of the fetters of religious ideas. It is necessary to create all over the country an all-embracing net of the League of Anti Religious Fighters. The communist party, trade unions and organizations of communist youth must in every way assist the League of Anti-Religious Fighters."

The entire fight against religion and Church in Estonia was the work of the Soviet government and the communist party, which was but an instrument in the hands of the all-powerful government for enforcing its decisions. It is completely out of the question that anti-religious propaganda and the organizations conducting the fight against religion were started on spontaneous initiative of anti-religiously minded private persons or that private initiative was the supporter of this activity. There can be no private initiative whatsoever in the Soviet Union, where every social activity is completely and uniformly regulated. Everything in that state is initiated and directed by the totalitarian state itself. The whole anti-religious activity under Soviet rule was created on the initiative and by the orders of the government and was supported by state funds. It had to be forced upon the people against their will, and its results were for the most part opposite to what was desired, for the people's attitude towards it was outspokenly negative and hostile. Anti-religious propagandists were trained at special courses by public authorities. Thus, in the above quoted leading article of the "Rahva Haal" of the 7th of March, 1941, it is stated that courses for anti-religious propagandists, which started their activities on the 6th of March in Tallinn, "were organized by the section for political education of the People's Commissariat of Education." "Teaching in international and anti-religious spirit," was officially prescribed even for Kindergartens, which were intended for children between 3 and 7 years old. (See the General Regulations Regarding the Kindergartens, published by the Estonian Soviet Government on the 7th of March, 1941).

Christian education and religious teaching, on the other hand, were not only abolished in all schools, but also forbidden outside the schools. "It is natural that since religious teaching is forbidden in schools, religious activity among children and youths outside the schools, too, is forbidden," writes the "Kommunist" on the 4th of September 1940. "Confirmation classes are to be stopped as well as Sunday Schools and church choirs of children and all other devices of God's servants for obscuring the minds of children at houses of prayer and at bible-lessons in homes." Religious teaching of children became a crime punishable in virtue of the Criminal Code of the Soviet Union (sec. 122). Even christening of children became a crime (sec. 123 of the same Code).

RELIGIOUS LITERATURE FORBIDDEN

Religious literature, too, was forbidden. This was announced in newspapers under headlines such as: "Literature of low quality is being done away with." An order issued by the Chief for Interior Security on the 22nd of August, prescribed among other things that "all kinds of religious literature aiming through the religious feelings of the people at political ends hostile to the people has to be confiscated from all book shops, publishers and libraries. ("Rahva Haal", the 23rd of August, 1940).

The official review the "Soviet Culture," in its first issue for 1940 justified this policy by the following arguments: "It is obvious that socialism and religion have nothing in common, since they are two things quite opposite to each other. Religion obscures the minds and dupes the people. It cannot be tolerated in the country of the proletarian dictatorship that anti-socialist, reactionary and ignorant ideas are allowed to spread freely. The Soviet state which protects the interests of the people, does not permit free propaganda of religious ideas, since this intoxicates the workers' consciousness."

RED CONSTITUTION GIVES FALSE FREEDOM

Religiously-minded people who were from day to day reading such utterances and seeing such attitude of the Soviet state towards religion and the Church, quite naturally wondered how all this agreed with freedom of conscience, which is solemnly guaranteed to Soviet citizens in the Constitution of "the Estonian Soviet Republic" as well as in that of the Soviet Union. Very soon they had to experience that in Soviet Russia it is with "the freedom of conscience" as it is with all other rights and freedoms proclaimed in the Constitution such as freedom of speech, etc. In actual life not even the least sign of these nice things is to be seen. They exist only on paper — in the Soviet Constitution, in which they have been taken up exclusively for reasons of propaganda to dupe the culturally behindhand and primitively minded Russians, as well as foreigners with insufficient knowledge of Russian conditions, suggesting the false idea that Soviet, too, is a democratic state with democratic rights and freedoms. In order to facilitate this fraud words are often given quite unusual meanings. This trick is also played with the notion of "freedom of conscience." How to interpret this notion, employed in the new Soviet Constitution, was authoritatively explained in the leading review of the Russian Communist party "Pod Snamenem Marxisma," in February 1937, a few months after this constitution had been put into effect. It can be summed up as follows:

Only in the Soviet Union freedom of conscience can be realized effectively since capitalist countries are under the sway of religion, the functions of which is to dull, mislead and put out of use the brains of people. Religious associations must lose all their influence in public life of the Soviet Union, they may be tolerated only somewhere on the backstairs and gradually they must die out.

During the Soviet occupation this official interpretation was nearly word by word repeated in the Estonian newspapers. So we read in the above quoted article of the "Kommunist" of the 9th of October: "In social conditions based on exploitation real freedom of conscience cannot be realized, since in such conditions religion is deeply rooted in economic life. In capitalist countries working people cannot possess any freedom of speech, press and conscience. Lenin writes about this: "Freedom of conscience in a bourgeois democracy is freedom used by the capitalist to buy or bribe whole clerical organizations for intoxicating masses with the opium of religion."

According to this official interpretation freedom of conscience consequently means and requires fight against religion by the all-powerful totalitarian state with the aim of annihilating it, and to attain this aim, religious associations must be oppressed in every way and must barely be tolerated somewhere on the backstairs of national life, so that they soon will gradually die out. It would be superfluous to explain that such a meaning of the freedom of conscience is diametrically opposed to the usual meaning of this word. What logic there still remains to speak about freedom of conscience and what reasonable sense it still can have to guarantee it as a civil right in the Constitution, if people already are "liberated from the fetters of religious ideas" and consequently no more religion exists at all, to this question the official interpreters of the Soviet Constitution give no answer whatever, although it inevitably will be spontaneously asked by every person who has the habit of respecting elementary rules of logic in his reasoning.

(The third installment of this documented story will show how the Red fight against religion in Estonia centered on the clergy).

INDIANA LEGISLATURE IN OPEN REVOLT AGAINST SUBSIDIES, DOLES, FEDERAL CONTROL

The people of Indiana are waking up to the fact that a Red Invisible Government in Washington has been using their money to finance and set up Communism all over the world.

If all the states would follow the lead of Indiana, the International Reds who control our Government agencies would not have the billions to pay for the distribution of our resources as Mr. Stalin wishes.

Following is a resolution recently adopted by the Indiana Legislature:

"Indiana needs no guardian and intends to have none. We Hoosiers — like the people of our sister states — were fooled for quite a spell with the magician's trick that a dollar taxed out of our pockets and sent to Washington, will be bigger when it comes back to us. We have taken a good look at said dollar. We find that it lost weight in its journey to Washington and back. The political brokerage of the bureaucrats has been deducted. We have decided that there is no such thing as "federal" aid. We know that there is no wealth to tax that is not already within the boundaries of the 48 states.

"So we propose henceforward to tax ourselves and take care of ourselves. We are fed up with subsidies, doles and paternalism. We are no one's step-child. We have grown up. We serve notice that we will resist Washington, D. C., adopting us.

"Be it resolved by The House of Representatives of The General Assembly of the State of Indiana, The Senate concurring: That we respectfully petition and urge Indiana's Congressmen and Senators to vote to fetch our county court house and city halls back from Pennsylvania Avenue. We want our government to come home. Resolved, further, that we call upon the legislatures of our sister states and on good citizens everywhere who believe in the basic principles of Lincoln and Jefferson to join with us, and we with them, to restore the American Republic and our 48 states to the foundations built by our fathers.

"Adopted by House, January 13, 1947
"Adopted by Senate, Jan. 22, 1947".

AS WE GROW OLDER

by Dr. Alfred P. Haake
(Released by George Peck)

(Editor's Note: Alfred P. Haake, Ph.D., Mayor of Park Ridge, Illinois, is a noted Economist, Business Consultant, Lecturer and Author.)

As we grow older we learn that there are certain fundamental laws which man cannot change, and most of the troubles of the world come from trying to change those laws instead of adapting ourselves to them. One of them is that a soft object gets hurt when it hits a hard object. No sensible person tries to make a hole in a brick wall by butting it with his bare head. The wall is harder than the head, and the head gets hurt. You may win an election on the platform that heads ought to be harder than brick walls, with lots of people believing the nonsense, but when the election is all over, you will still smash your head if you butt it against the brick wall.

Sometimes people get so excited about something they would like to see done that they forget to find out whether or not the way which they propose to use is a sound and sure way to do it.

It would be fine to have more to eat and wear and enjoy, and there are people who set out to get those things for us by the simple process of just giving everybody more money, arguing that we can raise the standard of living by paying higher wages, even though men do not do more work to earn those wages.

But, the plain truth, the law, is that we cannot have more without first producing more. We cannot eat bread until after it has been baked. We cannot have more cars to drive unless those cars are first made. And to wear more suits of clothes, we must produce more suits of clothes. We cannot eat or drive or wear in hopes and promises.

To ignore the laws of God is to ask for disaster. To obey those laws is to find true happiness and fulfilment.

LILIENTHAL IS UNFIT

America is In the Eleventh Hour

If the Communists and their dupes succeed in placing David Eli Lilienthal where he can — and we believe he will — turn the atomic bomb over to Russia, it is estimated by realists that Stalin will kill at least twenty five million Americans the first twenty-four hours after he opens war on us.

The masterminds of the Red Invisible Government know that Americans would not allow such a condition to be brought about if they had time to think. Hence, six hundred red fronts and hundreds of red controlled papers and magazines are confusing Americans — who are so busy chasing dollars they have no time for serious thought.

The determined resistance of powerful Communists to prevent some four thousand reds from being removed from the State Department is only surpassed by their fanatical fight to place David Lilienthal as head of the most important committee in the world today.

How can this tribe have the effrontery to tell us Lilienthal is the only man in one hundred forty million qualified for this position? How is it they have the power to place one of their men in every key position in our country?

David Lilienthal is a dangerous man — dangerous for America. He has the backing of the Communists and fellow travelers throughout the United States; he has the backing of The Daily Worker, PM, Henry Wallace's red sheet New Republic, and over three hundred Communist papers and magazines.

The Red Fascists are straining every nerve to place Lilienthal where his committee will control the existence of one hundred forty million Americans!!!

But Lilienthal is not a Communist — he says he is not! So also, a few years

Why has there been such determination to share the atomic weapon with Russia? What group has been so hell-bent on passing on our knowledge and know-how to that country whose masters have sworn to destroy us? Probably no country in all history has been so guilty of breaking treaties and other engagements—none so cruel in the treatment of their own and other peoples under their control — none so ready to heap insult and injury on our American Republic. Why does the United States have to place

HOW THEY TREAT RUSSIAN MINERS WHO ASK FOR BREAD

The Daily Worker, official Communist paper, February 1, 1947, says, "A little noted event took place in the country last week. It took place in the parlors of miners, in small clubrooms in little towns, and in meeting halls of larger cities. We refer to the election of some 6000 new Communist Party branch executives".

We say to the miners so foolish as to work with Communism, take a look at the accompanying photograph taken in Russia by a man who is now associated with THINK WEEK-LY. There was some talk among the men in this mine to ask for an increased ration of bread. All miners were therefore lined up outside, every twentieth man was ordered to step aside and was shot in the presence of the others.

That is the way peace and harmony are attained in the "worker's heaven", Communist Russia, where Red Fascists have ruled with a free hand for 29 years. The Communists here continually tell us there are no strikes in Russia . . . that is easy to understand!

in the hands of her greatest and most powerful enemy the one weapon with which that enemy could, and almost certainly would, bring about the destruction of America?

The answer undoubtedly lies in the elaborate, far-reaching and diabolical plotting that Soviet Russia has conducted in this country for many years. By Stalin's agreement with Roosevelt in 1933, the carrying on of any propaganda by Russia on our soil is a breach of a solemn treaty pledge. And yet, there appear to be Americans who at this very moment are aiming, by securing the approval of the Atomic Energy Commission members by the Senate, to accomplish a result that would presently result in selling out their country.

At this time it is not necessary to question the good intentions and the sincerity of the men seeking to bring this betrayal about. But those Canadian citizens who betrayed their country felt that they, too, were acting for the common good of the world by turning over vital information to Soviet Russia.

We recognize the horrible efficiency of this Soviet propaganda. How could propaganda accomplish more than by causing one to betray his country? Men are shot for less than that in wartime. But Soviet Russia has really been at war with us all the time — and is at war with us today.

The Communists' name for non-Communists who are somehow fooled and lured into serving Communism is innocents. All these people — Acheson, Lilienthal and the other members of the Commission — are certainly "innocents." But of what group or alien country are they the dupes?

In view of the wide publicity given for many years to Communism, "fellow travelers," "innocents" and all the rest, can it now be said that any intelligent man is to be excused for conduct that betrays his country — on the ground that he is an innocent? It is a maxim of law that ignorance of law excuses no one. Can it be, at this late date, that ignorance about Communism excuses anyone — least of all American officials or candidates for high official position that will have powerful opportunities to deal with Soviet Russia?

* * * * *

Coming to the men Mr. Truman named to this Commission (and even Secretary Byrnes was not informed who they would be till the day they were announced — though his Under Secretary, Dean Acheson, clearly set the whole thing up), let us note that Lilienthal, Chairman of the Commission, was described by the New Republic as a "perfect" choice. Mr. Lilienthal has had a long leftist record, not the most striking part of which was the fact he acted as sponsor and speaker for the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, known as a Communist front. His daughter, Nancy, a federal employee, is a member of a Communist-dominated union; and in December, 1946, she led a successful fight in her local CIO union against a resolution condemning Communism.

Mr. Lilienthal, appearing February 4 before the Congressional Atomic Committee, undertook to answer what The New York Times called "the charge of Senator McKellar of Tennessee that he has Communistic leanings." His statement was unconvincing, even though the Times sobbed about it with emotion. No one has charged Lilienthal with being a Communist. The charge is that he has traveled with Communists on many occasions — that he has long been in sympathy with ideas and ideologies that add up to Communism. No one criticizes him because his parents were born in Czecho-Slovakia — some of our finest Americans were immigrants. But his Eastern European antecedents, taken in connection with his life long leftist views, help to explain them.

Mr. Lilienthal certainly is no scientist. In the political vernacular he is one of the Frankfurter Hot-Dogs. No one who has ever read his book Democracy on the March, could vote for his confirmation as Chairman of this Commission.

If Mr. Lilienthal had wished to deny his leftist sympathies, he could have made his denial perfectly clear. Obviously he did not wish to deny them. He could not; the record is too clear.

Instead, therefore, he talked vaguely and at length about "democracy." The Reds declare that their Communism is "Twentieth Century Democracy." To anyone versed in the lingo of Leftists it is clear, from what Lilienthal told the Committee, that he was evading the charges really brought against him. Russia's fierce propaganda in this country has so confused the minds of many good Americans that they really do not know the difference between their own constitutional Republic and the thing called the USSR. We are confident Mr. Lilienthal does not.

The fact is, of course, that the United States is not a democracy and was never intended to be one, but a Republic. Consult the Constitution if you doubt this. When anybody talks so volubly about "democracy," and "making democracy work," he is either befuddled himself, or consciously or unconsciously he is hiding something. In either case he is unfit to serve the Republic in a vital spot where relations with Russia and Eastern Europe are concerned.

Mr. William Wesley Waymack, another nominee to the Commission, and editor of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, has long appeared particularly innocent in regard to Soviet Russian matters. He is a journalist; was on the William Allen White "Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies"; was a member of the left-wing group known as the Loyal Americans of German Descent, a name implying that those of German descent who did not belong were not loyal to America. He is a member of the Russian War Relief Committee; is on the International Board of the Free World Association; the Boards of Directors of the Council for Democracy and the Twentieth Century Fund, and also the board of Freedom House, one of the numerous New York City left-wing outfits.

Of Dr. Robert Fox Bacher the New Republic praised God for the "integrity of his social philosophy." That by itself should put any Congressman on notice. Dr. Bacher is an able scientist, formerly professor at Cornell. His specialty appears to be nuclear physics, so his knowledge of the field involved is undoubtedly great. But scientists are proverbial internationalists. They should be among the experts hired by such a commission — not among its members; for, without knowing what they did, they would be inclined to vote with the scientists of other countries including Soviet Russia, rather than with an eye to American interests. And who would look out for America if this committee did not?

Mr. Sumner Tucker Pike once described himself as "a Leftist as Republicans go." He was with the S.E.C., T.N.E.C. and O.P.A.

The one rather more conservative member of the Commission, Rear Admiral Lewis Lichenstein Strauss, was formerly a partner of the Wall Street banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Company. He is able and of high character. But his international banking connections, not to mention his membership on the board of the National Refugee Service, which has long engaged in the work of bringing Refugees to this country, unfit him for the Atomic Energy Commission.

Am I therefore to become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? Gal., 4:16

ago, said Paul Kern, attorney employed by the City of New York. He took a paralyzed oath that he was not a Communist — but Mr. Kern is now counsel for the Communist Party!!

Our guess is that more than fifty million dollars will change hands while men are deciding how to vote on the Lillenthal issue. The members of a banking house with thirty billion dollars assets are active for Lillenthal. This same bank financed the Communist Russian revolution in 1917.

And Harry Truman is forced to demand that we accept this Russia-First. Truman has no choice; he does not dare even to remove David Niles from the White House. (Of course Niles, like Lillenthal, is not a Communist — he simply wrote for Communist papers only to encourage the readers' interest in George Washington!) Niles and Samuel Rosenman were writing speeches and running the White House for years while F.D.R. was the front man. Niles is still there, reporting to Felix Frankfurter, who rules the State Department.

No, Mr. Truman's power is nil. For several weeks thousands of petitions have been pouring into the White House asking help for Archbishop Stepinac in Yugoslavia. Truman does not dare even acknowledge receipt of these petitions from his people, nor does he dare condemn Communism, America's number one enemy.

So how could he dare oppose David Lillenthal, who has been active for Communist fronts and cooperated with Communists for years?

Organizations with fine-sounding names, under the guise of tolerance and good will, intimidate our so-called Americans. Americans are afraid to speak up for America for fear they will not be popular. Washington and Lincoln and Patrick Henry did not worry about being popular!

Why is our President afraid to stand up for America? Does he own his own soul? Will we soon take down the Washington monument and erect in its place a statue of Lenin?

Stalin has but a few more moves to make.

America is in the eleventh hour!

* * *

How do your Senators stand on the Lillenthal issue? If they are for him or if they are still on the fence, make our protest heard.

Write today or, better still, wire. Make these representatives of the American people know that the American

"We hate Christianity and Christians; even the best of them must be regarded as our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbor and mercy, which is contrary to our principles. Christianity is an obstacle to the development of the revolution. Down with the love of one's neighbors. What we need is hatred. We must know how to hate; only thus shall we conquer the universe." (Lunacharsky, at Moscow).

ACHESON FOOLS AMERICANS BY 'TALKING' ANTI-RUSSIAN

Dean Acheson pushed Under Secretary Grew out of the State Department because Grew opposed Communist infiltration into this department. Acheson, assisted by Benjamin V. Cohen, Spruille Braden and other influential Reds in the State Department, protects the more than two thousand Reds under him.

Acheson has served Stalin's interest and defended Communist moves all over the world for years. When the pressure is put on to clean the Reds out of our government, all Dean Acheson needs to do to throw our trusting Americans off the track is to issue one mild statement against Russia — and Molotov, of course, cooperates — and we have a sham battle on the front page of the American papers.

Soon we will see Dean Acheson listed as an Anti-Communist along with such phonies as Walter Winchell, David Dubinsky, Walter Reuther and many others.

How easily we are thrown off the track when we do not devote sufficient study to understanding the Red Invisible Government!

"One of the most important tasks of the cultural revolution affecting the wide masses is the task of systematically and unswervingly combatting religion — the opium of the people." (Program of The Communist International, people are against the appointment of Lillenthal.

It is time for every citizen to Stand up for America!

RED PUBLICITY LIKENS LENIN TO ABRAHAM LINCOLN

On February 7, at Irvington, New Jersey, a meeting was held by the Loyal American Group, a meeting to oppose Communism, a meeting highlighted by real American speeches by capable American speakers, attacking the evils of Communism. This meeting, as our readers know from an article in the last issue, was sabotaged by a professional smear organization which used as fronts, members of two other organizations to spread lies.

On Sunday, February 16, in Newark at the Mosque Theatre, a meeting was held by The New Jersey Communist Party. The main speakers at this meeting were listed as William Z. Foster*, National Chairman of the Communist Party, and Benjamin J. Davis, member of the National Board of the Communist Party and City Councilman of New York. The elaborate advertising matter for this meeting pictures Lenin and Lincoln side by side as two great men.

Bear in mind that the organization which sabotaged the Irvington meeting is not supposed to be a Communist group. It is supposed to be an American organization!

We therefore ask the public to consider why the same people who worked night and day to destroy the Irvington meeting — a meeting to support and defend America — did not make the least effort to discredit the Communist meeting in Newark.

Think this over and realize how serious is the situation, when people who pose as American will fight against what is for America and do not protest against America's No. 1 enemy, Atheistic Communism!

* - (Mr. Foster did not speak; he was in London conferring with Harold Laski — probably deciding how to take over what is left of the British Empire — we will be next.)

All people in the United States who are not Communists — nor deceived by Communists — will be anxious to assist such a campaign as ours sooner or later. They will be driven to it as a means of self preservation.

The only drawback will be that by the time a sufficient number of American people become aware of the seriousness of the situation they will be in a slave labor camp — not in Russia, but here in the U. S. A. ! ! ! !

UNION MEMBERS WHO READ THIS PAPER ARE NOT LIKELY TO WELCOME COMMUNISM

The most costly experience an employer can have is labor trouble.

And the most costly experience an employee can have is to be out of work for weeks, and sometimes months, as a result of this labor trouble.

Ordinary misunderstandings between employer and employee can be settled by a round table discussion. But when a few of the employees are Communists, a misunderstanding can never be settled permanently, for these few Communists are instructed from outside by professional disorganizers to widen the breach between employer and employee, to bring about hate between them. This is part of the proven Communist program.

For twenty years the non-Communist working man has been unarmed in the face of hundreds of different kinds of pamphlets distributed by Reds to entrap him. Think Weekly gives this non-Communist employee his first small, inexpensive, effective weapon; it arms him with facts to debunk the Red poisonous propaganda.

Upon request by members of Unions in several States we have furnished free many thousand papers for this use.

When men join certain branches of the CIO, they immediately begin receiving a Red poison sheet IN FACT, which implants in the worker hatred for all employers. The wise employer will see that his employees receive THINK WEEKLY so that they may have real fighting facts for America.

No sincere employee who reads THINK WEEKLY regularly will ever become a Communist. This is the most practical way to check the growth of Communism in Unions.

CHURCHES of any denomination may receive THINK WEEKLY copies to be displayed on a convenient stand we furnish. Remit contributions.

Abolition of the family! Even the most radical flare up at this infamous proposal of the Communist . . . "The bourgeoisie family will vanish as a matter of course . . . with the vanishing of capitalism". (Communist Manifesto, pp.26,27; "MKR" p.124).

HAROLD STASSEN FOLLOWS ELLIOTT ROOSEVELT TRAIL

Elliott Roosevelt, one of Stalin's most valuable "public relations" men, is now capitalizing on his visit with the Russian ruler. With the income from articles in magazines and books, Elliott will have no trouble keeping the wolf from the door.

But Joe Stalin is a practical man; he wants friends on the Republican side, too. Ex-Governor Harold Stassen has received word that it is his turn to go over for a visit and return with a fine story as to what a great humanitarian dear Uncle Joe is.

Soon we will see Stassen off for a peek behind the iron curtain. When he returns, magazine editors will again compete for the privilege of helping Stalin's Public Relations representatives.

No wonder many people in Europe think U.S.A. stands for United Saps of America!

"We must emphasize that all successes in extending and deepening the united front movement among the youth, the farmers, the city middle classes, has been the result of and dependent upon, in the first place, our success in uniting the trade unions, and firmly rooting the Communists among them."
(Earl Browder at Seventh World Communist Congress.

PROPOSED LAW MAKES DOCTORS POLITICIANS

Some Comments on the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill for Socialized Medicine

Dr. Carl H. Gallenthien of Valmora, New Mexico, has stated that he can see little difference between the public health system as applied in Russia, and the system proposed for the United States in the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill. As he interpreted the detailed administrative provisions of this bill (S.1606), Dr. Gellenthien said:

"That is precisely the plan now proposed for the United States. As in Russia, today, there would be administrative zones and districts, each under the general supervision of some federally-appointed or federally-approved, regional supervisor. Patients would be certified for this treatment, or that, according to the findings of some local administrative bureaucrat, who may or may not be a doctor. Note that under the Russian plan, as it has unfolded, the district inspections and certifications are made, not by the public health organizations, but by the Social Insurance Committees of the trade unions'.

"In my view, we need look no further for evidence that this legislation embodies proposals which find no roots in the soil of free America.

"The system here proposed is alien to the deepest instincts of the American people.

"The program did not originate in America but in Communist Russia. It was imported in full growth and development, not by the men and women of the medical profession who have built up in this country the finest system of medical care ever known anywhere in the world, but by a small group within the government who seek to impose a foreign ideology on our American traditions.

"Communist medicine is not for free America. America leads the world in the quality and availability of medical care for all the people, not because bureaucrats and trade union committees swarm our hospitals daily with their forms, inspections and certifications, but because American medicine always has been guided and stimulated by the sacred inspirations of liberty, freedom and enterprise.

"We must not — we dare not — risk the loss of those inspirations and ideals for a capricious experiment in state medicine."

A JEWISH FRIEND ACCUSES ME OF "ANTI-SEMITISM"

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

To Pro-American Legislators:

ON GUARD!

Vote against all Judaic-Communist-sponsored and inspired State FEPC's as well as Federal H. R. 6897. These bills are subversive, unconstitutional, anti-American, anti-Christian and anti-FREEDOM. Such laws would deprive us of all choice, and deliver us up to our enemies.

A JEWISH FRIEND ACCUSES ME OF "ANTI-SEMITISM"

A Jewish friend in another city writes me of his displeasure because of what he terms my 'rabid anti-semitism.' The following is verbatim copy of my reply (omitting name and address) dated Jan. 18, 1947:

"My dear Mr. B . . .

Replying to your welcome letter of the 14th: no, I have not 'changed' particularly: my FIRST LOVE, as always, is for America. However, I have acquired a great deal more information and truth about our national and international situation during the past two years, due to studying any, and ALL sides of the matter. I have read much of YOUR literature as well as a great deal of Communist stuff, and Negro 'progressive' papers, and I think I can truthfully say that I now know the score.

My liking for you, . . . et al., remains the same. I do not place you or other of my Jewish friends in the category which I have criticized in my booklets, unless you choose to identify yourself with those groups or activities which, in my opinion, work directly or indirectly against the best interests of America. I have so stated in more than one of my booklets (see marked Paragraph page 22 of enclosed JUDAIC-COMMUNISM etc).

YOU are no more "amazed, disappointed, and shocked" at my attitude than I have been by the statements and attitudes of YOUR people, especially your HIGHEST LEADERS AND WRITERS, who have embraced Communism-Bolshevism—all of which is completely documented OUT OF THEIR OWN MOUTHS, in this booklet and others. Recently, Judge John P. Barnes, of Chicago, had this to say in one of the numerous slander suits against John Roy Carlson:

"If persons are Jews and are COMMUNISTS, they will have to carry that burden and it will not benefit them or their religion to set up a taboo against mentioning that fact."

This IS the burden of which I accuse organized Zionist Jewry. Can you refute the evidence as documented in my booklet? I am not going by hearsay, but by documented evidence: by my own experience, and that of some of my persecuted friends.

I am always willing to listen to TRUTH from ANY side. I have read too much bitter, venomous, anti-Christian, pro-Communist propaganda BY Jews, in their own publications, to be easily swayed now by the cry of 'anti-Semitism'. WHY should not Jews be able to TAKE criticism, since they themselves are so adept at dishing it out? Why do they adopt the very 'holier than thou' attitude, and never admit to common human failings, such as we all have? After much study of the subject, I have been forced to the conclusion that organized Jewry and their leaders (not necessarily the rank and file of Jews, who are probably no better informed concerning their leaders' activities and plans than the average non-Jew citizen is, concerning national politics) work almost exclusively for their own particular interests, and against the best interests of Christian America. Why do not you and other loyal American Jews denounce these unAmerican objectives and actions of your cohorts? Failing to do so, automatically leaves you open to question. Why do ALL Jews take it as an offense to themselves when anyone criticises, justly, the actions of SOME of them? I will as readily denounce those non-Jews in our country, or in our government, if I think they are wrong, as I will Jews. I think Jews should be American citizens and should love THIS country FIRST: not Russia, Palestine, a Jewish national state, or some other place. They should work for the best interests of the people AS A WHOLE in THIS country: not devote their most zealous concern as well as MILLIONS of American money to foreigners. If AMERICANS do not work for America, WHO is going to do so?

Mr. Henry H. Klein, Jewish attorney and writer, of New York, is my idea of an honest, courageous American Jew: but because he spoke TRUTH and was an American FIRST and a Jew second, he has been hounded, persecuted, attempts made on his life, renounced by his own people. Do YOU endorse that sort of action? Your own Jewish writers say in their books that it is the policy of your people to have declared INSANE anyone who criticises or opposes them. I personally have received threatening insulting letters: I personally have been smeared by Communist stooge, L. M. Birkhead; pages have been devoted to me in The Plotters, by Birkhead's paid character-assassin and spy, foreign-born Jew, Arthur Derounian (John Roy Carlson). These people attempt to ruin my character and reputation: to impugn my patriotism, etc. What am I supposed to do? Take it? Well, not if you know me.

I could sue John Roy Carlson to a fare-ye-well if I so desire: in fact, I told his attorney in court this morning that I most certainly would do so if this convicted spy-slanderer doesn't keep his mouth shut about me. This morning, Carlson's attorney argued his motion before the Judge, for a new trial, to set aside the verdict of $10,000.00 which Mr. Jeremiah Stokes (Salt Lake attorney) was awarded, for slander. Motion for new trial was denied. So now Carlson will either have to take his case to a higher court, or pay up.

Winchell continuously ballyhoos Under Cover as well as The Plotters, in which he lumps ALL OF US WHOM CARLSON NAMES, as "no-goods," etc. You can read my answer to both him and Carlson in enclosed booklet. Winchell is trying to play both sides against the middle, and will one day wind up in the middle himself. HE NO MORE EXPOSES COMMUNISM IN THE UNITED STATES THAN CARLSON DID IN THE PLOTTERS.

You will also read in JUDAIC-COMMUNISM how my mail has been interfered with. I am not going to take THAT lying down either.

Will you please tell me why Anti-Semitism is any more heinous in a Christian nation than is Anti-Gentilism, or Anti-Christianity—as practised by your people? I would really like to know. In the Communist 'People's Daily World' of the West Coast, dated Dec. 27th, 1946, Eugene Dennis, General Secretary of the Communist subversive party in the United States, sets forth "Communist's 1947 Program." (Incidentally, this program and objectives are exactly the same as those enunciated, backed and promoted by all Jewish papers, as well as Negro, 'Progressive' papers.) In this very enlightening program as to their aims and purposes appears the following:

"9. FEPC. Enact a federal FEPC. Enact genuine federal anti-lynching and anti-polltax legislation, as well as supplementary state legislation. OUTLAW ANTI-SEMITISM. OUTLAW AND PROHIBIT THE KKK: AMERICAN ACTION: THE COLUMBIANS: AND ALL OTHER FASCIST (meaning genuinely American—mra) ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES. ABOLISH THE UN-AMERICAN DIES-RANKIN-PARNELL-THOMAS COMMITTEE."

So here we have the crux of the matter: just as we have the crux of it in the United Nations (so-called): where Molotov and Gromyko work ceaselessly to have America DISarm and give our atomic bomb secrets to Russia: while RUSSIA is rapidly ARMING, MOBILIZING, SECURING NEW STRATEGIC BASES, and PREPARING TO ATTACK THE UNITED STATES.

And so, in the internal program of the Fifth Column in America, the Communists endorse the same objectives as their Judaic-Communist friends: and THAT program is to ABOLISH, OUTLAW, PROHIBIT FREE SPEECH AND FREE PRESS, as well as even the right to organize groups of genuine native Christian Americans who seek to preserve the Constitution and the fundamental rights of AMERICANS. They would thus make it both possible and legal for Judaic-Communists to carry on their program of extermination full blast, against Christian Americans!

There is an intensive legislative program being put on by Judaic-Communists in nearly EVERY state to pass FEPC and anti-Semitic UNCONSTITUTIONAL LAWS; which same interests work for passage, nationally, of H. R. 6897. Here is quote from Jewish Voice, dated 12-27-46, on this subject:

"Strong drives are under way to enact FEPC legislation in a number of northern states when legislatures convene next month. Reports to the Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress reveal that State campaign committees are already functioning in Connecticut, Illinois, Michigan and Pennsylvania, while Indiana, Ohio and Rhode Island are now organizing and bills are being readied for Maryland, Oregon, Colorado, Minnesota and West Virginia."

Two senate bills of this nature have just been introduced into the Utah legislature. These laws are repressive, unconstitutional, anti-Christian and anti-American. If the Jews choose to sponsor and back them IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE COMMUNISTS, then, as above quoted, THEY MUST CARRY THAT BURDEN, AS WELL AS THE CONSEQUENCES TO THEMSELVES:—which may cause the innocent to suffer with the guilty.—Am I responsible for these actions BY JEWS, my friend? Can I do less, as a loyal free-born American, than to fight them?

I used to be in favor of Ellis Arnall: but no more. He is a pro-Communist (or pro-Liberal, if you prefer) Internationalist, and does not, in my opinion, put AMERICA FIRST. I wrote him in regard to his endorsement of the 'Liberal' NEW REPUBLIC (now edited by that Russian stooge, Henry Wallace)—which endorsement appeared in the magazine itself, several months ago. He never replied—so that shows where he stands. I am glad he lost out in the Governor's race, and I hope Herman Talmadge 'sticks.' I certainly do not go along with Arnall's Judaic-Communist doctrine of RACIAL EQUALITY (as applied to the Negro) and should not think any real Southerner would either.—And if the Jewish Bnai Brith Anti-Defamation League, the Anti-Nazi League and other similar organizations have any right to exist, then so have The Columbians a right to exist: in spite of the scurrilous campaign which has been waged against them.

Again I ask you, why do you accuse me of being a rabid anti-semitic, in view of these actions of your people, and in view of the fact that I quote virulent condemnation of Christian Americans taken direct from the mouths of your own people, such as Morris A. Levy, Rabbi Theodore N. Lewis, Samuel Sillen (whose magazine openly admits it is MARXIST), Dr. Manfred Reifer, Samuel Roth, Dr. Stephen Wise, John Roy Carlson, as well as others who have openly endorsed and embraced COMMUNISM (the deadliest foe of America), denounced Christianity, as per Lenin, Stalin and Wm. Z. Foster; and whose organizations and papers work for repressive, unconstitutional laws?

I decline to be deprived of my rights as a FREE AMERICAN by Communists, Jews, or any OTHER group. YOUR OWN PEOPLE ARE STIRRING UP ANTAGONISM, ANIMOSITY, ILL-WILL AGAINST THEMSELVES by trying to force such federal and state laws (backed by Communists) down our throats. No AMERICAN worth his salt is going to stand for them. The result will be reaction against yourselves. Do you not agree with me? How can it be otherwise?

I think when Jewish people are upright and noble, they are very fine; but so long as they refuse to stand up and be counted as INDIVIDUAL COURAGEOUS AMERICANS, but always condone Jewish group action, and anything and everything that any Jew does, whether right or wrong, then, as above quoted, 'THEY HAVE TO CARRY THAT BURDEN.' You always had my respect and liking, Mr. B . . . : but that does not mean that I have to like and respect such reprehensible characters as John Roy Carlson, or Morris A. Levy, author of ABOLISH CHRISTIANITY, or Samuel B. Gach, editor of Jewish Voice, et al. A man only earns my respect by BEING a man, and an AMERICAN: or, if he is going to be an enemy, let him FIGHT OUT IN THE OPEN, as I do, boldly, standing on his own feet, not skulking under aliases and behind all sorts of un-American organizations. I would gladly remain friends with those Jews who are big enough and broad enough to understand MY viewpoint: I would as readily champion the cause of an individual Jew who I thought was receiving INjustice, as I would anyone else. However, the time is now here when our nation will be split on this issue: it will be divided into two camps: those who PLACE AMERICA FIRST: and those who go along with COMMUNISM and place her LAST and THEIR OWN SELFISH INTERESTS FIRST. The only way this Republic can survive as a FREE nation is by putting her FIRST. From this stand I shall not swerve.

If you, as a loyal American citizen (which I believe you are) can persuade your people, your publications and organizations, to cease and desist from trying to deprive the rest of us of OUR RIGHTS AS FREE AMERICANS, and to cease their campaign of villification and abuse of Christian-Americans, then I will gladly cease my own writing on this question: which is not ~~as~~ my liking, and which I have only undertaken because of INJUSTICE PERPETRATED BY YOUR PEOPLE, in contravention of the ideals and principles of Americanism. I cannot stand idly by and see the principles and ideals of Christian-Americanism destroyed. Our country, as you surely must know, is in great danger, from within and from without: any loyal American who does not now speak up for his country is a coward and a traitor.

You are right in saying that Christ taught men to love one another: he also taught them to STAND FOR WHAT IS TRUE AND RIGHT: FOR THE RIGHTS AND THE DIGNITY AND FREEDOM OF THE INDIVIDUAL. No one ever denounced evil more scathingly than did Christ. As shown by the EVIDENCE in my booklet, do you believe that YOUR people are practising this LOVE of which you speak, toward MY people? As a Christian-American, I cannot do otherwise than uphold Christianity.

In spite of the fact that many of your writers untruthfully accuse everyone of HATE and of being pro-Nazi etc. when they criticise unAmerican action on the part of Jews, the FACT remains that I DO NOT HATE JEWS, either individually or collectively; nor anyone else. One can oppose what they think is wrong, evil or unjust, without having hate or animosity in their heart. I think YOUR people should stop 'preaching hate, bitterness and strife' and making statements which are utterly untrue, if they wish to retain the friendship of the American people.

Under separate cover, I am sending you copy of THE SEMITIC RACE, just received from my friend, Mr. Blessing. I know you will not agree with it: but at least it gives you a different viewpoint.

I am very glad that you wrote me: I shall await your reply with interest, because I would really like to know how you justify the actions and statements of your own leaders. If I did not value your friendship and opinion, I would not have gone to all this work, giving it precedence over much other which awaits my attention.

With warmest regards and best wishes to all of you back there, for 1947, I am

Sincerely yours

MARILYN R. ALLEN."

The writer suggests re-reading my booklet, GOD MADE ME FREE, and especially the poem by that name. Americans are rapidly losing their God-given FREEDOM, in peacetime, through encroachment; by repressive legislation; by our leaders unlawfully giving away American sovereignty to the International (Jew-controlled) U. N., in violation of our sacred Constitution. X

"DON'T FENCE ME IN"

Who wants to be always encased,
Cribbed and confined, gasping for space?
Lord, let me out: this is my plea.
Don't fence me in: let me be free!

When this poor frame cannot contain
Thy spark of life, blown into flame,
Then it is time Light claimed its right:
Dust back to dust: finite to Infinite!

Dear Friend:

Welcome to the next meeting of the Loyal American Congress, to be held at Moose Hall, Washington Avenue, Irvington, N. J., on Friday evening, April the 11th, at 8.15 p. m. Anyone who attended the first organizational meeting on March 14th last, can vouch for the timely thoroughness of our program, and the forthright integrity that accompanied it's initial introduction.

The program will include speaking, a more specific enumeration of our nation-wide plans, a report from our most potent weapon "Think Weekly", admission of new members, and last but not least, the raffle of the radio held over until now by "Think Weekly". As you know, due to current events, the national awareness of the imminent danger threatening this country has greatly increased. Now more than ever, organization is necessary. But it must be based on real facts, under proper guidance. Precisely this, we feel our organization offers you.

All in all, Friday's meeting promises to be both interesting and enlightening. We trust that you will lend your efforts to this nation wide campaign of education, in this America's eleventh hour of life. By all means, make this meeting of April 11th a must on your schedule.

Sincerely yours,

William J. O'Brien,

Secretary.

THE REVOLUTION IS ON.

b7c
b7D

Dear Fellow American:

The first blow has been struck. The subversive Red-Fascist elements that permeate Civic organizations, Churches, Schools and Labor Unions have shed their cloak of respectability.

On Thursday evening February 7th, the Christian Veterans of America held a meeting at the West End Women's Club. The speakers were Gerald L. K. Smith, Rev. Arthur W. Terminiello, and myself. The subject of the meeting was "Christians Awake!"

Well Christians - AWAKE! You can no longer gather peacefully as Christians.

Over one thousand Communist Jews and Red-Fascist hoodlums attempted to destroy the meeting. They marched in a double picket line making it perilous for our people to enter the hall. On many occasions these Marxist mobsters tried to storm our doors. They were barely held back by the police. Failing to break in, they resorted to smashing windows with whiskey bottles, ice picks, throwing stench bombs, bricks, and other missiles. Twenty-one windows were broken, but the meeting continued despite the disturbance.

The meeting closed with the singing of our National Anthem. Our American compatriots filed out in orderly manner to meet the howling mob. Foul language, stones and broken glass were hurled at them. Many were hurt. One of our Veterans was knocked to the ground and trampled upon. He was rushed to the hospital under police protection. He had numerous abrasions plus a broken rib. There were many other injuries among our people.

Father Terminiello and Gerald Smith were escorted by police to a car. A volley of bricks, stones, rotten vegetables and glass was showered upon them. Even the police captain was struck.

The next morning we learned that Ira Latimer, Moscow agent in Chicago, had conspired with two Judges (Caplan and Heller) to have all three of our speakers arrested on the ridiculous charges of disorderly conduct and inciting to riot!

We do not intend to allow these criminals to get away with their dastardly charges. We plan to fight these people in the courts and put them behind bars where they belong. We must act NOW! If they succeed in getting away with this, no one in America will be safe. Freedom of speech and freedom of assembly will be dead.

The American Constitution and Bill of Rights will cease to exist if these criminal elements are to get away with their Red-Fascist

PROF. LORWIN LECTURES AND
WRITES LAUDING RUSSIAN
WAY OF LIFE AFTER TRIP TO FATHERLAND AT EXPENSE
OF U. S. TREASURY

The American Anti-Communist Association accuses a high Commerce Department official of "active pro-Communism and close affiliation with the Communist movement".

The charges were brought against Dr. Lewis L. Lorwin, 63, a $10,000 a year staff economist dealing with trade policy in the department's office of international trade. Lorwin was born near Kiev, Russia, and at times goes under his original name of Louis Levine. He has an impressive biography in the current Who's Who in America.

George H. Perkins, Executive Secretary of the American Anti-Communist Association, said that the evidence upon which the charge against Lorwin is based has been filed with Representative Alvin E. O'Konski (Rep. Wisconsin) and other members of Congress "for appropriate action". Rep. O'Konski is President of the American Anti-Communist Association.

An investigator for the Association told newspaper men that, in his opinion, Lorwin is a "key figure in the pro-Communist movement in this country, perhaps as important as Gerhart Eisler". Eisler, identified before a Congressional Committee as leader of the Soviet underground in the United States, was arrested in

TELEPHONE WORKERS BEING MADE READY TO JOIN FORCES WITH C.I.O.

It is understood that the telephone workers' unions are gradually being shaped up for entry into the C.I.O. First, the various independent unions are to be joined together under one heading, Communications Workers of America, which will hold a convention in Miami in June. The second step will be the entry of the Communications Workers of America into the C.I.O.

To realize the seriousness of such a step, stop a moment and think of all the key industries which are controlled by C.I.O. Then, beside this vital information, place the fact that David Lilienthal and his Red atomic commission have control of our most powerful weapon, a weapon which could be . . . and, God knows, should be . . . turned into an unconquerable force for right, but which, in the wrong hands, could destroy the lives of millions who would be helpless to fight it.

Should the telephone workers join the C.I.O., the only other move for the Communists to engineer would be the merger of the A.F. of L. and the C.I.O. If this situation is brought about there will be no revolution, in the accepted sense of the word . . . because there will be no need for it! The Communists will have control of America . . . for they will have control of industry, which is indeed the lifeblood of our country. And what will any good American be able to do about it?

It's the old story . . . after the horse is out of the stable, we lock the door!

COMMUNISTS MASSACRE OVER
500 CHINESE CATHOLICS IN
ONE OF MOST CRUEL ACTS
EVER RECORDED, EYE WIT-NESSES RELATE.

By FRANK YU, in the
China Monthly, April, 1947

It was a fine day in Chungli, a small town 30 miles northeast of Kalgan. The December weather was cold, about 20° below freezing, but the whole town was bathed in bright sunshine. The Catholic Cathedral, a magnificent building standing in the center of Chungli contrasted sharply with the small, low, earthen huts below it. Its bell rang serenely, and the Catholics, who made up 90 per cent of the entire population, were heeding its call to attend their usual morning mass. All was calm and tranquil. There was no warning of any kind against the horrible massacre that was to break loose within only a few hours.

At dusk three Communist brigades, numbering at least 6,000 and under the command of one Chen Tsung-kun, converged on the town which was defended by several hundred men of the local vigilance corps. The telephone line, the only means of communication with Kalgan, was cut, thus isolating the whole area.

The vigilance men were quickly rounded up and driven into the seminary, the only large building in the area. Outnumbered fifteen to one, they were easily overcome by the attackers, who constituted the main

February as a dangerous enemy alien.

According to the Association's investigators, Lorwin has made frequent trips between the United States and Russia, the latest last summer, at Government expense in connection with international trade agreements. Since his return he has been lecturing and writing.

The investigators said that the theme of the lectures and writings is that "the Soviet Communist regime is the salvation of the Jewish people". They asserted that Lorwin, since his return, has been "glowing" in his enthusiasm for the Soviet Way of Life.

The Association cited an article written by Lorwin under the name of Louis Levine in the November, 1946, issue of Soviet Russia Today, the publication of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. This organization has been described by the House Un-American Activities Committee as a Communist front group.

"Special concern for the Jewish people has characterized the Soviet Union since its birth in the 1917 revolution", Lorwin wrote, "Let us hope that the Soviet policy toward minorities will be a pattern for the United Nations. Reactionary elements that are now carrying on an anti-Soviet campaign are the worst enemies of the Jewish people".

The investigators said they had obtained the testimony of a former close associate of Lorwin in the Commerce Department that Lorwin "was once a Lieutenant of the late Leon Trotsky and a big political figure".

The Association said that a book written by Lorwin on trade union problems was used as the standard text of Commonwealth College, Mena, Arkansas. The college, closed several years ago, has been described frequently in Congress as Communist.

Lorwin was listed in Who's Who as Louis Levine until the 1927 issue when he changed his name. His current biography states that he was brought to the United States from Russia by his parents when he was 4 years old and was educated in the New York public schools and in Russia, Switzerland and France. He obtained a Doctor of Philosophy

PREAMBLE to the CONSTITUTION of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

"We, the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

degree from Columbia University in 1912.

The biography shows that Lorwin taught Economics at Columbia, Wellesley College, University of Montana and Beloit.

Lorwin became an Economic Consultant to various Government agencies shortly before the war. Prior to his present Commerce Department job, Lorwin was an Economic Advisor to the Foreign Economic Administration, which handled Lend Lease, from 1943 until the end of the war. He is listed in the magazine Soviet Russia Today as National President of the Jewish Council for Russian Relief and official of the World Jewish Congress and the American Jewish Congress.

This startling revelation is further evidence of the fact that the so-called Truman Doctrine against Communism is a sham and a farce. While President Truman is asking for four hundred million dollars to stop Communism in Greece and Turkey, his Administration employees are key Communist workers in strategic posts in our Federal government. The American people are tired of President Truman's double talk about Communism.

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstrations, and, finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of the bourgeoisie."
— From the "Program of the Communist International", an official Red document published with the imprint of the Communist Party of the United States.

TERRORISM IN CHUNG LI

force of the Communists in that district. Some guards retreated and made good their escape, but about 200 were trapped. The seminary was immediately put to the torch by the Communists.

Several of the doomed men climbed out through the windows, surviving witnesses said, but they were tossed back into the burning building. The other Catholic establishments were also set on fire, including the bishop's residence. Ten of the 34 inmates of the almshouse, all over 60 years old, perished in the blaze.

The attacking Communists were guided by the former magistrate, chief of police and other town officials appointed by the Communists during their period of occupation, that is, from the Japanese surrender to last October, when Chungli was recovered by Government troops. All of them were natives of Chungli, and they were familiar with the locale. During their "term of office", they had found that the people were not too cooperative with the Communist administration. They had now come back to discipline the recalcitrants.

While the Cathedral and the other buildings used by the Catholics were burning, bands of Communist soldiers under the direction of these former "officials" began rounding up those who, in their eyes, were "hostile" to Communism. These "hostile" elements included all who had taken refuge in Government-controlled areas during the Communist occupation and had refused to come back despite Communist propaganda. They were for the most part dependents of or relatives of the vigilance guard, landlords and loyal Catholics, and they constituted almost the whole local population of 3,000.

Half of the 3,000, fearing the worst, had fled to the nearby mountains. But those left were herded together by the invaders and some were tied in groups. The Communists decided to teach these Catholics a convincing lesson. The spacious courtyard of the bishop's residence was chosen as the setting. So, on the night of December 9, 1946, with the huge blaze of the burning cathedral and the other buildings of the Catholics to light the scene, one of the bloodiest massacres in history was enacted.

These inhuman Communists and their agents made no distinction on the grounds of sex or age. They subjected all to their fiendish hate. Besides killing some in the usual way, by means of rifle fire, the machine gun and the bayonet, they devised new ways of liquidating those who dared to think other than they did. They strangled many; they stripped others to the skin and let them freeze to death in the December cold; they bashed in the heads of others with large pieces of rock, while they tied others to poles and beat them to death.

They made some of the women suffer an even worse fate. They violated them, then killed them. And having put them to death, they desecrated the bodies of not a few of their victims.

They skinned one child who was about 14 years old, from the scalp to the breast. They chopped a young man's body into pieces in the process of removing his heart. During this macabre scene, they forced those still alive to stand and watch their butchery until their turn came. A great many fainted while watching the dying agony of their friends and relatives.

The toll of this wholesale slaughter, which lasted three days, was estimated at about 500 civilians, including 15 old men, a few children, and a number of women. In addition, 300 vigilance guards were killed or burned to death. Another 500 civilians and some hundred vigilance corps members were taken away by the Communists when they retreated on December 12. About 200 of them were later killed, or allowed to freeze to death.

When we correspondents arrived at this small town on December 30, 18 days after the massacre, the whole remaining population of about 2,000 gathered in the Catholic elementary school for girls to meet us. They still appeared panic stricken, and their faces were shadowed with sorrow. Every one of them was ready to tell about his hellish experience. They looked as if they had just awakened from a terrible nightmare.

Four bare walls and the main pillars were all that was left of the 30-year-old Cathedral, with its bell still hanging ironically high up on the facade. The main hall, which accommodated more than 1,000, was nothing but a heap of debris and ashes. A few bullet holes were still visible on the pillars. The Communists originally intended to blow up the building with bombs, the villagers told us. Somehow they did not.

To the left of the Cathedral was the bishop's residence. In the large courtyard surrounding it, there still lay some 250 corpses, all frozen hard. The bullet holes, bayonet cuts, wounds, and various disfigurements were evidence that the Communists had used a variety of means in slaughtering their victims.

In the middle of the yard there were several coffins. One of them was unusually large. Inside it was a big heap of ashes, black and putrid. That was what was left of the flesh and bones of those who were trapped in the burning Cathedral. But no one knows exactly how many perished in the once-sacred hall, and not all of the charred corpses were identified.

On the backyard of the compound was another group of about 30 bodies. These were slain militiamen. Their remains revealed that they had been subjected to prolonged torture. One had his eyes smashed. His eyeballs had been forced out.

Among the slaughtered civilians were a group of countryfolk from nearby towns. They had come to Chungli in the hope of finding a refuge there, soon after the Government's reoccupation of the town. This group, according to the Chungli natives, were among the first victims, inasmuch as they were considered anti-Communist because they had fled from Communist regions.

A few native “landlords” had come back to Chungli only some 10 days before the time of the tragedy. They were returning from an “exile” of more than a year as a result of the Communist occupation. They too were liquidated and were killed before they could reclaim the land the Communists had expropriated in their absence.

Catholic Father Hsu and two farmers were among those the Communists carried away with them. Many thus carried away died of cold and exposure. Some were killed for refusing to continue the forced trip. While we were interviewing the local citizens, a late report came in that about 100 bodies had been discovered at the foot of a mountain 15 miles east of Chungli. As the news spread, we could see a cloud of sorrow and anxiety darken the faces of the men and women who had relatives who were still missing.

The toll of this wholesale slaughter . . . was estimated at about 500

LACK OF RELIGION IN THE UNITED STATES IS DECLARED

The American people should worry less about "the antigod people in Russia" and worry more about the Americans who neglect religion and offer it only "lip service," the Rev. Dr. Albert Joseph McCartney told the congregation at the Chicago Sunday Evening Club Palm Sunday.

"Don't worry so much over the anti-god people in Russia," he said. "What threatens our whole economy and our whole national peace is the neglect of religion upon the part of those who offer it lip service."

"You can't get Christian action from a Christian congress that is not made up of individual Christians," he declared.

"You can't get Christian education from a school system that is not staffed with Christian teachers. You can't elevate the business of the land to Christian standards with a group of merchants who pay no attention to Christianity.

"You can't put Christianity into labor and industrial disputes if the leaders and workers are not Christians."

"The entire question of peace comes back to the individual's own responsibilities and conduct, he said. "We all must ask ourselves: 'What part have I to play in putting Christ in the center of the present-day trouble?'"

"Our morality is entirely subordinated to the interests of the class struggle of the proletariat. We do not believe in eternal morality, and we expose all the fables about morality"—from a pamphlet entitled "Lenin Speaks to Youth", published by the Communist Party of the United States.

What Can YOU Do to Help?

During the year THINK WEEKLY has been published, it has been very effective in educating people to the danger of Communism. Hundreds of letters from all parts of the country verify this.

The vast amount of good that has been accomplished by the paper, our speakers bureau of twenty-two people, and our information service regarding Communist fronts and speakers, should give you some idea of what can be done. If wide-awake Americans would get behind THINK for each subscription received during the month of May. The sender will receive a copy of John T. Flynn's excellent pamphlet, "The Smear Terror."

THOMAS HELPS FORCE ACTION AGAINST REDS

J. Parnell Thomas, Chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, is to be commended for his efforts to obtain the cooperation of Attorney General Clark in prosecuting Communists under the Voorhis and McCormack act.

But no doubt the Communists in the Department of Justice are stronger than Mr. Clark, for after three demands by Mr. Thomas, nothing has been done.

It is, and has been, our opinion that statements regarding Communism made by President Truman and Attorney General Clark were for political reasons only. We do not believe this administration will purge the Communists . . . unless public opinion forces such action!!!

WEEKLY and give it the support America deserves we could easily raise our circulation to one hundred thousand a week.

The writer has put several thousand dollars into this paper, in addition to a year's time, seven days a week, without salary. He will gladly continue the work without salary if Americans will come forward and help to carry the financial loss each week. The writer is unable to invest one more dollar. For this reason we ask our readers, our American people, to carry the financial burden—which is rightfully theirs . . . so that we will be able to continue this important campaign. The paper is run efficiently with a minimum of expense; you can be sure every dollar is actually used to fight Communism.

Unless we receive immediate help, we will not be able to publish the paper regularly, but only when we have the money. It is most unfortunate that we should be forced to come to such a decision at this particular time, for THINK WEEKLY is needed now more than ever in view of the coming national election.

But the final decision is up to you, the people. Help to keep this paper going until the volume of subscriptions is sufficient to carry us.

How can you help?

Send us what you can afford NOW!

Arrange to send a contribution each month . . . we will send you a reminder. A pledge by twenty Americans of $40.00 a month would take care of the loss and allow us to continue the good work. The amount could be divided in other ways, such as: Forty people contributing $20.00 each per month, or eighty contributing $10.00 each. Or if you can afford five dollars, two, or one, a month, send it to carry on this necessary campaign. Such an arrangement would enable us to depend on a definite amount of money with which to work and our minds would be relieved of financial worries.

Fellow Americans, this is your paper as well as ours. America must be protected by all her loyal citizens, not by a handful. Communists support over two hundred periodicals . . . cannot Americans support one weekly paper to combat this propaganda of poison and hate?

LINCOLN THE PROPHET

Equality His Mission

"I have never had a thought, politically, that did not spring from the sentiment embodied in the Declaration of Independence." These were the words of Lincoln at Philadelphia, on his way to his first Inauguration.

He not only expressed his thoughts clearly but fearlessly. His was not campaign oratory, like our modern politicians; he told the truth regardless of consequences. In his debates with Douglas, he said, "a house divided against itself cannot stand. You cannot have a nation half slave and half free." These debates cost him his senatorship, but they called Lincoln's attention to a man who was not afraid to state his conviction and that gave him the nomination for a new party for the Presidency.

The old parties were split and his honesty and earnestness brought hope to a distressed people. They trusted him and he was elected.

Springfield, Illinois was his home, and the only house he ever owned attracts hundreds of people every week to visit that sacred place. Mrs. Edwards, who was the custodian of the home for many years, said that people came there in all conditions, rich or poor, drunk or sober, but nothing has ever been missed—the place is too sacred. We have in our office a photograph of Lincoln in an oak frame made from the floor of this home — the floor he had walked upon. It is, too, sacred.

Many years ago an old man told me that he heard Lincoln deliver his Gettysburg address. I was curious to know his style of address and asked him if he could explain it. The old man said he ought to, for it had been soaking into his system for over sixty years. He said Lincoln spoke rather slowly, slow but distinct, and words of one syllable he made two or three syllables: O-u-r F-o-r-e F-a-ther-s In-sti-tuted a New Gov-ern-ment Fo-un-ded on the Pr-in-ci-ple that all Men Are Cre-at-ed E-qu-al.

His whole life, in public office, was a demonstration of this principle of equality, and he wrote, "I see in the near future a crisis approaching, which unnerves me, and causes me to tremble for the safety of our country. As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the Money Power will endeavor to prolong their reign by working upon the prejudices of the people, until all wealth, shall be aggregated in a few hands and the nation destroyed. . . . I feel at this time more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war, God grant that my fears may never be realized."

Was not this, his fear, bequeathed for our settlement, and is not the time fast approaching when this settlement must be made?

A Guard of the Sepulcher

*I was a Roman soldier in my prime;
Now age is on me and the yoke of time.
I saw your Risen Christ, for I am he
Who reached the hissep to Him on the tree
And I am one of two who watched beside
The sepulcher of Him we crucified.
All that last night I watched with sleepless eyes;
Great stars arose and crept across the skies,
The world was all too still for mortal rest,
For pitiless thoughts were busy in the breast,
That night was long, so long, it seemed at last
I had grown old and a long life had passed.
Far off, the hills of Moab, touched with light,
Were swimming in the hollow of the night.
I saw Jerusalem all wrapped in a cloud, Stretched like a dead thing folded in a shroud.
Once in the pauses of our whispered talk
I heard a some thing on the garden walk
Perhaps it was a crisp leaf lightly stirred,
Perhaps the dream-note of a waking bird,
Then suddenly an angel burning white Came down with earthquake in the breaking light,
And rolled the great stone from the Sepulcher,
Mixing in the morning with a scent of Myrrh.
And Lo, the Dead had risen with the day,
The Man of Mystery had gone His way!
Years have I wandered, carrying my shame;
Now let the tooth of time eat out my name,
For we, who all the wonder might have told,
Kept silence, for our mouths were stumped with cold.*

Front For Judaism

That there is a difference between English and American Freemasonry and that of Continental Europe is a snare and a delusion, lulling Freemasons of America to believe that what has happened over there, and is happening in England can't happen here.

There is no support of such a fantasy—and if you have read the quotes from Mason's own official book, given in the paper you must confess that all masonry is controlled by Jews.

Naturally Masons don't know—and it has been a bitter pill for us, who were reared in Masonic homes, Masonic communities. All our lives we have looked up to Masons, the best men of the community, solid, substantial men with good moral reputations and church connections.

To awaken Masons to the danger, that they may save their lives and their country is the purpose of this light. Our attention was called to this matter when we realized that every country in which Masonry was strong has fallen to communism, the front for Judaism. Another eye opener has been the way in which our Congressmen are taking orders from, or are following New Dealers.

From the very first the New Deal was manned by Jews, a list of whom would almost frighten the American who has given no thought to this situation. Some time soon we shall give such a listing. If the acts performed by your Government in recent years have not opened your eyes to the Jew control, these names may.

Some Americans have investigated a little, they have read Nesta Webster, an English woman, who has done splendid service in exposing Masonry, but, unfortunately, after all her documentation, and painstaking detail, she concludes that

English and American Freemasonry are not as of the Continent. However, her statement, as to America, is not based on factual knowledge as you can see from the history in Women's Voice. Neither could she speak for England, as shown by this passage from "The Hidden Hand" by Col. A. H. Lane of London, England. "English Masons claim that there is no connection between them and the Grand Orient Masonry. But there are Lodges in the British Isles completely controlled by Jews. It is unbelievable that these Jewish Lodges have no connection with Jewish Lodges under Grand Orient Control in other countries."

Her own description of the machinery of the lodges does not warrant the assertion. The Freemasonry machinery of blind and unqualified submission to unknown superiors lends itself to deceit and deception. The fact that there is a secret plane of operations known only to the center of the confidential Brethren, explains why members, themselves, are ignorant of plans.

Our Masons are shocked at suggestions that Masonry is not Christian, yet, the reading of any one of the 20 volumes of their own landmarks and rules would disillusion them.

"To the lesser Brethren is given the delusion that Christianity and Freemasonry are compounded, first, with respect, then Christianity is twisted into a purpose foreign from it"—p. 322 "proof of a conspiracy to Destroy all Religions and all Governments" by Prof. John Robison.

We are interested in America and we do not need quote foreign writers. "The Freemason," Jan. 11, 1935 quoting "instructions" by Albert Pike, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Southern Jurisdiction from Jan. 2, 1859 to April 22, 1891. "That which we must say to the crowd, s, "We worship a God." To you, Sovereign Grand Inspectors General, we say this, that you may repeat it to the Brethren of the 32nd, 31st and 30th degrees, the Masonic Religion should be, "by all of us initiates of the high degrees, maintained in the purity of the Luciferian Doctrine."

I cannot believe that American Masons have ever read their own books. I have been proud of the A.F. & A. M. symbol on my father's monument. I am still proud, it gives me the right to speak without prejudice as I do in love to those, whom I know to be good men, God grant their blind eyes, see, and deaf ears, hear

Fate of our Country

MEMORANDUM, To the Senate of the United States, in opposition to the appointment of Messrs. David E. Lilienthal and Rear Admiral Straus, to the Atomic Energy Commission.

The Atomic Bomb Commission will hold in its hand the fate of our country and of the world. Why, then, should you consider appointing anyone whose allegiance to our country can be questioned?

Is it not an admitted fact that the only country which can threaten America is Russia? Is not Russia controlled by Communists? Does not the Communist consider his highest loyalty to the Party, and an oath of loyalty to any country mockery, since an oath is predicated upon belief in God?

William Z. Foster, Communist leader in America, in his own book, "Syndicalism," says: "The Communist is unscrupulous in his choice of weapons. He allows no consideration of loyalty, religion, patriotism, honor, duty, etc., to stand in the way of his adoption of effective tactics."

Benjamin Gitlow, Communist candidate for the vice-presidency of the United States in 1924 and 1928, said, "The policy which Stalin has launched in the United States rests on deceit."

The orders from Moscow to Communist agents in the United States call for the abolition of "present government, Christianity, patriotism, private property, family, etc." ("Syndicalism" by Foster, pp's 85 and 86.)

For protection of the United States is the atom bomb our dependence! Consider, then, if Russia already has it.

In the "Jewish Voice," under date, of August 7, 1945, there is a statement to the effect that there was an agreement to swap secrets as early as Teheran, 1943, with this comment: "Under this agreement, it would seem that Russia already has the bomb secret."

In the Berkeley laboratory, where the bomb "secret" was so carefully guarded, no one without a Communist card could work. Do we deceive ourselves that we have a secret, or do we delude ourselves that no other country can make it even if they have the secret? The most recent findings of the Scientists are to the effect that the bomb can now be made comparatively cheaply.

You men who hold in your hands the fate of a nation and of the world should weigh well the character of those to whom America's bomb is entrusted. Never was George Washington's warning more fitting: "See to it that ye put only native sons on guard this night."

A native son can have no divided allegiance.

One other suggested member does not in our opinion qualify — Rear Admiral Straus of the firm Kuhn Loeb & Co., who is also chairman of Jewish DC Relief for Russia, according to "Who's Who in American Jewry." It is a fact established beyond question that the firm of Kuhn Loeb & Co. financed the Russian Revolution. (American Secret Service Report, 1920.)

That Kuhn Loeb & Co. is one of the sovereign heads of Russia was shown by the superb reception given to Mrs. Otto Kahn, granddaughter of Mr. Wolf, one of the founders of Kuhn Loeb & Co. and wife of the present head of that house.

"Russia, when it is equipped, will be the only country able to compete with the United States for lordship of the world. In the match between these two heavyweights, the International Finance of the United States will have trained the adversary." Comte de St. Bulaure, 1937.

You, Mr. Senator, are at the crossroads of Eternity. I appreciate your terrible responsibility and wish to help you. It will be enlightening if you read the enclosed article by a Jew, Mr. Henry Klein.

Believe me, Sir, I am at your service in the service of our country.

Copies of reference documents will be sent upon request.

WHAT EVERY JEW SHOULD KNOW

Don't go to Jerusalem! If you value your life, if you value the lives of your children, if you have any shred of faith in the Word of God, then, dear Jewish reader, keep out of Jerusalem!

Don't go to Jerusalem! The prophet Isaiah has solemnly warned us that the whole land will be made desolate: "Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt: and they shall be afraid: . . . Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it" (Isaiah 13:6-9).

Don't go to Jerusalem! The leaders of the Zionistic movement, as every Jew knows, are without God, and God is not in all their thoughts. They make bargains and treaties and agreements, with the League of Nations, with Great Britain, with all sorts of peoples, many of them also without God, and many of them never intending to keep the promises they are now being given so freely. Against this terrible mistake God warned us many years ago through our own prophet Jeremiah, when he told us: "Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord" (Jeremiah 17:5).

Don't go to Jerusalem! At the present time, leaders in Palestine are congratulating themselves upon their wonderful achievements in agriculture, and especially upon the rapidly increasing production of oranges. God's Word foretold this planting of trees, but added a tragic warning; "Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips: (Isaiah 17-10, 11).

Don't go to Jerusalem! The greatest war and the greatest battle that the world has ever seen is going to take place just outside of Jerusalem in the valley known as Megiddo. So terrible will be this battle that all the world's scholars and writers who wish to express in the English language the most awful picture possible of war and bloodshed, invariably use the expression, "The Battle of Armageddon," which in our Hebrew language means, the battle of Har-Megiddo.

Don't go to Jerusalem! Our leaders have forgotten that God told us in Psalm 127:1, "Except the Lord built the house, they labor in vain that built it; except the Lord keep the city, the watchmen waketh but in vain." Every Jew should know that if there is any future hope for our people, it can only come from God.

And for you, dear Jewish reader, the answer for you, at this present time, is that you shall now turn to the Lord Jesus Christ, wherever you are—in America, in Poland, in England, or in any other part of the world. Turn to Him now, with sincere repentance for your sins, and put your trust in Him. He, the Holy and just One, died for us the unholy, that He might take all our sins upon Himself, give us His own righteousness, and bring us to God. Believe this and accept it for yourself, and you will become a child of God, born again with a new and everlasting life, through His Holy Spirit within you. Then you will be sure of your eternal salvation. You will be sure of yourself and your family, if your family also will believe, that you know where you are going, when your short span of life is finished here on this earth. You will no longer wish to go to Jerusalem, and you will escape the terrible judgment of bloodshed and suffering that is to come upon that city. You will always have God's mercy and help now in this life, and afterwards, in the life to come, you will have joy forever.

Read the Protocols

Protocol 17—"We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of the Goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth which in these days might still be a great hinderance to us." "When the time comes finally to destroy the papal court the finger of an invisible hand will point the nations toward the court."

"The Federal Council of Churches" endorsed the appointment of Mr. Lilienthal. This Organization presumes to speak for 20,000,000 or is it 50,000,000 protestants. Although the members of protestant congregations do no voting on policies of the council. Its delegates meet only once every four years.

"The Rev. Thomas E. O'Connell on behalf of the Catholic Committee of the South praised Lilienthal. He said his organization represents one and a half million of the laity, besides bishops and priests of the Southern States."

Protocol Eleven: "The Gentiles are like a flock of sheep." "Truly, sheep are these great congregations, who permit a few to speak for them in defense of a man whose adherence to Communism is an open question. The first "ideal" of communism is, "The abolition of all forms of religious beliefs." You can't intelligently read the day's news without a copy of the protocols at hand.

FINAL PROOF

Professor Schwartz - Bostunitch gives the following information in his new book JUDISCHE IMPERIALISMUS; . . .

"At the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus in A.D. certain of the golden regalia of the temple were taken to Rome as booty of war. When the vandals sacked Rome in A. D. 455, the valuables changed hands again; later the Byzantine Emperor Justinian I, destroyed the African kingdom of the Vandals and obtained possession of the Jewish treasures which were taken to Constantinople.

"What is not generally known is that at the time of Titus' attack on Jerusalem, the Jews had succeeded in burying the more important items, such as the tables of the Law of Moses, Aaron's rod, Solomon's crown, David's sceptre, etc. The hiding place was on Mount Moriah, where in the 7th century, Kalif Abdulmelik built a mosque; there they remained until 1909, when a party of American freemasons attacked the watchmen and dug up the treasure . . .

"The Jewish regalia are now to be found in the Grand Lodge at Charleston, South Carolina, U. S. A. which was the scene of the activity of the notorious Masonic Chief of the Scottish Rites, Albert Pike (a Jew).

(The Charleston Lodge was started in 1783 by two Jews, Morin and Dacosta, the site being selected because it was on the 33rd degree of latitude).

I have received one of your papers. It should be in every home in America. I send $2.00 for a year's subscription. Best wishes.

Farewell Address

"Observe good faith and Justice towards all Nations. Cultivate peace and harmony with all . . . Religion and Morality enjoin this conduct; and can it be that good policy does not equally enjoin it? It will be worthy of a free, enlightened, and at no distant period, a great Nation, to give to mankind the magnanimous and too novel example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence . . . In the execution of such plan nothing is more essential than that permanent, inveterate antipathies against particular Nations and passionate attachments for others should be excluded . . . a passionate attachment of one Nation for another produces a variety of evils. Sympathy for the favorite nation, facilitating the illusion of an IMAGINARY COMMON INTEREST, in the cases where no real common interest exists, and influencing into one the enmities of the other, betrays the former into a participation in the quarrels and Wars of the latter, without adequate inducement of justification. It leads also to concessions to the favourite Nation of privileges denied to others, which is apt doubly to injure the Nation making the concessions . . . by unnecessarily parting with what ought to be retained and by exciting jealousy, ill will, and a disposition to retaliate, in the parties from whom equal privileges are withheld; And it gives to ambitious, corrupted, or deluded citizens (who devote themselves to the favourite Nation) facility to betray, or sacrifice the interests of their own country, without odium, sometimes even with popularity; gilding with the appearances of a virtuous sense of obligation a commendable deference for public opinion, or a laudable zeal for public good, the base or foolish compliances of ambition, corruption or infatuation.

"Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence, (I conjure you to believe me fellow citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake; since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of Republican Government . . . Real Patriots, who may resist the intrigues of the favourite, are liable to become suspected and odious; while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people, to surrender their interests.

"The Great Rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign Nations, is in extending our commercial relations to have with them as little POLITICAL connection as possible. So far as we have already formed engagements let them be fulfilled, with perfect good faith. HERE LET US STOP."

G. Washington

LET US BE FAIR

The time has come to evaluate the hard lessons of the last few years. In the United States we have learned that party political names mean nothing—Republican or Democrat—they are under one control. Those in control always win, the people always lose.

We are fooled by "labels" with propaganda ground out by the machine to prove that all Republicans—or Methodists or whatever the case, are good—and all Democrats or Catholics or whatever, are bad, or vice versa.

Now that we do see the chicanery, let us act as individuals and meet each other as individuals. Let political distinction be wholly on the line of for or against the Constitutional form of our Republic.

The awakening has so far progressed that we can apply the same rule to countries. All countries are under one control—the hidden government—with agents in each country who control the nominal officials. They have thrown us at each other's throats—in order to achieve their ends. We fight their wars; they reap the harvest.

When we began this work, knowing of the terrible crimes which the British Empire had committed in our own country—in Ireland, India, China, Egypt, etc.—we blamed Britain and condemned the English people for permitting their Government to do such things. That was before the atomic bomb—before the wanton destruction of Dresden—before the Allies' post-war crimes!

We condemned Germany for sending Lenin and Trotsky into Russia, but that was before we knew that American bankers financed them in their killing of millions of white Russians.

Has there ever been a crime to compare with the utter savagery of the atomic bomb, which was an open furnace, burning and destroying men, women and children, in a manner more fiendish than Sadists' of old ever conceived. Yet, our nation did that, and we, the American people, have a greater voice in government than any people ever had!

What had the German people to say—while the Jew bankers worked hand in glove with the Jew bankers of England, France and the United States? What voice had the English people? That 1700 of them went to prison is proof that they knew more than we did.

In order to like one country, is it necessary to hate another? We do not so act in our private lives; neither do we attack a friend because he has some character trait or habit which offends. Take the separate people and their rulers out from under their labels and see them as individuals. You don't hate the Romans because of Caligula—neither do you wish to be branded with the sins of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Be fair to the peoples of other countries more helpless than you.

The success of the schemes has been because of the secrecy, and that is why we are not interested in their tools or fronts, but in the plot and the plotters. Who are they? There can be no question that the "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion." Ninety-five per cent of the Jews may not know any more than we do, yet we see no way to awaken people except to point the light at the Sanhedrin as Jesus did—and the Jews themselves must follow Klein's example. We urge everyone who has any milk of human kindness in his soul to read and re-read the "Protocols." Read also Henry Klein's "The Sanhedrin Caused World Destruction" and "The Zionist Movement Unmasked" by Dr. I. M. Rabinowitch, which was published in The Montreal Daily Star of October 8, 1946. Reprinted in "Destiny" Dec., 1946, Haverhill, Mass.

CALIFORNIA WOMEN SPEAK

CALIFORNIA UNIT—ADELLE COX, PRESIDENT - 2887 LEWARD AVENUE, LOS ANGELES 5, CALIFORNIA

Dear Editor:

Not a day passes that I do not fervently know the truth about your glorious stand for true, Scientific Christianity and your wonderfully fearless uncovering of the "one evil." I have fairly wept for joy in seeing this latter. "Many are willing to open the eyes of the people to the power of good residen in divine Mind but they are not so willing to point out the evil in human thought and expose evil's hidden ways of accomplishing iniquity." (Read also lines 4 to 21 on p. 571.) Powerful words which the orthodox C. S. will not see.

The last number of Women's Voice is the most startling in its expose of any yet. The article on front page "American people will hang next" should raise the "dead." I have long prayed that some God-given courage would speak out in plain and simple language that this article does, saying exactly what the CAUSE of this world evil actually is and what it threatens to do to Christianity.

The crimes this "Hidden Hand" has committed can never be fully told; it is beyond all human concept. The yell "crucify Him" "CRUCIFY HIM" against one who exposed them 2000 years ago was cheerfully consented to by the world and now in this age their vicious yell "crucify, kill, destroy, annihilate, wipe from the face of the earth" a nation the highest spiritual expression the world has yet known, because it again exposed the hidden hand and told the world plainly what would happen if force and violence again seemed to triumph—and the whole world and practically all the professing Christians (including the c. sts.) mildly and quietly agree and are still at the murderous work of destroying this nation, believing "they are doing God's service" as Jesus said. I have been simply aghast that no voice was found, no word of defense allowed when hatred and revenge murdered hundreds of thousands AFTER military force declared itself victorious and this is even now going on. Do we dare think the false Christians will ever be spared the penalty for this crime; they will not.

I have wanted for months to tell you something which I know you could never have heard. When we used to make trips to the Mother Church at Communion time I met for several years students from abroad—Germany, Italy, France and England. One of them, I will not write her name, but can tell you later—from Berlin always had interviews with our Leader at these Seasons and for several years had been urging a German translation of S. & H. Mrs. E. protested to her year after year that no student had yet been found who could give the true spiritual meaning of S. & H. in translation but that it would come in time. The year of 1904 was my last visit with this student; I had spent many hours in splendid talks with her for she was unusually clear and with just one thought forever in her work, the demonstration of Christian Science. In this last talk she said (practically) "I want to confide to you something our Leader has said to me; you know we students are expected never to repeat or quote what she tells us and has warned of the danger in C. S. practice if this rule would not be followed; this is so very vital to me and means so much to the Cause and has given me such spiritual uplifting, I know if I share it with you, that you will never repeat it but will treasure it as I do." I assured her with the exception of my brother (we were in the practice 30 years in Chicago) and my foster son, Leonard. I have never repeated this incident to a living person; I told these two closest to me about this only a few months ago. Well when our Leader was comforting Mrs. R. about not having a German translation of S. & H., she suddenly put her hand out on her arm and said in effect), "do not let it cast the slightest shadow in your thoughts for I can and do now assure you that your nation will be the first AS A NATION to accept Christian Science."

During the past five ghastly years how many times I have awakened in the night and wept for joy that I had been blessed by knowing this message from our Leader. Of course Jesus looked good and dead for three days (it might have been 3000) and while Germany looks dead and we are not permitted one word from any true German, and while the fear to even say "German" is so intense and the C. S. Journal even removed the names of the C. S. Churches and the practitioners (to conform to the dictates of the High Priests), we know Germany was never more alive, never more triumphant in her whole history than she is today.

The cost of uncovering evil may mean the loss of one's physical life, but uncovering evil is two-thirds its destruction and the "remaining third destroys itself."

I must also say your article handling the "race" in the last issue is perfect! Every word of it rings clear and true. A short article headed "Cause and Effect" is most powerful. I cannot see that this country will not be made to pay for the crime, even tho innocently (?) committed. This country has never had the slightest cause for enmity against Germany but contrarywise has every reason for an indebtedness to Germany for its spiritual growth and leadership. I have studied the life and writings of Luther for many years. How he urged and pleaded that the new movement not use his name, but kept repeating "all followers of Christ should be called Christians". I cannot understand why this error should have obtained among the Germans.

NOTICE!

..The response to our plea that each state take the responsibility for educating the Congressmen has been gratifying. Thank you.. However, there is still some way to go. Make it your business. If your Congressmen don't know, that's your fault. If they do know and still follow foreign "isms", you know how to deal with them. Keep your letters going in. America will not be preserved by crowds of trained seals; but rather by conscious co-operation of individuals.

"And each good thought or action moves the dark world nearer the sun"

John G. Whittier

An Expose of the Plot of Plotters Against American Youth

PART II

We shall endeavor to show you and to make it plain. Corroborating and substantiating evidence is on every hand for those who will but seek and search for it. But the truth is often shocking, painful and horrifying; so many people don't like it and shrink from facing it squarely on that account. To the fearless and informed intellectuals, however, Communism and British-Israelism ARE UNITED AS ONE, in so far as their plot against Christian civilization is concerned, the battle cry for their godless UNO being, "RACIAL EQUALITY!" "DEMOCRACY!" "THE BROTHERHOOD OF MAN!"

By "Racial Equality" they do not mean equal opportunity and protection under the law, as we recognize the meaning here in the United States, but they mean to break down all barriers to their own kind by degrading the civilized, cultured Christian peoples of the Earth to a level of political and social "equality" with all the hottentots, savages, half-breeds and outlaws of all the mongrel races on Earth and, through miscegenation and lawless abandon of all morality and divine or natural law, they intend to completely exterminate Israel (the original Twelve White Tribes) whom God forbade that they should inter-marry with unbelievers, especially the Canaanite murderers. (Genesis XXVIII-1.) But Judah married a Canaanite (Genesis 38-2). And so did the Benjamites who kidnapped their wives from the dancers at Shiloh in the land of Canaan. (Judges XXI-23.)

So persistent are these Canaanite murderers and those who have debauched themselves by inter-marrying with them in disobedience to the laws of God, that in their wars of conquest for power, riches and world dominion they never spare the women in the countries they invade and lay waste in battle, but invariably they rape the women and girls and take them as chattel slaves to rob them of their virtue and racial purity. Those who resist, they kill. That practice is as old as the history of war itself, which began with the Canaanites (descendants of Cain who murdered his brother Abel) who are the instigators of ALL wars that have ever been fought in the history of the world, for war is wholesale mudrer and nothing else, and war has never settled a controversy.

In the war still raging in Europe and Asia (World War II which has not yet been officially ended, though "unconditional surrender" was made long ago) the "Ravishing the Women of Conquered Europe" (title of a vivid exposure by Austin J. App, Ph. D. of San Antonio, Texas), has been going on now without any remonstrance from the heads in authority of the so-called "Christian" nations ever since "unconditional surrender." Millions of Christian women and girls of all ages from 8 to 20 have been violated by these beasts of hell—rape being one of the "conditions" not to be excepted in "unconditional surrender" — this to the horror and shame of all Christendom that allows Anti-Christian Canaanites to run their governments, usurp their credit, coin their money, collect compound usury on it, negotiate all international trade and treaties and to do all bargaining for them (even to the bartering of human souls for rape and slave labor), and to frame them into war, and to mortgage their children to make foreign loans, and to do all their spending of Lend-Lease, public charities and gifts for the poor, and to tell them what they may or may not have left to eat, wear or use.

By "Democracy" nobody knows exactly what is meant, for the term has been so loosely used by the ignorant and untutored, having been so long worked over-time by the international, anti-national hate mongers and propagandists. Its literal interpretation would seem to be "demons gone crazy." It is something we were to have made the world "safe" for in World War I, though many soldiers who went through that bloody holocaust do not know yet what they fought for. However, Winston Churchill, Ex-Premier of England, informs us now—after we have financed Britain in two of her wars and fought both of them for her to be left holding the bag for her debts to us both times, and now forced to pay the British extortionate premiums to buy back our own products on which she glutted the markets with our Lend-Lease cash, at the same time cash reserves for post-war rehabilitation throughout the British Empire were being built up also from our Lend-Lease cash; and in addition to all this loot siphoned out of the pockets of "Uncle Sap" the British-Yiddish Empire has had the unmitigated gall to extort another "loan" or gift of 3¾ billions from us, her once recalcitrant Colony — AFTER ALL THIS — Churchill now tells us that "Democracy is a word to be used and later cast aside." These Britishers also inform us that . . . "You people in the United States don't have a Government any more."

We have long known that ever since the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and the passage of the National Bank Act of 1863 which made bank notes or "fountain pen money" legal tender in place of constitutional "greenbacks", our U. S. Treasury has been a mere subsidiary of the Bank of England (House of Rothschild—a one-way subsidy with all going out of our Treasury and nothing coming in—for it was Amschel Rothschild who said, "Let me coin a nation's currency and I care not who makes its laws.")

But as to this thing called "Democracy", our Founding Fathers knew enough about it to know that it had failed miserably in the Old World which it had reduced to shambles; so they determined to set up here something entirely different. Thus "under God" (and they put "In God We Trust" on their coin) they established here a White Man's Christian Republic with a Constitution which guarantees in its Article IV—"to every State in the Union a REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT, and shall protect each of them against invasion, etc."

It is that very Constitution and Republic which gives equal protection under the law to those saboteurs and termites who are boring from without and within to destroy their own protection. Aren't they dumb, when they know they have been kicked out of every Nation on Earth except this — twice out of Spain, three times out of France, seven times out of Germany? You would think they would learn to try to be decent and law abiding, especially in a country that has given asylum to the oppressed of all nations and where never before have they enjoyed such opportunities, unmolested privileges, and high standard of living on the fat of the land as here in the U.S.A. But they are not satisfied; their greed and inborn beastiality makes them want to own all other human beings as their serfs and slaves.

The Hazard Circular, published by inter-national bankers in Lincoln's day, states: "Slavery is likely to be abolished by the war power and chattel slavery abolished. This I and my European friends are in favor of, for chattel slavery is but the owning of labor and carries with it the care of the laborers; while the European plan, led on by England, is that capital shall control labor by controlling wages.

"The great debt that capitalists will see to it is made out of the war, must be used to control the volume of money. To accomplish this the bonds must be used as a banking basis. We are now waiting for the Secretary of the Treasury to make this recommendation to Congress.

"It will not do to allow the green-back, as it is called, to circulate as money any length of time, as we cannot control that; but we can control the bonds and through them the bank issues."

That was 83 years ago. One gang of Jewish bankers financed the South to get them to secede and break up the Union; another financed the North. They have been collecting COMPOUND USURY on all their counterfeit money and bonds ever since, and every American is a slave under irredeemable debt and his children are born in bondage, whether he is bright enough to know it or not; and this they call "Democracy!"

SENATE BILL NO. 265 Senator Capper

Capper's bill prohibits transportation of all advertisements of all alcoholic beverages in interstate commerce. Such advertising is barred from the U. S. mails, radios and all channels of communication. The penalty for violation is imprisonment and heavy fines. A similar bill will be introduced in the lower House of Congress. The intent of Capper's bill is to protect the future welfare of the Nation's children, and to protect the homes against such immoral advertising. Write your Congressman asking him to support Senate Bill No. 265. It is the basic duty of all men and all mothers to eternally protect the future welfare of all children.

ORGANIZATIONS

The history of all organizations is the story of the betrayal of ideals. The leaders' words are mouthed but the spirit is gone. Jesus said: "The letter killeth but the spirit maketh alive."

Generally, there are four phases: A leader with the vision for the betterment of mankind imparts that high ideal to a few faithful, who as missionaries, go forth with the glad tidings. They are despised and rejected, but their spirit falters not, and they gain here and there a convert. Invariably they are regarded as "seditionists" and "disturbers of the peace," persecuted by those whom they would help. As they gain in numbers they lose in spirit. The leader's warning, "shun popularity" fades away; material comforts replace principles. The fourth and last phase is complete loss of the shining watchword "service."

Jesus Christ reached his strong, loving hand to the poor and humble. Today the temples dedicated to Him are for the rich and powerful, and the worth of His disciples is judged by their bank balance and standing in the community.

His vicars oppress His "little ones". They are not welcome in His church, where attendance and ability to pay are the only standards of spirituality. Could Jesus Christ Himself enter any Christian church, where war is condoned and glorified? What would Jesus say to a Christian (?) nation which used the atomic bomb to destroy thousands of His innocent little ones? -a nation which follows the old Testament God of Vengeance and Cruelty, as it murders and enslaves the men, and rapes the women and children.

Jesus Christ ended the old dispensation of an "eye for an eye". On the Cross He said: "It is finished." Today His words fall like stinging lashes. "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. Therefore ye shall receive the greatest damnation." (Math. 23:14)

Not one church confessed that they "knew Him". All, like Peter, said: "We knew Him not", and they followed the War crowd to Calvary. They sold War bonds. They gave blood to the blood banks. They gave to the Red Cross.... anything and everything to ease their consciences.

Just like the Roman soldiers, they, at the command of the Sanhedrin, Crucified Him.

Christianity has been prostituted. When they talk of a "new religion" the only religion worthy of a child of God is the return to the pure religion of Jesus Christ. But it is a stalwart religion. It takes more backbone than men have. Have you heard one man with courage enough to throw off his little rags of self-justification and not say "We had to lick Hitler?" The Sanhedrin told us Hitler must be destroyed. Now he is gone; Who will be the next goat?

The most glaring example of betrayal in our times is the Christian Science church, the most condemnable of all churches, for while they profess to discount matter, yet they joined the War-monger and said: "We must fight for right". We must join England and fight Germany." The two countries had "War." Call it "measles" or "cancer" they made it a reality and right there they violated the foundation of Mrs. Eddy's teaching. Utterly disregarding her injunction, "Follow me only as long as I follow Christ" they had Christ's commands, augmented by their leader's: "War is not in the domain of good. War weakens power and must finally fall, pierced by its own sword." Also, "I am absolutely and religiously opposed to War, whereas I do believe in full efficacy of divine love to conciliate by arbitration all quarrels between nations and people.

Jesus Christ said: Fear not them which kill the body, but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."

We're wondering about the message in Mrs. Prentiss' letter. Slavery need not touch the soul of the slave, but owning a slave does destroy the soul of the owner. Our country gave into slavery, prisoners of War, fellow Christians. We have degraded ourselves -we own slaves. That we have loaned them to England, France and Russia merely accents our hypocrisy and degradation: Our betrayal.

Judge not leaders by their followers -the finest structure can be ruined from within.

"Is Freemasonry World Jewry?"

"A HISTORY OF THE YORK AND SCOTTISH RITES OF FREEMASONRY"

By Henry Ridgely Evans, Litt. D. (Inspector General Honorary of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. Washington, D. C., The Masonic Service Association of The United States, (1924).

On May 31, 1801, there was organized in the old Colonial City of Charleston, S. C., by Colonel John Mitchell and Dr. Frederick Dalcho, two eminent Freemasons who had served in the Revolutionary War, the "Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of the Thirty-third Degree for the United States of America." There was no fanfaronade of trumpets to celebrate this event, but it nevertheless marked an epoch in the history of Freemasonry. From the sprang phoenix-like from the ashes of many old and burnt-out Masonic systems, a new and vigorous Order — the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite — that was destined to play a significant role on the world's stage.

The Scottish Rite of Freemasonry has a most interesting history. In its development it has been allied, more or less, with the Jacobite movement in Scotland and England, with the Cabalistic and Rosicrucian societies of Europe, and with much that is fascinating and romantic in the history of France. It is an evolution from the Scottish or Templar Masonry of the eighteenth century, and to tell its story properly one must go back to a period antedating the birth of the Rite at Charleston, in 1801. P42.

"One chief idea," says Gould, "runs through all these Scots degrees—the discovery in a vault by Scottish Crusaders of the long lost and ineffable word; also, that in this search they had to work with the sword in one hand and the trowel in the other. The epoch referred to is, however, that of the Crusades, not that of Zerubbabel's (or the second) Temple." Gould's History of Freemasonry. Philadelphia (c. 1898), Vol. 3, p. 346.) The Scots

Master claimed to be superior to the Master Mason, "to be possessed of the true history, secret and design of Freemasonry." The Scots lodge eventually usurped the prerogatives of a Grand Lodge and issued warrants of constitution. Very early in France, some of the Scots lodges fabricated degrees that connected Masonry with the Knights Templars. In 1741, the Masons of Lyons evolved the Kadosh degree, which represents the vengeance of the Templars. P47-48, ("Kadosh, the Holy One" from "The Legends of the Jews" by Louis Ginzberg, Page 6, Vol. I. Published by The Jewish Pub. Society, Philadelphia, Pa., 1913.)

In 1754 there was organized at Paris, by the Chevalier de Bonneville, the celebrated Chapter of Clermont. This system of Masonry was called the Rite of Perfection, or Rite of Heredom.

The Rite of Perfection, or Heredom, consisted of twenty-five degrees as follows: (1) Apprentice; (2) Fellow Craft; (3) Master; (4) Secret Master; (5) Perfect Master; (6) Intimate Secretary; (7) Intendant of the Building; (8) Provost and Judge; (9) Elect of the Nine; (10) Elect of Fifteen; (11) Illustrious Elect, Chief of the Twelve Tribes; (12) Grand Master Architect; (13) Royal Arch; (14) Grand Elect Ancient Perfect Master; (15) Knight of the Sword; (16) Prince of Jerusalem; (17) Knight of the East and West; (18) Rose Croix; (19) Grand Pontiff; (20) Grand Patriarch; (21) Grand Master of the Key of Masonry; (22) Prince of Libanus; (23) Sovereign Prince Adept; (24) Illustrious Knight Commander of the Black and White Eagle; (25) Most Illustrious Sovereign Prince of Masonry, Grand Knight Sublime Commander of the Royal Secret.

"Most of these degrees," says Enoch T. Carson, "possibly all of them, had been floating about in France, detached from each other for many years before. The Chevalier de Bonneville simply arranged and grouped them together." The names of these degrees, for the most part, are familiar to Scottish Rite Masons of today. In fact, the Rite of Perfection was the fountain head of our present Scottish Rite system. The Rite of Perfection was originally known as the Ancient and Accepted Rite, and when it was eventually absorbed in a still higher body, it became the "Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry." The assumption of the name "Scottish" was in deference to legends that connected the Rite with Scotland.

With the passing of the Chapter of Clermont in Paris, after four years of activity, the Rite of Perfection in France went out of existence for a time, but it was revived in 1758 or 1759, in Paris, by a new body calling itself the Council of Emperors of the East and West. A rival body to this Council was organized in Paris, on July 22, 1762; it took the name of the Council of Knights of the East. In 1781 both of these organizations became incorporated with the Grand Orient of France, which "held the Rite of Perfection within itself."

In the year 1762, the Council of the Emperors of the East and West and the Council of Princes of the Royal Secret of Bordeaux, meeting at Bordeaux, adopted the Grand Constitutions, in thirty-five articles. They are known in Masonry as the Grand Constitutions of 1762, and form one of the pillars of our modern Scottish Rite system.

"On the 25th of October (1762), the Grand Masonic Constitution were finally ratified in Berlin, and proclaimed for the government of all Lodges of Sublime and Perfect Masons, Chapters, Councils, Colleges and Consistories of the Royal and Military art of Freemasonry, over the surface of the two hemispheres. There are Secret Constitutions, which have existed from time immemorial, and are alluded to, in these instruments."

The Grand Constitution of 1762 declare that the Rite of Perfection or Heredom consists of twenty-five degrees divided into seven classes.

On August 27, 1761, the Council of the Emperors of the East and West granted a patent to Stephen Morin empowering him to introduce the higher degrees into the West Indies and America, and to appoint Inspectors General of the Rite of Perfection. Morin, who was an Inspector and a Sovereign Prince Mason (then the twenty-fifth, now the thirty-second degree), was about to sail for America. His patent was signed by the chiefs of the Council of Emperors of the East and West and by officers of the National Grand Lodge who were members of the Council of Emperors. Says Albert Pike (A Historical Inquiry in regard to the Grand Constitutions of 1786, p. 176): "The authority to Morin was, it seems, a joint authority given by both bodies . . . : the Grand Lodge giving him power to establish a symbolic, and making him a kind of Deputy Grand Master for America, and the Grand Council giving him power to confer the higher degrees, and the rank of Inspector over all bodies of those degrees, with power of substitution." There was attached to his patent, or was sent to him soon after his appointment, a copy of the Constitutions of 1762, as they were drawn up by the Council of the Emperors of the East and West, etc. p. 53.

Stephen Morin never set foot on the mainland of the American Continent. At a date prior to 1767, he appointed Henry Andrew Francken, a Deputy Inspector General, with power to establish the Rite in the American colonies. Francken came to New York in 1767, and organized a Lodge of Perfection at Albany, sometime between the years 1767 and 1770, Francken commissioned Moses M. Hayes, of Massachusetts, a Deputy Inspector General and he in turn commissioned Isaac Do Costa, who in 1783, established a Sublime Grand Lodge of Perfection in Charleston, S. C. On February 20, 1788, a Grand Council of Princes of Jerusalem was founded in Charleston, S. C., by Joseph Myers, a Deputy Inspector holding his authority from Moses M. Hayes. "This," declares Carson, "was the first and only Council of Princes of Jerusalem as a distinct and separate body, organized in this country before the organization of the Supreme Council in Charleston, 1801."

All the Deputy Grand Inspectors General met in Sublime Council in Philadelphia in 1794 and commissioned Moses Cohen as Deputy, and he commissioned Hyman Isaac Long in 1795.

A sublime Grand Council of Princes of the Royal Secret was organized in Charleston, S. C., on January 13, 1797, by Jean Baptiste Marie de la Hogue, and others, under authority given to them by Hyman Isaac Long, as Deputy Grand Inspector, acting for the Princes of Masonry at Kingston. "This," says Carson, "was approved by the Grand Council of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret at Kingston, Jamaica, August 10, 1797, and was the first Consistory S.P.R.S. 250, organized in this country." (Gould's History of Freemasonry, p. 633.)

We now reach the Grand Climax of the Rite of Perfection in this country, when like a serpent—ancient symbol of wisdom and eternity—it was to slough its skin and appear in newer and more brilliant colors.

It began in this wise: In 1781, at Charleston, S. C., Moses M. Hayes made Barend M. Spitzer, of Georgia, a Deputy Grand Inspector General of the Rite of Perfection, and on April 2, 1795, Spitzer granted to John Mitchell "a patent raising him to the degree of K.H., and further to the highest degree in Masonry, and creating him Deputy Grand Inspector General.

On May 25, 1801, Inspector General Mitchell granted a patent to Frederick Dalcho, certifying him to be a K.H. and Prince of the Royal Secret, and creating him a Deputy Grand Inspector General. And, then, suddenly there sprang into being at Charleston, S. C., on May 31, 1801, the Supreme Council of the Thirty-third Degree for the United States of America.

"This Supreme Council," remarks Richardson, "came without a herald, and was to all appearances fully matured and developed in its very beginning." It was opened with the high honors of Masonry by Bros. John Mitchell and Frederick Dalcho, Sovereign Grand Inspectors General. In the course of the year, the whole number (nine) of Grand Inspectors General was completed, agreeably to the Grand Constitutions. The Supreme Council, on December 4, 1802, issued a Circular announcing the formation of the new body, and setting forth its origin and history. It recognized the Grand Constitutions of 1762, p.57.

The first Register of the Supreme Council of 1802 lists the officers and members as follows: Col. John Mitchell, Sovereign Grand Commander; Dr. Frederick Dalcho, Lieut. Grand Commander, Emanuel de la Motta, Treas. Gen. of the Holy Empire; Major T. B. Bowen, Grand Master of Ceremonies; and Israel de Lieben, Dr. Isaac Auld, Moses C. Levi and Dr. James Moultrie, as Sovereign Grand Inspectors General. The fact must be noted that the two bodies of Sublime Masonry founded in this country, the one at Albany, N. Y., in 1767, and the other at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1781, recognized a Grand Council at Berlin, with Frederick of Prussia at its head, as the governing body of all

Sublime Freemasonry in "both hemispheres."

In the year 1813 Emanuel de la Motta, Sovereign Grand Inspector General of the Mother Supreme Council at Charleston, came to New York invested with full authority to establish a Supreme Council. p63. Finally, in 1868, the Raymond Hayes and the Van Rensselaer bodies came together, in what has been called the Union, and were acknowledged by the Mother Supreme Council at Charleston, as the only legitimate Supreme Council in the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction. Josiah H. Drummond, of Maine, was elected Sovereign Grand Commander, and the Grand Orient was established at Boston, with executive offices in New York City. P65.

After what has been said about spurious Rites of Freemasonry, it behooves the aspirant for the Scottish Rite degrees to remember that there are in the United States but two regular and legitimate Scottish Rite Bodies, viz.:

1. The Supreme Council (Mother Council of the World of the Inspectors General, Knights Commander of the House of the Temple of Solomon) of the Thirty-third and Last Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, whose "See" is at Charleston, S. C., but whose executive offices are located at Washington, D. C. P65. As regards the Army and Navy of the United States, the Southern Supreme Council has jurisdiction conjointly with the Northern Supreme Council.

2. The Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of the Thirty-third and Last Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America, whose "Orient" is at Boston, Mass., but whose administrative offices are in New York City. P66.

The Northern and Southern Supreme Councils are in relations of amity and fraternal correspondence with the following foreign Masonic powers:

The Supreme Councils of the Argentine Republic; Belgium; Brazil; Canada, Central America, Chile, United States of Columbia, Colon (Cuba); Czecho-Slovakia, Dominican Republic, Equador, Egypt, England and Wales; France and its dependencies; Greece, Ireland, Italy, Mexico, Netherlands, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Scotland, Serbia, Croatia and Slovenia; Switzerland, Turkey, Uruguay, Venezuela, and the Grand Lodges of Denmark, Norway and Sweden. P67.

The Supreme Council is the governing body of the Scottish Rite. It enacts all laws and statutes for the government of the various divisions of the Rite, and confers the 33d degree, Sovereign Grand Inspector General. P68.

It will be seen from the foregoing that a Supreme Council is a self-perpetuating body, which alone has power to determine who shall sit in the grand areopagus. Official positions in the Southern Supreme Council are for life. In the Northern Supreme Council, however, elections are held every three years, but as depositions are seldom made, one may say that the officers in this jurisdiction hold their places ad vitam. p. 70.

In the Southern Jurisdiction the degrees constitute a study in comparative religions. Many of them are tinged with the doctrine of the Cabala (The Cabala is of Jewish origin and represents the theosophy of that great race of thinkers. "It combines," says Joseph Jacobs, in his Jewish Contributions to Civilization, "in itself all the mystic elements of the cultures through which Judaism has passed—the ecstasies of the Bible theophanies, the Neo-Platonism of Alexandria, and the Sufism of the Arabs." The word Cabala means to receive; it is a mystical and religious doctrine handed down by oral transmission or tradition. It has been described as a system of cosmogony illustrating the nexus between God and man; a system based to a large extent on numbers like the Pythagorean philosophy; a subtle metaphysics that treats of the nature of God and His emanations veiled in symbols.) and the Hermetic and Rosicrucian teachings, which make them of peculiar interest to students of the occult.

It was owing to the genius of General Albert Pike, who was a deep student of the Cabala and a philosopher of no mean pretensions, that the rituals of the Southern Jurisdiction owe their deeply philosophical and mystical significance. He was the reviser and transformer of the old French rituals, which came to him in almost skeleton shape. He clothed them, prepared lectures for them, and in many instances carefully rewrote them. Albert Pike, soldier, jurist, philosopher and Freemason, was Sovereign Grand Commander of the Southern Jurisdiction from January 2, 1853, until his death, April 22, 1891. p. 79.

... "Historically, our Rite was brought to the Western Hemisphere by Etienne Morin. Most authorities tell us he was a Jew; . . . Morin Deputized Henry Andrew Francken, a Protestant. Francken founded the first body of the Rite upon the continent of America in Albany, N.Y., in 1767.

"In 1783 before there was such a thing as the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, Francken fortunately prepared, in his own handwriting, a register in which he inscribed the ritual of all the degrees of the Rite of perfection from the fourth to the twenty-fifth inclusive. This Rite of perfection was a progenitor of the Ancient and ACCEPTED Scottish Rite. By great good fortune, that register is now in our Archives, and there is no question of its authenticity. In the rituals of these degrees, there is not a word or sentiment which departs from that basic principle of symbolic freemasonry which has just been discussed. Each degree, including the eighteenth, could be taken by a JEW, MOHAMMEDAN, BUDDIST, CHRISTIAN, or any other Monotheist without offense, mental reservation, or equivocation. Page 274 of this register contains "Form of the obligation taken by Israelites in all the degrees from the fifteenth" Francken expressly states that the 18th contained no obligation.

Francken deputized Moses Michael Hays, a Jew.

"Hays deputized Barend Moses Spitzer, also a Jew. Spitzer deputized John Mitchell, a Protestant. Dalcho, the original Lieut. Grand Commander of the Southern Supreme Council, became Sov. Grand Commander in 1816. He was then a Deacon, and in 1818 became a Priest in the Episcopal Church.

"Mitchell and Dalcho, with their associates, in 1801, Crystallized the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite by organizing in that year and the next, the oldest Supreme Council in the world, now the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. Of the Eleven founders of that Supreme Council, in 1801 and 1802, three were Jews and eight were Christians. Three of the latter were Roman Catholics. One of the Jews was the Treasurer General Emanuel de la Motta.

"De La Motta, in 1813, founded the Northern Supreme Council. Its Sovereign Grand Commander was Tompkins, a Christian. Its Lieut. Grand Commander was Sampson Simson, an orthodox Jew. Simson became Sov. Grand Commander in 1825 and was succeeded by Gourgas

Struggles To Come

"Would you fain do something to relieve distress, to eradicate ignorance, to extirpate vice? You must turn to political economy to know their causes, that you may lay the axe to the root of the evil tree. Else all your efforts will be in vain. Philanthropy, unguided by an intelligent apprehension of causes, may palliate or it may intensify, but it cannot cure. If charity could eradicate want, if preaching could make moral, if printing books and building schools could destroy ignorance, none of these things would be known today.

"And there is the greater need that you make yourselves acquainted with the principles of political economy from the fact that, in the immediate future, questions which come within its province must assume a greater and greater importance. To act intelligently in the struggle in which you must take part—for positively or negatively each of you must carry his weight—you must know something of this science.

"The ideas that there is a necessary conflict between capital and labor, that machinery is an evil, that competition must be restrained and interest abolished, that wealth may be created by the issue of money, that it is the duty of government to furnish capital or to furnish work, are rapidly making way among the great body of the people, who keenly feel a hurt and are sharply conscious of a wrong. Such ideas, which bring great masses of men, the repositories of ultimate political power, under the leadership of charlatans and demagogues are fraught with danger.

Economics Alone Can Give the Answer

Political economy alone can give the answer. And, if you trace out, in the way I have tried to outline, the laws of the production and exchange of wealth, you will see the causes of social weakness and disease in enactments which selfishness has imposed on ignorance, and in maladjustments entirely within our own control.

"And you will see the remedies. Not in wild dreams of red destruction nor weak projects for putting men in leading strings to a brainless abstraction called the state, but in simple means sanctioned by justice. You will see in light the great remedy, in freedom the great solvent. You will see that the true law of social life is the law of love, the law of liberty, that the golden rule of morals is also the golden rule of the science of wealth; that the highest expressions of religious truth include the widest generalizations of political economy . . .

"If you have ever felt that the only thing apparent in the ordering of the world was a blind and merciless fate careless of man's aspirations and heedless of his sufferings, these thoughts will pass from you as you see how much of all that is bad and all that is perplexing in our social conditions grows simply from our ignorance of law—as you come to realize how much better and happier men might make the life of man."

Government by Treason

Constant readers of Women's Voice know that we have often stated, quite openly, that many of the acts of recent years have been treasonable to this Republic. Now a book has been published called just that, "Government by Treason."

The text of the book lives up to its title. In plain, simple direct language the treachery of Bretton Woods is exposed, the fraud of the British "loan" and the give-away of countless billions of our wealth.

This book is startling in its clarity and packed with two-fisted punch.

We have read ponderous tomes on the history of our money, its uses and the coinage thereof. Here, with brilliant simplicity, stands forth the fraud, by which a few private individuals cause our money to be manufactured out of nothing. The prime moves behind the scheme of Bretton Woods are shown. How the Treasury of the United States has just decreed that our own Government deposits can now be "secured" by the paper of a phantom bank.

This book clearly has a purpose. All our readers know how hard it has been to convince people that a deep-lain plan has been in operation to take this nation over. Here is the information these people need. It will make thousands of converts to the cause of America . . . and converts are what we need. All of us know we have been far too few, for too long.

GOVERNMENT BY TREASON is much more than a simple expose. Its last chapter deals broadly with the outline of a plan of action to overthrow the tyranny of a world super-state. Its positive approach may well signal the turning of the tide.

We strongly recommend purchase of this book — not for yourselves alone, but to help make others see the need for joining in our work. Price $1.00. Send your order and remittance to WOMEN'S VOICE.

CORRESPONDENCE

LeMay, Mo.
Lessing J. Rosenwold, President of the American Council for Judaism, is opposed to Zionism. BUT, he insists that the U. S. instead of Palestine be made the home land for the Jews. Jews are now entering the U. S. at the rate of 1500 per day. This includes a conservative estimate of the combined legal (?) and illegal entries. And yet, when a few hundred American boys want to bring their German girls and wives into the U. S., they must take this into such strenuous consideration and look up their family tree or the family background. I guess if they link in with the Jews they will be permitted. Would you call this Americanism?

What change will we have in a few more years at elections if this keeps up? A new congressional report on immigration reveals about 70% of all the immigrants coming into the U. S. now are Jews.

I was listening to the radio today when a news commentator announced all the resentments that came in objecting to the German girls entering the U. S. But sum it all up — they are fixed resentments. Judging from the names, the people who objected, were all Jews. There were about eight persons who objected and their names were read over the air. I don't think there was one American including a WAC, Miss Rose Venninske—I would call her a Jew. What would you say?

Are the people really that dumb and can't see through the Communists and the Jews YET?

Editor Women's Voice :

My mother sent me your booklet ANTI-GENTILISM which was read with keen interest and profit. The G. I.'s being called therein Gentile Idiots was revealing to me. I was a Captain in the army and on picking up the publication of the Jewish Brigade I learned that for them VE day stood for Victoria Ebraioa and VJ day meant Victoria Judaica, both Latin expressions meaning JEWISH VICTORY. Indirectly they admit thereby, what has so long been known to a few courageous Americans who have suffered for their stand, that this Global War was a Jewish war, or, more implicitly a war for the Jewish race. When I made this observation to a Jewish officer he was insolent enough to direct my attention to the Star of David on my officer's cap, remarking: "Certainly you fight for the Jews. Look at the cap of every American officer. It bears the Jewish Star of David." This remark becomes more interesting in connection with the explanation of the Jewish symbols on the American dollar bill which was so accurately stated in your Anti-Gentilism pamphlet.

In a real democracy people should, by a referendum, decide if they wish to sacrifice their lives or not. Then the wily politicians would be unable to deceive us any more with their Jewish hocus-pocus.

The October 14th, 1946, issue of Life magazine, page 12, showed President Truman with a shiner on his head and stated that he is a 33rd degree Mason. On page 13, it stated: "Truman Seldom Poses in Organizational Costumes Because They Make Him Look Silly." Life's statement is correct. Truman, the President of a Gentile nation looks silly in the adornment of the JEWISH organization, namely, the Freemasons. He looks like an errand boy for the Jews. But still sillier would it look for American Gentiles to vote for such a marionette of the kikes.

Dear Editor: Jan. 25, 1947

I am enclosing herewith my check for $2.00, for subscription for one year, to be sent to ———.

This lady is a former subscriber, but she called in to see me a few nights ago and told me that her subscription expired, and she borrowed my last issue to read it.

By the way, I want to tell you that I was greatly interested in your last number, especially in your editorial write-up on the front page, first column about how the Jews got us—so to speak—going and coming: It was splendid, informative and I believe every word of it. However, as a Catholic, you referred to one thing I did not know (see second column, top of second page) and that is the FDR stated in 1938 that "He holds the Pope of Rome in the hollow of his hand," and that "the Pope is a Jew," and I would greatly appreciate if you will furnish me with a short verification on those two points. I was certainly mighty glad that you wound up the paragraph with the words, "Who silenced Father Coughlin, and Why?" Archbishop Mooney, who silenced Father Coughlin, knows the reason why, but he will never tell, neither will any other member of the Hierarchy who gave their silent approval (or benediction) to the silencing do it either; in the first place because they cannot give any valid reason, and of course it would look rather bad for them if they mentioned the nature and character of the subversive force at whose behest the act was brought about, but you did that clearly and definitely enough in the editorial mentioned to suit me—the Jewish element did it. A neighbor of mine (Mrs. Peters), one of your subscribers, called in to see me last night, and brought the copy of Voice with her, and asked me if I read it; and of course I told her I had. She was extremely delighted with it, and said that she was to write you to send her a few copies to pass around.

Too Daring for 1937 —

after nine years —

"Anthem" was too shocking a story when Ayn Rand first wrote it in 1937. United States publishers turned it down, although a few copies were printed in England. Like other great works, it did not die. Its fame spread slowly—but it spread!

AYN RAND'S brilliant success with "The Fountainhead"—for three successive years a better best-seller—renewed interest in "Anthem." Now it is available in America for the first time.

"Anthem" presents the end of the collectivistic road—not in terms of theory, but in the story of the lives of human beings. It shows where some of today's trends are leading us. You might want to say that such things can't happen—and yet—Read "Anthem" for yourself. It will be an experience you will not forget. It will have a profound influence on you, on your friends, on America. Be among the first to discover it. Send for it now!

HINCKLEY, ILLINOIS

THE MOST POWERFUL WOMAN IN THE WORLD

The New York Times Magazine of February 2nd, 1947, published an article by H. E. Salisbury, foreign news editor of the United Press and formerly manager of the United Press Bureau in Moscow, entitled "The Fourteen Men Who Run Russia," the above headline chosen for this tract would have been far more appropriate. In describing who is the most powerful man in Russia, the Jew Lazar M. Kaganovich, he states: "His sister Rosa is Stalin's third wife, which makes him the Generalissimo's brother-in-law. This is one of the best known unpublished secrets of Moscow. The couple apparently were married some time after the death of Stalin's beloved second wife, but have never been seen publicly."

There is, of course, a good reason why this secret never was published and why the couple is never seen together in Moscow. Too many people know the Bible story of Esther who was 2500 years ago the most powerful woman of her time. The book of Esther in the Bible relates on about 7 pages, the 10 minutes perusal of which is indeed time well spent, how this Jewess wormed herself into the heart of the Persian King Ahasuerus, and then with the scheming and machinations of her cousin and foster-father Mordecai, became the queen. Through her connivance Haman, the prime minister of the king, was killed together with his innocent sons.

During the war the Jewish papers frequently compared Haman with Hitler, because already at that time he was ready at the request of his people who were brutally exploited by the Jews, to rid the kingdom of Persia of all the Jews. Mordecai, the fanatic Jew, then succeeded Haman as prime minister and Esther obtained the king's permission for the Jews to destroy all their enemies, whereupon through her efforts 75,000 Gentiles were slaughtered in the most brutal manner. Still not satisfied Esther insisted that Haman's 10 innocent boys be hanged on the gallows. Chapter 9, verse 16 of the book of Esther reads: "... and slew of their foes (read Gentiles) seventy and five thousand..." In the same chapter, 9, verse 1, you read: "... that the Jews had rule over them (the Gentiles) that hated them."

We read further in the same chapter, verse 3: "And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordocai fell upon them." Just like our Gentile stooges and high Freemasons are helping them in Washington today. We see the Masonic Senator Vandenburg, formerly an isolationist in his conviction, all of a sudden converted to Internationalism, or Senator Taft with a Jewish secretary. He is the son of a former President who turned traitor to his country, when in 1912 the Investigating Committee of the Money Trust was about to expose the system in its most secret schemes which could not have failed to wipe it out of existence. "In September 1912 the committee asked the Comptroller of Currency to supply certain data concerning the business and practices of the larger national banks controlled by the Money Trust group.

Then they were about to reach the "lion in his den,"... the Comptroller referred the request to the President for instructions, in compliance with an executive order... which order prohibited any head of department from furnishing any information without permission of the President. When the point was reached where he would have been given the most startling facts possible, and a basis laid for forever ending the rule of the Money Trust — at this most important point, President Taft rendered his decision declining to allow the Comptroller to furnish the information, That left the Money Trust free to continue with its plans to further exploit us, and it has put in its most colossal "Licks" during the war." (1st World War). See "Your Country at War" by Charles A. Lindbergh, Sr., p. 89-91. What "licks" did they harvest during this last war? Did President Taft act thus, "because the fear of Mordocai (then our Louis Brandeis) fell upon him?" As to his son: the apple does not fall far from the tree.

To this day the Jews are annually commemorating the brutal butchering of 75,000 Gentiles (who objected to their continuous Jewish exploitation) at their feast of Purim which is not a religious holiday but a purely nationalistic racial celebration, of which the Encyclopedia Britannica 1942 under "Esther" has this to say: "There are two very conspicuous blemishes: the lack of any religious element and the apparent delight in the wholesale slaughter of Gentiles." If the United Nations Assembly accepted the newly coined term "Genocide," denoting the killing of members of the Jewish race by Gentiles, the antithetical term Gentilecide, denoting the killing of the Gentiles by members of the Jewish race is certainly more applicable in our present days.

Behind the "Iron Curtain" which the Jewish rulers of Communism have erected in order to conceal the wholesale murder of Gentiles in Russia, Finland, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, every day thousands of Gentiles are killed by order of the Jewish leaders, headed by Rosa Stalin who seems to be the modern Esther, while her brother, Lazar M. Kaganovich occupies the identical powerful role of the former Mordecai. His chief executive in Foreign Affairs is V. M. Molotov married a Jewess nee Karn just as in the U. S. A. Cordell Hull was appointed Secretary of State for handling our Foreign Affairs with expert efficiency right before and during the war, whose wife also "happened" to be a Jewess with the most important international financial connections.

Esther in her day was able to have 75,000 Gentiles butchered, Rosa may easily attain the liquidation of 1000 times as many or 75 million Gentiles in our day, since her "Ahasuerus" Stalin is at least 1000 times more powerful than his predecessor of 2500 years ago. Conservative estimates figure that since World War II about 42 million Gentiles have been disposed of already, either by direct murder or by organized starvation in Russia, Poland, Eastern Germany, Hungary, etc., wherever the real rulers are the Jewish dictators of Communism. In Rumania the Jewess Pauker is dictating Communism, while in Hungary the Jew Oesterreicher rules and in Poland the entire Government is Jewish. This proves that Communism is a Jewish scheme to exterminate the cultured Gentiles and to enslave the rest of them.

The Jewish dream of world domination becomes more and more a reality, as the fruit of the innate Jewish Anti-Gentilism, plainly outlined in the Bible under Deutemon-

omy, Chapter 7, verse 16-18: "And thou shall consume all the people which the Lord thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity on them, neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare into thee. . . . If thou shalt say into thine heart, these nations are more than I; how can I DISPOSSESS them?—Thou shalt not be afraid of them; but shalt well remember what the Lord thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt."

Webster's dictionary defines the word "consume" as "to destroy by separating the component parts."

Is Rosa Stalin as the modern Esther representing World Jewry as the real ruler behind the throne who will never rest until all the remaining Gentiles have become slaves of the Jews? Nearly all Europe, including France and England, is now under Jewish domination. In America it becomes more visible every day in spite of the Jewish conspiracy of silence, and everybody who is not smitten with blindness, can see the handwriting on the wall. The strongest tree appearing outwardly healthy must inevitably collapse, if the parasitic wood-borer is left undisturbed to do his evil hidden work. When will the Gentiles begin to see the terrible fate awaiting them, far more serious than the damages suffered during the last war? The Chicago Jewish Sentinel wrote on October 8th, 1942: "The second World War is being fought for the defense of the fundamentals of Judaism." No wonder, the Jews call to the G. I.'s Gentiles Idiots because they actually put the Jews in the saddle to run the world. All we need is Lilienthal, Strauss, Bacher and Co. in control of the Gentile invented Atom Bomb.

From "The Landmarks of Freemasonry" by Silas H. Shepard. Book One, Washington, D.C. The Masonic Service Association of the United States, 1924, p. 20: "but with respect to Brothers or Fellows at Law, the master and Brethren should kindly offer their mediation, which ought to be thankfully submitted to by the contending Brethren; and if that submission is impracticable, they must, however, carry on their process, or lawsuit without Wrath and Rancor (not in the common way) saying or doing nothing which may hinder Brotherly Love, and good offices to be renewed and continued; that all may see the benign influence of Masonry, as all true Masons have done from the beginning of the world, and will do to the end of time. Amen, so mote it be.

PRISONERS OF WAR ASSISTANCE SOCIETY—1947

(Supporters include His Eminence Cardinal Von Preysing, Bishop of Berlin, His Grace The Archbishop of Cardiff and R. R. Stokes, M.P.)

In wishing all our old friends a happy and blessed New Year and in welcoming new friends, we would beg to remind you that although our petition and public opinion has obtained so many privileges for the P.O.W.'s in this country, our work has only just begun. Many men still suffer captivity in other countries, many repatriated men with their families are living in unimaginably dreadful circumstances and may here implore us to help these families from whom they may still be parted a long time.

If you have not an individual family in Europe in whom you are interested will you take one of those on our lists or help us with some of our most pressing needs—men's clothing, wool for making garments, rationed or pointed goods for food parcels or the means to cover expenses, one family alone may cost us nearly 100 pounds if it is to be adequately assisted. Names of individual cases which have been visited by our representative or otherwise personally contacted can be given if desired. We are shortly sending out parcels with our own official labels and all who help through us can be certain that the help they give goes to genuine needy cases directly connected with P.O.W.'s.

P.O.W.A.S. is the "Trade Union" for all who wish to help these unhappy men and to build up a Society of reconciliation and friendship. It binds you together, gives you moral support in the Cause for which you are working, advises and helps you in all P.O.W. problems and gives you assistance in your work if you need it. It unites all interested in such work in a solidarity with each other and with the P.O.W.'s and their people.

Although the only Catholic organization working exclusively for P.O.W.'s and their interests, it both helps and is open to help from non-catholics or all who wish to be united in a good work.

Whilst entirely free as individuals to hold any opinions one may please, the society as such is entirely non-political and non-partisan.

With our most heartfelt thanks and those of the prisoners of war who all over the world have been helped by this work.

Yours sincerely,

MARY B. FOSS,

We received the roll of paper and leaflets and pamphlets in good order and sent them out and are sending for more.

Enclosing also $1.00 to help Educate the Congressmen. But I think you will find that will be a hard job. Remember what Senator Wheeler said while he was Senator. The following: "I have as many Jew secretaries as most of the Congressmen have. I have two Jew secretaries."

You are doing a great work in telling the people where the trouble is. The Bible says, "He that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is Sin." Congress knows but will not act. They are surrounded by Jews and seem to like it.

Wish to thank you for the sample copy of your little paper. Have had two copies handed to me by a lady of your group a couple of years ago at a large meeting of Nationalists at Shrine Auditorium here. As soon as we read them, I mailed them on to someone else as I always do with worthwhile reading concerning the predicament we have gotten ourselves into.

May God bless the work you are doing.

Your paper has been coming though I do not know who had it sent. We like it however. Money is rather close, but am enclosing one dollar to pay as far as it goes. I do not throw the papers away, but try to place them or pass on where they may be helpful.

Yours in the Master's service.

I received your sample copy of "Women's Voice," the issue of Nov. 28th. It looks very good to me. According to my estimation, you were hiding your light under a bushel. I did not know of your existence until I received your free copy. Please send me a copy of your September issue, if possible. I should like to look it over and send my subscription in January. Thank you very much.

I am enclosing $2.50 and I hope you will oblige me at your earliest opportunity. Happy New Year.

GOD IS CALLING

This Nation is in need of a Chief Executive of the Andrew Jackson type, one who could not be controlled by any combination of men. A man intensely American, who is fearless, as well as honourable. No time server, who would sacrifice principle for power. Regardless of party can such a man be chosen for president in 1948? The principles upon which this Government was founded have become almost extinct. We have been drifting like all former civilizations, who drifted until finally destroyed. Franklin named the problem in his day. Washington directed them in his farewell address. Jefferson instructed them to uphold a just Government. Monroe declared for Western Hemisphere independence. Lincoln prophesized the great danger of centralized wealth. We are now drifting toward extinction, unless a real American is elected in 1948. The politicians have sold the people out. GOD alone can save us.

LINCOLN

*The gentlest memory of our world, Lincoln the Great,
Whose mind could sense the future, how to regulate.
Like some tall demi-god, whose power of vision,
Would prepare his people for that vital decision,
Which forever relieves them from grief and derision,
Wealth's concentration unknown distress must create,
Till disruption will surely capture the state.
Opportunity to toil for loved ones and friend
Which monopolies power prevents with out end,
More bitter than battle and sacrifice of life
Made forever to control land, the source of all strife.
This prophetic prediction must come in the end
If God's bounty be stolen the penalty he'll send
The land for the people receives our Amen.*

Who Are The Ignorant?

I was talking to a group of Mexican businessmen the other day. The subject of the conversation was the general sad state of the 'ignorant Mexican PEON'. The clincher to the conversation was a statement made by one of these men to the effect that "Our people are so ignorant that they won't EVEN ACCEPT PAPER MONEY. They demand SILVER or GOLD."

What an indictment this concept is of the so-called education, handed out by this country. An egotistic product of Northwestern University to whom I was talking, was surprised, and bewildered when I mentioned that since the Federal Reserve System, is a group of private banks,

Grand Master Seeks to Suppress "Women's Voice" Publication as Menace to American Democracy

Frankel Preparing Official Complaint To U.S. Postmaster and Attorney General

Under the leadership of Grand Master Harold D. N. Frankel, steps have been taken to suppress the monthly publication "Women's Voice" which is described to be one of the most bitter anti-Semitic publications in America.

At a meeting of the Executive Board of the Grand Lodge the Grand Master described the "Women's Voice" publication as a menace to American democracy. He emphasized that the articles follow the same pattern of pro-war, anti-Semitic and anti-Jewish propaganda.

During his discussion of the "Women's Voice," Grand Master Frankel mentioned the publication with that of the defunct Father Coughlin's "Social Justice," which British Ambassador helped to put out of business prior to the war. At that time, the Grand Master mentioned, and mentioned to Postmaster General Frank C. Walker and to Attorney General Francis Biddle, urging the suppression of "Social Justice."

Grand Master Frankel has now taken up the matter to put an end to the "Women's Voice." His first move is to call the aid of Postmaster General Robert E. Hannegan and Attorney General Tom C. Clark. In addition, the Grand Master is prepared to present evidence against the "Women's Voice" to President Truman's newly appointed Civil Liberties Committee, which the President instructed to do the following:

"... act against persons who worked behind sheets and behind screens."
"To act against racial and religious bigotry."
The President's complete text to his 15 member committee follows: "You have a vitally important job. We are none of us entirely familiar with just how far the Federal Government under the Constitution has a right to go in these civil rights matters."
"I want our Bill of Rights implemented in fact. We have been trying to do this for 150 years. We are making progress, but we are not making progress fast enough. This country could very easily be faced with a situation similar to that one with which it was faced in 1922. That date was important on my mind."

Brill Abraham has made a close study of the "Women's Voice" publication during the past year. We are going to quote some parts of articles published in this anti-Semitic and un-American paper to point out that President Truman's Committee can concentrate its first efforts in stamping out the publication.

We quote from the "Women's Voice," which is published in Chicago, Illinois and has grown from a four-page to a 16-page second.

In the 26th issue of 1946, under the heading of "Think of These Things" the "Women's Voice" stated:

"Do you know the Federal Council of Churches is with the International Jew group? That they are persecuting Jesus Christ, and you are paying them to do so?"

"The same group..."

our paper money is counterfeit and untrustworthy.

It has taken a tremendous amount of EDUCATION to bring the American people to the point where they are so stupidified as to believe that their money is safe in the hands of proven CROOKS.

Meanwhile, the Mexican (looked down upon as ignorant, by the graduates of the ROCKEFELLER system of PUBLIC PERVERSION) who has not had his native intelligence removed by education, goes on resisting the efforts of the enslavers, and demands and gets real money in return for his labor.

All of which proves the old story "that it isn't what you don't know that will hurt you... It's what you know for sure, THAT AIN'T SO."

In the United States its a crime for anyone except a foreigner or Jewish banker to own any GOLD, but because of the undulled mind of the PEON, in Mexico, ANY Mexican citizen can buy, and possess any amount of GOLD.

— Tom Van Hyning.

3,000,000 COMMUNISTS IN U.S. SEEK TO DESTROY AMERICA

than in our so-called capitalistic countries.

No, Communism is not concerned with dividing the wealth. Communism is super Capitalism in which 5% controls the wealth, the resources, and the destinies of the other 95%.

The power behind Communism is Anti-Christ.

Put these facts together to stimulate your curiosity so you will go deeper into this Number One Enemy of Humanity, Christianity, the Family, Religion, Liberty, your Home. Then, perhaps, you will better understand why millionaires are backing Communism.

Communism has about completed the taking over of Europe. When Rudolph Hess flew to England, Churchill and his advisers were too short-sighted to listen to his plea to unite against Russia. The mission of Hess was to save the German and English people from the monster of World Communism. Ignoring Hess was the most fatal mistake ever made by the British Empire. For this mistake, Winston Churchill, with many titled Englishmen, will be shot or hung, perhaps at Nuremberg, as were the German leaders. Such a step is in Stalin's program; anyone who does not realize this knows little about Communism.

England thought she wanted Germany crushed. Germany is crushed. But we now have a horrible, aggressive, man-eating Frankenstein to whom we gave the tools of war, the blood of thousands of our men and three hundred forty-one billion dollars!!

Churchill would now like to see the return of Germany with all her power — but it is too late. He and Roosevelt listened to the Atheists, who were smarter than they and who knew how to set their enemies against each other. The once-powerful British Empire trembles and is falling apart before heartless Communist Russia; there is no nation in Europe strong enough to block Communism.

The taxpayers of the United States have already paid one-half billion dollars to support Germans we helped to render un-supporting. Stalin smiles as he thinks how his Kremlin masterminds maneuvered the war so that Germany and England are at his mercy. Four million Germans have starved and Russia holds four million more as slaves in Russia, along with several million from other conquered countries. Those who remain alive in the Russian-occupied countries are being forced into Communism with such help as the UNRRA, which our taxpayers financed 72%. Stalin's Red agents rule Poland, Finland, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Hungary, Rumania, Yugoslavia, Austria, Korea, and soon all China. France, Italy, and England are almost taken over by Stalin. Communism that was once bottled up in Russia has been released to rape and rob the World.

Citizens of the United States have for years been confused by the Red-controlled radio. Only a few know who brought about the war and that it was a part of the plan to reduce the World to slavery. Many have suspicions, but are afraid to study the subject for fear they will learn the real truth.

Just as hundreds of thousands of Reds were siphoned into Germany before the war to force that country into Communism, so now are thousands being brought into the United States for the same purpose — to overpower us when we finally decide to take a stand against Communist Russia. Unless the F.B.I. is released to fine-comb the United States and segregate at least three million anti-Americans, the United States will be in helpless confusion in the event of a break with Russia. All industry will be paralyzed by strikes. The World Federation of Trade Unions alone has seventy million members in the world; about two months ago they met in Washington to lay plans of action in the eleventh hour for America, the last stand of Freedom in the World. Where are there men worthy of the name American who will take these Reds out of control in key positions in Washington?

Gerhardt Eisler, who directed wholesale slaughter in China and Spain, had his fare paid to the United States from Marseilles, France, by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. This committee also paid the fare for Eisler's woman, Miss Brunhilda Rotstein, who has been living with Eisler these years while his wife in Stockholm, Sweden, is sick and unable to support his two children.

The F.B.I. says that Eisler has been visiting the J.A.F. R.C. office in New York daily, also receiving regular checks from them while he has been directing the overthrow of this government. Gerhardt Eisler and Josep Broz (Marshal Tito) were two of the bloody butchers in Spain.

This same J.A.F.R.C. financed and promoted the Spanish Revolution in which twenty-five thousand churches and religious institutions were destroyed, more than twenty thousand Priests were butchered or burned to death and one and one-half million laymen were killed. As soon as Stalin's agents were ready in Spain, Moses Rosenberg, Soviet Ambassador in Spain, gave the signal for the revolution and directed it.

The Abraham Lincoln Brigade of Church burners worked with the J.A.F. R.C., which financed Communism over the world with money they collected here in New York and Hollywood. Some of the strong supporters of these two organizations are: Albert Einstein, Walter Huston, Thomas Mann, Orson Welles, Dr. Frederick M. Elliott, President of American Unitarian Association. (nearly all Unitarian Ministers are Red) Mrs. Stephen Wise, Representative Emanuel Celler, Representative Vito Marcantonio, and Stanley M. Isacks, City Councilman in New York. Edward G. Robinson, Kenneth Leslie, Editor Protestant, Harold Ickes, Eugene P. Connelly, New York Councilman.

The J.A.F.R.C., seeing that the American people were too dumb or too cowardly to stop them from causing the Revolution in Spain in 1935, have been busy for a long while trying to start another revolution to turn Spain over to Stalin. They also financed Marshal Tito and brought him from Paris to Yugoslavia to slaughter thousands of Anti-Communists, and they brought Eisler to the United States to start a revolution here.

Former Yugoslav Ambassador Constantin Fotitch says the Tito Communist Government has slaughtered over two hundred thousand since it took over and will kill thirty thousand Anti-Communist Yugoslavs held by Italy if Italy returns them to Yugoslavia. Keep in mind the money to establish Tito and make possible the slaughter and imprisonment of innocent citizens, such as Archbishop Stepinac, was sent from the United States, and agents of the J.A.F.R.C. placed Tito in Yugoslavia.

Just a year ago, on April 4, 1946, a hearing was opened by the Un-American Activities Committee of Congress exclusively for this organization. All sixteen members of the executive board were present. All sixteen refused a Congressional demand for presentation of their books for examination. All sixteen thus defied Congress and were cited for contempt.

If President Truman and other American citizens are sincere in opposing Communism, why do they not see that the F.B.I. is released to arrest all of these Red Promoters of wholesale murder? The sixteen directors of the J.A.F.R.C. who defied the Congressional Committee should be put in the penitentiary . . . or Harry Truman should admit he is a hypocrite and afraid to go after them. If the latter course is taken then Truman should resign in favor of a man who will be a real President for the American people.

Read this over again. And keep in mind the J.A.F.R.C. is only one of six hundred Communist fronts in the United States.

What and who is the invisible government that prevents America and Americans from being protected? Gerhardt Eisler knows he will be set down safely in a Communist-ruled country; he knows men in high places must protect him. On his defense committee are Max Bedacht, head of the International Workers Order, Communist front; Abraham Isserman, Ida Guggenheimer and Steve Nelson, Chairman, a shining example of charity and brotherly love. Steve Nelson said, upon his return from activity with the Lincoln Brigade of Church burners in Spain, "I got a kick out of shooting priests in the churches whenever we ran across one."

If the American people cannot NOW take the time to lock up all these traitors, then they will have to fight them in the streets and in their homes as soon as a break comes with Russia.

IF YOU WANT AN AGGRESSIVE PAPER to EXPOSE COMMUNISM, BACK THINK WEEKLY

With your support, we will build a better, larger paper, to give you truth and facts — facts which have been kept from you for at least six years.

Promise yourself you will secure one subscriber this week. Surely you want to help this educational campaign.

If you will work half as hard as the Reds do, we will drive Communism out of the United States within three years.

You have always wanted a real American paper that would tell the truth and could not be bought off nor intimidated.

COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBER WOULD BE PURGED IF HE GOT MARRIED IN A CHURCH

The following is taken from testimony by William Z. Foster, Chairman, Communist Party U.S.A., before a Congressional Committee investigating Communist propaganda in the third session of the Seventy-first Congress:

"THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Foster, does your party advocate the destruction of religious belief?"

"MR. FOSTER: Our party considers religion to be the opiate of the people, as Karl Marx has stated, and we carry on propaganda for the liquidation of these prejudices among the workers.

"THE CHAIRMAN: To be a member of the Communist Party, do you have to be an atheist?"

"MR. FOSTER: Many workers join the Communist Party who still have some religious scruples, but a worker who understands the elementary principles of the Communist Party must necessarily be in the process of liquidating his religious beliefs, and when he joins the party he will soon get rid of them.

"THE CHAIRMAN: Well, can members of the Communist Party in Russia be married in the church and maintain religious belief?"

"MR. FOSTER: My opinion is that a member of the party of the Soviet Union who would be married in the church wouldn't be of any value to the Communist Party.

"THE CHAIRMAN: Would he be put out of the party?"

"MR. FOSTER: Eventually.

"THE CHAIRMAN: Would it not be the same in this country?"

"MR. FOSTER: As I have stated before, workers who would be so imbued with religious superstition that they would be married in a church would be of no value to the Communist Party."

And now for loyalty to our country.

"THE CHAIRMAN: If I understand you, Mr. Foster, the workers of America look on the Soviet flag as their flag.

"MR. FOSTER: The workers of this country and the workers of every country have only one flag. That's the Red Flag.

"THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Foster, do you owe allegiance to the American Flag? Does the Communist Party owe allegiance to the American Flag?"

"MR. FOSTER: I stated very clearly that the Red flag is the flag of the revolutionary class, and we are part of the revolutionary class, and all capitalist flags are flags of the capitalist class, and we owe no allegiance to them.

"THE CHAIRMAN: Well, that answers the question."

SMEARERS OF LINDBERGH TURN TO OTHER PATRIOTS

As we all know, Colonel Lindbergh, a courageous American citizen, has been smeared unmercifully for his efforts in honestly trying to prevent us from being lied and tricked into a war in which three hundred thousand of our boys died and more than a million were injured. Colonel Lindbergh's reputation was blackened and he has been hurt deeply by smear artists, several of whom have since been convicted of libel. These attackers of Lindbergh are now known as cheap character assassins and are currently busy smearing everyone who combats Communism.

It is time for the American people to awake and discover just who are the real Americans and who are the traitors.

Colonel Lindbergh has stood the test. Unknown to the public, he injured his health and risked his life during the war in important high-altitude experiments, at the very time his assailants were winning the war in night clubs and manipulating war contracts.

Lindbergh is today, as always, for America First, while those who smeared him are, as always, for Russia First.

COLONEL LINDBERGH

What strange vicissitudes all true men know,

Who to men's folly will the truth to show,

Acclaimed by some, by others villified, "Hosannah! Death! Let him be crucified!"

To foolish praise, and yet more foolish blame

Your smiling unconcern was still the same.

And now the haze of doubts begins to fade,

We know you face injustice unafraid,

Bore with stupidity, and could discern Those of good will, with honest wish to learn.

Lies and foul slanders for a while may stay,

Then are forgotten as years fly away.

A noble true patriot, toiling to the end;

To all who seek for truth a faithful friend.

PART THREE (continued from last week)

Clergymen First Persecuted.

The anti-religious fight naturally was first of all directed against the clergymen. By official papers and spokesmen they were stigmatized as the most deceitful and therefore most dangerous "enemies of the people."

The clergymen must be unmasked everywhere as exploiters of the old capitalist order," declares "Kommunist" in an article entitled: "In fight against religious delusion" (August 17, 1940). The paper continues: although clergymen as "henchmen of the counter-revolution and implacable enemies of the Soviets . . . do not dare to come forth openly against the Soviet regime, they are, however, acting secretly, influencing the behindhand classes of the population . . . and playing a pharisaic role in deceiving and deluding the masses of the people and in selling them out to the plutocrats and warmongers." In the fervor of instigation against clergymen the paper puts forward quite fantastic charges, saying that they are "enlisting agents for the intelligence services of the capitalistic countries." Analogous and still more abominable and fantastic and hate-poisoned charges were systematically flung against clergymen by Soviet papers and official spokesmen during the whole Soviet period. How this seed of hate must have whipped up bestial instincts and passions of the red policemen, soldiers of the so-called "destroying battalions" and other agents of the communist state, who moreover had been recruited among the scum of society, it is not difficult to imagine. How many clergymen and other people devoted to religion and Church were murdered by fanaticised communists, will be shown furthermore. The number of victims should, however, very easily have been much more considerable still, if not Almighty God had protected the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Estonia from a greater catastrophe.

Reds Use Past Experience.

In articles dealing with anti-religious fight in Estonia it was often emphasized that "the great and long experiences" which have been gathered on the anti-religious battle-ground in Russia during more than twenty years, must be taken advantage of in Estonia, too."

("Kommunist," March 7th, 1941). As one of these experiences the following
one of these experiences the following
"One ought to avoid offending religious feelings, as this might entail the strengthening of religious fanaticism."
("Rahva Haal", October 14th, 1940).
This cognizance, and surely not an increased tolerance of the communist regime towards religion and church, is in fact the reason why there have been some cases of punishment for offences of fellow-citizens' religious feelings in Soviet Russia. As a much more effective weapon in the fight against religion and church the Soviets have of late years had recourse to an ever increasing economic pressure and arbitrary persecution of the church and the clergy. Therefore the same weapons were immediately made use of in Estonia, too.

Churches Discriminated Against.

Parishes that of a sudden had been robbed of all their property by the "nationalisation" decrees, were put under contributions of different kinds and had to pay them at ruinous rates.
Thus the tariff for electric current for churches was 14 times higher than the usual tariff: 5Rbl. 50 Kop. a KWt instead of 40 Kop. (This tariff was published in the Official Journal of the Es-tonian Soviet Socialist Republic No. 22, February 26th, 1941). According to this tariff some parishes had to pay startling sums for electric current. Thus the Elizabeth parish at Parnu reports to the Consistory that for one single month it had to pay 550 Rbl. for electric current, after which it saw itself compelled to reduce the use of electric current to a minimum.

The same discrimination to the disadvantage of the clergymen was made in the rents for flats. Although parishes had been robbed of their houses without any indemnification, parsons and organists had to pay rents for many times exceeding the usual one. Whereas an ordinary citizen had to pay 30-40
Kop. a month per square meter of floor

the clergymen had to pay 2 Rbl 20 Kop as a basic rent. But actually the rent was considerably higher, depending on the total surface of the floor, salary received, etc., so that clergymen often had to pay obviously ruinous rents.
The only aim of this policy was evidently to ruin economically the parishes and to bring the clergymen to starvation.

WE ARE ENCOURAGED BY WORD FROM SUBSCRIBERS

With the launching of THINK WEEKLY we, of course, expected to make some enemies. The only way one makes no enemies is by doing nothing.

We have made these enemies who would destroy us, and we expect to make more of these.

But we also have friends who will stick with us through thick and thin.

We are glad to be judged by the type of people who oppose us, for they are the ones who are working to destroy America. We will not desert our Country for their friendship and we will not write sugar-coated chit chat to appease them.

Hundreds of subscriptions from all parts of the United States bear such

Our list of subscribers represents people in all walks of life: Over three hundred Protestant and Catholic min-

WHO ARE THE FABIANS?

Communism in the Colleges

Do we need more proof about the nature of the American Youth for Democracy (AYD)? Well — for good measure — here is more. Leo Cooper was listed as Managing Editor of the AYD paper "Spotlight" and he was formerly managing editor of the Young Communist League paper. Among others listed originally as various officials of the American Youth for Democracy were James West, Adeline Kohl, Celeste Stack, Lillian Ross, Jack Epstein, Herbert Signer, Clare Hunt, Fay Callar, Selma Weiss, Daisy Lolich, Phil Schatz — and every single one of them had formerly been connected with the Young Communist League. Carl Ross (Rosenbloom) former National Executive Secretary of the Young Communist League became boss of the Young American Youth for Democracy.

THE PARENTS PRAISE THEIR CHILD. A policy program adopted by the National Board of the Communist Party (Nov. 29) said in part: "Today the most important and effective channel for organizing and promoting effective action of the advanced anti-fascist youth is the American Youth for Democracy." Mike Gold, veteran Daily Worker columnist, said (March 5, '45): "Another good 10-cent comic book is Young Life, put out by the American Youth for Democracy, 13 Astor Place, New York City. It is for teen-agers."

Can any intelligent person fail to understand what all of this means — and what exactly was the purpose of setting up this 'transmission belt' called

LINDBERGH MORE QUALIFIED TO HEAD ATOMIC COMMISSION THAN DAVID ELI LILIENTHAL

Very few Senators or Congressmen believe David Eli Lilienthal is the man to head the committee of five who will control the atomic bomb; but such tremendous pressure is being exerted in this case that our lawmakers are afraid to suggest anyone else. However, they do say they would like to see in this all-important post a man in whom the American people have trust . . . and why shouldn't this be the case?

Surely David Lilienthal is not such a man!!

Our bet is that in a contest of trust Colonel Charles Lindbergh would draw more people than the combined strength of David Lilienthal and the other four proposed members of the Atomic Commission. The American people are at last beginning to understand the true role Lindbergh played during these years when he has been maligned and smeared.

SPOTLIGHT

WILLIAM S. GAILMORE

Real name MARGOLIS. This man is a convicted thief, would still be in Sing Sing but for the active influence of the Reds, the same influence that caused F.D.R. to release Earl Browder from the penitentiary. In 1944, Gailmore solicited funds for the PROTESTANT, Red magazine published by Kenneth Leslie. William S. Gailmore is currently speaking throughout the country, before clubs and organizations of different kinds. Be on the lookout for him. Don't be fooled.

IMPORTANTLY DANGEROUS RED GROUP USES GREATER FINESSE THAN OTHER VARIETIES OF TRAITORS, WORKING AMONG "INTELLECTUALS" TOWARD A WORLD GOVERNMENT

It is important to realize that there are different types of Reds in the United States and in the world.

1. The Reds who follow Communism as dictated by Stalin.

2. The Reds who follow the Communism of Lenin and Trotsky, but are opposed to Stalin (Trotskyites). They are against Stalin, but they are of course against genuine anti-Communists for they are not against the doctrine of Communism itself. This group publishes a paper in New York, "The Militant".

3. The Socialists, some of whom are former Communists. They publish an anti-Communist paper, "The New Leader", but at the same time they, too, oppose anti-Communists who are strongly national and American. They are for the United Nations, World Government, and for erasing all national lines in the world. They want to change our republican form of government.

4. Last but not least, the Fabian Reds, about whom this article is written. Their tactics are to take control of the world by trickery, propaganda and deception, using any organization to gain their ends. They differ from the Russian Communists; they do not use mass murder — they are smoother, more polished and gentlemanly. But they cooperate with the Russian Communists and provide many respectable looking fronts for Communism.

If the American form of government is destroyed, these groups will fight it out among themselves as to which group will control; just so did they do in Spain after Communism took over and wiped out the Socialists and

Anarchists.

Reds in important spots deny they are Communists, but of course they "neglect" to tell you they belong to another tribe of Reds just a shade different. Professor Harold Laski and Felix Frankfurter, Fabian Reds, both defend Communists. Joseph Feline, the Boston department store owner, a Fabian Red, in the early stages of the New Deal financed the NRA until Congress could provide.

If President Truman, in asking the taxpayers for four hundred million dollars to send to Greece and Turkey, is prompted by a fear of world Communism, he will see that the Reds are really stopped here at home. But if he made that speech regarding Communists in Washington just so the U. S. would back his apparent anti-Communist plan abroad, if he now turns the enforcement of this proposed Red purge in the U. S. over to International Reds, then we may expect to see the real Communists passed up and anti-Communists jailed under the heading of subversives or native fascists.

If this latter plan is followed, we will know that President Truman unfortunately is not concerned with protecting the people of Greece and Turkey, or with protecting his own American people against the evil of Communism, but that he is thinking of the oil in Persia . . . or, which is more plausible, he is being advised by Fabian Reds and former Rhodes scholars who wish to save the British Empire for the Fabian Reds. The Fabians expect to unite at least the United States and Great Britain under such men as Harold Laski, who made a recent trip to see Stalin.

Apparently there are plenty of organizations for America last — where are the people courageous enough to be for America first?

The Fabian Jubilee.

One of the outstanding political events recently witnessed in England was the Jubilee of the Fabian Society held in commemoration of its foundation in 1884. Presided over by Prof. Harold Laski, it was addressed by many important speakers, among whom were to be found Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee, Herbert Morrison, who is Lord President of the Council; Miss Ellen Wilkinson, who is Minister of Education, and John Strachey, Minister of Food.

A news story on the event, written by the London staff correspondent of the "Christian Science Monitor" and published by that newspaper in its November 5, 1946 issue, gave the names of some of the prominent Fabians of long standing and foremost in the list was the British Prime Minister himself, who has been a Fabian for nearly forty years. Others included George Bernard Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Webb, Sidney Oliver, Annie Besant, H. G. Wells, Susan Lawrence and Miss Margaret Bondfield. It was also told how the Webbs started the London School of Economics with two rooms in the Adelphi and ten thousand pounds. "Today," according to the Monitor's correspondent, "its alumni do the economic planning for the English-speaking world."

The London School of Economics is an unique institution in that it has only one department, the Department of Social Sciences. Of course, the social sciences are quite inclusive in that they include history, philosophy, political science, economics, sociology and other similar subjects.

Sir William Beveridge was director of the school from 1919 to 1937. The present British Prime Minister, Mr. Clement Attlee, lectured at the school for ten years, from 1913 to 1923. The school is as international as the United Nations and became, as far as the social sciences are concerned, a world finishing school. For instance, in one year, out of 1,445 regular students, there were 94 from America and a total of 399 from overseas. That year there were 75 Chinese students. Today its alumni are to be found in important posts all over the world.

It appears that, according to leading Fabians, the impact of Fabian philosophy and influence is not limited to English-speaking nations, because an AP correspondent from London on November 3, 1946, quoted a telegram sent to the Jubilee gathering by George Bernard Shaw. Mr. Shaw said, "The Fabian Society, having made Russia a great Fabian state, has now to make Wallace succeed Franklin Roosevelt as President of the United States."

Whether or not Shaw was serious when he sent the telegram and gave either the credit or the blame, depending on one's point of view, to the Fabians for what has taken place in Russia, remains to be seen.

But even so, the story about the Fabian rally and Shaw's telegram to the assembled Fabians has caused many to ask, "Who are the Fabians?"

The general history of the Fabian movement has already been discussed quite at length in past bulletins. To try to give thumbnail sketches of all the leading Fabians would require a large-sized volume. But for reasons which will be given later it is amiss to touch upon the backgrounds of at least some of those addressing the convention and some of the members who were mentioned in the newspaper article:

PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE. As stated before, Mr. Attlee was a lecturer at the Fabian School of Economics for ten years. Mr. Attlee was also formerly a member of the Union School for Democratic Control, which was one of the English groups that was for either a "peace-at-any-price" or a "war-at-any-price" policy, depending only on which one would best fit in with the current phase of the collectivist campaign.

MISS ELLEN WILKINSON. Not only Minister of Education in England but one of the very few women who were full delegates to the United Nations Assembly held in London earlier in 1946. Miss Wilkinson, born in 1891, joined the International Labour Party in 1912 and by 1923 was elected as a Communist to the Manchester City Council, having joined the Communist Party at its formation in 1920. In 1924 she resigned from the Communist Party but that did not in any way interfere with her activities on its behalf. Miss Wilkinson has toured the United States several times, being a favorite lecturer for the League for Industrial Democracy, which was the new name taken in 1921 by the Intercollegiate Socialist Society, which was one of the main vehicles by which Fabianism was introduced into America.

JOHN STRACHEY. Another important speaker at the Jubilee was Mr. Strachey, British Minister of Food. He holds one of the dubious distinctions of being one of the few persons to have been barred from the United States for Communist activities. Even his Communist supporters were not able to prevent his arrest in Glencoe, Illinois, in 1935. His book, "The Coming Struggle for Power," was praised by Laski who termed it "An attractive and interesting exposition of the case of Communism . . ."

As for Harold J. Laski, the Webbs, Sidney Oliver, Annie Besant, and the others, they have already been discussed more or less in previous issues. Sir William Beveridge came in for attention in connection with the so-called British Beveridge Plan, which has been adopted by the English as their version of social security.

By an odd coincidence, if it be such, there is a striking similarity between the New Deal patterns outlined by the planners who engineered our own American version, by Col. E. M. House, Stuart Chase, by Mr. Israel Moses Sieff's Political and Economic Planning group which emerged from the Fabian Society's inner circle, and the one now visible in the United Nations program.

"American Youth for Democracy?" Could any sponsor have been connected with this project and not have known what he was doing? It hardly seems possible — and if true it only serves to bring up other questions.

Yet there were those who were willing to serve as window dressing The New Leader (May 25, '46) in exposing AYD as a Communist "transmission belt" (according to the Communist Party's own admission) revealed as AYD sponsors such typical Communist-fronting veterans as Edward G. Robinson, Frederic March, Danny Kaye, Robert W. Kenny, Gene Kelly, Norman Corwin, Garson Kanin and Magistrate Anna M. Kross (New York). The New Leader also mentioned the magazine "Teen Age" published by AYD, as well as its official organ of the moment — "Youth in Action."

FURTHER CONVINCING PROOF was quoted by the New Leader from instructions sent out by the Communist Party's national office as a directive to State branches, which said: "The Party will become a Party with mass influence among the youth through AYD as an advance anti-Fascist youth organization in which the Communists play a leading role."

J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, should certainly know what he is talking about and here, in part, are his words when he spoke recently before a Catholic Youth organization in New York, as reported in the Milwaukee Journal (Jan. 9, '46): "It should be realized that the greatest revolutionary force has been the youth of the land" and he then cited the Nazi youth movement. Continuing, he said: "In our own country and in our own time we have seen another youth movement arise. It still flourishes. I refer to that high sounding, idealistic title 'American Youth for Democracy', which conceals the evils and the corruption of American Communism. This name is but a new one for the former Young Communist League."

Here is a further interesting reference — a clipping from the New York Daily News (Jan. 14, '45) from the "Broadway Column" of Danton Walker: "The American Youth for Democracy, which gave a 'public service' medal to Frank Sinatra, plans to change its name back to the Young Communist League later this year."

This plan was apparently abandoned as AYD began to spread and prosper as an effective booby-trap. Instead, the Communists set up a system of "Party Youth Clubs." These were

Meeting of Loyal American Congress will be held Friday, April 11, at 8 p.m. at Moose Hall, 43 Washington Avenue, Irvington, N. J. The drawing for the radio will take place at this meeting. There will be informed speakers to make it a complete and worth-while evening. Come and bring your friends.

described by Bernie Friedland (N. Y. State Youth Director for the Communist Party) in the Daily Worker (Apr. 10, '46). His article titled "Building the Party Among the Youth" credited the Youth Clubs with bringing in 447 of the 4,600 new Communist Party members just enrolled. At that time they had 45 Youth Clubs in New York alone. He described how these Youth Club members had joined picket lines — and collaborated in other ways. He went on to discuss AYD and explain how Communists in AYD were soliciting other members to join Party Youth clubs — and become Communist Party members. This modus operandi to capture youth is further implemented by a set of FDR Clubs — which are part of this transmission belt scheme of things.

MRS. MINK DOES A JOB IN SEATTLE. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer (daily newspaper, Sep. 29, '46) carried a story which said in part: "Existence of a militant pro-Communist organization in Seattle whose avowed aim is to proselyte high school and university students in behalf of the Communist-front organization, American Youth for Democracy, was disclosed yesterday . . . Mrs. Kelly Mink, young leader of the Seattle A.Y.D., 'downtown' group, told the Post-Intelligencer yesterday that she is a member of the Communist Party and that there are other young Communists in the group."

The Mink girl said that Communism "is not an issue with us, as we do not consider Communism as subversive or dangerous." Another AYD group was recently exposed in Everett, Washington — as well as several different groups in Seattle. According to this newspaper story, AYD now claims a membership of 12,000 and is putting on a drive to make it 15,000. It has other Washington organized units or "cells" in Renton, Kirkland, Tacoma, Snohomish, Spokane and Vancouver. Portland, Oregon, was also named as having a branch. One of the students who exposed the real Communist nature of the organization said that he had been snared into it as being a movement for "character building and education in the spirit of democracy and freedom. His eyes soon began to open as he saw literature praising Wm. Z. Foster (American Communist Leader) and discovered a subtle line of propaganda boosting "American-Soviet friendship" along with castigations of the "Byrnes-Bevin gang up against the U.S.S.R. and the democracies of Eastern Europe."

Samuel E. Fleming, Seattle school superintendent, said that school authorities were deeply concerned, and that subversive literature had mysteriously appeared in several Seattle schools. He said that "the best way to fight this is to let the students themselves fight it." That is true if the students are given a sense of awareness so they can recognize these infiltrating organizations. It is unreasonable to expect them to do so under ordinary circumstances. Most of these Communist-front organizations are today working behind such deceptive blinds as "win the peace" (meaning to appease Russia), "inter-racial unity", "get the boys out of Europe and Asia", promote labor's rights", and the passage of such bills as FEPC, anti-poll-tax, socialized medicine, and other New Deal pets.

CHICAGO AYD ACTIVE IN STIRRING TROUBLE. Around the middle of November (1946) students at the Foreman High School in Chicago staged a sudden and mysterious strike. The Chicago Herald-American reported "Efforts of the American Youth for Democracy, a Communist-front organization with offices at 123 Madison street, to inject itself into the Foreman High School student strike drew a sharp rebuke from Miss Catherine A. Ryan, principal. Representatives of the organization, which until 1943 was known as the Young Communist Capt. George Barnes of the police League, passed out pamphlets to the striking students until dispersed by labor detail. The group claims 50 Foreman students as members." (Captain Barnes further earned the ill will of the Reds by protecting workers from picket brutality at certain struck plants and the Chicago Communist dominated paper started a smear campaign against him designed to get him replaced.)

The Daily Worker (Sept. 1, '46) carried a display story about Winifred Norman (young Negro girl) who is national co-chairman of American Youth for Democracy. Miss Norman had just returned from Cuba and was "anxious to tell us about the Juventud Socialists (Socialist Youth), its militancy, enthusiasms and many-sided organization." This leftist youth group in Cuba jumped from 60 to 60,000 members in two years. The Communists have been making hay in Latin America — and many observers regard this as a grave development.

Typical of American Youth for Democracy activities was an "AYD Ballots for America Ball" held October 16th at the Golden Gate Ballroom in Harlem, New York City. Guests of honor were all the Communist-backed candidates in the last election — Marcantonio, Powell, Kaplan, Isaacson, Longhi, Rosenbaum, Sherbel and others. This "ball" significantly used display advertising in the Daily Worker.

YOUNG COMMUNIST REVEALS AYD AS PARTY TOOL. The Communist magazine New Masses (Nov. 12, '46) printed a letter from a young Brooklyn Communist which said in part: "What of American Youth for Democracy, a chapter of which at Brooklyn led a mass student fight to oust Gideonse as president of the school — Gideonse, a leader of the so-called Liberal Party?" The explanation of this letter is that the Communists (through AYD) were hitting at a leader of the Liberal Party, which is a group of "liberals" opposed to Stalinist Communism who split off from the American Labor Party (NY) when the Stalinists under Hillman had grabbed control of it.

At the summer Convention of AYD held in New York, the leaders followed a straight Communist party-line program, lambasting the 79th Congress for passing "legislation on foreign policy in a 'get-tough-with-Russia' spirit." The Convention revealed AYD's purposes and character with such pronouncements as "Youth cannot forget the Congressmen and political leaders with this reactionary record . . . Neither can or will youth forget the few courageous friends of labor and the people in Congress: the Peppers, Marcantonios, DeLaceys, Powells, and

The Constitution of the United States, Article IV, Clause 4: "The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a REPUBLICAN form of government." Let us always remember that this great country of ours is "The REPUBLIC of the United States of America" — not "The Democracy of the United States of America."

Coffees who sought to oppose reaction." These were the special Communist favorites of the Left-wingers in the 79th Congress.

(This illuminating and authoritative expose of the AYD will be continued in our next issue).

TO THE EDITORS OF A.F. of L. LABOR PAPERS: How about opening up on the red traitors? Your A.F. of L. members would like to see you smoke out the small percentage of Communists in the A.F. of L. You are at liberty to publish anything from our paper.

FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM SHOULD BE LED BY PATRIOTS QUALIFIED BY EXPERIENCE

If we are going into a third world war, this time we should at least know what it is all about. Our readers can depend on this paper to give you facts as they develop.

World War I: was to preserve "democracy", the war to end all wars.

World War II: was for the "four freedoms" . . . despair, starvation, slavery, COMMUNISM.

World War III: if this would really put an end to Communism in the world, we would be for it. But the crusade must be led by anti-Communists of long standing, not by those who helped build Communism in the United States for fourteen years and are now jumping on the bandwagon against it!!

REMEMBER BILL BISHOP?

Communism in the Colleges

AYD quit publishing "Spotlight" as its official organ in April, 1945, and started a new publication called "AYD IN ACTION." This magazine is edited by Aaron Weissman, Nat Pearlman, Henry Cooperstock and Sig Shlakman. The June (1945) issue carried a picture on the front page showing Vincent Sheean (the well known writer who incidentally is mentioned ten times in the reports of the House Committee on Un-American Activities) addressing 1,400 people at a New York AYD meeting and warning them that Franco is a "threat to peace and security by his mere existence." This is straight Communist party-line stuff at the moment. Also shown on the front page is Dr. E. K. Barsky addressing the same group. Barsky and his joint Anti-Fascist Committee crowd have been recently cited for contempt by the House of Representatives. Barsky was telling them that the House Committee on Un-American Activities must be destroyed. Another picture in the magazine shows Martin Mitchnick, Educational Director, Wayne University AYD, speaking at the opening rally of Michigan's AYD Convention.

In this same issue of the AYD magazine, Herb Nalibow had an article entitled "A Communist Answers Red-Baiting." His argument was that any criticism of Communism is "red-baiting" and therefore bad. Vivian Levin wrote an article boosting AYD to the skies and Herm Schuckman presented a program to boost AYD growth. Mollie Lieber, head of AYD in Chicago, wrote on the wonders of youth in Europe (where she had recently been) and told how the Young Communist Leagues had played so noble a part. Leon Wofsky, in this same issue, told how a New York Council had been formed, made up principally of AYD and Jewish youth groups. Another article by Sy Friedman told of the work of the AYD in Newark and Nat Pearlman wrote on the mechanics of AYD propaganda.

SPOTLIGHT

on JAKE PLOTNIKOV

Why does Immigration Inspector Jake Plotnikov (at present personnel director at Ellis Island Hospital) ask this test question of subjects given "hearings" before him:

"Would you attempt to overthrow, sabotage or work against a Communist Government of the U.S.A.?"

The answer to this question determines how Mr. Plotnikov reports upon a subject's admissibility!!!

Why do officials of the Immigration Department exert such diligence and pressure to deport subjects in their hands on Ellis Island, especially people known to be anti-Communists, into Communist-dominated areas of Europe and thus to certain death or slave-labor camps, while simultaneously every consideration is given to Reds who arrive as stowaways, call themselves "anti-Fascist refugees" (exactly like Eisler), and they are granted time and facilities to arrange for safe departure to Central or South America, instead of being forced to return to Europe?

The answers to these questions will tell us why Reds in the Immigration Department, just like Jake Plotnikov, have the power to keep in jail for six years a guiltless man who has committed the crime of being an aggressive anti-Communist — Gerald Bishop.

STARTLING SERIES OF PERSECUTIONS OF VETERAN ANTI-RED REVEALED IN PUBLIC APPEAL FOR JUSTICE FROM FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

It is an easy task to promote the cause of one who is popular, but it is far from easy to champion the cause of a man who has been smeared and persecuted by powerful Reds who grew brazen and bold while they ruled F.D.R.'s administration. We accept and welcome the task of exposing the persecution of William Gerald Bishop, who had the courage to defy the Communist element in the New Deal at a time when this element had the power to smear and crush every man who defied them. Well known men with influence like Colonel Lindbergh and Senator Nye were crushed in just this way.

THINK WEEKLY has thoroughly investigated Bill Bishop's case. He is guilty of being an anti-Communist; that is his only crime. And for this crime he is to be deported and killed by Stalin's agents as they are eliminating all anti-Communist leaders in Europe.

We ask our readers to pray for Bill Bishop. And if we are Americans worthy of the name we will not shrink from our duty to fight for him. Here is his story:

* * *

REMEMBER ME ?

I'm Bill Bishop, remember?

Remember all the scare headlines and radio hysterics about me? They can't convict me and they don't dare give me a trial or a full hearing, yet they don't release me.

Remember five to twelve years ago, all the press, pamphlet, brochure and radio CONSPIRACY TO SILENCE BISHOP? which the Communist strategists and their stooges have now turned into a CONSPIRACY OF SILENCE ABOUT BISHOP.

Remember "It's a Stuck Pig That Squeals", and remember how the Commie press squealed at my documented reports, which administrative bureaucrats in Washington suppressed, just as my present petitions for justice are ignored while Constitutional, Congressional and Court rules about expediting speedy, public and fully impartial trials are denied.

PLAYING BOTH ENDS

Remember how the Commies called me a Bundist and how Nazis called me a Commie, and how the Rogge agents in the F.B.I. wobbled around confusedly trying to pretend they believed both stories and seeking evidence to support the hysterical hallucinations of "Jergen's Jerk"? I have now learned that the Communists were also secretly calling me a Communist in order to discredit my reports of what I had seen and heard while an Allied Interne in an Austrian Concentration Camp thirty years ago.

Remember how I used to warn our leaders of church and state against doing business with agents of any of Europe's totalitarianisms? Tell me, when did you go on record against the sham, spurious glitter of totalitarian propaganda promises and the dull, dirty realities of totalitarian performances, or are you still only half convinced of the folly and danger of Balkanized concepts of hyphenated ideologies? Do you believe you can reconcile our American belief with some Labor-state, Capital-state, Religious-state or Race-state project promoted by political strategists and gullible stooges, whose class and caste minority-rule propaganda is so foreign to a representative constitutional republic such as ours?

I was born in Salem, Mass., June 27, 1900, and spent the first nine or ten years of my life around Boston, Toronto, and London. I barely remember my American father (a mining engineer) and most of my schooling, both in these years and later, was with children taught by my mother (an English teacher and governess). The four years prior to the first World War my mother and I were in cities of France and Switzerland and we went to Vienna just before the war, as she had been engaged to teach the children of an Austrian family. Instead, we were confined with other Allied prisoners at Saint Pollens until the revolution, and it was then I first saw Communism in action. I escaped in this unsettled period and got back to England but, being without friends or credentials, I found myself a war-displaced refugee in depression-plagued lands where it was a crime for anyone not in uniform to be without police papers. After various border adventures, I took the only practical way out and enlisted at the Spanish Consulate in Rotterdam and served in the Riff War in North Africa, and returned to the U. S. in 1926.

Termite Attacks on Constitution and Religion

Remember my warnings against the termite tactics of those who were using press and radio media to popularize (especially in youth movements) those who were teaching Marxian and Freudian political and religious ideology utterly contrary to our American concepts? Are there any of you still so blind as not to see the direct and planned relation between our eleventh hour war preparations, our confused world policies, our secular programs and our adult and juvenile delinquencies, and the Communist perversions of liberal and democratic impulses? My own long detention in various bureaucratic controlled centers merely confirmed what was clear to any reader from the propaganda I saw pouring into the C.C.C. outfits years ago when my warnings went almost unheeded, except by those guilty ones who feared to have the truth recognized.

Remember all the headlines in May, 1935, when I was first arrested, investigated and released? Remember the second time, in January, 1940? Remember the third time, in July 1940? Then came the war and the Communist strategy (of working through their agents and fronts on the public payroll) when those experts in the bureaucratic know-how of by-passing executive and judicial officials instigated the hush-hush policy, transferring me, and others, on kangaroo hop flights from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. After my fourth arrest, in 1942 (an administrative detention without indictment or trial) I was shipped to Fort Lincoln, North Dakota, and held incommunicado until U. S. Judge Vogel started to investigate and the press reported his determination to hold hearings of the "scandal"; then early Christmas day, 1943, a double guard rushed me out of his jurisdiction to a new hide-away from justice at Kenedy, Texas, where I was punished for "illegal" correspondence with the Attorney General of the U.S. (administratively it is a crime to seek redress from executive and judicial offices). When the "scandal" of my incarceration became too much for Texas to stand, I was sent to New Mexico for the oblivion of a swastika-decorated camp and later to the supervision of a Japanese detention center. Then U. S. Judge Colin Neblett of New Mexico freed me, because my prosecutors could make no valid charge against me and, after nine years of investigation, had no proof to explain why they were holding me. This was December 11, 1944, but I was secretly arrested as soon as I got out of the judge's sight and spirited from the jurisdiction to be again detained without bail, indictment or trial; for apparently the bright administrative minds of the Expulsion Section agree with Winchell, Rogge & Co. that, because I was a prisoner of the Austrians when the Communists came into power, I should now be turned over to our co-belligerent behind the iron curtain for them to deal with as they please in the light of my long fight against them.

Remember me and remember others. Remember the Winchell Lie and the familiar Communist "Whipping-boy" formula. Remember they have never convicted me of any offense against our country's laws, ordinances or statutes, and only once was Rogge able to high-pressure any Grand Jury into indicting me. In that famous fiasco prelude of the later sedition flop prosecutions in Washington, the trial jurors found in my favor two to one and the charges were dismissed. Four times have federal prosecutions by Communist-inspired stooges ended in my favor, but fellow traveler bureaucrats never concede that defeats they do not appeal furnish any protection for their victims. Thus, in spite of all rules of Res-Adjudication or Double-Jeopardy, they have gone on, proceeding after proceeding, for twelve years, detaining, investigating, and impoverishing me, while denying me every civil and constitutional right in the book in order to save the faces of my more or less pseudonymic accuser and persecutors, on or off the public payroll.

Remember that some people judge a man by his friends, some by his enemies. I have some mighty loyal and fine friends but probably you do not know them, so judge me by my enemies. I'm really very proud of my enemies and quite willing that you judge me by what you know of them. I want and expect no help or understanding from any herd-mind who believes in adolescent hypocrites like Walter Winchell, Oetje J. Rogge, Leon M. Birkhead, James M. Sheldon (if that is his name), Dorothy Kuhn-Wurzberger-Mueller-D'Oxylon, the more multi-aliased Derounian, Benjamin Plotkin, Jacob Aaronson, Michael Stern, Adrian B. Lopez, William F. Kelly, Edward J. Ennis, Sam Brodsky, Herbert Weckler, and Harry Ratzke.

Whipping-Boy Technique

Remember other examples of the notorious Winchellian whipping-boy formula so popular with professional witch-hunters whose activities prove nothing except the malice and incompetence of bureaucratic-minded employees in administrative posts who usurp executive or judicial functions. That formula consists of four major steps or ingredients: (1) reporting anonymous slanders alleged to be from unnamed official sources, (2) attributing to some usually destitute person a controversial quotation lifted from the speech of some prominent person who dare not be attacked directly, (3) clamoring then to have the whipping-boy detained or prosecuted under some complicated statute and preferably at some place so far from the home of the accused as to assure the absence of any local sympathy with or knowledge of the facts of the case, and, (4) claiming credit for having exposed conditions, which exist only in the hysterical sensation-obsessed minds of the witch-hunters.

By heredity, environment and experience, I am convinced that Anglo-American concepts of social, economic, political and religious freedoms are the only practical principles, and the only ones which will attract educated people. Whatever our faults, we have the best plan and least susceptible of abuse systems and this is recognized even more by enlightened people of totalitarian and purge-ruled countries than in lands where double-talking lobbies, factions and minorities have not been able to frustrate the idea of majority rule.

Passivism and appeasement are as foreign to our American temperament as is tolerance of marauding aggressions of foreign directed agents. For us to advertise to the world that we will not fight for the basic things we believe is not only misleading but is a downright lie, the same downright lie promoted by maudlin sentimentalists who encouraged the Italian, Japanese, and Nazi aggressions which we had to curb at a price we could have saved, had our will to resist and the things for which we would fight been frankly stated in advance.

No one who loves liberty should have any reason to fear what Anglo-American forces intend to maintain and strive for and anyone who opposes the basic things we have fought for and fight for again is either still adolescent minded or else is an aggression plotter.

WILLIAM GERALD BISHOP

KARL MARX SAID:

"Christian brotherly love has been tried for eighteen centuries and found wanting. I will found my (Communist) movement on a more dynamic force — class antagonism and the dictatorship of the proletariat."

COMMUNIST PRESS PRAISE IS ALWAYS A TIP-OFF. AYD is one of Communist's most coddled pets. Rarely an issue of the Daily Worker appears without AYD mention. On Aug. 14, '46, it showed a picture of AYD boys and girls distributing leaflets in downtown Detroit supporting the notoriously Communist-dominated NMU's Great Lakes strike. On June 7, '46, the Daily Worker carried a display ad and write-up of an AYD Youth Rally in New York supporting the same radical union.

The Daily Worker (Aug. 12, '46) carried a story telling about a crusade against price rises in Philadelphia. It said: "More than 150 neighbors and representatives of CIO unions, AYD and other groups picketed for two hours . . ."

ONE OF THE MAIN PURPOSES behind the Communist effort to organize youth is to get them into picket lines — and make them "strike conscious." Another main angle is to hammer away on "Fascists" until they can make American youths believe that every anti-Communist and every business man is a "native fascist." AYD literature is devoted not only to those issues but also to glorifying the CIO — dramatizing the Negro issue and anything else that will inflame emotions — and divide our people. Communist strategy is to cause turmoil, unrest — disruption.

The Communist Sunday WORKER (Sept. 16, '45) gave Phil Schatz, National Educational Director of AYD, a full page for an article on "Youth Wants Jobs — Not Hoover Apple-sauce." He gave AYD a typical Communist activity record. AYD is stirring youth up on every issue that trains for unrest and revolutionary action. In Cleveland, Ohio, AYD led a trouble-stirring drive to force a mixing of races at Euclid Beach Park swimming pool — and AYD, buttressed by a reporter from the Daily Worker, did the same thing at Woodside Amusement Park in Philadelphia. Both were privately-owned parks.

AYD was one of the most active Communist-fronts in fighting to save OPA. In Chicago four young men labeled "Taft", "Wherry", "Brooks" and "O'Daniel" marched through the streets as pallbearers carrying a coffin labeled OPA. At Cleveland in July, 1946, the Ohio AYD hanged Senator Taft in effigy at an "OPA rally."

President Bevis of Ohio State University, in April of 1946, withdrew recognition of AYD following an investigation that disclosed: "The dominant clique in Ohio State Youth for Democracy has persistently pursued a purpose at variance with the representation upon which recognition was granted." University officials said: "We now have conclusive evidence that the Communist Party looks upon the Youth for Democracy group as part of its organization and as media for the spread of party doctrines."

On January 7 of this year, certain members of the AYD club at the Navy pier branch of the University of Illinois withdrew and denounced AYD as "a tool of the communist element in this nation." Mrs. Mollie Lieber, head of the Illinois AYD, admitted (according to the newspaper story) that she had been a Young Communist League organizer. When that was disbanded and AYD organized, she became an AYD organizer.

In February, 1946, Governor Kim Sigler of Michigan ordered an investigation of AYD at the State University and at Wayne University in Detroit. The Communists and their sympathizers immediately turned their spray nozzles of smear on the Governor. The "Michigan Herald", a new Communist-dominated newspaper, is leading the fight for AYD.

This organization is moving rapidly into our high school and college campuses and while in each instance the two or three who run the show of each unit are part of the Communist network, the great number of youths enticed into the movement are completely innocent of its real nature and guidance. They are moved by youth enthusiasm and are sympathetic with the sugar-coated purposes for which AYD claims to stand. The situation is well-stated by J. A. Reeves, Superintendent of Schools at Everett, Washington, where AYD activities were recently exposed and restrained. He said: "Young people enjoy joining societies, and it is the responsibility of the parents as well as the school authorities to look into the purpose and the adult leadership of these societies."

Every educational community should be vigilant and determined in meeting the challenge of these deceptive and seductive Communist-front (Trojan horse) organizations that have now become so active in this country. It is clear that this Communist invasion of America is a bold and determined movement and that it must be met with courageous American action. It must be destroyed — or it will subvert our youth and destroy everything that is fine and noble in our traditional American way of life. Now is the time for every parent and every school administrator to wake up and take action. Let's keep American youth clean and clear of Communist taint.

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PROFESSORS AID REDS TO WEAKEN GOVERNMENT

Since 1933, Moscow has been conducting summer courses for American educators. Professors from twenty-four American universities have been cooperating in sponsoring special sessions at the Moscow University. One of these "sponsors" is Robert M. Hutchins, President of the University of Chicago. In order to see what a good job Mr. Hutchins' university is doing for Stalin here in the U.S.A. in breeding disrespect for America and her institutions, we name only three of the professors who have established this as a Red Incubator:

1. Professor Oscar Lange, who renounced his American citizenship so he could become a servant of Stalin as Ambassador to the U. S. from Communist-ruled Poland. If he had been called a Communist the week before he resigned from the university, Professor Lange would have denied it, as all Communists have taken an oath to do. Now we know he is, and was, a Communist as are many other professors who are being paid by American taxpayers to corrupt the mind of our youth.

2. M. J. Adler, professor of the University of Chicago, on October 28, 1945, at Cleveland, Ohio, told four hundred students: "We must do everything we can to abolish the United States". Adler is a Communist working for World Government.

3. Page 1786, Congressional Record, March 6, 1947, states the following: "Cong. Gearhart: Mr. Speaker, in my hands I hold a newspaper clipping from the Syracuse (NY) Post-Standard of Feb. 16th. In this article it is revealed that Milton Mayer, a University of Chicago Professor, addressing a meeting of One Worlders in Syracuse, unbossomed himself in the following words, which I quote: 'We must haul down the American Flag and if I wanted to be vulgar and shocking I would go even further, and say haul it down, stamp on it, and spit on it'.

"And this article contains the startling information which I quote: 'Most of the nearly two hundred persons attending the meeting greeted Mayer's statements with prolonged applause' "Mr. Rankin—"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?" "Mr. Gearhart—"I yield'.

THINK WEEKLY issue of August 18, 1946. Do you have this issue? If so, we will be glad to send you a copy of the pamphlet "Smear Terror" in exchange.

"Mr. Rankin—"You will find those subversive professors are being subsidized by somebody who wants to destroy the Government of the U.S. When will the American people wake up to the fact a small, noisy, brazen minority, well-financed, are out to destroy our government?"

And, we might add, they are smart enough to have John D. Rockefeller Jr. contribute heavily to this university and contribute an eight and one-half million dollar real estate donation to U. N., the preliminary framework for World Government (World Slavery). John D., having oil interests over the world, is undoubtedly aware that many countries are falling into the hands of Communists; and he has probably read Dale Carnegie's book, "How to Win Friends and Influence People"!!!

JOINT ANTI-FASCIST REFUGEE COMMITTEE MEMBERS ARRESTED

In our issue of October 27, 1946, we exposed this organization which promotes Communism, revolution, and wholesale murder throughout the world. Again in the 45th issue of March 23, 1947, we listed the directors and their location and urged President Truman to either see that they were sent to the Penitentiary or admit he was afraid.

We are happy to note April 4, 1947 papers carry the news that all sixteen have been arrested. If they are not tried in a reasonable time, we will know Communist influence has been used in the right place.

Many people TALK against Communism but it is action that counts. Order a bundle of papers (3 cents each) to pass out at meetings, to give to your associates at work, or to enclose in your mail. We find that an average of five people read each copy of THINK WEEKLY. This is money well spent to expose the Red Traitors.

COMMUNISM WOULD HELP KILL OUR FREE ENTERPRISE

"America must awaken to the dangers of free enterprise!

"Do you realize that the United States has less than 7% of the world's population — but it has 54% of the world's telephones, 84% of the world's automobiles, nearly half the radios, 92% of all the bathtubs on this planet, 50,00,000 savings bank accounts, and 70,000,000 life insurance policies?

Furthermore, Americans spend over $4,000,000 a day just for tickets to the movies alone!

"This is unfair! We have more than our share of everything. What is to blame for this state of affairs? Free enterprise! It is appalling to think that a mere 7% of the world's population should be in a position to take 92% of the world's tub baths!"

If we could only have Communism, we would be able to correct all this!

LADIES :

This is Your Chance to Do Something Active and Important in This Campaign Against Communism.

A bazaar is to be held in the vicinity of Newark in three or four weeks. Full details will be published shortly. All proceeds from this affair will go to support THINK WEEKLY.

We need articles for sale and for grab bag items. Look around the house; see what saleable things you have on hand. We all have hidden in the attic or in a closet many useful articles in good condition which we ourselves will never use; but someone would be glad of the opportunity to buy such items.

Let's get behind this affair and make it a big success. It's your turn, ladies, to do your part in this important work. All contributions should be sent to Mrs. Lisbeth Horn, 103 Melville Place, Irvington, New Jersey, Chairman of the Bazaar Committee.

C.I.O. BELONGS TO STALIN

What Has Happened to America?

By Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.

Time was when all Americans were for America. They were as much for America as Britons have always been for Britain, or Stalin and his friends for Russia; or, for that matter, as much for America as normal people in any other country in the world have been for their country.

Nor was there anything new in this attitude. Old Nestor in Homer's Iliad says:

"He serves me most, who serves his country best."

Shakespeare, in Julius Caesar, has one of his characters say:

"Who is here so vile as will not love his country?"

Scott asked in The Lay of the Last Minstrel—"Breathes there a man with soul so dead

Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land?"

All of us Americans—down to the present generation—were brought up on some of the inspiring songs of our poets whose chiefest theme was love of country. Our blood stirred—our patriotism leapt, as we read them. Among these was Longfellow in whose Paul Revere's Ride were the words:

"And yet, through the gloom and the light

The fate of a nation was riding on that night,

And the sparks struck out by that steed in his flight,

Kindled the land into flame with its heat."

TRANSCRIPT OF ADDRESS MADE IN MEXICO SHOWS INTENTIONS OF INTERNATIONAL REDS TO CONTROL LABOR UNIONS

At a secret meeting of Communist leaders in Mexico City on May 18, 1945, an outline of the plans of the party in North and South America was given by Comrade Lafferte, of Chile. The text of his address was published by the Mexico City paper, "Manana". It was reprinted in two other papers in that country. Later a French translation appeared in three Canadian journals.

Excerpts from Lafferte's Speech

In order not to tire my listeners, I shall report briefly on the general situation on the American continent, in England and in Russia on all matters that have any connections with the World's Communist Party.

"To be precise, I must point out that the U.S.S.R., Marshal Stalin's government, continues to remain faithful to the legitimistic orientations of which you have just heard. He continues to be absolutely faithful and Moscow's and other Marxist centers' maneuvers aimed at appeasing distrust and suspicion of capitalism need not cause us any worry. At this moment when the

Senator Langer Helps Bishop

While William Gerald Bishop, a courageous American, innocent and accused of no crime other than being a strong anti-Communist, is held in prison over five years (now at Ellis Island), there are at least one million pro-Communists in the United States, illegally, enjoying freedom and privileges of every sort. The Immigration Department does not appear to be concerned; in fact, in spite of this pitiful situation, Gerhardt Eisler is out on bond preparing to speak throughout the country promoting Communism.

But one important American is interested in the cause of justice and liberty. United States Senator William Langer exemplified his true American spirit by introducing a bill to investigate the Bishop case. This move on the part of the Senator prevents Bishop from being deported and shot by Communists in Europe without a hearing.

All anti-Communists in the U.S.

owe Senator Langer a debt of gratitude. We urge our readers to thank this brave man . . . and write to your Congressmen and Senators to back Senator Langer in this fight against Communists!

Washington, D. C.

Has Congress ever delegated any powers to administrative bureaucrats to Arrest, Detain, Deny Bail or Deport without trial REGISTERED VOTERS or other residents of this country who claim to be American citizens?

WILLIAM GERALD BISHOP's case, (1) his Salem, MASSACHUSETTS birth, (2) his thirty-year fight against Communism and totalitarian ideologies, (3) his twenty-year residence in NEW YORK, (4) his twelve years of Federal persecution without a single conviction, (5) his repeated arrests by administrative fire, (6) his last five-year detention as an ill and internment-impoorished, but never tried, accused; (7) his non-release in the Southern District of New York, (8) his Winchell-inspired transfer to NORTH DAKOTA, (9) his 1943 Christmas kidnapping from NORTH DAKOTA's jurisdiction, (10) his 1944 birthday transfer from TEXAS, (11) his December 11, 1944, release by United States Judge Colin Neblett, of NEW MEXICO, (12) his re-arrest when out of the Judges' sight and the bureaucratic persecution and continued attempts to silence him and to sneak him out of the country, are certainly matters which should be thoroughly investigated. C.I.O. BELONGS TO STALIN

war effort of the United Nations must be concerted to finish off the Axis powers, the chances for the infiltration of Communism in the entire world are magnificent. Not only among the proletariat, but also in the cultural and intellectual world, in the military, and financial field and in the realm of international commerce.

"As far as the proletariat is concerned, we base our work on the Union of Soviet Trade Unions, which is in touch with various organizations in other countries, such as Workers Congress in England, trade union organizations in India, in Australia, in New Zealand and in Africa, the C.I.O. and the Brotherhood of Railroad Workers in U. S., and the C.T.A.L. in Latin America. Within these organizations the Communist cells have a control which permits us to hope for victory. If it is true that the leader of the labor movement in England does not agree with our ideology, nevertheless we have with us, in Hillman and Lombardo, two important leaders on this continent.

"As for Latin America, in Argentina we have our contingents in the Workers' Universal Alliance, made up of unions of the National Industrial Federation. The present situation in Argentina is known to all of you. There is no need to dwell on it. But these Marxist leaders have managed to escape from the persecutions of the Government and only a few most important labor leaders were arrested.

* * * * *

"As to our enemies, we oppose in the first place the Democratic and the Republican parties, because it has always been our policy to accuse capitalists of imperialism, be it true or not; then we oppose political parties, Socialists and Democrats, and workers' unions. In many cases we have gone so far as to use governments themselves, pointing out to them the danger that may exist in their own nationality in the fact that foreign enterprises, above all the Anglo-Saxon ones, would become masters of their national wealth. This policy was very useful in putting reactionary Anglo-American capitalism in a very unfavorable light on the entire American continent."

* * * * *

Editor's note: The majority of members of C.I.O. unions are good people, but unfortunately they do not run the C.I.O. . . . neither does President Philip Murray; the Communists on his board give the orders. These Reds are too smart to have a Communist as a front man; Murray, a Catholic, is more effective as a decoy.

There are Communist cells in almost all C.I.O. unions; some, like United Electrical Radio & Machine Workers, are completely run by foreign-born Communists. Reds fill practically all positions of importance in U.E. Some of their officers are top Commies in the U.S., viz., Julius Emspak, James Matles, James Emerick Lustig.

Well meaning citizens who belong to C.I.O. unions can feel that part of the money they pay as dues is being used to build up Communism in the United States . . . which means slavery for the working man!

SPOTLIGHT on CHARLES CHAPLIN

Charles Chaplin says if you step off the curb with your left foot first, you are called a Communist.

He did not mention that he was a member of five Communist fronts and had paid for the use of Madison Square Garden many times for the use of Communists.

"For a few more enlightening words on Mr. Chaplin, we repeat an item contained in our issue of June 16, 1946:

On May 27th, Charlie, with some Red friends, attended one of the many parties given lately on a Russian ship just off the Pacific shore. He said the nature of the party called for it to be held on Russian territory. When he came ashore he had some sharp words with the U. S. Customs men and let slip that they were "American Gestapo."

Charles has not done so badly here in America — thirty years and thirty million American dollars and five American wives, but he has been too busy to become a Citizen. He used the money he made in America to help finance an organization which is working day and night to destroy the government which allows him the privilege he would not enjoy one day in Russia.

And let us make a mental note of the fact that Mr. Chaplin is now out to collect many more of our American dollars through his new picture, "Mon-sieur Verdoux".

HARNESSING GOD
By Dr. Alfred P. Haake

One of the oldest rackets in the world is the using of the mystery and imputed authority of God for personal gain.

The ancient pagan priest who got folks to believe that he alone had access to the God and thus acquired an authority that went even beyond religious observances, literally harnessed that fear of God to enslave the multitude to his own selfish purposes.

With the coming of the greatest Teacher of them all, there came also one of the most significant changes in the approach to God. Instead of looking upon God as someone who was to be propitiated for the purpose of letting Himself be harnessed to human purposes, the Savior taught men that they must worship God first, serve Him, and then, even though not necessarily, the things they wanted would come.

"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you," signified the proper attitude toward God. We live that we may serve Him, not that He is our servant to be called to serve us. If we serve Him well, we are well rewarded, and the reward may even include material blessings. But we must FIRST serve Him.

That is vastly different from invoking the power of God, or using His church or His ministers to get for us something that we want. That is not serving God; that is harnessing Him.

That is why some of us were sad at heart during the recent economic conference of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, held in Pittsburgh for three days. There were many men and women, professing Christians, who were almost frankly in that conference to secure churchly approval for some scheme or pet economic device or theory which served their ends.

During one of the sessions a man arose and remarked that the salvation of the world lay in universal acceptance of Christianity. He was almost booed. A number of people jumped up at once to refute any such claim. A little later, in the hallway, a woman delegate was heard to say, "I'm sick and tired of hearing this talk about religion being the cure for our ills. It is time that the Church got busy and did something to change our economic system."

Poor soul! And she did not know enough economics to judge the validity of the very little she actually heard during those sessions. Fanciful errors looked just as good to her, and even better, than some stodgy form of the actual truth.

Of the more than 325 people who came to the conference, probably at least 150 came with some specific axe to grind and they maneuvered to get God in a place where they could harness Him to their ambitions. Instead of seeking the Kingdom of God first by serving Him, they were for turning it around and giving the "other things" first in order to induce people to accept God Himself.

A preacher in my hearing one of the nights hemoaned the unhappy necessity of going back home to his church without any specific recommendations for economic action to bring them from the conference.

I said to him, as I have said to others, and shall undoubtedly say again, "My brother, be glad that you have discovered that many of the things you believed, are not true, and that some of the things you have refused to consider, actually are true. Renew your faith in God and take it away from pagan gods and idols of stone, steel and mortar in the form of a State. Cease from bearing false witness on things you do not understand and stop trying to harness God."

PORTER TO HEAD

GREEK RELIEF?

Should Congress decide to send the millions to combat Communism in Greece, it is comforting to know that Paul Porter has gone ahead to have complete charge of hiring personnel and spending the money in the administration of this "relief."

Porter had the backing of all the Commies when he was head of OPA, which department was of course packed with reds; he is an International New Dealer.

See how difficult it is to get these leftists out of important jobs; they are simply transferred from one department to another and are busy creating an International New Deal to provide more jobs for starry-eyed reds.

We have nearly three hundred thousand civilian employees in Europe, hand-picked by influential reds in Washington.

Mr. Truman, you cannot fool all the people all the time.

What Has Happened to America?

Love of country never moved more the minds of any people than it moved Americans, young and old. And we were not ashamed of our patriotism—we were proud of it. It was the natural emotion. Our love of country interfered not a whit with our interest in other peoples. For throughout our history the people of no country were more solicitous of the welfare of other people than were Americans.

* * * * *

But now America as such is largely forgotten. This has been planned by alien minds. It has been accomplished through propaganda. That propaganda has reached down into our kindergartens, out into our schools and colleges, and into strong elements of our Protestant Churches—indeed, even into a few elements in the Roman Catholic Church. Multitudes of lecturers, alien-minded or alien-born, are preaching the gospel that America was wrong her first 150 years; that what she held then to be patriotism is a contemptible thing; that she should, as it were, repent in sackcloth and ashes by throwing in her lot with all other countries, especially those lacking ambition and eagerness to work.

We never hear from these spreaders of the new gospel that other countries of the world owe anything to us. Other countries (unless like Spain, they oppose Soviet Russia) seem never to be wrong. They imply, if they do not directly say, that it is the American people who have had well-nigh a monopoly of greed and error and selfishness.

Throughout the country, but especially in the great cities of the eastern and western seaboards it has become a fad to talk down America. A little superficial information and much talk about the glories of other countries and their forms of government—notably Soviet Russia—have been the mark of a World citizen. And what can be more up to date, more indicative of breadth of view and understanding than a World citizen?

* * * * *

What do the American people think of all this?

Well, they answered that at the election last fall. The Gallup polls down to just prior to Pearl Harbor showed the American people were four to one against involvement in what became World War II. They did not know then, what we can with considerable assurance say we know today, that their President was lying to them when he told them "again and again and again" he was not going to permit their sons to be sent to foreign wars. They could not foresee then what, in their name, their President would do to them at Teheran and Yalta and Potsdam. If they could have foreseen the unbelievable commitments their President made at those conferences, they would have voted ten or even twenty to one against war.

When the people spoke November 5, 1946, they were exercising their first chance to speak out under post-war conditions. Even the 2,300,000 federal employees, each calculated by politicians to be worth from three to five votes for the party in power) were unable to stop the repudiation. There was little or no vision or genius in the planning by the Republicans of their congressional campaign—there did not need to be. The people had the chance to speak. And they spoke.

But what good has it done?

That leads to the question—what has caused all the propaganda which has itself been the cause of the American people forgetting their heritage?

There is much evidence of the source of this diabolical propaganda. But the evidence has not yet been put together. We know of many scattered incidents—many significant anecdotes. We know the forces are working because we can see the results. We believe no greater problem is before the American people than to fathom and expose these forces. Upon our ability to fathom them successfully, and expose them relentlessly, will depend the future of the United States, if not of the world.

Those fifty-six men who signed the Declaration of Independence pledged thereto 'their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.' Are there Americans with enough courage to go as far as that to preserve what those men won for us?

It remains to be seen.

□ "The situation more clearly resembles insurrection than a labor strike. The distinction between loyal labor leaders and those following the Communist Party line is easy to observe. Loyal labor leaders fight for a settlement of grievances. Disloyal men who have wormed their way into the labor movement DON'T WANT SETTLEMENTS. THEY WANT STRIKES. THAT IS THE COMMUNIST PARTY LINE." This statement was made by Benjamin Gitlow, Communist leader and candidate for the vice-presidency of the U. S. on the C.P. ticket. □

"Bomb Russia Now"

From Ukrainian-American News of Pennsylvania

Former Governor of Pennsylvania George H. Earle in a recent speech in Philadelphia bluntly suggested that "America should bomb Russia before she bombs us!" This remark brought Earle headlines and paved the way for other leading Americans to suggest identical action in order to save humanity from Communist slavery.

The UANews endorses the suggestion of Earle but with the reservation that the bombs be actually dropped on Russia, and not on Ukraine!

Russia proper suffered little in the recent war. Practically all the fighting, destruction and ravaging was perpetrated throughout Ukraine. A look at the map will readily indicate this indisputable fact. And perhaps because it was Ukraine and the Ukrainians who suffered most from the Nazi-Soviet conflict, that resulted in Russia remaining little scarred and therefore flushed with ambitions to now conquer the world.

So, if any bombs are to be dropped on Russia with the object of decimating the Red Fascists, let the bombs drop directly on the Kremlin, on Moscow, on Leningrad and in the Urals, and NOT on Kiev, Kharkiv, Lwiw or Odessa! Bombs should be dropped where they will do the most good and will punish those who are responsible for the regimentation and enslavement of millions of people.

And it is the Ukrainians who were first to be forcibly 'incorporated' into the so-called Soviet Union, who were exploited the longest and who suffered most during the War and under the Moscow-directed Five-Year Plans.

Ukraine and her 40 million Ukrainians have suffered long and much in silence. It is time for her Salvation! America can expect the cooperation of the enslaved and freedom-aspiring Ukrainians — IF America is prudent to recognize this basic fact by proclaiming in advance that when the bombs are dropped, that they will be dropped on Russia and that the Ukrainians will likewise be liberated from Soviet Slavery!

Communism, Democracy and Fabianism were made "OUTLAW" in this country September 17, 1787 — the day our Constitution was adopted. If the President and the Congress do not know it, Article I, Section 4, of the Constitution does . . . John J. Fleck.

LADIES . . . AND GENTLEMEN!!

In our issue of April 13, we addressed a notice to "LADIES" asking for donations of articles for a bazaar to be held in a few weeks. We are pleased to report that we have received several letters from businessmen, offering to contribute merchandise. We say: THANK YOU most sincerely for your much-needed cooperation. And we now repeat our previous notice for the benefit of both ladies and gentlemen!

A bazaar is to be held in the vicinity of Newark in a few weeks. Full details will be published shortly. All proceeds from this affair will go to support THINK WEEKLY.

We need articles for sale and for grab bag items. Look around the house, see what saleable things you have on hand. We all have hidden in the attic or in a closet many useful articles in good condition which we ourselves will never use; but someone would be glad of the opportunity to buy such items.

Referring again to the first paragraph, we of course welcome all contributions of merchandise from stores and business houses.

Let's get behind this affair and make it a big success. All contributions should be sent to Mrs. Lisbeth Horn, 103 Melville Place, Irvington, New Jersey, Chairman of the Bazaar Committee.

UNION MEN: Attend your meetings and don't let the few noisy Reds wear you out with long meetings so they may pass important issues when you leave or if you don't attend at all. It takes work and sacrifice to drive these Reds from your unions.

FROM "ATHEISTIC COMMUNISM" AN ENCYCLICAL BY POPE PIUS XI

"Aware of the universal desire for peace, the leaders of Communism pretend to be the most zealous promoters and propagandists in the movement for world amity. Yet at the same time they stir up a class warfare which causes rivers of blood to flow and, realizing that their system offers no internal guarantee of peace, they have recourse to unlimited armaments. Under various names which do not suggest Communism, they establish organizations and periodicals with the sole purpose of carrying their ideas into quarters otherwise inaccessible . . . No one who would save Christian civilization may collaborate with it (Communism) in any undertaking whatsoever. Those who permit themselves to be deceived into lending their aid towards the triumph of Communism in their own country will be the first to fall victims of their error."

OUR INFORMATION SERVICE

We have learned that in a number of cities groups have been formed to meet regularly to discuss ways of combatting Communism. Some of the aims of these wide-awake Americans are to increase the number of readers of THINK WEEKLY by distributing the paper and soliciting subscriptions; to be on the alert for Red speakers disguised as liberals speaking in schools and other public places; to expose these Red traitors for what they are and to combat their subversive work; expose and eventually remove Communist teachers from schools.

We will gladly cooperate with these groups in any way possible, such as furnishing papers for distribution, supplying information on Communist Fronts, of which there now are about 600, helping to establish whether speakers are Red or American.

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them." . . . TRUMAN TRICKED

Conspiracy to Silence Bishop

Pioneer Anti-Communist Among Anti-New Dealers Persecuted By Rogge Before He Was Fired.

A fearless American who refused to compromise with Communism, William Gerald Bishop opposed it in CC Camps and other agencies, where he worked. He opposed Communism and the Red New Deal on the platform at a time when this was considered a crime.

His enemies realized that Bishop was too effective with the truth — he had to be stopped; hence the war fever was used to cover up his persecution. New Deal Reds in a position to use the United States treasury to punish their enemies had Bishop arrested and beaten, put him through a long and expensive trial; the jury acquitted him. He was arrested four times, has been imprisoned for six years; and has been moved all over the U. S. to break up his efforts to be released.

O. John Rogge, the prosecutor fired lately by Attorney General Clark for persecuting innocent people, continued to hound Bishop. This same Rogge, after long hours trying to get another anti-New Dealer, Douglas M. Stewart, Editor of Scribner's Commentator, to confess, cupped his hands over his face in desperation and said: "Why can't I get confessions like they do in Russia?"

Shortly before Rogge was fired by Attorney General Clark, he returned from a four month trip to Germany, where he had caused former German officials to be imprisoned for months and threatened with death to force them to come to this country and testify against so-called seditionists (anti-New Dealers and anti-Commun-

WILLIAM GERALD BISHOP

STALIN PREDICTED ECONOMIC CRISIS IN THE UNITED STATES

"It may be stated that Stalin is one of those who think that an economic crisis after this war is inevitable in the United States. . . . Conditions are more ripe for revolution in the United States than they were in old Russia. The American revolution, when the workers have finally seized power, will develop even more swiftly in all its phases than has the Russian revolution. The American soviet government will be organized along the broad lines of the Russian soviets." . . . William Z. Foster, national chairman of the Communist Party of the United States, writing in the Daily Worker (July 1945) and in his book "Toward a Soviet America".

COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS INFLUENCE PRESIDENT TO IGNORE THREAT AT HOME WHILE TRYING TO HALT RED EXPANSION IN EUROPE.

Gullible America is being taken over again. The danger of Communism in the United States is definitely far more serious now than it was before President Truman stated the Government would eliminate the Reds. WHY? Because Truman knows nothing about Communism and has been tricked into disarming anti-Communists at a time when vigilance is necessary.

We have no evidence of real anti-Communist influence with Truman but we do know he is influenced by politicians, national and international, those whose interest in Communism would be prompted by political expediency or a desire to cause taxpayers to go along with him on a foreign problem. We expect no results from Truman's apparent move to kick the Reds out, for he has never distinguished himself as an anti-Communist; he has been tricked by his advisors, who realized that public sentiment demanded action. It is good politics for them to purge themselves so that no important Reds will be hurt.

Truman follows the Red line of playing down the danger of Communism. In his letter to ex-Governor Earle, he says there are too many sane people in the U.S. for Reds to take over the government. Are there any more sane people here now than there were during the New Deal administration when Red influence was prominent in every department? Can Truman make this statement to the millions of Europeans that F.D.R. handed over to Stalin as slaves? Was F.D.R. sane? Is Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt sane? After raising money and giving several years of helpful service to Communists like Joseph Lash, Eleanor said she had seen the light and slapped Communism on the wrist; but since then she has been working with many Communist fronts and is now active as Honorary Chairman of a strong front with fifty-two Reds on its directorship — American Relief for Greek Democracy. Mrs. Roosevelt is a power in the administration, also in the United Nations, the framework for World Government.

Everything we can learn leads us to believe that Truman's anti-Communist policy is just another whitewash like F.D.R.'s on Pearl Harbor. Nothing will actually be done to the Commies; on the contrary, the fifty million dollars for this loyalty test will probably be used to place more Reds on the payroll to test other Reds.

Owen Roberts, the man to direct this loyalty test, is the same man F.D.R. picked to whitewash the Pearl Harbor disaster and make Short and Kimmel the goats. Is not Roberts an active One Worlder?

Mastermind Reds prevented the new Congress from throwing out the real traitors. And when public sentiment demanded action, the Reds tricked Truman into creating a set-up they themselves will control. The Reds will most certainly direct this "anti-Communist" campaign against those whom they call "native fascists". Actually, "native fascists" in the Communist jargon are anti-Communists!!!

In the meantime, a national emergency is developing which the Reds will use to advantage. Soon trouble with Russia will grasp our minds and the Reds will continue to build stronger in Washington. (We have evidence it was the Communists' stated program to work day and night to entrench themselves in the U.S. and in England while the peoples of these countries were busy fighting World War II). War with Russia would find our important departments in control of Stalin's agents and we could expect a general strike paralyzing all industry.

If Truman is sincere, why does he not fire some of the Red sympathizers he bumps into every day, such as David Niles? And how about moving the direction of the State Department from Felix Frankfurter's residence down to the State Department? Why not check up on Frankfurter's field man, Benjamin V. Cohen, who was always beside James Byrnes and is now helping to direct Marshall's moves?

It is about time the administration and Mr. Truman put the cards on the table. We cannot destroy Communism over the world and protect it in Washington at the same time. Let's show our honesty and sincerity by first destroying Communism at home. Then, when we have a strong American government, we will be in a position to free the enslaved peoples of the world.

Americans, tighten your belts. Don't be confused and disarmed by this trickery. The Reds are more active now than at any time in the past. Do not give up the fight, for that is playing into their hands; that is their very purpose in creating this situation. Double your efforts. Be on guard.

SPOTLIGHT

on
LELAND STOWE

This man has been a consistent Communist front and has followed the Communist party line from pre-war days up 'til the present time. According to the LABOR DEFENDER, Sept., 1937, Vol. XI, No. 8, published by the International Labor Defense, Leland Stowe was sponsor of a drive to raise $25,000 for the work of this Communist front. This organization was cited no less than ten times in the Communist Red Book published by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Mr. Stowe was a member of the Committee of American Friends of Spanish Democracy, a Communist Front. On May 20, 1943, he was one of the featured speakers at a Carnegie Hall rally sponsored by the National Council of American Soviet Friendship; on the same platform and speaking, were Claude Pepper and Oscar Lange, who renounced his U.S. citizenship, became a Polish citizen and was promptly appointed by the Soviet-dominated puppets to represent Poland on the United Nations!

It is our understanding that Leland Stowe is to be sponsored by the CIO United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America on a weekly radio broadcast. This is the type of man who is granted radio time . . . and despite the fact that his sponsor, UE, is a well known Communist front. Why don't we do something about it?

"It is necessary to be able to agree to any and every sacrifice, and even — if need be — to resort to all sorts of devices, maneuvers, and illegal methods, to evasion and subterfuge, in order to penetrate into the trade unions, to remain in them, and to carry on Communist work in them at all costs." — From Lenin's "Left-Wing Communism".

ists).

One of these witnesses brought to the U.S. to testify, Baron Heribert von Strempel, says he was also told his family would be shot unless he lied in court against these innocent anti-New Dealers.

So we see the type of man who used taxpayers' money to punish Mr. Bishop. This same O. John Rogge, since he was fired from the Justice Department, has been talking to Reds over the U.S., stirring up hatred.

Rogge is now defense attorney for the sixteen directors of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee which THINK WEEKLY has exposed several times as the organization which financed Communism in Spain and set up Tito in Yugoslavia. On March 23 this paper demanded that President Truman cause their arrest; on April 4 these sixteen were arrested and Rogge is the Red servant they asked to defend them.

Are these brazen International Reds to take anti-Communist leaders one at a time and smear and frame us into obscurity? Then who is to defend America and her institutions, our homes, families and religions?

The Conspiracy of Silence ABOUT Bishop, of which he complains, has replaced the Conspiracy TO Silence Bishop, and must be defeated. If persons claiming to be native-born American citizens and admittedly recognized in the Districts of their Domicile as registered voters can be imprisoned without bail, indictment or trial, merely on an administrative bureaucratic fiat, then no one can enjoy the security of due-process or the Bill of Rights so long as COMMUNIST or other termite infiltrators remain in key administrative posts of the Department of Justice, the Immigration or other departments.

We believe that our readers undoubtedly have in their files many news articles, magazine references, pamphlets or brochures which contain evidence of the network of smear-prosecution which misinformed the public in order to divide and discredit those who take a courageous stand against Communist and fellow traveler fronts, and if anyone will send such evidence, we will deliver such records to Mr. Bishop's lawyers. The names of the newspapers, magazines or other publications from which clippings are taken should be jotted down on, or pasted to, clippings wherever known. Unless the sender marks his return address ON THE PAPERS sent us, we will presume their return is not desired.

tion could be applied through a world structure of state capitalism that would insure, through the issuance of bonds by a world bank and its subsidiaries and representatives among national banking institutions, the future welfare and security of a new type of nobility — a new elite. In the last mentioned phase of the general plan the socialists and planners would still have the honor and distinction of being hired as its managers and administrators. They would comprise the technicians for what might be also called the world managerial revolution.

The foundation for the same over-all plan was sought to be established through the League of Nations. It failed. World War II and its aftermath offered the golden opportunity to the New Dealers in America and England and to the socialists throughout the rest of the world.

The American disciples had their first big opportunity after World War I when they were able to steal the Democratic Party before the national election which set them up in business in a big way over here in 1933. National emergencies were engineered and then exploited. Then came World War II which was made to order for those who capitalized on emergencies for imposing state controls over the American people. The "transatlantic Fifth New Deal" grew to an imposing structure out of lend-lease. The United Nations in all its grandeur was ready to take over when the need for lend-lease came to an end.

Same program, same philosophy, same people — but more of them.

SEALY MATTRESSES FORHANS TOOTH PASTE PERTUSSIN

Our hats are off to the radio sponsors of Fulton Lewis, Jr. Here is a man

TWO THOUSAND ILLEGAL ENTRIES INTO U. S. DAILY

As a move to purify the blood stream of America, we suggest a registration of every person in the United States to see just who belongs here, who has the legal right to be here. In this way we can perhaps weed out those who are crossing our borders at night thru the Red Underground. We can discover who are here to develop and strengthen America, and who are here to disarrange, ridicule and break down our American form of government.

Attorney General Clark admits that there have been, over a long period of time two thousand illegal entries a day, over sixty thousand a month! We are informed that his department is fairly crawling with these Red rats.

THINK WEEKLY NEEDS NEW SUBSCRIBERS ON FRONT LINES AGAINST REDS

In this battle against Atheistic Communism, we on the front lines will fight as long as you folks back us up.

You have no idea of the many obstacles we face — but we will never let you down.

What we need now on the front lines are new subscribers. No reader is so busy that he cannot interest at least one new person a week in this important campaign. Each new reader is another worker to awaken America to this danger.

Businessmen can do nothing better to help insure their property against confiscation by Reds than to pay for a list of subscriptions for customers, friends, or employees.

Let's get strong and clean these Reds out of the United States.

IT IS NICE TO KNOW ONLY 3696 RUSSIAN AGENTS ARE IN U.S.

Congressman Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota, a member of the Un-American Activities Committee of Congress, states that 3696 Russian Agents are in the United States. They are making maps, taking still and moving pictures of our defenses and our key cities. Stalin and his Kremlin masterminds no doubt think we are insane or so dumb and spineless that they have no respect for us.

Imagine 3696 Communist accredited agents of Russia enjoy the freedom of our entire country while an American would not have complete freedom of one single block in Russia!

The Kremlin knew many years back we could not effectively be attacked in the open from the outside; hence, Communist Russia has for twenty years been siphoning Red agents into the United States, placing them in higher and more important key government spots; this is followed up with wholesale semi-legal and illegal immigration.

Communism is now so strong in our America that our government agencies are paralyzed and cannot expel the 3696 accredited Russian agents or prevent the illegal entry of sixty thousand each month. There is no doubt that there are from two to three million foreigners here illegally, most of them having been trained in revolution and street fighting in European countries.

The State Department and Justice Department have been, to say the least, neutralized as far as Americanism is concerned.

How can we expect to pry out the Red Traitors from our government when we cannot prevent the flood of Reds crossing our borders?

Well, what are you doing about it? Talk alone accomplishes nothing. Here is something effective and far-reaching. Order a bundle of THINK WEEKLYs to pass out at meetings or mail to friends. In bundles the price is three cents apiece.

WHO ARE THE FABIANs?

Stuart Chase, whose book "A New Deal" came out with not only the name but the plan in 1932, was a prominent member of the American branch of the Fabian movement. Colonel House wrote an article in 1935 which was published in Liberty Magazine and which was entitled, "A New Deal Among Nations." Col. House, along with Theodore Marburg and Dr. Butler, comprised a powerful triumvirate back in the days of World War I. They labored mightily for the League of Nations which was an earlier attempt to establish the International New Deal which has since been referred to by several writers as "The Great Design."

The "Colonel" may or may not have received his orientation in political science from Theodore Marburg with whom he so closely worked. If he did, the political and economic philosophy in "Philip Dru" and "A New Deal Among Nations" is readily explained because Marburg, while taking a special course in economics and political science at Oxford where he was enrolled in 1893, was adopted into the British Fabian circle. According to Jennings C. Wise's "Woodrow Wilson", Marburg's studies abroad in England and France brought him to the conclusion that "the liberalization of the governments of the world through the medium of a league of nations, with power residing in the hands of the international financiers to control its councils and enforce peace, would prove a specific for all the political ills of mankind."

By another odd coincidence, Felix Frankfurter, who was the legal mastermind of the New Deal" according to Simon and Shuster's "The New Dealers" is, according to Harold Laski, "the best friend I have in the United States." Alsop & Kintner, in their book, "Men Around the President," referred to Frankfurter as the New Deal's "chief personnel officer." In the thumbnail sketch of Frankfurter in its March, 1934 issue, the American Magazine referred to him as "the man behind the men behind the President of the United States."

Almost six years before the "Christian Science Monitor" correspondent discovered that the alumni of the Fabian London School of Economics "do the economic planning for the English-speaking world" another newspaper writer, Arthur Krock of the "New York Times" voiced the suspicion:

"... that the American and British New Dealers who have the most influence with the President aim at a socialization of industry in both countries; that the form of the lease-lend bill will assist in bringing about that result here; and that Ambassador Winant was selected as the best liaison officer to that end with Britons of like mind."

Mr. Krock then went on to remark that, from every direction, comes the query as to why Winant was chosen as our Ambassador to Britain, especially so in view of the fact that he was "not a trader, not a diplomat, not a worldling, not a financial or industrial expert; and it had been presumed that the new Ambassador should combine most of these talents and experiences." Mr. Krock then proceeded to answer this query. He continued:

"The answer to the question began to be outlined when these things came to be realized: Mr. Winant, as head of the International Labor Office, worked closely and developed a friendship with Ernest Bevin, the government labor chief in Great Britain. The New Deal has a warm admirer in Mr. Bevin, whom it expects to lead in social and economic reforms after the war along grooves already cut by the present American Administration. Mr. Bevin is much admired by Professor Harold Laski, the British labor philosopher and future-planner, who keeps in close touch with the President and Justice Frankfurter. So, Mr. Winant will supply an official tie to those now unofficially linking a powerful transatlantic group of economic and social reformers."

"AN INTERNATIONAL NEW DEAL"

"Generally, Washington has accepted a composite of this as the reason for the choice of Mr. Winant by the President. And that has intensified a wish among the many who are not sure a transatlantic Fifth New Deal is the summum bonum of British victory to examine the lease-lend bill more closely. It has further aroused in them wonder if the extraordinary form of the bill is not a part of the same plan which sent to Europe first Mr. Hopkins and then Mr. Winant as Presidential envoys." ("New York Times," February 7, 1941).

For the international socialists and planners on both sides of the Atlantic, Mr. Winant made an acceptable "official tie to those unofficially linking a powerful transatlantic group of economic and social reformers." In speaking of his post-war activities as he envisioned them after we were in the war, Mr. Winant said:

"A further opportunity will come to you and to the International Labor Organization when the war has been won for democracy. Then we must be prepared to conquer the peace. Only by finding a common basis of world citizenship and by accepting far-reaching and progressive social change can we hope to secure the economic and social security which will make any peace real and lasting." (From speech before "League of Women Voters," and reported in N.Y.T., 2/9/41.)

According to the "New York Times" of February 7, 1941, the appointment of Winant "is said to have been urged upon the President by Justice Frankfurter of the Supreme Court and others." And, strangely enough, Ben Cohen accompanied Winant to London as the President's personal representative. Cohen was one of the eighty-odd "hot dogs" picked for New Deal advisory service by its chief recruiting officer, Felix Frankfurter. Today, the crystallization of the "transatlantic Fifth New Deal" is taking place under the guidance of the former New Dealers and Mr. Byrnes is being advised by the same perennial Ben Cohen. (Mr. Marshall now receives his orders from Ben Cohen, who watches Marshall for Mr. Frankfurter, the real Secretary of State).

STILL THE SAME OLD DEAL

The program which has been outlined so many times in the past half century at least, appears to be approaching culmination in the United Nations Organization. It is the drive for a world state that has utilized, along with many other devices and philosophies: the Fabian brand of socialism by stealth and so-called "legitimate" means; the communist method of socialization by violent revolution; and that particular brand of planned economy desired by the international interests in which a monopoly control of production, processing and consump-

PROF. LORWIN LECTURES AND
WRITES LAUDING RUSSIAN
WAY OF LIFE AFTER TRIP TO FATHERLAND AT EXPENSE
OF U. S. TREASURY

The American Anti-Communist Association accuses a high Commerce Department official of "active pro-Communism and close affiliation with the Communist movement".

The charges were brought against Dr. Lewis L. Lorwin, 63, a $10,000 a year staff economist dealing with trade policy in the department's office of international trade. Lorwin was born near Kiev, Russia, and at times goes under his original name of Louis Levine. He has an impressive biography in the current Who's Who in America.

George H. Perkins, Executive Secretary of the American Anti-Communist Association, said that the evidence upon which the charge against Lorwin is based has been filed with Representative Alvin E. O'Konski (Rep. Wisconsin) and other members of Congress "for appropriate action". Rep. O'Konski is President of the American Anti-Communist Association.

An investigator for the Association told newspaper men that, in his opinion, Lorwin is a "key figure in the pro-Communist movement in this country, perhaps as important as Gerhart Eisler". Eisler, identified before a Congressional Committee as leader of the Soviet underground in the United States, was arrested in

It is understood that the telephone workers' unions are gradually being shaped up for entry into the C.I.O. First, the various independent unions are to be joined together under one heading, Communications Workers of America, which will hold a convention in Miami in June. The second step will be the entry of the Communications Workers of America into the C.I.O.

To realize the seriousness of such a step, stop a moment and think of all the key industries which are controlled by C.I.O. Then, beside this vital information, place the fact that David Lilienthal and his Red atomic commission have control of our most powerful weapon, a weapon which could be . . . and, God knows, should be . . . turned into an unconquerable force for right, but which, in the wrong hands, could destroy the lives of millions who would be helpless to fight it.

Should the telephone workers join the C.I.O., the only other move for the Communists to engineer would be the merger of the A.F. of L. and the C.I.O. If this situation is brought about there will be no revolution, in the accepted sense of the word . . . because there will be no need for it! The Communists will have control of America . . . for they will have control of industry, which is indeed the lifeblood of our country. And what will any good American be able to do about it?

It's the old story . . . after the horse is out of the stable, we lock the door!

COMMUNISTS MASSACRE OVER
500 CHINESE CATHOLICS IN
ONE OF MOST CRUEL ACTS
EVER RECORDED, EYE WIT-NESSES RELATE.

By FRANK YU, in the
China Monthly, April, 1947

It was a fine day in Chungli, a small town 30 miles northeast of Kalgan. The December weather was cold, about 20° below freezing, but the whole town was bathed in bright sunshine. The Catholic Cathedral, a magnificent building standing in the center of Chungli contrasted sharply with the small, low, earthen huts below it. Its bell rang serenely, and the Catholics, who made up 90 per cent of the entire population, were heeding its call to attend their usual morning mass. All was calm and tranquil. There was no warning of any kind against the horrible massacre that was to break loose within only a few hours.

At dusk three Communist brigades, numbering at least 6,000 and under the command of one Chen Tsung-kun, converged on the town which was defended by several hundred men of the local vigilance corps. The telephone line, the only means of communication with Kalgan, was cut, thus isolating the whole area.

The vigilance men were quickly rounded up and driven into the seminary, the only large building in the area. Outnumbered fifteen to one, they were easily overcome by the attackers, who constituted the main

February as a dangerous enemy alien.

According to the Association's investigators, Lorwin has made frequent trips between the United States and Russia, the latest last summer, at Government expense in connection with international trade agreements. Since his return he has been lecturing and writing.

The investigators said that the theme of the lectures and writings is that "the Soviet Communist regime is the salvation of the Jewish people". They asserted that Lorwin, since his return, has been "glowing" in his enthusiasm for the Soviet Way of Life.

The Association cited an article written by Lorwin under the name of Louis Levine in the November, 1946, issue of Soviet Russia Today, the publication of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. This organization has been described by the House Un-American Activities Committee as a Communist front group.

"Special concern for the Jewish people has characterized the Soviet Union since its birth in the 1917 revolution", Lorwin wrote, "Let us hope that the Soviet policy toward minorities will be a pattern for the United Nations. Reactionary elements that are now carrying on an anti-Soviet campaign are the worst enemies of the Jewish people".

The investigators said they had obtained the testimony of a former close associate of Lorwin in the Commerce Department that Lorwin "was once a Lieutenant of the late Leon Trotsky and a big political figure".

The Association said that a book written by Lorwin on trade union problems was used as the standard text of Commonwealth College, Mena, Arkansas. The college, closed several years ago, has been described frequently in Congress as Communist.

Lorwin was listed in Who's Who as Louis Levine until the 1927 issue when he changed his name. His current biography states that he was brought to the United States from Russia by his parents when he was 4 years old and was educated in the New York public schools and in Russia, Switzerland and France. He obtained a Doctor of Philosophy degree from Columbia University in 1912.

The biography shows that Lorwin taught Economics at Columbia, Wellesley College, University of Montana and Beloit.

Lorwin became an Economic Consultant to various Government agencies shortly before the war. Prior to his present Commerce Department job, Lorwin was an Economic Advisor to the Foreign Economic Administration, which handled Lend Lease, from 1943 until the end of the war. He is listed in the magazine Soviet Russia Today as National President of the Jewish Council for Russian Relief and official of the World Jewish Congress and the American Jewish Congress.

This startling revelation is further evidence of the fact that the so-called Truman Doctrine against Communism is a sham and a farce. While President Truman is asking for four hundred million dollars to stop Communism in Greece and Turkey, his Administration employees are key Communist workers in strategic posts in our Federal government. The American people are tired of President Truman's double talk about Communism.

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstrations, and, finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of the bourgeoisie."

force of the Communists in that district. Some guards retreated and made good their escape, but about 200 were trapped. The seminary was immediately put to the torch by the Communists.

Several of the doomed men climbed out through the windows, surviving witnesses said, but they were tossed back into the burning building. The other Catholic establishments were also set on fire, including the bishop's residence. Ten of the 34 inmates of the almshouse, all over 60 years old, perished in the blaze.

The attacking Communists were guided by the former magistrate, chief of police and other town officials appointed by the Communists during their period of occupation, that is, from the Japanese surrender to last October, when Chungli was recovered by Government troops. All of them were natives of Chungli, and they were familiar with the locale. During their "term of office", they had found that the people were not too cooperative with the Communist administration. They had now come back to discipline the recalcitrants.

While the Cathedral and the other buildings used by the Catholics were burning, bands of Communist soldiers under the direction of these former "officials" began rounding up those who, in their eyes, were "hostile" to Communism. These "hostile" elements included all who had taken refuge in Government-controlled areas during the Communist occupation and had refused to come back despite Communist propaganda. They were for the most part dependents of or relatives of the vigilance guard, landlords and loyal Catholics, and they constituted almost the whole local population of 3,000.

Half of the 3,000, fearing the worst, had fled to the nearby mountains. But those left were herded together by the invaders and some were tied in groups. The Communists decided to teach these Catholics a convincing lesson. The spacious courtyard of the bishop's residence was chosen as the setting. So, on the night of December 9, 1946, with the huge blaze of the burning cathedral and the other buildings of the Catholics to light the scene, one of the bloodiest massacres in history was enacted.

These inhuman Communists and their agents made no distinction on the grounds of sex or age. They subjected all to their fiendish hate. Besides killing some in the usual way, by means of rifle fire, the machine gun and the bayonet, they devised new ways of liquidating those who dared to think other than they did. They strangled many; they stripped others to the skin and let them freeze to death in the December cold; they bashed in the heads of others with large pieces of rock, while they tied others to poles and beat them to death.

They made some of the women suffer an even worse fate. They violated them, then killed them. And having put them to death, they desecrated the bodies of not a few of their victims.

They skinned one child who was about 14 years old, from the scalp to the breast. They chopped a young man's body into pieces in the process of removing his heart. During this macabre scene, they forced those still alive to stand and watch their butchery until their turn came. A great many fainted while watching the dying agony of their friends and relatives.

The toll of this wholesale slaughter, which lasted three days, was estimated at about 500 civilians, including 15 old men, a few children, and a number of women. In addition, 300 vigilance guards were killed or burned to death. Another 500 civilians and some hundred vigilance corps members were taken away by the Communists when they retreated on December 12. About 200 of them were later killed, or allowed to freeze to death.

When we correspondents arrived at this small town on December 30, 18 days after the massacre, the whole remaining population of about 2,000 gathered in the Catholic elementary school for girls to meet us. They still appeared panic stricken, and their faces were shadowed with sorrow. Every one of them was ready to tell about his hellish experience. They looked as if they had just awakened from a terrible nightmare.

Four bare walls and the main pillars were all that was left of the 30-year-old Cathedral, with its bell still hanging ironically high up on the facade. The main hall, which accommodated more than 1,000, was nothing but a heap of debris and ashes. A few bullet holes were still visible on the pillars. The Communists originally intended to blow up the building with bombs, the villagers told us. Somehow they did not.

To the left of the Cathedral was the bishop's residence. In the large courtyard surrounding it, there still lay some 250 corpses, all frozen hard. The bullet holes, bayonet cuts, wounds, and various disfigurements were evidence that the Communists had used a variety of means in slaughtering their victims.

In the middle of the yard there were several coffins. One of them was unusually large. Inside it was a big heap of ashes, black and putrid. That was what was left of the flesh and bones of those who were trapped in the burning Cathedral. But no one knows exactly how many perished in the once-sacred hall, and not all of the charred corpses were identified.

On the backyard of the compound was another group of about 30 bodies. These were slain militiamen. Their remains revealed that they had been subjected to prolonged torture. One had his eyes smashed. His eyeballs had been forced out.

Among the slaughtered civilians were a group of countryfolk from nearby towns. They had come to Chungli in the hope of finding a refuge there, soon after the Government's reoccupation of the town. This group, according to the Chungli natives, were among the first victims, inasmuch as they were considered anti-Communist because they had fled from Communist regions.

A few native “landlords” had come back to Chungli only some 10 days before the time of the tragedy. They were returning from an “exile” of more than a year as a result of the Communist occupation. They too were liquidated and were killed before they could reclaim the land the Communists had expropriated in their absence.

Catholic Father Hsu and two farmers were among those the Communists carried away with them. Many thus carried away died of cold and exposure. Some were killed for refusing to continue the forced trip. While we were interviewing the local citizens, a late report came in that about 100 bodies had been discovered at the foot of a mountain 15 miles east of Chungli. As the news spread, we could see a cloud of sorrow and anxiety darken the faces of the men and women who had relatives who were still missing.

The toll of this wholesale slaughter . . . was estimated at about 500

LACK OF RELIGION IN THE UNITED STATES IS DECRIED

The American people should worry less about "the antigod people in Russia" and worry more about the Americans who neglect religion and offer it only "lip service," the Rev. Dr. Albert Joseph McCartney told the congregation at the Chicago Sunday Evening Club Palm Sunday.

"Don't worry so much over the anti-god people in Russia," he said. "What threatens our whole economy and our whole national peace is the neglect of religion upon the part of those who offer it lip service."

"You can't get Christian action from a Christian congress that is not made up of individual Christians," he declared.

"You can't get Christian education from a school system that is not staffed with Christian teachers. You can't elevate the business of the land to Christian standards with a group of merchants who pay no attention to Christianity.

"You can't put Christianity into labor and industrial disputes if the leaders and workers are not Christians."

"The entire question of peace comes back to the individual's own responsibilities and conduct, he said. "We all must ask ourselves: 'What part have I to play in putting Christ in the center of the present-day trouble?'"

"Our morality is entirely subordinated to the interests of the class struggle of the proletariat. We do not believe in eternal morality, and we expose all the fables about morality"—from a pamphlet entitled "Lenin Speaks to Youth", published by the Communist Party of the United States.

What Can YOU Do to Help?

During the year THINK WEEKLY has been published, it has been very effective in educating people to the danger of Communism. Hundreds of letters from all parts of the country verify this.

The vast amount of good that has been accomplished by the paper, our speakers bureau of twenty-two people, and our information service regarding Communist fronts and speakers, should give you some idea of what can be done. If wide-awake Americans would get behind THINK

WEEKLY and give it the support America deserves we could easily raise our circulation to one hundred thousand a week.

The writer has put several thousand dollars into this paper, in addition to a year's time, seven days a week, without salary. He will gladly continue the work without salary if Americans will come forward and help to carry the financial loss each week. The writer is unable to invest one more dollar. For this reason we ask our readers, our American people, to carry the financial burden—which is rightfully theirs . . . so that we will be able to continue this important campaign. The paper is run efficiently with a minimum of expense; you can be sure every dollar is actually used to fight Communism.

Unless we receive immediate help, we will not be able to publish the paper regularly, but only when we have the money. It is most unfortunate that we should be forced to come to such a decision at this particular time, for THINK WEEKLY is needed now more than ever in view of the coming national election.

But the final decision is up to you, the people. Help to keep this paper going until the volume of subscriptions is sufficient to carry us.

How can you help?

Send us what you can afford NOW!

Arrange to send a contribution each month . . . we will send you a reminder. A pledge by twenty Americans of $40.00 a month would take care of the loss and allow us to continue the good work. The amount could be divided in other ways, such as: Forty people contributing $20.00 each per month, or eighty contributing $10.00 each. Or if you can afford five dollars, two, or one, a month, send it to carry on this necessary campaign. Such an arrangement would enable us to depend on a definite amount of money with which to work and our minds would be relieved of financial worries.

Fellow Americans, this is your paper as well as ours. America must be protected by all her loyal citizens, not by a handful. Communists support over two hundred periodicals . . . cannot Americans support one weekly paper to combat this propaganda of poison and hate?

A PREMIUM

for each subscription received during the month of May. The sender will receive a copy of John T. Flynn's excellent pamphlet, "The Smear Terror."

THOMAS HELPS FORCE ACTION AGAINST REDS

J. Parnell Thomas, Chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, is to be commended for his efforts to obtain the cooperation of Attorney General Clark in prosecuting Communists under the Voorhis and McCormack act.

But no doubt the Communists in the Department of Justice are stronger than Mr. Clark, for after three demands by Mr. Thomas, nothing has been done.

It is, and has been, our opinion that statements regarding Communism made by President Truman and Attorney General Clark were for political reasons only. We do not believe this administration will purge the Communists . . . unless public opinion forces such action!!!

A Paper to Educate People to the Danger of Communism
To Expose the Fifth Column — In Plain Words for Plain People

P. O. Box 816
Newark 1, New Jersey

Dear Friend:

When the new Congress was elected, anxious Americans were assured that thousands of Reds would soon be dislodged from our government departments. However, influential Reds maneuvered the new Congressmen into so many entangling problems that they have had no time to take up this most important one.

The anti-Communists of the United States continued to agitate until public sentiment demanded action. The Reds did not want Congress to investigate for fear a committee would be appointed that would really do a thorough job. In order to prevent such a purge, they maneuvered President Truman into beating Congress to the punch by issuing his statement against Communism — and what has been done since that declaration?

Those who are devoting their lives to the study of Communism knew that the people were being tricked by the President's statement, that no action would be taken. Yes, the people were fooled — they said: "The Government is going to fight Communism; we don't have to do anything about it." The Communists had won again — they deceived the people into laying down their guard, thereby gaining time to cover some of their tracks in government departments.

This clever action on the part of the Communists has affected the support of THINK WEEKLY. The writer has put every dollar he had into this important work; we are not in a position to carry on and take care of the weekly loss until the people realize the true situation.

The writer will agree by contract to give full time without salary, as he has done for the last year, if sufficient pledges are received to cover the actual loss of eight hundred dollars per month.

These pledges are being spread throughout the United States. If each true American will sign for the amount he can afford, whether it be for one dollar or forty, we will all be sharing the financial burden, we will all be taking part in this necessary work, fighting for a common cause. This is a campaign to save America . . . it is, therefore, not the work of a few, not the duty of a certain group; it is a job for all freedom loving people. Without your support at this time, THINK WEEKLY cannot go on.

We are truly sorry to find ourselves "at the crossroads" at this time for it is plain to see how effective our work has been . . . and how badly needed is a paper of this kind. The paper goes into all walks of life for it is written in plain, down-to-earth language that everyone can understand. We have furnished speakers for organizations such as the American Legion, V.F.W., Rotary, Kiwanis. Our information service on Red Fronts and speakers has supplied material to school, church, veteran, and civic groups.

We would like to build our paper to one hundred thousand circulation in order to create a strong American sentiment. THINK WEEKLY is needed now; fifteen years study of Communism tells us the Reds have only a few more moves to make and the fight will be hopeless. RECORDED

If Americans really want to stop Communism, we will receive sufficient pledges immediately to be able to resume publication. If not, we will be forced to accept Red slavery with the rest of you. We have no other choice.

Faithfully yours,

THINK WEEKLY

Rebulet November 19, 1946. This is to advise that "Think Weekly" discontinued its publication under that name approximately three weeks ago. According to [redacted], "Think Weekly" changed its name to "COMMON SENSE." It is noted that this office, which subscribed to "Think Weekly", is now receiving "COMMON SENSE." There is enclosed herewith the 52nd issue of the June 29, 1947 copy of "COMMON SENSE." This paper will be furnished to the Bureau in the same manner as "Think Weekly."

In addition our letter of May 12, 1947 reported that [redacted] was preparing a report on a meeting called at the Moose Hall in Irvington, New Jersey of the Loyal American Congress. According to [redacted] report, the meeting was attended by approximately 50 people constituting about the same group of men and women who attended previous meetings. [redacted], Fordham University, was the main speaker of the evening and presided. [redacted] started out by condemning all isms including Fascism, and he accused the Communists of calling the Loyal American Congress Fascism because they were opposed to Communists. [redacted] said that the Communists were red Fascists and quoted HITLER's statement, "Today Germany belongs to us and tomorrow the whole world will belong to us." [redacted] then lashed out and named the dictators who caused all the unrest in the world. Among them were HITLER, STALIN, MUSSOLINI and ROOSEVELT. Later, during his speech, according to [redacted] report, [redacted] ridiculed Mrs. ROOSEVELT because she was supporting Communism.

172 MAY 18 1968 [redacted] then spoke to [redacted] after the meeting at which time he told he had misquoted HITLER. [redacted] explained that he really did not mean to say anything against Germany as he was of German origin himself. He said that Germany was abused and that "we are no longer a Christian nation and therefore could not expect things to be any different in Germany." MC GINLEY, the editor of "Think Weekly" or "COMMON SENSE", [redacted] "another Nazi" because [redacted] likes them." "He is a Nazi himself."

Later during the evening [redacted] of the Loyal American Congress spoke on the business end of the organization. He spoke of the enthusiastic response he had received from persons when he sought contributions and stated that

UNITED STATES AND SPAIN

Union Men of America:

COMMON SENSE will not comment in general on Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley labor bill as it is not our policy to take part in purely labor matters. Nor does space permit comment on the political or historical significance of the over-riding of the veto.

We do know that the Communist leaders in many unions are mainly concerned with the provision in the new law which prevents Communists from holding office in unions. This is a terrific blow at Red Slavery — for many, mainly CIO, unions are partly or completely ruled by officers who are Communists. The United Electrical and Radio Workers, CIO, with about 700,000 members, is ruled by foreign-born Communists.

Hence, Communists pyramided their strength by pushing all labor at their command into organized protests to Truman and organized pleas to Congress. Excerpts from an article in Think-Weekly of Aug. 4, 1946, are interesting and appropriate reading at this time. We quote:

UNION MEN OF AMERICA:

You do not want your Union destroyed. The smart employer does not want your Union destroyed. You do not want drastic laws passed affecting your Union. All unions in the U. S. are facing a crisis.

The next few months will be critical times for the laboring man. You have helped build up these Unions, but by inactivity you have allowed many of these locals to be dominated by Reds. THINK-WEEKLY is very friendly to Unions, but we despise Communism. However, we do not detest it any more than many of your Union officers who are doing their best to clean the Reds out.

We are giving you some information and suggestions that will save your Unions.

How many of you pay your dues to help support the Union but never go near the meetings? You are too tired or too busy. You have allowed a small clique of Reds or Red controlled noisy members to run your local. They are never too busy to attend meetings. The clique controls your grievance committee and all important committees. When they want something passed they get on the floor and it is passed. You don't know if it is a good thing for you or a bad thing. It aggravates the Company, so it must be a good thing for you.

You do not realize that Communist master-minds, miles away, may be directing the grievance committee so that there will always be trouble, aggravation of men and Company officials. To stimulate trouble and strife is the main thought behind the Communists' philosophy of strikes.

Communists work for months and years to work up a strike. That is what they want — dissatisfaction, unemployment, hunger. If you do not know this, you have not read their teachings. Their leaders have taught this for years. Real Communists are not interested in your welfare, if they were they would not have made slaves of the workingman in Russia. That is what you will have if you do not clean out your Unions.

If your Union card is worth protecting, attend meetings, take a STRONG EVIDENCE STATE DEPARTMENT WILL FOLLOW BETRAYAL OF POLAND BY HELPING COMMUNISTS ISOLATE NATION UNTIL FRANCO IS OUSTED.

By Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.

The following correspondence explains itself:

May 10, 1947

Hon. George C. Marshall
Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I read with interest and with regret this morning in The New York Times, a dispatch in which it said that the Department had said that "our policy toward Spain has not changed in any respect. Satisfactory political and economic relations are not possible as long as the Franco regime remains in power. No loans or credits by the United States are being considered."

I hope you will pardon me if I say frankly that the continuation of this attitude, in view of the facts of the past, reflect discredit on the State Department and on the American Republic. For so long as we tolerate the inhumanity that without question prevails in Soviet Russia with ten or twenty million of its own citizens or subjects in concentration camps, and with its record of murder of its own people—so long as we have besmirched our record by shifting from Mikhailovitch to Tito in Yugoslavia, and so long as we have on our record the fact that we betrayed the Polish people, this attitude on our part toward Franco not only does not make sense, but leads to the inescapable conclusion in the minds of fair-minded Americans that we have knuckled down to Soviet Russia through fear; and that through fear of the same element we are following the wishes of Soviet Russia with respect to Spain.

I was glad, Mr. Secretary, when you became the head of the State Department. I hoped and believed that it would to a large extent mean an end to the grave policy we had been pursuing toward Soviet Russia. To a great extent I believe that this is so — I believe that under your direction American policy toward Russia has turned up. I have expressed approval of the new policy of aiding Greece and Turkey against the further spread of Communism.

Why, then, must we continue to follow Russia's will with respect to Spain? How can you justify opposing Communism in the Eastern Mediterranean and playing into its hands in the Western Mediterranean?

You are of course familiar with Winston Churchill's extended tribute which he paid Franco in his speech in the House of Commons May 24, 1944. He made very clear that Franco had aided in the North African landing, and had aided American airmen crossing Spain.

Former Ambassador Carlton J. H. Hayes, in his book War-time Mission in Spain, likewise pays tribute to the help rendered by Franco. In fact, I have talked with several former ambassadors to Spain, two of whom have represented this country since 1933, and I gather that their views coincide with those of Mr. Churchill.

I have been in Europe myself many times in the last fifty years, but I had never visited Spain until 1938. I had a chance to see what was going on — a chance to observe the extent to which Soviet Russia was influencing if not conducting the affairs of the leftist government. I had a chance to mingle with considerable numbers of people on the Franco side, and to realize how widely he was accepted among all classes. I am familiar, too, as you must be, with the history of the raising of the International Brigade by the Communists of the different nations, among them the raising of the so-called Abraham Lincoln Brigade. That whole International Brigade

"Words must have no relation to actions — otherwise what kind of diplomacy is it? Words are one thing, actions another. Good words are a mask for concealment of bad deeds. Sincere diplomacy is no more possible than dry water or wooden iron."

was simply the work of the Communist Party. Most of the members were Communists — the Communist Party has boasted of it repeatedly.

Naturally Soviet Russia and the various Communist Parties in the world were chagrined when their forces in Spain were beaten. That was the greatest defeat Soviet Russia and her Communist philosophy has had. That, I am convinced, is the reason why the Soviet Russian pressure on the United States as well as other countries is so great in her attempts to get rid of Franco.

I would not want to see the Franco type of government here in the United States — though I confess that in the past twelve or fourteen years some phases of our government have been just about as Fascistic as anything in Spain. I have never met Franco, though when I was in Spain in 1938 I tried to interview him for the New York Herald Tribune for whom I was doing some temporary writing.

But because I would not approve his form of government for the United States does not prevent me from seeing that the great Republic of the United States is making a sad mistake in yielding to Soviet influence in continuing its attitude with respect to Spain.

You are greatly interested in the success of the United Nations. How can the United Nations ever succeed if it makes, as it did in San Francisco, a corner-stone of its structure the policy of deciding that the people of Spain cannot have the kind of government they want, or the kind of ruler they want.

I would like to hear from you, Mr. Secretary. I would like to hear directly from you — not from some subordinate.

If you believe that I am wrong in my views, will you be good enough to tell me the reasons for your opinion?

I am, with great respect,
Sincerely yours,
MERWIN K. HART,
President.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

PL May 27, 1947.
Mr. Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.
350 Fifth Avenue
New York 1, New York

My dear Mr. Hart:

I have been asked to reply to your letter of May 10, 1947, addressed to Secretary Marshall concerning this Government's policy toward Spain.

As I am sure you must realize, the volume of correspondence received by the Secretary is so great that he is unable to answer it all personally. Your letter, however, has been carefully read and given full consideration by the officers of this Department concerned with the matters which you discuss.

This country's relations with the present Government of Spain are strongly influenced by its origin, nature and record of close association during the war with the German and Italian aggressors, who assisted the regime to rise to power. United States policy toward Spain is not dictated by the interest of any other country.

This Government has frequently stated its desire to see the elimination of the Franco regime in Spain and the reestablishment, without the renewal of civil strife, of a democratic government based upon the freely expressed will of the Spanish people. It has long been the opinion of this Government that it is for the Spanish people themselves to determine the type of government which they wish to have. This is equally as true with respect to the form of government as it is with respect to the individuals of whom it should be composed. By an overwhelming majority the General Assembly of the United Nations adopted on December 12, 1946, a resolution embodying this same principle.

Many groups both here and abroad believe that an immediate change in the Government of Spain should be forced by the systematic application of international coercive measures. It is, however, our judgment that such measures would ultimately lead to conditions of economic and political chaos in Spain and the complete negation of the objectives of our policy.

The other course, to which this Government adheres, is to permit the international political situation in Spain to develop gradually to the point where the Spanish people will be able to direct their own affairs in their own way.

In the meantime, so long as the Franco regime remains in power, Spain must expect to remain isolated from the organized community of nations.

You may be sure that the Department is fully aware of the factors brought out in your letter and that these and all other aspects of the Spanish situation are taken into consideration in developing the course of action best calculated to promote the national interest of the United States and the cause of international peace and stability.

Sincerely yours,
FRANCIS H. RUSSELL,
Director, Office of Public Affairs.

stand, throw the Reds out. Who suffers from a strike? Not the Red organizers — they draw their salary every month just the same. It is you and your family — hence, when you strike, be sure it is necessary and that not one Communist, financial racketeer, is directing it.

If the good American Union men had been active and had not allowed these Reds to direct their affairs, the Unions and employers would have been working along well, after the end of the war. You were asleep and now your Unions are about to face a crisis. Strong opposition is tired of these Reds, retarding production, slowing down work. They are going to do something about it and you are going to suffer. The Unions will soon be fighting with their backs to the walls. If you allow the Reds to champion your cause it will be the kiss of death. The big men of the U.S. are fed up. They are angry, but they will deal with reasonable Union men — Americans like themselves — but they will not deal with Stalin or his agents.

They know Stalin's agents will never be satisfied and that they make understanding impossible. These plant owners will close down and go out of business before they will deal with Communism. That holds true all over the U. S.

A big change is coming — you will know it within a few weeks. Put the Reds out and save your Unions.

Industrial harmony may be had only by charity and understanding. Communists are not capable of charity and understand only one way — Red Rule.

What kind of an American are you? Are you going to allow clever Communist agitators to fool you any longer? Do you want to help widen the breach between employer and labor, or do you want to try to get along with your employer?

Labor is going to be set back many years if you do not take a stand for America and against Red Fascism.

Ten million men went into service and 300 thousand died to preserve America.

Millions are watching Union Labor now to see what you will do to preserve America.

One way to stop Communism is to circulate THINK WEEKLY in your plant. We will furnish free papers to your Union.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

We have many such letters from German families. These are from people who have no relatives in the U.S. to send bundles. This is the condition master-mind Communists have planned to force people to accept Red Slavery. If you wish to send a bundle to one of these families, we will mail you the original letter.

To help these families gives you a certain good feeling, and you will be helping them to resist Communism.

Dear Sir:

"Friends of mine gave me your address and told me you were anxious to help suffering Germans to receive some support. Ours is a family of four. My husband recently returned home from Canada after having been a prisoner of war for six years. There was no "home" left as we were totally bombed out. We couldn't save anything. Now we all live in one room. We borrowed our furniture, consisting of a bed, a small table, 2 chairs and a stove. We have no more clothes left. My daughter is 15 years of age and, as you will gather from the enclosed certificate of our city doctor, she developed tuberculosis through malnutrition. My son is 8 years old. My husband hasn't got a single shirt and the only suit he has is his old uniform. Still the worst is the food situation. Since over a week we haven't had a piece of bread and must live from "Wasser Suppen" (soups made from water, probably by adding flour—if available!)

"Sincerely yours,
"Mrs. Liesel Nickel"

A few weeks ago we asked the friends of this paper to help us carry the load of financing the paper. The pledges received demonstrate that many have faith in the sincerity and effectiveness of this paper. We received pledges from some we are convinced have to really sacrifice to meet these pledges; we believe they are far-sighted and wise in their judgment. We have not received sufficient pledges to guarantee publication every week; however we are confident with the publication of the paper, we will receive sufficient pledges and donations to carry on and spread truth in America and make a better paper.

We, too, make a pledge that we will, with the help of God, do our best to prove worthy of all support. The editors draw no salary; practically all help is voluntary. "The theory of Communism may be summed up in one sentence: Abolish ALL private property." — Karl Marx and Frederick Engels, in the "Manifesto of the Communist Party."

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them." . . . From Earl Browder's book, "What Is Communism?"

CARNEGIE PEACE FUND USED TO SPONSOR RED GROUP

In 1924 a Communist-minded group wheedled a grant of $400,000 from the Carnegie Peace Fund, thru Nicholas Murray Butler, for the purpose of "Making an examination of our educational system." They claimed we were not properly preparing our youth for the "Inevitable collectivist society which lies ahead." This group organized our now openly Communist-headed-and-operated Teachers Union and the first State Teachers College at Columbia — which now dominates and is the pattern for almost all our State teachers Colleges.

ELEANOR APPROVES TITO'S PERSECUTION OF STEPINAC

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

JOHN F. RAPP,

My dear Mr. Rapp:

Your letter addressed to me in care of The American Committee for Yugoslav Relief was forwarded to me.

I am sorry but I fear I cannot help as you suggest. I understand the Archbishop took part in political affairs and the government now in power has jurisdiction in such matters.

Yours very sincerely,
ELEANOR ROOSEVELT

Editor's Comment:

Mrs. Roosevelt says Archbishop Stepinac took part in political affairs. She also refers to the government. What government?

Stalin's government of slavery conducted by Tito, who was trained in wholesale slaughter in Spain

Eleanor supported the Church burners in Spain as she now does Tito. Apparently this is the kind of government we are to have soon in the U.S. when all the enemies of Communism will be shot or imprisoned because they took part in political affairs.

Such dupes as Eleanor and Henry Wallace will also go, as they will have served Stalin's purpose. But now they are of more service to Stalin than ten Communists.

Although labeled by his own sister as "the most influential and most dangerous Communist agent in America," Gerhard Eisler has received a sentence of one year's imprisonment and a fine of one thousand dollars. Here is a dangerous agent that Stalin ordered from Germany to China to train in mass murder. Then after qualifying as a saboteur, instructor in mass slaughter and master at directing Stalin's Fifth Column in the United States, he was sent here and for six years has enjoyed the luxury in our country while preparing for Revolution.

The Immigration Department knew these six years that he was here illegally; but made no move to deport him or shoot him (as should have been done, and would have been done to an American in Russia for the same purpose).

MARSHALL TOLD AMERICANS HAVE LOST CONFIDENCE IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT

Senator Styles Bridges has made the statement to George Marshall, Secretary of State: "Frankly, the American people have lost confidence in your State Department; they do not trust the patriotism and loyalty of many of the people you have working for you."

Secretary Marshall, carrying out the supposed Communist purge, appointed Hamilton Robinson of New York to conduct the purge in the State Department. It so happens that Mr. Robinson's cousin and close associate is branded as a Soviet secret agent who studied in Russia where he married a Russian woman. To make it more interesting, Mr. Marshall was brought into the Administration by Harry Hopkins, whom FDR rated as his closest man to Stalin. Surely no one will deny that Marshall's thirteen months as Ambassador to China were spent trying to get Chiang Kai Shek to join in forces with the Communist Party.

So, regardless of the big talk from this Administration, it appears that in this Communist purge, the State Department is going to use more whitewash than Dr. Evans in the Congressional Library is using in covering up the Reds.

Those who know Bishop know he is not the kind that can be compromised. He is of the material of which heroes are made: an American who would die for his country.

The powerful Communist influence in the Administration demanded that Bishop be taken out of circulation and thousands of dollars were spent to frame and crush him. In court, his crime was found to be exactly nothing, but by "hook or crook" he has been released and arrested four times, railroaded all over the United States to prevent his release by courts: has been

THE CASE AGAINST COMMUNISM

(By Thomas Cox, Oakland, Cal.)

In the London Times of November 6, 1941, there was quoted from a speech by Stalin:

"In contradistinction to Hitlerite Germany, the Soviet Union and the Allies are waging a war of liberation, a just war, for the purpose of liberating the enslaved peoples of Europe and the U.S.S.R. from Hitler's tyranny. That is why all honest people must support the armies of liberation. We have not, and cannot have, such war aims as the seizure of foreign territories of Europe, or the peoples and territories of Asia, including Iran. Our first aim is to liberate our territories and peoples from the fascist yoke. We have not, and cannot have, any such war aims as that of imposing our will and our regime upon Slavonic or other enslaved nations of Europe, who are expecting our help. Our aim is to help these nations in their struggle for liberation and then leave it to them quite freely to organize their life on their lands as they think fit. No interference in the internal affairs of other nations."

Instead, Russia has since formally annexed 273,947 square miles and 24,235,000 of other peoples, and has interfered in almost every land in the World.

* * *

Under date of December 13, 1946, it was reported by the United Press that "the Assembly of the Security Council of the United Nations formulated the following resolution:

"If, within a reasonable time, there is not established a Government which derives its authority from the consent of the governed, committed to respect freedom of speech, religion, and assembly, and to the prompt holding of an election, free from force and intimidation and regardless of party, may express their will"

Where in Yugoslavia, Poland, Austria, Bulgaria, Albania, Hungary, Italy, Czechoslovakia, or France, and that part of Germany occupied by Russian military, is there a Government which derives its authority from the governed or held an election without force, intimidation and interference by the Russian emissaries, and which prevented the people from expressing their will?

Under date of August 31, 1939, and of September 23, 1939, Secret Agreements were made by Molotov for Russia, and Ribbentrop for Hitler Germany in which were outlined and agreed, for the purpose of forcibly dividing Poland and Lithuanian frontiers between them. Germany and Russia both invaded Poland in September, 1939.

When President Roosevelt donated 180 bombers to Russia, Stalin would not permit United States airmen to make delivery. Russians were sent to the United States, trained here, and flew them back. When they arrived, all United States marks were eliminated and replaced by Russian and published as Russian production, as also were all tanks, trucks, and all other war materials supplied by the United States.

When the surrender of the Japanese took place on the U.S.S. Missouri, the Russians built up a photograph, showing the Russian representative signing the document, and published it as a Russian ship and that Russia won the Japanese war alone, whereas, they never rendered any aid, but instead, stole everything in Manchuria that was possible.

During the attacks on Japan, at least two B-29's landed in Soviet East Asia, after exhausting their gasoline, but without damage to the planes. Personal correspondence between President Roosevelt and Stalin was needed to free the air crews. The Soviets seemed to wish to cause the crews to vanish, forgetting they had radioed their safe landings to their home base. Return of the aircraft themselves was also repeatedly requested. Ambassador Harriman was politely told they had been destroyed. But the American Military Attache at the Moscow Embassy, Brigadier General William Ritchie, actually saw one of the B-29's in operational condition at a Soviet airfield near Moscow. Thus the Soviets also have the assistance of all our experience up to and including the B-29 class planes, in manufacturing their very long stragetic bombers.

This is another instance of their brazen effrontery, avarice and untruthfulness. Even the foods supplied by UNNRA were relabeled as being supplied by Russia.

The sending of military equipment, planes, and other war supplies by the United States and Britain to Russia, when their backs were against the wall, which enabled them to make their return attack and so successfully drive back the battered German forces on the Eastern front, is to the credit and glory of Russia, but their making such deceptions show their ingratitude and utter disregard of international decency or honesty. They have exhibited no international cooperation toward the Peace of the World, but seek to impose their selfish desires and demands on all others. Any tendered appeasement appears to intensify their greed and demands.

* * *

In 1933, when President Roosevelt made recognition of Russia, the guarantee given by the Soviet Government, which formed the basis of recognition, was, in brief:

"The Soviet Government pledges itself to refrain from the dissemination of propaganda against the political or social order of the United States, or attempting in any way to overthrow American Institutions and to restrain any agency under direct or indirect Soviet control, from interfering with the internal affairs of this country. The Soviet Government expressly agrees to complete freedom of religious worship, and liberty of conscience to Americans temporarily or permanently residing in the U.S.S.R., including the use of rites in English, or in any other language customarily used, and the leasing, erecting, and maintenance of buildings, for that purpose. A consular convention will be negotiated immediately, in which United States citizens will have rights of legal protection, 'not less favorable' than those enjoyed by 'Nationals of the Nation most favored in this respect'."

We all know that NONE of these terms, agreements, and acts have been complied with, INSTEAD, they have been flouted and brazenly disregarded. The Russian Government has shown itself unworthy of any belief or trust.

The United States adheres to its treaties and obligations. It has been very generous in giving and supplying war equipment and supplies and foods to Russia. It is altruistic, inasmuch as it has not demanded any reparations from any country. The United States citizens still have to pay the redemption of the 265 billions of dollars national debt the war has caused.

* * *

There is every evidence that ALL Communist Propaganda and Communists are controlled and directed by the Soviet Government from Moscow, because all Communists in the United States are required to take the OATH of allegiance as is prescribed on pages

104-105 of their "MANUAL OF ORGANIZATION" published by the "Workers Library Publishers" and edited by J. Peters, as follows:

"COMMUNIST OATH"

"I pledge myself to rally the masses to defend the SOVIET UNION, the head of victorious Socialism. I pledge myself to remain at all times a vigilant and firm defender of the Leninist line of the party, the only line that insures a triumph of SOVIET POWER in the United States."

and on page 8 of the same Manual, is this quotation:

"As a leader and organizer of the proletariat, the Communist Party of the United States leads the working classes in its fight for the ESTABLISHMENT OF A DICTATORSHIP OF THE SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLIC in the UNITED STATES."

* * *

If American born members of the Communist Party are not TRAITORS and guilty of TREASON, and the foreign born are not an illegal body, each conspiring against the sovereignty of the United States, then there is no room for any real American patriotism.

Communism is a foreign (Russian) ideology, and it is TREACHEROUS SEDITION for any United States citizen, any subservient Communist organization, or any alien, living within our borders and enjoying our American form of freedom and asylum, to seek and advocate, that our United States, its possessions and Government, shall be surrendered at their behest, and be handed over to the SOVIET GOVERNMENT OF RUSSIA, that our Country and we, the American people, shall be thus subjected to SOVIET RULE and the totalitarian slavery. The real American people have every right to forcibly expel them and should, without any compunctions, eradicate such TRAITORS from our midst. Send them to Russia to enjoy their ideals and its "hospitality".

Communism, Democracy and Fabianism were made "OUTLAW" in this country September 17, 1787 — the day our Constitution was adopted. If the President and beaten and put in solitary; his health is nearly ruined. But if he were offered freedom to bow to Atheistic Communism, he would quickly refuse. Judge Bishop by his enemies.

Through Red influence, Bishop was put under the Immigration Department; he is held in a cell at Ellis Island. Who is the man who headed this Red persecution of Bishop? None other than John Rogge, who led the dominating Red influence in the Justice Department, lately fired by Attorney General Clark for persecution of other anti-Communists.

What did Rogge do when he was fired by Clark? He at once took up the defense of sixteen directors of the most daring Communist Front in the United States -- directors who had been cited for contempt of Congress --- directors of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, which committee moved Tito from Paris, financed and set him up in Yugoslavia.

So there you have a line on the John Rogge who has been persecuting William Bishop. Bishop has been persecuted for over six years for standing up for America against the Fifth Column. Compare this with the treatment of Gerhard Eisler and at least three million who are here illegally! Attorney General Clark admits that two thousand enter the country illegally each day!

What has gone wrong with our government?

Who is running it, and where to?

How long will our Congressmen and Senators stand for such conditions?

STOKES CALLS EVERY AMERICAN TO CRUSADE FOR PRESERVATION

Jeremiah Stokes, noted attorney and anti-Communist has issued the following statement:

"Communists have solemnly decreed that they will destroy your right to life, liberty, property, free agency, sovereignty, free speech, free press, free public assembly, and freedom of the exercise of religious faith and worship!

"And they have further decreed: that they will destroy the Constitution of the United States and your Government by force, violence and bloody revolution; that they will confiscate all of your property; and that they will enslave you under Soviet Power and compel you to work for the State under a Communist master or you shall not eat. This regimentation and enslavement applies to you if you be a man, and it applies to you if you be a woman, for under Communism, both men and women must toil or they cannot live.

"This tyrannous state of regimentation will destroy your home life and your family relationship and companionship. And furthermore, you will be powerless to extricate yourself from the yoke of tyranny or to save either yourself or your children from the torture which you and they will be compelled to suffer. And religion will be purged from your life by force!

"Every American who loves his country, his freedom, his home and his Christian faith, must enter this crusade for self-preservation, or everything that he loves and that makes life worth the living will be wrested from him. THIS IS NO BOGEY! It is as real and as certain as it is that fire burns, for Communists have so decreed, and they are backing that decree with organization, money and action.

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstration and, finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of 'the bourgeoisie.'" From the "Program of the Communist International", an official Red document with the imprint of the Communist Party of the United States.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Neuengeseke u. Soest,
Germany

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Would you ask someone to help us?

I have three children, two boys of 16 and 10 years, and a girl of 6 years. We lost all that we had during the war, as our house burnt down. You know that it is dreadful for a mother to have neither enough to eat nor any clothes. And so I rather would ask you if you could send us jackets and trousers, stockings, pants, combinations, shoes, coats and a dress for my girl. We have nothing for the cold winter. I rather would prefer to pay for those things. I would be so thankful if you could help us over this great need. I have drawn the size of the shoes needed on the letter.

Yours sincerely,
Herta Strohmann

COMMON SENSE NEEDS NEW SUBSCRIBERS ON FRONT LINES AGAINST REDS

In this battle against Atheistic Communism, we on the front lines will fight as long as you folks back us up.

You have no idea of the many obstacles we face — but we will never let you down.

What we need now on the front lines are new subscribers. No reader is so busy that he cannot interest at least one new person a week in this important campaign. Each new reader is another worker to awaken America to this danger.

Businessmen can do nothing better to help insure their property against confiscation by Reds than to pay for a list of subscriptions for customers, friends, or employees.

Let's get strong and clean these Reds out of the United States.

MOLOTOV USES SAME 'LINE' AS 'PM' AND 'DAILY WORKER'

Molotov says the trouble in the Balkans is not caused by Communist-controlled activities, but by Fascist greed. This is the same line used here in the United States by PM, The Daily Worker and the Communist Party.

A leaflet signed by Eugene Dennis, General Secretary of the Communist Party of the U.S.A., says Communism is not the danger in the United States; it is the native Fascists who endanger the country. Everyone who does not like Communism is a Native Fascist.

UNITED NATIONS FRAMEWORK FOR A WORLD GOVERNMENT

When the Red press smears us they often brand us as "Pro-Nationalistic". Yes, we try to build sentiment for America — that is a crime. We understand why they discourage a patriotic feeling for our country and we know who has been behind this for many years.

The United Nations is the framework for World Government, which plainly states they will do away with all nationalities. There is to be only one language and one religion — BAHA'I — and school books for all nations will be handed out by the World Government;

If you are against this program, do your best to help this paper to reach more people.

United States and Spain

Merwin K. Hart, President of National Economic Council, Asks Pertinent Questions in Second Letter to Secretary of State Marshall.

June 5, 1947

Hon. George C. Marshall
Secretary of State
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I refer to a letter from the Department of State dated May 27, 1947 (I am asked to refer in replying to PL), signed by Mr. Francis H. Russell, Director, Office of Public Affairs, in answer to mine of May 10, addressed to yourself.

This letter of the Department states that:

"This country's relations with the present Government of Spain are strongly influenced by its origin, nature and record of close association during the war with the German and Italian aggressors, who assisted the regime in its rise to power. United States policy toward Spain is not dictated by the interest of any other country."

If the State Department is opposed to all aggressors, what about the joint aggression of Hitler and Stalin which precipitated World War II on Sept. 1, 1939, and continued till June 22, 1941? What about the aggressors in Poland and Jugoslavia, with which the United States maintains full diplomatic relations?

And certainly the Department has not forgotten that, while Hitler and Mussolini aided Franco in the Spanish Civil War, 1936-1939, Stalin rendered even greater aid to the leftist "Republican" group; nor that through the agency of the "Communist Party of the U.S.A." several thousand left-wing American youths were recruited on American soil, contrary to the laws of the United States, and were sent to Spain on American passports, real or forged, and those responsible for this unlawful recruiting have never been prosecuted.

When did the State Department become aware of the "origin, nature and record," etc., of the present Spanish government? Apparently quite recently because on the eve of the American landing in North Africa, President Roosevelt wrote a letter to General Franco which was personally delivered to him by Ambassador Hayes (see page 91, War-time Mission in Spain, by Dr. Hayes) in which letter are the following two paragraphs:

"It is because your nation and mine are friends in the best sense of the word, and because you and I are sincerely desirous of the continuation of that friendship for our mutual good, that I want very simply to tell you of the compelling reasons that have forced me to send a powerful military force to North Africa. . . .

"I hope you will accept my full assurance that these moves are in no shape, manner or form directed against the government or people of Spain, or Spanish Morocco or Spanish Territories — metropolitan or sovereign. I believe that the Spanish

DAVID GOLDSTEIN, AUTHOR, SAYS IT IS NECESSARY TO REDEDICATE OUR COUNTRY TO PRINCIPLES OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

The Fourth of July is at hand, hooray! It marks the 171st national anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, the birth certificate of our Republic. It was penned, as we all know, by Thomas Jefferson for the Second Continental Congress that recruited an army to defend the 13 Colonies against British armed forces; and appointed George Washington Commander-in-Chief.

The Basic Philosophical principles of Americanism are embodied in the Declaration of Independence. They are proof-positive that to be an American in principle, one must believe in God, not the "God" of monism, positivism or pantheism, but the God of Israel, a personal God. God is in the Declaration of Independence as the "Creator"; "the Supreme Judge of the world"; the "Author of nature and nature's laws"; the Author of our basic rights. God is therein as the "Divine Providence" upon whom the signers of our American Magna Carta relied for protection when, in the battle for freedom from tyranny, they mutually pledged to each other their lives, fortunes and sacred honor.

The Declaration of Independence

Totalitarianism Threat

holds that "certain truths are self-evident," that is they are beyond dispute and therefore need no proof of their correctness, and that "all men are created equal," being endowed by God with certain natural rights. These rights are held to be inalienable, that is, they cannot be transferred to others, or abrogated, because they are part of the nature with which God endowed man. These rights, named in the Declaration of Independence, are (1) the right to life, which is God-given; (2) liberty, based upon the virtue of free will, with which God endowed man and man alone; (3) the pursuit of happiness, a desire implanted in man by his Creator, that is made possible of realization by obedience to the law of man's being.

Never have the principles of the Declaration of Independence stood forth in more striking contrast to drastic restrictions placed upon the exercise of human rights than they do today, when TOTALITARIANISM THREATENS THE WORLD. The Colonial tyrannies of George III, that prompted the issuance of the Declaration of Independence, were mild compared to the tyrannies that Lenin II is imposing upon hundreds of millions of inhabitants of Sovietized lands.

Never was there a time in the history of our country when it has been more necessary to hark back to the principles in our Declaration of Independence, and rededicate our country to them, than during the liberty-threatening times in which we live. The EVIL EYE OF TOTALITARIANISM is centered upon weakening, destroying, or engulfing the U.S.A. The moral stability of Americans, necessary to defeat the advancing foe of the principles in the Declaration of Independence, is weakening, due to the moral delinquency caused by irreligion, divorce, abortion, alcoholism, and unmentionable diseases, that have been on the increase.

Adherence to the principles in the Declaration of Independence, proclaimed on the Fourth of July, is weakened by more than a half of our American population ignoring church or synagogue affiliation. It is further weakened by a growing number of clergymen who are bending to the irreligion of our day. This they have done, and continue to do, by amending God's law of stability and purity in marital relations to fit the lowered standards.

The signers of the Declaration of Independence held that religion is the basis of personal morality; that without religion national morality cannot be maintained. Every one of them believed that religion should be included in a properly balanced educational course to develop a citizenry of the highest order, as existed in the schools attended by the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

A World Bill of Rights has been prepared by the U. N. Secretariat that is minus reference to the Creator, whom the Declaration of Independence recognizes as the source from which basic rights emanate. Therefore the rights in it are set down as alienable rights, rights that are subject to the will of the state or any tyrant who may happen to dominate it. The United Nations Secretariat disregarded the Declaration of Rights submitted to it last February by the National Catholic Welfare Conference, very likely because the Author of human rights was its starting point. The preamble of the Declaration of Rights reads in part as follows:

"God the Creator of the human race, has charged man with obligations arising from his personal dignity, and from his relations as a social being. These obligations are in reference to the Creator, to himself, to his family and fellow-men, to the State and to the community of States. For the fulfillment of these obligations man is endowed with certain natural, inalienable rights. These obligations and rights form the substance of the moral law which can be known by reason."

government and the Spanish people wish to maintain neutrality and to remain outside the war. Spain has nothing to fear from the United Nations."

Can it be supposed that the then President of the United States was saying to General Franco what he did not mean, merely with the object of, if possible, persuading Franco not to interfere in any way with the landing in Africa? It appears so because Franco has done nothing since the date of that letter which could, or should, have changed our attitude toward Spain. Others like Tito have committed flagrant and open crimes against humanity and have given great insult to the United States in addition. We remain passive toward Tito — and we show open belligerence toward Franco.

Is it possible that the State Department regards a crime committed on one side of the street as a crime—while much more despicable crimes committed on the other side of the street are something to disregard and forget?

The State Department has scrupulously observed the Yalta and Potsdam agreements consented to by the President of the United States, even though those agreements gave the people of even our ally Poland over into the barbarous hands of Soviet Russia. Why is it then that it fails to observe the entirely voluntary assurances given by President Roosevelt to the Franco government of Spain?

Dr. Hayes in his book makes it clear, incidentally, that in several important respects the Franco government did actually assist in the North African landing, or at least interposed not the slightest interference.

And we have the definite and lengthy tribute of our British ally, Mr. Churchill, made in Parliament on May 24, 1944, to the favorable attitude of the Franco government with respect to this landing.

To one who reads the record of recent years the policy of the State Department toward the Franco government is too full of contradiction to be called a "policy." For instance, the United States on March 4, 1946, joined in a "Declaration" by the United Kingdom, the United States and France, to the effect that the Franco government should withdraw, the Falange party should be abolished, and a caretaking government established "under which Spanish people may have an opportunity freely to determine the type of government they wish to have, and to choose their leaders."

But seven days later, a considerable protest having arisen both in Britain and the United States, a note of the American State Department said:

"At the same time the government of the United States is compelled to say that it regards the change of the existing regime in Spain as a task for the Spanish people themselves. It is the privilege and the responsibility of the people of Spain to determine the form of government under which Spain wishes to live and to choose the leaders of their government."

More recently, as set forth in my letter to you of May 10, some spokesman for the State Department said:

"Satisfactory political and economic relations are not possible as long as the Franco regime remains in power."

Webster's Dictionary says that a policy is "A settled or definite course or method adopted and followed by a government, institution, body, or individual."

It is impossible to say that under this definition the State Department has had a policy toward Spain. Without doubt the general trend of the Department's method has been aided and abetted by leftist writers of every hue in the United States.

The letter signed by Mr. Russell states:

"This government has frequently stated its desire to see the elimination of the Franco regime in Spain and the reestablishment, without the renewal of civil strife, of a democratic government based upon the freely expressed will of the Spanish people."

Why should we be so persistent in the United States to upset the Franco government, since that government won out in the great Civil War of 1936-39?

Has the State Department so few problems on its hands that it can find time to join with other nations (all of them communistic or socialistic) in a course that has as its admitted objective the overthrow of the government of a nation, which President Roosevelt told Franco was "a friend in the best sense" of the United States? Is that the State Department's idea of friendship?

Has the State Department "frequently stated its desire to see the elimination of" the Soviet puppet regime in Poland, in which country the most horrible atrocities have been committed?

Has the State Department "frequently stated its desire to see the elimination of" the Tito government in Yugoslavia?

The letter signed by Mr. Russell says that:

"Many groups both here and abroad believe that an immediate change in the government of Spain should be forced by the systematic application of international coercive measures."

Mr. Russell, however, does not venture to explain what those groups are or whom they represent. This is not necessary under the circumstances. All of them are left-wing if not outright communistic groups, or groups that to a greater or less degree cooperate with the communistic world forces. We believe they take their cue straight from the Daily Worker or PM.

I agree heartily with the judgment of the State Department as expressed by the letter signed by Mr. Russell, that "such measures would lead ultimately to conditions of economic and political chaos in Spain and the complete negation of the objectives of our policy." There would seem to be no doubt that that is precisely what would happen. And that would also be the fulfillment of one of the most important objectives of Soviet Russian policy.

But the other course, to which Mr. Russell says the State Department adheres, is "to permit the internal political situation in Spain to develop gradually to the point where the Spanish people will be able to direct their own affairs in their own way."

But, my dear Mr. Secretary, how do you know the Spanish people are not perfectly competent to conduct their own affairs? I am aware that there has long been persistent press propaganda, carefully nurtured and slanted by the left-wing element, to the effect that the government of Spain is tottering and about to fall. It is only when an objective writer like Henry J. Taylor visits Spain and reports these assertions to be greatly exaggerated — that in fact outside interference in Spain has actually strengthened Franco — that the reading public is given the situation in fair perspective.

The notion has been cultivated in the U. S. that the Franco forces won the civil war through the aid of Hitler and Mussolini. This is untrue. He did receive aid from both though not to the extent rumored. And he received no aid from them till long after Communist Russia had been actively at work in support of what The New York Times then called the Spanish "Reds."

The Department's letter says:

"In the meantime, so long as the Franco regime remains in power, Spain must expect to remain isolated from the organized community of nations."

But why, Mr. Secretary — why, except that the Stalin government of Russia has so decreed?

Has the Franco government done any harm to the United States? If so, what? And when? Has Franco shot down American airmen, like Tito? Or arrested American diplomats or officers, like the Russians?

Why has the United States permitted itself to continue to follow this communistic, anti-Franco line, when it is so obvious to any intelligent reader of foreign dispatches, not to mention domestic dispatches, that the world propaganda against Franco is of Communist origin?

One has only to read the Daily Worker, the New Masses, and PM, to see the strongest possible confirmation of this fact.

The Department's letter closes by saying:

"You may be sure that the Department is fully aware of the factors brought out in your letter and that these and all other aspects of the Spanish situation are taken into consideration in developing the course of action best calculated to promote the national interest of the United States and the cause of international peace and stability."

Until you, Mr. Secretary, find time to complete a thorough overhauling of State Department policy and personnel, its statements should, I submit, be analyzed in the light of such information as the public now possesses — including the following:

The House Committee on Un-American Activities on May 27 (as reported in The New York Times of May 28), stated that "Some of the most flagrant Communist propaganda films were produced as a result of White House pressure." It is a matter of common knowledge that President Roosevelt for some years made appeasement of Soviet Russia a cardinal point in his foreign policy; and, indeed, to this fact may be attributed many of the ills of today.

Congressman Frederick E. Busbey of Illinois read into the Congressional Record of May 13, 1947, a report by the House Committee on Un-American Activities showing that 20 of the 45 artists that under the direction of the State Department had painted pictures sent abroad by your Department as an exhibition of American art, are "definitely New Deal in various shades of Communism."

Mr. Alfred Kohlberg, in the magazine Plain Talk for May 1947, clearly and unmistakably points out the sinister influence of Mr. John Carter Vincent, Director of the Office of Far Eastern Affairs and leader of the pro-Soviet clique in the State Department.

These and other pieces of evidence can be cited to show that important sections of the State Department are still under definite Communist influence. Most emphatically I do not attribute the existence of this influence, up to the time you became Secretary, to you yourself. And, naturally, time has had to elapse for you to familiarize yourself with the vast problems of our foreign affairs.

But, frankly, Mr. Secretary, how long must we now wait before the State Department cleans house?

When will you put Americans, and Americans only, on guard?

Sincerely yours,

MERWIN K. HART,
President.

ARE THE DIRECTORS OF U.S. POLICIES STALIN'S AGENTS?

After proposed policies have been condemned by the big majority of the American people, who is this powerful, small group that brings about the enforcement of these policies?

This has been going on since 82% of our people voiced themselves opposed to going into the past war.

Our people protested loudly to stop shipments of tractors and machinery to Communist Yugoslavia. During this protest the shipments were increased and rushed. Locomotives we shipped to Czechoslovakia arrived bearing Stalin's photograph. What goes on here?

Tito's murderers were shooting down our airmen and using UNRRA supplies to build his army. Now we are going to send millions to Greece to help stop Yugoslav guerilla army we set up.

Our government agencies are using taxpayers' money to buy thousands of gallons of kerosene to pour over hundreds of tons of potatoes to make sure no one can eat them. All who read this have seen pictures of carloads of potatoes in Alabama, South Carolina and Maine, where government employees used kerosene on them. At this same time hundreds of carloads of potatoes are shipped here from Canada and consumers pay 5 and 10 cents per pound. Millions of people in Germany are to starve within ten weeks. They would be happy to have even the peelings to make soup. Reds in this administration who are working to bankrupt and enslave us say there is no way to get the potatoes over there.

When Stalin was crying for us to establish a second front and render Europe helpless before his Red Godless army we found ways to get everything over.

This is a planned famine.

Will God forgive us for our stupidity in allowing this waste?

The people who are directing our policies . . . are they Christian Americans or Stalin's agents?

TWO THOUSAND SPIES IN RED-DOMINATED EMBASSIES

When Poland had a Polish government there were here in the U.S. Polish Embassy and Councils 53 Polish. Now that Poland is ruled by Russian Communists there are here not 53 but 171. Why? Because they are spies and Red agents, plotting to take over our country. We have information from a good source that they expect to soon increase this number to 500. We have 9 in our embassy in Poland.

This same increase in personnel occurred in all embassies here from Communist dominated countries.

In Spain, when the revolution was ready, Moses Rosenberg, the Soviet Ambassador to Spain, stood in front of the Embassy, gave the signal and then took charge of the Communist revolution.

Businessmen and manufacturers have no idea of the amount of propaganda used on their employees to cause them to hate their employer. Communists in unions use several hundred different leaflets and CIO Red-dominated union papers feature hate for the employer. They also distribute the Daily Worker outside the gates of many plants. But the average employer is too busy to learn how class hatred is being generated to destroy him and America.

"COMMON-SENSE" is best adapted for debunking such propaganda — small doses of facts plainly written. Not a parlor sheet, our paper reaches those who are most susceptible to Communism — the employees. Many union men read and promote Common Sense.

Help us to reach many more thousands.

CLARK MISLEADS IGNORANT

Internationalists Organize---Again

FOREIGN INFLUENCE SEEN IN BOTH THE "MARSHALL PLAN" AND THE "TRUMAN PLAN" — IN PLACE OF A CLEAR-CUT, "AMERICAN PLAN" SORELY NEEDED

The President opened the special session of Congress on November 17th, by requesting (1) Emergency aid to feed Europe, and (2) Legislation to reestablish price controls and rationing. He said he would shortly propose "a long-range recovery program" for Europe.

The "long range" plan is, of course, the Marshall Plan — a scheme to advance some $18 billion of American money and goods to "restore the European economy".

The "emergency aid" proposal will meet with little dissent. Christian principles have ever led Americans to relieve distress. There may be debate as to the amount and nature of the emergency aid needed. But few Americans will feel we should not aid the distressed European nations.

The Two Requests to Congress Not Necessarily Related

But the two requests made to Congress by the President have no necessary relation to each other. On the surface it appears that they do — since we are asked, first, to aid Europe with food, and second, to adopt price controls and rationing as a consequence of such generosity. To make it appear in this light without the President actually saying so may be smart politics, but it is simply not true. The food to be sent Europe this winter will, at the most, be only a small fraction of our domestic supply. This isn't what has led the President to ask that we be returned to a controlled economy. It is something else.

That something else is the "Marshall Plan." Although emergency relief has been cleverly coupled with the demand for "controls," the two do not belong together in any accurate analysis of the whole situation. Emergency aid is within our ability and it can stand or fall on its own merits. But the two proposals which should be discussed together, and which are inextricably interwoven with each other are, the Marshall Plan and the plan for controls. They are two facets of the same design.

The "Truman Plan"

Underlying what we may now call the "Truman Plan" are two simple assumptions. If one accepts both, he must go along with the Plan. If he rejects either, he rejects the Plan as a whole. Here are the assumptions:

1. War-shattered Europe is in an economic emergency so desperate that it will collapse unless supported by the U. S. taxpayer to the extent of $18 billion. But if the money and goods are sent, the battle for freedom will be won in Europe, and the healthy world-economy that results will stop Communism.

2. The only way such vast quantities of goods required can be subtracted from our own supplies without wrecking our free economy through inflation is by a controlled economy.

TWO FRONTS FOR MARXISTS
TOM CLARK and FRANK SINATRA

MARXISM vs. CHRISTIANITY

Last week one Isaac Bilderslee, Associate Superintendent of Schools in Charge of Brooklyn (N.Y.) Districts 41 and 42, issued an order of restrictions on Christmas observance in 23 public schools. The Bilderslee statement read:

"Christmas Carols with reference to the Nativity may not be sung, nor may decorations include symbols of any faith. Christmas is a time of rejoicing and expressing good will and should be devoid of religion."

After protests by the Knights of Columbus, Catholic War Veterans, the Protestant Council, Bishop Charles K. Gilbert of the Episcopal Diocese of New York, and Dr. Norman Vincent Peale of Marble Collegiate Church, Bilderslee said:

"I do not intend to revoke my order and will not do so unless ordered by my superior".

Supporting this Marxist in his anti-Christian order, were the Communist Front, the American Civil Liberties Union, which gave birth to the Civil Right Committee appointed by President Truman with Marxist Morris Ernst the mainspring and guiding genius. He is former president of A.C.L.U., which is packed with Communists.

Also supporting this Marxist order are the American Jewish Congress, Teachers Guild of the A. F. of L.

Bilderslee, like other Marxists, does not believe in Christmas, except as a means of causing Christians to spend hundreds of millions of dollars for gifts. The Marxist program is to destroy Christianity and to do this they have skillfully created different fronts to break down the morale.

Ben Hecht, prominent Marxist of New York, says in his book: "Christ should have been ground up and fed to the dogs. Then he would not be a martyr today".

Communism, Fabianism and World Government are three arms of Marxism.

LIST OF SUBVERSIVE GROUPS A JOKE, INDICATING LITTLE HOPE OF PURGE OF RED TRAITORS BY TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION

Who is going to crush Communism in the United States?

Will the Government do it?

As long as our government is in the hands of the Truman Administration, the Government will positively NOT crush Communism, but will help build it up not only in the U. S., but all over the world — as the New Deal has been doing for fourteen years.

You may ask: "Why, then, did President Truman start a movement last March to purge the government of Communists?"

It is obvious to us (and should be to you) that Truman and his Administration are completely controlled by an International Marxist group (just as F.D.R. was), who do the thinking, make the plans and give the orders through happy Smiling Harry.

It is the International Marxist group who decided to have Truman make the move before Congress could appoint a committee that would really do the job. This Red crowd has directed and retarded this committee, which goes over the nation, looking for Communists.

But the innocent voter asks: "How about Tom Clark, Attorney General, and his list of subversive organizations to guide the committee looking for Communists?"

That list would bring a laugh from any true Bolshevik in the New Deal. Mostly Japanese and Black Hand organizations that went out of business years ago. A few former Communist Fronts, like the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, which have changed their names several times since.

In fourteen years, Marxists, unopposed, have taken such control that they rule from behind and through such men as Truman and Tom Clark, who are politicians and as puppets in the hands of World Marxists. They know nothing about Communism.

When we anti-Communists create sufficient public sentiment, Marxists order publicity given out to create the impression the Government is going to do something — thereby preventing activity by sincere (but gullible) Americans, and giving more time for Reds to entrench themselves.

Even though circumstances compel this administration to outlaw Communism, all movements advanced by Communists will be promoted.

Many leading Marxists now disavow the name Communism, but continue activity for all it stands for.

Communism is only a splinter of Marxism.

flation, is to wreck that free economy ourselves before inflation can do it, by the imposition of controls.

These Two Assumptions

Let us examine these two assumptions.

Without question the basic economic emergency in Europe is grave. We have shown how dependent the economy of all Europe is upon the restoration of Germany. The War of 1939-1945 was disastrous to the European economy as a whole, so that even under favorable conditions reconstruction will be a long and painful process.

But the natural healing of the wounds of Europe has been retarded by three factors. The first is, the stupidity of American-British policy with regard to most of Europe, especially Germany and Spain.

The second retarding factor is the Soviet Union. With Eastern and part of Central Europe under its control, Russia has been striving, through economic and political devices, to keep Western Europe from recovery. The purpose is obvious: if its strategy succeeds, all Europe will be brought under the hammer and sickle.

The third factor is the emergence in Europe of a rash of socialist governments. These have proceeded to "nationalize" as much as possible of the resources and industry of their respective countries. And this has retarded recovery. In Britain and France the consequences have been close to tragic. Nor have we seen the end of them.

The situation we face in Europe, then, is a complex of factors in which the economic factor is not alone.

But the economic factor must, in the long run, be decisive. If Western European economy, which must function as a whole or not at all, recovers soundly, there will be no Red advance to the Atlantic. For people with a higher standard of living will not knowingly exchange it for a lower standard like Russia's.

How does the Marshall Plan propose to cure the ills of Europe?

Short of war, the economic and political factors of the Soviet Union must be recognized and reckoned with just as is the weather or geography. The Marshall Plan cannot change them.

Sixteen European states outside the Soviet orbit (not including Spain or Germany) have met in Paris, at our request—not on their own motion—to consider their needs. After scaling many billions from their original estimates, they finally asked the United States for $18 billions over a period of five years.

According to our Administration, the dignity and independence of the nations willing to accept our aid must be scrupulously respected. To put it another way, we dare not condition our aid upon the kind of government a country has, or the degree to which that government may decide to adopt a socialist economy. This means that the money and goods requested of us will go not to mere physical relief or to the encouragement of private business, but to the creation and maintenance of state monopolies — of a socialist Europe.

The reasoning behind this thinking is curious. On the one hand we are told that the Marshall Plan alone will keep despairing and resperate Europe from sliding into the Communist abyss. Then we are told that if we attach any conditions as to the use of our billions, which we are giving away free, our impertinence and insolence will be resented. If we are to save Europe from the Communist (Marxist) abyss, we must not insultingly ask it to refrain from turning and jumping into the Socialist (Marxist) abyss. Europe might not take our money!

What About Germany?

But what does the Marshall Plan do, for Germany? Germany was not represented at the Paris conference or would-be recipients of aid, for it is divided between East and West, and the portion we control has no common government save our own. So far as we can learn the plan for Germany discussed in a recent article is the Marshall Plan for Germany. But, as that article showed, the plan of August 29, 1947, for Germany is only the Morgenthau Plan for revenge and destruction, modified slightly but not enough to restore German economy. No real European recovery is thinkable without a drastic change in our attitude toward Germany. The Marshall Plan gives no hint of any such change.

Let us establish the principle of freedom in Germany, where we have the power to do it, and we will force other countries to return to free enterprise and maximum reward. They will be so forced, not by us, but by their own people. They will not stand by and see Germany go ahead, without adopting the same principle. Bureaucratic control of business and industry can never compete on equal terms with a free economy. * * * Germany is the principal key to European recovery. Give Germany the chance to recover, beyond temporary relief, there will be little need for American loans to European countries.

And, incidentally, Spain is not found among countries to receive aid under the Marshall Plan. She has been left out because the extreme left-wingers in the Administration have so ordered. Yet Spain needs little, her credit is high, and strategically speaking it is more important to America to strengthen Spain than any country on the Continent.

The Agitation for The Marshall Plan

The agitation for the Marshall Plan has emphasized extreme crisis and impending doom, unless we come across with the $18 billion. Yet there are many indications that the nature of the "emergency" has been misestimated and exaggerated. The American people, who have no direct access to the facts, have been given the impression that without the Marshall Plan dollars, the European economy faces imminent collapse. What are facts?

They are not nearly so black as painted. Despite the stifling, bureaucratic blanket which Socialism has thrown over human effort, yet the economy of Europe is far from dead. Remove the Socialist shackles, let the natural energies of men be released to earn commensurate rewards, and in a few years Europe will become soundly prosperous — and we will still have most of our money.

Belgium, which certainly suffered the physical and mental consequences of war, stands out today among the nations of Europe like a bright light. Why? Because, once Belgium had regained control of its own destiny, the Belgium people made a momentous decision. They decided not to emulate other countries with the urge to "nationalize" industries and socialize economy while frantically appealing for outside aid. They simply decided to get back to work.

Now, Belgium's thirteen leading industries are operating at a level seven per cent above that of 1938. * * * its economy is still based on free enterprise. So the Belgian people are reaping the result of putting back the principle of freedom into the heart of their life, and that result is prosperity.

The Internationalists Organize—Again.

On November 15th the formation was announced of the Committee for the Marshall Plan to Aid European Recovery. Headed by Mr. Henry L. Stimson, the Committee contains the names of many people of high standing — one of whose chief characteristics is a laudable liking to be associated with "good works." Relief in any form has a natural appeal to their emotions. Many of them, without looking beneath the surface, are perhaps attracted by the label on the package, without examining the contents.

But along with these were many who in 1939 to 1941 were in the forefront of the effort to get America into war. It is fair to assume that these internationalists are the mainspring of this Stimson Committee. Conspicuous among them is the name of Clark Eichelberger, professional promoter of internationalism. He was long the executive officer of the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies. He it was who appeared in June 1946 before the Resolutions Committee of the Republican National Committee in Chicago to advise the Republican Party what to put into its platform. When, as he finished, a bystander asked him if he was not a Fourth Term Democrat, and, if so, what was he doing advising the Republican Party, he abruptly left the hall without replying.

Eichelberger's action here is typical of the way the glibble Republican Party drafted its platforms in 1936, 1940 and 1944, and of the way its candidates conducted their campaigns. Since it is desirable that real issues be presented to the voters at the polls in 1948, if the Republicans in Congress and in next June's convention permit the internationalist crew, sparked by the Eichelbergers, again to dictate their program, then no real issues will be presented, and the outcome will be the same as twelve, eight and four years previously.

Let's Go Back to the American Way

There is an American way, and we should choose it. It is the way of freedom. Let us give Europe such emergency aid as is actually needed. Let us unshackle the German economy. Let us courage free enterprise in Europe, releasing the energies of men to work for their own salvation. For the sake of getting a first-class military ally in Europe, which we may need, let us drop our nonsensical, communist-inspired attitude toward Spain, and let us do business with her and let her do business with us.

Let us encourage such private loans as Europeans can make here on a business basis for sound business purposes. Let us put our own house in order, restoring our Republic to the control of those who believe in the principle of freedom. Let us stop government extravagance and currency inflation. Let us restore the incentives to work and produce, now penalized or prohibited by New Dealish, discriminating taxation.

As we go to press it is announced the Republican Party will draw up its own plan to stop inflation. Good — if it goes far enough to be effective.

But let that party, or some party, draw up its own method of loans to Europe — a method based on common sense and experience. If Republicans will but dare to do this, the American people will embrace them. If they want to win next fall, it is their great chance.

Now comes the moment for America's final choice. Down one road is the precipice. If we take that road, there can be no returning. The other road is the great highway on which in 1776 we set out. If we get back on that highway we shall as a great people go on from strength, prosperous, happy, free.

What is at stake now is the American birth-right, the American dream. Shall we sell it for a mess of Marxist pottage?

THE DESPAIR OF RUSSIAN WOMEN

Several weeks ago COMMON SENSE published quotations from "The Communist", vol. XVI, No. 6, showing how Marx and Lenin (probably history's most despicable defilers of womanhood), planned and directed the enslavement of Russian women. We again quote:

"For the complete emancipation and for their real equality with men, it is necessary to establish social economy and the participation of women in general productive labor. Only then will women occupy the same place as men."

"This is the teaching of Lenin."

"Comrade Lenin stressed that we: '... must find our way to them, we must study and try to find that way. That is why we must put demands favorable to women. Our demands are practical conclusions which we have drawn from the burning needs, the shameful humiliation of women in bourgeois society, defenseless and without right. We demonstrate thereby that we recognize these needs and are sensitive of the humiliation of women, the privileges of man; that we hate, yes, hate everything, and will abolish everything which tortures and oppresses the women workers, the housewife, the peasant woman, the wife of the petty trader — yes, and in many cases the women of the possessing classes."

"Not as reformists do, lulling them to inaction and keeping them in leading strings," Lenin continued, but as revolutionaries who call upon the women to work as equals in transforming the old economy and ideology."

How well the followers of Marx and Lenin accomplished their purpose has never been more aptly described than in an appeal entitled "THE DESPAIR OF RUSSIAN WOMEN" translated and condensed from Ceska Zena in St. Louis, Mo., in September, 1938, which COMMON SENSE republishes herewith in the belief that it is of more interest to American women in 1947 than it was in 1938, in view of the progress Communism has made all over the world since this warning by the Russian women.

It is becoming increasingly obvious that a similar fate faces American women unless sufficient numbers of people spend time and money to stop Marxism while we are still free to do so. We urge slow, comprehensive reading of the pitiful plea which follows:

DESPAIR OF RUSSIAN WOMEN

"We, the women of Russia, mothers, wives and daughters in deepest despair, have recourse to the women of the whole civilized world. We particularly warn those deceived by false propaganda: those who suspect, or even know the facts, but are indifferent; and finally, those who simply do not comprehend the danger threatening them.

"This letter, our cry of despair, we send to all of you! It is written at the greatest risk of our lives, and sent by special means, although its safe delivery is not certain. We beg of you to spread its contents. It is self-evident why the letter is not signed; but it is a message written with the very blood of the hearts of Russian women."

"This is not an appeal for help and protection — that is impossible. It is not even an appeal for sympathy — we have ceased to be human beings. We merely ask that you do not be deceived by illusions of the 'Paradise' promised you by Communists, in which, you are told, working conditions have been improved and women made independent and equal to men.

"No, in Russia there is neither the promised 'Paradise', nor better working conditions, nor emancipation of women.

"They took from us the housework and light factory labor, and compel us to fill the heavy jobs of men, in factories, mines and agriculture. This 'emancipation' in the Soviet is the exploitation of women by men who have reserved for themselves 85 percent of the light work in offices, whereas, they submit women to the hardest labors.

"They have made beasts of us! In the Communist state, we have ceased to be wives, mothers and daughters. We are slaves whom the Communists punish with rawhides, starvation and sufferings worse than the scourge of the executioner. We are enslaved for constant drudgery, and for the most repulsive vices!

"We suffer from our twelfth year (in some instances, our sufferings begin earlier). From that age, if we want a piece of dry black bread, or if we wish employment, we are forced to sell our bodies! If we do not submit, we become victims of violence. Resistance, or protestation before the government is useless, because that is considered 'bourgeois presumption' which must be punished.

"When we marry, it is never because of love (love is also considered 'bourgeois presumption') but simply to share a dwelling wherein to sleep. The husband, if we have children, almost invariably, soon casts us aside as useless.

"Our children, to whom we cannot give even the bare necessities of life, soon become street waifs roaming from town to town like hungry dogs seeking something to eat. These are the future population of Russia, nurtured by Communists.

"And we, women who at twelve have begun to live as mothers, at 25, become wrecks. In factories we are assigned to the heaviest work; in the mines, we toil in darkness; in the fields, in groups of 30 or 40 we pull plows; too frequently our backs are lashed with the bigadier's whip. Women in the fields are substitutes for broken tractors, and are worked instead of horses of which there is a scarcity. If any dares protest, she is tortured with hunger. When, in the towns and in the country, women are given a wage, it is as little as 60 to 120 rubles. And even of this they are forced to contribute to numberless loans, relief, etc. The remainder must cover expenses for food, clothing and rent, and frequently the support of a 'husband' they are compelled to remain married to.

"Those in power indulge in luxury at the expense of our toil, our beggarly existence. Living apartments belong to the state, and we must pay for a small space much more than private owners formerly received. In these dwellings we live, six, eight men and women in one room!

"Clothing and footwear can be obtained only with the greatest difficulty, unless one has some protection from the government office. Most of the women are 'dressed' in rags. Rags are worn instead of shoes.

"We, who once this had belonged to the peasant class during the Czar's regime. We complained about the Czar's government. We

PRAYER CHANGES THINGS

Prayer is the mightiest weapon we can find;
Prayer makes us patient, understanding, kind,
Helps us to right decisions, clears the mind;
Prayer changes things.

Sense of God's nearness stirs us when we pray,
Prayer strengthens us for duty day by day,
Transforms our lives; sheds light upon our way;
Prayer changes things.

No joy or blessing can with this compare,
The power God gives to pour our souls in prayer;
Pray, burdened one bowed down with grief and care;

the overthrow of the Czar. Now we are convinced that Communism is the worst of regimes, and that Communist government is one of murderers and impostors, of exploiters of laborers, and violators of women.

Hosts of women are ending their lives. They seek in death their only escape. What are the effects of these suicides? None at all! It makes no difference!

"We hope that this description of our position will arouse women in all civilized countries, and induce them to expose the lies of Communists put before them. Any woman who lives now in peace and contentment, will, under Communism, lose her home, her children, and husband, and perhaps her life. All women will be reduced to slavery, even as we are!

"Our voice is the voice of Russian mothers suffering from hunger and cold. It is the voice of those suffering infinitely, but who still have sufficient strength to hope the time will come when God will have mercy on them!"

"Signed: Women of Russia".

(The following comment is by Thomas Cox, of Oakland California):

Thus write Russian women. These inhuman cruelties confirm many verbal and written reports of eye witnesses in that land of heartless injustice. Their letter voices true despair and along with this, hatred towards men in whom they recognize selfish oppressors.

It is easy to comprehend these feelings. It was the men who fought either for Communism or against it, women chiefly suffered. Therefore, it is the fault of the Russian men that Communism won. This circumstance must always be taken into account by men of the whole world. On the other hand, I cannot omit the fact that those men who fought and still fight Communism have paid, and are still paying for their courage, the price of their lives.

There are in Russia fewer men than women because the former have been murdered in large numbers, the latter, the women are compelled to do men's jobs. Moreover, when a fight is waged against Communism, it very frequently happens that women tell their husbands: "Let that alone. What is that to you? Let others see to it."

At present, it is known all over the world what Communism is. Anyone can make his own choice to take sides for or against Communism.

U. S. NAVAL INTELLIGENCE REPORT, 1935

"A major problem is not only the Communist with his philosophy of hatred, destruction, and revolt; but individuals, supposedly intelligent, occupying positions above the average in life, whose names and works carry with them a certain prestige and who, although themselves not subscribing to the Communist program, philosophy, and doctrines, pick certain sections of the Communist program to promote, uphold and expand. These are the 'fringe revolutionists' too lacking in integrity to go all the way with Communism, but who stand by, and urge the Communist to do his worst, and provide him with protection, sympathy, and defense while he commits the overt act they have not had the courage to commit themselves."

Urges Senator Thomas to Also Patrol Borders Against Infiltration of Undesirable Aliens.

In an open letter from Atlanta, Ga., dated November 26, 1947, General George Van Horn Moseley, asks some pertinent questions of United States Senator Elbert D. Thomas, as follows:

"Dear Senator:

"I note your highly commendable accomplishments in keeping cattle infected with 'the hoof and mouth disease' out of the United States. In this connection, you are quoted as saying: 'Our progress in combating the Mexican hoof and mouth disease before its spread to American herds, is one example of our wider concept of responsibility, which we formerly limited to our own borders.'"

"May I suggest that you advance your efforts and your studies to the human problem and come forward with a plan to keep out of the United States individuals and groups who are infected with diseases and unfitness far more dangerous to us than the hoof and mouth disease. You know full well that thousands of individuals, infected with ideologies dangerous to our well-being, have been allowed to cross our borders. Many of these diseased and undesirable individuals have been run in unlawfully. Many come as part of a well developed plan to destroy us. You will remember that at one time a bill passed the Congress to put out of our country large numbers of aliens unlawfully within our gates, and you may recall, Senator, that that bill was vetoed by the late President Roosevelt.

"The character and virility of the average citizen as he appears on Main Street, is the index of our ability to march on and succeed as a nation. No mongrel nation has long survived in history. It is quite evident today that we will be no exception. We should welcome the right kind of selected individuals of the right breed who wish to assimilate here as individual citizens, citizens anxious to adopt our basic policies and to stand shoulder to shoulder with us in sustaining our Republic, in a threatening world. All others should be kept out and all who are now here illegally should be run out promptly. If you will do this, Senator, you will automatically accomplish another project, and that is, you will make plenty of houses available for veterans.

"I fully believe that if an enemy should land on our coast, we would wake up and fight; but so few seem to realize the danger of the attack now being made upon us every hour of the day and night by secret infiltration. Are we honest-to-God Christian Americans going to stand silently by, as we are driven West and into eternity? At least the Indians put up a fight before they were exterminated. I beg of you, Senator, to extend your studies of the hoof and mouth disease, to include those diseased and undesirable individuals who are moving heaven and earth to secure permission to enter our country. Already our future is threatened by those now here, some of whom reject assimilation as they retain their allegiance to their tribe.

"There is no question that the best interests of our Republic demand action along the lines I have described; but well do I know that so often those vital American interests are traded away for a mess of votes.

"Sincerely yours,
"George Van Horn Moseley".

It is evident that in the vast majority of cases, the child who is trained to know, love and serve God will be an upright and respectable member of society. Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all its hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!
We know what Master laid thy keel,
What Workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
Who made each mast, and sail, and rope,
What anvils rang, what hammers beat,
In what a forge and what a heat
Were shaped the anchors of thy hope!
Fear not each sudden sound and shock,
'Tis of the wave and not the rock;
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
And not a rent made by the gale!
In spite of rock and tempest's roar,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith, triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee — are all with thee!

THE PLAN FOR ACTION AS OUTLINED FOR MARXISTS
IN THE U. S. GOVERNMENT

If the United States is maneuvered into war by the Marxists who have been master-minding the New Deal for fourteen years, what will the millions of Communists, Marxists, and their blind followers do? What will the Marxists in the Justice Department, the Immigration and State Department do?

What will those in our electric light and power plants, our subways, our railroads, and our other vital plant, do?

We submit just one of many evidences as to what they will do. It is a quotation from Chapter VI, part 2, of the Program of the Communist International, as follows:

"Communist parties in imperialistic countries — must carry on a campaign and conduct propaganda in the Army and the Navy in defense of the oppressed countries fighting for their liberation, minimize the masses to refuse to transport troops and munitions, and in connection with this, organize strikes and other forms of mass protest.

Quotations from the circular of general instructions issued by a committee of the Soviet Government of Russia during the Summer of 1919:

"Carry on intensive propaganda among the troops; cause misunderstandings between officers and soldiers; blow up arsenals, bridges, tracks, power magazines; prevent the delivery of supplies of raw materials to factories and mills."

Quotation from the "Twenty-one conditions of admission into the Communist International" (Condition 4):

"The duty of spreading Communistic ideas includes the special obligation to carry on a vigorous and systematic propaganda in the Army. Where this agitation is prohibited by exceptional laws it is to be carried on illegally."

IS THIS TREASON !

Address COMMON SENSE, Union, New Jersey

"Communism abolishes eternal truths, it abolishes all religion, and all morality; . . . it therefore acts in contradiction to all past experience." (Karl Marx, Manifesto, p. 29).

" . . . Communist consciousness, the cause of Socialism itself, calls for a mass change in human nature, which can be achieved only in the course of the practical revolution. Hence, revolution is not only necessary because there is no other way of overthrowing the ruling class (bourgeoisie), but also because only in the process of revolution is the overthrowing class (Communists, proletariat) to purge itself of the dross of the old society and become capable of creating a new society." (Program of the Communist International, p.53).

And, in the process, according to the Marx-Engels-Lenin-Stalin-Bolshevik mastership, capitalism, or the "old" society and the "old" form of government are wiped out, Christian Civilization is destroyed and the hated Neroian system of Godless, Marxist, Bolshevism is installed. (Foundation of Leninism, Stalin, p.46).

MC GINLEY and his loyal American group has in the past months conducted a "Rally for America" meeting in various locations throughout the Newark area. On March 9 at Irvington, New Jersey; on April 16 at Elizabeth, New Jersey; on May 7 at Newark, New Jersey; on May 25 at Elizabeth, New Jersey; and on June 25 at East Orange, New Jersey.

The publication, "COMMON SENSE", was accused of anti-Semitism by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, and as a result MC GINLEY has been having some difficulty in the circulation of his paper. On the basis of the League's charges, the Chamber of Commerce of Eastern Union County announced the withdrawal of its approval of the publication.

On April 22, 1948, MC GINLEY addressed the Rotary Club of Elizabeth, New Jersey, on the subject of Communism.

[REDACTED] an informant of this office who resides at [REDACTED] MC GINLEY and the Loyal American Group. He furnished the following information:

FIVE CENTS

ZIONISM THREATENS NATION'S SECURITY

The powerful political and economic Zionist group inside U.S.A. forcing our government to aid the armed Palestine insurrection by 650,000 U. S. A.-financed revolutionist immigrant Jews from eastern Europe

The un-American, Zionist-dictated U. S. A. effort to effect the partition of Palestine is converting into deadly enemies over one-billion friends in Africa and in Asia — the area so vitally strategic to us between Morocco on the Atlantic and the Philippines in the Pacific. Their genuine and oft-demonstrated loyalty in the past and unconditional cooperation in the future are essential to that victory so necessary to preserve our Nation's freedom and prevent world-rule by communist dictatorships.

Area controlled by North Africa, Near East, Middle East and Far East Nations.

Area controlled by Soviet Union and her satellite nations.

The public have a right to know the truth. The public do not want any more surprises. One Pearl Harbor in a life-time is enough. On September 22, 1948, the New York Times printed a special news item from its correspondent in Boston. This dispatch quoted Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, Republican Senator-Elect from Maine. Senator-Elect Smith is a member of the House Armed Services Committee in the Eightieth Congress. She served there as one of its most respected members for several terms. The New York Times quotes Senator-elect Smith as having stated in Boston, on September 21, 1948, as follows:

"War may come at any time; the situation is far more dangerous than we realize."

When a respected Member of Congress, serving on the House Armed Services Committee, and recently rewarded by the citizens of her State for her loyalty and ability by election to the United States Senate, makes a statement of such serious importance, it then becomes vital to the security of the United States that our administration in Washington should be making friends among the other nations of the world instead of turning them into enemies. Coming events may soon prove that the un-American policy pursued in Palestine by the United States, for the sole purpose of liquidating an obligation by politicians to Zionist voters and campaign contributors, was without any doubt, the highest form of treason to the security of this country and to the welfare of its one-hundred and forty million other citizens.

A brief study of this map, to the left here, will quickly tell this important story better than a million words. If the population which totals more than a billion people in North Africa, the Near East, the Middle East and the Far East will remain the loyal friends of the United States, we are safe. If they become our enemies, we are no longer safe. In the future war, which appears so inevitable and so imminent, it is doubtful if we can emerge the winner if we are denied free access and use of the vitally strategic area extending from Morocco on the Atlantic to the Philippines in the Pacific. It is improbable that we shall emerge the winner unless the immense and important natural resources of this area are made available to us willingly and generously. The effective good-will and the loyal co-operation of this enormous reserve of manpower, more than one-half of the total population of the world, will prove to be the most important factor in determining the winner.

However, there is something equally important to be considered at this moment by all American mothers and fathers, and by all those who will again have to fight in another foreign war. It is quite possible that this seemingly inevitable and imminent war may be prevented. It is reasonable to believe that no power in Europe will ever dare to engage the United States in a war, if it is known in advance that the nations forming the "underbelly" of Europe and Asia will enter that war as our allies. Even the most powerful nation in Europe is not so blind to reality, that it will risk its national existence by inviting war with the United States, knowing in advance that fighting with us on our side there will be the nations forming the "underbelly" of Europe and Asia, with a total population of more than a billion people. No nation in all the world could survive a war, fought at the same time against the United States and all the nations of North Africa, the Near East, the Middle East and the Far East. The simple logic of this international situation is so well understood, and so well appreciated by aggressor nations, that none will invite national suicide by engaging in a war with the United States under such circumstances. It is therefore the duty of our government to immediately establish, and rigidly maintain, the most friendly relationship with all the nations of North Africa, Asia Minor and Asia. Only by following this policy can we make certain that war, under existing conditions, can be averted.

Russia is well aware of the fact that she cannot, as she hopes, easily and quickly carry to its successful conclusion, her plan to dominate the world, if the United States and the nations of North Africa, Asia Minor and Asia see eye to eye as allies. It must also be as obvious to Russia that the present expansion of communism westward in Europe and eastward in Asia, cannot be accelerated, with or without the use of force, as long as the United States and the nations of the "underbelly" of Europe and Asia continue to remain allies. This has compelled Russia to search for a strategy which would quickly and irrevocably convert these friendly nations into enemies of the United States. Russia's plan for ideological conquest of the world can never make progress as long as the United States and these nations remain allies. Russia soon discovered the strategy by which she could accomplish the result so necessary for her purpose. This strategy was based upon the ability of Russia to succeed in forcing the United States to give "all-out" support for Zionist aggression in Palestine. In this regard it will be recalled that it was not Russia which originally sponsored the Zionist plan to partition Palestine. Russia always managed to keep the United States out front in the race to encourage Zionist aggression in Palestine. Russia slyly allowed the United States to be the one to "use the whip" on the smaller states in the United Nations to black-jack them into voting for the partition of Palestine. In all these proceedings in the United Nations Russia slyly kept quiet. Russia at that time did no more than vote affirmatively to support the United States-sponsored Zionist's Palestine partition plan. For it the United States was then using every questionable form of international bribery and blackmail to push it through the United Nations General Assembly. The United States was successful in "delivering" the contract which the Zionist high-command had demanded from the administration, in return for Zionist political support and "other valuable considerations". However, this very same act lost for the United States the respect, the esteem and the confidence of these more than one billion people. Their faith in the integrity, the fairness, the honesty and the justice of the United States was destroyed then and there.

donesia, with a total population of two out of every three human beings in this world, quickly registered the full measure of their contempt to this betrayal by the United States. Each one of these nations represented in the United Nations, in every case voted against this United States-sponsored Zionist plan for Palestine partition. The representatives of these nations, and these peoples saw, with their own eyes, how a sinister secret group could force the United States into becoming a willing party to an illegal, inhuman, unjust and dishonest international adventure. They saw with their own eyes, that under similar circumstances, there was no hope for themselves, if they should ever be compelled, at some future time, to rely upon the integrity of the United States. In view of this disgraceful performance by the United States in the Palestine situation, it is difficult to imagine that these nations would ever plunge their people into a destructive war, in order to preserve, and impose upon this world an ideology which ignores and betrays all human rights and international justice. They saw with their own eyes, the heritage of their brothers in Palestine bartered away in the United Nations under the sponsorship of the United States, in payment by the administration in Washington of its political debts to the Zionists in the United States. "Sic gloria transit."

Russia had assured United States politicians that Russia would vote in the United Nations to support the United States-sponsored Zionist plan for the partition of Palestine. The support by Russia, and her five "Charlie McCarthy" satellite states, for this plan, assured the United States that it would obtain enough votes in the United Nations to insure victory for the vigorous campaign the United States had conducted there on behalf of its Zionist masters. Thus Russia at once was rewarded with the most successful outcome for the strategy which she had used. The United States was held responsible, by nations favorable to the Arabs, for the "recommendation" by the United Nations General Assembly, of the United States-sponsored Zionist plan to partition Palestine. The Arab world, the Moslem world, and all the peoples of Asia and Africa, as a single voice, expressed their resentment to this betrayal of the Arabs by the United States. Russia thus drove the first nail into the coffin of United States and Near, Middle and Far East solidarity. Since that mournful day, Russia has left no stone unturned to instigate and incite the United States into giving increasingly active and substantial support to Zionist aggression in Palestine. Russia will never rest satisfied until every nation in North Africa, the Near East, Middle East, and Far East come to regard the United States as their common enemy. By the use of brilliant and effective international strategy, inside and outside of the United Nations, Russia is increasingly forcing the United States to earn the hatred and the enmity which these more than a billion people are now developing toward the United States.

By the use of great cunning and generalship in the Palestine situation, Russia will shortly drive the last nail into the coffin of the centuries-long friendship between the peoples of the United States and the peoples of North Africa, Asia Minor and Asia. When the day arrives that Russia can be sure that this is an accomplished fact, Russia, without any loss of time, will extend her control and influence westward in Europe and eastward in Asia, without fear or hesitation regarding the attitude of the United States. Russia can feel perfectly free to move in any way she desires, in any part of the world, when the United States can no longer regard as her allies, and depend upon, the nations which form the "underbelly" of Europe and Asia. In the very recent past Russia has capably demonstrated how well, and how often, she can turn international somersaults when it serves her purpose. It would not surprise many highly-placed persons to see Russia soon take the place of the United States, politically and economically, in North Africa, Asia Minor and Asia. When that has happened, all Europe and Asia will fall into the lap of Russia like a plum. There can be no other logical consequence after Russia has secured for herself, by the political acumen demonstrated in the Palestine situation, economic control of the immense and important natural and human resources of those continents. Russia will then have available unlimited reserves of oil, rubber, tin, copper, and other vital raw materials, all of which Russia now lacks. It will not be long thereafter before Russia will dominate the entire world.

Of what crime against international justice and human rights is the United States guilty, to deserve this form of malignant enmity from these long-friendly peoples? The evidence of our guilt is abundant. Our ill-advised administration in Washington obligated the United States to use its political resources and its tremendous international political power, as an ally of the Zionists, to obtain from the innocent, defenseless and law-abiding Arabs in Palestine, their homeland for the past thirteen centuries. Every American worthy of that name, to the last man, would be proud to die fighting in the defense of his homeland, against the very kind of aggression in Palestine which our own government is now engaged in aiding and abetting.

In 1918 the population of Palestine consisted of 93 per cent native Arabs and 7 per cent native Jews. (The native Jews at that time had nearly all been natives in Palestine for countless centuries.) At about this time, a secret arrangement was entered into in London, between the British Government, and the representatives of the Jews then inhabitants of Russia. Its terms obligated the British to transplant these Jews from Russia into Palestine. The Arabs in Palestine were never consulted regarding this proposed mass migration of millions of Jews into their country from Russia. To carry out this conspiracy with the Jews, the British installed an army of one-hundred thousand soldiers in Palestine to overpower any resistance by the native Palestinian Arabs. The independence of Palestine had been guaranteed to the Arabs, by the British, in 1915. The League of Nations, in 1919, also recognized the independence of the Palestinian Arabs, in Article 22, of the Covenant of the League of Nations. In 1921, the British were duly appointed by the League of Nations as the trustee for Palestine, to "give administrative aid and assistance", temporarily, as clearly stated in the League of Nations Covenant creating the trusteeship, until self-government could be organized by the Arabs in Palestine. Instead of carrying out its obligations to the people of Palestine, the British proceeded, during the twenty-five years since that time, to force into Palestine against the vehement opposition, and continuing protests, of the native Arab population, more than six-hundred thousand Jews, almost exclusively from Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Rumania and other countries of eastern Europe. The British employed their army of 100,000 soldiers in Palestine to force these six hundred thousand Jews into Palestine, despite the continuing Arab remonstrances that, as a nation, they possessed the exclusive and inalienable right to control immigration into their homeland. Pursuant to the conspiracy between the British and the Jews, the British planned not to withdraw her army from Palestine, nor to allow the people of Palestine to govern themselves, until the British had forced into Palestine so many additional Jews that the total of these immigrant Jews would outnumber the native Palestinian Arabs in voting strength, for the elections which were to be held some day. By this most illegal method, the British would have succeeded in purloining Palestine from its rightful Arab owners, and converting it into a state controlled by and for the immigrant Jews.

The trouble in Palestine today is all due to this brazen attempt by the British, to rob the Arabs in Palestine of their internationally recognized right to live as a free nation, and to exist as an independent sovereign state. For selfish, strategic, both political and economic, international considerations, the British had entered into this conspiracy with the Jews for converting Palestine into a pro-British, non-Arab, and sovereign state for Jews. The Arabs were to be reduced, by this conspiracy, to the status of a political and economic minority in the country which had been their homeland for more than one-thousand three-hundred years. During this long period the Arabs had owned, occupied, cultivated and governed their homeland. The Arabs resisted this contemptible conspiracy between the British and the Jews with all their vigor and with the very limited means of defense at their disposal.

But the British, in recent years, found themselves in Palestine in the position of a nut in a nut-cracker. In London, the important Jews, politically and financially, were putting great pressure upon the British government to deliver Palestine to the Jews. The Arabs, in Palestine, at the same time were demanding that the British leave the country, and turn Palestine back to them in keeping with their obligations under the trusteeship agreement. The Arabs were also demanding that the British at once cease forcing additional quantities of immigrant Jews into Palestine. The British, however, continued to violate their obligations and to ignore their responsibilities to the Arabs in Palestine. Recent events compelled the British to admit that they could proceed no longer with their betrayal of the Arabs. The British were compelled then to seek elsewhere for a solution of the problem which they had created for themselves in Palestine. And this they did quickly.

As soon as the British made public that they intended to abandon their conspiracy with the Jews for their conquest of Palestine, the Jew went bezerk. The Jews in Palestine since that moment have waged such relentless guerrilla warfare against the terror-stricken British, that the British made a quick decision to pull out of Palestine quickly and completely. The British however, lacked the character, or the courage, or both, to transfer the administration thereof to the existing British "Administration of Palestine", to a legal Palestinian "Government of Palestine", as the British were required to do by the terms of the League of Nations trusteeship agreement. It planned for rule by natives in Palestine. Instead of doing so, the British "passed the buck" to the United Nations and invited the United Nations to "recommend a future form of government for Palestine." This step by the British was treason to their trust. The British chose in this manner to risk dishonoring themselves, by violating their international responsibilities rather than to expose themselves to political and economic reprisals by world-wide frustrated, fanatic Jews. The British, during the thirty years they had been in Palestine, had already enjoyed a taste of the tremendous power and influence of world-Jewry. The British today fear the wrath of world-Jewry more than any other force on the face of this earth.

It is a fact that has been well aired in our Congress, that high-ranking Jews in political, financial and commercial circles in the United States have exerted powerful pressure upon the highest elected and appointed officials in our government, to force the delegation of the United States, in the U. N., to compel many unwilling nations to vote, "under the whip", for the Palestine partition plan worked out by the Zionist high command. The enormity and the implications of this shocking scandal caused the Hon. Lawrence H. Smith to state in Congress on December 18, 1947 as follows:

"When the second session of the Eightieth Congress convenes I propose to offer a resolution which would authorize a full and complete investigation of the acts of public officials and private citizens in this lobby for the partition of Palestine. The Congress of the United States is charged with knowledge that a considerable lobby exerted pressure. If the United Nations Security Council attempts to implement this partition decree a war of annihilation will result."

The Honorable Ed Gossett, of Texas, one of the outstanding members of Congress, had the following to say regarding the day upon which our top officials in Washington issued instructions, to our delegates in the United Nations, that they must secure enough votes, under any circumstances, to insure favorable action by the United Nations for the Zionist's Palestine partition plan. It is well known that the administration in Washington gave its pledge, to the Zionist leaders in New York City, to surely "deliver" enough votes to them. About this, Congressman Gossett made this direct statement;

"Saturday was one of the blackest days in American history. America is responsible for the partition of Palestine and the creation of a sovereign Jewish State. She has perhaps planted the seeds for World War III."

Let us call a spade a spade. The United States is now giving its official support to the armed insurrection in Palestine by a minority of the population there. This minority consists of the immigrant Jews in Palestine who were transplanted there, during the past thirty years, from countries in eastern Europe, by the British. They were only able to enter the country, against the violent opposition of the native Arab population, with the protective assistance of the one-hundred thousand soldiers stationed in Palestine by the British for that purpose. This armed insurrectionist minority is made up of the identical immigrant Jews who left their homeland in Europe to seek security and opportunity in Palestine. This armed insurrectionist minority now demands that more than one-half of Palestine shall be amputated, and, with force if needs be, made a nationalistic, independent, sovereign state for Jews. At this moment, the United States is pouring hundreds of millions of dollars into China, Greece, Korea, and Germany, to prevent the partition of these countries by armed insurrectionist minorities. The United States follows this foreign policy in keeping with its traditions, or with its obligations as a member of United Nations, or both. In these countries, the armed insurrectionist minorities are sections of the native populations, and not recently-arrived immigrants.

The strategic importance in the United States elections, of those votes controlled by the Zionist high-command, and the tremendous campaign contributions extracted from Zionist partisans, for the political party, and for candidates who are willing to follow Zionist "suggestions", requires an explanation. The Zionist controlled vote in the U. S. is the balance of power. It decides Republican or Democratic victory in the national elections. That vote swings the elections in the most important five states. The Zionist partisan vote in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Massachusetts and California is the factor which determines whether the 151 electoral votes shall be cast for the Republican or the Democratic candidate for President. These 151 electoral votes are 35 per cent of the total 432 electoral votes for the entire forty-eight states. The 151 electoral votes, which the Zionists can "deliver" to a presidential candidate, will determine who is to be the President of the United States. This simple fact will explain why all candidates who wish to remain in the White House, or who wish to move into the White House, must come to an understanding with the Zionist high-command.

The Zionists spend untold millions to elect the candidates, to all offices, who take orders from them and do their bidding. The Zionists spend untold millions to punish the candidates who prefer instead to serve the interests and the welfare of all the people of the United States. One case may be sufficient to illustrate this serious situation. Senator Revercomb of West Virginia was recently responsible for the passage in Congress of an immigration law which will permit the entry of an additional 200,000 persons displaced from their homes in Europe by the war. Of the 800,000 persons in these displaced persons camps, only 200,000 are Jews and 600,000 are Christians. But of the 200,000 Jews, 185,000 left their homes in communist-controlled countries behind the iron curtain only after the termination of the war. These reached the displaced-persons camps with the assistance of the American-financed "underground railroad". Senator Revercomb was instructed by the Zionist lobby in Washington to alter the terms of this immigration law in order to make it possible for these ineligible Jews to enter the United States under this new legislation. In justice to the original purpose for which this immigration law was intended, Senator Revercomb refused to comply with the instructions of the Zionist lobby. As a consequence, Senator Revercomb has now been branded as an "anti-Semite" by the Zionist partisans. The Zionist high-command is now concentrating its forces in West Virginia upon the election of the candidate for United States Senate running against Sen. Revercomb for reelection to United States Senate on the Republican ticket. The extract from a letter recently received from West Virginia describes the Zionist pressure to defeat Senator Revercomb for reelection. The writer of this letter is one of the leading industrialists of the country whose home and interests are situated in West Virginia. It would therefore expose him to reprisal if his name were made public. In his letter he states:

"The New York Zionists are making a fight against Senator Revercomb in West Virginia because of his position on the immigration question.

His opponent is considered to be a splendid tool of labor Zionist socialist movement and the New York Zionists have claimed they will spend $100,000 against Revercomb in West Virginia and Mr. Dewey is afraid to come into West Virginia to speak for him."

The perverted concept of justice and equity at present being displayed by our government's officials in the Palestine situation is nothing less than depraved. Our nation's leaders are acting as if they believed that the thief who steals an automobile becomes its rightful and legal owner when he "proclaims" that he is using the stolen automobile as a taxi-cab, and that the thief should be provided with protection by the police to prevent any interference by the rightful and legal owner with the profitable operation of the stolen automobile by the thief. That is the policy the United States is employing and advocating in the Palestine situation. The immigrant Jews, who forced their way into Palestine only with the assistance of an army of 100,000 British soldiers, are now seeking to steal a large part of Palestine from its rightful and legal owners, and to "proclaim" it as their sovereign state. The thieves are now demanding the protection of the armed forces of the world in order that they may enjoy the profitable employment of their stolen territory in security and safety without interference from the rightful and legal owners. It is difficult to believe that true American citizens will for long permit the Zionist-controlled politicians to continue to degrade the good-name of the United States by the dishonorable use of its incontestable international influence, to force this un-American crime against international justice and human rights down the throats of the innocent, defenseless and peaceful law-abiding Arabs.

It can do no harm at all if the President of the United States skips the Declaration of Independence, the Preamble to the Constitution of the United States, the Monroe Doctrine, President Wilson's Fourteen Points and the Atlantic Charter. Let him only refresh his recollection about what he himself recently stated as the foreign policy of the United States. President Truman, in 1947, in his "Message of the President of the United States on the State of the Union", declared to Congress the foreign policy of this government in no uncertain language. President Truman stated;

"We shall approve no territorial changes in any friendly part of the world unless they accord with the freely expressed wishes of the people concerned. We believe in the eventual return of sovereign rights and self-government to all peoples who have been deprived of them by force. We believe that all peoples who are prepared for self-government should be permitted to choose their own form of government by their own freely expressed choice, without interference from any foreign source. That is true in Europe, in Asia, in Africa, as well as in the western hemisphere. We shall refuse to recognize any government imposed upon any nation by the force of any foreign power. THAT IS OUR FOREIGN POLICY."

But the foreign policy of the United States today in the Palestine situation is in complete contradiction to what President Truman stated in 1947.

Another convincing illustration of the extent of Zionist control over our foreign policy occurred on September 23, 1948, in Paris, when Secretary of State Marshall addressed the meeting there of the United Nations General Assembly. Secretary of State Marshall "warned", using his own words, the delegates of the fifty-two nations assembled there as follows;

"We (United States) will not compromise essential principles. We will under no circumstances barter away the rights and freedoms of other peoples."

Almost in the very same breath, Secretary of State Marshall also stated that it was the desire of the United States, that the territory in Palestine, which the Jews were attempting to steal from its rightful and legal owners by means of a U.S.A.-financed armed insurrection, and to "proclaim" as their sovereign state, should now be admitted into the United Nations as one of its legally created, respected member nations.

But, contrary to all justice and equity, our administration in Washington still feels it can be generous to its Zionist supporters, with territory seven-thousand miles away belonging to somebody else, as the "valuable consideration" for the political support of the Zionist vote on election day, and "other valuable considerations".

In the year 1915, at the time when the British, and her allies, were suffering crushing defeat by Germany, Austria-Hungary and Turkey in the first World War, the British soon came to the conclusion that victory against Germany was not possible unless the Arabs could be induced to enter the war on the side of the British. History has since then confirmed the fact that this participation by the Arabs made victory a certainty, and far less costly in the expenditure of human lives and material wealth. In 1915 the Arab nations were a self-governing state within the Turkish Empire, and had been for about four-hundred years. As an ally of Germany, the Turkish Empire was at war with the British. But the Arabs had been planning for many years to withdraw from the Turkish Empire. The British knew of this and, proceeded to capitalize upon this Arab aspiration to shift, Arab military support from Turkey to herself. Pursuant to this plan, the British in 1915 promised the Arabs that if they would abandon Turkey, and enter the war against Germany as an ally of the British, that the British would agree to unconditionally recognize Arab independence after the defeat of Germany. The following are a few of the many official assurances made by the British to the Arabs;

"We confirm to you the terms of Lord Kitchener's message in which it was stated clearly our desire for the independence of Arabia and its inhabitants—the sympathy-of Great Britain towards the aspirations of her friends the Arabs—freeing of the Arab peoples from the Turkish yoke. The Government of Great Britain, as I have already informed you, are ready to give you all guarantees of assistance and support within their power to the Arab Kingdom. I am further directed by the Government of Great Britain to inform you that you may rest assured that Great Britain has no intention of concluding any peace in terms of which the freedom of the Arab peoples from German and Turkish domination does not form an essential condition."

During the 1914, 1915 and 1916 years of the first World War, the Jews thought the world, and particularly in Russia, were generally pro-German. World-Jewry did not desire to support the war against Germany then because Russia was one of the allied countries fighting Germany. World-Jewry hesitated to give its assistance to win the war against Germany because it would strengthen Russia. The tension between world-Jewry and the Czarist Russian government was greatly strained owing to the treatment of the Jews in Russia by the Czarist governments for a long period of time. In a desperate attempt to shift the support of world-Jewry from Germany to the Allies, the British did not hesitate to knowingly and willingly double-cross the Arabs. As the price for stopping support of world-Jewry for Germany, and gaining the support of world-Jewry for the British and her allies, the representatives of world-Jewry meeting, in London, demanded that the British agree to make Palestine a nationalist sovereign state for Jews after the war. Remembering their agreement with the Arabs, the British at first refused. Owing to the emergency, the British were forced to agree to an ambiguous understanding. This mutually misleading understanding was then put into writing. The entire understanding is set forth in a letter dated November 2, 1917, more than two years after the 1915 agreement between the British and the Arabs. The Arabs were neither consulted nor informed about this secret understanding. The understanding, is a letter to Lord Rothschild, the top-ranking Zionist in the world at that time, from Arthur Balfour, who signed the letter for the British government as a member of the British Cabinet at the time. The Zionists have made that letter famous under the name of the "Balfour Declaration", but they had never given the contents any publicity. The Zionists have claimed for the past thirty years that the "Balfour Declaration" was a legal and valid agreement by which the British gave Palestine to the Jews to become their national sovereign state after the war. The British have denied that it was so intended. The letter itself will confirm the fraudulent nature of the Zionist's interpretation of this letter. Only a criminal or a lunatic can claim that its contents establish a legal or moral right for the invasion and conquest of Palestine, from the Arabs. This is the famous letter; advertised by the Zionists as the "Balfour Declaration";

Foreign Office, Nov. 2, 1917

Dear Lord Rothschild,

I have much pleasure in conveying to you, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, the following declaration of sympathy with Jewish Zionist aspirations which have been submitted to, and approved by, the Cabinet.

"His Majesty's Government view with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement is object, IT BEING CLEARLY UNDERSTOOD THAT NOTHING SHALL BE DONE WHICH MAY PREJUDICE THE CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS RIGHTS OF THE EXISTING NON-JEWISH COMMUNITIES IN PALESTINE, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country."

I should be grateful if you would bring this declaration to the knowledge of the Zionist Federation. Yours, (signed) Arthur Balfour.

In the year 1921, at the time the League of Nations was created, the fifty-two leading nations of the world who created it, including the British, in Article 22, of the League of Nations Covenant, its constitution, unequivocally and unconditionally confirmed their recognition of the independence of Palestine, and of the other Arab nations, in the following terms;

"Certain communities formerly belonging to the Turkish Empire, have reached a stage of development where their existence as independent nations can be provisionally recognized, subject to the rendering of administrative advice and assistance by a Mandatory (Trustee) until such time as they are able to stand alone."

The League of Nations thereafter entered into a written trusteeship agreement with the British based upon Article 22, quoted above. Under the terms of this trusteeship agreement the British were given the temporary administration of Palestine. In simple language, this trusteeship agreement was an employment contract by which the League of Nations hired the British to act for a short while as administrator in Palestine. The very first paragraph of that trusteeship agreement again confirms the temporary character of the British administration of Palestine, and the international recognition of the independence of Palestine by the fifty-two nations in the League of Nations. The Zionists, have also given much publicity during the past twenty-five years to this trusteeship agreement, known as the "Mandate for Palestine." The Zionists have claimed that the "Mandate for Palestine" established the right of unlimited immigration of Jews into Palestine and the right to turn Palestine into a nationalist sovereign state for Jews. The falsity of this Zionist claim is demonstrated by the opening paragraph of the "Mandate for Palestine". That opening paragraph affirms that the reason for this temporary British administration was to carry out the purpose of the League of Nations Covenant, Article 22, quoted above. The primary responsibility of the temporary British trustee, administering in Palestine, is clearly determined by the first paragraph, which reads;

"Whereas the Principle Allied Powers have agreed, FOR THE PURPOSE OF GIVING EFFECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE COVENANT OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS, (see quotation of Article 22 in previous paragraph), to entrust to a Mandatory (Trustee), selected by the Powers, the administration of THE TERRITORY OF PALESTINE."

For the past twenty-five years the Zionists have been justifying their invasion and conquest of Palestine and their rights under the "Balfour Declaration", the "Mandate for Palestine." The illegal, fraudulent and misleading nature of these Zionist claims have recently been exposed to the world for the first time. This disclosure of the truth forced the Zionists to seek a more legitimate basis for their invasion and conquest of Palestine. Their cunning conceived the conspiracy to prostitute the United Nations for their purpose. Accordingly, the Zionist high-command inaugurated a policy of brutal terrorist atrocities and inhuman guerilla warfare against the British in Palestine. This uncivilized, barbaric and outrageous terrorism soon forced the British to appeal to the United Nations. This was exactly what the Zionist high-command had sought. The British only asked United Nations that it "recommend a future form of government for Palestine". Thereupon the international Zionists at the highest levels conspired with the dishonest representatives of enough corrupt governments to make the General Assembly of United Nations ask of its members, "to adopt", but only if they so desired, as their official policy in the Palestine situation, the Zionist's partition plan for Palestine, as the "future form of government for Palestine".

The approval by the United Nations of the Zionist's plan for Palestine partition, on November 29th, 1947, was the result of Zionist pressure on the United States to "use the whip" on nations financially dependent upon the United States for their survival. The recommendation of the Zionist's Palestine partition plan was advertised by the Zionists as a "decision" of United Nations. Unlimited Zionist millions were devoted to advertising this untruth about the United Nations' so-called "decision". From subsidized church pulpits, over controlled radio broadcasting chains, in newspapers ruled by Zionist advertisers and wherever their power extended, the Zionists asked the world to believe that United Nations had the authority to force the Arabs to accept Palestine partition as a legal international decree. But that is completely contrary to the facts.

The nations which created United Nations, conferred upon it only three limited powers; firstly, to maintain INTERNATIONAL peace by suppressing INTERNATIONAL aggression; and secondly, to demand INTERNATIONAL respect for the right of nations to determine for themselves their own form of government; and thirdly, to solve international humanitarian problems by international cooperation. The creators of United Nations specifically provided that United Nations cannot interfere in the DOMESTIC affairs of any nation. The armed insurrection in Palestine by a revolutionist minority of immigrant Jews is a DOMESTIC affair. There are also at the present time armed insurrections by revolutionist minorities of natives in China, Greece, Siam, Burma and Guatemala. The United Nations is taking no action to partition these countries. Some day an armed insurrection by a revolutionist minority group may occur in the United States. Would the loyal population consent to the partition of the United States by the United Nations as a means of putting an end to the fighting? Partition of a nation to stop the warfare forced upon it by an armed insurrection, is to actually invite revolutions by minorities. If the United Nations recognizes the right of minority groups, within existing nations, to "proclaim" themselves independent sovereign states by the means of armed insurrection, and United Nations partitions a nation to preserve peace, hell will be let loose on this earth. In the mean time, this country cannot endanger its security by supporting such a policy in Palestine. If we do, we may be inviting war, —and what is worse, we may be inviting defeat!

SUBJECT: "COMMON SENSE", formerly "THINK WEEKLY"
 CONDE MC GINLEY, EDITOR
 SECURITY MATTER - X
 Bureau File 105-9521

Reference is made to Philadelphia teletype dated July 12, 1949, captioned, "NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE, INTERNAL SECURITY - X", indicating that CONDE MC GINLEY, Editor, "Common Sense", Union, New Jersey, was arrested on an unknown date, handcuffed and dragged around for forty minutes, not allowed to use the phone and taken to headquarters with wrists swollen and bleeding.

There is enclosed for the information of the Bureau a copy of "Common Sense" for June 15, 1949. There is also enclosed a form letter from MC GINLEY on the stationery of "Common Sense" which gives MC GINLEY'S account of the above mentioned incident.

b7C b7D

According to an informant of this office, [REDACTED] of [REDACTED] who periodically furnishes information regarding the activities of MC GINLEY, two men from the Union County, New Jersey, Sheriff's Office attempted to attach MC GINLEY'S property on Friday, June 17th. MC GINLEY considered the attachment as a trick to get his files on the part of his enemies, the Jews and Communists. MC GINLEY put up a struggle and was arrested on a charge of assault and battery against an officer.

b2 b7D

For the information of the Philadelphia Office, the account of the incident furnished by [REDACTED] on July 8, 1949, is a summary of the most dramatic phrases used by MC GINLEY in his account of the incident which appears in the June 15th issue of "Common Sense". The trial referred to, it is believed, relates to the assault and battery charge.

No active investigation has been conducted in this case and none will be made in the absence of specific Bureau instructions.

Soviet-styled Raid Fails to Stop Paper

The American Politburo

By Merwin K. Hart, President
National Economic Council, Inc.
In Letter No. 214

Our betrayal of China marked the end of our long-time policy of the Open Door in China, which, together with the Monroe Doctrine, had long been the cornerstone of American foreign policy.

If it had been in our vital interest to betray China, some argument, however ignominious, might have been raised by some in its favor. But it was in any sense in our interest. It was in disregard of every American interest.

The same alien element forced us to adopt the policy of "unconditional surrender" toward both Germany and Japan, although such unconditional surrender resulted in the practical annihilation of Germany and such horrible destruction as at Hiroshima and Nagasaki. This policy removed both Germany and Japan which otherwise could have been reconstructed and made effective barriers to Communism.

It ordered the American army to retire over 100 miles over land taken by our troops from the Germans, in order that Soviet Russia might occupy Berlin and much of the best of Germany. This like other travesties and treacheries has never been explained.

This alien element fathered the Nuremberg Trials, vehement and vindictive in their inception and in their carrying out, and which, should the United States ever be defeated in war, will be the precedent for the hanging of every important American official, from the President down. It led to the betrayal by us of the leaders of a huge Russian military force who surrendered to American troops and who were turned over by us to certain punishment at the hands of Soviet Russia.

This same influence led us to the setting up of the United Nations—an utter failure so far as any interest of the American people is concerned, but entirely understandable as the tool of the internationalists.

America, A Puppet of Stalin In Regard to Spain

This same alien influence persuaded the United Nations, this time at the instance of Stalin himself, to call upon the United States and other Governments to withdraw Ambassadors from Spain. Yet Spain is the one large country on Continental Europe that has defeated Communism and held it under complete control. She would be the strongest ally the United States could have in Europe.

This same alien influence permitted or ordered the destruction by ruthless force of literally billions of dollars of American military materiel, including airplane engines, precision instruments and even watches. It sold at the merest fraction of value or gave away other billions of materiel. And much of this materiel clearly found its way into the hands of Soviet Russia. Some of this materiel is at this mo-

Zionist Leader Maneuvers Confiscation of Office Files—Editor Manhandled in Attempt to Reach Telephone—Office Girl Flees in Terror as Raiders Strike Without Knowledge of Union Police

W. Henry MacFarland, Jr.

Acting under the power of a tricked judgment for $1700, Robert Dvorin, prominent Zionist leader of Linden, New Jersey, maneuvered a surprise raid on June 17th, upon the office of the Editor of this newspaper, Conde McGinley. The raid climaxed one phase of a three year battle, in which a combination of Communist, Zionist and World Federationist forces have sought the paper's destruction.

The phase of the campaign with which the raid is connected involves long and complicated maneuverings, on the part of a Jewish faction hostile to COMMON SENSE, to obtain a sufficient degree of control over its one-time Christian printer to make further business with his firm impossible. When this goal was reached, in 1947, the faction engaged in practices which caused Mr. McGinley to dispute its total billings. A long legal battle ensued, and is still in progress.

With another court hearing scheduled within a week of the date in question, at which the case might have produced a fair and just decision, the hostile faction moved to active force. On the afternoon of June 17th, a Friday, two Jews, later identified as Alfred Greenberg and Harry Coplon, Union County Deputy Sheriffs, walked unannounced thru the door of the building which serves as the headquarters for COMMON SENSE. Without identifying themselves, without producing badges or other credentials, and without performing lawful service of any kind of writ, they informed Mr. McGinley that they had come to execute a levy, and that his personal as well as business property was to be removed from the premises. So menacing was the approach of these men, and so suspicious were their actions, that a girl worker, on duty at the time of their entrance, fled from the building in terror.

When his questions obtained no satisfactory explanation of their presence, McGinley started for a telephone located in the adjoining room. When he was followed by one of the raiders, he turned about and walked toward the door to the street. Realizing that he was alone, without witnesses or protection in case of assault, he had decided to use an outside telephone for contacting his attorney and co-workers.

As McGinley approached the door, the man later identified as Coplon stepped in front of him, as if to block his exit. As you or I would do under the same circumstances, McGinley pushed him aside in passing. Greenberg, still without divulging his identity, stepped from his position at the door, where he had motioned to Attorney Dvorin, and declared that McGinley was now under arrest.

This year the ADL is more ambitious and has had its report for the year 1948 published in book form by Doubleday & Co., under the title HOW SECURE THESE RIGHTS? The advertising material on the jacket of the book states: "This book was a year in the making. Its documented facts and thought-provoking conclusions are the results of research and investigations which utilized the nationwide resources of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith." The book is voluminous in its listings of organizations, publications, and individuals which it deems "hate-mongers" etc. Among those listed are Merwin K. Hart, Upton Close, Joseph P. Kamp, Rep. Heaven Receives a Saint

(Editor's Note: If I have any good qualities, I am indebted to several who took the trouble and pains to influence me in the early years of my life. I am particularly grateful to a wonderful mother, kind and humble, but courageous in all respects, referred to by many as a saintly, sweet woman who benefited all with whom she came in contact. She, with three Catholic Sisters were the first to teach in Indian territory, and made dresses to replace the blankets worn by the Indian girls. My mother, Katherine Fritch McGinley died at the age of 91, on April 23rd, and as a tribute to her loving memory, I quote below the remarks of the Priest at her funeral.)

"He that shall persevere unto the end, he shall be saved." (Matthew, Chapter 10, verse 22)

Perseverance is a grace, a grace not given to everyone, a grace which God does not give unless it is asked for. "Ask and ye shall receive. Seek and ye shall find. Knock and it shall be opened unto you."

In any life we always have the cross. Our beloved deceased, here, lived a long and rich life. She learned to carry the cross. She acquired patience in carrying her crosses. She learned to love the cross. She said her morning and evening prayers, her grace before and after meals. She meditated daily. She knew that there is a God. She knew that there are three divine Persons in God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost; and that the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity came down and became Man.

She could say, with the great Saint Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. As to the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord the just Judge will render to me in that day," for I believe in the resurrection of the body: one day this body will rise glorious and immortal from the tomb, to be reunited with my soul, to enjoy God for all eternity.

As she spent this long span on our earth she has given us a great example of what a grand thing it is to think. We need more thinkers. Our whole land is suffering now because so many do not think.

She sang. From the time she learned to speak she began singing; she was singing after her ninetieth year; she sang for hours on her last day on earth.

She wrote poetry. And by reason of the thought which she has expressed in this poem that I have had the privilege of reading, I should like to read it this morning. She has called it

He held, amidst the most tumultuous rabble.
The hour before the greatest victory ever won
Was spent midst jeers and tortures of the evil.

With loyal words and deeds of love, death cannot sever;

And, seemingly, of every gift of heaven.

The hour in Gethsemane—and even on the cross

Perceive His graces, strength and love but dim.

Behold the words of everlasting bliss:

By her life of patience and perseverance she has won her eternal rest. I will remember her in my Mass each morning. You will remember her too. If she is not in need of your prayers, they will be applied to those who are in need of them.

You have a worthy example in her. If you will follow that example, you too will hear the words, "Come ye blessed of my Father; Possess the kingdom I have prepared for thee."

Socialized Medicine

Oscar R. Ewing is head of the Federal Security Administration and one of the biggest promoters of "socialized medicine" as a first move toward regimentation of the medical profession and all who need medical treatment.

Although he draws a salary of $12,000.00 per year (plus ????? expenses) he forced the (government supported) Saint Elizabeth Hospital in The District of Columbia to provide him with a man cook for some kind of special dining establishment which he maintains in his office building (probably at government expense for food etc.) but to keep this cook on the hospital payroll. In other words, not having any place in his budget for a cook, he stole this cook's salary from the hospital inmates—whose patients, at least for the greater part, are insane and need every nickel for attendants which can be scratched together.

In January or February of 1949 (and maybe also at other times earlier) Ewing spent several days undergoing treatment in the hospital of The Coast Guard and Merchant Marine (at Bethesda, Maryland?) at government expense, and illegally. Namely he again stole from the government and people of the United States the cost of his bed, board, and treatment there.

During March, Ewing spent some three or four weeks again in the same hospital with a shift of three nurses in attendance around the clock, as well as an operation, bed, board, and medicines etc. After being exposed by Fulton Lewis, Jr. this crook announced that he had paid $9.50 per day for his treatment. Even if he paid such, however, after his fraud had been exposed he paid only a small part of what he actually cost the taxpayers;—the salaries of three nurses alone is much more.

As head of the Federal Security Administration Ewing is custodian of the Social Security fund (old age pensions, etc.) which is deducted from workers payrolls, and which should now amount to some eleven to thirteen billion dollars. Actually, according to one of Fulton Lewis, Jr.'s recent broadcasts, the only money actually in this fund at the moment is that currently being paid in by persons covered by the fund. The entire dozen or so billions paid in over the years since the Security Administration was established has been spent on salaries of the employees of the Administration or else for other expenses of government not even related to Social Security, much for propaganda to perpetuate the New Deal.

Yet this same Oscar Ewing is the man who would socialize medicine under his administration. Why does no member of Congress call this fiend to accountability?

ment being used by the Soviets to conquer China.

Ex-President Hoover in his Report on the military budget said:

"The question of what became of the tanks is only a part of the broader question of what became of the vast quantities of war material on hand at the end of hostilities. The Army has stated that it has material sufficient to equip only 18 divisions, although at the end of the war it had some 89 fully equipped divisions and great additional quantities of material in the pipe line. Disposition of easily replaceable material is readily understood; but loss of complicated, difficult-to-produce military equipment is another matter, especially as the military were put on notice six months after the end of the war as to the seriousness of the international situation."

Frank Hanighen in the weekly supplement entitled, "Not Merely Gossip," indicates that the scandal of the disappearance of this materiel may exceed that of Pearl Harbor.

Who but treasonable conspirators against America could have ordered it destroyed? UNRRA

This same alien influence was back of UNRRA, $600,000,000 of whose funds were given to the communist Government of Yugoslavia, and other funds used to build up Soviet Russia herself. It was back of the surreptitious and illegal admission into the United States of "refugees" estimated to be at least a million and a half, and possibly as many as three and a half millions. It was back of the fatuous scheme known as ERP and ECA, whereby we are giving 17 billions of the savings and natural resources of the United States to bolster up socialist governments in Britain and elsewhere.

As a result of 16 years of this alien influence in the United States, we have today a Federal debt of 250 billions and a Federal budget of nearly 42 billions, but which may reach 50 billions before the present session of Congress is over. We have laws without number to regiment the people and to supply soft, useless jobs for hundreds of thousands of bureaucrats. And we find representatives of this alien-minded element in vital and cushy jobs in every department of Government, in numbers far out of proportion to their part of the population.

And now this same alien force is demanding—

That we extend "Social Security" to 20 million more people at an added cost of several billions a year; that we adopt socialized medicine, though Britain's socialized medicine seems a failure from the standpoint both of physician and patient. That we extend the so-called reciprocal trade treaties, which in somewhat similar form have been on our statute books for fifteen years and have largely destroyed the American watch industry, and have weakened others and have been one of the principal causes of this present recession.

That we restore the iniquitous Wagner Act in place of the Taft-Hartley Act, though under the former we had a continual succession of strikes and sabotage, and under the latter we have had vastly improved conditions.

And Congress has already (authorized five and a half billion dollars for ECA but not yet appropriated), although Spain, whose friendship and good will would do more for us than any other country on Continental Europe, is still left out; and although Britain and France, the two principal beneficiaries of ECA appropriations, have not only socialized Governments and tremendous numbers of Communist Party members, but Treaties of Alliance and Mutual Assistance with Soviet Russia which, if they mean anything, would preclude them from joining with the United States against Soviet Russia. Moreover both Britain and France and other beneficiary nations are constantly shipping war materiel, paid for by the American taxpayers to the USSR.

Nationalist Actionists Joins Common Sense

PHILADELPHIA, June 1—The NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE, the organization which played so major a role in the four separate defeats administered to Communist-backed attempts to enact so-called "Fair Employment Practices" legislation in the key war industry State of Pennsylvania, today officially joined forces with COMMON SENSE, the Nation's anti-Communist Newspaper, in the inauguration of an all-out offensive against Marxism and its insidious front organizations in America.

To this end, NATIONAL PROGRESS, established by W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., Director of the League, in 1945, and serving as the League's official publication since its organization in October, 1948, announced its discontinuation and urged all of its readers to throw their entire support to COMMON SENSE. Simultaneously, William J. O'Brien, Director of the LOYAL AMERICAN GROUP, an organization of patriotic citizens acting in parallel concert with COMMON SENSE, took steps to merge his membership into the new and militant anti-Red front thus created.

The action taken represents the first major step to be taken, since the outbreak of World War II, toward a unification of the forces opposing the drift toward Marxian Socialism—the bridge to Soviet Bolshevism—in America.

Commenting on the merger, Mr. O'Brien, who will serve as National Secretary of the expanded organization, said:

"A most important, a most needed step has been taken, in the merger of the Loyal American Group and the Nationalist Action League. This move will certainly help promote and foster nationalist unity. We intend to carry on a relentless campaign against the Marxist forces in the USA."

In Philadelphia, Mr. MacFarland, the League's National Director, spoke of the unification in terms of its positive and beneficial results. "What we have managed to accomplish," he declared, "is a perfectly balanced merger of two very effective anti-Communist forces, and this in an area where the left-wingers are mainly based, and thru-out which they have shown their most menacing infiltration. America's battle against Marxism will not be waged against armed revolutionaries, but against a powerful leftist voting bloc which has already managed to place dangerous pro-Communists in public office and even more dangerous pro-Communist legislation upon our statute books. To fight this type of foe, we must rally the millions of loyal Americans who, with their votes alone, are capable of saving our Republic. I feel that our organization is capable of accomplishing just such a healthful result."

Details on the militant program to be carried out by the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE are to be covered in a page which COMMON SENSE will devote, in each issue, to its activities. Included in the program are plans for the organization of units in all eastern states during the Summer of 1949, for the increased dissemination of information regarding the triple threat of Marxism—Communism, Political Zionism and World Federationism—and the ultimate establishment of a National Voters Union, creating a pro-American bloc vote for the preservation of our Christian-based, Constitutional, Republican form of Government.

claims are fostering prejudice against Jews.

Strangely enough the book seems to ignore the world Communist menace except to denounce those who identify Jews as Communists. The ADL takes particular exception to the Major Williams—Upton Close pamphlet

Do You Believe in Common American Justice?

Do you not believe, as an American, that our Republic is in danger when an appointed official of the Administration in power can label as "subversive" a group which has distinguished itself in the fight against Communism, and then flatly refuse to grant that group any kind of hearing or review, or to inform its officers and officials of the precise nature of the wrongdoings alleged against it?

If you do, and if you believe in an American's right to oppose Administration policies without fear of such Soviet-styled reprisals, then throw your weight behind the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE in demanding that the Attorney General either grant its officials a hearing immediately, or act to publicly apologize for having circulated mis-statements concerning its activities.

THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE AND ITS USE IN THE WORLD COMMUNIST OFFENSIVE. The ADL passes off the charges that it is Communist, or even lends its support to Communists, as "ridiculous." The ADL fails to mention, however, that it contributed heavily to the legal defense of THE CHICAGO JEWISH SENTINEL and its editor and publisher J. I. Fishbein during a libel suit in Chicago less than two years ago. Fishbein is a well known champion of Stalin's Russia and of every red-tinged front organization in Chicago. The ADL also fails to mention that it once employed a well known fellow-traveler by the name of Robert Greenfield who had charge of paying off John Roy Carlson for stooging for the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH. These are facts which the ADL cannot deny and which can be proved in court if need be. The ADL plays a peculiar game. For instance, this bulletin and the AMERICAN RENAISSANCE BOOK CLUB are listed as anti-Semitic. Yet we have sold more copies of a book against Communism by the Jewish author Benjamin Gitlow than any other single book store in America. Westbrook Pegler who has recently been charged as being a vicious anti-Semite has called this book THE WHOLE OF THEIR LIVES by Mr. Gitlow the most important recent contribution on the menace of Communism in America. More and more Americans are beginning to see the vast contradictions which the ADL passes off for facts. Perhaps it would be well to recall that the budget which the ADL operated on last year was $6,500,000.00. Professional tolerance-mongering pays off. HOW SECURE THESE RIGHTS? is recommended to those Americans who wish to examine the presentation of ADL "facts" and draw their own deductions. The price of the book is $2.00 and may be ordered from the AMERICAN RENAISSANCE BOOK CLUB, P. O. Box 1316, Chicago 90, Ill.

Profit from this book is 80c per copy which will of course go toward carrying on good work.

N. A. L. Cleared By Wood Committee

WASHINGTON, May 25—In a letter addressed to his colleague, Representative John Bell Williams (D. Miss.), the Hon. John S. Wood (D. Ga.), Chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities today stated that the body which he heads does not hold the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE, publicly libeled by the U. S. Attorney General's Office on April 27th, to be either subversive or Fascist.

Acting upon a request made by the League's Director, W. Henry MacFarland, Jr., Representative Williams took steps to ascertain the possibility of his being accorded a hearing before the Committee which has for years acted as the watch-dog of American Liberty. In his reply, Chairman Wood included the COMMITTEE FOR NATIONALIST ACTION, a group preceding the establishment of the presently functioning League, as another organization not cited by the Committee as being guilty of wrongdoing.

In the meanwhile, Mr. MacFarland's plea for a full public hearing before the Justice Department was flatly rejected by the U. S. Attorney General, Tom Clark, who also refused, in a communication sent thru the Office of his Assistant, Mr. Peyton Ford, to officially define the terms "subversive" and "Fascist" as these were used in the list released on April 27th.

In an immediate reply to Clark's refusal to grant a fair review, MacFarland challenged the Attorney General to take immediate steps for the issuance of a federal warrant incorporating the allegations made, in order to bring the issue before a judge and jury and provide the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE with an opportunity of defending itself at the bar of American justice.

According to Clark and his Department, action has been taken under the terms of Executive Order No. 9835, which permits the Attorney General to brand American organizations as subversive, without granting their officers or members an opportunity to publicly refute such charges.

A request for a hearing before the President's Loyalty Review Board has thus far gone unanswered. According to Internal Security Chief, William Foley, it was the Chairman of this Board, Mr. Seth Richardson, who acted to make public, thru the press and other sources, the list stigmatizing the COMMITTEE FOR NATIONALIST ACTION and the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE.

In his latest reply to the Attorney General, Mr. MacFarland stated his belief that Mr. Clark has mis-used his powers as a Cabinet Official to libel and repress groups of Americans who are lawfully opposed to the Administration of which he, Clark, is a part

"Mass action (under Communist leadership) includes: a combination of strikes and demonstrations; a combination of strikes and armed demonstrations, and, finally, the general strike conjointly with armed insurrection against the state power of the bourgeoisie."—From the "Program of the Communist International," an official Red document published with the imprint of the Communist Party of the United States.

Raid

A struggle thereupon ensued, in which the deputies attempted to prevent the editor of COMMON SENSE from reaching a telephone. Resisting efforts to handcuff him without identifying themselves or stating their charge for arrest; McGinley was able, after a desperate effort, to reach his attorney, to whom he made his plight known. Even during this conversation, there were attempts made to interrupt his communication. One of the raiders, close enough to the mouth-piece of the telephone to be heard on the opposite end, kept asking McGinley: "Why are you making trouble for us?" The obvious intent was to convince McGinley's attorney that his client was resisting proper and lawful arrest, or interfering with the service of a writ, which was untrue.

It was not until after these actions had transpired that the Union police were notified, and not until they arrived that McGinley was finally shown the latter's badge, thereby learning that this one Jew, at least, was truly a Union County Deputy.

McGinley arrived at the police station with a previously injured wrist swollen and bleeding. This injured wrist had borne the agonizing abuse of a handcuff, at which Deputy Greenberg had for more than twenty minutes pulled and hauled in his efforts to keep McGinley from getting to a telephone.

The raid had all the appearances of a well planned and executed affair. From what follows, the reader will no doubt agree with this observer, that the purpose was not to execute a lawful levy or, as it has since been claimed, to serve a writ of execution, but rather to develop a situation in which the pretext might be found for removing McGinley from his premises, in order to exercise an unlawful search. In support of this conclusion, the following questions seem interesting:

Firstly, if the intent of the raid was to serve a writ, why did the two Jewish deputies, and the Jewish attorney under whose instructions they acted, not advise the local Union police (a customary courtesy in cases of this kind), so that one of these could have accompanied the raiding party? Then there would have been no misunderstanding.

Secondly, if the intent of the raid was to serve a writ, why did the deputies not properly identify themselves upon entering on McGinley's property, so that he might know that they represented a legal body, rather than a group determined upon harming him or damaging his property?

Thirdly, if the intent of the raid was to serve a writ, why did the deputies fail to produce it for service? As it was, they left behind a legal paper, which was found only after McGinley had returned from the police station.

Fourthly, if the intent of the writ was to seize valuable assets in satisfaction of a judgement, why did the raiders threaten to remove all personal belongings while ignoring business equipment worth hundreds of dollars, and while finally removing from the premises only a typewriter and the addressograph-correspondence files, the latter of which have cash value only to such groups as the Anti-Defamation League, the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, the Friends of Democracy, or the Soviet secret police?

Fifthly, if the intent of the raid was in the least way lawful, why did Deputy Greenberg compel McGinley to go with him to police headquarters, while permitting Deputy Coplon and attorney Dvorin who was not an officer of the law, to remain upon McGinley's premises during his absence? This action was wholly and unquestionably illegal and no doubt planned. McGinley had every right to refuse to leave the building until it was properly padlocked. It should also be noted that attorney Dvorin, who maneuvered the raid, was found upon McGinley's premises upon his return from police headquarters. With him was an unidentified Jew whom Dvorin advised to conceal his identity when McGinley asked his name. These two men, with Deputy Coplon, had free access to office files for a full 45 minutes.

As a favorable fate would have it, McGinley was not detained for the lengthy period of time upon which the raiders had possibly counted. He arrived back at his office in time to prevent any wholesale rifling of his files, which might have been accomplished had he remained absent for a longer period of time. He was also able to demand and obtain a generally itemized receipt for the equipment and files confiscated, although not in the specific detail warranted under the circumstances.

AFTERMATH

The raid was executed late on a Friday, at a time when counter-action in the courts would be rendered almost wholly impossible, due to the approaching week-end. On the following Monday, however, McGinley's attorney, John A. Matthews, Jr., of Newark, secured an injunction, restraining the Zionist, Dvorin, from causing the removal of McGinley's seized property from the safety of the Union County Court House where they are impounded.

On Tuesday evening, McGinley was officially served with a warrant charging him with having committed assault and battery upon a law-enforcement officer, and with interfering with the service of a writ and its execution.

Recalling that the alleged assault and battery and interference took place on the preceding Friday afternoon, and that the arresting officer appeared with McGinley in his custody at Union police headquarters at that time, one is compelled to ask why the deputy failed to prefer his formal charges at that hour, rather than permitting at least three days to elapse before taking this action. Serious-minded observers, noting that all four participants in the action against COMMON SENSE are Jewish, have suggested the possibility of this time having been allowed for consultation with the Anti-Defamation League, perhaps at its closely-guarded headquarters in New York City, where the future course of action may have been planned.

The warrant was served at approximately 9:30 P.M. As the planners no doubt realized, the magistrate could not be reached at such an hour, and McGinley was compelled to remain in the Union jail overnight. The following morning he was arraigned and released in the afternoon in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury, which sits next in September.

THE NEED IS GREAT

The facts in this case indicate the menace which is inherent in the determination of the Marxist foes of America to employ any and all means, fair or foul, to silence effective opposition. This latest attempt to disorganize and suppress COMMON SENSE could well prove prophetic of the kind of tactics which will one day be employed against all Americans who dare oppose the spread of Marxist ideology.

In this hour of crisis, this newspaper and its fighting editor appeal to YOU to aid in turning back the attack. The battle requires a FULL MOBILIZATION of the brains, finances and energies of every loyal citizen, for whose welfare this paper has been crusading for the past several years.

You have been given the story, and it is now for you to choose the course of action which you will take. You can sit back and do nothing, thereby dooming this battle to defeat before it fully begins, or you can rise, as an American, and stand shoulder to shoulder with the Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper, assuring an ultimate and complete victory which will materially weaken Marxist forces here in their regional stronghold, the industrial Northeast.

If you choose the latter course of action, you can easily begin in one of the following ways:

1. Purchase additional copies of this issue of COMMON SENSE, in bulk, at the rates given elsewhere. Place them in the hands of citizens who deserve to have the facts concerning this case. Ask them to join forces with you in awakening others to the dangers herein exposed.

2. Call at least three friends, from your home telephone or from a pay station, and give them an outline of this persecution. Urge these good people to obtain the full facts, by subscribing to COMMON SENSE immediately.

3. Contact your clergyman, your local police, newspapers, civic and patriotic groups, all of whom should be advised to keep in close touch with the developments in this case.

4. If you are a member of any patriotic group, lodge, church organization or labor union, present them with our story and introduce a resolution calling upon them to keep posted on future developments.

5. Your ideas are highly valued. Any suggestions which you have for prospering our fight will be welcomed. Your idea could be the one responsible for winning the major victory which must be won, in this fight, if ALL AMERICANS are not one day to suffer similar persecution.

Now, you have the facts. Much of the battle is in your hands. The best defense is offense, so act immediately to MOBILIZE yourself and other loyal citizens in dealing a SMASHING DEFEAT to those forces which would undermine the principles, laws, liberties upon which our Republic has been founded.

You have read of the purges carried out against anti-Communist leaders in Eastern Europe. When they fell, the free governments for which they fought, fell with them.

Karl Marx, a hundred years ago said in the Neue Rheinische Zeitung: "We are ruthless and want no consideration from you. When the time comes, revolutionary terrorism will not be sugar-coated . . . There is but one way of simplifying, shortening, concentrating the death agony of the old society as well as the bloody labor of the new world's birth—revolutionary terror."

CONDE MCGINLEY, Editor

Union, New Jersey

To Supporters of a Free America:

I am writing to you in a real emergency and hope you will read this letter carefully because it is important not only to the writer but to YOU personally and to the freedom you still enjoy.

Friday afternoon, June 17th, four Marxist Jews in plain clothes visited the office of COMMON SENSE, Russian style, showing no credentials nor serving any papers and demanded the entire contents of our office, my personal belongings included. When I attempted to get to the telephone, they started cursing and fighting. After a struggle, while handcuffed, I managed to get to the phone and called my lawyer and secretary. I was rushed into an awaiting car and taken to jail charged with resisting an officer and assault and battery. The plan was to whisk me away to jail so these Jews could ransack our files for confidential papers. At the jail I was promptly released and returned to the office to find the three Jews going through our records. At this time I learned that a trick judgment for a disputed printing bill had been secured. The case had not yet been tried. Was it an accident that four Marxist Jews from Elizabeth, in plain clothes, not accompanied by Union police as is customary, were chosen to raid the office of COMMON SENSE, start a fight to get me in jail so they could ransack our three-room office for correspondence and other valuable material used in exposing Marxist-Communist-Zionists and their activities???

I would like to divert for a moment to inform our readers that the bill in question dates back to 1946-1947 and as presented by the printing company is not correct, which we are prepared to prove. The accumulation of this bill was not the fault of COMMON SENSE as it was allowed with the consent of the owner at that time who instructed us to pay on account until adjustment was made. However, since that time the owner was force out of his own business by Zionist - Jews who demanded he stop publishing COMMON SENSE. In this manner they secured the account of COMMON SENSE for the sole purpose of putting us out of business which they have been trying to do for the past two years. Last night I spent in jail again - their plan is to break my spirit so that I will give up the fight. The present owners have demonstrated they are not at all interested in having the debt paid as we made various attempts to straighten out the account. On one occasion our representative was told they were not interested in a settlement as "that's a dirt sheet and should be stopped."

RECORDED - 101

Before and since that time, all printing bills amounting to approximately $30,000. and practically all other bills have been paid on a cash basis.

EX-59

To get back to the "raid" at the office of COMMON SENSE -- and that is exactly what took place as the tactics used were entirely irregular. The Anti-Defamation League (Jewish Gestapo) who are behind this and who would no doubt pay any amount to secure our records, are hell-bent on breaking up the paper and will spare no expense. I am so anxious to publish what is being done to America.

The attorney for the printing company, (also President of the Zionists of Linden, N.J.), personally supervised the affair and carefully picked out files containing valuable research information on more than a hundred Communist fronts and their leaders, and other confidential material and thousands of back issues of COMMON SENSE, and generally things of little or no selling value. Our attorney John A. Matthews, Jr. of Newark, N.J. who has made many sacrifices in our behalf, immediately secured a Court Order to impound all records removed from the office of COMMON SENSE into the custody of the Sheriff. WE CANNOT AFFORD TO PERMIT THE ENEMY TO GET AT THESE RECORDS. They were secured by typically Communist-style methods and we plead with our subscribers to come to our aid. We cannot wait for lengthy court procedures to recover our records; we cannot get out a single issue of the paper until we have these records. We must have them quickly by paying the necessary amount; then we can prosecute this case to a successful conclusion.

I would gladly give my life to stay in this fight. I have put over $12,000. in fighting Communism and have devoted three and one-half years time without one cent of compensation. Less than two months ago I turned down a $15,000. a year job. I can prove these statements. We have never been closer to success than we are at this moment, but I am now without funds and the outcome of this battle depends on YOU. We need $2,500. so our attorney can fight and we can secure our records, and we need it quickly. We must have these records back for the safety of every loyal citizen in this country who wants to keep America free.

In Hungary 6,300 Communists rule 9,000,000 Christians; in Czechoslovakia, 7,500 rule 14,000,000. In Rumania 3% rule 97%. In these countries as in Poland the rulers are Jews. It is too late in 17 countries for citizens to put up money to fight for freedom; they would be glad if they had another chance which they will never have, for Communists have never yet lost control of any country they fully took over. Rabbi Stephen Wise stated, "Some call it Communism, but I call it Judaism." His son James Waterman Wise stated in print - If most Jews are Communists, so what?

We want to double our activities and reach thousands of new people at this critical time when Communism is trying to wipe our Christianity. Send in your contribution today. We need large donations of $500. $100. $50. but we also need many small ones of $10. $5. and $1. Rush your contribution to us in the enclosed envelope. There is no time to delay -- every minute counts. We are depending on you -- do not let us down. We must win.

What Strange Power Pulls Strings? Who Are The Enemies Of America And Common Sense?

What is the strange power that forces six printing concerns to discontinue printing COMMON SENSE at the same time that more than 400 Communist owned, or controlled, publications continue to spew their poison into the bloodstream of the American population?

The American Jewish Congress is composed of Zionists. The American Jewish Congress has been cited as "Communist infiltrated" by the un-American Activities Committee. It was a Zionist lawyer, representing himself as from the "Law and Social Division" of the American Jewish Congress, who approached our sixth printer and brazenly demanded that our printer stop publishing COMMON SENSE at once or he (the lawyer) would have all Jewish advertising withdrawn from the largest semi-weekly paper in New Jersey, owned by our printer.

"Tolerance?" shrieks the American Jewish Congress.

"Protect human rights and fundamental freedoms?" Shouts the American Jewish Congress, an organization hiding behind the false cloak of respectable kindness and love of brotherhood.

Remember that this American Jewish Congress is leading the fight for Civil Rights and the F.E.P.C. bills, while we outline the activities of some of the AJC members.

Founded in the early 1900's, the American Jewish Congress is the United States branch of the World Jewish Congress. President of both organizations was the late Dr. Stephen S. Wise. The Hungarian-born Dr. Wise's record of Communist-front affiliations is a long one, but we shall list some of them: Russian War Relief, American Friends for Spanish Democracy, American League for Peace and Democracy.

Judge Armstrong - Walter Winchell Zionist Mouthpiece Attacks Loyal, Texas Born American

An American Patriot

JUDGE GEORGE W. ARMSTRONG

Because he wanted to found a Christian American college and take every precaution to prevent its teachings from being undermined by subversive groups, Judge Armstrong has been viciously attacked by the Red press and unscrupulous commentators. COMMON SENSE proudly brings its readers the facts: no Zionist-controlled paper will ever publish.

Human nature being what it is, the public is becoming accustomed to seeing people fall to almost any depths to make money. Murder Inc. murdered humans for a price; some ghouls rob graves for a price; but Walter Winchell (Lip-schitz) ruins the reputation of good Americans for a price.

When the Anti-Defamation League, the Jewish gestapo in America, or the American Jewish Congress, which is saturated with Reds, gives the word, "hatchetmen" Winchell (Lip-schitz) and Drew Pearson lead off with another dirty job of character smearing. Many other fronts, such as Friends of Democracy, which cloak their propaganda with the tolerance racket, immediately fill their hate sheets with the same type of mud-slinging trash.

Judge George W. Armstrong, the gentleman from Mississippi who offered a large portion of his personal fortune to Jefferson Military College, is the latest victim of the hatchetmen and their ungodly tribe.

Judge Armstrong is probably one of the best informed individuals in America. He knows that 90% of those who call themselves Jews are not Jews, but Asiatic Khazars who adopted Judaism in the 7th Century. These anti-Christian Asiatics, of Turko-Finn blood, are striving to destroy all traces of Christianity, and Judge Armstrong does not want his money used, directly or indirectly, to further the Khazar-Zionist plans for world domination.

In his offer to Jefferson Military College, Judge Armstrong did not specify "White Supremacy," but it is a well known fact that segregation of the races is in effect in all Southern colleges. The

WHO ARE THE KHAZARS?

*KHAZARS (Chazars), a non-Semitic, pagan, central Asiatic tribal nation, of Turko-Finn racial origin, which fought their way into eastern Europe about the First Century, A. D., by the land route north of the Caspian Sea. In the area of eastern Europe, generally referred to today as southern Russia and its satellite states, the Kahazar invaders conquered the twenty-five tribal nations already existing there since prehistoric times, and in this area, of about 800,000 square miles, established the Khazar Empire. In the Seventh Century, A. D. the pagan king of the Khazars, the pagan nobles and the pagan population were converted to Judaism, and Judaism thereupon became the state religion of that nation. After the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism, none but a Jew could occupy the throne, and the civil law of the land became the administrative regulations of the Talmud. The present expanding Russian Empire of about nine million square miles, did not come into existence until the Ninth Century, A. D. This Russian state originally consisted of only a few thousand square miles adjoining the Khazar Empire on the north. Commencing in the Ninth Century, A. D., the Slavic armies of this small Russian state waged war against their Khazar neighbors to the south. The Russians continued this war of aggression against the Khazars until the Russians had conquered the entire Khazar Empire and added the 800,000 square miles of the former Khazar Empire to the Russian Empire. The former "Khazars" therefore, are now known as "Russians." In this connection the Jewish Encyclopedia states: "The Jews at Eastern Europe, and their subsequent conversion to Christianity accounts for the presence in recent times of the Jews in Russia and Russia's satellite states. The world's leading historians, Jews and Christians alike, offer abundant incontrovertible proof that the Jews in Russia, and Russia's satellite states, are NOT the descendants of the Palestinian Hebrews in Bible history. The historic facts have established the uncontradictable proof that the Jews of eastern Europe are there as a result of the conversion of the Khazars, NOT as a result of immigration to eastern Europe by the Hebrews from Palestine, as the propaganda of the eastern European Jews would have the world believe. To the Hebrews in Palestine, the territory in eastern Europe, several thousand miles distant, was an unknown part of the world to them. To the Hebrews in Palestine, the pagan Khazars, who inhabited that territory, were unknown to them. The Jews of eastern Europe conspire to conceal this truth so that they can masquerade before the world as the direct descendants of the "Chosen People" of Bible history and obtain world support for their "repatriation" to their "Promised Land." The historic facts speak for themselves once they are known. In the Fifteenth Century, B. C. the Hebrews abandoned their homeland in the Sinai Desert, and invaded Canaan, the territory known today as Palestine. The conquering Hebrews rapidly adopted the culture of their Canaanite victims. The Canaanite culture included an extensive vocabulary, an alphabet, and a monotheistic religion which based its worship on Jehovah (Yahweh). The Hebrews adopted all of the Canaanite vocabulary, and

Sir:

You are to be complimented for your courage in exposing the real power behind the Marxist-Communist drive to conquer the world. Should anything ever happen to you we all know who to hold responsible—the Zionists.

It is evident that if our wonderful country is to be saved at this late date many capable business men must have the courage to stand up and be counted. Business men generally had better wise up and come across with some funds before it is too late. If they wait much longer they won't have any funds to fight anything with—including Communism.

. . . Enclosed is $50 which is more than I can afford, and will send you more from time to time.

Sincerely,

R. J. C.

Zionist Control 'Frightening' Says Dean Gildersleeve

Speaking before a night session of the seventh annual forum at Christ Church (Methodist) Park Avenue, New York, Miss Virginia C. Gildersleeve, dean emerita of Barnard College, called on Americans to learn more about the Middle East. She urged also that this country and the United Nations "plan effectively for the welfare of the whole region of the Middle East and all its people, not just for one small section."

She charged that it was extremely difficult to get before the American public anything that "is not slanted to the Zionist point of view," adding:

"The Zionists, I gather from my experience of the last few years, have managed to control very largely the mediums of mass communication in this country, the press, the films, the radio. It is frightening to witness how a small but exceedingly competent minority group can get so much of a stranglehold on publicity in the United States."

"PORK FOR SALE"

Inacio Bauer, spokesman for Jewry, reported in "B'nai B'rith" magazine, New York, June, 1939 that "Spaniards everywhere still spoke of the Jew as though he were a cancer in Spain."

And, no wonder! With the arrival in Spain of the Jewish fiend, Bela Kun, (Benjamin Cohen) Spanish Reds celebrated by looting and burning two priceless cathedrals. The unspeakable bestiality of the Spanish Reds was shown by their hanging of nude bodies of murdered Catholic priests on branches of trees. Signs attached read: "Pork for Sale."

Who took charge of the Communist revolution in Spain as soon as trouble began? Moses Rosenberg, Ambassador from the Soviet Union to Spain stepped out of the embassy and directed the rape and slaughter of the Spanish Christians.

"We hate Christianity and Christians. Even the best of them must be considered our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbor and mercy, which is contrary to our principles. What we want is hate . . . Only then will we conquer the Universe."—Anatole Lunacharsky, Soviet Commissar of Education. (Quoted in Izvestia.)

WHAT STRANGE POWER

Allied Voters Against Coudert, National Reception Committee to the Russian Delegation and New York Tom Mooney Committee. (Mooney was the Communist dynamiter.)

This Zionist Red Rabbi edited Opinion magazine which stated: "With the rise of the Soviet regime, never has the world witnessed such a spectacular change . . . the State which previously did not employ any Jews at all, now employs in White Russia 61% JEWISH OFFICIALS . . . the percentage of Jewish population in Russia is LESS THAN 2%."

The doctor's son, James Waterman Wise, is now WASHINGTON REPRESENTATIVE of the World Jewish Congress. He is also director of the Council Against Intolerance, an organization which recently handed a statue award to the New Jersey Governor, Alfred Driscoll. This would mean little, except for the fact that James Waterman Wise has been affiliated with some fifty-five Communist-front organizations, among which are: Civil Rights Congress (Paul Robeson's a member, too), American Labor Party, Citizens Committee Supporting Communist Gerson (1948) and the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. He is one of those who signed the "Golden Book of American Friendship with the Soviet Union."

Young Wise is also a writer for Communist publications. In an article for the Communist Party's New Masses, he went to great lengths pointing out the prominence of Jews in Communism and in Russia. He knows, of course, that leading Jewish organizations have poured fabulous sums into Soviet Russia.

Who are some of the other members of the American Jewish Congress? RABBI SOLOMON GOLDMAN: Russian-born Red, an executive (Chicago branch of the Socialist Party's League for Industrial Democracy (since merged with the Communist Party); member of American Civil Liberties Union; officer of Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. He is the rabbi who, during a three hour book review in his synagogue, praised Nowack's "Life of Jesus" which, he explained, shows Jesus as a bastard dreamer and Judas Iscariot a hero. EMANUEL CELLAR: Member of B'nai B'rith, backer of Communist Tom Mooney, protested the bill for deportation of Harry Bridges, the alien Red. JULIAN W. MACK: U. S. Circuit Judge, executive of the World Jewish Congress and prominent in Jewish organizations. He is one of the signers of "Golden Book of Friendship for Soviet Union," member of the board of directors Communist American Russian Institute; officer of socialistic "Survey Associates," and signer of Communist-aiding American Civil Liberties Union petitions for Reds imprisoned under U. S. Espionage Act. JUDGE BEN ROSENTHAL: President of Southern California Division of American Jewish Congress, sponsor for Harry Bridges Defense Committee, and affiliated with Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, a Communist-front. LOUIS LIPSKY: Radical former president of Zionist Organizations in America; among those who signed letter to Governor Thomas E. Dewey (N.Y.) seeking pardon for the Communist Morris V. Schappes. Lipsky is also a writer for Communist papers. In an article for the revolutionary socialist "New Republic" he writes:

"Jewish labor in Palestine has introduced social and economic methods that have evoked admiration of the British Labor Party. A large number of the agricultural colonies in Palestine are communal, not individual."

RABBI MAX NUSSBAUM: President, Pacific Coast Division, American Jewish Congress, sponsor of Communist American Youth for Democracy dinner (this organization was formerly known as YOUNG COMMUNIST LEAGUE); sponsor of the China Conference Arrangement Committee, cited as a Communist-front. HENRY L. SILBERMAN: Director, New England Division, AJC, sponsor for Civil Rights Congress. (Remember Peekskill?)

Space prohibits a listing of all the American Jewish Congress leaders, members and associated "clubs". But, the few facts given shout a warning: loyal Americans dare not ignore, for the actions of this group tie in with the entire picture of Zionist activities in America.

When the eleven Communist rats went on trial in New York, what power caused the penalty they faced to be reduced, from a prison sentence of ten years to five years, one month after the trial started? After the taxpayers had spent over a million dollars for the nine months' trial and the Reds were convicted by a patient jury and a wonderful, American Judge, and bail was set at a million dollars, what power caused the bail to be reduced to a mere $205,000, guaranteeing the release of these traitors who know that they will never serve a day of their sentence because of this strange power.

What strange power caused Prosecuting Attorney, John M. McGohey to be promoted so Irving Saypol, a Zionist, could succeed him and have charge of the prosecution?

What strange power caused the higher court of three Judges to slap Judge Medina in the face by allowing these eleven traitors freedom on such meager bail while three of them are facing deportation charges?

Judge Jerome Frank, who has a Red record, maneuvered the freedom of the eleven Communists. He is a Zionist who appeared with another Khazar Zionist, Felix Frankfurter, as a character witness for Alger Hiss. When these eleven Marxists appear before the Supreme Court, Zionist Felix Frankfurter will see that the case is thrown out—all Communists know this.

The strange power of ZIONISM.

Irving Kaufman, a Zionist, as judge in the Alger Hiss trial cooperated with Alger Hiss against the United States Government which was prosecuting Hiss. Eight of the twelve jurors believed Hiss a Communist; the other four probably read The Daily Worker.

The strange power that protected Gorchart Eisler (Zionist) while he masterminded the overthrow of our Government was Zionism. Herbert Lehman (Zionist) was active in Eisler's defense committee. Who made it possible for Eisler to escape and get to Germany where he is now leading a Communist movement?

Isador Boorstein (alias Alexander Stevens, alias J. V. Peters) Chief of espionage network, which began work in the U. S. as soon as the New Deal took over, was allowed to deport himself with all the secrets he accumulated during 14 years as spy work in America. This, through the power of Zionism—the arch enemy of Christianity.

Zionism has also kept David Niles (Neyhus) in the White House for years where he charts the moves of Truman (just as he did with Roosevelt) and reports to Felix Frankfurter.

Dear Reader, when you are amazed that Communists cannot be kept in jail, just keep in mind that men, such as the eleven tried and convicted Marxists, are only "small potatoes" in the plan to undermine and exterminate Christianity in America as is being done by Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Rumania, China and the Holy Land, by the same World Wide Zionist Organization.

tion which uses Communism just as Standard Oil uses subsidiaries to carry on their global activities.

"Tolerance!" That is the yell of the American Jewish Congress—the organization spearheading the movement opposing the internationalization of the Holy City. This is the "tolerant" group of people who—if they solely control the Holy City—can forbid Christians even a glimpse of sacred, religious places.

COMMON SENSE believes in tolerance. It also believes in freedom of speech as guaranteed under the AMERICAN Constitution. We are waiting for the Zionists to show their tolerance and love of American fair play by stopping our eleventh printer. In the meantime, we challenge any living Zionist authority, preferably a Rabbi, to defend the Zionist Red record on a public platform with the Editor of COMMON SENSE.

We do not believe that they will take up this challenge, and COMMON SENSE knows why. The bald fact is that Communism is Zionist controlled and sponsored. Communism will disappear from the American scene as soon as American Christians acknowledge the power behind the American Jewish Congress' gestapo, and this fact:

It is an error to say "those Russians" when one means Communists. "Those Russians"—the CHRISTIAN Russians—which make up the majority of Russia's population, are merely serving a life of serfdom under heartless Zionist-Communist masters.

"Tolerance!" for a minority group! A truth is a truth—the most grossly neglected minority group in America today is the 95% LOYAL, AMERICAN population. And, we don't care if you're Swedish, Irish, Scotch, Polish, German, French, Spanish, Italian or English extraction—if you love AMERICA FIRST you are a loyal American.

It's about time the tail stopped wagging the dog!

"One of the most important tasks of the cultural revolution affecting the wide masses is the task of systematically and unswervingly combating religion—the opium of the people."—(Program of the Communist International.)

Judge Armstrong

people Judge Armstrong did not want in a college supported by his money were the Asiatic Khazars—as they pass themselves off to us—Jews!

With the wisdom that comes with age, Judge Armstrong intended to establish an outstanding Christian college. Marxists, Communists, and other brands of aliens, have already reduced to Communist incubators such formerly renowned universities as Harvard and Chicago. Even Columbia recently accepted $20,000 to establish a "Polish" chair. Poland, which was one of the greatest Christian nations in the world, is now controlled by Zionst-Khazar, Jacob Berman. The Polish Minister of Education is Zionist S. Skrzewski. Columbia's Professor Coleman resigned in protest, but the Red "Polish" chair remains.

Why does Winchell not start a nation-wide campaign to clean the Reds out of these colleges? Judge Armstrong has tried to take some American action. Judge Armstrong has incurred the enmity of Marxists through his writings—"Traitors"—"Zionist Wall Street"—and his most recent book, just off the press, "Money and the Tariff."

Why, then, does Winchell bitterly snap at loyal American, Judge Armstrong, calling him a "miserable, hateful old man," who should "build himself a mental hospital and stay in it"? The S.P.C.A. may protest that it's cruelty to animals to say it, but just as the mongrel, unkept dog will run wild and nip at the heels of a thoroughbred horse, so do some individuals endeavor to hide their own shortcomings by shouting uncouth remarks at their betters.

Judge Armstrong was born in Texas and raised in accordance with the strict standards of his father, a Methodist minister. His father was not wealthy, and it has been through his own honest, hard work and good judgment that Judge Armstrong has reached the pinnacle of success. He suffered only one setback, and that was in 1923 when he was forced into bankruptcy. In due time, all creditors were paid in full. His financial success today is the reward America so often gives her sons when they use foresight and fair play.

Judge Armstrong's grandfather was a Texan who surveyed the original state boundary with the U. S. and signed the Texas declaration of independence from Mexico. Thus, when the learned Judge speaks of a college for Christians, and steps forward to fight for the principles of his forefathers, he is backed by two things: a Christian heritage and true American forebears of whom he can be justifiably proud.

Winchell's mother, poor soul, recently committed suicide by jumping out of a hospital window. No wonder! After she and her husband, Jacob, worked hard in New York's east side (from which in 1917 two hundred and seventy-six Zionists left for Russia to launch the Communist revolution) to bring up their sons, she probably was driven to her grave listening to the tripe her Walter belches out.

It must have pained the dear, old woman to learn that her Walter was a partner of John Roy Carlson (Derounian, one of 12 aliases) who authored "Under Cover," which Winchell promoted over the radio. Because of the lies and smears in this book, Mr. George Washington Robnet, Secretary of the Church League of America, sued Winchell and Carlson. Federal Judge Barnes of Chicago, commenting in court about the book, stated: "I believe this is a book of fuddle and believe the author would say anything for a dollar!"

Poor Mrs. Winchell! As she hurtled through space did she review, in her last minute before eternity, all the good American names her son has smeared? Did she remember how Jim Forrestal, whose greatest "sin" was loving America more than Palestine, leaped to his death after rounds of vicious abuse from Walter's stabbing tongue?

Did she think of Col. Charles Lindbergh, Senator Burt Wheeler, Senator Nye and Father Charles Coughlin—Americans all—who have been subject to the hate of her professional, smear-artist son? In the parade of names on Winchell's noxious smear-list, did the tired, old lady see those of Marwin K. Hart and Upton Close, as well as Judge Armstrong?

Did she perhaps, in that last flash of clairvoyance which so often comes to the dying, ask His forgiveness for the "peephole" character-destroyer she mothered?

No one will ever know.

People may never know, either—but they can guess—why Winchell tears to shreds the reputations of so many true Americans while ignoring the Red enemies of America.

Why did he not unmercifully hatchet the "Daily Worker" when, two days after the trial of the 11 Communists, that paper said it had $600,000 ready to help the 11 Red rats?

Why did he not blast Mrs. Louise Branstom Berman for refusing to tell the Congressional Un-American Activities Committee about the million dollars, or more, Mrs. Berman has given to Communists such as Isador Boorstein (Alexander Stevens) chief espionage agent; the "Daily Worker," and "New Masses"? Has Winchell no complaint when Reds benefit by huge gifts of money?

Why doesn't Winchell dishonor the Reds in Hollywood; the Reds backing the F.E.P.C. and Civil Rights bills?

Why doesn't he expose the Reds who are promoting Socialized Medicine and the World

"WE HATE CHRISTIANS"

Anatole Lunacharsky, Commissar of Education in Moscow, is quoted: "We hate Christians; even the best of them must be regarded as our worst enemies. They preach love of one's neighbor and mercy, which is contrary to our principles. Christianity is an obstacle to the revolution. Down with the love of one's neighbor. What we need is hatred. We must know how to hate; only thus, shall we conquer the universe". (The Congressional Record - Vol. 77, pp. 1539-1540).

Federalist movement?

Why does he not ridicule and shame the Hawthorne N.J.) Mrs. Henry O. Klein who has instituted a court suit to have the brief Bible readings banned from New Jersey's public schools? Is it tolerance for the majority of white, Christian Americans which keeps him quiet?

Here are two scoops for you, Winchell: Expose the Zionist leaders who are campaigning for full control of the Holy City; tell the world how the Zionists want to keep Christians away from the birthplace of Jesus; tell the world how the Zionists have already profaned the Christian churches in the Holy City. Bring out into the open the 400 Communist controlled publications in the United States; smear them from the news-stands.

Did the Anti-Defamation League or the American Jewish Congress ever ask you to smear any of the foregoing? It is unlikely. It is, however, more likely that you have followed to a "T" their instructions on the Forrestals, the Armstrongs—the men of character who believe in America and who would, if they could, put every Red rat in America on a hole-ridden liner, tow it five miles out to sea and there let it sink.

Some folks run to the defense of the yellow cowards, the fourflushers, the Reds, Red-followers and traitors to America. Not COMMON SENSE.

Judge Armstrong: Our hat is respectfully tipped to you, an American patriot. Courageously, you have dared to speak knowing that vilifications would be heaped upon you, and that no Zionist-controlled paper or radio station would ever let you present your side of the story to citizens of the United States.

Americans: If your Country is to remain the great Christian nation it was founded, if it is to be spared the Zionist-Communist slavery existing in Europe today, you must not let outspoken loyal citizens be smeared and intimidated by cunning agents of the Red devils! America needs not one—not two—but a good ten thousand Judge Armstrongs!

Judge Armstrong's latest booklet, "Zionist Wall Street," may be ordered for 50 cents from COMMON SENSE.

Who Are The Khazars?

their limited language, adopted the Canaanite alphabet, which was thereafter known as the "Hebrew alphabet," and developed the Canaanite worship of Jehovah (Yahwism) as the basis of their religious beliefs, which thereafter came to be known as "Judaism." It was thus that the Hebrews of Bible history developed the "Hebrew language" and acquired the "Hebrew alphabet." Several thousand years later, and several thousand miles away, as a result of effective missionary effort upon the Khazar king, the pagan Khazar nation was converted to Judaism. At the time of their conversion, the Khazars had a spoken language, but there was no written form of their language because there was no alphabet for the language they spoke. The king of the Khazars adopted the alphabet of his newly acquired religion, which he saw for the first time in the Bible, as the alphabet of the Khazars, so that they could put their language in writing. Thus it was the Jews of eastern Europe came to use the Hebrew alphabet to record their "mother-tongue" in written form. The "mother-tongue" of the Jews of eastern Europe is known today as "Yiddish." But the Yiddish language and the Hebrew language are as totally different from each other as Swedish and Spanish, although both these languages use the identical Latin alphabet in their written forms. There is a tendency to regard the Jews of Eastern Europe as the historic national and racial descendants of the Hebrews of Palestine because they each employed the identical alphabet for the written forms of their completely different languages. During the several thousand years prior to the conversion of Judaism of the pagan Khazars, Judaism was already the religious belief of portions of the population of racial and national groups in every inhabited geographic area from Morocco on the Atlantic to China on the Pacific. The sections of these populations which had been converted to Judaism retained other characteristics of their native culture; the spoken language, the written form of their language, the native customs and other elements of their social, political and economic existence. The Yiddish of the Jews of eastern Europe was exclusively the language of the Khazars. Yiddish was not the "mother-tongue" of the native Jews of Egypt, Syria, Greece, Rome, Spain, Germany, France, Morocco, Libya, Arabia, Ethiopia, Abassynia, Persia, India or China. The "mother-tongue" of the section of the populations converted to Judaism was the "mother-tongue" of the people amongst whom they lived. Practically without exception, amongst every racial or national group in the world, there are to be found "Jews" as well as "Christians" and probably "Moslems" and "Hindus" as well. There is no racial group in the world which can identify itself anthropologically by its spiritual belief. The physical and biological make-up of men are determined by the racial origin of his ancestry. Five children of the same father and mother may each have a different religious belief. But, their "race" depends upon the "race" of the father and the mother. It is a malicious deception for the numerous and highly vocal Jews of eastern European origin to spend unlimited millions of dollars upon propaganda based upon the myth that they are the ethnic descendants of a "Jewish race," and that Palestine was, and is, the "homeland" of this "Jewish race." (*For further particulars see Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. 4, PP1-5).

ARE COMMUNISTS CRAZY?

Or, are they the shrewdest, slickest zealots the world has ever known? Beneath the guise of promoting friendship and "Fair Deals," they are plotting to make our beloved America a slave state. Is this what YOU want? — Christian slavery under heartless Zionist masters, such as are ruling Russia today? Learn the TRUTH! Read as many of the following books as you can. Recommend them! MEMORANDUM

RE: "COMMON SENSE"

No actual investigation has been conducted by the FBI concerning the above-captioned publication. According to a confidential and reliable informant, however, a newspaper entitled "Common Sense" under the editorship of Conde McGinley is published twice monthly at 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, New Jersey. The paper describes itself as "the nation's anti-Communist newspaper." Prior to June 29, 1947, this newspaper was known as "Think Weekly." It has furthermore been reported that Conde McGinley, Editor of this publication, has been engaged in organizational activities of the Nationalist Action League, which has been cited by the Attorney General as an organization coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835. An article appearing in the June 15, 1949, issue of "Common Sense" indicated that the Nationalist Action League officially joined forces with "Common Sense" on June 1, 1949, "in the inauguration of an all-out offensive against Marxism and its insidious front organizations in America."

UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS A TRAP TO USE TRUSTING AMERICANS IN ABOLISHING THE UNITED STATES

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Inc. . . . Letter 231

America faces one grave danger rarely touched upon by commentators who list proposals to come before Congress.

This danger lies in the schemes for "world government." Their proponents are going to press one or another of them at this session. And it might go through.

This world government idea is, in a nutshell, that the United States should throw in its lot politically with other nations, and therefore be governed no longer by Congress, but by an international Authority. In that Authority the United States would be a hopeless minority.

WHO ARE

UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS?

Perhaps fifty thousand people belong to United World Federalist chapters throughout America. Many are sincere Americans who are persuaded "world government" is a step toward universal peace. With their yearning for peace we, of course, agree. We will show how completely they are misled, and by whom.

For the leadership of UWF is a different story. Although a few eminent and patriotic Americans have lent their names to this movement, yet most of the leaders are left-wing.

Consider some of those that met three years ago to organize UWF: Stringfellow Barr, A. Philip Randolph, Raymond Swing, Glen H. Taylor, Vito Marcantonio, James P. Warburg, Carl Van Doren, Mark Van Doren, Norman Corwin, Norman Cousins, Robert Sherwood, Clifton Fadiman, Sholem Asch, Rex Stout, Harlow Shapley, Waldo Frank, Robert L. Humber, Lewis Mumford, Upton Sinclair, Van Wyck Brooks, Charles G. Bolte, Emanuel Celler, James B. Carey, Walter Wanger, Rabbi David De Sola Pool, Elmer Rios, Rex Tugwell. There was Thomas Mann, who last summer addressed a large meeting in communist East Germany. There was Albert Einstein, world-renowned scientist, who began identifying himself with left-wing activities before he had learned English. These, and others, met at Asheville, N. C., February 21, 1947, and merged several existing organizations into UWF.

Among the above mentioned and others who attended this meeting were affiliations with as many as THIRTY-ONE groups that have been branded as subversive Communist fronts by the Attorney General, the FBI or the Tenney Committee of California. Among these groups are, or were: Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, American Student Union, Progressive Citizens of America, League of Women Shoppers, Council on African Affairs, League of American Writers, American Friends of Spanish Democracy, and Films for Democracy. Many of the persons named supported Henry Wallace in 1948. Glen Taylor was Wallace's running mate!

The first President of UWF was Cord Meyer, Jr. He has been its main spokesman. We know of no communist connections of Mr. Meyer. But if he does not recognize the kind of people who

HOW LONG BEFORE THE ANTI-CHRISTIAN MARXISTS TEAR THIS DOWN?

Who Rules U.W.F.?

Zionists are the brains and controlling power behind Communism, and Zionists are the real driving force behind United World Federalists. Communism and a "one world" plan have this in common—either would give Zionists and Marxists world domination.

Following the already established Communist-front pattern, the Zionists are cleverly staying in the background of United World Federalists. While using "world peace" as a lure, they entice prominent, innocent, well-meaning Christians into that un-American organization. These civic-minded Christians, generously lending their good names, then do the Zionists' work of trapping other unsuspecting persons into the U.W.F. net.

Invariably these stooges are not Communists. They are—in street language—"sucker bait."

COMMON SENSE knows that the main Zionist and international banking firms, with their headquarters at 1 William Street and 52 William Street, New York City, help finance and further the expansion of Communism throughout the world. There, too, are found the roots of United World Federalists.

We challenge top Zionist authorities and United World Federalists to meet us on the public platform.

We say to all good Americans who have been tricked—better read some booklets on the background of U.W.F. and learn who is backing the plot to hang the hammer and sickle over our Stars and Stripes.

Lenin said: "For every Communist there are ten others ready and willing to do their work."

N. Y. Legislature Nearly Approves World Rule Plan

Republished from THE TABLET,
A Catholic Weekly, January 21, 1950

Cleverly-Worded Resolution For World Govt.
Is Kept In Committee

CONTAINS THREAT TO U. S.

Subtle Scheme Has Catholic Support But Ignores
Papal Conditions For Peace

The Legislature at Albany this week narrowly escaped committing the citizens of New York State to a plan to abandon the Constitution of the United States in favor of a World Government.

On Thursday of last week, an innocent-sounding resolution was presented in both houses of the Legislature to memorialize the United States Congress "to call a convention for the sole purpose of proposing amendment of the Constitution to expedite and insure the participation of the United States in a world federal government, open to all nations, with powers which, while defined and limited, shall be adequate to preserve peace. . . ."

The introduction of the subtly-worded resolution was part of a highly organized nation-wide plan to secure the endorsement of World Government by 32, or two-thirds of the State Legislatures in order that a convention might be called to "amend" the Constitution. If 36 states approve the resolution, the convention will be mandatory.

Twenty-three State Legislatures have already given their endorsement. New York State would have been the 24th.

It is believed, however, that some States will rescind their approval after realizing the significance of the misleading resolution they have adopted.

Text Is Deceiving

The resolution itself, which is printed below, is carefully so worded as not to arouse the invariably busy legislator to study its contents too intently.

The first eight whereas's are generalities unlikely to be seriously challenged. They oppose war and the cost of armaments, proclaim the need for world peace based upon law and order, and recognize that the United Nations under its present charter is incapable of restraining major nations from fostering or fomenting war.

The ninth will undoubtedly be described as misrepresentation should the resolution unhappily and inadvertently be permitted to reach the floor of either chamber. It declares that many States have memorialized Congress "to initiate steps toward the creation of a world federal government reserving to the nations and to the people those rights not specifically granted as surround him, then he is lacking in awareness, he does recognize the nature of such associations but sees no danger in them, the quality of his leadership is in question.

In November, 1949, Mr. Meyer was made chairman of the executive committee and a new president was chosen.

We quote from the Washington Times-Herald for November 9, 1949:

"The United World Federalists, an outfit dedicated to the extinction of the American Republic, recently trotted out a retrained New Deal war time propagandist as its new president and mouthpiece. The spokesman, Alan Cranston, former chief of the foreign language division of the office of war information, made a pitch before a congressional committee in behalf of the program of uniting America with every other country in the world, Russia included, and replacing national citizenship with world citizenship.

"It is a rather remarkable fact that the government goes out of its way to prosecute leaders of the Communist Party for seeking the overthrow of the United States, but that leaders of movements which would achieve the same result in a different direction are given a respectful audience by Congressmen.

"Because Mr. Cranston, during the war, was discovered by another congressional committee to have been most interested in suppressing any criticism of Russia, it is possible to wonder whether his ultimate intention differs materially from the party leaders convicted under the Smith Act."

Now, some of the leadership of UWF are earnest Americans with no sympathy with Communism or Socialism. But, in accounting for their presence, it is well to remember that it is ordinary communist technique to give such a salt-and-pepper appearance to organizations they hope to find useful. And, of course, the presence of such sincere, naive persons makes it easier to convince the average American that an organization is "liberal" and "broadminded enough" to include all points of view."

WHAT IS THEIR PROGRAM?

The UWF proposes a constitution which will set up a world federal government. No nation, once admitted, may secede. The world governing body would possess only delegated powers. In the words of a UWF leaflet, "point 2" of their program would "guarantee to each nation its right to maintain its own domestic, political, economic, social and religious institutions." That is, Russia (which UWF wants included) could still be Communist and maintain its coercive society; dictators would be as much a part of the set-up as would free peoples. "World law" would be binding upon all, and could be enforced directly upon individuals—by world courts. The world federal government would enjoy "direct taxing power independent of national taxation." "Reasonable provisions" are to be made for amending the world constitution.

The material put out by UWF engages in some slick double-talk. This is essential—to cover up a dilemma for which UWF has no solution.

The first deals with representation in the world legislative body. If each country were given one representative per million inhabitants, the nominally free people of each—a small minority—would have less than 500 votes out of a total of some 2,000. Actually, the really free peoples, number less than ten per cent of the world population.

The leaders of UWF see this problem. How can they persuade the free minority (principally the United States) to enter a political arrangement in which they would be dominated by the dictators who already hold the vast majority in bondage? Their problem is not simple. It is like a salesman attempting to persuade free people to pay cash for the right to a life prison sentence.

So UWF leaders talk around this problem. They say: "Representation in the legislative body should be determined upon a just formula, recognizing population, economic development, educational level and other relevant factors; each representative to vote as an individual." Obviously, if these words mean anything, they insinuate that some less populous countries will get large delegations, while others with large populations will be content with small delegations. So we shouldn't worry!

That such a suggestion could be seriously made shows either that UWF is naive, or thinks the American people are. We do not think the real UWF leaders are naive. For two facts stand out: First, the art oferry-mandering could hardly devise a formula whereby the really free ten per cent could outvote the subjugated ninety-per cent. Secondly, why would the dictators of three-quarters of the earth's population enter a world federal government unless they could control it? The hint that they would not control it, in order to persuade Americans to surrender their independence, is just sucker-bait.

How frankly UWF attempts to evade a straight answer to this situation is found in a mimeographed UWF release called Answers to Questions About World Government, dated July 18, 1949. It says:

"The answer to this question [whether the U. S. would be outvoted] would be yes only if the United States contingent in the world government always voted against world peace. The world government proposed by UWF is designed to preserve the peace. If the United States wants peace, it will find itself voting with the majority who also want peace."

As an insult to American intelligence, this reply would be hard to beat. UWF's point 5 says: "Bill of Rights: The world constitution should include a bill of rights assuring equal and adequate protection to persons affected by the constitution and laws of the world federal government."

A casual reader might think that this guarantees liberty for everybody. But it does no such thing. UWF's point 2, already quoted, guarantees that despotisms can remain despotisms. This double-talk is a slick attempt to implant an idea while not actually stating it—a method characteristic of UWF propaganda material, as of all Communist propaganda everywhere.

The UWF program, when once established, is rigorously simple, even if likewise clad in double-talk. All national armies and navies are to be abolished. The only armed forces in the world, except for domestic police, would be the armed forces of the world-state. Atomic energy and all "other scientific developments easily diverted to mass destruction" would be under strict control of the world-state. This would mean practically all science and invention.

Do you Americans want to give up your army, navy and air force?

As to "other powers," there is further double-talk. "We recognize," says a UWF hand-out, "that although some world federalists believe that such limited powers would be sufficient as a beginning, others are convinced that any world organization to be effective, even at the start, must have broader powers to bring about peaceful change in the direction of a free and prosperous world community."

What can this mean? Remembering the horde of Marxists infesting UWF and the Marxist thesis that wars and economic distress are caused by class struggle, then clearly, if world power were placed in their hands, the World Federalists would proceed to root out economic freedom. In one fell swoop American private enterprise and American liberty would be wiped out.

Do you Americans want to substitute Russian slavery for your freedom?

WHAT ARE THEIR METHODS?

UWF methods are typical of left-wing "high pressure" groups. We would not wish to deprive UWF of the opportunity to convince Americans its cause is worthy. But, by the same token, UWF should not object when what it offers is publicly tested and weighed.

UWF has a three-pronged approach. First, through general propaganda, by printed word, radio and meetings. Second through local groups, of which there are now nearly a thousand. Third, it works actively on state legislatures and Congress to advance the tangible steps they hope will commit the U.S.A. to enter world government before the people know what it's all about.

UWF propaganda has capitalized on fear, especially fear of an atomic war. Over and over it says atomic war will end civilization, if not the human race itself. The only way out, it cries, is world government! UWF also plays on the sense of idealism, so easy to touch in most Americans. This is a noble ideal, says UWF. It will bring Tennyson's dream true:

"Till the war drums throb no longer, and the battle flags are furled

In the Parliament of man, the federation of the world!"

And the way to do it is to become an advocate of World Government! Join the parade of forward-looking people!

The UWF technique is the logical leap, carefully concealed from the unthinking, from the premise to the conclusion. It is an argument with the proof left out: Why does the fear of atomic war demonstrate that world government is any solution at all? Why does the fact that a truly peaceful world-society is a noble ideal lead to the conclusion that the specific program of UWF will bring realization of that ideal, and not plunge us into some form of totalitarian world bondage? We are not told.

It is in meaningless generalities that advocates of UWF shine. Bring them down to specific cases and they murmur, "Oh, that's a detail that does not need to be settled now." Yet it is those very details, as they call them, that would make all the difference between a world of freedom and a world of tyranny. We think most of the leaders of UWF have very specific ideas of the way we should go, but do not want to share them with the public at this time.

As for the local groups, UWF has unerringly gone to circles where idealism is strongest—such as Christian churches, women's clubs, student groups—and has sold the "ideal" without too much bother over how the ideal is to be realized. It has harped on the power of "world government" to stop war, with little emphasis upon what KIND of "government." Government, in itself, has no moral character. Yet UWF consistently sets forth simply "government"—government per se, as the cure-all for the ills of humanity. "Give us world government," it cries in effect, "but don't bother us by asking what kind, whether free or tyrannical. All we need is more and greater government!"

THE HUMBER RESOLUTION

Several years ago Robert Lee Humber, a lawyer of North Carolina, drew up a form of resolution expressing vague and general approval of the idea of world government, and began sending it to state legislatures. (Humber is now a member of UWF's executive council.)

State legislatures often cheerfully pass vague resolutions on almost any subject, unless some member who knows about it happens to object. So, before almost anybody else but Mr. Humber knew or cared anything about it, his resolution was "adopted" by the legislatures of Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Virginia, Washington.

Done mostly without debate, it is doubtful whether ten per cent of the members of these legislatures could recall what the "Humber Resolution" is about. Some of them never heard of it, or so they declare. Of course, no resolution which calls for the end of American independence could be adopted in any state legislature without a fierce struggle, provided the members knew the meaning of the resolution.

The Humber resolution had propaganda value. But it was only a preliminary. UWF had something more potent up its sleeve. It had another resolution that was more than a pious wish—a proposal that a convention be called to amend the Constitution of the United States "to expedite and insure the participation of the United States in a world federal government, open to all nations . . ."

This resolution contains eleven paragraphs, NINE of them pious "Whereas" paragraphs. The real teeth show only in the tenth, and then only if one reads carefully. A number of state legislatures who actually voted "aye" on this one thought it was either the Humber resolution or something like it. Legislatures of six states have passed this latter resolution: California, Connecticut, Florida, Maine, New Jersey and North Carolina. After the California resolution had been passed, heroic efforts were made by Senator Jack B. Tenney and others to rescind it—efforts which failed after a terrific battle.

Now if the legislatures of thirty-six states can be induced to pass this or some similar resolution, the calling of a constitutional convention for the purpose of ending the independence of the United States will be MANDATORY. The "Humber Resolution" does not count in this computation, but already legislators of states that have passed it have been told that since they have already committed themselves to world government, they will naturally want to pass the new resolution too.

In the national field, UWF has secured assent to its program from many senators and congressmen—including a majority of the members of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs! Last year a Concurrent Resolution was introduced in both House and Senate declaring that "It is the sense of the Congress that it should be a fundamental objective of the foreign policy of the United States to support and strengthen the United Nations and to seek its development into a world federation open to all nations with defined and limited powers adequate to preserve peace and prevent aggression through the enactment, interpretation and enforcement of world law." In the House this resolution was introduced by ONE HUNDRED AND FIVE Congressmen, in the Senate by a small group. Hearings were held by the House Committee in October. At first it was planned to hear only the proponents. The National Economic Council, however, insisted upon being heard—and was heard.

WORLD FEDERALISM'S FATAL MISTAKE

All who fall for world federalism-labor under a monumental misapprehension—the UWF group most fatally of all. This misapprehension is that governments create societies. But all history proves that societies create governments. There is today no world society, in the sense of a world community sharing a common culture, tradition and philosophy of human freedom. World governmenters say world government will create a world society. But this shows they are either babes-in-the-woods or very shrewd deceptionists.

A real world government, if men are to remain free, will need to be preceded by centuries of preparation. And eventually a more intelligent, less gullible age than ours may reject the whole philosophy of big government, and prefer a community of independent nations. But to create such "government" now, in the present ideological world chaos, would be to force it upon hundreds of millions of people, and to strengthen tyranny everywhere. It would mean world "government" only in the sense that a conquering despotism is called "government." It would dwarf the Ghengis Khans, the Napoleons and the Hitlers into significance.

Only the Central Authority would be armed. It alone would possess A-bombs and guided missiles to crush rebellion. But it would be composed of men subject to human passions and desires. Under its rule, human beings everywhere would experience the summit and defecation of tyranny. Are Americans ready to hand themselves over to such a despotism?

A REAL PROGRAM FOR LIBERTY AND PEACE

While a world despotism might abolish war in the old sense, it would also abolish human freedom. It would be the peace of the "lifer" in prison. The World Federalist thesis is acceptable only to those who think it better to have an enslaved humanity and no war, than freedom with the risks of war.

But there is an alternative.

The first step is to preserve freedom within the United States by curbing statism and reasserting the rights and obligations of the individual. This means a rediscovery of the principles of the American Revolution and putting them into dynamic practice. Freedom must be not merely preserved in America: it must be actively practiced if its tremendous internal energies are to continue to be released. If freedom falls here, it will fall everywhere.

The second step is to preserve and actively assert the independence of the United States. Instead of surrendering her liberty of action, America should guard and exercise it.

The third step is to make the Americans impregnable. Communist fifth columns should be mercilessly rooted out. This step can be taken only by sheer realism which will end once and for all the attrition of our resources by financial, diplomatic and military over-extensions throughout the world.

The fourth step is for a free, strong and prepared America to sit where she is and ride out the storm, giving to all mankind (as she formerly did) the example freedom provides. If she does so, there need be no third world war in our life-time. If we ourselves refuse to over-extend, but permit the Soviet Union to do so, the Soviet system in less than a generation will fall apart, leaving an intact America to lead the world back to a better day. If the USSR and the U.S.A. fight within the next fifteen years, neither can conquer the other, but both may be wounded to the death.

In the choice between a slave world under supreme power, even without war, and the maintenance of freedom with the risk of war, we vote for freedom. If "peace" is to be purchased at the cost of liberty, the price is too high.

We urge every American to write his Member of Congress about World Government. We ask every member of Congress to think hard on the choice between freedom and the peace of slavery.

necessary to the establishment and the maintenance of world law and order." Sponsors and supporters of the resolution have the responsibility of interpreting the clause; it can be safely stated they will not do so in clear and unequivocal terms.

As this issue goes to press, the resolution at Albany is still in committee. It is reported that demands are being made upon the legislators for an open hearing on the issue before the resolution is sent to the floor.

105 Sponsors In Congress

A similar resolution was introduced into the House of Representatives June 7, 1949. United World Federalists, the organization prompting it, publicly stated a few weeks ago that the following Representatives from New York State are among the 105 sponsors of the resolution in the House:

William T. Byrne, Emmanuel Celler, John C. Davies, Ralph W. Gryn, Louis B. Heller, Jacob K. Javits, Arthur G. Klein, Kenneth B. Keating, Abraham J. Multer, Adam C. Powell, Jr., R. Walter Riehman and Anthony F. Tauriello.

The United World Federalists, as presently organized, was formed three years ago. Among those who took part were James P. Warburg, Rep. Vito Marcantonio, Sholem Asch, Rex Tugwell, Senator Glen H. Taylor (running mate of Henry Wallace in the 1948 election campaign), Norman Corwin, Professor Harlow Shapley, Rex Stout, Rep. Celler, Norman Cousins and Charles G. Bolte. Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and Senator Claude Pepper are among its advocates.

Literature on the proposed World Government is deliberately couched in generalities. When specific answers are sought at meetings of the local units, said to be near 1,000, the usual reply is that details can wait until later.

Official publications, however, have some statements which indicate the extent of the power to be given the World Government.

One of them, for example, says: "World Law shall be enforceable directly upon individuals," and the World Government "should have authority to raise dependable revenue under a . . . direct taxing power independent of national taxation." The consequences of these proposals to each American need not be amplified.

Representation in the proposed World Government will give peoples of the still free nations about ten per cent of the voting power. When a question concerning the insignificant vote accorded to Americans was posed directly to the United World Federalists the letter's official reply was:

"The answer to this question would be 'yes' only if the United States continent in the World Government always voted against world peace. The World Government proposed by United World Federalists is designed to preserve the peace. If the United States wants peace, it will find itself voting with the majority who also want peace."

The United States would also be compelled to scan its military and naval defenses under the World Government which would "possess provisions prohibiting possession by any nation of armament and forces beyond an approved level required for its internal policing." America would, therefore, depend for its protection on an international army responsible only to the World Government. The latter would be in the present state of the world, in control of Communist, or at least Socialist, delegates.

It is also to be understood that all immigration, tariff and other barriers would be removed.

Catholics Used As Fronts

The United World Federalists, in their propaganda campaign to "educate" the public away from patriotism, which they condemn as "nationalism," have openly approached Catholics and Catholic organizations for support. They feature the names of priests and Catholic laymen on their literature.

The movement, however, ignores the conditions laid down so many times by Pope Pius XII for world peace. Especially notable by its absence is the fundamental condition emphasized by the Holy Father: " . . . an open acknowledgement of the rights of God and of His Law, or, at the very least, of the natural law on whose solid foundation are anchored the rights of man."

In making that statement on Nov. 12, 1948,

W/fight communism with common sense to members of the European Union of Federalists Pope Pius added the question: "Isolated from religion, how can all these rights and freedoms assure unity, order and peace?"

Text of Resolution

Following is the text of the resolution for a world federal government as introduced into the State Senate by Senator Walter Mahoney of Buffalo:

"Whereas, Modern science has produced weapons of war which are overwhelmingly destructive and against which there is no sure defense, and war is now a threat to the very existence of our civilization; and

"Whereas, The high taxes and huge deficit resulting inevitably from the arms program must pursue as long as the possibility of aggression exists threaten us with bankruptcy and the destruction of the American way of life; and

"Whereas, The effective maintenance of world peace is the proper concern and responsibility of every American citizen; and

"Whereas, The people of the State of New York, while now enjoying domestic peace and security under the laws of their federal, state and local government, deeply desire the guarantee of world peace; and

"Whereas, All history shows that peace is the product of law and order, and that law and order are the product of government; and

"Whereas, The State of New York, as the home of the United Nations has a particular responsibility to support and strengthen that organization; and

"Whereas, The United Nations, as presently constituted, although accomplishing great good in many fields, has not been given authority to enact, interpret or enforce world law, and under its present charter is incapable of restraining any major nations which may foster or foment war; and

"Whereas, The charter of the United Nations expressly provides, in Articles 108 and 109, a procedure for reviewing and altering the Charter; and

"Whereas, Many states have memorialized Congress, through resolutions by their state legislatures or in referenda by their voters, to initiate steps toward the creation of a world federal government reserving to the nations and to the people those rights not specifically granted as necessary to the establishment and the maintenance of world law and order; and

"Whereas, Many states have already applied to Congress for the identical purpose proposed hereinafter in this resolution; and

"Whereas, Several nations have recently adopted constitutional provisions to facilitate their entry into a world federal government with powers adequate to assure peace; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved (if the Assembly concur) That application is hereby made to the Congress of the United States, pursuant to Article V of the Constitution of the United States, to call a convention for the sole purpose of proposing amendment of the Constitution to expedite and insure the participation of the United States in a world federal government, open to all nations, with powers which, while defined and limited, shall be adequate to preserve peace, whether the proposed charter or constitution of such world federal government be presented in the form of amendments to the charter of the United Nations, or by a world constitutional convention, or otherwise; and be it further

"Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Senate of the United States, the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, and to each member of the Congress duly elected from the State of New York and that the latter be urged to devote themselves to the task of accomplishing the purpose of this resolution."

Delay N. Y. World Government Vote

Republished from N. Y. Journal-American, Jan. 25, 1950

A move in the Legislature at Albany to commit the State to participation in a "World Government" plan was locked in committee today.

Mounting protests from patriotic societies and veterans' organizations, militantly opposed to any plan that would relegate this country to a minor status in a world group, are believed responsible for keeping the resolution from reaching the Senate and Assembly floors.

Sponsored by State Sen. Mahoney, Buffalo Republican, a resolution has been introduced which would memorialize Congress to take action on the world government movement. Mahoney is chairman of the Finance Committee, where the resolution now rests.

In view of increasing civic opposition, committee members are believed wary of reporting it out for a vote.

Could the resolution be pushed through—without fanfare and specifically without a public hearing at which protest groups could aid their views—New York would become the 24th State to adopt it.

Should 32 States act similarly, then Congressional action would be mandatory. The Mahoney resolution proposes an amendment to the Constitution that would:

"Expedite and insure participation of the United States in a world Federal government."

In effect, a "world government" would submerge this country to a virtual nonentity.

As the N. Y. Journal-American has pointed out repeatedly:

"If each nation (there are 64) has one vote, as in the United Nations, the vote of the United States will be equal only to the vote of Siam."

"But the British Empire will have five or more votes. And what is far more serious, Soviet Russia and its satellites will control a larger number."

Typical of organized protest against the resolution is that from the board of directors of the American Coalition—an association comprising 85 leading U. S. patriotic societies.

"We declare emphatic opposition to submergence of the United States in a world federation," the association stressed at its annual convention.

"This project is politically impractical, fraught with disastrous economic possibilities for the American taxpayer, and militarily a menace to American liberty."

Tomorrow and Friday of this week, the Woman's Patriotic Conference, representing 3,000,000 women, is expected to blast the resolution in a meeting at the Hotel Statler in Washington.

LOVING BETRAYAL

By Alfred P. Haake

Released by George Peck, 153 East 38th Street New York 16, N. Y.

Someone has said that the road to Hell is paved with good intentions, but he did not tell us whether those who have paved that road go to Hell.

It would be interesting to know whether the well-meaning perverter of truth, the betrayer of those whom he loves, and the destroyer of that which he seeks to build are judged by their intentions or by the results of their actions,—when the Great Judge renders his final verdict.

We need not answer that question here, but it is important to know that motives, no matter how good, cannot prevent operation of the law of cause and effect.

The doctor who mistakenly prescribes arsenic to cure heart trouble does not thereby prevent the poison from killing his patient, no matter how earnest his hopes that the patient get well.

The architect does not prevent destruction of the house he builds if he ignores the laws of physics in trying to save money for his client.

The teacher who loves his students does not thereby change the laws of psychology which wreck the boy who is mistakenly taught to rely entirely upon others.

So with the political and economic policies of a nation. We know that the communist wants to destroy capitalism and thereby tear down the prosperous economic structure which we have built in the United States. He wants to set up government control over our lives and subjugate the individual to the state. He sees Jesus of Nazareth with his gospel of love as the mortal enemy of Karl Marx with his doctrine of class hate.

But the communist is too wise to attack in the open with clear avowal of his real purpose. He makes the attack in the name of democracy and humanitarianism, seeking to enlist for his fell purposes the aid of the very elements he seeks to destroy.

And so, many a devout church member, or worker for good, accepts the extravagant spending and accumulation of public debt as means to foster the welfare of individuals less fortunate than himself, and to provide easy help for the projects he would serve. He does this out of love for his fellow man, to establish the reign of plenty for all men on earth.

But, whether the purpose behind the extravagant spending, subsidies, government control and piling up of debts be to wreck the capitalistic system quickly, as is the aim of the communist and his socialist pals—or whether it be in the name of democracy to promote humanitarian purposes, as is the hope of the devout and the good—THE END RESULT IS THE SAME in either case. It brings destruction to our traditional American freedom and self-reliance, the setting up of bureaucratic controls which ultimately enslave the individual, lower his standard of living, and ultimately destroy the Church itself.

So the devout church member can become fellow-traveler to the communist without realizing it, and neither the purity nor the nobility of his motives prevents him from serving as ally to the destroyers of his country and its basic freedoms. His methods defeat his purpose.

Sheer love for humanity does not save humanity when those who love it use the methods that ultimately destroy the objects of their love. It then becomes loving betrayal.

OTHERS

Lord, help me live from day to day

In such a self-forgetful way

That even when I kneel to pray

My prayers will be for OTHERS.

Help me in all the work I do

To ever be sincere and true

And know that all I do for YOU

Must needs be done for OTHERS.

Let self be crucified and slain

And buried deep, and all in vain

May efforts be to rise again

Unless to live for OTHERS.

And when my work on earth is done

And my new work in heaven begun

May I forget the crown I've won

While thinking still of OTHERS.

Federal World Repeal Praised

Republished from N. Y. Journal-American Jan. 25, 1950

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—Daughters of the American Revolution today praised the Georgia Legislature for rescinding its previous backing of the world federation movement.

The Georgia Senate voted 34 to 8 to repeal a resolution passed two years ago calling for a world government.

The Georgia House previously passed the repeal legislation unanimously.

AIDED BY VETS

Mrs. Lola Lee Brington, executive secretary of DAR's national defense committee, said Georgia is the first of 22 states on record to reverse its endorsement of the plan to replace national sovereignty with an international federation.

Mrs. T. Earle Stribling, DAR state chairman for national defense, led the fight for repeal. Veterans organizations, including the Veterans of Foreign Wars, aided.

"THE GREEK CATHOLIC PATRIARCHATE JAFFA (PALESTINE)

Jaffa, August 4, 1948

Mr. Delegate,

I wish to inform you that my Church has been desecrated by the Jews. It was on July 28. Armed Jewish soldiers broke through the Church door. They stole two chalices and sacred vessels containing the Holy Host, three crosses, a patena plate, two altar spoons, several gold and silver ex-votos, and a leather case. That is what I have been able to trace as missing. Then they threw away the icons of Jesus-Christ and the Holy Virgin in the garden next door.

When I went to complain to the commandant of the nearest military post, the soldiers laughed at me and would not let me see their chief.

I cannot remain silent when faced with so great a crime. I now wish to protest against so hateful a desecration. We are constantly hearing Jewish leaders make high-sounding statements that they respect churches and religious leaders. Such acts do not follow their words.

I am acquainting you with facts of which the Christian world at large is unaware. I beg of you, Mr. Delegate, to convey those facts to my religious chiefs in Jerusalem, at the Greek Catholic Patriarchate. Likewise, I should be grateful if you could communicate those facts to the Apostolic Delegate.

That, Mr. Delegate, is what I believe was my duty to report to you.

Respectfully yours,

G. REZK,

MARXIST ANTI-CHRISTIAN WAR INSIDE U. S. A. HITS NEW HIGH WITH SMEAR-BUND ON THE AIR

MARXIST CREEPING WORLD CONQUEST THREATENING CHRISTIANITY

Thomas J. Watson, General Dwight E. Eisenhower, Father Robert I. Gannon, S. J., Hon. James E. Forrestal, John J. Raskob, and other notables smeared

It is now very obvious to the world that Christianity continues to be the only effective force which is now preventing a Marxist victory completely covering the entire globe. The Marxists are also well aware that such is the fact.

The running fight which Christianity has been putting up against the Marxists world-wide forces has been, until recently a single-handed fight. Christianity alone held the citadel of civilization until other important groups within our political, economic and social systems woke up to the fact that their "life, liberty and pursuit of happiness" were being threatened as never before in all the recorded history of mankind.

Civilization cannot possibly survive unless Christianity survives. Civilization as we know it is the product of Christianity. They must destroy Christianity before Marxists can force upon the peoples of the world their "dictatorship of the proletariat" form of government in place of our existing "government by the consent of the governed", the only form of government "by the people, for the people and of the people."

Christianity and Marxism cannot exist in the same places at the same time. One of the two must give way to the other. When Marxism comes in by the front door Christianity goes out the back door. And with Christianity go all the cherished liberties and all the priceless freedoms of the individual. A form of atheistic Marxist dictatorship displaces democracy and Christianity disappears. That is what happens whenever and wherever Marxists get their feet into the door. It appears that is about to happen here too.

The most dangerous enemies of Christianity wear the most innocent-looking disguises and they camouflage their insidious activities in the most expert manner. They seek to create the illusion that they are lovingly "patting" Christianity on the back. But as they pat Christianity on the back they are only trying to locate the softest spot to plunge the knife.

SMEAR-OF-THE-YEAR WINNER

1949 World's Champion Walter Winchell
Hatchet-man No. 1 of the Smear-bund.

These enemies of Christianity know how to infiltrate into the hearts of Americans professing Christianity. It is elementary logic that it is impossible to destroy an enemy unless the enemy is kept very close. The ravings and rantings over the radio-networks of their devotion to the cause of Christianity must not blind anyone to the truth. The Christmas season provides them with an excellent opportunity to dig themselves a a little deeper into the confidence of novices.

The Marxists will leave no stone unturned to eradicate Christianity from the face of the earth. They correctly understand that Marxism will dry up and die out if Christianity is able to complete its program of establishing the teachings of Jesus Christ as a foundation for a world-wide brotherhood-of-man and its social, political, and economic systems. The survival of Marxism requires that Marxists thwart that aspiration.

The international, anti-Christian, Marxists inside U.S.A. are waging a most ruthless war of extermination against Christianity with great success. Until, or unless the secret use of this invisible weapon is quickly exposed to all its innocent victims opposition to it must result in defeat. Propaganda over the radio networks is today the most powerful peace-time weapon in the world. The avowed enemies of Christianity are now using that deadly weapon to an extent little realized or understood by the defenders of Christianity. Their eyes must be opened at once.

These evil enemies of Christianity are now exerting a form of absolute "thought control" over the 150,000,000 unsuspecting Americans professing Christianity as they sit day after day and listen to scientifically camouflaged propaganda sent into their own homes over 61,124,281 radios. Their blind faith in certain radio commentators renders them incapable of understanding that they have become the victims of this vicious weapon by which Christianity is being sabotaged.

The quantity and the quality of this vicious propaganda is worked into broadcasts disguised as the confidential exposure of secret scandals behind the news of the day. The unhesitant and unquestioned acceptance by the public makes this propaganda dangerously effective. The generous contributions of this cooperation by many of the leading radio commentators supports the omni-

NEW YORK TIMES DEBUNKS NAZI SLAUGHTER OF 6,000,000 JEWS

Leading spokesman for world Jewry reveals important information

The New York Times publishes the proof that there are more persons professing Judaism in the world today than there were in 1938. The Zionists have claimed that the Nazis slaughtered 6,000,000 persons professing Judaism between 1939 and 1945. The figures which the New York Times publishes on this subject are reliable and have been obtained from official sources.

The statistics given by the New York Times prove positively that Zionists resorted to this gigantic untruth to gain the world's sympathy and support for their political ambitions and nationalist aspirations in Palestine. It was a well known fact to the Zionists when they were using this vicious propaganda that there was no foundation for their false claims that Nazis had slaughtered 6,000,000 human beings because Judaism happened to be their religious belief.

The American Jewish Committee wants to be recognized as the Vatican of Judaism. They claim to be the authorized spokesmen for world Jewry. Statistics which they have issued in the past have always been regarded as very reliable. Organized in 1908, the American Jewish Committee has acted throughout the world as the guardian of the interests and the welfare of persons professing Judaism. Its active leaders have included Jacob H. Schiff, Paul Warburg, Herbert Lehman, Henry Morgenthau, Sr., and Americans professing Judaism of similar origin.

The authoritative World Almanac for the year 1947, on page 219, states that the world's population of persons professing Judaism, in the year 1939 was 15,688,259. The World Almanac states that this figure was supplied to them by predictions of the coming triumph over Christianity in the not too distant future by the international, anti-Christian, Marxists.

It appears more than pure coincidence that these cleverly camouflaged attacks by the radio commentators always follow the identical "line" which is constantly repeated in every other form of propaganda in their war against Christianity by the international, anti-Christian, Marxists. It is more than mere accident that the thinking of both these groups is identical on identical issues. Outside of this mutual interest it is impossible to discover any basis for their mutual interest on any other subjects. Without fail they will jump into action at the same time on the same subject from the identical viewpoint when the effect is to sabotage public confidence in Christianity.

These numerous radio commentators are the unseen soldiers in the army of the enemies of Christianity. Their vocabularies are the weapons they employ. They invent smears which are more deadly than bullets. Their radio scripts virtually become the death warrants for their hunted prey. Nothing less than a miracle is ever able to rescue their victims from the fate which awaits them.

The completely unjustified and the wholly unwarranted attacks upon the character and the integrity of distinguished men of the highest standing and of unquestioned probity earns for these radio commentators the title "smear-bund".

These (in)famous smear-bund members are at all times engaged in a never-ending contest amongst themselves for the championship of the smear-bund. They compete to attain the position of "Hatchet-man No. 1" of the smear-bund. Those of them who smear the mostest and the bestest are the ones who prosper the mostest and advance the fastest with the mysterious assistance of their many powerful unseen friends.

These hatchet-men of this smear-bund have developed character-assassination to a science and they have become masters in the profession. They first build unlimited public confidence in themselves by coloring ordinary news items with pious and patriotic words. They seek to create a holier-than-thou reputation with the public which then acts as a camouflage for the smears which they then can broadcast without fear of suspicion. They "fool all of the people all of the time" judging by the existing state of affairs.

The average radio listener is not able to distinguish between the broadcast of genuine news items and the counterfeit news-like smears which are cleverly disguised to appear as genuine news. It is as difficult for the public to distinguish between the genuine and the counterfeit in these broadcasts as it is for the public to distinguish between genuine and counterfeit money. It takes an expert of the Treasury Department to do that.

The Walter Winchels, the Drew Pearsons, the William Gaillores, the Johannes Steels are good examples of how the hatchet-men of the smear-bund work. Observers who are regarded by all as competent experts in this field state that today nearly all radio commentators with large audiences on the air, with very few exceptions, are serving in the ranks of the smear-bund as hatchet-men shock-troops in a secret army.

Americans who profess Christianity must be placed in the position to identify these enemies of Christianity who fill the air-waves with this form of sabotage against Christianity. They will be able to identify these concealed smears with the ease of experts if they will study the following case histories with great care.

Thomas Jefferson is reported to have said, "Vigilance is the eternal price of liberty." To persons professing Christianity throughout the world it is more true today than ever. The only reminder they require is the gruesome fate of the living and the dead in Russia, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Bulgaria, and other satellite states of the Soviet Union. It can happen here too. It will unless it is prevented!

Drew Pearson, over WJZ (N.Y.) and over the entire ABC Network smeared Mr. Thomas J. Watson and General Dwight D. Eisenhower in exactly the following words, which were officially recorded and transcribed for the radio industry by Radio Reports, Incorporated,

"New York, Exclusive:

Thomas J. Watson the President of INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES, and the man who picked General Eisenhower to be President of Columbia University, will hold a very significant private dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria tomorrow night to launch General Eisenhower for President.

However, General Eisenhower, may I respectfully suggest that you be careful. Tom Watson is the same gentleman who received a medal from Adolph Hitler but did not take the trouble to return it until after France fell.

If certain industrialists like Tom Watson had been a little more careful about kow-towing to Hitler before the war, you, General Eisenhower, would not have lost so many of your men during the war."

The radio industry's authentic Hooper survey of the radio audiences of leading commentators lists Drew Pearson with about 25,000,000 radios turned in for his broadcast every Sunday night. It is easy to believe that by Monday morning every home in the United States is well acquainted with the smears by Drew Pearson on those Sunday night broadcasts. That (in)famous smear-of-the-year indicated the infinitely patriotic Mr. Watson with the crime of betraying the American Army men fighting in Europe with General Eisenhower. In the same breath Drew Pearson indicated General Eisenhower as incompetent to be at the head of the American Army in Europe.

Upon what foundation of fact did Drew Pearson base this smear? In 1933 Mr. Watson was the President of the International Chamber of Commerce. The leading nations of the world have for years made it a custom to decorate the President of the International Chamber of Commerce with an honorary decoration. The evidence of this honor is usually in the form of a medal.

During the term of Mr. Watson's office as President of the International Chamber of Commerce it happened also that Adolph Hitler was the Chancellor of the German Government. In his capacity as head of his government Hitler made the presentation to Mr. Watson, who accepted the medal only in his official capacity.

That is the extent to which Mr. Watson was decorated. But Drew Pearson wanted the American public to believe that Mr. Watson was "kow-towing" to Adolph Hitler to such an extent that he thus is guilty of contributing to the death of "so many" of General Eisenhower's soldiers who did not return with him to their homes, and never will.

Drew Pearson could not have uttered a more dishonorable smear than that one. To "warn" General Eisenhower to "beware" of Mr. Watson over the ABC Network with over 25,000,000 news-hungry ardent Drew Pearson fans tuned-in is not an intelligent or sincere way by which to convey information of such a private character to a person with General Eisenhower's fame.

It is alarming to learn what is behind this bit of news. The tradition of journalism in this country invokes the obligation to hew to the line and let the chips fall where they may. The American public desires and deserves the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. Well here it is, lock, stock and barrel.

Mr. Watson had been high-pressed by the creme-de-la-creme of the Zionist elite to be a good Christian and to accept the office of Chairman of the National Christian Committee of the United Jewish Appeal. Mr. Watson accepted. United Jewish Appeal raises money in the United States for the Zionist world-wide "united front." The name of Mr. Watson could make it easier for United Jewish Appeal to obtain funds from Americans professing Christianity and equally easier from Americans professing Judaism.

Mr. Watson was willing and even anxious to lend the use of his name to swell the total of the money being raised in this country for worthy philanthropic use here at home and for humanitarian use abroad for relief work among Europeans professing Judaism. Mr. Watson's work in this field is the legend of a long lifetime consecrated by devotion to the welfare of others unable to win their fight against their plight.

If either Mr. Bernard Baruch, Mr. Herbert Lehman, Mr. Henry Morgenthau Jr., or Mr. E. M. Warburg was ever the Chairman of a National Jewish Committee of a United Jewish Appeal that fact never got into the newspapers. There were at that time in the displaced persons camps of eastern Europe less than 200,000 persons professing Judaism and over 600,000 persons professing Christianity. In spite of this Mr. Watson put his shoulder to the wheel for human beings whose suffering he could mitigate as a non-sectarian American professing Christianity.

Mr. Watson learned that money being raised in the United States for relieving hunger, disease, and poverty among persons professing Judaism in the camps and elsewhere in Eastern Europe was being used to purchase immense quantities of the most modern military equipment from the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia, and other Soviet Union satellites with these U.S.A. dollars.

Mr. Watson also learned that substantial amounts collected in this country for philanthropic uses abroad were being spent in this country for the purchase of similar military equipment. This fund was secretly equipping an invisible, invincible military juggernaut which Zionists were smuggling into the Holy Land, piece by piece, as agricultural machinery and other mislabeled shipments under the nose of the British authorities who were powerless to prevent it owing to Zionist pressure in London.

This modern military juggernaut was made up only of the finest and the latest weapons, from Stalin tanks, Sherman tanks, four-motored bombing planes, heavy artillery, Bofors anti-aircraft, guns, Bren gun-carriers, to Lee-Enfield rifles, flame throwers, bazookas and other modern death-dealing weapons fit for a World War III army. The Palestinian defenders of their ancient homeland had military equipment which can be compared qualitatively with the arms available to the Minute Men in the Battle of Lexington if fought today against a U.S.S.R.

Mr. Watson sent for Mr. Henry Morgenthau Jr. the National Chairman of United Jewish Appeal. Mr. Watson explained his position and tendered his resignation in writing as the Chairman of the National Christian Committee of United Jewish Appeal. Mr. Morgenthau accepted it in writing but asked Mr. Watson to withhold announcing his resignation publicly until Mr. Morgenthau could consult on the matter with his associates. Mr. Watson granted this request.

United Jewish Appeal correctly feared that their ability to raise funds would be seriously injured if the truth were made public stating the real reason for Mr. Watson's resignation. This crisis invited action by United Jewish Appeal. Mr. Watson's office had already confirmed his resignation to correspondents of foreign newspapers who had immediately cabled the news to their papers abroad. United Jewish Appeal had requested New York newspapers not to mention the fact. It was kept out of papers in the meantime while United Jewish Appeal took steps to prepare the smear to queer Mr. Watson.

While United Jewish Appeal had Mr. Watson on the hook, Drew Pearson gave his (in)famous broadcast smearing Mr. Watson as "anti-Semitic". The typical "anti-Semitic" smear is to tie a person up with Adolph Hitler. No smear is more deadly than that one. Including the "warning" to General Eisenhower made the smear more deadly. Many fine American soldiers professing Judaism died while fighting with General Eisenhower. On account of that smear their friends could think him "anti-Semitic."

Could it have been a mere coincidence that Drew Pearson uttered that (in)famous smear at that particular moment? Or was there a pipeline that dropped that hint to Drew Pearson? That is the "$64. question" to which the public will itself have to supply the correct answer.

After the (in)famous smear by Drew Pearson it was only a matter of hours before Mr. Watson was advised solemnly that contributors to United Jewish Appeal professing Judaism as well as Christianity were reacting very unfavorably to the smear. "Was it not bad policy to continue in office as Chairman of a United Jewish Appeal subsidiary a person who had been publicly accused of 'kow-towing' with their greatest enemy, Adolph Hitler?" they asked him.

Mr. Watson was advised that United Jewish Appeal "would no longer require your services," and Mr. Watson was neatly dismissed before he could make his resignation public. That "anti-Semitic" smear did the trick. And the public never did learn where their money had been going until the news appeared in the papers. How many millions of these good U.S. dollars went to the U.S.S.R. or her puppet pets for this huge juggernaut very few will ever know. The funds were paid via Switzerland to conceal the truth. It is no less than an outright insult to General Eisenhower for Drew Pearson to "warn" General Eisenhower "that you be very careful" about Mr. Watson. General Eisenhower is above accepting Drew Pearson as a substitute for his Army Intelligence veterans to investigate the war-time loyalty of his new peace-time friends.

The "anti-Semitic" smear of Mr. Watson had a two-fold effect. The first purpose was explained in the preceding paragraph. The second effect was to deprive General Eisenhower of the political support of Mr. Watson, should he decide to consent to listen to the overtures that he became a candidate for President of the U.S.A.

The veterans and the families of the boys who died fighting under General Eisenhower were hardly likely to look upon General Eisenhower as their choice as candidate for President if they realized that this principal backer was Tom Watson of "kow-towing" fame with Hitler.

The 13,000,000 veterans and the many million relatives and friends of the boys who did not come back could hardly be expected to vote for General Eisenhower as the President of the United States after discovering the General's big backer contributed to the "loss of so many of your men during the war" by "kow-towing with Adolph Hitler." Their votes would be lost.

Drew Pearson smeared General Eisenhower and thereby made the nomination of President Truman certain. The President's friends knew that if Mr. Watson actively supported General Eisenhower that General Eisenhower must win the nomination. And having won the nomination General Eisenhower would become the next President of the United States. They did not want that to happen if they could prevent it.

So the rug was pulled out from under General Eisenhower by Drew Pearson on behalf of the friends of President Truman. There can be no doubt in the minds of persons competent to judge that the well-timed smear of Mr. Watson was responsible for keeping General Eisenhower from becoming the President of the United States.

We hope that the 13,000,000 veterans and the families and friends of the boys who were left behind in European cemeteries will never give further consideration to similar repeat performances by the hatchet-men of the smear-bund. It seems they will need General Eisenhower in peace-time more than in war-time.

The late Hon. Mr. James E. Forrestal was not quite so fortunate. He paid with his life for his patriotic opposition to those international, anti-Christian, Marxists who planned to run him out of public life. But he had been a fighter as a young man. It was not so easy to knock him out. He always stayed in the fight to the very finish.

The nature, the intensity, and the frequency of the smears against the late Hon. Mr. Forrestal were beyond human endurance. Nerves of the finest spring steel would snap like a straw under the strain of the responsibilities of his official duties and the added task of defending the honor of himself and his family against the pick of the hatchet-men of the smear-bund. No one man could stand up very long under all that.

Walter Winchel and Drew Pearson both went to work on the late Hon. Mr. Forrestal. They did not spare him. As the No. 1 and the No. 2 hatchet-men of the smear-bund they added gory glory to their inglorious profession. It never ended. It was first one and then the other. The one-two, one-two, one-two of the fight to a finish was not ended until he ended his own life.

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal knew the score. He knew that behind these smears was the invisible hand of the international, anti-Christian, Marxists. He knew what they wanted. They also knew that he knew. He must be discredited even at the risk of making life unbearable for him.

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal was a true patriot in every sense of the word. He died fighting for his country. The security of this country was at stake. He knew it. The country did not yet know it. They do know it today however and they have still a lot to learn.

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal knew that 77% of all the known oil reserves of the entire world were in the geographic area within 500 miles of Palestine. The security of this country and the peace of the world required that this essential sinew of modern warfare should not pass into the control of any nation which was hostile to us.

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal knew that in the Dead Sea in the Holy Land were chemicals upon which the British Colonial Office officially placed a valuation in excess of Five Trillion Dollars, or, in excess of Five-thousand Billion Dollars, ($5,000,000,000,000.00), twenty times the amount of the entire national debt of the United States today. The strategic importance of these chemicals in time of war and in time of peace makes it vital to the welfare and security of this country that the Dead Sea chemicals shall not pass into the control of any nation hostile to us. The consequences can prove catastrophic.

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal expressed the view that transplanting to Palestine a population of a few million from the geographic area in eastern Europe which had been for more than thirty years incubating Marxists and their Communist subordinates would be establishing in that strategic area a satellite state for the Soviet Union. The unseen realities which exist today in the Holy Land confirm the wisdom of his vision. The truth is gradually unfolding itself!

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal expressed the view that the peoples of Palestine be allowed by means of a plebiscite to express their desire for the kind of government under which they wished to live. This was in keeping with the theory of government established in 1776 by the founders of this country. It also was the purpose for which World War I and II were fought. The right of self-determination was the essence of Wilson's Fourteen Points, Roosevelt's Four Freedoms, and the Charter of United Nations. The Judaic population of Palestine was only 7% of the total in 1919 before the 850,000 aliens were forced in by the Zionist international conspiracy. At the time United Nations recommended partition of Palestine in 1947 the Judaic population was then less than 33% of the total.

The late Hon. Mr. Forrestal could not be high-pressured into supporting the Zionist conspiracy engineered from abroad for using the prestige, the military power and the material resources of the United States for the invasion and conquest of Palestine by the Eastern Europeans who coveted the Holy Land. For this truly American attitude he was marked for extermination from behind the scenes by the international, anti-Christian, Marxists.

Interesting facts relating to the Holy Land and to the who, what, when, where and why of the latest developments in the Holy Land for many years will be found in other news items in this issue. They are very informative and very authoritative and should be carefully read.

Pursuant to their pitiless policy of persecuting Americans professing Christianity who are in the front ranks of those who oppose them, Walter Winchel smeared the much beloved Father Robert I. Gannon and the distinguished Mr. John J. Raskob, whose assistance made General Motors Corporation what it is today.

To his regular Sunday night radio audience of over 25,000,000 listeners over the entire ABC Network Walter Winchel informed his trusting listeners that Father Gannon and Mr. Raskob were invited to attend on the following day a "very secret meeting" in the offices of "the pro-France propagandist" to hear a "secret speaker" who is a former associate of "Adolph Hitler's" sledge in the Near East, the Grand Mufti! Walter Winchel wound up by saying "Somebody ought to expose this thing, so I just did".

This is the standard "anti-Semitic" smear of the hatchet-men of the smear-bund. It is the typical smear against those whom they seek to discredit in the eyes of the public. The Grand Mufti of Jerusalem has received tremendous free publicity by Zionists as the man who went to Germany, where he taught the Nazi Heinrich Himmler how to build furnaces and gas-chambers for the extermination of persons professing Judaism for that reason and that reason alone.

To link an American professing Christianity with the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem is by far the most deadly of all the "anti-Semitic" smears. To link Father Gannon and Mr. Raskob in the same breath with the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem is to the American Jewish Committee and by the Jewish Statistical Bureau of the Synagogues of America, H. S. Linfield, Director. It is not possible to find the equal of these two sources for unchallengeable statistics on this topic.

In the year 1948 the New York Times stated that the world's population in 1948 of persons professing Judaism amounted to "15,000,000,000 to 18,000,000,000 Jews" in addition to the "600,000 to 700,000 in Palestine." The New York Times at that time spared no effort to establish the exact world's population of persons professing Judaism. They are very expert in this field.

These figures can be accepted without hesitancy by even the most skeptical Zionist. The New York Times is owned and operated by two outstanding Americans professing Judaism. They would not permit their paper to publish untrue statistics on that subject for any consideration.

The New York Times in 1948 assigned one of the world's leading authorities on matters relating to populations to prepare an up-to-the-minute article on the situation in Palestine. The statements of this noted authority, the well-known Mr. Hanson W. Baldwin, are accepted everywhere and by everyone without hesitancy on matters connected with statistical facts.

After his investigation and consultations with official sources, Mr. Hanson W. Baldwin, in the New York Times on February 22, 1948 over his own signature, supplied the figures stated above. Their reliability cannot be questioned.

The American Jewish Committee and the Statistical Bureau of the Synagogues of America officially confirm the world population of persons professing Judaism in 1938 as 15,688,259 and the New York Times officially states that in the year 1918 that population totaled between 15,600,000 and 18,700,000. Based upon these figures from sources which cannot be challenged the disappearance of 6,000,000 during that period can only be regarded as political propaganda.

It must be very evident that the world's population of persons professing Judaism would today be less than 10,000,000 if the 6,000,000 allegedly murdered by the Nazis were deducted from the 1938 world's population of 15,688,259. The authenticated 1918 world's population of 15,600,000 to 18,700,000 persons professing Judaism completely discredits this propaganda.

The Zionists have used this vicious untruth as propaganda to entice the sympathy and support of the non-Zionist populations of the world for their well-camouflaged and completely misrepresented intentions in Palestine. The Zionists did not underestimate the tremendous force this big untruth would exert upon the sympathetic and the unsuspecting non-Zionist populations everywhere. It won support which won for them.

The Zionists pointed their accusing finger at populations professing Christianity and pleaded for their support the world over for the "remnants of Hitler's wrath," never overlooking to play up the alleged 6,000,000 who were murdered. The Zionists claimed the right to ask for this assistance in creating a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine as a matter of atonement for the alleged slaughter of 6,000,000 of their co-religionists by Hitler and others professing Christianity. Their statements were not doubted.

We join with all other civilized peoples of every religious belief who mourn the loss of even one innocent life as the victim of the madness which swept over Europe. Our grief over the deaths of countless innocent men, women and children in the European and Asiatic war areas includes the peoples of all religions, races, and nationalities. A mutilated pregnant woman, a butchered baby, and a cremated living human being stir the same reaction within us whether the victims attended a synagogue or a church or neither. Survival is not a sectarian struggle.

SOVIET UNION WITHHOLDS ZIONIST SOVEREIGNTY IN THEIR HISTORIC HOMELAND

The historic homeland of the Eastern Europeans of Judaized-Khazar origin is indicated on the map on this page. They have lived in that geographic area for two-thousand years. Before they occupied that area their historic homeland was beyond the Urals in Asia. They had lived there since pre-historic times. Their ancestors had never set their feet in Palestine.

The Turki-Finn race of Asia, the Khazar tribal-nation, were a different race than the Semites who inhabited all Palestine from pre-historic times on down through the ages until the recent invasion of Palestine by the 850,000 Eastern Europeans who claim they were being "repatriated" to Palestine.

The territories in Eastern Europe inhabited in recent times by populations of Judaized-Khazar origin include the southern portion of the Soviet Union and large sections of Lithuania, Poland, Galicia, Hungary, Rumania and Austria. This entire area of about 800,000 square miles at one time formed the Judaized-Khazar kingdom. It was incorporated into the expanding Russian Empire when the Khazars were conquered by the Russians shortly after the 10th Century. Historians and anthropologists confirm that Palestine never was the homeland of the Judaized Khazars and support it with facts.

Between the 11th and 18th Centuries Russia suffered many defeats at the hands of the aggressive young kingdoms which were expanding on Russia's western borders. Russia suffered defeats by Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary, Austria and Rumania. Russia was compelled after each defeat to surrender portions of her territory to these victorious neighbors. Thus Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary, Austria, and Rumania acquired with their territory the Judaized Khazars inhabiting that territory.

The presence of these Judaic populations in these many eastern European countries is the result of partition of that portion of Russia inhabited by the Judaized Khazars among the countries where they are now found. The Judaic populations of these countries are not the result of the immigration to eastern Europe from Palestine of Judaic exiles at any period in the history of Palestine as is generally believed.

The territories thus surrendered by Russia in each case consisted of sections of the former Khazar kingdom. With the territories thus acquired from Russia the victorious nations also acquired the populations which inhabited these territories. Throughout history that has been the normal consequence when nations have acquired territories by warfare against their neighbors.

The continual relocating of national boundaries as a result of these wars changed the nationality of these former Russians to the nationalities of their newly-acquired motherlands. Thus millions of Judaized-Khazars of Russian nationality automatically acquired the new nationalities of Poland, Lithuania, Galicia, Hungary, Austria and the nations in that area.

But these Judaized Khazars only changed the name of their nationality. They did not in the least change their customs, their culture, their language, nor their racial origin. The bonds which they formerly had in common continued to hold them together as closely as though the conquest by Russia and the partition by these many nations of the former Judaized Khazar Kingdom had never taken place. The Talmud, Yiddish, Judaism and their one-thousand year tradition as an independent, sovereign kingdom united them and has kept them so.

The eastern European populations of Khazar origin can rightfully claim a common nationality. The Khazar Kingdom formed one of the integral units which were assembled by conquest to form the Russian Empire. During the thousand years since its foundation in 885 A.D. the Russians have conquered 9,000,000 square miles and the populations within them have been absorbed.

The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics is composed of sixteen separate individual Socialist Republics. They have united and formed the Soviet Union. None of these sixteen separate independent Soviet Socialist Republics, which were carved out of the former Russian Empire, has as good a claim to restoration of its status as a separate state as the population of the former Khazar Kingdom has to that status.

The Soviet Union, in keeping with the Marxist dogma upon which it is founded, does CHAZARS: A people of Turkish origin whose life and history are interwoven with the very beginnings of the history of the Jews of Russia.

Among the classical writers of the Middle Ages they were known as the "Chozars," "Khazirs."

Historical evidence points to the region of the Ural as the home of the Chazars.

Driven onward by the nomadic tribes of the steppes and by their own desire for plunder and revenge

The Chazars had already occupied part of the Black Sea region.

About 431 they were for a time tributary to Attila—Siderius Apollinaris relates that the Chazars followed the banners of Attila—and in 452 fought on the Catalanian fields in company with the Black Huns and Alans.

In the second half of the sixth century the Chazars moved westward.

The kingdom of the Chazars was firmly established in most of South Russia long before the foundation of the Russian monarchy by the Varangians (855).

In the second half of the sixth century the Chazars moved westward. They established themselves in the territory bounded by the Sea of Azov, the Don and the lower Volga, the Caspian Sea, and the northern Caucasus.

The Chazars had already occupied the northeastern part of the Black Sea region.

Early in that century the kingdom of the Chazars had become powerful enough to enable the chaghan to send to the Byzantine emperor Heraclius an army of 10,000 men, by whose aid he conquered the Persians (626-627).

At this time the kingdom of the Chazars stood at the height of its power, and was constantly at war.

In 679 the Chazars subjugated the Bulgars and extended their sway farther west between the Don and the Dnieper, as far as the head-waters of the Donetz in the province of Lebedia.

The Caucasian Goths (Tetraxites) were subjugated by the Chazars, probably about the seventh century.

They were no longer governed by their own princes, but were ruled by the kings of the Chazars.

Chazarian troops were among the body-guard of the Byzantine imperial court; and they fought for Leo VI against Simon of Bulgaria in 933.

In the conquest of Hungary by the Magyars (899) the Chazars rendered considerable assistance.

At the end of the eighth century, when the Crimean Goths rebelled against the sovereignty of the Chazars, the latter occupied the Gothic capital, Doros.

It was one of the successors of Bu named Obadiah, who regenerated the kingdom and strengthened the Jewish religion. He invited Jewish scholars to settle in his dominions; and founded synagogues and schools. The people were instructed in the Bible, Mishnah, and Talmud and in the "divine service of the hazzanim."

It was probably about that time that the chaghan of the Chazars and his grades, together with a large number of his heathen people, embraced the Jewish religion.

The chaghan was the king of the North, the ruler of the Khazirs.

According to A. Harkavy the conversion took place in 620; according to others, in 700.

The Jewish population in the entire domain of the Chazars, in the period between the seventh and tenth centuries, must have been considerable.

Written, about the ninth century, it appears as if all the Chazars were Jews and that they had been converted to Judaism only a short time before that book was written.

This seems to have been the beginning of the downfall of the Chazar kingdom.

Varangians had firmly established themselves at Kiev.

The Russian

This alliance was renewed from time to time until the final conquest of the Chazars by the Russians.

After a hard fight the Russians conquered the Chazars

Five years after the correspondence between the king of the Chazars and Hasdai ibn Shaprut (963), the Russian prince Svyatoslaw made war upon the Chazars.

Four years later the Russians conquered all the Chazarian territory east of the Sea of Azov.

Only the Crimean territory of the Chazars remained in their possession until 1016, when they were dispossessed by a joint expedition of Russians and Byzantines.

These appellations of the River Don and of the city of Kiev point evidently to Jewish-Chazar influences.

The Russians had already freed from the rule of the Chazars a part of the Black Bulgars, and had established a separate Russian duchy under the name of "Tmutrakani"; but in the Crimean peninsula the Chazars still had possessions.

Varangians had firmly established themselves

The Russian

The last of the chaghans, George Tzola, was taken prisoner; some of the Chazars took refuge in an island of the Caspian, others retired to the Caucasus; while many were sent as prisoners of war to Kiev, where a Chazar community had long existed.

Many members of the Chazarian royal family emigrated to Spain.

Some went to Hungary, but the great mass of the people remained in their native country.

The Chazars cultivated rice, millet, fruit, grains, and the vine. They had important fisheries on the Caspian Sea, and the sturgeon constituted the main article of food.

King Joseph in his letter to Hasdai gives the following account of his kingdom:

"The country up the river is within a four months' journey of the Orient, settled by the following nations who pay tribute to the Chazars: Burtas, Bulgar, Sogor, Arison, Tzannis, Yendit, Seveer, and Slavkon.

Even the Russian Slavonians of Kiev had, in the ninth century, to pay as yearly tax to the Chazars a sword and the skin of a squirrel for each house.

When the chaghan wanted to punish any one, he said, "Go and commit suicide"—a method resembling the Japanese custom of hara-kiri.

The Chazar languages predominated.

Succession of Kings. Obadiah was succeeded by his son Hezekiah; the latter by his son Manasseh; Manasseh by Hanukkah, a brother of Obadiah; Hanukkah by his son Isaac; Isaac by his son Moses (or Manasseh II); the latter by his son Nisi; and Nisi by his son Aaron II. King Joseph himself was a son of Aaron, and ascended the throne in accordance with the law of the Chazars relating to succession.

King Joseph, in his letter to Hasdai ibn Shaprut (about 960), gives the following account of the conversion:

"Some centuries ago King Bulm reigned over the Chazars.
To him God appeared in a dream and promised him might and glory.

From the month of Nisan (April) they led a nomadic life in the steppes, returning to the city about the Feast of Hanukkah (December).

The king had twenty-five wives, all of royal blood, and sixty concubines, all famous beauties. Each one dwelt in a separate tent and was watched by a eunuch.

HISTORY OF JERUSALEM NULLIFIES ALL ZIONIST CLAIMS UPON HOLY CITY

In a special cable to the New York Times from Jerusalem on January 3, 1975, Moshe Sharett, the Foreign Minister is reported to have stated the view of his government regarding the reason for the interest of certain Christian denominations in the city of Jerusalem.

In an important appearance before his Parliament sitting in Jerusalem, Moshe Sharett expressed the view that the Christian denomination to which he referred was interested in Jerusalem for the following reason:

"a fanatical religious dogma, the desire to seek revenge for an ancient sin and to settle an account of nineteen centuries standing."

It is inconceivable that the spokesman for the invading Eastern Europeans of Judaized Khazar origin whose aggression against the Holy Land is a blot on the escutcheon of civilized mankind would utter such a bold libel against Christianity. But it is far better to learn now what is really in their minds than to go on believing their pretense and hypocrisy.

It is needless to state here what Jerusalem and the Holy Land represent to Christianity.
Christians the world over understand this without any necessity for giving here a presentation of the nature and the extent of their reverence for the sacred soil of the Nativity of Christ.

But what is to be said or done when these blood-thirsty, ruthless alien invaders of this Holy Land libel in such terms the attachment, the reverence and the love of Christians of all denominations for the birthplace of their religious belief and the spiritual leaders whose lives are woven into the sanctity of that Holy area.

By what historical, ethnic, spiritual, moral, or political right have these Eastern Europeans of Judaized Khazar origin to claim Jerusalem as the "capital" of their "homeland" and to possess it exclusively with the sole jurisdiction of a rightful occupant?

From all the facts which can be assembled it is evident that they have occupied and now physically possess Jerusalem and other areas in Palestine only because they were able to deceive Christianity, and to dishonestly collect hundreds of millions of dollars in the United States with which to equip a modern army to overpower and drive into exile rightful occupants of Palestine.

They are in Jerusalem today because the Soviet Union and the United States supplied them with the weapons with which to carry out their terrorist campaign against Christianity in the Holy Land. They have finally come out in the open and exposed their true colors.

History contradicts and refutes each and every claim to the city of Jerusalem made by the 800,000 trespassers of Judaized-Khazar origin from eastern Europe, who have recently invaded Jerusalem and called it their "capital."

During its history Jerusalem has passed six times from one religion to another. Surely the converts to these religions throughout the world cannot each claim that Jerusalem is their national "capital" in the political sense of the word. It is easy to understand how they may feel a spiritual attachment to the birthplace of their religion.

The conversion to Judaism in the 8th Century of the population of the Khazar Kingdom, in the area indicated on the map, does not give these former Asiatic people the basis to claim Jerusalem or the surrounding area as their ancient homeland. The Eastern Europeans of Judaized-Khazar origin in all their recorded history have never had a national association with Palestine or are they of the same racial origin as the Semites who always lived there.

If the precedent they seek to establish was to be recognized it would be logical for the 6,000,000 natives in the heart of Africa who have embraced Catholicism in the recent decades to claim the Vatican as their homeland. 3,000,000 Africans converted to Catholicism would have as much right to claim the Vatican for their homeland, and to invade and occupy it, as the Khazars converted to Judaism have to claim Jerusalem, and to invade and occupy it, as they have done.

Christianity was not born in the Vatican.
Judaism was not born in Jerusalem, nor in Palestine. Judaism was born in Egypt, blossomed in the Sinai desert under Moses, and was glam-ourized in Palestine. Christianity was born in Palestine, blossomed in the Mediterranean countries and was glamourized in the Vatican. The U. N. Sounding Board For Communism

By Dr. David Goldstein

THE Soviet Union Foreign Minister, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, returned to Moscow ten days ago, after two months of clever Soviet propaganda spouting in United Nations meetings. His parting brazen blast, on the liner America, was against the U.N. for "refusing to condemn preparations for war," instead of following the pattern of the Soviet Union, the country that is "fighting for peace and international security, as she has always done."

No doubt the Soviet populace was further misled than heretofore by the Vishinsky United Nations diatribes, that were printed in the Soviet press, without the answers to them. Vishinsky was praised in the Soviet press for "bravely" hurling into the faces of the anti-Communist U.N. delegates the charge of "imperialism" and that the United States is being pressed by "Wall Street" into a war against the Soviet Union.

We wonder how much longer the non-Communist delegates in the U.N. are going to permit their organization to be used as a sounding-board for insulting Soviet propaganda? What's the use of further discussing any agreement with the Soviet Union, so long as the Kremlin will not lower its Iron Curtain? So long as it will not permit foreigners or its citizens to go in and out of its territory, as is permitted in democratic countries? Even with the lowering of the Iron Curtain, agreements with the Soviet Union are not likely to be worth the paper they are written on, unless the United Nations has an armed force that would bring belligerent nations to boot.

Our acquaintance with communism, before and after the Bolsheviks forcibly overthrew the Democratic Constituent Assembly of Russia, caused us to be amazed at the many appeasing concessions granted the Soviet Union, that made her powerful enough to threaten the peace of the world. We regret to say that our country is guilty of having led along this appeasing course. This is amazing, considering that the character of the Soviet Union was known to our State Department ever since the Bolsheviks came into power in Russia. To cite but one of many instances, that was told of in the New York Times Current History Magazine of February 1920.—Writing to the Harvard Liberal Club, William Phillips, Assistant Secretary of State, said:

"Bad faith is the avowed essence of Bolshevik diplomacy, and its avowed ulterior purpose is to obtain every possible opportunity for the spread of its subversive doctrines. It is only necessary to quote the following extract from a speech made by Zinoviev, President of the Petrograd Soviet, on the subject of the Prince's Island proposal:

"We are willing to sign an unfavorable peace with the Allies. It would only mean that we should put no trust whatever in the bit of paper we should sign. We would use the breathing space so obtained in order to gather our strength, in order that the mere continued existence of our Government would keep up the world-wide propaganda which Soviet Russia has been carrying on . . ."

Not long after the Bolsheviks acknowledged that an agreement is only a "bit of paper" that they sign in order to get a "breaking space," as were the three dozen treaties the Soviet Union violated that had been solemnly signed since then, the Executive Bureau of the Communist International instructed the Comrades as to how they were to sabotage the United States, as their part of the Red World Revolution. Space permits only the presentation of one-third of the brazen document, viz:

"Dear Comrades, permit us to give you a full resume of our advice and instructions regarding current work in America."

"We firmly believe that one of the most important aims at present is the organization of Communist small nucleus centers among soldiers and sailors—as a fighting section to carry on energetic propaganda in organizing Soviets of soldiers and sailors, and in preaching hostility toward officers and Generals."

"We strongly emphasize that until the Soviets (councils) have got the upper hand they must regard themselves as militant units of the fight for national control and proletarian dictatorship."

"The organization of strikes and of unemployed, and the fomenting of insurrections—that is the task appointed."

"The general platform will be as follows:
"Down with Senate and Congress."
"Down with capitalists in the factories. Long live the management of the factories by the workers."

"Everywhere it is necessary to sharply emphasize the idea of seizing the whole machinery of economic administration by the working class, and to direct toward this object propaganda and agitation—by an outcry against the high cost of living."

"It is of supreme importance to pay the closest attention to the American Federation of Labor. This must be smashed to pieces."

"Frighten every one with the bogey of new wars being prepared by the Capitalists."
"Organize conspirative committees."

Communists are double-dealers. Vishinsky, their Soviet Foreign Minister, spouted against the UN for "refusing to condemn preparations for war," when his own Kremlin gang is the cause of it. He asserts that the Soviet Union is "fighting for peace and security," while she threatens the peace of the world through the Cominform as she did through the Comintern. Vishinsky himself answers the question: "Does Communism teach the overthrow of the state?" in his latest book (The Law of The Soviet People, 1949) thus: "The violent seizure of authority by the proletariat, the demolition of the exploiting society's machinery of state, and the organization of a new state is the most important thesis of the Marxist-Leninist doctrine of proletarian revolution. The greatest service of Lenin and Stalin . . . is that they translated the doctrine into reality."

ZIONIST RULE POLAND

Republished from The Patriot-London, England

Marshal Rokossovsky's appointment as Poland's Defense Minister and chief of the Polish armed forces should not be a surprise to those who understand the structure of the communist group of nations. The Marshal has been "lent" to Poland by Stalin, but in the same way the Soviet dictator might "borrow" Marshal Rydz-Smigly or any other prominent person who could be useful to him. It is a special feature of the regime established on the other side of the Iron Curtain that unity in purpose and action, so prominently absent in the West, has been established in the whole area from the Elbe to the Pacific. Everything has been subordinated to that principle, and when a man like Tito revolts against blind submission and places his own, or his country's interests above the interest of the Communist whole, he thereby condemns himself.

Rokossovsky is entirely a Soviet man. Aged 53, he was born in Warsaw, but left Poland when quite a young man to serve Russia in the first war. He is of communist training and belongs to the group of young Soviet generals who distinguished themselves during the last war. It had been said that his appointment is a kind of exile from Moscow where he became too popular. This is certainly not true—were it so, Stalin would not risk sending him away. There are other ways of removing people who may become dangerous, and to appoint such men to posts of the borderland of the Soviet bloc would be to ask for trouble, and Stalin has had enough trouble with Marshal Tito. Therefore it can be taken that Rokossovsky is a safe man from Stalin's viewpoint, and will obediently carry out all his orders.

From the strategic point of view the appointment has great importance. Poland has at present 14 divisions, with some 160,000 men under arms. In time of war she could raise at least one million men, and this new army, together with the new German army, formed under cover of a police force, would be the spearhead for the onslaught on Western Europe. Combined with efficient German staff-officers now serving in the German Soviet-sponsored force, the Soviet military experts who will come with Rokossovsky to Warsaw, will be able to build up an excellent army, for the Polish soldier, when commanded by clever leaders, is a good fighter.

Rokossovsky has been described as a soldier, not a politician, which is true; but at the same time his task will also consist in crushing the last vestiges of opposition to the communist domination of Poland. The Soviets are hated all over the countries they rule, most of all in Russia, and can survive only by a regime of ruthless terror. Every military leader, if he himself does not wish to become a suspect, must assist the State police in suppressing all attempts of opposition. What is happening now in Czechoslovakia and Hungary has happened in every country, and will continue as long as the Communist State exists. This should be clearly understood by all who have any influence in world affairs, and it was regrettable that Field-Marshal Wavell minimised recently the Soviet danger to world peace by identifying the Soviets with the Russian people. The Russians certainly want peace, and only peace. But the Communists who are not Russians, but internationalists, want war in order to extend their rule to other countries, and finally to the entire world.

"Our morality is entirely subordinated to the interests of the class struggle of the proletariat. We do not believe in eternal morality, and we expose all the fables about morality."—from a pamphlet entitled "Lenin Speaks to Youth," published by the Communist Party of the United States.

service to Christianity by erasing from the pages of history the indictment that 6,000,000 persons professing Judaism were murdered in Europe by persons professing Christianity solely on account of their belief in Judaism. Christianity owes a debt of gratitude to the New York Times for calling the attention of the world to the truth in this matter. Christianity may rejoice that posterity will not be compelled to labor under the indictment of such a crime against its faith.

The Zionists have obtained the benefits which they planned to gain by means of that vicious propaganda about the 6,000,000 who died only on account of their belief in Judaism. It has served its purpose generously from their point of view. It can be of no further service.

The Zionists are now well aware that the alleged murder of those 6,000,000 is a myth. They cannot now plead ignorance of the facts.

Out of gratitude for the material and moral support of millions of persons professing Christianity who made the Zionists' efforts fruitful the Zionists should use their great propaganda machine to give the same amount of publicity to the truth that they gave to the untruth. The Zionists should now do something lofty to cleanse the good name of Christianity of the stigma with which they have labeled it.

Pending release to the public by the New York Times of information obtained from confidential sources concerning the resettlement of Eastern Europeans professing Judaism before, during, and after World War II it will not be possible to publish this information earlier.

Statistics of a most reliable character are available which indicate the present location of the Eastern European populations professing Judaism, which were scattered around the world, before, during, and after the recent war. In spite of the fact that President Roosevelt in 1941 abolished the rule which required immigrants into this country to state their religion there are in existence and available authentic statistics on this domestic and international complication.

The newspapers in recent months published news items about the well-organized, large-scale, illegal smuggling into the United States over a period of many years by the underground airlines of large numbers of immigrants of Eastern European origin. The total is not a secret to several organizations. This form of illegal smuggling has been going on into many of our neighboring countries and into many other countries on a large scale. The totals are not a secret.

When the New York Times is in a position to publish these authentic figures they will be of considerable interest. For the present the figures quoted here of the total populations must suspend further examination of the matter.

It is not to be inferred from any figures quoted here that there were no casualties among the Eastern Europeans professing Judaism. It is quite probable that on a percentage basis the casualties in Eastern Europe of persons professing Judaism, both in the armed forces and out of the armed forces, exceeded the percentage of the casualties of persons not professing Judaism. This fact must be reconciled with the official statistics quoted here and any implication to the contrary is not intended.

On the basis of these reliable figures it appears quite conclusive that the figure of the 6,000,000 persons professing Judaism allegedly murdered by the Nazis because of their religious belief is an extreme exaggeration if not completely a myth manufactured for propaganda purposes by the Zionist world-wide joint-staff of publicity experts to acquire support for their war on the Palestinians which it was impossible for them to entice with any other argument.

spiritual roots of Judaism are not to be found in Jerusalem, nor in Palestine. But the spiritual inspiration of Christianity is deeply, firmly rooted in the sacred soil of Jerusalem and of Palestine, the shrine of the Nativity of Christ.

Jerusalem already had a long tradition of holiness before its king was killed by Joshua in 1451 B.C. In the Scriptures, Genesis XIV. 14, reference is made to King Melchizedek, King of Jerusalem, about five hundred years earlier, when he greeted Abraham on his visit to Jerusalem about the year 1921 B.C.

Jerusalem was taken in 1048 B.C. by David who was seeking a secure location in which to locate the first Temple of the religious belief he was sponsoring. David dwelt in the fort, then changed the name of the city to the City of David. David was following the Egyptian idea of building temples as places for worship, in the manner of the world's first temples on the Nile built twenty centuries before by the Egyptians.

The history of Jerusalem goes back to the Stone Age. Many millenniums after its founding Semites came from Arabia and settled in Palestine about 2500 B.C. Before the invasion of the country by Joshua about 1400 B.C. Jerusalem had been part of the extensive Egyptian empire. The Egyptian garrison there fought with its Jebusite inhabitants to oppose the invaders from the Sinai desert under Joshua's generalship.

According to archeological discoveries Jerusalem was first known as Urusalim, meaning, City of Peace, or Burg of Safety. The city of Urusalim (Jerusalem) became important early as a fortress at the side of the trade-routes that ran from Hebron to Bethel and Sechem. The city of Urusalim (Jerusalem) served as an outpost for the mighty Pharaoh with whom Abdi Khiba, the King of Urusalim corresponded in cuneiform. King Melchisedek, the King of Urusalim, also held an important place among his neighbors.

In the Scriptures, Judges, XIX, 12, Jerusalem is called a "foreign city" not belonging to the Israelites. But the Judahites finally took the place, burned it, and killed its inhabitants.

Jerusalem was the chief seat of one of the districts of Palestine, under the rule of a Viceroy of the Pharaoh in the 15th Century B.C. when Amenophis III had extended Egyptian rule to include territory as remote from Egypt as Syria, Mesopotamia, Babylonia and Assyria.

Between 1099 A.D. and 1239 A.D. Jerusalem had thirteen Christian kings.

The religious belief referred to today as Judaism suggested itself first to Moses in the year 1491 B.C. while he was living in exile among the Kenites in the Sinai desert. Moses adopted the religious belief of his hosts, the Kenites and became the first priest of his new sect. The Kenites worshipped Yahu (Jehovah), the ancient monotheistic religious worship of the tribal desert people adjoining Egypt.

When the invaders under Joshua invaded Canaan Jerusalem was in the hands of the Jebusites, Jerusalem was not completely captured until seven years after David's accession. Moses, a citizen of Egypt, always cherished a great plan for getting his fellow Egyptians back to Canaan from which their ancestors fled about four hundred years earlier.

After centuries of military control, Canaan was relinquished by the Egyptians in 1170 B.C. to become in a large measure the possession of the invaders who fought as the successors of Joshua. But the title of the new occupants was not to be undisputed. In the thirty-three centuries of its known history Jerusalem has endured over 20 sieges and blockades, about 18 reconstructions and two periods of desolation when history is silent.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT

By John Stuart Mill, 1860

"A people may prefer a free government, but if, from indolence, or carelessness, or cowardice, or want of public spirit, they are unequal to the exertions necessary for preserving it; if they will not fight for it when it is directly attacked; if they can be deluded by the artifices used to cheat them out of it; if by monetary discouragement or temporary panic, or a fit of enthusiasm for an individual, they can be induced to lay their liberties at the feet even of a great man, or trust him with powers which enable him to subvert their institutions; in all these cases they are more or less unfit for liberty; and though it may be for their good to have it even for a short time, they are unlikely long to enjoy it."

not accept Judaism or any other religion. But it does however recognize its population of Judaized Khazar origin as a nationality. In keeping with this recognition of its population of Judaized Khazar origin as a nation it is also logical that their status as a nation should also be restored by the creation of a Soviet Khazar Republic.

If the Soviet Union had taken this step the eastern Europeans of Judaized Khazar origin would not have been compelled to go to war against the Palestinians to acquire what is now claimed by them as their "historic homeland." Their historic homeland is actually in that part of the Soviet Union indicated on the map as the "Khazar Kingdom." It existed there almost a thousand years before Russia was established.

The Soviet Union is aware of all these facts. The holders of passports for domestic travel within the Soviet Union must indicate on their passport to which of the sixteen Soviet Socialist Republics they lay claim to citizenship. In addition to these sixteen the Soviet Union recognizes as the seventeenth nationality of the Soviet Union its population of Judaized-Khazar origin. Their passports must be stamped with this seventeenth nationality. The Soviet Union however never returned their territory to them, or their status as a nation. It should do so.

The eastern European population of Judaized Khazar origin can rightfully proclaim themselves a racial group as well as a national group. The racial origin of the Asiatic Khazar tribal nation was Turki-Finn. The Turks and the Finns of Asia are the ethnic background of the Khazars. The Turks and the Finns also later settled in Europe and are there today. Only the Khazars were converted to Judaism. The Finns became Christians and the Turks became Moslems.

What did the Soviet Union have in mind when it joined with the Zionists in fooling the world into believing that it wished to assist in the "repatriation" of its population of Judaized Khazar origin to their "Promised Land" in Palestine? Is it possible that the Soviet Union wished to "hedge-hop" the Dardanelle Straits by transplanting a few million of its most loyal followers in the strategic area of the Holy Land? Is it likely that the Soviet Union wanted to set up a satellite state in this area where they had been unable to obtain control of the important natural resources? These are questions which will be answered by the imminent future.

"It is significant that the Communist Party has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them."

—From Earl Browder's book, "What is Communism."

MARXIST ANTI-CHRISTIAN WAR HITS NEW HIGH WITH SMEAR-BUND ON THE AIR

make them the targets for the joint-staff of the hatchet-men for the smear-bund. Watch them go to work now on Father Gannon and Mr. Raskob. They have something up their sleeve!

The name of the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem is never mentioned by the hatchet-men of the smear-bund unless they refer to him as the very intimate associate and collaborator of Adolph Hitler. That is to make certain that the "anti-Semitic" implication is not overlooked. The State Department in Washington has nothing in its records which supports the Zionist's many frivolous charges against the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem as the "collaborator" of Hitler.

To link Father Gannon and Mr. Raskob with "the pro-Franco propagandist" is another of the typical smears of the hatchet-men of the smear-bund. If the international, anti-Christian, Marxists cannot control a person, they silence him. Today in the United States to call anybody a "Fascist" or "anti-Semitic" is to discredit him in the eyes of all uninformed Americans.

The international, anti-Christian, Marxists hate Franco because his was the first government to defeat the communists in their attempt to take over his country. In Spain they received their first demonstration that there are still some people left in the world who have the sense to put up a fight while they are still "top dog."

If Franco is a "Fascist" that is what the countries in eastern Europe now need. President Abraham Lincoln recommended to his other Generals the brand of whiskey which General Grant drank when they complained to him about General Grant's permanent state of intoxication.

To link Father Gannon and Mr. Raskob with a "secret meeting" which, as Walter Winchel stated on his broadcast to his 25,000,000 listeners, "Somebody ought to expose this thing, so I just did" is to smear them in a shameless manner. Father Gannon was for six years the head of Fordham University in New York City. Mr. Raskob is a man of the highest standing and unquestioned probity. It is a smear to insinuate that these two men would attend any meeting which Walter Winchel characterizes as one which "ought to be exposed" by the smear-bund.

If Father Gannon and Mr. Raskob would consent to the use of their names as Patrons of the many "front" organizations for the international, anti-Christian, Marxists they would receive unfavorable smears by the hatchet-men for the smear-bund. They make it very uncomfortable for those who will not become "fellow-travelers". They run your show or they ruin it!

Is it possible that Walter Winchel thought that by smearing Mr. Raskob he could influence a group of his followers to switch their purchase of Chevrolets to Mr. Kaiser's low-priced new car which Walter Winchel was being paid at the rate of about $600,000. a year to advertise? It is certain that Mr. Kaiser would never approve of such a policy. Mr. Kaiser would not borrow the millions of our taxpayer's money with which to pay hatchet-men of the smear-bund to smear his competitors. Is it too much to ask Mr. Kaiser to compel the retraction of this smear of Mr. Raskob? Or is Walter Winchel trying to high-pressure a $250,000. contribution by General Motors to the Anti-Defamation League to match the one recently extracted from the Ford Motor Company for permission to open a branch in Tel-Aviv? How about it Mr. Winchel, h-u-h-h-h?

The "pro-Franco propagandist" to whom Walter Winchel referred was Mr. Merwin K. Hart.

Mr. Hart has spent the last sixteen years and a considerable fortune fighting the Marxists in this country and all around the world. That is the reason he is intensely hated by the international, anti-Christian, Marxists here and everywhere. They have learned the power of his punch!

The hatchet-men of the smear-bund appear to have a standing order to smear Mr. Hart. They will smear any activity by Mr. Hart as being either "anti-Semitic" or "Fascist". If no opportunity comes along to do so they will manufacture one. He is proud they call him an enemy.

Mr. Merwin K. Hart is a lawyer of note. He has served with distinction in the legislature of the State of New York. He is highly regarded and frequently consulted by the most distinguished Members of Congress. He has an honorable and an enviable record as a former business man. He also takes an active part in the affairs of the National Economic Council — 100% Americans who oppose every form of dual allegiance and of divided loyalty by any individual or group of any race or nationality.

The National Economic Council is smeared by the international, anti-Christian, Marxists as "reactionary", "capitalistic", "anti-Semitic", and "Fascist". The roster of its members contains the names of this country's leaders in industry. Their loyalty is only to the United States and to preserving its present form of government. Such patriotism always draws the usual smears from the international, anti-Christian, Marxists.

The National Economic Council is smeared only because they have done, and are doing such a marvelous job in exposing the secret and subversive activities of these un-American, non-American, and anti-American outfits. If this organization and Mr. Hart were not giving them such a stiff fight they would not allow the talents of the hatchet-men of their smear-bund to be wasted on them. Mr. Hart does not silence easily.

Mr. Hart was holding no "secret meeting" behind closed doors to hear a "secret speaker" who "once worked with Adolph Hitler's stooge in the Near East, the Grand Mufti". Mr. Hart had invited a small number of his close and personal friends to hear a very interesting talk.

The meeting was called in Mr. Hart's office in the Empire State Building, in New York City, for 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Neither Father Gannon nor Mr. Raskob were expected to attend the "secret meeting" and neither of them did.

Walter Winchel smeared Mr. Hart's meeting as "anti-Semitic" with the "Adolph Hitler-Grand Mufti" smear to embarrass friends of Mr. Hart and the many other notables with whom Mr. Hart has the friendliest relations. Walter Winchel knew what these influential people would hear at that meeting would not be helpful to the international, anti-Christian, Marxists' future.

Mr. Hart had asked a few friends to hear a little informal talk by a Mr. Yussif El-Bandak. Vice-Admiral C. S. Freeman, U.S.N. (Ret.) Temporary Chairman of the Holy Land Christian Committee of International Christian Leadership is seeking to make it possible for Mr. El-Bandak to tell his story to Americans professing Christianity. Mr. Hart's informal gathering was the result of a nation-wide program for many talks.

Mr. El-Bandak recently arrived in this country from England where he told his story to the British. After hearing what he told them a committee was formed in England to further his aims. This committee included The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Mayor of London, Field Marshal Earl Wavell, the Rt. Hon. Mr. Anthony Eden, the Duke of Norfolk, the Earl of Halifax, Lord Vansittart, and countless others professing Christianity of high standing.

Mr. El-Bandak is the "secret speaker" to whom Walter Winchel referred on this same broadcast as follows, "this Arab once worked with Adolph Hitler's stooge in the Near East, the Grand Mufti". Walter Winchel tried to intimidate the guests invited by Mr. Hart to hear Mr. El-Bandak with "somebody ought to expose this thing, so I just did." Walter Winchel was out to accomplish more than appeared on the surface.

Firstly, Walter Winchel was out to make it impossible for Mr. El-Bandak to obtain an audience in the United States. Walter Winchel knew that the "Adolph Hitler-Grand Mufti" smear would brand Mr. El-Bandak as "anti-Semitic". That slams nearly every door in the U.S. in the face of the victim of the "anti-Semitic" smear. Victims of that smear are avoided like a plague.

Secondly, Walter Winchel was out to keep Mr. El-Bandak from appearing before United Nations, where he was arranging to speak. Facts which Mr. El-Bandak could prove to United Nations with documentary proof were certain to reverse the votes of many of the fifty-nine delegates on the question of the internationalization of the city of Jerusalem. Real dynamite!

The international, anti-Christian, Marxists who had recently taken over Jerusalem and were refusing to respect United Nations resolutions on the subject, were moving heaven and earth to prevent Mr. El-Bandak's appearance at United Nations. Walter Winchels smear did the trick!

Mr. El-Bandak is a Christian. He is also an Arab. His people for two thousand years have been Christians. His ancestors were members there of the very first Christian congregation in the world. He lives in Bethlehem in the Holy Land. His father is the Mayor of Bethlehem. His family is now sheltering in their home forty Arab Christian families who were driven out of their ancient homes in complete poverty with the one-million others, including 250,000 Christian Arabs of the same ancestry, who suffered this same fate at the hands of the Judaized-Khazar invaders with Soviet Union and American arms.

Mr. El-Bandak never had reason or occasion to meet the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem. During the war Mr. El-Bandak was in London broadcasting for the British Broadcasting Corporation in Arabic to the Arab world. He was instrumental in obtaining the aid of the Arab world for the Allied cause. The victory of General Montgomery over General Rommel in North Africa which turned the tide of the war in favor of the Allies was the welcome reward of this Arab cooperation.

It is urgent and important that Americans professing Christianity learn without delay what Mr. El-Bandak can tell them as an eye-witness. He has seen with his own eyes how the Zionist vandals are working furiously fast in the Holy Land to eradicate the evidences of Christianity which miraculously but briefly have survived.

Sacrilege by the Zionists of the most sacred shrines by methods too filthy and degenerate to mention in public print are common occurrences before shrines are totally obliterated. The nature and the extent of the organized campaign of Zionist vandals to eradicate Christianity in the cradle of its Nativity beggars description in the limited space available here. These facts are kept out of the newspapers here by Zionist leaders whose advertising controls newspapers.

The cradle of Christianity may soon become its coffin if the plans of the international, anti-Christian, Marxists are carried out according to their present program. From where is effective opposition to come? Zionists have seen that such opposition is conspicuous only by its complete nonexistence at a time it should be terrific.

The city of the Nativity of Christ is still in the hands of Christian defenders. Thanks is due to brave Christian Arabs who, with Mr. El-Bandak, fought with guns in their hands to defend this Holy citadel. Bethlehem's population is entirely Christian, Arab and non-Arab.

Are Americans professing Christianity waiting for a spiritual Pearl Harbor? Will the hatchet-men of the smear-bund prepare the way here for the much heralded world-wide victory over Christianity which the international, anti-Christian, Marxists predict and anticipate with every word they utter on the subject? Their atheism is on the march! Can it be stopped?

Americans professing Christianity must face the issue. Will they raise their voices, or a finger, to prevent the effacement of Christianity from the face of the earth as it has already been effected in Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and in every spot in the world where the international, anti-Christian, Marxists have already unfurled their atheistic-bloody banners?

THE FIRST DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM IS TO UNDERSTAND IT!

CONDE MCGINLEY, Editor

Union, New Jersey

Dear Friend,

All who give any thought to the future are alarmed at developments which are leading our Country near to bankruptcy and Communism, and gradually changing the cold war into a hot war in which many loved ones will die. Serious minded people are asking such questions as:

What is Communism and how will it affect me?

Why do some influential people deny Communism, or slightly criticize it, while approving Communist-sponsored moves?

Why do these same well-known people rush to the defense of those who are accused of Communist activity?

What is Zionism and what is its relation to Communism?

Where does Fabianism fit in?

Is Communism or Socialism the greatest threat to the United States at present?

Why is Marxism the main overall threat and far more savage and brutal than people know?

Why does our Marxist-ruled administration spend billions through the Marshall plan in Europe under a so-called campaign to stop Communism, while Truman protects Communistic subversives by refusing access to Loyalty files?

How is Judasim related to Marxism?

Do Felix Frankfurter, David Niles (Neyhus) Bernard Baruch and Joseph Davies have more influence in our government than Truman?

Do these and other Marxists direct the President, the State Department, Justice Department and control our foreign policy?

Why do these Marxists want to bankrupt the U. S. and discredit our Congress?

Do the Marxists in the United States work hand-in-glove with the Marxists who direct and control the Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, China and England?

Why does Dean Acheson openly support Marxist traitor, Alger Hiss, and protect the hundreds of Marxists in the State Department while mildly criticizing the U.S.S.R.?

55 MAY 17 1950

1105-9621
MAY 2 1950

Why has Senator Herbert Lehman, a millionaire, assisted Communists and Marxists? Will he lose his wealth if the U.S. gets the same kind of government that Hungary has?

Why are Eleanor Roosevelt, Elliott, James and F.D.R. Jr. willing tools for Marxism, the most brutal anti-Christian rule in the history of mankind?

Why do some Jewish sources say the Soviet Union is anti-Semitic while four Zionist-Jews are the most influential members of the Soviet Politburo and Stalin's wife is Jewish; and Communist satellite countries - Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and China - are all being ruled by Zionist-Jews? The penalty for anti-semitism in the Soviet Union is death!

Are the Marxist-Zionists in the Soviet Union and the United States cooperating to bring about war so that Zionists, with war emergency powers in the U.S., can take over and crush all opposition to complete socialization of the U.S.

Is the General Staff committee recommended by Bernard Baruch on April 1st a committee that will take away our liberty as soon as war is declared and put us under Marxist rule?

These are just a few of the questions asked by those sincerely interested in the welfare of our Country, and the answers to these questions must be answered correctly if we are to better understand the world situation. God willing, these and many other questions will be answered in future issues of COMMON SENSE.

To carry on such an educational program necessitates funds. We dislike pleading for funds as is evidenced by the fact that, in the past, we have appealed to our readers only in emergencies. We find ourselves in such a situation now. For four years we have published COMMON SENSE with practically all voluntary help. We have had less than one year with a paid secretary. We are most grateful for our many loyal voluntary workers - workers who are our greatest strength - but our mail and incidental work have now reached such proportions that it is impossible to do the job we must do without some full-time office help. Much valuable work is done through conferences in New York and elsewhere that cannot be disclosed in COMMON SENSE, but for want of personnel, we are unable to take advantage of many opportunities.

At best we are working under the most trying conditions with pressure from the enemy on all sides. During these four years, the enemy has been successful in scaring or threatening six printers, with additional expense and inconvenience involved with each change. We now have a printer whom we are confident cannot be frightened, but he must be paid. Our postage bills are low in proportion to the material and subscriptions mailed. We mail out thousands of pieces of free literature to all states.

Overhead expenses - rent, fuel, telephone and electric - are kept at a minimum.

Speakers of COMMON SENSE are kept busy with no remuneration. We should be covering a greater section of the Country, but at present this is impossible as funds are not available for this purpose at present.

Then, too, the Editor has recently been indicted by the Grand Jury in connection with the incident that took place last June when four Zionists entered the office of COMMON SENSE for the sole purpose of taking all records, files, etc. The Editor is accused of beating up two of the four Zionists while the other two stood by to "witness" the beatings and "obstruction of justice." This case ...won't spare time ... sense to do it, but with the ... of God and financial assistance for 1 ... ers' fees, we can and we will. ... n.

We are proud of stretching every dollar and believe it worthwhile to pass on to our readers a comment made recently by one of the friends of COMMON SENSE after he looked over our yearly statement: "It is unbelievable what you have accomplished with so little money; you ought to run the railroads!"

We know that there is a constant demand on each and everyone for money for various causes, but if we don't stop the vicious Marxist plan, we will soon have no civil rights, freedom of speech or press, no religious freedom, no free enterprise, and no bank accounts. Each and every one of us will be slaves to a ruthless, atheistic government that will liquidate or jail all opposition as "enemies to the government." Nothing but a fearless expose of the real enemy will save the United States. It is too late now in many countries to even speak a word against the Marxists who rule.

We here at COMMON SENSE have endured constant smears, threats and abuse for the enemy stops at nothing. By opposing every camouflaged move the enemy has launched, there is no telling how long we have helped delay the taking over of our Country by the enemies of Christ. Our heart is in this fight - we are willing to sacrifice our lives if necessary - but we cannot fight without ammunition. We have given every dollar we had, and are now giving our time without salary. It is now up to loyal Americans to decide whether we continue fighting. We want to double our activity and output of papers, and, above all, publish regularly.

The enemy is only a small minority, but placed in vital spots - labor unions, communications, government posts - with their fat purses they can control virtually everything. These well-trained fanatics do immeasurable damage and THEY DO IT WITHOUT THE CONSENT OF THE MAJORITY.

Look at Europe! Look at Russia! Look at China! The majority of the people in those countries did not want Communism - but THEY HAVE IT. People say: "It can't happen here". But, it CAN and WILL unless a sufficiently large number of Americans know the truth in time. It is the duty of those who know the truth to let Americans in on the Satanic plan to conquer the world. Anyone who knows the truth and is silent is an accomplice of the enemy!

Let your response to this letter be a generous one. It is a heart-breaking task to oppose the enemy with inadequate funds. We are in a "tight" spot financially and we are counting on our good friends to see us through. It will take money to fight the enemy in court, but we have no choice.

The writer has devoted seven days a week for four years without pay, in addition to giving his life's savings to the fight, and he will continue to do so in the future if you will but pass the ammunition. Ask your friends to get into this fight to save our wonderful country from these Asiatic revolutionists who for years have been invading the United States in increasing numbers. What use will money be when we are ruled by the same gang who now rules Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, and a dozen other countries?

Won't you do your part to win this fight for Christ and Country, and each give according to his means?

Faithfully yours,

Each person that sends us a donation, will receive a copy of the booklet on the minority machine by former counter-intelligence officer, Major Robert H. Williams.

THE FIRST DEFENSE AGAINST COMMUNISM IS TO UNDERSTAND IT!

CONDE MCGINLEY, Editor

Dear American:

It is alarming to contemplate the situation our country is in and in whose hands the destiny of 150 million Americans rests. It is evident the fate of Christianity and civilization depends upon the ability of the United States to defeat this atheistic Marxist group we helped to set up throughout the world during the past 17 years. Through the maneuvers of men entrusted to the control of our governmental departments, taxpayers' money has been used to subsidize Marxism all over the world, including China and Korea. The Marxists and homosexuals in our State Department gave lip service to opposing Communism while working tirelessly to establish world-wide Communism. Sleepy citizens will soon realize that the State Department cooperated with Communists in turning Germany into a booby trap, the same as China and Korea.

In the August 1st issue of "LOOK" magazine, Jonathan Daniels reveals officially that Sidney Hillman actually picked Truman as candidate for Vice President at Chicago where no one dared oppose his choice. Who was Hillman? A Russian-born Yiddish Khazar Marxist who handed Lenin a million dollars which he (Hillman) had raised in the United States. When pinned down, Hillman would criticize Stalin Communism, but he was a leader among the Trotskyites. Trotsky (Bronstein) was far more ruthless than Stalin. Although Hillman is dead, the Communist labor group he built is powerful.

Truman, whose only business experience was a partnership in a Yiddish haberdashery in Kansas City that went bankrupt, now "dishes out" billions and must sell "Red Herrings" to the voters otherwise the Yiddish Marxist, David Niles (Neyhus), the White House Administrative Assistant, will blow the whistle and the Anti Defamation League will pull Truman's record out of their files to expose the particulars of the Pendergast gang's use of Truman.

Senator McCarthy's exposures, along with the fearless accusations of others, have so scared the Yiddish Marxists that they must mastermind the United States into war so that they will not be discovered at their treachery and thrown out of Washington. This crisis will continue until "War Powers" have given control of all manpower and industry in the United States to the Marxists. "War Powers" will give Marxists the authority to silence all opposition to the Communized police state they will set up.

Home ownership will cease; business will be "regulated" by the State; taxes will INCREASE. Remember: The Socialists completely took over Britain during World War II. This Marxist strategy for socialization -- a short step before outright Communization -- is well understood by those who have given the time to study and learn about this Asiatic Yiddish group that has combined the teachings of the Talmud with Karl Marx's program, and has permeated all governments to overthrow them.

The great need is for means to allow patriotic expression by those who really understand the enemy. Marxists now prevent this by control or intimidation of the radio and press.

Five years ago the writer gave up his business and started this crusade of education in an effort to alert people sufficiently to prevent what evidently faces us now. It has often been very discouraging because the very ones who should have given time to study the underhanded forces at work in America, have been so interested in pleasure and making money, they could not even take time to investigate or support those at the front.

Many write that we have done a marvelous job with so limited funds; we have distributed two and a half million papers. We need funds to increase our output of papers. We are confident that if funds were provided for us to print and distribute 200,000 weekly the Marxists plan would be so exposed and defeated that our country would be saved. We do not want anyone to send what he cannot afford. Still, unless those who have the money wake up and give us the ammunition to fight on a much larger scale, and AT ONCE, many will be liquidated by the enemy from within. All money and property will be siezed. Eighteen years of intensive study of world affairs indicates that Korea is but the beginning of the gravest battle Christianity has ever known. Civilization has never before faced such an enemy. We may have only a few weeks left to fight!

Will you send us a check or postal note for what your conscience dictates?

For Christ and country.

Staff Correspondent.

ELIZABETH—Conde McGinley, publisher of the antiCommunist, antiZionist Common Sense, was found not guilty yesterday by a jury in a County Judge Hetfield's court on charges of obstructing execution of process and assault and battery on two Union County sheriff's deputies last June.

The jury deliberated only 30 minutes before bringing in its verdict at 5:30 P. M. on the second day of the trial.

The state charged McGinley had obstructed execution of a levy on equipment in his publishing office in 2001-2005 Pleasant parkway, Union, and struck the deputies, Harry Coplan and Alfred Greenberg, when they tried to carry out the writ.

McGinley's Charges

The levy was made to satisfy an $1,800 judgment against McGinley for printing bills owed the Suburban Publishing Co. of Union.

McGinley charged on the stand yesterday that the deputies were ordered to confiscate his records and subscription lists by a Communist underground. When the deputies entered the establishment June 17, 1949, he said, they did not identify themselves, making him afraid they were Communists out to get him. He had previously received "at least 50" threats on his life, some of which he turned over to the FBI for investigation, he added.

McGinley said the deputies confiscated records of his investigation of at least 400 Communist cells throughout the country at the direction of Robert M. Dvorin, an attorney for Suburban who, he said, was president of the Linden-Roselle Zionist organization. They left behind much valuable equipment in the process, he added.

"I'm only interested in one thing—combating Communism," McGinley said, almost breaking down with emotion, "and the only difference between Zionism and Communism is in the spelling of the names."

Coplan and Greenberg had testified earlier they were instructed to take only personal effects that could be sold by the sheriff to satisfy the judgment entered against McGinley. When they tried to do that, they said, McGinley hit them and tried to stop them, so they put him under arrest.

McGinley denied any obstruction and that he had assaulted the pair. He said he had attempted to get away so he could call police and protect himself and his records.

Defense's Argument

In his summation Thomas Hueston of Elizabeth, defense counsel, said the deputies had the right to serve the writ, but not to execute it. He said that rather than obstruct the process, McGinley actually had run out of the premises to phone the police, to keep from being assassinated by Coplan and Greenberg, who were unknown to him at the time.

It is well to review, for the benefit of new readers, that Mr. McGinley did not owe one cent of the bill in question. It was proven and illustrated many times during the trial that the four Zionists who raided the office of COMMON SENSE on June 17th, 1949, had but one objective -- TO CONFISCATE THE RECORDS -- an objective which they failed to accomplish although they did succeed in putting Mr. McGinley in jail.

To save America at this late date, it is necessary to awaken thousands by printing the TRUTH, and exposing these traitors that pose as advocates of "Brotherly Love" and "Tolerance" in order to keep Christian Leaders silent while they tighten the chains of slavery through governmental manipulations.

Mr. McGinley has given every dollar he had in this fight. He has donated his time without pay or remuneration for four and one half years, seven days a week. He needs the support of patriotic people in publishing this rapidly-growing weapon of truth, COMMON SENSE. COMMON SENSE is the only newspaper in the U.S. that devotes all its space to exposing and fighting Communism regardless of where it is found or whom it offends, and is edited by national authorities capable of guiding Americans in this crisis.

Who Caused War In Korea?

Letter Of Herman Goering To Winston Churchill

(Editor's Note:

When Rudolph Hess flew to England he made a plea to England and U. S. to join with Germany and destroy Communism rooted in Russia. As dupes for the Marxist Zionist, F. D. R. and Churchill followed the insane plan to crush Germany, which alone was holding Communism in check.

Today Germany is crushed and the British Empire bankrupt. England, living off the American taxpayer, trembles in fear of Russia.

As the top Germans were hanged or lynched on a prominent Jewish holiday the German leaders stated that the Communists will hang Allied leaders later.

Herman Goering wrote this letter just before he poisoned himself.

This letter should be read carefully by members of Congress and all others who are shaping the destiny of America.

Mr. Churchill:

You will have the satisfaction to survive me and my comrades in misfortune. I do not hesitate to congratulate you on this personal triumph and the finesse with which you have accomplished it. You have gone to great expense in order to secure this success, for yourself and Great Britain. Should I believe you sufficiently naive as to consider this success anything more than a show, detrimental to the Great German Empire—a performance for the peoples and their Jewish and bolshevist confederates, which were maneuvered by you into the war—then my statement to you during this last hour of my life would, also in the eyes of posterity, be squandered upon an underserving one.

My pride as a German and as one of the foremost responsible German leaders forbids me to lose even a single word in a dispute of world-historical importance on the disgraceful lowness of the methods employed by the victors as far as these proceedings concern my own person. However, as it is the obvious and announced intention of their administration of the law to throw the very German people into the abyss of illegality and to rob them once for all of a future possibility to defend themselves by the removal of the responsible men of the national socialist state, I have to add a few words to the historic subject of the verdict, premeditated by you and your allies.

I direct these remarks to you, since you are one of the best informed ones regarding the true underlying reasons for this war and on the possibility of avoiding the same; or to end it at least in a manner bearable for the European future; and yet refused your testimony and your oath to your own high court of justice. Therefore I shall not fail, while there is still time, to call you before the tribunal of history and direct my statements to you, because I know that this tribunal shall expose you some day as that man, who, with ambition, intelligence and energy has thrown the fate of the European nations under the wheels of foreign world powers.

In you I identify before history the man who had the ability to bring to fall Adolf Hitler and his political accomplishments; the man, who will, however, be unable to raise the shield protectingly against the invasion of Europe by the Asiatics.

It was your ambition to justify the Versailles Treaty regarding Germany. It will prove fatal to you that you succeeded. You personified the hardened obstinacy of your old gentry; and you also personified the stubbornness of its old age, opposing the last gigantic effort of the rejuvenated German power to decide the fate of Europe in the steppes of Asia in order to safeguard the same in the future. Long after my responsibility in the future development of events has found its objective judge, it will be put to your account that the past bloody war has not been the final one which had to be fought on the continent

THE BIG FRONT

Dean Acheson, front for Zionist Marxists has used the State Department to set up Communism in China and Korea. He should be tried for treason.

Birds Of A Feather

Hon. Herbert H. Lehman.

Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Lehman:

In a maudlin speech at the Hyde Park grave of the late, unlamented incumbent of the White House, you are reported to have said:

"Franklin Roosevelt is famed and honored for his deeds. Wherever in the world where men are called civilized, wherever the values of liberty and human dignity are recognized, and wherever men dream of freedom and human progress, there the name of Franklin Roosevelt is known and honored"

Such an unveridical statement on your part would be incomprehensible if one were not acquainted with the Jewish "Kol Nidre" through which the Talmud permits you to save your conscience.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the greatest liar, scoundrel and traitor this country has ever produced. Benedict Arnold must have turned over in his grave a hundred times a day when he saw what Franklin Roosevelt was getting away with.

Space does not permit me in this letter to relate the depths of Roosevelt's infamy or the whole extent of his treason. I can only sum up briefly:

No sooner had Roosevelt been inaugurated as President in March of 1933, than he scrapped the platform of the Democratic party upon which he had been elected and adopted that of the Socialists.

Having sworn to uphold the Constitution, Roosevelt perjured himself by telling Congress "as regards the Guffey Coal Act, let no doubts about its constitutionality prevent its passage."

As to Roosevelt's personal depravity, reference need only be made to the Hartford case, in which he brought pressure on a business man to settle for $4,000 a debt of $200,000 owed him by the President's immoral son Elliott.

During his long career in the White House,

They Live In U. S.

Who are the brains behind the North Koreans? Who brought about this situation where Korea is split in two and Koreans killing each other. Now our boys are going to the other side of the world to die with them?

Who masterminded the division of Germany where soon Germans in the East and Germans in the West will be killing each other and thousands of American boys now in Germany will die with them?

Who are the top directors back of the Communists in Korea? They are not Koreans. The uninformed will say it is Stalin. Remember Marxism is a world-wide set up. Stalin holds the same position as a president in a large corporation in the U. S. who apparently has power, but is controlled by a board of directors who dictate to him. The important question is: Who controls the board of directors? Say a board member was placed in a corporation by Kuhn Loeb & Co, Zionist bankers, who financed a corporation. Kuhn Loeb & Co. would not interfere in the operation of the company except in important matters when suggestions would be sent through their member on the board. This is the way Kuhn Loeb & Co. controls many corporations.

Kuhn Loeb is also an important wheel in the World Zionist set up which created and controls Communism. Here are the names of a few top Marxists in the Zionist organization which has arranged for the financing of Communism, Marxist, or Zionism, as you wish to call it. No amount of influence would induce any one of these men to defend themselves on the platform with COMMON SENSE, or appoint someone to defend them. The Zionist leaders are: Edward M. M. Warburg - James Warburg - (of Kuhn Loeb & Co.) - Bernard Baruch - Henry Morgenthau, Jr. - Felix Frankfurter and Herbert Lehman.

World Zionists, wishing to bring their plans for world government to a close, used stooges like F. D. R., Cordell Hull, and Winston Churchill to set off World War II, thereby breaking down the British Empire, Germany and other European countries so that the United States today, alone faces the Soviet Union. These same Zionists, having control of our government and Treasury Department for 17 years, have — by deception and cunning — led Americans to believe that we have "helped worthy nations." Instead, they have built up Marxist forces in Asia and Europe with our resources while bankrupting us and retarding the strengthening of U. S. armed forces. In spite of the fact that we have spent 50 BILLION for defense since World War II, we are pitifully unprepared to meet our enemy.

Maxim Litvinov (Finkelstein - an ex-convict) is the Soviet Union's top man in China and the Korean theater of war. Zionist N. M. Svernik is Chairman of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet and Zionist Alexander F. Gorkin is Secretary. Stalin's wife is a Kaganovich — this Zionist family controls all industry in the Soviet Union. Lazar Kaganovich is the strong man of the Politbureau. Zionist Banker Ashberg is the Kuhn Loeb representative in the Soviet Union.

The war in Korea could not start without word from Stalin's bosses, the Zionists in New York, and they alone know when, and where, the next move for war will be made by the Communists. They will order it when it suits their plans for gaining complete, control of the United States.

The demand by Baruch and Henry Morgenthau for Congress to give Truman "full war powers" is being done because they know Truman will delegate those powers to persons named by the Zionists. Often those so named are Christians who are "owned" by the Zionists and act as fronts while the Jew is "assistant." The "assistant" being the real ruler.

When an important Government Agency or Committee is formed look for the ZIONIST who will be the No. 2 man. The non-Zionist Chairman is to deceive the public.

It is ridiculous to believe bombs will be dropped on New York City — it is the safest place in America.

The Marxists who have cunningly masterminded Washington for years believe that by weakening us from the inside as they have and by having the Soviet Union move in on countries over the world the U. S. will find itself rushing armed forces to different parts of the world while these influential Marxists in the U. S. bring on hysteria by talk of Atomic Bombings. At the same time the United World Federalists use the fear of Atomic Bombs and the chance of defeat to force our people to accept World Government and end the war. All Marxists are quite certain that the U. S. will lose this war. (Few people realize that Kuhn Loeb & Co. financed Trotsky (Bronstein) and sent him with 276 Zionists from East Side New York to set up Communism in Russia in 1917. Edward M. M. Warburg and James Warburg top men in Kuhn Loeb Co. are the important men in the United World Federalists which is a Marxist-Zionist Front which has many well meaning Christian dupes helping to put over World Government (Zionist Government).)

All so-called Communist countries are ruled by Yiddish Zionists. (COMMON SENSE will gladly supply their names to anyone interested in writing us.)

The Zionists have placed these "Communist" countries under slavery and are choking off Christianity just as they plan to do in the U. S. If given full war powers. Even now they use government agencies and government funds to prosecute and persecute those who oppose them. If Christian people do not give up pleasure and business enough to understand what is being plotted, and stop the Zionists it is our opinion that more people will be killed in the U. S. than were liquidated in Russia after the 1917 blood-bath. In Russia 30 thousand Reds took over 170 MILLION Christians.

In the U. S. we have at least 35 million people ready to set up Marxism or gladly go along with it. In this crisis — the worst America has ever had — Congress should have a hearing to determine what forces are working to destroy us from within. It would be our patriotic duty to testify. If we cannot plainly show that it is the Zionists, we will discontinue COMMON SENSE. Here it a chance for our enemies to stop COMMON SENSE.

Birds Of A Feather

Franklin Roosevelt's chief mentor was the alien-born and alien-minded Felix Frankfurter whose devilish purpose is to destroy this Republic, abolish our national entity and drive us in a world organization in which we would all be slaves.

Having destroyed our national economy through persecution of honest businessmen, confiscatory taxation, interference with the law of supply and demand and outrageous control of crop productions, and realizing that his administration was about to be repudiated, Franklin Roosevelt, against the wishes of ninety percent of the people, plotted, lied and tricked this nation into a war that was none of our affair.

Falling to incite Germany to attack us, even though Roosevelt committed every form of act both unneutral and contrary to international law, he finally did succeed in provoking an attack by Japan through continuous pin pricks, culminating in the unconscionable Cordell Hull's monstrous ultimatum of November 26, 1941.

Your personal immorality is evidenced in your statement that "President Roosevelt was the grand architect of our victory over a savage and ruthless enemy," since you are willing to condone Roosevelt's unjustifiable alliance with the ungodly Communist Russian regime which now, by the acts of the same Roosevelt, is the greatest threat to the security not only of our nation but to the rest of the world as well.

A defender of the traitor Franklin Roosevelt has no place in the Senate of the United States. I do not doubt that the voters of New York State, cognizant of that fact, will retire you to private life, come next November 7.

Very truly yours,

Letter Of Herman Goering To Winston Churchill

for the very possibility of existence of its nations.

You will have to answer for the fact that the bloody war of yesterday will be followed by a still greater one and that the European nations will not rule at the Volga, but at the Pyrenees mountains. It is my fervent wish that you may at least live to see the day on which the world, and the western nations in particular, will become aware of the bitter truth that it was you and your friend Roosevelt who sold their future to Bolshevism for a cheap personal triumph over nationalistic Germany. This day may come sooner than you like, and you, in spite of your advanced age, will still be vigorous enough to see it dawn bloody red over the British Isle.

I am convinced that it will bring you all those unimaginable terrors which you escaped this time through the good luck of war; or through the abhorrence of the German conduct of war to a complete degeneration of the methods of fighting between peoples of the same race. My knowledge regarding the kind and amount of arms and of the projects from us, which—thanks to your military assistance to the red army—have fallen into their hands, enable me to form this supposition.

There is no doubt that you—according to your habit—soon will write good memoirs and you will write them the better, as there is nobody to hinder you to tell and suppress whatever you like. However, you will be powerless in view of the corrections which the, by you instigated, development unerringly will make. Then you will be obliged to answer to the peoples those questions which you still owe to your tribunal; Not in the same degree to us, as we do not want your fairness, but solely what you denied to historical truth.

You believe it very clever to have submitted this historic truth to the craftiness of a handful of ambitious junior lawyers in order to have it changed into an expedient dialectic treatise, in spite of your awareness as a Briton as well as a statesman, that with such means the problems of existence of peoples could not be solved and judged; neither in the past nor in the future.

I have an only too well grounded opinion of your power and the cunning of your intelligence as to credit you with believing the vulgar propaganda with which you motivated the war against us and with which you had your victory over us glorified in a phantastic show.

I state here with great emphasis as one of the highest military, political and economic leaders of the Great German Empire the following: This war could not be avoided because the politics of Great Britain—under the influence of your person and of your friends of like opinions in all fields—persisted constantly to hinder the life-interests and the most natural development of the German people; and—filled with the senile ambition to uphold the British hegemony—preferred the second world war to an understanding, as we on our side had tried time and again to bring about, beneficial to both of the most prominent nations of Europe.

I declare herewith once more most emphatically that the guilt of the German people in this war—into which they were forced by you—consists solely in trying to end the eternal difficulties to their national existence, which you artfully instigated and continued.

It would be useless to go with you into a dispute over the causes, the conditions of constraint and the motives which led during the course of the war to political and military complications and which your lawyers knew so well to use in a one-sided manner at the cost of the national socialistic regime. The devastated European regions of culture and rubble treasures give still today testimony of the embittered despair with which a great and proud people yesterday, with unparalleled readiness to make sacrifices, fought for its existence. Tomorrow they will testify that alone the overpowering might, led by you in the field, was able to cause the subjection and deprivation of their rights. The day after tomorrow the Russians will bear witness of the betrayal which surrendered Europe to the red Asiatics.

The Germany which you conquered will take revenge on you through its downfall. You have neither produced a better politic nor shown a greater courage than we. You have not won the victory due to better qualities or superiority of your strength and strategy, but merely after 6 years with the predominance of your allies. Do not believe your fight communism with common sense victory to be all that which you tell the world. You and your land soon will harvest the fruits of your political art. What you as an experienced Cynic would not admit toward us—namely that our fight in the East was an act of urgent self defense, and not alone for Germany but for all Europe; and that the German fighting this war, which you constantly condemned, therefore was justified. This, your ally and friends of today, Stalin, soon will prove to you and to the British Empire.

Then you will experience what it means to fight this enemy and you also will learn that necessity knows no law; Also that you can neither fight him successfully with treaties of law nor with the weight of Great Britain and her European dwarfs.

You have stated to the German people that you were primarily concerned with the restoration of their democratic mode of life. But you have not said a single word that you want to restore to them the sensible foundations for living, which have been denied them these past 25 years. Your name stands under all essential documents of this epoch of British want of comprehension and jealousy towards Germany. Your name also will stand under the result with which this epoch of Germany's liquidation has challenged history in re of Europe's existence.

My belief in the vitality of my people cannot be shaken. They will be stronger and live longer than you. However, it distresses me to know them defenseless in your power and that they now also belong to the luckless victims, who, thanks to your success, do not approach a future of progressive work for the realization of their common aim, set forth by intelligence for the western peoples, but are driven toward the greatest catastrophe in their common history.

I do not wish to argue about outrages, which you—rightly or wrongly—ascrbe to us and which neither agree with my nor with the German peoples comprehension; neither do I wish to talk about those atrocities which have been committed on your part and on the part of your allies toward millions of Germans; for I know that you have made under this pretext the entire German people the object of a collective outrage of a proportion never known in history. I also know that you would not have acted differently regarding your treatment of Germany without this pretention, because since 1914 you have striven for nothing less than the destruction of the German empire. Thus, your historic goal denies you the office of a judge over the avoidable and unavoidable consequences caused by your unremitting intentions and which were welcome to you as subsequent proof for the justification of your actions. Today I regret my and the national-socialistic government's greatest mistake, the fateful error to believe in your discernment as a statesman. I regret to have trusted you with justiciously recognizing the world-political necessity of a peaceful and progressive (prosperous) Germany for the existence of a flourishing England. I regret that our means did not suffice to convince you at the last moment that the liquidation of Germany would also be the beginning of the liquidation of Britain's world power. We began to act—each one according to his own law. I in line with the new one, for which this Europe was already too old—you holding on to the old one, for which this Europe is not anymore important enough in the world.

I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German National Socialist and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you. I leave the judgement of this with an easy mind to posterity. I hope sincerely that you will belong to this world for a long time to come as fate might grant you—as it has to me—when you decline to leave to posterity also a truth.

CHURCHILL WARNS WEST IS HELPLESS AS KOREANS

Speaking before the House of Commons recently, Winston Churchill stated that the West is as defenseless as South Korea and has no means to halt a Russian sweep through Europe if a new world war breaks out.

Defense Minister Emanuel Shinwell admitted that Britain's defense forces fall "far short of our requirements. He stated further that "the times are grim. The international situation is tense and full of dread possibilities."

Churchill said best estimates give Russia 40,000 tanks while western Allies have no force which could cope with such an "array of armored avalanches."

It is true, Churchill said, that U. S. planes now based in England could hit "Russian cities and key points" with atom bombs, but the Russians would seize airports on the channel and "bring us under air bombardment—apart from the atomic bomb—far worse than we have ever endured."

"We are more defenseless than we have ever been," he said.

"THE ZIONISTS"

By: Judge George W. Armstrong

(Editor's note: This is the 4th of the series covering the book "The Zionist." The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country other nations now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

THE CONVICTION OF THE ELEVEN COMMUNIST TRAITORS

The eleven months trial of the eleven communists had the appearance of a Zionist publicity stunt but it should be said to the credit of the Judge and jury that the defendants were all convicted.

Here is a list of them:

"Congressional Record November 18, 1949, pages 15, 161-2.

Eugene Dennis, alias Frank Waldron, an ex-convict;

Jacob Abram Stobel, an Austrian Jew and immigrant from Galicia;

Irving Potash, an ex-convict and Jewish immigrant from Kiev, Russia;

Jno. Williamson, alias Jno. Miller, an immigrant from Scotland;

Gus Hall, true name Gus Halberg, a Jew and ex-convict whose parents were immigrants from Finland;

Carl Winter, true name Carl Weiberg, whose parents were immigrants from Russia and Jews;

Robert Thompson, alias Bob Condon, an ex-convict, whose punishment was assessed at three years instead of five;

Gilbert Green, true name Gilbert Greenberg, a Jew;

Jno. Gates, true name Paul Roganstrief, a Jew. He is editor of the communist paper "Daily Worker";

Harry Winston and Benjamin J. Davis, negroes, the only two whose names were not assumed names. Six Jews, two negroes and three race unknown.

The foreman of the jury was a mulatto negro woman. The punishment to all except Thompson was five years imprisonment instead of death, as provided by our common law. Pending the trial of this case, a bi-partisan Congress reduced the penalty for conspiring to overthrow our government from ten years to five years.

The trial Judge was, therefore, justified in imposing a light penalty for the most serious offense that can be committed against our government. The fault lies with our "fair deal" President and his "fair deal" bi-partisan Congress. They now seek to admit more Zionists through their alleged Displaced Persons bill. Introduced and sponsored by the New York Jew Congressman Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The obvious purpose is to win elections and to communize America.

It was reported by the Associated Press, November 3, 1949 that Judge Medina refused to allow bond for the eleven convicted Communists and that the New York Circuit Court of Appeals granted them bond in the sum of $250,000 which means that they are free pending their appeal and will probably escape as did Elser. The eleven months' trial of the eleven convicted communist traitors was a spectacular farce. It is reported to have cost us $700,000 and now they are loose to continue their operation. It is a safe prediction that not one of them will ever be seriously punished.

What a reflection upon the Roosevelt-Truman "New Deal" and "Fair Deal" alleged democratic administrations, and the New York Circuit Court of Appeals. I venture the assertion that a majority of the judges of this court are socialists and communists and are of the same race as Justice Felix Frankfurter, who was a character witness for the traitor Hiss, and Judge Kaufman who tried him. It is not a co-incidence that these traitor trials are held in New York and alleged sedition trials in Washington. They were planned that way. What a tragedy that there is no longer any safety in our courts, which are the final arbiters of our rights. No orthodox Jew Judge can render a just decision between a Christian and a Jew without violating the law of his Talmud.

W fight communism with common sense

It was revealed by Major Geo. R. Jordan that Harry Hopkins* supplied the bolsheviks with our atomic bomb blue prints and secrets, and with material for making them. Harry Hopkins (Raschid) was then a member of Roosevelt's "kitchen cabinet" and lived with him in the White House. Major Jordan was the officer in charge of the transportation of the material from Alaska to Russia. The secret was obviously given to Russia with Roosevelt's permission. Later one Weiberg, a Zionist Jew professor in Minnesota State University who was employed by the government as a scientist in the manufacture of the bomb, was alleged to have supplied additional information. There revelations appear to be authentic. If true, they are conclusive evidence that Roosevelt was a traitor and that he sought to communize America.

*Said to have been a Zionist Jew whose real name was Harry L. Raschid.

Klaus Fuchs, the British scientist, who confessed that he gave the bomb secrets to the Russians, was a refugee from Germany during the Hitler regime and was obviously a Zionist Jew. These traitors are no worse than other Zionists. They are all traitors; they are taught treachery by their Talmud and Protocols. All of them are our enemies, who seek to destroy our government and to enslave us and appropriate our property.

THE TALMUD

"It (the Talmud) contains every kind of vileness and blasphemy against Christian Truth."

—Pope Gregory IX

There are three versions of the Talmud, viz: the Mishnah, containing the essence of the oral law; and the Palestinian, first published in 1522-3, and the Babylonian.* The Jewish Encyclopedia, page 161, states that the only complete manuscript of the Babylonian is in Leyden, Holland. It says that "during the Middle Ages the Talmud was frequently attacked since it formed the voice leaching of the Jewish religion and was regarded as the core of Jewish resistance to Christianity."

*Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. 10, page 166.

The Mishnah consists of dissertations by Jewish rabbis while they were in captivity in Babylon. I have seen the 40 volumes of the Babylonian by Radkinson in the Chicago Public Library, but it is not to be found in the smaller libraries.

TALMUD SUPPRESSED

The Babylonian interpretations and amendments were written during the period from 200 to 500 A.D.* The first printed edition in Hebrew "of the whole Talmud containing all of its blasphemies against the Christian religion was published in Venice in the year 1520 . . . The Jews fearing for themselves began to expunge parts of it openly inimical to Christians and published a revised edition of it at Basle in A.D. 1578." It appears to have been further modified at a Synod of Jewish rabbis in Poland in the year A.D. 1631 where it was decided that nothing should be printed "that would annoy Christians and cause persecution of Israel." The final edition was published in Spain in A.D. 1648.

"The Talmud Unmasked," page 12.

Thus it appears that the Jewish rabbis out of consideration of expediency have not published their entire Talmud and that at least a part of it is transmitted orally through their rabbis. The Emperor Justinian prohibited the distribution of "Talmudic books in A.D. 533." Popes Gregory IX and Innocent IV condemned them as "containing every kind of vileness and blasphemy against Christian Truth." They have been condemned by many other Roman Pontiffs.*

"The Talmud Unmasked," page 21.

Father B. Pranaitis of Russia, a Roman Catholic theologian and Hebraist of the Roman Catholic College of the Imperial Academy of St. Petersburg, published in 1892 in Latin and Hebrew many quotations from the Talmud revealing their intolerant anti-Christian spirit. This booklet was translated and copyrighted and published in 1939 by Col E. N. Sanctuary, 156 Fifth Ave., New York, a learned American biblical scholar and a veteran of World War I.

In his epilogue to this book Father Pranaitis said that he was warned by his friends not to publish it, that if he did so he "would perish at the hands of the Jews"; that his friends reminded him of Professor Charini who "was suddenly killed after he had undertaken to translate the Talmud into the vernacular"; and of the monk Didacus of Vilna and "others who had been persecuted for having revealed secrets of the Jewish religion." He concluded by saying:

"The book you now hold in your hand is the best proof that I did not heed these warnings of my friends. I consider it unworthy of me to keep silent just for the sake of my own personal safety while the conflict rages between the two camps of 'Semites' and 'Anti-Semites,' both of which claim they are fighting for the truth, while I know that the whole truth is not to be found in either camp. But whatever befalls me because of what I have done, I shall gladly suffer it. I am prepared to lay down my life THAT I MAY BEAR WITNESS TO THE TRUTH."

"The Talmud Unmasked," page 22, 23.

And Father Pranaitis was murdered by the bolsheviks.

Colonel Sanctuary was one of the defendants in the Washington trial of the thirty alleged seditionists. No evidence of any character was introduced against him during the 7½ months of this trial. His only offense was the translation and publication of the book, "The Talmud Unmasked."

TALMUD IS VICIOUS

The Talmud is not only the Bible of the Zionists but it is also their legal and moral code; and the rabbis are not only priests but they are also Jewish teachers and lawyers and judges for Jewish courts. Rabbi Browne says of the Talmud:

"And the fact that in bulk the chaff far exceeds the wheat should not be at all surprising. After all the Talmud is the product of an age when a peculiar type of mind alone could thrive. Israel was exhausted."

This is the judgment of an intelligent Zionist rabbi, a former associate of the Zionist Rabbi Wise, most prominent American rabbi. Only a Jew can say such things about the Talmud. If a gentile (gol) should even intimate that it is a book of hate and resentment from ancient injuries and that "the bulk of it is chaff" he would be denounced as an intolerant anti-Semite. In the case of Father Pranaitis he was killed; and in Colonel Sanctuary's case he was prosecuted as an anti-Semite for the offense of translating and publishing the Talmud in part. It is worse than "chaff." It is malicious and vicious and is not entitled to be classed as a religious book.

JEWISH INTOLERANCE AND HATE

The Talmud denounces Christ as a bastard and gloats over his crucifixion. It glorifies the Jew and characterizes the gol (Gentiles) as idolaters and as beasts. It asserts "that the Jew alone is a man, that the whole world is his and all things should serve him, especially animals that have the form of men." (Talmud Unmasked, p. 68.) It tells the Jews not to "eat with the idolaters, make no covenant with them, and show them no mercy, and turn them away from their idols or kill them." (Talmud Unmasked, p. 63.) They are taught to hate the gol (Gentiles), to cheat them and to spurn them as inferiors.

This is the Jewish religion as revealed in the Talmud, and that Americans are called upon to recognize and tolerate as religious freedom.

"The Jews lifted it (the Talmud) to a place of importance above the very Bible, and they studied it far more diligently. They memorized it from end to end—every one of its sixty-three enormous divisions."

"Stranger Than Fiction," page 197. Rabbi Browne was associate rabbi with the Zionist leader, Dr. Stephen S. Wise of the Free Synagogue of Greater New York, for a period of two years.

That may be true of the rabbis but it is rather an extravagant statement regarding the Jewish people as a whole.

Rabbi Browne argues in defense of the Talmud, or apology for it, that "There are in it myths and vagaries, idiotic superstitions and unhappy thoughts, things that are not merely irrational but sometimes even quite offensive . . . It is like life—a higgledy-piggledy mingling of both good and bad, of both wisdom and folly. For it came directly out of life, directly out of the hateful, exciting, hopeful, despairing heroic life of the Jewish people . . . It contains very nearly everything."*

TALMUD SHOULD BE DISCARDED

It is high time that this obsolete "idiotic and superstitious" religion of pride and intolerance and hate be discarded. If it is true, as Rabbi Browne argues, that the purpose of the Talmud was to preserve the Jewish race as a separate race and to prevent its assimilation with other races, it has accomplished that purpose. It has been responsible for much of the alleged persecution of the Jewish race, for people who hate are usually hated.

It is significant that Rabbi Browne does not mention Ishmael in his interesting book. He discusses the history of the Israelites, an extinct race as shown by his own writing. The elaborate "History of the Jewish People" by Margolis and Marx (822 pages, published by "The Jewish Publication Society of America" in 1941) is also a history of the extinct race of Israelites. The Jews cannot be blamed for desiring to escape the odium of the curse of God upon the race of Ishmael, or of being classed as hybrids. It is but natural for them to seek to adopt the history of another tribe even if it is extinct and not a very glorious one.

A LETTER FROM ROBERT H. BEST

(Editor's Note: For the benefit of the few uninformed who usually write in after we publish something with reference to Robert H. Best, who has been sentenced to life imprisonment, we make the following remarks. We do not believe there is anyone who knows more about Mr. Best than the writer, although he never met him personally. Robert Best is the son of a Methodist Minister, with as clean and honorable a record from boyhood on as we have ever known. We doubt if there has ever been a finer American patriot — and still he was sentenced as a traitor to the United States, as was Cardinal Mindzeny to the Hungarian government. And so will hundreds of good patriots and loyal American citizens be convicted as traitors if we allow this Marxist New Deal to get more powerful.)

Dear Mr. Editor:

Inasmuch as one of the oldest and most firmly established principles of law is to the effect that "it is the intent which makes the crime" I beg to suggest that many of your readers will be interested in what the three-judge United States Court of Appeals in Boston, Massachusetts, recently held to be legal proof of "treasonable intent" on the part of a Defendant-Appellant who appeared before them.

On page 6 of a judicial opinion handed down on July 6th in Case Number 4363, which was written by Chief Judge Calvert Magruder, and which as of that date became "the supreme law of the land" throughout the United States, this high court decided verbatim as follows:

"On the issue of appellant's treasonable intent, seven authenticated recordings of appellant's broadcasts were played back at the trial, and manuscripts of ten of the 'BB' broadcasts were read to the jury. In these exhibits may be found all the main Nazi propaganda themes, with particular emphasis upon the alleged menace of a Jewish world-wide conspiracy and Jewish infiltration into controlling positions in the Government of the United States, and also upon the depicting of Hitler's Germany as a great bulwark of Christianity and civilization against Bolshevism."

The case under consideration was an appeal of the writer of this letter against a "conviction" in Boston's United States District Court two years ago and a subsequent sentence to lifelong imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

Judge Magruder, it will be recalled, was one of the four federal judges who appeared in the first Alger Hiss trial in New York as a volunteer character witness in a vain effort to convince the jury that Hiss had always been a man of impeccable integrity and loyalty. His private opinion in that case the jury collectively treated as worthless. Whether his judicial opinion on what he has held to be proof of "treasonable intent" is long to remain the law in our country the United States Supreme Court in Washington, D. C. will soon be called upon to decide;

As at least an indication of the way in which the proceedings against me have been conducted for more than four years it may also interest your readers to learn that one of many motions made by me during the trial and pre-trial stage of the proceedings was one in which I demanded that the United States District Court trial Judge, Francis J. W. Ford, disqualify himself because his name once appeared on a secret communist circular titled "Our Friends In Court." Ford refused even to step aside long enough to permit another judge to hear arguments from me in support of either this or any other of the equally valid reasons why he was duty-bound to disqualify himself on the grounds of "prejudice, bias, and/or concern in interest."

Another motion of mine which Judge Ford also rejected out-of-hand was a pre-trial motion that representatives of the press be granted access to me not only as a presumptively innocent prisoner but also in my capacity as my own chief lawyer.

Yet another motion which Judge Ford also rejected was one requesting that I be permitted to present defense witnesses. He refused to permit me even one witness;—this despite the constitutionally-guaranteed right of every person to defense witnesses in any criminal proceeding.

With respect to both these and many other equally erroneous and even fatally prejudicial errors on the part of Ford, Judge Magruder wrote on page 19 of the aforementioned court opinion as follows:

"The record does show that the District Judge exhibited from start to finish marked solicitude for protecting the rights of the accused."

Than which, as the record shows scores of times, no greater falsehood can be uttered or even conceived.

Can such things happen, one may well ask; — can such things really have happened in the city of Adams, Revere, Otis, and Hancock? The court's own records give the answer: they did.

RED HIGHLIGHTS

Trygve Lie, U.N. Secretary General, was asked at his press conference on August 7, 1950 to explain why he permitted Russia to usurp a portion of his official powers thus helping to create the tie-up in the Security Council. The American people should understand that the real reason is that Lie is surrounded with Zionists who dictate the policies of Zionist-Communism to him. A few of these faithful Marxist followers are: Zionist Benjamin Cohen, personal assistant to Mr. Lie; Zionist A. H. Feller, General Counsel to Mr. Lie; Zionist J. Shapiro, Director of the U.N.O. Information Center in Geneva; Zionist Leo Pasvolsky (born in Russia) who drew up the U.N. Charter and special assistant to Mr. Lie; Zionist I. G. Katzin, (born in Russia) who is Mr. Lie's personal representative in Korea; Zionist George Morvson producer of daily U.N. radio program "The U.N. Today"; and Zionist Isador Lubin United States delegate to the U.N. subcommittee on devastated areas. (Trygve Lie in his home in Norway is known as Stalin's errand boy. He dares not move without orders from New York Zionists.)

To the Attorney General belongs the duty of recommending persons for Federal Judges, he gives advice upon legal points to the President and to head of Departments, and supervises the United States Marshals and District Attorneys. His substitute and principal assistant is the Solicitor General. Who is the Solicitor General today in Washington? None other than Zionist Phillip B. Perlman. (F.D.R. often said "these things don't happen, they are planned.")

Not much has been said about the considerable amount of U. S. military payment certificates (army script)—approximately $5,000,000 which was captured in Seoul by North Korean Communists. Under the circumstances it appears that it wasn't an accident but intentionally placed there so that Communists would have easy access to it. Why aren't the American people told who ordered this money to Seoul to be captured, and why? Are they afraid that our true enemies will be exposed before it is time and ripe to introduce the totalitarian government?

The U. S. Government is offering for sale 30,000,000 pounds of meat at 5 cents a pound. The meat is part of 300,000,000 pounds of food which the government is trying to unload from its vast hoard under a new scheme of cut-rate prices. Other bargains include butter at 15 cents a pound, cheese at 7½ cents a pound, and dried milk a nickel a pound. But American consumers can't buy any of these bargains. The food was only offered in carload lots and only to foreign countries. The U. S. government accumulated this stock pile of food for the purpose of keeping prices up in America and now they are going to give it away to some foreign country. The house wife not only has to pay 90 cents for a pound of meat but she also has to pay the government tax money to make it possible for the New Deal to sell foreigners meat at 5 cents a pound. One might say that this has to be done in order to stabilize our economy and protect our farmers. Well if this is true why doesn't the government ship this food into the various Army, Navy and Marine camps throughout the country? Our boys wouldn't complain because it wasn't paid for by a special appropriation bill and increase tax expense to the public. But this will not be done. The government will give this food away and then turn around and scream that the boys in the services need supplies and push through an appropriation bill of several millions to buy more of the same type of foods at high prices. The reason for this act by our government is obvious. It fits in with the Zionist plan of World Government perfectly. They must bankrupt America and the faster we throw away our wealth and resources the faster we will fall under the domination of Zionist Communism. Of course Zionist Leon Keyserling who is President Truman's Chairman of Council of Economic Advisers thinks this is good business to condition us for Communism.

UN GETS NEW RED— ANOTHER ZIONIST FRONT

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

PRINCE VON BISMARCK

ULYSSES S. GRANT

In 1876 Prince Bismarck, the German chancellor, said of Abraham Lincoln:

"He was an anti-slavist and he was elected as such. But his character prevented him from being a man of one party. While he had affairs in his hands, he perceived that those sinister financiers of Europe, the Rothschilds, wished to make him direct their designs. But Lincoln . . . soon understood that the South was not the country's worst foe, but these Jewish financiers.

"He decided to eliminate the International Jewish Bankers. . . . The foreign financiers understood at once that the United States would escape their grip. The death of Lincoln was decided upon. Nothing was easier than to find a fanatic to strike. The death of Lincoln was a disaster to Christendom. There was no man big enough to wear his shoes. . . . I fear the Jewish banks with their craftiness and tortuous tricks will entirely control the exuberant riches of America and use it to systematically corrupt modern civilization."

Prince Von Bismarck to Conrad Siem

Our Civil War was "brain trusted" and financed by August P. Belmont in the North, and by Juda P. Benjamin in the South—both Rothschilds Zionist agents. August P. Belmont, a European Jew, came to America in 1837 and in 1843 was a founder of the powerful Jewish organization, B'nai B'rith. He was also a founder and the first "National Chairman" of our present Democrat Party. Juda P. Benjamin was the newspaper power behind Jefferson Davis and the Southern Confederacy. He became Secretary of War, then Secretary of State and was virtually the dictator of the Southern Confederacy. Belmont sponsored the newspaper agitation that was "fronted" by John Brown and other agitators of the North.

Charles A. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War in the North, testified in regard to Lincoln's assassination, and gave definite proof of a link between John Wilkes Booth and Juda P. Benjamin in this crime of crimes.

Ulysses S. Grant was another American President who was "framed" and "defamed" by the Jewish gestapo because of his opposition to the Jewish Rothschild money program.

From the Works of William Dudley Pelley, Henry Ford, Conrad Siem, Charles A. Dana and others

This explanation of our Civil War will serve to indicate how our Jewish controlled press has falsified history, and also the world news services, in order to control our government, our army and our wealth as a means of enslaving us and the people of the whole world to the Marxist economic system. Clean Up The State Department!

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, (From Council Letter No. 336)

Constantly one hears some citizen or other exclaim about foreign threats to America today: "How did we ever get into such a hell of a mess?"

More and more Americans would like to know. The only way to find out is for the Congress—more especially the Senate—to find out.

And the Congress can find out. Whether it will or not depends upon whether enough private citizens take the trouble to tell their Senators they must.

The Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate has empowered a sub-committee of its own members to investigate the State Department. No investigation ever conducted by the Congress has been as important as this.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS THE GOVERNMENT

For the State Department has become the Government of the United States. Left-wing infiltration of the State Department alone enables left-wingers to bend and guide, if not to control, the United States of America, to their own purpose. That is how and why the American people have been brought into such peril today.

The State Department has grown beyond any bounds imagined by the Congress itself even ten years ago. It will spend or be responsible for about half the expected 43 billion dollar budget of the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1950. It controls in one way or another our foreign trade under the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, the operation of which Act has a direct effect upon much local industry. It controls all of our foreign and much of our domestic agricultural activities. It controls foreign loans. It controls the administration of Germany and other occupied territories.

The State Department will control operations under the so-called Point 4 program, if it is ever authorized by the Congress. This program will take further American funds and use them for the benefit of other countries. The Department will handle directly or indirectly our relations with the International Trade Organization (ITO), should the ITO agreement be approved; and the operation of the threatened agreements proposed by the International Labor Organization (ILO).

The State Department handles all matters connected with the Marshall Plan; the carrying out of the North Atlantic Pact; the operation of the International Refugee Organization (IRO) controlling the entry of refugees into the United States.

It handles all United Nations activities for this country.

IT IS THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

And apparently President Truman, lacking experience in international as well as in many domestic affairs, leaves the administration of the State Department to Secretary Acheson and his associates. In fact, he has left its administration in succession to each of the three previous Secretaries of State, Messrs. Stettinius, Byrnes and Marshall.

Therefore, we repeat, the investigation of the State Department is of the highest importance. A really thorough investigation, bringing out the whole truth, could be a turning point in the history of the United States—after which America could regain control of her own destiny. A careless or, worse still, a rigged investigation, could spell disaster for the American Republic.

RECENT DISASTERS HAVE COME WHEN STATE DEPARTMENT HAS BEEN IN CONTROL

It is not too much to say that the State Department, in control of Government policy for at least five years, is responsible for the disasters that have taken place.

What are these disasters?

In the Pacific the fruits of our brilliantly fought

Joseph P. Davies, Zionist and former Ambassador to Russia, who carried a highly important letter to Stalin from F. D. R. Here Davies, on June 3, 1943, has alighted from the plane that brought him back to the U.S. with Stalin's answer to President Roosevelt sealed in a brief case.

Davies is one of the powerful Marxists. He is author of "Mission to Moscow" and is credited with stating there was nothing wrong with the Russian spies stealing atomic secrets at the time these spies were caught in Canada. Davies was a heavy contributor to F. D. R. Jr.'s campaign for Congress in the Bronx. Many people have wondered what strange power has caused Senator Millard Tydings to be selected as Chairman of the Senate Investigating Committee and to use such brutal tactics in dealing with Senator McCarthy instead of trying to locate the Communists in our State Department. The answer is probably in the fact that Marxist Joseph Davies, a power in the Invisible Government, is Tydings' father-in-law.

war have been thrown away. They have not been merely dissipated in such a way that neither we nor any friendly country or people have benefited from them. They have been thrown into the hands of our one great enemy, Soviet Russia. They have been thrown there either by the reasonable intent or the unutterable stupidity of those who have been able to shape the policy of the Department. Probably never in history has a nation won a war so gloriously as the United States won against Japan and then sacrificed all the fruits of the victory which was ours, with no other country an important factor in helping us win it. Not one particle of these fruits remain. If the United States (and that means our State Department) had been expressly carrying out the policy of Soviet Russia itself, Soviet Russia could hardly have profited more.

And, assuming the premise that the policies of the American Government ought to be in the interests of the American people and the American Republic, the results of our policy toward the German people may yet prove to be as disastrous as our policy in the Pacific. In Germany we have largely followed the Morgenthau plan, doing for a long time everything possible to punish and humiliate the whole German people. We have done this by dismantling plants, by so-called "denazification" of many Germans and by the utterly unprecedented and unlawful Nuremberg trials of German leaders. Even though the cost of the American people of maintaining the American-occupied zone of Germany has been many hundred million dollars a year, yet we have refused to let the Germans get on their feet again and go forward. WE REFUSED TO PROFIT FROM EXPERIENCE

AN OPEN LETTER TO ROBERT F. MOSS UNITED WORLD FED. CHAPTER PRES.

Mr. Robert Moss
President, Elizabeth Chapter, U.W.F.
Elizabeth, New Jersey
Dear Mr. Moss:

It is only on rare occasions that I do something distasteful to me. This is one of those occasions. Ordinarily, when I discover an individual unknowingly bolstering the ranks of an organization which may eventually be branded a Communist-front, I prefer to approach that party and privately present what evidence I possess.

When, therefore, a man to whom I have offered material in confidence not only refuses elaboration of general statements, but resorts to the public press (said press, all too often, being denied me for the purpose of answering) I am forced to bring matters into the open.

Mr. Moss, above your name in the March 23rd issue of the Elizabeth Daily Journal, it was stated that "charges of Communism in U. W. F. have come from COMMON SENSE." The article implied that COMMON SENSE had no factual information to support its contention that many of those affiliated with United World Federalists are, or have been, associated with Communist-front organizations. Further, the public was lead to believe that it would be wise to dismiss statements I might make before an audience as being irresponsible. Do you, Mr. Moss, recall that — long before you wrote the letter to the Journal — I offered you detailed information? Does my memory serve me right when I say that I actually mailed you some information?

It may be that others also expect me to mount a public platform and pull an entire reference library along in back of me. Such a procedure is impossible. Instead, for all the world to see, I am printing at the end of this article a chart giving the Communist-front affiliations of a few of the persons holding office in, or belonging to, the United World Federalists. To list all the Communist-fronters and the Un-American organizations to which they belong, we would have to write a book.

For the benefit of every patriotic American, I say this: Before joining the U. W. F., carefully study the chart below. Ask yourself this question: Why is it that Communist-fronters are sticking around U.W.F. like bees around a honey-pot?

Remember, too, that "world government" proposals are shrewdly written. They contain countless whereofs and wherebys through which our great American Republic will be betrayed into Communism. Plans already drawn up vary. U.W.F. proposals call for an international police force and direct taxation on the citizens. The Committee to Frame World Constitution's socialistic plot outlines "world government" actual ownership and control of "all business having the character of a federal public service," and a world-wide social security program.

Some "world government" advocates belong to both U.W.F. and the Committee to Frame a World Constitution. One of these is Dr. Albert Guerard, Sr., whose Communist-front affiliations include the American Council on Soviet Relations, and the Free Earl Browder Committee.

It should be obvious to any intelligent American that there are ulterior motives behind the "world government" plotters' sugary speeches on "peace." ALL WORLD GOVERNMENT LEGISLATION SHOULD BE STRONGLY OPPOSED IF AMERICA IS TO REMAIN A FREE NATION.

I am willing, at any time, to defend the statements I have made. I have already challenged Alan Cranston, President of U. W. F., to public debate. The challenge has not been accepted. I would like to meet, on a platform, any top official of U. W. F., preferably James Warburg, and give that official a

KARL MARX

The Jewish Encyclopedia, (Vol. 8) described Marx' arrest, exiles and Red revolutionary activities in only the most favorable, deferential way, and says: "the great work of Marx's life with which his fame is more enduringly identified is 'Das Kapital'."

The "Encyclopedia of Jewish Knowledge" (Jacob DeHaas, editor, 1938) with equal deference describes Marx and his "great" works.

"Jewish Contributions to Civilization" issued by "Jewish Publication Society of America" (1920) eulogizes Karl Marx and blasphemously likens his Hell-inspired anti-God, venomous theories to "the exalted indignation of an Ishah." (pp. 45-61).

JACOB SCHIFF

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by the "Kehillah (Jewish Community) of New York," 356 Second Avenue, N. Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn Loeb and Co., for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

"The Jew plays a part in revolutions, and he plays it inasmuch as he is a Jew, or rather inasmuch as he remains a Jew. The spirit of the Jew is essentially a revolutionary spirit, and consciously or otherwise, the Jew is a revolutionary." . . . The Jew, Bernard Lazare in his book "L'Antisemitisme," Paris, 1894.

"The Jewish religion is hostile to Christianity in general and to the Catholic church in particular."

—M. J. Oglin in "The Morning Freiheit" N. Y. daily, Jan. 10, 1937. (The California Joint Fact-Finding Committee report of 1948, p. 157, said: The "Morning Freiheit" is the official Communist organ in the Jewish language.)

"Nationalities must disappear, religion must be suppressed. But Israel must not disappear for this little people is the Chosen of God."

—Adolphe Cremieux, president of L'Alliance Israelite Universelle, in "Les Archives Israelites," Paris, No. 25. — 1861.

"The joy of Jewry at these events (Bolshevik revolution) was not merely the triumph over an oppressor; but was also gladness at the downfall of hostile religious and semi-religious institutions."

—H. Wickham Steed (half-Jew) in "Through Thirty Years".

"We intend to remake the Gentile . . . what the communists are doing in Russia."

—Rabbi Lewis Browne in his book, "How Odd of God"

"Paole-Zionism goes on with its task in Russia, in Palestine and elsewhere. In this very hour it appears as the UNIQUE INTERNATIONAL PROLETARIAN PARTY. One of its factions joins the Communist Internationale, the other joins the Socialist Internationale."

—Elie Eberlin, in the book "Jews of Today," Paris, 1928.

Rabbi Stephen Wise said: "Some call it Communism; I call it Judaism."

"What we Jews must do is to set our faces as flint against Fascism, against any form of it whatsoever. Our next step to be taken as soon as ever it is possible, must be to seize, in the interest of the workers, ALL THE NATION'S INDUSTRIES, AND LET NOTHING WHATSOEVER STAND IN OUR WAY, EVEN SHOULD WE HAVE TO USE VIOLENCE."

—James Waterman Wise (Son of Rabbi S. Wise, N. Y.) speaking from the pulpit of the Free Synagogue, Jan. 28, 1934 on "The Rising Tide—Will It Overwhelm Us?"

What Strategic Positions Have These Marxists Secure All Those Listed B

FELIX FRANKFURTER

Felix Frankfurter, next to Bernard Baruch and the Warburgs of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., is the most powerful Marxist-Zionist in the U. S. He holds Truman and the administration in a straight-jacket. For 25 years he has been prominent in advising Anarchists and Communists. He was advisor to Sacco & Vanzetti, the anarchists hung in Massachusetts — he was counsel for Tom Mooney, the Communist who served a long term in California for bombing. Frankfurter was a leader in American Civil Liberties Union, which has given legal aid to Communists for years.

An Austrian-born Zionist, Frankfurter has placed many Marxists (mostly former students of his at Harvard) in government key positions. Among them are Alger Hiss — Lee Pressman — Donald Hiss — Nathan Witt and Judge Jerome Frank. At the time Frankfurter forced F.D.R. to appoint him as Supreme Court Justice, some Congressmen charged that Frankfurter was a Communist. His attorney before the Senate Judiciary Committee was Dean Acheson. Frankfurter rules the State Department with an iron hand — using James Byrnes, George Marshall and Dean Acheson to carry out the Marxist plan of leading other countries into Communist booby-traps. Harold Ickes stated that Frankfurter told him that he, Frankfurter, picked Henry L. Stimson as Secretary of War in the plan to crush Germany. Stimson was Chief Counsel to Kuhn, Loeb and Co., which now rules Germany through a former member of Kuhn, Loeb — Benjamin J. Bittenweiser, Assistant High Commissioner of Germany.

The Chicago Daily Tribune of April 25, 1949 quotes Frankfurter, who replied when asked who really runs the U. S.: "The real rulers of a nation are undiscoverable."

es As Fronts To Promote Communism-Socialism-World Government- For Rule By Asiatic Marxists? Here Is What They Themselves Say:

"The Jew Is a Communist." —Otto Winiger in his book, "Sex and Character," Vienna, 1921.

"The patriotism of the Jew is simply a cloak he assumes to please the Englishman. Jews who pretend that they can at once be patriotic Englishmen and good Jews are simply living lies."

—B. Fells, in a letter to the "Jewish Chronicle," Dec. 8, 1911.

"The 'American Hebrew,' the Nation's most outstanding Jewish weekly, said on September 10, 1920:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

"We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain the destroyers forever. Nothing that you do will meet our needs and demands. We will destroy because we need a world of our own."

—The Jew, Maurice Samuel, in his book "You Gentiles," page 135.

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands. This revolution will tighten the Jewish domination over all other people."

—Paris Jewish magazine, "Peuple Juif," Feb. 8, 1919

"Without exaggeration it may be said that the great Russian Revolution was indeed accomplished by the hands of the Jews."

—Statement of the Jew, M. Cohen in "The Communist Charkov," April 12, 1919.

"The revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution, a crisis in Jewish history. It is a Jewish revolution because Russia is the home of about half the Jews of the world . . . but the revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution also because Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's empire."

—From the Zionist organ, "The Maccabean," New York November 1905, pg. 250, headline "A Jewish Revolution."

"Our fight goes on, not only for our existence, but for the preservation and the development of our whole Jewish being—our All-World domination which was taken away from us 2000 years ago"

—The "Israelitische Wochenblatt," Leipsiz, Jan. 15, 1926.

"We feel, that this—the revolution—is a great triumph for Jews' cause. The anti-Jewish element in Russia has always been identified with the anti-revolutionary party. Jews having always sat high in the councils of the revolutionists, all of our race became inseparably linked with the opponents of the government in the official mind!" . . . Quoted from the "Jewish Daily Forward," New York by the Russian writer, Boris Brasol in his book "The World at the Crossroads," Boston, 1921, pg. 108.

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They never could have made a saviour out of mince meat."

—Ben Hecht; Zionist Writer in Hollywood. p. 20 "A Jew In Love."

"We have exterminated the capitalists and property owners in Russia. We are going to do the same to the intelligentsia of Europe and America."

—Zisovief, Chairman of the Communist Third International (Congressional Record, Dec. 19, 1925)

DAVID K. NILES (NEYHUS)

Niles (Neyhus), Administrative Assistant to F.D.R. holds the same position with President Truman. Niles, a Zionist, has — through the power of the Anti-Defamation League — been kept close to the White House to direct and report important moves to Zionist rulers. As long as his reports are favorable, showing that Truman does not reject orders from Felix Frankfurter, the administration and Truman will have the support of World Zionism. Several moves have been made by private citizens to remove Niles, who has often used his influence in the State Department on behalf of Communists having difficulty in entering the U. S. It is rumored that when the Departments receive a request from Niles he is considered as the President's mouthpiece. In documents of the Coplon trial it was shown that Niles had intervened successfully with the State Department's passport division in behalf of Phillip Levy. The FBI report on Levy, now in files of the Coplon case, states: "Because of possible involvement in 1934 passport fraud, his (Levy's) application for 1945 trip to Mexico was held up until Presidential aid, David Niles, intervened."

CLEAN UP THE STATE DEPARTMENT!

We knew that when the Congress of Vienna re-frained in 1815 from penalizing France, which had caused 20 years of European wars, there followed 99 years of general peace in Europe. We knew that Britain's conciliatory policy toward the defeated Boers, just after the turn of the century cemented British South Africa close into the British Empire. We knew that the peace of Versailles in 1919, with its grotesque attempts to punish defeated Germany, led straight to Hitler and World War II. Yet with all this experience to guide us, our State Department and the Administration decided again on a policy of punishment and humiliation toward a defeated enemy.

This fatal decision was wholly dictated by a vindictive minority whose policy has been permitted to be the policy of the State Department and hence of the United States Government. At this very moment, through the continued dismantling of plants, in spite of the agreement that dismantling shall cease, through the agreement to turn over to the French the Saar Basin, one of the greatest industrial assets of West Germany, and through other similar stupidities on our part, the time may not be far distant when West Germany will succumb to the blandishments of the wily Soviet Government and join up with East Germany.

All Soviet Russia has to do in order to insure the conquest of all of the rest of Europe, at least down to the Pyrenees and probably including Great Britain, is to persuade the West Germans to accept unity with the East Germans under the auspices of Soviet Russia. Already the enrollment under the Soviet banner of many East German inventors and scientists has enabled Soviet Russia to take the lead against the United States in her air service and in her submarines. The consolidation of all Germany under Soviet Russian domination or guidance would be an even greater gain to Soviet Russia than the acquisition by Soviet Russia during the past twelve months of all of China. It would strike a death blow at Western Europe—and perhaps at the United States itself.

Several important leaders in Britain (like Arthur Horner, secretary of the powerful coal miners union) have said that in event of war between the United States and Soviet Russia, Britain would be neutral. The several million communist party members in France indicate that France might be even weaker against Soviet Russia than she was against Germany and Soviet Russia in 1940. Yet the State Department insists upon pouring out almost unlimited treasure to both these countries, while penalizing Spain and West Germany, which two countries would be the strongest bulwark in all Europe against the Soviets.

And it is the American State Department and its ramifications that have had practically sole charge of affairs while all this has happened.

So, in God's Name, why should not the State Department be investigated? If it is not thoroughly investigated, it may well be that the days of the American Republic are numbered.

SENATOR MCCARTHY HAS MADE CHARGES

Now, as it happens, Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin, a 40-year-old ex-Marine, has made certain charges. He has said that some 80 of the officials of the State Department have strong left-wing records. So far, he has named a number of individuals, one of whom he asserted had been a member of not less than 28 organizations which other Government agencies have found to be Communist fronts.

Now the Communists are the cleverest schemers we have ever known in the United States. They so far surpass any other politicians of the present day in acumen, energy, intelligence and dishonesty that it is hard for the average person to believe what these fellows are doing. And one result of this has been that it is hard to pin with certainty on any individual (except, of course, an admitted Party Member) the label of Communist. Authorities say that for every Communist Party member in the United States, there are at least ten persons who work with the Communist Party as so-called "fellow travelers" or sympathizers.

One of the best known Communist techniques is the formation of many organizations—literally hundreds of them, each of which is assigned to influence a given segment of opinion. These organizations have come to be known as Communist Fronts. Large numbers of them have been officially found to be such by the Attorney General of the United States, by the House Committee on Un-American Activities or by such State Legislative Committees as the Tenney Committee of California.

When Senator McCarthy has said that a given individual has belonged to 28 fronts, he means he has at least permitted the use of his name by those organizations. If such an individual does not know that these organizations are Communist Fronts, he is either careless or stupid, for the fact they are Communist Fronts has been widely published. If he does know it, he is culpable. That's about all there is to it. And the vitally important fact is that the Communist Party has been able to advance its schemes so far in the United States because so many otherwise respectable persons have lent the use of their names.

UNIVERSAL MILITARY SERVICE

by General VanHorn Moseley (Retired)

(General Moseley was Commander of the Army of the South and while General MacArthur was Chief of Staff, General Moseley was next in Command).

Before we get further out on the limb in our search for real national defense, the American people should be made to understand just what Universal Military Training means in the minds of the proponents of the plan. They should realize that the system proposed will cost several billion dollars a year, but will not add a single soldier to our fighting forces during the training period. The mothers are assured that their sons are not in the Army; that they are not subject to the articles of war, and that they can't be sent to war until drafted. The plan adds several aulic Councils to an already top-heavy military establishment. In other words, the plan proposed is a Super Boy Scout outfit to be administered by several civilian committees drawing large salaries and involving the employment of a great number of clerks. The Army wants all the assistance it can get from the scientists. It likewise wants all the assistance it can get from the industrialists. But it does not want any of them on the command line.

Before Korea, we thought we had an Army, not very large it is true, but we thought it was supported by a large reserve. We are now confronted with a great emergency and we find our so-called reserve a very nebulous thing. Only a very small part of it is fit for battle and too many in it are trying to get out. The various components of our reserve forces have cost us millions but they have never been ready to embark and fight until after months of delay. This absurd situation must be corrected now. Again, we should remember that the wars of the world have been fought by young men. The calling of older men now being done in the draft, is as unfair as it is unsound. The older men needed at the outset of mobilization for command and leadership and as specialists, should be found in the regular establishments.

In place of the complicated plan which requires 69 pages of conversation to explain, we should have a very simple law for Universal Military SERVICE—a very different thing, and something that will give us the military strength we are looking for. If our Republic is to stand in this troubled world, we must realize that the first duty of every able-bodied male citizen upon reaching his 18th year, is to fit himself for the active service in the event of war or national emergency. That service should mean enlistment for one year in one of the regular components of the Army, Navy or Air Force, or in training camps established and commanded by the regular forces. In the event of war or national emergency requiring the employment of our armed forces, trained men should be called up by yearly classes, the youngest first, reporting immediately to their mobilization assignments.

If, in time of peace, the funds in any year do not permit the enlistment of all men reaching the 18th year (all men enrolled in the class of that year), the number required for service should be selected by lot, using a machine for the purpose. In the event of war, if a class is called, each and every man of that class should be called. Those who have service in the regular establishments would report a

(Editor's Note: The following article was written by a Catholic Priest. It will easily be understood why we do not disclose the name of this practical, holy American patriot. America and Christianity could be saved at this eleventh hour if many Priests and Ministers would study this subject so as to be able to speak authoritatively as this Priest.

We must, through the press and any other means available, build an army of love to destroy the army of hate. Only Jesus and Mary will destroy the evil in the world today! People are so indifferent today! If they only understood the message of Our Lady! I believe that we priests, with our bishops, will soon be martyrs. We will see terrible things taking place. Our people must be prepared for any emergency. As a Catholic priest, I cannot see the world getting better. A Priest is not a layman. He is, to a certain extent, apart from the laity. He is in the service of Christ, and Our Lord gives him grace to realize what is really transpiring in the world. . . . We cannot fight alone. We must become aware of our enemy's tactics, and seek heavenly guidance and help to overcome them. I believe that, at the present time, our Catholics aren't prepared to face the enemy. Many of them, I believe, would surrender themselves to the enemy. This age, I believe, is the Age of Mary, and the Mother of God is about to proceed in her manner of building her army against Satan and his cohorts. That means she is going to have a tremendously big hand in destroying evil all over the world and bringing peace to mankind. There will be peace, but it appears to me that we will have to suffer much first. It seems to me that only suffering will bring people to her son, Jesus Christ. Many Catholics are too worldly, unaware of what is really happening today and slow to take up the Cross and follow Christ. God help us!

PROTOCOLS CANNOT BE DENIED

"The mob is a savage and displays its savagery at every opportunity. The moment the mob seizes freedom in its hands it quickly turns to anarchy, which in itself is the highest degree of savagery."

"Behind the alcoholized animals, bemused with drink, the right to an immoderate use of which comes along with freedom. It is not for us and ours to walk that road. The peoples of the GOYIMS (non-Jews) are bemused with alcoholic liquors; their youth has grown stupid on classicism and from early immorality, into which it has been lured by our special agents—by tutors, lackeys, governesses in the houses of the wealthy, by clerks and others, by our women in the places of dissipation frequented by the GOYIM. In the number of these I count also the so-called 'society ladies' voluntary followers of the others in corruption and luxury'. (Protocol 1, p.11).

"To complete the ruin of the industry of the GOYIM we shall bring to the assistance of speculation the luxury which we have developed among the GOYIM, that greedy demand for luxury which is swallowing up everything. We shall raise the rate of wages which, however, will not bring any advantage to the workers, for, at the same time, we shall produce a rise in prices of the first necessities of life, alleging that it rises from the decline of agriculture and cattle-breeding: We shall further undermine artfully and deeply sources of production, by accustoming the workers to anarchy and to drunkenness and side by side therewith taking all measure to extirpate from the face of the earth all the educated forces of the goyim." (Protocol 6, p. 22)

"In order that the masses themselves may not guess what they are about we further distract them with amusements, games, pastimes, passions, people's palaces. . . . Soon we shall bring through the press to propose competitions in art, in sport of all kinds: these interests will finally distract their minds from questions in which we should find ourselves compelled to oppose them. Growing more and more disaccustomed to reflect and form any opinions of their own, people will begin to talk in the same tone as we, because we alone shall be offering them new doctrines for thought. . . . of course through such persons as will not be suspected of solidarity with us" (Protocol 13, p. 35).

Note: "The presumption is strong that the Protocols were issued, or reissued, at the First Zionist Congress held at Basle, in 1897, under the presidency of the Father of Modern Zionism, the late Theodor Herzl (Protocols: Introduction, p. 5)

World War III had been planned at Yalta and Potsdam when Germany and Korea had been cut in two. The 38th parallel in Korea, which is a purely arbitrary line cutting the Industrial North from the agricultural South, was the seed for Mr. Truman's Korean war. North Korea was given to Russia for her "wonderful" help in the war against Japan. Read this: Russia entered the war on August 8, 1945, two days after the bombing of Hiroshima. Japan was "permitted" to surrender on August 14, 1945, although she tried to surrender before.

There is filed a card dated July 24, 1945, sent by Frederick J. Libby, Exec. Secy. of the National Council for prevention of war, urging that Americans wire President Truman to accept Japan's surrender proposition. That card has these portentous words. Now. Later may be too late. Why didn't the U.S.A. wait Japan to surrender on July 24, 1945, thirteen days before Hiroshima and fifteen days before Russia entered the war to win the "reward", Korea?

Before you talk of atrocities in Korea and dead American soldiers there in 1950 and elsewhere, before you talk of throwing A-bombs here and there, be honest and think clearly! Remember Truman and his guilt in 1945. . . . Truman and his guilt in 1950!

Soon we will be fighting as an American team to preserve Christianity and our Constitution, but has anyone ever really protested the Hiroshima Massacre, or Mr. Truman's war in Korea? We are Americans, but have we, in a democratic way, had anything to say about going into the war in Korea? I sincerely believe we are no longer living in a democracy.

Where are the "Peace loving nations"? Soviet Union is a member of the United Nations. Is she a peace loving nation? If she is a member of the U.N. O., and since the U.N.O. had been established to prevent aggressions, why isn't Russia (not the Russian people but the diabolical dictator and his cohorts) doing anything about ending the war in Korea? Where are the Four Freedoms? Hypocritical words to deceive the un-thinking! Yet, there are those who say of Mr. Roosevelt: "He's dead. Let the dead rest!" Should he rest when American boys (just kids from high school) are dying, as a result of his and his successor's treachery? Should they be permitted to go untold, i.e., Roosevelt and Truman? Read this: Arthur Sears Henning, in the Chicago "Tribune" of May 6, 1946, enumerated the following secret commitments:

"The deal at the Yalta conference whereby Russian Dictator Stalin agreed to come into war against Japan in consideration of getting the Kurile Islands on the flank of the American Aleutians and territorial and economic concessions in China.

"The deal at the Teheran conference whereby Mr. Roosevelt assented to the divisions of Europe into Russian and British spheres of influence, the partition of Poland, and other measures for extending Russian domination of eastern Europe.

"The deal with Stalin at Yalta in which Mr. Roosevelt agreed that Russia should have three votes in the United Nations organization.

"Mr. Roosevelt's letter to King Ibn Saud of Arabia promising to take no step in Palestine hostile to the Arabs, which the ZIONISTS pronounce a repudiation of the later President's pledge to support a Jewish commonwealth.

"An agreement at Yalta on a proposed system of United Nations trusteeships for territories captured from the enemy and for other dependent areas.

"An understanding Stalin obtained at Yalta that Russia should receive 50% of reparations exacted from Germany, while Britain and the United States could have 20% each, and the other nations would divide the remaining 10%.

"An agreement Mr. Truman made at the Potsdam conference providing for revision of the Montreux convention governing the right of navigation of the Dardanelles, whereby Turkey would be deprived of the power to restrict such passage in any way.

"An agreement between the American and Russian military authorities at Yalta for reciprocal repatriation of Soviet citizens liberated by the American army and American citizens liberated by the Russian army whereby anti-Russian Poles, Balts, Czechs, Finns, Slovaks, Austrians, and others would be surrendered to the Russian authorities for possible imprisonment, deportation or 'liquidation.'

"An understanding obtained by Churchill from Roosevelt at the Casablanca conference that the British should have control of ALL military operations in the eastern Mediterranean and southeastern Europe.

"A memorandum initiated by Roosevelt and Churchill at the 1944 Quebec conference, approving the Morgenthau plan for the deindustrialization of Germany and the conversion of Germany into 'a country primarily agricultural and pastoral in character.' It also suggested internationalization of the Ruhr and Saar districts of Germany."

What else is there that we Americans don't know? A New York paper said: "Churchill is holding out for $100,000 to reveal in a national magazine what he thinks about America: his hitherto unpublished speeches brought $50,000 from Henry Luce." Poor Americans, the great defenders of the Wall Street and international bankers as well as of political demagogues!

General MacArthur has to see boys under his command die needlessly, because his suggested policies were ignored. In the Bataan death march, Mr. Roosevelt's orders were to supply England first. In Korea, Mr. Lattimore's advice outweighed MacArthur's. The U. S. State Department treacherously trades American lives to help Russia! And what kind of decisions does Mr. Truman have, since he said not so long ago: "The decisions we make in the next few months will determine whether there is to be a third world war." Who are the "we"? B. Cohen, Assistant Secretary General (in charge of information)? B. Baruch, "American" member on the U.N.O. Commission on Atomic Energy? A. H. Feller, General Counsel to Mr. Lie, Secretary General? A. Morse, Director of International Labour? J. Shapiro, Director of U.N.O. Information Center, Geneva? Will we know just exactly where the A-bombs will fall? Or Lee Pavolsky, the man who drew up the U.N.O. Charter . . . and special assistant? Apart from the "Russian" representative on the Political and Security Committee, the Jew D. J. Manulsky, these men are all Jews, aware that Communism as well as Communist countries are ruled by members of their own tribe. They are anxious to do nothing that will seriously endanger the Jewish rulers of Russia and Eastern Europe . . . all anxious to appear as champions of Western Democracy . . . all a dangerous liability to the Western World in peace and, of course, a far greater danger in the event of war. Yet, these are the men with whom Mr. Truman is in alliance: the clique that is trying hard to destroy our land. They camouflage "Russian" domination of the world with an organization called U.N.O., and they supplanted the American flag with a crackpot flag called the U.N.O. flag. And they placed MacArthur, since he is a probable candidate for the presidency in 1952, on a spot. They plan on bringing defeat purposely, not by a democratic party (the democratic party and the republican party, if well managed, keep a balance of power in our government), but by an un-American clique that is out to destroy the U.S.A. When did we tire of fighting under the Stars and Stripes? The U.N.O. is just a piece of cloth that means nothing to us or any other nation! We are living in a democratic nation, and no diabolical schemes will foist a piece of rag on us!

Old Joe fooled us again! He must be laughing. While we waste our manpower, money and resources in Korea, Russia goes calmly about her business of getting ready for the big war with America. The Communists are in control of China, because Truman put them there. How many "Koreas" will there be before the BIG WAR which Russia can enter fresh and unspent both in resources and manpower? Can't we see that Korea is a put-up job? With our boys putting out fires all over the world started by the Communist gangsters and murderers. We can make more ammunition, but it takes 18 years to make human gun fodder!

Wars are not accidents: they are planned, and in the hands of warmongers and the greedy and lustful wars are a business on a tremendously big scale. They are made by rulers to cover their "mistakes." In 1945 Syngman Rhee pleaded with Truman against the 38th division of Korea. His plea was deliberately ignored. Now boys must die to correct that "mistake"!

Whose blame? More than a year ago Congress voted Truman 10 million dollars for military equipment for South Korea. Only 200 dollars worth of wire arrived there! And what is wire for? To separate the North and South Koreans? Would we like it if we in the north would be separated from the south here? Did we like anybody to interfere in our Civil War? England tried, and we didn't like it. And they blame the isolationists just as in 1941! Because the "democrats" whitewashed the investigation of the "sneak" attack at Pearl Harbor, we have a "sneak" attack in Korea. The "democrat" party is just another Communist front, with Roosevelt and Truman willing tools and the "Me Too" Republicans going along.

When will the 54,000 well trained Communists go into action here? Less than that took over Russia! Men say: "We must go and get it over with." But there is no "over with" if we look facts in the face. The purpose is and has been for 50 years: "Destroy the U.S.A.!" Destroy America, and freedom all over the world is gone! This war is not my country's war. This is Truman's war, with a political plan in mind. My flag is the Stars and Stripes and not a U.N.O. flag! I hold to the principle of the Constitution which says: "An act done by an officer in excess of his legal competence is simply void and may be so regarded by the humblest citizen." We have gone too far on the wrong road. We must turn back before it is too late. Perhaps it is already late: a war with Russia is inevitable. As Tiorie said: "A retreat from a wrong direction is the only honest move in the right direction."

• • •

President Truman and his entire cabinet should be made to resign. What a mess they put the whole world in.

How can we win a war by scattering our youth all over the earth when you have Reds worse than the Koreans right here directing a third world war in every key position? How can we expect to win a war with Red Jews in power here? This whole war is nothing but a mass slaughter for Americans . . . and a put-up job!

Our Congress should investigate the suspicious fact that the internationalist lawyer and one world Wall Streeter Warmonger John Foster Dulles was in Korea on a State Department mission for Secy. Acheson only a few days before this created "incident" broke out into the news! In fact he got out of (Continued on Page 4)

HELP FIGHT COMMUNISM BY BUYING CHRISTMAS CARDS

The most difficult task for anyone today is to stand up and fight communism. The main reason for this is the problem of obtaining financial support. State Department Phonies

The Marxist-ruled State Department would have American citizens believe that the taxpayers' money is used in foreign countries to block the spread of Communism. Actually, those funds—as well as Marshall Plan billions—are so placed as to enable Marxist groups in foreign countries to overthrow existing governments and substitute Communism.

Just how the Communists in Korea were given assistance is graphically outlined in the following July 14th broadcast of Fulton Lewis, Jr.

SEN. BRIDGES (R-N.H.) and Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) have joined in a statement that much of the blame for the failure of the South Korean army must be laid to the 500-man U.S. military mission that trained the South Koreans.

Later Bridges said there should be an immediate investigation by Congress into all the circumstances surrounding the operation of that military mission and whether it was given due cooperation by the State Department and the Washington government generally.

He said the Armed Services Committee of the Senate, of which he is ranking Republican member, now is conducting a general inquiry into all the circumstances attending the Korean outbreak.

He will demand that special attention be given to this particular of it.

BY Way of Background:

Congress last year appropriated $110,000,000 for military aid in the Far East and of that sum Korea was to have received a major portion.

Brig. Gen. William L. Roberts, who was head of the Korean training command commission, said the Korean soldier is a good fighter but there is a shortage of officers and equipment.

Gen. Roberts said that during the training years the State Department objected to the South Koreans being given any tanks, arms, ammunition, planes or other weapons.

So anything that smacks in the slightest of being an offensive weapon was pulled out and the only material aid that we have given South Korea out of all those millions of dollars was about $52,000 worth of wire.

He said the State Department insisted that even the training given the South Korean forces had to be confined to defensive training only.

There you have it. The same State Department that sabotaged the Nationalist government of China. The State Department that held up military aid until the Communists had overrun the country and it was too late.

WOR's broadcast of the Fulton Lewis Jr. program is reported here in part. Mr. Lewis is on WOR 710 KC every Monday through Friday at 7:00 p.m.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor:
COMMON SENSE:

I've had a day of shopping,
And now it's time a write,
A few lines to COMMON SENSE
To go with this postal note.

I bought my meat and bacon,
Then the thought occurred to me,
That I'd never have a mealtime,
If we lost our liberty.

I'm sure the tyrant Commies,
Would never let me buy,
Small things I take for granted,
Like sugar for a pie.

I'd never know a night-time,
That wasn't terror filled,
And days would have no meaning
For the loyal ones they'd killed.

I never want America
Under any rule that's RED,
So here's "five" to fight them,
Fight them, 'TIL THEY'RE DEAD!!

(Editor's note: Many thanks Mrs. K. L., California, for both the verse and the contribution.)

Not during the last 50 years has there been one man in Washington more honest—more courageous and a better American than Congressman John E. Not once has he feared to stand up for America and hurl charges in the teeth of Marxists who would scrap our Constitution and end America.

Preparedness Based Upon Jungle Laws Backed By Dr. Nance

TAMPA, Aug. 4 — A college president, alarmed at world conditions, recommended today that church members follow their prayers with rifle practice.

Poor national leadership has put the country in such a position the only way to get peace now is to fight for it, Dr. E. C. Nance, president of the University of Tampa, said.

He advised leaders of groups interested in peace, including churches, to "launch a campaign of instruction in the use of firearms, civil defense, guerrilla warfare and so forth to every man woman and child in the United States.

"I believe we should have total preparedness based on the laws of the jungle—that we should learn every art and science of killing," continued the 50-year-old veteran of two World Wars, who has held pastorates in several Christian churches. He said he favored use of any kind of bomb or of bacteriological warfare, against civilians as well as armies, so that war would become so horrible the people would "rebel against the stupid leaders that lead them into war."

These views were expressed in a letter asking that his name be withdrawn from supporters of the United World Federalists, a group seeking to set up a world government through the United Nations.

He explained he had become convinced nothing "except the power of armed force can stop the Communists from their present attempt to dominate the world . . . My convictions do not admit the possibility of persuading Russia or her satellites to live by any other law than that of the jungle."

Dr. Ray E. Short of Lakeland, head of the UWF movement in Florida, to whom Dr. Nance's letter was addressed, said the educator had agreed in writing to serve on the Florida advisory board:

"I am amazed that he would turn the letter loose to the press in this fashion," Dr. Short commented.

He said the UWF recognizes the possibility Russia might not participate in a world government. Nor is the UWF "out on a limb believing that Russia will be a good boy," he added.

Dr. Nance saved some of his strongest words to describe U. S. leadership.

"Laxity, indifference, political illiteracy, stupidity and spineless surrender of our American ideals on the part of some of our leaders is responsible for the humiliating predicament with which we are now confronted in international affairs," he wrote.

Clear Vision, Steady Hands

Dr. Nance said if he occupied a pulpit today he would tell his congregation not to be too high-minded even in their prayers.

"Their prayers should be selfcentered, at least for the present time. . . They should ask God to give them clear vision and steady hands.

"I would tell them that religion is not at least in our day, to help them escape the realities of life, but to help face them.

"I would say it's better to be a live sinner than a dead saint.

"After leading my congregation in prayer services, I would invite them to the rifle range for practice in firearms."

3 Men Called A Government In Themselves

FRANKFURTER RATED MOST POWERFUL

By WALTER TROHAN

Washington, May 28—The names of three men who have played important roles in the

HERBERT H. LEHMAN

United States for almost a score of years weave in and out in the curious pattern of British, American, and Soviet relations. These men are: Felix Frankfurter, associate justice of the United States Supreme court.

Henry Morgenthau Jr., former secretary of the treasury.

Herbert H. Lehman, United States senator and former governor of New York.

FRANKFURTER MOST POWERFUL

A person with highest state department connections identified these three figures as the secret government of the United States. Frankfurter was pictured as the most powerful man in the government, reaching into the White House with his proteges.

Lehman was pictured as a powerful Wall street force. He is a former partner in Lehman Bros., Wall street banking company still controlled by his family. Morgenthau was named by the state department authority as the spokesman of the powerful Zionist groups.

The names of all three figures were woven into the case of Alger Hiss, convicted perjurer-spy. All have played a role in domestic and foreign policy of their time.

PRO-SOVIET TO A DEGREE

Most observers agree that the three men play important roles even if they do not agree the

HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.

While Secretary of Treasury with his Communist Zionist undersecretary Harry Dexter White, Morgenthau ordered the master plates for printing U. S. money loaded on a plane at Washington and turned over to a Soviet Union General. At the same time three planes of secret paper for printing our money and one plane full of secret ink was turned over to be flown to Russia. Later the Communists returned staling one plane of paper crashed and received another plane of paper. All as a gift. It is estimated the Zionists printed eight billion in our money to be used by refugees entering the U. S. Russian soldiers also paid our GI's as high as four thousand dollars for a watch with this same money.

three constitute the secret government, as charged by the person with state department connections.

None of the three has been named as a fellow traveler or has ever fallen under any suspicion of taint of communism. All have been pro-soviet to a degree, but only when the Russian position advanced the British or Zionist causes or worked toward the fall of Nazi Germany.

Frankfurter was born in Vienna in 1882. He was brought here at the age of 12. In World War I he held a Washington civilian job, on leave from Harvard. He was professor of law at Harvard from 1914 to 1939, when he was named to the court.

At Harvard he defended in his writings Sacco and Vanzetti, Communists executed for murder. He was censured for his association with such radicals by Theodore Roosevelt, late President. Frankfurter was associated at Harvard with Harold Laski, late British Labor party official. Laski has been credited with being spiritual father of the New Deal as well as of British Socialism.

A COMMON BACKGROUND

Frankfurter and Laski, a visiting professor at Harvard, had a common background in a Boston left wing group, the Ford Hall forum. With them in this venture was David K. Niles, now administrative assistant at the White House. Niles owes his government connection to Frankfurter.

REMINGTON RAND BOWS TO MARXISM ANTI DEFAMATION LEAGUE DICTATES POLICIES

The intensely organized Marxist Anti-Defamation League has recently forced another American to bow to its powerful influence by calling James H. Rand, President of the Remington Rand Company before the great Zionist leaders and account to them for supporting Melvin K. Hart, President of the National Economic Council. As a result Remington Rand bowed its head in shame and backed out of the door begging for mercy and promising never to do it again. After the apology the word was sent out to all of the Zionist-Communist groups that Remington Rand has been subdued and it would not be necessary to boycott Remington Rand's type-writers.

The news of the Hart case has been published in the newspapers and the list of the names of persons who supported Hart in his fight against Communism has been made known. Most Americans know these facts but what they do not know is that the moment these names were given to Congress by Hart a Zionist by the name of Louis Little, counsel for the Buchanan Lobbying Committee, called up Walter Winchell, Zionist and spokesman for the A.D.L., and gave him the names. Walter Winchell was on the air smearing these people before Hart returned to New York City. The leaders of the Anti-Defamation League put their heads together to plan a reign of terror against these people to stop them from further supporting Melvin Hart and to finally bring him to his knees. The first victim on the list was James H. Rand who thought it wise to go along with the Zionist-Commies rather than to lose his business. Who will be next? This is the method that the Zionists use to silence anyone who attempts to expose their plan to rule America as they did Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, etc. Since they control most daily newspapers all that is necessary is to stop the publications of such individuals as Melvin Hart's, and the simplest way to do this is to threaten those who support such leaders.

Most of our readers know how all this comes about and are aware of the Zionist-Communist Black Plague that is sweeping the world. But there are others who cannot understand how any organization in America could have so much influence. It is really simple once a person understands the relationship of Communism with Zionism and the Anti-Defamation League. Zionism is the father of Communism and protects it like any father would protect his son. Both Communism and Zionism are out to achieve the same (Continued on page 2)

Frankfurter as "the most influential single individual in the United States."

The law professor spotted his students thruout the government. He cultivated government officials, military men, members of congress and other influential people. He was considered the power behind the White House throne under President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

HISS ONE OF PUPILS

One of Frankfurter's bright pupils was Alger Hiss. Hiss was placed for a year as secretary to the late Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. He was then put in the government, first with the department of agriculture, later with the senate munitions investigating committee and then with the state department.

Hiss told a congressional committee that Frankfurter put him into the government. Frankfurter was a character witness for Hiss at his first perjury trial. Frankfurter did not appear at the second trial which resulted in a conviction. The first trial ended in a hung jury.

Laski was an admirer of the soviet experiment. Frankfurter was an admirer of Laski and regarded the Britisher as his political mentor.

ADVISER AT YALTA

Hiss, Frankfurter's protege, was the trusted adviser of Roosevelt at the Yalta conference and was secretary of the United Nations founding conference at San Francisco. At Yalta Russia won secret concessions under which the Kremlin was able to communize China and set up a strong sphere of influence in eastern Germany and in a chain of eastern European satellites.

State Secretary Acheson and Frankfurter are the closest of friends. The two walk together every morning. During his days in the state department, Hiss frequently joined the pair for a walk. Acheson was identified before a congressional committee as a member of the pro-soviet bloc in the state department by A. A. Berle Jr., former assistant secretary of state.

Acheson is the son of a British born and ordained church of England minister who became Episcopal bishop of Connecticut. Acheson's mother was a Canadian and a member of a wealthy distillery family. Acheson's father preached for a time in Canada before coming to the United States.

ATLANTIC CHARTER ROLE

The mother of Sir Alexander Cadogan, recently retired British representative on the U. N. security council, was an Acheson. Cadogan was Britain's permanent undersecretary of state for foreign affairs before he went to U. N. at its outset. He went to the Newfoundland meeting of Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill in August, 1941, before America entered the war, with the first draft of what was later given to the world as the Atlantic Charter.

Informed observers do not consider Acheson pro-soviet today. They believe he was pro-soviet when Britain approved of Russia and anti-Russian when Britain was anti-Stalin. They hold he has been consistently pro-British thruout his career.

Morgenthau was chairman of an agriculture advisory commission when Roosevelt was governor of New York. He was made chairman of the federal farm board at the outset of the New Deal. He became treasury secretary in 1934. Credit for his getting this post is partly given to his late wife, who was an intimate of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

50 BILLIONS POURED OUT

Under Morgenthau, the lend-lease program was developed by Oscar Cox and Edward H. Foley Jr. The real authorship was not disclosed until after the war, altho Morgenthau was questioned on it by a senate committee. Under this plan more than 50 billion dollars was poured out to Russia, Britain and other allies.

Morgenthau is credited with being the author of the policy of a harsh peace toward Germany, the peace of revenge known as a Carthaginian peace program. The name is derived from the fact that the victorious Romans razed Carthage and sowed the ground with salt so that nation might not rise again.

One of the chief architects in carrying out the harsh peace was Harry Dexter White, born Weiss, a former assistant treasury secretary under Morgenthau. White was identified as a Communist spy before a house committee by Elizabeth Bentley, confessed former red spy, about the same time Hiss was identified as a spy.

SERIES OF MYSTERIOUS DEATHS

White denied the connection. A few days later, on Aug. 17, 1948, White died. Death was reportedly due to an overdose of digitalis, which drug White had been taking for a heart ailment.

This death was one of a series of mysterious deaths, suicides and accidents that have dotted the Hiss case. Among many others are Laurence Duggan, former state department official, who fell, jumped or was pushed from his New York office window; Walter Smith, justice department employee who notarized the sale of Hiss' car to Whittaker Chambers and who plunged to his death in the department of justice building; Edward R. Stettinius, former secretary of state, who died of a heart ailment in his early 50s, and John G. Winant, former ambassador to Britain, who conducted the negotiations which left the United States without a corridor to Berlin, and who died by his own hand.

White was the author of the Bretton Woods monetary agreement which set up the World bank and international monetary fund. Up to about a year before he died he held a high salaried tax free post with the monetary fund, under which the United States was committed to financing the world.

Morgenthau has been active in the Zionist movement, which led to the creation of Israel. He cooled toward Britain at the time that nation opposed creating the new state.

Lehman, who also supported Israel, has played a major role in opposing Sen. McCarthy (R., Wis.) in the latter's efforts to expose Communism in the government, particularly in the state department. Lehman has defended the state department thruout the investigation.

GIVEN DESK SPACE

Lehman's niece, Mrs. Helen Lehman Buttenwieser, a lawyer and wife of Atty. Benjamin J. Buttenwieser, is a firm supporter of Hiss and was a constant spectator at the trials. After Hiss' conviction she offered her home to Hiss and his wife, Priscilla. The Hisses spent several months with the Buttenwiesers.

Hiss was given desk space in Buttenwieser's law firm. Buttenwieser is assistant United States high commissioner for Germany. Buttenwieser has been a member of the powerful banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

Hiss was befriended by John Foster Dulles, predecessor of Lehman as senator. Dulles, foreign policy adviser of Gov. Dewey of New York, might have been secretary of state had Dewey been elected President. Dulles is a member of the Wall St. law firm of Cromwell & Sullivan. He sponsored Hiss for the presidency of the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace. Andrew Carnegie, Scotch born steel magnate, hoped to bring the United States into union with Britain.

Hiss was defended editorially and in the news columns of the Washington Post. The president and publisher of the Post is Philip L. Graham, son-in-law of the Post's owner, Eugene Meyer. Graham formerly was law clerk to Frankfurter.

REMINGTON RAND BOWS TO MARXISM

result, however, they are both clothed differently. Communism on it's face has all the forms of aggression, terror and hate, consequently it could never become a menace in a free Republic without the help of some other evil force. It needs some other partner in crime more diabolical and more cunning to destroy the fundamental principles of a free nation before Communism is welcomed. This sinister and diabolical force must creep upon a nation the same way and in the same manner as cancer does to the human body. It must be absolutely unknown to the victim to have the desired effect. The most intelligent people must be unsuspecting until they feel the last breath of air squeezed out of their body. Nation after nation has proclaimed their hate for Communism and still they fall under the powerful domination of the totalitarian state. The obvious reason is that they recognized Communism as it was but couldn't identify it's partner Zionism. Every country in Europe that has fallen under the hammer and sickle is ruled by a Zionist. Communism today is using the Zionist Protocols written 53 years ago as the blueprint. They wrote in 1897 the method they would use on such people as Merwin Hart who became too nationalistic. Hart and Rand are not the first Americans to be threatened with intimidation, boycott etc. The reader might remember such great men as Father Coughlin, Col. Charles Lindberg, Senator Burton Wheeler and Senator

Nye. All of these American leaders fell under the heel of the Anti-Defamation League. Today the victims are General McArthur, Senator McCarthy, Joseph Kamp, Merwin Hart and many others. Just recently three Zionists from the Anti-Defamation League walked into the office of a very prominent industrialist and former Senator and told him that if he did not stop supporting the National Economic Council they would see that he was removed from board of directors of four corporations. The reader will admit that this Anti-Defamation League is competition for the FBI in America. The proper name to be given to it is the "Gestapo". They openly boast that they have 2000 paid investigators in the U. S. Besides these the Zionists have thousands of key men in government key-spots, two of which are David Niles, advisor to the President and Felir Frankfurter of the Supreme Court. Although these two are credited with most of the Zionist activity in Washington it is well to remember that the important member of this group is Bernard Baruch.

The American press is controlled by the same Zionist-Marxist as the government is, although it is done in a different manner. With the exception of the Daily Worker and 400 other Red sheets the Zionists control the newspapers through advertising. Since most of the businesses are owned by the Zionists in this country they do not have to own the newspapers. They simply dictate to those who publish their papers that certain items should be printed and others not printed. If the publisher should not see things the way the Anti-Defamation League does then the publisher is informed that their advertising will be stopped immediately. The Chicago Tribune is now under pressure from the Anti-Defamation League for violating orders. Can you see the similarity of control in the Remington Rand case? If America had the freedom of the press that the constitution guarantees there would be no need for individuals like Merwin Hart to fight. But he knows that the daily newspapers cannot print the truth and like any real American tries to save America.

If any American doubts that Zionism is in back of Communism the thing for him to do is to start an open attack upon Communism alone and see how fast the Anti-Defamation League starts to smear him. He will be attacked by every Zionist group in America.

The Zionist boasted in 1897 in their Protocols that the control of the press was in their hands: "We must compel the government of the Goyim (Christian cattle) to take action in the direction favored by our widely-conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly prompted by us through the means of that so called "Great Power"—The Press, which with a few exceptions that may be disregarded, is already entirely in our hands."

It is an interesting point to keep in mind that these Khazar Zionists who are in control of our government, press, and country, not only have cousins living in Russia but also fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters. They are coming into the country by the thousands and demanding tolerance before they reach American Shores. The first mate of a steamship which makes two or three trips a month to Europe recently informed one of our staff that his ship brings thousands of these Khazar-Zionists to America every month. He further stated that as soon as they get on the boat they start demanding everything and threatening the ship's personnel. That if they do not get what they want they will report them. These are the people that have the nerve to walk into the office of an American and demand that he refrain from supporting another American. These are the originators of the "Brother-de-love" campaign and the tolerant crusade. We are supposed to tolerate them and their diabolical scheme of Zionist-Marxism. How much longer are the American people going to tolerate this spread of Communism in America.

Because you don't see in local newspapers what you read in COMMON SENSE, don't think we are wrong—don't fool yourself. Many important exposures in COMMON SENSE will be printed in other papers a year or two hence. COMMON SENSE has no advertisers to tell us what we can or cannot print.

"THE ZIONISTS"

By: Judge George W. Armstrong

(Editor's note: Believing "The ZIONISTS" to be one of the most important new books we are, with this issue, serializing it. The words of Judge Armstrong, a foremost American patriot, deserve the serious consideration of all who cherish the great republic—America. Years of careful study qualify Judge Armstrong to give the truth behind the Communist intrigue within the United States, and to reveal how our Country is being made to suffer the same fate of all other nations now overridden and ruled by the atheistic, Communist-Zionist minority.)

Martin Luther said of the Jews and their Talmud: "Therefore know, my dear Christian, that next to the devil you have no more bitter, more poisonous, more vehement an enemy than a real Jew who earnestly desires to be a Jew (an orthodox Jew) . . .

"Since childhood they have devoured such poisonous hatred against the Goyim (gentiles) from their parents and Rabbis, and still devour such without ceasing, that according to Psalm 109 it has gone over into their flesh and blood, bone and marrow, and has become their life and being. And as little as they can alter flesh and blood, bone and marrow, so little can they change such pride and envy. They just have to stay that way and be ruined, if God does not perform a special miracle."

He further said:

"They do not work, do not earn anything from us, neither do we donate or give it to them. Yet they have our money and goods and are lords in our land where they are exiled. . . .

"Do not their Talmud and Rabbis write that it is no sin to kill if a Jew kills a heathen (Gentile), but it is sin if he kills a brother in Israel! It is no sin if he does not keep his oath to a heathen. Therefore, to steal and rob (as they do with their usury) from a heathen, is a divine service. For they hold that they cannot be too hard on us nor sin against us, because they are the noble blood and circumcized saints; we however, are the cursed Goyim. And they are the master of the world and we are their servants, yea, their cattle!"

Martin Luther said further:

"They hold us Christians in captivity in our own country; they let us work in the sweat of our noses, while they appropriate money and goods, sitting behind the stove, are lazy, gluttons and guzzlers, live well and easy on goods for which we have worked, keep us and our goods in captivity through their cursed usury, mock us and spit on us, because we must labor and permit them to be noblemen at our expense. Thus they are our lords and masters, we their servants with our own property, sweat and labor! and to thank us and reward us, they curse our Lord!"

"The Jews and Their Lies" by Martin Luther, pages 28, 30, 31, 37.

Our Lord Jesus Christ denounced them in still more forceful and direct language. He said to the Jews a short time before they crucified him:

"Ye are of YOUR father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar and the father of it." St. John 8:44.

And so they were and are today and always will be so long as they are governed by their rabbis, their scribes, pharisees, hypocrites, and their Talmud; their "traditions" as Christ called it. They haven't changed and they can't change and they don't want to change. Their tradition (Talmud) is their religion. They are taught it by their mothers in their infancy, their schools during their adolescence and their rabbis in their maturity. They are born that way and are educated and trained that way. They are a stubborn, "stiff necked," vain, self assertive, purse proud, gold worshipping people. Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ did not reform them, nor can we do so.

George Washington, the father of our country, said of the Jews:

"They work more effectively against us, than the enemy's armies. They are a hundred times more dangerous to our liberties and the great cause we are engaged in . . . It is much to be lamented that each state, long ago, has not hunted them down as pests to society and the greatest enemies we have to the happiness of America."*

 Maxius of George Washington by A. A. Appleton & Company, page 125-6, copyright 1894.

Benjamin Franklin said of them:

"There is a great danger for the United States of America; this great danger is the Jew. Gentlemen, in every land which the Jews have settled, they have depressed the normal level and lowered the degree of commercial honesty. They have remained apart and unassimilated,—they have created a state within a state; and when they are oppressed they attempt to strangle the nation financially as in the case of Portugal and Spain. For more than 1700 years they have lamented their sorrowful fate,—namely, they were driven out of their motherland, but gentlemen, if the civilized world today should give them back Palestine and their property, they would immediately find pressing reasons for not returning there. Why? because they are vampires, and vampires cannot live on other vampires—they cannot live among themselves; they can only live among Christians and others who do not belong to their race.

"If they are not excluded from the United States, by the Constitution, within less than 100 years, they will stream into this country in such numbers they will rule and destroy us and change our form of government for which we Americans shed our blood and sacrificed life, property and personal freedom. If the Jews are not excluded within 200 years, our children will be working in the fields to feed the Jews while they remain in the Counting House gleefully rubbing their hands.

"I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews forever, your children's children will curse you in your graves. Their ideas are not those of Americans even when they have lived among us for ten generations. The leopard cannot change its spots. The Jews are a danger to this land and if they are allowed to enter they will imperil our institutions;—they should be excluded by the Constitution."

"This is precisely the situation today.

Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, Martin Luther, George Washington and Benjamin Franklin would now be regarded as anti-Semites and criminals by the Zionists. They would all have been convicted by the Nuremberg court and probably assessed the death penalty. They boast that Haym Solomon helped finance the Revolutionary War. It is true. He was the representative of N. M. Rothschild & Son. The Rothschilds have financed both sides of every war including our Revolutionary War and the War Between the States. That is their system, for they profit by war. No matter which side loses, they win. Mrs. Ludendorff, the wife of the German General Ludendorff, testified at her trial for anti-Semitism that Jas. P. Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb & Co, loaned Hitler $34,000,000.

The Zionists are mean and vindictive. This statement is based on personal experience. They are cruel and merciless and relentless; this statement is based on observation. They have no mercy for a fallen foe. They are responsible for the murderous governments of Russia, Hungary, and other countries, and the Nuremberg trial. They are indeed "like unto whited sepulchres, that are beautiful outwardly but within are full of dead men's bones."

BARUCH AND FRANKFURTER

Bernard Baruch, who is reputed to be at the head of the Jewish Sanhedrin, and Justice Felix Frankfurter of our Supreme Court, are the political leaders of the Jewish race. Baruch finances political parties and congressional candidates and advises presidents and congressional committees; and Frankfurter nominates Communist appointees for important government positions.

The late Senator Long likened the wily Baruch to a watchful old crow. In a speech in Congress he said:

"I remember one time when I tried to shoot an old crow. I was riding along and saw the crow on a log in a field, so I just rode up behind a thicket so the crow could not see me and reached into my buggy to get my gun. Thick as that thicket was, the minute my hand got near the gun the old crow flew away . . . He (Baruch) stood with the Hoover Administration until it was wrecked inside out . . . Then old brother Baruch came right on back down to the White House and got hold of another President (Roosevelt). We have presidents and presidents but Baruch goes on forever."*

Nobody knows whether this wily old crow is a democrat or a republican or a communist. He thought Dewey would be elected and had his picture taken with him. He correctly appraised Truman as "uncouth, ignorant and incompetent."

General Hugh Johnson, formerly N.R.A. chief, gave us an accurate picture of the activities of Justice Felix Frankfurter in an article published in the Saturday Evening Post, October 25, 1935.

"His 'boys' have been insinuated into obscure but key positions in every vital department—wardens of the marshes, inconspicuous but powerful. Wherever to know, check, influence or control what goes on in government it would be a good thing for a Big Happy Dog to have a Little Happy Hot Dog planted there is one there, alert and quickly active . . . Two or three infest Henry Wallace. The area in and about the Federal Trades Commission literally writhes with them. The Justice, Interior, Labor, and Treasury Departments harbor their quotas. Other hosts for them are PFA, AAA, FERA, TVA, and SEC. They have had a guiding hand in the drafting of nearly all legislation . . . To them the constitution is just a foil for clever fencing—an antediluvian joke to be respected in public like a Sacred Cow and regarded in private somewhat as Gertrude Stein probably regards the poet Tennyson or any other Victorian."

"Roosevelt Red Record, pages 81-83.

And his "hot dog boys" are Jew Communists and many of them said to be homosexuals. They are not accidents, they are selected and placed for the purpose of destroying our system of government.

These two (Baruch and Frankfurter) together with Henry Morgenthau and Sam Rosenmann are directly responsible for the Roosevelt and Truman maladministrations and they are responsible for our present unfortunate condition. They were and are the agents of the Zionist Politburo of Wall Street. It was through them that Henry L. Stimson, erstwhile attorney for Kuhn, Loeb & Co., obtained his appointment as Secretary of War. Frank Knox as Secretary of the Navy, and Edward Stettinius, partner of Morgan & Co, as Secretary of State.

It was through Frankfurter that the head of the spy ring J. Peters (true name Isidore Boornstein), Alger Hiss and other communists obtained their jobs in our State Department. Most of the spies that have been revealed by the Committee on Un-American Activities have been Jews and got their jobs through Justice Frankfurter or Bernard Baruch. Every bribe taker, with the exception of Congressman May, so far as revealed, has been a Jew; the Carson Brothers, Bennie Myers, etc. The war was a great picnic for the Jews. They flocked to the bureaus and took them over. The Zionist Jews initiated the war, ran it, and at its conclusion brought the wreckage at a fraction of its cost, and created the United Nations for the alleged purpose of preventing future wars.

The F.B.I. revealed that a Jew professor in the Minnesota State University named Weinberg, who assisted in the Atomic Bomb laboratory, disclosed the secret of the atomic bomb to the Russian Communist Politburo. He has not been prosecuted as a traitor, and probably will not be, but if he is and is convicted, the punishment will be amere "slap on the wrist" as in the case of the eleven communists who were convicted of treason in Judge Medina's court in New York and the spy Gubitchev. It appears that this secret and also the H bomb secret were given to Russia by the British Zionist Dr. Fuch and by Harry Hopkins, President Roosevelt's assistant.

The Truman administration usually selects New York for the trial of traitors, where most of the judges and jury men are Zionists, instead of elsewhere in America where the judges and jury men are loyal Americans. The conviction of the arch traitor Alger Hiss, Roosevelt's companion and advisor, was a disappointment to our Secretary of State and probably also to our President.

ZIONISTS LOYAL TO ISRAEL

An example of the support by American Zionists for Israel is the Technion Society. This is an organization of scientists, including many famous atomic energy scientists, whose avowed purpose is delivering American production secrets to Israel. Read Technion's own statement of its aims, in the California Jewish Voice, April 30, 1948, page 2:

"The aims and purposes of the Technion are to further Technology and applied science in Palestine through the financial and moral support of the American Technion; to make American industrial and technical know-how available to Palestine through closer cooperation between American and Palestinian technologists and industrialists. . ."

Karl T. Compton is a member. Albert Einstein claimed by Pravda in 1948 as one of the 10 best friends of Moscow in America, is honorary chairman of Technion. (Dr Einstein was said by the Communist daily Peoples World, Sept. 6, 1946, to be honorary chairman of the Jewish Black Book Committee, an adjunct of the late Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee of the Soviet Union. I Love AMERICA

"I WAS BORN AN AMERICAN: I live an American: I shall die an American, and I intend to perform the duties incumbent upon me in that character to the end of my career. I mean to do this with absolute disregard of personal consequences. What are the personal consequences? What is the individual man, with all the good or evil that may befall him, in comparison with the good or evil which may befall a great country, and in the midst of great transactions which concern that country's fate? Let the consequences be what they will, I am careless. No man can suffer too much, and no man can fall too soon, if he suffers, or if he fails to the defense of the LIBERTIES and CONSTITUTION of HIS COUNTRY."

Truman asks all the people to help the FBI to round up spies. In return the American people ask Truman to discharge the leading spies in Washington, including a few of his advisors . . . Anna M. The Zionist officials in our government will do anything to help bankrupt America . . . Seth Richardson, law partner of Joseph Davies, is Chairman of President Truman's Loyalty Board. Senator Tydings, who is Joe Davies son-in-law, is Chairman of the Senate Sub-Committee investigating charges made by Senator McCarthy. "Mission-to-Moscow" Davies said when the Canadian spies were arrested that there was nothing wrong with the Russian spies stealing atomic secrets. On another occasion when he returned from Russia he said of Stalin, "Stalin is a kind man, with a friendly smile, the kind of a person whom children like to sit on his lap and dogs rub against his legs." This is the kind old gentleman that Truman wants ten Billion dollars and three hundred thousand of our boys to fight. These few lines tell the story why Tydings "white-washed" Senator McCarthy's charges of Communism in the State Department . . . A prominent attorney stood up in a University in Texas last week and suggested that Texas secede from the U. S. We suggest that they stay in and help put all Marxists behind barb wire.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
"Common Sense"
Union, New Jersey
Dear Sir:

In today's issue of a local newspaper appears a short extract of an article written by Prof. Dr. Austin J App protesting against the expelling of millions of Germans from their Eastern Homelands and calling on Americans to do all they can to right these wrongs which the author calls the greatest crime in history.

While agreeing essentially with Prof. App, I should prefer to consider these happenings, not as the crime as such but as the logical continuation of the greatest crime in European history, the Treaty of Versailles.

When on the 28th of June, 1919 the Allied Powers arrogated to themselves the right of posing as prosecutors, judges and jury all at the same time, civilization as such ceased to exist as in no civilized community of individuals or of nations the prosecutor can ever be the judge.

Art. 231 of the Versailles Treaty forcing Germany to accept the sole guilt for the war, is the crime from which directly everything must be derived during the last 30 years, including the expelling of millions of Germans from the East of which Prof. App writes.

The makers and supporters of the 1919 Peace Treaties were and are the criminals of modern history. Only if and when this fact has become general knowledge amongst the millions of all nations, is there any hope of reviving Civilization.

The details regarding the outbreak of war (1914) as known to us from the published documents of all the Governments concerned, prove clearly that not anyone particular Government, Nation or individual is solely or even mainly to blame but their importance is quite secondary to the ignoring of the Supreme Law of Civilization: The litigant can never and under no circumstances be the judge H.P.

Persecution in Lithuania

Reprinted from The Ave Marie, April 15, 1950

Perhaps our readers will get a better idea of what the communists have done to religion in Lithuania from the following table which was printed in the Congressional Record at the request of Representative Donahue of Massachusetts than from any description of the persecution. There were in Lithuania in 1940, fourteen archbishops and bishops; in 1948 only one was left. There were 1,646 members of the secular clergy in 1940; in 1948 only 400 remained. Members of religious Orders numbered 1,586 in 1940; in 1948 not one of them was left. In 1940 there were 1,202 churches; eight years later only sixty remained.

The faithful registered at churches in 1940 amounted to 2,776,422; in 1948 there were none. The four theological seminaries were closed and the one Catholic university. Seventy-five per cent of the clergy were either killed or exiled; the fifty-two Catholic publications with a combined circulation of over seven millions were all suspended. All religious and philosophical books were forbidden and the 800,000 people belonging to religious sodalities were disbanded. It is plain from these facts that religion has been practically wiped out as far as the Lithuanians were able to destroy it. They have not destroyed the religion in the hearts of the people, but all religious worship must be expressed in private as in the days of the Roman persecutions.

BRIEN McMAHON COMMUNIST DUPE

SOVIET UNION NOT COMMUNIST

By DR. DAVID GOLDSTEIN

THE DICTIONARY, A BOOK OF VITAL INTELLECTUAL NECESSITY, is often of very little use

when dealing with the 20th century moral plague called "Communism." For instance, the Soviet Union is popularly called a "Communist" country, when it is as far from being such as the South was from being rightly called a land of freedom for Negroes, before Civil War days. Real Communism, our dictionary tells us, is, in principle, a state of equality. It is a society in which each person gives of his skill and energy according to his ability, and is remunerated according to his needs. It is a system of family-like relationship that is not contrary to Christian principles, it entered into voluntarily, provided the right of conscience is safeguarded. It necessitates the abolition of the wage system of remuneration, a primary Marxian economic demand which is unworkable on a national scale, as the Soviet Union discovered in its infancy. In fact the wage system in vogue in the Soviet Union, with its extensive piecework and shock-worker (Stakhanovist) method of exploiting labor, would not be tolerated by organized labor on our side of the Iron Curtain.

IT IS BY A MISUSE OF LANGUAGE that the inhabitants of the Soviet Union are commonly called "Russians," when not more than one-half the people therein can rightly be so designated. Seventeen per cent of the U.S.S.R. population are Ukrainians; and there are reported to be 168 other ethnic groups of more than 20,000 members within its borders. Stalin himself is not a Russian. He is a Georgian, born in what is now called the Georgian Soviet Republic which covers an area of 27,000 miles, with a population of 3,542,000.

"COMMUNISTS" call the Soviet Union a "democracy," when it is a "Dictatorship of the Proletariat," by a Politburo of 14 members. Surely it is a gross misuse of language to call a country a "democracy," in which only one political party is permitted to function, the "Communist Party"; a country in which the industries, schools, press, and broadcasting stations are a Politburo monopoly; a country that bars any expression of opinion that is not in harmony with Stalinism. The two leading Soviet daily papers are "Izvestia," which means News, and "Pravda," which means Truth. Some anti-Stalinists behind the Iron Curtain said jokingly, though secretly: "There is no truth in the News (Izvestia), and no news in Truth (Pravda) but Stalin favored news."

OUTLAWING THE RED-REDS—Eighteen nations have thus far outlawed the Communist Party. Four other countries are considering doing so, including our U. S. A. The nations are Spain, Portugal, Greece, Turkey, Lebanon, Syria, Southern Korea, Burma, Indo-China, Peru, Malaya, Bolivia, Chile, Brazil, Venezuela, and Austria.

SEEKING FAVOR ON BOTH SIDES OF THE IRON CURTAIN, Histadrut, the Israeli trade union federation of Trade Unions, and then considered becoming affiliated with the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions. Realizing that it was not possible to belong to a pro and an anti-Communist

Brien McMahon is not a Communist. He is a Christian, unknowingly fronting for them. A Christian who is fooled into their program is much more valuable to the Marxists than a Card Carrying Communist. Today we must put only alert Americans on guard, regardless of political parties or religious beliefs.

"THE CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM"

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Reprinted from Council Letter No. 248

Certainly all Americans are for freedom, or, as we have been more used to calling it, liberty.

No other nation, at least no nation of any great size, has enjoyed such freedom as the Americans during the first century and a half of their existence. Freedom, or liberty, is of the very essence of American life. Any organization formed for the purpose of spreading the American idea of freedom throughout the world, will rightly appeal to all Americans.

But we are puzzled by certain features of this present project. Apparently it is thoroughly financed—just how is not stated in any of the Committee's literature we have seen. It is receiving heavy support in the press, radio and pulpit. Important banking interests are passing the word around that the Committee is to be supported. The Committee is able to get the names of prominent men and women in many sections of the country for its local committees.

The chief objective of the National Committee for a Free Europe appears to be to carry on a radio program. One of the leaflets of the Committee says:

"The new voice of Radio Free Europe is now on the air, alongside the Voice of America—a new voice, relieved of official limitations, harder hitting . . ."

The Administration is already spending many millions a year of the taxpayers' money in broadcasting to Soviet Russia and Iron Curtain

Lenin said, "For every Communist we have ten others ready and able to do our work." Clever Marxists work on the assumption that every politician has his price or can be fooled, or framed, to carry out the plan to abolish the United States.

When International Marxists were about ready with their plans to push the U. S. into World War II, and set up Marxist rule here, Herbert Hoover was president. The Red plotters would have been just as willing to corrupt the Republican administration and shove us into the war which left Europe at the mercy of Communism and the U. S. nearly so. However, those International Reds realized that Herbert Hoover would not give Zionist-Communists a free hand in our government. It was imperative, then, that they organize the smear Hoover campaign to put Roosevelt in office for they were certain that Roosevelt would place his administration at their disposal.

Not only is our beloved country almost conquered by atheistic Marxists, and their dupes, but Roosevelt, with Alger Hiss, Averell Harriman and Harry Hopkins (Raschid) at his side at Yalta and Teheran, turned millions of Christian people in Poland — Latvia — Lithuania — Estonia — Hungary — Czechoslovakia — Eastern Germany — Manchuria and Korea over to bloody Stalin.

Brien McMahon, the New Deal Senator from Connecticut, is an important dupe in this Marxist plan. He has a leading role as a link in the chain of alien-minded New Dealers and saboteurs who have betrayed America by stealing atomic bomb secrets.

The world knows that the atomic bomb secret has been stolen by Soviet spies through traitors who have posed as Americans. Some of these men, apprehended by the F.B.I. and Scotland Yard, have been tried, or are being tried, for the crime. When the story broke on the front page of every newspaper in the country, citizens were excited and shocked that such highly secret information could have been stolen from the strongly guarded laboratories of our government. Many people blamed the present administration.

Truman yelled "Red herring!" Hiss denied. Acheson covered up.

Practically all New Dealers went into a big demonstration of fury and pretense to kid the American people into thinking that the administration was opposed to Communism. How many people were fooled is anybody's guess, but there is one thing certain.

Senator Brien McMahon of Connecticut, Chairman of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, the most important position today for the safety of the American people has been — and is today — affiliated with some of the most outstanding Communists and Marxists in Washington. It is almost unbelievable that a man such as McMahon, who has surrounded himself with Communists, Reds, and traitors to America, is still in Washington as a representative of the people.

Senator McMahon has been the front man, or "ball carrier" for the socialization of atomic energy. His zeal has not only brought him chairmanship of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, but he also has a firm grip on the Atomic Energy Commission, the government bureau created by the McMahon Bill to socialize atomic development. This grip has been tightened by the appointment of his former law partner as chairman of the A. E. C.

countries. We do not know how successful it has been, though if it achieves only a moderate degree of success, it is probably worthwhile provided what is broadcast is really American, and not socialist or semi-socialist. But according to the press there are relatively few radio sets in Soviet Russia and the Iron Curtain countries; and recent dispatches that the Soviet is attempting to "jam" the Voice of America are rather impressive.

So it would seem doubtful whether this additional radio program will be worth the effort. But again, if even a moderate degree of success is attained, it might be worth the effort. The Freedom Bell

The promoters of the Crusade for Freedom have developed a novel scheme for attracting attention. What is called the "Freedom Bell," which is said to be the symbol of the Crusade, was cast on July 27, 1950, at a bell foundry in England—why in England we do not know. The bell has been shipped to the United States and is now being taken from place to place, including Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities. Then the bell is shipped to Germany, where it hangs in the Rathaus Tower in Berlin in time to ring in what is called "United Nations Day," October 24th.

This is considered by some public relations men good propaganda. And if it brings fresh courage to even a few, it will perhaps be worthwhile.

What Is Behind This "Crusade"?

But it is always to raise the question, with respect to any movement—what is behind it? Often what is behind it is apparent on its face—but some times one has to look further.

One of the cardinal points of the plan is the signing of what is called the "Freedom Scroll." This is being issued in sheets 11 x 20 inches with space on each sheet for 50 signatures. People of all ages, including school children, are asked to sign.

At the head of each sheet is printed the following:

"I believe in the sacredness and dignity of the individual

"I believe that all men derive the right to freedom equally from God."

All Americans will subscribe to these principles. But then this follows:

"I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth."

What is the purpose of this pledge?

The Crusade for Freedom is being organized with great skill and tremendous publicity. These Scrolls are to be distributed in all kinds of places where people gather.

Of course the average American does nothing more readily than sign some petition or document that on the face appears fair and reasonable. So it may be wondered what the effect will be if, say, one, or five or ten million Americans sign this Scroll which, as explained on each sheet, is to be—"... included as a permanent part of the Freedom Shrine in Berlin, and to join with the millions of men and women throughout the world who hold the cause of freedom sacred."

Just One More Internationalist Scheme?

Let us review these words again: "I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth."

It is a matter of common knowledge that there are, among Americans, a group that is internationalist-minded. They have long since ceased to talk or even think about the American Republic, her Constitution and her traditions. They want to merge the United States with the whole world. They are trying to destroy the concept of this country as an independent nation. They are not satisfied with American serving, as she did for so many decades, as an example to all mankind, that they might go and do as America has done—might emulate the American way of life. They want America to throw in her lot with all the peoples of the earth so that thereafter—if the movement goes to its logical conclusion—our people will be no better off than the average people throughout the world.

It is noteworthy, too, that many of those who hold this viewpoint are of foreign birth, or their parents—are of foreign birth; or they are people whose business interests are tied up with other countries, and whose viewpoint is perhaps influenced by that fact.

One of the ideas these internationalists are pressing at the present time is that the United States is in a position of "world leadership," as they choose to call it, and that she must "fulfill her destiny." And—forgetting the need to preserve liberty at home—they construe all this to mean that they must sail forth, crusader-like, under the Marshall Plan, under Point IV, under any and all measures that involve the spending of United States treasure and effort throughout the world, and go to the rescue of all nations.

They apparently fail to make any estimate as to whether the United States can afford to do this, assuming that the doing of it would accomplish a real purpose. They are the very opposite of the America Firsters who tried so hard to keep the United States out of World War II. They are for every other country first, and for the United States last. They somehow seem to think this is being "broad-minded"—that they have a "world viewpoint." They seem not to notice that under their guidance, we have been following this course now for some years, and that it has brought to the once strong United States the sacrifice of precious lives, burdensome debt, colossal waste, and now—war. And so far it seems to have brought little benefit to other peoples.

Perhaps some of these who so readily subscribe to One World—certainly the more glibly of them—do not mean to be this way. Confront them with the idea, and may of them will grow indignant. But the picture we paint of them is a fair description of their thoughts and actions. They are not facing realities. At best they are following the Pied Piper—at worst they are betraying their country's vital interests.

Wars Not Made By Peoples

Wars are never made by peoples. Wars are made by the politicians of the various countries. Americans have nothing in particular against Germans, or Austrians, or even Russians, just as doubtless neither Germans, Austrians, nor Russians, have anything in particular against Americans. The people of no country would engage in war with the people of any other country if they were not stirred up to it, propagandized into it, by their leaders.

Propaganda is something of a modern art. Practically nobody in Great Britain had ever heard of health insurance until Lloyd George, searching about for an issue in a political campaign shortly before World War I, hit upon the idea which he borrowed from Germany. Before his campaign was over he had persuaded the British people that they had always wanted health insurance, though, as we say, few had ever heard of it up to a few weeks before. Such is the power of propaganda.

Now here on this Freedom Scroll is this "pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth." Can it be that this idea comes from the internationalists who, at some future time, will assert that the President's plan to intervene with American armed forces anywhere on earth "to resist aggression and tyranny" has been formally endorsed by millions of Americans? Are not the signers of this petition giving a free hand to the present or some future Administration to send them or their sons anywhere on earth to fight? And there will be no appeal from the decision of the Administration that any given situation constitutes "aggression and tyranny."

Is it not possible that this one "pledge" is the foundation stone of a future policy that at no distant date would guarantee the financial, and probably the moral, bankruptcy of the American Republic and the enslavement of her once free people?

Who Are Listed as Leaders of the Crusade?

We are not less disposed to raise this question as we scan the list of the men prominent in the National Committee for a Free Europe. For while they include distinguished citizens who have rendered great service to their country (most of whom may have joined this movement without suspecting any ulterior purposes), yet they include also men who have been in the forefront of the internationalist movement. They include, indeed, some who have advanced in no little degree our foreign policy which has been so disastrous.

Thus we find Herbert H. Lehman who once headed UNRRA and who recently led in the unsuccessful fight in the Senate to prevent overriding the President's veto of the Communist Control Bill; Henry R. Luce, whose "Life," "Time" and "Fortune" have rarely hesitated to whoop it up for internationalism; Charles P. Taft, Robert P. Patterson and others. We find men like Drew Pearson.

These all along have been the very opposite of America Firsters. While we do not question the sincerity of many of them, and while some of their services have contributed to America's advantage, yet, by and large, they are internationalists. If we follow their leadership, can we expect the results of the next ten years to be any less disastrous for the United States than the last ten?

The United States has now got itself into a war which will involve temporary, and perhaps permanent, restrictions on American liberties. At the same time the Administration is pushing such international commitments as the ITO agreement, the ILO right-to-organize agreement, the International Bill of Rights and Genocide Convention (and there are more to come), every one of which would hand over a part of the sovereignty of the American people to international committees in each of which the United States would have only a minority vote.

Is one effect of this movement intended to be that we forget our own Liberty Bell which was respected throughout this country for more than a century and a half, and substitute a "Freedom Bell"? Is it all part of a picture to make the American people forget their past as the great Republic of the West, and infiltrate them more and more with the idea that it is just one of "the democracies"?

Diluting American Loyalty

The Extension Service of the United States Department of Agriculture is engaged in a project that is perhaps not unrelated to the Crusade for Freedom. This scheme is to promote the making of United Nations flags may be displayed alongside our flag on every school house in the land, as well as on other public and private buildings.

There is a committee to achieve this purpose, whose Chairman is Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The committee has made available a kit, price 50 cents, by the use of which a United Nations flag can, it is explained, be readily made. Women and girls are appealed to to make these flags.

Now, if other nations than our own had taken a serious interest in the idea of the United Nations, something might be said for this strange institution. But few countries seem to be taking any serious interest in it—and these are almost entirely the countries that are subsisting, in part at least, on the bounty of the United States. For many weeks after the fighting began in Korea, not a single land soldier of any fellow member of the United Nations participated; and even today while there are 150,000 American soldiers and Marines in Korea, there are said to be not over 5000 of all other countries combined.

Strange it is that the government of a country, conceded to be the strongest and richest in the world—a country with a great past—should be leading in the effort to merge the welfare of its people with that of the polyglot nations of the world. Particularly since, even with the material benefits offered or in prospect, the enthusiasm of those other countries for the United Nations is at a low point.

And here is our national government, without, we suspect, the slightest warrant in any law, spending the taxpayers' money trying to dilute Americanism in the minds of school children.

Scheme to By-pass the Authority of the Senate

The significance of this pledge in the Freedom Scroll and a hint of the inherent danger in it lies in the fact that just as the United States Senate was recessing on September 23, Secretary Acheson moved, in the General Assembly of the United Nations, to clothe the General Assembly with the right to take action against aggressor nations.

In the excitement of the fight to override the veto of the Anti-Communist Bill, little attention was paid in the Senate to Acheson's action. Yet, as Mr. George Rothwell Brown, columnist in the Hearst newspapers, has pointed out:

"This is a flagrant attempt by our own State Department to by-pass the Senate, and make what might prove to be a most dangerous alteration in the UN charter, without submitting that proposed change to the Senate for its approval or rejection."

The Senate of the United States went a atomic energy were two lawyers; one appointee of Dean Acheson and the other a follower of Henry Wallace. Herbert S. Marks, who has spoken in the defense of a number of leftwing individuals and groups, was an appointee of Dean Acheson. He has been a member of the National Lawyers Guild, cited by the House Un-American Activities Committee as being a Communist front, and also the United Federal Workers which is a Communist front. Marks was refused a commission in the U. S. Navy. The Navy Bureau Personnel file indicated that Marks:

"Has a tendency to become allied and associated with radical actions and organizations. . . His ethics and integrity have been criticized many times."

James Roy Newman, whom McMahon made counsel for the Special Senate Committee, (like Charles Calkins, McMahon's one time administrative assistant) became a Henry Wallace follower. He went with Wallace to the New Republic, a Marxist magazine, when Wallace was severed from the government payroll. Calkins is now on a retainer at $300 a month with New Republic for articles he may write, and he lectures at the Yale Law School, which is running Harvard a close second for teaching and developing Red lawyers. Newman is a close friend of Dr. Edward Condon, head of Bureau of Standards, who has been frequently charged with associating with Communists. Dr. Condon worked with Newman in the plan to put atomic energy under Marxist Control.

When McMahon took over the chairmanship of the Special Senate Committee on Atomic Energy, one of his first appointments was to name Dr. Edward Condon as a scientific adviser. In 1948 a House sub-committee on Un-American Activities charged Dr. Condon as:

"One of the weakest links in our atomic security, and an associate of Soviet espionage agents."

The House sub-committee also said of Dr. Condon: "There is no evidence in our possession that Dr. Condon is a member of the Communist Party, but as a member of the Executive Committee of the American-Soviet Science Society, which is affiliated with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship Inc., and which was recently cited as a subversive organization by Attorney General Clark, he has lent his name and influence to one of the principal Communist endeavors in the United States."

The files of the FBI reflect that Dr. Condon has been in close contact, as late as 1947, with an individual alleged, by a self-confessed Soviet espionage agent, to have engaged in espionage activities with the Russians in Washington, D. C. from 1941 to 1944.

Dr. and Mrs. Condon's close friend, Ignace Zlotowski, is former counsellor of the Polish Embassy and presently a Polish delegate to the U. N. Dr. Condon introduced Newman to Ignace Zlotowski. In testimony before the House-Un-American Activities Committee, Zlotowski is charged with being a Communist spy on atomic energy and working with the head of the Russian NKVD.

Zlotowski is further identified as a nuclear scientist who studied under Joliet Curie, confessed French member of the Communist Party. It is known that in February 1947, Zlotowski purchased 270 books on atomic energy which had been published by the Department of Commerce. It is also reliably reported that in March 1947 Zlotowski offered the use of the Polish diplomatic pouch to scientific groups as a means of transmitting scientific materials outside the U.S., dissemination of which had to be restricted because of security reasons by military authorities. Zlotowski was also in contact with Anatole Gromov, first secretary of the Soviet Embassy, who has since returned to Russia.

Newman and Marks, along with Dr. Condon and possibly Dr. Leo Z. Szilard, has the most to do with working up the McMahon Atomic Energy Bill and its passage, although McMahon—as their stooge—gets credit for authoring the bill.

At all executive sessions of the Special Senate Committee, where the most confidential phases of the atomic program were discussed, Senator McMahon insisted on having Dr. Condon and Newman present.

CALKINS — WRITER FOR REDS

Another one of McMahon's supporters is Charles F. Calkins. Calkins was active as a writer for the Communist magazine, New Masses, before taking the confidential job in the Senator's office.

PHILIP MULLENBACH — A POOR RISK

Senator Brien McMahon, as head of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, allowed Philip Mullenbach to remain in his top secret job although that man worked under Gregory Silvermaster in War Assets and succeeded Silvermaster as Chief of that division, and had been investigated by the F.B.I. and found to be a poor risk. Serious derogatory information had been dug up against Mullenbach, still he was in charge of the topmost atomic energy secret. So "hot" was this secret information Mullenbach had charge of that, when it was being transferred, he went under guard. The guards, most likely, were sincere in thinking that they were protecting something which Russia did not have. Little did they know that they were guarding something which was already in Moscow.

COMMUNIST SPY HEAD, SILVERMASTER

Nathan Gregory Silvermaster of New Jersey, Communist spy leader accused of Soviet espionage, and now out on bail, swore that he was a "close friend" of Senator McMahon's scientific advisor, Miss Evelyn Bentley, a confessed Communist spy courier, identified him as master spy with photographic equipment in the basement of his Washington home for filming secret government documents for transmission to Moscow.

McMAHON DEMANDS SECRET INFORMATION

In transferring the atomic project to civilian control sometime after the end of the war, a major policy problem was how much secret information should be released to a Congressional Committee concerned with atomic energy. The U.S. had a three year lead on the rest of the world—meaning the Soviet Union. Although part of this lead had been lost through the treachery of people like Dr. Fuchs, and the spy ring, most Senators did not want to know anything more than necessary about atomic energy for fear that they might accidentally make known the secrets. On the other hand, there were counterfeiter Americans, such as McMahon's associates, who were turning up everything in the country to obtain the secret.

Brien McMahon, on the Senate floor in 1947, demanded to know everything there was to know about the atomic bomb. When there was a vote in committee on making available such highly secret information (the information on the stockpile) the vote was ten to one against. The lone vote for the right of a Senator or Congressman to obtain this highly secret data was that of Senator Brien McMahon of Connecticut. No other Senator wanted to know such top secret information!

This was not the only instance of a strong effort by the Connecticut Senator to obtain highly confidential atomic information. A letter over Senator McMahon's signature was sent to the War Department seeking data from the Manhattan District project. The request was rejected, but Senator McMahon did not give up until the matter was carried directly to the White House. Senator McMahon and his Red associate also made a personal call on Secretary Paterson in an effort to get certain information made available to the committee. Again their request was denied.

About this same time, Senator McMahon was making a series of speeches throughout the country suggesting that the U.S. consider making public its atomic stockpile and rate of production of atomic bombs.

Next to all technical facts on manufacture of the bomb, the information most sought by the Soviet Union was how many bombs America had and was making.

It was on February 4, 1949 that McMahon announced that he had called a conference of the Congressional Atomic Committee and the Joint Chiefs of Staff to "consider" making public this top-secret information on the bomb stockpile and bomb production.

Three days later, February 7, 1949, at Lake Success, the Soviet delegate on the Security Council of the United Nations—Yakov Malik—demanded that the United States list its atomic weapons before the General Assembly. The Soviet Union had been demanding this information as far back as 1947. Senator McMahon's suggestion to make public information on the bomb stockpile, and bomb production and weapons, would have accomplished that purpose.

How long Brien McMahon remains in Washington, as a dupe for Communism, depends upon the voters of Connecticut. The security and safety of 150,000,000 people in America depends upon the voters of Connecticut. The rest of America will have to stand by and let the voters of Connecticut make the decision on November 7th whether Brien McMahon will remain in our government or be defeated.

This is not a political issue in the eyes of real Americans. It is a life and death campaign.

The United States today is dealing with the most clever International tricksters. They are working day and night to undermine, bankrupt, and take over our Country which is the last stronghold of Christianity and civilization. We must have loyal, strong men to represent us in Washington.

If we are to deliver our government back into the hands of true, fearless Americans we must throw out of Washington all those who have betrayed us regardless of whether they are Democrats or Republicans. Temporarily, we must forget the party and save America, or we will have only one party . . . a party exactly like that in the Soviet Union.

SOVIET UNION NOT COMMUNIST

Federation at one and the same time, it withdrew from the former, and resolved to "stay neutral." Evidently the Israeli Government also desires to play the goody-goody role on both sides of the Iron Curtain, judging by the honor it conferred recently upon the Red Army, at the time Soviet Army officers were leading the war in Korea against our U.N. anti-Communist troops. We present the story of this, as it appeared in the New Leader, a weekly that is very favorable to the Israelis—"On the morning of June 25th, 135 trees for a forest named after the Soviet Army were planted among the rocks around Jerusalem. The forest will be, according to press reports, 'a permanent expression of feeling of the people of Israel toward the Red Army.'" This was not the act of an isolated group. It was the act of the Ben Gurion government. The dedication was attended by the ministers to Israel from the Soviet Union, Rumania, Poland, Czechoslovakia; the Israeli Minister of Education, Minister of Communications, and executives of the Jewish Agency and others. Isaac Greenbaum, member of the Jewish Agency, is quoted as saying that the victory over the Nazis by the U.S.S.R. saved mankind and Jewry. Speaking in Russian to the Soviet diplomats he said: "We thank the Soviet Union for the blood, the heroism and sacrifices of the soldiers of the Red Army, for the support given us by your deeds and attitude to help achieve the independence of our country (July 8, 1950)."

THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF A HALF MILLION COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZERS

Reprinted from "The Southern Conservative"
Fort Worth, Texas

Seventeen short years ago there was not a known or suspected Communist in the United States and the term "fellow traveller" was unheard of.

Up to seventeen years ago a president of the United States who openly advocated the political theories of Karl Marx would have been promptly impeached.

A Federal employee who sold or gave away secret government documents to enemies of his country would have been summarily convicted of treason and either executed or sent to prison for life.

An appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States, whether made by a Democratic or Republican president, was an ironclad guarantee that such a man was a person of incorruptible and unimpeachable integrity whose fidelity to the Constitution insured decisions based on the law and the evidence and who would have regarded the idea of having to pay for his job by delivering an instructed verdict as a more heinous crime against society than any committed by the worst criminal whose case he might be called on to review.

Up to seventeen years ago any national administration which operated the machinery of the Federal government in the sole interest of minority groups would have inspired the people to open rebellion, if not civil war.

Any American who boldly preached treason against his country by urging citizens to repudiate our form of government, renounce their sovereignty to the United States and join a World Government or Atlantic Union, would have been adjudged insane and sent to an institution.

Any man in the South advocating social equality of whites and Negroes would have been tarred and feathered and any woman urging such depravity would have been disavowed by all members of her sex, including the girls from the Red Light district.

Up to seventeen years ago theft was recognized as theft regardless of who committed it and it would have been considered just as immoral for the Federal government to steal the property of the citizen by taxation or that of a sovereign State by official decree as for a bank robber to crack a safe.

Ministers of the gospel who joined subversive world federations and openly declared against our American form of government and advocated alien ideologies from the pulpit would have been unfrocked in less time than it takes to say Joe Stalin.

If members of Congress had voted a fifty-thousand dollar tax-free bonus to the president of the United States, such open betrayal of the confidence imposed in them by their constituents would have resulted in their overwhelming defeat at the next election.

If it had been discovered that teachers in public schools, colleges and universities were cramming the students' heads with Communistic theories and giving them perverted versions of our own glorious country, its form of government and way of life, they would have been kicked out, if not horse-whipped.

If labor union thugs had shot down innocent persons in cold blood for no other reason than that such persons were going peaceably about their jobs at a struck plant, they would have been mobbed.

If Democrats had betrayed the party of Jefferson and Jackson by discarding its principles and substituting a platform embodying the political beliefs of Earl Browder and Norman Thomas they would not have carried a district outside of those occupied by foreigners in New York's Lower East Side.

Up to seventeen years ago, American people would have resisted with every force at their command up to actual shooting if they had had Communist racial propaganda fired at them over the radio, over television, from newspaper columnists, daily and weekly news publications, in women's magazines, in fiction stories, in comic strips, from the pulpit and in "tolerance" films in the movies.

And finally, if the more than a half million Americans who have joined with Communist party members to bring this about and who are working zealously for the destruction of our American form of government and the substitution of a Soviet system, lived in Russia and attempted such treasonable activity there, they would be shot before sundown.

Yes, something has happened to our country and it is not progress or "liberalism" but retrogression, degeneracy and decay.

We still believe that there are enough real Americans to turn back the Red tide, but after one more national election, it will be too late.

LEARN FROM THE MASTER'S TEACHING AND EXAMPLE

A Teacher's right and qualification to teach may be judged by his mandate and his performance. Christ had received His mandate from His heavenly Father. "I am the truth . . . This is why I was born and came into the world to bear witness to the truth." John 14:6 — 18:37. "I must proclaim the kingdom of God, for this is why I have been sent." Luke 4:43. The gospels prove that He taught continuously, with divine wisdom in human ways, the things about God and our salvation. He taught the workers and the scholars, and rich and the poor, the hypocrites and the sincere ones. Teaching was an eminent part of His mission to bring mankind back to God — and to heaven. He taught to His last word on the cross. He is still teaching in our Sunday gospels. Let Him not teach you in vain.

"THE CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM"

long way in 1945, when, under the influence of unprecedented propaganda, it was persuaded to ratify the United Nations charter. It never would have ratified the charter if it had not been for the right of veto which was reserved by each of the five major nations in UN. Acheson's move at the present time to by-pass the Senate indicates how far these internationalists are willing to go in their seizure of power—in their effort to destroy the liberty and freedom of the American people, while the Crusade for Freedom is prattling about the necessity of carrying freedom to all other nations of the world.

Intellectual Conciest

We read in the Sermon on the Mount:

"... how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?"

"Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."

The spirit back of the Crusade for Freedom is that we owe it to the world to go everywhere and see that certain ideas as to freedom prevail. The inference is that we have a full measure of freedom or liberty here at home.

But as matter of fact, while it is true that in many countries of the world, freedom as we know it does not exist, right here in America the genuine liberty of Americans is being encroached upon steadily. It is being encroached up by some of the very men whose names appear in the forefront of this Crusade for Freedom.

The Children's Crusade

In A.D. 1212 occurred that astonishing movement known as the Children's Crusade. A young boy of 13 or 14 became imbued with the idea that if he could get thousands of boys and girls to journey to Palestine, the control of Palestine might be wrested again from the Saracens. Amazingly enough he carried out the project, at least to the point of assembling large numbers of children. After many vicissitudes they reached a Mediterranean port in Southern France where some greedy shipowners agreed to transport them to the Holy Land. Two of the ships were wrecked on the way and all on board were lost. The remainder were taken, not to the Holy Land, but to Egypt where every last one of them was sold into slavery. The end was disaster.

We Americans, at the middle of the Twentieth Century, ought to be old enough by this time to consider what is feasible and what is not. We ought to be mature enough not to permit ourselves to become engaged in any Children's Crusade.

We still have left the essentials of American liberty, though the activities of those who would undermine and destroy them are far advanced.

We of the National Economic Council believe that it is time for the people of America to realize that they alone of all the nations of the earth possess and have possessed true liberty. They should realize that they can lose this liberty by deliberately surrendering it to the Executive, or by so weakening themselves due to dissipation of effort and resources, as to fall a prey to eventual and complete slavery. We think that all Americans should weigh these considerations carefully before yielding to the desire to sign a pledge "to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth."

The attempt to carry out such a pledge might be as disastrous to the American people as the Children's Crusade.

Then why make the pledge?

The people who are not governed by God will be ruled by tyrants —William Penn.

Reference is made to your memorandum of December 7, 1950, enclosing a copy of the October 15, 1950, issue of the publication "Common Sense."

The Department has received a letter from [REDACTED] b7C
[REDACTED] Friends of Democracy, Inc., 137 East 57th Street, New York City, transmitting a report of the Friends of Democracy, Inc., entitled "The Case Against Conde McGinley's Common Sense." I am enclosing a copy of that report for your information. You will note that the report makes reference to a connection between "Common Sense" and the Loyal American Group. [REDACTED] b7C stated in his letter that the latter is a Fascist organization and is affiliated with the Nationalist Action League, which has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835. The report of Special Agent [REDACTED] b7C dated November 4, 1949, entitled "Nationalist Action League" sets forth information that in 1949 the Loyal American Group merged with the Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia.

In view of the allegations made by [REDACTED] b7C I shall appreciate it if you will advise me whether the Bureau has any information indicating that the Loyal American Group has been reactivated under that name and is now operating as a separate organization affiliated with the Nationalist Action League.

THE CASE AGAINST CONLE MCGINLEY'S COMMON SENSE

BACKGROUND

Common Sense is an extremist publication issued twice monthly from 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, New Jersey, with Conde McGinley as editor (1). McGinley is editor and owner. His sworn statement published in November 1949 says that 9660 copies go each issue to paid subscribers (2) (but see below).

The McGinley headquarters include three buildings, at 2001, 2003, and 2005 Pleasant Parkway, in Union (3), housing also the McGinley affiliate Loyal American Group.

of Loyal American Group (4), and , or claimed , some Common Sense property; he made the claim when McGinley's assets were to be sold to pay a judgment against CS for printing costs (5). works closely with McGinley and CS (Common Sense), so that often McGinley and are variously listed as officers of the other's organizations. The given address of the Loyal Americans, for example, is 2003 Pleasant Parkway (6). writes form letters on the CS letterhead signing himself as director (7). Rallies are co-sponsored by CS and the Loyal American Group (8); speakers at these rallies, held in various New Jersey cities, include such personalities as pro-nationalist pamphleteer, and ex-Christian Front leader (9). Additionally, McGinley and and their associates often speak before innocent and bonafide organizations, representing themselves as crusading anti-Communists (10).

It is reported that McGinley's circulation was usually about 3000 (11). But this varied: sometimes 20,000 issues are printed (12). But the notorious tie-up of McGinley with the pro-Arab prppagandist, wealthy Jewish anti-Zionist Benjamin H. Freedman, changed the situation, and McGinley's little journal reached the fantastic circulations of 300,000 copies (the October 3, 1948 issue) and 500,000 (October 31, 1948). These were sent to influential people and associations the nation over, and were principally anti-Zionist, which was Freedman's motivation for financing these issues. (13) American Legion posts, Congressmen, UN delegates, parent-teacher organizations all received copies (14). It was estimated by the New York Post in an expose of the Freedman-McGinley coalition that printing for an average of 400,000 copies came to $1200, and mailing $4000. Copies were of course mailed to readers free of charge, and bulk quantities went to Arab UN delegates, financed again by Freedman (15).

mcginley-2

McGinley's projects are abundant. He furnishes speakers "who really understand the world situation, and the plan of our enemy." (16) Another service: "All so-called Communist countries are ruled by Yiddish Zionists. (Common Sense will gladly supply their names to anyone interested in writing us.)" (17)

On June 14, 1950, McGinley was acquitted of charges that he resisted and assaulted two deputy sheriffs on June 17, ~~1949~~ 1949, a year earlier, when they attempted to seize his records because of a judgment on a printing bill. ,cGinley charged a plot of Zionist Communists, and claimed that he didn't pay for printing in the first place, but that it was handled by a patriotic group of men, who disbanded under pressure (18). He claims that he has sunk $11,000 of his own money into the fight against Communism (19).

In the spring of 1948, the Eastern Union County Chamber of Commerce withdrew approval of McGinley, charging anti-Semitism and defense of traitor Robert Best (see later in this report). (20) The third district of the Holy Name Society, representing 9 Bronx Roman Catholic parishes, condemned Common Sense. "Although the paper does not directly attack Catholicism, it is anti-Semitic," declared Rev. William Daly, who concluded: "If it would attack one religion, it would attack all." The New York State American Legion had earlier called CS a "hate sheet." (21) In Illinois, the executive ~~department~~ committee of the Legion had said of Think Weekly (CS under its earlier name):

This publication pretends to have its principle purpose the combatting of Communism. However, a careful reading of its issues and the lists of its contributors gives abundant evidence that it is not so much interested in the legitimate fight against Communism in America, but is "grinding an axe" for Fascism instead of democracy. (22)

McGinley, about 57, was originally proprietor of a chain of roadside restaurants called During the war he sold the business and worked at the Elastic Stop Nut Company in Union. After the war under the alias he wrote ~~at~~ anti-Communist material, began to publish Think, first mimeographed distributed to veterans and factories; later he printed his publication and mailed 2500 a week (23). Think was issued in 1946, mimeographed, listing as editors the fictitious and "Conde J McGinley", McGinley's and a World War II veteran raised by his father as a figurehead, and to hide McGinley Senior's own connection. On May 25, 1946, Think began to be ~~re~~ printed, and became Think Weekly with the June 30, 1946 issue. The new publication was engaged in the smearing of liberals and liberal organizations as Moscow fronts, and was praised by big business leaders like and et-Hitler admirers like (24).

But compared to the more recent issues of McGinley's paper, it was extraordinarily moderate. Think Weekly became Common Sense on June 29, 1947, and continues as such up to the present.

Copies go to subscribers and various groups throughout the country, depending on the circulation of a particular issue, and is distributed or sold at public rallies and parades (25).

Through Common Sense and the Loyal American Group rallies, books and pamphlets by leading pro-fascists and anti-Semites are sold. Common Sense in recent issues has advertised publications for sale by

Texas anti-Semite; Upton Close;

, former Nazi conspiracy trial defendant;

, anti-Semitic pamphleteer; Coughkinite Rev Edward

Lodge Curran; whose American Patriots organization is listed by the US Attorney General as subversive and fascist; pro-German writer (26).

McGinley's material is usually alarmist, mostly inaccurate, and often contradictory. If Benjamin Freedman pays for an issue, not the Jews but only those known by McGinley as "Yiddish Marxists" are attacked. If McGinley puts out one of his own issues, presumably without Freedman's backing, the issue is flatly anti-Jewish (27).

McGinley's latest issue, that of October 15, 1950,

h
mcginley-5

is his most ambitious. Large numbers of copies were sent free to educators, students, other groups--without their interest or solicitation. It is the biggest issue to date -- 12 pages, well-printed, written in an engaging style, as if a professional publicist had set his hand to anti-Semitic ravings. The make-up and organization of copy is also professional. The fullpage headline:

YIDLISH MARXISTS PLOT
U.S.A. DEFEAT BY U.S.S.R.
Traitors Plan Slaughter and Conquest
U.S. Can Lose War Now! Symington Warns

The issue, which is made up of one long essay with scare-headline subdivisions, is worth examining ⁱⁿ for the light it throws on McGinley's thinking. The thesis is very quickly expressed: "The Administration is aware of the fact that Yiddish Marxists are the real rulers of the Soviet Union and that they have been the directing force behind the communist (Marxist) world-revolution from ~~its~~ its very inception." (Page one) (This is an interesting contradiction to the usual McGinley position that the United States Administration itself is a Communist front-- see later.)

McGinley, or his anonymous writer, tries to demonstrate that the Yiddish people are responsible for ~~the~~ all the evil we see in the world. But these are not Jews-- some Jews, a very small minority, are genuine Jews who survived in Old Testament lands, and are not Marxist Zionists or Communists.

The late Hon. James E. Forrestal understood the Yiddish Marxist peril and the implications of its impact upon the destiny of the United States. (Page one)

Next we jump to atomic bomb spies, and Communist leaders, a list of such names showing that "each person mentioned is a Jewish Marxist." (Page two)

Yiddish Marxists are the spirit and the substance of the world-revolution which seeks to wipe out the established institutions of civilized society and to replace them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society."

Then the anti-climax:

At the present time one of the most dangerous, and least suspected Soviet Union "booby-traps" is the world-government plan of United World Federalists.

Which leads to:

...United Nations is just a "booby-trap," conceived and created by the Soviet Union to lure the United States to its doom and destruction. (Page two)

Common Sense then tells us to beware of future common efforts such as the U.S. campaign under the UN flag in Korea (page three).

Following McGinley's version of the world crisis, the theory of Marxism and the history of the Communist Party, McGinley's essay jumps back again to the United Nations: Marxist propaganda is making the UN flag supreme in this country, little by little, and replacing Old Glory.

Then, after these six introductory pages, the subject closest to Benjamin Freedman's heart-- the Yiddish problem, is taken up. "All Yiddish people are not Marxists," says CS. "All communists (Marxists) are not Yiddish." (page seven). However, the author or authors forget this distinction later on, preferring another one. The difference is then between Jews and Yids. The Yiddish nation was an oriental barbaric group (the Khazars) who were converted to Judaism in the seventh century. They do not benefit of God's words on the chosen people. Only the Jews do. "Yiddish has no more connection with Jewish than Irish has with Catholic," concludes the mysterious author of the McGinley article. "Yiddish is not Jewish!" (page twelve)

Then readers are asked to distinguish between Yiddish Marxists and non-Marxist Yids; between the Yiddish people and the genuine Jewish people; between a U.S. Government aware of the menace of the Yids, and the same U.S. Government previously depicted by McGinley as a pawn of the Jews. Small wonder that the general significance of the issue-- or our summary of it ~~is~~ here-- is contradictory and confusing.

Common Sense says that Christians are deceived by Yids, thinking they are Jews.

It is not clear what ~~Jewish brains~~ Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish brains." Do they mean the brains of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid Khazars who were their ancestors. What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish dissatisfaction." Do they mean the irritation caused by resistance of Christian populations to their campaign for world domination? (page ~~nine~~ eight)

No connection between Yids and the Jews of the Bible, we are assured (page nine). Then, for Zionism: "Yiddish Marxists invented the Zionist movement." They also infiltrated into Judaic congregations, and now control them. "The public swallowed the Yiddish Marxist propaganda about the 6,000,000 Jews which Hitler threw into furnaces and gas-chambers although Hanson W Baldwin...supplies proof that there were more Jews in the world in 1948 than there were in 1939," the argument continues. It is pointed out that there are good Jews, like those of the American Council of Judaism. (page eleven)

THE CASE AGAINST MCGINLEY'S COMMON SENSE

What follows is a point-by-point expose of the propaganda line and associations of Conde McGinley and his periodical Common Sense.

THE LINE

1. MCGINLEY HAS PUBLISHED PROPAGANDA AGAINST THE AMERICAN WAR EFFORT ~~AGAINST THE AMERICAN WAR EFFORT~~ IN KOREA WHICH IS SEDITIONARY

In Common Sense for September 15, 1950, an "anonymous" priest wrote the lead article for McGinley. Based on earlier convictions for sedition ("false reports" tending to undermine morale of the armed forces), as in the case, this material and some other comments which have appeared in CS on the Korean campaign are seditious. The September 15 article included the following:

Before you talk of atrocities in Korea and dead American soldiers there in 1950 and elsewhere, before you talk of throwing A-bombs here and there, be honest and think clearly! Remember Truman and his guilt in 1945...Truman and his guilt in 1950!

Soon we will be fighting as an American team to preserve Christianity and our Constitution, but has anyone ever really protested the Hiroshima Massacre, or Mr. Truman's war in Korea? We are Americans, but have we, in a democratic way, had anything to say about going into the war in Korea? I sincerely believe we are no longer living in a democracy. [28]

Worse was the following, in the same article:

How can we expect to win a war by scattering our youth all over the earth when you have Reds worse than the Koreans right here directing a third world war in every key position? How can we expect to win a war with Red Jews in power here? This whole war is nothing but a mass slaughter for Americans...and a put-up job! (29)

Again:

I charge that this war is a Jewish conspiracy, and demand the arrest of every member of the Truman Administration... (30)

The McGinley journal holds a similar view on World War II: "Zionists planned and directed World War II," said CS in June, 1950 (31).

2. MCGINLEY PUBLISHES NAZI PROPAGANDA, MOURNS THE HITLER REGIME, AND ACTS AS SPOKESMAN FOR PRO-NAZI GERMANS OF TODAY

CS is not above publishing Nazi propaganda from the horse's mouth. McGinley printed what was said to be Herman Goering's letter to Churchill written just before the former poisoned himself. CS added that our war against Nazi Germany was an "insane plan". This long letter, taking up three columns (a full page) of McGinley's paper, concluded with Goering's declaration: "I shall know how to approach my end in the absolute conviction as a German National Socialist and considering everything else, to have been a better European than you." (32)

According to the McGinley thesis, Germany was the bulwark against Communism, until Jews fifth-columned it (33). Furthermore,

The war guilt of the German nation was purposely invented by false and malicious libel and widely propagandized in order to fabricate a reason for these dismantlings and destruction of production capacity and thus prevent Germany from waging another war. (34)

But more radical yet was the German issue of Common Sense. This issue was partly in German, and copies were sent in bulk to the American and British zones of Germany (35). Writers were Germans notorious for their advocacy of soft treatment of Nazis. On top of page one was the legend, in German: "German Edition--appearing simultaneously in South Africa, South America." Atrocities in Germany were blamed on the allies. The page one photograph of dead bodies piled high was followed by a caption in German: "Message from the slaughter at the 'White' World's Thermopolye (Dresden, 1945): Traveler! If you get to New York say you saw us lying, as Morgenthau ordered it."

The back page legend in German: "Germans! If you want to help your country order Common Sense through a friend in America." This was obviously directed at pro-Nazi Germans in Germany.

And this is how Frederick Charles F Weiss on page one of this special April 1, 1949 issue interprets the second World War:

When in the last suicidal struggles we betrayed and humiliated our "white" brothers and summoned the outsiders to fight for whites against whites, we saw to it that no longer they are filled with terror at the white man's power--with the result that now they have risen up and look down upon the whites as of a thing of yesterday.

On the same page, German apologist Austin J App begins his lead article:

The most momentous and tragic event of our age was the War. The American people were lend-leased into it by British and Jewish insistence that American intervention was necessary to assure a post-war world based on the Four Freedoms..... (36)

McGinley himself chipped in on page two to give his most extreme attack on World War II and justification of Nazi concentration camps:

8

Cunning Marxists in the Soviet Union, Poland, London, Paris and mainly New York, the Invisible Government, with perfect coordination, tricked and propagandized Christians to slaughter each other in the war to crush Germany which was the only country in Europe which fully understood the menace of Communism....Because of stupidity Americans did not realize that the concentration camps in Germany~~xx~~ were filled almost exclusively with the millions of Marxists who infiltrated from Russia and Poland to overpower Germany at the critical time. (37)

The lead article on March 15, 1949, by an anonymous German, begins:

It is more than two years since the International Tribunal in Nuremberg has condemned and partly executed the leaders of the great German Empire on account of "war crimes and crimes against humanity." To what extent this one sided step of the victors, which exclusively was directed against the vanquished enemy and presented an act of revenge, was justified, history will decide. One thing, however, one can already assert today with tolerable certainty, namely, that the bombing attacks against defenseless women and children have not benefitted humanity. (38)

3. COMMON SENSE IS ANTI-SEMITIC, PRINTING VICIOUS CARTOONS AND DISTRIBUTING THE PROTOCOLS OF ZION.

McGinley's Common Sense endorses the Protocols of the Elders of Zion, a forgery which describes an alleged Jewish plot to rule the world. An article by George Armstrong in CS claims that the Jews run Russia, and that the Protocols are correct. (39)

mcginley-12

McGinley's journal announced in mid-September of 1950: "Copies of The Protocols may be secured from Common Sense for $1.00." (40) The book is often cited in CS (41).

In CS, _____ wrote _____
recently:

We ~~xxx~~ now enter the dark climax of 2500-year psychological war by Jewish fanatics to destroy the white race. God help America if we cannot throw off the Frankfurter-Acheson influence. (42)

A letter-writer in CS calls Jews "Juices." (43)

But on several occasions, CS publishes anti-Jewish cartoons in the Nazi tradition, bringing to mind those of Hitler's propagandist _____ Several of _____ these portray caricatures of Jews, labelling them as Communists (44).

Further, McGinley has printed the famous "Benjamin Franklin" forgery, a statement which pro-Nazi agitators during the thirties had attributed to the early American statesman (45). Modern research has proven the falsity of the document.

Sometimes, when Benjamin Freedman's influence is predominant (see BACKGROUND statement, above), Jews as a group are not attacked, but only 85% of the Jews. Thus McGinley, at these moments, says that he is not against The American Council of Judaism. "We are opposed to Talmudists and the Yiddish Khazar," _____ the line runs, "which constitute 85% of those in the United States who call themselves Jews; they are the creators and propagators of Communism, Zionism, Fabianism, Socialism and World Government." (46) It is easily seen how such a view would appeal to one of McGinley's favored Jews, like his backer Freedman, who is thus counted among the 15% of good Jews, of original Old Testament origin. So one of the favorite means is to attack the Khazars, a non-Semitic pagan race which is now the majority of Jews, according to CS (47).

In his newspaper McGinley has written:

So, we see that F.L.R. ran our country for the Zionists, as directed by them. These same Zionists keep Truman interested in fishing and piano playing while they use up the resources of the United States to set up a Zionist World Government at the United Nations and Palestine. (48)

4. MCGINLEY LENDS SUPPORT TO THE KU KLUX KLAN

McGinley hinted recently that he would support the KKK; this announcement came in the form of a reprint from a Texas newspaper explaining the good reasons for the Klan's revival (49). In the next issue, CS took over the mailing list of a Klan newspaper, announcing it this way:

The fighting publication, FREE AMERICA, has been discontinued and COMMON SENSE has taken over the subscription list. All subscribers to the former publication will receive a one year's subscription to COMMON SENSE. (50)

~~5. MCGINLEY IS OPPOSED TO THE UNITED NATIONS AND~~

5. McGINLEY IS OPPOSED TO THE UNITED NATIONS AND
THE MARSHALL PLAN

McGinley says he opposes world communism.

But he is also opposed to anything that opposes world communism. It is not a question of hypocrisy, but of ignorance, of course; the fact remains that he opposes the Korean war (as a Jewish plot), although the Korean war helps to contain world communism.

In a like manner, McGinley is opposed to the Marshall Plan, which has always had as its principal purposes the bolstering of the economy of non-Communist states to keep world communism away from their door.

In Common Sense we read:

They (Jews in government) camouflage "Russian" domination of the world with an organization called U.N.O., and they supplanted the American Flag with a crackpot flag called the U.N.O. flag.... (51)

The date of this article is September 15, 1950-- when the UN effort in Korea was ready to enter its final and largely successful stage, against Russian domination.

McGinley opposes General Marshall and the Marshall Plan (52), and constantly attacks world government, especially as advocated by United World Federalists (52).

6. McGINLEY IS FOR THE FASCIST REGIME IN SPAIN

Common Sense charges:

The international, anti-Christian, Marxists hate Franco because his was the first government to defeat the communists in their attempt to take over his country. In Spain they received their first demonstration that there are still some people left in the world who have the sense to put up a fight while they are still "top dog."

If Franco is a "Fascist" that is what the countries in eastern Europe now need." (54)

Aside from the distortion of history (for it was not the Republican government, but Franco, who succeeded in an attempt to "take over" the country), it is seen that McGinley here again favors fascist ~~xxx~~ measures to combat communism. Another example of this is his constant apology for the Hitler regime (see earlier in this report).

7. MCGINLEY SAYS THE UNITED STATES HAS A COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT

Reports Common Sense:

The "democrat" party is just another Communist front, with Roosevelt and Truman willing tools and the "Me-Too" Republicans going along....

President Truman and his entire cabinet should be made to resign. What a mess they put the whole world in. (55)

17C has given ample evidence that he is a crafty, conscious communist," McGinley's journal reports of the Secretary of State. "He must be removed; then tried for rendering aid and comfort to the enemy."

CS states that our Department of State is preparing Germany "to be taken over by atheistic Communism." (56)

8. MCGINLEY FLATLY OPPOSES TOLERANCE

"What people should now come to see," CS says, "is that this program of interfaith is strictly a Jewish doctrine." (57)

9. MCGINLEY OPPOSES PROTESTANTS WHEN THEY ARE LIBERAL

The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America is an organization of most Protestant churches. Nevertheless, CS says that the Federal Council "Seeks to destroy the 'Faith' and through its communistic tendencies, would destroy democracy." (58) Texas oilman George Armstrong in CS attacks the "communistic 'Federal Council of Churches'" (59).

ASSOCIATIONS

1. MCGINLEY'S MOVEMENT IS PART OF THE NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE, LABELED FASCIST AND SUBVERSIVE BY THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

b7C The Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia, by , is subversive and fascist, according to the Clark list issued at President Truman's request by the Justice Department. Common Sense and ~~the~~ the McGinley-Brien Loyal American Group are an integral part of it. The merger of CS with the subversive NAL is official; furthermore, it took place after the Attorney-General's listing.

The story of McGinley's role appeared in CS for June 15, 1949. It reads, in part:

The Nationalist Action League...today officially joined forces with COMMON SENSE, the Nation's anti-Communist Newspaper, in the inauguration of an all-out offensive against Marxism and its onsidious front organizations in America.

To this end, NATIONAL PROGRESS,

by
of the League, in , and serving as the League's official publication since its organization in October, 1948, announced its discontinuation and urged all of its readers to throw their entire support to COMMON SENSE.
Simultaneously, of the LOYAL AMERICAN GROUP, an organization of patriotic citizens acting in parallel concert with COMMON SENSE, took steps to merge his membership into the new and militant anti-Red front thus created....

Commenting on the merger, who will serve as National Secretary of the expanded organization, said:

"A most important, and most needed
step has been taken, in the merger of the Loyal American Group and the Nationalist Action League.
This move will certainly help promote nationalist unity. We intend to carry on a relentless campaign against the Marxist forces in the USA."....

Details on the militant program to be carried out by the NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE are to be covered in a page which COMMON SENSE will devote, in each issue, to its activities..

On the same page of CS, the reader was appealed to to fight the Attorney General's subversive listing of the MacFarland organization (60).

Thereafter a Nationalist Action League page appeared in CS. It discusses the work with McGinley, speaks of the Philadelphia headquarters which "will include facilities for handling COMMON SENSE..." (61)

McGinley's right-hand man, was later listed as Nationalist Action League he spoke at the Philadelphia NAL meeting (62). The NAL ran a coupon appeal on its special page in CS (63).

2. MCGINLEY SUPPORTS THE CONVICTED AMERICAN
TRAITOR , NAZI BROADCASTER.

, an American, was not on the American side in World War II. He worked for Hötler, as a broadcaster. After the war he was brought to Boston and convicted of treason, and now he is in prison. Before, during, and after his trial, b7c received strong support from McGinley. wrote for McGinley.

Here is a very recent story in Common Sense referring to b7c, American patriot convicted of treason and sentenced to life imprisonment through the efforts of the Anti-Defamation League, was found in his cell recently suffering from a brain hemorrhage. He is improving, but his condition is still critical. crime was that he opposed Roosevelt's War to crush Germany and open Europe to Communism. We ask our readers to remember this fine American patriot in their prayers. (64)

Earlier McGinley's paper said: "We doubt if there has ever been a finer American patriot." (65) corresponded with McGinley, subscribed for CS. McGinley supported, tried to organize help for b7c him. He would write to people: is no more a traitor than I am. His trouble comes from being too good an American....COMMON SENSE will help him all possible." (66) Traitor was a writer in CS (67).

3. MCGINLEY SUPPORTED OTHERS CONNECTED WITH SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY:

, then serving his four-month b7c jail term for refusing to reveal to Congress the names of his backers to Constitutional Educational League (named on wartime sedition indictments as a channel for Nazi propaganda), was plugged by McGinley's periodical, and in the same issue (July 15, 1950) advertised his League.

b7c who was a defendant in the wartime Nazi conspiracy trial (later dropped after the trial judge's death), and offered help to Hitler's ambassadors here during the early part of World War II, was labeled by McGinley "a learned American biblical scholar." (68) b7c McGinley often reprints information coming from an organization (National Council for American Education) run by whose earlier organization American Patriots is listed as fascist and subversive on the Attorney-General's list. McGinley reprints his releases (69), sells his books (see earlier this report).

b7c 4. EXTREME NATIONALISTS AND RACISTS ARE AMONG MCGINLEY'S AUTHORS:

, Hitler supporter and anti-Semite since the Hitler era, is a McGinley writer (70). So is millionaire oilman who has given large sums to fix further anti-Semitic propaganda; in CS he defends the Protocols (71). Reference is made to the report of SA [redacted] dated July 7, 1950, at Philadelphia, and the report of SA [redacted] dated November 4, 1949, at Philadelphia, in captioned matter. b7C

Assistant Attorney General James H. McInerney of the Criminal Division, Department of Justice, on January 11, 1951, furnished a photostatic copy of a report of the Friends of Democracy, Inc. entitled "The Case Against Conde McInerney's Common Sense," received by the Department from [redacted] National Director, Friends of Democracy, Inc., 137 East 57th Street, New York City. A copy of this report is being enclosed for your office and the Newark Office for information. b7C

Mr. McInerney pointed out that [redacted] in his report makes reference to a connection between "Common Sense" and the "Loyal American Group." [redacted] stated in his letter that the Loyal American Group is a Fascist organization and is affiliated with the Nationalist Action League which has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the provision of Executive Order No. 9835. Mr. McInerney noted that in the referenced report of SA [redacted] it was set forth that in 1949 the Loyal American Group merged with the Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia. Mr. McInerney requested that "in view of the allegations made by [redacted] I shall appreciate it if you will advise me whether the Bureau has any information indicating that the Loyal American Group has been reactivated under that name and is now operating as a separate organization affiliated with the Nationalist Action League." b7C

The Bureau files do not reflect any additional information concerning this matter than that set forth in referenced reports which reflect that the Loyal American Group merged with the Nationalist Action League.

You are requested to ascertain if the Loyal American Group has been reactivated under that name and is now operating as a separate organization merely affiliated with the Nationalist Action League or if it is still officially merged with the Nationalist Action League and has no separate identity.

The Newark Office should furnish to the Bureau and the Philadelphia Office any available information pertinent to this matter or that which can be ascertained from contact with established informants and sources. In the event the Philadelphia Office determines that additional inquiry is necessary by the Newark Office, Newark should be so advised.

Copies of the referenced reports should be furnished to the Newark Office for their information.

Both the Philadelphia and Newark Offices should also advise concerning the present relationship of the Nationalist Action League and "Common Sense," it being noted that the referenced reports reflect that "Common Sense" was reported as officially merged with the Nationalist Action League and was the official publication of the Nationalist Action League.

Your office should submit a current report in this case and all pertinent information developed in this matter should be incorporated in this report. The Newark Office should incorporate any pertinent information developed in this matter in an investigative report suitable for dissemination.

In the future you are also requested to furnish to the Bureau copies of "Common Sense" as they are published. In the event you are not now obtaining this publication and are not in a position to obtain same, you are requested to so advise Newark. Newark should then see that this publication is regularly furnished to the Bureau. These matters should receive the immediate attention of your office and the Newark Office.

PURPOSE:

To furnish you with a brief summary of pertinent data in Bureau files concerning this publication in accordance with your request.

BACKGROUND OF "COMMON SENSE"

"Common Sense" is a newspaper published twice monthly at 2001 Pleasant Parkway, Union, New Jersey. The publication describes itself as "The Nation's Anti-Communist Newspaper" and is edited by Conde McGinley. No investigation has been conducted by the Bureau of the publication, "Common Sense."

Prior to June, 1947, "Common Sense" was published under the name "Think Weekly." There is no indication of the original publication date of that periodical. The Bureau initiated a security investigation of "Think Weekly" and Conde McGinley in August, 1946, on the basis of information received from [redacted] of [redacted] (at present a Confidential National Defense Informant, furnishing the Bureau information concerning activities of Conde McGinley and "Common Sense.") who stated that "Think Weekly" was a Fascist newspaper serving under the guise of being anti-Communist. Investigation at that time failed to reflect that the paper was Fascist although it was strongly anti-Communist. The investigation was closed in October, 1946, but Confidential Informant [redacted] has furnished information concerning the publication "Think Weekly" now known as "Common Sense" since that time.

It is noted that a number of complaints have been received at the Bureau concerning "Common Sense" during the past two years with particular attention being called to its anti-Semitic attitude. (105-9621)

BACKGROUND AND ACTIVITIES OF
CONDE MCGINLEY

Conde McGinley was born on October 13, 1890, at Norman, Oklahoma, of Irish-American parents. He resided in Oklahoma until 1930, at which time he moved with his family to Dallas, Texas. From Texas, he moved with his family to Belmar, New Jersey, where his wife operated numerous curb-service restaurants. (105-9621-3; 9-16748-8)

b7C

[REDACTED] Conde McGinley.
[REDACTED] Inasmuch as he obtained employment with "Union Register," a newspaper published in Union, New Jersey.

b7C

Conde McGinley and [REDACTED] came to the Bureau's attention in May, 1942, when [REDACTED] Sheriff, Monmouth, New Jersey, reported that [REDACTED] was making a donation of [REDACTED] to Camp Nordland, New Jersey and was active in the German American Bund.

The German American Bund has been cited by the Attorney General as a Fascist and subversive organization.

b7C

Investigation by the New Jersey State Police in January, 1944, failed to develop any information regarding McGinley or [REDACTED] association with the German American Bund or sympathy with the German cause. (9-16748-8)

the above mentioned informant

b2 b7D

In December, 1944, [REDACTED] advised that Conde McGinley was violently anti-Semitic, was a political agitator and has been known to state that he believed Hitler to be one of the greatest men on earth. Informant quoted McGinley as saying that Hitler had been sent by God to deliver the world from Jews and Communism. (105-9621-3)

b2 b7D

On subsequent interviews with [REDACTED] prior to January, 1949, he stated that McGinley's "reason for living" was to hate the Jews. He advised that "Common Sense," ~~was~~ formerly known as "Think Weekly," was primarily anti-Semitic and that McGinley's opinion that "all Communists are Jews" was the basis for the existence of this publication. McGinley reportedly achieved a fair publication for this paper and operated it on subscriptions and donations received from various individuals interested in fighting Communism. Informant advised that McGinley's fanaticism bordered on insanity. (9-16748-8)

McGinley was interviewed by Bureau Agents on January 18, 1949, as a victim in an extortion case. He advised the Agents that "the Justice Department is now an organization to protect the Communists. Four or five big Jews dictate policy to [REDACTED] The whole thing is politics." b7c

It is noted that McGinley had been the victim of two extortion investigations and has received threatening letters on numerous other occasions growing out of his anti-Semitic activity. (9-16748-11)

COOPERATION WITH NATIONALIST ACTION LEAGUE

✓ Conde McGinley, Editor of "Common Sense," was engaged in organizational activities of the Nationalist Action League, which has been cited by the Attorney General as a Fascist organization. An article appearing in the June 15, 1949, issue of "Common Sense" indicated that the Nationalist Action League officially joined forces with "Common Sense" on June 1, 1949, "in the inauguration of an all-out offensive against Marxism and its insidious front organizations in America." At the time of this merger the Nationalist Action League publication "National Progress" also merged with "CommonSense," edited by Conde McGinley. (105-11214-24)

PUBLISHING OF DATA CONCERNING
ANNA M. ROSENBERG

The November 1, 1950, publication of "Common Sense" was devoted exclusively to the position of "Common Sense" on the appointment of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense. -(126-486-43) "Common Sense" opposed the confirmation of that appointment. Volume 1, Number 1, of the paper "Know The Truth" published at New York on January 2, 1951, states that Benjamin Freedman who testified against Anna M. Rosenberg before the Senate Armed Services Committee during December, 1950, advanced the funds to cover the cost of printing and mailing 50,000 copies of the November 1, issue of "Common Sense." "Know The Truth" also points out that Freedman had advanced a small fortune to "Common Sense" since 1948 in order to increase its circulation because he was interested in "Common Sense" as one of the most aggressive publications fighting Communism. It is further stated that opposition to Anna M. Rosenberg was motivated exclusively by consideration of national security and was not weighted by any other consideration despite the cry of "anti-Semitism."

Subsequent attacks against Freedman prompted McGinley and Freedman to arrange for the publication of an issue of "Common Sense" giving the complete story of Freedman's participation in the "Anna M. Rosenberg affair." However, shortly after a few copies of this issue of "Common Sense" (No. 128) were distributed McGinley refused to allow the issue to be put out. Thereafter, according to "Know The Truth", Freedman decided to publish his story in the January 2, 1951, issue of "Know The Truth" which was published for that purpose. Details of Freedman's story appear in the copy of "Know The Truth" which is attached to the memorandum from Mr. S. J. Tracy to Mr. Tolson dated January 19, 1951, concerning "Anna M. Rosenberg", which memorandum accompanies this memorandum.

MISCELLANEOUS

For your additional information, it was observed during a review of the Bureau files that there have been numerous publications known as "Common Sense", in addition to the one described in this memorandum. Most of these publications were local periodicals printed by the Young Communist League, American Youth for Democracy and various individual Communist Party clubs.

found
There was also a monthly magazine published in New York City known as "Common Sense" which is referred to frequently in Bureau files between 1936 and 1945, which apparently had a liberal editorial policy. (62-40321)

OPEN LETTER TO CONGRESS

How To Stabilize And Restore The Confidence Of Our People And Respect Of The World How To Protect Christianity And Save Civilization

These things can still be done, but Congress must be practical. Congress must quickly learn who the enemy is and have the courage to speak up.

A person alarmed by his poor physical condition seeks the best medical authority, learns the worst, then takes immediate measures to cure the disease or have the malignancy removed. Congress must do the same for America if our Republic is to survive.

The writer, is informed on the all-important question known as "Communism," a Zionist-Marxist worldwide conspiracy. For eighteen years the writer has made an intensive study of the evil plan for abolishment of the United States and the enslavement of Christianity. For five years the writer has used his energy and every dollar he had to educate sufficient people in order to avert the crisis which was plainly coming. The great accomplishments of COMMON SENSE, always working with insufficient funds, are due to the combined efforts of informed associates who have closely cooperated with us.

For five years we have repeatedly told all listeners that the talk about Communism being "a terrible thing" would not save the world from Marxist slavery unless people at high levels, learned by whom Communism is backed, and then had the courage to take a stand, speaking the truth.

A deceptive campaign of "tolerance" (promoted by Marxists) has kept Christian people deluded while the International Yiddish conspiracy has rallied approximately one and one-half billion people against Christianity. Within two weeks an additional four million people may be turned against us.

During this crisis, when cool, informed leaders of courage are needed to steer America through the incredibly grave situation which now confronts us, we have in charge of our government men who do not understand the International revolutionists. Those men are confused and stumbling. They are men being guided to destruction by cunning, well-organized, anti-Christian Zionist revolutionists who have maneuvered themselves into the confidence of Christian leaders in order to make the United States part of a world government ruled by the Zionists after millions of Americans have been slaughtered as already millions of fellow Christians have been slaughtered in other sections of the world.

The writer is not confused and is not afraid because he understands the world wide conspiracy which is going on. The writer knew that when allied forces reached the Manchurian border Chinese troops, directed by their Zionist-Communist masters, were set and waiting. This knowledge was not due to any know-all of military tactics; instead it was believed through the writer's knowledge of the Marxist mind and plan. Even the illustrious general, MacArthur, is undermined through Zionists operating under the cloak of UN immunity.

In Korea we are not dealing with Chinese "Communists." What the world knows as "Chinese Communists" are only deceived puppets of World Marxism which is mainly financed and directed by Zionists in the United States. They are the same Zionists who throw elaborate dinners, and have Senators and Congressmen as speakers so as to prevent the elected representatives from learning who the real plotters are.

The editor of COMMON SENSE, with the cooperation of the most correctly informed people in the world, offers this solution to preserve our freedom: Congress should immediately arrange an open hearing and allow our associates to present evidence to support the following charges:

1. Zionism is set up and governed by Asiatic Yiddish.
2. Communism is a front for anti-Christian Zionism.
3. The United Nations was devised, and is operated today, by Zionists in the background.
4. The United World Federalist organization is a front for Zionism. In the group some Christians, wanting to be good Americans, are fronting for the Yiddish plotters.
5. Israel is a Yiddish-Zionist-Communist state and — in a showdown — will favor the U.S.S.R.

Yiddish Zionist Marxists have been maneuvered by the Zionists into positions as secretaries to the representatives of U. N., U. S. Senators, Federal Judges, War Department, Navy officials, the Federal Communications Control system, the State Department, and the White House (David Niles). These Yiddish Zionist Marxists have been trained from childhood to guide trusting Christian dupes and to secure confidential information from over the world to be used in destroying governments.

The government in Washington has, for the past 15 years, been governed by Zionists using unsuspecting Christian dupes to carry out the Zionist plan. A few, like the late Honorable James Forrestal, discovered they were being used to bring about the crisis we now find ourselves in, and rebelled. Forrestal was maneuvered into death, as were a number of others.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, during his late years, was a virtual slave to the Zionists as is President Truman today. Truman is being used to condition the United States for Communism as was Eduard Benes, president of Czechoslovakia, and Mr. Truman will be maneuvered into death — as was Eduard Benes — as soon as the Zionists are through with Truman.

The following so-called "Communist countries" are today ruled by Yiddish Zionists in the open:

HUNGARY
Matyss Rakoski (Rosenzweig) — Deputy Prime Minister (Zionist).
Peter Gabor (Beno Auspitz) — Chief of Political Police (Zionist).

Spanish Communists Cheer as Madrid Church, Which They Set on Fire, Goes Up In Flames

When the Communist revolution in Spain was set off in 1936 Soviet Ambassador, Zionist Moses Rosenberg immediately took charge. Communists burned 25,000 churches and religious institutions, massacred 400,000 civilians. One and half million people were killed before General Franco subdued the Marxists.

B. Baruch—Member of the U.N.O. Commission on Atomic Energy (Zionist).

Ernest A. Cross—Deputy Representative to U.N. (Zionist).

Insofar as Israel is concerned, here is the record! Col. Alfred C. Katzin—Representative of U.N. in Korea (Zionist).

ISRAEL

The following Zionists are of Asiatic Yiddish origin (Khazars). None of their ancestors ever set a foot in the Holy Land. Dr. Chaim Weizmann, First President, was BORN IN LITHUANIA.

David Ben Gurion, Prime Minister of Defense, Mordchai Bentov, Minister of Labor; Isaac Guernbaum, Minister of Interior; Itche Meier Levin, Minister; Moshe Shapira, Minister of Immigration

—ALL BORN IN POLAND. David Remez, Minister of Transportation and Communication; Aharon Zisling, Minister of Agriculture, Eliezer Kaplan, Minister of Finance, Moshe Shertok, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Rabbi Judah Leib, Fishman, Minister of Education and Religion — ALL BORN IN RUSSIA.

Two-thirds of the oil supply of the world is located within the 500 miles of Israel. The late Secretary of Defense, Forrestal, was afraid that in the event of war Israel would see to it that the Soviet Union secured this oil.

Communism all over the world, including the 1917 revolution in Russia, has been financed in the United States. In support of that statement, there can be no better reference than the following:

JACOB SCHIFF

The "Jewish Communal Register" of 1917-18, published by the "Kehillah (Jewish Community) of New York," 356 Second Avenue, N. Y. (p. 1019) praises Jacob Schiff, head of Kuhn Loeb and Co., for financing the Russian Red Revolution.

Is the COMMON SENSE group the only one which believes the foregoing to be facts?

No. Many thousands in the United States know that the things mentioned here are facts, and at least 70% of the population suspect them, think them, and quietly say so.

COMMON SENSE knows that all the charges of a world-wide Zionist-Marxist plot (popularly known as "Communism") can be proven by what the Yiddish Marxists themselves have said in their writings.

Yiddish Marxists, mainly through their organizations — Anti-Defamation League and American Jewish Congress — have, during the last five years, intimidated six printers and forced them to stop work for COMMON SENSE. This, despite the fact that, during the first three years of the publication of the paper, no mention was made of Jews. In all the five years of COMMON SENSE's determination to expose Communism ONLY THE YIDDISH HAVE FOUGHT US.

All other effective Anti-Communists have been fought only by the Yiddish who brand the Anti-Communists as "Anti-Semites."

We have reason to believe that we could get $100,000. — or more — to suspend publication. We will not sell, but we will turn COMMON SENSE over to the Yiddish-operated Daily Worker if the foregoing charges are not proven at a fair, open Congressional hearing.

It is time for a showdown if civilization is to endure...

Conde McGinley, Editor

Christ, Our Teacher Of Truth & Salvation

All human progress is based on teaching. To gain a better knowledge of the things concerning God than can be obtained by our natural mental equipment, we need a teacher who is in the full possession of this knowledge. For our own training as children of God, we need a teacher who is perfectly familiar with our nature, its capabilities and limitations, and with our God-ordained destination. For either, none is more perfectly qualified than Christ. Therefore St. Paul insists very emphatically that Christ be our teacher: "See to it that no one deceives you by philosophy and vain deceit, according to human traditions, according to the elements of the world and not according to Christ. For in him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead." Col. 2:8-9. Christ himself insists: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life." John 14:6.

HEBREW POET SAYS SOCIALISM IS "FRUIT OF JEWISH SPIRIT"

The following excerpts are from the July, 1933 issue of "Lines of Communication," a monthly publication described on its title page as "A Diocesan Magazine of the Anglican Church in Jerusalem, and Throughout the Holy Land, Trans Jordan, Syria, and Cyprus." "Editor, Archdeacon Steward, St. Georges Close, Jerusalem," which printed the address by Mr. N. H. Bialik, described as "the most famous of Hebrew poets." Bialik was also brother-in-law of Jan Garmalik, former citizen commissar of the Soviet Army. The speech itself was delivered at Hebrew University, Jerusalem, May 11, 1933.

Bialik said: "The argument is that Judaism, by penetrating among the Gentiles (in its Christian guise or otherwise) has gradually undermined the remnants of paganism. Such penetration has not been without deliberate conniving in the shape of assistance bestowed in a thousand ways, devices and disguises. It has been effected in great measure by crypto-Jews, who have permeated Christianity and spoken through the mouth of Christianity.

"By these devices, through Jewish will and through the power of their Jewish blood and owing to an instinct for 'requit' they have gradually induced Christianity to shed what was left in it of pagan elements; and it is they who, in principle are the creators of the Renaissance, of Liberalism, of Democracy, of Socialism, and of Communism.

"All this achievement has come about chiefly through unknown and anonymous Jews, Jews in secret, either crypto-Jews who mingled among Gentiles and nurtured great thinkers from among them; or through the influence of Jews who, in the great crisis of liberty and freedom, have stood behind the scenes; or through Jewish teachers and scholars from the times of the Middle Ages. It was the disciples of Jewish teachers who headed the Protestant movement."

*Editor's Note: Think of the swarm of students Felix Frankfurter taught in Harvard, then had F. D. R. appoint to key government positions).

The Great Design [A Master Plan For Supreme Power]

"The design is too complete, and too obvious, to be without designers. In the sequence of past events one may discern the framework of future developments. . . . The organic evolution of a definite plan; stupenduous in its conception and ruthless in its execution. . . ."

Norman Gordon, "Revelation Magazine, Dec., 1948.

"When you see different pieces of material separately constructed, but each so shaped that, together they form parts of a completed whole, you cannot avoid the conclusion that there is a central purpose guiding the seemingly independent efforts of the various workers."

Abraham Lincoln (abridged)

"You call us subverters, agitators, revolution mongers and all. It is the truth. But what is that besides the unquestionable historical conspiracy which we have carried out and which we have never denied because you have never had the courage to charge us with it; but of which the full record is extant for anybody to read."

"These dogs, these haters of Israel, have a keen nose. In truth, Jewish influence in Germany is powerful. It is impossible to ignore it. Marx was a Jew. His manner of thought was Jewish; and one of his forebears was a most distinguished Rabbi endowed with a powerful mind.

"The newspapers under Jewish control, obviously served as an auxiliary in all movements in favor of freedom. Not in vain have Jews been drawn toward Journalism. In their hands it became a weapon highly fitted to meet their needs.

"The Gentiles have at last realized this secret — that Judaism has gradually penetrated and permeated them like a drug. The Gentile nature is in revolt and is trying to organize the final battle. Paganism is minded to organize its last war against Judaism. And there is no doubt that this warfare is being waged specifically against Democracy, against Socialism. This is another world-wide warfare against the forces of Judaism. I venture to think that Socialism in its highest form is the fruit of the Jewish spirit, and the fruit of the world outlook of the prophets. It is they who were the first Socialists."

Tear That One World Banner Down!

OLIVER ALLSTORM

A ONE WORLD flag was flown today
By traitors to the U.S.A.
But bear in mind that flag's a sham
A wolf drest up just like a lamb;
At best 'tis but a mongrel rag,
That never can supplant our flag,

Tear it down! Tear it down;

Our Founding Fathers walk today
In spirit through the U.S.A.
They view with scorn and anxious eyes
The rag that darkens up our skies
And from their graves they shout and cry
That Mongrel flag must never fly—

Tear it down! Tear it down;

We hear the cry from Washington,
From Hamilton and Jefferson,
From old Ben Franklin, Putnam, Paine,
From Henry, Parker, Green and Wayne,
And all our Pilgrim fathers cry—
That foreign flag must never fly—

Tear it down! Tear it down;

From Yorktown, Trenton, Lexington,
We still can hear the farmers' gun.
From Concord, Valley Forge and still
From blood-red, snow-clad Bunker Hill.
And all our hills ring with the cry
That Mongrel flag must never fly

Tear it down! Tear it down;

Look to the "North Church," see the light
Still burning through the darkest night.
And there's a hero at our door
Still shouting as in days of yore.
Now listen and your heart can hear
The midnight cry of Paul Revere,

Tear it down! Tear it down;

Think of those fighting "Minute Men"
Whose blood made red each snowy glen.
Think of our martyrs, brave and true,
And how they died for me and you.
There's Nathan Hale and Isaac Hayne
Who from their gallows, cry again.

Tear it down! Tear it down;

And hear the Liberty Bell ring out
From Independence Hall, men shout—
Their Declaration to be free
From entanglements beyond the sea.
Repeat their cry from town to town,
Leap up and tear that banner down,

Tear it down! Tear it down;

A land divided soon shall fall
Let this be known to one and all;
So wave OLD GLORY, it's our flag
And rip that Communistic rag!
Our Liberty's at stake, We cry—
That Mongrel flag must never fly—
Not in America's glowing sky!

Tear it down! Tear it down!

ANNA M. ROSENBERG WHITEWASH

Anna M. Rosenberg has been confirmed as Assistant Secretary of Defense, although the appointment met with heavy opposition from the American people in general. Many Americans exhausted every known constitutional means to stop another Zionist from slipping into the driver's seat of American government, but the Marxist New Deal government strategists obtained their objective by deception, trickery, and false publicity programs.

All of this was dictated and controlled by the same individuals who are responsible for the Chinese double-cross, Korean war, economic bankruptcy of the Country, and the general Communist policies put forth by the New Deal administration. The manner in which the visible government maneuvered Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg into the all-important position of Assistant Secretary of Defense was so devious that only a child would accept it without protest.

Keeping in mind that a thorough investigation proved that there were only eight Anna Rosenbergs in New York City, instead of the 40 claimed by Mrs. Rosenberg, there was only ONE Anna M. Rosenberg. This alone proves little, but when added to this the assertion by individuals in Washington that the real Anna M. Rosenberg was found in California, ALTHOUGH HER IDENTITY COULD NOT BE REVEALED, it becomes obvious that the Marxist New Deal administration will stop at nothing to take final control of the American people.

At no time in history has there been such a vital position at stake and the American people refused the truth. At no time in history has one person been given so much power with contempt for the views of the American people.

Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, a Hungarian born Zionist, who is now in charge of every man and woman in America, may not be a card-carrying Communist. Neither were Alger Hiss, William W. Remington, Harry Dexter White, John Service, John Abt, Phillip Jessup and Owen Lattimore. All of these were given a strong whitewash and denied vehemently the charges thrown at them. Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg used the same type of weak denial, but was heavily supported by New Dealers and Marxists.

MRS. ROSENBERG'S RECORD

Lets look into Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg's past and see if it is possible to give her a good bill of health.

She is, or was, on the Committee of the "New York State Committee For Equality in Education." This is a group of individuals who banded together to protest the use of the New Testament in public schools because the members claim it is an anti-Semitic book. Her associates in this organization are the following: ROGER BALDWIN, manager for Henry Wallace and member of the Marxist Front, "American Civil Liberties Union," Mrs. Joseph Berenson a top member of the anti-Christian B'nai B'rith, Bruce Bliven of the Marxist Front "New Republic," Irving Fekelman, "Free Sons of Israel," Joseph Lash, the Marxist Front "American For Democratic Action," Bishop G. Bromley Oxman, the Red Clergyman, Guy Emery Shipley, "The Churchman," Meyer Steinbock, Anti-Defamation League, Dr. Stephen S.

Wise, Marxist controlled "American Jewish Congress" and Joseph Zwilling, Communist Front "Progressive Citizens of America."

While all of the above named can be considered as leftists or Marxists, we comment on only two: Bishop G. Bromley Oxman, of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, is well-known as a Red-liner. He has held positions in the following Communist and Marxist-front organizations . . . American League Against War and Fascism, American Civil Liberties Union, Friends of Democracy, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Committee to Aid Spanish Democracy, and the National Refugee and Labor Foundation.

Joseph Lash, pet of Eleanor Roosevelt, in the words of Columnist John O'Donnell, is the perpetual leader of Pinko youth. He was President of the Communist Fronts American Youth Congress and Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign.

Just last week, in White Plains, New York, three rabbis caused the Superintendent of Education to issue a ban on Nativity festivities in schools there.

Such anti-Christian demands have been made by Zionists in many localities before. What may be expected as soon as the Rosenbergs take over?

SOCIAL WORK TODAY COMMUNIST FRONT

At the hearing of the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Anna M. Rosenberg testified Senator Cain evidently confused Anna M. Rosenberg, Anna M. Rosenberg volunteered the information that she does not recall having contributed an "article" to "Social Work Today." The "contribution" Anna M. Rosenberg had in mind was an "article" written by her. There is no reference in the report of the Un-American Activities Committee that an "article" was ever "contributed" to "Social Work Today" by Anna M. Rosenberg.

International Workers Order publicizes in its issues the numerous front organizations set up by the Communist Party; and then lists twenty-six fronts which include, "Social Work Today (1944, p. 29)."

On page 1788 of the Appendix-Part IX, of the report of the Un-American Activities Committee appears an exhibit from Social Work Today of Feb. 1942, pp. 51-54, which reads, "Social Work Today Cooperators—1941. These men and women have made it possible for Social Work Today to strengthen and prepare itself for the supreme test of today," and on page 1792 lists the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" under the "cooperators" in New York State.

On page 1782 of the same Appendix-Part IX, appears an exhibit from Social Work Today, Jan. 1941, pp. 16-18, which reads as follows: "Social Work Today Cooperators, 1940," and on page 1786 appears the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" as a cash "contributor" among the "New York City contributors." This sum is evidently the "contribution" which was mistaken for a written "article" by Mrs. Rosenberg.

On page 2636 of the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the Un-American Activities Committee Report on Communist-Front Organizations, the name of an "Anna M. Rosenberg" listed in that index is referred to in the following manner:

"Anna M. Rosenberg . . . 660, 939, 1786, 1792."

References to these pages show that an "Anna Rosenberg" signed a protest of the John Reed Club which was published in the New York Times, and that an "Anna M. Rosenberg" on three occasions had certain affiliations with the Consumers National Federation and Social Work Today. All four instances are referred to in the index under the name "Anna M. Rosenberg."

ANNA M. ROSENBERG AND RICHARD O. BOYER

Reference is made to Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg in the New Yorker Magazine of September 15, 1945. The writer of the article on page 20 in that issue states that he had an interview with Mrs. Rosenberg and that he, "learned that her office hired ten thousand people for the Manhattan District, or atom-bomb, project." The atom-bomb project was so top-secret that Mrs. Rosenberg is quoted by him as saying, "I never knew what it was all about myself."

The disclosures which have appeared in the newspapers recently indicate that Mrs. Rosenberg's office did not do such a good job in screening communists out of that project. If her office had been more successful then this country would not now be living in fear of an atom-bomb blitz at any moment by the Soviet Union. Better luck this time, if it is again just going to be a matter of luck.

In the April 23, 1938 issue of the New Yorker Magazine there is a "Profile" of Anna M. Rosenberg. This "Profile" of Anna M. Rosenberg covers the complete or the greater part of pages 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29. The author commences the "Profile" by announcing that he is an "admirer" of Mrs. Rosenberg and that he visited her offices with a stenographer in order to "preserve for posterity a likeness of this animated lady."

The name of the author of the "Profile" of Mrs. Rosenberg is printed at the end of the article. The author's name appears as "Richard O. Boyer." In the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee Report, on page 1826 there appears the name "Richard O. Boyer" and reference is made after his name to pages 744, 749, 1242, 1350, 1352, 1453, and 1459. If that is the same "Richard O. Boyer" who calls himself an "admirer" of Mrs. Rosenberg it would be interesting to learn if the "admiration" was mutual.

Richard O. Boyer makes many interesting statements about Mrs. Rosenberg in his "Profile" about her. In view of the interest of the public in the political affiliations and activities of Mrs. Rosenberg prior to her present appointment no harm can possibly come to Mrs. Rosenberg by printing a few quotations from the "Profile" written by an "admirer" and published by the New Yorker Magazine which can hardly be accused of being "anti-Semitic." The following are several quotations;

"A department-store owner may be reluctant to call Sidney Hillman but is not reluctant to call Anna Rosenberg, one of Hillman's best friends. A Democratic politician who campaigned for Mahoney may have a message for the American Labor Party, and Anna, who worked with the Party in the last campaign, is virtually always the channel."

ANNA M. ROSENBERG AND SIDNEY HILLMAN

In the Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX, of the House of Representatives Un-American Activities Committee Report, on page 1832, appears the name "Sidney Hillman," and after the name "Sidney Hillman" appear references to pages 261-264, 340, 349, 384, 461 f., 481, 672, f., 679, 683, 743, 764, 840 f., 982, 1193, 1199, 1202, 1204, 1209 f., 1212 f., 1215, 1280, 1304, 1372, 1494 f., 1497-1500, 1554, 1602, 1604, and 1624.

It appears from every public record that Anna M. Rosenberg actually acquired her great influence in the political world through her close friendship with Sidney Hillman. The late Sidney Hillman had great political power. Sidney "Clear-it-with-Sidney" Hillman is credited with having been responsible for the selection of Harry S. Truman as Vice-Presidential candidate in the 1944 elections. Sidney Hillman, according to biographies on his life, was born Schmuel Gilman in Lithuania, Russia and fled to the United States after he was sought by the Russian government for violent revolutionary activities. He is said to have been a leading member of the Bund, a Russian Marxist organization which Senator Benton's Encyclopedia Britannica describes as "the spearhead of the world-revolution." It is doubtful if this is a case of "mistaken identity." Is there another Sidney Hillman?

According to Mrs. Rosenberg's testimony before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950, Mrs. Rosenberg still retains ownership of about 43% in the labor-relations consultant organization in which until recently she has owned 66 2/3%, and in which she has been engaged nearly all her adult life. In her position as Assistant Secretary of Defense Mrs. Rosenberg has the sole dictatorial authority over distribution of workers among factories.

It will be up to Mrs. Rosenberg to decide what factories working on civilian production or on war materials shall be allocated workers. It does not seem proper to have a person who owns 43% in a business which advises upon labor problems sit in the position where she acts upon requests for workers from her own clients and from non-clients.

CONSUMERS NATIONAL FEDERATION COMMUNIST FRONT

On page 11 of the hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 when Anna M. Rosenberg testified, she denied that she had been a member of the Consumers National Federation. But there does not appear anywhere on any record claims Anna M. Rosenberg was ever charged with being a member of the Consumers National Federation. Membership in that organization involves a great many implications which are not pleasant!

Earl Browder, when he was a witness before the Special Committee on Un-American Activities in September 1939 identified the Consumers National Federation as a "transmission belt." A "transmission belt," according to the Un-American Activities Committee report, is "an organization through which the Communist Party extends its influence and ideology to groups which are broader than the party itself."

1. The Consumers National Federation was cited as a Communist Front (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 155).

2. "Created by the Communist Party and used for the purpose of spreading propaganda in schools and through woman's clubs. It was first known as the Emergency Council and was established as the Consumers National Federation, 1937." (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1943, p. 102.)

3. Cited as an organization "of Communist complexion." (New York City Council Committee Investigating the Municipal Civil Service Commission.)

JOHN REED CLUBS

Mrs. Rosenberg was called upon once before in her career to clear herself of the "mistaken identity" belief that she was the "Anna Rosenberg" who signed the John Reed Club protest. In the printed record of the hearings on November 29, 1950 before the Senate Armed Services Committee at which Mrs. Rosenberg testified she so stated herself. The following is from that record;

MRS. ROSENBERG. I did not know what the John Reed Clubs were, but I looked up the John Reed Clubs, and they were Communist clubs. I understand at one time, when I was up here with the Social Security Board, Congressman Engel of Michigan asked me if I knew that I had been cited by the Dies Committee to belong to some Communist club. I said I had never known, and I would appreciate if they would immediately show me the record. They showed me the record then, and it was these clubs. The person who was cited was an Anna Rosenberg, not Anna M. Rosenberg, and the Dies committee report said that anyone who belongs to these clubs must be a writer. It was another Anna Rosenberg."

The Cumulative Index to All Sections of Appendix IX of the Un-American Activities Committee Report, on Page 2151, lists, the various John Reed Clubs which indicate the nature and extent of this extensive communist apparatus;

John Reed Club 207, 408, 569,
580 f., 731, 916, 939, 967, 972, 973,

A secret foreign influence is being exerted over the press and radio in the United States today. It is aiding and abetting the enemies of the nation. It has also infiltrated into the government. These enemies of the United States are the international Marxists (communists). The international Marxists (communists) are dedicating their lives and their resources to bring about the surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union. They appear to be on the way to success.

Counterfeit Americans and other agents of the Soviet Union in the United States feel very secure after what has occurred in the Anna M. Rosenberg affair. They have witnessed loyal patriots mercilessly smeared in the press and over the radio only because they had the courage to call the attention of their government in a most proper manner to certain facts and clues with a possible bearing upon the security of the nation. To have done less would have been treason.

After what has happened to these loyal patriots it requires a great deal of optimism to expect any sane American to volunteer to come to the aid of his country in the same way they did. Supreme success in silencing loyal patriots is a great victory for the Soviet Union in their undeclared war against the United States.

The American people have been miserably misled on the question of "anti-Semitism." The Marxists (communists) who allegedly profess Judaism as their religious belief have no legitimate right to identify themselves before the world as "Jews." They form only a fraction of the Jewish population of the world. It is as fraudulent as though Mussolini and the Italian Fascists identified themselves before the world as "Catholics" because they allegedly professed Catholicism as their religious belief. Likewise it would be just as fraudulent if Hitler and the Nazis had identified themselves before the world as "Protestants" because they allegedly professed Protestantism as their religious belief. This question is fully explained in the COMMON SENSE issue No. 125 which will be sent free of charge to anyone upon request for a copy. Religious belief should not be confused with racial or national origin. The myth of the "Jewish race" has been exploded. Every American should inform himself correctly on that question and the "anti-Semitism" issue will dissolve and disappear into the thin air forever.

The records of Anna M. Rosenberg's background vary considerably. It all depends where you make your search. In some instances the facts stated are very conflicting. In the printed record of the hearings of the Senate Armed Services Committee on November 29, 1950 before which Mrs. Rosenberg testified, the following appears in the record:

THE CHAIRMAN. Have you read in America ever since you came here with your mother sometime ago?

MRS. ROSENBERG. I have, with the exceptions of three times when I went to Europe; once on a commission for President Roosevelt, twice during the war; once for President Roosevelt, and once for President Truman, and for one month in France, 3 weeks in France; in England during May of last year.

MR. CHAIRMAN. Then you have been here all the time, except when you left on official trips in connection with your duties with the Government?

MRS. ROSENBERG. That is right.

MR. CHAIRMAN. Where were you educated?

MRS. ROSENBERG. In New York City.

The New York Times gives a slightly different version of this history. The illustrious S. J. Woolf interviewed Mrs. Rosenberg when she was sketched by him for an article which appeared in the New York Times Magazine Section. In the Sunday New York Times of March 21, 1935, in Section VII, on page 18, S. J. Woolf quotes Mrs. Rosenberg as having stated, "After the war I returned (to Europe) and continued my studies there for a short time. Then I came back here and looked for a job." At the time of the appointment when Mrs. Rosenberg was named Acting State Director of the National Emergency Council of the NRA (Blue Eagle) to succeed Nathan Strauss Jr. on September 15, 1935,

We believe that Ralph DeSola stated the truth in his affidavit regarding Anna M. Rosenbergs activities in the Communist organization John Reed Club. We believe the truthfulness of this statement just as we believed Whitaker Chambers when he exposed Alger Hiss and Evelyn Bentley when she exposed Remington and when Senator McCarthy exposed the Communists in the State Department.

When another Anna Rosenberg was conveniently found but not produced it left us unimpressed. We believe Ralph DeSola in spite of the New Deal White Wash.

DeSola has sent several communications to the Senate Armed Services Committee offering to take the lie-detector test if Anna M. Rosenberg would take it. DeSola states that if Alger Hiss had agreed to take the lie-detector test when Whitaker Chambers offered to take it much effort and expense could have been spared the government and the taxpayers. DeSola still asks to have both himself and Anna M. Rosenberg given the lie-detector test. Will she agree to it?

STATEMENT BY REPRESENTATIVE JOHN E. RANKIN ON THE FLOOR OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES DECEMBER 10, 1950

"If it had not been for the Un-American Activities Committee Alger Hiss probably would be Secretary of State. But to show how the line is being followed, Anna Rosenberg at little Yiddish woman from Hungary, will now become Assistant Secretary of Defense and will have more power over the American people than was ever exercised by any American President. God save America.

QUEBEC CLOSES JEWISH CENTER

Quebec Attorney-General's Office has ordered the United Jewish People's Order center in Montreal padlocked for one year.

The provincial anti-subversive squad, assisted by Montreal police, also raided the Maurice Winchewsky Parochial School, and the home of Perel Silverberg, secretary of the UJPO, says the Canadian Press.

Deputy Director Hilaire Beauregard of the provincial police said, "An investigation revealed that for at least one year the center has been operated as the locale and general headquarters of lectures, soirees and secret meetings of Jewish Communists."

It will be remembered last October the disclosure was made that Communist indoctrination classes in Ontario were being conducted in the Morris Winchewsky Schools in Toronto.

When the babble of politicians confuses you, take heed of this—from the Protocols of Zion, No. 9—"It is from us that the all-engulfing terror proceeds. We have in our service persons of all opinions, restoring monarchists, demagogues, socialists, communists, and utopian dreamers of every kind. We have harassed them all to the task; each one of them on his own account is boring away at the last remnants of authority.

By these acts all States are in torture; they exhort to tranquillity, are ready to sacrifice everything for peace; but we will not give them peace until they openly acknowledge our international Super Government, and with submissiveness."

An Open Letter To The Pres.

Re: The Jewish Minority Machine

Dear President Truman:

A careful study of Jewish history proves that the methods used by Jewish world leaders in the creation of Soviet Russia and in the destruction of the German and British Empires, is too fantastic to be understood by the casual reader. But since we now face the probability of an Atomic War with Soviet Russia and since our government is now dominated by this Jewish World Minority Machine, at last the American people must face facts.

Certainly, Mr. President, you cannot be blamed for this condition, since former leaders and the vast majority of our people have been deliberately deceived by the Marxist Minority Machine.

The record shows that the Jewish world leaders created just such a condition during the early Christian era, which caused the downfall of Jerusalem and the Roman Empire.

In his suppressed book, The Jews and Their Lies, and in other works, Martin Luther described the causes of the Holy Wars, which were similar to those faced by Jesus of Nazareth, the founder of Christianity. The Jews lost their civil rights and were confined to the ghettos and were expelled by the Catholics from Spain and Portugal because of their international religious and racial intrigue. Jews still celebrate their ancient "fifth column" victories in their religious holy days. Jesus said of the Jewish leaders "Ye are of your father the devil . . . he was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in the truth . . ." This is the history of the Jewish cult.

Such historical facts caused Benjamin Franklin to propose that Jews and the Jewish cult be barred from the United States by our constitution. He said:

"Jews are Asiatics, are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this constitution."

In his books, The International Jew—The World's Foremost Problem, the late Henry Ford proved how Benedict Arnold was a victim of Jewish bribery by the International Bankers. He also proved that August P. Belmont and Juda P. Benjamin were Rothschild agents, who operated in both the North and the South in the attempt to divide the Union. Through newspaper intrigue, such men as John Brown and Jefferson Davis were used as "Gentile fronts" by Belmont and Benjamin and their Jewish organizations in the North and South. During the Civil War, August P. Belmont became the first national chairman of the Democratic Party. The assassination of Lincoln was traced to Juda P. Benjamin, Secretary of State of the Southern Confederacy.

Authorities believe that most Jews are deceived by this one world "divide and conquer" program. However, ignorance does not excuse any Jew who finances this program nor does it excuse him for financing this mis-named "Anti-Defamation League" which was organized to smear and defame those who attempt to expose the Marxist World Program.

The approaching Atomic War and the B'nai B'rith control of the world news services may prevent our proving to the public how such Jewish Marxist leaders as August P. Belmont, Samuel Gompers, Sidney Hillman, Paul Warburg, Felix Frankfurter and others came to America to set up "Gentile fronts" and powerful political organizations for the purpose of dominating and by-passing the duly constituted authority of the Congress, the Presidency and the Supreme Court.

But, Mr. President, if civilization is to survive, you must "stall off" the present crop of Marxist War Makers until our people "get wise" to the plans of the Zionist leaders.

Sincerely,

F. C. SAMMONS

TO OUR READERS

COMMON SENSE was started five years ago for the sole purpose of exposing the Marxist program to abolish the United States and set up a Zionist-Communist government as has been done in Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Eastern Germany and China.

COMMON SENSE is for the UNITY of ALL pro-American forces and individuals, and Marxist strategy is not going to cause us to take part in fighting anyone who has demonstrated that he is on our side even though he has made one serious mistake. WE MUST ALWAYS BEAR IN MIND THAT THE ZIONISTS LIKE TO SET ONE CHRISTIAN AGAINST ANOTHER SO AS TO RENDER THEM EASY TO TAKE OVER. NO MATTER WHAT HAPPENS WE MUST STICK TOGETHER ONE WAY OR ANOTHER. EVEN THOUGH IT IS ONLY BY THOUGHT ALONE THE WELFARE OF THE CAUSE IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THE FACT THAT ONE PERSON IS BRANDED ANTI-SEMITIC.

At the end of the first year of the publication of COMMON SENSE the editor's funds were exhausted; the last four years the work has been badly handicapped for funds. COMMON SENSE has functioned and grew in circulation with the help of small contributions only. A few issues were partly financed by one individual; however not one dollar from these issues went into maintaining the paper.

At this critical time ALL OF US should devote every hour to exposing the deceptive Marxist forces inside the United States who are aiding and directing the Communist forces outside the United States that has already caused so many casualties among our boys. Our manhood is fighting 5000 miles from home, in severe cold, against an enemy that outnumber them 30 to 1, while Zionists and their dupes in high places in Washington conspire with the foreign enemy.

Three Hundred Thousand trained Chinese soldiers want to help our American boys fight the Communists, but the Zionist trickery in Washington prevents it. Result: more of our boys are killed or freeze to death. This is the all-important problem before America at this time.

The Editor

ARE WE ANTI-SEMITIC?

The other day a party thought they were hurting our feelings by calling us anti-Semitic—NOT AT ALL.

We are proud to be called anti-Semitic because that is the brand the Marxists put on every one who energetically opposes Communism. Jesus Christ today is branded as the original anti-Semite as well as all his followers.

ALL FOLLOWERS OF JESUS CHRIST ARE ANTI-SEMITIC

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century, Jesus became the symbol of anti-Semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."

Joseph Dunner, A Zionist in "The Republic of Israel." Page 10 Published Oct., 1950

We have been called "Red-baiters"—we are proud of that also. However, we know that people who use anti-Semitic attacks know nothing of what they are saying and are only repeating what the Communists coined. The term anti-Semitic was coined by the Marxists for the purpose of giving a bad name to Anti-Communists and discourage patriots from learning just who is responsible for Communism.

We are opposed to the people who originated and direct Marxism in the World and who label themselves Jews. These people are not Jews. THEY ARE YIDDISH ASIATICS WHO ADOPTED THE HEBREW ALPHABET IN THE SEVENTH CENTURY AND WHO ARE RELATED TO THE MARXISTS NOW DIRECTING THE SLAUGHTER OF OUR BOYS IN KOREA. The reason why they have been so successful in their revolutionary plans to conquer the world is because they work behind the smoke screen of the anti-Semitic smear campaign. The truth of the matter is that the only Semites in the world are the Egyptians and Arabs who we have great admiration for.

There is no Jewish race. 85% of the people in the U.S. who call themselves Jewish are Yiddish Mongolians of Asiatic origin.

AMERICA IN ALIEN HANDS

by
Marilyn R. Allen

America, as some of us American used to know her, is gone, sold out; she will never be the same again in our lifetimes. The administration of government, our schools and universities, labor unions, our courts, our religious institutions—ALL avenues of life, have been permeated and infiltrated by ALIEN IDEOLOGY (usually called "Liberal"). Most of our governmental functions are taken over by blockheads, greedy politicians, or out-right Marxists. The ALIEN MARXISTS have taken us over, lock, stock and barrel; which is pretty much what our people deserve, since they will not stand up and fight. Our newspapers and other publications have been intimidated, bought off, and silenced—WHEN THEY SHOULD BE PROCLAIMING TRUTH FROM THE HOUSETOPS. Courage and truthfulness in public life is conspicuous by its absence. Without their even being aware of it, the worse psychology and mentality of our people has been changed for the worse, by alien ideology. We have supinely accepted alien concepts and an alien flag. The U.S.A. suffers from the cancer of Marxists internationalism; her heart has been eaten out by it. There seem to be none who will rise up and save America.

Therefore, AMERICA will experience, on her own soil, all those horrors which our people have casually read about in the newspapers, as having been perpetrated in OTHER lands. But they would not heed the faint voice of the AMERICA FIRSTERS, who cried out in the wilderness, in an effort to SAVE THEM. The day of the SOWING of all these evil tares among us, is about done: COMES NOW THE HARVEST—THAT GREAT AND DREADFUL DAY OF THE LORD, when He Who is Faithful and True comes to "judge and to MAKE WAR." (Revelation 19:11). "Each man according to his works." Have YOU done "any works" to save America and Christian civilization? NO? Then prepare to reap your just reward. Let me warn you that the "Government" (meaning the ADMINISTRATION) will not save you—for the simple reason that it is the Administration itself which has been taken over by ALIENS who betray you. It is they who have engineered and brought about America's downfall. Some of us have long warned you who these people are; but, in your simple-minded ignorance and prejudice (against US, instead of against your enemies), you would not heed. NOW THEY HAVE YOU THOROUGHLY IN THEIR POWER, and you shall not escape, without the direst suffering. True, America will one day—in the distant future—be redeemed from her enemies, but most of you will not be here to see that day.

In his column of November 12, 1950, titled, "U.S. Seen Nearing War III," Constantine Brown says, "We are in a full-fledged war in Asia . . . Criticism of the unbelievable stupidity (treason) of the Western governments in their relations with the Moscow conspirators is useless . . . the western nations are coming out second best . . . The intervention of the Chinese Communists should not have been unexpected . . . General MacArthur warned about them in repeated reports." — With all due respect to Mr. Brown, we are NOT "nearing W.W. III." WE ARE ALREADY IN IT: it will continue growing in horror and intensity UNTIL Armageddon.

Common Sense is a non-profit, non-sectarian, non-political enterprise engaged exclusively in the task of informing the American people of the dangers which threaten our Republic and the established institutions of our kind of civilization.

TO WIN YOUR FIGHT FOR YOU WE NEED VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS FROM PUBLIC SPIRITED FRIENDS

There are actually TWO things you can do now: prepare as best you know how, individually, to meet the quick-coming STORM; pray with all your soul for America and for those who love her.

IF our people's eyes had not been holden: IF we had great leaders who would rise up and openly name and fight our ENEMY: IF our 'false shepherds' had been TRUE TO CHRIST (instead of to HIS enemy): IF we had had a FREE Press that dared to be true to CHRISTIAN AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL PRINCIPLES: THEN we might have SAVED our Country, instead of SCUTTLING her. Listen to what the Lord has said to the women:

"Rise up, ye women that are at ease: hear my voice, ye careless daughters. Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women . . . Tremble, ye women that are at ease! be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and bind sackcloth upon your loins." (Isaiah, 32: 9-11).

Read these passages and learn for yourselves what is to come upon you: you, the many women, who have 'taken your ease' while tens of thousands of our finest youth have been slaughtered on FOREIGN battlefields—always leaving AMERICA worse off than before.

The die is now cast: the pattern is set: even the work of WARNING THE PEOPLE IS ABOUT DONE. Prepare, 'ye who are at ease' to TAKE UP A LIFE OF RIGORS AND HARDSHIPS OF WHICH YOU HAVE NEVER EVEN REMITELY DREAMED! And THEN do not cry out that you were not amply warned of 'things to come!'

WHO IS LOUIS LITTLE?

The average gullible American would answer this question by shrugging his shoulders and saying, "we know, he is counsel to Congressional committees." But let's see who he really is. A suit for damages was instituted against a publisher in New York, Morris Ernst, attorney for Walter Winchell and counsel for the Communist-aiding American Civil Liberties Union, which helped to defend the eleven convicted Communist leaders, represented the publisher. When a settlement was reached one provision was that, because of its vicious libel, the book would be withdrawn from circulation. The attorney representing Morris Ernst in the negotiations was LOUIS LITTLE.

When Communist John Spivak appeared in court on a criminal charge his lawyer was LOUIS LITTLE.

One of the principle supporters of the Anti-Defamation League, Inc., in Pittsburgh is Edgar Kaufman, until recently owner of the leading department store, who is reputed to have provided bail for Spivak through the ADL agent, Dr. Marsden, a refugee and crony of LOUIS LITTLE.

Another member and major supporter of the Anti-Defamation League Inc., is Kaufman's son-in-law, Irwin Wolf.

Today Irwin Wolf is a power in the Democratic Party in Pittsburgh and Washington, D.C. One of his political henchmen is Frank Buchanan, Chairman of the House Committee to investigate lobbying.

Also a political protegee is LOUIS LITTLE, Chief Counsel of the Committee. Mr. Little was so eager to secure appointment to this key post on the Committee that he at first offered to serve without salary, his expenses to be paid presumably by the Kaufman group. On second thought, Buchanan thought that this would be too much of a give-away and Little was placed on the payroll.

(Excerpts from "IT ISN'T SAFE TO BE AN AMERICAN," by Joseph Kamp. Book may be purchased from Common Sense for 50 cents.)

NOTE SENATORS AND CONGRESSMEN. It is assumed that Louis Little is a student of the Jewish bible, the Talmud. It teaches that each Jew will have 2800 Gentile slaves when they secure world control.

Go to the Congressional Library and read it in the Sonecino edition of the Babylonian Talmud, printed in England in 1935 and verify this statement and hundreds of other diabolical statements like it.

We do not know Louis Little's right name, however, he admitted in a conversation some time ago that he belonged to the B'nai B'rith and that he was a Jewish American. In other words he is a Yiddish Zionist. Three men working under Little stated that they thought he was an Italian.

EVERY AMERICAN SHOULD WRITE HIS CONGRESSMAN AND DEMAND THAT LOUIS LITTLE BE IMMEDIATELY DISCHARGED FROM CONGRESSIONAL AFFAIRS.

ZIONISTS RULE DEFENSE IN WORLD AND U.S.

How does it happen that Zionists, a minority group, occupy the top government positions in the Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania, and the Ukraine? How does it happen that Zionists control England's "Labor government" and hold key spots in France?

How does it happen that Zionists control the defense systems of these countries at this time when Marxists are taking over the world?

Write COMMON SENSE for a list of the names of the Zionist rulers.

In the United States, Marx Leva and Anna M. Rosenberg are Assistant Secretaries of Defense under the aged General Marshall, who has yet to remember where he was when the attack was made on Pearl Harbor. Marshall spent 13 months as ambassador to China, forcing Communism on Chiang Kai Chek.

The public has learned how difficult it is to prove Communist affiliations of an important person. The cases of Alger Hiss, Owen Lattimore and William W. Remington, State Department employees, give evidence of this. It is even more difficult in the Rosenberg case, for she is a Zionist.

All that is necessary to prove that Zionists like Herbert Lehman, David Niles, Felix Frankfurter, Marx Leva and Anna M. Rosenberg should not be in government positions is to have an open hearing on Zionism.

Insofar as Anna M. Rosenberg is concerned, has she ever condemned the Zionists for taking over her native Hungary? Has she condemned the trial, persecution and punishment of Cardinal Mindszenty by the Hungarian Zionist Gerson and other Zionists? Has she condemned Communist aggression and persecution over the world?

Has she opposed Marxism?

Will she condemn these Marxist moves now?

Will she deny that she is anti-Christian?

Should a Marxist Zionist of her kind be in charge of America's manpower?

How did the Communists get our atomic bomb secrets? Three of the five members of the Atomic Energy Committee were Zionists.

ZIONISM CONDEMNED

Fides, the organ of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith published at the Vatican, has denounced Zionism in which the future of Christian interests is condemned.

"Whether spiritually inspired in a 2,000 years' old revenge against Christianity, or whether atheistic or materialistic," the Vatican paper stated, "Zionism—the herald of Communism in the Middle East—will not tolerate in any form the Doctrine of Christ in its land. A feverish nationalism, illumined by the conviction of an extraordinary mission of the Jewish people and sustained by financial means which are immense in relation to Israel's size, has forced through its independence and its recognition by other countries, and before long will achieve its recognition by the United Nations."

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE GEORGE C. MARSHALL AND ANNA M. ROSENBERG

The New York Times printed an article which establishes the interest of Mrs. Rosenberg in the communist John Reed Clubs. The New York Times gave considerable prominence to a public protest by the John Reed Clubs and Mrs. Rosenberg was one of the signers of this protest. The New York Times article bore the signatures of the signers of the protest and these included the signature of Mrs. Rosenberg. The article is reproduced in the following pages and it makes very interesting reading under the circumstances.

The John Reed Clubs were communist groups. The report of the Un-American Activities Committee on the John Reed Clubs is reproduced in the following pages of this issue. It is the duty of every loyal American to acquaint himself with the contents of that report. Any person guilty of any relationship with the John Reed Clubs is not a person to hold the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense. Association with the people who were members of the John Reed Clubs is enough to disqualify anyone from holding a position of high trust in the Department of Defense under the circumstances which now exist. Mrs. Rosenberg is cited in that report.

Mrs. Rosenberg is also cited by name in Appendix IX, page 660, 939, 1782 and 1792 of the Report of the Un-American Activities Committee. In these citations reference is made to Mrs. Rosenberg's interest in a communist "front" and in a communist "transmission belt." Space will not permit reprinting in this issue the details of these additional citations. It would appear unnecessary at this time.

The appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense was not the free and willing act of the authorities who are qualified and competent to make the choice of the person to fill that office. The appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg is the result of pressure by representatives of an international group which is conducting its creeping conquest of the United States by the same methods they employed so successfully in the complete conquest of Russia, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Rumania and other lesser nations and the partial

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY lists Anna M. Rosenberg as a "government executive." AMERICAN WOMEN lists her as a "government official." WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA lists Anna M. Rosenberg in business privately as "since 1921 a Public Labor and Personnel Relations Counsel." It is obvious that her numerous public offices proved of great value to her particular type of private business enterprise. Anna M. Rosenberg, born Lederer, was born June 19, 1901 in Budapest, Hungary, and received her education in the grammar schools (gymnasiums) there. WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY states that she "came to New York City in 1914" while WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA states that she was "brought to the United States in 1912," where she attended Wadleigh High School in New York City. It appears that Anna M. Rosenberg became a naturalized citizen through her marriage in 1919 to Julius Rosenberg, an American citizen engaged in the rug business. According to her own WHO'S WHO she first entered public life as the chief-in-charge of the Recreation Center at the Debartholm Hospital, 314th Avenue & 18th Street, New York City, during World War I. This was a great responsibility to "throw" upon a 17-year-old immigrant girl. With the advent of another Democratic Administration she again entered public life on a merit basis. Her government affiliations included the following: Director, Region No. 2, and New York State Committee Director, National Recovery Administration (NRA), 1931-1932; Director, Region No. 2 Social Security Board (SSB), 1935-1937; Member, Governor's Constitutional Convention Commission since 1937; Chairman sub-committee on Bill of Rights and General Welfare, New York State Constitutional Convention 1952; Member of Commission appointed by President Roosevelt to study industrial conditions in Great Britain and Sweden, 1938; Member Laguardia's New York City Industrial Relations Board 1937; Member Mayor's Transit Advisory Board; Member Executive Committee Mayor's Business Advisory Commission of New York City; Member Advisory Committee on Policy, Office Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs; Regional Director, War Manpower Commission 1942-1945; Consultant, Retraining and Reemployment Administration, 1941-1942; Personal representative of President Roosevelt (1944) and President Truman (1945) to European Theater of War to report on problems of returning soldiers; Member, American Commission for UNESCO (Roosevelt's baby); Member, Advisory Committee on Convulsory Military Training; Member, Film Council of America; Member, War Mobilization and Reconstruction Board; Treasurer and Chairman Executive Committee, New York Defense Recreation Commission; 1941-1942; Consultant on Manpower Problems to Chairman National Security Resources Board; Member, Technical Advisory Council, National Planning Association; Appointed by President Roosevelt to a top position in the Office of Civilian Defense with Henry Minsky, President of West Fifth and ex-Ambassador William Bullitt; Member, Federal Advisory Council, Unemployment Security; Member, Executive Committee, United Nations Service; Member, Committee for Mental Hygiene, American Society for Public Administration; Executive Assistant for New York National Emergency Council, Philanthropic interests; National Council of Jewish Women; Executive Director, Women's Division, United Palestine Appeal; GRT Reconstruction Fund; Executive Director, Joint Distribution Committee of Jewish Charities, Scheduled speaker at (Socialist) Camp Tamiar, (New York Post, June 4, 1947).

gram of the Kharkov conference of revolutionary writers. It should keep closer contact with the life and everyday struggles of the working class, giving more attention to the development of proletarian literature, to the development of new worker writers and artists, as well as to winning over the radicalized intellectuals. It should become a real force in the struggle for racial equality, especially for the Negro masses, and give greater effort to exposing social-fascism and petty bourgeois tendencies to fight against imperialist war and the defense of the Soviet Union."

"The members of the John Reed Club carry on a campaign denouncing attacks on communists, which they call 'red baiting.' On May 19, 1930, the following individuals issued a signed statement in the New York Times in protest of what they called the 'red scare.'"

"Some of the above are in the New Deal Administration. Many are members of the American Civil Liberties Union and the Committee for Industrial Organization (CIO)."

"In a letter addressed to the editors of Masses, a communist publication, Harry Allan Potamkin, founder and secretary of the John Reed Club, wrote the following (July 1930):"

"The John Reed Club has continued active on the workers' cultural front. The splendid May 1, parade from Rutgers Square to Union Square included not only cartoon-posters designed and made by the artists of the John Reed Club, but also a John Reed Club division, excellent work in support of the International Labor Defense campaign for class-war prisoners. The signatures of noted writers, artists, and educators were secured for the club's statement issued later to the press. The International Labor Defense has been further supported by the John Reed Club in an entertainment arranged by the club on May 14, with Gene Schachner as chairman. Enjo Rasabe directed and staged one act of Singing Jailbirds, with members and non-members participating. Gopper, Klein, Burck, entertained with satirical cartoons. An International Labor Defense benefit at Camp Nigdaiget was attended by Mike Gold, L. Adolmyan, J. Pass, and Jacob Burck.

"The John Reed Club cooperated with writers group, in the Freiheit's Moshe Nadir celebration which filled Carnegie Hall to overflow. Gopper's cartoons were well received. Edith Siegel led the Red Dancers. Adolph Wolff greeted Nadir for the club. The club joined in hailing the first Chinese Soviet Congress; and in the United Front Conference Against Lynching, called by the New York district of the Communist Party.

"Interest in the club's work is evinced by letters from the revolutionary groups in China and the Soviet Union, and even from remote and esthetic Hollywood. 'The members' exhibit of paintings, drawings, and sculpture still continues at the clubrooms.

"Club members continue speaking at workers' clubs. Walt Carman spoke on literature and revolution in America, Joshua Kunitz on Russian literature, both at the Hungarian Workers' Club. The workers summer camps will have a number of club members in their cultural work. The writers are preparing playlets for the workers vacationing in their camps.

"The cultural work will be furthered in a workers' film movement being organized, which will carry over to the United States of America a force now active in England, Denmark, and Germany. Beginnings are being made by members writing on films—especially for the New Masses and the Daily Worker; in members' activities in the making and editing of workers' films; in talks to workers' clubs; in cooperation with working class organizations like the Workers International Relief and the International Labor Defense; and in support of meritorious pictures such as that given by the club to the Vostok-Ikno's Turksib. The work will be correlated and integrated this coming fall, and a film group will be mobilized for the study of technique of picture-making and the education of the workers in the cinema as an ideological and artistic medium.

"Publishers are adding to their lists the works of club members. Charles Yale Harrison's 'Generals Die in Bed' has appeared in England, Canada, and is issued by William Morrow in New York. It will appear soon in Soviet Russia, Germany, and Japan. Michael Gold's children's story, 'Charlie Chaplin's Parade,' with illustrations by Otto Sogolow, is on Harcourt, Brace's list for the fall in drawings, film style, comes out this fall with Coward McCann.

"Many of the revolutionary writers and artists have emigrated for the summer to work on paintings for fall exhibitions and forthcoming books."

"In 1933 the John Reed Club in Boston held one of its regular meetings at which John Croll spoke against the National Recovery Administration. A proletariat dance followed. Books and pamphlets were collected from among the revolutionists for the Lawrence Workers' Circulating Library. The Little Red Stars, composed of Lawrence children of communist belief, sang rebel songs.

The national officers of the John Reed Club were:

Harry Allan Potamkin, William Siegel, Bill Sweeney (C.I.O.), Edward Groppe, Lester Green, Louis Green, Joseph Kunitz, Robert Flannery, and fifteen other names omitted to save space here.

The "John Reed Club" authors have been listed as follows:

A. Abramowitz, Miriam Clark, Sam Gasper, John Howard Lawton, Tully Levine, Maxwell Robinson, Melvin Leroy, Ben Field, Grace Lumbkin, John Day Passon, Muriel Roberts, Muriel Gelbart, M. Shostrom, and fifteen other names omitted to save space here.

"In addition to the publications previously mentioned, the John Reed Club issues the Onvil (Moberly, Mo.), Blast (New York City), Cauldron Grand Rapids, Mich.), Left Review (Philadelphia), Partisan Magazine (Hollywood, Calif.), and Partisan Review (New York City). International Literature is the international journal of the International Union of Revolutionary Writers, with which the John Reed Club is affiliated (J.R.C. Bulletin, May - April 1934, p. 12).

"The principal branches of the club are located in New York City; Chicago; Philadelphia; Hollywood Indianapolis; Detroit; Boston; St. Louis; Grand Rapids Milwaukee; Hartford, Conn.; Santa Fe; and Mead, Ark. (Commonwealth College). It is understood that the leading lights of the Chicago section are members of the Chicago Artists Equity.

"The Detroit branch operates a John Reed Club of Art with Bill Fanning as instructor. The New York branch also operates a John Reed School of Art with H. Glintenkamp, Louis Rebok, Louis Lozowski, William Groppe, Alfredo Grim, Reginald Marsh, Hildoe Neils, Robert Minor, Nicolai Chkovsky, Hugo Mordecia Gorelik, and Anton Rwfrequier as instructors. The Boston John Reed Club also operates a school of art, of which Arthur Esner is secretary. The school is located in Brookline Village.

"Orrick Jones, member of the club, painted the communistic murals on the courthouse at St. Louis which caused such a Works Progress Administration in the old furor. Many of the club's 'class-struggle' paintings have been exhibited in the Communistic museums in Russia.

"Edward Dahlberg, Kenneth Burke, Horace Gregory, and Joshua Kunitz are lecturers at the John Reed Club Writer's School in New York City.

"All of the John Reed Club leaders are engaged in revolutionary activities, either in propaganda or agitational and organizational work. Some of the leaders are:

Bill Sweeney, Max Axelrod, Morris Topchewsky, Mark Klein, Sam Gasper, Joseph Kunitz, A. Zimmerman, Morris Martin, Mitchell Shostrom, Jacob Friedland, Gertrude Fleichman, A. Harhoff, Ben Shostrom, Aaron Gottliebman, Meyer Shapiro, John Van Zandt, Scott Neuring, Norman MacLeod, Bill Browder and twenty-five other names omitted to save space here.

The following is a reprint of the article which appeared in the New York Times with appended signatures including that of Mrs. Rosenberg:

(Reprint from the New York Times, May 19, 1930)

"RED SCARE" PROTESTS ISSUED BY LIBERALS

100 Writers, Educators, and Artists Warn of Dangers in 'Hysteria' and 'Persecution'

SEE CIVIL RIGHTS AT STAKE

Statement says 1600 have been wrongfully arrested in 2 months —aid of press asked

"A protest against the imprisonment of men and women for expressing their political opinions, coupled with a warning that 'Red-baiting' is rapidly becoming a permanent condition, was voiced in a statement issued yesterday by the John Reed Club, 162 West Fourteenth street. The protest was signed by more than 100 writers, educators and artists.

"Those who endorsed the statement, which contained an appeal to the press to awaken the public to the dangers of such hysteria, included H. L. Mencken, Sherwood Anderson, Professor Franz Boaz, Carl Van Doren and John Sloan. In their declaration they maintained that the 'red scare' was sweeping the country and threatening the complete destruction of civil liberties.

SURVEY SHOWS MANY ARRESTS

"A survey by the club revealed that more than 1600 men and women have been imprisoned within the past two months in violation of their constitutional rights, according to the statement. Cases cited included those of W. Z. Foster and the other radicals to whom bail was denied after their arrest on misdemeanor charges in connection with the riot in Union Square on March 6, and the case of Carr and Powers arrested for distributing pamphlets demanding 'work or wages' at a meeting in Atlanta, Ga. They have been charged with 'inciting to insurrection' under a law passed soon after the Civil War and since inoperative, and face the death penalty if convicted under the charge, according to the statement which continues

"An Ohio court has actually sentenced two young girls to ten years in prison for distributing pamphlets. In California more than 900 unemployed were arrested for the crime of being out of work. In Chicago 137 are being tried for sedition for holding an indoor meeting to discuss unemployment. Milwaukee has jailed fifty-eight for participation in the March 6 unemployment demonstrations, and in the South workers are being sent to the chain-gang for organizing unions.

"To combat persecution for political opinion, concerted protest is necessary. The people of the United States must be awakened to the threatened complete destruction of their civil rights. The John Reed Club has instituted a campaign to spread information about this situation and to cooperate with the International Labor Defense, which is providing relief and legal aid to political prisoners."

conquest to date of China, England, France, Belgium, Italy and several South American countries.

The appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense of the United States in this critical hour was engineered by the representatives of an international group which is more interested in the surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union than in the defense of the United States against the military might of the Soviet Union. The appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense required audacity. Karl Marx impressed upon his followers that without audacity the world revolution could not succeed. Aggression is futile without audacity. The audacity required to pressure the Administration into appointing Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense confirms the source of the aggression behind this move.

It will be a great blow to the American people if the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg is confirmed by the Senate when it reconvenes in Washington on November 27th. This confirmation by the Senate will be another step in the wrong direction. It will be another means to the end which spells disaster for the American people. It will be another victory for the representatives of the international group which plans to obtain the same control over the United States in 1932 which they obtained over Russia in 1917. The confirmation of Mrs. Rosenberg by the Senate will offer great encouragement to accelerate the program for the transformation of the United States into another Marxist state.

It cannot be emphasized too strongly that opposition to the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is in no way influenced by the fact that Mrs. Rosenberg professes Judaism as her religious belief. That is the hue and cry which will be given forth abundantly by the high powered propaganda machines of the representatives of the international group seeking control of the Department of Defense of the United States. As usual, when they cannot deny charges they proceed to smear the persons making the charges. No American can or will object to the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense. And there are thousands of other Americans who profess Judaism as their religious belief who can also make ideal Assistant Secretaries of Defense. Opposition to Mrs. Rosenberg is based entirely upon her background exclusive of her religious affiliations. Equal opposition would be made against the appointment of anyone with the same background if such person professed Catholicism or Protestantism instead of Judaism as their religious belief. Discrimination against or in favor of any American for political office based upon religious affiliation is un-American, non-American, and anti-American.

As fully explained in the October 15, 1950 issue of COMMON SENSE, it is an historic fact, according to the JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA, that Marxism (communism) is the creation of the Judaic population of eastern Europe better known by the name of the Yiddish people. A copy of this special twelve page issue of October 15, 1950 will be sent free of charge upon request. It is incorrect to accept Yiddish and Jewish as synonyms. The words Yiddish and Jewish have exactly the same relationship to each other that Irish and Catholic, or Turkish and Islamic have to each other. It is incorrect to assume that reference to the Yiddish people is an expression of opinion regarding persons professing Judaism as their religious belief. It is a fact that Judaism is the religious belief of all the Yiddish people excepting those who have embraced Christianity or who are atheists. There are millions of Judaic Arabs, Judaic Chinese, Judaic Indians, Judaic Africans, Judaic British, Judaic Germans, Judaic French, Judaic Italians, Judaic Irish, Judaic Portuguese, and Judaic Spaniards who have nothing in common with the Judaic Yiddish people of the eastern European countries except their religious belief. Marxism (communism) was unknown to these other Judaic native populations until it was introduced there by the great immigration of the Yiddish people from Russia to all parts of the world after the assassination of Czar Alexander II in 1881 by Marxists (communists). This great immigration was accelerated by the existing tension between the Russian government and its Yiddish population. The Marxists (communists) had failed to assassinate the Czar on three previous occasions in their program to accomplish at that time what they finally succeeded in accomplishing by their revolution in 1917.

It cannot be said that all persons professing

Judaism as their religious belief are Marxists (communists). The large percentage of Marxists (communists) among the Yiddish people is due to the fact that conditions in eastern Europe gave Marxism (communism) an appeal which it did not hold out to Judaic populations in other parts of Europe and the rest of the world. The percentage of Marxists (communists) among the non-Yiddish Judaic populations is the inverse ratio of Marxists (communists) among the Yiddish Judaic populations for the reason stated. Because Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg was born in Hungary, the cradle of Marxism (communism) in the heart of the eastern European Yiddish population it does not follow that Mrs. Rosenberg is a Marxist (communist.) That assumption would be preposterous. The fact that she was reared in that atmosphere until about 14 years of age might have conditioned her mind making it susceptible and sensitive to the influences of her former countrymen and co-religionists. Opposition to the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is in no way related to the fact that she was born in Hungary and immigrated to this country at the age of 16. Immigrants have supplied this nation some of the nation's greatest servants and patriots.

In critical times like the present it is vital to our security that nothing inimical to the welfare of the American people be allowed to infiltrate into the Department of Defense. The tremendous power which will be invested by the laws of the land in the hands of Mrs. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense is little understood by the American people. Mrs. Rosenberg will have power almost as great as that exercised by a totalitarian dictator. Sidney Fields writing in the New York Mirror of November 15, 1950 describes this power as follows:

"Tomorrow Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg assumes her duties as Assistant Secretary of Defense IN CHARGE OF THE NATION'S MANPOWER, a job which makes her BOSS OF EVERY WORKING MAN AND WOMAN IN THE COUNTRY. . . There are about 115 different government agencies and departments CONCERNED WITH MANPOWER." (Sidney Fields then goes on to quote Mrs. Rosenberg as saying), "Today we are in FOR A LONG PULL. . . No, I wouldn't dare estimate how long. NOBODY WOULD BELIEVE ME. But it's going to last A GOOD MANY YEARS."

Drew Pearson was recently appointed Chairman of the United Jewish Appeal and his name appears on their full-page newspaper appeals for funds. Contributions can be made through Drew Pearson by mailing the contribution to David Karr, c/o William Weintraub Advertising Agency, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City. In this capacity Drew Pearson collaborates with Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg who is also active in the fund-raising campaigns of United Jewish Appeal. Before becoming associated with Mrs. Rosenberg in this work Drew Pearson spoke his mind more freely about Mrs. Rosenberg. In his "Washington Merry-go-round" column of April 28, 1942, Drew Pearson had this to say about Mrs. Rosenberg:

"Anna Rosenberg, Washington's female Felix Frankfurter, would not be averse to getting the job of Miss LeHand, private secretary to the President. She has had her finger in all sorts of pies lately—from guiding Nelson Rockefeller's show to picking Paul McNutt as manpower administrator."

Drew Pearson now sings a different song about Mrs. Rosenberg for a very obvious reason. In his "Washington Merry-go-round" of November 18, 1950 Drew Pearson refers to Mrs. Rosenberg as follows:

"LADY JUSTICE"

"Admirers of Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, first woman ever to be Assistant Secretary of Defense, have another promotion in mind for her—to the Supreme Court."

"Mrs. India Edwards of the Democratic National Committee, who put so many women in office, has this in mind."

"Mrs. Rosenberg was recommended by Secretary Marshall's close friend, General Bedell Smith, chief of Central Intelligence, very important in the set-up."

"Mrs. Edwards not only wants a woman appointed to the Supreme Court, but opposes Attorney-General McGrath elevated to it. She thinks he loafed on his job."

In WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN JEWRY (Vol. 3-1938-1939), page 874, in her biographical sketch of herself, Mrs. Rosenberg states that she received her education in the gymnasium in Budapest and in high-school in New York City. There is no mention that Mrs. Rosenberg received an education in law. Mrs. Rosenberg was named Acting State Director of the National Emergency Council of the NRA, to succeed Nathan Strauss Jr. on September 15, 1934. She was named Director on November 19, 1934. At the time of her appointment as Acting Director, the New York Times stated,

"Mrs. Rosenberg . . . is a graduate of Wadleigh High School in this city. She finished her education IN EUROPE. There she made a SPECIAL STUDY OF ECONOMICS AND LEARNED TO SPEAK SEVERAL LANGUAGES FLUENTLY."

Drew Pearson should investigate the qualifications necessary for appointment to a seat upon the United States Supreme Court bench and REPORT THEM TO MRS. INDIA EDWARDS.

The following is a reprint of the Report of the Un-American Activities Committee on the John Reed Clubs in which Mrs. Rosenberg is cited:

THE JOHN REED CLUB

(National headquarters: 430 6th Ave., N.Y.C.)

"The John Reed Club is a revolutionary organization composed of artists and writers in the United States. It was organized by Communists in memory of the American bolshevik, John Reed, who was deported to Russia and died there. His remains were placed besides those of Lenin in Moscow."

"This club affiliated with the International Union of Revolutionary Theatres, and is a section of the International Union of Revolutionary Writers. It has sections in all our principal cities. The New York branch was organized in November 1929. It is said to have 32 branches in New York City. Several publications are issued by the various sections. These include New Force, Left Front, and Leftward. Joseph Pass was, and possibly is yet the secretary of the press committee of the John Reed Club."

"The club cooperates in all Communist agitational and propaganda activities, including agitation against investigations, arrest of Communists, and the proposed enactment of anti-communist legislation. It sponsored the emergency committee for Southern Political Prisoners in 1930, of which Theodore Dreiser and Prof. John dos Passos, of Columbia University, were chairman and treasurer, respectively. On this committee were Sherwood Anderson, Waldo Frank, Alfred Kreymborg, Van Doren, and Edmund Wilson."

"The John Reed Club holds mass meetings each year on the anniversary of Reed's death. It calls itself the 'workers' cultural front,' although no workers are members of it. It cooperates with the Proletarian, Jewish proletarian writers group. The late Harry Alton Potamkin was its founder and secretary. Many 'red' plays have been written by its members."

"The John Reed Club of Art, located at 430 Sixth Avenue, New York City, not only instructs its members in revolutionary art, but also in revolutionary dance and song. Many Communist Party leaders lecture at the school. This school, with the aid of the local sections of the club, turns out most of the agitational signs and floats for Communist parades and demonstrations. The club's center in Chicago is located at 505 South State Street."

"The members of the club receive a great deal of publicity, and, as a result, the public considers them great artists, great musicians, great writers, and great playwrights. This gains them a wider following than merely that provided from the inside ranks of communism. The following item, with regard to the John Reed Club, appeared in the Daily Worker (official organ of the Communist Party), February 21, 1951, page 6:

"The club, in a little over a year of its existence, has done good work in the revolutionary movement, conducting campaign against the anti-Soviet 'holy' crusade, cooperating in the campaign in defense of political prisoners, helping with posters for demonstrations, arranging pageants, and a portion of its members taking part in the Communist election campaign."

"It should broaden and enlarge its present work along the lines of the pro-

Steelman Role Told In Job For Mrs. Rosenberg

Truman Aide Maneuvers Her Selection

By Walter Trohan
(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

"Washington, Nov. 12.—John R. Steelman, assistant to the President maneuvered the selection of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, for the post of Assistant Defense Secretary.

"A high White House source today said the Hungarian-born woman is the protégé of Steelman, President Truman's chief adviser on domestic policies, particularly on labor.

"In 1948, when Steelman, like many important government officials, expected Mr. Truman to lose the election, he had planned to enter into partnership with Mrs. Rosenberg in a New York labor advisory firm, the White House source said.

"Steelman may be planning to enter the partnership with one of the original New Dealers in 1952, according to the White House informant.

"Defense Secretary Marshall recommended Mrs. Rosenberg's appointment to the President.

"Informed sources said they expect Mr. Truman to make the formal appointment tomorrow or Tuesday and that Mrs. Rosenberg is scheduled to be sworn into office Wednesday under an interim appointment pending Senate confirmation.

"EXPECT STRONG OPPOSITION"

"It is expected the appointment will meet with marked opposition in the Senate Armed Services Committee because of Mrs. Rosenberg's record and beliefs.

"White House source said the selection was manipulated by Steelman without Presidential consultation although Mr. Truman is expected to approve Marshall's recommendation."

"Steelman is a powerful factor in Presidential appointments. He is credited with a major part in driving Defense Secretary Louis Johnson from the cabinet because the latter would not adopt his appointed recommendations.

"Steelman teamed up with State Secretary Acheson to put Johnson out of Presidential favor and make way for Gen. Marshall. New Dealers had long been after Johnson's scalp because he would not let them run his department.

"SHE CALLS FOR UMT"

"The White House source intimated that Mr. Truman might have forestalled the recommendation for appointment had he been consulted, because of the storm it may raise in Congress.

"At a conference yesterday, Mrs. Rosenberg called for universal military training. She said the nation's civilian man-power problems can be met by voluntary measures. She was, however, a New Deal consultant during World War II when the administration was considering draft of civilians for war-power needs and also was weighing the drafting of women.

"It also is remembered that Mrs. Rosenberg was the author of a scheme to establish reorientation camps for American soldiers at the close of World War II on the theory that they would be unfit to resume their normal lives at home.

"This plan was abandoned in the face of protests throughout the nation. Democrats dropped her and her plan quickly when she was charged with slandering soldiers.

"Mrs. Rosenberg has cashed in on her long association with the New Deal in various capacities. While drawing various sums from the government she has been making between $25,000 and $50,000 a year as a labor relations consultant.

"At present she is a special consultant on man-power problems to W. Stuart Symington, National Security Resources Board Chairman. At the White House it was said Symington had little to do with her designation as Assistant Defense Secretary and that the credit belongs to Steelman."

The following is a reprint of an article which appeared in the Chicago Tribune. It is to be wondered whether Mrs. Rosenberg wished the returning GIs to be placed in "reorientation" camps so that they might be "reoriented" by members of the John Reed Clubs. It follows:

(Reprint from the Chicago Tribune of November 13, 1950)

"SHE DOESN'T TRUST GIs"

"Defense Secretary Marshall, who has had difficulty remembering whether he was talking about Korea or Porto Rico at recent press conferences, has recommended the appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg of New York as Assistant Secretary. He may feel the need of someone to do his thinking for him.

"Mrs. Rosenberg is one of the old Eleanor Roosevelt clique in Washington. In 1912 she was found to be holding one full-time and one part-time government job, at total salaries of $13,500 a year, while she was accepting an additional $22,500 from two private employers. She talked her way out of that one, and then got a job from President Truman two years later, to advise him on the "rehabilitation" of the American soldiers then fighting in Europe and the Pacific.

"Upon Mrs. Rosenberg's return from a visit to the European battle-fields, Brehon Somervell, the WPA general, ordered all the brass in the Pentagon to drop whatever they were doing to win the war and assemble to hear Mrs. Rosenberg's words of wisdom. Her finding was that American soldiers overseas were unfit to resume civil life, and should be subjected to "reorientation" courses before they were allowed to doff their uniforms.

"Secretary Marshall said that he wished to avail himself of Mrs. Rosenberg's experience in man-power and personnel problems. Her "reorientation" program got nowhere at the end of World War II. Perhaps she will be given a chance to try it out on the men fighting in Korea, whom Mr. Truman prevented from voting absentee ballots in the recent election. It would take quite a stay in a concentration camp to convince most of these veterans that they should vote New Deal.

"Mr. Truman complained recently that it was increasingly difficult to persuade good people to take government jobs. The Rosenberg recommendation seems to bear him out.

The American people are entitled to know the truth. The Administration has not been wholly honest with the American people. Had they been wholly honest with the American people this nation would not today be facing the grave crisis which can result in military defeat for the United States by the Soviet Union. The United States has already suffered defeat at the hands of the Soviet Union in the diplomatic field. In the diplomatic field the situation appears hopeless. The American people can only pray for a miracle while keeping their powder dry.

The American people were not told the whole truth in 1932. They were not told the whole truth in 1941. The whole truth was kept from the American people in 1945. From 1945 to date the whole truth has never been told to the American people. This fact is attested to by what has been recently revealed to the American people, against the opposition of the Administration, by Congressional investigations, exposures by Senators and Congressmen, indictments and convictions of government officials, and confessions of highly placed former government officials.

Mrs. Rosenberg, if you are the victim of mistaken identity all you need to do is to speak up. If no, please do the right thing and QUIT!

THE COMMUNIST THREAT TO AMERICA

REDS DEFEND ROSENBERG

By Major Robert H. Williams

The time has come when we must accept this kind of activity—the promotion of a vicious Communist front—for what it is a vital weapon in the Communist world revolution. The appointment of one of these personalities in this front to the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense knifes in the back every anti-Communist soldier in Korea.

Mrs. Rosenberg's Communist-aiding friends betray her by coming to her defense. One is Senator Herbert H. Lehman, of "the secret government of the United States," supporter of Marxist measures; international Jewish banker who defended Alger Hiss and arranged with his (Lehman's) niece, Mrs. Benjamin Buttenwieser, to shelter Mr. and Mrs. Hiss in her home during the second Hiss trial. Senator Lehman sat beside Mrs. Rosenberg as the Senate committee questioned her, his purpose presumably being to soften the questioning by his presence.

The New York Post, Communist-aiding "anti-anti-Communist" daily newspaper, bannered across page 2 of its Dec. 14 issue: ANTI-SEMITIC 'HATE SHEETS' SPAWN ROSENBERG RED LIE. Following the usual Communist tactics of trying to deny Americans the right to defend their country against Communism and Zionism by denouncing them as anti-Semitic, the article began: "The nation's anti-Semitic 'hate sheets' were revealed today as being behind the attempt to block Senate confirmation of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense by pinning a 'Communist' label on her." The Post ran a photograph of the front page headlines of Common Sense, anti-Communist paper of Union, N. J., and a photograph of the upper part of page 1 of my December issue exposing Mrs. Rosenberg, and devoted over half a column to quoting and maligning my article and me.

Among other things the Post libeled me by saying that the Anti-Defamation League described me as "one of the most vicious anti-Semites in the country" and further libeled me by repeating the false statement that my publication is listed by the American Legion in its "Exposure of Hate Groups."

DIDN'T DENY CHARGES

The "Exposure" leaflet which is circulated by Communist-aiding groups (the real hate groups) including the Anti-Defamation League, quotes from the Congressional Record which falsely attributes the material to the Americanism Commission of the Illinois Department, American Legion. I reported in my January, 1950, issue, page 4, that the material was only a smear article got up by left wingers to which

Harry Hopkins. How did he first come to the White House? Here is how we understand it. A professor at Grinnell College in Iowa where Hopkins had graduated gave Hopkins a letter to Anna M. Rosenberg and she introduced him to Eleanor Roosevelt. Eleanor took Hopkins to F.D.R. and later Hopkins moved into the White House to live and direct for the Anna M. Rosenberg crowd.

It was through Harry Hopkins that most of the trickery was used to maneuver the U.S. in World War II. F.D.R. sent Hopkins to make the important contacts with Stalin which gave Communist Soviet Union eleven Billion dollars of our assets by lend lease which they still owe us. Hopkins was director of lend lease and it was he who said "Tax, Spend, and Elect." He also made the statement several times that "the people are too damn dumb to understand." It was Anna M. Rosenberg's pal, Harry Hopkins whom Major Racey Jordon exposed as giving orders during the war for clearance for the Communists to take top Atomic Secrets to Russia. Major Racey Jordon had confiscated 30 suit cases of secret papers taken from our government files. The Communist Col. Kotiko called Hopkins on the phone at the White House in Washington and spoke in Russian to Hopkins. Hopkins then ordered Major Racey Jordon to release the plane load of secret papers at Great Falls Montana and not to mention the incident to Jordon's superior officers.

Hopkins died during 1946 but now Anna M. Rosenberg is in complete charge of our Defense Department. WHEN WILL WE WAKE UP?

By The Honorable Martin Dies (Democrat)

(Editor's Note: The following condensation of a speech made by the former Member of Congress from Texas at Galveston, Texas, 1948, is being printed now because it so graphically shows the trap into which Roosevelt led us.)

Christian civilization is more gravely menaced throughout the world today than ever before in history. At long last, many of our people realize that fact. Unfortunately, however, they realize it imperfectly and incompletely. There are still millions of people in the United States who have no conception of the methods, tactics, and purposes of communism.

It has been a short time since World War II was over. You recall that when we asked our boys to serve in our armed forces that the President of the United States and other leaders assured them that this was a war to end all wars. We were told that if and when we defeated Adolph Hitler, we would establish a just and lasting peace.

Today the dictatorship of Joseph Stalin is a greater menace to our security and to our freedom than ever was the dictatorship of Adolph Hitler. Hitler occupied a country with 70 millions of people, limited in natural resources. Joseph Stalin has a country with a territory larger than the United States and Canada, with more natural resources than any country on earth, and 200 million people. He has succeeded, without firing a gun, acquiring 650 thousand square miles and 110 million subject people. Certainly there ought to be some people in America that are deeply interested in finding out what happened, because never in the history of the world has one country made such tremendous strides toward world domination as the Soviet Union.

Only a few years ago, Russia was looked upon as a third-rate power. Today, all of us must concede that Russia is the most powerful country on earth. How did that happen? I propose to answer that question. And in answering it, I am going to tell you some of the intimate details of conversations and conferences between me and President Roosevelt, Henry Wallace, Madam Perkins, Eleanor Roosevelt, John L. Lewis, and others.

It all began in 1938. I was a member of the Immigration Committee and also a member of the Committee on Rules of the House of Representatives. I became intensely interested in communist infiltration of labor unions, and in government service. I decided the time was appropriate to investigate and expose communists' activities in the United States. So I introduced a resolution and the Committee on Rules approved it and the House of Representatives, on May 26, 1938, established the Committee.

Immediately after the Committee was established, I encountered strenuous opposition. When I went to the Committee on Accounts to secure an appropriation to finance the work of the Committee, I found that the Democratic members were hostile to every suggestion that I made. They finally, upon instructions from the White House, reduced the requested budget from 100 thousand dollars to 25 thousand dollars. I began the work with the paltry sum of 25 thousand dollars.

THE COMMUNIST THREAT TO AMERICA

I recall that my uncle, Jack Dies, who was then with the Humble Oil Refining Company, and is now dead, came to Washington and I discussed it with him. He said, "Martin, you know I hate to advise you to abandon this project, but I have seen enough to know that you are now preparing to antagonize powerful forces in this country and that you will be harassed as few men have been harassed in this country."

Well, I had started it and I cannot back up. I telephoned the Attorney General of the United States and said, "Mr. Attorney General, I want to secure the services of some competent and reliable investigators to assist me in this work." He sent me two men. I received a telephone call, however, an anonymous call, shortly before their arrival, telling me both men were members of the Communist Party. I never knew who gave me that valuable information, but I acted upon it.

When they arrived, I began to question them. I put them through the third degree, in the presence of the entire Committee, and finally they admitted that they were members of the Communist Party who worked for the Department of Justice and the Attorney General wanted to plant them on the Committee which I headed. Immediately I knew what was in store for me. When a responsible cabinet officer was willing to plant two eagles of Moscow on my Committee to sabotage it, I knew that the Administration was under the control of Moscow propaganda.

Then I began to accumulate evidence before opening public hearings, and I got a lot of evidence about the infiltration of the C.I.O. by communist leadership. I was able to trace a number of communists who went to Leningrad, at the expense of the Moscow government, and received special instructions in labor agitation and returned to the United States. When John L. Lewis broke from the American Federation of Labor, he turned to these well trained communist agitators to form the rank and file of his organizers throughout the industrial field. I got their names and the evidence, which was clear and convincing, showing that some 50 thousand of them had joined the labor unions to seize strategic positions in the union. They controlled 21 of the international unions affiliated with the C.I.O. Eighteen members of the Executive Board of the C.I.O., the governing board, the most powerful organization within the C.I.O., were members of the Communist Party.

Unions such as the Seaman's Union and the Maritime Union, which control the American shipping, unions that vitally affect our whole economy and security were under the control of men and women who had been trained and educated in Leningrad for the express purpose of returning to the United States, obtaining positions of importance, so that they could promote the ideology and revolutionary program of Joseph Stalin.

When I got that information, I telephoned John L. Lewis and told him I wanted to talk with him. I went to his office the following day at ten o'clock. I walked in and Lee Pressman stood to his right with some of the lieutenants of John L. Lewis in attendance. I knew that Pressman personally was a member of the Communist Party. He was the Chief Attorney for John L. Lewis. I said, "Mr. Lewis, I have received considerable information from reliable sources that many communists have entered your union. They are shop stewards, presidents of local unions, organizers, and so forth. It is our duty to investigate and expose them. I have come to you to find out if you, as an American citizen and labor leader, will be willing to cooperate with the Committee without publicity to the end that these agents and stooges of a foreign dictator can be expelled from their positions of leadership."

Mr. Lewis became very angry. His face was flushed. He struck the desk with his fist and said to me, "Mr. Congressman, the C.I.O. does not need you to tell us how to run it. Yes, we have communists in the C.I.O. We have Baptists, we have Methodists, and have Democrats and Republicans, but we don't need a Committee of Congress to tell us who we are to hire and fire."

I said to Mr. Lewis and his lieutenants, "Mr. Lewis, you have evidently overlooked the vast distinction between ordinary members of political groups and communist eagles of a foreign power. All of the evidence, without exception, shows that communists are disciplined to be servants of Moscow. They have no independence; they sacrifice their citizenship when they become members of the Communist Party, and surely you will not compel us to openly and publicly expose these people when you could get rid of them. We have their names and you can get them out."

The conversation grew hot and furious and finally Mr. Lewis invited me to leave the office, which I cheerfully did. I announced through the press that I intended next morning to open hearings and give the American people the truth.

I received a telephone call from President Roosevelt who asked me to come to the White House at ten o'clock the next morning. I went to the White House. Senator Sheppard was there. Evidently the President thought Senator Sheppard might influence me. The President then began in his magnificent way to undertake to persuade me to abandon my resolution to expose communism in the C.I.O. He said to me, "You know, Martin, I have been watching you for a long time. You have a promising future. You are an able speaker and a young man and I want vigorous able, young men in the New Deal, and you can go a long way working with me." He continued "You have got to be loyal to me. I can't work with men that I can't depend upon. You can't go through with this investigation." And I said "Why can't I go through with it, Mr. President?" Of course, I was somewhat weakened, to tell the truth. It sounded awfully good to me, what he was telling me, and being human, I am not going to represent myself as any hero because I wasn't. I was just plain scared.

He said, "Well, if you expose the communists in the C.I.O., the C.I.O. will turn against the Democratic Party. If we lose the C.I.O. support in the eastern states we cannot win." "Well," I said, "Mr. President, do you mean to imply that the communists have so completely taken over the C.I.O. that exposure of them will result in antagonism to the Democratic Party?" He said, "Yes."

Well, one thing led to another, and finally the President became somewhat impatient and angry with me. He turned to Senator Sheppard and said "Senator, what are we going to do with Martin?" Senator Sheppard was a very genial, pleasant man and a good friend of mine. He said, "I don't know. I knew his dad, and when one of these Dies makes up his mind to do something, he usually does it. I am afraid you are going to have trouble in persuading him not to do it."

The interview lasted about 45 or 50 minutes. Finally, I looked at the watch and said, "Mr. President, I have to go because the Committee meets and I have to be there to open." And I began the hearing, exposing the C.I.O., and showing very clearly that a majority of the unions were dominated and controlled by Moscow. Then began the fight.

I recall for instance, that a man by the name of General Sevinsky, a very able young man who had served with Stalin for a long time, had become disgusted with the brutality of the communist practice and had fled to the United States. I discovered his whereabouts and went to see him. He told me an amazing story of what Stalin had told him a long time ago, about the plan to infiltrate the Balkan states, to build secret armies in every country, to spend millions of dollars for propaganda purposes. He told me the ultimate goal of Stalin was the conquest of Europe and then the conquest of the Americas.

I said to him, "Why don't you come to Washington and testify? The American people ought to have that information." He said, "Mr. Congressman, if I were to come to Washington and testify and if they discovered my identity, the OGPU which is now the NKVD, the secret army of the Politburo Bureau, would assassinate me in two days."

I said, "Surely they are not that powerful in the United States." I was very skeptical about it. He said, "Mr. Congressman, I was chief of the Western Division of the Soviet Intelligence and I know that there isn't a country, there isn't a town of industrial importance that members of the OGPU are not there listening, getting and using information and transmitting it to the Soviet Union. They have their agents in the Embassies—even the ambassadors do not know the members of the OGPU."

I talked to him at some length and finally, upon the promise that I would protect him and conceal his identity, he agreed to testify.

I called up the Secret Service and I said, "I am undertaking a rather perilous thing. This man is fearful of his life." I undertook to get a commitment from the government that they would help me protect him, but the government didn't want him to testify. He did testify. His name was not given then to the press. Within two weeks after his startling revelations, which predicted almost one hundred percent accurately the progress the Kremlin has made within the last two years, within two weeks after his testimony, he was found shot in his hotel room in Washington, D.C. Not one arm was raised by the Federal Government to discover, and apprehend the man or men responsible for his death.

Another former agent of the Soviet Union, in New York, was persuaded to testify. Shortly after his testimony, he was found dead. They said it was a heart attack. I demanded another examination and discovered that he had been shot with a fine steel bullet through the eye which had entered his brain and brought about his death.

Still another man who testified before our Committee in Chicago was mysteriously run down by a hit-and-run driver.

I say these things to show you what happened in the United States and which resulted in the sacrifice of the fruits of victory won by our boys on the battlefields. I am at a loss to understand why men in public affairs are not now clamoring for publication of the secret agreements made with Joseph Stalin by our government. I have been amazed that people have received with such indifference and unconcern the startling revelation that ALL OF THE MEN FOUGHT AND DIED IN VAIN BECAUSE THEY WERE BETRAYED.

They were betrayed because the Soviet Union built up in this country the greatest propaganda machine the world has ever seen. They spent millions of dollars to entertain congressmen and senators and cabinet officers. The brother-in-law of Molotov, operating a chain of filling stations in New Jersey, was investigated by our Committee. We trailed him for a long time. We discovered he visited a certain banker in New York and that after each visit to that bank, he was able to bribe some official. Finally, we met him there one day when he opened a safety deposit box and we discovered 250 thousand dollars in thousand-dollar and hundred-dollar bills in his box. We brought him before the Committee. He admitted that his brother-in-law, Molotov, had given him a credit of 200 million dollars to be spent in the United States, in order to obtain information about the construction of battleships. The government of the United States never raised a finger against him although he admitted that five national committeemen of the Democratic Party had been paid cash by him. That was a matter of record, and they did not deny it or contest it, but said it represented legal fees.

Think of it! Think of the stupidity and indifference of a country when a foreign power can spend American money to bribe our own officials. The facts are admitted, and no one has any interest in it.

Yes, they spent money and they spent it lavishly in the United States. The Soviet Embassy in Washington operated on a 24-hour schedule, and they were able to dupe, to completely dupe such nitwits as Henry Wallace and Claude Pepper.

I shall not give you anything which is the result of surmise or opinion, but information that I know to be correct. I had agents watching the Soviet Embassy day in and day out, and I noted the presence of so-called liberal New Dealers who were present there day in and day out, completely duped by Stalin and his machine. Yes, you know how it is—the caviar and champagne that flowed in the Soviet embassy had a profound effect on some of our budding statesmen.

Whenever Henry Wallace spoke in Madison Square Garden, the communists packed it. When I spoke in Madison Square Garden, they booed and jeered and it required almost the entire police force of New York to maintain order. The communists work at their business of revolutionizing the world, of spreading their ideology while we sit idly by.

One World Resolution Repudiated

TO FELLOW AMERICAN PATRIOTS
IN OTHER PENDING STATES:

Whether your job is to have your legislature rescind any previously passed world-government resolution or to oppose any proposed new ones, THIS LADY IN TENNESSEE AND HER 3000 PATRIOTIC WOMEN demonstrate how IT CAN BE DONE.

This writer doubted this success in Tennessee—it has been so infested with ONE WORLDERS on a national level. (Read Joseph Kamp's book "We Must Abolish The United States") This makes eight states to rescind and others coming.

For your information I am attaching hereto a copy of the resolution presented by Mrs. Carter. It is the most warming expression of AMERICANISM, sincere and straightforward common sense thinking of any resolution I have seen. If you are involved in one-worldism in your state—use it and if not, absorb it—it's factual and so patriotically expressive.

Sincerely,
Arthur E. Case

"My dear Mr. Case:

Certainly you should know (perhaps do) that we tore Tennessee from her shackles and she's safely home—however we are informed "the boys will keep working."

Am enclosing the name of the Senator from my home town (John R. Long, Jr.) whom I chose to present our bill; only one negative vote in the Senate.

The House "no" and "I" vote. We think four nos—but — professor and their friends had paid workers—but the D.A.R. stepped out alone; only my letter resolution and your pamphlet placed on the desk of each senator and representative—33 & 99, a few hours before presentation, prayer and planned work did the job. I'm going to Florida for a rest now—thank you for your great help.

"MRS. CARTER OPPOSES FEDERATION"

"While the General Assembly was plowing through a heavy order of local bills, Senator Long introduced a resolution calling for repudiation of a 1945 resolution approving the principles of World Federation. It passed the Senate by a vote of 27 to 1.

"The resolution which called for opposition to the bills of World Federation was guided through by Mrs. Ferd M. Carter of Springfield, chairman of national defense for the Daughters of the American Revolution. Her resolution read to the Senate:

"The enclosed resolution was adopted by the Tennessee Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution at their annual state conference, March 17, 1950. There is, as you know, fantastic schemes of a World Government being forced upon us by the same elements which have supported communism and other ideologies. These skilled intellectuals know that the magical word Peace is in the heart of every true American. Wearing a cloak of peace, they tell us the only avenue for peace is a Federated or World Government. There are more than 30 groups propagandising Americans through this alluring term. Peace—but the echo comes—there is no peace.

Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men burst forth on the Judean hills long ago, but the peace offered is not Good Will Toward Men, nor is it Americanism. Unmasked it is communism, merciless, militant and un-Christian.

In 1945 their scheme led the General Assembly of Tennessee to ask Congress for a form of World Government. If 36 states call for World Government, then Congress is thereby mandated to call a Constitutional Convention for the purpose of involving (turning over our affairs and all) this nation in a world government which will be dominated by representatives of other nations, thus causing this nation to lose its sovereignty and freedom. How will we thus account to the sons and daughters who fought and died to preserve this freedom?

Are you willing to scrap our Navy and Air Force for a world army commanded by foreigners? They would be supreme over our affairs with authority to touch each individual. Are you willing to compete with cheap foreign labor and lose your standard of living? Would you substitute Russian slavery for America's freedom?

Is this the freedom that we bought, to live, be ruled and spurred to hate and fear by peoples that cower, kill and rage?

America has been a light for Christian religion. Do you want that light extinguished? When the light goes out in America it will go out all over the world.

Six states that had petitions for World Government have rescinded their resolutions. More than three thousand Tennessee Daughters of the American Revolution beg you to rescind those resolutions, and place Tennessee back home on her pillow of Freedom that her sons and daughters may be rocked to sleep in Peace in her arms. I appeal to your citizenship—Keep the light of Liberty ablaze on our own hearth stone."

Gratefully,

AN OPEN LETTER

Senator Richard B. Russell,
Senate Office Building,
Washington, D. C.
Dear Senator Russell:

From the reports that we have been getting through the radio and newspapers regarding perjury charges against those testifying in the case of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, we would suggest that the Senate be very cautious to be drawn into the matter of perjury charges against citizens who participated in giving information to the Senate Committee they thought might help the Senate to uncover the red background of Anna Rosenberg. We hope that you will be wise in your decision because such a move would detract you from your important duties in the Senate. This is an old Commie game—to take the heat off the enemy and the important issue. For example. Several members of our organization witnessed the hearings on the David Lillenthal Atomic Energy Committee case. When Mr. Lillenthal appeared before the Committee, the cameramen kept flashing the cameras with blinding lights at the listeners to detract their minds from what Lillenthal was saying.

We hope what is being set up in Washington will not be another case of confusion like the so-called Sedition Trials which was an act of infamy against American citizens who were critical of the New Deal exploitation of America. While Nero fiddled, Rome burned and that while you are busy prosecuting American citizens, the Reds will take us over here.

The fact that Mrs. Rosenberg was confirmed on her record as a New Deal appointee, are we to conclude that these are to be the future qualifications for anyone seeking office in the employ of the United States Government? Will anyone who has become suspect for their red affiliation be recommended as being 100% American? We are inquiring citizens, my dear Senator, and any information that you can give us along these lines will enable us to see the problem more clearly. We have been working in the field of anti-Communism for over twenty years and every day for the last fifteen of those twenty years, we have been more firmly convinced that Communism is 100% a JEWISH INSPIRED MOVEMENT. Let the chips fall where they may!

May we hear from you?

Cordially,

NATIONAL BLUE STAR MOTHERS

GREECE TO RELEASE 20 COMMUNIST JEWS

Twenty Greek Jewish Communists who were convicted two years ago on charges of treason, are to be released by the Greek government on condition that they leave the country it was reported recently in the London Jewish Chronicle.

Three women are included in the group which was originally sentenced to death by a Greek military court. Visas for the twenty have been issued by the Israel consulate in Athens.

OF THIS YOU CAN BE SURE!

"Israel will not lend its hand to any active aggression under any pretext whatsoever," declared Prime Minister David Ben Gurion in a major policy speech to the Knesset in Jerusalem.

The above appeared under the heading "Israel Will Shun Political Ties That May Lead To War" in the Jewish Examiner January 12, 1951. Yes, my friends, you can be sure Israel will not become involved in any war. They will continue, as they have done through the ages, to instigate, promote, and finance wars of Christian nations all over the world until every last drop of Christian blood is spent. They will direct the wars from the background, and like Nero, will fiddle, while Christianity destroys itself.

PATRIOTS' PLEDGE

I Believe that my personal liberty is in danger.

I believe that the time has come for a personal rededication to unselfish citizenship.

I believe that as citizens we are being bought and seduced by federal government funds and favors.

I believe the politicians who promise the people doles for votes are false prophets and enemies of freedom.

I believe that those who corrupt self-reliance with government gifts are our most dangerous friends.

I believe that opportunity is more important than security.

I believe that the "welfare state" will lead us into socialism, and maybe communism.

I believe that the nation's first line of defense is a sound, solvent economy at home.

I believe that federal government spending, if continued at the present rate, will bring political chaos through bankruptcy.

I believe that you cannot accept government money without government dictation.

I believe that accepting government aid is like taking drugs — pleasant at first, habit-forming later, damning at last.

I believe that the expression "It's going to be spent, so I might as well get mine," is unpatriotic.

I believe that the only way to keep government extravagance is for each one of us to give up his own pet project for government aid.

I believe that it is my personal duty to oppose any man who tries to prostitute patriotism with government gifts.

I believe that I owe it to myself to determine the effect of each new government proposal upon my personal freedom.

"We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain the destroyers forever. Nothing that you do will meet our needs and demands. We will destroy because we need a world of our own."

—The Jew, Maurice Samuel, in his book "You Gentiles," page 155.

Abraham Lincoln said:

"There is one important sense in which the Government is distinct from the Administration. One is perpetual; the other temporary and changeable. A man may be loyal to his Government and yet oppose the peculiar principles and methods of the Administration."

REDS DEFEND ROSENBERG

A left wing infiltrator, Elliodor Libonati, who had managed to become chairman of the Illinois Department Americanism Commission, lent his title without authorization. The smear article, far from having been endorsed by any American Legion Body, has been denounced and repudiated by many of my fellow Legionnaires.

It is significant, and typical of the Communist and the fellow-traveler press, that the New York Post made not a single attempt to deny the charges we made against Mrs. Rosenberg; but instead, attacked and attempted to discredit those of us who made the charges. Not once in the page-long article did the editors so much as bring up the question of Mrs. Rosenberg's guilt or innocence.

The principal owner of the New York Post which thus rushed to the defense of Mrs. Rosenberg is Dorothy Schiff, granddaughter of the late Jacob Schiff of New York. Mr. Schiff was head of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. He was the international Jewish banker who financed (to the extent of some $20,000,000) the Bolshevik revolutionaries including Lenin, Trotsky and Stalin, to power over the Russian people.

We would like to know how Dorothy Schiff will square her position with loyalty to the United States when the hour of reckoning comes. But more immediately, we would like to ask why her New York Post and other Communist-aiding papers have fought so bitterly to protect Anna M. Rosenberg in the new position of power over our people? Think that through.

Mrs. Rosenberg, in her new job, is virtually a dictator over civilian personnel and labor for the defense establishment.

Already it is reported that some of the personnel Mrs. Rosenberg is planting in important positions in the Pentagon and elsewhere are of questionable background or known left wingers. And already we see, too, the beginning of the expected demand that the President establish another war-time FEPC to force employers to hire so many Negroes, so many Jews, so many of the various minority races. The National Negro Council was inspired to demand, Dec. 30, 1950, that the President establish a committee of governors in the industrial states for the implementation of a plan for the integration of Negroes in mobilization industries. . . . Purpose of the plan is to make available to war industries some 1,500,000 Negroes. This is nothing less than a renewal of the Communist-Zionist inspired movement to shift millions of Negroes from the farms of the Old South, where they cannot be regimented, into the industrial cities, where they immediately fall under a Communist propaganda whip and are to be used as shock troops to help capture our cities for the Reds—a move which means only disaster to both the misguided Negroes and the unsuspecting, tolerant Whites.

Anna Rosenberg, with Sidney Hillman, was an inspirer and supporter of the same kind of operation during the recent world war, and her record leaves us no room to doubt that she has plans for greater use of the dark races this time, in advancing the revolution.

Mrs. Rosenberg told the Senate committee she was anti-Communist. We will be the first to welcome her to the columns of anti-Communists if she means what she says. She can prove it without the slightest difficulty, and this publication will be most happy to allow her adequate space in which to prove her anti-Communism.

She has only to take a firm stand for pro-American policies and against Communist policies. We will be satisfied with her anti-Communist statements if she will:

1. Demand immediate and full scale co-operation with the two great anti-Communist leaders, Franco of Spain and Chiang Kai Shek of Nationalist China.

2. The outlawing of the Communist Party and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith and the arrest of all its principal agents, including the routing out of all Frankfurter agents from government offices.

It is up to Mrs. Rosenberg. I invite her to make use of these pages to leave no slight doubt whatsoever that she—the second highest defense officer in the United States—is pro-American and anti-Communist.

It does seem, meanwhile, that the Senate acted rashly in approving the appointment of one whose whole known career has been devoted to Zionist and related left wing operations. Why confirm a woman who advocates the policies for which we must impeach the President? Hasn't the Senate committee yet seen that the New Deal itself is a Communist front, a "peoples government," all but ready for final seizure by the Reds planted everywhere in key positions? We may forget about the John Reed Clubs and Communist Party membership if we look for the Red inside the individual. All who advocate the policies which have led us to the verge of a Communist state must be swept out of positions of influence, or we lose.

Examine Your Conscience

"All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing."

— Edmund Burke

What have you done to help expose and stop the traitors who are conspiring, wittingly or unwittingly, to abolish our constitution, our congress, and our liberties?

Five years ago, when we started this paper, many people remarked that there was "nothing to get excited about;" Marxism or Communism would never be a threat to America. Today, some of those same people say: "It has gone too far. We can never save ourselves from Communism."

What do they mean . . . we? They have never done anything to support the few of us who had looked ahead, closed our businesses, and put all money we had and full time into the task of trying to educate the people. Had they helped, Communism would have been ended in the U.S. and Common Sense disbanded.

During the five years Common Sense has been published at least 15 other small, patriotic publications have been started in the U.S. to keep people informed; practically all of them have been forced to quit. Common Sense has held on, growing steadily in the number of readers, but always curtailing our work for lack of funds. Of the ten who give all or most of their time only three are paid anything at all. Some of us have sacrificed beyond reason.

With 18 years of research behind us we can say, without the least fear of successful contradiction, that opposing Communism without exposing the Zionists who direct Communism, is energy almost completely wasted. Zionists themselves are willing to mildly condemn "Communism" if it will divert suspicion from the Marxist Jews.

The U.S. today is under Zionist rule with Christians as fronts where it suits the Zionist purpose.

They work the same plan in the corruption and bribery of basketball, baseball, boxing and smuggling gold and diamonds. Look into every case during the past ten years and, in every one, it is the Jew at the bottom.

The recent case of bribery in the New York Police Department, in which several hundred police and high officers are involved (and the Chief of Police resigned) was engineered by two Yiddish Marxists.

The decent Jew who holds only allegiance for America should speak up quickly against these international, political Zionist Jews.

Zionists believe that nearly every Christian can be bought, or framed, into fronting for them and this system, operated by International Zionists, has brought our Country to the critical situation it now faces.

Even at this late date the tide could be turned, but it takes knowledge, courage, and money.

In 1952, when it is fully realized there will be no presidential election and the Hudson River is red from slaughter, only then will wealthy people wake up to the fact that their money is worthless. Then they will regret that they did not spend half their money to save the other half, and their freedom. This is what some of the best informed believe will be the situation if the Marxist crowd is not removed from Washington before we are all regimented and shackled.

Our advice to those who are not now helping in any way to save the U.S. from complete regimentation by Communism is This: Help in some way.

If you have already decided to help with a certain amount of money during 1951, put it all in during the next three months. It is not likely that any anti-Communist movement will be able to use your money after that time.

Is it that bad? If you don't know, we suggest that you drop everything and find out the facts from those who really know. During the last ten years the editor has been wrong on only one major, Marxist-inspired move in the world.

Reds Plot New War Against Catholic Church

Karl H. Von Wiegand, Dean of American Foreign Correspondents, who writes expressly for the Hearst newspapers, states in his January 27th column from Madrid that Moscow is declaring a new church war.

Von Wiegand writes: "A new Red war against the Catholic Church is foretold in a declaration drawn up at a recent Cominform conference in Moscow. This statement is alleged to say, in part:

"The Catholic Church is the greatest danger to Communism. The Vatican controls the most dangerous network of spies who receive annually $5,000,000 from the United States for their espionage in eastern territories. If it were possible to seize central nucleus of the Catholic organization—the Pope and the Cardinals—the greatest service would be done to Communism."

Rabbi David Kimchi has written as follows in Obadiah:

"What the Prophets foretold about the destruction of Edom in the last days was intended for Rome, as Isaiah explains (ch. 34, 11): Come near, ye nations, to hear . . . For when Rome is destroyed, Israel shall be redeemed."

Rabbi Abraham also, in his book Tseror Hammer, section Schofotim, says the same: "Immediately after Rome is destroyed we shall be redeemed."

"One of the finest things ever done by the mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture. But trust the mob to bungle. If I'd had charge of executing Christ I'd have handled it differently. You see, what I'd have done was had him shipped to Rome and fed to the lions. They never could have made a saviour out of him."

—Ben Hecht, Zionist Writer in Hollywood, p. 20 "A Jew in Love."

MacARTHUR VICTIM OF INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT

Rosenberg - Lehman - Frankfurter Gang Are Behind Dismissal Of Greatest American Patriot;
Truman Is Just A Stooge

A Real American

GENERAL DOUGLAS MacARTHUR

Gen. MacArthur shares the fate of such Americans as Hurley, Lindbergh, Dies, Nye, Denfield, Wheeler, and Johnson. Who will be next?

General Douglas MacArthur, the greatest American General since George Washington, has just been fired by Truman, i.e., the Rosenberg, Marshall, Lehman, Frankfurter and Acheson crowd.

Americans should at once awaken to the Marxist menace that is functioning in their beloved Country or they will be governed by the most brutal horde of atheistic Marxists that the world has ever known. Despite his handicaps there, General MacArthur's most treacherous enemies were not in Korea or China, but in our State Department and Defense Department.

There should be little doubt in American minds as to whom is responsible for the dismissal of General MacArthur. Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, took over the job as boss of Army and Navy with the express purpose in mind to enslave American citizens and abolish General MacArthur.

Who was clearing the way for Anna M. Rosenberg to knife MacArthur?

Senator Lehman, Zionist from New York, was in on all official sessions and behind the scenes strategy; Felix Frankfurter, Supreme Court Justice, packed the government departments with his Harvard, Marxist-trained crews and influenced Washington politicians; David K. Niles, (Neyhus - Zionist) receives all of President Truman's mail and advises the President on most matters coming into the White House.

The Lehman-Frankfurter-Niles-Rosenberg clique has been working with every available dollar and with every ounce of effort to complete the betrayal of the entire Christian world to the atheistic Communists. The one person who has prevented their scheme from reaching fulfillment has been General Douglas MacArthur. Up to this time it has been an ANTI-MacArthur campaign, while denying the General the right to fight a successful campaign and refusing him permission to use the 500,000 trained Chinese Nationalist troops against the Soviet Army.

Since Anna M. Rosenberg went into the Defense Department the plan against MacArthur has been intensified. Every means has been used to intimidate MacArthur, or to "jockey" him into a position which would allow for his being fired. He has, of course, refused to carry on the

WHO IS THE INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT B

PEOPLE WHO COULD NOT BE ELECTED

HERBERT LEHMAN — ZIONIST

Herbert Lehman, Senator from New York, was a strong backer of Alger Hiss, convicted traitor, and leader of the opposition to the McCarran Anti-Communist bill. He has greatly influenced the campaign against MacArthur. Lehman, as head of the UNRRA before LaGuardia, backed Communism with UNRRA funds. As governor of the Communist-inspired UNRRA, Lehman sent untold millions of dollars worth of American goods to Soviet-dominated countries, including $400,000,000, to Yugoslavia at a time when a Red Army General was in complete control of that Communist satellite.

Lehman is vice-president of the Communist-aiding Anti-Defamation League, the real power behind the Red revolution in the West. Lehman was also active on the Gerhart Eisler defense committee (Eisler was top Communist in U. S.; escaped on Polish ship).

BERNARD BARUCH — ZIONIST

Bernard Baruch, mastermind behind the scenes, has advised five presidents starting with Woodrow Wilson. In Wilson's time our national debt was one-billion; Baruch has been such a good advisor that our debt is now THREE HUNDRED BILLION and we are in our third war. But, the Jewish International bankers, such as Kuhn, Loeb and Co., and Lehman Brothers have increased their wealth by many billions.

Bernard Baruch gave $10,000, to the Communist, church-burning Abraham Lincoln Brigade which killed thousands of Christians in Spain. In Anna Rosenberg's office a large photograph of Bernard Baruch hangs on the wall.

HENRY MORGENTHAU — ZIONIST

It was Mr. Morgenthau who, inspired by his assistant in the Treasury Department (the late Harry Dexter White - Zionist, born Weiss) sold the Morgenthau Plan to Roosevelt and Eisenhower. That plan was to keep on destroying Germans, principally by the starvation method, after World War II ceased. It is obvious now that Mr. White (Weiss) and Mr. Morgenthau wanted to make the German people hate America so much that they would side with Communist Russia.

Morgenthau, it should be remembered, gave the master set of U. S. currency plates to the Red Army in 1944, after which the U. S. Treasury had to redeem hundreds of millions of dollars worth of occupational marks, indistinguishable from our own, which Russia had printed and given to Russian soldiers and civilians.

Who Are The Marxist Tools?

HARRY S. TRUMAN

Harry S. (olomon) Truman cannot be completely blamed for what is taking place in Washington although it is through him that the most un-American principles have evolved since the discovery of America. There is little doubt left that he is just a figurehead and a tool in the hands of a cleverly organized group of international-minded Marxists. His betrayal of the Chinese people, the order signed by him at 1 A. M. to the 7th Fleet to prevent Ching Kai-Shek from attacking the Communists in China, and his refusal to allow MacArthur to use the 500,000 Chinese troops against the Communists is evidence enough that he is knowingly, or unknowingly, working to turn the whole of Asia over to the Communist forces. After we have conquered Japan, Truman now wants (as does Acheson) to turn Japan over to the Communists.

Mr. Truman, who is known for calling Marxist traitors "red herrings" has taken his final step to give away our bases in the Far East. It was this same Mr. Truman who recently wrote

DEAN ACHESON

Dean Acheson, the man who has headed our State Department for years, along with George C. Marshall, is largely to blame for the surrender of 400 million Chinese to the Communists. Acheson hates General Chiang Kai-Shek and has a "soft spot" in his heart for Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, the Communist dictator. Throughout Mr. Acheson's service in the State Department he has shown a peculiar fondness for allowing Communists, and their sympathizers, to obtain policymaking, diplomatic positions. Alger Hiss was only one of those characters and it will be remembered that Acheson stated that he "would not turn his back on Hiss." He has made it plain that he is not in favor of protecting either Formosa or Korea.

Dean Acheson is fronting for Jewish Marxists who are determined to turn Japan Communist as they did in China. It has been reliably reported that every morning Acheson walks to the State Department with Marxist Felix Frankfurter, member of the Supreme Court who rules the State Department.

Secretary of Defense, George C. Marshall, is the man who, as Ambassador to China, spent 13 months setting up Communism there for our Marxist-dominated State Department. He is one of the most important tools the Marxists have. Marshall knew, on November 25, 1941, that we were going to have war with Japan, as Henry L. Stimson states in his diary: "Then at 12 o'clock we went to the White House. At the meeting were Hull, Knox, Marshall, Stank, and myself, Stimson. There the President . . . brought up the event that we were likely to be attacked perhaps as soon as next Monday for the Japanese are notorious for making an attack without warning, and the question was what we should do. The question was how we should maneuver them into the position of firing the first shot without allowing too much danger to ourselves. It was a difficult proposition."

It was Marshall who appointed Anna M. Rosenberg and stated that he would resign if she was not appointed. It was Marshall who was

BEHIND THE MARXIST ASIATIC POLICY?

DOG CATCHER RULE OUR COUNTRY

FELIX FRANKFURTER — ZIONIST

Felix Frankfurter, next to Bernard Baruch and the Warburgs of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., is the most powerful Marxist-Zionist in the U. S. He holds Truman and the administration in a straight-jacket. For 25 years he has been prominent in advising Anarchists and Communists. He was advisor to Sacco & Vanzetti, the anarchists hung in Massachusetts — he was counsel for Tom Mooney, the Communist who served a long term in California for bombing. Frankfurter was a leader in American Civil Liberties Union, which has given legal aid to Communists for years, and testified for Alger Hiss, the traitor.

An Austrian-born Zionist, Frankfurter has placed many Marxists (mostly former students of his at Harvard) in government key positions. Among them are Alger Hiss — Lee Pressman — Donald Hiss — Nathan Witt and Judge Jerome Frank. At the time Frankfurter forced F.D.R. to appoint him as Supreme Court Justice, some Congressmen charged that Frankfurter was a Communist. His attorney before the Senate Judiciary Committee was Dean Acheson, at that time Frankfurter was accused of being a Red.

ANNA M. ROSENBERG — ZIONIST

Anna M. Rosenberg is the person giving orders in Washington to all Army and Navy personnel. She is one, if not the main factor, of those responsible for the dismissal of General MacArthur. Mrs. Rosenberg was on the Committee of the "New York State Committee for Equality in Education." That group protests the use of the New Testament in our school system. Mrs. Rosenberg wrote articles for NEW MASSES, a Communist publication. The name of Anna M. Rosenberg was listed as a financial contributor to SOCIAL WORK TODAY, a Communist publication. In a report of the Un-American Activities Committee it shows that an Anna Rosenberg signed a protest sponsored by the Communist John Reed Clubs, and on three other occasions had affiliations with the Consumers National Federation, a Communist front. With the help of other characters shown on this spread, Mrs. Rosenberg managed to slide out from under a Senate investigation. She denied allegations and evidence and then took her place over the manpower of this country. She has stated that the Communist Anna Rosenberg is another person. However, that woman has never been made known to the public. It remains an undeniable fact that Anna M. Rosenberg has cooperated with Communist forces which went to Spain and slaughtered Christians.

WHICH ROSENBERG IS THIS?

In the Hearings before the Senate Committee on Armed Services, Dr. Marjorie Shearon presented the following testimony:

"Mrs. Rosenberg has made a great point of mistaken identity, and she has based it on the ground that some of the citations are to Anna Rosenberg without the M."

"In the New York Times of January 21, 1936, page 25, column 2, reference is made to Anna Rosenberg without the M. She is identified as coming from the Social Security regional office. She spoke before the Consumers League of New York. I wish to make two points."

"One is that the New York Times referred to her as Anna Rosenberg without the M and the second point is that, speaking along with her was Mrs. Russell Bowie. At any rate, the woman who spoke along with her had 16 subversive citations. I think it is significant. I don't appear on a platform and I don't think that most of you appear on platforms with persons of long subversive records."

A photostat of the article referred to by Dr. Shearon, is in the files of COMMON SENSE. This publication, too, thinks "it is significant." Senators, however, need more convincing before appointing an Assisting Secretary of Defense . . . Anna M., or just plain Anna Rosenberg.

In Berlin it was reported that Russia makes an annual profit of $500,000,000 from the cold war in Germany while the United States loses more than $700,000,000.

"The strictest loyalty to the ideas of Communism must be combined with the ability to make all necessary practical compromises, to maneuver, to make agreements, zig-zags, retreats and so on, so as to accelerate the coming to power . . . ("Left-Wing Communism, An Infantile Disorder" pp. 75-76, V.I. Lenin, International Publishers Co., Inc. 1940)

DAVID K. NILES (NEYHUS) — ZIONIST

Niles (Neyhus), Administrative Assistant to F.D.R. holds the same position with President Truman. Niles, a Zionist, has — through the power of the Anti-Defamation League — been kept close to the White House to direct and report important moves to Zionist rulers. As long as his reports are favorable, showing that Truman does not reject orders from Felix Frankfurter, the administration and Truman will have the support of World Zionism. Several moves have been made by private citizens to remove Niles, who has often used his influence in the State Department on behalf of Communists having difficulty in entering the U. S. It is rumored that when the Departments receive a request from Niles he is considered as the President's mouthpiece. With Red Jews like Niles in Truman's office, and Anna Rosenberg and Marx Leva running the defense system, General MacArthur was certain to be cut down from behind.

HERMAN FELDMAN — ZIONIST

Major General Feldman Quarter Master General as he appeared before the Senate Investigating Committee, August 23, 1949.

Why is it so important for the Marxist to destroy MacArthur?

25 years ago Lenin stated, "The real revolution will blaze forth when the 800,000,000 of Asia unite with us."

Rabbi Stephen Wise said: "Some call it Communism; I call it Judaism."

"Paolo-Zionism goes on with its task in Russia, in Palestine and elsewhere. In this very hour it appears as the UNIQUE INTERNATIONAL PROLETARIAN PARTY. One of its factions joins the Communist Internationale, the other joins the Socialist Internationale." —Elie Eberlin, in the book "Jews of Today," Paris, 1928.

photographed with Albert Einstein (member of more than 20 Communist fronts) and Dorothy Schiff, the publisher of the New York Post, at a New York birthday party honoring Chaim Weizmann, Lithuanian-born President of Israel.

George C. Marshall says he has many secrets which he cannot tell the American public because it would do irreparable harm, but there is one which we should definitely ascertain. That is: Who was responsible for the order given to Eisenhower to pull back our forces in Europe and allow the Communist hordes to sweep across the American blood-drenched European soil? Was it Marshall himself? If it was, from whom was he getting his orders and instructions? If Marshall himself gave that order then he is responsible for three blunders . . . the greatest blunders in American history: the Pearl Harbor slaughter, the sell-out of 400,000,000 Chinese to the Communists, and the Russian threat in Europe. HOW MUCH MORE CAN ONE MAN DO A-G-A-I-N-S-T HIS COUNTRY?

The following is an excerpt from John O'Donnell's column, March 1, 1951:

"Marshall, to this day, under solemn oath before Congress, swears he can't remember where he was on the most important night of his life — the eve of Pearl Harbor. Roosevelt jumped him to Chief of Staff over twenty senior major generals and fourteen senior brigadiers in 1949 when F. D. R. was eagerly brewing for war medicine!

TROHAN'S REPORT

"True to his promise, General Pershing (in 1930) called upon Douglas MacArthur, then Chief of Staff, and asked that his protegee be made a general. MacArthur was ready to oblige but insisted that the promotion go through regular channels. Pershing agreed, confident that Marshall could clear the hurdles. Friendly examination of the Marshall record showed what his superiors regarded as insufficient time with troops.

"MacArthur proposed to remedy this by giving him command of the Eighth Regiment at Fort Screven, Georgia, one of the finest regiments in the Army.

"Marshall was moved up from Lt. Colonel to Colonel but his way to a general's stars appeared to be broken forever when the Inspector General of the Army reported that under one year of Marshall's command the Eighth Regiment had dropped from one of the best regiments in the Army to one of the worst.

"MacArthur regretfully informed Pershing that the report had promotion impossible. To this day Marshall is uneasy in the presence of MacArthur."

On Dec. 5, 1950 President Truman issued an order to all Government employees. "No speech, press release or other public statements concerning military policy should be released until it has been cleared by the Defense Department." Keep in mind the director of information for the Defense Department is A. Robert Ginsberg.

Letter To The Editor

The following letter was written by one of our readers to the Newark News with copy to us; however to date it has not been published by the Newark News.

March 6, 1951

Editor
Newark News
Newark, New Jersey
Dear Sir:

You have made it very clear in the past few weeks that you are not only in favor of World Government but that you intend to force your readers to accept something that you yourself know nothing about.

"WE MUST HAUL DOWN THE AMERICAN FLAG, HAUL IT DOWN, STAMP ON IT AND SPIT ON IT." This treasonable utterance is accredited to Prof. Milton Mayer at a lecture given in Syracuse, New York February 17, 1947, advocating World Government. Mr. Mayer spoke for the "Campaign For World Government" which is affiliated with six other World Government groups to haul down the American Flag. None of the above mentioned groups repudiated the above statement made by Mr. Mayer.

Mr. Editor, did you know that Philip Randolph, a member of the National Executive Board of the United World Federalists said in one of his editorials some years ago "the capitalist system must go and its going must be hastened by the workers themselves . . . a bullet is sometimes more convincing than a hundred prayers, editorials, sermons, protests and petitions?"

Did you know that Dr. Frank P. Graham, a member of the National Advisory Board of the United World Federalists, was affiliated with six (6) Communist Fronts declared so by the Department of Justice?

Did you know that Alan Cranston president of the United World Federalists was appointed Chief of Foreign Language Division during the last war and that the F.B.I. investigated him and learned that "he moves in Communist circles," "his friends seemed to be fellow travelers," "with Communist sympathies?"

Did you know that Alger Hiss was General Counsel, director and member of another group called the "American Association for the United Nations?"

Did you know that Albert Einstein belongs to three World Government organizations and also over twenty (20) Communist Fronts, is Vice President of one World Government group and Chairman of the International Editorial Board of another?

Did you know that Thomas Mann, who is associated with sixteen (16) Communist Fronts, is also associated with six (6) World Government organizations?

Did you know that Dr. Stringfellow Barr holds membership in seven (7) World Government groups and two (2) Communist Fronts?

Did you know that there are one hundred and seventy eight (178) leaders in the various World Government movements who are or have been associated with one thousand six hundred and ninety six (1696) Communist Fronts?

Mr. Editor, if you do know the above documented statements of fact then you are as guilty of un-Americanism as the above named pro-Communists and Reds. If you do not know the above facts then you should refrain from promoting international Marxism in your paper. Hoping that you become better educated on World Government and use the facilities at your disposal for a better America, I remain

Sincerely,
W. J. O'Brien

(Editor's Note: Recently the New Jersey Assembly voted 54 to 2 against World Government in spite of the tremendous campaign carried on by the Newark Evening News for weeks. It is quite evident that the people of the state of New Jersey do not have much confidence in the personal opinions expressed by the editorial staff of the Newark Evening News. Of course, it is understood that the forces that rule the Newark Evening News are the same that are ruling many other newspapers. If the editors do not comply with the wishes of the invisible forces, there would be no advertising, hence, no newspaper. In the future we sincerely hope that the editors will be able to identify a Marxist front before they start plugging for it.)

MACARTHUR IS VICTIM

battle in Asia the way the New Deal Commiecrats want. He has refused to give the Communists one inch!

The Marshall-Rosenberg crowd managed to sell out Chiang Kai-Shek. Korea, Formosa, and then Japan are scheduled — on the Communist plan — to fall in sequence. That is how the New Deal Commiecrats helped plan it; but, they did not fully estimate the resistance of the great strategist and military leader, General Douglas MacArthur. Thus, MacArthur had to be eliminated one way or another. LITTLE HAVE AMERICANS REALIZED THAT RUSSIAN AND HUNGARIAN MARXISTS COULD SO COMPLETELY INFILTRATE THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT THAT THOSE ALIEN-MINDED PEOPLE WOULD HAVE POWER ENOUGH TO ELIMINATE AMERICA'S GREATEST MILITARY LEADER AND CHAMPION OF FREEDOM.

Many Americans are willing to sit back and make the ridiculous statement that in 1952 we will "clean the traitors out of Washington." The sorry fact is that the New Deal Commiecrats have it so figured THAT THERE WILL BE NO ELECTION IN 1952. WITH EMERGENCY POWERS AND MACARTHUR OUT OF THE WAY, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE CAN BE HOG-TIED.

With General MacArthur out of leadership, Asia will fall behind the iron curtain. Russia can take Formosa and Japan and then chase all American forces from the Pacific area.

The Soviet Union can force us into war while all powers of our government are in the hands of New Deal Commiecrats. There will be no need of elections, for a Marxist dictatorship will have already been installed. People will be forced to abide by the emergency powers of the "government" or be imprisoned or liquidated. Free enterprise, the press, freedom of speech, personal property, real estate, religion, education, credit, transportation, communications, etc., will be controlled by the "government." All the "government" will be the subject to the whims of the Frankfurter-Lehman-Rosenberg crowd.

It is one minute before midnight. In this remaining minute, American patriots must decide where they stand. If we are to stop Anna M. Rosenberg, who has power to hire for 115 government departments and therein install her RED friends, we must do it NOW. If Washington is not cleaned out NOW it will never be cleaned out.

WE CANNOT WAIT UNTIL 1952.

that the U. S. Marines were just a "Navy police force" with a propaganda machine "almost equal to Stalin's." In other words, Truman does not like the American Marines no matter how many die under the American flag, and no matter what they have done in the past. Now he has taken away the U. S. Armed Forces' most valuable asset . . . General Douglas MacArthur.

When Tom Pendergast, head of the Pendergast machine of which Truman was a part, died in the penitentiary it was "Red Herring" Harry who jumped into the plane "Sacred Cow" and went to the funeral. It was "Red Herring" Harry who refused to let our Congressional Committees have files on Reds in the government. It was "Red Herring" Harry who refused to talk to the National Commander of the American Legion. It was "Red Herring" Harry whom Senator Tobey states threatened him over the telephone regarding the R.F.C. It is "Red Herring" Harry who has refused to fire Dean Acheson, although the American people no longer trust Acheson. It was "Red Herring" Harry who approved of Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense.

Recent polls show that Truman represents only 16% of the people and is ignoring 84% of the people by taking his orders from the Frankfurter-Lehman-Rosenberg-Acheson crowd. The time has come to clean out all un-Americans and their tools while we still have the chance. (Editor's note: This was written by an ex-Marine who served three and one-half years in the Pacific during World War II.)

More U.S. $$$ insure U.S.S.R. victory

At the time this paper goes to press, five separate assaults are being made upon the pocket books of the people of the United States without their knowledge of the harm being done to them.

These five separate assaults will mean a gift of $3,000,000,000 to the American people's good money to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" (Israel). It is urgent to alert the American people to the critical consequences which are inseparable from these five assaults upon their shrinking pocketbooks.

The American people have never had their eyes opened to the dangerous impact which these assaults are having upon their welfare and security. It is vital to the survival of the American nation that the American people immediately concern themselves with the great threat now critically poised at their very existence as an independent sovereign nation.

It will soon be too late to reverse the trend which is now challenging civilization. NOW is the last opportunity to learn what is secretly taking place behind the "Gold Curtain". NOW is the last opportunity to take that proverbial "stitch in time". PLEASE GOD, IT MAY NOT NOW BE TOO LATE!

Zionists to pay for loot with U.S. $$$

The first of these five assaults are the negotiations being conducted between representatives of the United States, the United Nations Organization, and the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" for a FIFTY-YEAR, NON-INTEREST BEARING $1,000,000,000 "loan" by the United States to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" propose to use the proceeds of this "loan" to pay for the loot they have stolen from the lawful inhabitants of Palestine whom they recently drove into exile with U.S. and U.S.S.R. arms. It will be remembered that in 1948 1,000,000 lawful native inhabitants of Palestine were forcibly ejected from their ancient homeland by the armed Zionist aggressors who invaded their country. These armed hordes of alien invaders swarmed into Palestine from their historic countries of origin in eastern Europe.

In supplying this $1,000,000,000 to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" the United States is playing the role of a man who loans a thief the money with which to pay his victim for the property stolen from him. The person who loans a thief the money with which to pay his victim for the watch he has stolen is no better than the thief. The fact that the thief has had the watch repaired does not alter the situation. In the eyes of the law the thief and his generous friend are equally criminal. In "compounding a felony" the generous friend becomes an "accessory after the fact". In the eyes of the world the United States assumes that status for making the funds available to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" with which to pay for the property they have stolen from the lawful inhabitants of Palestine.

U.S.A.-S.E.C. legalizes Zionist larceny

The second of these five assaults is the successful Zionist assault upon the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of the United States. The invisible and invincible Zionist "state within a state" in the United States which has operated so successfully inside and outside our government obtained from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) their approval to unload on Americans a $500,000,000 "bond issue" of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine".

This $500,000,000 "bond issue" is to be offered to the American investors commencing May 1 1951. It will receive the support of the Administration under the direction of Lehman Brothers, Kuhn Loeb & Company, Goldman Sachs & Company, Bernard Baruch's Dillon Read and Company, and other leading financial masterminds here for the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The scene is set to use unprecedented pressure upon every business firm and every individual in the United States to purchase these "bonds" at the time when United States bonds are going begging at less than their face value. A perfect demonstration of Zionist dual-allegiance and divided loyalty to the United States.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) was organized in 1934 to prevent the sale of worthless securities in the United States to the American people. The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) was duly delegated by Congress with the authority and the responsibility to compel full disclosure of the financial resources and the financial competence of prospective borrowers as protection for American Investors against financial rape.

Any leading American enterprise seeking the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for the sale of their securities to the American public on the basis upon which they approved the Zionist $500,000,000 "bond issue" would land somebody in jail. With the single exception of this Zionist $500,000,000 "bond issue" the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has a record of twenty-seven years faithful service to American investors. What mysterious wonders do these unseen Zionist hands OR MORE LIKELY FISTS, work?

Zionist Congressmen on the job

The third of these five assaults is upon the Congress of the United States. This assault is for a $500,000,000 "grant-in-aid" from the United States Treasury. A "grant-in-aid" is a $2 word used by the "striped-pants boys" for an international "hand-out". A "grant-in-aid" is a term used to camouflage an otherwise unobtainable gift sanctified by an unwarranted humanitarian implication. But by whatever name it is called it will be just another $500,000,000, "down the drain" for the American people. The "heat" was recently put on Congress by the Zionist "state within a state" for the first installment of this $500,000,000 "grant-in-aid".

On April 2, 1951 the Democratic leader of the House of Representatives, Congressman John McCormack, obliged his Zionist panders by introducing into Congress on that day a bill immediately providing for the first $150,000,000 installment of the $500,000,000 "grant-in-aid" to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". Congressman John McCormack, like all candidates for election or re-election to public office, from Governors, Mayors, Senators, down to village dog catchers, trample each other underfoot in their mad scramble to become sponsors for this Zionist $500,000,000 "grant-in-aid". Candidates for public office in the United States have learned by sad experience, or the ease histories of their retired colleagues, that the "O.K." of the Zionist political underground guarantees election to office, and that their "K.O." guarantees VICE VERSA!

Acheson feathering his future nest

The fourth of these five assaults is based upon the "Point Four" agreement shortly to be executed in Tel Aviv by the new Ambassador from the United States to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The recently appointed Ambassador from the United States, Monnet Davis, carried with him in his briefcase a "Point Four" agreement. This "Point Four" agreement is to be signed upon his arrival in Tel Aviv as his "first official act" according to radio reports. President Truman's "Point Four" program calls for American "financial aid to underdeveloped areas" where NECESSITY for it clearly exists.

"Point Four" financial aid by the American people will donate another additional $500,000,000 to these "Zionist authorities in Palestine" with which they can eventually carry out their present program for a "Tennessee Valley Authority" and other extensive reclamation and power projects in Palestine. The first installment for this $500,000,000 program will probably consist of an innocent-looking "tee-in-the-door" donation of a small fraction of the total amount. The valid obligation will rest upon the American people to supply the balance of the $500,000,000 needed to nationalize these industries.

US "tax deductible" Zionist war-chest

The fifth of these five assaults consists of the "fund-raising drives" now going on at top speed all over the United States. Zionists plan to raise a total of almost another $500,000,000 in the United States primarily for use by these "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The "tax deductible" income-tax feature of these so-called "contributions to charity" will divert approximately $425,000,000. of this $500,000,000. from the United States Treasury to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". This loss of $425,000,000. from income-tax revenues of the United States must be otherwise obtained by higher income-taxes collected from the American people at large. Zionists make it appear that these "contributions to charity" are used exclusively for humanitarian activities. The American public are not aware that these funds are primarily and predominantly used for political purposes. The Internal Revenue Bureau is well aware of this fact but cannot oppose Zionist influence at the highest levels. They have tried and have failed.

U.S. aids and abets Zionist aggression

With few exceptions, these funds will be used to transport "synthetic" immigrants from eastern Europe, Asia and Africa to Palestine and to establish their economic security there. In 1948 the fully-equipped, invading Zionist armed aggressors drove 1,000,000 defenseless lawful inhabitants of Palestine from their homeland for 1700 years to make room in Palestine for these "synthetic" immigrants. Transplanting segments of population from one nation into the territory of another nation by armed aggression against the wish, will, and desire of its lawful inhabitants violates the basic American principle of "self-determination".

Aggression in any form violates the spirit of American tradition. When aggressors offer as their alibi a preposterous racial, religious, or nationalistic mythological legend it nauseates Americans who cherish their sacred heritage. The American nation at last realizes that the alleged humanitarian interest of Zionists throughout the world for their co-religionists in eastern Europe was primarily a camouflage for a well-disguised conspiracy for territorial aggression. The Judaized Khazars of eastern Europe, the ancestors of the Marxists now scattered throughout the world, since their conversion to Judaism in the 8th Century have been obsessed with a pseudo-religious psychosis. The Judaized descendants of this ancient Asiatic tribal nation suffer from the delusion that they are the "Chosen People" of the Old Testament. Although their Asiatic ancestors never set a foot in Palestine, they claim Palestine as their "Promised Land" by virtue of the conversion of their ancestors to Judaism in the 8th Century. That obsession is the basis for their aggression in Palestine.

Political Zionism strictly counterfeit

Wherever reference in this paper is made to "Zionists" or to "Zionism" it is intended to refer exclusively to Political Zionism and not to Spiritual Zionism. Spiritual Zionism and Political Zionism are as different and as far apart as Heaven and Hell. At one time in history Zionism had only a spiritual significance. Zionism at one time reflected only the spiritual aspirations of orthodox religious pilgrims to live the remainder of their lives, and die on the soil which was to them the cradle of their religious belief. For twenty centuries Palestine has welcomed from all parts of the world devout pilgrims of the three religious faiths which regard Palestine as the cradle of their particular form of religious worship.

Spiritual Zionism has always been an expression of the individual. Spiritual Zionism was never organized formally on a collective basis. Spiritual Zionism had neither a territorial, racial or nationalistic implication. In recent years Political Zionists "borrowed" the term "Zionism" as the title with which to disguise their conspiracy. The historic religious background of Spiritual Zionism completely deceives the world concerning the true motives and program of the Political Zionists. Millions of misguided Americans of all religious faiths still believe that Spiritual and Political Zionism are one and the same thing. It is time they learned the facts.

Political Zionism was conceived and developed in eastern Europe to its present world-wide power by the original apostles of Karl Marx. Marxists have speeded their plans for creating a total Marxist world by camouflaging their aggression behind the word "Zionism". Within the Zionist movement Marxists have been using misguided Zionists to promote their Marxist program for world domination. The apostles of Marxism have used the good-will of Zionism to obtain the support of their otherwise non-cooperative co-religionists of miscellaneous nationalities and races throughout the world. In the minds of many millions of their co-religionists and others of different religious faiths Zionist propaganda has given the world the incorrect impression that Political Zionism expresses a spiritual implication.

Zionism a disguise for Marxist aims

In their unsuspecting or indifferent ignorance on this subject many misguided millions throughout the world are giving aid and comfort to the Marxists. Many who hold high places in the governments and leading social groups dominating the culture of these countries do not suspect the truth. There are many however who collaborate with the Zionists for the financial gain and the political power which is offered to them for their submission to Zionist dictation. Intelligent analysis of what is going on in Palestine at the present time is proof that Zionism today is an integral part of the Marxist program for world control. ZIONISTS HAVE NEVER OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THEIR OPPOSITION TO MARXISM IN THE MANNER EXPRESSED BY THE AMERICAN LEGION, VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR, COMMITTEE FOR INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS (CIO), THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND OTHER GROUPS WHICH HAVE PUBLICLY STATED THEIR STAND ON THIS ISSUE.

Zionists vote in U.N. as Communists

"Forewarned is forearmed" only if we have the intelligence to recognize the warning when it is put before our eyes. The Zionist "kept-press" has carefully concealed from the American people the relationship between Zionism and Marxism. On the day the General Assembly of the United Nations opened its session here in September, 1950, Secretary of State Dean Acheson travelled from Washington to New York to address the Assembly. On the opening day of its session India introduced a resolution for the immediate admission of Communist China into the United Nations. Secretary of State Acheson hastened to address the General Assembly and pleaded with its members to defeat that resolution. Secretary of State Acheson not only begged the members of the United Nations to defeat the resolution but he pleaded with them to take the vote on it that very day. Secretary of State Acheson explained that delay was dangerous for many reasons. Pursuant to that plea the vote on the resolution of India was taken immediately. In spite of the impassioned plea of Secretary of State Acheson to members of the United Nations to vote against the resolution to admit Communist China to the United Nations the delegation of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" (Israel) VOTED WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND THE SOVIET UNION SATELLITES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, VOTING IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION TO ADMIT COMMUNIST CHINA INTO THE UNITED NATIONS AT ONCE, THE SAME CHINESE REDS WHO ARE NOW MURDERING OUR SONS AND BROTHERS IN KOREA!!!

Zionists "recognize" Chinese Reds

BUT there is more proof to follow. The armed forces of the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" after the armistice in Palestine proceeded to invade the city of Jerusalem contrary to the United Nations partition plan for Palestine. This partition plan called for the internationalization of Jerusalem under United Nations control. THE UNITED STATES and THE SOVIET UNION voted IN FAVOR of that partition plan. The "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" not only ignored the partition plan but also a further United Nations resolution specifically calling upon them to vacate Jerusalem. In reply to this resolution their armed forces invaded additional areas of Jerusalem. At this time the Soviet Union was working to get as many nations as possible to extend recognition to the Communist Government of China. The Soviet Union rulers found it extremely easy to make a "deal" with their blood-brothers who had become the rulers in Palestine and U. N. members.

The Soviet Union offered the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" to WITHDRAW Soviet Union support of the United Nations resolution demanding the withdrawal of Zionist Armed Forces from Jerusalem and the internationalization of Jerusalem if the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" would immediately RECOGNIZE the Communist Government of China. In spite of all the efforts by the United States to prevent that "deal" the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" immediately extended RECOGNITION to the Communist Government of China. IN A MATTER OF A FEW DAYS THE SOVIET UNION NOTIFIED THE UNITED NATIONS THAT IT WAS WITHDRAWING ITS APPROVAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION DEMANDING WITHDRAWAL OF ZIONIST ARMED FORCES FROM JERUSALEM AND THE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THAT CITY UNDER UNITED NATIONS CONTROL!

Zionists playing on Communist team

It does not require a big stretch of the imagination to understand on whose "team" the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" are playing. What can the American people expect from a population which was transplanted to Palestine from the Soviet Union and Soviet Union Satellites? How many World Wars will the American people have to fight before they learn the rudiments of international double-cross intrigue?

As a witness before the Kefauver Crime Committee would say, "The American people are being taken for a $3,000,000,000. ride". From all appearances it will be a "one-way ride" from which neither the $3,000,000,000. nor many other priceless possessions of the American people will return. While this "ride" will cost the American people $3,000,000,000. in cash, the actual cost to the American people will be far in excess of that amount and will have to be reckoned in altogether different values than money. Responsible authorities have great fear that these "rides" will eventually end in the defeat of the United States by the Soviet Union in the seemingly inevitable, and somewhat imminent, third Marxist-engineered World War in our generation. They are aware of the fact that control of the strategic eastern Mediterranean and its important natural resources will determine the outcome of that war when it comes. WRITE THAT IN YOUR LITTLE BOOK!

3rd Marxist-made World War arriving

Two recent Marxist-engineered World Wars have left indelible marks upon the American heritage which even the blood of a third war cannot erase. Nor is there wealth enough in the world to ransom the blessings which these two gargantuan struggles have already robbed the American people. The "real and present danger" to civilization is the existing threat of a third Marxist-engineered World War. It presents the horrifying prospects of the population of the entire world engaged in a grim struggle with the most modern mass-production methods for dealing out death. It paralyzes the imagination? A U.S. JURY JUST FOUND THREE ZIONISTS GUILTY OF DELIVERING OUR ATOM-BOMB SECRETS TO THEIR MARXIST BLOOD-BROTHERS IN THE SOVIET UNION! HAVE AMERICANS YET REALIZED HOW MANY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN WILL BE ROASTED TO CINDERS BY THEIR TREASON?

The outcome of that struggle must inevitably result in the loss of our independence as a sovereign nation and the loss of the freedom and liberty we now enjoy under our present form of government. The surviving remnants of humanity will lose forever those "unalienable rights" of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" for which our ancestors will have shed their blood in vain. The systems of government now blossoming throughout the world based upon government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" will disappear forever from the face of the earth to be replaced by universal slavery under totalitarian Marxist police-state dictatorships. Marxists give little choice to liberty-loving mankind. Many prefer to die standing on their feet fighting in defense of human rights rather than to live on their bonded knees as slaves under a totalitarian Marxist police-state dictatorship, THANK GOD!

U.S.A. foreign policy surely suicidal

The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States is literally and figuratively digging a grave for this nation in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area. The irony of this lies in the fact that this nation's grave is being dug with funds provided by the American people. When the deluded Americans wake up to this fact it may be too late to do anything about it. There will be no escape from the fate which international Marxists have decreed for the American nation. THEY MAKE NO SECRET OF IT.

The helpful hand of the United States, outstretched to a world in want, was first "bitten" by the Lend-Lease nations, and it survived, was then "bitten" by the UNRRA nations, and it survived, was then "bitten" by the Marshall Plan nations (ECA), and is surviving, and is now being "bitten" by the North Atlantic Treaty nations, and with God's help, will survive that also. But how long can this "luck of the Irish" hold out? It seems already to be wearing itself thin in places. THE SAD PART OF IT IS THAT WE DO NOT TAKE ANY NOTICE OF IT!

U.S. can win war with Moslem allies

The United States stands as much chance as a snow-ball in Hell of winning a war with the Soviet Union without the good-will and cooperation of the 400,000,000 Moslem population in Europe, Asia and Africa. Nobody, BUT NOBODY, is more aware of that fact than the master minds in Moscow. When the Zionist-dominated Administration has drained off the last remaining dregs of friendship of our few remaining friends among Moslem peoples, the Soviet Union will be able to take on and whip the United States blindfolded and with both hands tied behind her back. Recognition of that fact is why the Soviet Union since 1945 has concentrated every effort to destroy the traditional friendship of the Moslems of the world for the American people. The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area has succeeded in accomplishing that result. To convert this traditional friendship for the American people into an intense hatred did not require very much extra effort on the part of the Soviet Union.

400 million Anti-Communist Moslems

For more than a century the 400,000,000 Moslems of the world had only the greatest respect, confidence, and friendship for the American people. That friendship was a very precious possession of the American people and far beyond any possibility of evaluation. Now that we are losing it, its tremendous value is appreciated. The 400,000,000 Moslems of the world inhabit the territory extending across North Africa from Casablanca on the Atlantic the Suez Canal area, they inhabit Turkey and the Balkan States, part of the Soviet Union in Europe, all of Asia Minor and the continent of Asia from Iran (Persia) to China on the Pacific, including also Indonesia and the Philippines. About 35,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Soviet Union. About 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit China. About 85,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit Pakistan, directly to the south of the Soviet Union. About 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit India, directly to the south of Communist China. About 70,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Arab League states in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area which contains 77% of the world's known oil reserves. More than 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit Indonesia. More than 12,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Philippine area. This broad belt of territory extending along the underbelly of the Soviet Union is inhabited altogether by about 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems. The religious faith of these Moslems makes them MORE ANTI-COMMUNIST than the Christian population of the world.

Moslems good-will is A-bomb security

In any war between the Soviet Union and the United States victory will be determined in the final analysis by the attitude of these 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems towards the American people. If these Moslems are forced by the Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States to throw in their lot with the Soviet Union, it will become impossible for the United States to win the war. The United States might be able to put up a good fight. But without the friendship of these 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems victory is highly improbable, if not entirely beyond the realm of possibility. The strategic importance of the areas they occupy, their huge man-power reserves, and the inexhaustible supply of their critical natural resources will prove the deciding factors in any war between the Soviet Union and the United States. Their importance exceeds that of the atom-bomb. The use of the atom-bomb is a "two-way" street. The United States will suffer more from atom-bombing by the Soviet Union than the compensating damage which we can inflict upon the Soviet Union with our atom-bombs. If the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems become the full-fledged allies of the United States there is nothing the Soviet Union can possibly produce to offset that tremendous advantage to the United States.

Moslems can decide victory in Asia

As an illustration of the great contribution which can be made by the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems of the world, the Egyptian Government has recently announced that it will place an army of 2,000,000 Egyptians at the disposal of the United Nations if the United States will supply the necessary equipment. The presence of an Egyptian army of highly-trained and well-equipped soldiers will reduce the obligation of the United States to send that many American boys to that area. During World War II the United States had an armed force of about 14,000,000 which represented about 10% of the total population. An Egyptian army of 2,000,000 soldiers represents about 10% of the total population of Egypt. On this basis the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems can supply about 40,000,000 soldiers. In addition to 40,000,000 soldiers the good-will of the native populations offers another contribution which cannot easily be computed. This good-will relieves the United States of sending additional man-power to the combat area. Under these circumstances it seems utterly out of the question, that the Soviet Union would dare to risk a war in Asia, Europe or Africa without any possible hope for a victory.

Moslems best U.S.A. friend in Asia

The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area drove the opening wedge between the Americans and Moslems. The Zionists have continued to exercise this control over the Administration for the purpose of driving that wedge deeper and deeper. The Zionist-dictated policy of the delegation of the United States to the United Nations has virtually destroyed the last hope for preserving the friendship of the 400,000,000 Moslems of the world for the American people. As a result of the United States-sponsored Zionist aggression in Palestine, for which the United States must accept full responsibility, the Moslem population of the world has lost its confidence in the integrity of the American people. The Moslems have no way to learn that the fault lies with the Zionist-controlled Administration and not with the integrity of the American people. The Zionist "kept-press" in the United States has never permitted the truth regarding this condition to appear in its columns. The Moslems of the world cannot learn the attitude of the American people by reading the newspapers published in the United States. The Moslems of the world judge the American people by the promises and performances of their Zionist-controlled Administration. They have abundant material upon which to base their attitude towards the American people and they are not to be criticized for it.

Nothing can destroy confidence more completely than to preach one gospel and to practice the extreme opposite. How can the United States earn the respect and confidence of the Moslem people unless it practices what it preaches? The Administration is not doing that. It is doing the exact opposite. The Administration is rubbing salt into the open wounds of the Moslem peoples by continuing to allow the Zionists to exercise control over the foreign policy of the United States in the eastern Mediterranean area. The Moslem peoples of the world understand that the $3,000,000,000 which is being made available to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will be used as a war-chest for further aggression in Palestine and elsewhere against the Moslem people there and in the Near and Middle East. The Moslems of the world realize that the third Marxist-engineered World War will be the "green light" for the Zionists to put into operation their plans for further aggression and conquest in that area.

Zionists pledge allegiance to U.S.S.R.

The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are secretly and successfully converting the territory under their control in Palestine into an impregnable Marxist arsenal. The secrets for manufacture of the most modern weapons have been obtained by the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" through their highly-placed spies in governments and industries of the United States and other leading countries. The billions of American dollars which are flowing into the treasury of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are primarily employed for creating a Zionist war-machine for future aggression. Before the conquest of Palestine by the alien Zionist invaders, in 1948, Palestine was supporting a population in excess of 1,500,000 persons in addition to a British Army of Occupation of an additional 100,000 soldiers. Through the centuries the population of Palestine has flourished without the necessity for any financial assistance from foreign sources. Without any foreign financial assistance the native Palestinians have developed in 1700 years a territory smaller than the State of Vermont to a status where the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now proposing to pay them $1,000,000,000, which represents only a small fraction of the fair value under normal conditions of what they have stolen.

The alien Zionist invaders in 1948 drove into exile about 1,000,000 unarmed and defenseless native Palestinians. Since that time the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have brought about 600,000 Zionist immigrants into Palestine. It becomes apparent that at the present time Palestine has about 500,000 less inhabitants than at the time of the Zionist aggression in 1948. At no cost to themselves the Zionist aggressors expropriated all land and other property legally belonging to the 1,000,000 native Palestinians whom the Zionists had driven out of their homeland. These "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now attempting to pay these rightful owners for the land and other properties which they have stolen from them the $1,000,000,000, which they plan to obtain from the United States as a "loan" for FIFTY YEARS, AND BEARING NO INTEREST!!!!

Faked Zionist poverty a Marxist trap

It seems reasonable to expect that the present reduced population in Palestine should be able to support itself without contributions of billions of American dollars. Millions of penniless immigrants from the identical territory in eastern Europe from which the Zionist invaders of Palestine have come, during the past fifty years have immigrated to other countries throughout the world, notably to the United States, and have become men of great wealth by their own initiative. These millions of penniless immigrants to the United States from this territory in the United States without assistance and become very wealthy. Under the free enterprise system in the United States this was possible without the assistance of billions of dollars to underwrite their capabilities. But a free enterprise system does not exist in Palestine. The economy in Palestine is organized on Marxist principles. State socialism is the basis of the economy in Palestine. Consequently, billions of dollars of American money must be dumped into Palestine to support the Marxist system there. Billions of American money were dumped into England each year since 1945 to support the experiment in State Socialism there which would have collapsed long ago without this assistance. Billions of American money are now being dumped into Palestine to support another experiment in Marxist Socialism. The entire economy in Palestine is based upon Marxist doctrines. Without a free enterprise system there the American people will be called upon continually to contribute billions to keep this Marxist state in existence. Under various pretenses the Zionist-controlled "state within a state" in this country will see that the American people supply all these billions of dollars to this Soviet Union satellite.

Zionists turn U.N. into Marxist front

A United Nations resolution in 1948 placed an embargo upon the shipment of arms into Palestine for the defenseless native Palestinians. It was an air-tight embargo. But this embargo was only effective against the defenseless native Palestinians and not against the alien Zionist invaders. Throughout the period of this one-sided embargo a fleet of the largest freight-carrying planes was secretly shuttling day and night between Kharkov in the Soviet Union and the Zionist armed forces in Palestine ferrying to them enormous quantities of Soviet Union tanks, heavy artillery and other modern military equipment. At the same time another fleet of the largest freight-carrying planes was also secretly shuttling day and night between Czechoslovakia and the Zionist armed forces in Palestine ferrying enormous quantities of the most deadly weapons produced in the Skoda arsenal, the greatest manufacturing plant in the world of the most up-to-date military equipment. For this equipment the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" were paying the Soviet Union and her satellites the American "tax-exempt" dollars raised in the United States for "humanitarian" use among the "DFs". The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have officially complained that "only $125,000,000" of the total $500,000,000, cost of these military supplies "came from the American people".

The additional $3,000,000,000, which the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now engaged in extracting from the American people will be used to create a Marxist "Gibraltar" in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area. This Marxist "Gibraltar" will be an ally of the Soviet Union in any future conflict. As an ally of the Soviet Union this Marxist "Gibraltar" will become one of the most important military bastions in the world. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" rely upon the cooperation and support of the Soviet Union for their future aggression. The Soviet Union relies upon the Zionists to obtain control of the oil and chemicals in that area. This alliance is the result of long-range planning which goes back more than twenty-five years. WAKE UP U.S.A.!

Blood-ties unite Zionists and Marxists

The "people" who form the "hard-core" of the Soviet Union dictatorship are the blood-brothers of the "people" who form the "hard-core" of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". That fact is a matter of public record. There is no attempt made to conceal it. It has never been contradicted when it has been publicly alleged. The rulers of the Soviet Union actually are the blood-brothers of the Zionist rulers in Palestine. The Zionist "kept-press" has never permitted the American people to be informed on this subject. The Zionist "kept-press" does not wish to educate the American people to the fact that the rulers of the Soviet Union and the rulers in Palestine have common racial characteristics, political ideologies and have pledged allegiance to each other!

The blood tie between the rulers in Palestine and the rulers of the Soviet Union is as strong for their country of origin as the attachment of immigrants of all origins. It is not to be overlooked that 92% of the population in Palestine today consists of people who were either born or who have lived most of their lives in the Soviet Union or in a Soviet Union satellite. The political ideologies which these aggressors carried with them to Palestine are no less Marxist than the political ideologies of their fathers, brothers, sons and kin-folk who remained behind in the Soviet Union and her satellites, AND RULE THEM TODAY. Zionist invaders have converted Palestine today into a colony of the Soviet Union. When trouble comes they will stick together. The American people will get the surprise of their lives if they think the Zionists in Palestine will join the United States as an ally when war comes. But it was the Government of the United States and the money of the American people which were solely responsible for the successful aggression of the armed Zionist invasion and conquest of Palestine. That is an unchallengeable historic fact which no Zionist will dare to deny. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will not be the first country responsible for its existence to the United States to turn today violently against it. Other examples of this ingratitude are the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, China, and other nations in Europe and Asia.

The people in Zionist Palestine today are transplanted segments of the populations of the Communist countries of eastern Europe. It is not realistic to anticipate that these transplanted Communist populations will take up arms against their blood-brothers in their former homelands behind the Iron Curtain. They are attempting at the present time to carry water on both shoulders. They hope to extract $3,000,000,000, from the American people without tipping off their allegiance to the Soviet Union. When the third Marxist-engineered World War breaks out the American people will be rudely awakened from their dream. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have not miscalculated or underestimated how dumb the American people can be in matters of this kind based on past performances.

Sauce for goose, sauce for gander

The North Atlantic treaty is the subject of much debate at this moment. The North Atlantic Treaty is an agreement between twelve members of the United Nations under the provisions of the Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter provides for mutual military assistance by the parties to any Regional Arrangement Treaty. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter provides that all matters which can be determined by local action shall be determined by the parties to the Regional Arrangements Treaty. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter specifically provides that if any member becomes the victim of aggression that it shall become the responsibility of all other parties to the Regional Arrangements Treaty to regard an act of aggression against any one party as an act of aggression against all parties to it.

The North Atlantic Treaty provides that if any signatory to that treaty becomes the victim of an act of aggression that all other signatories to the treaty shall consider it as an act of aggression against all signatories. Under this provision it is obligatory upon the United States to declare war against the Soviet Union in the event that the Soviet Union commits an act of aggression against any nation of Western Europe which is a signatory of the North Atlantic Treaty. The United States has the identical treaty arrangement with the 21 Republics of the Western Hemisphere under the same Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter. It is known as the Pan-American Union. However, the first Regional Arrangements Treaty registered with the United Nations was the Regional Arrangements Treaty between the eight countries in the Near East which make up the Arab League. The Regional Arrangements Treaty between Palestine, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Egypt, Saudi-Arabia, Trans-Jordan and Yemen was registered with United Nations in 1946. Under the terms of that Regional Arrangements Treaty these eight states of the Arab League put the world on notice that an act of aggression against any one of its signatories will be regarded by each member as an act of aggression against all members of the Arab League. Palestine included.

British Dishonor hits an all-time low

The alien Zionist armed invaders committed their act of aggression against the lawful inhabitants of Palestine upon the withdrawal of the British in 1948. The armed forces of the other members of the Arab League immediately came to the assistance of the people in Palestine under their Regional Arrangements Treaty OBLIGATIONS and RESPONSIBILITIES. It was the fulfillment of a United Nations obligation. It was not an "invasion" of Palestine by all the other members of the Arab League. The small, poorly-equipped armed forces of these other members of the Arab League had no match for the forces of the alien Zionist invaders who had been supplied with unlimited quantities of the most modern means for conducting blitz warfare by the United States, the Soviet Union and others. The armed Zionist invaders were a well-trained army which had obtained its training and also all its equipment in the United States, the Soviet Union and other Zionist-dominated countries. The rest is history. The conscience of the world will never be able to erase the bluish of that "double-cross" of the peaceful, innocent and defenseless 1,000,000 native Palestinians who were slaughtered or driven into exile as paupers.

Ralph Bunche disgraces Negro race

Armed with the most modern U.S. and U.S.S.R. military equipment the invading Zionist aggressors literally slaughtered the defenseless defenders of their homeland. The lawful native inhabitants of Palestine never stood a chance. It was virtually fighting Sherman tanks with pitch-forks. After slaughtering or driving into exile about 1,000,000 defenseless Palestinians, and occupying their homeland, the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" finally CONSENTED to a "cease-fire" upon armistice terms allegedly drawn up by the United Nations.

Under the terms of subsequent peace proposals suggested by Count Bernadotte on behalf of the United Nations the exiled Palestinians were to be returned to their former homes and their property was to be restored to them. For daring to suggest such "peace terms" Count Bernadotte was forthwith murdered by the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". After the murder of Count Bernadotte the United Nations allegedly arranged the appointment of Ralph Bunche as his successor. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" expressed in advance of the appointment of Ralph Bunche that he was "acceptable" to them. Ralph Bunche has since fulfilled every anticipated assurance given in advance of his appointment. Someday the truth will be known!

Without any loss of time Ralph Bunche exerted the full pressure of the United Nations to compel the defenders of Palestine against Zionist aggression to accept the "peace terms" proposed by him. These infamous "peace terms" met with the full approval of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". In the (in)famous "peace terms" which won the "coveted" Nobel Peace Prize for him Ralph Bunche imposed a "life sentence" upon the 1,000,000 native

Palestinians whom the Zionist aggressors had driven into exile. That "life sentence" upon these 1,000,000 innocent individuals condemned them to an existence as pauperized exiles in the desert wastes of the adjoining states. These unfortunate victims of Zionist aggression looked in vain to Ralph Bunche for the "equal justice for all peoples" so nobly inscribed in the United Nations Charter but to which he only gave lip-service. Is it possible that Ralph Bunche was also a captive of the Zionists?

Under the (in)famous "peace terms" imposed by Ralph Bunche the Zionist aggressors were able to retain the territory and the property of the 1,000,000 lawful inhabitants of Palestine. Ralph Bunche earned the "coveted" Nobel Peace Prize for himself by "donating" the homeland of these 1,000,000 pauperized exiles to the Zionist aggressors who had no more claim to Palestine than the converts to Christianity in the heart of Africa have to the Vatican. It is to be hoped that Ralph Bunche will also receive everything else which he earned for himself by that (dis)service to humanity and/or the Zionist hierarchy. Is it any wonder that the Zionist "kept press" and countless Zionist-controlled organizations of every description heap one honor on top of another upon Ralph Bunche since the day he "donated" Palestine to the Zionist aggressors? And Ralph Bunche continues to accept these "honors" with an esprit worthy of a General Douglas MacArthur. Whom does he think he is fooling?

Ralph Bunche should ask himself whether he would impose similar "peace terms" if armed invaders from the North should drive the entire Negro population in the South into pauperized exile in Mexico? Ralph Bunche should ask himself whether he would lend his name to "peace terms" which would condemn the entire Negro population of the South to a "life sentence" as pauperized exiles in the desert wastes of Mexico? Ralph Bunche should ask himself whether he would "recommend" to the United Nations that the invading aggressors from the North be permitted to retain the land and the property of the defenseless Negro defenders of their homeland? Ralph Bunche should ask himself whether he would look with favor upon awarding the "coveted" Nobel Peace Prize to the Palestinian who managed to impose such "peace terms" upon the Negro pauperized exiles in Mexico? RALPH BUNCHE WAS AWARDED THE "COVETED" NOBEL PEACE PRIZE FOR "ARRANGING" JUST THAT KIND OF "PEACE" IN PALESTINE. It is difficult to believe that all the Negro race is proud of Ralph Bunche. It is not possible that all Negro Americans have forgotten how other Americans fought their own brothers on the battlefield to insure for Negro Americans "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" in their homeland, NOT in Mexico, or NOT in Africa. Ralph Bunche would no doubt call that a "horse of another color". But would it be?

High-treason to U.S. sacred tradition

The desire by the original Thirteen Colonies for "self-determination" gave birth to the United States of America. Since its creation in 1776, the United States has been a devout apostle for "self-determination" for all peoples throughout the world. Many leading countries throughout the world owe their existence to the support received by them from the Government of the United States and the American people in their struggle for "self-determination". The principle of "self-determination" FOR ALL PEOPLES OF THE WORLD was made the foundation of the United Nations Charter. The solemn pronouncements of Presidents of the United States, including recent pronouncements of President Truman to aid all peoples "in Europe, Asia and Africa" in their struggle for "self-determination", emphasizes this basic American ideology. "Self-determination" denotes the democratic process by which the lawful inhabitants of a country decide for themselves under what form of government they choose to exist as a sovereign nation.

Zionists prostitute U.N. Charter ideal

The application of "self-determination" is effected now by the democratic process known as a "plebiscite". A "plebiscite" is an election by secret ballot by which the majority of the population determines their form of government. The United Nations has called for "plebiscites" in Korea, in Kashmir, in Indonesia, in Libya, in Indo-China and other countries where the principle of "self-determination" is to be applied for the first time. When the British Army of Occupation in Palestine withdrew, Zionist-controlled United Nations used all its power to PREVENT the holding of a "plebiscite" in Palestine. The United Nations thereby prostituted the very purpose for which it was brought into existence. The United Nations had ordered many "plebiscites" for the populations of backward nations to select the form of government they desired by the process of "self-determination". The Zionist-controlled United Nations exerted every effort to PREVENT the people in Palestine from holding a "plebiscite" despite the fact that the ancestors of the Palestinians were the most highly civilized people in the world when the populations of Western Europe were living in tree-tops like monkeys.

Zionists pervert U.N. basic purpose

Zionist control of the United Nations has been used to abort the very purpose for which the United Nations was brought into existence. The Zionists had a reason for exercising their control over many United Nations delegations. When the British Army of Occupation first moved into Palestine in 1919 only 7% of the population were potential Zionists. In the period between 1919 and the withdrawal of the British in 1948 the Zionist population in Palestine increased to 30% of the total population as the result of illegal Zionist immigration. A "plebiscite" under United Nations supervision would not have resulted in the creation of a Zionist-controlled government upon the withdrawal of the British from Palestine in 1948. For this reason the Zionists PREVENTED the United Nations from holding a plebiscite in Palestine. After the 100,000 British soldiers withdrew from Palestine in 1948, the armed Zionist invaders drove 1,000,000 native Palestinians into exile. These had formed 70% of the total population in Palestine in 1948. The invading 600,000 Zionists thereupon became 99% of the population. A plebiscite thereby became purely academic, entirely unnecessary, and was never held.

Out of the frying pan and into the fire

The $3,000,000,000, thus obtained by the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will not be shipped to them in bundles of currency. That would simplify matters. Paper is cheap. But it does not work out just that way. This $3,000,000,000, will be placed to their credit with banks here in the United States. These credits will then be used to make purchases of raw materials and manufactured products. It is these which will be shipped to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". There will be exported from this country billions in raw materials and manufactured products in exchange for nothing at a time when serious shortages already exist. These raw materials and manufactured products are vital now to our defense program. This drain upon our economy will further accelerate the inflationary trend already gaining momentum at the expense of the American consumers. National security should be the first and only consideration of every American in the crisis which faces the country. "Self-preservation is the first law of Nature". That law has not been repealed YET! Let us apply it while we still have the chance to prevent pauperizing the nation.

Zionist "slush funds" gift of U.S.A.

As the representatives in the United States of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" spend the $3,000,000,000, they will be paid commissions of 5% to 20% by the business firms with whom they place their orders. These commissions will amount to between $150,000,000, and $600,000,000, and will provide an additional huge reservoir of funds with which the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" can continue to "curry the favor" of Governors, Senators, Congressmen, Mayors and other "public officials". This additional huge reservoir of funds will also provide for better control of the Zionist "kept press", radio and television networks and other mediums for controlling the thinking of the American public. This $3,000,000,000, will only be spent with business firms who "invest" substantial sums in the "government bonds" currently being offered and who contribute generously to the many other drives for funds conducted in this country by the "Zionist authorities in Palestine".

The Vanishing Americans Untold Fact In Forrestal Case

American leaders have been vanishing from the Washington scenes one by one since 1932 through various diabolical methods planned by the New Deal Commicrats and Zionists until today we are faced with the reality of having no leadership at all. Before General MacArthur was fired the Invisible Government managed to knock off every real American leader with little or no protest from the people. Through the control of the press, radio, T.V. and government controlled agencies the Zionists-Marxists maneuvered into key positions Pendergast men, Zionists, and Communists with a general plan of action to establish a Socialistic Welfare State through the means of bankruptcy, taxation and wars. The courageous leaders who have stood up to the representatives of the Invisible Government have been attacked so heavily and smeared so badly that only a few of them are left to talk about it. It is obvious to the writer that not all of these courageous men actually knew what they were fighting. They knew that there was coming to America an insidious movement alien to the freedoms which has made our country strong, but few of them knew that this movement was an Invisible Government conceived by the devil and fostered by the World Zionists. One of these brave leaders who failed to see the iron fist before the satin glove was removed was James V. Forrestal. We have reprinted the "Untold Facts in the Forrestal Case" from the American Mercury, Dec., 1950 to give the reader a concrete example of how the Invisible Government works in taking over a country.

"Untold Facts In Forrestal Case"

In the twenty months since the destruction of James Vincent Forrestal, there has been a creeping realization in this country that what happened was much more than a poignant personal tragedy—that it was an historic national disaster in which a patriot with vision was allowed to be done to death by lesser men.

The disaster is made apparent by events. Louis Johnson, for whose accommodation Forrestal was destroyed, has been loaded with sins and chased into the briar patch. We have suffered 64,000 now or more casualties in Korea who might have been spared had Forrestal's policies prevailed. Thoughtful Americans are, therefore, remembering that it was Forrestal who struggled to arm this nation for its commitments, and

TO: THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
 The People of the UNITED STATES

HARRY S. TRUMAN, ET AL.
 PETITION

Now comes Geo. W. Armstrong, and respectfully represents the following:

1. That President Harry S. Truman, Secretary of State Dean Acheson, and Justice of the Supreme Court Felix Frankfurter are traitors and should be impeached and prosecuted;
2. That the members of the firms of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and Lehman Bros. Co., and the members of the B'nai B'rith, Anti-Defamation League, Anti-Nazi League and American Jewish Committee are working with forces to overthrow this country and should be prosecuted;
3. That the Zionists are aliens and are citizens of the State of Israel and that they are communists and should be banished;
4. That the purpose of said traitors and Zionists is to destroy our system of government and create a Zionist super state; that in pursuance of said purpose they fraudulently established the United Nations and created the Atlantic Pact, and caused our government to intervene in the Korean war.

WHEREFORE, I pray you to impeach and prosecute the traitors and to cancel our membership in the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact. I respectfully submit the following brief and argument in support of these allegations.

Gen. MacArthur Understands The "Invisible Gov't"

By - Robert H. Williams

Editor of "Williams Intelligence Summary"

Whether MacArthur permits his name to be entered into the presidential campaign next year or tries to fade away into private life, he already has launched a long needed spiritual revival—a revival of personal honor and glorification of service to country characteristic of the Anglo-Saxon tradition.

Robert H. Williams

His appeal has been such as to awaken the old virtues—courage, love of country, integrity—and thus revives in the hearts of millions, the high regard for public service noteworthy in the example of George Washington. He has rallied a discouraged, confused and leaderless people in a revival of heroic Americanism which seems likely to sweep into oblivion the Democratic New Deal and Republic Me-Ton internationalists.

The American people long had scanned the horizon for a savior. Most of them had not yet come to understand the alien character of the subversive invasion, but they knew that the White House and the State and Defense departments offended the nostrils. Mr. Truman could no longer hide the espionage, subversion and perversion of his Communist and Zionist backers behind his red herring. He no longer could pacify parents whose sons might be sacrificed in a needless and apparently endless "police action" in Korea.

COMMUNISTS SMEAR HIM

Representative Clarence Brown is an honest man. He stands for the principle—special privileges for none, equality of treatment for all. Accordingly, at the June 14th closed meeting of the Buchanan Committee he made what he considered to be a fair suggestion; he also may have signed his own political death warrant.

"I believe we should investigate the B'nai B'rith," Congressman Brown told his colleagues. "They are doing a lot of lobbying and are behind a lot of this stuff. They've been pretty active you know. I just can't conceive how you arrive at certain people and leave other people out."

"I am against anything like that," snapped Chairman Buchanan. "If we investigate one religious group, we'll have to investigate all the others." And that was the end of that.

Chairman Buchanan's argument was completely false. He knows better. The B'nai B'rith is not a religious group. It is a fraternal organization that is powerful in politics. It helped to elect Buchanan to Congress.

The Jewish Family Almanac says: B'nai B'rith does a great deal of important work in the political field.

Third Zionist War

1. THIRD ZIONIST WAR

Our present war with Russia and China is obviously our Third Zionist War. All three of them were for the same purpose, viz: to establish a Zionist World Empire. All of them were initiated by a shocking disaster to arouse us to war; the first one by the sinking of the passenger ship Lusitania; the second by the destruction of our Pacific fleet at Pearl Harbor; and the third by the Korean attack. The first resulted in the League of Nations, the second in the United Nations, and the third is obviously intended to convert it into a Zionist World Empire for the pretended purpose of preserving peace.

THE ZIONISTS OF NEW YORK AND MOSCOW INSTIGATED THE WAR

The North Koreans as well as the South Koreans are victims of the machinations of the Zionist communists. It is unfortunate that the Koreans must suffer. They have been betrayed into this fratricidal war by the Zionist communists of New York and Moscow. We should strike boldly to destroy the head of the snake and not its tails. Bomb Moscow with the atomic bomb and not the Chinese or the Koreans, and hang the New York and Washington Zionist traitors. There will never be peace on earth until Zionism is destroyed. Its mission is to destroy Christianity and to destroy and enslave Christians.

WHY THIS WAR?

The Zionists pretended that the Korean war was to establish free elections and a democratic government in Korea. They represented that the North Koreans are communists and the South Koreans are democrats. That is all we know about them. The North Koreans are savages and the South Koreans may be also. The North Koreans murder their prisoners and the South Koreans murder non-combatants, according to press reports. They fight to the death rather than surrender. It is at best a brutal savage war with savages, for the alleged purpose of compelling them to establish a democratic government. It is in fact a Zionist war for the purpose of establishing a Zionist Empire.

The armies of communist China joined the North Koreans and at this time (March 1, 1951) they are reported to be losing and retreating. Our casualties have been heavy and we appear to be in for a long destructive war. It may be a life and death struggle between Christians and communists, and between freedom and slavery.

While the President called our intervention "police action," his message to Congress and his press interviews and his conduct reveal it as war. It was necessary to color it as "police action" to give it the semblance of legality, for the President under our Constitution has no power to declare war; that is the exclusive province of Congress. It is in fact war, and a war initiated by the President and his advisers, Dean Acheson, Felix Frankfurter, David Niles, and other Zionist traitors.

We are a gullible, charitable, unsuspecting Christian people, and are easily deceived. We excuse Roosevelt because he was in poor health, and Truman because of his early training as a Pendergast ward heeler and because of his ignorance. But they both had sense enough to select their associates, and they both selected Hiss, Niles, Acheson, et al.

CHINESE NATIONALISTS

The Associated Press of Nov. 30, 1950 reported General Claire Chennault, retired, formerly of the Flying Tigers, as saying that the Chinese Nationalists are good soldiers and will fight with and for us; and that only 1% of the 450 million Chinese are communists. That is less than the percentage of traitors in our own country. He said also that Chiang Kai-Shek is a patriot of great integrity.

Chiang Kai-Shek offered to send 33,000 trained soldiers to Korea, which is more than all of the other 52 nations offered or contributed. Truman and Acheson not only rejected the offer but stationed a part of our Navy in the strait between China's mainland and Formosa on condition that the nationalists stay out of the war. In spite of it, the nationalists appear to be waging a successful guerilla war.

Truman and Acheson evidently plan to deliver Formosa and the Chinese nationalists to the communists through the United Nations or a four-or seven-power treaty. The British government is David K. Niles (Neyhus) was placed in the White House by the Zionists to see that F.D.R. carried out the Zionist plan. He stayed on to direct Truman in the plan to turn the entire world over to Zionist rule. From the White House he kept Felix Frankfurter informed on all important matters in which the Sanhedrin were interested. David Lilienthal, Louis Strauss, and Robert F. Bacher, Zionists, who fought to stay on the Atomic Energy Committee, also resigned after the Soviet Union secured the atomic secrets. Has Niles also completed his job? During the many years Niles has been advisor in the White House, it has been impossible to reach Truman with petitions or exposures affecting Communism. Truman has stated he does not read newspapers, listen to radio or television except when his daughter sings — apparently he has been a virtual prisoner hypnotized by Red Jewish advisors such as David Niles, Leon Keyserling, Presidential Economic Advisor, and Robert Nathan. Why is it that Zionist Jews are always the advisors and the government goes deeper and deeper in debt and makes blunder after blunder while Communism sweeps over the world.

a socialist, pro-Zionist government dominated by the Rothschild money trust, as is our own. It recognized communist China for the alleged purpose of protecting its interests in Hong Kong and Malaya. It would, no doubt, vote to deliver Formosa and the nationalists to the bolsheviks. France is at best an uncertain and unreliable member of the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact.

It is reported that the French have changed their government sixteen times since 1944. The government of France is now engaged in a losing war with the communists of Indonesia and want and need our help. The French and British governments are so indifferent to their own security as to oppose the re-armament of Germany, which is necessary for their protection. Both the French and British will agree to surrender Formosa to the communists if by doing so they can promote their commercial interests. They are not interested in protecting Formosa for the protection of the Chinese Nationalists or for our protection; nor are President Truman and Dean Acheson and Secretary of Defense George C. Marshall and the Zionists interested in doing so. They want to change our system of government and to establish a 'welfare state.'

Be it remembered that the Nationalist Government is in Formosa because of the treachery of our State Dept. We promised to furnish them munitions and supplies for waging their war against the communists on the mainland. They were compelled to go to Formosa because our State Department failed to carry out its agreement at a critical period of the war. It was cold-blooded treachery for the purpose of communizing China, for which no one has yet been punished.

It is the duty of the 82nd Congress to establish an impartial tribunal of competent men to ascertain the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about the criminals who initiated the second world war and also the Korean war. They should be empowered to investigate the Zionists and their organizations, viz: the B'nai B'rith, Anti-Defamation League and Anti-Nazi League, et al. If they are found to be Communist, their members should be banished.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE OF JULY 9, 1950

President Truman sent a message to Congress on July 19, 1950, requesting authority to mobilize the resources of the United States in support of the United Nations. In his message he said 52 of the 59 nations had pledged their support. He described our support of the South Koreans as "police action" to enforce the orders of the United Nations. On the request of President Truman the United Nations appointed General Douglas MacArthur commander of the United Nations Army. It is estimated that we supplied 150,000 combat troops, South Korea 100,000, all other countries 24,300; and that to date we have had about 50,000 casualties. This is more than twice the number of troops furnished by the other 52 nations of the United Nations that signed the resolution on Korea. It is estimated that we have furnished 95% of the supplies for the army. Less than a dozen nations have supplied anything.

The President, in his message to Congress of July 19th, said:

"Already aircraft of two nations: Australia and Great Britain, and naval vessels of five nations: Australia, Canada, Great Britain, the Netherlands and New Zealand, have been available, for operations in the Korean area."

He also said:

Roger N. Baldwin has been affiliated with 40 or more Communist-fronts in the United States, and it is only possible to guess at the status of ILRM.

The Vanishing Americans

Untold Fact In Forrestal Case

there is a growing inclination to look again at his crucifiers and their cloak-holders—at those whom Time Magazine identified as "disgruntled politicians, Communists, Zionists, and gossip columnists," and whom The Saturday Evening Post labeled "an ill-assorted group of ideological libertarians."

Much of the truth has thus far been suppressed, but the ghost of Jim Forrestal is not going to be laid until there are reasonable answers to such questions as these:

Why was the attack on Forrestal so reckless and sadistically savage?

Why have his papers been held secret?

Where is the report of those who investigated his death?

Why was the deposed Defense Secretary held a virtual prisoner at Bethesda Naval Hospital—a prisoner who could not be visited by his own priest?

The American people can expect some of the truth within the next few months. Unless the Administration can prevent it, there will be a Congressional investigation. There will be publication of such of the Forrestal papers as can be wrested from a Defense Department now headed by General George C. Marshall. Meanwhile, this most recent evidence gathered by The Mercury may be helpful.

The Communists, both American and European, had good reason to hate Jim Forrestal; he hated them. He emerged from the Second War dedicated to the destruction of Communism. He had opposed every concession to bring Russia into the war against Japan. He fought General Marshall's effort to force Chiang Kai-shek to coalesce with the Chinese Communists. He battled those men in the State Department who tried to give the Mediterranean to Russia. Forrestal sat up nights figuring ways to fight Communists. And he was not only willing to fight them fairly; he was willing to fight their way.

Such activities by the Defense Secretary were unknown to the American people, but they were well known to Communist agents in Washington. And these leaders hated and plotted against Forrestal because he hit them where they are weakest: in the venality of their own members. He showed them that two can play their game of justifying means with ends.

A complete report on this phase of Forrestal's tremendous activity will be instructive . . . and it will also explain some of the "sadistic savagery" of the attack on him.

While the Communists were plotting his political, if not his physical, death, Forrestal incurred the hatred of American Zionists. According to the Nation, the Zionists "deplored Forrestal's apparent willingness to place the oil of the Near East above the requirements of political justice in Palestine."

Forrestal explained his position in a letter: "If we are to safeguard Western civilization in this crisis, the British and American fleets must have free access to Near Eastern oil. That is a fact, however unpleasant it may be. When there is a crisis aboard a submarine, we close bulkhead doors and drown a third of the crew in order to save the other two-thirds. I am interested in political justice in Palestine, but this interest must remain secondary to my primary interest, which is the protection of America and the West from the gravest threat we have ever faced. No minority has the right to jeopardize this nation for its own selfish interest."

The Defense Secretary invited Leftist animosity when he opposed the "Morganthau Plan" for the destruction of German industry. The plan is now almost universally acknowledged to have been ridiculous.

These twin positions caused a number of writers including Drew Pearson and Walter Winchell, to join in what The Saturday Evening Post described as "reckless and sadistically savage" attacks on Forrestal.

Despite the Zionist hatred of Forrestal, when the private money was being raised for the Italian and French crisis, Forrestal's Jewish friends contributed eagerly and generously.

In the fall of 1948, the rest of the United States was engaged in a political campaign, but Forrestal was engaged in a campaign against the Kremlin. It was the year of the Italian elections, the French strikes, the continuing unification battle, the Berlin blockade. Forrestal, with his incredible energy, worked night and day, including Sundays. In ten years in Washington he had three days vacation. He knew from intelligence reports that the Russians had ventured the Berlin blockade because the United States was in the turmoil of an election. He wanted desperately to keep the Defense Department out of the political campaign.

Forrestal was a Democrat. His father, an Irish Catholic contractor at Beacon, N. Y., had been a "Cleveland man." Jim Forrestal, at Princeton, and during the years when he had made himself a millionaire in Wall Street, had remained a Democrat and a party contributor. At Roosevelt's invitation he had resigned his $180,000-a-year job in 1940 and plunged into public service with all his characteristic energy. He was admired by such diverse individuals as Harold Ickes and John D. Rockefeller Jr.

Forrestal's relations with Truman were friendly but not warm. Forrestal was no poker player, no political opportunist, no professional Legionnaire, no practitioner of the expedient; he was busy and serious. It is possible that he, with his first-rate brain and immense, world-wide experience, was somewhat contemptuous of Truman, but he never revealed it. Instead, even when the President flatly refused to support the $17-billion budget for the services, Forrestal did not resign but remained loyal.

However, as Defense Secretary in so dangerous a period, Forrestal was convinced that he should not take an active role in trying to re-elect Truman. This enraged the political gang around the White House. They reasoned in this manner: they needed money; Forrestal was the big shot in the Cabinet; he was a millionaire Wall Streeter; he had rich friends; he ought to raise money for Truman.

Thus began the slanders and libels that Forrestal was disloyal to Truman; that he had contributed nothing to the campaign; that he had made a deal with Dewey. All of these were lies. He was completely loyal. He contributed $6,000 of his own money to the campaign; he asked a number of his friends to contribute. Truman knew of his contribution; so did Louis Johnson. Two reputable Republicans can testify that he refused to discuss even the possibility of his remaining in a Dewey Cabinet. But dedicated as he was to the war against Communism, he did refuse to black-jack Defense Department suppliers for campaign funds.

One White House pseudo-military figure remarked: "Yeah, that rich s. o. b. has raised a million bucks to buy votes in Europe, but he's giving us chicken feed to buy votes for Truman."

It would, perhaps, have been better for the country if Forrestal had called in his wealthy friends and explained that he had to raise a million dollars in order to safeguard his job. But he didn't; Louis Johnson did; so Johnson became the candidate of the Missouri Gang for Defense Secretary.

The day after Truman's inauguration in 1949, the campaign to "get Forrestal" was thrown into high gear. The country has seldom seen its like. The Communists, the "ideological libertarians," the Missouri Gang and the columnists manned the mud buckets.

Forrestal was accused of having defrauded the Government in a tax case. He was, of course, a Fascist, a varnisher, a racist, a bedfellow of I. G. Farben and the German cartels; he bathed in oil—Near Eastern variety—and he smirked over the murder of Jewish babies by Arabs. He was a renegade Catholic; and, as a climax, Pearson reported that he was a personal coward, that he had once abandoned his wife to burglars and run out of the back of the house.

At the height of the campaign a New York publicity agent was heard reassuring a client: "Don't worry; that s. o. b. will crack up in thirty days. He can't take what we're dishing out to him."

Why was it necessary for them to discredit Forrestal? He had tendered the customary resignation to Truman. Why didn't Truman just accept his resignation?

There are two explanations. In the first place, Truman had frightened Johnson by vacillating. When Forrestal had visited Truman after the inauguration, expecting to be fired, Truman had surprised him by saying: "Jim, I want you to stay with me. I know what you're doing, and I want you to stay on and complete the job. You have my complete support."

Truman kept stalling Johnson during January and February, and there was one bitter night for Johnson in New York when he was convinced that Truman, like Roosevelt, had betrayed him and that he wouldn't get the job.

So, in the first place, Forrestal had to be discarded in order to safeguard the job for Johnson; and, in the second place, he had to be discredited in order to make it "politically safe" for Truman to fire him. In present-day politics you can't fire a man without first maligning him.

Under different circumstances Forrestal probably would not have been upset by vituperation. But he was now a dedicated man; he was emotionally involved in his crusade to make this country strong. He regarded Truman and Johnson as political opportunists, neither of whom would hesitate to trim sail in an adverse wind. He didn't believe that either Truman or Johnson understood the realities of the world conflict. He had dedicated himself to trying to increase this country's armed force; he had defied the pressure groups; and he felt, quite correctly, that Truman and Johnson would yield to the pressure groups and actually decrease the country's armed force.

This, of course, is exactly what Truman and Johnson did—once Forrestal was destroyed—and this is the essence of the Forrestal tragedy.

The conflict raged through January, February and March, for by the middle of January, Forrestal's friends had begun fighting back. They spent $35,000 trying to counteract the Winchell-Pearson campaign.

Forrestal's friends also tried to divide the pressure groups. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had been brought in against Forrestal, with Walter White charging that the Defense Secretary had "delayed the end of segregation in the armed forces." To counteract this, the Urban League, another organization aiding the cause of Negroes, came vigorously to Forrestal's defense. The Urban League had assisted Forrestal in combating Communism among Negroes on our ships.

Responsible publishers tried to come to Forrestal's aid. Eugene Meyer dropped Pearson's anti-Forrestal columns from the Washington Post.

Because Forrestal had been reared in a Catholic home, then had drifted away from the church and married a divorcee, he was attacked as a "renegade Catholic." The office of Cardinal Spellman, which perhaps had not been entirely unaware of Forrestal's efforts in Europe, rallied to his defense. To show that the church backed Forrestal, it was first planned to award him an honorary degree at Fordham, but this couldn't be done until May, and Forrestal needed help in March. So it was hastily arranged for him to address the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick in New York on St. Patrick's Day.

At the St. Patrick's Day dinner, Cardinal Spellman, lauding Forrestal, went to the unusual extent of endorsing universal military training. If the Defense Secretary, the Cardinal said in effect, believes that this measure is necessary in this grave hour, then he has my support.

Forrestal's address was a sad affair, for after ten weeks of such buffeting he was a fading man. Truman had demanded his resignation within forty-eight hours. He wanted the resignation to be as of April first, but he wanted it in hand within forty-eight hours. Forrestal's first decision was to state his case in a long letter and release it to the press, and he asked his advisors in New York to prepare such a letter. Then he changed his mind and dictated his own brief resignation.

During March Forrestal appeared dazed and depressed. His friends thought he might have been drugged. He talked sadly about how America was going the way of France; he predicted

THE KOREAN WAR WAS By Truman, Acheson, Marshall In

Their successful method has been "To talk one way, but do another." (Budzyn testified that the secret formula agreed upon in Communist meetings with Lattimore was "That they would talk one way but do another.")

By this method of deception, they "talk against Communism, but act for it."

They have successfully deceived even their opponents, who have considered the Truman-Acheson-Marshall actions "bungling" whereas they have been "with design."

Truman-Acheson-Marshall have done everything to help Communism at home and abroad, namely:

1. Refused to discharge thousands of Communists on Government payrolls.
2. Refused to lock up a single Communist since passage of Communist Control Act (passed over veto) thereby allowing them to infiltrate our defense plants.
3. Hire to represent U.S. on United Nations, Gustavo Durand at $11,700 per year, who is a former head of a Russian Secret Police Society in Europe and who murdered Christians in Spain.

4. Refused to allow access to information in Government files in the trials of alleged Communists.

5. Tried to discredit the Hiss and Remington trials, calling them "red herrings."

6. Dumped into the sea 120,000 tons of ammunition (which we had stored in India after the last war) rather than give it to the Chinese Nationalists.

7. They gave China to the Communists in 1947 by sending Marshall there with the following instructions from Acheson, which Marshall carried out:

- (a) Placed an embargo on American and British arms to Chinese Nationalists.
- (b) Forced Chiang Kai-Shek to open the Kailash Mountain Passes, through which Russian arms then flowed to the Chinese Communists.
- (c) Forced Chiang Kai-Shek to reduce his army by one million men, most of whom then joined the Chinese Communist Army, to not be out of work.

(d) This resulted in victory for the Chinese Communists, and the retreat of the Chinese Nationalists to Formosa.

8. Truman-Acheson-Marshall made the Korean War as a "pretext" of fighting Communism, whereas they intend it to end in a Communist Asiatic victory over Korea, Indo-China, Thailand, Formosa, and finally over India and Japan.

(a) To bring on the Korean War, they purposely did not arm the South Koreans and withdrew our troops, although they knew the Soviet Union armed the North Koreans.

(b) They would not heed Admiral Hillenkoetter's warning of invasion, but Acheson announced in Jan., 1950, that we would not defend Korea nor Formosa.

(c) They knew the Soviet Union would then attack via North Koreans, and Truman then put our troops there "without consent of Congress" in order to start the war as a "pretext" of fighting Communism, intending the Communists to win.

Third Zionist War

"This outright breach of the peace in violation of the United Nations Charter created a real and present danger to the security of every nation; . . . it was a clear challenge to the basic principles of the United Nations."

He also said:

"The speed, the scale and the co-ordination of the attack left no doubt that it had been plotted long in advance."

He said that the United States was "going to the aid of the nation (Korea) established and supported by the United Nations and unjustifiably attacked by an aggressor force."

He said further:

"For our part we shall continue to support the United Nations action to restore peace in the Korean area. . . We are determined to support the United Nations in its effort to restore peace and security. . . We have also taken action to bolster the military defenses of individual free nations, such as Greece, Turkey and Iran."

The President also said in this message:

"I will transmit to Congress specific requests for appropriations in the amount of ten billion dollars."

He asked Congress to enact legislation authorizing the government "to establish priorities and allocate such materials as necessary to promote the national security and the increase of taxes, as our basic weapon in offsetting the inflationary pressure exerted by enlarged government expenditures, and to control credit." He said further that "if a sharp rise in prices should make it necessary, I shall not hesitate to recommend the more drastic measures of price control and rationing."

These are the powers of a dictator which the President proposes to invoke to enforce the "police action" of the United Nations. If granted they will not end soon. Certainly not until the "police action" is ended. He obviously aspires to be our dictator.

The President's message was received with acclaim by Congress and the press. They approved the defiance of Russia and the apparent repudiation of the Asiatic program of the Secretary of State and the appointment of General MacArthur as Commander-in-Chief.

The President's message plainly implied that the Korean invasion has been and is being prosecuted and directed by the Kremlin. If so, it means a long and costly war. It may mean the death of millions of men and the probable destruction of our government.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Enclosed find $2.00 — one for a year's subscription for the name and address given, the other for one dollar's worth of issues on Anna Rosenberg. Your expose on both these traitors has been outstanding.

C. H. B., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sid:

A friend has given me copies of your paper. Too bad every home in America can't be receiving it. Please enter my subscription and send special 12-page issue of October 15, 1950.

N. E., California

Dear Sir:

I have enjoyed reading COMMON SENSE, and feel that it is a blessing to many, as it has been to me. I would appreciate your permission to use certain articles in the small paper I publish.

B. B. B., Tennessee

Dear Mr. McGinley:

I received the 30 copies of COMMON SENSE and have mailed them out. Before I mailed them I wrote across the top: "Please do not destroy this. Give it, or mail it to someone. Be a worker in the fight against Communism. Make a list of names and addresses from a good directory and mail this copy to someone. Buy EXTRA COPIES and mail them out. The Communists have thousands of workers and we need thousands to defeat them."

W. McN., Ohio

Dear Mr. McGinley:

The situation grows worse with every hour. How can we expect to win this war with all the enemies in key positions in our government? Please send me copies of the January 1st issue; like to send it to Senators, etc. If women would rally together and organize the mothers and wives of servicemen they would do the job of cleaning house in Washington.

M. H., Fonda, New York

James W. Gerard, a former United States Ambassador to Germany, said on October 8, 1934:

"As a friend of the Jewish race, I want to state that, if ever the American nation gets the idea that the Jewish race and Communism are synonymous, there is the possibility of a pogrom in the United States that will make those of the Czars look like a small parade."

"We have exterminated the capitalists and property owners in Russia. We are going to do the same to the intelligentsia of Europe and America."

—Zinoviev, Chairman of the Communist Third International (Congressional Record, Dec. 19, 1925)

Colonel Charles Lindbergh

Is our Lord using General MacArthur to give Christians an opportunity to save themselves from wholesale slaughter and brutal slavery? The destiny of world civilization now depends on the United States for it is the only country with sufficient strength to oppose organized world atheism.

General MacArthur has all the qualifications of a good leader. However, if it develops that he does not run for President, we should not be so foolish as to trust America's survival to a mere politician. There must be a crusade led by a man who cannot be bought or bluffed. Col. Charles Lindbergh and General MacArthur are made of the same kind of steel. The intelligence, character and backbone possessed by General MacArthur is fresh in the minds of all. Another good brain, combined with patriotic wisdom, honesty and courage, is that of Col. Lindbergh. Each of these men has many enemies — the same enemies, the enemies of freedom.

Marxism tolerates only those leaders who carry out its plan. World Zionism, backed by such powerful Jewish bankers as Kuhn, Loeb &

Secret Cooperation With Zionism

- (d) In order to arrange a Communist victory, they
- (1) Do not allow us to bomb Manchurian Communist Sanctuary.
- (2) Do not allow us air reconnaissance over Chinese coastal cities.
- (3) Do not allow our 7th Fleet to blockade Red China coast, which would stop the war by shutting off Red China's oil supply.
- (4) Do not allow 1,000,000 South Koreans of military age to have arms to fight, altho they are in training. Decree Americans must die instead.
- (5) Do not allow 600,000 Chinese Nationalists on Formosa to invade China.
- (6) Lattimore said "We must let South Korea fall, but don't ever let them know we pushed it."
- (7) When Asia has fallen to the Communists, Europe is next to fall.
9. Truman-Acheson-Marshall intend to make the European War as a "pretext" of fighting Communist victory in Europe.

- (a) Truman insists on his claim to the right to put troops in Europe without consent of Congress, just as he did in Korea, for purpose of starting the war.
- (b) That is why Truman-Acheson will not admit 1 1/2 million willing Spaniards to a European Defense Army. They do not want us to win against Communism.
- (c) That is why they want us to be involved in a hopeless "Land War" in Europe, where the Soviet Union with 300 Divisions will wipe out 40 Allied Divisions.

To anyone but an idiot, it should be clear that "By talking one way but doing another" the Truman-Acheson-Marshall friends of Marxism, are turning over the world to Zionism in their long range plan, which started with the sell-out of China to the Communists in 1947. Their every action helps Communism, hurts our country. How long does it take you to see the real truth? Wake up, America, and put the deceivers in the penitentiary, for treason.

Ninety-nine percent of the people are for MacArthur, because he is for our country. Democrats who side with the Administration are not Democrats but friends of atheistic Communism.

Will we have an election in 1952? Not unless the traitors are locked up.

The secret plan of the Truman-Acheson-Marshall plotters is to keep the Korean War going by restrictions which prevent our winning it, and to thus use up our American manpower against the inexhaustible hordes of China and when America's manpower and money are gone, then the revolution, bloody or bloodless will take over in the U.S. America! Awake! Can't you see their plan! If you can't you are done. Judge by the record and you can come to no other conclusion.

field, especially through its Anti-Defamation League."

Only two months before this Buchanan Committee meeting, B'nai B'rith was given an editorial dressing down by a leading New York newspaper, the Jewish Daily Forward, for the "pro-communism" and "libels against America" which appeared in its monthly magazine.

Communist elements are in control of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. It does yeoman service for the Communist cause. It maintains a lecture bureau that features Communist Party-line speakers. Its literature is authored by a stable of Communist frontiers. It breeds intolerance. It fosters bigotry and race and religious prejudice. It persecutes pro-Americans. Its principal targets are anti-Communist. Its weapon is the smear terror.

It is a Nazi-like, un-American Gestapo. It is a Jewish Ku Klux Klan.

But it is not representative of the Jewish community. Respectable Jews are ashamed of it. Alert Americans of the Hebrew faith bitterly denounce it.

It is by far the most anti-Semitic of any group in the country, because its activities do the gravest injury to the Jewish people.

It is headed by former New York Supreme Court Justice Meier Steinbrink, and has other substantial window dressing, but its controlling clique consists largely of thieves, spies, racketeers and character assassins.

Its principal mouthpieces and hatchet men are Walter Winchell, who has financed the distribution of Communist propaganda attacking the House Committee on Un-American Activities, Drew Pearson, who was recently accused in the Senate of using his column and broadcast in the service of the Communist Party, Robert Allen, whose column is composed mainly of Red-tinged smears of good Americans, and Frederick Wolfman, a Scripps-Howard feature writer who was kicked off the faculty of the University of Pittsburgh for his Red activities, and who, like the others, hides his Communist Party-line propaganda behind a lot of phony "Anti-Communist" double-talk.

During an interview at the time of the Buchanan hearings, Westbrook Pegler asked Chairman Buchanan why he did not investigate the Anti-Defamation League. In an unguarded moment Buchanan blurted out the truth. He said he didn't dare.

Buchanan was perfectly right. The consequences of any attempt to investigate the Anti-Defamation League would have been devastating.

So the Buchanan Committee investigation ended without so much as a questionnaire's being sent to this super-lobby—with its annual budget of $7,000,000.

The Anti-Defamation League is the most powerful lobby—the most powerful and dangerous influence in the country. It is more powerful than the Congress of the United States.

On October 19, 1949 Representative John E. Rankin proposed an investigation of the ADL and offered a bill that would make it a criminal offense to belong to this organization under penalty of $500 fine and a year in jail. The bill died in committee.

Investigate the Communist-aiding Anti-Defamation League which was the real power behind the Buchanan Committee?

CONGRESS WOULDN'T DARE!

UN NEST OF SPIES

The U. S. Should Get Out of U. N. and Get the U. N. Out of U. S.

The U. N. was inspired and set up by Marxist plotters and traitors like Alger Hiss to level down all governments and establish a Marxist "world government" — World Slavery.

Trygve Lie, Secretary General (and in that capacity boss of the U. N.) is Stalin's errand boy. Although classified as a Norwegian, he has been placed in the position he holds by the Soviet Union.

It is reported that 83 percent of the U. N. Secretarial Staff are Yiddish Zionists.

The U. S. taxpayers have been tricked into paying almost the whole cost necessary to support the U.N. nest of traitors. The U.N. has not benefitted the U. S. in the least, but is constantly hatching new plans to spend America's money through the world. The U.N. has tricked American mothers into furnishing nearly all the boys now dying in Korea, 7000 miles away from home, while the U.N. keeps our hands tied in fighting Communist forces.

George Marshall, the political General who fronts for the Zionists, now reveals that it was the U.N. which voted to forbid General MacArthur's planned bombing of 200,000 Communist troops concentrated two miles behind the 38th parallel in Korea. That vast army of Communist forces, protected by the U.N., safely prepared to attack American sons who died by the thousands through the treachery of Dean Acheson, General Marshall and "Red Herring" Harry, with the cooperation of the U.N.

General MacArthur calls the war in Korea "the accordion war." It could also be called the "Traitor's accordion war."

The U.N. building should be locked up, and its traitors sent home. It is time to give America back to Americans!

General Douglas MacArthur

Co., Lehman Bros., Goldman Sachs, have subsidized and enslaved such dupes as Truman, Dean Acheson, General Marshall, General Bradley and General Collins to the extent that our military is controlled by anti-Christian Marxists such as Baruch, Anna Rosenberg, and Felix Frankfurter. Systematic persecution and smear, for the past eighteen years, has driven from public life those who were capable of national leadership.

Today this country has need of fearless, honest leaders. Men of the calibre of General MacArthur and Col. Lindbergh. Either of these patriots could be elected as President by making only six speeches — one in Boston, New York, Washington, Chicago, and in California and Texas. Real Americans stand up and be counted! Let us go on with the crusade for America!

(Readers will wonder why a later photograph of Col. Lindbergh was not used. When Col. Lindbergh mentioned who was pushing us into World War II to break down Europe for Communism, the Anti-Defamation League forbid the press to give publicity to Col. Lindbergh. Hence the difficulty in securing late pictures)

The Vanishing Americans Untold Facts In Forrestal Case

that American troops would be fighting within a year.

He showed interest when friends discussed with him the proposed purchase of the New York Sun. It was their plan to make him editor of the Sun so that he could continue his fight against the Soviet threat. When he went to Florida it was with the understanding that he would become editor of the Sun after his recuperation.

On April first Forrestal attended the mammoth swearing-in ceremonies for Johnson. He wept openly. The President insisted on decorating him—and Forrestal wept while the President was pinning on the medal, for he considered the gesture an insult. He walked back with Admiral Denfeld, weeping, and he told the Admiral that he was going down to Florida to play some golf.

On April fifth, there was a telephone call from Ferdinand Eberstadt in Washington to Robert A. Lovett in Hobe Sound, Florida. Mr. Eberstadt reported that Forrestal was ill.

"Is he very ill?" Mr. Lovett inquired.
"He is very, very ill," Mr. Eberstadt replied.

Four hours later, just at dusk, the big Air Force Constellation the Dew Drop, circled and landed at a small, deserted field near Hobe Sound. Waiting was a single automobile in which were Mr. and Mrs. Lovett and Mrs. Forrestal. The door of the airplane was opened, the small ladder dropped.

"I looked up there and saw him standing in the door," Mr. Lovett recalls, "and he looked so pitiful. He was alone. And he didn't look like the man I had known at all. He looked like a little, old Irishman. His eyes were sunk, and I couldn't see his upper lip. As he came stumbling down that ladder I reached up and caught him under the arms."

After he had greeted the two women, Forrestal stood under the tail of the airplane and told Mr. Lovett that "they had gotten him, that he was being followed, that his telephones were tapped, and he broke into tears as he said: 'They're going to catch us unprepared, Bob! America is going the way of France.'"

During the evening he was quiet, but next day he was worse. Mr. Lovett telephoned Washington and Forrestal's personal attorney, John Cahill, of New York, arrived with Dr. William Menninger and Dr. George Raines. The illness was diagnosed as "occupational fatigue," and Forrestal was returned to Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Just what happened during the seven weeks Forrestal was at Bethesda may never be known, but here are a few of the strange, human, and tragic developments.

Forrestal, in his 16th floor suite, spent most of his time entirely alone. Mrs. Forrestal sailed for Europe on April 12th.

Two of the persons who visited the hospital and who were most interested in Forrestal were his older brother, Henry Forrestal, of Beacon, N.Y., and Monsignor Maurice S. Sheehy, of Catholic University, Washington. Henry Forrestal lives at the Forrestal home place and is a highly respected citizen. Father Sheehy, a Navy chaplain, was one of Jim Forrestal's closest friends.

Early in 1949, Forrestal had asked Father Sheehy, along with Henry Forrestal, to help him return to the Catholic Church. To facilitate this return, some investigation had to be made into Mrs. Forrestal's previous divorce, and this investigation was conducted by Henry Forrestal.

Forrestal was admitted to the hospital by Captain B. W. Hogan, and Captain Hogan noted that Forrestal insisted on being listed as a Catholic. His first request was to see Father Sheehy, for reasons not yet explained. Captain Raines, the psychiatrist in charge, refused this request.

On April 12th, Henry Forrestal visited the hospital and talked with his brother as well as with Captain Hogan and Raines.

"Jim looked much better than I expected," Henry Forrestal recalls. "His eyes seemed clear; he was sharp and incisive. He told me: 'I'll be all right. We'll pull out of this.'"

What worried Henry Forrestal was the confinement in Bethesda. He told Captains Hogan and Raines: "What my brother needs is not to be cooped up up there on the 16th floor. He needs to be on an estate somewhere, among friends, where he can walk around in the sun. He has been an exceedingly active man."

Mr. Forrestal asked Captain Raines: "Is my brother fundamentally okay?" Captain Raines answered: "Yes."

Henry Forrestal also told the doctors that his brother wished to talk with Father Sheehy. Captain Hogan replied, according to Mr. Forrestal: "Yes, he has asked to see the Father several times. And, of course, he will."

On May 10th, 11th and 12th Henry Forrestal again visited the hospital. Meanwhile Father Sheehy had visited the hospital six times, each time asking to be allowed to see Forrestal and each time being denied permission by Captain Raines.

Henry Forrestal confronted Captain Raines and requested an explanation. Captain Raines, according to Mr. Forrestal, admitted that Forrestal had asked to see the priest. But Captain Raines wanted the priest to wait.

"How long do you want to wait, doctor?" Mr. Forrestal asked. "We have waited five weeks. Delays in such cases can be dangerous. Have you ever heard of a case where being visited by a clergyman has hurt a man?"

Father Sheehy, who is built along the lines of a Notre Dame fullback, is no man to be put off easily. After arguments with Captain Raines, Father Sheehy got the impression that Raines was under some sort of orders in the case, so he went to John L. Sullivan, Secretary of the Navy. Sullivan called Dr. Raines and was assured that Father Sheehy could see the patient "in time."

Henry Forrestal was also determined to obtain his brother's release from Bethesda. He felt that if he could get Forrestal out in the sun, on some estate, and allow Father Sheehy to talk with him, that he would recover quickly.

Father Sheehy, in opposing Dr. Raines, recalled statements by Dr. Jung to the effect that "out of hundreds of patients there was not one whose problem in the last resort was not that of finding a religious outlook on life. And again: 'No patient has been really healed who did not regain his religious outlook.'"

For Sunday, May twenty-second, Henry Forrestal had a travel reservation to Washington. He was going to make another effort to obtain his brother's release from Bethesda.

But it was too late. At 1:45 a.m. on Sunday, May twenty-second, Jim Forrestal escaped from his sixteenth floor prison to his death.

When he was buried in Arlington, Truman declared: "This great American was as truly a casualty of the war as if he had died on the firing line."

Father Sheehy declares: "Had I been allowed to see my friend, Jim Forrestal, receive him back in the Church, and put his mind at ease with the oldest and most reliable medicine known to mankind, he would be alive today. His blood is on the heads of those who kept me from seeing him."

Dr. Raines has nothing to say, though a formal demand has been made on the Navy by members of Congress for an explanation as to why Forrestal was denied the comfort of his friend and spiritual adviser.

Meanwhile, the people of the United States have paid in blood for the political opportunism which destroyed Forrestal. In a few years perhaps a monument may be erected to him, and a suitable inscription might be:

"Here lies a patriot who also possessed vision. In a period of crisis for his nation, when mediocrity was enthroned in Washington, he stood forth as a first-rate mind, a dedicated spirit, an inspiring Renaissance man who understood the realities of the world in which he lived, and who, scorning the opportunism, gave his energy, his mind and his life."

—William Bradford Huie.

General Dwight Eisenhower

General Dwight Eisenhower, the politician who has been tamed and harnessed by the Zionist Invisible Government, — they own him. During World War II Eisenhower gave the order for our army in Germany to back up from Berlin and wait until the ape-men from the Soviet Union could rape the German women, carry off valuables, machinery, etc. in the thousands of lend-lease trucks Harry Hopkins and other traitors in our government had maneuvered to Communist U.S.S.R. He was an important factor in imposing insane "unconditional surrender" on Germany — now he wants the German people to trust him. This is the Ike who, while President of Columbia University, turned the Polish language department over to Communism causing Professor Coleman to resign. The Zionist masterminds are cleverly building up Eisenhower for President; it makes little difference to them whether he runs as a Democrat or a Republican. Eisenhower himself does not know which he is. He is a Marxist stooge and would make a more dangerous president than "grasshopper" Truman.

Mr. Gunther: Your Pink Is Showing!

Gunther is an individual who writes books such as "Inside Latin America," "Inside Europe," "Inside Asia," and "The Fiddle of MacArthur." He should write one on "Inside Zionism."

In a very clever way, Gunther slants his books towards Communism—he criticizes Communism 10% and praises the Communist program 90% without openly admiring Communism.

It is always interesting to know the background connections of the bright fellows who manage to keep on the popular side while slyly plugging for world Marxism. It helps complete the picture, and show what group really launches the Marxist plans and "brotherhood" propaganda to keep Christians tolerant, quiet, and naive.

While the Gunthers lived in Russia, Mrs. Gunther told a very reliable source that her husband is part Jewish. Of course, she meant Yiddish, for those natives of Russia, who call themselves Jews are actually Khazars, or Yiddish.

It is the Yiddish-Khazar group (working under the pretention that they are true Jews) which created Bolshevism—now called Communism.

John Gunther, of course, like many other Marxists, has made much money injecting poison into the minds of people who do little thinking of their own. It should be enough for most Americans that Gunther's books have been praised by the Communist British Jew, Harold J. Laski, and the American Jewish radical, Clifton Fadiman.

Gen. MacArthur Understands The "Invisible Gov't"

became the recognized leader of the opposition but for Truman's myopic and venetual firing of him. Both Roosevelt and Truman had followed a policy of allowing the potential memesis a comparatively free hand in the Far East to keep him from resigning and coming home. They seemed to recognize that there was not room for a MacArthur-at-large and the internationalist New Deal inside the same United States.

Some of us thought in 1948 that MacArthur was the man to save the Republic. It was privilege to be one of the volunteer lecturers urging his nomination for President and my wife was secretary of the MacArthur-for-President Club (of which the gracious and eloquent Louise Ward Watkins of Pasadena was president). President or not, MacArthur already is the leader we need.

No other man in our time has been the target of such a long and intense smear campaign. A former Communist named Pate, now anti-Communist, about two years ago revealed the origin of the smear. Pate said that in 1932 he was one of the Communist organizers of the Bonus Marchers, their original purpose being to discredit President Hoover (and thus make way for a candidate friendly to Communism).

You may recall that the Bonus Marchers got out of hand and finally some Washington, D. C., police fired on them. Four hours later President Hoover ordered the Chief of the Army Staff, Douglas MacArthur, to move them off the unsanitary Anacostia flats and out of the nation's capital.

MacArthur went among the Communist-inclined vets, unarmed and without a guard. He found some who had served under him in the first world war and struck up a conversation with them. He emptied his pockets to buy food for their wives and children. And his troops moved them without firing a shot, despite frantic incitation to violence by vet leaders not then known to be Communists.

Pate said that he and comrades, taking orders by telephone from an "invisible" superior named Levine, launched a flock of deliberate fabrications to cut down the man who had shown such leadership. They and the infiltrated press said it was MacArthur who had ordered the firing on the veterans. They ridiculed his immaculate dress, though it is a point of pride with any good soldier to be immaculate. The tales spread and grew, and never were allowed to die.

During the recent war, though MacArthur was needed by the Communists and their New Deal front to save them, he was personally vilified because he was recognized as a potential rival of Roosevelt. All over the scattered islands of the Southwest Pacific, American soldiers suddenly broke out in a chorus of anti-MacArthur blarbs. They called him Dugout Doug. They recited a jingle ridiculing his inspiring promise, "I shall return." They said he ran away from his command at Bataan, though actually he had refused to leave till Roosevelt ordered him out and sent a PT boat to get him. They said he and Mrs. MacArthur had taken a cargo of luxuries aboard with them instead of using the space to evacuate personnel, but the fact is, they took hardly a change of clothing.

It was no accident that tens of thousands of soldiers on scores of islands scattered over a wide ocean suddenly began rhyming the same rhymes at the same time. Such campaigns originated largely in New York City, whence Communist wives and molls sent their letters to their soldiers on the islands. As the Counter Intelligence officer for a B-29 wing on Guam, I saw a similar stream of letters from Communist women in New York to their men in our unit, keeping them posted on the Communist "line."

The Hearst newspapers of April 23, 1951, quoted Prof. Louis Budenz, ex-Communist, in revealing how the Communist Party conducted the smear-MacArthur campaign from 1945 on. Budenz was editor of the Daily Worker in 1945 and thus was the central figure, or figurehead, in the smear operation.

The Hearst papers recently revealed also that President Truman now has put the Pentagon to work digging into every minute detail of the private and professional life of MacArthur for mater-

Scouting Around

By - F. L. Britton

John Garfield

It's an ironic fact that while anti-Communist sentiment is on the increase throughout the country, the House Committee on un-American Activities—which did so much to expose Communism in former years—is now falling down on the job. Although it has not been noticed by the national press, the present Committee is obviously an emasculated shadow of its former self.

Actually, recent hearings have uncovered little new about Communist activity, contrary to what the headlines would indicate. The rather impressive appearing list of Communist-fronters, released for publication in March of this year, is a re-hash of a list first published by the Committee in April 1949—almost two years ago.

Strangely, the Committee seems more anxious to clear suspected Comies of the now unprofitable Red taint than in digging up new evidence against them. All this supports the belief that the New Deal faction is using the Committee and its enormous prestige to undo some of the damage inflicted on the Reds in former years. Best example of this is the way the Committee handled the Larry Parks case.

Parks (star of The Jolson Story) admitted before the Committee that he had been a party member for four years, but disclaimed any sympathy for Communism since 1945. This is in line with present party strategy. Posing as a young man with liberal ideas who had been taken in by the Reds, Parks pitifully begged the Committee: "Don't make me crawl in the mud." This, while thousands of G.I.'s were dying in the mud of Korea!

The sickening part of it all came when the Committee's Congressman Velde actually praised Parks for his "cooperation" and expressed the hope that his career would not suffer from the investigation. It was later brought out (but not by the Committee) that this Yiddish actor had engaged in pro-Communist activity as late as 1947 by campaigning to raise funds for the defense of the "Hollywood Ten"; nine of whom, incidentally, are Jewish.

The John Garfield incident is another example of the Committee's peculiar behavior. Garfield (JULIUS GARFINKLE) was given the opportunity to use the Committee as a platform from which to broadcast his "innocence." To hear Garfield tell it, he has no love for Communism, never did, thinks it is un-American, etc., etc. But the record shows he has belonged to no less than 11 Communist-front organizations; a fact which the Committee apparently ignored.

Communism is bad news at the box office these days. Obviously, both Larry Parks and John Garfield are aching in the pocketbook, but just why the Committee feels impelled to relieve their agony is hard to understand.

Now Louella Parsons has come up with the brilliant suggestion that the Committee clear Edward G. Robinson (EM-MANUEL GOLDENBERG) of the Red taint. Robinson has belonged to 15 Communist-front organizations by the last count. Our Culture Jewish Controlled

It isn't generally known, but the fact is that America's culture (as well as her cultural outlets) has fallen almost completely under Jewish domination. For example, RCA Victor, subsidiary of the Jew-owned Radio Corporation of America, recently published a 76-page booklet for America's music lovers entitled "Words and Music."

They list the following soloists as the five prominent violinists in the country: Fritz Kreisler, Mischa Elman, Jascha Heifetz, Yehudi Menuhin, Nathan Milstein—all Jews. Not a single Gentile violinist is named in the booklet. Mentioned also are 19 outstanding harpsichordists and pianists—Alexander Brailowsky, Vladimir Horowitz, Wanda Landowska, Artur Schnabel, etc. Of the 19 listed, 12 are known to be Jews.

Incidentally, of the 26 major symphony orchestras in the U.S., 13 have Jewish conductors. If the Boston Pops and the NBC Symphony are included (neither technically a major orchestra) the count is 15 out of 27. These Jews are not contributing to our culture, they are strangling it.

Two of the main cultural outlets, Columbia Broadcasting Company (CBS) and National Broadcasting Company (NBC) are Jew controlled. And, did you know that the Yiddish Shubert family has controlled the legitimate theatre in America for almost 5 years? Did you know that Jew-controlled corporations dominate the movie industry? More of that in another issue . . .

ial which can be used to discredit him. We suspect that this is the Anti-Defamation League's David K. Niles, adviser to Mr. Truman, who is using the presidential office to further the Communist campaign of "character assassination", and we see that Drew Pearson and Zionist Senator Lehman malign MacArthur, while nearly all the Jewish papers smear or give him the silent treatment.

The newest smear "line" is that MacArthur as President would be a "man on horseback" a military dictator.

MacArthur will survive this campaign, too. He is too big for the gutter-sniping enemy.

A good many people have asked whether or not MacArthur understands the nature of the Communist conspiracy. One of his letters, published by the Los Angeles Examiner in March, 1948, seems to answer their question. In that letter the potential presidential candidate challenged the power of "any segment of our society designed to impose upon us an invisible form of government" and committed himself to "seek an America rededicated to our traditional concept of majority rule."

Regarding the smear technique he wrote: "I have long understood the nature of the forces that would be unleashed against me were I to indicate my readiness to answer any call to duty. . . The American Communist Party through its leader on December 8, last, publicly named me the primary target of the Communist attack. . . This is the identical minority tactics of the Communist attack. . . This is the identical minority tactics before which men have yielded in eastern Europe and governments have fallen and freedom has perished. . . ."

"It was not for me to yield before such pressure, as to have done so would have been a shameful betrayal of the immutable concepts for which our country stands. . . Rather was it because of this very threatened pressure that my decision was reached to make unmistakably clear my continuous readiness for public service."

These are the fighting words of a general who understands the enemy and who knows that the best defense is to attack. The Korean problem is only a small part of the world problem. An aroused public likely will force Truman to allow Chiang-Kai Shek to fight for the liberation of his own country against the Communist imposters. That will immediately force Stalin to pull Chinese Communists out of Korea to defend the China mainland. This single reversal of policy by Truman would give us a victory almost immediately in Korea.

But MacArthur will not then fade away. He said at Chicago the thing we have wanted to hear him say: "I shall fight . . . Communism as long as God gives me the strength to fight." God give him strength!

HAIL, RED HERRING HARRY!

All hail Red Herring Harry,
The Man from Kansas Town,
Who cut MacArthur's throat
And thus won Red renown!

The Reds began to celebrate
And Uncle Joe sent 'thanks';
Off afar where Koreans are
There died a hundred Yanks!

All hail Red Herring Harry.
A patriot (?) bold and brave,
A man who held to politics
As our son lay in his grave!

And forever shall we remember
That little man who failed,
As in his heart he quailed.

When, some day in the future,
We weep o'er our hero dead,
Mothers of America, remember

At the time this paper goes to press, five separate assaults are being made upon the pocketbooks of the people of the United States without their knowledge of the harm being done to them.

These five separate assaults will mean a gift of $3,000,000,000. of the American people's good money to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" (Israel). It is urgent to alert the American people to the critical consequences which are inseparable from these five assaults upon their shrinking pocketbooks.

The American people have never had their eyes opened to the dangerous impact which these assaults are having upon their welfare and security. It is vital to the survival of the American nation that the American people immediately concern themselves with the great threat now critically poised at their very existence as an independent sovereign nation.

It will soon be too late to reverse the trend which is now challenging civilization. NOW is the last opportunity to learn what is secretly taking place behind the "Gold Caravan". NOW is the last opportunity to take that proverbial "stitch in time". PLEASE GOD, IT MAY NOT NOW BE TOO LATE!

Zionists pay U.S. $$$ for loot

The first of these five assaults are the negotiations being conducted between representatives of the United States, the United Nations Organization, and the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" for a FIFTY-YEAR, NON-INTEREST BEARING $1,000,000,000. "loan" by the United States to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" propose to use the proceeds of this "loan" to pay for the loot they have stolen from the lawful inhabitants of Palestine whom they recently drove into exile with U.S. and U.S.S.R. arms. It will be remembered that in 1948 1,000,000 lawful native inhabitants of Palestine were forcibly ejected from their ancient homeland by the armed Zionist aggressors who invaded their country. These armed hordes of alien invaders swarmed into Palestine from their historic countries of origin in eastern Europe.

S.E.C. legalizes Zionist larceny

The second of these five assaults is the successful Zionist assault upon the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of the United States. The invisible and invincible Zionist "state within a state" in the United States which has operated so successfully inside and outside our government obtained from the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) their approval to unload on Americans a $500,000,000. "bond issue" of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine".

This $500,000,000. "bond issue" is to be offered to the American investors commencing May 1, 1951. It will receive the support of the Administration under the direction of Lehman Brothers, Kuhn Loeb & Company, Goldhamer Sachs & Company, Bernard Baruch's Dillon Read and Company, and other leading financial masterminds here for the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The scene is set to use unprecedented pressure upon every business firm and every individual in the United States to purchase these "bonds" at the time when United States bonds are going begging at less than their face value. A perfect demonstration of Zionist dual-allegiance and divided loyalty to the United States.

The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) was organized in 1934 to prevent the sale of worthless securities in the United States to the American people. The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) was duly delegated by Congress with the authority and the responsibility to compel full disclosure of the financial resources and the financial competence of prospective borrowers as protection for American investors against financial rape.

Any leading American enterprise seeking the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for the sale of their securities to the American public on the basis upon which they approved the Zionist $500,000,000. "bond issue" would land somebody in jail. With the single exception of this Zionist $500,000,000. "bond issue" the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has a record of twenty-seven years faithful service to American investors. What mysterious wonders do these unseen Zionist hands. OR MORE LIKELY FISTS, work?

Zionist Congressmen on the job

The third of these five assaults is upon the Congress of the United States. This assault is for a $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid" from the United States Treasury. A "grant-in-aid" is a $2. word used by the "striped-pants oogs" for an international "hand-out". A "grant-in-aid" is a term used to camouflage an otherwise unobtainable gift sanctified by an unwarranted humanitarian implication. But by whatever name it is called it will be just another $500,- 000,000. "down the drain" for the American people. The "heat" was recently put on Congress by the Zionist "state within a state" for the first installment of this $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid".

On April 2, 1951 the Democratic leader of the House of Representatives, Congressman John McCormack, obliged his Zionist panders by introducing into Congress on that day a bill immediately providing for the first $150,000,000. installment of the $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid" to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". Congressman John McCormack, like all candidates for election or re-election to public office, from Governors, Mayors, Senators, down to village dog catchers, trample each other underfoot in their mad scramble to become sponsors for this Zionist $500,000,000. "grant-in-aid". Candidates for public office in the United States have learned by sad experience, or the case histories of their retired colleagues, that the "O.K." of the Zionist political underground guarantees election to office, and that their "K.O." guarantees VICE VERSA!

Acheson feathers future nest

The fourth of these five assaults is based upon the "Point Four" agreement shortly to be executed in Tel Aviv by the new Ambassador from the United States to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The recently appointed Ambassador from the United States, Monell Davis, carried with him in his briefcase a "Point Four" agreement. This "Point Four" agreement is to be signed upon his arrival in Tel Aviv as his "first official act" according to radio reports. President Truman's "Point Four" program calls for American "financial aid to underdeveloped areas" where NECESSITY for it clearly exists.

"Point Four" financial aid by the American people will dole out another additional $500,000,000. to these "Zionist authorities in Palestine" with which they can eventually carry out their present program for a "Tennessee Valley Authority" and other extensive reclamation and power projects in Palestine. The first installment for this $500,000,000. program will probably consist of an innocent-looking "toe-in-the-door" donation of a small fraction of the total amount. The valid obligation will rest upon the American people to supply the balance of the $500,000,000. needed to nationalize these industries.

"Tax-deductible" U.S. war-chest

The fifth of these five assaults consists of the "fund-raising drives" now going on at top speed all over the United States. Zionists plan to raise a total of almost another $500,000,000, in the United States primarily for use by these "Zionist authorities in Palestine". The "tax deductible" income-tax feature of these so-called "contributions to charity" will divert approximately $425,000,000. of this $500,000,000. from the United States Treasury to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". This loss of $425,000,000. from income-tax revenues of the United States must be otherwise obtained by higher income-taxes collected from the American people at large. Zionists make it appear that these "contributions to charity" are used exclusively for humanitarian activities. The American public are not aware that these funds are primarily and predominantly used for political purposes. The Internal Revenue Bureau is well aware of this fact but cannot oppose Zionist influence at the highest levels. They have tried and have failed.

105 - 76 21 - 66

U.S. aid to Zionist aggression

With few exceptions, these funds will be used to transport "synthetic" immigrants from eastern Europe, Asia and Africa to Palestine and to establish their economic security there. In 1948 the fully-equipped, invading Zionist armed aggressors drove 1,000,000 defenseless lawful inhabitants of Palestine from their homeland for 1700 years to make room in Palestine for these "synthetic" immigrants. Transplanting segments of population from one nation into the territory of another nation by armed aggression against the wish, will, and desire of its lawful inhabitants violates the basic American principle of "self-determination". The American heritage rejects aggression in any form. It is most repugnant to American tradition when aggression of this type offers as its alibi a racial, religious or nationalist flimsy myth. Americans are now commencing to realize that the purported Zionist humanitarian activities have been principally a disguise for territorial aggression by an ex-Asiatic horde suffering from a nationalist psychosis based upon a suppressed fanatic pseudo-religious "Chosen People" mania.

Counterfeit Political Zionism

Wherever reference in this paper is made to "Zionists" or to "Zionism" it is intended to refer exclusively to Political Zionism and not to Spiritual Zionism. Spiritual Zionism and Political Zionism are as different and as far apart as Heaven and Hell. At one time in history Zionism had only a spiritual significance. Zionism at one time reflected only the spiritual aspirations of orthodox religious pilgrims to live the remainder of their lives, and die on the soil which was to them the cradle of their religious belief. For twenty centuries Palestine has welcomed from all parts of the world devout pilgrims of the three religious faiths which regard Palestine as the cradle of their particular form of religious worship.

Spiritual Zionism has always been an expression of the individual. Spiritual Zionism was never organized formally on a collective basis. Spiritual Zionism had neither a territorial, racial or nationalist implication. In recent years Political Zionists "borrowed" the term "Zionism" as the title with which to disguise their conspiracy. The historic religious background of Spiritual Zionism completely deceives the world concerning the true motives and program of the Political Zionists. Millions of misguided Americans of all religious faiths still believe that Spiritual and Political Zionism are one and the same thing. It is time they learned the facts.

Political Zionism was conceived and developed in eastern Europe to its present world-wide power by the original apostles of Karl Marx. Marxists have speeded their plans for creating a total Marxist world by camouflaging their aggression behind the word "Zionism". Within the Zionist movement-Marxists have been using misguided Zionists to promote their Marxist program for world domination. The apostles of Marxism have used the good-will of Zionism to obtain the support of their otherwise non-cooperative co-religionists of miscellaneous nationalities and races throughout the world. In the minds of many millions of their co-religionists and others of different religious faiths Zionist propaganda has given the world the incorrect impression that Political Zionism expresses a spiritual implication.

Zionism camouflages Marxism

In their unsuspecting or indifferent ignorance on this subject many misguided millions throughout the world are giving aid and comfort to the Marxists. Many who hold high places in the governments and leading social groups dominating the culture of these countries do not suspect the truth. There are many however who collaborate with the Zionists for the financial gain and the political power which is offered to them for their submission to Zionist dictation. Intelligent analysis of what is going on in Palestine at the present time is proof that Zionism today is an integral part of the Marxist program for world control. ZIONISTS HAVE NEVER OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THEIR OPPOSITION TO MARXISM IN

THE MANNER EXPRESSED BY THE AMERICAN LEGION, VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS, AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR, COMMITTEE FOR INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS (CIO), THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND OTHER GROUPS WHICH HAVE PUBLICLY STATED THEIR STAND ON THIS ISSUE.

Zionists vote Communist

"Forewarned is forearmed" only if we have the intelligence to recognize the warning when it is put before our eyes. The Zionist "kept-press" has carefully concealed from the American people the relationship between Zionism and Marxism. On the day the General Assembly of the United Nations opened its session here in September, 1950, Secretary of State Dean Acheson travelled from Washington to New York to address the Assembly. On the opening day of its session India introduced a resolution for the immediate admission of Communist China into the United Nations. Secretary of State Acheson hastened to address the General Assembly and pleaded with its members to defeat that resolution. Secretary of State Acheson not only begged the members of the United Nations to defeat the resolution but he pleaded with them to take the vote on it that very day. Secretary of State Acheson explained that delay was dangerous for many reasons. Pursuant to that plea the vote on the resolution of India was taken immediately. In spite of the impassioned plea of Secretary of State Acheson to members of the United Nations to vote against the resolution to admit Communist China to the United Nations the delegation of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" (Israel) VOTED WITH THE SOVIET UNION AND THE SOVIET UNION SATTELLITES AGAINST THE UNITED STATES, VOTING IN FAVOR OF THE RESOLUTION TO ADMIT COMMUNIST CHINA INTO THE UNITED NATIONS AT ONCE, THE SAME CHINESE REDS WHO ARE NOW MURDERING OUR SONS AND BROTHERS IN KOREA!!!

Zionists O.K. Chinese Reds

BUT there is more proof to follow. The armed forces of the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" after the armistice in Palestine proceeded to invade the city of Jerusalem contrary to the United Nations partition plan for Palestine. This partition plan called for the internationalization of Jerusalem under United Nations control. THE UNITED STATES and the SOVIET UNION VOTED IN FAVOR of that partition plan. The "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" not only ignored the partition plan but also a further United Nations resolution specifically calling upon them to vacate Jerusalem. In reply to this resolution their armed forces invaded additional areas of Jerusalem. At this time the Soviet Union was working to get as many nations as possible to extend recognition to the Communist Government of China. The Soviet Union rulers found it extremely easy to make a "deal" with their blood-brothers who had become the rulers in Palestine and U. N. members.

The Soviet Union offered the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" to WITHDRAW Soviet Union support of the United Nations resolution demanding the withdrawal of Zionist Armed Forces from Jerusalem and the internationalization of Jerusalem if the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" would immediately RECOGNIZE the Communist Government of China. In spite of all the efforts by the United States to prevent that "deal" the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" immediately extended RECOGNITION to the Communist Government of China. IN A MATTER OF A FEW DAYS THE SOVIET UNION NOTIFIED THE UNITED NATIONS THAT IT WAS WITHDRAWING ITS APPROVAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTION DEMANDING WITHDRAWAL OF ZIONIST ARMED FORCES FROM JERUSALEM AND THE INTERNATIONALIZATION OF THAT CITY UNDER UNITED NATIONS CONTROL!

Zionists on Communist team

It does not require a big stretch of the imagination to understand on whose "team" the "Zionist Authorities in Palestine" are playing. What can the American people expect from a population which was transplanted to Palestine from the Soviet Union and Soviet Union Satellites? How many World Wars will the American people have to fight before they learn the rudiments of international double-cross intrigue?

As a witness before the Kefauver Crime Committee would say, "The American people are being taken for a $3,000,000,000. ride". From all appearances it will be a "one-way ride" from which neither the $3,000,000,000. nor many other priceless possessions of the American people will return. While this "ride" will cost the American people $3,000,000,000. in cash, the actual cost to the American people will be far in excess of that amount and will have to be reckoned in altogether different values than money. Responsible authorities have great fear that these "rides" will eventually end in the defeat of the United States by the Soviet Union in the seemingly inevitable, and somewhat imminent, third Marxist-engineered World War in our generation. They are aware of the fact that control of the strategic eastern Mediterranean and its important natural resources will determine the outcome of that war when it comes. WRITE THAT IN YOUR LITTLE BOOK!

Three Marxist-World Wars

Two recent Marxist-engineered World Wars have left indelible marks upon the American heritage which even the blood of a third war cannot erase. Nor is there wealth enough in the world to ransom the blessings which these two gargantuan struggles have already robbed the American people. The "real and present danger" to civilization is the existing threat of a third Marxist-engineered World War. It presents the horrifying prospects of the population of the entire world engaged in a grim struggle with the most modern mass-production methods for dealing out death. It paralyzes the imagination? A U.S. JURY JUST FOUND THREE ZIONISTS GUILTY OF DELIVERING OUR ATOM-BOMB SECRETS TO THEIR MARXIST BLOOD-BROTHERS IN THE SOVIET UNION! HAVE AMERICANS YET REALIZED HOW MANY MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN WILL BE ROASTED TO CINDERS BY THEIR TREASON?

The outcome of that struggle must inevitably result in the loss of our independence as a sovereign nation and the loss of the freedom and liberty we now enjoy under our present form of government. The surviving remnants of humanity will lose forever those "unalienable rights" of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness" for which our ancestors will have shed their blood in vain. The systems of government now blossoming throughout the world based upon government "of the people, by the people, and for the people" will disappear forever from the face of the earth to be replaced by universal slavery under totalitarian Marxist police-state dictatorships. Marxists give little choice to liberty-loving mankind. Many prefer to die standing on their feet fighting in defense of human rights rather than to live on their bended knees as slaves under a totalitarian Marxist police-state dictatorship, THANK GOD!

Sucidal U.S. foreign policy

The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States is literally and figuratively digging a grave for this nation in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area. The irony of this lies in the fact that this nation's grave is being dug with funds provided by the American people. When the deluded Americans wake up to this fact it may be too late to do anything about it. There will be no escape from the fate which international Marxists have decreed for the American nation. THEY MAKE NO SECRET OF IT.

The helpful hand of the United States, outstretched to a world in want, was first "bitten" by the Lend-Lease nations, and it survived, was then "bitten" by the UNRRA nations, and it survived, was then "bitten" by the Marshall Plan nations (ECA), and is surviving, and is now being "bitten" by the North Atlantic Treaty nations, and with God's help, will survive that also. But how long can this "luck of the Irish" hold out? It seems already to be wearing itself thin in places. THE SAD PART OF IT IS THAT WE DO NOT TAKE ANY NOTICE OF IT!

U.S. will win with Moslems

The United States stands as much chance as a snow-ball in Hell of winning a war with the Soviet Union without the good-will and cooperation of the 400,000,000 Moslem population in Europe, Asia and Africa. Nobody, BUT NOBODY, is more aware of that fact than the master minds in Moscow. When the Zionist-dominated Administration has drained off the last remaining dregs of friendship of our few remaining friends among Moslem peoples, the Soviet Union will be able to take on and whip the United States blindfolded and with both hands tied behind her back. Recognition of that fact is why the Soviet Union since 1945 has concentrated every effort to destroy the traditional friendship of the Moslems of the world for the American people. The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area has succeeded in accomplishing that result. To convert this traditional friendship for the American people into an intense hatred did not require very much extra effort on the part of the Soviet Union.

400,000,000 Anti-Communists

For more than a century the 400,000,000 Moslems of the world had only the greatest respect, confidence, and friendship for the American people. That friendship was a very precious possession of the American people and far beyond any possibility of evaluation. Now that we are losing it, its tremendous value is appreciated. The 400,000,000 Moslems of the world inhabit the territory extending across North Africa from Casablanca to the Atlantic the Suez Canal area, they inhabit Turkey and the Balkan States, part of the Soviet Union in Europe, all of Asia Minor and the continent of Asia from Iran (Persia) to China on the Pacific, including also Indonesia and the Philippines. About 35,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Soviet Union. About 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit China. About 85,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit Pakistan, directly to the south of the Soviet Union. About 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit India, directly to the south of Communist China. About 70,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Arab League states in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area which contains 77% of the world's known oil reserves. More than 50,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit Indonesia. More than 12,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems inhabit the Philippine area. This broad belt of territory extending along the underbelly of the Soviet Union is inhabited altogether by about 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems. The religious faith of these Moslems makes them MORE ANTI-COMMUNIST than the Christian population of the world.

Moslems and A-bomb security

In any war between the Soviet Union and the United States victory will be determined in the final analysis by the attitude of these 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems towards the American people. If these Moslems are forced by the Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States to throw in their lot with the Soviet Union, it will become impossible for the United States to win the war. The United States might be able to put up a good fight. But without the friendship of these 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems victory is highly improbable, if not entirely beyond the realm of possibility. The strategic importance of the areas they occupy, their huge man-power reserves, and the inexhaustible supply of their critical natural resources will prove the deciding factors in any war between the Soviet Union and the United States. Their importance exceeds that of the atom-bomb. The use of the atom-bomb is a "two-way" street. The United States will suffer more from atom-bombing by the Soviet Union than the compensating damage which we can inflict upon the Soviet Union with our atom-bombs. If the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems become the full-fledged allies of the United States there is nothing the Soviet Union can possibly produce to offset that tremendous advantage to the United States.

Moslems can win out in Asia

As an illustration of the great contribution which can be made by the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems of the world, the Egyptian Government has recently announced that it will place an army of 2,000,000 Egyptians at the disposal of the United Nations if the United States will supply the necessary equipment. The presence of an Egyptian army of highly-trained and well-equipped soldiers will reduce the obligation of the United States to send that many American boys to that area. During World War II the United States had an armed force of about 14,000,000 which represented about 10% of the total population. An Egyptian army of 2,000,000 soldiers represents about 10% of the total population of Egypt. On this basis the 400,000,000 ANTI-COMMUNIST Moslems can supply about 40,000,000 soldiers. In addition to 40,000,000 soldiers the good-will of the native populations offers another contribution which cannot easily be computed. This good-will relieves the United States of sending additional man-power to the combat area. Under these circumstances it seems utterly out of the question that the Soviet Union would dare to risk a war in Asia, Europe or Africa without any possible hope for a victory.

Moslem friendship for U.S.A.

The Zionist-dictated foreign policy of the United States in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area drove the opening wedge between the Americans and Moslems. The Zionists have continued to exercise this control over the Administration for the purpose of driving that wedge deeper and deeper. The Zionist-dictated policy of the delegation of the United States to the United Nations has virtually destroyed the last hope for preserving the friendship of the 400,000,000 Moslems of the world for the American people. As a result of the United States-sponsored Zionist aggression in Palestine, for which the United States must accept full responsibility, the Moslem population of the world has lost its confidence in the integrity of the American people. The Moslems have no way to learn that the fault lies with the Zionist-controlled Administration and not with the integrity of the American people. The Zionist "kept-press" in the United States has never permitted the truth regarding this condition to appear in its columns. The Moslems of the world cannot learn the attitude of the American people by reading the newspapers published in the United States. The Moslems of the world judge the American people by the promises and performances of their Zionist-controlled Administration. They have abundant material upon which to base their attitude towards the American people and they are not to be criticized for it.

Nothing can destroy confidence more completely than to preach one gospel and to practice the extreme opposite. How can the United States earn the respect and confidence of the Moslem people unless it practices what it preaches? The Administration is not doing that. It is doing the exact opposite. The Administration is rubbing salt into the open wounds of the Moslem peoples by continuing to allow the Zionists to exercise control over the foreign policy of the United States in the eastern Mediterranean area. The Moslem peoples of the world understand that the $3,000,000,000 which is being made available to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will be used as a war-chest for further aggression in Palestine and elsewhere against the Moslem people there and in the Near and Middle East. The Moslems of the world realize that the third Marxist-engineered World War will be the "green light" for the Zionists to put into operation their plans for further aggression and conquest in that area.

Zionist-U.S.S.R. war allies

The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are secretly and successfully converting the territory under their control in Palestine into an impregnable Marxist arsenal. The secrets for manufacture of the most modern weapons have been obtained by the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" through their highly-placed spies in governments and industries of the United States and other leading countries. The billions of American dollars which are flowing into the treasury of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are primarily employed for creating a Zionist war-machine for future aggression. Before the conquest of Palestine by the alien Zionist invaders, in 1948, Palestine was supporting a population in excess of 1,500,000 persons in addition to a British Army of Occupation of an additional 100,000 soldiers. Through the centuries the population of Palestine has flourished without the necessity for any financial assistance from foreign sources. Without any foreign financial assistance the native Palestinians have developed in 1700 years a territory smaller than the State of Vermont to a status where the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now proposing to pay them $1,000,000,000, which represents only a small fraction of the fair value under normal conditions of what they have stolen.

The alien Zionist invaders in 1948 drove into exile about 1,000,000 unarmed and defenseless native Palestinians. Since that time the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have brought about 600,000 Zionist immigrants into Palestine. It becomes apparent that at the present time Palestine has about 500,000 less inhabitants than at the time of the Zionist aggression in 1948. At no cost to themselves the Zionist aggressors expropriated all land and other property legally belonging to the 1,000,000 native Palestinians whom the Zionists had driven out of their homeland. These "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now attempting to pay these rightful owners for the land and other properties which they have stolen from them the $1,000,000,000, which they plan to obtain from the United States as a "loan" for FIFTY YEARS, AND BEARING NO INTEREST!!!!

Faked poverty Marxist disguise

It seems reasonable to expect that the present reduced population in Palestine should be able to support itself without contributions of billions of American dollars. Millions of penniless immigrants from the identical territory in eastern Europe from which the Zionist invaders of Palestine have come, during the past fifty years have immigrated to other countries throughout the world, notably to the United States, and have become men of great wealth by their own initiative. These millions of penniless immigrants to the United States from this territory in eastern Europe were able to establish themselves in the United States without assistance and become very wealthy. Under the free enterprise system in the United States this was possible without the assistance of billions of dollars to underwrite their capabilities. But a free enterprise system does not exist in Palestine. The economy in Palestine is organized on Marxist principles. State socialism is the basis of the economy in Palestine. Consequently, billions of dollars of American money must be dumped into Palestine to support the Marxist system there. Billions of American money were dumped into England each year since 1945 to support the experiment in State Socialism there which would have collapsed long ago without this assistance. Billions of American money are now being dumped into Palestine to support another experiment in Marxist Socialism. The entire economy in Palestine is based upon Marxist doctrines. Without a free enterprise system there the American people will be called upon continually to contribute billions to keep this Marxist state in existence. Under various pretenses the Zionist-controlled "state within a state" in this country will see that the American people supply all these billions of dollars to this Soviet Union satellite.

United Nations a Marxist front

A United Nations resolution in 1948 placed an embargo upon the shipment of arms into Palestine for the defenseless native Palestinians. It was an air-tight embargo. But this embargo was only effective against the defenseless native Palestinians and not against the alien Zionist invaders. Throughout the period of this one-sided embargo a fleet of the largest freight-carrying planes was secretly shuttling day and night between Kharkov in the Soviet Union and the Zionist armed forces in Palestine ferrying to them enormous quantities of Soviet Union tanks, heavy artillery and other modern military equipment. At the same time another fleet of the largest freight-carrying planes was also secretly shuttling day and night between Czechoslovakia and the Zionist armed forces in Palestine ferrying enormous quantities of the most deadly weapons produced in the Skoda arsenal, the greatest manufacturing plant in the world of the most up-to-date military equipment. For this equipment the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" were paying the Soviet Union and her satellites the American "tax-exempt" dollars raised in the United States for "humanitarian" use among the "DPs". The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have officially complained that "only $125,000,000" of the total $500,000,000 cost of these military supplies "came from the American people".

The additional $3,000,000,000, which the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" are now engaged in extracting from the American people will be used to create a Marxist "Gibraltar" in the strategic eastern Mediterranean area. This Marxist "Gibraltar" will be an ally of the Soviet Union in any future conflict. As an ally of the Soviet Union this Marxist "Gibraltar" will become one of the most important military bastions in the world. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" rely upon the cooperation and support of the Soviet Union for their future aggression. The Soviet Union relies upon the Zionists to obtain control of the oil and chemicals in that area. This alliance is the result of long-range planning which goes back more than twenty-five years. WAKE UP U.S.A.!

Zionists, Marxists, blood-brothers

The "people" who form the "hard-core" of the Soviet Union dictatorship are the blood-brothers of the "people" who form the "hard-core" of the "Zionist authorities in Palestine". That fact is a matter of public record. There is no attempt made to conceal it. It has never been contradicted when it has been publicly alleged. The rulers of the Soviet Union actually are the blood-brothers of the Zionist rulers in Palestine. The Zionist "kept-press" has never permitted the American people to be informed on this subject. The Zionist "kept-press" does not wish to educate the American people to the fact that the rulers of the Soviet Union and the rulers in Palestine have common racial characteristics, political ideologies and have pledged allegiance to each other!

The blood tie between the rulers in Palestine and the rulers of the Soviet Union is as strong for their country of origin as the attachment of immigrants of all origins. It is not to be overlooked that 92% of the population in Palestine today consists of people who were either born or who have lived most of their lives in the Soviet Union or in a Soviet Union satellite. The political ideologies which these aggressors carried with them to Palestine are no less Marxist than the political ideologies of their fathers, brothers, sons and kin-folk who remained behind in the Soviet Union and her satellites. AND RULE THEM TODAY. Zionist invaders have converted Palestine today into a colony of the Soviet Union. When trouble comes they will stick together. The American people will get the surprise of their lives if they think the Zionists in Palestine will join the United States as an ally when war comes. But it was the Government of the United States and the money of the American people which were solely responsible for the successful aggression of the armed Zionist invasion and conquest of Palestine. That is an unchallengeable historic fact which no Zionist will dare to deny. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" will not be the first country responsible for its existence to the United States to turn today violently against it. Other examples of this ingratitude are the Soviet Union, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, China, and other nations in Europe and Asia.

The people in Zionist Palestine today are transplanted segments of the populations of the Communist countries of eastern Europe. It is not realistic to anticipate that these transplanted Communist populations will take up arms against their blood-brothers in their former homelands behind the Iron Curtain. They are attempting at the present time to carry water on both shoulders. They hope to extract $3,000,000,000 from the American people without tipping off their allegiance to the Soviet Union. When the third Marxist-engineered World War breaks out the American people will be rudely awakened from their dream. The "Zionist authorities in Palestine" have not miscalculated or underestimated how dumb the American people can be in matters of this kind based on past performances.

Sauce for goose, sauce for gander

The North Atlantic treaty is the subject of much debate at this moment. The North Atlantic Treaty is an agreement between twelve members of the United Nations under the provisions of the Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter provides for mutual military assistance by the parties to any Regional Arrangement Treaty. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter provides that all matters which can be determined by local action shall be determined by the parties to the Regional Arrangements Treaty. The Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter specifically provides that if any member becomes the victim of aggression that it shall become the responsibility of all other parties to the Regional Arrangements Treaty to regard an act of aggression against any one party as an act of aggression against all parties to it.

The North Atlantic Treaty provides that if any signatory to that treaty becomes the victim of an act of aggression that all other signatories to the treaty shall consider it as an act of aggression against all signatories. Under this provision it is obligatory upon the United States to declare war against the Soviet Union in the event that the Soviet Union commits an act of aggression against any nation of Western Europe which is a signatory of the North Atlantic Treaty. The United States has the identical treaty arrangement with the 21 Republics of the Western Hemisphere under the same Regional Arrangements Chapter of the United Nations Charter. It is known as the Pan-American Union. However, the first Regional Arrangements Treaty registered with the United Nations was the Regional Arrangements Treaty between the eight countries in the Near East which make up the Arab League. The Regional Arrangements Treaty between Palestine, Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Trans-Jordan and Yemen was registered with United Nations in 1946. Under the terms of that Regional Arrangements Treaty these eight states of the Arab League put the world on notice that an act of aggression against any one of its signatories will be regarded by each member as an act of aggression against all members of the Arab League, Palestine included.

British honor hits low of lows

The alien Zionist armed invaders committed their act of aggression against the lawful inhabitants of Palestine upon the withdrawal of the British in 1948. The armed forces of the other members of the Arab League immediately came to the assistance of the people in Palestine under their Regional Arrangements Treaty OBLIGATIONS and RESPONSIBILITIES. It was the fulfillment of a United Nations obligation. It was not an "invasion" of Palestine by all the other members of the Arab League. The small, poorly-equipped armed forces of these other members of the Arab League were no match for the forces of the alien Zionist invaders who had been supplied with unlimited quantities of the most modern means for conducting blitz warfare by the United States, the Soviet Union and others. The armed Zionist invaders were a well-trained army which had obtained its training and also all its equipment in the United States, the Soviet Union and other Zionist-dominated countries. The rest is history. The conscience of the world will never be able to erase the blemish of that "double-cross" of the peaceful,

Innocent and defenseless 1,000,000 native Palestinians who were slaughtered or driven into exile as paupers.

Ralph Bunche disgraces Negro race

The alien Zionist invading juggernaut slaughtered these practically defenseless defenders of their homeland in a scale comparable to the slaughter of the atom-bomb dropped on Hiroshima. The defenders of Palestine were literally and figuratively fighting with pitch-forks against Sherman tanks. After the armed Zionist invaders had slaughtered or driven into exile approximately 1,000,000 defenseless native Palestinians and occupied their homeland, the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" CONSENTED to an "armistice" arranged by the United Nations. By the terms of the proposed "armistice" of Count Bernadotte, acting on behalf of the United Nations, the exiled Palestinians were to be returned to their homes in Palestine and their property restored to them. For daring to make that proposal the "Zionist authorities in Palestine" murdered Count Bernadotte. After the murder of Count Bernadotte the United Nations appointed Ralph Bunche as his successor. Ralph Bunche proved to be very "acceptable" to the "Zionist authorities in Palestine." For the terms of the "peace" arranged by him for the Zionists he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. To satisfy his Zionist masters Ralph Bunche arranged a "peace" whereby the 1,000,000 lawful native Palestinians who had been driven out of their homeland by the Zionist invaders were "sentenced to life" by him as exiled paupers. The alien Zionist armed aggressors were permitted to retain as "loot" the territory and property of these exiled Palestinians. That "peace" plan earned for Ralph Bunche the coveted Nobel Peace Prize and the "respect" of the world. We wonder whether Ralph Bunche would recommend such a "peace" plan in the United States if the armed forces of the Northern states invaded the Southern states and drove the entire Negro population into exile in Mexico? That is exactly the kind of "peace" Ralph Bunche established in Palestine. If there is any doubt left in anyone's mind regarding who controls the United Nations all doubt about it should be settled by the "peace" plan imposed upon the 1,000,000 lawful native Palestinians. It is any wonder that the Zionist "kept-press" and Zionist-controlled organizations continue to heap "honors" upon Ralph Bunche? And he accepts them!

U.S. high-treason to Almighty God

The desire by the original Thirteen Colonies for "self-determination" gave birth to the United States of America. Since its creation in 1776, the United States has been a devout apostle for "self-determination" for all peoples throughout the world. Many leading countries throughout the world owe their existence to the support received by them from the Government of the United States and the American people in their struggle for "self-determination". The principle of "self-determination" FOR ALL PEOPLES OF THE WORLD was made the foundation of the United Nations Charter. The solemn pronouncements of Presidents of the United States, including recent pronouncements of President Truman to aid all peoples "in Europe, Asia and Africa" in their struggle for "self-determination", emphasizes this basic American ideology. "Self-determination" denotes the democratic process by which the lawful inhabitants of a country decide for themselves under what form of government they choose to exist as a sovereign nation.

Zionists prostitute U.N. Charter

The application of "self-determination" is effected now by the democratic process known as a "plebiscite". A "plebiscite" is an election by secret ballot by which the majority of the population determines their form of government. The United Nations has called for "plebiscites" in Korea, in Kashmir, in Indonesia, in Libya, in Indo-China and other countries where the principle of "self-determination" is to be applied for the first time. When the British Army of Occupation in Palestine withdrew, Zionist-controlled United Nations used all its power to PREVENT the holding of a "plebiscite" in Palestine. The United Nations thereby prostituted the very purpose for which it was brought into existence. The United Nations had ordered many "plebiscites" for the populations of backward nations to select the form of government they desired by the process of "self-determination". The Zionist-controlled United Nations exerted every effort to PREVENT the people in Palestine from holding a "plebiscite" despite the fact that the ancestors of the Palestinians were the most highly civilized people in the world when the populations of Western Europe were living in tree-tops like monkeys.

Zionists pervert purposes of U.N.

Zionist control of the United Nations has been used to abort the very purpose for which the United Nations was brought into existence. The Zionists had a reason for exercising their control over many United Nations delegations. When the British Army of Occupation first moved into Palestine in 1919 only 1% of the population were potential Zionists. In the period between 1919 and the withdrawal of the British in 1948 the Zionist population in Palestine increased to 30% of the total population as the result of illegal Zionist immigration. A "plebiscite" under United Nations supervision would not have resulted in the creation of a Zionist-controlled government upon the withdrawal of the British from Palestine in 1948. For this reason the Zionists PREVENTED the United Nations from holding a plebiscite in Palestine. After the 100,000 British soldiers withdrew from Palestine in 1948, the armed Zionist invaders drove 1,000,000 native Palestinians into exile. They had formed 70% of the total population in Palestine in 1948. The remaining 600,000 Zionists then made up 99% of the population. A plebiscite then became purely academic, entirely unnecessary, and was never held.

BOASTING OR APOLOGIZING?

"HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR BRITAIN AND AMERICA, HITLER WOULD HAVE DESTROYED COMMUNISM, OR, AT LEAST DRIVEN IT BACK TO THE URAL MOUNTAINS" — Winston Churchill.

(Mr. Churchill made the above remark in his speech at the American Independence Day dinner at the Dorchester Hotel July 4, 1950. And unless he has quite forgotten his responsibility in the matter, he must surely have been either boasting or apologizing.)

World Government has been the cry of Marxian socialists for 20 years — we are promised a vague Utopia for which we are asked to give up our NATIONAL sovereignty, independence, CONTROL OF CURRENCY, immigration laws, taxing powers and our political freedom.

James Warburg says, "that WORLD GOVERNMENT" would come whether we liked it or not.

Scott Nearing, listed as a very prominent communist, said, "UNITED STATES must take the lead in forming a FEDERAL WORLD GOVERNMENT, for the UNITED STATES is a threat to the peace and security of its neighbors."

Senator McCarthy Challenges Marxism

SENATOR JOSEPH R. MCCARTHY

Those Americans who wish to live as free men and enjoy Christian worship as they see best, should thank our good Lord for such a man as Joe McCarthy. Senator McCarthy, like all other leaders who had the courage to challenge Marxism, is now attacked by Marxists and their dupes and hatchetmen. Only a few Communists are allowed to admit that they belong to the Communist party and, actually, none have carried cards since 1945. Those 55,000 admitted Communist Party members are only shock troops for the Marxist-Zionists who are the brains and directors of Communism while posing as loving, respectable men and philanthropists.

By Major Robert H. Williams, Santa Ana, Calif.

Russia's perfecting the bomb, under the circumstances, at an early date was expected by many an ordinary citizen and by some of the soundest of America's military leaders. Why did it fool Truman and Johnson, the men who determine America's military future?

Evidently these men are surrounded and kept uninformed and misinformed. It is no longer possible to doubt either that U. S. Intelligence agencies are infiltrated by men influential enough to fool the President and Secretary of Defense, or else that civilian advisers are able to explain away and discount the warnings submitted by Intelligence.

One thing is certain about this business: Mr. Truman and Mr. Johnson do not understand the deception and trickery, and the racial character of Communism and its kinship to organized Zionism. These men lack the judgment to know whom they can trust. There is nothing more important in the making of a good executive than such judgment and its lack is a dangerous weakness.

In his recent speech before the American Bar Association Mr. Truman followed the Communist and the Zionist party line (which is the same line in almost every detail) from beginning to end. For example, he belittled Communism in America as a small, despised group, noisy, but practically harmless and kept well in hand by Truman's men!

For years it has been part of the Communist and the Zionist line to publicly belittle the influence of Communism in America. During the recent war a lieutenant whose record in my Intelligence files showed him to be a Zionist and also a member of Communist fronts, belittled the Communists as "just a small articulate minority."

Who wrote that Communist speech for Mr. Truman? Who keeps fooling the President about Communism at home and the atomic progress of the Soviets?

Suspicion points to David Niles, born Neyhus, a man whose pro-Communist history is a matter of record. Niles, the son of Russian Jewish immigrants, was described by a not-unfriendly writer in the Saturday Evening Post December 24, 1949, as "Mr. Truman's Mystery."

THE COMMUNIST THREAT TO AMERICA

REDS DEFEND ROSENBERG

By Major Robert H. Williams

The time has come when we must accept this kind of activity—the promotion of a vicious Communist front—for what it is a vital weapon in the Communist world revolution. The appointment of one of the principal personalities in this front to the position of Assistant Secretary of Defense knives in the back every anti-Communist soldier in Korea.

Mrs. Rosenberg's Communist-aiding friends betray her by coming to her defense. One is Senator Herbert H. Lehman, of "the secret government of the United States," supporter of Marxist measures, international Jewish banker who defended Alger Hiss and arranged with his (Lehman's) niece, Mrs. Benjamin Buttonwieser, to shelter Mr. and Mrs. Hiss in her home during the second Hiss trial. Senator Lehman sat beside Mrs. Rosenberg as the Senate committee questioned her, his purpose presumably being to soften the questioning by his presence.

The New York Post, Communist-aiding "anti-anti-Communist" daily newspaper, bannered across page 2 of its Dec. 14 issue: ANTI-SEMITIC 'HATE SHEETS' SPAWN ROSENBERG RED LIE. Following the usual Communist tactics of trying to deny Americans the right to defend their country against Communism and Zionism by denouncing them as anti-Semitic, the article began: "The nation's anti-Semitic 'hate sheets' were revealed today as being behind the attempt to block Senate confirmation of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense by pinning a 'Communist' label on her." The Post ran a photograph of the front page headlines of Common Sense, anti-Communist

Harry Hopkins. How did he first come to the White House? Here is how we understand it. A professor at Grinnell College in Iowa where Hopkins had graduated gave Hopkins a letter to Anna M. Rosenberg and she introduced him to Eleanor Roosevelt. Eleanor took Hopkins to F.D.R. and later Hopkins moved into the White House to live and direct for the Anna M. Rosenberg crowd.

It was through Harry Hopkins that most of the trickery was used to maneuver the U.S. in World War II. F.D.R. sent Hopkins to make the

(Editor's Note: The following condensation of a speech made by the former Member of Congress from Texas at Galveston, Texas, 1948, is being printed now because it so graphically shows the trap into which Roosevelt led us.)

Christian civilization is more gravely menaced throughout the world today than ever before in history. At long last, many of our people realize that fact. Unfortunately, however, they realize it imperfectly and incompletely. There are still millions of people in the United States who have no conception of the methods, tactics, and purposes of communism.

It has been a short time since World War II was over. You recall that when we asked our boys to serve in our armed forces that the President of the United States and other leaders assured them that this was a war to end all wars. We were told that if and when we defeated Adolph Hitler, we would establish a just and lasting peace.

Today the dictatorship of Joseph Stalin is a greater menace to our security and to our freedom than ever was the dictatorship of Adolph Hitler. Hitler occupied a country with 70 millions of people, limited in natural resources. Joseph Stalin has a country with a territory larger than the United States and Canada, with more natural resources than any country on earth, and 200 million people. He has succeeded, without firing a gun, acquiring 650 thousand square miles and 110 million subject people. Certainly there ought to be some people in America that are deeply interested in finding out what happened, because never in the history of the world has one country made such tremendous strides toward world domination as the Soviet Union.

Only a few years ago, Russia was looked upon as a third-rate power. Today, all of us must concede that Russia is the most powerful country on earth. How did that happen? I propose to answer that question. And in answering it, I am going to tell you some of the intimate details of conversations and conferences between me and President Roosevelt, Henry Wallace, Madam Perkins, Eleanor Roosevelt, John L. Lewis, and others.

Americanism Victorious Over Marxism

U. S. Air Forces Battle Korean Communists

Acheson, Hiss, Lattimore Blamed for Disaster
President Truman's announcement that U. S. air, naval, and ground forces will aid the Southern Korean democracy in its battle against the Northern Communist-controlled half of Korea turns the cold war into a hot war with the grave possibility of an all-out war between America and the U.S.S.R.

Senator Malone (R.-Nev.) speaking before the Senate, said the situation is a direct result of mistakes at Yalta and mistakes made since then. "And, if we do not bring on a war it certainly will not be our fault," he said.

Naming Hiss as the "famous adviser" to the late President Roosevelt at Yalta and Lattimore, adviser to the State Department, Senator Malone continued: "It is fairly clear that what happened in China and what is now happening in Korea was deliberately brought about by the advisers of the President at Yalta and the advisers of the State Dept. since then."

Zionist Conspiracy To Obtain Records Of Common Sense Defeated

On June 14th, 1950, Conde McGinley, Editor of COMMON SENSE was acquitted after thirty minutes deliberation by the Jury of resisting and assault of two deputy sheriffs, Alfred Greenberg and Harry Kaplan. This was a happy occasion for COMMON SENSE and another victory for Americanism over Communism.

This is an almost unbelievable story of the inside maneuverings that take place to those who are fighting Communism, and dates back to Friday afternoon, June 17, 1949, when the Zionists attempted to confiscate the records, files, etc. of COMMON SENSE to satisfy a judgment about which the Editor knew nothing. The "authority" for this was based upon some litigation in regard to a printing bill which a group of men, of which Mr. McGinley was not a member, arranged for the printing of COMMON SENSE. What Strange Power Pulls Strings? Who Are The Enemies Of America And Common Sense?

What is the strange power that forces six printing concerns to discontinue printing COMMON SENSE at the same time that more than 400 Communist owned, or controlled, publications continue to spew their poison into the bloodstream of the American population?

The American Jewish Congress is composed of Zionists. The American Jewish Congress has been cited as "Communist infiltrated" by the un-American Activities Committee. It was a Zionist lawyer, representing himself as from the "Law and Social Division" of the American Jewish Congress, who approached our sixth printer and brazenly demanded that our printer stop publishing COMMON SENSE at once or he (the lawyer) would have all Jewish advertising withdrawn from the largest semi-weekly paper in New Jersey, owned by our printer.

"Tolerance!" Shrieks the American Jewish Congress.

Human nature being what it is, the public is becoming accustomed to seeing people fall to almost any depths to make money. Murder Inc. murdered humans for a price; some ghouls rob graves for a price; but, Walter Winchell (Lip-schitz) ruins the reputation of good Americans for a price.

When the Anti-Defamation League, the Jewish gestapo in America, or the American Jewish Congress, which is saturated with Reds, gives the word, "hatchetmen" Winchell (Lip-schitz) and Drew Pearson lead off with another dirty job of character smearing. UNITED WORLD FEDERALISTS A TRAP TO USE TRUSTING AMERICANS IN ABOLISHING THE UNITED STATES

By Merwin K. Hart, President, National Economic Council, Inc. . . . Letter 231

America faces one grave danger rarely touched upon by commentators who list proposals to come before Congress.

This danger lies in the schemes for "world government." Their proponents are going to press one or another of them at this session. And it might go through.

This world government idea is, in a nutshell, that the United States should throw in its lot politically with other nations, and therefore be governed no longer by Congress, but by an international Authority. In that Authority the United States would be a hopeless minority.

UN-World Jewish Plan

The Jewish plan for world conquest and for ruling the entire world is now well underway. There is every likelihood that the future "World Government" will be the organization presently known as the United Nations. Already the world has been divided into two concentrations of power—one controlled by the Jews of Moscow under the Jewish Seal of Solomon (Five pointed Star) and the other by American Jewry of Wall Street under the U.N.O. banner of pale blue and white, the same blue and white used for the Israeli flag.

The arch hypocrite of all times, Bernard Baruch, a member of the U.N. Atomic Commission, has called for economic conscription in the United States which will mean further and even tighter concentrations of economic power into the hands of American Wall Street Jewry. The internationalization of raw materials, the European Army, the European Parliament at Strasbourg, the Schuman Plan (originated by the Jew, David L. B. Schuman) and the U.N. Atomic Commission, Foreign Minister Mr. Schuman will tend to weld together the neo-Communist world force firmly in the clutches of American Jewry.

All that is now required is for the two giant power mechanisms, one operated by American Jewry under the pale blue and white Israeli colors, and the other by the Moscow Jewry under the five pointed star, to merge into one giant "Super State."

It is reported that the target date is 1955—hence the "World Government by 1955" Movement. If the five pointed star of the Soviet-bloc be added to the pale blue and white U.N.O. flag by, say, 1955 all that will then be required for the "World Flag" to be identical with that of the new State of Israel will be to add one point—i.e., change it to the six pointed Star of David.

Plans call for giving to the U.N.O. all atom, hydrogen bombs—armies—navies—air forces, for they are "too dangerous to be left in the control of any power or group of powers." Ultimately the U.N.O. Army and atom bomb force, operating from Jerusalem, will be used to stamp out any Gentile revolt. The Jewish U.N.O. will be supreme and anything which can be interpreted as "anti-Semitism" (U.N.O. Genocide Convention, drafted by the Polish Jew Professor Raphael Lemkin, now on the staff of Yale University will cover the "crime") will be punishable by prison or death.

Because the role of the U. S. S. R. is outlined in COMMON SENSE'S issue No. 143 which listed Jews in key spots in Communist countries, so heavily interlocks with the United Nations Organization, a partial listing of Jews in the U.N.O. is now being published.

Trygve Lie, Secretary General of the U.N., is a Jew while talking to Zola Ernest A. Gross, U. S. Representative. Lie, who first visited the U.S. in 1931 as a rising young official of the Norwegian Labor Party, has proved himself a reliable ally of the U. S. S. R. for nearly a quarter of a century. As Norway's Minister of Justice in 1936, Lie performed the same service for Stalin: he was instrumental in deporting Stalin's arch-enemy, Leon Trotsky, from Norway. Trotsky, one of the founders of the Communist International, in 1937 referred to Lie as "the Minister of Justice who not so long ago had been a member of the Communist International."

As Secretary-General, Trygve Lie is authorized to appoint and dismiss U.N. employees, control its finances and execute its decisions. No wonder he is much loved by the U. S. S. R. and the Zionists. Lie is in a position to perform great services for his masters.

WHY ORDERED REMOVAL OF THE WAR CROSSES???

A United Press dispatch of September 27th stated that members of Congress had demanded an investigation of the removal of white crosses from the graves of American war dead in Hawaii's National Cemetery.

Representative John E. Rankin of Mississippi, chairman of the House Veterans Affairs Committee, asked: "What is the reason for removing such a thing?"

Representative Charles McNair of Tennessee, who also asked the question, but could it have been the same reason? McNair, Secretary of Defense Anne Rosenberg, crossed, representing the Lord, Jesus Christ, was suddenly balked by Zionists.

Representatives of the U. S. Army in the Pacific are claiming the action was taken because of "high cost of maintaining the wooden crosses," and have replaced them by a flat stone marker.

It is too much to ask why the wooden crosses were not replaced with STONE CROSSES, if the whole purpose was to replace wooden crosses.

Representative James E. Zandt of Pennsylvania; Representative Rogers of Massachusetts; Dewey Short of Mississippi and Division Brooks of Louisiana have all asked the same question. They, along with Representative McNair, are all Jewish. The support of the U. S. S. R. and the Zionists in this wiping out of

White Race Doom Sealed

By: EUSTACE MULLINS

Recent events at last reveal to us the details of the Jewish plan to destroy the white race. The borders of Asia, directed by the cunning of Zionist strategists, are intended to sweep across Europe before embarking for the shores of America, while these same strategists direct white governments into disasters and defeat all over the world. The slaughter of thousands of American boys in Korea at the whim of international Zionists is but a preview of the fate which they have prepared for us. The organizations which inflict Zionist strategy on white governments are the Council on Foreign Relations in the United States; publishers of the authoritative political journal "Foreign Affairs" and the Royal Institute of International Affairs, London, which dictates the policy of the British Foreign Office. These organizations were founded jointly at the Paris Peace Conference in 1919, together with the Institut fur Auswertung Politik of Hamburg, headed by Dr. Albrecht Mendelssohn-Bartholdy of the German Delegation to the Peace Conference. PETITION

TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES,

I respectfully petition you to withdraw from the United Nations and the Atlantic Pact, and to declare war on the communists of all countries, including our own.

In a speech in the United States Senate on August 27, 1951, Senator McCarran (Democrat, of Nevada), chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said:

"This country is faced with inevitable all-out war. It is inevitable and the country had best be prepared for it. . . . Enemies of the United States have been put in the highest echelon of government in the past and we should protect ourselves against them. We have enough enemies on the outside without having enemies that would destroy us from within."

He did not mention Truman or Acheson or their Zionist advisers; they are in the "highest echelon." War is indeed inevitable. Let us have it now, and in Asia, where we are winning it and have two powerful allies, viz: Japan and Nationalist China.

Truman and Acheson and Eisenhower and the Zionists are seeking to divert us to Europe. Senator Malone of Idaho said:

"The policy of the State Department is to furnish all of the troops to Europe; now it is 400,000—it was 6 divisions; it will soon be 1,000,000. In World War II, we furnished 73% and in Korea 90%."

A European war means a land war under a Socialist general and with Socialist allies, and probably national bankruptcy and defeat. War in Europe is near the source of Russian power; in Asia it is practically as remote for the Russians as it is from us. It is about 6,000 miles with an obsolete single-track rail line from Vladivostok to the center of Russian supplies, and about the same distance by air and ship from us. We are practically on equal footing in Asia but at too great a disadvantage in Europe, and hence the Communists and Zionists traitors prefer a European war. The Communists are waging a secret war against us in Korea and here in America. We should accept it as it is and not seek to divert it to Europe.

The governments and peoples of Europe are opposed to war, and they expect us to do the paying and fighting. They regard the threatened war as a war between slave Russia and free America (as do the Communists), and they do not wish to be involved in it. The Communists regard America as their principal enemy. If they can conquer America they can acquire the balance of our wealth and the mineral wealth of Palestine and can establish their World Empire.

We will have the war, that is a certainty we cannot escape. But we can choose the time and place in which to wage it, and can do so in Asia with General MacArthur as Commander; but we may lose it in Europe with Truman, Acheson and Eisenhower directing it.

I urge that Congress should promptly declare all-out war on Communism and appoint General Douglas MacArthur as Commander-in-Chief with plenary power. The Congress has the constitutional power to declare war and to take the necessary steps to win it. Our Socialist President and his incompetent Socialist Secretary of State Acheson should be suspended from office under the conclusion of the war.

War is preferable to Socialism and Communism and slavery. Let us have it now and get rid of the threat of it, and of dictatorships based on fear.

Resolution

Read Carefully

The American Heritage Protective Committee desires to submit an opportunity to endorse H. R. 5080, a bill introduced in Congress by the Hon. John T. Wood. This bill calls for the complete withdrawal of the United States from its membership in the United Nations.

We believe that continued membership of the United States in the United Nations Organization will ultimately result in the destruction of our Republic as a sovereign nation, and urge the support of H. R. 5080 for the following reasons:

1. Because membership in the United Nations Organization has the binding force of a treaty, and in cases of conflict of our domestic law with the United Nations charter, the latter will supersede our own domestic law, thus rendering our Constitution a meaningless document.
2. Membership in the United Nations has a direct tendency to destroy free enterprise, our American way of life, and to act as a restraint on our inherent rights as a sovereign of our own Country.
3. Membership in the United Nations strikes at the very source of the inalienable rights of the American people, namely, the right of freedom of speech, of press, of assembly, and the most cherished of all our rights—the right to worship God according to the conscience of the individual.
4. Membership of the United States in the United Nations is a wholly unwarranted and unnecessary burden on the taxpayers of our Republic, because the American people are defraying the major portion of the expenses of the United Nations where foreign and decadent European ideologies are brought to force on the American by a mandate of the United Nations.
5. Because the United Nations is composed almost entirely of men and women who advocate and think in terms of political and economic theories diametrically opposed to our American Heritage of freedom.
6. Because the United Nations, in its cumbersome and negative policies, is causing an international confusion among nations, and instead of promoting peace, is actually promoting the very conditions which breed wars among men, and needlessly and brutally prolong those wars which are already in process.
7. Because the leadership of the United Nations is, of record, Socialist-Communist, which has resulted in the subordination of the wishes of the American people and the continuing and seemingly endless prolonging of the Korean tragedy.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be furnished to every member of the United States Senate.

of these political organizations is the Institute of Pacific Relations, which used its members in the U. S. Department of State to betray China to the forces of international Communism and lost us our principal ally in the East.

These Zionist geopolitical groups are above all partisan political questions in the countries which they control. They are supported by the international banking houses of Rothschild, Speyer, Seligman, J. Henry Schroder, and Warburg. They receive large grants from the tax-free Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundations. No government official in the Western world dares disobey their orders. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, private secretary to Louis Brandeis when Brandeis was the active leader of the Zionist Organization of America, is the spokesman for the Council on Foreign Relations, and parrots the decisions of its chief, James Paul Warburg, of the German banking family.

The Council on Foreign Relations lists as its Executive Committee in 1919 Otto Kahn, Jacob Schiff, Mortimer Schiff, and Paul Warburg, father of James Paul Warburg, all partners of Kuhn, Loeb Company, bankers, New York. The Honorary Chairman was Kuhn, Loeb lawyer Elihu Root, former Secretary of State and chief of the American Mission to Russia in 1918, which spent twenty-two million dollars of Woodrow Wilson's special war fund to promote the Russian Revolution. None of the money was ever accounted for. Members of the Council on Foreign Relations were Leopold Frederick, treasurer of the Baruch-Meyer firm, the Yukon Gold Company, and treasurer of the Guggenheim mining enterprises; Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey and financier of Woodrow Wilson's campaign; Oscar Straus of the R. H. Macy family and former Ambassador to Turkey, also head of the U. S. Immigration Service when immigration officials in New York complained about the numbers of diseased and criminally insane Jews entering the country, was finally removed and replaced by Jew Oscar Nagel who continued his policies; Jules S. Bache, father of the income tax; former Ambassador to Turkey Abram I. Elkus, who was Trustee of the Baron de Hirsch Fund, the basic capital of the Zionist movement; and other investment bankers and lawyers in New York who were in the service of international Zionism. The Washington representative of the Council on Foreign Relations in 1919 was John Hays Hammond, mining engineer who discovered South African gold fields for the Rothschilds, and who was later paid six hundred thousand dollars a year by the Guggenheims.

Members of the Council on Foreign Relations who have recently made headlines are such traitors as Alger Hiss, Frederick Vanderbilt Field, Laurence Duggan, Owen Lattimore, and their associates in the State Department and Treasury Department, Lauchlin Currie, Stanley K. Horbeck, Robert M. Lovett of the Kuhn, Loeb agents Brown Brothers Harriman, and E. R. and W. Averell Harriman of the same firm. These three men hold many directorships in British insurance firms which are controlled by N. M. Rothschild of London. Former Ambassador to Russia W. Averell Harriman carried out the Rothschild aim of aiding Russia to crush Germany, and was responsible for the enormous sums of Lend-Lease placed at the disposal of international Communism, many of the weapons now killing American youths in Korea.

Other members of the Council on Foreign Relations are Philip C. Jessup, who figured in the betrayal of China, State Department economists Herbert Feis and Jacob Viner, Marshall Field, Cord Meyer Jr., Corliss Lamont, and partners in the international banking houses of J. P. Morgan, Lazard Freres, J&W Seligman, Speyer and Company, and Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, John Schiff, Benjamin Buttenweiser, and James Paul Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb Company. After the Second World War, Germany was turned over to Kuhn, Loeb Company, so that she could never again rise to the defense of the white race. John McCloy, lawyer for Kuhn, Loeb, is High Commissioner of Germany, Buttenweiser is the Assistant High Commissioner, and other employees of that firm carry out their vicious and vindictive policies against the German people, their final gesture intended to be the handing over of Germany to the Communist hordes. Every attempt to build up Germany's defenses is sabotaged by these men.

Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss, who for some unknown reason became a Rear Admiral in the Second World War, was the first member selected for the United States Atomic Energy Committee. John Schiff is President of the Boy Scouts of America. Jewish bankers cannot wait for our youth to become eighteen before drafting them for the kill, but must attack their moral fibre in the years of adolescence by infiltrating once healthy organizations such as the Boy Scouts.

The Royal Institute of International Affairs, sister organization of the Council on Foreign Relations, has its headquarters at 10 St. James Square, London, owns several other large buildings, and has an operating budget of four hundred thousand dollars a year. It actually spends several times that sum in influencing British public opinion, and many of its agents are paid by the British Government as employees of the British Foreign Office. It received twenty-five thousand dollars a year from the late Sir Abe Bailey, partner of the Rothschilds in sixteen South African gold fields, forty thousand dollars a year from the Rockefeller Foundation, ten thousand dollars a year from the Carnegie Foundation, and large sums from "corporate subscribers," among whom are listed the Bank of England, N. M. Rothschild & Son, Haring Brothers, Lazard Freres, Speyer & Company, Erlangers, J. Henry Schroder & Co., Prudential Assurance Co. (Morgan Rothschild), Sun Life Indemnity (Rothschild), British South African Co. (Rothschild), British Broadcasting Company (Isaacs), Imperial Chemicals (Michelet), International Nickel, (Mord), and Hambros Bank, Ltd., all Jewish firms, in addition to many others of the same origin. One of the founders of the Royal Institute was Sir Otto Beit, of the international banking family Speyer. The Sassoon family, know as the "Rothschilds of the East," have been prominent contributors. The Patron of the Institute is His Majesty the King. All Prime Ministers of England and the provinces of the British Empire since 1923 have been Honorary Presidents of the Royal Institute of International Affairs.

This Institute has destroyed British prestige in the East and fomented native uprisings in many countries, in preparation for the final onslaught of the yellow race against the white, under the direction of Jewish leaders. At the same time, it has used its tremendous powers of propaganda to deprecate the native revolutions in Asia as isolated and of no importance. In an official publication, Pattern of Pacific Security, 1946, p. 18, the Institute reported that "the Group regards as remote the danger of a pan-Asiatic movement specifically directed against the West." Its subordinate organization, the Institute of Pacific Relations, may be credited with sabotaging all sympathies for the West in Asia.

The white race has been betrayed into this perilous situation by a long list of secret meetings. In the Nineteenth Century the Rothschilds gained control of gold, the medium of exchange in the West, and financed the development of communications, railways, and heavy industry in Europe and America. With the political and monetary systems of Western countries in their power, they proceeded to carry out a long-range program to destroy the white race. White men were sent to plunder the continents of Africa and Asia, the profits going to international Jews while hatred of the white race was stirred up. In the twentieth century, Rothschilds twice inveigled white nations into destructive wars with each other, making great inroads in their resources and manpower. France was ruined completely in the First World War, Germany and England in the Second, and the United States is intended for destruction in the Third. At the Paris Peace Conference in 1919, the Second World War was made certain by the reparations policy against Germany, sums levied which Germany could pay only by going to Jewish bankers. Hitler promised to free Germany from the Jewish stranglehold, was allowed to do so, and led Germany to certain destruction, as Zionists planned.

The United States was prepared for the Roosevelt dictatorship by the Great Depression of 1929-31, planned at a secret meeting of heads of the European Central Banks and the Governors of the Federal Reserve System. It was decided to force Europe back on the gold standard by the machination of the League of Nations. This meant withdrawing five hundred million dollars in gold from New York when stock prices were inflated to four times their list value. The resulting rise in money rates would mean certain collapse of the stock market. The Jewish bankers carried out their plan, stock prices were forced down to a third of their value, and scooped up into gigantic holding companies such as the Lehman Corporation.

At the height of the world-wide depression, a World Monetary and Economic Conference was called in London in 1933. Opened by His Majesty the King, it was composed of members of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Royal Institute of International Affairs. Hitler had just been allowed to take over Germany. Plans were laid at this Conference for the Second World War. The political developments of the nineteen thirties originated at this meeting. Hitler would gain in power until Europe was forced into a Second World War, bringing disaster and collapse to white nations.

At the conclusion of the Second World War, these organizations immediately began full-scale preparations for the Third World War, a gigantic onslaught against the weakened and confused white race. The Russian people, under the heel of Asiatic Jews, has been forced into the role of factory slaves producing weapons for Asiatic armies. The Institute of Pacific Relations, controlling the United States Department of State, is sabotaging every element in Asia which favors the West. The Zionist controlled press and radio stifles every attempt to warn the American and European peoples of their approaching doom. After the Third World War, the Protocols of Zion will become fact. Two thousand years of history culminate in the destruction of the power of the white race.

Pearl Buck, the "Christian" Missionary.

The Jewish author Samuel Roth in his book "Jews Must Live" p. 103, wrote that "Pearl Buck after spending twenty years as a Christian Missionary to the heathen Chinese, confesses blushing to being a Galician Jewess."

Pearl, whose real name is Sydenstricker, was a paid "missionary" for "Christianity" in China while in reality she was educating the poor heathens for Soviet Russia. Pearl's role as a Jewess, teaching Marxian conception of Communism is typical of those Jewish missionaries described in the B'nai B'rith publication "Facts About Fictions Concerning the Jew," under Art. VII entitled "Are Jews A Race? Religion, or Nation?" which states in part: "... Judaism seems so strange in many of its aspects that it sometimes puzzles its own adherents. ... There is no official creed in Judaism. ... But strange as is the organization of Judaism as a faith, stranger still is the relationships of Jews to their faith. There are hundreds of thousands of Jews who are unbelievers. Yet they still consider themselves Jews. What sort of religion is it if those who neglect it still consider themselves Jews? Or more curiously. ... certain missionaries—men of Jewish birth who are converted to Christianity and work to convert other Jews to Christianity—certain missionaries wrote to the Zionists organization demanding the right to participate in the upholding of the Jewish homeland in Palestine. Now, certainly, nobody who was once a Catholic and became a Protestant would insist upon joining the Knights of Columbus. No Protestant who became a Catholic would insist in participating in a purely Protestant endeavor. Yet, here are men who deliberately abandoned Judaism and yet want to participate in a Jewish effort. What sort of religion is Judaism if not only those who neglect it, but those who try to convert others away from it, still consider themselves Jews?"

(The B'nai B'rith is the official representative of Jewry.)

Pearl "Buck" Sydenstricker is still carrying on her missionary efforts for the Marxists. She is now busy in New York furnishing Marxist speakers to sell the U. S. A. the Communist Party Line on China.

IS THE ANTICHRIST ALIVE TODAY? WILL HE RULE NEXT YEAR? THE YEAR 1952 WILL BE THE MOST EVENTFUL SINCE THE CRUCIFIXION OF CHRIST

Saints and sages agree from earliest antiquity to modern times that the Antichrist will come into power in 1952. Do you know the answer to these all important questions:

1. Will the Antichrist be Satan or man, or both?
2. Will he be introduced to the world on television?
3. Will he possess the full powers of Satan?

The answer to these and many other questions will be presented at a meeting to be held on Tuesday evening, October 30th, at 8:15 P. M. at the Veterans Memorial Home, Stuyvesant Avenue and High Street, Union, New Jersey, under the auspices of COMMON SENSE.

For a revealing lecture on "The Reign of Antichrist," don't fail to be present at the Veterans Memorial Home, Union, on

PUT CHRIST BACK INTO CHRISTMAS
"FEAR NOT, FOR THIS DAY IS BORN TO YOU A SAVIOUR, WHO IS CHRIST THE LORD." (St. Luke 2; 10:11).

Are you participating in what has now become a national campaign to, "PUT CHRIST BACK INTO CHRISTMAS"? If so, we congratulate you for your fine Christian spirit in preventing Christmas from becoming a purely commercialized holiday. In this crucial year of 1951, when Communism is seriously threatening Christianity in every quarter of the globe, we need not only prayers but militant action to defeat the Red Front. This can best be accomplished by giving financial support to the patriotic forces fighting the Scarlet Beast. The most difficult problem in the fight against organized Communism is obtaining the necessary financial support. Consequently, this year, the most crucial in history, we are offering our subscribers the two-fold opportunity of not only putting Christ back into Christmas but fighting Communism on all fronts by assisting COMMON SENSE financially. Every Christian family spends a small sum each Christmas on greeting cards and gift wrappings. By buying these items from COMMON SENSE you will assist us in our battle against the forces of evil which have already erased the very name of Jesus Christ in some twenty or more European nations. It is not enough to bring Christ into our lives on December 25th. He must be instituted into our daily lives 365 days out of the year. It is up to our subscribers to help us accomplish this task by purchasing Christmas greetings and wrappings from COMMON SENSE. MAIL IN YOUR ORDER TODAY! WE HAVE A BEAUTIFUL SELECTION WE ARE PROUD OF. YOU WILL BE PROUD TO MAIL THEM TO YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS.

An Open Letter To All Christian Americans

Is your freedom worth $100 to you? $50 . . . $25 . . . $10 . . . or even $1?

Are you aware that the Invisible Government in the United States is slowly but surely enmeshing you, and 150 million other Americans, in a web from which there will soon be no means of escape?

Are you aware that the Anti-Defamation League is spending millions of dollars a year to prevent you from knowing the tragic facts—and smearing those who oppose it as "antisemitic"?

This newspaper was established for the sole purpose of telling Americans the truth—the truth which no American daily newspaper dares to print—about the hellish conspiracy to destroy Christian America!

In their determined efforts to suppress the truth, the agents of political Zionism—the force behind the Invisible Government—have bullied, intimidated and even threatened death to the heads of eleven American printing firms who have dared to print this American newspaper, Common Sense. Eleven of our printers have yielded to this pressure and told us, sadly, that they would no longer be able to handle the job.

Common Sense now has an opportunity to set up its own plant, and the cost will be approximately $20,000. This fight must be carried on. We need your help—desperately.

If 20,000 readers will contribute $1 each—RIGHT NOW—we can fight on without fear of sabotage by the enemy. This is YOUR fight and we need YOUR help—every loyal American must value his liberty beyond price. How near you are to losing that liberty is known to only a few of us.

If every American really knew the truth, the response to this appeal would be an avalanche of $1 bills.

COMMON SENSE is not, and never has been operated for profit. Its sole purpose is to defend America against its enemies by spreading the truth.

Can we depend upon YOU?

The Rulers Of Russia

By the Rev. Denis Fahey, C.S.Sp., D.D. This enlarged third edition not only gives full information on the Zionists who organized the Russian Revolution, but it tells how they have infiltrated other governments—and why.

UN Charter Drafted By Russian Jew

A very clear appreciation of the U. N. O. is to be found in Victors Beware!—a work by Professor de Madariaga. An exile from Spain, having held office in the Moscow-sponsored Spanish Republican government, de Madariaga should be a qualified judge of Soviet tactics. He writes:

"The (UNO) Charter is in the main a translation of the Russian system into an international idiom and its adaption to an international community . . . The overwhelming mass of Russia's political influence has weighed down the evolution of world affairs and is now taking us back to an unholy alliance of big Powers, resting upon force and very little else."

"UNO," de Madariaga tells us, "bore upon its brow from the very beginning the mark of Moscow." (Page 270)

That this should be so must appear inexplicable to all who have been deceived by the false propaganda spread about UNO. But many who have heard so much have never been told that Dr. Leo Pasvolksky, "Special U. S. Assistant Secretary of State," drew up the United Nations Charter. Concerning Pasvolksky, a Russian-born Jew who has become one of the leading advisers of the U. S. government, the Chicago Daily Tribune stated:

"Leo Pasvolksky, Russian-born ardent internationalist, knows more about the new League of Nations to preserve peace than any other person in the world. That's because he wrote the first draft of the charter of the world peace league and attended its revision and amplification all the way from the first day of the Dunbarton Oaks Conference to the last day of the San Francisco Conference. He bids for fame as the father of the Charter . . . President Truman has appointed Stettinius the United States Representative in the world peace league. And Pasvolksky is to go right with Stettinius to the capital of the league, when it is selected, to guide the American delegate through the maze of the Charter and provide him with the answers to the questions that will arise. For Pasvolksky knows all the answers, can give them before the questions are asked. . . . He was brought into the department as an economist . . . and successively advanced to the highest rank outside of those positions filled by Presidential appointment subject to Senate confirmation. Pasvolksky, now a naturalized American citizen, was born in Pavlograd, Russia, 1893, and came to this country with his parents in 1905. . . . He has published several works on Russia including the 'Economics of Communism.'"

Douglas For Recognition
Of Red China*Indignant Representatives Ask for His Resignation

Inflamed by the statements of Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas that the United States recognize Red China, Senator

Connally (D-Texas) accused him of making "fool statements," and Representative Roy O. Woodruff (R-Mich.) called on President Truman to ask for Douglas' resignation. Woodruff accused the jurist of giving "aid and comfort to the foes of the United States and democracy."

The uproar was started by press reports of August 31st which quoted Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, as proposing that the United States recognize Communist China.

Americans can well wonder if it is possible that the Invisible Government has maneuvered such screwballs onto the Supreme Court. When all signs point to an all-out war between the U. S. and Communist armed forces, Justice Douglas wishes the United States to "recognize" and further strengthen the Chinese Communist outfit which was created under direction of world Marxism.

Buddies of Douglas—such as General Marshall, Dean Acheson, Owen Lattimore, John Carter, Vincent and John Foster Dulles, Philip Jessup, all working through the Institute of Pacific Relations, succeeded in driving Chiang Kai-Shek from China, thereby placing 450 million people under Communism. That enormous manpower is being used in Korea where 85 THOUSAND American battle casualties have been suffered (170 thousand if one includes all wounded) and that does not include the Korean lives which have been lost.

Supreme Court Justice Douglas is a strong "world government" advocate. He, along with Dean Acheson, should be tried for treason and, if found guilty, should be hung and his property confiscated.

We compliment Representative Roy O. Woodruff of Michigan for calling upon President Truman to fire Douglas. However, we realize that it is the traitorous screwballs like Douglas who are the closest to "Red Herring" Harry.

Honorable Martin Dies Says
U.S. "In Grave Jeopardy"

Speaking in the Municipal Auditorium of San Antonio, Texas on May 17, 1951, under auspices of the American Heritage Protective Committee, the former Texas Congressman Martin Dies called for a re-vitalized America that will put the Constitution and the God of our Nation above selfish interests.

Mr. Dies' speech follows:

My fellow Citizens, in the past five years and particularly in the past year and a half, I have been making a good many speeches throughout the State of Texas. As a matter of fact, I have made over 200 speeches in the past year and a half. I am not making these speeches for money—90% of the places where I talk, I am lucky if I get my expenses. Occasionally, and very occasionally, I get an honorarium. I am not primarily concerned with political office. My chief motive is to do what little I can, to arouse and educate a sleeping and indifferent citizenship. I know that this Republic cannot be preserved if the good people of this land devote all their time to their business and pleasure, and let the bad people run their Government.

Consequently, I have felt that by telling the people of Texas, the story—the story that I know—not what someone told me, or not what I imagined, but what I saw . . . What I witnessed—what I heard from the lips of Presi-

Terror In The Armed Forces

Do you oppose the administration's policies? If you are a member of our American Armed Forces and say yes to that question, you may face dismissal from the Services or court martial.

The dismissal of General Douglas MacArthur, the hero of the Pacific War, who turned Japan from an enemy to a friend, has cast a spotlight on a move by groups friendly to Communist China to "get" all opposition. Acting under a mysterious regulation issued last December, the Defense Department is purging anti-Communists from the Army, Navy and Marines. The removal of MacArthur is only the first step in a move which threatens thousands in our Armed Forces and the very security of the United States.

One hundred fifty million Americans awoke one morning to discover that the nation's most famous and beloved military man had been arbitrarily dismissed by the very same small clique that favored giving Red China the strategic island of Formosa. Why was he removed? Did he fail to carry out the Korean "police action"? No; on the other hand MacArthur's military strategy of invading Inchon is conceded by his most vehement opponents to have been a stroke of genius. Did he refuse to fulfill American government policy? Certainly not; it was brought out before the investigating Committee that he fulfilled every dent Roosevelt—and President Truman, and the Cabinet Officers, what I read in volume of correspondence which passed between the Kremlin and the agents of the Kremlin in the United States . . . What I heard from Leon Trotsky, and General Krevisky, who was liquidated in the City of Washington and no one was apprehended for it, although it occurred within three blocks of the Capitol of the United States . . . I have felt that if I could tell my story to the people of Texas—my own State—that perhaps I could make them realize the truthfulness of the old adage—"Eternal Vigilance is the Price of Liberty." I have felt—in fact, I have known for a long time, that our country was in very grave jeopardy. I do not believe that the majority of our people know this today. I am quite certain that Washington does not know it, despite all their professions. How could they believe what they are saying to the American people—"that we are on the brink of war, that we face the greatest struggle the world has ever seen—that our cities may be demolished—that millions of our people may be slain." . . . How could they believe that, and continue to waste millions of dollars buying eggs and potatoes, to rot in the canyons of our country? How can they believe that civilization is on the brink of ruin, that we face another great crisis in history, as great as the period when Mohammedanism threatened Christendom. How could they believe that and continue in the face of such emergency to play cheap politics?

I am compelled to believe that either they don't believe what they say—that they say what they are saying, solely for political effect, or that if they believe it, they lack the intelligence and the foresight and the leadership to do the things that are essential to our preservation . . . How can I reconcile their statement that the world is threatened with the destruction from Communism when I behold them advocating in our own land, Communistic measures, such as socialized medicine, under the compulsory health insurance bill—and socialized agriculture under the Brannan plan, and socialized industry under the Spence Plan. If, as they say, they are opposed to Communism, and they want my three sons to shed their blood to stop militant and aggressive Communism which threatens to engulf the world . . . If, as they say, they want us to make the supreme sacrifice to halt the tide of Communism which is sweeping over the earth . . . what is their justification for advocating the passage of Communistic measures in the United States? What will it profit us to defeat Communism abroad, and embrace it at home? Wherein will we be justified in the pages of history if we destroy 8,000,000 American youths, and then adopt the very essence of Communism—the things that Karl Marx advocated in 1848 in his Manifesto . . . The thing that Lenin preached time and time again—Socialism. Is it possible that the President of the United States doesn't know the close affinity between Communism and Socialism? Does he not know that they are half brothers? That the Manifesto of Karl Marx and Frederick Engels is the Bible of modern socialism—that the Communist and Socialist worked hand in hand in the first international and in the second international—that they split during the 1st World War on the issue of loyalty to their respective governments . . . When the socialists insisted that they were going to remain loyal to their respective countries—Lenin withdrew from the second international and later formed a Third International—but there was no disagreement between the Communist and the Socialist with regards to the ultimate objective of socializing the world under ruthless dictatorship. So when Mr. Atlee preaches against Communism—he is preaching against his twin brother—and when Mr. Truman in his Fair Deal program advocates FEPC, the appropriation of the lands of our state, and his socialized medicine and his socialized agriculture—he may not know it, in fact, there is much that I suspect that he does not know—he may not know it but he is paying the greatest tribute to Joseph Stalin that he could possibly pay . . . in effective substance, he is saying, "I am against Stalin—I am against Lenin—but I am in favor of what they preach and in what they advocate." In other words he is against the teacher but in favor of the teaching. What inconsistency of position! Now my fellow citizens, I think all of us will agree that we are in a very serious predicament. Here is a country—Russia—that only a few years ago was a third rate power, and yet, in the space of a few short years, she has expanded until today she is a world menace, and according to the admissions of our military leaders, she is the strongest military power on the face of the earth. Russia has welded the man power and the resources of nearly half the earth into a single, unprecedented striking force and tonight—850 millions of peoples—nearly one-half of the population of the earth, are under the domination and control of the Kremlin—and all of this has been accomplished without firing a gun . . . Indeed, we have been engaged in war in Korea for nearly one year . . . We have sustained 85,000 battle casualties, and Russia hasn't lost a man . . . What greater proof could the American people have, that Stalin has out-smarted and out-generated the leaders of our country? And of our allies? Now who is responsible for it? It is tremendously important that you know who is responsible for the ability of a third rate power to rise to the position of a world menace without the loss of a Russian soul . . . In the post war period. Well, the truth is that our government is more responsible for the present might and power of the Soviet Union than any other factor . . . The plain and ugly truth is that our government has coddled and protected Communism at home and abroad from 1933 until quite recently. In 1933, Stalin wanted to negotiate a treaty of recognition, with our country . . . Russia, was on the verge of economic collapse. It was essential to her survival as a Communistic dictatorship, that Russia secure all of the trade and commercial advantages which would accrue from recognition . . . So Stalin sent his ablest diplomats to the United States, headed by Maxim Litvinov, and he succeeded in negotiating a treaty with President Roosevelt. Under the terms of that treaty, the Soviet Union agreed, that in exchange for all the tremendous advantages which would accrue to her from recognition, she would not permit her agents to operate in the United States, that she would not tolerate or encourage subversive activities in the United States. That agreement was very clear and precise, and was one of the most important documents that this country ever signed with a foreign power . . . The ink had hardly dried on that memorable document when the Soviet Union began a course of flagrant and arrogant violation of every term and every provision of that agreement. In 1938, we had before our committee a man by the name of Dubrowsky, a former top ranking official of the Kremlin, and a member of the Soviet delegation which came to the United States to secure recognition. By 1938, Mr. Dubrowsky had become disillusioned with Communism in practice and had decided to seek asylum in the United States. We persuaded him to publicly testify before our committee in Washington, and in his public testimony, which was made available to the President of the United States, and to the Cabinet Officers, and to every man in Congress—Mr. Dubrowsky related the circumstances attending the negotiation of the treaty between Russia and the United States. He said that on the night when the treaty was finally agreed to, that Maxim Litvinov returned to the Soviet headquarters and with a smile upon his face, exclaimed as he entered the room where the others were—"Well—it's in the bag—the President asked me to pay our debts to the United States . . . I told him that we would negotiate, but I didn't tell him that we would negotiate until doom's day. The President asked me to guarantee religious freedom in Russia . . . I was prompted to tell him that we would be glad to gather up all the Bibles in Russia and ship them to the United States." That, my friends, was the attitude of the Soviet Union as expressed by its chosen representative, Maxim Litvinov, within one hour after the important agreement had been made. And soon thereafter, that is, soon after the testimony of Dubrowsky—we became suspicious of a man by the name of Sam Carp, who was a brother-in-law of Premier Molotov. Sam Carp was operator of a chain of filling stations in the State of New Jersey. We had information that Carp was engaged in questionable activities . . . We had our best investigator to trail him . . . One morning when he was going to the bank in New York to open his safety deposit box, our investigator was there . . . We seized the contents of that box and discovered $450,000.00 in one hundred dollar bills, and a letter of credit from Premier Molotov drawn upon Amtorg Trading Corporation, the official trading agency of the Soviet Government in the United States, directing and instructing Amtorg to extend a credit of two hundred of millions of dollars to his brother-in-law Sam Carp, to be used for the purpose of buying and stealing military and naval information and to bribe public officials. When Sam Carp was on the stand publicly, he confessed, after I had subjected him to cross-examination, that he had employed an Assistant Executive of the National Democratic Committee, Preston McGoodwin, and paid him a fee of $25,000 to assist him in his work. He further confessed that he had employed a National Committee-man at the suggestion of Mr. McGoodwin, (you see, this was before the "mink coat" business) and paid him a fee of $25,000 to assist him in the necessary contacts. Furthermore, the evidence developed that a Cabinet Meeting was called for the purpose of facilitating Mr. Sam Carp in the prosecution of his work in the United States. We secured the original memorandum, that had been drawn up shortly after the Cabinet had met. The Cabinet of the United States unanimously agreed that Sam Carp and his assistants should be facilitated in every possible way. Now my fellow Americans—certainly that was enough public testimony and yet the government of the United States refused to prosecute Sam Carp—or to hinder him in the slightest degree in his work. The government refused to proceed against Preston McGoodwin, and in fact I think he was promoted shortly thereafter. Now my fellow citizens—if there had been no other evidence before the President, and the Cabinet, if there had been no other evidence before Congress, that was sufficient within itself to fully apprise our leadership that they were dealing with a foreign power that could not be trusted—that they were dealing with a treacherous foe that was determined to violate, in the very beginning, its sacred obligation made with our country.

That should have put our leadership upon guard—that they couldn't compromise—with evil—that we couldn't do business with a rattle snake. They not only continue to do business with the rattle snake, but later on, they took him into the White House as a guest of the President and let him stay in the White House for several weeks.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is the backbone for Marxism in the United States. It is known as the Jewish Gestapo Smear Bund. Its task is to smear anyone who effectively combats the Marxist-Communist plan. Favorite trick of the Anti-Defamation League is to brand as "Anti-Semitic" patriots who fight Communism and to use every means possible to make people fear the brand: "Anti-Semitic."

Any one who is not "Anti-Semitic" (as they give meaning to the word) is uninformed or a cowardly, spineless Christian hypocrite.

The Anti-Defamation League has succeeded in deceiving a few Catholic Bishops and Priests, as well as some Protestant Ministers, into cooperating with the A.D.L. Supposedly, this "cooperation" is to discourage intolerance; actually the purpose is to prevent the public from learning that the A.D.L. of B'nai B'rith is dedicated to erasing Christianity.

The A.D.L. is currently engaged in engineering the smear campaigns against General Douglas MacArthur—Senator Joseph McCarthy—Senator Patrick McCarran. However, Marxist tools like Dean Acheson, General Marshall and Ike Eisenhower are given full A.D.L. support.

The Influence Of One Life

Millions have perished in war and terror.
We survive.

Millions are homeless.

We are sheltered.

This night in all the world, for every man well nourished, three are hungry.

We are fed.

The world's abundance should have blessed mankind with homes, health, and competence. Instead, it has been used to destroy all these—to breed pestilence, misery, and poverty.

The finger, of the bitter past points to a bloody page . . . "and we shall meanly lose or nobly save the last best hope of earth."

Each life is tested by its answer to the question first asked in the world's beginning:—"Am I my brother's keeper?"

One Life was lived in answer. By all the formal measurements of greatness it should have failed. 'Twas such a little span of years in such a far-off lonely little land.

He was born in a village stable. No birth could be lowlier, hence none need despair because of lowly birth. Possessed of profound wisdom. He had but meager education. None, therefore, need despair for lack of schooling. No wife, no child—He showed each lonely heart its deepest need.

For thirty years, near the village of His birth, He grew and learned His simple trade, shaping the native wood to serve the wants of home and craft.

Three years He wandered, teaching, shaping the native hearts to service of truth and love. He was never more than a few hundred miles from His birthplace.

He held no earthly rank or office, wrote no military command and the Administration admitted that they had no definite political objectives. Why then was a man so important to American security fired? General MacArthur was fired because he opposed appeasement of Red China and wanted to bring the war to a speedy conclusion. He had dared to tell the truth that Truman's unconstitutional war was a bloody STALEMATE.

While the nation was embroiled in the MacArthur controversy, the Administration moved swiftly to silence all opposition. According to the New York World-Telegram and Sun of May 31st, Navy hero Lt. William H. Evans, Jr. of the destroyer Rodgers in the fighting zone of Korea was cruelly dismissed. His offense? Denouncing the Yalta betrayal and urging that the interests of America be put before those of the Soviet Union!

Generals Wedemeyer and Willoughby and Admiral Denfeld were forced to retire. The New York Sunday News recently reported that at this June's West Point Commencement a number of top Generals prepared a complete plan for the defense of the United States and the invasion of the Soviet Union in case of war. But it further reported that they had to hide the plan and that they refused to give their names for fear of reprisal from the Pentagon. The Defense Department also forced the retirement of the commandant of the Air Force Base in Alabama for "opposing national policy." Major Robert Williams of the Military Intelligence Reserve was dismissed recently for denouncing the appointment of Anna Rosenberg as Secretary of Defense.

Senator Joe McCarthy, former Marine hero and sworn foe of Communism, termed these dismissals — the results of "gag rule." General MacArthur said that the President was deliberately silencing opponents of appeasement.

What's behind these dismissals of loyal Americans? A mysterious regulation issued last December formed the basis of their dismissal. This regulation requires that any American in the Armed Forces, who writes anything regarding foreign policy, must first have the approval of the State Department.

The story goes back to the time when Secretary of Defense Jim Forrestal was literally martyred. Behind his removal were the Zionist groups who could never forget his warning that America's oil security was threatened by the establishment of a pro-Red Israel. Also involved was the State Department's Acheson-Michael Lee clique, which supported Red China. (Michael Lee, Ephraim Zinoyi Liberman was in charge of the State Department's Far Eastern Division, a prime figure responsible for the Korean War, a recently ousted as "a poor security risk.")

President Truman was induced to fire Forrestal and appoint as Secretary Lewis Johnston, a political favorite. When Johnston refused to cooperate with the Zionists and the State Department crowd, he too was removed. To make absolutely sure that they controlled the Defense Department, General Marshall was appointed. Marshall, who couldn't even remember where he was when Pearl Harbor was bombed, is a total misfit. Years ago General MacArthur refused to promote him after Marshall in two weeks destroyed the discipline of a crack Georgia regiment, one of the best in the Army. The complete story of General Marshall was told recently by Senator Joe McCarthy in a Senate speech. Copies are available from the Senator's office.

Then to appease the Zionist crowd, Anna Rosenberg, one of the Mrs. Roosevelt clique, was appointed Defense Manpower Director, which put her in charge of the Draft and plenty more. When her nomination came up before the Senate, a number of witnesses testified that she was a "Communist" and "a poor security risk" but cries of "anti-semitism" from the liberal-leftist press frightened Congress into confirming her. Ever since then it has been evident that she actually runs the Defense Department. Whenever Secretary Marshall testifies before Congress, loyal Anna sits by his side "advising" him.

All these maneuvers and many more follow a detailed plan for dictatorship, developed by a group of Generals at the request of certain Pentagon officials. This document known as the Guderian Plan is labeled "Top Secret" and circulated throughout the Pentagon. These facts were revealed by Congressman Thomas Werdel (R-Calif.) in a historic speech, entitled "Our Growing Prussian Staff." He declared: "I am reluctant to admit that I now believe that we have come to the awful day in America, where we have a Supreme General Staff . . . seeking military control over industry, labor, all military establishments, the economy and the press. I am convinced that this is their plan against the expressed will of the Congress."

Who wants this "military control?" Is it our old line West Point military men? Certainly not; for almost 200 years Americans have safely entrusted power to these military men. What is the one group that today seeks a dictatorship over our nation and the world? The answer is unquestionably — the Communists and their so-called liberal-leftist allies.

Mrs. Mary Stalcup Markward, a former undercover agent in the Communist Party for the F.B.I., testified before the House Un-American Activities Committee THAT she knew of 18 open Communist clubs and two undercover cells in Washington. She said there were probably many more. Previous witnesses before the Committee as well as experiences in other countries — now Red dominated — revealed that the Defense Department and our military establishment are prime targets of Red infiltration. The State Department, another prime Red target, has been under constant surveillance and yet new investigations and leads are announced daily. What a real investigation of the Defense Department would turn up can only be surmised.

An indication is found in the vast numbers of new employees hired by the Defense establishment without a thorough loyalty check since the appointment of Mrs. Rosenberg as Manpower Boss. In recent years there has been a shortage of persons interested in obtaining government jobs. Only the Communists have been urging their members to get jobs in Defense. When we recall the tremendous damage caused by the Gold-Rosenberg Atom Spy clique — people then unknown to millions of Americans, we shutter at the sabotage a handful of Reds could do in the Defense Department.

While nothing is being done about the Reds, this purge of anti-Communists is under way. During the same month that Anna Rosenberg was appointed, December, that mysterious regulation was issued which clearly denies to members of the Armed Services the right of freedom of speech, guaranteed by the Bill of Rights.

Behind this simple regulation lies a clear danger to every American and to our national security. Congress recently passed a Draft extension and U.M.T. law which puts many more millions of Americans under the power of the Manpower Office-Defense Department. Bernard Baruch has been urging Total Mobilization or a Labor Draft by which every man, woman and child would be completely subject to the dictatorship of the Manpower Office. Now certain elements within the Department following the plan, are striving to eliminate all opposition from the Armed Forces so as to make impossible an adequate defense of the United States from Soviet invasion. They are establishing a dictatorship over the Armed Forces as a prelude to a Soviet "dictatorship of the proletariat."

The time of decision is here. We must have real unity or be destroyed. We must have leadership. President Harry Truman is incapable of that leadership. All Americans regardless of political party, who cherish freedom, must unite behind General Douglas MacArthur for Christianity, Free Enterprise and Free Government.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Herewith $20.00 towards the printing press. Keep it rolling. I have written three Senators to ask why, if these persecutions have in fact taken place, they do not investigate the A.D.L.

God bless you for your courageous and true American stand!

I never heard of such a thing before! A friend sent me a copy of your paper telling how the Zionists stopped your printers. I am telling others about it. Meantime, put this $5.00 in your Fund.

Truman's Way

Republished From N. Y. Herald Tribune

In recent months we have heard a lot of criticism of the Congress for not letting Truman have his way. In the words of the "Happy Warrior," let us look at the record and see what would have happened to our country if a spineless Congress had given Truman everything he asked for.

If Truman had had his way, every farm in America today would be operating under the Brannan plan—socialized agriculture.

If Truman had had his way, there would have been no Federal legislation to imprison Communist spies, traitors and saboteurs in the government departments.

If Truman had had his way, Red China would today be a member of the United Nations, to vote with Russia and her lion curtain prisoners.

If Truman had had his way, the country would today be saddled with socialized medicine under that great medical genius, lawyer Oscar Ewing.

If Truman had had his way, American atomic secrets would have been traded to other nations.

If Truman had had his way, under his Point Four program, every nation in the world would today have a direct call on the United States Treasurer for technical assistance and economic development loans.

If Truman had had his way, there would today be no Taft-Hartley provision requiring official registration of Communists and labor unions.

If Truman had had his way, every major river in America today would be a part of some T. V. A. with state and local government submerged by Federal bureaucrats.

If Truman had had his way, every school in America would today be under direct supervision of the Washington bureaucracy — socialized education.

If Truman had had his way, housing and home building would today be a complete government monopoly, with subsidies for socialized housing.

If Truman had had his way, there would have been no investigation of Communism in the State Department and other Federal agencies. His red herring statement of August, 1948, would have ended the Alger Hiss case.

If Truman had had his way, total Federal spending since 1946 would have been about $75 billion more than it has been to date. That is the accumulated cost of all the new programs Truman proposed which were turned down by a resolute and wise Congress.

Had it not been for the defenders of constitutional government in the House and the Senate, Truman would have had his way in all these things.

In one major decision Truman had his way. He plunged this nation into war in Korea. In doing so, Truman circumvented the Constitution by calling the war in Korea "police action." Only Congress has the right to declare war.

Truman seeks blanket authority to send American boys to new wars all over the world.

Today a brave and wise Congress stands between the American people and Harry Truman.

THE REIGN OF ANTI-CHRIST

Written by the Reverend R. Gerald Culleton this simulated-leather bound edition of 225 pages deals with scriptural prophecies and Apocryphal scripture. One extremely interesting prophecy in this writing is that which states that all out persecution against Christianity will begin in 1952.

The author, who lost his life in an automobile accident while on his way to say Sunday Mass, avoids expressing his own views. He has endeavored to present a historical record of oracles for good Christians.

Annie Rosenberg And Her Army Corps

Here we go again. Annie Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, when pictured on a tour of United States troops in Europe, had to have her photo taken. It looks like another planned effort to mongrelize the German people.

It is well known to those who have studied the background of "world government" movements that one of the principal objectives is to break down all pure-blooded whites and eventually install a "one world" religion — Ba'hai. Mongrelization is the well-laid plan of the Jews who have motivated all "world government" schemes.

The Jews who completely directed World War II, as well as creating it, sent Negro troops to England, leaving 20 thousand half-breed children in England. Eleanor—the Grate—asked the American people to adopt 5,000 of the mongrels.

When Stuttgart, Germany, was captured during World War II hundreds of Black French Colonial troops, under the command of General Eisenhower herded German women into subways and raped more than two thousand of them. These were black semi Savages. This went on for three days, women and girls screaming and committing suicide. Large numbers of Negro troops have been kept in Germany for six years.

Anna Rosenberg, one of the most important in the plan to establish Marxist rule, undoubtedly knows what the "pitch" is with large numbers of Negro troops abroad. She is happy when she sees the Jewish plan operating. That plan is that WHITE, CHRISTIANS will be bred into half-breeds while the Jews maintain their own PURITY of Race.

In the United States there is also much propaganda towards mongrelization, despite the fact that clear-thinking Negroes are not in favor of it.

Jews from New York are financing and directing propaganda in the South (Georgia, the Carolinas, Texas, Mississippi and Alabama). Those Communist Jews preach to the Southern Negroes that they are being "persecuted" and the only people interested in Negro welfare are the Jews.

The Jewish-Communist plan is to trick fourteen million Negroes into voting with the Communist faction.

The Influence Of One Life

His native land was ruled by conquerors and foreign legions. While still in the flush of youth, His own people turned against this Man who strangely taught that evil can only be overcome by good.

He was denied by His close friend, deserted by most, betrayed for thirty pieces of silver by one He had befriended.

One dark hour He knelt in the Garden, His hour of decision.

He gave Himself over to His enemies, was tried and condemned in mockery, spat upon and lashed, nailed to a cross between two thieves.

He died asking forgiveness for His persecutors while His executioners gambled for His only earthly possession—His robe.

He was laid in a borrowed tomb.

Nearly two thousand years have passed and none has reigned or wrought, or served, or dreamed who has so touched and moulded human life. He is the ideal—the example—who has inspired the noblest and the humblest lives—the great unalterable, wholesome, growing influence in a world of blood and tears.

He who was friendless would be Friend of all. Homeless, He dwells in countless homes. Books on His life fill libraries. His Gospels cover the earth. Songs and music in His praise fill the heavens. Pictures, spires and monuments proclaim His influence. Scholars, illiterates, rich men, beggars, rulers and slaves . . . all are measured by His life.

The names of Pharaohs, Caesars, emperors, and kings of all the ages that have come and gone are but ghosts upon a printed page. All their combined legions and military might are dust upon the land; their proud sea-borne armadas rust upon an ocean floor.

But this one solitary Life surpasses all in power. Its influence is the one remaining and sustaining hope of future years.

Where does such power dwell?

"Be ye not therefore anxious saying: 'What shall we eat?' or 'Wherewithal shall we be clothed?' But seek ye first His kingdom and His righteousness—and all these things shall be added unto you."

In a Roman court nearly twenty centuries ago, Pontius Pilate asked of the multitude demanding the death of this young Galilean: "I find no evil in Him. What shall I do with this Man?"

Today each troubled heart must meet the challenge when the Pilate-within asks: "What shall I do?"

PRESS FUND

As we go to press, initial returns in Common Sense's $20,000 Press Fund Drive have started to arrive. While the net amount received to date represents only a small portion of the $20,000 goal, we want to thank the many loyal friends and subscribers who have already contributed.

The press is now ready. We cannot back down. It must be work to win if we are to have printing facilities which are free from coercion and intimidation by Marxist agents. Now, when there is every reason to believe that the long hard years of battle are beginning to bear fruit, we must stay in the pro-American, pro-Christian crusade.

The plotters of treason are beginning to show fear. We must keep spot-lighting their subversive activities with a press that rolls faster than ever before.

This is not the time to quit! This is the hour for an all-out drive against the traitors. It is the time, also, for a supreme sacrifice before the American Republic is lost.

We urge all those who have not yet contributed to the Press Fund to use their money NOW — while they live — to keep alive.

Rush your largest possible contribution AT ONCE. Your "share of Freedom" can be $1.00 or $500.00, but send it TODAY. Surely, Christ will bless your most generous help.

EXTRA URGENT EDITOR'S NOTE: The threatening shadows across the world which coming events are abundantly casting before them give to the contents of this issue of Common Sense an importance at this time equal to the historic significance of the midnight ride of Paul Revere. The American public must be alerted immediately, and correctly, to perils which threaten the existence of their priceless American heritage. If they are not alerted they may very shortly witness the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse riding rough-shod across the nation. The contents of this issue of Common Sense fully explain these perils. If the American heritage is lost now, it is lost forever!!! Historic and scientific facts are revealed here to the American public for the first time. Intensive and expensive research assembled them. Read them with care. Read them again, and again, and again!!! This will perform a service for every American of far greater value than it is possible to realize at this moment. Obtain extra copies and give them to your friends. Never forget that at the time of the midnight ride of Paul Revere even its beneficiaries were unable to grasp its historic significance. To give the contents of this issue is to be unprepared for security and defense. These facts are vital to the security and welfare of every American alive today and the countless generations of their posterity. OBEY THAT IMPULSE!!!

FACING FIRST DEFEAT

Best qualified Administration spokesman on the subject breaks bad news to public suddenly

The person best qualified to pass an opinion upon the gravity of the situation is W. Stuart Symington, Chairman of the National Security Resources Board. He has more authentic information available to him at this moment than any other person in the country, excluding no one. In the New York Times, of October 4, 1950, W. Stuart Symington is quoted as having stated the following concerning the possibility of the defeat of the United States in the next war, "I believe to-day there is a very good chance of losing."

W. Stuart Symington was guilty of a serious error of omission on that occasion. He performed a great disservice to the American people. W. Stuart Symington upon that occasion did not avail himself of the opportunity to disclose to the American people the source of the peril which is now threatening this nation with defeat. W. Stuart Symington will only disclose to the public expressions of sentiment which will not adversely affect the political health of the Administration. For good and valid political considerations the Administration frowns on mention in public by its spokesmen of Yiddish Marxists and their connection with the Soviet Union and with communist (Marxist) world-revolution activities.

W. Stuart Symington finds himself with this can-we-call-it gag in his mouth. This discourages reference to this subject by government officials holding responsible positions in the Executive branch. Under such circumstances the American people have not been alerted by their government to the source of the peril which now threatens the security and survival of the nation. The Administration is aware of the fact that Yiddish Marxists are the real rulers of the Soviet Union and that they have been the directing force behind the communist (Marxist) world-revolution from its very inception. The Administration has long been in possession of facts which establish beyond contradiction that Yiddish Marxists are exclusively responsible for the clear and present danger to which this nation now finds itself exposed.

FORRESTAL VINDICATED

The Nation lost this great patriot at a time when his knowledge could have averted the present crisis

The Administration cannot select a better spokesman than W. Stuart Symington to reveal the details of this danger to the American people. He should do this without any loss of time. Yiddish Marxists will find it difficult to discredit W. Stuart Symington in the eyes of the American people even with their deadly propaganda machines headed by the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League. The American people have learned their lesson from the sad fate of the late Hon. James E. Forrestal. During the last years of his life the late Hon. James E. Forrestal made heroic attempts to alert the American people to this threat to the nation's security.

The late Hon. James E. Forrestal understood the Yiddish Marxist peril and the implications of its impact upon the destiny of the United States. The late Hon. James E. Forrestal tried his very best to influence the defense and foreign policies of the government upon the basis of this danger. W. Stuart Symington will continue to receive the respect and support of the American people if he courageously disregards the sad fate of the late Hon. James E. Forrestal and brings the situation out into the open where it belongs. The public has infinite confidence in the integrity of W. Stuart Symington. Please speak up, Mr. Symington!

One of the world's outstanding authorities on the subject, Hanson W. Baldwin, military observer for the New York Times, writing in that paper on September 24, 1950, expressed his unqualified opinion that the United States could not be victor, and survive, in all-out-war to-day with the Soviet Union. This outstanding authority expresses his expert opinion that the existing superior military potential of the Soviet Union exists to-day primarily by virtue of the fact that they are now manufacturing atom-bombs and have accumulated a stockpile of them. That fact, Mr. Baldwin states, exposes the United States to the possibility of "mass destruction" by a Soviet Union atom-bomb which will "destroy in a night what we have built in a century." Need more be said on that subject?

TRAITORS PLAN BIG KILL

Counterfeit Americans supplying U.S.S.R. with all aids for coast-to-coast atom-bomb blitz

Twenty-five million American men, women and children face the prospect of being broiled to a cinder, fried to death, at any moment by a Soviet Union atom-bomb. That is the considered judgment of the most reliable sources of official information on the subject. It is the consensus of opinion of the best informed military and non-military members of important government agencies responsible for the security and defense of the nation. The administration is exerting every effort to "hush-hush" this great peril to the people of this nation.

An atom-bomb blitz by the Soviet Union, in a matter of moments, will transform at least ten of the nations leading industrial centers into as many heaps of smoking rubble and ruins. The concentration in the United States of industrial production, essential to its defense, within the confines of relatively few large manufacturing centers makes them easy targets for an atom-bomb blitz. The American method of mass-production in its gigantic factories increases the vulnerability of this vital industrial production.

It becomes very evident upon further consideration, that demoralization of the surviving population, devastation of vital centers of industrial production, and disruption of food transportation, water supply, and communications, will paralyze the ability of the nation to prevent defeat even if the will to resist remains. Sabotage by the Soviet Union fifth-column will multiply the horrors of an atom-bomb blitz. This fifth-column already exists in this country. They are ready, anxious, and able to crush out the last spark of resistance with the same type of terrorism which was so successfully employed in the conquest of their other satellite victims.

that the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, arrested recently as members of the spy ring which siphoned off our secret atom-bomb and other scientific discoveries to the Soviet Union, are Rosenberg, Greenglass, Moscowitz, Brothman, Sobel and Gold? Is it a coincidence or how does it happen, that the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, who infiltrated into high government places, and into other strategic spots throughout the nation, are Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Judith Coplon, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Gerhardt Eisler, Irving Potash, Philip Carl Weissburg (Carl Winter), Gilbert Greenberg, Jacob Golos, "J. Peters" Goldberger, Alexander Bittelman, Jacob Stachel, Sidney Weinbaum, Hanns Eisler, Israel Regenstein, Philip Bart, Ephraim Zinoy, Liberman (Michael J. Lee), Philip Jaffe, Mark Julius Ginsburg (Mark Gayn), Andrew Roth, Harry Dexter White (Dorn Weiss) and Avro Mike Halberg (Gus Hall)? There is an explanation how this happened. There also is a reason why it happened. And furthermore there was a purpose for it. It is much more than just "important" that the American people understand that each person mentioned is a Yiddish Marxist. They make up only a small fraction of the Yiddish Marxist "hard core" of Marxism in the United States. They are the pure breed of counterfeit Americans, Soviet Union agents masquerading as genuine Americans.

It is important to note that every name listed is a Yiddish Marxist. There is abundant proof that the top agents of the U.S.S.R. spy-ring in the United States are naturalized or alien Yiddish Marxists. There is equally certain proof that the active field-agents of the U.S.S.R. spy-ring in the United States are Yiddish Marxists who immigrated to this country and became citizens (?), or their children. In order to camouflage the source of Marxism (communism) Yiddish Marxist spy-ring policy-makers convert many Christian Americans to their fanaticism by the extravagant use of money or by appealing to their suppressed-desire complex. Whether it is money or madness which lures Christian Americans to work for the Soviet Union spy-ring makes very little difference. They accomplish two things, firstly, they make it possible for the spy-ring to accomplish their objectives, and secondly, they camouflage from the American public the true character of the Marxist communist world-revolution.

Yiddish Marxists are the spirit and the substance of the world-revolution which seeks to wipe out the established institutions of civilized society and to replace them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society." Yiddish Marxists have an effective, highly-organized, world-wide network engaged in the overthrow of existing governments by force and violence. Yiddish Marxists claim they have a General Staff sitting in Moscow and functioning like the Board of Directors of a corporation with branches and subsidiaries in countries throughout the world. Yiddish Marxists in the United States are subject to authority and discipline by the Yiddish Marxist General Staff in Moscow exactly as employees of the Standard Oil Company at present working in London or in Tinian are subject to authority and discipline by their headquarters in New York City.

Yiddish Marxists in the United States are counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. Yiddish Marxists owe allegiance and show loyalty to only one higher authority. That higher authority is the Yiddish Marxist General Staff, or Board of Directors sitting in Moscow. The official name for this General Staff is the Politburo of the Soviet Union. The Politburo of the Soviet Union has been the principal instrument of Yiddish Marxists since its creation. The Politburo of the Soviet Union in less than thirty-four years has been able to acquire control of 33% of the total land area of this globe in which they now dictate the destiny of 50% of the world's population. Yiddish Marxist ambition for world-domination will soon be rewarded with success at the rapid rate of progress now being made by them.

YIDDISH MARXIST SPY RING

Spy-trials and deportation proceedings prove spy-ring from top to bottom Yiddish Marxists

Confessions obtained from traitors, testimony at trials of other traitors, and authentic facts obtained from sources whose reliability cannot be questioned, supply evidence beyond any question of a doubt, that the United States never at any time possessed that much-publicized monopoly of the atom-bomb. Just as fast as the secret scientific discoveries were made, they were stolen and transmitted to the Soviet Union by these counterfeit Americans, these agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. These traitors held positions of the highest trust in all important branches of the atom-bomb development projects as the public now knows.

If counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, had not deprived the United States of the atom-bomb monopoly, the United States would today be in a position to ignore this enormous war potential of the Soviet Union. Recent revelations confirm that theft of the atom-bomb secret scientific discoveries from the United States occurred as far back as 1943, from the very first day of the very first discovery.

The Soviet Union would not be a threat to the security of the United States today if these thefts had not occurred, despite the fact that the Soviet Union today occupies, or controls, 16,500,000 square miles of the earth's surface, approximately 33% of the total land area of the world and dictates the destinies of 1,000,000,000 people, half of the world's entire population. The military effort required to successfully combat such resources cannot be measured in terms of what the United States recently accomplished in Korea with its military forces.

The treasonable acts of counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, has robbed the American people of the strategic diplomatic value, as well as the military advantage, of an atom-bomb monopoly. Unless atom-bombs are dropped first upon the United States, its large and growing stockpile has lost its significance as a power for persuasion in international affairs. In international affairs, the United States has only one enemy. That enemy also happens to have its own stockpile of atom-bombs. Accordingly, the United States has been deprived of the incalculable power to persuade inherent in a monopoly of atom-bomb in international affairs.

As a result of treasonable acts by counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, the Soviet Union today has a stockpile of approximately fifty atom-bombs. This estimate has been made by competent authorities in the Armed Services and other highly placed authorities who are in the best position to know. Numerous statements by them to that effect have already appeared in leading newspapers. It can no longer be regarded as a secret. The Administration, and the pro-Administration press and radio commentators are trying their hardest to give this information the "hush-hush" treatment. Nobody knows the exact quantity except the highest officials in Moscow and their top agents in this country.

BEWARE OF BOOBY-TRAPS

Communists convinced Americans will surrender to U.S.S.R. under some booby-trap arrangement

As important as adequate defense against military aggression by the Soviet Union is the necessity for Americans to remain alert and vigilant against Soviet Union "booby-traps." The best defense against Soviet Union "booby-traps" is to re-arm "to the teeth." The nation will not find it unavoidable under such circumstances to resort to a Soviet Union "booby-trap" against its better judgment. Important spokesmen with the Administration have expressed themselves similarly on this question recently. They are 100% correct in their opinion although they appear to be a trifle late in arriving at it.

At the present time one of the most dangerous, and least suspected Soviet Union "booby-traps" is the world-government plan of United World Federalists. The identical enemies of the American people who created the present necessity for rearming are now also promoting the world-government "booby-trap" of the United World Federalists. These enemies of the American people think this nation is made up altogether of greedy and ignorant cowards. They think that Americans are interested only in making money and that they know, or care, very little about anything else. They think that Americans will chose to lose their American heritage rather than pay the cost for protecting it, or fighting to preserve it. They can be right! As an "escape (?) from either alternative these enemies of Americans offer them the world-government "booby-trap" of United World Federalists. The plan has been exposed by persons who are qualified to pass judgment on the subject who say it is another Soviet Union "booby-trap." If the United States joins any world-government this nation will be surrendering the precious heritage of the American people without suspecting what it is doing. By joining a world-government the American people will be signing away with one stroke of the pen their independence, their freedom and their liberty. Do they know the facts?

U.N. BOOBY-TRAP NO. 1

United Nations only a booby-trap to get U.S.A. to disarm and first step to world-government

For the benefit of those Americans who are not familiar with the early history of the United Nations "booby-trap," a few words at this time in brief review of its origin are much needed. After the death of the old League of Nations, the first step to set up United Nations was taken in Moscow in 1943. The Soviet Union arranged to bring up the question of a United Nations before a conference of Foreign Ministers at that time. This in itself should have alerted the American people. It evidently did not.

Preceded by a terrific propaganda barrage from the most notorious Communist organizations, Communist agents, and Communist Front organizations in the United States, acting on behalf of the Soviet Union, the United Nations Charter was adopted at San Francisco in 1945, with Alger Hiss, who requires no introduction to the American people, one of the principal authors of the Charter, presiding as Secretary of the Conference which gave birth to this Soviet Union "booby-trap No. 1."

Notorious Communist organizations which engaged in this terrific propaganda barrage on behalf of United Nations between the time of the Moscow meeting in 1943 and the San Francisco Conference in 1945, included "Americans United for World Organization," "Americans United for World Government," "Federal Union Now," "Friends of Democracy," and numerous organizations since exposed by Congressional investigation, F.B.I. reports and other reliable sources as 100% pro-Soviet Union organizations.

Many of the other leading figures in the terrific propaganda barrage for the creation of United Nations were the favorite pupils of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard Law School. It would be a very true statement to say that every leading propagandist for the creation of United Nations was either a favorite pupil of Felix Frankfurter at Harvard Law School or directly under the influence and control of one of these favorites of Felix Frankfurter the noted Yiddish jurist now sitting in the U.S. Supreme Court.

United Nations was created by the American people as an instrument by which world peace and the security of the nations would be assured in a disarmed-world. Dollar generosity was manifested out of all proportion to its significance to world peace. United Nations was in fact the greatest of all Communist Fronts. Recent occurrences in United Nations have demonstrated that insofar as the security and defense of the United States is concerned, United Nations is just a "booby-trap," conceived and created by the Soviet Union to lure the United States to its doom and destruction.

The people of this nation are now having a bad experience with a dangerous Soviet Union "booby-trap." Soviet Union "booby-trap No. 1" is the United Nations. The United Nations is a peace of the world and security for the United States in the Charter of United Nations, the United States proceeded to forthwith disarm itself. All members of the United Nations were expected to do likewise under the terms of the Charter. The future peace of the world, and the security of United Nations members, was to be guaranteed by a United Nations armed force. Lured into a false sense of security by this Soviet Union "booby-trap" the world let down its guard. That is, all nations with a single exception. That single exception was the Soviet Union. The world woke up with a jolt to that fact.

The birth of that notion in the brain of Franklin D. Roosevelt gave birth to United Nations. The miscarriage of that conception would have been a blessing in disguise, but it was not to be. Joe Stalin "out-foxed" F.D.R. again! (Continued on next page)

United Nations was created in sin and its passing may not prove to be a great loss to humanity. If United Nations survives the incubator stage, it will be for posterity to judge whether this generation inflicted a curse or a blessing upon the countless unborn generations if they are alive to tell the tale.

The military successes in Korea are referred to constantly in the press and on the radio as accomplishments of the United Nations. The United States seems to play the role of "second fiddle" in this great military victory. It develops that 6,000 Americans gave up their lives in Korea to bring about that victory. An additional 32,000 are still missing or wounded. Judging by the fact that the contribution of the United States was more than 97% of the men, material and money expended in that victory it should be regarded more for what it actually is, a military victory by the armed forces of the United States. In view of the fact that the contributions of other members of United Nations were more in the spirit than in the deed it may be in the best interests of the people of this nation to examine the implications of further "international(?)" organizations before this country commits itself again to assume the responsibilities it assumed in the Korean affair.

PLAN BOOBY-TRAP NO. 2

U.S.S.R. "friends" here spending millions to drag U.S.A. into United World Federalist plan

The Soviet Union having failed to obtain the results it anticipated with "booby-trap No. 1," the Soviet Union is now planning "booby-trap No. 2." The United World Federalist world-government plan, stripped of all its gadgets, is nothing other than "booby-trap No. 2" for the United States. The United States will only have one vote in such a world-government set-up. If the United States is out-voted, as it was recently out-voted in United Nations Security Council, and refuses to submit to the dictation of the majority, the world government will use its armed forces to impose the will of the other nations of the world upon the people of the United States. The United States like every other member, must agree to disarm. The United States will then have no armed force with which it can offer resistance.

In the newly created world-government "family of nations" the "have-not" nations will undoubtedly get together and determine how to dispose of the wealth of their newly acquired "rich relative." The more backward nations of the world, with a far lower standard of living than exists today in the United States, are all very much in favor of a world-government plan like that proposed by United World Federalists. A United World Federalist world-government will proceed without loss of time to implement the "share-the-wealth-of-the-United States" aims and aspirations of the less fortunate (?) nations.

The United World Federalists world-government plan will unquestionably raise the average standard of living throughout the world. This will be accomplished by lowering the standard of living in the United States to the level of the average international standard of living. Experts who have studied the United World Federalist world-government plan agree that the first result accruing to the people of the United States will be the lowering of the standard of living of the American people.

The world-government plan of United World Federalists is another Soviet Union "booby-trap" by which the Soviet Union hopes to start for time until they are in a position to dictate terms to the world. When the Soviet Union is strong enough it plans to deliver an ultimatum to the United States stating simply, "Accept our terms, OR ELSE!" According to the best information available, which many top officials regard as very reliable, the Soviet Union has set this date as some time in 1952. This date will be advanced by the Soviet Union to the extent that the United States fails to exert its maximum efforts to rearm in the intervening period.

Entry into a world-government "booby-trap" by the United States will have an impact upon the God-given rights of Americans to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" far beyond the possibility of adequate description here. Sane people fight to keep out of prison, not to get into prison. It is too late to fight to keep out of prison after the doors of the prison have snapped closed.

The "peace and security" which the American people will enjoy after the United States enters a world-government can be compared to the "peace and security" which is enjoyed by the inmates of Alcatraz prison. The prisoners in well-known Alcatraz enjoy "peace and security." That is exactly the type of "peace and security" which this nation will enjoy after the United States joins the world-government proposed by United World Federalists.

James P. Warburg, nephew of the Max Warburg who helped finance the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in 1917 is the principal influence in United World Federalists. The association of the Warburg family places at the disposal of United World Federalists the unlimited funds privately controlled by the international banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Company. It would not have been possible for the revolution in Russia in 1917 to succeed, and the Soviet Union would never have come into existence, if Kuhn, Loeb and Company had not supplied funds for the revolution.

U.S.S.R. OUTSMARTS U.S.A.

In 1945 U.S.S.R. tricked U.S.A. into disarming while U.S.S.R. built mightiest fighting machine

As is well known to all, Japan surrendered to the United States six days after the Soviet Union formally declared war against Japan, three days after the United States dropped an atom-bomb on Japan. Soviet Union troops were never actually engaged in the war against Japan. In return for this worthless gesture, the Soviet Union was able to acquire, "lock, stock and barrel," the industrial war machine developed in Manchuria by Japan over a period of the last thirty years, which the Soviet Union promptly and completely transferred onto Soviet Union territory. It is working there full blast today.

The Japanese industrial war machine supplied Japan with the best part of the military potential with which Japan was able to fight for four years against the United States, after expending the military effort required to successfully over-run the greater part of Asia.

The Soviet Union was similarly able to acquire the war-making potential of Germany, the industrial war machine which almost made it possible for Germany to defeat the entire world. The Soviet Union likewise removed into Soviet Union territory this addition to its war-making potential, "lock, stock and barrel." The German and Japanese industrial war machines had supplied the military potential for two nations with populations totalling almost two hundred million people. And in spite of what may be said to the contrary, the industrial war machine of the Soviet Union had also given a very good account of itself before outside sources of assistance became available subsequent to holding Hitler at bay before Moscow and Stalingrad.

The United States could ignore this "arsenal of aggression" if the United States had a monopoly of the atom-bomb. In lieu of that the United States must prepare an "arsenal of democracy" capable of defeating the Soviet Union "arsenal of aggression," if called upon to do so. It is embarrassing, if not degrading, to print the relative proportions of the "arsenal of democracy" and the "arsenal of aggression." An optimistic estimate places this relative proportion at between fifteen percent (15%) and twenty percent (20%). That is quite a handicap in any competitive contest. In a military contest it appears to be a staggering handicap. Without the atom-bomb monopoly the United States finds itself in a dilemma. This predicament must fill with joy the hearts of the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, who can claim all the credit for it. Who are they? Where are they? Why are they? Are they still at their work?

During this five-year lull following the creation of United Nations, the Soviet Union feverishly proceeded to secretly arm itself to the limit of its capacity, and its ability to keep the fact a secret. The eyes of the world have at last been opened to this fact very fortunately. After playing financial wet-nurse to United Nations for five years at a cost to American taxpayers of several hundred million dollars, the American nation is now called upon to pay several hundred billion dollars to obtain protection against the threat to their existence created by this very United Nations "booby-trap."

Neither the domestic nor imported variety of enemies of the American people, nor the foreign contingent, look with favor upon the continued existence of the United States as a sovereign, independent and free nation. They created United Nations as the nucleus for a world-government which was to include United States. These conspirators against the United States promised Franklin D. Roosevelt that they would make him the first man to head the first world-government. There is written evidence in existence to support this statement. The egomania of Franklin D. Roosevelt made him extremely susceptible to such "bait." Franklin D. Roosevelt swallowed this story, "hook, line and sinker." Had Franklin D. Roosevelt known that these conspirators were planning at all times to make Joseph Stalin the first head of the first world-government, there undoubtedly never would have been a United Nations.

MONOPOLY PIPE-DREAM

The atom-bomb project was loaded with U.S.S.R. spies from the very first day of its creation

That the United States ever possessed a monopoly of the atom-bomb was a big "pipe-dream." That "pipe-dream" became the basis for the policy of scraping and junking the greatest armed force in the world. Bombers, battleships, tanks, and guns headed for the U.S. junk piles under that policy. The recent discovery by the Administration of atom-bomb explosions in the Soviet Union, compels us now to reverse that policy. The United States Army, Navy, and Air Force must now be made more than a match for the Soviet Union Army, Navy, and Air Force, plane for plane, submarine for submarine, tank for tank, and gun for gun.

The false sense of security produced by this "pipe-dream" of the atom-bomb monopoly made it very easy for the friends and agents of the Soviet Union holding high positions within the government of the United States to aid the Soviet Union with its plan to acquire the enormous German and Japanese industrial war machines. The acquisition of the war-making potentials of Germany and Japan was a "must" in the Soviet Union program for world domination.

These handicaps offer a challenge to the patriotism of American labor and management. The industrial effort of the nation must provide the necessary security and defense against the present danger of imminent slaughter and defeat. These handicaps will also test the clarified genius of American mass-production. The industrial production of this nation is its first line of defense unless it is sabotaged by the underground network of counterfeit Americans, Soviet Union agents masquerading as genuine Americans. The "pipe-dream" now turns out to be a "nightmare."

BOMB U.S. WITH OWN BOMB

Yiddish Marxists in U.S.A. steal for U.S.S.R. secrets to make atom-bombs to drop on U.S.A.

The irony of the predicament in which this country now finds itself results from the fact that the atom-bombs, which will be dropped on the American people by the Soviet Union, are the miracle of American scientific supremacy, the magic of American manufacturing genius and the multi-billion development cost borne by American tax payers. It has been estimated by leading scientists familiar with the subject, that the Soviet Union could not have discovered the secret of the atom-bomb by its own efforts for another five to fifteen years. What has taken place to change that situation? The answer to that question will also answer the question of what is now threatening the survival of the United States as an independent nation of free people. Lock the stable door before the horse is stolen! There must be a better way.

The traitors who stole these secrets for the Soviet Union understood the implications of what they were doing. These traitors looked upon the development of the atom-bomb by the United States as a project of the Soviet Union and they conducted themselves accordingly. The United States never at any time enjoyed a monopoly of its secret scientific discoveries. These traitors stole, and delivered the atom-bomb secrets to the Soviet Union, without hesitation or reservation, starting as early as the first successful result in 1913. These traitors knew that the Soviet Union wished to obtain the atom-bomb secrets in order to manufacture atom-bombs to drop on the United States.

Without the monopoly of the atom-bomb, the industrial production of the nation becomes its life-line for survival. Whoever participates in the sabotage of this industrial production acts to sever the nation's life-line. It appears quite certain that the underground network of saboteurs will be directed by the same Soviet Union international Board of Directors which directed the counterfeit Americans, the agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans, in their successful campaign to sabotage the nation's atom-bomb monopoly. Who controls that Board of Directors? Yiddish Marxists control it.

U.S.S.R. NO. 1 ARMED POWER

Intelligence divisions of Defense and State Departments see fighting power ratio 4 to 1

A "pipe-dream" existed for almost six years in the minds of the preponderant majority of Americans that the United States actually possessed a monopoly of the atom-bomb. That "pipe-dream" is directly responsible for the present vastly superior military strength of the Soviet Union in every field of military importance. That "pipe-dream" is the reason the United States scrapped, or otherwise disposed of the world's mightiest military machine, immediately following V-J Day in 1945.

On the other hand, after V-J Day in 1945 the Soviet Union not only kept its military machine intact but it added to its formidable industrial war machine the enormous war-making potentials of Germany and Japan. The "pipe-dream" of the atom-bomb monopoly induced the United States to cancel orders for war materials after V-J Day in 1945, disintegrating the nation-wide industrial machine responsible for its supreme military strength.

After V-J Day in 1945 the United States promptly switched the entire economy of the nation to peace-time civilian production. On the other hand, the Soviet Union after V-J Day in 1945 did not interrupt its war-time production of military equipment, but increased its already large production by additional labor from its 20,000,000 returned soldiers, 6,000,000 prisoners of war, and slave-labor of 15,000,000 political prisoners.

As an index of the tremendous handicap which this nation must hasten to overcome, the following illustration offers a concrete example. Of the 100,000,000 ton annual steel production in the United States, about 2% or 2,000,000 tons, have been going into the manufacture of war equipment, and of this production a substantial portion has been given away for many years to other nations. Of the 24,000,000 tons of steel produced annually in the Soviet Union, more than 45% or 10,800,000 tons, have been going into the manufacture of military equipment for the Soviet Union, according to latest surveys.

The Soviet Union also utilizes for its military program, practically the entire substantial steel production of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania, and all its satellites, including China. The Skoda Steel Works in Pilsen, Czechoslovakia, is one of the world's largest manufacturers of the most up-to-the-minute ordinance and other military equipment, without equal anywhere. The Soviet Union this week ordered the Skoda Steel Works to go on a 24-hours a day production schedule. The United States has no outside source from which it can obtain additional supplies of steel. It has also become very obvious recently that this same condition exists in the United States with respect to its stockpiles of tin, rubber, manganese, chrome, tungsten, wool and many other raw materials vitally essential for successfully conducting modern warfare. The Soviet Union is bulging with its stockpiles of these same materials.

The Soviet Union now has 4,500,000 men under arms. There are available for immediate mobilization an additional 20,000,000 fully trained men with combat experience or the equivalent. These figures do not include China. The Soviet Union Air Force has between 40,000 and 50,000 latest type planes including the most modern long-range bombers and most effective tactical fighters to support ground forces. The Soviet Union is now manufacturing the most up-to-date planes at the rate of 40,000 to 50,000 a year. The Soviet Union has at least 350 submarines and will have 500 by 1952. These submarines are of the latest types, can travel under water at high-speed, cannot be detected with radar, can remain under water indefinitely, and are constructed to fire long-range radio-guided missiles with atom-bomb war heads. The Soviet Union has 50,000 tanks of the most modern types. United States Army ordinance experts admit that Soviet Union tanks have no equal in the world. These facts are taken from the latest figures available to the intelligence divisions of the Department of Defense and are regarded by them as reliable and accurate.

The United States thus finds itself today with reserves of military equipment which are dwarfed by comparison with the gigantic reserves of comparable military equipment accumulated by the Soviet Union during the five years since the end of World War II.

The tyranny exercised by the Soviet Union over its "workers" is the reason why duplicates of American machine-tools in the Soviet Union are turning out, around the clock, at least ten times as much as the identical machine-tools operating in Detroit, in Cleveland, or in factories anywhere in the United States. In the Soviet Union there are no labor unions to dictate to the worker limitations upon the production of machine-tools. There are no labor unions in the Soviet Union to tell the worker how little he is to produce on the machine-tool which he operates, "OR ELSE."

For the reason above stated there is no valid basis for making a comparison between the present industrial output of the Soviet Union, including the German and Japanese industrial war-machines, with the industrial output of the United States in comparable fields. There is no way to estimate the present production of the Soviet Union war-making potential. In this connection the American Federation of Labor has submitted affidavits to Washington describing the condition under which 20,000,000 political prisoners work as slave-labor battalions. The additional slave-labor of political prisoners of the Soviet Union satellites, including China, considerably increases the production potential of the Soviet Union industrial war-machine.

U.S.S.R. IMPROVES A-BOMBS

U.S.S.R. alone possesses the secret scientific atom-bomb discoveries of every atomic project

As a result of this treason, it is believed by the most competent authorities on questions relating to the atom-bomb, that up to at least July 1950, the Soviet Union was far ahead of the United States in work upon nuclear fission, the secret of exploding the atom-bomb. In addition to these stolen secrets, the Soviet Union had the benefit of work done on nuclear fission in its own country, and in other countries where Soviet Union spies had infiltrated into nuclear fission projects. Convictions in the United States, England and Canada confirm these treasonous acts.

In addition to a number of experimental atom-bomb explosions in the Soviet Union since the summer of 1949, the Soviet Union is reported to have exploded an atom-bomb of very advanced type, believed by competent authorities to have been an H-bomb, the so-called Hydrogen Bomb, which possesses a destructive power exceeding a thousand atom-bombs of the type dropped on Hiroshima. Success in this field by the Soviet Union, ahead of the United States, is the result of the theft by Soviet Union spies of the secret scientific discoveries made by the United States in connection with its own development of the H-bomb, or the so-called Hydrogen Bomb.

The Soviet Union has developed two special planes with which they hope to deliver their atom-bombs to their targets in the United States. The new PE 16 X has four jet turbine motors incorporating all the latest features to be found in the improved Rolls Royce jet turbines which England has been delivering to the Soviet Union, with complete specifications for their manufacture. The new IL 24 X is a fast bomber which carries another plane, the DFS 83 46, a rocket monoplane in which the atom-bomb is carried and delivered. The rocket monoplane separates from its mother-ship and proceeds by itself to its target. Both of these aircraft are now in production under the direction of General Savitsky in large, modern, concealed underground aircraft factories, situated between the Volga and the Urals. By the grace of American scientific discovery of atom-bomb secrets and the British specifications for manufacturing the Rolls Royce jet turbines, the Soviet Union at this moment is in a position to carry out a full-scale atom-bomb attack on this nation. No defense against such an attack has been developed so far by any nation.

MARXISM UNION ENEMY

Marxist regimes exterminate all labor unions but labor blindly keeps up fight for Marxism

"Workers" in the United States will hardly allow themselves to be completely hypnotized by the ravings and rantings of Marxists into believing that they have no "reserve of capital," or that they are "indigents." Do the "workers" of the United States realize that Marxists plan to create a "dictatorship of the proletariat of the world." That appears to be something different from what the American "workers" are being told by Marxists!

Labor unions become the first targets of Marxists when they install a Marxist regime. Labor unions are among the first institutions to disappear when Marxists appear. To Marxists, "workers" become merely a source of labor for the "dictatorship of the proletariat." From recent happenings reported in the newspapers, "workers" in the United States are waking up to this fact. Even Walter Reuther, who with his brother took their course in Marxism in Moscow for a period of almost two years, does not look with the same relish upon the "Soviet America" to which reference is made in a letter from them which was introduced into the Congressional Record. What further light on this subject is needed to bring addition repentant sinners back into the fold? Walter Reuther and many of his friends appear willing and anxious to make this light shine brightly for "workers" to see. It is to be hoped that all the "red" lights will change to "green" lights and stay that way. It will keep traffic moving in the right direction.

As the people in the United States well know by this time, the Soviet Union dictatorship extends its tyranny into every phase of food production and distribution. Also within its territory, the Soviet Union is the only employer of labor. It is a case of "no work, no food!" The "worker" must submit unconditionally to the terms and conditions dictated to him by his "lords and masters". A "worker" who objects may enjoy the privilege of remaining at home and starving to death, unless he is shipped to a slave-labor camp for political-prisoners, or shot.

"Workers" in the United States must be aware of the true intention of Marxists towards their groups. What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions in the savings banks? What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions put aside for a rainy day into life insurance policies? What do Marxists propose to do about the "workers" billions invested in securities of corporations of the world's greatest industrial organization of which they are one of the most important cogs? What do the Marxists propose to do about the 10,000,000 homes of "workers" in the United States? What do the Marxists propose to do about the 6,000,000 farms of "workers" in the United States? What do the Marxists propose to do about the oil burners, electric refrigerators, washing machines, radios and television sets of the "workers" in the United States? And 38,000,000 automobiles? What about them?

Marxists have been compelled to alter their slogan in the United States from "Proletariat of the world, unite!" to "Workers of the world, unite!" Marxists do not inform "workers" in the United States that it will not be the "worker of the world" who will run the show when Marxists come into power. Marxists do not inform "workers" that it will be the "proletariat of the world" who will mount the Marxist throne to establish the "dictatorship of the world." To address a Marxist appeal to the "proletariat" in the United States, the appeal must be directed exclusively to relief-parasites, unemployment-insurance addicts, bums, tramps, hoboes, alcoholics, criminals and other similar social groups. Surely the "workers" in the United States cannot be included as an integrated segment of the "proletariat" in this or in any other nation. In the case of the United States, it would be a Marxist libel upon one of the worthiest groups which make this great nation what it is today.

PROLETARIAT A BIG IDEA

"Dictatorship of the proletariat" is not just like what it seems. It is mob-rule by massacre.

The selection of the word "proletariat" by Karl Marx was not a matter of accident. The selection of the word "proletariat" was deliberate and intentional. Karl Marx created as his slogan, "Proletariat of the world, unite!" The appeal by Karl Marx is to "Proletariat of the world."

According to definitions of the word "proletariat," in leading dictionaries, "proletariat" makes up over 80% of the world's population. According to these same definitions, the "proletariat" in the United States makes up less than 2% of this nation's total population.

In ancient Rome, according to definitions in leading dictionaries, "proletariat" of the Roman Empire was "the class of the community regarded as contributing nothing to the State but off-spring." Marxists base their appeal upon the literal meaning of the word. Marxism measures the usefulness of a Marxist by off-spring he contributes to the State. That Marxist doctrine is responsible for the fact that, according to reliable actuarial calculations, the population of the Soviet Union will reach 600,000,000 by the year 2,000, only a short 49 years away. The skyrocketing line on the official birth-rate chart of the Soviet Union supports this prediction. For this reason time is a very precious ally of the Soviet Union.

As applied to modern society, according to these dictionary definitions, the "proletariat" is "the lowest class in the community." As applied to political economies, according to these dictionary definitions, the "proletariat" are "indigents," and "that class which depends upon daily labor for subsistence and has no reserve capital." In the United States less than 2% of the total population falls into these categories. The existence of this condition makes it essential that Marxists address their appeals in the United States to the 84,000,000 "workers" and not to the "proletariat." The "workers" form the largest individual social group while the "proletariat" forms the smallest individual social group.

$300,000,000,000. BIG BABY

$300,000,000,000. is a lot of money but it is the price of not being swallowed up by U.S.S.R.

Somebody must know much more than the public is being told regarding the present size of the Soviet Union atom-bomb stockpile, -- as great as the rate at which it is being increased !!!

Is it a puzzle why President Truman is asking Congress for $380,000,000 with which to build an underground hide-away for himself and the Executive branches of the government outside the range of an atom-bomb blitz on the City of Washington? Is it a puzzle why New York City is planning to spend $450,000,000 as its first installment of the total cost to build underground atom-bomb shelters for the protection of its 8,000,000 people? Is it a puzzle why the nation is planning to spend many additional billions to protect the population from coast-to-coast against extermination by a Soviet Union atom-bomb blitz? Is it a puzzle why billions upon billions of dollars are to be spent organizing, and maintaining, every man, woman, and child of the nation in a civilian defense army in an attempt to minimize death and destruction?

The cost to the American people in dollars, the lost labor-supply to create this expanded military force, and to keep it supplied, must be charged to the counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. It makes quite a debt!

Is it a puzzle why President Truman is spending thirty billions dollars this year for the security and defense of the nation? Is it a puzzle why the highest government spokesmen state that a minimum of thirty billion dollars will have to be spent each year for many years to come for that purpose? Recent estimates have raised that estimate to fifty billion dollars annually. Is it a puzzle why this colossal burden is being placed upon taxpayers today, and upon countless unborn future generations? There is only one truthful reply. It is because the Soviet Union has, (1) the knowledge to manufacture atom-bombs, (2) an ever-increasing stockpile of atom-bombs, and (3) the means required to deposit these atom-bombs at will anywhere upon the territory of the United States. These are the facts which compel the American people to make every sacrifice now necessary to insure security and defense for their country.

This is the realistic "Report on the State of the Union" as it exists to-day. Whether the American people are willing to face these "facts of life," or whether they find it more agreeable, or more profitable, to do the "ostrich act," they should not ignore this sad state of affairs. As of to-day, the nation stands, with one foot in the grave and with the other foot on a banana peel! The only hope for survival as an independent nation of free people is to inform Americans immediately, and completely, about the threat which at this moment spells the doom of the nation.

The intelligence of informed American public opinion will again show the wisdom of making the necessary sacrifices to preserve our liberty. The American people will gladly make the choice of paying the cost to defend their security, and if called upon to do so, will gladly choose to pay with their lives rather than to supinely surrender to the Marxist monsters in Moscow. If Americans are undecided on this question, they need only ask the people of those nations who were unwilling to make those sacrifices while they still had the opportunity. Will these people ever get a "second chance"? Only time will tell.

The American people cannot afford to take the chance that they will be able to enjoy the luxury of a "second guess." If the United States surrenders its sovereignty to the Soviet Union either as the result of a war or a "booby-trap," the world is lost, and forever! There will never be a "second chance" for the world after that event occurs! Unlike past history, there will never be a dawn on the morrow of the day after that darkness blackens the world.

Discretion still continues to be the better part of valor. It is still good practice to be safe rather than to be sorry. This nation can be safe only if (1) it adequately and promptly arms itself, and (2) organizes the manpower of the nation to resist Soviet aggression, and (3) avoids falling into a Soviet Union "booby-trap" like the world-government United World Federalist plan. "Booby-traps" must be avoided at all costs. "Booby-traps" mean surrender of sovereignty of the nation without a shot being fired by the Soviet Union. Americans surely are smart enough and brave enough to choose a better alternative than a self-inflicted surrender.

KARL MARX NOT NORMAL

Leopold Schwarzschild, in "The Red Prussian", the greatest Karl Marx biography, proves him insane

Marxism is the spirit of world-revolution to create a universal society in which mankind must submit to the acceptance of the way of life born in the brain of demented Karl Marx. Marxist organizations translate this revolutionary concept into dynamic reality by their barbaric brutality. "Communism" is but one phase of Marxism-in-action. "Bolshevism" is another phase of Marxism-in-action. "Fabianism" is a cleverly disguised phase of Marxism-in-action. "Socialism" is a well-camouflaged phase of Marxism-in-action. "Liberalism" is the sugar-coated phase of Marxism-in-action. They are the apparatus of Marxism-in-action. "Marxism-in-action" varies only in form and structure. The purpose and policy never varies. The form and structure of Marxism-in-action differ to meet the needs and requirements of local conditions.

Karl Marx was born in 1818 and died in 1883. The ancestors of Karl Marx, on both his mother's and father's side, were members of the eastern European Judaic community referred to by themselves, their historians, and known to the world, as the Yiddish people. These ancestors of Karl Marx, for countless centuries, included many of the most prominent Yiddish Talmudic Rabbis. Karl Marx was not a victim of "religious persecution." His father was wealthy and was the trusted advisor of the Count of Westphalen. The King of Prussia had granted full political rights to Judaic Prussians by the Edict of Emancipation of 1822.

Karl Marx gave the first signs of his later insanity before he reached the age of maturity. At this early age he already advocated the revolutionary ideologies which are today associated with his name. What is there in the teachings of Karl Marx which makes Marxism so dangerous to humanity? What are the implications of Marxism? What effect will be produced by the impact of Marxism upon civilization? How will Marxism affect the American heritage?

Marxism teaches the fundamental belief in world-wide "dictatorship of the proletariat" and "classless society." Marxism abolishes government by popular choice. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" does not countenance free choice by the people of the government under which they exist. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" precludes government "by the consent of the governed." Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" prohibits political equality. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" excludes the use of popular secret ballot

OBSESSION OF A MADMAN

Only a man who never earned one cent could be lunatic enough to try to destroy civilization

Marxism demands that the "proletariat" segregate itself from all other classes to fight them." Marxism is responsible for class wars which are disrupting the peace of the world, arresting the progress of social reforms and squandering human and material resources of the world upon preparations for war. Marxism calls upon the "proletariat" to wage their fight against all other classes to the bitter end. Marxists refer to this policy as "fragmentation of the population." Marxists split nations into the greatest possible number of "fragments." The more numerous these "fragments," the more successfully Marxists can infiltrate and dominate them.

Marxism preaches and practices that "democracy is unrealistic so long as the machinery of the government and 'all the means of production' are not the exclusive possession of the 'proletariat.' They include agricultural as well as industrial means of production as of today. Marxists tempt the 'proletariat' (?) with this bait. Where the 'proletariat' takes over control of the 'machinery of the government' and possession of the 'means of production' there never has been evidence of any trace of 'realistic democracy.'

The identical pattern which Marxist developments follow in widely separated areas of the world is not due to accident. They cannot be called historic phenomena. They are the result of preparations which cover a long period of time. The sad comment upon this fact is that during this period the remainder of the world was too busily engaged in making money and in providing itself with entertainment to take any interest in the fate that was being prepared for them by Marxists.

Marxists are taught that a successful revolution requires that execution of the planning must await the time when the combination of all circumstances are favorable to success. Marx said, "Revolution is an art." Marx emphasized the necessity for determining when both the preparation and the existing conditions combine to make the time ideal for the Marxist revolution. If a mistake is made, Marxists retrace their steps and try again later. The planning and the preparations are permitted to vary according to the necessities of local conditions. The aims and the purposes are never permitted any deviation or compromise.

Marxists are taught that successful revolution is only possible as the result of careful preparation. Preparations for what is taking place in the world today go back at least fifty years, and possibly longer. What is now taking place in the world is not the spontaneous expression of extemporaneous political, social, or economic discontent.

The Yiddish Marxist, high-priests lounging in luxury in Moscow and New York do not appear to be interested in creating anything resembling "realistic democracy" for the "proletariat" which exists under Marxist regimes. Neither does it appear that the Yiddish Marxist high-priests are in the least bit interested in utilizing "all the means of production" for the "general welfare" of the "proletariat." From news items and photographs which slip into the newspapers accidentally from time to time, it requires quite a stretch of the imagination to interpret them as examples of "realistic democracy."

MARX POLITICAL PERVERT

Marxism nullifies every political right which mankind won by 2000 years of bloody struggles

Marxism teaches that "government is merely the instrument of class oppression." Marxists urge the "proletariat" to seize power and to use this power to destroy the class-structure of society. Once the Marxists have reduced all classes of society to the status of "proletariat," the "proletariat" ceases to be the "proletariat." In a Marxist "classless society" there will be no classes. Class distinction will no longer exist and "classless society" will become a living reality with the complete disappearance of the middle and upper classes.

Marxist doctrine prohibits any fraternizing with the principle of constitutional government. Representative government disappears when Marxism appears, and never reappears. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" aspires to one world, one people, and one government. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" is the closest

Marxism comes to "government of the people, for the people, and by the people."

Of equal importance with the Marxist doctrine "dictatorship of the proletariat" is the Marxist "classless society" dogma. Marxists preach and practice that a "classless society" must be the ultimate aim of "dictatorship of the proletariat." Marxism teaches that the "proletariat" must crush out the opposition of all other social classes by destroying them. Marxists are instructed how to obliterate the political, social and economic systems of the defeated regime to aid in the extermination of all other social classes. Marxism teaches that "revolution is war." Only the methods of warfare should be adopted in waging war upon other social classes. War must be waged until all other social classes surrender unconditionally on terms dictated by the "proletariat." The Marxist version of "unconditional surrender." God help us!

Trotsky, a leading apostle of Marxism, stated, "THE ENEMY MUST BE MADE HARMLESS AND THIS MEANS HE MUST BE DESTROYED." Trotsky proved how well he had learned this lesson at his first opportunity. Trotsky was at the head of the revolutionary forces in Russia in 1917 when they massacred between 25,000,000 and 30,000,000 middle and upper class Russians for no other reason than they were not members of the "proletariat." Marxists follow the policy employed in Russia by Trotsky wherever Marxist regimes are established.

Marxism teaches that "dictatorship of the proletariat" in a "classless society" is its ultimate goal and Marxists must not hesitate to use any means to accomplish it. No form of bestiality, brutality, or barbarism is to be overlooked if it will hasten the realization of Marxist ambitions. Marx cautioned his followers against hesitation, weakness, pity, or any compromise with Marxist fundamental tactics or strategy. Marx taught his followers that human considerations must play no part in dealing with their enemies. Marx stressed that display of human qualities encourages opposition and invites resistance.

Marx taught his followers that only violence could win their revolution and that only "dictatorship of the proletariat" could guarantee its permanence. Any means to this end was justified. Marx impressed his disciples because the "dictatorship of the proletariat" was the trustee of the world-revolution which was to be the fulfillment of the mission to which the "proletariat" was historically called.

MARXISTS KILL REFORMS

Marxists only pay lip-service to reforms but sabotage them and fight them if they succeed

Marx instructed his followers to join reform movements and become active members of organizations dedicated to reform. Marx ordered his followers to join these organizations and enter upon this work with the determination to use every effort to make these reform movements fail. Marx instructed his followers that if reform movements succeed in spite of Marxist sabotage that Marxists were to withdraw from them and fight them. Marx could not afford to have reform movements succeed and improve the living conditions of the "proletariat." Conditions which existed among the "proletariat" in European countries were assets of infinite value to Marx as basic to the success of world-revolution. Marx demanded that his followers sabotage social reforms and social progress. Social reforms and social progress deprived Marxists of the inflammatory propaganda necessary to incite world-revolution.

Marx prohibited adoption of any of the institutions most sought after by western Europe under threat of the most severe penalties. For centuries the western European nations had been striving for personal freedom, government by law, control of the Executive by the Judiciary, government by secret popular ballot, and government by the consent of the governed. Marx branded such beliefs as heresies.

MARX SOCIAL DEGENERATE

Marxism destroys the middle and upper classes reducing society to level of the lowest class

Marx regarded religion as "an instrument of capital." Marx taught that religion served no purpose other than an opiate with which to drug "proletariat." Marx concentrated his initial efforts to destroy influence of religion wherever it existed. Marxists make Christianity their Enemy No. 1 wherever they exert influence or authority. Marxists are aware that as long as Christianity survives Marxism cannot fulfill its "historic mission." Marxists are instructed that they must erase Christianity from the face of the earth as quickly as possible. Marxism cannot survive in a climate where Christianity flourishes. Marxists advocate acts of sacrilege against all domains sacred to Christianity as strategy essential to the success of Marxism.

Marx attributed no value at all to the claim of the individual to personal freedom and personal liberties. Marx would not recognize any right of a human being to equal political suffrage. Marx taught that violence against humanity was sanctified by the uses to which Marx asked his followers to put it. Marx relied for the success of world revolution upon his belief that if a human being is exposed to prolonged violence for a sufficiently long period that brutality will give birth to acceptance of the most repugnant principles. Marx preached "fraternity is the outcome of violence."

The totalitarian tyranny of Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" has never been paralleled in all the recorded history of mankind. Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" seeks to repeal the God-given right of the individual to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" translates into dynamic reality the doctrine that the individual is created for the benefit of the government, not that the government is created for the benefit of the people.

Marxists use words to conceal their ideas and not to express them. Marxists use words like "liberation," "aggression," "democracy," "Peoples Democracy," "Peoples Republic," and other similar words in the extreme opposite sense of these words. Marxists use such words in complete contradiction to their generally accepted definitions. Marxist world-wide propaganda machines have been blasting the United States for its "aggression" in Korea. Marxist world-wide propaganda machines refer to the "liberation" of nations which Marxists have literally enslaved. "Peoples Democracies" and "Peoples Republics" neither are governments in which the "People" have anything at all to say nor are they "Democracies" or "Republics" even by the wildest stretch of the imagination based upon the most liberal definition of these words.

"HISTORIC MISSION" MYTH

Marxist obsession calls it "historic mission" to incite a "proletariat" world-revolution

Marxists are instructed that unrelenting class-warfare is the only means by which the "proletariat" can expect to fulfill their "historic mission" of world-revolution. Marxism lays down as fundamental the acceptance of the principle that it is the "historic mission" of Marxists to keep up this fight until they have totally destroyed social systems based upon political equality and free enterprise.

To Marxists, Marxism is more than just another political, social or economic philosophy. To its followers, Marxism is a cult, a creed, a religion! Marxism signifies the acceptance of the teachings of Karl Marx as the pattern upon which humanity must forevermore conform its existence. Marxists believe that it is their "historic mission" to impose Marxism upon all mankind. Marxism advocates the use of force and violence to accomplish its aims. Marxism plans a world revolution to hasten the realization of its "historic mission" at an early date.

Yiddish Marxists can truthfully make the claim that they are the creators of the communist (Marxist) world-revolution. In 1883 a small number of Yiddish persons established the first Marxist organization in Russia. After the death of Karl Marx several of his disciples joined forces to translate into action the political, social and economic philosophies advocated by him during his lifetime. The Marxist world-revolution was called "Bolshevism" when it was first organized. The Encyclopedia Britannica is one of the great sources of reference for historic facts. Under the title "Bolshevism" the Encyclopedia Britannica states as follows:

"The effective origin of Bolshevism may be traced back to the foundation, in 1883, to the GROUP FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF LABOR, by Plekhanov and Axelrod. The latter, deeply influenced by the doctrines of Marx . . . makes it legitimate to regard it as the first Marxian organization in Russia."

Marxism did not make the rapid progress which its followers had anticipated. The Yiddish

Marxists withdrew. They formed their separate Marxist organization. The Yiddish Marxist organization formed at that time became the ruling body of all Marxist organizations which have been since formed all over the world. On this point the Encyclopedia Britannica has the following to say:

"In 1897 was founded the BUND, the union of Jewish workers in Poland and Lithuania . . . They engaged in revolutionary activity on a large scale and their energy made them the spearhead of the party."

The Yiddish Marxists who had withdrawn from the GROUP FOR THE EMANCIPATION OF LABOR to form the BUND proceeded to organize the BOLSHEVIST PARTY to take a more active part in Russian politics. The Encyclopedia Britannica summarizes the importance of the BOLSHEVIST PARTY in Russian politics with these few but significant words:

"The history of the Bolshevik party after the first revolution of 1917 is the history of Russia itself."

Marxism demands that national, social, racial and spiritual loyalties be subordinated to allegiance to the highest Marxist authority. The world is being conditioned to think in these terms. In the United States the people are already being asked to fly only the flag of United Nations on a certain day in October. They are asked not to fly the flag of the United States on that day. The number of days when this will be required will be gradually increased until the American flag becomes an emblem of secondary importance to the American people. Other Marxist grapevine propaganda is working to attain unrestricted immigration, removal of all protective tariffs, an international currency to replace the dollar, the removal of citizens for trial in foreign countries under the Genocide Pact, the limitation upon domestic industrial production under International Trade Organization restriction, and the destruction of the basic American institutions which have made the United States the great nation it is today.

ENDS PROPERTY RIGHTS

Marxism denies the right of individuals to own property which all passes to the "proletariat"

Marxism lays down the inflexible rule that "all the means of production" must become the property of the "dictatorship of the proletariat." This Marxist principle is unconditional. Marxists permit no compromise with this dogma. Private ownership of property ceases. Marx taught his followers that they may be required to use force to maintain this status because the minds and hearts of men could not easily be won over to such a revolutionary status, or be changed quickly to accept it permanently, or peaceably accustomed to this new state of affairs. Marxists are urged to resort to terrorism when imposing this new economic order upon their victims to discourage any desires or attempts to revert to the former political, social, and economic status.

Terrorism is employed by Marxists to destroy hope for a return to normalcy. The extent of the horrors which populations have experienced are well known to those who are in direct contact with Marxist regimes. These facts are seldom, if ever, given prominence in the press or over the radio. The confiscation of property by Marxists could not be more brutal if it were carried out by the most primitive barbarians. In the days of Hitler it was different. When the Nazis committed acts which faded into insignificance when compared to Marxist strategy the newspapers carried big headlines and radio commentators screamed the news over the radio networks. The motion picture industry turned out millions of feet of film exaggerating this situation. But today there appears to be a conspiracy of silence regarding the confiscation of property by Marxist regimes.

"Dictatorship of the proletariat" prohibits all elements in society except the "proletariat" from any voice in the government. Every class except the "proletariat" is deliberately excluded from participation in government matters. Formal democratic government by secret popular ballot is replaced by administration of the communities by councils. These councils are called Soviets and are composed of the poorest laborers, farm workers and soldiers. The system of Soviets, or the system of administration by councils, is the only form of government in the Soviet Union. It exists from the Politburo at the highest level of government down to the councils which administer the smallest form-collectives. Marxists do not believe that any man is worthy enough to govern other men. Therefore Marxists base their government machinery upon the principle of administration of communities by councils and not upon government by individuals.

The first official acts of a Marxist regime constitute the confiscation of every industrial enterprise, all the banks, all means of transportation and communication, and all land holdings. Marxists immediately nationalize wholesale commerce and promptly make all foreign trade the monopoly of the Marxist regime. Marxist regimes take immediate and complete control of all the means for influencing public opinion, including newspapers, publishing houses, motion picture industries and radio broadcasting. Education must be controlled by the "proletariat." In New York City recently eight school teachers were removed by the Board of Education. The trial of the first of the eight is taking place. To date it has been proven that he was the head of a Communist group in New York City for almost twenty years while teaching school at the same time.

Marxism also lays great emphasis upon the necessity to attract intellectual technicians as associates. These groups are trained as directors for sabotage activity when Marxists strike. Almost every day newspapers in the United States feature news items relating to removal of instructors from institutions of higher learning because they are members of Marxist (Communist) groups. Several have confessed, and several have been convicted of playing important parts in the theft of atom-bomb scientific secret discoveries. In countries engaged in atom-bomb development Marxists (Communists) have held the highest positions and were proven to be Soviet Union spies.

YIDDISH MARXIST PERIL

Greatest danger arises from the fact that the Yiddish Marxists disguise themselves as "Jews"

Marx conceived the revolution he was organizing as a world revolution. Marx wanted the revolution in each country to be fashioned according to the same pattern. In keeping with this policy Marx believed it was basic to the ultimate success of world-revolution to establish a political party with branches in every country of the world. This world-wide network of political parties was to be rigorously directed from the headquarters of the central political party, and the world-wide network of branch political parties were to be sternly disciplined by the central headquarters. The world-wide network today of Communist Parties is the implementation of this basic Marxist doctrine considered by Marx so essential for the success of world-revolution. The headquarters of the central Communist Party is in Moscow. The Communist Party in the United States is a branch of the headquarters in Moscow.

Antagonism to Marxist regimes by the more prosperous "proletariat" classes is sternly repressed by organizing the poorer "proletariat" classes to do it. This method is employed by Marxists with equally successfully results in agricultural areas as well as in urban centers. The principle of class-struggle is not overlooked by Marxists at any level in the social structure.

Marx taught his disciples, and Marxists today follow the principle that the most rapid, efficient and permanent results in abolishing the class structure of society are obtained by destroying all except the "proletariat" class. The destruction of all other social classes is the only method which satisfies all the conditions of Marxism.

SYNTHETIC "MINORITIES"

"Minority" discontent is a synthetic product manufactured and marketed by Yiddish Marxists

All Yiddish people are not Marxists (communists). All communists (Marxists) are not Yiddish. If that were the case it would oversimplify the situation. Yiddish Marxists realized from the very beginning that the success of the Marxist world-revolution demanded support by the masses. To obtain this support Yiddish Marxists offer communism (Marxism) to racial, religious, social, economic, and national "minorities" as the solution for their respective problems. Communism (Marxism) is offered to "minorities" as the only remedy which can correct the conditions which produce their dissatisfaction and discontent. These "minorities" have never actually had a genuine interest in the Marxist world-revolution. They have never known what Marxism actually means. These "minorities" seek to obtain from society correction of the conditions which they allege should not be allowed to exist. That is their primary interest in Marxism.

Each "minority" is primarily interested in its own problems. Yiddish Marxists offer a Utopia to each of these "minorities." Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines work overtime to inflate the dissatisfaction and discontent of "minorities" out of all proportions to the importance which they justify upon their intrinsic merits. Many "minorities" are today valuable allies of Communist Parties because their extremist leaders have accepted the leadership of Yiddish Marxists. Based upon this fact it is estimated that Marxists can count upon effective support from "minorities" representing about 40% of the total population of the United States. J. Edgar Hoover has stated that there are only about 50,000 "card-carrying" members of the Communist Party in the United States with an additional 500,000 who are active sympathizers. The fallacy of this reasoning would require every good Christian to be a "card-carrying" Christian to be considered a Christian. How unrealistic!!!

Marx instructed his disciples that to make progress with the world-revolution advantage must be taken of racial, religious, social, economic, and national discontent wherever they exist. Marx taught that if they did not exist they must be created. Marx emphasized that a nation must be conditioned for world revolution by "fragmentizing" the population into its racial, religious, social, economic and national "minorities." Marxists were instructed how to create ill-will among these "minorities" not alone towards each other but towards their government as well. Marx called for propaganda in this respect of the greatest intensity and always recommended that propaganda of this nature be employed to create or to intensify class-warfare to the Maximum.

Marx cautioned that propaganda concerning class conflict between "minorities" must never seek to solve their problems. Marxists must utilize every opportunity to intensify and aggravate class war-fare. In the United States today "class-war-fare" amongst "minorities" is conditioning this nation for a successful Marxist revolution. The tensions between racial, religious, social, economic and national "minorities" which appear every day in the newspapers is the result of organized effort by Marxist propaganda machines and Marxist agents secretly placed amongst these groups. These tensions did not exist in this country on a scale sufficient to worry about until greatly inflated by Marxists since their arrival in the United States in large numbers during the last fifty years.

Yiddish Marxists appeal to the Negro "minority" through leaders like Paul Robeson. Yiddish Marxists appealed to other "minorities" through their extremist leaders like William Z. Foster, Earl Browder, Harry Bridges, Alger Hiss, Walter Reuther, Victor Reuther, Louis Budenz, Whitaker Chambers and other extremists in labor, educational, farming, religious and government groups. It is very apparent that the communist (Marxist) movement is not confined exclusively to persons who profess Judaism as their religious belief. Yiddish Marxists are composed exclusively of members of that religious belief. The conversion of the Christian masses to Marxism was basic to its success and made it necessary for Yiddish Marxists to secure the active participation in the Marxist world-revolution of Christian "minorities" throughout the world.

Yiddish Marxists in the United States have been rewarded with success far beyond the most optimistic expectations of the Yiddish Marxist General Staff in Moscow. The Democratic Party and the Republican Party have been compelled to advocate "reforms(?)" previously found only in the platforms of Communist Parties. The Democratic Party and the Republican Party are attempting to retard the stampede of "minorities" into the Communist Party and into organizations with high-sounding names which are actively promoting Marxist world-revolution. The Democratic and Republican party leaders have not shown the intelligence to expose to these "minorities" the fact that the promises being held out to these "minorities" were held out to their comparable "minorities" in countries now under Marxist regimes and that these "minorities" are now in far worse condition than they were before they listened to Marxist propaganda.

UNTRUTHS AS TRUTHS

Untruths regarding the relationship of the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution to Judaism

Maxism is the root of the big troubles which are today torturing the American people. The political, social and economic disturbances which are upsetting the nation, and the world, are synthetic. The discontent and disorders throughout the world are the synthetic products of Marxist research laboratories and their mass production factories for Marxist propaganda. Marxists clandestinely pour their poison-propaganda into the political, social and economic systems of the world to make peace, progress and prosperity impossible.

Marxists infect the mentality of the fools and knaves who listen to their ideologies with the product of the diseased mentality of Karl Marx. Marxism thrives upon the ignorance and greed of their intended victims. Marxism acts like a malignant disease. Marxism acts to destroy the decent things in life which make living worthwhile. Whenever Marxism appears, the Brotherhood of Man and the Fatherhood of God disappear. They perish in the climate of Marxism.

Marxism is the mother-father of the isms which now threaten our form of civilization with extinction. Marxism is the sow, its isms are the suckling pigs. Marxism provides the mother's-milk upon which these isms nurse. Marxism pumps the breath of life into its off-spring isms. Without the oxygen which Marxism supplies, these isms would soon perish and disappear from the face of the earth.

The brood of Marxism includes, "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism" and the other less vocal but more subtle isms. Marxism wears all these disguises to camouflage itself. Marxism is the hub of the wheel. Around it "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism" and the other "isms" are the spokes of the Marxist wheel. Without the hub there would be no wheel. Marxism bears exactly the same relation to "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," "Liberalism," and its other "isms," that Christianity bears to Catholicism and the denominations of Protestantism. Marxism is the fountainhead of propaganda for the missionary effort of organizations dedicated to the conversion of the world to Marxism by the use of lies and deception. It is quite different in that respect from the missionary efforts of Christianity which accepts the teachings of Jesus Christ as the source of its inspiration for the conversion of the world to Christianity through love and charity.

The American people have never understood this situation correctly owing to the effectiveness of the high powered Marxist propaganda machines. The public has never understood that "Communism," "Bolshevism," "Fabianism," "Socialism," and "Liberalism" are now masquerading under titles which disguise and deceive the American people. In order to secure followers amongst political, social and economic groups at all levels, Marxists established organizations with a variety of complexions extensive enough to suit the temperament and the taste of men, women, and children in all walks of life.

The advance-guard of "dictatorship of the proletariat" has already introduced into the United States effective propaganda which has the ultimate object of eliminating class distinction in this country. Marxist friends and Marxist propaganda machines employ many alibis to skillfully conceal their true intentions. The minds of the American people are being conditioned by ceaseless repetition of words like, "democracy," "welfare," "relief," "tolerance," "equality," "reform," "humanitarian," and similar expressions in print and over the air. The legitimate activities of organizations engaged in these noble activities provide the smoke-screen behind which Marxists wage their subversive aggression against society.

Marxist organizations have innocent-looking, sweet-sounding titles. For the dyed-in-the-wool Marxist there is always the official Communist Party. For the glibble, unsuspecting, do-gooders there are organizations like United World Federalists to intrigue incipient Marxists. Their number is legion. Collectively they make up the Marxist apparatus in the United States. The House Committee on Un-American Activities of the United States Congress, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) of the Department of Justice, and exposures by patriotic columnists and radio commentators confirm the existence of this huge and complex Marxist apparatus.

YIDDISH MARXISTS PLOT U.S.A. DEFEAT BY U.S.S.R.

RULES FOR REVOLUTION

Experience with revolutions for 100 years in European countries developed Marxist rules

Marxism recognizes five basic rules for the creation of Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and the Marxist "classless society." A study of these five rules reveals that Marxists have already made progress in creating in the United States conditions conducive to success when they decide that the time has arrived to commence their revolution in this country.

Firstly, Marxists believe that revolution must never be played with and that once it has been started the revolution must be carried out to the bitter end. Marxists adopt the policy of taking as many years as necessary to make adequate preparations. Once started the revolution must not halt in its forward march for any reason which proper preparation can prevent. During the period of preparation Marxists infiltrate into strategic positions at the highest levels in the political, social, and economic structures of intended victims.

Secondly, Marxists instruct their followers that when the time for the revolution has been decided upon, Marxists must gather at selected places forces which outnumber their enemies. This is the blitz strategy of modern warfare applied to revolutions. Marxists have successfully used this strategy. Marxists have developed blitz tactics to a fine art. To make Marxist blitz strategy more effective, Marxists neutralize potential resistance and opposition by obtaining control, in advance of the revolution, of labor unions, farmers' organizations, student groups and the other large segments of the organized manpower of a nation. Possible resistance or opposition by government interference is neutralized by Marxist penetration into strategic positions at the highest levels in departments of the government dealing with defense, food, communications, transportation, and power production.

Thirdly, Marxists are instructed that the offensive is fundamental to success. It is impressed upon Marxists that "the defensive is death to the insurrection." Terrorism of all forms is employed to reduce resistance and opposition to the absolute minimum. The history of Marxist regimes has been written with the blood of the classes which have resisted them. Once the revolution is started Marxists keep the offensive. Adequate advance preparation overwhelms opposition and discourages counter-revolution.

Fourthly, Marxists are taught that the element of surprise is essential for success of the Marxist revolution. Marxists are taught to start their revolution when it is least expected. Marxists are taught to choose as the moment for the revolution a time when the forces of the government are scattered. The success of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia in 1917 illustrates this point. In 1917 it was possible for 60,000 Marxists in Russia to take over a country of 150,000,000 population covering a territory of about 9,000,000 sq. miles. This can be repeated in the United States when the armed forces of the nation become scattered over Europe and Asia.

Fifthly, Marxists are taught the necessity of powerful propaganda to keep the masses on the Marxist side. Announcement of daily, even hourly successes, has a great effect in depressing enemies and discouraging resistance. Masses have the tendency to jump on the bandwagon of the winning side in revolutions. In the United States Marxists and their friends dominate newspapers, radio networks and other channels for coaxing public thinking. Marxists dominate the labor unions which prepare the final material prior to insertion in newspapers and prior to broadcasting over radio networks. This serious state of affairs was exposed very recently and is accepted as authentic by responsible authorities.

Above all else, Marxists are instructed that supreme success is not possible without audacity. Before, during, and after Marxist regimes are established Marxists never fail to exhibit this basic Marxist characteristic. Marxists never lose an opportunity to display this major Marxist weapon. Marxists exhibit their audacity daily in United Nations. The statements of Marxists in United Nations shock the American public. With brazen audacity Marxists accuse their victims of the very crimes of which they are themselves the guilty parties. Marxist audacity is based upon the theory that the bigger the lie that is told and the more often it is repeated, the more certain that the world will accept these lies as truths. The "big lie" propaganda trick made famous by Hitler was borrowed by Hitler from the Marxists.

WORD IS NOT COMMUNISM

Marxists stole "communism" from the Communist Societies, religious cooperative enterprises

"Communism" is a word greatly misunderstood by the American people. "Communism" is the word chosen by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines to camouflage their control of the Marxist world-revolution. "Communism" is a word borrowed by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines from the early English and American religious groups who organized themselves into large cooperative settlements by which they hoped to develop substantial enterprises of many kinds to accumulate wealth for their members. In the outstanding authentic work on this subject, "The Communist Societies of the United States," written by Charles Nordhoff in 1875, the author reveals the number and the nature of the large and substantial "Communist Societies" in the United States at that time.

The selection of "Communism" as a name for one phase of the Marxist world-revolution was to disguise its true character. Marxists wished to capitalize upon the high esteem in which "Communist Societies" were regarded at that time. The "Communist Societies" which existed long before Marxism, and the "Communist Parties" of today have no more in common than Heaven and Hell. They are as opposite as the North and the South Poles. The use today of the word "Communism" to describe Yiddish Marxist revolutionary activities is one of the greatest frauds ever perpetrated upon an unsuspecting public in the history of the world.

Every communist is a Marxist. Every Marxist is a communist. The only difference between a communist and a Marxist is in the spelling. Everywhere in the world today Communist Parties are the branches of the Soviet Union Communist Party. The Soviet Union Communist Party and the Communist Parties everywhere in the world are the brain-children of Yiddish Marxists. Communist Parties are all of recent vintage. The Soviet Union Communist Party was organized by the Bolsheviks in Russia after the successful Yiddish Marxist revolution there in 1917. It was created to be used by Yiddish Marxists in Russia to impose Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society" upon the Russian people who survived the Bolshevik massacre of 25,000,000 middle and upper class Russians. The Soviet Union Communist Party until recent years had less than 2,000,000 members out of a 290,000,000 population. In recent years it has been estimated that there are 6,000,000 members as a maximum, in the Soviet Union Communist Party.

CHRISTIANS DECEIVED

Christians give preferences, privileges and priorities to Yiddish Marxists as "Jews"

Yiddish Marxists have always made it a practice to identify themselves to the Christian world as "Jews". Yiddish Marxists have also made it a practice to identify themselves to the Christian world as part of a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists have resorted to this strategy for reasons explained elsewhere in this issue. Yiddish Marxists have even gone so far as to brag that their accomplishments are "Jewish" accomplishments. For Yiddish Marxists to label their revolution in Russia in 1917 a "Jewish" accomplishment is the equivalent of Hitler and Mussolini calling their recent political adventures "Christian" projects. If Hitler had called upon all Protestants and Mussolini had called upon all Catholics of the world to support their political adventures, and had they received it, they might have succeeded. The Christians of other nations would have felt certain that Hitler and Mussolini were crazy to ask support from them as members of a "Christian race."

Yiddish Marxists have succeeded where Hitler and Mussolini failed. Yiddish Marxists have been able to make the Christian world believe that Yiddish Marxists speak for a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists have convinced Christians that persons of all nationalities and of all races who profess Judaism as their religious belief are members of a so-called "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines have been able to make Christians accept as the truth the falsity that every "Jew" is a member of a "Jewish race." Christians do not believe a "Jew" is a "Jew" in the same sense they believe a "Christian" a "Christian" or a "Moslem" a "Moslem." A human being can only be a "Jew", "Christian" or "Moslem" in the sense that they are members of the religious groups associated with Judaism, Christianity or Islam. The invention of the word "Jew" in the 17th Century is responsible for quite a little confusion. The interpretation placed upon the word by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines is completely incorrect and very misleading.

What Yiddish Marxists are seeking to accomplish is very evident. They want Christians to regard the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution as a project of the "Jewish race" or "Jews." Yiddish Marxists want uninformed Christians to give undue credit to "Jews" for the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution. Yiddish Marxists have made all persons who profess Judaism as their religious belief their captives. Yiddish Marxists want Christians to hold "Jews" responsible for their world-revolution project. This incorrect understanding of the situation by Christians drives into the ranks of Yiddish Marxists many persons who simply profess Judaism as their religious belief. The appeal by Yiddish Marxists to their co-religionists for mutual defense against Christians adds great strength to the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution. Persons who profess Judaism as their form for the worship of God are not any more responsible for the world-revolution of their co-religionists than non-German Protestants of the world are responsible for the political acts of Hitler's Nazis or the non-Italian Catholics of the world are responsible for the political acts of Mussolini's Fascists.

As an illustration of the extent to which Yiddish Marxists have gone to identify the Marxist world-revolution as the work of "Jews," and a "Jewish" accomplishment, it is only necessary to refer to The American Hebrew of September 20, 1920. This old, and respected publication passed into the control of Yiddish Marxists in recent years and they have used it as an important part of their propaganda machine. In the issue of September 20, 1920 of The American Hebrew, the following appears with reference to the Yiddish Marxist revolution in Russia in 1917 which was hitting on all eight cylinders at that time:

"The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal is to create a new order in the world. What was performed in so excellent a way in Russia, thanks to Jewish brains, and because of Jewish dissatisfaction, and by Jewish planning, shall also through the same mental and physical forces, become a reality all over the world."

It is not clear what Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish brains." Do they mean the brains of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid Khazars who were their ancestors? What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish dissatisfaction." Do they mean the irritation caused by resistance of Christian populations to their campaign for world domination? What do Yiddish Marxists mean by "Jewish planning"? Do they mean the program of Yiddish Marxists for sweeping out the established institutions of civilized society and replacing them with Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" and Marxist "classless society"? It requires quite a stretch of the imagination to associate these three facts with the Semites who inhabited the Near East 2000 years before the birth of the Marxist world-revolution.

Yiddish Marxists used the labels "Jew" and "Jewish" long before the article quoted from The American Hebrew. As an illustration of how far back Yiddish Marxists used the labels "Jew" and "Jewish" for Yiddish Marxist world-revolution it is only necessary to refer to the November 1905 issue of The Maccabean. The Yiddish Marxist propaganda machine acquired control of this old and respected publication in 1905, and under the title "A Jewish Revolution" the following quotation refers to the aborted Yiddish Marxist revolution in Russia in 1905. The quotation reads as follows:

"The Revolution in Russia was a Jewish revolution . . . because the Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Czar's Empire."

Similar quotations indicate the world-wide extent of the efforts made by the Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines to identify the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution as "Jewish." In England, in The Jewish Chronicle, April 4th 1919, the following appeared:

"There is much in the fact of Bolshevism

itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks . . .

Again in the leading French publication dedicated to promoting the Yiddish Marxist world-revolution, The Jewish People (Peuple Juif), the following appeared:

"The world revolution which we will experience will be exclusively our affair and will rest in our hands."

CONFUSING CHRISTIANS

Yiddish, like Irish, infers national background Jewish, like Catholic, implies religious belief

Yiddish Marxists have always tried to conceal from Christians the origin and intent of the Marxist world-revolution by using "Jew" and "Jewish" as labels on the wide variety of their miscellaneous activities. The label "Jew" or "Jewish" obtains for Yiddish Marxists a certain immunity from Christians. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines grind out at high speed untruths, half-truths, distortion of fact, and inaccuracies implying that Jesus Christ was a "Jew", that the Holy Family were "Jews", and that the apostles were "Jews." Yiddish Marxists know that these facts as they present them are not supported by history or theology. They should stop it!

Yiddish Marxists know Christian prayer and hymn books are filled with references which glorify the so-called "Jews" of Bible history as God's "Chosen People." The modern Christian version of Bible history cloaks "Jews" with this mantle of Divine protection which God evidently did not extend to Christians. "Jews" are depicted as God's "Chosen People" in modern Christian versions of Bible history and Christians are expected to extend to "Jews" privileges, preferences, and priorities to be reserved by Christians exclusively for "Jews." Yiddish Marxists seek to identify themselves in the eyes of Christians as "Jews" in order to qualify themselves for the suffrage and immunities which Christians would not otherwise extend to them.

NEVER A JEWISH RACE

Nations of all races contributed converts to Judaism 2000 years before Yiddish conversion

The most far-reaching deception ever inflicted upon an unsuspecting world is the belief held by Christians that there is a "Jewish race." Historic and scientific facts reveal the complete falsity of that untruth. In recent times Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines have expended infinite effort to exploit this hoax upon Christians. Within the lifetime of the present generation Yiddish Marxists have exerted super-human effort to influence Christians to look upon all "Jews" as members of a "Jewish race." Above everything else it seems that Yiddish Marxists want Christians to regard all "Jews" as members of a "Jewish race." Yiddish Marxists feel they are able to demand from Christians, and they do obtain, privileges, preferences, and priorities which Christians feel they must show to those of the "Jewish race" as God's "Chosen people." The sooner Christians understand the truth about this misrepresentation the sooner will they be able to protect themselves against the consequences of their lack of knowledge on this subject.

There is not, there never was, and there never can be a "Jewish race." Likewise, there is not, there never was and there never can be a "Christian race." The same applies to a "Moslem race." There are three major monotheistic religions in the world, Christianity, Judaism, Islam (Mohammedism). Religious beliefs do not determine racial origin. Religious belief is voluntary acceptance by an individual of an established spiritual philosophy. Religious belief can be changed for a different religious belief as easily as a garment can be changed. Race is determined by ancestry. Race is ethnic origin. Race is anthropological fact. Race is determined before man enters the world. Race can never be changed. Belief in the existence of a so-called "Jewish race" does not flatter the enlightenment of Americans on this subject. Yiddish Marxists get many a good belly-laugh from the fact that Christianity regards Yiddish Marxists as "Jews" and as members of a "Jewish race."

The Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the former Judaized Khazars, never at any time in their history had an association with the territory or with the Semite nations mentioned in Bible history. The Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the ancestors of the Yiddish people, never had a racial connection with the Semites who inhabited the Near East Bible areas in pre-historic ages. History supports the fact that Semites from the Near East area never immigrated to Eastern Europe nor into the heart of Asia. Ancestors of the Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the former Judaized Khazars, never set a foot in the Near East area inhabited by the Semites in Bible history. No historic or scientific basis exists by which the Yiddish population of eastern European countries can claim a historic connection with the Holy Land area or a racial connection with the peoples who occupied that area in Bible history periods.

JEHOVAH & JUDAISM

Judaic monotheism was acquired from same source that Christianity and Islam acquired monotheism

The formal religious worship referred to in modern times as Judaism has its origin in the ancient temple-worship of Yaweh. Jehovah is the Anglicized modern name given to Yaweh. Yaweh was the first conception of an all-powerful, invisible Deity who ruled over all the physical Gods. The belief in Yaweh (Jehovah) is the nucleus of all monotheism. Judaism, Christianity and Islam are all based upon this monotheism.

Documentary proof exists that Yaweh (Jehovah) was a monotheistic deity worshipped by the nineteen Semite nations extending from Persia to Egypt. About 1490 B.C. the Egyptian Semite, Moses, was exiled by the conquerors of Egypt for his political agitation on behalf of other Semites. Moses dwelt in exile for many years amongst the Kenmites, a Semite nation living in the Sinai desert at the foot of a large mountain. While living in exile amongst the Kenmites Moses learned about Yaweh (Jehovah) from them.

The Kenmites had developed their worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) into a highly-organized, formal religion many years before Moses came to live with them. Moses abandoned his pagan beliefs and was converted to the worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). Moses married the daughter of an Arab Kenmite priest of the Yaweh-Jehovah cult.

His new religious belief prompted Moses to return to Egypt and ask the rulers of Egypt for permission to take out of Egypt with him the Semites who dwelt in Egypt. The Egyptians had retaken their ancient land. The rulers of Egypt treated the Semites in the manner customary at that time for victors to treat the vanquished. As related in the Old Testament, the new rulers of Egypt regarded the Semite population as a potential "fifth column" and were happy for security reasons to grant Moses the permission he requested.

Moses transplanted this large Semite population from Egypt into the Sinai desert in the area inhabited by the Kenmites. (This historic event was recently duplicated in Europe when 10,000,000 Germans in that area of eastern Germany annexed by Poland after World War II were transplanted into Western Germany by Poland for security reasons). Moses attempted to convert the desert-dwelling, pagan Egyptian exiles from idolatry to the worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). Moses died in the attempt at the age of 94 without having succeeded in doing it.

FIRST JUDAIC CONVERTS

No more possible for a "Jewish race" to have existed than "Christian race" or "Moslem race"

In the period between Joshua's invasion of Canaan about 1400 B.C. and the Birth of Christ, the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) was carried over the trans-continental caravan routes into many distant lands by missionaries of the Yaweh (Jehovah) priesthood. The outstanding world's classic on this subject is "The Lost Tribes a Myth, Suggestions Towards Rewriting Hebrew History", by the immortal Allen H. Godbey, Professor in Old Testament in Duke University, (published 1930, Duke University Press, Durham, North Carolina, U.S.A.) That volume supplies incontestable evidence with facts, maps, and photographs which prove to the most skeptical that the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) became the religious belief of large numbers of the native populations of India, Ethiopia, Morocco and all the North African nations, Portugal, Spain, Italy, France, Germany and England almost two thousand years before the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism.

The converts to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) in all these countries included every race known to have existed in these areas. The converts to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) were populations native to these countries. After their conversion they retained their native languages, their native customs, and their native cultures. While all this was taking place the pagan Khazar tribal-nation was still deep in the heart of Asia, thousands of miles removed from this development. The conversion of the Khazars to Judaism (Yaweh-Jehovah worship) occurred almost 2000 years later.

In view of the abundant historic and scientific data on this subject, it is certain that the Judaic populations (Yaweh-Jehovah worshippers) which existed among the civilized nations of the world prior to the conversion of the Khazars were not transplanted into these countries by the immigration of fugitives fleeing to escape from the battle-grounds of the Near East. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines work day and night to make the world believe otherwise. The Holy Land area is not the "homeland" of a "dispersed Jewish race." The "homeland" of the Judaic population of any country in the world is the country of origin of their Judaized ancestors. In the case of Yiddish Marxists their homeland is deep in the heart of Asia, or, for the past 2000 years, deep in the heart of eastern Europe. Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines insult the intelligence of the public with their audacious references to Palestine as the "homeland" of a "dispersed Jewish race." Authentic data regarding the peoples of Palestine up to the time of the Romans in 70 A.D. is to be found in "The Hebrewisms of West Africa, From Nile to Niger with the Jews," by Joseph J. Williams, (published 1931, The Dial Press, New York, N.Y.) It is recommended reading for all those who are interested in the subject.

JEW, JEWISH & JUDAISM

Modern Anglicized versions of ancient Semitic words which have lost their original meanings

After the death of Moses the desert-dwelling Egyptian exiles invaded neighboring Canaan under the leadership of Joshua, successor to Moses. The desert-dwelling Egyptian exiles who invaded Canaan are known to history as "Hebrews." The Canaanites called the invaders of their land "Ibri," or "Hebrews." "Ibri" is a Semitic word meaning "over on the other side of the river." The Anglicized form of "Ibri" is "Hebrew." The Egyptians invaded Canaan from "over on the other side of the river" Jordan. Canaan was located to the west of the Jordan and the invading desert-dwelling, former Egyptians were located to the east of the Jordan.

The word "Hebrew" is a word which originally had a geographic significance. The word "Hebrew" did not have a religious, racial, or national significance. The use of the word "Hebrew" to designate a race, a religion or a nation is incorrect. Propaganda has given the word a quasi-religious implication which is incorrect.

The desert-dwelling Egyptian conquerors under Joshua divided into several small separate nations after their conquest of Canaan and appear in Bible history under various names. Among the nations established by these so-called Hebrews in this small area the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) developed into a more highly-organized religious worship than it did among the other Semite nations in the area extending from Persia to Egypt. The religion had no name yet.

In imitation of the manner in which religious worship was then practiced in Egypt, the Hebrews erected many large temples in their new homeland for the formal worship of Yaweh (Jehovah). This newly-developed, highly-organized worship of Yaweh (Jehovah) created a priesthood which became a powerful faction among the ruling classes. Between 1200 B.C. and 1000 B.C. the worship of Jehovah by the Hebrews developed into a religion with pomp and ceremony on a scale never before associated with religious worship. This formal religious belief had no name. It was Josephus Flavius who in the First Century A.D. called this religion Judaism. The name Judaism was not used again since that time as a name for that religious belief until recent times when Jews commenced to call their religion Judaism.

KHAZARS NOT SEMITES

There is not a single historic or scientific fact to support claim Khazars were Semites

Yiddish people form the large Judaic population in eastern Europe as a result of the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism late in the 7th Century A. D. However, it was not until the 11th Century A.D. that the Judaized Khazars invented the word "Yid" and "Yiddish" by which they chose to be identified thereafter. Prior to (Continued on next page) are all one and the same thing. Yiddish Marxists wish Americans to feel that way. They manufacture the confusion necessary to create more confusion. Such a conclusion is false. However, Yiddish Marxists have virtually "taken over" Judaism, "lock, stock, and barrel." This story is too long and complicated to recite here. There are groups of loyal, patriotic Judaic Americans who are fighting Yiddish Marxists. Yiddish Marxists smear these courageous Judaic Americans as "anti-Semites," "Jew baiters," "Hilfrites," and "Jewish Gerald L. R. Smiths." Every genuine American owes a vote of thanks to men like Lessing Rosenwald and Rabbi Elmer Berger of the American Council for Judaism for what they are doing to expose Yiddish Marxists and all the Judaic organizations which cringe before, and curry the favor of Yiddish Marxist power. Americans who know what is best for the country welcome the cooperation of Judaic Americans who are members of the American Council for Judaism. Excepting this group, and their silent Judaic sympathizers, it can be safely stated that the world-wide religious organization incorrectly referred to as the "Jewish religion" is under the complete domination of Yiddish Marxists via Zionism, and used by them to accelerate the fulfillment of the "historic mission" of Karl Marx.

MARXISM AND ZIONISM

HEBREW (?) ALPHABET

Hebrew (?) alphabet adopted by Judaized Khazars for Khazar language, now the Yiddish language

At the time of the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism their language had no written form because there was no alphabet for the language. The primitive Khazar culture required no written language. Upon the occasion of his conversion to Judaism the Khazar King saw the Hebrew alphabet for the first time. He was impressed with the advantages of an alphabet for a spoken language. The Khazar king, Bulan, ordered the alphabet of the Bible to be used as the alphabet for the Khazar language.

The alphabet of the Bible, called the Hebrew alphabet, is the alphabet adopted from the Canaanites by the invading desert-dwelling former Egyptians under Joshua. These Egyptian exiles were illiterates having lived in the Sinai desert about forty years without the benefit of culture. The invaders under Joshua found a high degree of culture among the Canaanites. Their language was enriched by the assimilation of the Canaanite vocabulary.

The Christian public is misled into believing that the Yiddish people are the "chosen people" of the Bible because their alphabet is the same as the alphabet which appears in the versions of the Bible printed in Hebrew.

However, there is not one word of the Hebrew language in Yiddish, the modern name for the native language of the Judaized Khazars.

JUDAISM NOW CAPTIVE

Yiddish Marxists have worked for a century for dictatorship over world-wide Judaism

With the rare exception of a few congregations, Judaism as a practicing religious belief has been captured, "lock, stock, and barrel," by Yiddish Marxist fronts. The form of Zionism with which the world has become very familiar in recent years was organized over fifty years ago as the catalyst by which Yiddish Marxists obtained world-wide control of Judaic congregations of all nationalities. Yiddish Marxists made Zionism the common denominator for infiltrating congregations where they previously were excluded. In recent years Hitler made their task easier for them. The public swallowed the Yiddish Marxist propaganda about the 6,000,000 Jews which Hitler threw into furnaces and gas-chambers although Hanson W. Baldwin in the New York Times of February 22, 1948 supplies proof that there were more Jews in the world in 1948 than there were in 1939, and Hanson W. Baldwin is never wrong when it comes to statistics, and the New York Times would hardly print it unless they also were sure of the facts.

The Yiddish Marxist high-command forbade rabbis to refer to Marxism (communism) unfavorably from their pulpits or elsewhere. Rabbi Schultz was dismissed from his post as rabbi with a prominent synagogue in Yonkers, N.Y., because he dared to exhortate Marxism (communism) from his pulpit and in newspaper statements. This rabbi was penniless but he was dumped out of his position for talking against Marxism (communism). This case received a lot of publicity and there were probably others which did not. If Judaism as a practicing religion is not under the control of Yiddish Marxists why doesn't the organized rabbi rate publicly express themselves against Marxism (communism) like other anti-Marxist (anti-communist) practicing religious organizations. The Catholic Church and certain Protestant denominations have set a good pattern for the rabbinate if they desire to do so.

"BIG LIE" PROPAGANDA

Marxists teach the bigger the lie is, and the more often it is told, the more it is believed Apologists for Marxism express the view that Marxism must have merit or it could not have succeeded to such a great extent in so few years. Two important facts are overlooked by apologists for Marxism. Firstly, Marxism had its origin in a period of history when a form of autocracy existed which deserved to be fought. It was a form of autocracy, however, which was disappearing rapidly throughout Europe, particularly in the geographic area in which Marxism had its origin. Secondly, Marxism had thus far been successfully introduced only into those countries which have been tremendously weakened by long periods of military reverses. Marxism has never been introduced successfully into any country which has not been physically and spiritually exhausted by the attrition of military reverses.

Without world-wars there are no war-weary populations to whom Marxists can hold out the Marxist promise of a Utopia. The impact of war upon nations is reflected in the political, social, and economic reactions with which the world is quite familiar. Marxists know that disappearing political, social, and economic autocracies make it necessary for Marxists to seek other fields in search of valid arguments to justify Marxist world-revolution. In the recent past, world wars have supplied Marxism with all the arguments it required to wage its war against civilized society.

The public attention is being called to these symptoms every day by great American patriots. Add these symptoms together and what do they add up to? The answer is surprisingly simple. Add up what has been revealed by such patriots as John O'Donnell, writing in the New York Daily News, by Westbrook Pegler, George E. Sokolsky and Leslie Gould, writing in the New York Journal American and by Victor Riesel in the New York Daily Mirror. Add up what has been revealed by Congressman Martin W. Dies, Congressman J. Parnell Thomas and Congressman Richard T. Nixon of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Add up what has been revealed by Whitaker Chambers, Professor Louis Budenz, Doctor J. B. Matthews and Major George Racey Jordan. Add up what has been revealed by Fulton Lewis Jr. on his broadcasts over the Mutual Radio Network. What do all these symptoms add up to? "There are none so blind as those who will not see."

The incontestable facts revealed by these patriots prove beyond the shadow of a doubt the existence in this country, for more than thirty years, of counterfeit Americans, agents of the Soviet Union masquerading as genuine Americans. During all this period they have been acting as spies for an avowed enemy of this country. The patriots mentioned above, in their publicity, have not been able to reveal to the American public the fundamental and basic reasons for this deplorable condition. The press and the radio are muzzled by the friends of the traitors. The effectiveness of this censorship is amazing. This censorship will not permit historic and scientific facts to be mentioned, in newspapers, magazines or on the air, which would alert the American public to their danger. When these facts accidentally slip through this censorship retractions or apologies must be forthcoming or the advertising revenue of the offender rapidly shrinks. The powerful New York Daily News and the Chicago Tribune have each submitted to this form of blackmail to avoid the loss of advertising revenue essential to their profitable operation. "Blackmail" is a mild word for it.

The American people are living in the hope unless the United States drops an atom-bomb first on the Soviet Union or a satellite state, that the Soviet Union will not unload its atom-bombs on the United States. "Hope springs eternal in the human heart." There is no guarantee that the Soviet Union will adopt that strategy. It is "wishful thinking" by those who have very little choice in the matter. That decision no longer rests in the hands of the American people. The initiative for the choice is not now theirs.

The American people are not dumb animals. The American people cannot be stampeded like dumb animals. United World Federalists and their collaborators for Soviet Union world-domination apparently regard the American people as dumb animals. It must be admitted that the American people were stampeded into United Nations under emotional stress and effective misrepresentation. It is too much for them to expect that the American people will make the same mistake twice. When dumb animals are stampeded by emotion excitement they go over the edge of a precipice to their finish. It behooves the American people not to be stampeded over the edge of a world-government precipice. The Divinity which directs the destiny of this nation may not be inclined to exhibit the degree of help extended to dumb animals.

The unwritten histories of the Soviet Union and its satellites will bear witness to the Marxist policy of destroying middle and upper classes when "dictatorship of the proletariat" establishes a Marxist regime. Recent photographs appearing in the newspapers give evidence that the North Korean Marxists respected this Marxist doctrine invaded South Korea. These people were only South Koreans in slave-labor camps when they Marxists placed the middle and upper class when they invaded South Korea. North Korean guilty of owning property, believing in popular government, or belonging to a religious organization. For these crimes they were treated as slaves. When forced to retreat, the North Korean Marxists slaughtered these people to reduce potential opposition when they return again, as they plan to do. That same fate awaits the middle and upper classes in all countries for the same reasons when Marxist "dictatorship of the proletariat" establish the "classless society" as they make progress with their world-revolution.

SURVIVAL HOPEFUL

People who made U.S.A. man's greatest tribute to God will not abandon the world to atheists

Who are the Marxists? What makes them Marxists? What is Marxism? Unless every American worthy of the name takes the time necessary to seek the answers to these questions the chances for survival of the nation are very slim. The answers to these questions will "pin-point" for the American people their real enemies. Before the time when bomb-sights were invented which enabled bombing planes to "pin-point" their targets, air power effectiveness was at its very lowest level.

Where is the central source of the authority which exercises this power over these counterfeit Americans? Whose brains control their muscles? Who constitutes the unseen force to which these masquerading Americans pay allegiance? Do the hands on the face of a watch go around by themselves? Do the wheels inside the watch go around by themselves? The answer is "no." It is the little mainspring concealed deep down inside the watch which makes the hands move and the wheels go around. Without a mainspring no watch will tick! There is a "mainspring" which makes the Soviet Union spring inside this country "tick." It is this "mainspring" which makes the "hands move and the wheels go around" of the Soviet Union spy rings in every country of the world. Who constitutes this "mainspring?" The Yiddish Marxists!

The arrests and convictions of Judith Coplon, Alger Hiss, Harry Bridges, the eleven Communist Party Politburo high-command in New York, and the ten Hollywood screen writers illustrate the dangerous practice of treating the symptoms, and stopping there. Thousands of such arrests and convictions cannot eliminate the cause which is responsible for them. Too much attention is being paid to effect, and not enough to cause. It is this policy which may prove fatal. The life of the nation depends upon a correct diagnosis of the cause which produces these symptoms. "Time is of the essence," was never more appropriate. The gravity of the situation cannot be exaggerated. "It is later than you think," describes "the State of the Union" quite appropriately unless it is "too late to think."

If this nation is to survive, Americans at "grass-roots" level must discover the nature of the disease which is now threatening its existence. Only in that way will the American people be able to replace the treatment of symptoms with treatment of the disease itself. The treatment of symptoms instead of the treatment of the disease must ultimately prove fatal. Frequent headaches may not be recognized as the symptom of dandy high blood pressure. Digestive disturbances may not be recognized as the symptom of a malignant cancer. Chest pains may not be recognized as the symptom of a critical cardiac con-

KHAZARS NOT SEMITIES

the 11th Century A. D. the Yiddish people were known as the Judaized Khazars. During this period the language spoken by the Judaized Khazars was known as the Khazar language. When the Yiddish people elected to refer to themselves as Yiddish rather than as Khazars, the language which they spoke thereafter became known as the "Yiddish language."

Prior to the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism in the 7th Century A.D. "Yahudi" was the universally accepted Semitic word used in all parts of the world to describe the native populations professing Judaism as their religious belief. "Yahudi" is today the word in the Semitic languages which describes persons professing Judaism as their religious belief. During the conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians in the 10th and 11th Centuries A.D. many of the wealthy Judaized Khazars fled to foreign lands like the wealthy French fled when Hitler invaded France. When the Judaized Khazars arrived in Syria, Egypt, Italy, Spain, and other western European countries, they met co-religionists about whom they had never known. For some reason the Judaized Khazars objected to reference to themselves as "Yahudi." At this time the Judaized Khazar refugees invented the word "Yid" as the term by which they preferred to be identified. "Yiddish" is the adjective form of the noun "Yid." The Jewish Encyclopaedia makes very interesting disclosures regarding the origin of the word "Yiddish" and the disappearance from history of the word "Khazar." In Vol. VII, page 175, the following reference succinctly summarizes the history of this evolution, in the following quotation:

"Among Russian Jews a distinction is made between Yahudi . . . and Yid, one of Russian or Lithuanian extraction."

The Judaized Khazars originally came from the heart of Asia. About the First Century B.C. an Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloid tribal-nation called the Khazars, invaded eastern Europe through the land passage between the Urals and the Caspian Sea. In their ancient Asiatic homeland, the Khazars inhabited the territory in Central Asia in the area where today the north-west Chinese province of Sinkiang is situated. After the invasion of eastern Europe by these war-like Asiatic Turki-Finn Mongoloids, the Khazars in rapid succession conquered 25 pastoral nations which had peacefully occupied that territory from pre-historic times. The Khazar Kingdom grew rapidly and was soon recognized as the most powerful nation in Europe.

The Khazars were the greatest military power in Europe between the 5th and 10th Centuries A.D. Their military power completely dominated the entire area of eastern Europe. The Khazars were a pagan nation until 692 A.D. when the Khazar King, Bulan, the Khazar nobles, and the Khazar nation were converted to Judaism. The Khazar kings imported Talmudic Rabbis from Babylonia and built synagogues and schools throughout the Khazar Kingdom for the education of the Khazars in the Talmud. Talmudic law became the code under which their civil life was administered. Civil administration of the Khazar Kingdom was in the hands of the Talmudic rabbis as in ancient times. The Talmudic rabbis who had been imported into the Khazar Kingdom from Babylonia introduced the primitive form of religious worship practiced in the ancient temples and the theocratic form of civil administration practiced in ancient times.

RUSSIA GETS KHAZARS

In the 10th-11th Centuries Russia conquered Judaized Khazars merging them into Russia

The modern Judaic population of eastern European countries, known as Yiddish people, were known as the Khazar Kingdom before the 11th Century A.D. The Khazar Kingdom at one time occupied 800,000 square miles extending from the Black Sea northward to the Gulf of Finland, and from the Urals westward to the middle of Europe. Before its conquest by the Russians and its merger into Russia in the 10th and 11th Century, the Khazar Kingdom was the largest and most powerful state in Europe. It is not a generally known fact that Russia did not exist prior to the 9th Century A.D. Prior to the 9th Century A.D. to the north of the Khazar Kingdom there existed a large wandering population of nomadic Slavs. This roving, nomadic Slav population existed in a primitive state of civilization without even family life.

About the 9th Century A.D. a small group of immigrants from the Scandinavian peninsula landed amongst these Slavs and settled there permanently. These Scandinavian immigrants are known to history as the Varangians. These Scandinavians organized the nomadic Slavs into a small state of a few thousand square miles, smaller than the State of Rhode Island and called it the Principality of Ros. This new, tiny, Slav nation to the north of the Khazar Kingdom grew in size by victory after victory and became ultimately the Russian Empire. About the 10th Century A.D. this new, tiny, Russian nation conquered the Khazar Kingdom. The victorious Russians merged into the rapidly expanding Russian state the territory and the population of the Khazar Kingdom. At the time of the conquest of the Khazar Kingdom by the Russians in the 10th-11th Centuries, the Khazars had been Judaized for many centuries.

The Khazars were Judaized in the 7th Century A.D. Prior to that time they were a pagan nation of phallic-worshippers. The conversion of the Khazars to Judaism about 692 A.D. is responsible for the presence in eastern Europe of large Judaic populations. After the Judaized Khazars were merged into the population of the expanding Russian state, the name Khazar disappears from history. The Judaized Khazar population, known after their conquest as the Yiddish population, resisted assimilation into the Russian nation. The Judaized Khazars retained their former language, their form of religious worship and the customs and culture resulting from their strict observance of Talmudic law. The resistance of the Yiddish population to assimilation created many problems for the Russians. The Russians had a language of their own, an alphabet of their own, and since the year 986 A.D. Christianity was the state religion in Russia. Prince Vladimir III, the ruler of Russia, was converted to Christianity in 986 A.D. He attempted to make Christianity the religion of all the Russian people including the former Judaized Khazars but in that he was not successful.

JUDAIZED KHAZARS NOW

Eastern European Judaic populations and the world-wide colonies of Yiddish emigrants

The conversion of the Khazars in the 7th Century and their conquest by the Russians in the 10th-11th Centuries explains the presence in modern times in Russia, Poland, Lithuania, Hungary, Austria (Galicia), Czechoslovakia and Rumania of their large Judaic populations, all indicating identical racial origin, all speaking an identical language foreign to the balance of the native populations, all observing identical customs, all clinging to an identical culture, and all practicing their common religious belief with identical formalities duplicating the ancient Babylonian Talmudic rituals.

Between the 12th Century and the 18th Century Russia suffered many defeats at the hands of the rapidly-expanding small Central European nations. Russia was defeated by Poland, Lithuania, Hungary, Austria (Galicia), Rumania and others. The nations which defeated Russia each obtained a piece of Russian territory. The territories obtained by them were formerly part of the Khazar Kingdom. Those victorious nations acquired with the former territory of the Khazar Kingdom the captive Judaized Khazars who inhabited them. The population was transferred with the territory as it has been done all through history.

The Judaized Khazars were the ancestors of present Judaic Russians, Judaic Poles, Judaic Lithuanians, Judaic Galicians (Austrians), Judaic Hungarians, Judaic Czechs, and Judaic Rumanians. That part of the population included in these nations formed the Judaized Kingdom before its conquest and subsequent cutting-up. There are now many different nationalities included among the homogenous racial and religious group indigenous to this large area. Neither they nor their ancestors immigrated to that area from the Near East of Bible history before, during, or after the historic events in Bible history.

LET HISTORY SPEAK

It is not possible to obtain better evidence than to go to world's leading authorities

The greatest of all historians on the subject of Judaism is the celebrated Professor H. Graetz. Judaic scholars recognize the works of their eminent co-religionist as the most authentic presentation of their history. In his "History of Jews," published in 1894 by the Jewish Publication Society of Philadelphia, before Yiddish Marxists or their "fronts" acquired control of the foremost Judaic publishing houses in this country, Professor Graetz presents the results of his research about the Khazars as follows:

"The Heathen king of a barbarian people, living in the north, together with all his court, adopted the Jewish religion. The Khazars . . . a nation of Finnish origin . . . had settled after the dissolution of the empire of the Huns, on the frontier between Europe and Asia. They founded a kingdom on the Volga at the place near which it runs into the Caspian Sea . . . Their kings . . . led these warlike sons of the steppe from victory to victory. The Khazars inspired the Persians with so great a dread that one of their kings, Chosroes, found no other way of protecting his dominions against their violent invasions than by building a stone wall which blocked up the passes between the Caucasus and the sea. But this 'gate of gates' did not long serve as a barrier against the warlike courage of the Khazars. After the fall of the Persian empire they crossed the Caucasus, invaded Armenia, and conquered the Crimean peninsula, which bore the name of Khazaria for some time. The Byzantine emperors trembled at the name of the Khazars, flattered them, and paid them a tribute, in order to restrain their lust after the loot of Constantinople. The Bulgarians, and other tribes, were the vassals of the Khazars, and the people of Kiev were obliged to pay them as an annual tax a sword and a fine skin for every household. WITH THE ARABS, WHOSE NEIGHBORS THEY GRADUALLY BECAME, THEY CARRIED ON TERRIBLE WARS.

Like their neighbors . . . the Khazars professed a coarse religion, which was combined with sensuality and lawlessness . . . King Bulan conceived a horror of the foul idolatry of his ancestors, and prohibited its exercise within his dominions . . . The Jewish sage who was the means of obtaining Bulan's conversion is supposed to have been Isaac Saadiah . . . circumstances under which Khazars embraced Judaism . . . is a fact itself too definitely proved on all sides to allow any doubt as to its reality . . . A successor of Bulan, who bore the name of Obadiah . . . invited sages to settle in his dominion, rewarded them royally, founded synagogues and schools, caused instruction to be given to himself and to his people in the Bible and the TALMUD, and introduced a divine service modelled on that of the ANCIENT COMMUNITIES . . . After Obadiah came a long series of Jewish kings, for according to a fundamental law of the state ONLY JEWISH RULERS were permitted to ASCEND THE THRONE . . . For some time the JEWS OF OTHER COUNTRIES HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE CONVERSION OF THIS POWERFUL KINGDOM TO JUDASIM, and when at last a vague rumor to this effect reached them, they were of the OPINION that Khazaria was peopled by the REMNANT OF THE FORMER TEN TRIBE!! (emphasis not authors.)

MARXISM AND ZIONISM

Zionism of Yiddish Marxists is an instrument to implement campaign for world-domination

Yiddish Marxists invented the Zionist movement. Yiddish Marxists developed the Zionist movement into the most subtle instrument for aggression to the history of the world. Yiddish Marxists use Zionism as an anaesthetic upon the world before they operate. Zionism has been a very satisfactory cloak behind which Yiddish Marxists have been able to conceal their plans for world-domination. Day by day it becomes more apparent that Zionist aggression in Palestine was not organized to "repatriate" the exiled "chosen people" to their "homeland," the "Promised Land" which the maker of the promise was unable to perform without the help of Yiddish Marxists. Yiddish Marxists used Zionism to establish a "beach-head" for communism (Marxism) in the strategic Near East area with its limitless natural resources including oil and chemicals. It was "hitting below the belt" to make the American government take the lead in carrying out this conspiracy between the Zionists and the Soviet Union to establish a "beach-head" for communism (Marxism) in the Near East.

Americans are to be excused for feeling that Marxism (communism), Zionism, and Judaism dition. Unless detected and corrected in the early stage, these unseen, unsuspected maladies soon prove fatal. Action must be taken while there is still time to save the patient's life. It may be said if the needed aid arrives too late, but regrets have never yet brought a corpse back to life.

The historic and scientific facts presented here will enable Americans to draw their own conclusions. The American people can always be relied upon to act intelligently when they are given the facts. The historic and scientific facts assembled here are the result of intensive and expensive research. It now becomes the duty of every patriotic American to familiarize himself with them fully. "Knowledge is power." Never was this "power" more vital to the security and defense of the American people. The facts assembled here are in reality a Twentieth Century Magna Charta for the American people. These facts can give them the power to protect themselves against the threat of the most barbarous form of tyranny ever conceived in the mind of man. Read now, or repeat later. No American can now say, "Why wasn't I told about this before so that I could do something about it?" The time is very late but there still may be time "to do something about it!" Wake up, sleepy-heads!

TELL HOW TO HELP

Give genuine Americans a chance to be heard and they'll say, "Give me liberty or give me death!"

It paralyzes the imagination to picture this nation, with a large fraction of its total population either burned to a cinder, fried to death, or victims of radio-active burns, buried under the ruins of a coast-to-coast atom-bomb blitz, and asking the Soviet Union for terms of surrender. It is not conceivable for the average American to even imagine what those terms will be like. The terms for surrender of the United States to the Soviet Union will make the "unconditional surrender" terms offered to Germany and Japan seem in comparison like the most generous peace proposal ever offered to a defeated enemy in all the recorded annals of history.

The "we-never-lost-a-war" attitude of the American people must not become a psychosis which can prove fatal. That psychology applied to an era which is a closed book in our history. A new era opened with the discovery of the atom-bomb. The territory of this country is now threatened by a foreign power for the first time since the burning of the city of Washington by the British in the War of 1812. Every square foot of this country at this moment faces a fate so very much worse. This "we-never-lost-a-war" psychology may prove the reason for losing the next war. The nation has been told by its most responsible leaders that the next war may end in defeat. "We-can-lose-the-next-war" is the realistic attitude which should be adopted by the American people under the circumstances.

Three steps must be taken at once if the nation is to survive the peril with which it is faced. This is the first step. Fix the responsibility for the danger which now threatens its existence. This is the second step. Prevent any further deterioration in the domestic factors which are vital to the preservation of the American heritage. This is the third step. Promptly and adequately prepare to meet any military challenge by the Soviet Union. These three steps are the A.B.C. of keeping this nation from following in the footsteps of other victims of Soviet Union aggression. Ignorance may be blissful, but wisdom in this matter will prove to be anything but foolish despite what the proverb states to the contrary.

Failure to give prompt and proper consideration, and attention to the first of these three steps, will make it utterly impossible to hope for success in the second and third of these three steps. In such an event, the consequent calamity to the nation beggars description. Only very fast thinking, and faster action, are now able to avert the slaughter and defeat which appear at this moment both imminent and inevitable.

Having walked in a Fool's Paradise for five years, (1949-1950,) this nation now finds itself face to face with the possibility of meeting the fate which has befallen Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Roumania and other victims of the Soviet Union's "creeping conquest." The fate of these nations was sealed due to the ignorance or the indifference of the masses at the "grass-roots" level. The fate of this nation may be decided by either, or both, of these identical reasons. The "it-can't-happen-here" attitude of the American people at the "grass-roots" level may prove to be the reason for a "too-little-and-to-late" defense against an undeserved and unhappy fate. The smug sense of security of the American people should have gone up in the smoke of the first atom-bomb explosion in the Soviet Union.

PIN-POINT U.S.S.R. AGENTS

The F.B.I. should start at once to pin-point U.S.S.R. agents regardless of political pull Until bombing planes were able to "pin-point" their targets the enemy had little to fear from air-power. In World War II the enemy was not put out of business by "saturation" bombing, dropping a thousand or more bombs on a single target at one time hoping that some of them would hit. The enemy was quickly put out of business, however, by "pin-point" bombing. "Pin-point" bombing made "saturation" bombing as obsolete as the muzzle-loading flint-lock musket.

Now is not a time to try "saturation" bombing. Now is the time to use "pin-point" bombing. The real enemies of the nation must be ferreted out with "pin-point" methods. They can be properly dealt with then. They must first be discovered. It has been truly stated that in order to make a rabbit-stew the first thing to do is to catch the rabbit. But before it is possible to catch the rabbit it is necessary to have an idea what a rabbit looks like.

It hardly seems that "pin-point" bomb-sights will be required to locate the real enemies of this nation. The "rabbits" have revealed their identity openly. The real enemies of the nation are the Marxists. Marxists are the apostles of Karl Marx. They are the disciples of Marxism. They preach humanity in a strait-jacket of the ideologies taught by Karl Marx. They boast that the American heritage will soon be replaced by a Marxists dictatorship. They proclaim the purpose, policy, and program of Marxism as the historic successor to the God-given right of every human being to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The American people today are treating symptoms. The American public, with few exceptions, are totally unaware of the truth about the disease which spells their doom. As in the case of all malignant maladies, time is working on the side of the disease. Now is the time for patriotic Americans to learn "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." Nothing is more necessary, nothing more is necessary. Less than the whole truth robs the American people of their chance to protect their priceless heritage. If it is lost now, it is lost forever.

ANTI-SEMITIC SMEAR BAD

More than 95% of the Semites were Christians and Arabs. Only the uninformed fear that smear

In explaining the "mainspring" of the world revolution, and describing the implications of its impact upon the American heritage there is neither the intention, nor the necessity, nor the desire, to cast aspersions upon any specific religious denomination nor upon any racial group. Much confusion exists on this point of view. There is great confusion on this question. This confusion is created intentionally. This confusion is intended as a "smoke-screen" behind which the "mainspring" can carry on its work without detection or opposition. The beneficiaries of this confusion are the very people who create it. They distort as "religious persecution" measures of self-defense against their aggression. The measure of their success in creating confusion to conceal their conspiracies will be the measure of their ultimate success in the war they are waging for world-domination. The time has come to put an end to this confusion. History, not propaganda, claims all the pride of authorship for the facts presented here. These facts disprove the vicious propaganda which brands resistance to aggression "religious persecution."

The B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League and other direct or indirect wheels-within-wheels of the Yiddish Marxist propaganda machine have made the word "anti-Semitic" their most deadly weapon. If an American makes a public attack upon Marxism (communism) he immediately becomes the target for numberless propagandists who brand him "anti-Semitic." The word "anti-Semitic" has been made to stand for a Christian American who hates other persons for no other reason than they worship God in a synagogue and not in a church. Christian Americans judge all people by their character and their conduct, by their attitudes and their actions, and not by the sign on the building where they enter to worship God. But God have mercy upon the person who has to earn a living when he is branded "anti-Semitic" in this country by Yiddish Marxist propaganda machines.

It must be emphasized in no uncertain terms that reference to Yiddish Marxists is not intended as a reflection on individuals or groups by reason of the fact that they profess Judaism as their alleged religious belief. Neither is it intended to cast aspersions upon Judaism as practiced by countless Judaic Americans as the vehicle which, by accident of birth, brings them into closer unity with the God of all peoples. Yiddish propagandists wish Christian Americans to believe that Yiddish and Jewish have the same relationship that "wop" or "dago" have to Italian, etc. etc. Yiddish has no more connection with Jewish than Irish has with Catholic. The Irish nation was converted to Christianity in the 10th. Century. The Yiddish nation (Khazars) were converted to Judaism in the 7th. Century. When Sophie Tucker sings "My Yiddish Mama" the Yiddish people stand up and cheer. If a Christian American uses the word Yiddish he is immediately branded "anti-Semitic." It is very important to "keep the record straight" on that point. Yiddish is not Jewish!

FIVE CENTS

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON NATION'S SECURITY AND CIVILIZATION THREATENED BY MARXIST CONSPIRATORS Camouflaged traitors high in government are secretly sabotaging U.S.A. plans for defense

"Anti-Semitism" is the "smoke screen" behind which the enemies of this nation and Christianity aim to win their "cold" war. Their "creeping conquest" must be stopped or the international Marxists' conspiracy for world rule will become a reality very soon. It is well known that their "cold" war-plans rely upon "anti-

Semitism" as their secret weapon. At the very first "peep" out of a possible future antagonist they "call out" their vicious Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund.

Patriotic Christian Americans take it "from whence it comes" and "sound off" with a "line drive" attack against this Marxist conspiracy for world conquest. The cry "anti-Semitism" by the Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund has become the political, economic, and social "A-bomb" in the arsenal of the invisible agents of the international Marxist conspirators. They have given "anti-Semitism" a destructive power which is devastating the power of the nation. The existence of a conspiracy to conquer the world is well established. The American people are not sufficiently informed about it. The facts which follow will go far in convincing the most skeptical person that this nation is in immediate danger. NOW is the time to act. The FIRST step to take is to LEARN the "SCORE."

UNSEEN DISEASE DESTROYING NATION'S LIFE

In this crisis it becomes necessary to treat the DISEASE. Americans have been treating SYMPTOMS. This nation is the victim of a malignant malady. Like all malignant maladies the danger is invisible. Its existence is only evidenced by its symptoms. To treat the SYMPTOMS but not the DISEASE will quickly prove fatal.

In order to survive it becomes vital to discover the disease BEFORE it reaches the stage where it is TOO LATE to save the patient. When many patients finally reach the operating table it is discovered that it is TOO LATE. The case is HOPELESS. The patient is sewed-up and sent home to wait for the inevitable. IT IS TOO LATE THEN TO START "REVERSING THE TEND.".

This nation and Christianity are now in that stage. IS IT TOO LATE TO REVERSE THE TEND? That is the ONLY important issue. WE THINK IT IS NOT TOO LATE! But the condition is critical. There must not be an instant's delay in ATTACKING THE DISEASE. The nation's patriots must not allow themselves to be misled by their enemies into treating SYMPTOMS, and ignoring the existence of the DISEASE producing the symptoms.

Common sense teaches us to follow this logical course to SAVE OUR LIVES. Common sense should tell us also to use that same logic to SAVE OUR NATION. There is not a moment to be lost in making a CORRECT DIAGNOSIS. Until that is done it is not possible to give the CORRECT TREATMENT. Unless the CORRECT TREATMENT is given without much loss of time the DISEASE will soon reach the HOPELESS stage. Tears will not then be able to wash away those mistakes.

MARXIST UNDERGROUND ENDANGERS NATION

Julius Rosenberg, Ethel Rosenberg, Judith Coplan, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Lee Pressman, Nathan Witt, Gerhard Eisler, Irving Fetsch, Alexander Bittelman, Gilbert Green (Greenberg), Jacob Golos, "J. Peters" Goldberger, Jacob Stachel, Sidney Weinbaum, Hanson Elster, Israel Regenstein, Philip Bari, Ephraim Zinoy, Liberman (Michael Lee), Philip Jaffe, Mark Julius Ginsburg (Mark Gayn), Andrew Robb, Dora Weiss (Harry Dexter White), Avro Gus Halberg (Gus Hall), are only SYMPTOMS. The DISEASE itself is the international Marxist conspiracy for world conquest. IT IS NECESSARY TO PAY ATTENTION TO THE SYMPTOMS BECAUSE THEY INDICATE THE NATURE AND THE LOCATION OF THE DISEASE. THE DISEASE, HOWEVER, MUST BE ATTACKED AND DESTROYED.

The anti-Christ atheist Marxist aggression is under the direct leadership of Yiddish Marxists. The Yiddish Marxists claim Marxism as their offspring. Apart from the political, social and economic implications of Marxism it also harbors a very definite anti-Christ implication

TALMUDIC PRAYER MAKING TRAITORS PRAYER PROMOTES TREASON Loyalty oaths valueless at time taken, a prayer nullifies oaths before taking.

A prayer recited in synagogues preceding the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies makes traitors of everyone participating in these ceremonies. The threat contained in that prayer to the security of this nation and to the survival of civilization commands the immediate consideration of all patriotic Americans.

The recitation of that prayer in synagogues prior to the Day of Atonement religious ceremonies renders valueless the loyalty oath of all who participate in the ceremony.

RUSSIA DEFEATS THE JUDAIZED KHAZARS

When in the 11th Century A.D. the Russians conquered the Judaized Khazars an important alteration was introduced by Yiddish communities, the former Judaized Khazars, in their ceremonies on the Day of Atonement.

Bloch and Madeislamm, the two foremost Judaic authorities on matters relating to the historic evolution of Judaism, both state that this significant alteration was the premeditated consequence of "a definite historical event."

The "definite historical event" referred to by Bloch and Madeislamm was the final conquest of the Judaized Khazars, called since then Yiddish communities, in eastern Europe, by the Russians in the 11th Century. That conquest wiped from the face of the map of Europe the 1000 year old Khazar kingdom which during its last 500 years flourished as a sovereign Judaic theocracy under Talmudic law, the totalitarian rule over civilians by rabbis.

PRAYER DECLARES OATHS NULL AND VOID

The interpretations made during the past 800 years by leading Judaic authorities upon the alteration made in that prayer confirm that its effect is to make null and void for the coming year all oaths, vows and pledges. As a consequence of that alteration in the prayer all oaths, vows and pledges made in the coming year become inoperative, ineffective and invalid even before they are made.

The immunity thereby obtained from responsibilities or obligations assumed under oaths, vows and pledges to be taken during the coming year is renewed each year by the "Kol Nidre" ceremony on the Day of Atonement.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA EXPLAINS PRAYER

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 539, the following prayer is recited three times at the opening of the Day of Atonement services. That prayer is called "Kol Nidre" (All Vows). The text of that prayer is reproduced here exactly as it appears in the official translation in the Jewish Encyclopedia:

"All vows, obligations, oaths and anathemas, whether called 'konam', 'konas', or by any other name, which we may vow, or swear, or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this Day of Atonement unto the next [whose happy coming we await], we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled and void and made of no effect; they shall not bind us nor have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths be oaths."

PRAYER'S PURPOSE PURELY POLITICAL

Notwithstanding the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is recited three times at the opening of the Day of Atonement services, the Jewish Encyclopedia emphasizes that this prayer has no connection with the Day of Atonement religious services which follow its recitation. The political nature of the alteration made in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century A.D. is confirmed by the complete lack of any spiritual significance. The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VI, page 441, arrives at the same conclusion, stating:

"The Kol Nidre has nothing whatever to do with the actual idea of the Day of Atonement . . . It attained to extraordinary solemnity and popularity by reason of the fact that it was the first of the prayers recited on this holiest of days."

MYSTERY FOR MODIFICATION OBSCURE

The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 540, describes the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in a most concise and correct description of its implications, stating:

"An important alteration in the wording of the 'Kol Nidre' was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel, who changed the original phrase 'from the last Day of Atonement until this one' to 'from this Day of Atonement until the next.' This alteration of the 'Kol Nidre' was not as formerly a posteriori and concerned with the unfulfilled obligations of the past year, but a priori and having reference to vows which one might not be able to fulfill or might forget to observe during the ensuing year. Meir ben Samuel likewise added the words 'we do repent of them all.'"

The leading authority on rituals, including the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, is Professor Theodore Reik, the famous pupil of Dr. Sigmund Freud, renowned psychoanalyst. Professor Reik wrote a classic text book in German, his native language, called "The Ritual, Psycho-Analytical Studies," the greatest work on this subject.

Professor Reik's analysis of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was translated into the English language and published in the United States by Theodor Reik & Company in 1946. The Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-band cannot accuse the author, his teacher, or his publisher of being "anti-Semitic." They are interested only in determining the truth and communicating it to as many who are interested in this subject as can be reached.

Professor Reik states his conclusions which must be accepted as the analysis of the leading authority on this subject. With reference to the consequences resulting from the alteration in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, Professor Reik on page 166 in his famous book, states:

"The text was to the effect that all oaths which believers take between one Day of Atonement and the next Day of Atonement are declared invalid."

TALMUDIC LAW SANCTIONS CHANGE

The intent and the purpose of the alteration introduced by Meir ben Samuel in the text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century A.D. is a well established fact. Documented proofs exist that Meir ben Samuel himself cited in support of his "exemption" from the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer to the Talmudic Treatise in Oaths:

"Whoever wishes all the vows he may make throughout the year to be null and void shall come at the beginning of year and say 'May all the vows that I shall now be annulled.'"

Professor Reik brings out the fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer has no spiritual significance. Attention is called by him to the absence of spiritual meaning in the version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer with the alterations introduced by Meir ben Samuel, and to prove this point, on page 175, he states:

"... we become more and more astonished that a religion which attached an almost exaggerated importance to oaths and promises should by a single special formula cancel all oaths, and moreover, those which are to be taken in the coming year."

JUSTIFICATION FOR CHANGE INVALID

The sinister Yiddish defenders of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer offer as their justification for its retention in the liturgy on the Day of Atonement the plea that the prayer refers "only to one's obligations to one's self," according to the Universal Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VI, page 441. They offer hair-splitting arguments and "double-talk" as their basis for retaining this prayer in their ritual. Professor Reik differs and destroys the force of their reasoning with his statement on page 176, as follows, which completely disproves their only defense:

"The whole weight of the argument that the immunity only applies to the oath sworn and taken upon himself by a believer rests on the subordinate sentence, 'If anyone at all swears, (which we have taken upon our souls, or expressed in more modern language, which we have taken upon ourselves). The significance of the words is clear. The defenders of the Kol Nidre state that the formula does not concern oaths valid at law regarding other persons, but it concerns one's oaths, vows, pledges, etc., which impose upon one's self thereafter, a contrast with one's ego."

Professor Reik exposes the fraudulence of this absurd contention by the defenders of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. It insults the intelligence to listen to the justification of the defenders. Professor Reik concurs with other leading authorities that the justification offered cannot be acceptable on that basis as vindication. In his treatise on this subject, Professor Reik, on page 178, summarizes:

"Does the phrase 'which we have imposed on our souls' (or 'upon ourselves') exclude the participation of a second person. Only apparently, we think. Apart from philological doubts, it is quite possible that oaths as well as vows which we impose upon ourselves concern a second person. I swear to myself, for instance, I will support a poor relation. Of course in such a case it is not a matter of a contract between two persons, BUT FULFILLMENT OR NON-FULFILLMENT OF THIS VOW AFFECTS THE OTHER PERSON."

LOYALTY OATHS SACRED CONTRACTS

A loyalty oath is an oath with "one's self." A loyalty oath is not a contract between two persons. The loyalty oath to defend the nation and to support its Constitution is a pledge made with one's self exactly like the pledge to support a poor relation. The fulfillment or non-fulfillment of a pledge to defend the nation and to support its Constitution affects other persons exactly as fulfillment or non-fulfillment of a pledge to support poor relations affects the poor relations. OATHS ARE PROMISES GIVEN TO GOD.

A person taking a loyalty oath makes a vow or pledge with "one's self" to be loyal to his country. A loyalty oath is never a "contract between two persons," according to Professor Reik. A "contract between two persons" is a "meeting of the minds" whereby the parties mutually promise to perform an understanding between the parties. In many cases, such understandings are strengthened with an oath, vow or pledge. Loyalty oaths by their very nature are oaths made "with one's self," and by their very nature cannot be with "second parties."

Professor Reik is an authority on the subject of oaths. The operation of the mind plays an important part in the making of oaths, vows and pledges. Professor Reik emphasizes the fact that an oath is a promise made by a person to himself. He stresses that an oath is a promise given to God by the person who takes the oath. He cites that there is never a second person to the contract entered into between anyone taking an oath and God. Professor Reik corroborates the interpretation by other leading authorities of the phrase, "which we have taken upon our souls," or as expressed in more modern language, "which we have taken upon ourselves," on page 184, as follows:

"We can say that an oath is a promise WHICH THE PERSON IMPOSES UPON HIMSELF," and, "The vow, therefore, would be A PROMISE GIVEN TO GOD."

Professor Reik lays great stress upon the intentions of Meir ben Samuel when he introduced the alteration in the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the 12th Century. He brings out the fact that it was after the final conquest of the Judean Khazars by the Russians in the 11th Century, and the loss of their independence and sovereignty, that the Yiddish communities, the Judean former Khazars, introduced this alteration in the liturgy of the Yiddish congregations in eastern Europe. Meir ben Samuel was inspired to introduce the alteration for a very obvious reason. Professor Reik referred to this on page 179, calling attention to the threat to our security, thus:

"An important alteration in wording of Kol Nidre was made by Rashi's son-in-law, Meir ben Samuel, who changed the original phrase 'from the last Day of Atonement until this one' to 'from this Day of Atonement until the next.' This alteration of the 'Kol Nidre' was not as formerly a posteriori and concerned with the unfulfilled obligations of the past year, but a priori and having reference to vows which one might not be able to fulfill or might forget to observe during the ensuing year. Meir ben Samuel likewise added the words 'we do repent of them all.'"

PRAYER LOSES RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE

The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the manner in which the alteration introduced by Meir ben Samuel deprived the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer of its former religious character. The alteration in the original text by Meir ben Samuel in the 12th Century which robbed "Kol Nidre" of its former spiritual significance is referred to by the Jewish Encyclopedia in Volume VII, page 541, which establishes its non-religious character:

"The words 'we do repent' in the teaching of Moses, thy servant' which were said in the old form before Num. XV, 26, were cancelled. (Abudraham, p. 75b)."

Professor Reik calls attention to the fact, above described by the Jewish Encyclopedia, as a violent departure from the sacred character of oaths in the time of Old Testament Bible history, indicated by "Kol Nidre" of today:

"The purport of the formula is in complete contrast with the high sanctity in which obligations, whether taken on oath or otherwise, are held in biblical and Talmudic Judaism."

The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 540, indicates the sacred character of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in its long history. The congregations participated in the Day of Atonement services regarding the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer as an important part of their holiest of services, according to the Jewish Encyclopedia, which emphasizes that point thus:

"Declares that the petitioners, who were seeking reconciliation with God, solemnly refrained in His presence, all vows and oaths . . . and made them all null and void from the beginning, entreating in their stead pardon and forgiveness from the Heavenly Father."

RELIGIOUS LEADERS CHALLENGE CHANGE

The Jewish Encyclopedia points out that the alteration made in the liturgy was opposed at the time by rabbinic authorities. The political considerations entering into the introduction of the alteration of the text caused considerable opposition from sincere and devout religious leaders. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 539, makes mention of this opposition to the alteration thus:

"Kol Nidre. Prayer recited in the synagogues of the beginning of the evening service on the Day of Atonement; the name is taken from the opening words. The 'Kol Nidre' has had a very eventful history, both in itself and on the legal status of the Jews. Introduced in the liturgy despite the opposition of the rabbinic authorities, repeatedly attacked in the course of time by many halakists, and in the 19th Century A.D. EXPUNGED FROM THE PRAYER BOOKS OF MANY COMMUNITIES OF WESTERN EUROPE."

The alteration introduced in the 12th Century by Meir ben Samuel in the text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is found only in the ritual of Yiddish congregations. Of the 14,000,000 Yiddish persons in the world today about one-half are at the present time in the United States. Approximately 88% of the total Judaic American population are members of this Yiddish community, all 1st and 2nd generation eastern Europeans, mainly, all first and second generation eastern Europeans.

REBELLION BY LEGITIMATE RELIGIOUS

The efforts of Yiddish communities to compel the introduction of the altered text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer into the ritual of non-Yiddish communities met with strong opposition. This opposition began shortly after the introduction of the altered text in the 12th Century. Before the 19th Century the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" had created so much conflict between the Yiddish and non-Yiddish Judaic populations of the world, that it produced a historic crisis. In 1844, at a rabbinical conference called in Brunswick, Germany, IT WAS UNANIMOUSLY DECIDED THAT THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER WAS NOT ESSENTIAL TO JUDAISM AND THAT MEMBERS-OF THE CONVENTION SHOULD EXERT THEIR INFLUENCE TOWARD SECURING ITS SPEEDY ABOLITION. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 542, reports this eventful conference as follows:

"Yielding to the numerous accusations and complaints brought against 'Kol Nidre' in the course of centuries, the rabbinical conference held at Brunswick in 1844 decided unanimously that the formula was not essential and that members of the convention should exert their influence toward securing its speedy abolition. The decision of the conference was accepted by rabbinical congregations in western Europe, AND IN ALL THE AMERICAN REFORM CONGREGATIONS." ("Protokolle der Ersten Rabbiner Versammlung," pp. 41, Brunswick, 1844.)

NON-YIDDISH DENOUNCE PRAYER

The Reform congregations in the United States make up less than 12% of the total Judaic American population, and consist almost in their entirety of non-Yiddish communities. The Jewish Encyclopedia calls attention to the rupture resulting from opposing views between worldwide Reform and Yiddish (Orthodox) communities as an indication of the growing rebellion against "Kol Nidre":

"The decision of the conference was accepted by many congregations of western Europe AND IN ALL THE AMERICAN REFORM CONGREGATIONS, which, while retaining the melody SUBSTITUTED FOR THE FORMULA a German or a Hebrew psalm."

NON-YIDDISH DENOUNCE YIDDISH

The Jewish Encyclopedia supplies an abundance of evidence to indicate the extent of the opposition by the non-Yiddish Judaic communities throughout Europe to the altered text of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. Reference is made in the Jewish Encyclopedia to the instances of opposition which arose from the time the alteration in the text was made. These protests were most articulate in the non-Yiddish communities of Italy, France, Spain, North Africa and elsewhere in western Europe and North Africa, as the Jewish Encyclopedia points out, very briefly quoted here for lack of space:

"It has never been adopted in the Catalonia (Spanish) or in the Algerian (North African) ritual . . . There were always many congregations in lands where the French and Spanish ritual was used which did not recite it. ('Oriol Hayim,' p. 103d). . . The change was bitterly opposed by the Italian Isiah de Trani (1250 A.D.). . . For the same reason Jeremiah ben Meshullam, who lived in Provence about the middle of the 14th Century, inveighed against those fools who, while reciting the 'Kol Nidre' made vows recklessly, and he declared them incapable of giving testimony . . . Judah ben Barzilai, a Spanish author of the 12th Century in his halakic work 'Sefer ha-Rit' declares the custom of reciting the 'Kol Nidre' was unjustifiable and misleading, since many ignorant persons believe that all their vows and oaths are annulled and consequently they take such obligations upon themselves carelessly."

In non-Yiddish communities in other areas of Europe the same condition existed. The Jewish Encyclopedia, in Volume VII, page 541, cites the cases of Judah Hadastr, who in 1145 in Constantinople, wrote the "Eshkol-ha-Kofer." Other opposition in the Middle Ages included Yom-tob ben Abraham Ishbi, who died in 1350, and Isaac ben Sheshet, Rabbini in Saragosa, who died in 1406.

MELODY SOLE JUSTIFICATION

Yiddish communities throughout the world have retained the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in the Day of Atonement liturgy in spite of the unfavorable reactions which resulted. They justify their continuance of the altered version upon the ground that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is chanted to a melody which is pleasing to the ear. The Jewish Encyclopedia, exposes this justification, in Volume VII, page 542:

"The principal factor which preserves the great religious authority of the 'Kol Nidre' . . . is doubtless its plaintive and appealing melody."

Professor Reik comments upon the importance placed upon the melody for the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in a manner which indicates that he also is unable to recognize the serious nature of the prayer with the beautiful melody to which it is chanted. Professor Reik, on page 169, states his opinion about the justification:

"This . . . almost fatal formula is . . . a deeply affecting melody that is quite foreign to the text."

The Jewish Encyclopedia reaches the same conclusion regarding the melody to which "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is chanted. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 542, suggests the melody may be the answer to it:

"Even more famous than the formula itself is the melody traditionally attached to its rendition. This is deservedly so much prized that even WHERE REFORM HAS ABOLISHED THE RECITAL OF THE TEXT, the air is often preserved, either in association with some other passage . . . or as an organ prelude to stune the mind of the congregation to the solemnity of the evening."

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 540, states that in the time of Old Testament Bible history there was a tendency of the population to take vows and oaths carried to extremes. They state that in the ancient days, it was necessary to include in the code of the Pentateuch prohibitions which prevented placing an exaggerated value upon the religious value of oaths and vows (Deut. XXII, 23). In those days vows were taken too frivolously and too frequently and inevitably involved the populations in difficulties over broken oaths and vows.

In ancient times, as a consequence of taking oaths recklessly, people were compelled to seek a method by which dispensation might be obtained from obligations and responsibilities of oaths assumed by them (Mittarat Nedarim). In this connection the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 549, describes the origin of "Kol Nidre":

"In view of their addiction to making vows it might easily happen that these obligations would be wholly forgotten and either not kept or be violated intentionally . . . religious consciousness . . . devised a general and comprehensive formula of dispensation which was repeated . . . at the beginning of the fast of Atonement."

DESTROYS RESPECT FOR OATHS

In many countries of the world better acquainted with the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer recited on the Day of Atonement by Yiddish congregations, there is still a question regarding the value of oaths taken by members of Yiddish communities. The Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume VII, page 541, cites several instances indicating that this suspicion was first aroused at the time the altered version of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer was adopted in the 12th Century by Yiddish communities:

"As early as 1240 Jehiel was obliged to defend the 'Kol Nidre' against these charges . . . already in 1239 Nikolaus Dounin accused the Jews of annulling their oaths by means of the Kol Nidre. Since that time the sanctity of Jewish oaths . . . has always been questioned."

"Religious freedom" and "anti-Semitism" are the defenses offered for the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Yiddish communities. When the question of loyalty enters into the discussion of this matter, Talmudic rabbis defend Yiddish communities on the grounds of their Constitutional right to worship God according to one's personal beliefs, even though a question of loyalty is involved.

Talmudic rabbis seek to impress upon doubting Christian Americans that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is a harmless religious ritual. They do not go into the basic factors. They refuse doubt and suspicion by reminding Christians that their Saviour was a Jew.

REFORM JUDAISM FIGHTS YIDDISH

There is no basis in Judaism for accepting the "Kol Nidre" prayer as a spiritual ritual, according to spokesmen for Reform congregations. Reform congregations are composed almost entirely of Judaeo Americans whose European origin can invariably be traced back to non-Yiddish western European communities. Reform congregations as a rule consist of Judaeo Americans of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh generations, who deservedly command the respect of their Christian American fellow Americans despite rumors regarding "Kol Nidre."

CRIMINAL ASPECTS OF PRAYER

The fact that the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer is recited in a synagogue can alter neither its character, its purpose, nor its effects. The recitation of the Communist oath to "overthrow the government by force and violence" inside a synagogue is not acceptable as a valid defense against criminal prosecution. "Religious freedom" cannot become a defense for traitors seeking our overthrow.

The Mormon religion permits the practice of polygamy. The laws of this country make polygamy a crime. If Mormons practice polygamy inside their churches, it is still a crime. The mere fact that an act occurs inside a place of worship is no defense for a crime or the recital of prayers like the "Kol Nidre" in synagogues.

Religious beliefs practiced in other areas of the world contain ceremonies of a character which constitute crimes under the laws of this country. Foreigners visiting the United States cannot practice these ceremonies with immunity from criminal prosecution on the grounds of "religious freedom" and "tolerance." When living in a country it is obligatory to abide by the letter and the spirit of the written and the unwritten laws of that land.

Recitation of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer in synagogues on the Day of Atonement constitutes a form of "subornation of perjury." The fact that "subornation of perjury" takes place within the walls of a synagogue does not lessen its hazard as a threat to the nation's security.

REFORM JUDAISM REJECTS PRAYER

The non-Yiddish Reform congregations in the United States and throughout the world have "rejected" their Day of Atonement ceremony of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. Reform congregations have gone on record that (1) THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER HAS NO CONNECTION WITH THE IDEA OF THE DAY OF ATONEMENT, AND (2) THE "KOL NIDRE" PRAYER IS NOT ESSENTIAL TO THE EXISTENCE OF JUDAISM.

In an effort to lessen the suspicions of Christians among whom the Yiddish communities live, Talmudic rabbis have from time to time very slightly varied translations into English of the original Aramaic and Hebrew texts of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. The original Aramaic and Hebrew texts continue, however, as the texts translated elsewhere. It has been retained in the Day of Atonement ceremonies. The English slanted versions have been made for the consumption of doubting Christians. The misleading translations in all English versions of the official Aramaic and Hebrew texts do not alter, in iota the intentions, the purposes or the results effected by the "Kol Nidre" prayer.

VALUE OF LOYALTY OATHS

How many persons holding high government positions participate on each Day of Atonement in the ceremony of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer? Has the Assistant Secretary of Defense, Anna M. Rosenberg, participated in this ceremony each year since her childhood?

CASE OF ANNA M. ROSENBERG

Anna M. Rosenberg was reared in the Yiddish tradition in her homeland, Hungary, in the heart of the Yiddish communities in eastern Europe, since immigrating to the United States her associations have been principally within Yiddish communities until recent years, both in her private and public life, and are largely so today.

The qualifications of Anna M. Rosenberg for the most important position in the Department of Defense in these critical times are questionable if she presides herself each year in her synagogue on the Day of Atonement for the recital of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer. The Senate Armed Services Committee which recently "whitewashed" Anna M. Rosenberg did not touch upon the "Kol Nidre" impact upon her fitness for that high position.

WHAT IS SENATOR LEHMAN'S GAME?

Senator Herbert H. Lehman is not a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee. However, Senator Herbert H. Lehman spent the better part of four days, with evening sessions, in the meetings of the Senate Armed Services Committee which was at that time considering Anna M. Rosenberg's fitness for the position. Didn't Senator Lehman trust the members of the Senate Armed Services Committee? Are they "anti-Semites" too?

Any Senator who dared to touch upon the "Kol Nidre" question at those hearings might just as well then and there have signed his own political death warrant. Senator Lehman injected himself into these hearings before the Senate Armed Services Committee as the "bird-dog" for the undisclosed contacts responsible for Anna M. Rosenberg's mysterious rise to unprecedented power.

ZIONISTS CANNOT BE LOYAL

Since the creation by the United States of a sovereign Zionist state in Palestine, many Christian Americans have raised the question of the "dual allegiance" and "divided loyalty" of Judaeo Americans who are also Zionists. The analysis of the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer by Professor Theodore Sells, senior leading Judaeo American authorities on the subject, indicates the possibility that it may be a question of "no allegiance" and "no loyalty." With very few exceptions Yiddish communities are the source from which political Zionism obtains its support.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" REDS' SECRET WEAPON

"MARXISM" BASIC FOR ALL "MOVEMENTS"

Marxism is the sow and its suckling pigs are called Communism, Bolshevism, Socialism, Fabianism, Liberalism, Progressives, and World Federalists. Newspapers are filled with the name Communism when in fact they should be shouting about Marxism. The same applies to these other Marxist suckling pigs. All are equally evil.

Marxism is fundamental. Marxism is a creed. Marxists establish many organizations to reach all classes in all fields of activity. Marxism is to these organizations what Christianity is to the Christian organizations established to bring Christianity to all people by the quickest and easiest route, the network of Christian denominations.

YIDDISH MARXISTS ANTI-CHRISTIAN LEADERS

Marxism is committed to the destruction of Christianity. Marxists have decreed that the last trace of Christianity is to be destroyed. Marxists plan to leave no trace of Christianity in the world. Marxists plan for world rule do not include the future existence of Christianity.

Marxism and Christianity cannot both exist in the same world at the same time. Newton's law has established that no two objects can occupy the same space at the same time. If Marxism lives, Christianity dies.

There is even less possibility that Marxism and Christianity can occupy the same world at the same time for long, one or the other must go, and quickly too.

Marxists realize that Christianity is the only "road-block" which can prevent their conquest of the world. Marxists are concentrating on the destruction of Christianity at the earliest possible date to facilitate the realization of their program as de-Christianize the world.

"MARXISM" DISGUISE FOR ANTI-CHRIST

Christianity is Enemy No. 1 of Marxism. Christianity is the spearhead of organized opposition to Marxist world rule. Marxists will rule the world very shortly after the fall of Christianity from the leadership from which it contributed so much to world progress for almost 2000 years. Marxism plans to move in as Christianity moves out.

Marxism is not a manifestation of political, social or economic discontent or unrest. Marxists tell the world that Marxism is the index of this unrest and discontent.

But Marxism is something quite different. Marxism is a religion to those who follow it. Marxism is a cult to those who believe in its teachings. Marxism is a fanaticism.

Marxism is a crusade. A thing something entirely opposite. Marxists say one thing and the world believe that. Marxists would like to improve the conditions of the underprivileged. The bait in the trap. That is how they lure millions of discontented fools to join.

FREEDOMS CANNOT BE CAPTURED EVER

By the grace of God this liberty of all our God-given rights, the freedoms and liberties synonymous with human dignity. This nation is today the only road-block against complete world control by the Marxist slanted conspirators in Moscow. They realize this better than we do.

When our God-given rights disappear here for anyone they will disappear for everyone. When the liberties and freedoms synonymous with human dignity disappeared in these other countries they disappeared there for everyone. In the countries which have already fallen under the Marxist steam-roller all God-given rights have ceased to exist. "IT CAN happen here." Those who KNOW say so!

UNTRUTHS CAMOUFLAGED AS REALITIES

"Anti-Semitism" is based upon untruths. "Anti-Semitism" is made a religious issue without any justification. "Anti-Semitism" is fabricated "from stem to stern" out of a tissue of lies. "Anti-Semitism" from start to finish is completely a "state of mind" incited by false propaganda. "Anti-Semitism" is made a political issue solely for the purpose of "stealing" elections which cannot otherwise be won. "Anti-Semitism" is a mental infection intended to poison the thinking of American people. "Anti-Semitism" is eating away the cultural foundations of our national life like a cancer eats away the vital organs of a human being. "Anti-Semitism" exists in name only. "Anti-Semitism" is non-existent outside the "state of mind." "Anti-Semitism" is the foul device of the atheist enemies of humanity who are seeking to destroy this nation and Christianity. "Anti-Semitism" is truly a "living lie."

SMEAR-BUND LEADER OF UNDERGROUND

The war against Marxist world conquest will be half won when Americans learn the truth about the Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund. Unless Americans learn that very soon they may never have the opportunity of fighting and winning another war, the last as free men.

Unless that war is won the American Way of Life is doomed. The American Way of Life may soon suffer the fate of other victims of the Marxist creeping conquest. The Marxists appear to be rolling along smoothly towards the early realization of their conspiracy for world rule.

In every case it has always been a Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund which spearheaded the invisible Marxist underground armies which were responsible for the final overthrow of all the governments which "fell."

It is a fatal mistake for Christian Americans to say, "It cannot happen here." These infamous words are a treason to the trust which God has seemingly now imposed upon this nation. These who said "It lived to regret it."

"ANTI-SEMITISM" BECOMES "SMEAR" WORD

The international Marxist conspirators have created a vile and vicious implication for the word "anti-Semitism" with the powerful propaganda machine and the unlimited funds placed at their disposal. They have "sold" this vile and vicious implication 100% to the American people by the expenditure of countless millions of dollars over a long period of years. They have succeeded far better than their most optimistic expectations anticipated.

The international Marxist conspirators have succeeded in converting the American people to the belief that "anti-Semitism" is a violent hatred by Christians towards persons professing Judaism as their religious faith, towards persons who worship God in synagogues instead of churches and solely for that reason. There is hardly an American today who does not now regard "anti-Semitism" as exactly just that, and nothing else.

Christian Americans collectively challenge the implication that men and women who are both Christians and Americans bear ill-will toward fellow Americans for the reason that they attend synagogues instead of churches for the worship of God and solely for that reason only.

CHRISTIAN AMERICANS BECOME VICTIMS

This vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" is a libel against Christianity and against every Christian American. This vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" accuses Christians of a most un-Christian offense. It accuses Christianity of breeding a violent hatred amongst Christians towards that small, that less than 1% of the world's population which allegedly professes Judaism as its religious faith and solely for that reason.

Christian Americans make it a practice to judge fellow Americans upon the basis of their character and conduct as Americans, upon their attitudes and activities as Christians and an American ignores the conduct and character, ignores the attitudes and activities when judging fellow Americans, and bases consideration upon religious belief instead, an untruth which must not survive.

The Marxist "anti-Semitism" smear-bund are spending countless millions to make the world believe otherwise about Christian Americans. The Marxist international conspirators have created this vile and vicious implication for "anti-Semitism" to insure and hasten "all out" success.

The Marxist international conspirators have developed "anti-Semitism" into a sinister diabolical political weapon. The "anti-Semitism" smear is the device used by the international Marxist conspirators to install and to keep their invisible secret agents in high government positions and in important positions in all sections of our national life. Have you been reading the papers lately?

PRESERVE CONSTITUTION AND CHRISTIANITY

Any ill-will by men and women who are both Christians and Americans towards their fellow Americans is based upon a variety of other reasons. The religious affiliation of an offender is only a matter of coincidence. Christian Americans are interested primarily in protecting and preserving the culture, the customs and the conventions inherent in the American Way of Life. Christian Americans aim to protect and preserve the Constitution and Christianity. That is every American's first duty.

The shadow as well as the substance of the American Way of Life is primarily based upon the principles embodied in Christian civilization. Any form of aggression against these principles quickly brings upon the aggressor condemnation from Christian Americans regardless of the religious affiliation of the aggressor. Christian Americans look upon the offense as something separate and apart from the religious affiliation of the American offender.

SMEAR-BUND TERRORIZES ANTAGONISTS

In order to guarantee success for the OFFENSIVE of Christian Americans against the Marxist conspiracy for world conquest, it is necessary to deprive the international Marxist conspirators of the advantage they now enjoy by the destructive power of their "anti-Semitism" smear.

Christian Americans live in mortal fear of being branded "anti-Semitic." This fear is accelerating the ultimate success of the Marxist plot for world conquest. Christian Americans have learned from experience that it becomes very difficult, very difficult, impossible, to earn a normal livelihood in the United States once they have been smeared "anti-Semitic."

The underground grapevine of the invisible agents of the international Marxist conspirators in this country has infiltrated into the political, economic and social structure of this nation to an extent little understood by the average Christian American. By means of political, social or economic boycotts which they are able to impose they can make it impossible to remain in business and prosper, or to hold their former positions in spite of reliability.

TIME TO THINK IN TERMS OF AN OFFENSIVE

It has been proven time and again, on and off the battlefield that, "the best DEFENSIVE is an OFFENSIVE." American Americans must take the OFFENSIVE if they hope to win the war against Marxist world conquest. It is folly to commence an OFFENSIVE unless provided with weapons which make complete victory a possibility.

Off the battlefield the international Marxist conspirators rely for success exclusively upon their "anti-Semitism" smear-bund. It is their most effective weapon "anti-Semitism" has fully demonstrated its deadly destructive power. In the "cold war" they need no other device until the "cold war" reaches the "hot war" stage. Only a "cold war" victory can prevent the "hot war."

The conspiracy for world conquest first, last, and always is constantly working to erase from the face of this earth every trace of Christianity. They have already succeeded in accomplishing this result in one half the world. One half the world today is being taught that Christianity is a menace to the progress of mankind.

The international Marxist conspirators label resistance to their creeping conquest as "anti-Semitism." They represent themselves to Christian Americans as "Semites." They represent that the "Semites" are the "Chosen People." They represent to Christian Americans that "anti-Semitism" is Christian malice towards "Jews," as they call themselves and invite others to call them.

SAVIOUR MALICIOUSLY CALLED "JEW"

They represent that they are "Jews" and that the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was a "Jew" and a member of their "race." But these are all untruths as the facts which follow will disclose. The international Marxist conspirators have hypnotized Christian Americans into believing that these untruths are actually the "Gospel" truth.

Linking up the Saviour as a "Jew" with the Judaeo population of the world vests in "Jews" a tremendous power over Christian Americans. That power is too obvious to require explanation. Christian Americans are constantly "reminded" from pulpits of the 100,000 churches to attend to be kind to "Jews" because "Jews" gave the Saviour to the world. These statements from the pulpit give "official approval" to all who hear as well as to numberless "reminders" from endless other sources that the Saviour was a "Jew" and a member of that "race."

Christian Americans have been taught since their Sunday School days that "Semites" were God's "Chosen

REMEMBER Zionists have 100% control of our Department of Immigration, at home and abroad. Passports are issued to those whom Zionists wish to enter country. That is made a prerequisite to entering this country. No anti-Zionist has been known to have entered this country in many years although millions of them exist in Europe and have wanted to come to this country since 1939. An ex-immigration Department man who was taken out of the department in 1953 and has been a stooge for the Zionists since then was made the first American ambassador to phony "Israel." Soviet Union sent into U.S.A. thousands of secret agents as DP's. They were sent into DP camps and then with collusion by department agents brought into U.S.A. with Eleanor Roosevelt's big help.

REMEMBER the Catholic Church investigated and found out that it was General Curtis LeMay, a Zionist, who selected the Japanese cities upon which to drop the first A-bombs. He selected Hiroshima and Nagasaki, aiming for military objectives. BECAUSE THEY WERE THE TWO CITIES IN WHICH CHRISTIANITY FIRST STARTED IN THE ORIENT. Zionist General LeMay now is in charge of our entire air-force, and Truman recommended this month that General LeMay be "raised" to a Four Star General. Wake up, Christians, LAST STOP!

REMEMBER CIO is a Zionist tool. Lee Pressman was its CHIEF counsel for many years WHILE HE WAS A MEMBER OF A COMMUNIST CELL OPERATING IN WASHINGTON, as testified under oath before a Congressional committee. Lee Pressman never denied it or took steps to compel retraction. CIO was guided through all important developments by Communist (?) She will become the mistress of all manpower, from the womb to the tomb, by her "police state" legislation. Under this phony "military training bill" Anna M. Rosenberg would have the power to indict for 5 years every person in the U.S.A. into a nondescript army (!) which could be sent to any place in the world to do any kind of manual labor there, unchained chain-gangs. A husband could be sent to Alaska and his wife to the heart of darkest Africa, under the terms in that bill misrepresented to the Senate who then voted 78 to 2 for it. Accused Congressmen killed it, thank God. WATCH FOR PHONY "MILITARY TRAINING BILL." Anna M. Rosenberg, Assistant Secretary of Defense, U.S.A.

REMEMBER the Sorge spy case will never be told in full. Sorge was a German communist who fooled Hitler into letting him represent Germany in Japan during the war years. Japan paid attention to Sorge, yet Hitler's true agent, Japan was preparing to attack the Soviet Union in Asia while Hitler attacked them in Europe. Had Japan done this the Soviet Union would have gone out like a candle. But Sorge was at all times an agent for the Soviet Union, a dyed-in-the-wool 100% Marxist. Sorge influenced Japan NOT to attack the Soviet Union in Asia but to attack in A. the U.S.A., the Pacific and England in Southeast Asia. Japan followed Sorge's advice. That is what brought us into the war. MEMBERS OF OUR GOVERNMENT WERE FRIENDLY WITH SORGE AND AIDED HIM IN PULLING US INTO WAR.

REMEMBER Judith Coplon was a Yiddish Marxist installed in a high government position to pass on to her Yiddish Marxist CO-CONSPIRATORS in Moscow the secrets which could make us a "biting duck" for the Soviet Union when she chose to start a war. Who put her there? Who kept her there when staffs were reduced? Who is paying for her defense? AND how many more "Judith Coplons" are there in strategic spots to this very day? WAKE UP, YOU PATRIOTS, BEFORE COUNTLESS SONS, BROTHERS, AND HUSBANDS PERISH!

REMEMBER to the United States the murder of one man will send him to the electric chair. TREASON MAY MEAN THE LOSS OF MILLIONS OF LIVES. Zionist judges allowed the convicted communists to go free under $10,000 bail. Many of them skipped their bail. Gerhard Eisler, Klaus Fuchs, Julius Rosenberg and others are illustrations how these traitors may bring death to tens of millions when the A-bombs begin to fall all over the U.S.A. Yet the men who organized these traitors and made it possible for them to operate are allowed to go free under small bail so that they can organize more Eislers, Fuchs, and Rosenbergs. There would not be one spy at work in the United States if the top agents of the Soviet Union were effectively restrained, not encouraged to continue their operations by setting them free under bail which they skip whenever it pleases them to do so.

REMEMBER Benjamin Bultenweiser, a Zionist, partner in Kuhn Loeb & Co., was the Zionist in Berlin calling the shots for McClary and General Clay in Germany. Bultenweiser was interested in keeping Germany weak (AGAINST THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES WHICH SHOULD WANT A STRONG GERMANY TO ACT AS A BUFFER AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION'S PRESSURE TO THE WEST.) The Germans wanted no part of the United States at any price if Germany was to be under the control of a Zionist. Bultenweiser's wife turned her home over to Alger Hiss and his wife during their stay in New York for their treason trial, and made a contribution to the fund with which to pay the lawyers. (In addition to Mrs. Bultenweiser who is a lawyer and related to Senator Lehman.) We let Russia rearm East Germans and we refuse to rearm West Germans to offer real resistance to Europe's conquest.

REMEMBER three of the five Atomic Energy Commission were Zionists, Lilienthal, Strauss, and Bacher. Lilienthal only RESIGNED (?) as Chairman 12 days after the arrest of Klaus Fuchs, protégé of Professor Albert Einstein, who gave our atom bomb secrets to the Soviet Union. They will be dropped on us any day now, thanks to the "kindness" shown to Klaus Fuchs by Professor Albert Einstein. When Congressmen threatened EXPOSURE Lilienthal RESIGNED (took a powder). During the critical years (1945-1949) the Zionist controlled Atomic Energy Commission delayed U.S. development on the H-bomb (hydrogen) and the cosmic ray bomb while other Zionists, having easy access to all our data, gave the secrets for production of atom bombs, and samples of the materials, to our enemy.

REMEMBER Rothschilds made their great fortune by forging and dishonestly reporting a Napoleon victory at Waterloo — meanwhile buying from the English their securities for one to three cents on the dollar. A week later the truth of the Wellington victory reached England and the Rothschilds sold a small percentage of their total purchases at a tremendous profit retaining control of England's financial structure FREE OF COST. By another conspiracy Germans and Austrians were pauperized after World War I by Yiddish profiteers from Russia and Poland who bought securities and properties with small cash payments and large mortgages which became worthless by their planned inflation of the German mark. Proof exists of the conspiracy by Zionists to deliberately destroy the British Empire, which today is 98% accomplished.

REMEMBER in the U. S. there is now another conspiracy — a plan through confusion and inflation to rob Americans not only of their material assets — but their right given freedom and their Bill of Rights. To top it off they plan destroying the American Christian way of life. Defense Department under sinister Anna M. Rosenberg recently ordered removal of the Cross of Christ from the graves of soldiers. See Congressional Record, page 6275, for protest of Senator Langer. WAKE UP, CHRISTIAN AMERICANS! DON'T BE CAUGHT NAPPING NOW!

REMEMBER expose the Zionists! HELP DEFEAT THEIR SINISTER UN-AMERICAN AND ANTI-CHRISTIAN PLANS! U.S. NEEDS A GREAT SPIRITUAL REVIVAL. CHRIST IS THE ANSWER TO OUR EVERY NEED! WHAT SACRIFICES ARE YOU MAKING TO HELP?

REMEMBER Edmund Burke said, "The ONLY thing necessary for the triumph of EVIL is that good people do nothing." Lip service and hesitancy to make material and personal sacrifices insures victory for the sinister forces at work for centuries to obtain control of the world.

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES AID ANTI-CHRIST

The ordained of every Christian denomination are taught and they should teach the truth about their Saviour. They know that the Lord Jesus Christ was not a "Jew" in any of the "secondary" meanings given to the word "Jew" in the last two centuries by Yiddish propagandists. They must always remember John VIII, 32: "Know ye the truth and the truth shall make you free."

These anti-Christ atheists all call themselves "Jews." Marxists are anti-Christ atheists. A short study of their fundamental beliefs and objectives will convince the most skeptical of this fact. Marxists do not deny it when charged with it. They cannot. They are damned by the words spoken by them publicly on the subject.

These anti-Christ Marxist atheists protest to the Christian Americans that they are "Jews" and devout followers of "Judaism." They appear before the Christian world wearing "Judaism," a shining suit of armor.

That shining suit of armor, "Judaism," dazzles Christians with their Saviour. That shining suit of armor, "Judaism," also provides the anti-Christ atheists with an outer covering which Christians cannot penetrate. They cannot "X-ray" armorplate to read their evil minds.

"CHOSEN PEOPLE" MYTH CHRISTIAN TRAP

Christian Americans have had dined into their ears since their Sunday School days the fabulous fiction that "Jews," as they describe themselves, are God's "Chosen People." The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators leaves no stone unturned to infect the minds of Christian Americans with the untruth that "Jews," as they insistently depict themselves, actually are God's "Chosen People" and God's real favorites.

The fabulous fable that the ancestors of the Judaized Khazars migrated from Palestine to eastern Europe is the greatest hoax ever inflicted upon the credulous Christian world. The belief in that fabulous fable by Christian Americans was utilized by "Jews," as they ask to be called, to conscript the power and the prestige of the United States for the fraudulent "reparation" of the counterfeit "Chosen People" to their embezzled "Promised Land." The Administration betrayed the American!

They claim to have been temporarily dispossessed from Palestine and scattered around the world by the same God who promised to give them back Palestine someday as their "Promised Land," presuming that Palestine had been their "homeland." They appear to have been delayed 2000 years in eastern Europe en route back.

"SECONDARY" MEANINGS FOR WORDS CREATED

The United States Supreme Court recognizes the existence of "secondary" meanings for words. The highest courts in the country today base their decisions upon recognition of the fact that "secondary" meanings have been given to many dictionary words which bear no relationship to their original meaning. Litigation over the use of dictionary words as trade-marks has won recognition for the preeminence of the "secondary" meaning over the original and correct meanings for words.

By the expenditure of huge sums of money for advertising "secondary" meanings are created for words. The expenditure of countless millions for many years has created "secondary" meanings for such dictionary words as "camel" and "ivory." Reference today to a "camel" is regarded as reference to a brand of cigarettes. Reference today to "ivory" is regarded as reference to a brand of soap. A request for a "camel" is not intended as a request for an animal by that name. A request for "ivory" is not intended as a request for the tusks of an elephant.

"ANTI-SEMITISM" GETS SECONDARY MEANING

A "secondary" meaning has been created for "anti-Semitism" by the concealed expenditure of enormous sums for publicity. Direct and indirect control of all the mediums for influencing public thinking are available for this purpose to the international Marxist conspirators, including the pulpits of approximately 100,000 churches.

"Anti-Semitism" today means a violent hatred by persons professing Christianity as their religious faith toward persons professing Judaism as their religious faith solely for that reason. There is hardly a person in the world who does not regard "anti-Semitism" as meaning just that, and nothing else. The "secondary" meaning created for "anti-Semitism" has been a greater success "scheme" and "hoax" than to create a "secondary" meaning for a word in all the history of this art.

"Anti-Semitism" has been given a "secondary" meaning in modern history by the expenditure of countless millions by the international Marxist conspirators. They have been eminently successful in this respect. The original meaning has been totally eclipsed by their efforts to establish the "secondary" meaning as the generally accepted and the only meaning today for "anti-Semitism."

SECONDARY MEANING FOR "ANTI-SEMITISM"

According to its correct meaning "anti-Semitism" indicates a dislike for the CULTURE of the "Semitic" population which consisted 95% of "Semites" who had embraced either Christianity or Mohammedanism and 5% of "Semites" who had embraced a form of religious worship which is today referred to incorrectly as "Judaism."

HISTORY EXPLODES "SEMITE" MYTH

The "Semite" peoples are assumed to have been the descendants of Shem, one of the sons of Noah. "Sem" is the Latin and Greek equivalent for "Shem." Thus the "Semites" of the Old Testament have become the "Semites" of modern history. For the same reasons the "Semitic" languages have become the "Semitic" languages of modern history, and known as such only since 1781.

From all the evidences which have been discovered by leading authorities it is now certain that the "Semites" were the inhabitants described in the ancient histories of Arabia, Syria, Palestine, Egypt, Mesopotamia, Abyssinia and the extensive areas adjacent to these territories.

SEMITIC "RACE" DELIBERATE UNTRUTH

The "Semites" are known to have included the numerous racial groups inhabiting the geographic area generally referred to as Asia Minor and the territories adjacent to Asia Minor. The leading anthropologists unanimously assert that there never was a "Semite" RACE in all the recorded history of mankind.

The leading anthropologists submit abundant evidence to support their unanimous conclusion that the many "Semite" nations were composed of segments of the numerous racial groups known to inhabit that area at that time. Reference in modern history to this mixed racial population by the term "Semite" is not evidence that the term "Semite" ever CORRECTLY described a RACE.

It is also the unanimous conclusion of the leading authorities on the subject that at no time in history has there ever existed a "Semite" RELIGIOUS BELIEF.

JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA REVEALS TRUTH

The Jewish Encyclopedia, Vol. XI, dispels any doubt on this question in the minds of Christian Americans. The Jewish Encyclopedia defines "Semites" as a regional group composed of many races, thus: "Semites (originally Shemites): term used in a general way to designate those people who are said in Gen. X, 21-39 to be the descendants of the patriarch Shem . . . includes the North-Arabians, South-Arabians (Minaeans, Sabaeans, etc.), the Abyssinians, Babylonians, Assyrians, Aramaeans (consisting of many widely scattered tribes extending from the Persian Gulf to Lebanon and the Hauran), the Phoenicians, Canaanites, and Hebrews, together with the kindred of the last named, the Moabites and the Edomites."

There is no authority better qualified to speak on the subject of "Semites" than Professor Allen H. Godbey, Professor of Old Testament at Duke University. Professor Godbey accumulated his knowledge of the history of the "Semites" during the sixty years he devoted to this subject, a more intensive study of this subject than any other authority, and recognized as the outstanding authority.

In the most important work of reference on this subject, his "The Lost Tribes Myth; Suggestions Towards

People. Masquerading as "Semites" the international Marxist conspirators have been able to prevent the suspicion of Christian Americans from interfering with their plans for world conquest and the end of Christianity.

YIDDISH MISREPRESENT SAVIOUR AS "JEW"

The great advantage obtained by calling themselves "Jews" and members of a "race" by that name, is obvious. The propaganda machine of the international Marxist conspirators uses no opportunity to "remind" Christian Americans that their Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was also a "Jew," and a member of their "race." They use countless mediums of publicity to impress this fraudulent distortion of a historic fact upon Christian Americans.

Christian Americans have walked into a trap. It may well be a booby-trap. It has not gone off—yet. But it may go off—soon, much sooner than anyone expects. Christian Americans must have their eyes open. It is urgent that they see the danger which threatens them. If they do not, they may soon see the trap snap shut.

The trap is a double-acting trap. It has two actions. The first is, the Yiddish method of referring to themselves as "Jews." The second is, the emphasis given to the fiction that the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ, was a "Jew."
